

Medicos Are Indicted By Grand Jurors

American Medical Society, 3 Locals, 21 Doctors Named For Restraining Trade

Many Prominent Physicians Named

Association Charged With Preventing Medical Service

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—The American Medical Association, three local medical societies and 21 individual physicians were indicted today by a federal grand jury for violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

The societies named were the Medical Society of the District of Columbia, the Florida State (Tex.) Medical Society and the Washington (D. C.) Academy of Surgery.

Among the 21 physicians indicted were Dr. John West, secretary of the American Medical Association; Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the American Medical Association's journal; Dr. Arthur C. Christian, prominent Washington radiologist; and Dr. Prentiss Willson, who recently co-operated in filing a suit against the Washington Health Association, charging that the group health physicians had injured his practice in furnishing medical service through the association.

Others indicted are officials of the American Medical Association or its affiliated societies.

The Department of Justice instituted proceedings against the association last October, charging that it was acting in restraint of trade, in violation of the Anti-Trust Act. Specifically it charged that the association, some local societies and individual physicians were preventing other physicians from supplying medical services by refusing membership in medical societies to individual physicians who joined such groups.

Jaycee Treasure Hunt Will Be Held Tonight

Tonight, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, Semco's first grand treasure hunt will be staged in the downtown shopping district under the direction of the Jaycee Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber officials declared that from the scores of people already registered and the enthusiasm that is evident, the success of the Junior Trade Body's efforts to raise Christmas funds for needy people is assured.

Any person 16 years of age or older may still register for the event throughout today in line with cooperating merchants at the Jaycee's headquarters between the Hollywood 2300 and 2400, or at the First Street headquarters.

At no point of the hunt will the participant be required to make any purchase in order to win one of the prizes. The clues are such that speed alone will not make a winner.

Chamber officials declared that every participating should have a good time and many are going to win attractive prizes.

Elks officials in charge of the dance stated that an elaborate floor show has been arranged with several local entertainers taking part. John Whiddon, Orlando singer, will render several vocal selections, also Miss Marian Hayes and Dick Allen of this city. Miss Doris Jackson of this city, will entertain with tap-dancing.

Court Upholds Mayo In Citrus Seizures

LAKELAND, Dec. 20. —Circuit Judge H. C. Petteway late yesterday upheld Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo in the seizure of fruit by the inspection department because of alleged presence of more arsenic than allowed under tolerance fixed by the department.

Judge Petteway, in an informal order, denied the injunction sought by Norman H. Vissering, owner of 20 boxes of oranges seized by inspectors at Seven Oaks Packing company plant at Lake Wales.

Judge Petteway said there was not sufficient evidence to grant an injunction. He said the formal opinion and order would be written later.

STANDS A CHILL DECEMBER

The screech owl yawned, hanging disease the hour,
The blaze you kindled, guttered an ember Turning to ashes, knocking with showers,
Upon the threshold stands a chill December.
The years like wewolves battle with a cry,
Their claws drip slaver and their eyes dart fire, Poor life, a rabbit, as the chase draws nigh Droops shrinking in his fur, he neath a briar, Lay down your volume, shuffle up the slair
In tattered slippers, get you off to bed;
Fall on a nightcap over your white hair, Draw close the curtains, dream that you are dead
And pillowed in a churchyard, wondering,
To bloom a violet some happy Spring.
—HEULAH MAY.

This may not be the right before Christmas but it is the best before Christmas.

The way some people have been driving lately, especially on the road to Orlando, even when there is a fog so thick you could cut it with a knife, you'd think they didn't care at all whether they lived to collect their old age pensions or not.

Secretary takes objects to Col.
Lindbergh's acceptance of a decoration from the hands of Adolf Hitler. If Col. Lindbergh had kicked him in the face, as many of us would probably wish, he would have been sent to a concentration camp, or faced a firing squad.

Clinton Allen, former Sanford banker, now head of one of Orlando's most prosperous institutions, visiting in Sanford Monday, says Sanford as a city of great opportunities for those who wish to take advantage of them. The vegetable market, including celery, is looking up, he says, and the outlook for the future generally is much improved.
Mr. Allen says business is good in Orlando.

Isn't it funny? Many a man thinks that if he could just make $25 a week, he'd be perfectly satisfied. But when he gets to making $25, he wants $50. And when he gets to making $50, he wants more and more, until some of them, not all fortunately, but some of them, do foolish things like F. Donald Coster of McKee-ton and Robbins, Inc. in order to make more money than he could ever possibly spend in his own lifetime.

The California Medical Association has approved a system of socialized medicine which will bring every resident of the state month, guarantees each a proper care when sick or disabled. These people, healthy people, to never have found it necessary to call a physician in order to get their lives saved. In the past year for services they have no use of, or cannot pay for, or cannot pay for.

Tax-Dodgers

Pointing out that a large contributing factor in Florida's present high level of taxation is the failure of a large number of persons to pay the taxes which are assessed against them, and the unwillingness of public officials to enforce the collection of such taxes, with the resulting consequent raising of the taxes of others who do pay, Robert L. Newman, secretary of the Florida Taxpayers Association, declares that nearly 17 million acres in Florida are now off the tax rolls and paying no taxes whatever.

"The tax dodgers and tax shifters haven't been paying their share of School and Governmental costs", Mr.
Newman declares, "so taxpayers' burdens, for instance, have increased in Hillsborough County 34 percent, in Lee County 77 percent, in Marion 45 percent, in Pinellas 36 percent, in Polk 28 percent, in Dade 23 percent, in Orange 26 percent, and in Sarasota 55 percent, just to name a few increases shown in State Comptroller Lee's records."

"Now it is being proposed in some quarters", the Secretary continues, "that all taxes be completely shifted to small salaried men and wage earners through a general sales tax, the poor man's income tax—while the rich man's income is prohibited from taxation by the State constitution. We are unalterably opposed to this inus-tice."

"The sales tax has been thoroughly discredited in most states and in no state has any sales, transaction or similar tax been substituted for all other levies, because it won't raise enough revenue and it makes visitors and residents intensely annoyed with its silly tokens, and 'in cup tax collectors."

"With tax dodgers so favored and tax shifters so thoroughly organized in 67 different groups, it is little wonder that the unorganized taxpayer is being made the goat—it is wonder that we have short school terms, unpaid teachers, empty treasuries in State, County, City and School funds."

"The only revision needed in the State tax system is the establishment of fair and uniform assessments, full and firm collection of all just taxes, and the practice of economy and efficiency in State, county, and municipal governments. That will reduce all taxes 40 percent and we will welcome the aid of all who want that result," Mr. Newman concludes.

Super-Abundance

A subscriber sends us a clipping headed, "Hurrah for the More Abundant Life." It is not only amusing, but the argument is unanswerable. Here it is:

"Once upon a time, there was a farmer who, sold two chickens. With the proceeds he bought two shirts.
So the farmer had two shirts and a city man had two chickens.

"Then came along the New Deal, and told the farmer he should get more money for his chickens by making them scarcer. * * * he must not raise so many and then he would get more income. The New Deal also told the working man in the city that he must work fewer hours and get more money for making fewer shirts. That, of course, caused shirts to cost more.

"Then the farmer brought one chicken to market. He got as much for it as he had previously gotten for two chickens—He felt fine. He went to buy linen shirts, but he found that shirts had also doubled in price. So he got one shirt." Now the farmer has one shirt and the city man has one chicken, whereas without the New Deal, the farmer could have had two shirts and the city man could have had two chickens.

"This, boys and girls, is called 'the more abundant life.'"—The American Eagle (Ester)."

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN
By JOE HENDRICKS

PEACE ON EARTH — "Peace on earth, good will toward men," a Christmas-day approach, I find myself wishing that there could be food, clothes, warmth, good cheer and a truly Christmas spirit in every humble home in the world. I am constrained to do more to make others happy when I can't my blessing, health, happiness and the privilege of living in a country where people turn their eyes toward Bethlehem on Christmas day. I wish each of my constituents a merry merry Christmas and for the world "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT — Read the following letter addressed to me from one of my constituents in Shanghai, China. He speaks from the ring-side. "Dear Congressman: For the past sixteen months you have been hearing about the invasion of China. I am confident that your sympathies must be with China. Today a numerous issue of right and wrong confronts the people of America.
Shall we continue to be partners with Japan in her unjustifiable invasion of Chinese soil or shall we refuse her to supply Japan with the materials of War? We would not be accomplices in an international crime? Why should American iron, steel, oil, copper, chemicals, aircraft and motor trucks be used to destroy and kill China.

The United States Government is being forced to spend billions for the construction and maintenance of a big Navy because of the menace in the Pacific. It is able to pretend that our huge naval construction program is being pushed because of threats from European Navies. The threat comes from Japan. Yet we are not only arming Japan for her aggression in China but also supplying her a large share of materials for her naval construction program.

The irony of it! We prepare to defend ourselves against those whose sinews of strength for expansion come from our own industries.

For those who seek peace the issue is clear-cut. Japan could not continue her invasion of China another six months or consist as a potential menace to the security of other nations without equipment, or other materials from the United States.

The facts should be known to every man and woman in the United States. If they consider deeply stirred, they will act and they will see that their Government acts. If the American people become fully aware of the part they are taking in the deliberate and frightful bombing of helpless civilians in China, they will attempt to subject a great people, and the ambitious expansion of a military power there is little doubt that they will say or do something which will "count us out." Americans will not give aid and encouragement to the aggression, actual and potential.

Say It In French' To Play At Ritz Tonight

"Magnifique."
That's one way of saying in French what "Say It In French," which opens at the Ritz Theatre tonight. It's a play by Jacques Deval and Jacques Deval and Jacques Deval, teamed together for the first time have as their vehicle a sparkling comedy-romance which brings out the unusual qualities in both stars. And there is plenty to bring out!

"Say It In French" based on a play by Jacques Deval, author of "Evarich," tells a romantic and hilarious story of a young French bride who takes a job as maid in the home of her unexpecting in-laws while her American playboy husband becomes engaged to a maid's heiress in order to save his father's toppling fortune.

Such a story gives plenty of opportunity for pungent situations, and the Deval plot maker uses of them! Among the brilliant of the discovery of Milland in the "maid's" room early one morning, his good natured fiancée's efforts to help him out of his fix, and finally the consternation in the household when it becomes apparent that the "maid" is planning to have a baby.

One of the chief charms of "Say It In French" in addition to a talented supporting cast headed by Mary Carlisle, Irene Morrey and Janet Beecher, is the candid view it presents of New York's smartest and most exclusive set. The picture explores the gayest and most interesting haunts of Manhattan society: the Park Avenue apartments, the Rainbow Room, the roof of the Waldorf-Astoria and the French Line pier. It is a light-hearted view of the smart set at its most light-hearted.

Besides being one of the smartest comedies to reach the screen in many a season "Say It In French" is notable in that it features Miss Bruders with an ideal vehicle. As the witty, good-natured, but hard-headed French wife, she shows the vivacity and charm which bear out the critics who predicted such a brilliant future for her. Milland, as the suave and sophisticated American is the perfect partner for her.

Something For The 'American Way'

Everybody has two cents worth to offer about the way to combat foreign "isms" in America.
Finally the two cents worth is laid on the counter and promptly forgotten.
Things are working out differently in Manitowish, Wis.
There someone decided that the way to overcome un-American ideas is to promote American ideas. The townspeople got behind the idea, and the result may prove one of the most significant better-citizenship movements in modern American history.

It started simply enough. Dr.
R. J. Colbert of the University of Wisconsin suggested to a local adult class of municipal administration that a Citizenship Day might well be held. A committee was appointed to look into it. It drew up a sensible and appealing plan.

Under this plan, next May 21 will be celebrated in Manitowish as Citizenship Day. On that day all of the young people who have just reached the age of 21—there are about 1200 of them—will be formally welcomed to their new status as full-fledged voting citizens; and the occasion will be used by the rest of the people of Manitowish to reaffirm their own faith in American and American democracy.

But Citizenship Day will only be the climax of a continuing campaign. The young people of Manitowish county who have reached 21 by next May are being organized in each of the county's voting precincts. In these precincts, each of the youngsters will hold at least three mass meetings, at which they will be addressed by volunteer private and public officials. They will hold mass group discussions to discuss both the philosophy of democracy and the practical workings of it in ward, city, county, state and national politics.

So by the time Citizenship Day rolls around, the 1200 youngsters will have a pretty thorough grounding in what the American form of government means, both in theory and in practice. They will understand what democracy is all about, precisely they will have seen enough of its workaday mechanicism to begin their careers as adult citizens with their eyes wide open. Familiar with its ideals, they will also be familiar with its necessities—and so will escape the disillusionment that settles on so many citizens once they realize that politicians are not really knights on white chargers after all.

All of which adds up to a first-rate idea—one which, judging by the inquiries from the Manitowish people have received, is going to be widely copied in other cities, and which fully deserves to be copied.

Sanford Girls Are Presented At Ball

In a formal program of ball dance and fashion 160 young girls of Central Florida society were presented to Miss Virginia Ware of Leesburg, first lady, and Samuel Yulee Way, first man, at the initial ball of the Apollo Club of Orlando, which was held last evening in the Orlando Municipal Auditorium.

Miss Ware is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Ware of Leesburg. She was beautifully gowned in a royal model of gown 'fame' with a deep velvet train. She wore a rhinestone tiara on her hair. Mr. Way is mayor of Orlando and president of the Apollo Club.

The charm of the presentation was the simplicity and dignity of the scene. As Lohan Jones and his famed orchestra played off by the sweet tones of "Home and Circumstance" the girls walked up a blue velvet carpet and made their courtesy bows to the throngs which were set on the central rug mounted on a pedestal on the stage. Introductions were made by George Fuller of Rollins College.

As the last girl was presented the first man and the first lady left the thrones, escorted by the eight man guard of honor, and led the Grand March. The entire audience rose and applauded as they walked down the velvet carpet. Following the march the debutante group danced to a Viennese waltz.

Honorees were formally crowned in white, wearing lovely coronas or carrying, and fashioned nosegays. Debutantes from Sanford making their bow were: Miss Caroline Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill; Miss Joyce Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hunt; Miss Elizabeth Jeffers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jeffers; Miss Virginia Meriwether, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meriwether; Miss Nancy Rossetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Rossetter; Miss Lucy Roumillat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Roumillat; Miss Jane Sharon, daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. G. Sharon; Miss Martha Telford, daughter of L. M. Telford; Miss Kathryn Thigpen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen; Miss Dorothy Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Wiggins; Miss Susan Wight, daughter of Mrs. Fred Wight.

Escorting the Sanford girls at the presentation were: Francis Roumillat, Reece McLane of Gainesville, Richard Ives, Clyde Hunt, Braxton Huntley, James Bradford, Braxton Perkins, Donald Bishop, George Moore, Kaylyle Hoasholder and Ralph Tolson.

Following the two exclusive debutante waltzes a general dance was held from 10:00 until 2:00 o'clock.

Fall Produce Sales Total $120,000 At State Farmers Mart

Michael Hopes For A Million Dollar Gross Produce Business This Year

Volume Increased Over Last Year

Commodity Prices Are Generally In Line With Last Seasons

With the volume of produce handled greatly in excess of last year, Manager J. G. Michael of the Sanford State Farmers Wholesale Market here reported today that sales from the platform so far this season have reached a total of more than $120,000 and forecast a million dollar gross business this year if the present volume of patronage continues and price levels do not fall too low.

The extra packing house installed at the market has more than doubled its sales for this year and has moved the fruit at prices well in line with those received for citrus at terminal markets. This however, is far from 60 cents below the price levels for citrus a year ago.

So far this season buyers have taken the lead in the volume movement for vegetables. Manager Michael reported that 38,208 wheels of lemons have been handled already this season as compared with 35,000 last year.

Negro Dies After Being Hit By Car West Of Sanford

E. G. "Preacher" Gray, local negro, died in the Fernald Loughton Memorial Hospital early this morning from injuries received when he was run over by Ralph Monger of this city about two miles west of Sanford on the Lemnole Boulevard shortly after midnight last night, it was learned at the Sheriff's office this morning.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Williams stated that the negro, who had a wooden leg, was evidently walking on the hard surface of the highway and quoted Mr. Monger as stating that he did not see the negro because of lights on an oncoming truck. Both Mr. Monger and the negro were going west on the highway.

Gray was said to be leaving town and had in his possession a suitcase full of clothing which were identified this morning as property of another negro who befriended him.

A coroner's jury met to view the body this morning but adjourned until 3:00 o'clock this afternoon at which time the inquest will be complete. Justice of Peace J. C. Roberts was the investigating coroner.

Final Appeal For Contributions To Needy Fund Made

Total Is Only $35.85 Short Of Goal Set By Salvation Army

A final, urgent plea for support of the Salvation Army's Empty Stocking fund came today from the Salvation Army headquarters where final arrangements are being made for preparing a large number of Christmas baskets for needy in Sanford and Seminole county, to be passed out on Christmas Eve.

Only $35.85 out of the $500 goal estimated as needed to care for the County's needy families at the beginning of the drive, Capt. R. E. Rose, commanding officer of the station today urged support of the more fortunate residents of the county in raising the amount needed to reach the goal.

Numerous requests for supplementary assistance during the holiday season have been received during the past few weeks by Salvation Army officials and Capt. Rose stated that the full $500 and more will be needed to spread Christmas cheer into these homes. Capt. Rose further pointed out that all cases are thoroughly investigated and that there will be no duplication of Christmas baskets this year because of the splendid co-operation of other organizations sponsoring similar Christmas programs for needy.
