NEW YORK SURRENDERS TO AMERICAN LEGION

Without an argument, New York surrendered to the American Legion as an estimated 300,000 former soldier boys gathered in Gotham for their 19th—and greatest—convention. This picture shows what happened to Times Square when the doughboys of 1918 started shoving, marching, pushing in and out of traffic, ridding the ir necks under taxi wheels and "painting the town red." Note one Legionnaire who sat down on the street car tracks, tying up traffic.

Baseball Club Ends Season With Surplus

Henry Watson Hands Report To City Commission Showing Results Of Season

Nearly 40,000 Attend Games

Gate Receipts Aggregate $13,023.80 In 75 Baseball Games

For the first time in the history of Sanford baseball, the Sanford Baseball Association and the Sanford Lookouts were operated on a sound paying basis, according to a financial report submitted to the City Commission by Henry M. Watson, president of the local ball club, at the regular weekly meeting of the Commissioners last night.

Mr. Watson, in submitting the statement, thanked the city fathers for their co-operation with the Association during the season and especially for the aid rendered in the installation of the lighting system for the playing of night baseball which he said to have brought the Lookouts out of the red by enlarging the attendance.

During the 1937 season a total of nearly 40,000 people saw the Sanford Lookouts play a complete number of 75 home ball games which sent the gate receipts soaring to $13,023.80. During the regular playing season, $10,000.00 was taken in from the gate; during the DeLand series, $2,710.10; and during the Gainesville series, $3,313.60. In the DeLand and Gainesville series the gate receipts were split between the two ball clubs.

Rev. Root Advises Students Succeed If They Try Hard

Success is the reward of those who attend to details and always strive to do their best. The Rev. J. B. Root, pastor of the Congregational Church here, told the students of the Sanford Junior High School in their opening assembly program in the school auditorium this morning.

To bring out his point the Rev. Root told the story of the English explorer sent into the wilds of Africa in search of David Livingstone, and how he crossed the African continent only through attending to even the smallest details and always doing his best. He told the students that they too might reach success in their explorations of the fields of knowledge if they always followed the example set forth by this explorer.

T. W. Lawton, county superintendent, spoke on a similar subject at the opening exercises and told the boys and girls that "some boys who don't have a cent were worth a million and some who had millions weren't worth a cent."

He pointed out that their value was not a matter of dollars and cents but what they could accomplish and in order to accomplish that goal it was necessary to do a thing just right and not just about right, adding that if they expected a successful school year the students must do their work just right and not about right.

Mr. J. L. Ingley, president of the Parent Teachers Association, addressed the assembly and urged parents to co-operate more with the PTA during the coming year than ever before.

Mr. W. L. Morgan, secretary of the school trustees gave a short address to the students who thanked him for the recently completed school which was built by the Sanford Electric Company of Sanford, Fla., in a two day session in commercial lighting at Sanford, Fla. under the direction of the Extension Division of the University of Florida.

Three Brothers Charged With Denhardt's Murder

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Three brothers of comely Mrs. Verna Garr Taylor were charged today with the murder of Brigadier-General Henry H. Denhardt after venal bullets had taken forever from the jury the question of whether the portly 61-year-old veteran of three wars had killed his 40-year-old fiancée.

The bald former Kentucky lieutenant governor and adjutant general was to have gone on trial for the second time today at nearby New Castle, charged with her slaying. His first trial last April ended with the jury's report that it was deadlocked at seven to five for acquittal.

With the case wiped off the court's records, Kentucky law that brought the General to justice moved against the pretty LaGrange, Ky., widow's brothers, Roy, Jack and Dr. E. S. Garr, who awaited the progress of law quietly in the Shelby county jail here on charges they killed the General last night.

Denhardt fell before a fusillade of shots fired by three assailants. Dr. A. C. Weakley said Denhardt was struck seven times. At least one of the shots pierced his heart, others struck him in the head.

Myers recognized the assailants and pleaded with them not to shoot, the Sheriff's office reported. Denhardt was carried to the front steps of the Armstrong Hotel where he died immediately.

Myers said the general attempted to escape his assailants. "We started diagonally across the street," Myers said, "when we saw them coming from an auto parked just across the intersection to our left.

"The shots were fired almost as soon as we saw them. The general started to run toward the hotel and I ran to the right to try to get behind a parked auto.

"Several more shots hit the general just as he reached the hotel steps.

"The men came over to me then and the one with the gun was going to shoot me. I threw up my hands and called him by name.

"Don't shoot me! I pleaded with him. I haven't done anything. The other two kept him from shooting me.

As one looks about the world today and sees the frightful destruction being wrought by mad militarists in Spain and China and hears the awful predictions of Anthony Eden and Cordell Hull that the whole world is heading straight for hell-fire-and-damnation, he is apt to get the feeling that there isn't much use of trying these days and that the best philosophy is that of the ancient Epicureans who used to say, "Eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow we may die."

It is indeed a sad picture which the world presents. Even if there were no threat of universal war, with nothing but a temporary subsidized prosperity in dozens of large countries keeping millions of persons from actual starvation, the future would be gloomy enough. With millions of men now engaged in making armaments, they will be looking for new jobs, probably not available, when this armament race is over. But the real danger is that the race will not be over until the armaments have been used.

The next war which seems almost unavoidable will see cities like London, Paris, and Berlin, reduced to shambles even as part of Shanghai and Madrid have been destroyed. It will find civilian families far from the field of battle bombed and machine-gunned as Spanish and Chinese families are today. It will result in billions of dollars worth of priceless treasures of art, magnificent buildings, and invaluable centers of culture and learning, being blasted to bits.

And yet the outlook for the individual should not be one of utter hopelessness. We believe it was Rhet Butler who said that there is as much money to be made in the crash of a civilization as in the building of one. Surely this is the crash of a civilization, but it will present opportunities for everyone, not alone for making money—for if that were all, it would hardly be worth while—but for service to others, for science and invention, for the development of mankind.

The first World War came in 1914, and though it wrought a frightful carnage, there were those who prospered, who continued their studies in engineering, chemistry, and physics. The fine development of the automobile, of the airplane, and the invention of radio, came after the crash of that civilization which existed prior to 1914. The vast forward strides in medicine and surgery alone, and the consequent lengthening of the span of life for the average man, is sufficient proof that all is not lost because the world goes to war.

The Civil War might have been expected to be a time when the end would come for all things in America. There is no attempt to minimize the hardships and sufferings of those times and the years which immediately followed, and yet one cannot overlook the growth and development of such cities as Atlanta, New Orleans, Memphis, Chattanooga, Charlotte, Winston Salem, and Birmingham in spite of all that reconstruction could do. And those citizens, who were alive to their opportunities, prospered with their cities.

It was indeed in the period immediately after the Civil War which saw the great expansion of railroads throughout the country, the opening of the Far West, the development of such great industries as steel, oil, coal, the formation of such giant corporations as Standard Oil, the Northern Pacific Railroad and the Carnegie Steel and Iron Works, and the foundation of such gigantic fortunes as Mellon's, Rockefeller's, Vanderbilt's, Harriman's, Gould's, Hettie Green's, and Flagler's.

NO ASYLUM

CHATTAHOOCHEE, Sept. 21. —(AP)—Supt. J. R. Therrell told the Northwest Florida Bankers Association here the Florida State Hospital for the Insane is not an "insane asylum."
"Frequently persons who are well informed on this subject refer to this as the State Insane Asylum," he said. "The term is entirely inaccurate. An insane asylum is a place to segregate and incarcerate persons in order to protect society, while a hospital is a place where those who are ill may get treatment. What we attempt to do is to facilitate the patient, to restore him to his family, to his business and to society."

Mrs. Ryerson will be remembered as the former Miss Cornelia McKee.

The quaintness of the radio comedian, Parkyarkus has been delineated in forthright style by Artist Kapralik. "Parky" specialty has been garbled language and a trick of jockeying his fellow performers into the roles of stouoges. He is currently headlined with Joe Penner, Milton Berle, Harriet Hilliard and a large list of radio, stage and screen talent in RKO Radio's "New Faces of 1937."

Seminole's Celery Feds Have A Fast And Puzzling Aerial Attack

Red Line Appears Somewhat Stronger In Scrimmage Tiff After Blocking Assignments

System That Celery Feds Will Use Is To Be Puzzling To Landon High Squad

Line Improves In Speed And Power

Nearly Prepared To Meet Landon High Team Friday Night

The Seminole High School Celery Feds looked somewhat better yesterday afternoon during their initial practice session of the week when an exciting blocking session was prevailing while the Fed backfield men underwent the same training.

Things are beginning to brighten up a bit after a gloomy past week that was spent with injured men as they are coming back much with speed and power and the line, that still doesn't look as strong as it should be, is rapidly gaining in the old system knowledge.

The boys are showing some interest in the work that Head Coach McLucas has planned for them and the Feds play their first game of the season in Jacksonville Friday evening at the Jacksonville Municipal Stadium against the powerful Lions of Palm Landon High School.

It will be the first game of the season for the Trojans coached outfit which will give them some what more of a chance and with the new system that the Celery Feds are using, they will be apt to give Landon a big puzzle for the first quarter at least.

The Celery Fed backfield is one of the best backfields of McLucas has had in some time and the old hazard of no reserve power still lurks in the shadows. The Feds, in the scrimmage session yesterday, underwent a strong passing attack that looks as if it will add to a great extent in their hand schedule. The attack is mapped out in more or less an unbreakable manner and defensive backs are going to have another puzzle in stopping it.

The Feds are blocking very well in scrimmage as well as during other assignments of that nature. The backfield is blocking as nicely as if they were veterans. They are running an interference on a par but it will have to pick up slightly in order to aid those ball carriers.

During the scrimmage session yesterday, a passing attack was featured and the McLucas drive the first eleven through

Cowell To Drill With Full Squad In Coming Week

Two New Hatters Report For Initial Practice Today

DELAND, Sept. 21.—Barring injuries, the Stetson Hatters will drill this week with a full squad for the first time since pre-season practice got under way on Labor Day.

Vincent Schaeffer of Indianapolis, ace pass receiver and flankman of last year's freshman team, and who Coach Brady Cowell considers one of this season's mainstays, worked out yesterday for the first time. The other late arrival, another end, was Charles Cobb of Miami.

Practice sessions were cut to one drill a day with the opening of school and the Hatters will work out from now on only in the afternoons.

A number of candidates for the frosh squad worked out in shorts yesterday, but Cowell said freshmen practice would not begin until later in the week.

Dick Sauls of Palm Beach, a guard injured in last Thursday's scrimmage was back in uniform today leaving only Hall Goodbold of Gliffoed, tackle, out with a sore back, on the injury list.

Coaches Cowell and Chet Freeman drilled the backfield and line separately on blocking and tackling and indicated they would scrimmage today.

a hard group of plays using the unbalanced line with single and double wingback plays.

The line-up for the first string was as follows: Sam Walts, LG; Robert Howell, LT; Whitney Young, LG; Fred Ganas, C; N. A. Harkey, RG; Ashby Jones, RT; Billy Colbert, RE; Johnny Morgan, QB; Darrell Ferguson, LHB; Leon Lawson, RHB; and Robert Stinnett, FB.

The second string outfit was as follows: Walter Turner, LG; Robert Hymbley, LT; Hubert Smith, LG; Jim Riser, C; Sidney Nix, RG; Raymond Hasty, RT; L. M. Telford, RE; Walter Cooper, QB; Douglas Stenstrom, LHB; Frank Merchant, RHB; and Billy Ward, FB.

Clearwater Drops Initial U.S. Decides To Participate In League Studies

Gridiron Tilt To Paterson N.J. School By A 13-7 Score

It Was The 19th Straight Win For The N. J. School As 7,000 Saw Them Get Decision Over Al Rogero's Squad

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Pompton Lakes High School ran its string of football victories to 19 in a row at the Hincliffe Stadium here last night, defeating Clearwater, Fla., by a score of 13-7 before a crowd of almost 7,000 persons.

Pompton pushed over touchdowns in the second and third periods, and held the Southerners to one in the final period. By scoring the second Pompton touchdown, Quentin Cooper, Pompton halfback, made it 19 straight games in which he has scored at least one touchdown.

Neither team could make much headway in the first period, but midway in the second quarter Pompton marched 32 yards for a touchdown.

Gene Redinger passed 13 yards to Bill Stagg in the end zone for Captain Whitley Erickson falled the first score of the game, in his effort to convert the extra point from placement.

Throughout the first half the defensive work of Cecil Reed and Warren Wasple, Clearwater end and tackle, respectively, was outstanding.

The Tornadoes failed to click with their vaunted "aerial circus," however, one of their forwards being intercepted and their only lateral losing considerable yardage.

Pompton continued to dominate the play in the third period, mostly because of the hard-charging tactics of the Cardinal line.

Clearwater, taking advantage of the change of rules to conform with the Florida style of play, opened its aerial attack. The first efforts proved disastrous, however, Johnny Frederick, Pompton fullback, intercepted one of Stan Moore's forwards on the Tornado 25 and ran it back to the 18. From there Cooper carried it over for the touchdown on four tries. Erickson kicked the extra point.

Clearwater broke the ice in the final period, a prolonged aerial attack carrying 60 yards to a score. The combination of Moore to Gerald Merritt finally eked for 11 yards and a touchdown. Merritt kicked the extra point to make the score 13-7.

U.S. Decides To Participate In League Studies

Geneva Session Will Consider Chinese Aggression Charge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The United States yesterday decided to participate to a limited extent in the meetings of the League of Nations Advisory Committee on Far Eastern Affairs.

The advisory committee has been convened to consider China's appeal for invocation of the League covenant because of Japan's alleged aggression. The Chinese appeal was filed with the League Council last week.

The State Department revealed that Leland Harrison, American minister to Switzerland, has communicated this decision to the secretary of the league.

Harrison was taken following receipt of an invitation to this government from the League to cooperate in the work of the committee which was formed in 1932 to advise the League on matters of policy in connection with the Sino-Japanese controversy of 1931-32.

Harrison cautioned the League that American participation would not take upon itself the responsibilities which devolve from the fact of their membership in the committee.

Harrison has been designated the American representative. His letter to the secretary in general of the League, informing the latter of the American decision to participate in the work of the committee, said:

"I am instructed by my government to inform you that I have been authorized to attend the meeting of the advisory committee."

mittes summoned for Tuesday, Sept. 21 in the same capacity and for the same purpose as those for which Mr. Hugh Wilson previously attended, which were indicated in a communication from Mr. Wilson to Sir Eric Drummond dated Mar. 12, 1932.

Wilson, now Assistant Secretary of State, was then American minister to Switzerland and was designated by Secretary of State Cordell Hull a few days after the Roosevelt Administration took office to participate in the work of the committee as a non-voting observer.

"The American government recalls," Harrison's letter continued, "that the advisory committee was created subsequent to and on the basis of a major decision in the field of policy arrived at by the assembly in regard to a matter referred to the council of the assembly."

The remainder of Harrison's communication follows:

"In the understanding of the American government, the advisory committee was created to aid the members of the League in considering their action and their attitude among themselves and with non-member States for the carrying out of a policy recommended by the League. At present, until the United States is informed regarding the functions for the United States government to say to what extent it will be able effectively to cooperate.

"In order that there may be no misunderstanding with regard to the United States government's policy and no confusion or delay flowing from uncertainty, the United States government feels constrained to observe that its participation in the committee's discussions.

Harrison has been designated the American representative. His letter to the secretary in general of the League, informing the latter of the American decision to participate in the work of the committee, said:

"I am instructed by my government to inform you that I have been authorized to attend the meeting of the advisory committee."

Japan Bombers Kill 200 Nanking Civilians; 300 In Raid On Canton

U. S. Ambassador To China Is Ordered Back To Embassy Post In Nanking

Cholera Epidemic Continues Spread

Canton Is Bombed 4 Times In 24 Hours; Great Damage Done

SHANGHAI, Sept. 22.—(AP)—An unchecked epidemic of cholera spread in Shanghai today dwarfing the threat from the closely drawn Chinese and Japanese battle lines in the war zone to the north-west. Official statistics disclosed that more than 1,500 cases of cholera had been confirmed in the International Settlement and French concession. The epidemic was considered the worst in Shanghai's history and is spreading at the rate of 100 cases a day.

NANKING, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Less than 48 hours after the British and American protests to the Japanese government against the unrestricted bombardment of this capital, more than 50 Japanese airplanes twice rained death and destruction from the skies today killing, wounding, or burning to death more than 200 Chinese refugees.

Three hundred lives were feared lost at Canton today in a series of devastating raids by Japanese bombing planes. The fourth attack of the day and the sixth within 24 hours came in mid-afternoon. Estimates of the toll in lives and property—all unofficial—mounted hourly.

Foreign eye-witnesses told of piles of bodies, most of them civilians, in the streets of the southern Chinese metropolis. Official comment on the havoc wrought by the raiders was lacking. Japanese airmen apparently were trying to crush the morale of the Canton populace. Railway facilities were taxed by throngs trying to leave the city. The killed or injured in Nanking were mostly those who had been too feeble or helpless to join the exodus into the safety of the interior.

Japan Apologizes For British Injuries

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Japan today expressed regret for the wounding of the British ambassador to China in an aerial attack outside Shanghai and British quarters said the note demanded for an apology and assurance such incidents would not again occur.

The British demand for punishment of the aviators who machine-gunned Ambassador Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen on Aug. 23 was, however, answered ambiguously by the British.

The note on this point observed "it is needless to say the Japanese government will take suitable steps whenever it is established that Japanese aviators killed or wounded intentionally or through negligence nationals belonging to a third country."

U. S. Protests Again Against Jap Bombs

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(AP)—United States government today delivered to Japan a second and more vigorous protest against the bombing of Nanking. It was signed by Secretary Hull who said the new representation differed from those addressed previously in that it contained a formal written note.

Previous protests were made on the grounds that the threatened bombing violated humanitarian and international laws and were delivered orally. Hull said official reports to Washington indicated one shell exploded in the American embassy compound during the raid today.

Mississippi Beauty Leads Legion March

Pretty, vivacious Ann Bishop of Tupelo, Miss., stepped high and handsome in leading the American Legion's spectacular parade in New York. She is shown as the line of march headed up Fifth avenue.

Plans Completed For Local Census Among Religious

Plans were completed for the religious census to be taken in Sanford soon under the auspices of the Sanford Ministerial Association. The Rev. W. P. Brooks, member of the association, announced today, adding that this census is taken in Sanford on the average of every two years.

Plans were also formulated for the observance of Loyalty Month in October by all the churches of the City. This annual observance on the part of the churches the Rev. Brooks indicated, is not only in Sanford but throughout the nation.

Appreciation was expressed at the meeting to the church attendance committee of the Kiwanis Club for the work they proposed to do in advertising Loyalty Month and also to J. L. Marenette for his co-operation in advertising through the Ritz Theater.

Police Will Patrol Municipal Ball Park

Members of the Sanford Police force will patrol the Sanford Municipal Baseball park to prevent any damage to property or interfering, Chief of Police Chief Roy G. Williams announced today.

Anyone caught trespassing or damaging the property in any way will be subject to arrest and fine, Chief Williams added.

U.S. Plans Cut In Work Relief Appropriation

Attempt To Balance Budget Also Means Discontinuance Of Public Works Act

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Informed fiscal officials predicted today the Administration will trim work relief spending substantially during the next fiscal year in an effort to balance the budget. Hearings on the 1938-39 budget already have been started by Daniel W. Bell acting budget director.

President Roosevelt will submit estimates to congress in January. The cue for the relief prediction came from a statement issued yesterday by Marvin H. McIntyre, White House secretary saying Mr. Roosevelt has made a final allocation under 1937 Public Works Extension Act.

The statement said the need for jobs provided through PWA had decreased with the passing of the economic extremity. It referred also to "the need to curtail the federal budget."

President Roosevelt on the eve of his departure for a two-weeks' tour of the west, announced yesterday the wind-up of allocations under the new public works program and said this meant the end of PWA. He also admonished newsmen not to attribute politics to his visiting certain cities in the west and steering clear of others, and said he might make a fireside radio talk on future public works policy before congress meets.

Discussing the wind-up of PWA the president said that this emergency agency was established to stimulate construction and employment during the depression and that it had fulfilled its mission promptly and effectively.

He added there had been a decreasing need for this stimulation with the passing of the economic "extremity." He said he approved as "sound public policy" the rejection by Secretary Ickes, PWA administrator, of many applications for loans and grants because it had been found the applicants could finance their project without federal aid.
