Truman Seen Not Planning To Run Again

Close Associates Interpret Latest Remark As Sign Of Wanting To Retire

By The Associated Press
President Truman's news conference comment that he's going to let the political river take its course has been interpreted by some of his closest friends as an indication he does not plan to run again.

Jack Bell, Associated Press political reporter, says he has learned from a close associate of the President that Mr. Truman's inner circle expects he will step aside at the proper time and name his choice of a successor—barring unforeseen developments.

The President is said to believe the Republicans will nominate Sen. Taft of Ohio, and that the Democrats have a good chance to defeat him in November's election.

His "political river" remark Thursday was seen as a sign he is giving other Democrats a chance to show what they can do—and that he may throw his support to the strongest, provided it isn't Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee.

Elsewhere on the political front: 1. Taft said in a radio (MBS) address: "Eisenhower's popularity isn't as widespread as some people seem to think."

Hospital Assets Are Offered To Bert Fish Estate

A resolution offering the net assets of the Memorial Hospital in the Bert Fish Estate under certain conditions was approved by the Hospital Association at its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the Court House.

In order to pass this, the Association members had to rescind a resolution passed on Mar. 21, offering these assets, including equipment, furniture and fixtures, to any group who would build a new hospital here, and stipulating the conditions under which the offer was made.

These conditions still apply, and also a three-year limitation offer to the Fish Estate in which to build and put into operation a hospital here.

The offer carries the condition that a ward, wing or other portion of the proposed hospital be called the Memorial Hospital and that the hospital be operated on a non-sectarian, non-racial and non-denominational basis.

Adenauer Warns Of Russian Army Ready To March

BONN, Germany. — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer warned the West German people today that a vast Russian military machine is pressed against the Elbe and can march against West Europe "within 24 hours" if the Kremlin gives the signal.

Interrupting debate on his proposal to raise 12 German divisions for the European army, Adenauer said the first shock of a Russian attack would have to be borne by American, British and French forces in West Germany but the Germans could not expect the Allied troops to do everything for them.

German soldiers, he declared, are essential to counterbalance the Soviet power.

His warning came amid sharp criticism of his policy, particularly from the bitterly anti-rearmament Socialists. The Chancellor, having trouble within his own fold as well. The second largest faction in his coalition government, the Free Democratic Party, said Thursday night it would agree to arming West Germany only if the Bonn Republic gets membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and "if all still imprisoned former German soldiers" are released.

Chairman Of Barber Board Found Guilty

Brown Raines Convicted Of Taking $500 Bribe From Candidate For License

TAMPA. — A Criminal Court jury today convicted Brown B. Raines, former chairman of the State Barber Board, of exacting and taking a $500 bribe from a candidate for a barber's license.

The jury was unable to agree after three hours deliberation on a third count charging conspiracy to bribe and Judge L. A. Grayson declared a mistrial on that count.

Tracy B. Phillips testified that when he sought a barber's license in 1949 Raines told him it would cost him $500 and he paid Raines that much in marked bills.

Phillips said Raines arranged a meeting between himself and Raines. Selph denied from the stand that he was a party to any bribery Raines did not testify.

He remarked that the court room was unheated, that lawyers and other court officials were shivering and said he assumed the jury room was just as cold. The jurymen were quick to assure him it was, and they were sent home for the night.

Theme of services to be held in all Christian Science churches next Sunday is that the ever-present, all-power and infinity of Spirit, or God, is to be acknowledged at all times by every follower of Christ Jesus.
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Spirit."
A verse from Psalms provides the Golden Text: "Teach me to do thy will for thou are my God; thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness" (Ps. 143: 10).
Selections from the Bible include: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord" (II Pet. 1: 2).
Among correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is: "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed 'them' (p. 234).

GIRDERS

You must have girders to build a skyscraper. Only a mesh-work of steel can endure the weight, strain and atmospheric variations to which such a structure is subject.

And you must have girders to build a man... him to stand erect against the pressures and onslaughts of human experience.

The Church builds the girders into a man's life: that will mold his stature later. In youth it reinforces these with "cross-beams" that solidify his moral character. Day by day, all through adulthood, the Church "rivets" into their proper place the truths and ideals and aims that enable him to reach his full stature.

Faithfully, generously give strength to the Church. Faithfully and generously it is building strength into our lives.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE
 Aged saints are apt to be weary of this life and restless. They are not so unless as they imagine. They can at least exemplify patience and faith: "They desire a better country, that is a heavenly one."—Heb. 11:16

Homes I Have Known
 (From the Lantern)
 The farm home is the best where a man performs his labors. A suburban home is something that he likes to show his neighbors. The urbanite apartment is a name of operations, from which the dweller branches out his tangent occupations. But the wilderness home is a raft alone on a wide, wild sea—a speck that keeps the body flesh and bone, the heart from utter wreck.
 ELENORA CHESTERMAN.

It pays to advertise. Out in Los Angeles Jack O'Leary began losing weight when he started hiccupping and couldn't stop. When he got down to 78 pounds, he told the newspapers about it, between gasps. He received some 1,132 letters from well wishers all over the country with suggested cures, most of which he tried and none of which worked.

President Truman is irked by the delay in getting the White House repaired. We can understand his irritation over the slowness with which things move nowadays. He is anxious to get back into his own home where he can put his feet on a bath without the danger of the tub falling through the floor into the living room.

How would you like to be only 25 years old and Queen of England? Oh, yes; you would! We suppose it might be worth it for a couple of hundred thousand a year, but we don't know. It's like living in a gold fish bowl. It might be fun at first, but it would get mighty tiresome. The time would come, we'll bet, when you would want to go back to your knitting.

Not everyone around here, we find is for Eisenhower. Some of them are for Taft. You'd be surprised how many supporters Taft really has. In this neck of the woods, the trouble with Eisenhower, it seems, is that nobody really knows where he stands on anything, except possibly foreign relations, and actually what most people around here are interested in is domestic affairs. They want to know where he stands on states rights, taxation, government spending, and labor relations. Until they know that they are going to take him with a grain of salt.

Governor Warren is having newspaper trouble. "If the Miami Herald publishes one more lie about Governor Warren and refuses to correct or retract such lies upon being advised in writing that it is a lie," says the Governor's secretary, "it will become necessary for the Governor to decline to communicate to the Miami Herald any information (except of course to protest against future lies)." It is so difficult sometimes to arrive at what the exact truth really is. A newspaper is not necessarily lying because it does not agree with a particular statement of facts as you present them.

Senator Boyle, who is seeking reelection without opposition in the county but with two opponents in Brevard, does not believe in the principle of alternating the senatorship back and forth between the two counties. "You can't have a chance of seniority that way," he says "with all the advantages which seniority entails." Essentially, we see where the Georgia legislature has just passed a bill ending "quickie" marriages and providing a three day waiting period similar to the law which was fathered through the Florida legislature back in 1949. Therefor, people living in North Florida counties won't be able to get across the border into Georgia and get married, without a brief waiting off period, as has been the practice for some years.

Progress In Liberia

Liberia is moving ahead. The only independent Negro state besides Haiti, Liberia has had hard going since its founding in 1822. Originally meant as a region to which freed American slaves could be deported, it was long threatened by encroachments from both France and Great Britain.

In 1910 President William H. Taft gave notice that the United States disapproved of these bullying tactics, and in late years American capital has flowed in to develop Liberia's great rubber resources. While Liberia lies on the tropical West African coast, its climate is not bad. Its government is stable, and there has been no revolution in Liberia.

Recently Liberia granted the vote to native tribesmen. Previously the descendants of former American slaves had been a privileged class who reduced the tribesmen to virtual peonage. The administration of President William V. S. Tubman, recently inaugurated for his second term, is pushing legislation for better health conditions, improved schools and prison reform.

In foreign affairs Liberia follows closely the lead of the United States. Its air bases helped in the North African war against Germany's Rommel. It has a fine naval base and a deep harbor, built by the American Navy.

Liberia's debt, both domestic and foreign, is being steadily reduced. Barring some unexpected calamity, its future seems bright.

Justice And Rank

The military court-martial system has been overhauled since the war, in answer to criticisms which developed during the war period. The members of the civilian components of the services looked on many things in a kind of frank appraisal which did not seem to be shared by career men. One of the accusations was that one standard of justice applied for enlisted men and another for officers.

At an Ohio post recently two military police sergeants were convicted of brutality against a prisoner, and were stripped of their rank and sentenced to prison. Later a different court convicted a captain of permitting this incident of brutality, and his punishment was a reprimand and a nominal fine. The discrepancy is peculiar in the light of the military principle which places responsibility for wrongdoing primarily on the officer in command, who can issue orders which others must obey.

This single instance does not necessarily prove that there is inequality of justice. But it does indicate that the Army needs to explain its standards and customs more thoroughly to the public. Otherwise such an incident may be judged harshly.

The Button Game

Manufacturers of campaign buttons and other election novelties are always glad when there are a number of contenders for the presidential nomination on both tickets. This year pre-convention buttons have already appeared for four Republican candidates. With only one Democrat, Senator Estes Kefauver, and avowed candidate the Democrats trail in the button department.

Campaign gadget advertising has taken on many new forms in recent years. Scarves, ties, stamps and stickers bearing the picture or the name of a particular candidate have stimulated the novelty business. These items run into great expenses for the political parties or for the supporters of an individual.

There are many people who could be opposed to re-nomination of both Thomas Dewey and President Truman to head their respective tickets as they did in 1948. But such a move would have at least one advantage. Such old campaign buttons and trinkets as have survived could be taken out of their hiding places and used again. Norman Thomas's advertising never goes out of date.

Korean War

 In three months after an armistice is signed to consider withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea, peaceful settlement of the Korean question and other questions relating to the Korean problem.

Washington sources said the United States is prepared to accept the first two points, but will balk at the third, which could include such subjects as the future of Formosa.

Staff officers still are trying to reach an agreement on the two other remaining agenda items — truce supervision and prisoner exchange.

Neither group made noticeable progress Friday.

Officers working on the supervision question devoted most of their one-hour and 35-minute session to discussing troop rotation and ports of entry.

Both sides refused to budge. The Reds held out for inspection at three ports of entry on either side of the battle line and a monthly troop rotation ceiling of 25,000 men. The U. N. argued for 10 ports of entry and a rotation ceiling of 40,000.

Queen Proclaimed

 Elizabeth II and her husband Prince Philip were proclaimed Queen and King of the United Kingdom and the other realms and territories, head of the Commonwealth, defender of the faith, to whom her lieges acknowledge all faith and constant obedience with hearty and humble affection, beseeching God, by whom Kings and Queens do reign, to bless the royal princess, Elizabeth II, with long and happy years to reign over us.

"God Save the Queen."
 The 20 minute accession proceedings took place in the scarlet-curtained ante room of St. James' Palace.

There were 192 councillors present. They remained standing all through the ceremony.

Prime Minister Churchill was there, and standing by was the Queen's husband, King George had made him a member of the Privy Council last Dec. 4, so he was automatically a member of the Accession Council. At his side was the Duke of Gloucester, King George's younger brother.

Elizabeth entered the palace by the garden entrance and first went to the White and Gold Throne room. She wore mourning.

When the ceremony ended, she returned by car to her home, Clarence House near Buckingham Palace, which soon will be her London residence.

As the anthem ended the ceremonies at St. James' Palace, a 41-gun salute from the royal household artillery boomed out in Hyde Park a mile away. All over Britain flags which had fluttered at half staff since the death of King George were hauled to the top of their standards. There they will fly for six hours in celebration and honor of the new Queen before dipping again to half staff in mourning until the King is buried next Friday.

After the proclamation was read from the palace balcony, other heralds in 15th Century dress proclaimed it from Charing Cross, site of an ancient crossroads in mid-London; from just inside the Temple Bar, one-time western gateway when London was a walled city a mile square, and from the steps of the pillared Royal Exchange in the center of the Old City.

Elizabeth displayed her queenly qualities when she returned, pale but composed, in Thursday's gathering dusk to the homeland she left just one week and four hours earlier on a holiday and state tour with her husband. It was to have taken them around the world, through Ceylon, Australia and New Zealand.

Elizabeth at once approved the arrangements for her father's funeral which were made by her counsellors. The last service and burial will take place at St. George's Chapel at Windsor a week from today.

A gun carriage escorted by the Royal Horse Artillery will bear the plain oak coffin from Sandringham to a funeral train on Monday. In London it will again be borne on an artillery carriage to the high vaulted chamber of Westminster Hall, to lie in state in the palace where Parliament sits.

The ancient stone hall dating from the days of William the Conqueror, nearly a thousand years ago, will be opened from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday so that the citizens may pass by the bier.

On Friday morning there will be a state funeral procession. A train will bear the royal coffin to Windsor, where an ancient royal castle stands atop a hill of stone in the peaceful valley of the Thames River.

The King will be buried within the castle's St. George's Chapel, resting place for the bones of many another sovereign.

There are buried the late King's father and every other British monarch from the days of George III, except for the last reigning Queen Victoria.

President Truman announced Secretary of State Dean Acheson will represent him at the service. The Duke of Windsor, elder brother of the late King, sailed from New York Thursday night aboard the Queen Mary to attend.

"The late King and I were very close, and the outstanding qualities of kingship he possessed made easier for me the passing on of the uninterrupted succession to the throne of the United Kingdom," said the duke in a statement. He abdicated in 1936, after a 11-month reign, so he could marry (twice-divorced) Mrs. Wallis Simpson.

Prime Minister Churchill paid a nation's tribute to the late King in a broadcast which was relayed through most of the world.

Emotion linged his resounding phrases.

"During these last months, the King walked with death as if death were a companion, an acquaintance whom he recognized and did not fear," said this old friend.

"In the end, death came as a friend and after a happy day of sunshine and sport, after a 'good night' to those who loved him best, he fell asleep as every man or woman who strives to fear God and nothing else may hope to do."

Churchill eulogized the King as

Motors Take Turn As The Leaders In Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) - Motors took their turn today as leaders in a higher stock market.

They had plenty of help from the rest of the list, especially in the oils, rails, steels, and rubbers. Gains usually went into the one to two point range with a few shooting beyond that mark.

Oils were in demand. Northern Pacific, which gained 3/4 Thursday, was up almost another three points today. It is developing another wildcat well in the Williston Basin of Wyoming and North Dakota. Superior Oil of California was up 1/2.

Gold stocks posted some good gains. Melnyre - Porcupine added two points in early quiet trading, and Humestake Mining was up a major fraction on top of Thursday's rise of 1/4.

Higher stocks included General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, Union Pacific, Standard Oil (N. J.), Paramount Pictures, American Cyanamid, Westinghouse Electric, Zenith, Radio Corp. and U. S. Rubber.

Carb market stocks were mostly higher including British Columbia Power "B," Continental Foundry, Creole Petroleum, International Petroleum, Louisiana Land, Standard Oil of California, and Humble Oil.

Corporate bonds were higher with the railroad loans out in front. In the over the counter market, U. S. governments were mostly higher.

Blues In The News

By ROY ANTHONY

The name "Seminole Blues" has taken a large lead in the Sanford Herald Club "naming contest" this week due to heavy voting by its members in blues here on the station. The men here like to consider themselves a part of the Sanford community and have taken this opportunity by being active in its "community project". To those of you on the station who have not yet voted, I'd like to suggest you drop a card to the Sports Editor, Sanford Herald, and vote for your favorite name. Let's show the City of Sanford our appreciation for their many kindnesses by expressing our interest in community activities.

The First Baptist Church of Sanford will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Kay Holtzclaw and Roger Schmidt this Sunday at 5:00 p. m. Kay lives in Sanford and Roger is a parachute rigger here on the station. His home is in Milwaukee, Wis. His invitations are being sent but Roger and Kay would like all their friends to attend. A reception will be held after the wedding.

UMT BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) - Senator Russell (D. Ga.) said today the vast program of universal training of 18 year olds could get under way this year, possibly within a few months.

This would require favorable Congressional action on a bill spelling out details of the compulsory military training.

Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he believes the "program could start now with 18 year olds because few draft boards are taking men below 20 now."

The Rollins College Dramatic Team has been having a rough season to date only managing to come out the victor in one contest. They play tonight against Composite Squadron 85 of Cecil Field at Jacksonville. Every Rollins basketball team must have a start and this year has been the beginning for the Station Team, meaning it is the first time the fellows have ever played on the same team.

Results of the service-wide examination for advancements in ratings, which were taken in January, have been received by several men on the station and Lt. Sullivan, Education Officer, is very proud of the way they are shaping up. So far there have been 26 men that passed and only 12 that have failed. This is only the beginning of the returns but we hope the favorable percentage of passing marks continues.

To those of our faithful readers who actually missed "Blues in the News" for the past few weeks, Ralph and I would like to explain that we have been busy working on the Navy section of the Sanford Herald's annual Mail-away issue. With that work now completed, we hope once again to enter your homes each day with the latest about the "Blues in the News".

With Valentine's Season just around the corner, T. J. Tarbuton and a group of men here on the station have planned a Candlelight Valentine Dance to be held Feb. 16 at the Sanford Yacht Club. The dancing will be to the rhythms of the Knights of Note starting at 8:00 p. m. and continuing until 11:30. Ritchie Salate will act as emcee master of ceremonies for the floor show of which Don Dies will star with his vocal limitations. There will be a charge of 50c per person. It promises to be a full evening of entertainment so bring your Valentine or meet there but be sure to be at the Yacht Club Feb. 16 for an evening of candlelight dancing.

The Rollins College extension course in English Literature has started its second semester this week and Professor Dean is once again at the helm. The class meets each Tuesday and Thursday night from 6:00 to 8:00. Funeral Rites Are Held For King George

Rain And Sleet Falls As Thousands Brave Weather To Pay Res- pects To Monarch

By The Associated Press
LONDON — King George VI returned to his capital today for the last time. His mourning subjects paid homage at his funeral cortege wound through crowded, silent streets.

His train, bearing Queen Elizabeth II and her family, edged noiselessly into King's Cross Station in a downpour of rain and sleet at 2:45 p.m. (9:40 a.m., EST) after a private funeral service at the Sandringham estate where he died Wednesday.

Despite a drenching, thousands lined the three-mile route to history's sleeping Westminster Hall where the body of the late monarch will lie in state until the burial at Windsor on Friday.

Windows all along the route, many engaged by enterprising rental agencies, were crowded.
Many spectators on the streets held umbrellas.

The black-veiled young Queen,
now the head of the royal family, at 25, stood by as grenadier guard-men lifted the oak coffin from its black hearse coach.

She was pale and drawn but hid her grief. Queen Mother Elizabeth, Princess Margaret, the young Queen's husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, and the King's brother, the Duke of Gloucester, rode from London to Sandringham with the Queen in her coach just behind the car which bore the coffin.

Just before the royal party stepped from the train, a royal attendant in top hat climbed into the hearse coach and placed the imperial crown with its 2,894 jewels, worth approximately $80,000 on the King's casket.

The Queen and women of her party did not want to follow the procession in its slow-dreary progress to Westminster, but left at once by limousine for Buckingham Palace.

Six bay horses of the King's

Elizabeth, N. J. Has Its Third Air Disaster Within 2 Months Newark Airport Closed For Probe

Citizens Incensed As Plan Is Pushed To Move Big Airport To Another Center

ELIZABETH, N. J. — A small army of investigators — but to consider safety measures in the wake of two plane crashes since Dec. 10 — grimly changed signals today after a third air catastrophe.

The latest disaster in this crash-grove city caused postponement of a public meeting scheduled jointly by the Port of New York Authority and a House aviation subcommittee to discuss the possibility of moving nearby Newark Airport to a less populous area.

Earlier at an emergency meeting, the Port Authority ordered the big airport — often called one of the safest in the nation — ped-locked until further notice.

Union County Prosecutor Edward Cohn, visibly shaken by the pre-dawn disaster, said the move came none too soon.

"They hadn't closed the airport the people of Union and Essex Counties would have gone there in the morning and closed it," he said.

Cohn said the congressional hearing called off but that committee members will confer with his office and officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board today.

Joseph O. Plust, chief regional investigator of the CAB who was here to conduct a hearing Wednesday into the Jan. 22 wreck, already has completed a preliminary probe of today's crash.

He said Wednesday's hearing is still on and he was waiting word from Washington on whether a hearing will be called on the newest crash.

Plust said he had spoken by telephone to CAB Chairman Donald Spencer in Washington and given him the details of today's disaster.
Spencer would not discuss his talk with Nyrop.

Cohn said he had been in touch with State Attorney General Theodore D. Parsons and will speak at the hearing. Parsons told him he had the authority to demand a shutdown of the airport and could count on support from him (Parsons) and Governor Driscoll. That was in Albany, N. J., where he just New York — New Jersey agency which operates the airport
— ordered it closed.

Plust said the crash, third within two months, was "one of the rarest incidents in the annals of aviation."

He said his preliminary investigation revealed that the plane had a gross takeoff weight of 33,437 pounds, a record for the airport.

29 Persons Killed As Giant DC-6 Plows Into Top Of Apart- ment And Burns

WASHINGTON — Senate investigators said today a preliminary check into the plane crash at Elizabeth, N. J., this morning
"does not bear out" the stewardess' report that two engines of the DC's National Airline plane failed.

ELIZABETH, N. J. — A crowded airliner roared out of the sky and fell in this terrified city today for the third time in less than two months, killing at least 29 persons.
Airlines plane with 83 persons aboard plunged downward like a meteor at 12:20 a.m. (EST) and crashed into a 32-family apartment house.

This disaster, bringing the death toll in the three crashes to 115, forced nearby Newark Airport, one of the busiest in the East, to halt all operations.

Earlier the death toll had been officially reported to have reached 210. The lower figure of 29 may still go higher, authorities said, because there was some delay in bringing all bodies to the morgue.

Two of the four engines of the DC-6 failed shortly after its takeoff from the airport. The pilot asserted a final terrified "can't make it back." Then his plane nose-dived and roared to the earth.
It ripped into the top of the four-story brick apartment house.
Flames burst from the building as the plane crumpled off, breaking into flaming wreckage in a treetop and the playground of a children's home.

Unlike the other two crashes in which all plane passengers and crew were killed, 38 of those aboard the plane escaped with injuries. But like the second crash, just 29 days ago, it was not all on the ground. At least 17 of the dead were residents of the apartment house.

Two people are reported in terror as they heard the screaming roar from above. The car their mayor has called an ambulance to take them to the hospital.

Plane crash from someone screamed inside the apartment house.

It was like a familiar signal in the industrial area of Elizabeth, which is about 10 miles south of
New York City.

On Dec. 10, a non-scheduled C-47 dropped in flames into the Elizabeth building, killing all 30 aboard. On Jan. 22 an American Airlines Convair hurtled into a residential district, killing all 23 aboard and seven residents.

Today's plane was two minutes off the ground when it pilot, Capt.
W. G. Foster, radioed that an engine had failed. The field told him to come back.

Foster started dumping fuel to lighten his load, then another of the four engines went out.

"We were about 1,000 feet up when the motor coughed out and made a terrible rattling noise," Stewardess Nancy Taylor of Elizabeth said.

January Sales At Farmers Market Set New Record

Produce Handled Is Nearly 1/2 Million Over January, 1951

January sales at the Sanford
State Farmers' Market totalled $1,181,018, a new record, and $479,921 over that of January, 1951, according to Sandy Anderson, market manager.

The total sales on cabbage, including 186,217 of the 50 pound sacks, 18,460 in crate form and 442 crates of Chinese cabbage, set a record, breaking sales figures during January of 1943-1945. Although the price slid from around the $5.00 mark down to $1.50 a sack, the average price during the month was $3.17, and local growers benefitted.

In January, 1951, total market sales totalled 448,704 units valued at $701,000.

Celery was the second largest selling item last month with the scarce golden variety selling at $2.07 average to bring $5,577.
Red and white varieties brought $2.83 and $2.63, a total of $94, 414.

Due to the low average price per crate of oranges, $2.23 a box, 37,378 boxes brought but $83,382. Temple oranges were slightly higher at $2.30 a box, bringing $14,181.

Red and white varieties brought an average of $3.04 a 50 pound sack with 14,002 sacks totalling $42,484.

More than 1,100 crates of sweet corn sold at the market in January at an average of $4.35 a crate. Green beans averaged $3.05 a hamper and $3.94 units were sold. Pole beans at $3.50 a hamper brought $9,580.
Although cucumbers averaged $2.27 a bushel basket, the supply was light and total sales for the month were only $5,500.
Peppers at a $4.18 average is-talled $10,078. Tomatoes were also scarce and but 8,046 crates sold at $5.13 a crate.

Moral Letdown In Nation Studied By Rotary Club

Second In Series Of Discussions Is Held At Weekly Meeting

Twelve Rotarians participated today in the second of a series of roundtable discussions on the cause of the current moral let-down in the United States held at the regular weekly luncheon at the Yacht Club today.

Those who took part were H. B.
Pope, W. A. Kaler, Henry Simpson, Bill Kirk, Tom Brown, the Rev. H. L. Zimmerman, W. A.
Laffler, Orville Touchton, Frank
Evans, G. W. Spencer, Randall
Chase and G. A. Spoor, Jr. George Touhy served as moderator.

President John Raligan announced that a third and final discussion will take place on Feb.
25 when the cause for the condition will be considered.

Mr. Touhy pointed out that, in addition to the moral letdown in the country today primarily on the courts and said their failure to convict the guilty encouraged others to commit crimes. For those who are not Christians, he said, the only preventive is temporal punishment and when that is lacking there is no deterrent to crime.

Mr. Touhy pointed out that, in addition, social ostracism is no longer the deterrent that it once was.

U. S. No. 1 Jet Ace Shot Down And Is Missing In Korea

Down After Shooting 2 More MIGs To 9

By STAN CARTER
SEOUL, Korea — America's
No. 1 jet ace — Maj. George A.
Davis Jr., of Lubbock, Tex. — was shot down over North Korea Sunday. The Air Force said he blasted two Communist MIGs out of the sky before he crashed.

Those raised Davis' bag to 11
MIGs and three Red bombers in 50 combat missions over Korea.
He was listed as missing, but the Air Force said there was virtually no chance that he survived.

One other MIG was downed Sunday in five blazing air battles.

Monday American Sabre jet pilots shot down one Communist MIG and damaged four others, boosting the two-day Allied bag to four kills and nine MIGs damaged.

Davis is credited with having shot down 12 enemy aircraft since his first combat mission last Nov.
1. Nine were MIG-15s and three TU-2s. The MIG is a jet fighter, the TU-2 a light bomber.

Additionally, the Air Force said,
Davis probably destroyed one MIG-15 and damaged another plus damaging another TU-2.

The oft-decorated pilot apparently was shot down in the big air battle Sunday in which 100 MIG-15s were involved. An Air Force spokesman said it is likely Davis' plane was hit by a Communist jet, since he was flying an F-86 jet, and none of these has yet been destroyed by enemy ground fire.

He has been decorated with the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross with one oak leaf cluster and the Air Medal with seven oak leaf clusters.

During World War II, Davis
flew with the 348th Fighter Group in the Pacific and took part in 266 combat missions. He shot down seven Japanese planes.

The Davis' have two children, a daughter, Mary Margaret, and a son, George.

R. F. Cooper To Run For Election To County Board

Former Principal And Teacher Will Seek Office In District 1

R. F. Cooper, east side celery grower, former principal and teacher, today announced his candidacy for the County Commission to represent District No. 1, in which Earl Higginbotham of Sanford is also running.

H. B. Pope is present commissioner in District 1 which now includes the Geneva area, according to the recent redistricting.

For seven years he was teacher of vocational agriculture at Bemole High School, and for one year was principal at the Junior High School. During the following ten years he was principal of the Oviedo School at which he also taught agriculture.

In 1944 he retired from teaching. He devotes his full time to farming. His home and farm are located on South Cameron Avenue,
one mile north of the Oviedo Highway Station, and the other occupies the University of Florida.

Mr. Cooper is one of Bemole County's three school trustees, and one of his major interests is the welfare of the boys and girls of the county. A member of the First Baptist Church, he has been superintendent of the young people's department since 1944. He is a director of the Sanford City Hall, member of the Board of the Bemole County Farm Bureau.

He declared that he entered the race on the insistence of friends in the district, and pointed out that he has a major interest in the county area farming, school and good schools and youth centers.

Stolen Safe In Found Near Oviedo

The Small Safe Stolen Monday Night From The Principal's Office At The Southside Primary School, Was Located Near The Oviedo Road Friday Afternoon By Two Boys From Oviedo, While They Were Gathering Wood.

The boys, Ralph Alexander and Frank Drury, telephoned the Sheriff's office, and Deputies Oscar Decker and E. B. Brown, accompanied by Police Chief Ray O. Williams, went to where the hattered safe lay.

It was found on the edge of the woods, in a patch of bushes about 300 yards from the junction of the Oviedo and Longwood roads, southeast of Five Points.
The combination had been torn off the door, which had been broken loose from the safe. More

C.A.P. Seeks Use Of Former Wiley Home

Six members of the Civil Authority Squadron yesterday conferred with Capt. John L. Chan-tenden at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station about using the old two story house near the Mellon avenue gate as headquarters for the C.A.P. Capt. Chantenden, C.A.P. squad leader, announced this morning.

The house dates back many years to the time when the land occupied by the Station was a part of Fort Reed. At one time the home was occupied by Major Wiley, just prior to the building of the Station. It was occupied and improved by the late Dr. Sam Puleston.

Capt. Remy urged that all members of the C.A.P. unit meet Wednesday night at the City Hall to discuss the project. The house would be used for meetings in one room, and radio communications in another.

"We feel that this will be a good move as it will place the C.A.P. in close communication with the Navy in case of disasters. Following further conference with Capt. Chantenden, we hope to occupy the house in time for our next meeting," said Capt. Remy.
