Britain Backs Up Market Stand

LONDON (UPI) — Britain officially reaffirmed today its intention to press negotiations for entry into the common market despite French roadblocks.

At the same time Britain stressed its support for the multi-national nuclear force for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization proposed last month at the Nassau meeting between Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and President Kennedy—again despite French opposition.

Church Meet Is Underway

CHICAGO (UPI) — A major effort to marshal America's moral and religious forces on behalf of racial justice got under way Monday.

About 800 Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders from all parts of the country met at the Edgewater Beach Hotel for a four-day "national conference on religion and race."

By LARRY VERSHEL, OVERHEARD ON THE

Fitzpatrick: Say, about that raise, Mack.

It's official now. The president of Del-Mar has announced a temporary shut-down of its manufacturing plant in Sanford. . . . Jerome Zimmerman, president of the firm said "the continued lull in sales of new homes throughout Florida has created an overproduction." For the present the local facility will be used for a warehouse.

Better get your 1963 license tags now and avoid that last minute rush around the 20th of next month.

BEST NEWS OF THE DAY: J. C. Hutchison out of the hospital.

Nobody asked me but, why doesn't Kennedy send a peace corp representative to North Orlando instead of Togo?

Entries for the Jaycee DSA award came in with a rush yesterday. Why, do people wait for the last moment?

That worried look on John Kridler's face is from trying to figure out a tight squeeze . . . how to fit 400 or more guests into the Mayfair dining room Saturday evening. Reservations already have reached capacity of those who wish to hear Governor Bryant. . . and more reservations are coming in.

Oviedo folks are doffing their hats in appreciation to Mayor Lee Gary for "keeping behind the right people and getting the horribly rough railroad crossing on Broadway repaired."

Casselberry officials told a Herald reporter Wednesday afternoon shortly after the paper came out that they had not realized the Seminole Raceway project was a "dead issue but had hoped that the matter would be kept open for a few days, yet.

MEMO TO KEITH FUNSTON, PRESIDENT OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE: Say, Keith I got this one share of Florida State Bank stock and wandered over to the stockholders meeting yesterday. Got me a 10 cent dividend yet. Anyway I felt so lousy with my one stock I only stayed a few minutes. This gentleman by the name of Tucker kept talking about percentages and all that jazz I just got so confused. Can you send me some brochures to help me.

The Sanford Police Department got the following letter today:

Dear Sir: Some 10 years ago or about that anyway I stole a frying pan from the Incinerator there in Sanford. Now I am trying to straighten out my past as far as I can. So will see that the man who runs that incinerator gets this $2.00 along with my apologies."

P. B. The man who runs the incinerator didn't even know the frying pan was missing.

Speaking of letters, Art Beckwith received a letter from Comptroller Ray Green commending our clerk for being "the first county official of Seminole County to have returned as much as $20,000 in excess fees. . . Good boy, Art.

I wonder when the General Service Administration is going to do something about that old post office?

Which reminds me. . . Memo to JFK: how about some additional mail boxes along First St. The only one we see is by the Sanford Atlantic Bank.

Water Projects Speed-Up Told A Critical Must

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The chairman of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District said today the big water conservation project must be speeded up or the federal government may lose interest.

Riley Miles said under the present construction schedule, the project would be completed in about the year 2000 at a cost of $500 million. But he said acceleration of the project would complete it by 1970, at a savings of about $170 million.

"The federal government has said it would like to see this project accelerated and completed in the foreseeable future," Miles told the final day of hearings on a record $1.5 billion budget for the coming two years.

He said unless the state stepped the amount of matching funds there was an indication federal aid might be curtailed or cut off.

The agency is seeking $15,483,000 for the coming two years, of which $9 million would match federal funds totaling about $38.5 million.

The rest of the money would provide for highway bridge relocation and acquisition of water storage areas in the upper St. Johns River Basin.

Georgia Unit System Defended

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The state of Georgia defended its county unit voting system for primary elections before the Supreme Court today on the grounds that it was "sustained by history and by law."

Georgia Deputy Asst. Atty. Gen. B. D. Murray opened a three-hour argument on a voter's challenge to the system.

The case brought the Kennedy family, which already has stakes out claims in the White House, Congress and the Justice Department, into action before the Supreme Court.

U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and New York attorney Morris B. Abram, formerly of Atlanta, were pitted against Murphy and E. Freeman Leverett, another Georgia deputy.

Church Action Plan Outlined

CHICAGO (UPI)—An "action program" for churches and synagogues to combat segregation was outlined today by the national conference on religion and race.

It called for prompt elimination of racial barriers in all religious institutions, including church-related schools, hospitals, welfare agencies, homes for the aged and fraternal organizations.

MACK CLEVELAND

No Chance For 'Compromises' Cleveland Says

Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. today said he is convinced there is absolutely no chance for a reapportionment compromise that would enlarge the Florida house beyond 119 members.

House members, Cleveland said, are stuck on keeping the house workably small and will not budge.

The senior ranking member of the local delegation added that the maximum he would go for would be a 120 member body.

The governor however, has let it be known that he would accept another plan if it accomplished the same percentage increase in representation for the urban areas. But he is sticking to his original demand that there must be a solid agreement in advance on any plan before he'll call the legislature into special session.

Under the 144-member proposal, an increase of 49 over the present house membership, approximately 29 percent of the population would elect a majority of the house.

Only way to accomplish that percentage with a smaller number is for some middle-sized counties with two representatives to give up one.

Major behind-the-scenes bargaining at this point centers on a house formula of about 110 members. Whether it could get through the senate, which has agreed on raising its membership to 42 if accompanied by a 144-member house, remains to be seen.

A number of legislators are in Tallahassee this week in connection with state budget hearings and the governor's conference on higher education. In between meetings, they are huddling with each other and the governor in try to work out a reapportionment agreement.

County Court Convictions Drop

A sharp drop in County Court convictions for 1962 over the previous year was noted today by County Judge Vernon Mize.

Mize said that in 1962 convictions totaled 2,195 as compared to 2,304 for the previous year.

The number of warrants issued by the county judge during the past year was 1,097, a drop of over 200 as compared to 1961.

In 1962 the number of incompetencies totaled 47, 10 more than the previous year while the number of drivers licenses issued jumped from 10,901 to 21,390.

There was a drop in marriage licenses issued—373 for last year as compared to 293 for 1961 and the number of hunting licenses were upped from 1,873 to 1,879.

Stocks Mixed

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks were mixed and moderately active at the start of trading today, showing signs of stabilizing after Wednesday's fall.

The case brought the Kennedy family, which already has stakes out claims in the White House, Congress and the Justice Department, into action before the Supreme Court.

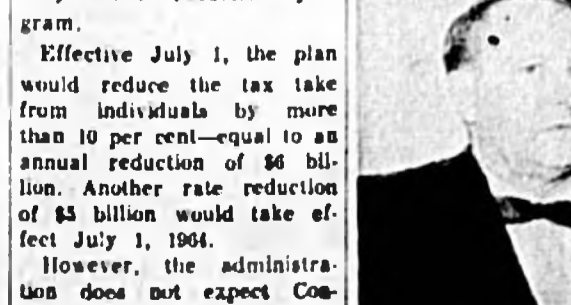

U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and New York attorney Morris B. Abram, formerly of Atlanta, were pitted against Murphy and E. Freeman Leverett, another Georgia deputy.

HHFA Sets Up Office In Brevard On Impact

ATLANTA — The Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA) has opened a special office in Titusville to coordinate the federal government's programs dealing with housing and urban affairs in a six-county area experiencing the impact of the Cape Canaveral space program.

McClellan Hatchford, HHFA Regional Administrator, announced Tuesday.

Harry Lee Lindsey, a native of Seminole County and former professor of architecture at the University of Florida, has been appointed special assistant to the regional administrator to head up the Titusville office. He will coordinate HHFA's programs for Seminole, Brevard, Indian River, Orange, Osceola and Volusia Counties.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation's workers would get two boosts in take-home pay under President Kennedy's tax reduction program.

Effective July 1, the plan would reduce the tax take from individuals by more than 10 per cent—equal to an annual reduction of $6 billion. Another rate reduction of $3 billion would take effect July 1, 1964.

However, the administration does not expect Congress to complete action on the program before late summer or early fall.

JFK Sends Biggest Budget To Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today sent Congress the biggest budget in history—come war or peace—and one of the biggest deficits.

Other stories regarding President Kennedy's budget can be found on the inside pages of today's Herald.

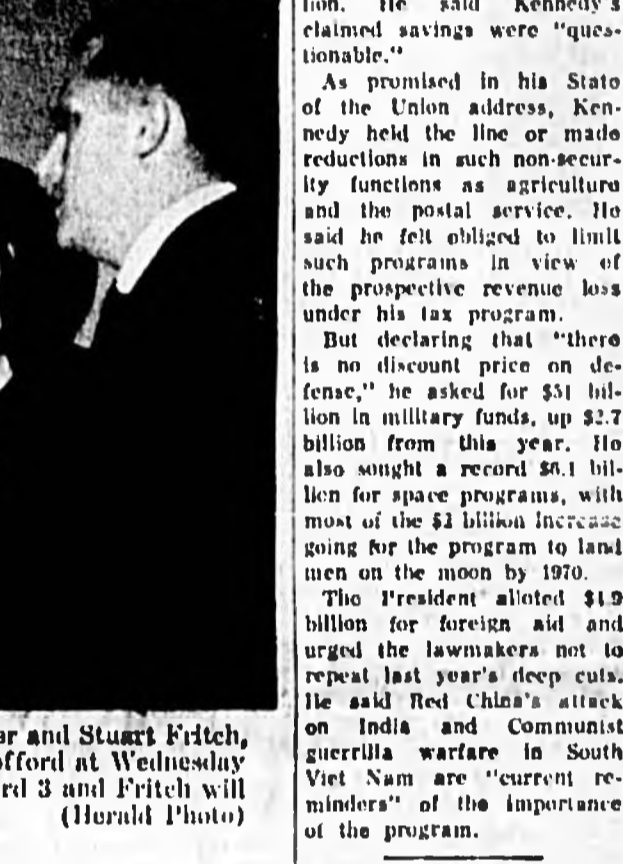

He called for federal outlays in the 12 months starting July 1 of either $98.8 billion or $122.5 billion—depending on your budget approach. One way would mean a $10.3 billion deficit. The other way the deficit would be $11.9 billion.

But Kennedy insisted that such heavy red-ink spending would be succeeded before too long by budget surpluses and widely sharpened prosperity if Congress would approve his new $10 billion tax cut plan.

Lecturing the lawmakers, some of whom are skeptical of reducing taxes without companion spending cuts, the Chief Executive declared:

"Our present choice is not between a tax cut and a balanced budget. The choice, rather, is between chronic deficits arising out of a slow rate of economic growth, and temporary deficits stemming from a tax program designed to promote fuller use of our resources."

Not unexpectedly, Republicans termed Kennedy's spending plans incredible, cynical and illusionary. Democrats who spoke out praised specific programs such as defense and space but were cautious

Constable Grady Hall also was unanimously reappointed as chief of the police and fire departments.

Council committee appointments made by the mayor, who serves with each group, included Nixon and Fritch, finance; Frank Gerhardt and Stephenson, streets; Stephenson and Fritch, recreation; Gerhardt and Nixon, utility; Palmer, community house; Fritch and Gerhardt, public buildings and Gerhardt and Nixon, water.

Building inspector will be Palmer who also will serve on the building committee along with Fritch and Gerhardt.

State Must Gamble—Bryant

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant said today that Florida must take a gamble it cannot afford to lose in beefing up its system of higher education to meet demands of the space age.

Florida's tremendous population gains have put it in the major leagues among the states of the nation, Bryant said, although its financial resources are nowhere near those of states with which it must compete.

For Water System Additional Appraisal At Altamonte A Must

The Housing and Home Finance Agency has notified Altamonte Springs that further appraisal of its proposed water system, in its entirety, must be provided before final approval can be granted on the town's application for funds.

Correspondence from the HHA stating the necessity for additional information and statistics was read at Wednesday night's meeting of the Town Council by Attorney S. J. Davis Jr. who a few minutes later reported that he will begin validation proceedings by Monday for sale of the town's $350,000 revenue bond issue.

Davis agreed with Harold Radcliffe, consulting engineer on the town water system, that a documented file containing complete records and reports along with an engineer's verification appraisal and report on what has been done should be sufficient to satisfy the agency request.

An invitation also will be included for a government engineer to come down, if necessary, to make a thorough inspection of the system.

In other reports on the town's new water system, Davis announced that the closure sale of Southern Gulf's $32,000 system had been completed and was now the property of the town.

The former owners, who automatically will maintain operations for a few days, offered to submit a monthly cost schedule for continuing the job. However the council will meet within a week to consider hiring its own part-time employee to take over the duties which mainly consist of daily plant inspections and reading the meters.

Radcliffe presented a progress report which included a bill from Ball Builders in the amount of $1,630.98 for tying in Oakland Estates with the existing Oak Park water system, pointing out that the amount was $100 less than the bid price.

The motion was recorded to accept the system, pay the bill and authorize execution of the owner's certificate of acceptance. Payment will be due within 31 days.

The Housing and Home Finance Agency, headed by Dr. Robert C. Weaver, is the agency responsible for coordinating the Federal urban development and housing programs of the Public Housing Administration, Federal Housing Administration, Urban Renewal Administration, Community Facilities Administration and the Federal National Mortgage Association.

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said the taxpayer would be the loser—either through inflation fired by bigger federal spending or by having promised tax savings gobbled up through Kennedy's tax "reforms."

Conservative Sen. Harry F. Byrd, (D-Va.) also was sharply critical. He said that if Congress went along with the Chief Executive's tax cut plan, the federal deficit probably would approach $14 billion. He said Kennedy's claimed savings were "questionable."

As promised in his State of the Union address, Kennedy held the line or made reductions in such non-security functions as agriculture and the postal service. He said he felt obliged to limit such programs in view of the prospective revenue loss under his tax program.

But declaring that "there is no discount price on defense," he asked for $51 billion in military funds, up $2.7 billion from this year. He also sought a record $6.1 billion for space programs, with most of the $1 billion increase going for the program to land men on the moon by 1970.

The President allotted $1.9 billion for foreign aid and urged the lawmakers not to repeat last year's deep cuts. He said Fred China's attack on India and Communist guerrilla warfare in South Viet Nam are "current reminders" of the importance of the program.

Rail Talks Set By FEC, Mediator

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI)—A federal mediator was scheduled to begin talks today with railroad officials and union members over a threatened strike against the Florida East Coast Railway next Wednesday.

James Holaren was scheduled to arrive here today to open the talks.

The 11 non-operating rail workers unions are threatening to walk off the job and set up picket lines charging that the AFEC refused to go along with a general raise recommended by presidential committee last June.

About 35 top union officials from across the nation met in Jacksonville Wednesday to discuss the dispute. J. H. Hadley of Jacksonville, vice president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees AFL-CIO presided over the meeting.

Forest City Groups Discuss Area Improvements

By Shirley Westworth
Representatives of the Forest City Community Assn. attended Tuesday night's meeting of the Forest City Merchants Assn. to discuss needs and improvements of the area.

Attending from the group were C. M. Atchley, newly elected president and Murray Long, Richard Lashley and Allen Forward.

Also present as guests were Blaine Lydick and Walter E. Whitaker, members of the board of directors for the Welkiv Volunteer Fire Dept. Welcome and introductions were made by Dr. Kenneth Wendell, presiding official for the merchants.

Plans were announced and a report made by William Morris for the widespread distribution in the area of a local business directory which can readily be attached to telephone books.

Atchley advised the merchants of the Community Assn. plans for building a Community Center in the area and asked for their assistance with the project and in "making something out of the area."

He went on to explain the recent attempt to establish a fire district for Precinct 12 which the association spearheaded under the direction of Forward, immediate past president, and advised that the project will be continued and an effort made to have the issue come before the voters in the next general election.

He asked for backing from the merchants in the effort and concluded with an invitation for "one and all" to attend regular meetings of the Community Assn.

Services of the Volunteer Fire Dept. in the area were explained in detail by Whitaker who reported the volunteers would wholeheartedly support any attempt on the part of the precinct to obtain its own fire department.

He added that until that time, however, the Welkiv Dept. stood "ready, willing and able" to serve the area in case of fires or emergencies.

He advised that negotiations are now underway between the firemen and Forest Lake Academy to provide free telephone service for the area to the department.

He also distributed rate cards containing meeting dates of the firemen.

Complaints were registered at the meeting against hours of the branch post-office which is closed and locked on Saturdays and Sundays.

GOP Attacks Kennedy Budget

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republicans today attacked President Kennedy's record budget for fiscal 1964 as incredible, radical, cynical and illusionary. They deplored its large deficit.

Democrats hailed Kennedy's provision for increased defense and space funds but many were cautious in their over-all appraisals and suggested that cuts in spending be made.

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said the budget made "a mockery of the administration's brave talk of letting the taxpayer keep more of his own money through tax reduction."

"What the taxpayer thinks he will save will be taken away from him either by so-called 'tax reform' or by an increase in the cost of living," Halleck said. "Either way, the taxpayer looks like a loser in the end."

Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., of the Senate Finance Committee said Kennedy's estimated savings were "questionable." Byrd said that if Congress went along with the President's proposed tax cut, the deficit would approach $14 billion.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said the spending blueprint was "incredible." He said Kennedy was advocating a puzzling theory that the bigger the deficit, the better. "In other words," he said, "the best way to correct mistakes is to make bigger ones."

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, called it a "cynical budget tailored so it won't cross the $100 billion mark." He said it meant Kennedy had abandoned the thought of a balanced budget for his term of office.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas, (D-Ill.) said: "The budgeted increases are due almost entirely to the space and national defense expenditures. But there are lines, as in every budget, in which economies can be introduced and there are tax loopholes that can be plugged."

Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., senior Republican member of the tax-writing House Ways & Means Committee, said: "The President's budget can only be termed a radical proposal."

Garden Club Hears Talk By Stenstrom

By Louise Simunek
Problems developing in Seminole County due to rapid population growth were enumerated for members of the Altamonte Springs Garden Club at their supper and program meeting last week by Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the county's long range planning and development committee.

Stenstrom said that perhaps the most important problem developing from the population increase has been that of the schools pointing out that by 1968 it is expected there will be approximately 23,500 students attending county schools.

Remarking that it has taken 49 years to build the present school system, he advised that it would take another complete school system to handle the new students.

He pointed to the widening of SR 436 as the only major road work on the agenda for 1963 advising that the road will be a four-lane highway complete with gutters and sidewalks, which will lead through Altamonte Springs into the new Interstate 4.

Since completion of the Interstate on into Orlando is not expected for some time a great deal of traffic will travel through Altamonte on the way out to Hwy 17-82, Stenstrom said.

By Mema Grinstead
The North Orlando Garden Club will begin work Saturday on planting cherry laurel trees in the village as its annual beautification project.

Members are asked to meet at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Shirley Ryan on Edgemon Ave. from which point the work will be assigned.

Trees will be planted on Edgemon, Fairfax and Devon Aves.

He touched briefly on local problems this increase in through-town traffic would bring to the community in closing his talk.

During a brief business meeting following the covered dish supper the club voted to donate $25 towards the purchase of a new stove for the Community House. It later was learned, however, that the town already had planned to buy the stove and therefore the club's check may not be needed.

Announcement was made that six teams remain in the shuffleboard contest and that it is hoped playoffs will be completed this week.

Father-Faculty Game Set At Lyman

By Jane Casselberry
Lights have been burning late recently in the Lyman gym as the school dads work overtime to perfect their basketball skill in practice plays which they hope will baffle their opponents on the faculty team.

The "Fathers versus Faculty" basketball game will take place at 8 p. m. Friday and is sponsored by the Lyman Athletic Boosters Assn.

Proceeds will go towards needed improvements on the football field. A sprinkler system will be installed, the field rebuilt and resodded and additional bleachers and lighting provided.

School Superintendent R. T. Milwee, who is playing for the Dads, has shown a great deal of promise during workout. Ken Burkhart, usually associated with the sport of baseball as a big league umpire, also has turned out to play for the Dads as has Joe Pavelchak, Jim Birkenmeyer, Henry Duncan, Jack Simpkins, Bill Simpkins, John Wagner, Phil Perreault, Harlan Goplen and Bob Means.

Among those playing with the teachers will be Ralph Diggs and Jim Payne of Lyman and Principal John Angel, James E. Cole and Bill Edwards have been recruited from South Seminole Junior High.

Moms have been busy practicing cheers to spur the Dads on to victory. Dot Pavelchak, Betty Wagner, Doris Burkhart and Evelyn Birkenmeyer will serve as cheerleaders for the game.

The Boosters hope that everyone will come out to the game and enjoy an entertaining evening while helping raise funds to improve the field.

Project Alert Gives Program For Lyman High PTA Meeting

By Jane Casselberry
The Lyman High School PTA met Tuesday night in the school auditorium. The program was provided by Don Hunt of Project Alert who introduced a film, "Communist Encirclement" which traced the history of Communism from Lenin to the present time.

Hunt, who works at Martin Co. of Orlando, conducted a question and answer session following the showing of the film.

He told of hearing a talk by a man who had been in Red China and knew firsthand the atrocities committed against the people by the Communists.

Project Alert is an organization formed two years ago in Orlando to educate people to the dangers of Communism. It will provide speakers and films for schools, churches, clubs and PTA groups.

Marion Martin gave the devotional and President Burton Ferrell presided over the meeting.

James Birkenmeyer gave a short talk on PTA Founder's Day and the traditional Founder's Day collection was taken. These collections taken by PTA's all over the United States go to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers for the training of workers.

Mrs. C. F. Fields, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced that the fund raising project will be a Donkey Basketball Game to be held in the gymnasium on Tuesday, February 19.

The Band Boosters Assn. announced a chicken dinner and band concert to be held Saturday, Jan. 26, at the cafeteria.

Following the meeting refreshments of punch, coffee and cookies were served in the cafeteria by mothers of the first five sections of the 10th grade.

Citrus Prices At Premium

LAKE LAND (UPI) — Weather problems throughout the world have combined to force the price of citrus and citrus products to premium prices.

Florida Citrus Mutual said Wednesday that freezes in December wiped out 20 per cent of the world's output of winter oranges and tangerines in the United States and Spain.

Cold weather has damaged citrus crops to some extent in California, Texas and Arizona and other weather disturbances have caused scattered damages in other citrus producing areas of the world.

The freeze in Florida resulted in a loss of 30.90 per cent of the orange crop, while the freeze in Spain caused a loss of 64.81 per cent. The two areas showed a net loss of 60,448,000 boxes of oranges, or nearly 12 million more boxes than the combined output of summer oranges in southern hemisphere nations.

Prior to the recent cold snap, in other citrus areas of the United States it was estimated crops would be somewhat larger, thus cutting the total net loss in the U. S. to 24.9 per cent.

The full extent of damage to citrus in the other states has not been assessed, but Mutual said California sources said that state "probably lost 2.5 million boxes of navel in central California alone."

The result of the freeze and shortage of fruit is reflected in current prices for oranges. The Market Research Corp. of America reported today that the weekly average price to the consumer for a six-ounce can of frozen orange concentrate in November was 15.9 cents.

In December the figure fell to 15.7 cents but had started to rise toward the end of the month.

By the end of the first week of this month, the average weekly price for the same six-ounce can had risen to 20.1 cents. This week the price ranged between 22 and 23 cents.

The increased cost in concentrate at the retail level is due to the high prices processors pay for oranges at the plant. Prior to the freeze they were paying mostly 20 cents per pound of solids delivered. The latest price announced this week was 50 to 55 cents with a few purchases at 60 cents.

Kennedy Budget Summary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Highlights of President Kennedy's record high federal budget:

SPENDING — Regular budget, $98.8 billion, up $1.3 billion from this year, creating a deficit of $11.9 billion. The bulk of the increase goes to defense and space. Including trust fund outlays for Social Security, highway construction and other earmarked programs, spending would be $122.5 billion with a $10.3 billion deficit.

INCOME — Estimated revenues of $88.9 billion, of $11.2 billion when Social Security taxes and other trust fund receipts are counted.

TAXES — Cut corporate and individual income taxes a net $10 billion over three years. Impose $100 million in new user taxes on air freight, aviation and large line fuels. Extend for another year $1.6 billion in existing excise taxes.

DEFENSE — $51 billion, up $2.7 billion, to build and maintain a military force "able to resist any opponent, whatever his choice of weapons." It includes $600 million as the first installment of a new pay increase for members of the armed services.

SPACE — A record $0.1 billion, an increase of more than $2 billion. The largest single item is $2.7 billion for the project to land two men on the moon before 1970.

HEALTH — A revised medicare program to provide health benefits for 17 million elderly citizens, effective Jan. 1, 1965, to be financed by high Social Security taxes and partly by direct appropriations. Earmarks $1.6 billion for other health programs, up $200 million, with increases going largely to medical research and construction projects.

FOREIGN AID — Spending for military and economic aid to friendly nations estimated at $3.7 billion, down $100 million. Military aid is being trimmed $300 million; economic assistance increased by $200 million.

EDUCATION — An increase of $165 million to a total of $1.5 billion includes $144 million as down payment on a new school aid program that has not been unveiled yet, and about $105 million to stimulate training in sciences.

FARM — Slashed the Agriculture Department budget by $928.1 million, to $6.6 billion, with estimated savings to come from expected sales of government-owned surplus cotton, and proposed new program for dairy products and feed grains.

WELFARE — $3.1 billion for public assistance and welfare grants to the states; includes funds to provide higher benefits voted by Congress last year for needy adults and dependent children, also $70 million for aid to Cuban refugees.

URBAN — Will propose again creation of a cabinet-level department of urban affairs; recommends $500 million for grants and loans to cities for mass transit projects; an additional $500 million for urban renewal programs.

NATURAL RESOURCES — Start 32 new public works projects involving flood control and conservation at a cost of $348 million. Overall spending of $2.8 billion for land and water resources development. Will propose construction of power lines connecting the Pacific Northeast and Pacific Southwest.

Liggett-Rexall Stands Behind The Quality!

It's About Time!

The City Commission has wisely decided to go into a massive water improvement program which could (if started in time) prevent any water rationing this summer here.

Monday night, spearheaded by Mayor Tom McDonald the commission agreed to set a meeting Jan. 28 with Engineers Clark, Dally and Dietz to put the show on the road and start working on plans for the project.

This plan would include a water treatment plant and new well field.

The entire project would cost nearly a million dollars. . . A lot of money, you say—but would you prefer water rationing?

It wasn't too long ago that City Manager W. E. Knowles emphasized the need for water improvements (this was in 1960). The city continued to table action putting the sewage treatment plant first because of rigid safety regulations.

We just hope we aren't too late in getting the water improvement program off the ground.

The Nut At The Wheel

A common phrase today in news accounts of automobile accidents is "the car went out of control."

Newspapers resort to it partly because the exact circumstances are often far from clear, and partly because to say "the driver lost control" is to open the way for possible suit.

In one sense it is too bad this is deemed necessary. For the effect of the vague language is to suggest that automobiles have wills of their own and in certain situations just take over and cause accidents.

Sometimes, of course, this is true. Steering mechanisms break. Brakes fail. Blows out occur. Hoods fly up, blocking the driver's view.

In relatively few serious accidents, however, is mechanical failure responsible. Where control is lost, the human factor is usually involved.

The Transportation Institute at the University of Michigan has studied driving behavior to cast light on this problem.

Bruce Greenfield, the institute's assistant director, reported on the latest of these studies in a paper for the Highway Research Board meeting in Washington.

Using a device called a "drivometer and traffic events recorder," researchers gauged driver actions, vehicle motions and traffic situations. A 15-mile course offering varied conditions, from business streets to expressways, was used.

Then the researchers sought out, with the aid of state officials and insurance companies, high-accident drivers and those with a long list of serious traffic violations.

The advance guess of the experimenters was that the behavior patterns of the violators and causes of accidents would show many similarities—but would contrast sharply with the performance of acknowledged trouble-free drivers (driver trainers were used).

The extensive tests bore this notion out. Comparisons indicated that high-accident drivers changed speed nearly twice as often as trainers, moved the steering wheel about twice as much, applied the brakes 50 percent more frequently, altered direction roughly 25 percent more often.

Altogether, it was found that driver actions (steering wheel, accelerator, brake) average 877 for the trainers but averaged 707 for the high-accident drivers.

Further comparisons showed that the latter group's patterns are most like those of high school or beginning drivers.

Researchers concluded, too, that steering wheel movement was the most sensitive measure of difference between good drivers and the accident-prone.

In this study the sample was small. It constitutes just a beginning. Many factors are involved in moving the wheel too often. Bad distance judgment, for instance, may require constant corrections of positions. So may chronic inattention. Or that great summertime favorite—wrist or two-finger "control" of the wheel.

The institute's experiments are an encouraging step forward. We are getting away from the idea that the steering wheel is a kind of automatic pilot that somehow must bear responsibility for much of the carnage which occurs on the streets and highways.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Britain's Moment Of Truth

In the words of no less a personage than Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, the moment of truth is approaching for Britain's bid to join the European Common Market.

Unless a change can be brought about in French President Charles de Gaulle's attitude the chances appear no better than even, and perhaps less than even.

Much depends on these protracted negotiations, as can be seen in a flurry of conferences—Macmillan to Rome, Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani to Washington, German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder to London.

Until the issue is settled, perhaps within the next 90 to 90 days, the question of a common European defense policy must be held in abeyance, as must European political unity and negotiations toward a freer world trade as seen under the United States' trade expansion act.

Without a final decision, British businessmen have no way to forecast the future and British foreign and domestic policy must remain at a standstill.

At the center of this is De Gaulle, and to a lesser extent Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

This week De Gaulle rejected both President Kennedy's offer of Polish missiles for France and the Nassau agreement on a multi-national nuclear arsenal for NATO. He also sounded what could be the death knell for British entry into the common market.

Yet, unless he is willing to stand totally alone, De Gaulle might not hold the final answer.

De Gaulle's strategy has been aimed at even closer ties with West Germany, and Adenauer has gone along, including De Gaulle's tough terms for British common market membership.

But Adenauer is a lame-duck chancellor. Schroeder wants Britain in the European family, as do a reported 80 percent of the West German people.

Italy, facing isolation in a Europe dominated by a Paris-Rome axis, not only favors Britain in the common market but also supports the idea of a multi-national nuclear deterrent under NATO.

WHAT WILL 1963 DO TO THIS PICTURE?

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Doris is not likely to have a divorce for she is using good sense about picking a husband. You girls cast the "peony" votes for your future unborn children when you choose their father, so give them a break. Select a man of whom they will be proud and with whom you will also be happy through your Golden Wedding Day. Use the tests below. CASE O-434: Doris H., aged 17, is a high school senior. "Dr. Crane," she began, "how should a girl decide whether a boy is the sort who would make a good husband?" "I don't plan to marry till I am through college, but I expect to date a great deal. "So what are the essential traits to look for in a possible husband?" While I was teaching at Northwestern University, I made a survey of 1,187 unmarried girls and women between the ages of 16 and 42. They were asked privately to list the chief merits and demerits regarding their boy friends. Here are some of the Merits: The boy is neat in appearance—shoes shined, hair cut, shaved, suit pressed, etc. He is fond of children. He is a careful auto driver—not a show-off speedster. He attends church and encourages his girl friend to do likewise. Uses good English with a minimum of slang. Has high ideals and firm convictions about right vs. wrong. Shows respect and consideration for other women besides his girl friend. Mixes well with people. Usually good humored and jolly. Compliments his girl on her looks, clothes, cooking, etc. Not a "clam" who takes things for granted. Ambitious! He works or studies for future advancement. He is healthy and athletic. He is prompt for appointments. Or telephones if he is unavoidably detained. He is generous with his money but not a splurger or show-off. True to his girl friend while going steady. Not a "two-timer." Comes from a happy family. Has brothers and sisters who show that they like him, too. Industrious. He can hold a job. He is well read on things besides sports and hot rod cars. Not a finicky eater. Eats a wide range of foods. Shows some executive ability. He can make a talk in public or lead the singing or get people to cooperate. He is artistic in his love making and not a glutton for kisses or a fellow with "Roman" hands. He is polite and courteous to his girl's parents and her friends. He was a Boy Scout and also earned his own money. (A former newspaper carrier rates double attention, too.) He has confidence in his girl friend and is not insanely jealous or possessive. If he quarrels, he talks out the problem instead of sulking or putting for days afterwards. Tomorrow I shall list the Demerits cited by these 1,187 women so please scribble

Matter Of Fact

If you bring home red wine and the menu calls for white, just decolorize the red one by filtering it through charcoal. Wine lovers will certainly be able to tell that you have the wrong wine, but any chemists in the group will admire your scientific knowledge. When shaken with a colored solution, filter-type charcoal often retains the colored substances, leaving the solution colorless.

Overshoots Field

SÃO PAULO, Brazil (UPI)—A crippled Brazilian airliner overshoot the airfield here in a rainstorm Tuesday and crashed in the city, killing at least 10 persons, injuring about 30 and wrecking three houses.

Peter Edson Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Prospects for fewer strikes with fewer man-days of idleness in 1963 than in 1962 do not appear too good.

At least 94 major labor contracts for bargaining units of 5,000 workers or more are due to expire in late spring and early summer. They affect a total of 1.2 million workers.

Reopening of wage contracts for off-train railroad employees and basic steel industry workers can be requested in May. They affect a total of 300,000 workers. The other 300,000 workers under contracts that may be reopened this year are in the rubber, telephone and electrical equipment industries.

While the 1,250,000 workers affected by the preliminary Bureau of Labor Statistics estimate of 3,550 strikes starting in 1962 was the lowest number since the end of World War II, the number of work stoppages and the 19 million man-days of idleness they caused were higher than the year before, though below the levels of most postwar years.

The 1961 record was 3,367 strikes, causing 1,450,000 workers 10.3 million man-days idleness.

For the average worker on strike, the loss of employment caused by strikes was 15 days in 1962, 11 days in 1961.

Of the 16 major strikes last year, each affecting more than 10,000 workers, seven were in metropolitan area construction industries. Others were in the eastern garment industry, Lockheed Aircraft, Eastern Airlines, Allia-Chambers, Chicago and North Western Ry.

The New York City area had more labor difficulty than any other part of the country, with major strikes settled for garment workers, schoolteachers, electrical, telephone and construction workers. The New York newspaper and longshoremen's strikes, starting in 1962, carry over into 1963.

What seems to be happening, according to labor analysts, is that major strike settlements made under Secretary of Labor James L. Mitchell during the Eisenhower administration and under former Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg in the Kennedy administration are now expiring.

Renewal of these contracts under changed conditions is now the headache of Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz.

The important difference is that most of the settlements in the Mitchell and Goldberg eras were straight economic agreements in which wages, fringe benefits and working conditions were the principal issues.

But the No. 1 strike issue in the closing months of 1962, continuing to 1963, is job security. Labor union officials are becoming increasingly concerned by what is happening to workers who lose their jobs through automation—technological advances which tend to reduce employment.

This is the big issue of "featherbedding" in the skill-unrelated dispute between the railroads and their on-train employees. It will also be the big issue in the contract negotiations for off-train employes which comes to head next May and June. A complete tie-up of all railroad services is a possibility that must be seriously considered. Job security will also be a major consideration in the May contract reopening for 250,000 steel workers and the June negotiations for 25,000 aluminum workers.

Some further wage increases negotiated under existing contracts will automatically go into effect this year. They will go to 3.3 million workers—1.8 million in manufacturing (mainly auto and farm equipment industries), 604,000 in construction and 900,000 in nonmanufacturing—mainly trucking and retail trade. The automatic wage increases range from six and seven cents an hour in manufacturing to 10, 15 and 20 cents an hour in the building trades.

Grand Jury Indicts Four In Mississippi Rioting

OXFORD, Miss (UPI)—A federal grand jury Tuesday night indicted four men on charges of obstructing the enrollment of Negro James H. Meredith at the University of Mississippi.

The men, arrested during the 14 hours of bloody rioting that followed Meredith's admission to the campus last Sept. 30, were from out of state.

They were listed as Melvin Bruce of Decatur, Ga., and Phillip Lloyd Myles, Richard H. Hinton and Kline Lamar May, all of the Mobile, Ala., area.

All four were included in each of two indictments. The first indictment, a felony carrying a maximum penalty of a $5,000 fine and three years imprisonment or both, charged the men with willfully interfering with U. S. deputy marshals in the performance of their duties. The second indictment accused the men of trying to prevent the marshals from carrying out a court order, a misdemeanor punishable with a $1,000 fine and one year imprisonment or both.

Bruce had a high-powered rifle when marshals arrested him on the campus. During the rioting a sniper armed with a rifle shot at marshals surrounding the university administration building.

U. S. Attorney H. M. Ray said the indictments were included in an interim report by the grand jury, composed of 14 men and two women, which began its session early last week.

A final report is not expected until next week. The jury decided not to indict two other persons in the case but authorities would not say whether one of those was former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, who faced a variety of charges, including rebellion.

Federal authorities arrested 11 persons during the rioting that claimed two lives.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson Hello. How is the weather treating you? Glad to see the rainy weather recently. It was badly needed. . . . Granny Norwood, who just turned 90 years old, was certainly surprised recently when the Elder Springs HD Club gave her a birthday party. Granny is a charter member of that club. Congratulations and happy birthday Granny. May you have many more. . . . And also happy birthday to Elizabeth Warren. She was a year older Jan. 5. . . . Also happy birthday to my little granddaughter Carol. She just turned three. . . . Very sorry to hear that Chester Daniels has been quite ill. I hope he is much improved by this time and able to get out again. He and Mrs. Daniels reside on the Markham Rd. . . . Naomi Sapp has just returned from Valdosta Ga., where she was called by the death of her niece, Mary Alice Clifton. Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Sapp and also the parents of Mary Alice. . . . Since returning home Naomi has had the flu bug bite her. . . . The Monroe HD Club met on Thursday, Jan. 3 and heard Kim Barley speak on stocks and bonds. He also showed a film entitled "The Lady and the Stock Exchange." Was very interesting. Had two guests at the meeting. One was the twin sister of Miss Wilson, our county agent. Hattie Wilson who has been here visiting Miss Myrtle. She is from Alabama and Beatrice Manning, who is the daughter of Mable Carroll and who has just moved here from Hampton, N. Y. So glad to have them with us and I think we can get them to be with us regularly. Hope so. . . . Had a call from an excited lady a couple weeks ago. She told me that she thinks that the Florida Power and Light Co. is a wonderful company. It seems that a dog had run her little kitten up the light pole in front of her home on the old Monroe Rd. She said her name was Mrs. Gladys Smith and that she had only been living in the Herbert Tourant home for five months. She was worried about her black kitten so she called the power plant on First St. She talked to Tolar Rabun and Tolar told her that it would be a very dangerous task to get the kitten down. The kitten could come in contact with the wires and it would electrocute it and the men too. So he sent two men out there to see about it. So, in the eyes of Mrs. Smith, Dickie Carter and Don Partain are just wonderful to her and she would like to tell them that she is eternally grateful to them for saving her little pet. It was a wonderful gesture on their part because they took a big chance with their lives. It's people like these that makes this world a nice place. . . . Rev. William O. Luttrull of Trafalgar, Ind., and Mrs. Jean Reynolds and son, Stanley, were dinner guests of ours the evening of Jan. 2. Rev. Luttrull is pastor of the Trafalgar Methodist Church and was visiting friends here in Sanford for a few days. He assured me he left the cold weather in Indiana. . . . Sharon Giles, Charles Rabun and Gene Bullard were among those from the Seminole High School Glee Club going to Daytona Beach Thursday afternoon to clinic. They do this every year before going to district and then state. I had the pleasure of going with them last year to Miami for clinic and enjoyed it very much and so again this year I had been asked to go with them. So last weekend we were in Daytona. I got to hear quite a few boys and girls doing their numbers in solo and groups. It was very interesting to listen to them go through their routines. Miss Whittle has a good group of singers this year and I know they have made her proud of them. . . . Olga Hunter and her sister, Alice Nordgren, motored to Orlando recently where they attended a shower for Alice's daughter-in-law. They reported a very wonderful time. . . . Our thought this week is by Marie Dressler, a movie actress of years ago. "Cooperation — Never one thing and seldom one person can make for a success. It takes a number of them merging into one perfect whole."

TITUSVILLE (UPI) — Five county school superintendents urged action by the Florida Education Association today to oppose a deadline set by Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin for teacher examinations to qualify for higher pay.

The superintendents of Brevard, Orange, Volusia, Lake and Seminole Counties agreed that if Ervin does not change his ruling, it should be fought in the courts. And if it cannot be defeated in court, the battle should be taken to the State Legislature, the superintendents said.

Ervin has ruled that teachers seeking pay increases must have filed their national teachers examinations scores by June 30, 1962. This eliminates possible pay hikes for teachers who planned to take the tests in February.

The superintendents asked that the State School Superintendents Association be polled to see if members agreed with their four-point program.

The program provides that the Association ask the Florida Education Association (FEA) to arrange a meeting with various state officials and Ervin to see if he will change his ruling to allow admission of scores up to April 1, 1963.

I Want Liston - Clay

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Cassius Clay is 21 today but instead of making a birthday wish he made a few predictions.

"Powell will fall in five," Clay said after bouncing into Pittsburgh for his heavyweight match here Jan. 24 with former pro footballer Charley Powell.

Then without taking a breath he continued: "I don't even shave yet, I'm barely old enough to vote and I'm ready for the crown."

"I want Liston in the next 10 months. I'm determined to be the youngest champ in history."

Clay is ranked third among the heavyweight contenders, having won all 18 bouts. He astounded the boxing world last November by calling his knockout over Archie Moore in the fourth round.

"All my predictions are reasonable," Cassius said, "they all must fall in the round I call."

"The reason I pick Powell in five is because he's young and he's strong and I've never seen him fight. It may take an extra round to learn his style."

"But if he should try to tackle me, I'm going to cut my prediction to three rounds."

"I never dream of losing. There is no man on two feet that can keep up with me. I may be a heavyweight but I fight like a flyweight."

With that Cassius took a short rest before starting again.

"Do you want to hear my poem?" he asked. Without waiting for the answer he started.

"This colorful fighter is something to see
And heavy-weight champ I'm sure he will be
You get the impression while watching him fight
He plays cat and mouse and turns out the light.
"What a frustrating feeling I'm sure it must be
To be hit by punches you can't even see
Where was he first and where was he last
How can you conquer a man so fast.
"I am sure opponents have tried their best

But one by one on the canvas they rest."

Clay will begin training for the fight today at the Sberwyn Hotel in downtown Pittsburgh. Hotel officials have converted part of a floor into a training area complete with ring and Cassius will work out there.

He's invited all his fans to come and he says quite frankly "they will see the prettiest fighter, the most talked about and the best fighter in the world."

There's another line in Cassius' poem which he saved to last.

"Everyone knew when Cassius wasn't around
For quickness descended on the town."

BOXER OF YEAR By Alan Mauer

Hoyt Welcomed By White Sox

By United Press International

Some call, others raise, but Hoyt Wilhelm simply stood pat and came out a winner.

The Chicago White Sox were the ones who raised the ante, tearing up a 1963 contract Wilhelm already had signed with the Baltimore Orioles a week ago and giving him a new one at an unasked-for "increase in pay."

Technically, the White Sox didn't have to do it.

The 39-year-old Wilhelm, who had a 7-10 record and a 1.94 earned run average with the Orioles last year, signed with them last week for approximately the same $22,000 he received in 1962.

The Orioles sent that signed contract to the White Sox last Monday when they traded Wilhelm, Ron Hansen, Dave Nicholson and Pete Ward to Chicago for Luis Aparicio and Al Smith.

Palmer, Player Top Choices In Crosby Golf

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—The world's greatest fun tournament, the $50,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur event, got underway today on three golf courses with the pack expected to chase Arnold Palmer and Gary Player.

This is the tournament in which all of the gate goes to charity, with Bing picking up the check for expenses.

The professionals play for $35,000 in the pro division and $15,000 in the pro-am, and if one man should win both sections he could collect $50,000 for the four days of work.

While Palmer and Player, with victories in the Los Angeles Open and San Diego Open, respectively, this year, are the advance stars, the defending champion is Doug Ford.

didn't expect it last July when he was toiling for San Diego of the Pacific Coast League after being sent down by the Kansas City A's.

But the Reds, with whom he originally broke into the majors at the tender age of 15 in 1944, brought him back up from San Diego last July 18 and he proceeded to register five straight victories for them without a single loss.

Along with the 34-year-old Nuxhall, club president William O. Dewitt also signed two more members of the Reds Wednesday. They were pitcher Jim Owens and catcher Tom Tlachinski. Owens, acquired from the Phillies, has a 2-4 record for them last year while the 18-year-old Tlachinski, who was drafted from Portland of the PCL, batted .238 for Daytona Beach of the Florida State League.

The Chicago Cubs signed three more of their players, making a total of 28 with only 13 to go. The three Cub signees were veteran infielder Alex Grammas and rookie infielders Herb Newman and Mack Kuykendall.

Pittsburgh signed three and now has 10 men under contract for the coming season.

Bob Friend, who won 18 and lost 14 last season, was the first of three Pirates to sign and he was followed by rookie pitchers Bob Priddy and Tom Butters.

Collier Set To Guide Browns For 1963

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Blanton Collier, a man well-versed in the Paul Brown football system, will guide the fortunes of the Cleveland Browns in 1963.

The former University of Kentucky coach was named to the post Wednesday by Art Modell, Browns president, who said "Blanton was my first choice and the only man I talked to."

Collier, who steps up as head man — succeeding his longtime friend, Brown, fired last week—signed a three-year contract calling for an estimated $38,000.

The 44-year-old Collier, after being announced as the new coach, told newsmen he would retain all of the team's assistant coaches and one and possibly two others would be added. The present assistants are Howard Bixler, who was also named personnel director; Howard Brinker, Dick Evans, Frits Helmer and Ed Ulinak.

Modell also announced that Harold Sametral, the team's business manager and a former sportswriter, will take over as the new general manager.

Collier, the second head coach in the 17-year history of the team, said he agreed to succeed Brown, "the man who gave me my start in professional football," only after careful thought and "with emotions so conflicting that I find them most difficult to explain."

"I was offered the job last Sunday," Collier said, "and I immediately contacted Paul. He told me, 'You must accept the job. You have your family to think of. I understand.'"

Two Pace Fronton Action

Jacin and Lovri had to make it the hard way to win the All Star eighth Wednesday night at the Orlando-Seminole Jai-Alai Fronton.

Aldas and Iriarte took second place in a playoff with Arratibel and Zerra settling for show position.

Gusti slipped by Arratibel in a climactic finish to take the featured eighth game singles.

Zerra, Astigs, Abasole and Anacabe worked their way to two wins during the evening performance. Abasole's victory advanced him two games in front of Martin in the race for singles honors.

Miami Beach Seen For Title Heavy Go

NEW YORK (UPI) — Rejected as a possible site once before, Miami Beach again was named today as the likely place where the return heavyweight title bout between Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson will be held on April 4.

Tom Bolan, president of Championship Sports, Inc., (CSI), said the bout probably will be held there on that date after "certain things" are cleared up at meetings in Chester, Pa., Thursday and Miami Beach next Monday.

Liston originally broke down negotiations for a Miami Beach fight last week when he said he would not defend his title there against Patterson until he was "satisfied about a lot of things."

Bolan feels Liston will be satisfied after the meetings.

Bolan and Jack Nilon, Liston's adviser, have had several conferences recently, apparently about releasing some of the $207,000 being held in escrow to guarantee Liston's return bout with Patterson, whom he knocked out in one round at Chicago last Sept. 25.

Liston insisted that the return bout contract was broken when CSI failed to pay him an agreed upon $50,000 within 24 hours after his key of Patterson. The government impounded CSI's receipts as tax liens and Bolan claimed he had "nothing to do" with the action.

McRoberts Gains In Kegler Play

McRoberts Tire gained on its lead with a four-point win from Stempers' Real Estate in the Sandapurs bowling league.

Holding onto second place the Welsh Tire Shop obtained a three-point win from the Pierso Mfg. Company. And Jet Inn stays in third place with a three-point victory over Allis of Sanford. Also claiming three points was St. John's Realty from Factory Paint.

Marge Kipp came through for high series in the week's play with a 508. Peggy Stewart had a nice series of 508 and also high game of 508 of the night, a big 504. Louise Hoford rolled an even 500 series.

Other nice games were had by Jane Adeock, a 190; Marge Kipp, 183; Louise Hoford, 186; Sue Jackson, 180; Marion Farella, 176; Betty Callan, 175, and Jean Webster, 172.

Karras To Explain Gambling Statement

NEW YORK (UPI) — Star tackle Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions may get his opportunity today to explain a televised statement that he bet on at least one pro football game to National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Rozelle refused to disclose when Karras actually bet on the game but he warned that "a serious breach of league rules" may have taken place and reports were that he will confront the 245-pound player sometime today.

"Alex Karras will be given an opportunity to explain published statements attributed to him," said Rozelle. "Such action constitutes a serious breach of the player contract and the constitution and by-laws of the league."

In Karras' interview with an NBC television reporter, he was asked: "Do you bet on ball games?"

"I have bet on a ball game," answered Karras.

"Have you ever bet on a ball game in which you were playing?" he was asked.

"Yes, I have," replied Karras.

Russell Sparks Eastern Upset

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Even if Bill Russell doesn't score a point he's one of the finest players in basketball. When he scores 19 there's probably no one better.

And the Boston Celtics star did score 19 Wednesday night—in addition to hauling down 24 rebounds and blocking a myriad of shots—so naturally the Eastern squad upset the West, 115-108, in the 13th annual National Basketball Association All-Star game.

"Russell just dominated the game," moaned West coach Fred Schaus of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Russell also dominated the most valuable player voting, easily winning the award for the first time in six all-star appearances.

The 6-foot-10 center, along with some slick ball handling by Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati and Bob Cousy of Boston, stunned the West squad which opened the game with what was billed as the greatest offensive lineup of all time.

DePaul did have a perfect basketball record going its way when it crossed paths with Notre Dame for the first time this season just one week ago, but the Irish ended the streak at eight games.

However, the Blue Demons evened the score on their home court Wednesday night by romping to an 83-68 victory over their nearby Indiana rivals.

It was sweet revenge for DePaul, which lost last week's decision by 20 points. This time it was the Blue Demons who got off to an overwhelming lead in the first half and coasted home without being threatened in the second.

DePaul Gains Sweet Revenge

United Press International

It's too late for DePaul to dream about an unbeaten season, but a victory over the Irish of Notre Dame is reason enough for a celebration on the Chicago campus today.

Homemakers Corner

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Hill Well, we have some more good recipes this week from homemakers. But first let's talk a little about breakfast. Do you have a "problem eater" at home? Say a youngster who is never hungry in the morning or always in a hurry and can't take time to eat?

According to the peanut growers of Alabama and Georgia there is a way to stop them. Make breakfast a meal of foods that aren't "breakfast." The idea of "breakfast" is just what the word says: break - fast. And there is no law that insists that you break the fast of the night in any particular way...

You can get a child to drink milk in a great many forms—in celery or tomato soup, for example or in ice cream. If he is down on eggs, try hiding them in some other food. For example, fix an orange egg nog with milk, powdered orange drink and egg. With it serve a peanut butter and bacon sandwich.

Here are three nutritious, energy-rich "unbreakfast" breakfasts to try on your problem eaters. 1. A ham and tomato sandwich on whole wheat bread and a peanut butter chocolate milk shake (mix 2 tablespoons peanut butter and 2 tablespoons chocolate syrup with a small amount of milk until blended, stir in enough milk to make a tall glass, and add a scoop of vanilla ice cream).

A measuring cup which holds 2 cups is a great aid when pouring batter for muffins or cup cakes. This size cup holds enough for filling a chewy. The Nestle test kitchen of the Nestle Company has a booklet entitled "Favorite Cookies From Other Lands" which I have obtained. In it are 16 recipes from 16 different countries. I will put one each week in the column. This week we have French Almond Meringues. "Fancy things" is the phrase which is usually associated with French baking and French chefs are famous for sauces, meringues, kisses, souffles and light dishes with eye and taste appeal. These "fluffy" foods might seem difficult to make considering the beating and care to acquire the proper results, but once the art is practiced it is soon done professionally.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Melt over hot water (not boiling) 1-6 oz. pkg. (1 cup) Nestles Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels. Remove from water. Cool 5 minutes. Combine and beat till stiff but not dry. 3 egg whites. 1/4 tsp. vanilla. Beat in gradually till very stiff. 1 cup sugar. Fold in 1/2 cup blanched almonds, finely chopped. cooled semi-sweet morsels. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cookie sheet, bake 10 to 12 minutes. Yield, 4 dozen.

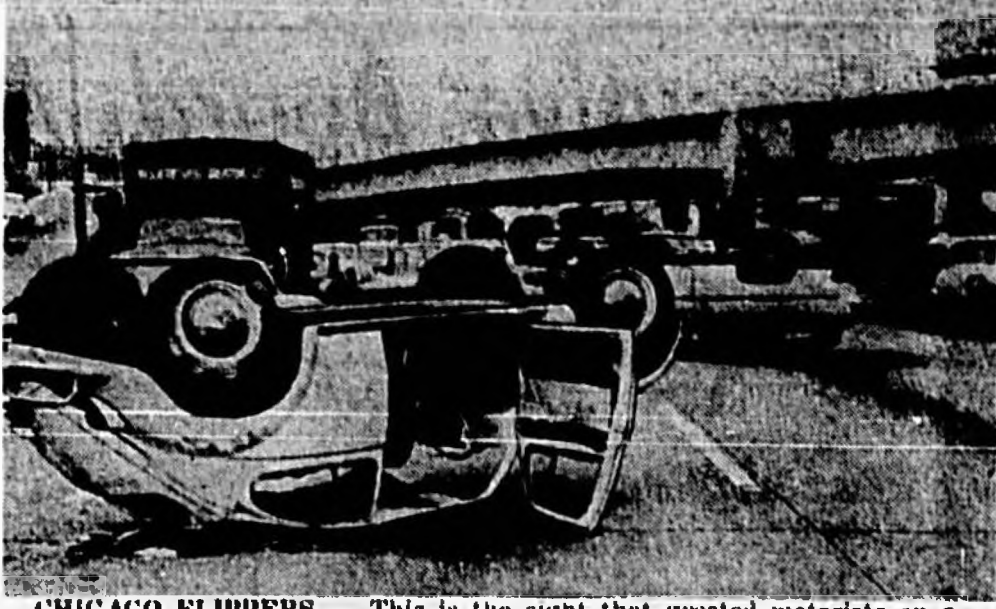

From Mrs. John Harasta comes: Frankfurters with Hamburger Sauce

1 tbsp. fat. 3-4 small onions chopped. 1/2 lb. hamburger. 1 No. 2 can tomatoes. 1 tsp. chili powder. 1 tsp. salt. 1 tsp. sugar. 1 lb. frankfurters. hot dog rolls. Brown onions in fat, add hamburger and cook for a few minutes tossing with fork. Add remaining ingredients and simmer gently for 45 minutes. Prepare frank to suit individual taste, either boil, steam or broil. Split rolls, place frank in center and fill cavity with hamburger sauce. Serve very hot. This sauce is also good on spaghetti.

Now that cauliflower is coming in on the local farms let's try this Cauliflower Au Gratin. 1 medium sized cauliflower. 1 1/2 cups thin white sauce. 1/2 cups cheese. Salt and paprika. Buttered crumbs. When the sauce is smooth, add the cheese, salt and paprika and pour the sauce over the cooked cauliflower. Turn the mixture into a buttered baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs. Brown in moderate oven 350 to 400 degrees 15 to 20 minutes.

At Gainesville New Hospital Funds OK'd

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy asked Congress today to approve $4,763,000 for construction of a 480-bed veterans hospital in Gainesville, Fla. The request was included in the president's budget message for fiscal 1964 which asked for an $81,000,000 veterans hospital construction program. The veterans administration originally intended to use $1.7 million at Gainesville which had previously been appropriated for the veterans hospital at Bay Pines, Fla. The House and Senate appropriations committees, however, instructed the VA to use the $1.7 million for Bay Pines as originally planned and to seek additional funds for Gainesville.

Following the business meeting a film was shown on the "Life Story of Mother Pauline," the foundress of the order of the Sisters of Christian Charity. Sister Alwina, principal of the All Souls School also spoke to the members and answered their questions.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I should be the happiest boy in the world today but I am not. Here is what happened: I started taking violin lessons at school from a teacher who is hired by the school to teach whole classes. I used a violin owned by the school because my father hasn't been able to work much lately and we couldn't afford to buy one. Well, this morning the violin teacher GAVE me a wonderful violin. He said the father of a student who refused to practice called him and told him to give the violin to anyone who would use and appreciate it. He chose me. I love the violin but I know whose it was, and I feel terrible taking it. What should I do?

FEELS BAD

DEAR FEELS: Don't feel bad. If the boy who first owned the violin valued it, his father would not have given it away. Master the second-hand fiddle and one day you might make concert master.

DEAR ABBY: Is it wrong to send a single girl (age 19) a wedding invitation and write on the bottom of it, "Bring Mac"? (Mac is her boy friend.) My future mother-in-law said it was wrong and I should have sent Mac a separate invitation. What is your opinion?

GETTING MARRIED

DEAR BETTING: To be proper, one should send a separate invitation to each unmarried guest. Handwritten notes on formal wedding invitations are out of place. These include "No gifts, please," "No children under

12, and "Bring Mac."

DEAR ABBY: Our son has been in the Army for a year. At first he saved almost all his pay. He'd bank it where he was stationed and send home his bank book to prove it. Lately he hasn't been sending home his bank book. We are afraid he is spending his money on his buddies to become popular, and in no time he will be broke. He is very immature and has no sense of responsibility. Can we get the government to send us his pay so we can save it for him? We will, in turn, send him an allowance to live on. He doesn't need much as the Army is housing and feeding him.

SOLDIER'S PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: In only very rare and exceptional cases will Uncle Sam step in and protect the little from a man who's protecting his country. Impress upon your son the importance of saving, and pray he does.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. D.: A spoiled child never loves its mother. You had better get some professional counseling before it is too late.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Howard Schenken and Peter Levitt are the veteran pair on this year's American team. Howard played with me in 1935 when we won the first international match and he and Peter played together on the 1961 team which finished second.

Howard's bidding of the North hand shows this experience. He used the Blackwood four no-trump to check for aces and continued with five no-trump to tell his partner that he was willing to bid seven. Howard did not want to go to seven himself because his club suit was too weak and

A strange thing about this hand is that if North had dealer the bidding would have gone exactly the same way with South jumping in clubs, using Blackwood and bidding the same spade slam.

Six is a fine contract, but a lot of players would go down on account of the bad club break. Peter made the hand easily. He drew trumps, took the diamond and heart tricks, led the seven of clubs from his own hand and let it ride. East won the trick and was helpless. A diamond or heart lead would allow a ruff and discard, a club would give Peter three club tricks.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

When a man can't afford something he says so, but when a woman can't afford something she'll hedge. So says an advertising executive.

That is why it takes infinite tact for a salesperson to keep from losing the woman customer who is hard to "please."

And the interesting thing is that the swankier the shop and the snootier the saleswoman the more imaginative become a woman's "reasons" for not buying something she can't afford.

If the clerk suggests looking at something a bit less expensive, the customer is likely to say haughtily, "No, the price is quite all right," and walk away insulted.

The dress that costs too much is the wrong shade, or the neckline isn't becoming, or the dress is too much like one she already has in her wardrobe.

The tactful clerk just happens to remember another article that might be exactly right — without at first mentioning that it is also quite a bit less expensive.

She may not fool the sales clerk but by finding fault with the dress instead of the price, she leaves the shop in the manner of a woman disdainful of what she has been offered instead of as a woman who can't afford what she wants.

These words mean what they say: Ruth Millett's booklet, "Happier Wives (Hints for husbands)." Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 10, N. Y.

The sofa that is exactly what a woman wants until she is told the price suddenly develops all kinds of disadvantages. It is too low or the color is a little off or it is too long for the space where she wants to put it. Too expensive? Of course, not.

Temporary officers will be elected at the meeting and all prospective members are urged to attend.

All women and girls who are wives, mothers, daughters, sisters or widows of veterans eligible for membership in the American Legion are invited to join.

Tactics Sharply Hit By Stephenson

North Orlando Councilman Bob Stephenson branded Wednesday's 9:30 a. m. special called council session "entirely unfair and unjust" and labeled it as a "typical example of North Orlando Co. tactics."

He said "held entirely at the convenience of the company." At the present time Stephenson and Anderson are the only elected officials on the council. Elections will be held in March for the posts held by Fasula, Ruel Stripling and Clarence Memory who serve on the board through appointment by the company.

Casselberry Mayor Makes Appointments

The recommended appointments by Casselberry Mayor Fred Heath were approved almost unanimously by the board of Aldermen at Monday night's meeting.
The only real dissent came over the naming of a five-man Zoning Board which finally was approved by the deciding vote of newly elected Chairman Ed Lunn.
Appointed were Herman Joyce, a holdover member and Graham Wilson, Elton Bennett, John M. Burns and J. A. Birkenmeyer. Voting for the recommendations were L. E. Woodhams and Art Lego; against, Cliff Overman and George Howard.
The appointment of Clyde Fues as building inspector was tabled until the February meeting. Overman, who presently holds the job, already had requested that he be allowed to continue with work under way.
The appointment of a lighting chairman also is pending due to ill health of Herbert Maley, who held the post and was recommended for another term. In the interim, W. L. Tilford accepted the job.
Other appointments made were those of George Lewis and Fred Erdman as police patrolmen; James L. Birkenmeyer, city custodian; J. D. Self, Drexel Lee and Don Williams, road board and Edward Stout and Thomas Mackey, recreation commission.
The board agreed to abolish the building committee until such time as a city building fund can be established.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A Job Well Done

The extent of high esteem and deep respect felt for Paul Bates, retiring chairman of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen, was shown by residents attending Monday night's meeting when the entire audience gave him a prolonged standing ovation accompanied by an enthusiastic round of applause.
No individual ever deserved it more. . . . This civic minded man, whose life already was filled with services to his town, spent innumerable extra hours during the past year in order to work out the ever increasing problems coming before the board to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.
The Herald would like to go on record in agreement with Casselberry residents that he has done a magnificent job for, in our estimation he has led the town, with dignity, through one of its most trying periods of growth and development.
Although some of the projects he would like to have seen completed still await final action, he and his fellow board members can most assuredly take credit for laying the groundwork in much of the progress yet to come to the Town of Casselberry.

NEW OFFICERS of the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Dept. Auxiliary were installed last Thursday night by Mrs. Mack N. Cleveland Sr., left.
