Wage Hike Reported To Be 181/2 Cents; Steel Raise Said To Be $5.25 Per Ton

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, (A)-White House advisers have stated that President Truman's, many conferences in the past few days have achieved an agreeon a wage increase for CIO steelworkers and the question of United steel's demand for a raise in the price of steel is said to have been solved. The wage increase figure is reported to be President Tru-man's proposal of 18½ cent an hour pay boost. Officials in the know say on the question of retroactivity now delays final agreement.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is guiding the progress of the Packinghouse wage dispute in its next step. The Ravine Gardena, closed to the public for several years during the war, were officially re-opened last Sunday. Built in a natural twine where mignolias, bays and places have made a beauty spot for centuries, these gardens now boast 105,000 asaleas in full bloom, 2,500 japonicas, 1,500 dogwoods, not to mention innumerable roses, flame vines, myrtles, chrysanthemums and bongalnvilles. FEEDING EUROPE

President Truman has called upon the people of the Uni-ted States to tighten their belts and do what they can to-keep as many people as possible from starying to death in Europe. He suggests that the use of wheat be drastically Act curtailed, that transportation facilities for food shipments be increased, and that rationing of meats, fats and oils be resumed if necessary.

While it may come as something of a shock to the people of this wountry to learn six months after the war is over that they will have to keep on eating things they do not like and skimping on certain items of which they are very fond, they will no doubt respond to the President's appeal, recognize the very real desperation of the people of Europe and make such sacrifices as are necessary to restrict suffering to a minimum.

But to say that we are willing to do that does not mean hat we are entirely satisfied with the political and social conditions in our own country which have at last made shortages fully apparent to everyone and are still interfering profoundly with the resumption of full production.

There would be a far greater willingness to share generously with unfortunate peoples everywhere it there were greater effort everywhere to overcome existing shortages.

Much of the propaganda at present stimulating strikes, slow-downs and work shortages in our own country comes from abroad and in many cases from the very people with whom we are asked to share. And we are not speaking entirely of Russia and communist propaganda. Many of the agents fomentic; management labor strife in this country are not Russians and they say they are not communists.

But if there is not enough near to go around and we are going to be asked to reduce the amount of meat in our dief, then it should be one of the first responsibilities of our government to see to it that work stopages in the meat DEED SO NIGGARDLY THAT packing industry are prevented. by 34 percent since war began on account of union regula-tions and a general unwillingness to work at maximum efficiency, then the government or someone has a job to do in restoring the morale of our workers.

For surely we cannot feed the world, nor even provide ourselves with the necessities of life from our factories as long as men remain unwilling to produce,
