"No warnings will be given. Citations will be issued and arrests will be made." South Seminole Constable Bob Jane declared today in announcing a strict enforcement in his district of the speed limit in "I plead with all the motorists traveling in South Seminole County to please obey all the posted speed zones and to pay particular attention to the school zones. "There is no fine that can alleviate the conscience of a motorist who has struck a child. There is no prison term that can replace a student killed by a motorist," the constable said as he pointed out that speeding in a school zone is "inexcusable, especially during the first week of school when so many young children are confused about where they are supposed to go and where they are supposed to be. "These young children are also excited and more interested in meeting new people and renewing old friendships than being aware of motor vehicles. "I've instructed all my men to strictly enforce the law as to school zones," Jane concluded.

A concerned parent called after hearing Charles Collier, holder of a bus franchise for Sanford, say it would cost $70 a day to operate a mini-bus carrying capacity of 10-12 passengers over a deviated schedule to avoid state requirements governing transportation facilities. The vehicle would, in effect, be a chartered service with a staggered route that might eventually include Lake Mary and Geneva, Collier added. Alex Serraes, merchant president, suggested that off-duty firemen could be used as drivers and this would enable operation without having to hire a full Collier said 12 months would be required to get an indication of how the service was being accepted. In another action, the merchants shifted the annual Christmas Parade to the Saturday morning after sion will discuss a revised 1969-Thanksgiving, and left it up to the Jaycees to come 70 fiscal budget during a 4:30 up with plans for the Sanford event.
