Less Than 50 Per Cent Vote Seen In Seminole

City Will Elect Five To Offices

A. L. WILSON EARL HIGGINBOTHAM THOS. S. McDONALD DONALD HALES FRED HISTLINE RAY SLATON

Less than 50 percent of Seminole County's 16,608 registered voters is expected to turn out Tuesday to express their respective choices on state and county issues, select three of four candidates for school trustee and, in the city, elect two commissioners.

Gov. Farris Bryant already has been quoted as expressing concern over the voters' apathy toward three amendments to the state constitution.

The county's 23 polling places will be open for voting from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Main issue of local interest is the race between Mayor Thomas S. McDonald and former Mayor Earl Higginbotham for McDonald's seat on the City Commission. Both candidates have been campaigning vigorously... but the public has shown little interest in the contest. Winning candidate will be seated for three years.

Former Mayor A. L. Wilson is unopposed for re-election to his fourth term on the City Commission. He issued a statement today, which reads, in part: "If elected to serve another term I will, as in the past, strive to represent you, the people, fairly and impartially in your city government. Working always for orderly growth and expansion, keeping the best interest of our taxpayers in mind, so as to give a maximum of benefits and services for the lowest tax dollar."

Wilson also urged all qualified voters "to go to the polls and support the statewide amendment on higher education along with our local county issue in order to provide funds for this most worthy cause."

Another race which has not excited much interest is the election of three school trustees. Seeking re-election for two-year terms are Donald Hales, Fred Histline and Ray Slaton. Also in the race is newcomer, John Keim, retired Army man from Lake of the Woods.

Voters also will pass on a 2.75 millage for the school district and a one mill levy for the school building and bus reserve fund.

Of prime interest to all county voters is the county issue. If approved Tuesday it will permit the County Commission to continue in its efforts to have the proposed East Central Florida four-year state university located in Seminole County.

Five sites in the county have been proposed, one offered gratis by three property owners. However, if the State Board of Control should select one of the other four sites it must be purchased.

The vote Tuesday will determine the County Commission, if one of those four sites is selected, may call for a special election by the county freeholders to approve or reject a bond issue to raise funds for the purchase of the site and subsequently present it to the state.

The State Board of Control has announced it will make its selection of one of 23 sites in six counties at its Dec. 8 meeting at Boca Raton. However, it has been learned that the County Commission will be apprised beforehand if a Seminole site is under consideration so that soil borings and other tests may be made before Dec. 8.

Also to be voted on Tuesday are three amendments to the state constitution:

1—To change the date for election of governor and cabinet members to an off-presidential election year.

2—To permit the State to sell $75 million in bonds for capital outlay in new universities and junior colleges and other institutions of higher learning.

3—To permit the State Board of Conservation to sell revenue bonds for the purchase of lands for recreational purposes and for water conservation.

2.1 Million In State Eligible To Vote Tuesday

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A quarter of Florida's 2.1 million eligible voters are expected to mark their ballots Tuesday with the prime issues of college construction and state elections in the balance.

The ballot will be cluttered with local issues in many of the large counties, but interest will be centered around a $75 million bond amendment for college construction and a proposal to switch election years of the governor and cabinet.

Also on the statewide ticket is a proposal to authorize the Cabinet to finance the purchase of recreational land areas with bond money.

The three statewide issues — all constitutional amendments — cannot go on the books without approval of the voters.

The college bond proposal, which is expected to pass despite a warning by Gov. Farris Bryant that "voter apathy" could kill it, drew support from Sen. George A. Smathers, (D-Fla.) and State Rep. Fred Karl of Daytona Beach Sunday.

Karl is an announced candidate for governor in 1964 on the Democratic ticket.

Smathers warned in a speech at Fort Pierce that the state's population increased by 78 per cent between 1950 and 1960 and "now is the time to act if we don't want to slip out of the space age back into the horse-and-buggy era."

Drowns In Canal

Two Sought In Local Robbery

Search was being pushed for two Negro "muggers" who beat and robbed Thomas Bush and his wife, Winnell Bush, at about 11 p. m. Saturday when they closed the Seminole package store on Highway 46 East.

Mrs. Bush, who manages the store, lost $200 of her personal money. Store receipts were not stolen.

Bush reported when they closed the store they found a flat tire on his car, the tire valve removed. Mrs. Bush crossed to a pay telephone to call a service car and found the wires cut.

The two masked Negroes then appeared, beat the couple and fled with Mrs. Bush's purse containing her own $200.

Constable Bob Carroll reported a suspect was questioned and released.

Candidates Report

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida's two announced candidates for governor, Rep. Fred Karl and Sen. John Mathews Jr., reported today that together they have received contributions so far totalling $12,243. But they have spent a total of only $1,578.

PILE-UP OF THREE CARS, one atop the other, was fantastic, law officers reported this morning in telling of a smash-up on the St. Johns River Bridge northwest of Lake Monroe.

Driver Badly Hurt In 3-Car Pile-Up

One motorist was injured and a bridge tender and his wife escaped injury at about 2 a. m. Sunday when three cars stacked up atop each other and the bridge tender's home nearly wrecked.

Isaac Dulaney Jr., 36, of Orlando, suffering from internal injuries, was reported in "fairly good" condition today at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

State troopers, sheriff's deputies and Constable Bob Carroll said that Dulaney lost control of his car in approaching the entrance to the St. Johns River bridge at the northwest corner of Lake Monroe.

The officers reported Dulaney's car jumped a guard rail, smashed into the parked car of the bridge tender, Matt Olli. In the smash-up, Olli's car ended up atop a parked compact car, with Dulaney's car atop Olli's.

The car also damaged the bridge tender's home in the middle of the bridge. Mrs. Olli had just left her bedroom moments before the crash. Officers said Dulaney was thrown from his car and smashed a porch upright.

Officers estimated damage at $6,000-$10,000 to the guard rail, $1,000 to the house and $1,000 to the three automobiles.

His first job with the local volunteers will be supervising the equipping of the 1000-gallon fire truck which has been obtained as the number one unit in supplying the community with modern fire protection and which is expected to be ready for action within the next two weeks.

Garrett's Open House Thursday

Garrett's Department Store will hold an Open House from 7 until 9 p. m. Thursday at its new location, 300 East First Street, the former Yowell Store.

Business at the present location, 323 East First Street, will be closed after today.

J. M. Garrett, manager, in announcing plans for the Open House celebration, said today that there will be door prizes, including a set of silverplate and that the first 100 women attending will be presented a carnation.

Mrs. A. E. Mallem, who spent the first dollar at the present location, will be given another dollar to make any purchase of her desire at the new store thus giving Garrett the unusual distinction of having the two "first dollars" spent in his business.

On display will be old fixtures from the Yowell store in contrast to new modern fixtures in the building. Also on display will be Garrett's collection of museum pieces including old violins, money and papers, many of which date back to the 1800s.

Mme. Nhu May Stay Awhile

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, first lady of the deposed South Viet Nam government, kept herself secluded in her eighth-floor hotel suite today and speculation grew that she would remain in this country indefinitely.

The U. S. State Department advised Mme. Nhu by telegram Sunday that her three children in South Viet Nam are safe.

2 Ex-Convicts Arrested In Safe Burglary

Alert Sanford police, aided by a stroke of good fortune, apprehended two armed ex-convicts early today in connection with the safe burglary of a grocery store on French Avenue earlier.

In Sanford City Jail are Eugene Hatten, 31, and Clarence Moore, 34, both Negroes. They were charged with suspicion of breaking and entering the Little General Store, 2303 French Avenue.

When the pair was apprehended around 2 a. m., a small safe containing more than $400 was found in the trunk of their automobile, along with burglarly tools.

A .38 caliber pistol was also found in the automobile when Police Officers Larry Hamrick and John Rumbley made the arrests.

It was a speeding offense which led to the pair's downfall.

Officer Hamrick stopped Hatten's automobile for speeding in the vicinity of the store on French Avenue. At the time the officers had no knowledge of the store burglary. However, on passing the market the officers noticed it had been broken into, and, on checking the inside, discovered the safe had been taken and the food counter wrecked. They then found the safe in the men's car.

Police Chief Roy Williams said his department is investigating the possible connection of Hatten and Moore with other burglaries and break-ins in the area recently. He specified the Home Builders Supply Company on West Seno-bole Boulevard. The firm was broken into last week and a safe containing about $100 stolen.

The FBI files in Daytona Beach show that Hatten and Moore both have long records of breaking and entering and safe-cracking offenses.

W. E. Mathes, manager of the Little General store, said the break in early this morning was the second time his store had been burglarized within a month. He said the store was damaged about $10 when the burglars destroyed a counter to reach the cylindrical floor safe.

Chief Williams noted there has been a "large number of break-ins in Sanford, Orlando and Daytona Beach recently. We believe the arrest of these men will stop some of them."

Hatten and Moore were both recently released from Ral-ford Prison.

Reds Hint Joint Spectacular

MOSCOW (UPI) — The world's first space walk was launched on a brief Russian honeymoon today before embarking on a possible joint spectacular in the cosmos.

Cosmonette Valentina Tereshkova, a lovely bride in white with a near-blond hairdo, disappeared from a boisterous reception Sunday night hand-in-hand with spaceman Andrian Nikolayev.

Twenty-one toasts rang in their ears, most of them hoisted by Premier Nikita Khrushchev who said he was acting as "father of the bride." Valentina's father was killed in World War II.

Air Force Chief Marshal Konstantin Vershini, in raising his glass, hinted that the bride and groom might go in orbit together one of these days.

"I wish you further great successes in the air and the cosmos," he said.

Valentina, in her 48-orbit space flight last June, almost linked up with cosmonaut Valery Bykovsky, who was whirling around the world in a second spaceship at more than 17,500 miles per hour.

Dream... And Achieve

Here's something to tell the boss the next time he catches you with both eyebrows on the desk:

Creative daydreamers are more apt than nondreamers to achieve the goals they set for themselves. They have it over the nondreamers in the matter of creativity, resourcefulness and original thinking, too.

At any rate, that's the finding of psychologist Jerome L. Singer in an article in Today's Health magazine. A study of daydreaming in hundreds of men and women of various ages and walks of life showed that the frequent daydreamer has a higher degree of self-awareness and a deeper insight into his own personality.

"Being better acquainted with his inner-most urges and desires," explains Singer, "he is better able to provide them with adequate means of expression."

In other words, the daydreamer knows what he wants. If, in addition, he possesses sufficient moxie to translate his desires into action, he has a definite edge over the nondreamer in achieving what he wants.

But if he fails to couple insight with action, he will remain just a frustrated, Walter Mitty-type, wishful thinker, far worse off than the person who does not daydream and who is more contented with his lot.

So get those elbows off the desk, anyway. For the study also revealed that most daydreaming occurs shortly before sleeping, not at work.

Nothing Like Success

For the last few years the leaders of organized labor have had thrown up to them more and more evidence that the labor movement as such is not advancing at pace with a growing nation.

Overall union membership is relatively static. Automation's inroads into such fields as steel and coal have sharply cut the strength of once great unions. Labor's organizing efforts have not taken big hold in the expanding service trades and other white collar fields.

But this, it would seem, is only part of the story. Recently some key members of the United Auto Workers undertook some candid self-examination in a discussion joined in by representatives of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions.

Some fairly stunning comment on the trend among unions emerged from that conversation, now reported in print by the center.

Since the end of World War II, it was stressed, unions have been winning fewer and fewer elections as plant bargaining agents.

In case after countless case, local union memberships in disputes over wages and working conditions have refused to accept international union leaders' recommendations on specifics—or on whether or not to tangle with a company.

Feds of worker opinion have showed that many workers see big unions as almost as much detached from their personal interests as they believe employers to be.

To great numbers of workers, unions seem to have lost any strongly positive function and have become glorified service organizations. Collective bargaining practices are judged inadequate to cope with the really pressing matters of automation and unemployment.

On top of all this, many companies are vastly more ingenious and imaginative in dealing with workers' demands and complaints. To the degree they perform this role well, they further undercut unions which grew to maturity battling for things companies would not give without a fight.

With unions appearing to countless workers as part of the same Establishment inhabited by management, the workers take the benefits and the "service" where they find them—and give no particular allegiance either to company or union.

Virtually all these observations were subscribed to by union men taking part in the center's discussion. But, aside from suggesting that unions become more active politically in order to free the movement from some restrictions, these men had few proposals for pumping new life and purpose into organized labor.

Maybe that is symptomatic. Unions are losing effect today because even their staunchest advocates cannot yet see clearly what new role they can play in a fast changing country.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Who's Responsible?

The federal spending budget will be higher next year. There will be another deficit. And, as usual, no elected official will accept responsibility for this dangerous fiscal situation. It just happened.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon outlined the situation the other day before the American Bankers Association in Washington, D. C. From the voters there should be — but isn't — a rising taxpayer chorus: "Oh, yeah?"

Dillon told the bankers there would be a further moderate increase in the federal budget for the 1965 fiscal year. This budget will be submitted to Congress next January to begin functioning on July 1, 1964. Dillon said the spending increase was caused by conditions over which government had little control. That invites another skeptical: "Oh, yeah?"

Responsible, Dillon said, was the sharp step-up in defense and space needs during the past three years, reflected by appropriations previously approved by Congress. No one responsible? How's that again, Mr. Secretary?

Individual congressmen are responsible because the money cannot be spent unless it is appropriated. The President and the executive branch are responsible because they spend the money after Congress appropriations.

Dillon packs a fat share of responsibility because he has been a big, policy-making man in two big spending administrations. Both failed to make economics in non-defense items as defense needs increased. These two administrations were under Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy.

Dillon is substantially accurate in saying that defense needs during the past three years have greatly increased. He didn't mention that non-defense spending also has been increasing. Anyway, a 10-year span is a fairer standard than the past three years in judging the trend of political spending by the federal government.

It is absolute baloney that defense spending created the budget deficits that have afflicted the U. S. Treasury in eight of the past 11 years. Ditto for the deficits that will afflict the Treasury next year, the year after that. For example:

In fiscal 1954, defense, international affairs, space and research spending was $48.8 billion against $63.3 billion in the current '64 fiscal year. That is an increase of $14.5 billion. For the same years, non-defense spending was $19.5 billion and $36.7 billion, a hike of $17.2 billion. So, from 1954 to 1964 fiscal years, inclusive non-defense spending increased $2 billion more than did the non-defense outlay.

As the very steep defense spending trend developed, Congress and Presidents, then and now, permitted non-defense spending to increase also. This should chill the taxpayer-voters against all politicians. Republicans are nearly as bad as Democrats when it comes to spending other people's money to stay in office.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — There is no justification whatever for an increase in the U. S. price of bread as a result of wheat sales to Soviet Russia and Communist bloc countries, says Department of Agriculture grain expert.

Rumors of an impending bread price rise have sprung up in various parts of the country as a result of wheat flour price rises recently announced at Minneapolis, Kansas City and Texas milling centers. These increases are seen as seasonal adjustments and not big enough to warrant a rise in bread prices.

Millers and bakers would be playing with dynamite if they used the Communist wheat purchases as an excuse to raise flour and bread prices in the United States.

The rumpus caused by steel price increases after the last strike settlement and the federal grand jury investigation into more recent steel rises would be nothing compared to the uproar over a bread price rise now. Experts point out, however, that in a free world market, there are bound to be some fluctuations in reflection of changing conditions.

World wheat prices advanced from an average of $1.79-$1.81 to $2.16-$2.40 a bushel on a purely speculative basis when Russia made its first half billion dollar purchase from Canada. Previously, Canada had sold wheat to Red China and the U. S. protested at $1.74. The U. S. protest at this low price.

But wheat futures did not advance further when Russia let it be known she wanted to buy U. S. wheat and President Kennedy announced that such a sale would be approved.

Wheat flour price fluctuations are another story. A year ago, flour sold in Minneapolis at $5.95 to $6 a hundred pounds. Last July, when the 1963 wheat crop began to be harvested, the price dropped to $5.50-$5.55. The Oct. 23, 1963, price was $5.75-$5.80.

Bakers did not lower the price of bread when flour prices went down last summer. Presumably, bakers bought wheat ahead last summer, before recent grain price increases. Bakers, therefore, have no justification for raising bread prices for at least six months, or even longer if there are no further increases in wheat and flour prices.

The recent 20-cent price increase on 100 pounds of flour warrants an increase of only one cent on a five-pound bag of flour. The comparable, justifiable price increase on bread would be about one-fourth cent a loaf.

Though there is now an increased world demand for wheat from Communist bloc countries, there is no short supply justifying any price increases.

The U. S. wheat supply is estimated at 2.3 billion bushels for the 1963-64 crop year. With domestic use of 800 million bushels and normal exports of 800 million bushels, the carryover as of July 1, 1964, would be 900 million bushels.

Russia and its satellite countries have been talking about purchases of four million tons, which is 150 million bushels. Most of this wheat would have to come from U. S. government stocks, acquired at a cost of $2 a bushel, average.

The government's Commodity Credit Corp. is prohibited by law from selling this at less than 105 per cent of the present support price of $1.82 a bushel, which is $1.91. With world market price running below this figure, CCC makes a daily determination of the export subsidy it will pay to make up the difference. This has been running from 50 to 60 cents a bushel.

If Russia & Co. buy 150 million bushels of U. S. wheat, CCC will have to write off a loss of $90 million.

Payment will not be made in cash, but in wheat, which grain dealers can market for whatever they can get.

But in getting rid of this wheat, the government saves on storage costs.

At an average of 26 cents a bushel per year for storage, maintenance and handling, the saving on 150 million bushels would be $39 million a year, or $105 million over five years, the average time CCC hold its wheat.

The total purchase price on 150 million bushels of wheat, including transportation charges, is expected to be $260 million. This would show up as about a $200 million saving on the 1965 fiscal year U. S. budget and an improvement of that amount on the balance of payments.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Polly's case is duplicated thousands of times each year. So be sure to read the inspiring booklet below. Keep it on hand to offer consolation to friends, parishioners or patients who receive this shocking blow. Clergymen often pass this booklet around to such persons.

CASE Q-851: Polly M., aged 18, was a lovely college freshman.

Recently she accepted a ride to her home town, for one of her college classmates also lived there.

He invited Polly to go along for a weekend visit with her family.

Gaily they headed out of the college town on Friday afternoon.

But a drinking driver swerved into their lane and had a head-on collision.

Both Polly and her companion were killed almost instantly.

As sometimes happens, the drunk wasn't hurt very badly. But you can imagine the shock to Polly's parents.

"Oh, Dr. Crane," her mother pleaded, "I feel as if I shall go out of my mind."

"What can you say to help us in this time of grief?"

"For Polly was such a wonderful girl—and just in the prime of life."

"Her Daddy and I feel numb inside and still are going around almost in a stupor. At night we cry ourselves to sleep in each other's arms, for we feel the need of comfort even though it's been two weeks since the funeral."

Mrs. Crane and I know how you other parents feel, for our oldest son, George IV, was killed when a companion nicked his jet plane high above the crowd at Glenview Naval Air Field.

George could easily have bailed out, for he had 2,000 feet altitude.

But he feared his jet would crash into the huge crowd below, so he wangled it down to a vacant city block in the residential area nearby.

And to make sure it didn't strike houses, George rode it to within 200 feet of the ground, so his parachute didn't have time to open after he had ejected from the seat.

George's wrist watch was smashed at 2:50 that fateful Saturday afternoon.

And within a few minutes, the Chicago radio announced his death, so we got it as an unexpected shock, just as Polly's parents did. We felt numb and in a stupor, too.

It was much like receiving a boxing blow to the solar plexus, for we felt pain in that region and actual nausea.

Friends and newspaper readers bought us up with cards and flowers.

These not only inspired us very definitely, but diverted Mrs. Crane's mind as she read the cards and condolences.

Many parents, who had lost their only child, thus bravely tried to give us solace, though we still had four other children to sustain us.

That was one of the things we marveled at, even at this worst point of our shock and grief.

The flowers and good wishes also gave us a strange feeling, too, of being buoyed up by the everlasting arms of the Almighty. It's difficult to describe the sensation, unless you go through it.

The shock of losing a loved one in the prime of life, who was not sick and thus who had given no warning of possible death, is probably the worst blow to parents.

So send for the booklet "A Salute to George," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It contains Edgar Guest's beautiful poem "To All Parents," and the clergyman's inspiring funeral sermon.

Give it to anybody who faces the same situation as Polly's parents. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Balloting To Reflect Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Voters elect governors in Mississippi and Kentucky and a mayor in Philadelphia Tuesday in off-year balloting that may reflect the political impact of the civil rights issue. Political strategists were watching these contests with particular interest because Negro demands and white reaction to them have been of major concern in all three races.

Hundreds of other elections for state, county and city offices will be held across the nation, but state and local issues appeared predominant in most of them.

Major cities holding municipal elections include Cleveland, Columbus, Youngstown, Akron, Canton, Toledo and Dayton, Ohio; Boston; San Francisco and San Diego, Calif.; Rochester and Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Indianapolis, Ind., and Tucson, Ariz.

First Cold Snap Hits Nation

United Press International
Twin cold fronts knitted into the Midwest and the Pacific Northwest today, touching off rainfall and continuing the nation's first general cold snap of the season.

The Weather Bureau said "copious" rain fell from California to Canada, and the snow line lowered steadily through the western mountains, especially in the Cascade and Sierra Nevada ranges. Early morning temperatures hovered in the 30s over much of the East, and it rained in St. Louis. Scattered showers also fell in southern Illinois and other parts of Missouri.

There were light snow flurries in northern New England Sunday, and light rain fell over the Florida Keys, Texas, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, Illinois, the central Rockies and the north Pacific coastal regions.

Temperatures Sunday ran from 14 at Kalispell, Mont., and 18 at Marquette County Airport, Mich., to 84 at Presidio, Tex., and 83 at Yuma, Ariz.

The 37 at Tampa, Fla., was the coldest on record for this early in the season. The effects of the long drought from Texas to New England continued to be felt. The Wabash Valley Association estimated total loss to crops and industry at between $75 and $85 million in Indiana alone.

Lions In Easy 24-6 Victory

By Joe Ward
(Herald Sports Writer)

Oviedo beat Melbourne Central Catholic, 24-6 Friday night.

Outcome of the contest was never in doubt, as Oviedo limited the Huskies to one touchdown in the last quarter.

The Lions scored in each quarter, and Oviedo's first score came on a two-yard plunge after moving the ball 60 yards down the field.

The 61-yard punt return by Billy Mikler proved to be the big play of the game, Melbourne never threatened after the first quarter, being held to a net rushing of 17 yards, in the second quarter Oviedo moved the ball 66 yards downfield, with two passes in the entire series, one to Mikler for 12 yards and one to Ted Bellhorn. The payoff play was a seven-yard burst by Barry Geuge for the touchdown.

Homecoming ceremonies were conducted at halftime, and Ann Ridenour was crowned queen by last year's homecoming queen, Dianne Anlin. Music for the event was furnished by the Sanford Junior High School band.

In the third quarter half-back Gouge intercepted a Melbourne pass on the Oviedo 30-yard-line. Rex Brooks, fullback, ran for three, then Quarterback Jimmy Courier handed off to Mikler who sprinted 67 yards to pay dirt.

Melbourne threatened during the quarter but Oviedo held for downs on their own 10-yard-line. Don Fickert made the longest run for Melbourne with a 33-yard dash to the Oviedo 10.

Melbourne got its lone touchdown on a 5-yard run by Karl W. Witkowski. Oviedo scored their last touchdown on a 41-yard pass from Courier to end Ted Bellhorn. This drive started from the Oviedo 13.

IT LOOKS HERE as if an official is trying to get in on the tackle of Seminole High's Buddy Lawson (31) in the Leesburg game Friday night, but there seems to be enough Leesburg players behind Buddy to do the job.

Jackets Sting Seminole Hope Of No Defeats

By Julian Strstrom
(Herald Sports Editor)

Somebody didn't like the Seminoles! And from the way Leesburg romped over the locals last Friday night in the Lake County city it must have been the Yellow Jackets.

Whatever hopes the Seminoles had for an undefeated season, and they were high, they vanished when the Yellow Jackets overpowered the Sanford eleven and walked away with a 13 to 7 victory.

Actually, this was a strange ball game. It's impossible to say that the Seminoles played a bad ball game because they didn't. On the other hand, it was obvious they didn't play as good as the Jackets did.

Another strange feature of the unusual tilt was the fact that the Seminoles did not run one single offensive play during the entire first period. There have been many football games in our day but it's the first time this writer ever saw one team fail to run one offensive play in an entire quarter.

Leesburg took the opening kickoff on their own five-yard line and John Mason returned it to the Jackets' 31. The Leesburg eleven marched to a first down in three plays, another in two plays, picked up their third straight first down on the Sanford 35, moved to the Sanford 24 for their fourth, picked up their fifth on the Sanford eight from where Leesburg's sensational quarterback, Mike Nappi, skirted his right end for the TD.

After Stan Himebaugh booted the PAT, Leesburg kicked off to Seminole with three minutes and 10 seconds left on the clock in the first period. However, on the return Buddy Lawson lost the ball when hit and Leesburg recovered on the Seminole 25.

Auburndale Too Tough A Foo

By Dick Grant
(Herald Sports Writer)

The Lyman Greyhounds lost to the Auburndale Bloodhounds last Friday night 14 to 13.

The Bloodhounds received the opening kick-off but Lyman forced Auburndale to punt.

The Greyhounds took the ball on their 32 yard line, Frank Hundley and Les Lyle then led a Lyman drive to Auburndale's five yard line where Jim Kersey intercepted for the Bloodhounds and led the ball back to his own

Bills Challenge Boston, Houston For League Lead

By United Press International

The Buffalo Bills are staging another of their patented stretch runs in the American Football League.

Last season, the Bills dropped their first five games, then turned around and lost only one of their final nine. That had started was too much to overcome, however, and they had to settle for third place in the Eastern Division race.

Lou Saban's men are following the same script this year—but it could produce a more successful climax. After going winless in their first four games, the Bills now are challenging the Boston Patriots and the Houston Oilers for the division lead.

Led by rookie quarterback Daryle Lamonica and veteran fullback Cookie Gilchrist, Buffalo rallied to edge the Denver Broncos, 20-20, Sunday at Denver. It was the Bills' fourth victory in their last five games and left them only a half-game back of Boston and Houston, the deadlocked Eastern leaders.

The Patriots walloped Houston, 45-3, in their showdown meeting at Boston Friday night. The San Diego Chargers, Western Division pacesetters, rolled to a 23-7 triumph over the Jets at New York Saturday night, and the Oakland Raiders defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 10-7, at Oakland in Sunday's other game.

Bowl Candidates In Tough November Spot

By United Press International

For a few hours Saturday, Pete Elliott, John Michelson and Bob Devaney actually were enjoying themselves.

Then Sunday, they looked ahead and everything was normal again. The smiles had vanished. The schedule had reminded them the collegiate season runs for another month.

And it's going to be a tough month for all three coaches whose teams came through with important victories Saturday.

Elliott's second-ranked Illinois team beat Purdue, 41-21, to share the Big Ten lead with Ohio State and Michigan State. The winner probably will go to the Rose Bowl. But Illinois still must play Michigan, Wisconsin and Michigan State to make Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Pittsburgh, with just one loss to Navy, is looking for a Southern trip on New Year's and Saturday's 35-27 come-back win over 10th ranked Syracuse was an impressive credential.

Devaney's Nebraska team took the lead in the Big Eight Conference with a 13-12 victory over Missouri, which had been unbeaten in conference play.

Now the Cornhuskers look ahead to Kansas, Oklahoma State and the big one—eighth-ranked Oklahoma, also undefeated in conference play following Saturday's 35-0 win over Colorado.

Top ranked Texas remained unbeaten and untied by edging SMU, 17-12. For the third time this season, "Shoelless" Tony Crosby provided Texas' margin with two conversions and a 34-yard field goal.

Seventh-ranked Auburn and Princeton also remained unbeaten and untied among the major colleges by beating Florida, 19-0 and Brown, 34-13, respectively.

Packers Star Starr's Fill-In

By United Press International

The Green Bay Packers are making a hit player of their former bit player, John Roach. That's the remarkable feat of the Packers. The supporting cast puts on its finest performance when the star is missing. They did it last season when Paul Hornung was injured. And they're doing it again with Bart Starr on the sidelines.

Jim Taylor, Tom Moore, Jerry Kramer and Elijah Pitts all combined to make Roach the National Football League's standout stand-in Sunday in the Packers' 33-14 victory over the tough Pittsburgh Steelers.

It was the Packers' seventh straight win and they needed it to keep pace atop the Western Division standings with the Chicago Bears, who defeated the Baltimore Colts, 17-7, Green Bay and Chicago have 7-1 records. They met in Chicago, Nov. 17.

Jimmy Brown had a remarkable 223-yard rushing afternoon as the Cleveland Browns remained on top of the Eastern Division race with a 23-17 triumph over the Philadelphia Eagles. The New York Giants remained one game behind by winning their runner-up battle with the St. Louis Cardinals, 28-21.

Back win over 10th ranked Syracuse was an impressive credential.

Devaney's Nebraska team took the lead in the Big Eight Conference with a 13-12 victory over Missouri, which had been unbeaten in conference play.

Now the Cornhuskers look ahead to Kansas, Oklahoma State and the big one—eighth-ranked Oklahoma, also undefeated in conference play following Saturday's 35-0 win over Colorado.

Top ranked Texas remained unbeaten and untied by edging SMU, 17-12. For the third time this season, "Shoelless" Tony Crosby provided Texas' margin with two conversions and a 34-yard field goal.

Seventh-ranked Auburn and Princeton also remained unbeaten and untied among the major colleges by beating Florida, 19-0 and Brown, 34-13, respectively.

Wins Race

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (UPI) — Dierker, a stock car driver comparatively unfamiliar with twisting road courses, solved the Riverside Raceway Sunday for the checkered flag in the $41,000 Golden State 400-mile stock car race.

With about a minute and a half left Auburndale ran out the clock.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Les Lyle, Frank Hundley, Gene Griffen, Dick Balmer, Dennis Fletcher, Allie Berrault, Hilton Bennett, Phil Perrault and Chuck Wagner.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Strstrom

"I've been in New York state for the past couple of months," writes Jerry Covington, a Sanford youngster who once pounded out sports for The Herald, "and was delighted when I saw in the paper where you were covering sports again in Sanford. I'm planning to be home soon and am looking forward to seeing you again."

"I can't tell you how much I've been enjoying your coverage of the sports program around the county and also your column. I was just a kid in junior high which Sanford was a strong Florida State League entry and I thought you were just about the best baseball announcer in the business."

"Mike Wheelbel, George Harden, Wes Spencer, George Herndon, Jim Krider and myself used to ride our bikes out to the old park for every home game and would be there from batting practice until lights went out."

"We had our heroes then such as Goose Kettles, Dave

Crooms High Loses To Carver 20 To 7

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
(Herald Sports Writer)

The Crooms High Panthers were defeated by a charged up Carver Heights Trojan team of Leesburg 20-7 Thursday night. Crooms seemed sluggish all night as its ground attack was completely bottled up by the hard charging Trojans.

Al Geiberger Wins Almaden

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — Necessity is the mother of invention — and also causes beanpole Al Geiberger to play better.

Geiberger headed for the $50,000 Frank Sinatra Golf Tournament at Palm Springs today, with his bank account swelled by $3,500 after winning the Almaden Open Sunday.

"I'm married now and we have a seven week old baby," said Geiberger. "So I have to win the money to buy the baby new shoes."

Geiberger now has won $31,826.30 in official money this year — which is pretty good pay for a skinny, 26-year-old youngster. He is 12th on the official PGA money list.

Woman's Amateur Wins Almaden

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Mrs. Allison Choate of Rye, N. Y., clinched an uphill struggle with a birdie putt on the 22nd hole of a playoff Saturday to win the USGA Senior Women's Amateur golf title.

Finally

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jockey Eddie Arcaro rode 230 straight losers before he scored his first victory.

Auburn Better Than Alabama, Graves Says

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI) — Florida Coach Ray Graves is in good position to compare Auburn and Alabama football teams — and he did here Saturday following a 18-0 shelling handed his Gators.

Sitting in the locker room, the graying head Gator said, "I'll have to rate Auburn the better all-around club. Right now there is no comparison to Alabama and Auburn."

Two weeks before the Auburn clash, Florida had saddled Alabama with its only loss of the season, 10-6.

"I rate Auburn's offense superior to Alabama's, and I was surprised that Auburn's defense is so strong," Graves continued.

'Big O' Wins For Royals

By United Press International

Jerry Lucas is living up to his college reputation, but it's still Oscar Robertson who's the man with the most on the Cincinnati Royals.

The "Big O" came up with three crucial baskets and a free throw in the final minutes of play Sunday night to provide the Royals with a 95-93 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers at Dayton, Ohio. It was the only game scheduled in the National Basketball Association.

Robertson, who led all scorers with 25 points, popped in three long jump shots to frustrate a late 76ers rally and keep them in the Eastern Division basement. Cincinnati is second with a 6-4 record.

Miss Ann Ridenour

James Olds, American patriot, originated the phrase "Taxation without representation is tyranny."

Foreign Aid Bill May Be Chopped By $385 Million

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate moved into its second week of debate today on the foreign aid bill with a vote expected on a proposal to chop $385 million from the delayed $4.3 billion measure.

To forestall a growing demand for further reductions, the Senate leadership has proposed a single cut of $385 million in authorization recommended by the Senate foreign relations committee in its own bill. President Kennedy had asked for $4.5 billion for another year of military and economic aid overseas. The House trimmed this by $1 billion.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (Mont.) said he hoped a vote on the proposal would speed the Senate toward a final vote on the bill by the end of the week. However, more than 40 amendments have been proposed and some aid opponents have warned that they are prepared for a long debate.

VOTE TOMORROW FOR EARL HIGGINBOTHAM

I recognize the need for improvements to Sanford's Water Supply & Facilities

BUT!

1. I oppose increasing water rates of our citizens from $6.00 per year minimum with unknown maximums.
2. Sanford's water and sewerage rates plus charges are already one of the highest in central Florida.
3. Contrary to the City Hall thinking, efforts to induce growth and industry will be seriously endangered.
4. I do not believe the citizens of Sanford would approve the additional cost to them for providing water and sewerage to induce those outside the City limits to be annexed.
5. It is suggested we pay the bill for water and sewer improvements for mere bait to new areas to induce them into the City of Sanford.

If these improvements are needed for the City of Sanford,

I RECOMMEND:

Using adequate sources of revenue now available to the City Commission which they have knowledge of.

NAMELY:

1. Florida Power and Light franchise rebate.
2. Revenue from increased cigarette tax.

Apathy, Weather Slow Voting

Apathy and inclement weather combined this morning to cause only a light vote by noon in Seminole County's and Sanford's elections.

It was estimated at noon that only about 15 per cent of the 16,608 registered voters had cast their ballots. One of the 23 precincts with more than 700 electors reported only 25 had cast ballots.

Other precincts, in a poll by The Herald, reported 60 out of 300, 40 out of 400, and similar figures.

Political observers were of the opinion that not more than 20-25 per cent of the voters would turn out. Polls close at 7 p.m.

In the City Commission race, A. L. Wilson is unopposed in Group II while Mayor Thomas S. McDonald and former Mayor Earl Higginbotham were in a last-ditch effort in Group I to win election to McDonald's post.

County and city voters also were passing on a 2.75 mill school district bond issue, a one-mill school bus bond issue and election of three of four candidates for school trustee: Don Bales, Ray Slaton, Fred Hillman and John Keim.

All voters also were passing on whether Seminole County shall be in a position to call for a special freeholders bond election should the State select a university site in this county, the revenue to be used to purchase the property, if necessary.

Three constitutional amendments also were on the ballot: To change the date of election of a governor and cabinet, to issue $75 million in bonds for higher education and to issue bonds for recreation and water conservation.

MIAMI (UPI) — Bars and the polls, an unlikely combination, were both open to Floridians today in a referendum spiced with Republican charges of "party politics" on at least one state issue.

A turnout of barely a quarter of Florida's 2.1 million eligible voters is predicted along with cloudy skies over most of the state and light showers in the extreme south this morning.

The big financial issue — a proposed $75 million bond plan for university and junior college construction — was expected to pass easily, but charges of a Democratic coup flew hot over a proposal to shift the election of governor and cabinet to non-presidential election years.

The state amendment authorizing the purchase of lands for public recreation were expected to pass.

DIEM KIN HELD (UPI) — South Viet Nam (UPI) — Sain President Ngo Dinh Diem's younger brother today took refuge in the U.S. consulate in Hue but was turned over to the provisional government, diplomatic sources said.

GENERAL J. C. HUTCHISON, representing the Board of County Commissioners, cuts the ribbon to officially open the Legion Fair Monday afternoon, while John F. McCloskey, president of the fair association; Cecil Carlton, past post commander, and Frank Holmes, post commander, look on.

Elder Springs Exhibit First

Elder Springs exhibit at the Legion Fair took first place in community exhibits and received the President's Cup. Oviedo placed second.

The Kiwanis trophies were awarded to Sanford Junior High Chapter of Future Farmers of America and to St. Luke's School Boy's 4-H Club for their well thought-out exhibits.

In the Sanford Garden Club's horticultural display, the Rose Circle received the Sweepstakes Award for winning the most ribbons.

Seminole High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America won a purple rosette for the overall winner in participation in the livestock show.

Oviedo Girls 4-H Club was chosen best of the girls club's exhibits.

Seminole High FFA and the Groom's Academy FFA Chapter received awards of distinction. The Slavia Girls 4-H placed second and received an award of merit.

Longwood Girls 4-H received an award of appreciation ribbon as did Jonathan Lukas, of Oviedo, whose exhibit was for forestry products showing some of the work he has done for his prize-winning FFA project.

Many other individual ribbons were awarded for cooking, sewing, arts and crafts, and farm products.

Dr. J. N. Robson Dies Here At 92

Dr. J. N. Robson, 92, retired Sanford physician and surgeon, died Monday in Seminole Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Charleston, S. C., and moved to Sanford in 1908, where he practiced medicine until his retirement in 1952.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Anderson, Hastings, and Miss Pearl L. Robson, R.N., Opa Locka; five sons, Alfred B., Atlanta, Ga.; James N., Jr., Sanford; Claude, Danis, John W., Jupiter, and Harry E., Sanford; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Brison Funeral Home in Sanford with the Rev. Grover C. Sewell, Jr. officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Transfer Of Library Voted

City Commission Monday night gave the green light to the transfer of the Public Library to the old post-office building at First Street and Palmetto Avenue.

The stormy library issue was resolved when the city fathers voted unanimously to transfer $4,700 from the contingency fund to the library fund to permit immediate renovation work on the post-office building.

The action to relocate the library came after Mayor Thomas S. McDonald advised the Commission the City cannot sell the property for 20 years. Commission members had thought to sell it and use the revenue to finance a new library building.

The City obtained the old post-office building from the federal government on condition that the building be used only as a library for 20 years. McDonald said he had been advised by the General Services Administration that the property must be used as a library.

A delegation of women interested in the relocation of the library turned out at the meeting. Following the Commissioner's decision, Commissioner Joe Baker turned to the group of delegates and gave them a firm closing: "The Woman's Club in Sanford has condemned us (the Commission) for our lack of immediate action in the library matter. We have gone through quite a bit over this thing."

Baker then referred to a letter of criticism entered in The Sanford Herald by the Woman's Club some time ago. "I think that letter was unjustified, written too hastily. You should have had the courtesy to at least talk to the Commissioners first before printing it."

Total cost of renovating the library's new headquarters will be $6,834.78, according to City Manager W. E. Knowles. The figure will include additional lighting and electrical fixtures, furniture and other equipment. The work and financing would be handled through the present budget and the 1964 budget, with $2,942.83 coming out of next year's funds.

City street and maintenance workers were bedecked in new green uniforms, with yellow lettering, today . . . and, of course, it had to rain.

L. M. Knight, supervisor of Winn-Dixie, has presented a check of $400 . . . $100 for each Winn-Dixie store in the county . . . to the United Fund.

In The Herald football contest last weekend, the "experts" rounded into true mid-season form with five entrants picking 12 out of 14 winners.

Gold awards from the United Fund to Jackson Heights, of Oviedo, and Hopper Academy for 100 per cent participation. Crooms High School has made a partial report of $237.50.

Church Section Rolled In Place

The south educational wing for the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant arrived on the site on South Orlando Drive Monday.

The two halves of the de-mountable structure, built by Sunbay Construction in Sarasota, were rolled on trailer beds that remain as a basic part of the building. Pads are being poured for the piers that will support the unit when the wheels are removed.

It is anticipated that the north wing will arrive by the end of the week, as will the restroom section. The sanctuary will come later this month.

Rev. Thomas H. Makin stated morning services will continue in Pinecrest School for a few more Sundays at 9. Members are asked to bring canned goods this Sunday to help out a family recently burned out with the loss of everything.

2 Escapees Get 2 Years Added

Two Negro convicts who enjoyed a brief freedom after escaping from the Oviedo road camp Oct. 28 were given two-year sentences this morning by Circuit Judge William Akridge.

Thomas L. Brimfield had two years added to his 30-year sentence and Edgar Thomas had two years added to his 10-year sentence. However, the two-year added sentences are to run concurrently with their previous terms.

The third Negro escapee, Johnny R. King Jr., was not in court.

Today was arraignment day for all defendants charged with felonies and Judge Akridge set cases for hearing and trial during the fall term.

Buy At Home Program Set

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State Purchasing Commission Director Ralph E. Siller said Tuesday that the Florida Purchasing Association has embarked on a cooperative program to buy Florida-made products.

Under state law, Siller is required to buy Florida-made products where the price and quality is equal to products produced elsewhere.

Casselberry Zoning Policies Debated

Questions asked at Monday night's first public hearing on Casselberry's proposed comprehensive zoning plan centered around certain parcels of undeveloped acreage, residential districts of higher classification and the Seminole Macarvey area.

Attorney T. G. LaGrone, representing Hibbard Casselberry, advised at the hearing the advisability of zoning undeveloped areas as R-1 residential districts which set the minimum home spaces at 750 square feet.

Referring in particular to that acreage north of town up to the proposed Lillendale development near North Orlando, LaGrone pointed out that this land at present has no characteristic as to what its uses will be in the future. It was his recommendation that such areas be held unzoned, with certain restrictions, in order that they later can be developed to best usage.

LaGrone also pointed out that under the present plan no provisions are made for agricultural zoning which might possibly be in demand at a future date, particularly in the Macarvey area which is now recommended as commercial property.

A. Owenberg, who owns property on Seminole Boulevard, also questioned the commercial zoning as proposed and asked that a canvass be made of all land holders to determine if any definite action is passed.

Gala Program For Seminole Homecoming Scheduled

Annual homecoming of Seminole High School Thursday and Friday will be highlighted with the selection of a "Homecoming Queen," a rally, parade and a football game.

The two-day event will open with a rally and bonfire at 7 p.m. Thursday behind the school gymnasium. A parade, complete with marching bands and floats, is slated for 4 p.m. Friday.

Theme of the parade will be "Wildcat Skins for Seminole Revenge." Prizes will be awarded for the best floats.

A pep rally will follow the parade on Magnolia Avenue between First and Second Streets.

City Shifts $22,000 To Parking Lot Fund

Coming squarely to grips with downtown traffic congestion and parking meter discontent, the City Commission Monday night put the wheels into motion for a perpetual off-street parking program to be financed by capital improvement funds and parking meter revenues.

The commission voted to transfer $22,000 from capital improvements funds for a sinking fund from which off-street parking lots could be constructed. Anticipated parking meter revenue would be another source of funds for the parking lot program.

The city officials noted that $47,000 in capital improvements are uncommitted on the budget and can be used for such a program.

Commissioner J. H. Crapps said the future of such a plan would be imperiled if the commission decided to "dump" the parking meters. City Manager W. E. Knowles, however, pointed out that such sinking funds can always be abolished if a desired.

Meanwhile, the touchy Municipal Stadium leasing arrangements with the School Board brought on a prolonged and sometimes heated debate between commission members. City Attorney W.C. Hutchison Jr. told the board he has completed a draft of a proposed lease of the stadium to the school board on a $1-per-year basis, whereby the school board would pay all expenses of operation and maintenance, replacing worn out equipment and returning the facility in the same condition as prior to the lease.

No lease has as yet been drawn up between the city and school board covering the use of the stadium during the four-month football season. Commissioners noted the city saved several hundred dollars last year by turning stadium maintenance over to the school system. The city was paid a 10-cent-per ticket admission tax last year from football gate receipts.

Commissioner Crapps insisted that an immediate leasing arrangement be put into effect to place full responsibility on the school board for maintenance and operation costs. "It's not fair to the people of Sanford if the school board to have a free lease . . . to collect money

City Appeals To Dog Owners

Sanford dog owners were urged Monday night to cooperate with the city in its rabies control program.

City Commissioner M. L. Robson Jr. told the commission and the press that a large number of dogs have been reported running loose about town without vaccination tags. Citing the "danger" of rabies-infected animals biting children and other dogs, he called on the public and press media in helping publicizing the problem.
