City trims general fund budget

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

SANFORD - City commissioners signed off on across the board budget cuts Tuesday - including their meals that are served on commission meeting days.

Only two city departments will see substantial increases. The fire and police departments will receive a combined $1.3 million increase, but a large portion of that funding will be used to cover shortfalls in those departments' pension funds. City Commission will continue to hash out next year's budget during a work session slated for this morning.

During Tuesday's session, Commission decided to move forward with the proposed general fund budget without any changes to the allocations presented by the city's finance director, Kevin L. Smith, and the interim city manager, Andrew Van Gaale.

The general fund - the chief operating fund of the city - will make up approximately $28.75 million of the city's $51.41 million budget.

"It's pretty sparse," said Van Gaale. "There isn't a whole lot of increase. In fact, most departments have seen a decrease in funds."

During recent weeks, Smith, along with Van Gaale, evaluated each of the city's cost items in order to overcome a $1.65 million deficit in the 2003-2004 city budget. Last week, the two presented Commission with the $51.41 million balanced-budget, an increase of nearly $1.35 million from the 2002-2003 budget.

"We're not alone in facing tough budget times," said Smith. "It's important to note this is a state and nationwide problem."

One measure taken to balance the general fund was the recent employee lay offs that resulted in 14 city employees and three vacant positions being eliminated. The elimination of the 17 jobs from the city pay-

State Law allows non-smokers to breathe easier

But some businesses say they will choke without tobacco users

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

Seminole County residents can now breathe a little easier.

After three years in the works, the American Cancer Society is celebrating a victory with the enforcement of the smoking ban inside public restaurants, which began last week.

"This is a huge public health victory," said Patti Seeber, regional advocacy specialist for the American Cancer Society. "This will eliminate secondhand smoke in the workplace and all the diseases that come along with it."

According to Seeber, topping the list of ailments caused by secondhand smoke are several forms of cancer. Following in a close second are breathing difficulties, caused by allergies and asthma.

"Most of the feedback has been very positive," Seeber explained. "Most people can't wait to go out and eat."

In November, in a landslide victory, 71 percent of Floridians voted to amend the state's constitution to prohibit smoking in all enclosed restaurants. Smoking is still permitted, however, on patios and balconies, and in stand-alone bars where less than 10 percent of its income is food.

"Every restaurant has to be smoke free, so everyone is on the same level," said Seeber.

According to the American Cancer Society, trends in other states with similar laws show that restaurants may realize a slight dip in revenues initially, but business will pick back up.

"Some places don't even see decreases," she said. "In our area, there are so many tourists, people are going to go out to eat whether they can smoke or not. They're not going to stay home and cook for the rest of their lives."

Kathy Griggs, unit manager of Denny's on State Road 46 in Sanford, disagrees.

"We've lost some of our regular customers who would come in twice a day,"

Consumers can 'hang up' on telemarketers

From Staff Reports

In response to an increasing flow of consumer complaints about telemarketers, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has joined with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) to create a national do-not-call registry that promises to give consumers the power to reduce the number of unsolicited telemarketer calls they receive.

"It was time to re-examine our rules to ensure that they created a proper balance between the consumer's right to privacy and the valid efforts of businesses to market their products," according to K. Dane Snowden, Chief of the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at the FCC. Snowden's office had the responsibility for crafting the new rules limiting telemarketer calls, rules which include the new do-not-call registry that will become effective October 1, 2003.

Telemarketing has long been a part of the American business scene, providing consumers with the opportunity to consider a wide range of products and services without leaving their homes. "I recently logged a number of calls at home ranging from an offer to refinance my mortgage to a chance to purchase premium steaks, all within one hour," Snowden said. "For me, it's a little like eating at a smorgasbord—all the choices are laid out before you."

Along with legitimate telemarketing activity there has been some abuse of calls and faxes to consumers' homes, and in 1992 the FCC adopted comprehensive national rules governing telemarketing under authority granted by Congress in the 1991 Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). The FCC's rules included the requirement that individual telemarketers maintain company-specific do-not-call lists.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Woman's 'best friend' may not be marriage material

DEAR ABBY: I have had an exclusive relationship with "Brad" for almost four years. We love each other dearly. We will soon be seniors in college and spend a lot of time together, including holidays, vacations and family functions. He is my best friend, and it's hard to imagine life without him.

Dear Abby

Lately, however, as I think about our future more seriously, I am beginning to question whether Brad and I are right for each other. We do not see eye-to-eye on some important issues — including politics, religion and having kids. It also concerns me that he's not as ambitious as I am when it comes to career goals and opportunities. Brad has never been one to plan very far into the future, whereas stability and security are important to me.

When I try to discuss my concerns, Brad claims I'm being hysterical and says, "Here we go again!" If I pursue it, we end up arguing and nothing gets resolved.

Should I break up with Brad now so that we can both meet other people in our senior year — or am I being unreasonable?

LOVESICK IN ILLINOIS

DEAR LOVESICK: Not at all. You are asking intelligent and mature questions about a decision that will affect the rest of your lives. I commend you for it.

Do not allow Brad to minimize your concerns and your differences. He needs to do some growing up before he makes a lifetime commitment to anyone — including you. Some time apart would benefit both of you.

DEAR ABBY: I was with my boyfriend, "Marty," for six years before we had our daughter. She is now 3 years old. On Valentine's Day, Marty finally gave me an engagement ring. I couldn't have been happier — until the other day when someone asked Marty what kind of ring it was. He said it was a "friendship ring." Can you believe this?

Abby, I am a person who believes in family values. I want my daughter to have a full-time father. I am thinking it might be time for me to leave Marty. Should I ask him if we are ever going to be married, or are we just going to continue to play house?

NOT LAUGHING IN MARYLAND

DEAR NOT LAUGHING: There is a big difference between friendship and engagement. Of course you should ask him. But before you do, tell him why you're asking. If he can't bring himself to set a wedding date, the family YOU value will have to include someone other than Marty.

DEAR ABBY: I'm an attractive 18-year-old single female from a good family. I enjoy wonderful friendships and am about to begin my first year of college. I was wondering if you could figure out what my problem is, because nobody else can. Whenever I like a guy, I make it clear with friendly, "interested" actions. (But believe me, I'm not too forward.)

At first, guys seem to like me, too. But then they quickly become uninterested and end up never asking me out — or even talking to me again! This has happened so many times.

Please help. What am I doing wrong?
DATELESS ON SATURDAY NIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR DATELESS: Your friendliness and "interest" may be being interpreted as needy and desperate. This is a huge turn-off for members of both sexes. Tone it down a little, and see if you get better results.

PS. You might more closely observe what your girlfriends do.

American Heart Association introduces new course

The American Heart Association has introduced Heartsaver First Aid, a new course designed to train lay rescuers in the workplace to recognize and treat medical emergencies and injuries until emergency medical services (EMS) personnel arrive.

The course offers modules in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and the use of automated external defibrillators (AEDs), in addition to traditional first aid procedures. AEDs are medical devices that use an electric shock to stop the life-threatening abnormal heart rhythm that causes most cardiac arrests.

Heartsaver First Aid targets workplace training, particularly in locations required to meet government-mandated training. Course materials were designed to satisfy Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) guidelines for first aid training targeting general industry. The course also satisfies basic first aid training requirements for specific industries, such as construction, shipyards and diving.

Heartsaver First Aid is also available to people who are not required to take a course, but who want to learn how to help people suffering injuries or other medical emergencies.

Thousands of public employees 'drop' into retirement

The biggest single group of public employees to leave government employment under the Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP) retired last week - in many cases with $200,000 or more to invest and 60 days in which to do it.

DROP was created by legislature in 1998 to allow public employees to continue their service for a time certain in exchange for certain financial benefits.

More than 7,000 teachers, sheriff's deputies, firefighters and state employees in Florida face the biggest investment decision of their lives as they collect the largest check in their careers.

DROP allows public employees to continue working up to five years after selecting a retirement date. During that time, they earn a salary and accumulate monthly retirement benefits simultaneously.

BABE RUTH STATE SOFTBALL CHANGES

As usually happens, the best laid plans often go astray.

On the eve of the start of the Babe Ruth State Softball Tournament at the Oviedo Sports Complex, changes have already had to be made to the schedule.

Luckily, the changes are minor.

In the 12-year olds, Normandy has been dropped because of a rules violation and been replaced by a squad from Middleburg.

Middleburg will now take on Suwannee at 6 p.m. today (Wednesday) and Maxville will move to the Thursday morning game against MAA at 9 a.m.

There have also been some subtle changes to the 14-year old bracket as well.

The Opening Ceremonies are scheduled for tomorrow (Thursday, July 10) at 6 p.m.

After a welcome, the Team Introductions are set for 6:15 p.m. with UCF head coach Renee Luers-Gillispie scheduled to throw out the first pitch.

The rest of the evening, which is scheduled to run until 9 p.m. will feature a DJ playing music as well as a Softball Skills Competition for the various age groups, including a home run derby, with trophies and medals for first place finishers.

For more information on the tournament, including the rest of the tournament times and games, please check out the website at www.Oviedobaberruth.com.

MFW WRESTLING THIS SATURDAY IN DeBARY

Mid-Florida Wrestling will hold the 'All American Brawl' this Saturday (July 12) at VFW Post 8093 in DeBary.

The Main Event will see Heavyweight Champion Mace put his belt on the line against Night Stalker.

In the Semi Main event Tag Team title holders, The Breakers, will put their hardware up against a team to be announced.

The Hard Core Title will also be up for grabs with Damien Goth challenging Champion El Diablo.

In the contender matches, there will be a Three Way Dance for a shot at the Tag Team belts between the teams of Anti-Mime and Cpl. Wright against Bill Crude and JJ. Vegas against Mullins and Sapphire.

And Tarantula will step into the ring against Lone Wolf with the winner getting a shot at the Cruiserweight crown.

Also on the card is a singles match between Rouge and Phil Crude.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. with Bell Time set for 8 p.m.

Tickets are $8 for adults and $4 for kids 6- to 12. Children 5 and under are free!

Patterson to miss rest of season

From Staff Reports

Former Seminole PONY Baseball star Corey Patterson was having an All-Star caliber year and it ended with one bad step.

Patterson, now a star outfielder with the Chicago Cubs, is out for the season because of a knee injury suffered Sunday when he awkwardly stepped on first base. He has a torn anterior cruciate ligament and torn meniscus in his left knee.

Patterson, 23, was batting .298 with 13 home runs and 55 RBIs. He led the Cubs in home runs and RBI while Sammy Sosa was sidelined to deal with his toe injury and suspension for using a corked bat.

With a runner at second and two out in the Cubs' eighth inning Sunday against the St. Louis Cardinals, Patterson hit an infield single. He hustled down the line and sprained his knee when he stepped on the first base bag trying to beat the throw.

Patterson fell to the ground and was obviously in a lot of pain. But he walked off the field on his own and left Wrigley Field Sunday wearing a supportive brace on his knee.

An MRI Monday revealed the severity of the damage.

The news was much better for a couple of other former Seminole County Major League stars as they took different routs to help their teams win.

The defending World Champion Anaheim Angels were struggling with the Oakland A's and ace Mike Mulder, who breezed through the Angels until Benji Gil and some small ball came through for Anaheim in the pivotal sixth inning.

Gil doubled off the wall in right field to lead off the inning, moved to second on a perfectly placed bunt by backup catcher Jose Molina, then scored on another perfect bunt, this

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO — Team Florida Olympic style weightlifter Meredith Hamill, 13-years-old, will be departing for the US Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs the end of this week to train with the Women's Team coaching staff after earning a spot on the USA Weightlifting International Team.

The USA Olympic Team is chosen from these competitors.

Hamill will be joined by 16-year old teammate Katherine McConnell, whose strong efforts resulted in a discretionary invitation. Both Team Altamonte lifters will be training in Colorado July 11th-20th.

Hamill and McConnell recently returned from the 2003 National Junior Olympic/School Age Weightlifting Championships held in Essex, Vermont the last weekend in June.

There, Hamill was named the Best Lifter among all girls 12 and 13 years old lifting in all weight classes. Hamill competes in the 53 kilogram weight class (116 pounds or less) and with See Lifters, Page 3

Stetson's Snyder signs with the Oakland A's

Special to the Herald

DeLAND — Former Stetson University All-America third baseman Brian Snyder (Wellington) has come to terms with the Oakland Athletics.

Snyder's signing bonus is 1.325 million dollars, and he will begin his professional career with the Vancouver Canadians (Class A) of the Northwest League.

The A's selected Snyder with the 26th overall pick in the first round of the 2003 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, making him Stetson's highest-ever draft pick.

A 6-foot, 195-pound right-handed hitter, Snyder batted .396 with 11 home runs and 55 RBI for the Hatters in 2003. He led the Atlantic Sun Conference in on-base percentage (.505), hits (90), doubles (23), total bases (152), and walks (48), and he ranked among the league leaders in six other offensive categories.

Wilson batted .336 and amassed 41 hits during his four-year career with the Hatters. He ranked among the all-time school leaders in doubles (52), home runs (36), RBI (101), and hits (241). He was named all-conference and all-region honors in 2001 and 2002, and he

BELL MOTORSPORTS WINS UNDER THE LIGHTS IN PAUL REVERE 250

Terry Borcheller and Forest Barber won their second Rolex Sports Car Series race in less than a week with their victory in the Paul Revere 250 at Daytona International Speedway.

After his first-ever qualifying attempt in the Bell Motorsports #54 Chevy Doran JE4 Daytona Prototype, Barber started in the sixth position and Borcheller brought it home to the checkered flag.

The Heritage Motorsports #48 Mustang picked up its fourth-straight GTS class victory, as well as a second-place finish overall, earning the team a $14,000 bonus in the Axiom Grand Touring Challenge. Drivers Tommy Riggins and David Machavern also unofficially claimed the lead in the GTS driver point standings following their win.

David Donohue and Mike Borkowski took over the points lead in the unofficial Daytona Prototype driver point standings following their second-place finish in the class and third place overall in the #58 Red Bull Porsche Daytona Prototype of Brumos Racing. While most teams took advantage of the first full course caution on lap 30 of the 70-lap race for their driver changes, the Red Bull team only took on fuel and fresh tires, leaving Donohue at the wheel.

The double yellow on lap 30 was brought out when the Chevy Leavy.com Racing Team #18 Camaro spun into Hurley Haywood in the Brumos Racing #59 Porsche and Joao Barbosa in the #31 Captain Cra-z Soap Mower MT900R of Mower Automotive, both of which were leading their respective class driver point standing heading into the race. The damage sustained to both race cars cost them several laps while in the pits for repairs and ultimately their points leads.

The Scuderia Ferrari of Washington #33 Ferrari 360GT took home top honors in the GT class, as well as fourth place overall. Drivers Brent Martin and Cort Wagner unofficially reclaimed their lead in the class driver point standings after losing it last week when their new Ferrari was severely damaged during practice and not 100 percent in the race, forcing the team to bring its older car out of retirement.

The Rosser Racing #25 Porsche GT3 RS and Marcus Motorsports #69 BMW M3

rounded out the GT podium with their second- and third-place finishes, respectively.

NASCAR Winston Cup driver Kyle Petty was a late-race addition to the Gunnar Racing #6 Porsche GT1 entry and helped carry the team to a second-place finish in the GTS class and seventh overall.

The Jack Lewis Enterprise #72 Porsche GT3 Cup took third in the GTS class. The Cegwa Sport #3 Toyota finished out the Daytona Prototype podium with a ninth-place finish overall. Although the C&W Motorsports #8 BMW Picchio Daytona Prototype lead for a number of laps at the start of the race, a collision, which brought out the second full-course caution, retired the car of Darren Law and NASCAR's Geoffrey Bodine to the garage with front end damage.

The Rolex Sports Car Series will travel next to Watkins Glen International where it will once again team with the NASCAR Winston Cup Series. Tickets to the Rolex Series Bully Hill Vineyards 250, as well as the entire NASCAR weekend at The Glen, can be purchased online at was named to the NCAA Atlanta Regional all-tournament team in 2003.

Stetson head coach Pete Dunn also began his professional career in Kingsport, Tenn.

Wiley, who prepped at Boone High School and played at Daytona Beach Community College before transferring to Stetson, was selected in the 16th round by the Rockies.

Wiley, a 6-foot-2, 208-pound left-handed pitcher, was 5-2 with a 4.06 ERA in 2003. Of his 21 appearances he made eight starts, including five against conference opponents. He struck out 50 batters in 68.2 innings.

For his career, Wiley compiled a 15-4 record and a 4.30 ERA. He made 37 appearances, including 24 starts, and he completed two games. He struck out 124 batters in 157 innings, and opponents hit .208 against him. Lincoln, from Hamden Hall Country Day in Northford, Conn., was selected in the 34th round by the Indians.

Lincoln, a 5-foot-10, 170-pound left-handed pitcher, was 2-12 with a 3.88 ERA and 14 saves during his Stetson career. He struck out 231 batters in 241.0 innings of work, and ranked among the school's all-time leaders in victories and saves. He had five wins and nine saves in 2003 while making a conference-leading 38 appearances.

Beale, from Dublin High School in Tifton, Ga., was selected in the 45th round by the Reds.

Beale, a 6-foot-2, 177-pound shortstop, is a career .266 hitter with seven home runs and 120 RBI. He played in a school-record 246 games, and was the Hatters' starting shortstop for 245 out of a possible 250 games during his four years. He was recently named to both the Atlantic Sun and the NCAA Regional all-tournament teams.

Church, an outfielder from Osceola High School in St. Petersburg, signed to play for the Lincoln, Nebraska-based Saldogys, a member of the Independent Northern League.

Church batted .302 during his four-year career with the Hatters. As a senior he was named second team all-Atlantic Sun Conference after hitting .333 with a career-high eight home runs and 34 RBI. On April 26, Church tied a school record by hitting three home runs in a single game as Stetson defeated Samford 20-7. He was later named the A-Sun's Player of the Week.

In 2003, Stetson (41-24) won over 40 games and qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the fourth year in a row.

one a first-pitch squeeze job up the first base line by slumping David Eckstein, giving the Angels a 1-0 victory.

"Mark was dealing," Eckstein, a Seminole High Schools graduate and Sanford Resident, said. "He did a great job. It was a situation you have to be ready for. It was a great idea, especially the way I'm swinging the bat. It worked out well."

The Angels have been playing much better of late and are starting to creep back into the American League Western Division and Wild Card race with a week left before the All-Star break.

Meanwhile, former Lake Brantley High standout Jason Varitek did his damage with the long ball, joining teammates David Ortiz and Bill Mueller by clubbing two homers each as the Boston Red Sox crushed The New York Yankees, 10-3, in Yankee Stadium on owner George Steinbrenner's 73rd birthday.

It was the first time since a 29-4 thrashing of the St. Louis Browns on June 8, 1950 that the Sox had three players with multi-homer games.

Manny Ramirez also homered, a towering two-run blast into the eighth row of the upper deck in left field in the third, as the Red Sox hit seven home runs, five off Yankee starter David Wells, the most home runs ever allowed by the Yankees in a game.

Varitek went 4-for-5, including his 13th and 14th home runs and 19th and 20th doubles of the season, scored two runs and drove in four, giving him 50 RBI for the season, and raised his batting average to .306.

a personal best total of 115 kilograms (253 pounds) for her combined snatch and clean and jerk lifts, outperformed all other 12 and 13 year old female competitors in all other weight classes.

"I've been working for this goal all year long," says Meredith, who will be an 8th grader at Rock Lake Middle School in Longwood. "Last year, my older brother, James, won his Junior National Championship in Los Angeles, and he went to Colorado Springs to train. I've just been working for that all year. That's been my goal and the next goal is the Olympics."

Meredith, James and their 14-year old brother, John Hamill, are members of Team Altamonte Weightlifting and train with coach Danny Camargo at Lake Brantley High School. John placed fourth in his weight class recently in Vermont. The winner of that class is the son of a 1976 Olympic Gold Medalist in weightlifting.

Team Altamonte's McConnell and 13-year Jake Ciccarello both finished second in their respective weight and age classes.

"Our program is now known nationwide and sending lifters to Colorado Springs and then to international meets is exactly what it takes to represent the US in the Olympics. This is the road that gets you there," says Team Altamonte Coach Danny Camargo. "Meredith has two older brothers who train with her everyday and they all push themselves hard. Her technique is outstanding. This is a great sport for female lifters and she's proof of that."

Central Florida is considered the nucleus of weightlifting in Florida, bolstered by the perennially strong programs at Lake Brantley and Spruce Creek High Schools.

In March, four new American teenage records were set during the National Championship Competition in Altamonte Springs. Team Florida's girls scored the most points overall at the national meet in March and received the First Place team Award, while Team Florida's boys placed second.
