These pictures are ones taken at the Officers Club in Warsaw Poland. They are as follows: 1. Cartoons showing in the center the hooded Americans beating a prone negro, 2. Cartoons directed at Mr. Dulles about the balloons that we have been reading about, 3. A picture of the camera that was on display, which they claim was taken from one of the balloons that they had complained about, 4. A picture of the container that was swung under the large balloon in which the camera and radio equipment was carried. The antenna across this picture supposedly was carried within the balloon to accommodate the transmitter that this outfit carried.

On the recent tour of the near east countries of editors, Mr. Carmage Walls, President of Southern Newspapers, Inc. and Mr. Fred Speers, Publisher of Escalante California Times, Advocate interviewed Mayor Agron of Jerusalem, Israel. Shown left to right are: Mr. Speers, Mayor Agron and Mr. Walls, Mayor Agron is a newspaper man who obtained his first experience in newspapering in the United States.

This building of the "Bristol Hotel" in Warsaw Poland was one of the few buildings spared by the German Nazis. The reason, the German officers lived there.

MOSCOW: The Kremlin walls and buildings.

These pictures were taken on Easter Sunday on the main streets of Prague to show the lack of cars in use here.

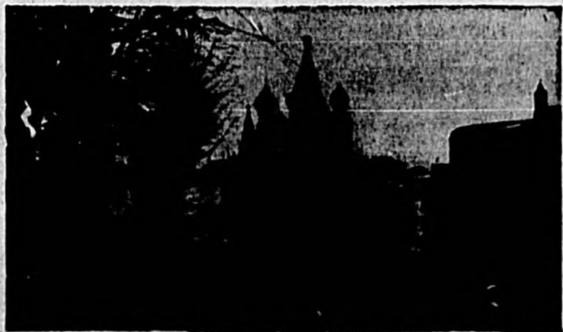

These pictures were taken on a cloudy afternoon from the balcony of the National Hotel in Moscow. The black line forming in the left front of picture No. 1 and extending down to the right and picking up the line again in picture No. 2 is the line gathering and waiting until the mausoleum containing the bodies of Lenin and Stalin opens. This mausoleum is open to the public four hours per day for five days each week. The recent attack, on Stalin as a dictator has not showed up the crowds.

These houses are typical restoration of houses to duplicate the ones destroyed by the Nazi Germans on Hitler's Order.

Here is a rubble heap, of which there still is many in Warsaw, Poland, where it has not been cleaned up nor is yet rebuilt.

The Cathedral in the background is facing Red Square. It is now a museum as most of the important Cathedrals in Russia are now. This church was built by an Italian architect on orders of "Ivan The Terrible" Czar of Russia. So that he might not duplicate it elsewhere, the records say that Ivan had the architect taken to the block in Red Square and executed. Red Square did not get its name from the Communists as so many believe. It was called this back in the days of the Czar's.

After the processional by the high school band and the invocation given by senior chaplain, Barbara Smith, Edwin Madden, Salutatorian gave his talk, briefly thanking the faculty, parents, principal and others for guidance and "a helping hand toward the road to success."

Rotarians See 'Magic Barrel'

Rotarians and their guests after enjoying one of Mrs. Roberta Gatchell's state-famous luncheons at the Yacht Club yesterday afternoon, sat in open-mouthed wonderment as a trio of representatives of the Oil Industries Information Committee from Orlando gave them a peek into the large "Magic Barrel" which graced the floor in front of the speakers' stand.

Allen Smith of the Gulf Oil Corporation, Sam Hopkins of the Hopkins Oil Co. and Reggie Moffett, well-known moderator of the TV program "Central Florida Showcase" and representative of the Johnson Fuel Oil Co. all had a part in showing the Rotarians the numerous derivatives of plain, ordinary crude oil. Hopkins who did the major part of the presentation, made some synthetic rubber, out of water and some petrochemicals; used Freon 12 in freezing a flower and making ice and showed so many items including wearing apparel, orlon lace curtains, nylon hose, detergents, shaving cream, sponges, toothpicks and ment that the two "stretchers", and stretched into a linear filament that the two "stretchers", Randall Chase and Charlie Morrison, were actually mystified when the stretching stopped of its own accord.

Smith who introduced Hopkins, told of the millions of dollars that the oil companies were spending in research and of the crying need for men and women qualified in scientific fields. He spoke of free enterprise and the need to keep competition in industry yet, at the same time, to have cooperation as evidenced in the Oil Industries Information Committee whereby all companies shared in the advances made in their field of endeavor.

It was apparent that the program was thoroughly enjoyed by the group and a vote of thanks was given to the men staging the demonstration. In the absence of President William (Bill) Bush who was called to Wilmington, Del. due to the death of his father, Past President James (Jimmy) Hollislaw had charge of the meeting.

County Board Is Approached To Sell Abandoned Clay Pit

It would take an act of the Legislature to allow us to sell property acquired by the county and now not necessary to use," one person was told this morning by the Board of County Commissioners as he requested that an abandoned clay pit containing three acres be sold to him to be rehabilitated.

This is the second clay pit that has been abandoned and which has been requested of the Board of Commissioners to sell.

One clay pit near Elder Springs and the other in the south end of the county have both been stripped of clay and abandoned by the county for the procuring of clay.

County Engineer M. C. Hagan told the Board of County Commissioners this morning that more than 480 yards of dirt would have to be moved in order to get two feet of water when low in the building of a boat basin near the Lake Monroe Bridge.

A request to cut Oak Ave. feet was deferred until the Board through, a length of about 600 of Commissioners could see the property at the site.

The request was made by Jack Stemper who said, "Many dollars will be put on the tax books when the street is opened."

However, Commissioner John Meisch took exception to the request and said, "All I want to know is if it is going to be the policy of the Board to open streets through subdivisions. It's up to Mr. Miller."

Heretofore, the Board of County Commissioners has refused to open streets or roads through subdivisions.

"Whether it is 600 feet or 6,000 feet," Meisch told Stemper, "it is all the same."

Commissioner Dodd said, "We will have to rescind our motion which prohibits us now from clearing such streets."

Mr. Think Jr. Takes Over

NEW YORK (AP)—Mr. Think Jr. has taken over from Mr. Think Sr.

How would you react if, at 42, you stepped in as boss of a $30 million dollar industrial empire, with 29,000 employees?

"I never think about it all in one breath," says Thomas J. Watson Jr., who succeeded his father as chief executive officer of International Business Machines Corp.

Watson Sr. made the "Think" its massive electronic brain computers, its punch cards, time clocks and electric typewriters, which helped revolutionize the world's clerical work.

Watson Jr. plans something of a revolution himself. "We're planning tremendous changes in management," he said in an interview. Most immediate involves decentralization.

Six feet tall and broad-shouldered, Watson has his father's build and his father's flair for salesmanship. Get him started talking about automation and he'll go into the most convincing sales pitch you ever heard.

Actually, he was nudged into the top IBM job in easy stages. At the IBM annual meeting in March, his father recounted that Tom Jr. started working for the company at the age of 3. He and the company are the same age, but young Watson hastened to assure the stockholders that he didn't get on the payroll until he finished college at the age of 23. He was graduated from Brown in 1937.

Watson got his first real taste of management responsibility a couple of years ago. His assignment: To streamline IBM's archaic organizational setup.

The organization evolved by the older Watson had been centralized and tightly knit. Authority was concentrated at IBM "world headquarters" here. All major policy questions, and a growing accumulation of minor ones, had to be referred to New York.

After several preliminary attempts at partial decentralization, young Watson took the bull by the horns and carved up the big company into five independent divisions or sub-companies, headed by the F&M division which makes and sells electric accounting machines.

Divisional heads now have full authority to make decisions involving sales, manufacturing, administration and research, although they still consult the high command at world headquarters on problems which concern financing or major product changes.

That's the trend at IBM today. But, says Watson, it's only a start; changes much broader in scope are in the making. Says he: "We can't stand still; we've got to keep abreast of our competition."

Another problem confronting IBM's top man is a shortage of salesmen. "We have the finest salesman in the world," says Watson, "but we haven't nearly enough. Right now, in our F&M division, we've got about 2,300. We could use 20 per cent more."

His explanation for the shortage: Besides knowing how to sell, IBM salesmen have to be experts in accounting and electronics.

Watson Jr. works hard for his $154,496 salary but believes a busy executive should take time out to play. His outside interests include a country home in Greenwich, Conn. (five young children (a sixth is due this summer) and a 47-foot yacht. He plays golf once a year—an annual match with Keith Fungston, president of the New York Stock Exchange, at the Hot Springs, Va., meeting of the U. S. Commerce Department's business advisory council. His favorite sport is fishing—probably because it gives him a chance to combine work and play. A bomber pilot in World War II, he now covers thousands of miles a year flying a company plane on business.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to 4 questions of interest to former service men and their families:

Q. I allowed my GI term insurance policy to lapse. I have been told I cannot get it back under any circumstances. Is this true?

A. Not necessarily. You have the right to reinstate your lapsed term policy, so long as it has not passed the end of its five-year term period and expired. If it has expired, it may not be reinstated. Any VA office can give you full information about your particular case.

Q. I am considered a "peacetime veteran," since I entered military service in March, 1953. Am I eligible for VA hospital care on the same basis as a war veteran?

A. No. The only conditions under which "peacetime veterans" may be admitted to VA hospitals are (1) if they are discharged under other than dishonorable conditions for a disability incurred in line of duty or (2) they are receiving VA compensation for a service connected or service aggravated disability.

Q. Do I have to own a farm outright in order to qualify for institutional on-farm training under the Korzun GI Bill?

A. It is not necessary that you own the farm outright. But you must have full control of it, either by leasing the land, or having a management agreement or some other arrangement.

Q. I have a lapsed World War Two permanent GI insurance policy. If I reinstated it, would I be entitled to all the regular dividends which have been declared during the time it was lapsed?

A. Yes. In fact, those dividends could be applied toward the cost of reinstatement, thus reducing the cash outlay. (Veterans living in Central Florida who wish further information about their benefits should write the VA office at 42 E. Central Ave., Orlando.)

A Tribute To... Our School Teachers!

Today as in no time before in history, the school teacher is recognized as the builder of tomorrow's America! With juvenile delinquency a temptation to our youngsters, and foreign ideologies ever rearing their ugly countenances, it is high time that glowing tribute was paid to these patient men and women who instruct our young. Let's remember that teachers are human beings, not machines. Let's give them the support and confidence they so richly deserve. It's sad, however, that as time takes its toll we are deprived of some of our staunchest educators. Nevertheless, this community is fortunate in having such fine schools and outstanding teachers. We applaud their work and their good American achievements!

Your Girl Scouts

"Hi Ho, Hi Ho, it's off to camp we go." Many of the girls and leaders "took off" this past weekend to Rock Springs where a big tent was pitched for a camping out period.

Some of the Scouts slept in pup tents and a few brave souls even made their own with blankets. Mosquito nets came in as a very handy item and bug repellent was used in quantity. The program outlined for the girls was intended to help them learn about camping out and to give them full recreational interests.

CHICKEN GRAVY

Cream of chicken soup, right from the pan and keep warm smooth, delicious chicken gravy. Bake or broil chicken parts in the oven or broiler of your gas range. When done, lift the chicken pieces from the pan and keep warm while you stir soup into the pan drippings. Add 1/4 cup of sherry if you wish. When the mixture bubbles, gravy is ready to serve.

When you iron embroidered table linens or children's clothes, place the embroidered part face down on a fluffy towel; this will make the pattern stand out.

Mouth Diseases

(This article is published as a public service by The Sanford Herald in cooperation with the Seminole County Dental Society.)

Few people realize that many diseases of the human being have their origin in or about the mouth.

The famous Mayo Medical Center has issued the statement that 85 percent of all systemic diseases originate about the head and neck, and that 80 percent of these have some of their earliest symptoms in and about the mouth and teeth.

That's why dentistry and medicine so often overlap. The programs of both the dentist and the physician meet in the mouth, in many cases. That's why, too, the dentist and the physician so often must work together. Therefore, if your physician refers you to a dentist, don't jump to the conclusion that it means the dentist is going to extract all your teeth, or perhaps even one of them. It may mean something entirely different—such as some malplacement or "crowding" of your teeth, some disease of the gums or a number of other ailments of the mouth. That is why we have dentists who are specialists in oral (mouth) diseases or in surgery of the mouth.

Ordinarily, however, a physician would refer you to a dentist because of some kind of trouble with your teeth or gums. As a rule, any good dentist can treat such things without referring you to a dental specialist, and will not do so unless it is for the patient's benefit.

Remember that the "last thing" a good dentist wants to do is to "pull a tooth." He better than anyone else—including a physician—knows the great value of teeth, the indispensable part they play in health and normal living. No good dentist will cause you to lose a tooth if he possibly can save it, without endangering your health. Infected or diseased teeth, of course, are another matter. Often it is urgent that such teeth be removed to save further damage in the mouth, or to prevent a serious infection from

Coral Gables Bank Goes Underground To Expand Facilities

A bank in booming Florida, the Coral Gables First National, is going underground with a 403-foot-long tunnel to provide expanded banking facilities, desperately needed to meet problems of growth and competition.

The tunnel will connect the main banking house on Coral Gables' main business street, Miracle Mile, with nine drive-in teller booths to be erected on a site one block to the south.

Tellers will go down into the tunnel with their money bags from the main banking house by elevator. Circular stairways will lead from the tunnel up to each booth. All the booths and the tunnel will be air conditioned.

James Bottile Jr., vice chairman of the bank's board of directors, said a private television system is being installed to connect each booth with the central bookkeeping department.

If a customer not personally known to the teller presents a check, a picture of it can be flashed to central bookkeeping for verification and signature approval.

The tunnel will extend 78 feet under one of the bank's customer parking lots, 70 feet under Andalusia Ave. and 255 feet in an pouring poisons into the bloodstream of the body.

Most people would not suffer for more than a few hours with an infected finger. If it got bad, he would have it treated, to prevent blood poisoning and relieve the pain. But many people will neglect an infected or decayed tooth for months or even years, especially if there is no pain. Yet such a tooth may be transmitting infection—poison—all through the body with every morsel of food. Your dentist working with your physician can often detect disease in its earliest stage and prevent serious complications. Follow his advice and keep your mouth healthy!

Some US Scientists Believe Red Physicists Doing Research

MOSCOW (U.S.A.)—A group of visiting U.S. scientists believe Russia's atomic physicists are developing an interest in pure scientific research that goes beyond the creation of A-bombs.

This interest, one American said, is partly motivated by the great prestige and unusual rewards the Soviet Union offers its scientists.

The 14 Americans, who have been attending a conference on the physics of high energy par-

"L" shaped pattern under the site on which the drive-in lanes and teller booths will be built.

Bottile explained that it was necessary to dig the tunnel to comply with Florida's banking code which forbids banks establishing any kind of outside facility not "adjacent to and connected with" the main banking house by a completely enclosed passageway.

Florida law also forbids branch banking. And the Florida Bankers Association at its recent annual convention flatly turned down a proposal that the legislature be asked to approve banking "facilities" for paying and receiving at unconnected sites within a five-mile radius of a bank's main headquarters.

Florida banks, especially in the larger cities, complain that their growth is being stifled because high-priced property adjacent to their banking houses can't be acquired for expansion.

They also complain bitterly that they are being subjected to unfair competition from savings and loan associations who are permitted by the Home Loan Board to establish and operate branches.

Florida's State Comptroller Ray H. Green, who is also banking commissioner, gave his approval to the Coral Gables First National's tunnel project with the comment that it "seems to be one answer to the expansion problems of our banks in larger cities."

"It looks to me like they'll all have to either go underground or overhead with elevated passageways to property that is available."

Discussing their meetings with the Russian scientists, Marshak and Wilson said the exchange showed "no reflection of political 'flavor' speak the same language," they said. "Their science shows no influence of Marxist ideology."

GIRL INTEREST

BRIGHTON, Colo. (U.S.A.)—Even the defendant, Robert Mark Dearman, smiled at the exchange between a defense attorney and a psychiatrist at his trial on murder charges.

"In your examination of this boy," asked attorney Richard Simon, "did he tell you he was once in trouble for stealing girls' panties from a clothesline and taking them home and stuffing them in his football?"

"Yes," replied Dr. Charles A. Rymer.

"What does that indicate?" Simon asked.

"An interest in girls' panties," Dr. Rymer answered.

PITTSBURGH PAINTS 100 YEARS

Chevrolet,

The new Bel Air Convertible—one of 20 sassy-styled new Chevrolets.

Want to take the wheel of one of America's few great road cars?

Want to send pleasant little tingles up and down your spine? Want to drive the new car that politely murmurs "Move over, big boy" to the high-priced jobs? Then hustle on in and try out a new Chevrolet V8!

Now showing—the happiest "double feature" of the year! One part is bold, new Motoramic styling. The other is record-breaking V8 action.

Hollywood has a heap of words that describe it: colossal, stupendous, magnificent. We'll settle for just the name—Chevrolet.

Because once you've driven this sweet-handling showboat, the adjectives will take care of themselves. Once you've sampled Chevy's hair-trigger reflexes and nailed-down stability, you'll see why it's one of the few great road cars built today!

Horsepower that ranges up to 235 makes hills flatter and saves precious seconds for safer passing. And this new Chevrolet clings to curves like part of the pavement.

Stop in sometime soon and highway-test this record-breaking new Chevrolet.

AM CONDITIONING—TEMPERATURES MADE TO ORDER—AT NEW LOW COST. LET US DEMONSTRATE.

Board To Choose New County Agent

Three prospects for the vacancy to occur in Seminole County as County Agent were introduced to the Board of Seminole County Commissioners this morning by District Agent Frank Perry.

Perry outlined the qualifications of each man as he was introduced to the Board.

The vacancy will exist in the County Agent's office on the retirement, July 31st, of County Agent C. R. Dawson.

The District Agent did not make any recommendation to the Board other than all three men would be acceptable and are qualified to fill the position in Seminole County.

The Board of County Commissioners will choose one of the three at this afternoon's session.

Demo Club Asks Use Of Building For Activities

The president of the Home Demonstration Clubs, Mrs. J. M. Dingman, asked the Seminole County Board of Commissioners for exclusive use of the building on Geneva Ave. for Home Demonstration Club activities.

Many groups are now using the building, Mrs. Dingman told the commissioners, with new groups being organized. One group, she said, of high school girls and young married women will be taught sewing there beginning next Monday.

"Our women have expressed hope that the building can be tied up for their use," Mrs. Dingman said.

She said, "It is hoped that our Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Myrtle Wilson can move her office to the building where an office, conference room, and work space can be provided.

Clerk of Court O. P. Herndon, serving as secretary of the Board of County Commissioners, said "The building can be set aside for that sort of work."

Mrs. Dingman told the commissioners, "It seems that as long as there is Home Demonstration work being done in the county there should be a place to do it."

However, Commissioner Fred Dyson pointed out to the commissioners and to Mrs. Dingman that the cost of putting the present building into shape, which would include a new roof, ceiling, walls, painting,

Citizens To Voice Opinion In Revision Of Constitution

"You'll have a chance in September to voice your opinion on what should or should not be included in a proposed revision of Florida's 71-year-old Constitution.

The Constitution Advisory Commission has voted to hold public hearings that month in Miami, Tampa, Orlando, Jacksonville and Panama City. Dates will be announced later.

Between now and then subcommittees will draft their recommendations for presentation to the full committee. Each of the subcommittees also will hold at least one public hearing.

After the full committee holds its five hearings, a draft of the proposed constitutional revision will be prepared, given a final going over and then submitted to the 1957 Legislature. If it meets legislative approval, it will be submitted to the voters for ratification or rejection.

The present much amended Constitution has over 300 errors in grammar, punctuation and capitalization besides any other fundamental shortcomings which may be uncovered by the commission.

cooling and heating, would be prohibitive.

"A new building could be provided for the money that it would take to put the old one in shape," he said.

Mrs. Dingman was asked to submit a sketch of a new building, which would include the minimum of space necessary to operate the Home Demonstration Clubs, to the Board of Commissioners at their next meeting for consideration.

Hazlett, USN, Commander Hazlett, who has been Executive Officer of VAH-9, will serve as acting commanding officer until the arrival of Cdr. Lemos' designated relief.

Architect John Burton III revealed plans for the proposed building of approximately 35,000 square feet at a cost of approximately $200,000. He told City Commissioners that there are approximately 135 rooms in the new plans which are considerably larger than the original proposal.

It is expected that plans and specifications will be ready for the advertising for bids in approximately three weeks.

The proposed building, expected to be completed by January 1, 1957, will center the entire New York Giants' sprawling farm-ten training activities in Sanford beginning with the 1957 season. The building will be erected at the corner of Mallonville and Celery Avenues.

Navy Gets Another Fizzle In Attempt To Shoot Rocket

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. (U)—The Navy got another fizzle yesterday when it attempted to shoot a research rocket up 120 miles.

Its Aerobee-41 reached only 37 miles into the sky. It attained not quite half the 6,100-foot-a-second velocity hoped for.

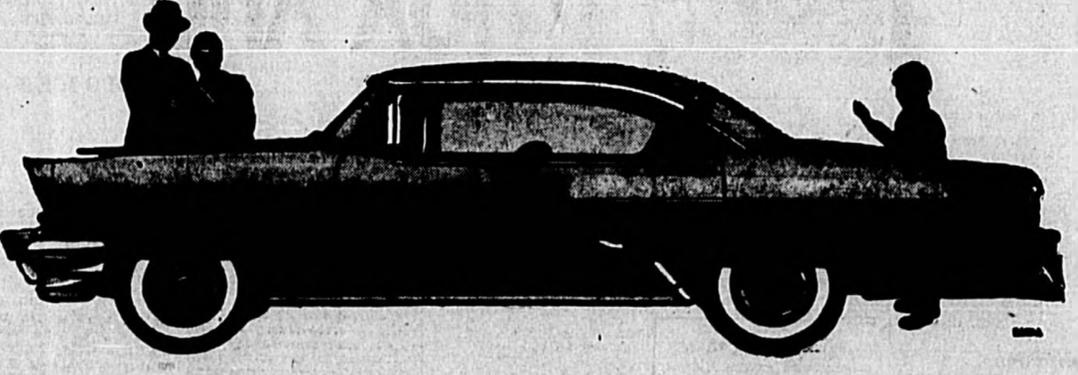

John Townsend and other scientists working on the project indicated it might be abandoned or at least delayed for a long time until they can find out what the trouble is.

Man Drowns Trying To Get Cracker Pole

A 31-year-old Negro man apparently drowned this morning as he attempted to swim out from the Sanford pier to retrieve a floating cracker pole.

Charles Johnson, of a Seventh Street address, was fishing from the pier along with his mother, Ella Brown, and a young sister when he tried to swim out for the cracker pole.

The Negro was seen as he went under, shortly after 9 o'clock, and his body was brought out of the water 10 minutes past 10 o'clock.

The Sanford Police Department rescue boat was brought into use and manned by Sanford Police Department Patrolman Ben Butler, Deputy Sheriff Cotton Brown, and City employees Eddie Griffith and Bob Kelly.

The body was recovered at about the exact spot eye witnesses said the Negro went under to stay.

The drowning occurred to the north of the Sanford pier about 60 feet from the seawall. The body was brought to shore at the new concrete ramp under construction just off Seminola Boulevard.

Artificial respiration was administered by Patrolman Butler, Deputy Brown, and City employees Griffith and Kelly. However, there was no spark of life as the ambulance took the Negro to Seminola Memorial Hospital in an attempt to revive him.

At the scene of the drowning to direct operations of the boat and drag were Sheriff Denver Cordell, Police Chief Roy Williams, and Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway.

The young County Agent is married and has three children.

Sales Tax Collections Increase

Sales tax collections in Seminola County for the month of April increased approximately 7 1/2 per cent over the same month a year ago according to a release today from the office of State Comptroller Ray E. Green.

However, retail sales in Florida were down during the month of April. Retail sales, upon which Sales Tax collections are based, totaled $712,836,871 during April. This was a decrease of $142,744,201 from the high of $855,581,073 in retail sales during March.

Sales Tax collections during May, based on April sales, totaled $747,171, a decrease of $1,745,980 from the all-time high of $9,214,251 collected the previous month.

However, this year's Sales Tax collections during May were $872,209 over the $6,898,691 collected during the same month a year ago, an increase of 8.39 per cent.

Total Sales Tax collections to date this fiscal year amount to $79,134,957, an increase of $10,910,051 over the $68,224,06 collected at this time last year. This is an increase of 16 per cent. Present indications are that Sales Tax collections will total $85,000,000 for this fiscal year.

The drop in sales and Sales Tax collections is apparently seasonal. Collections during May always reflect a leveling off of retail sales in Florida during the spring and early summer months. Another decrease is expected in June collections. If this year's sales and collections follow past trends, there will be little variation for the next few months, with another rise in the early winter months.

Krider To Discuss New Facilities At Jaycee Meet

A word view of the new facilities the New York Giants will bring to Sanford will be given the members of the Seminola County Junior Chamber of Commerce at their noon luncheon meeting tomorrow.

John Krider, City Commissioner and County Commissioner-elect, will speak at the Jaycee luncheon.

Krider will discuss the facilities to be brought to Sanford from Melbourne, the various baseball clubs that will be in training in Sanford, along with the facts and figures on the new administrative office and dormitory building to be constructed here, and a brief resume on the new addition to the Mayfair Inn.

City Commissioner Krider is expected to point out to the Jaycees the many ways in which Sanford will benefit from the New York Giants' permanent Farm System arrangements here for their Spring training.

The three-man pitching staff will display its talents in tomorrow night's game with a 7-0, 7-1, and a 1-0 record.

Coach "Goose" Kettles had nothing but praise for this year's baseball aggregation as they plan their State Tournament trip.

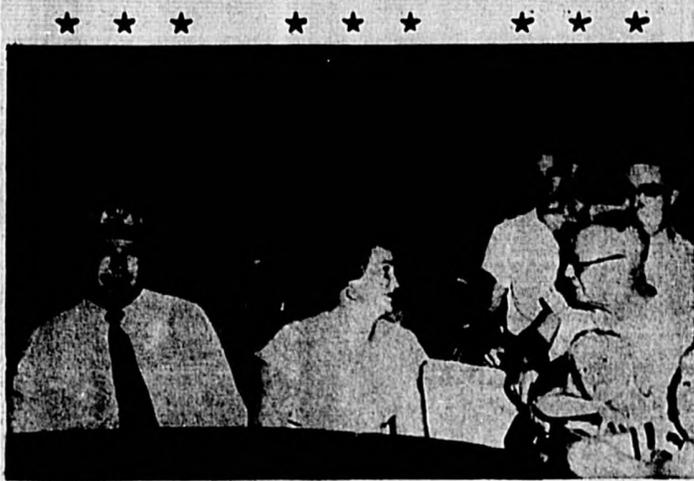

However, tomorrow night's clash between the Celery Feds and the Cardinals, will provide the necessary finances to take care of the team while in Fort Pierce for the Tournament.

Tickets are available in downtown drug stores and at the Seminola High School for those who would like to purchase them ahead of the game and avoid standing in line.

Athletic Director Fred Ganas said today, "For a half a dollar, local baseball fans can see an amazing game as well as help take the high school team to the State Tournament."

Friends, Students Gather To Wish Morris 'Good Luck'

"THIS IS THE WAY to have fun" exclaimed Herman Morris as he and Mrs. Morris tried out their new boat and kicker last night. Standing along side are the two Morris sons, Ernie and Bob, and the builder of the boat, Arthur Russell of Stafford Boat Works. (Staff Photo)

Gifts Are Presented Principal

Upward of two thousand friends and former students gathered at the Sanford Memorial Stadium last night to wish "good luck, God speed, and a happy future," to Herman Morris who has retired from the principal's office at Seminola High School following a brilliant career of teaching in Seminola County.

Ice cold watermelon was served to those who attended the Herman Morris Appreciation Night with the City Commissioners, headed by Mayor F. D. Scott, allying the melons for the huge crowd.

Glowing tribute was paid to Morris as he sat on the speakers stand along with his wife and two sons. "She's gone through the hardships and the joys — the tribulations — in his 30 years in Seminola County," J. Bralley Odham said of Mrs. Morris as he introduced her to the huge crowd.

"And there are no two finer boys in the county," Odham said of Herman Morris' two sons, Bob and Ernie as he introduced them.

Bralley Odham emceed the brief ceremony which paid tribute to the 30 years devoted to the youth of Seminola County by Herman Morris.

Invocation, to begin the ceremonies, was given by the Rev. W. F. Brooks Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sanford.

Assistant State's Attorney Volie A. Williams Jr., before presenting Herman Morris with a silver tray engraved with "Presented to Herman Morris for 30 years of service devoted to the youth of Seminola County," paid tribute to Morris and cited his long career in Sanford.

"A honoring him," Williams said, "we would also do honor to all in the teaching profession who serve with sacrifice and more often without thanks."

Williams related the coming to Sanford of Herman Morris in 1926 from Danville, Tex. "Made famous as the birthplace of two great men — President Eisenhower and Herman Morris."

Assistant State's Attorney Williams reviewed Herman Morris' entire career in Sanford and Seminola County Schools and then added to the list all of the positions of honor and trust he had filled in his community as a civic leader.

"For the people assembled here and the many thousands of others, we wish you God speed and good luck," Williams said as he presented the silver tray to Herman Morris.

Morris, unable to speak momentarily said "I appreciate this tribute. I don't see how anyone could deserve such a tribute for anything he could do. It's typical of the people of Sanford and Seminola County, Sanford and the people of Sanford have been good to me and I'm going to continue to live here."

Following Morris' statement of appreciation before the audience, estimated at more than two thousand, Odham presented Morris with a 16-foot boat and outboard motor. The big crowd participated in a square dance in the American Legion Fair Building to the music of Tony Russel and his orchestra.

Mrs. J. B. St. John, Parent Teachers Association's County Council president, along with the Safety Chairman of the School P.T.A.s expressed their appreciation today for the "job well done" by the Mothers who took part in the school safety patrol and the boys and girls who were members of the safety patrol.

Mrs. St. John also expressed the appreciation of her organization of the part the Sanford Police Department, the newspapers and radio played in an overall safety program for the city and county and for their invaluable cooperation.

She said, "Had it not been for this close cooperation of all those concerned with the safety of our school children, our wonderful safety record would not have been possible."

Commission Views Budget Possibility Of Tax Increase

The Board of County Commissioners begins to view the budget for the next fiscal year with the possibility of increasing taxes.

County Commissioner John Meloch contended the Board with the fact the $20,000 of the dog taxes had been appropriated to the schools and must be replaced in some way.

Another problem confronting the commissioners is the widespread demand for roads in practically every section of the county.

Commissioner B. C. Dodd said, "We will have to increase our budget for materials if we are going to provide the roads."

Kaiser in the day the Board had approved the purchase of a "mixed in place" machine for road building at a cost of more than $15,000.

O. F. Herndon fairly surprised the commissioners yesterday when he announced "I am beginning to work on the budget for next year and would like to have some expression from the commissioners as to what they would like to have placed in it."

One other item to come before the commissioners that might have bearing on the new budget was the bill for hospital care for indigent patients at Seminola Memorial Hospital. A bill for more than $7,000 for the month of May which was an accrued statement was approved.

Millage for the tax to be assessed in the coming year will be based on the budget prepared for the 1956-57 12-month period.

Caldwell Reported To Have Served 2 Years In Prison

Word has been received in Sanford that Jesse Caldwell, the Negro who was allegedly shot by a Sanford Police Department Patrolman as he apparently came out of a Sanford Ave. beer parlor, had served two terms in Georgia prisons for burglary.

Sanford Police Department Chief, Roy G. Williams, said this morning that the State Board of Corrections in Atlanta, Ga., had advised that Caldwell served a two-year term in 1950 and another in 1954, both for the same charge, burglary.

The Negro was fingerprinted here and the file sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for identification. From this report the advice came from the Georgia State Board of Corrections.

BLOOD RECORD BUTTE, Mont. (AP) - A Butte mother of five has been credited with saving the lives of 15 babies afflicted with a blood disorder in five years.

Mrs. Pauline Cain, assistant to the laboratory technicians at a Butte hospital, has Type O negative blood, found in about 6 per cent of the nation's inhabitants. A physician said Mrs. Cain's blood enabled 15 babies with Rh incompatibility to live and grow, healthy and happy.

Kelsey Sends $1,800 Bill To Commission

The Board of County Commissioners received a bill yesterday from Constable George Kelsey of Oviedo asking for more than $1800.

The bill, accompanied by a letter from Kelsey, was for loss of time during his suspension on Feb. 19 due to two indictments handed down by a Seminola County Grand Jury.

Kelsey, in his letter wrote, "These were unjust indictments." And he stated, "after talking it over with many friends I feel that I should be reimbursed for the time lost, for bonds and for attorneys fees."

The bill was in detail and listed loss of time from Feb. 10 to May 14, $216.20, an additional item for $281.98, cash for a five-thousand dollar bond $502, and attorneys fees $500.

The bill totaled $1,800.15. Commissioners expressed themselves in "We did not suspend Constable Kelsey."

However, they withheld any action on the bill pending the return of County Attorney Mack N. Cleveland Jr. from the special session of the legislature now in progress.

Kelsey was suspended by Governor LeRoy Collins when he was indicted on two accounts of "liquor conspiracy."

One of the charges was dropped and the other was dismissed in Circuit Court when witnesses for the State refused to testify.

Kelsey was reinstated to the office of Constable in the Oviedo District on May 14.
