

Majorettes Stage New Type Show In 'Twirling Fantasy'

A highly entertaining show and something quite different was the "Twirling Fantasy" presented by majorette teams from Central Florida at the Fleming Memorial Gym, Saturday.

Paced by the state champion Boone High group from Orlando, and the second-place winning Seminole High Majorettes, ten corps of high-stepping junior high and high school girls gave a crowd-pleasing performance.

The most outstanding individual performance was given by a deft, sure-fingered twirler from Eustis, diminutive Nancy Breedon. She performed both with one baton and then with two, with equal dexterity and precision.

Many of the numbers were done in different and very colorful costumes that added greatly to the eye-appeal of the show.

One well-applauded number which was presented by the Boone High group, clad in polka-dotted outfits was to the tune of "The Yellow Polka Dot Bikini," which was played in march cadence.

The Black and White Pom-Pom Dance was done by the Seminole High group, as well as several other attractive numbers.

One corps was clad in colorful Scotch plaid outfits, complete with kilts and sashes.

The show was put on by the ten corps to help boost the funds needed by the Seminole High Band and Majorettes for their coming trip to Washington, D. C. and the Cherry Blossom Festival parade.

The entire production was under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith, baton and twirling instructors for all the girls in this area.

School Board Cuts Legislation List

The County School Board has decided not to ask for any special acts raising the salaries of board members from $50 to $75 per month, Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said today.

Only two special acts have been authorized for Board Attorney Douglas Stenstrom to draw up. They are a raise in salary for Milwee from $2,000 to $10,000 and an act covering group insurance policies for all teaching personnel in the schools.

However, the school board is asking for repeal of 15 general laws pertaining to this county that are not applicable anymore.

Most of the laws are obsolete as they pertain to a county of a smaller size.

Milwee also reported today that the board will hold a special session at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Dairy herds of Wisconsin produce about one-seventh of the milk output of the United States.

Easter Lily Ball Raises Funds To Aid Crippled Children, Adults

The Third Annual Easter Lily Ball at the Mayfair ballroom Saturday was highlighted by the appearance of "Mr. Magic," the well-known magician, who appears in an area television show. Though Mr. Magic is his stage name, he is in reality a former Sanfordite, Harry Wise. His services were donated for the benefit of the crippled children and adults.

During his fascinating show of magic tricks, he used several members of the audience to help him in his acts, among them Ernest Southward, no stranger to the world of magic and sleight-of-hand himself; Dr. Jack Morrison, local dentist, and Lisle Reese, state president of the Crippled Children's Assn.

Singing and dancing for the social crowd at the ball was pretty and talented Jeri Wheatland, a young Sanford miss, who was gownned for her songs in a ballerina-length white dress, with a tiered skirt scalloped in royal blue. She returned for a dance number, clad in black silk leotards trimmed with black silk fringe. Pete Bukur's orchestra accompanied her singing numbers and played for the ballroom dancing.

Master of ceremonies for the ball was Ken McIntosh and hostess was Mr. O. A. Payne, president of the Pilot Club, with host, Dr. Vann Parker, president of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The ball is sponsored each year by the Pilot Club in association with the Society and more than 75 percent of the proceeds from the benefit remain in Seminole County for the care of crippled children and adults here.

The grand prize, a large hooked rug, made by hand by Mrs. Robert Bradford of Allamonte Springs was won by Mrs. Edgar Bruce.

Ceramics Teacher To Visit Club

Ceramics instructor Eva Yelton will be a special guest at the weekly meeting Wednesday of Chuluota's Hobby Craft Club members in the Community House at 9:30 a. m.

Interest in ceramics was stimulated at last week's meeting when Mrs. Rose Muska displayed a piece of green pottery she is making and was barraged with questions concerning the craft. A committee of two members was appointed to visit the instructor to arrange her visit and, if enough interest is shown this week, arrangements will be made for a class in Chuluota.

He has been a Lyman student for the past six years, was president of the Junior Class last year and is vice president of the Spanish Club and 1961 annual editor.

Students Continue To Flout Law In Fort Lauderdale

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—Thousands of devil-may-care college students, their leader rallying them on from atop a traffic signal light, whooped it up again Monday night and early today in this embattled resort city.

They urged police to "bring on the National Guard" when the harried officials threatened to call out reinforcements.

The students, at least 15,000 in number, have swarmed into Fort Lauderdale for their annual spring vacations. Irked because police imposed a nighttime ban on beer and oceanfront necking the students and hangers-on have battled police two nights running.

The demonstration began shortly before midnight when the mob swarmed in from beaches to protest Mayor Edward Johns' threat to call out the National Guard if the students didn't settle down. They urged police to do just that.

Theodore Dalluge, 22, of Mankato (Minn.) State College, scaled a traffic signal pole, performed some acrobatics and led the chanting students in "The Star Spangled Banner," a few college songs and several rousing cheers.

Earlier in the day, Johns and Police Chief J. Lester Holt rode along the beach pleading with the students to behave "like ladies and gentlemen."

Dalluge, later charged with inciting a riot, ignored police entreaties to descend from his lofty perch. A power and light company truck was dispatched to the scene and a deputy sheriff dragged him down and away to the already crowded jail.

His followers deluged the estimated 350 police officers on duty in the town with beer cans, firecrackers and shouted insults.

At one point police removed tear gas bombs from a squad car but did not use them. The riot ended when students retreated to the nearby beaches when many of them sleep during the Florida vacation.

Brevard Woman Cleared In Death

TITUSVILLE (UPI) — Mrs. Esther Delaney, who shot her husband to death and kept his body in a box for 17 months, was cleared of first degree murder charges Monday by the Brevard County grand jury.

She was freed immediately after the jury refused to return an indictment against her.

Mrs. Delaney told police she shot her husband, Thomas, in self defense at their home at Merrit Island. She said she did not report the slaying because she was afraid. She later moved here and brought the body with her.

Sheriff's deputies found the body in her garage two weeks ago while tracing the source of a "musty" odor of which neighbors had complained.

The third Personal Survival Course to be conducted by instructor Tom Richey, Seminole High guidance counselor, for Sanford residents was concluded Monday.

Housing Boost Bill Proposed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy sent Congress today a $3.2 billion housing bill to spruce up older cities and help low-income and elderly families get better quality homes.

The money would be spent over 40 years, but most of it by 1970. For fiscal 1962, which starts July 1, it would add about $300 million to the $728 million in housing outlays budgeted by former President Eisenhower. Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver said the Kennedy bill "would emphasize the improvement of our existing housing supply instead of relying primarily on new housing construction for better homes, as we have been doing."

It also would remove the present dollar limit on the insuring authority of the Federal Housing Administration, instead imposing an Oct. 1, 1965 cutoff date. The limit is $38 billion and the agency is not yet pressing it. The cutoff date was meant to satisfy congressmen who like to have some control over FHA.

Only $140 million of the $3.2 billion was requested as appropriations. For the balance, the bill proposed letting the housing agency go directly to the treasury for funds, bypassing the economy-minded committees of Congress.

Other key items: A two-year experiment in making FHA-insured 40-year no-downpayment mortgages available to families of modest incomes. The present general mortgage ceiling of $9,000 on a one-family house would be retained but the ceiling allowed in high cost areas would be raised from $12,000 to $16,000.

A new program of low-interest FHA-insured loans for rental and cooperative housing projects for families earning too much to qualify for low-rent public housing but who cannot afford to buy a house even on the 40-year plan.

The Jaycees are really going all out this year in preparation for the election scheduled April 20. Thus far three candidates have announced for the presidency to succeed John Alexander. They are Jack Wilber, Bud Stewart and Hamilton Polk. At least two more candidates are expected to qualify.

The Seminole High Band was a big success at the Drive-in Tuesday night. Thanks to Movie-land officials, a special cartoon show was held with all proceeds going to the band. The band earned $1,500 for their efforts and drew a big hand (honking of horns) from the large crowd.

The City zoning and planning board will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday to discuss supplemental plans by George Simons on his comprehensive zoning plan for the city.

Speaker for the Jaycees noon luncheon meeting Thursday at the Civic Center, will be Rene J. Buford of Mt. Dora, who will talk about "Flying Saucer Reports."

Road Supt. J. C. Lavender said that the pipe would cost approximately $10,000 and would be installed in about two weeks.

Investigators searched the wreckage of a Soviet-built Czechoslovakian airplane early today for possible evidence of sabotage. All 52 persons aboard died in the fiery crash Tuesday night.

"We cannot rule out the possibility of an explosion aboard the plane," State Police Inspector Paul Assman said.

Zoning Director Robert Brown asked the board to drop the measure until the 1962 legislative session.

Brown said that the zoning board and attorney had not had enough time to draw up "enough safeguards" in the proposed bill and added that now the bill could be "vicious" unless those safeguards are included.

The commission, by a 4-1 vote approved the measure last week. Voting against the bill was District 3 Commissioner James P. Avery.

In other legislative matters, the board gave its whole endorsement to the proposed county code legislation.

Avery said the proposed bill would be the first step in putting the government "back in the hands of the people."

He added that with a county code, the legislature would save two weeks' hashing over the many local bills needed by the 67 counties.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Orville E. Freeman has ordered a study of the possibility of eliminating racial segregation in the federal-state extension service program. The move followed a White House directive to promote equal job opportunity for Negroes on government contracts.

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UPI) — A 35-year-old mother of five, wife of an insurance agent, gave birth to quadruplets today at Providence Hospital. Mrs. Raymond Foyre delivered a girl, then a boy, a girl and then a second boy in a 10-minute interval.

The face lifting on W. First St. got another boost this week.

Atlantic Coast Line officials informed City Manager W. E. Knowles that they will take steps "as soon as possible" to clean up and remodel the front of the ACL warehouse next to the Burpee Seed Co. on W. First. The ACL may even tear down the present building and put up a new one.

Youngful Sanford Attorney Harold Johnson will have a big job during the next 90 days. He will take over the chores as county attorney while State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. is in Tallahassee in the Legislature. Johnson has been sitting in at the recent meetings in preparation for the job. One thing he better forget about is making any plans for Tuesday afternoons — for the second week in a row the board meeting went past 6 p.m.

Sen. Charles Johns wants the State Employment Service to help find jobs of ex-convicts. Industrial Commission Chairman Worley Brown, whose commission supervises the Service, told Johns he would check on the possibility.

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham moved his Florida crusade back South to West Palm Beach today after paying his first visit to America's largest "apartment" Graham addressed "apartment" estimated at about 9,000 Tuesday night and obtained 325 "Decisions For Christ" after a one-hour sermon at Patrick Air Force Base, 18 miles south of here.

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — More than 170 waterfront workers were overcome by fumes Tuesday on the docks at Baltimore and Philadelphia. Twenty-two remained hospitalized today. U.S., Allies Vow To Preserve Laos Freedom

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—The United States and its SEATO Allies today promised to take whatever steps may be necessary to preserve a united, independent and sovereign Laos.

The statements were contained in a strong eight-point resolution and a communique published as the foreign ministers of the anti-Communist alliance ended a three-day meeting—the most critical in SEATO's seven-year history.

Delegation members said the resolution was approved unanimously but the key paragraph omitted reference to join military action—meaning individual members could act even if others did not wish to do so.

The other nations of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization are Britain, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Pakistan and the Philippines.

The resolution said SEATO favored an independent and sovereign Laos and was pleased with present efforts to secure a cessation of hostilities in the jungle kingdom. But it stressed that SEATO would not shirk its responsibility to protect those nations threatened by Red aggression.

The resolution did not place a deadline for a Soviet response to a U. S.-supported British proposal for a cease-fire in Laos to be followed by a political settlement. Britain submitted the proposal in Moscow Thursday.

County Asks Flood Plan Grant

Seminole County took a step Tuesday toward solving its water control and flooding problems as the board of county commissioners agreed to apply for federal planning aid.

Representatives of Reynolds, Smith and Hill, Jacksonville engineers, reported on a study authorized by the commission late last year, recommended the project be undertaken in four phases.

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. was authorized to apply to the Housing and Home Finance Agency for a $30,000 planning grant.

The initial phase in the long range $9 million program was estimated Tuesday at $3,620,000. The entire program would take up to five years to complete, according to the availability of funds.

County Postpones Housing Code

A minimum housing code for Seminole County will have to wait until 1962 after the County Commission Tuesday afternoon rescinded its request for enabling legislation to set up the regulation.

Zoning Director Robert Brown asked the board to drop the measure until the 1962 legislative session.

Brown said that the zoning board and attorney had not had enough time to draw up "enough safeguards" in the proposed bill and added that now the bill could be "vicious" unless those safeguards are included.

Repeal Of Law Alloting Race Funds Is Asked

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. Tuesday afternoon was authorized to draw up a resolution asking the legislature to repeal an existing law turning over $50,000 of state race track funds to the county school board.

District 3 County Commissioner James P. Avery, who proposed the repeal, said that he felt that the money should be turned over to the county's road and bridge fund.

Cleveland Assures 'Suitable' Bill

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr., assured the County Commission Tuesday that a "suitable" drainage act that will fit Seminole County and its citizens will be drawn up by the legislative delegation.

Cleveland said he was "not sold on the Orange County drainage bill because there were not enough safeguards for the people."

The legislator, who also serves as county attorney, said that he and Rep. Gordon Frederick will work on a special bill that will fit the needs of the people.

Cleveland made these remarks after the commission authorized him to draw up enabling legislation on drainage so the board could set the wheels in motion to start on a $9 million water control project.

Cleveland said that he and Frederick will leave for Tallahassee Sunday and work throughout the week going over the Orange County sample bill—which calls for the establishments of drainage districts—and make needed changes to protect the people.

Cleveland emphasized that the Seminole drainage bill will spell out that no drainage tax will be levied without a referendum by the people.

Altamonte Gets Road Reclassified

Altamonte Springs won its battle with the County to reclassify SR 427 (Holland Ave.), in the city limits from a rural road to a village road.

A delegation from the town council headed by Attorney S. J. Davis and Mayor Wilbur Hawkins spent almost two hours in the morning Tuesday and one hour in the afternoon arguing the merits of the reclassification.

At noon, the board went over the road and agreed to reclassify it, adopting a resolution to the State Road Dept. to that effect. Davis pointed out that under a rural classification there would be open ditches on the road and no gutters or sidewalks. A village road would include underground drainage, sidewalks and curbing.

Supt. of roads J. C. Lavender said that the reclassification would cost about $50,000 and would mean a delay of the work on the road from 30 to 60 days.

U.S. Racking Up Its 28th Deficit In 33 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The word from the Treasury is that the United States is in the process of racking up its 28th deficit in 33 years. A shameful record.

The 28th deficit will become a fact at the end of fiscal 1962 which will be on June 30 of that year. The government of the United States has been living for a generation or more like a young sailor on leave in Paris. We've had a ball but at great cost.

The tab by the end of fiscal '62 will be about $270 billion. That is the spread between the national debt as it was in 1930 and as it is today. The 1930 public debt was a little more than $16 billions. The national debt today is in excess of $285 billions.

Three methods are available for handling that debt. It could be repudiated by a process of currency inflation which would so corrupt and erode the purchasing power of the dollar that debts finally would not be worth collecting. There would be then a general washout of debt, including the national debt, and we all would start over with a new unit of currency. Nations have done that; Germany, for example.

Another method would be simply to keep the debt on the books, paying interest on it to the bond holders. That would cost around $9 billions a year. That is what it costs now, a dreadful load.

The third method would be to pay off the debt. Everybody is for that, but nobody does much about it. A start could be made by raising taxes and reducing government spending, both unlikely. If the debt ever is paid off, it will be by our grandchildren and their grandchildren. I have five grandchildren and I nominate them for part of the job. They won't like it, but if the debt is to be paid off they and their kids and so on will have to do.

This is a mean and selfish thing to do to our grandkids. It would be better for them, however, than repudiation of the debt or simply to carry it forever at great cost.

Best for the grandkids would be higher taxes right now and a hard-nosed economy program by an administration and a Congress which would look a pressure group in the eye and says, go away, boys, we can't afford it.

There won't be any of that, however; anyway, not much. On the contrary, the United States probably will continue to live beyond its means. The grandkids may not have any opportunity at all to pay off the debt for lack of political leaders willing to make the hard decisions without which debt retirement cannot be.

This is bad because of this explosive fact: This prolonged deficit spending by the U. S. government already has begun to poison the U. S. economy with the deadly virus of currency inflation. If it continues, the U. S. economy may be poisoned beyond remedy. The Communists could come on over then with their spades and, as predicted, bury us.

Jaycees Making Final Plans For Egg Hunt

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce is making final plans for their annual Easter Egg Hunt, to be held at Fort Mellon Park, Sunday at 2 p.m. Men of the Jaycees plan to hide several thousand eggs in roped-off areas at the Park, where children from the ages of one through 10 will meet and be divided into age groups for the hunt.

Golden eggs will be among those hidden and finding them will entitle the young hunter to prizes donated by local firms.

An appeal has been made by the Jaycees for public contributions of eggs for this annual event. Those who wish to contribute may mail the Jaycee Information Booth, by Friday, and leave their name and address, and club members will pick up the eggs before the hunt. All donations to help make the Easter Egg Hunt a success for the several hundred children expected will be appreciated by the project committee.

Refugee Called Rat By Castro

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro said today Jose Pardo Llada, the refugee radio commentator who "chose freedom" in Mexico last week, is a "complete rat for whom I never felt any kind of friendship."

Castro made an unscheduled appearance on a TV panel show — his fourth television in a week — to heap abuse on Pardo, who had been regarded in some circles as the No. 4 man in Castroite Cuba.

Pardo emerged briefly from hiding Tuesday to tell newsmen in Mexico City that he turned against the Castro regime as a protest against its anti-church campaign and against Communist control of the Cuban press.

Pardo said he plans to settle in Mexico after going to Spain for a talk with ousted Argentine ex-President Juan D. Peron. His wife and daughter, whom he left behind when he fled from Cuba, sought asylum as political refugees in the Costa Rican Embassy Tuesday night.

In an earlier telecast, economic czar Ernesto Che Guevara warned the nation that the Castro regime's "ferocious death struggle" with the United States will mean more and more sacrifices for the Cuban people.

He predicted eventual victory for the Castroites, saying they would transform the entire Andes range, backbone of South America, into a rebel hideout like Castro's former stronghold in the mountains of Cuba.

Senate Republicans To Fight Kennedy's $1.25 Wage Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican leaders today promised an all-out fight against President Kennedy's $1.25 an hour minimum wage proposal despite new administration concessions.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen told a reporter he would seek to trim the compromise administration bill in committee. If that failed, he said, he would "make a fight on the Senate floor."

School Aid State Limit Proposed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Committee for Economic Development proposed today a $600 million annual federal school aid program limited to states with low personal income.

T. V. Houser, chairman of the non-partisan group's research and policy committee, advanced the plan in testimony prepared for a House education subcommittee at hearings on President Kennedy's $2.3 billion elementary-secondary school aid proposal.

The committee, demanding opposition to "any proposal for general support of school systems on a nationwide basis," said grants should go only to states where personal income per student is below 80 percent of the national average.

Houser said the plan would carry safeguards to prevent states from decreasing their own school efforts when federal funds begin coming in.

Competition's Rough

One of the marks of the Great Depression of the 1930s was that the slump in this country also plunged Western Europe into distress.

Years later, in the aftermath of World War II, Europe was devastated and unable to get up off its back. We rushed in with major help under the Marshall Plan, and provided the spur to a remarkable recovery.

In the light of this background, it is hard for us to understand the quite different situation which exists today. America's economy has dipped into a valley, while most of Western Europe rides a crest of unprecedented height.

It's no news, of course, that West Germany leads the lot. It has been on a rising curve for years. In 1960 it lifted its total output another 8 percent, pushed its already heavy exports up another $1.6 billion to a level where they represent better than a sixth of all output.

What is more surprising is to hear of the booms in once weak, tottering lands like France, Italy, Belgium and Holland. Only Britain seems to have gone into something like a sag lately.

Italy is especially astonishing. Its industrial production soared 15 percent last year, and exports climbed nearly 30 percent. Its products are fanning out to Africa, the Middle East, Latin America and, naturally, the United States.

Notable, too, is the evidence that more of these countries' production is now being consumed at home as the prosperous mood grows.

Varied and somewhat tentative answers are offered to explain why once-prostrate Europe is up while the rich United States is down.

Some experts believe we have to some extent priced ourselves out of not only certain foreign markets but some of our own—automobiles, for an example.

Germany, Italy and others appear also to have gone to great lengths to tailor their products to world market needs. Their competitive drive in this regard is said to be heightening, with possible further bad news for America in consequence.

One specialist points out that price stability runs like a sturdy thread through most of the booming countries. For some time, at least, inflation has been under control. Their success in mastering this seems to lie in their handling of the complexities of money management and in more modest wage levels than ours.

This country, may very well be on the rise again right now. But no one observing Western Europe's burst of prosperity can question that we'll need immense energy and ingenuity to withstand new competitive onslaughts from our friends abroad.

Increase in State Land Value Throws Crimp In School Finances

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Increasing Florida land values have thrown a crimp into the state's formula for financing schools.

The problem already has reached the crisis stage for 10 or more small counties, several senators told the Legislative Council.

The problem is so acute, they said, some areas may have to close schools or shorten the school year unless the Legislature grants immediate relief.

The council put its Education Committee, headed by Rep. Ernest S. Roberts of Palm Beach, to work on seeking a solution.

Florida's public schools are financed through the minimum foundation school fund with a set of complicated formulas. Laws require the counties to contribute to the fund an amount equal to 25 percent of what a statewide six mill tax would bring. And the state Constitution sets a maximum 20 mill school tax that can be levied by each county.

The problem arose when some of the large counties, like Dade and Palm Beach, reassessed taxable property at full market value. Most small counties have not carried out the reassessment program yet.

The $0 mill school tax ceiling, therefore, has not been enough for the small counties to raise their share of the state school fund when applied against the old land values.

Counties in the worst shape, the Legislative Council's research staff reported, are Calhoun, Hamilton, Holmes, Jackson, Madison, Okaloosa, Santa Rosa, Sumter, Walton and Washington.

Sen. Scott Kelly of Lakeland said he did not have much sympathy for those counties which have not reassessed their property. He said those counties had known for years they would have to establish realistic property assessments or jeopardize their schools.

"If we grant relief to those who have not reassessed," Kelly said, "then we are losing any pressure we'd have to whip these counties into line."

"C'mon, I Said I'd Meet You Halfway"

CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD

By William Drury

Tourists arriving in Hawaii expect to be greeted in the time-honored manner, with a lei of wet blossoms and an equally wet kiss. But there is another old, old Hawaiian custom that surprisingly few know. Even old, old Hawaiians seem strangely unaware of it.

It dates all the way back to the day that Alphonse Batz first thought of it.

Three weeks ago, Alphonse is as Hawaiian as bouillabaisse and burgundy. An exile from France, he is the booming, bouncing proprietor of two flourishing French restaurants, Le Coz d'Or (known locally as The Coke Door) and La Normandie (which Alphonse himself reverently calls Mother Batz's Kitchen).

In Waikiki, all this is known. What is not generally known is that Monsieur Batz is a practical joker.

Three weeks ago, wearing aloha shirts, Monsieur and I waited at Honolulu Airport for a flying machine to arrive, bearing an old crony from New York (whom I shall call Edward, chiefly because that is his name).

We were well prepared for the invasion. Each carried a polyethylene sack containing a carnation lei.

The aircraft was delayed, so we repaired to the Sky Room. And there fell to discussing those old Hawaiian customs that malihinis had come to expect and respect.

Such as the lei and the kiss. We also touched on the fact that our good friend Edward, who had never visited the Aloha State before, was woefully unversed in the ways of Island folk.

"For instance," said Monsieur, "the polyethylene sacks that I covered our leis, 'cuz we put those bags on our heads, hee hee, think eet ees an old Hawaiian custom."

We decided to put this theory to the test.

Rolling the transparent sacks into turbans, we placed them on our heads.

Edward came through the barrier and gaped at us, goggle-eyed. We tossed the flowers around his neck and said, "Aloha." He eyed our heads with suspicion, but we kept our faces straight and pretended not to notice anything amiss.

As we strolled through the airport terminal, first one and then another young Hawaiian passed, and Edward saw that both wore plastic turbans.

That clinched it. He decided not to mention the matter lest he betray his ignorance.

Of course, he did not know that we had paid those Hawaiians to wear the plastic sacks.

Two days later, Edward called upon Monsieur at The Coke Door. "My wife is arriving tonight," he said, "and she will expect the full treatment. Leis, kisses, all that sort of thing. But I want to do this thing right. Where can I get hold of one of those Hawaiian turbans?"

"I weel order one for you," said Monsieur, obligingly. It was a simple matter to obtain a plastic food bag from his own kitchen.

Wearing his turban, Edward greeted his wife at the airport. "What's that thing on your head?" she asked.

"It's an old Hawaiian custom," he told her. "Dates back to early times." "You mean to tell me," she asked incredulously, "that those early Hawaiians invented plastic sacks?"

He gulped and hastily removed the turban. "It is easy to invent an old, old custom, but difficult to make it stick."

The queries pour in: "I still can't budget. What shall I do?"

I turned this one over to Dr. Marguerite L. Rittenhouse, specialist in consumer research. Here is her suggestion:

Throw out the budget books. Go about your merry way. At the end of each day jot down what you have spent. Itemize your spending thus: supermarket, clothes, lunch, etc. It will take no more than two minutes. Do this for one day and soon you'll get into the habit of doing it daily.

One gal Dr. Rittenhouse cited wondered why she was constantly in debt until she discovered she was spending $20 weekly during lunch hour instead of the $8 she estimated.

Another, a working mother, totaled her expenses only to find that she could not afford to work. Help with children at home, extra clothes, taxes, careless food buying—these totaled more than her weekly take-home pay.

When you know where you money goes, you can control your spending, premises this astute lady researcher. She also notes that but 6 percent of some 5,600 women recently surveyed actually budgeted their spending.

"I'd like to join an investment club. How can I go about finding one in my town?"

Write The National Association of Investment Clubs, National Bank Building, Detroit 26, Mich., asking them for the names of investment clubs in your vicinity. If you cannot find a club the association can send you a kit and help you start a club.

"What is so important about a birth certificate?"

If your citizenship is in question you will need a birth certificate to prove in what country you were born. Employers often request one, especially if you are applying for a job of a highly confidential nature.

When you seek a passport to travel overseas you need a birth certificate. They are sometimes needed to establish a person's legal age or legal name and for social security purposes.

an heir or an heiress to an estate or sum of money.

"Is it true that the government collects estate taxes on the proceeds of government life insurance policies?"

The answer is yes. However, don't forget that there are certain gifts you make during your lifetime to reduce estate taxes. Consult the experts like trust officers at a bank, your lawyer or perhaps an accountant when you plan your estate. This is no do-it-yourself job.

"Can you give me the name of an investment counselor?"

No. This column cannot make such specific recommendations.

POLITICAL NOTEBOOK

By Peter Edson

TOKYO—(NEA)—In all the excitement about naming Dr. Edwin O. Reischauer as U. S. ambassador to Japan, a story was revived about the grandfather of Mrs. Reischauer, the former Miss Haru Matsukata.

He was Prince Masayoshi Matsukata, a general in the imperial army who also served as prime minister from 1891 to 1896. He was quite a boy.

One day the emperor asked him how many children he had. Shamefacedly, the prince had to confess that he didn't know, exactly, but that he would find out. Next day he came back with the answer. It was 42.

The inventive Japanese are doing wonders with the bedside console, an electronic marvel that will do almost anything for you and get you almost anything you want.

In the new Miyako Hotel at Kyoto, Japan, which is a great tourist center for Americans as well as Japanese because of its 233 Shinto shrines and 1,396 Buddhist temples, the art of the bedside console has been carried to its extreme.

It is a beautiful piece of cabinet work and push buttons. Switches control all the lights in the room. There is a set of dials to control the air conditioner. Another set controls radio, with selective switches for a piped-in hi-fi. There is a switch that lights a floor lamp for a night light, that shows you the way without blinding you.

The cradle phone is built so you dial direct for operator, valet, room service, bell captain or information. There is a special push button to call "Maid." And another button beside it, too, says "Hurry." It works, too. They come running.

Of all the strange things you eat in Japan, from seaweed to fried ice cream, the darndest is probably fried honey bees, in the comb. It is a kind of hors d'oeuvre. They serve you a little in a tiny bowl as an appetizer with your sake. They don't tell you what it is till you've tasted it. It looks a little like big, fried bread crumbs.

You pick up a tidbit with your chopsticks. It has a sweet, nutty taste which is not unpleasant. Then they tell you. And sure enough, you poke around with your chopsticks, and you see a whole bee on its back.

About this fried ice cream. You get it in the tempura restaurants, where they fry your food in sesame seed deep fat, right in front of you, a bit at a time.

The scoop of frozen ice cream is brought in quick. It is dipped in batter, which provides a kind of insulating layer. Then the whole thing is plopped into the deep fat and fried like a doughnut for less than a minute. You pick up this fried snowball with chopsticks and nibble away at it.

The only food item that really stopped your correspondent was a big, boiled fish eye. It was blue, and it stared me down.

Cantinflas came to Tokyo to promote his new picture, "Pepe," and they held a press conference for him. One Japanese correspondent asked him what his hobby was and he said "bulls." Another asked him if he was really an expert bullfighter and he answered, "The bull is more expert at it than I am."

When former King Leopold of Belgium visited the old capital of Japan at Kyoto, it rained all day. When it rains in Japan, things get pretty wet. But carrying his majesty fed the tame deer in Nara Park, watched ten bouts of Japanese wrestling, inspected the Kobe shippyard and dedicated a new Catholic church. His spirits weren't dampened a bit.

And, according to the reporter who covered the tour for the Tokyo Mainichi Shimbun, "A lucid rain added silvery elegance to the ancient capital."

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

CASE H-345: When Danny was 7, he put me on the spot. It was during the winter. I was trying to formulate an outline for an address I was to give at 8 p.m. before a Chicago Parent-Teacher Association.

The hour was already 7 P. M. And I hadn't yet shaved or bathed. Thirteen-year-old George moped while sat on the edge of my desk pestering me with questions about First Aid, for he wanted to undergo a merit badge test thereon that same evening for the Boy Scouts.

So I was growing more nervous every second. At this hectic instant Mrs. Crane rushed into my study to protest that the pipe on the furnace had come apart when she turned the damper therein.

"Why didn't you leave the damper alone?" I spoke sharply. "You don't need to turn it to damper the fire."

"But why have a damper if it isn't to be used?" she came back at me.

"Just open that iron door on top of the furnace and it will do the same things as the damper," I answered.

"Besides, you knew that pipe was about to fall apart. Now I must waste another five minutes, and I'm due at the meeting at 8 o'clock."

"What did you marry her for if you are always going to argue with her?" Danny broke into our debate, apparently in all seriousness.

"If you don't love her, why did you marry her?" This sudden and unexpected comment broke the tension. Both Mrs. Crane and I had to smile.

"Oh, I love her all right," I replied. "Just because I argue with her, doesn't mean I don't love her."

"You quarrel with David, too, don't you, but that doesn't mean you don't love him, does it?"

Danny got my point and went on with his play. His interruption of our debate might have been done just to get me into a dilemma, for he was a foxy boy and on several occasions had tried to trap me like this.

But it is always wise for parents to countermand their evidences of quarrelling by visible signs of affection.

Parents should thus kiss each other in front of their children: They should show tangible fondness for each other.

A child is more inclined to take his cues from your actions than from your words.

If you employ honeyed phrases on your wife, but come home drunk and even blacken her eyes, the sight of this cruelty far outweighs the sweet phrases.

Advice is seldom welcome. Those who need it most, like I least. —Samuel Johnson

Invalid Robs Train Of $56,000

LONDON (UPI)—Trainmen of the 9:47 out of London's Waterloo Station Tuesday night were sympathetic toward the invalid in the wheel chair at Clapham Junction. There was no place to put him aboard conveniently except in the mail car and the guard, William Defty, 55, gave the male nurse a hand in lifting the man in the chair.

"Are you comfortable?" asked the guard as the train rolled out of Clapham.

"Yes, very," smiled the patient. And that was the start of England's fifth great train robbery since last summer. To Englishmen reading about it today it appeared the art of Jesse James had joined other imports surging across the Atlantic.

Like the previous robberies, Tuesday night's was imaginatively planned.

As the train swayed along its peaceful suburban route, block signals turned red and the train came to a halt.

The man in the wheel chair underwent a startling recovery.

He jumped from his chair, knocked out the guard and tied him up. Then he and his companion, the "male nurse" threw five mail bags through the door. They dragged the bags to a waiting car and sped off with accomplices.

"The raid was meticulously planned and appears to have been timed up to the second," said a Scotland Yard official.

First estimates placed the amount stolen at about $56,000. The previous robberies, which may have been pulled by the same bandits, netted a total of $71,120. Two of the others also were accomplished through tampered signals.

Student Dance Flops Because Of Booze, Girls At Lauderdale

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) — A city-sponsored dance for vacationing college students flopped Tuesday night because the two main ingredients, girls and booze, were missing.

But the affair, held under the watchful eye of about 25 police officers, put at least a temporary halt to the rioting of the previous two nights which resulted in more than 300 arrests and started officials talking of calling out the National Guard.

Authorities roped off five city blocks, brought in three collegiate combos and told the free-wheeling youths they could dance until 2 a. m.

About 3,000 students showed up, but retreated to nearby beaches after surveying the scene. By midnight, the crowd had dwindled to about 500.

"Looked to me," said one policeman, "like a lack of women and no booze."

Police reported about 60 youths were hauled off to jail Tuesday night on the usual charges—public intoxication, drinking in public, disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace.

Traffic was stacked up for miles on main highways leading into the city, jammed with an estimated 15,000 students vacationing in the sun after cold winter semesters in the North.

Police Chief Lester Holt wore a worried expression and said he expected 50,000 in town by Easter.

Two city judges worked through the day Tuesday, handing out jail terms and fines, including a 70-day term for George T. Dalgone, 22, a senior at Mankato State College, Mankato, Minn., who pleaded guilty to inciting a riot and resisting arrest.

Novel Way To Try Paintings Offered

A novel way to get a first hand view of original paintings in the home is being offered here through Mrs. Helen DeWit, president of the Sanford Art Assn.

"Reaction has been stimulating," said Mrs. DeWit. She opened her home to the public last week, with invitations to call in the afternoons between 2 and 5 p. m. or call for an appointment.

A subscription loan service is being made available and Mrs. DeWit, an artist herself, has turned her home and Florida room into a gallery, hanging the paintings of local artists. People who are decorating or redecorating their homes or offices may take advantage of her offer to loan out any of these paintings, as many as three on one contract, for three months.

In this manner, it can be seen whether a particular painting of a landscape, flowers or still life fits in with the home or office decor, and if it is one that the owner would like to live with permanently. If the painting suits the scheme of the decor and the eye of the beholder, it may be purchased.

Final Survival Course To Open

The last Personal Survival Course for the Sanford area until next fall will open Monday at Seminole High's Administration offices.

Beginning on Tuesday at the Lake Mary Elementary School for the four three-hour classes will be the first course for this area. Residents interested may contact Richey or Floyd Richards, school principal.

Lyman Rocks Ocoee; Oviedo Loses

Lyman put on a robust hitting display to rock Ocoee 17-4 Tuesday while Oviedo blew a three run margin to lose to Titusville, 8-3.

The Sanford Seminoles will play Parkview Thursday and spent Tuesday in hard drilling.

Lyman banged out 12 hits behind the fine twirling of Charles Prescott and Ronny Dill.

The Greyhounds opened up with a six run first inning and coasted the rest of the way.

It was the fifth win against one loss for the Greyhounds.

At Oviedo, the Lions got off on the right foot but couldn't hold on as they blew a three run first only to see Titusville come roaring back with three in the fifth and two more in the sixth.

Holland, Courier and Ken Sparks hurled for Oviedo with Holland tagged with the loss.

Meanwhile at Sanford, with an open date until Thursday, Coach Jim McCoy's nine went through long batting drills hoping to snap a three game losing streak and get on the winning trail.

McCoy plans to start Bobby Johnson on the mound against Lakeview Monday.

Pirates Making Yanks Look Bad Even In Spring

United Press International

Even in spring exhibition games, the Pittsburgh Pirates show no respect for the New York Yankees.

The 1960 World Series rivals met for the first time this spring at Ft. Myers, Tuesday—and the result was the same. The Pirates, with Bob Clemente and Dick Stuart hitting home runs, pranced to an easy 9-2 victory.

Art Ditmar started for the Yankees against Bob Friend. They each lost two games in the Series last fall. However, Friend enjoyed much better luck this time as he scattered eight hits to become the first Pittsburgh hurler to go nine innings this spring. He struck out seven.

The Pirates, meanwhile, clouted Ditmar for eight runs on as many hits in less than six innings. It was the Yankees' 13th defeat in 18 matchups, which is just the opposite of the Buca's spring record (13-5).

Ralph Houk, the Yankees' new manager, claims he's not worried—yet—about the club's poor form but some old-timers can't remember a Yankee team that looked so futile in spring training.

While the Yankees are having their troubles, the Detroit Tigers are bowling over their exhibition rivals with surprising regularity.

Don Mossi, making a strong comeback after missing the final six weeks of the 1960 season with a sore elbow, raised his spring-time record to 4-0 as the Tigers downed the Cincinnati Reds, 7-5, Tuesday. Mossi scattered seven hits over the first seven innings.

The San Francisco Giants edged the Boston Red Sox, 2-1; the Chicago White Sox snapped the Los Angeles Dodgers' seven-game winning streak, 3-1; the Baltimore Orioles outlasted the Kansas City Athletics, 8-7, in 11 innings; Harmon Killebrew's two run homer in the ninth inning gave the Minnesota Twins a 3-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies, and the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0, in other games.

British Heavy Rated Fourth

NEW YORK (UPI)—British and Empire champion Henry Cooper is rated the No. 4 contender for heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's title and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson is dropped to No. 5 in the latest ratings of The Ring magazine.

Cooper earned his new ranking with his fifth-round technical knockout of Joe Erskine while Johansson was dropped three notches after his sixth-round knockout at the hands of Patterson.

Heavy-fisted Sonny Liston of Philadelphia is ranked No. 1 contender, Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., is No. 2 and Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., is No. 3. Liston and Cooper are regarded as most likely to get the next shot at Patterson.

Liston, Ingemar Bout Interest Up

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (UPI)—Bids for a match between heavyweight contender Sonny Liston and Ingemar Johansson were piling up today despite a Swedish promoter's statement his $125,000 guarantee had been accepted.

Joseph Pep Barone, Liston's manager, admitted he cabbed promoter Edwin Ahlqvist that he was "interested in the bout in Goteborg, Sweden, but denied giving an acceptance."

"He sent me a telegram and I wired back that I was interested," Barone said.

Ahlqvist said the bout would draw a capacity crowd of 35,000 at Goteborg's new Ullevi soccer stadium, with Liston's purse probably amounting to $340,000.

Barone's head was turned by a new offer from another source. He said he had received a telegram from a Los Angeles group offering "huge guarantees" for a Liston-Johansson bout. Barone said he wired the Californians to be "more specific."

BOB GOALBY is a new name that keeps popping up on the professional golf tour. The Crystal River, Fla., shotmaker won another Open Championship in St. Petersburg with four phenomenal rounds, 67-62-67-65—261

Bait Box

There has been a happy overlap this year of the shad season and good bass fishing and as some of the winter visitors begin to fade away the accent is getting back to bass.

During the past week, there have been numerous good catches of bass, including some whoppers as far as size goes. Reports of big ones have come from the Wekiva to Lakes Jessup and Harney. Biggest of the lot was one weighed in at 14 pounds two ounces by Norman Couch, a visitor who was guided to the rip snorter by John Peete of DeLand.

P. N. Davis and J. W. Knight of Sanford had their picture taken at Crow's Camp with a string of 70 bream caught by their party on the St. Johns. They really had the sport! since they were fly fishing.

Wilbur Brewer said boats out of his Camp Seminole on the Wekiva have been bringing in good bass strings, although no extra large ones have been reported.

The shad seem determined to keep running, with near limit catches brought in last week at Lemah and Crow's.

A couple from Mexico City was among the visitors to Lemon Bluff when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bleiler came with DeBary residents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bleiler. They caught 11 shad, with seven roe. Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Haings of Mt. Holly, N. J. and Miss Wilhemena Hoffman of Dearwood, Minn., caught 19 shad, two specks and a bass on one excursion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Blackwelder of Sanford were among the home folks getting 18 shad in their net out of Crow's.

But perhaps the happiest fishermen of them all was six-year-old Stephen Shilling who posed for a picture holding two shad of nearly four pounds each and a roe beer.

For him, the future seems to be on the St. Johns.

Redskins Warned On Discrimination

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Interior Secretary Stewart Udall has given the Washington Redskins until next autumn to prove they do not discriminate against hiring Negro players.

Udall warned Redskins' owner George Preston Marshall last week that he might not be able to play his National Football League team in the new Washington stadium if he practices discrimination. The stadium was built with federal funds.

At a news conference Tuesday, the secretary noted that Marshall's contract with the government did not begin until next October. "He can't break the contract until October," Udall said. "All we want to do is to open his mind a bit."

The Redskins, who finished at the bottom of their division of the National Football League last season, have never hired Negro players. Marshall has said the team gets most of its men from southern colleges which don't have Negroes.

Sign Draftees

MINNAPOLIS (UPI)—The Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League have signed full-back Ray Hayes of Central (Okla.) State and Ted Karpowicz of Detroit University. The two players completed the Vikings' list of draftees signed.

Sanford Boaters Attend Opening Event At Shell Harbor Marina

Seminole County boating enthusiasts and those of the immediate neighboring areas were well represented "half mile north of marker 41" on the St. Johns river this past weekend when they attended the gala opening of Shell Harbor Marina's new 35,000 gallon swimming pool on Saturday.

Owners "Smitty" and Dauretta Smith and managers, Willard and Vi Bailey, were congenial hosts at a chicken barbecue for about 30 couples from all over the state with many staying overnight aboard their cruisers or at the hotel.

One can readily understand why Smitty, nephew of the late Dr. W. V. Blitting of Sanford and a TWA pilot, spends every available moment between flights out of New York at his Shell Harbor home. Located on the beautiful banks just north of Wekiva where the river is wide and deep and the fishing good, it is an ideal spot for boaters to pause and regala their land legs.

Among the weekend guests were Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Blitting of Ocala. Mrs. Blitting is the former Elizabeth Smith whose father, W. C. Smith was in the furniture business here for many years.

Other county and area residents present for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Walters and son of Allamonte Springs, S. C. Girardet Jr. and S. C. Girardet Sr. of Maitland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Daniels of Apopka, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flint of Winter Park and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells and daughters of Lake Mary.

A noted growth in riverfront development is noted in making the trip from Sanford northward with the newest site being opened just north of DeLand. At least four additional subdivisions have been established in the Astor Park-Lake George area during the past eight months and half a dozen or more new fish camps have opened just north of the lake.

The trip is a beautiful one this time of year with the shorelines wearing their Easter pastels and, though the nights are chilly, days are sparkling bright and Saturday the river was closely dotted with fishing boats.

On the return trip Sunday, only two skiers were braving the elements near Blue Springs but from DeLand to Sanford pleasure crafts had taken over for the day.

O. B.'S MORTGAGE, who flashed to victory Friday night in the second of two qualifying heats for the annual Central Florida Derby, looms as the favorite in the big event of the year at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight. Early odds have Mortgage at 5-2 for the 26th running of the SOKC feature event. The Oswald Brothers dog is shown by trainer Jim Reardon. Easter Token, Andale, O. B.'s Medium, Faith Hope, Punky Girl, China Harjo and Uppity complete the Derby field.

Kennel Club Derby Scheduled Tonight

Two swiftness from the Oswald Brothers Kennel, O. B.'s Mortgage and O.B.'s Medium, look like the two favorites for the 26th running of the Central Florida Kennel Club tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Mortgage, already the National Hurdles Champion, could prove to be one of the country's most versatile greyhounds if he scores in tonight's featured 11th race. The big 70-pounder has won five of his last seven starts including two distance runs. The Derby is run over the 3/8th mile course.

Mortgage won his qualifying heat Friday night in the fine time of 40.45. Medium placed second in his elimination race. Last year's champ, Andale also rates as one of the early favorites as does Easter Token, winner of the other qualifying race. Rounding out the field will be China Harjo, Punky Girl, Uppity and Faith Hope.

THE PILOT CLUB HAS CHOSEN for their new president for next year, pert little Patty Gatchel. A busy girl is Patty, who serves as assistant cashier at the Florida State Bank and secretary to the president, T. E. Tucker. She has been with the bank for quite a few years and always greets everyone with a friendly smile.

PATTY GACHEL

The bank will be moving this weekend to their beautiful new building on the corner of First and Oak, and what a breathtakingly grand new home it will be! While being shown through by Mrs. Gatchel recently, your reporter was ecstatic over the gorgeous carpet that was being laid wall to wall in the new bank. Combining the colors of emerald green, turquoise and royal blue in a mingled effect that is perfectly stunning, that carpet is the most beautiful I have ever seen!

We were in accord when Patty said, "I told the workmen, if they had any little scraps left over, (about 9 by 12) to save them for me!"

The colors were chosen and the carpeting made especially to order for the Florida State Bank of Sanford and we applauded their choice.

Patty came to Sanford when she was a small child and grew up here, attending local schools. She lived for a while in DeLand while her husband Dave was attending Stetson University. There she worked for attorney Francis Whitehair and also in the DeLand Gift Shoppe.

The Gift Shoppe was responsible for the beginning of her hobby, for which she has become well known around DeLand and Sanford. She loves to decorate Easter eggs. She had such a talent for it that when the owner of the Gift Shoppe there saw some of her beautifully decorated eggs, he persuaded Patty to display some of them in the window, with the result that they were quickly sold and people began to make special requests for her to make up eggs for place markers and parties and children.

When she joined the Pilot Club, her hobby was extended to include the club's annual decorated Easter egg sale for their Milk Fund. With the eggs that she made and donated to the club for their sale and those she made to fill the requests of private parties she soon found herself in the egg decorating business—but good!

As with all good things, it finally got to be too much for her and she had to abandon the entire project, in order not to slight her work and other activities.

Besides her position in the bank, her work in the Pilot Club, treasurer of the Seminole County Unit of the American Cancer Society, and membership in the First Baptist Church, her favorite pastime is sewing and she loves to make as many of her own clothes as she has time for at her Banana Lake Home.

"I am so interested in the Pilot Club's newly formed organization for high school girls, to be known as the Anchor Club. This is just getting started and I have found all the girls to be such wonderful young people, I am looking forward to working with them," says Patty.

AN INTERESTING STORY about a fox, comes from George Touhy over at First Federal. This fox evidently doesn't know the facts of life and thinks he is a dog.

A friendly little fellow, he hangs out around the Indian Mound Village neighborhood out by the river and apparently enjoys the company of humans.

He has been particularly friendly with Ed Stowe and likes to climb up and sit on his lap, when Ed sits outdoors, apparently making himself at home as easily as a dog or cat.

He likes to play with the neighborhood children. One of the local doctors became a little worried that the fox might possibly turn rabid and bite one of the children.

He was told that if he left his car door open the friendly fox would jump in, as he loves to ride in cars. The doctor did so and sure enough Brer Fox climbed in and made himself comfortable while the good doctor drove him to the veterinarian's for a rabies shot, to insure his good health and that of the children he loves to play with along the river.

We wonder if this little wild creature could be kin to the one which joined the camping trip, last fall, of your scribe's young son and two of his friends. That fox was a female, and hung around patiently for several days before we found her owner.

She still pays nocturnal visits to our neighborhood, her green eyes gleaming in the auto headlights. We see her dash across the road or standing, wistfully peering in the lighted windows of someone's home every now and then.

Strange are the ways of the creatures of the woods. In some, the call of the wild is apparently not so strong, and the animal's fear seems overwhelmed by his curiosity.

Mrs. Galloway Returns Home From Hospital

Friends of Mrs. J. Q. Galloway will be glad to know that she has returned home from the Waycross Memorial Hospital and is recuperating from her recent accident.

She will be confined to her home for several days, but is able to have visitors.

She would like her friends to know that she appreciates all the cards and thoughtful remembrances received while she was in the hospital.

Danny Neal Home On Leave

Danny Neal is home for a two week furlough and visit with family and friends. He has been in the Air Force for six months and stationed at Amarillo, Texas.

When he returns to duty, he will be stationed at Altus, Okla., and his wife and two young children will be with him at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Walter Bartorek, in Enterprise, Saturday evening at a chicken barbecue.

Others attending were Mrs. Lois Brooke, Ray Stowell, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stowell and children, Maxine, Corky and Vince.

Longwood Personals

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Smith and children visited her parents in Winter Haven, this weekend.

Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Edward Murray and son, of Tallahassee, were also there for the weekend. Their father, D. H. Willis, has been gravely ill, for several weeks.

Miss Joyce Benton Honored At Shower

Mrs. E. O. Keith and Mrs. Charles Haynes honored their cousin, Miss Joyce Benton, with a bridal shower, Tuesday night, at the home of Mrs. Keith, 265 East 18th Street.

Spring arrangements were placed at vantage points throughout the house. Games were enjoyed before the opening of the gifts by the honoree.

The quality of television reception provided by a "rabbit ears" or other indoor antenna often can be improved 50 percent or more by crumpling sheets of aluminum foil around the rods. The foil should be wrapped around the rods tightly enough to stay on, but crumpled so as to increase the total exposed surface of aluminum.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My son is only 17 but he is big for his age. He is running around with a woman who is far too old for him. She has given him money, bought him gifts, and lets him drive her car. Is it any wonder he thinks she is wonderful?

Lately he has been spending more time with her than at home. At first he said she was only a friend, but now he has been talking marriage! I am against it because I don't want a daughter-in-law who is two years older than I am. Can you help me? I am going out of my mind. I have had no husband to help me raise this boy.

WORRIED WIDOW

DEAR WORRIED: You obviously have no control over your son, so perhaps a mature friend, relative or pastor will come to your rescue. The woman should be investigated. There could be legal as well as moral involvements, if the woman is guilty of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

DEAR ABBY: What does a girl need to have besides beauty, personality, brains, clothes, talent, poise and charm?

COOKIE

DEAR COOKIE: "Humility."

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to a young man. Last night he went out with a married woman (she has two small children), and they went parking. He said he had to find out if he still loved her.

came back and told me he didn't love her any more and he loved me. He promised not to see her again, but he lies so much, how can I believe him? I would like to write to her husband (he is overseas) and tell him what his wife is doing to him, but I hate to hurt their children. Should I get in touch with this woman and tell her if she doesn't keep her hands off my fiancé she will have to answer to me? Should I write to her husband? Or should I forget the whole thing?

IN DEEP

DEAR IN: DON'T get in touch with the woman. DON'T write her husband. But DO yourself a big favor and give your fiancé the gate. He sounds like a shifty character and the worst kind of husband material.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DOWN AND OUT": You may be "down" but if you can write, you are not "out." Wander into an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting. There will be no questions asked, and you will meet the most wonderful people in the world—those who are trying to regain their self-respect.

Yes, Abby, will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teenagers Want To Know," send 25 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

It was a woman who tipped President Kennedy to the fact that plans were under way for a plush $200,000 annex to an officer's club in France.

Since her tip resulted in the president's personally helting the project, and his press secretary's explanation that the story was made public because the new administration welcomes word of wasteful or unnecessary government spending, Washington mail-bags are sure to be top-heavy with such tips—and many of them will be from women.

Women are the real economists in most families. They're the ones who compare prices, shop for bargains, take advantage of sales, and in dozen of other ways stretch the family dollar to the limit. So naturally they are the ones who get the most burned up when they see tax money wasted. It's not just tax money to them. It's George's tax money—the money the government took out of George's pay check before it ever reached his wife.

Told that the president is interested in being tipped off about government waste, the women are sure to have a field day sniping out of flagrant extravagance.

Once they start tattling, to the president, that overworked executive may have to add a new member to his cabinet to handle the complaints.

For you can bet your bottom tax dollar that the women can find out plenty about how Uncle Sam's money is being spent. Think of all the secretaries and file clerks in government offices, of all the wives of servicemen stationed in this country and abroad, of all the wives of government workers. Once they start watching Uncle Sam's spending as carefully as they watch their own, they'll come up with a lot of tales.

You had better go easy, Uncle Sam. Your niece are going to be watching you.

TV Tonight

NBC's "Wagon Train" gets the night off while the second new "Project 20" is presented. Critics of TV Westerns might read something ironic into the title of this special, "The Real West." The still-pictures-in-action technique is used to depict the West from 1849 to 1900 as it really was, which was something less glamorous than the fiction about it. Gary Cooper serves as narrator in his first TV job.

In ABC's "Hong Kong" episode "The Runaway," a girl wireless operator seeks help as she flees her ship's captain with a notebook containing important coded information.

Perry Como's guests on his NBC hour are Dorothy Collins, Lorin Hollander and the Lennon sisters.

The CBS "Armstrong Circle Theater" dramatized documentary is "The Crime Without a Country," which shows how the internal law enforcement body known as Interpol operates.

SAILOR, BEWARE—Bridget Bazlen is running amok as the screen's newest siren. At 16 she played Salome in "King of Kings"; at 17 she's Julie, a mandestroying, Navy-sinking siren in MGM's "The Honeymoon Machine." Next????

Central Baptist WmU Heals Program On East

The Women's Missionary Society of the Central Baptist Church met at 7:30 p. m. last Friday in the church for the monthly business and program meeting.

An interesting program on countries of the Near East was presented which revealed religious conditions of today as compared with those existing about 1300 years ago.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Maybelle Hayes as a surprise treat immediately following adjournment of the meeting. Attending were Misses G. J. Wilkinson, G. B. Smith, T. N. Dillard, L. E. Tew, G. H. High, Frank Snyder, Jack Hamann, Charles Hayes, Eloise Chester and Jack Owen.

BETH FEINE, secretary to a presidential legislative assistant, tries out the new coin-operated snack room in the White House. The vending machines, which provide everything from coffee and pie to cigarettes, are intended for clerks, stenographers and guards whose rank does not entitle them to admission in the White House dining quarters.

Dust Shaken Off Sir Cedric's Past

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—"The irreverent memoirs of Sir Cedric Hardwicke," the dust jacket says about "A Victorian in Orbit" (Doubleday), the latest in star biographies.

Never one to be stuffy about anything, Sir Cedric is amusing, racy and charming spinning tales about stage and screen and his book should become a textbook for all celebrities looking backward in print.

He can laugh at himself, a habit foreign to most stars, and his keen perception makes him as quotable as Bob Hope doing a monologue.

He introduces himself, as told to James Brough, as a fellow who has "always preferred sunlight to spotlight," and then tells how he booted in the California sun one day for a movie scene with pieces of calf's liver stuck into both nostrils and each ear.

"So a dog," he laments, "would lick my face with every appearance of devotion."

FROM THEN ON THE FLIP OF every page reveals a flip Sir Cedric.

About one of his early plays in England: "I had only two words to say, 'Maria who? One critic noted that the play was marred only by Mr. Cedric Hardwicke, who overdid his part the least little bit.'"

"About being knighted by King George?"

"The Lord Chamberlain read my name from the list in his hand and the king snapped, 'Who?' The Lord Chamberlain repeated my name. 'Spell it,' the king demanded. For an actor's name to be spelled out is his greatest humiliation. The Lord Chamberlain spelled it, but the king gave up and, lifting his jeweled sword, dubbed me knight."

"'Sir Samuel Pickwick,'" he proclaimed.

It didn't happen that way, of course, but as the actor who prefers not to be stuffy, that's the way he's always told the story.

MUCH OF THE BOOK FEATURES tales about his good friend and mentor, George Bernard Shaw. He tells about Shaw receiving a cablegram from a celebrated feminine star designed to open negotiations for her to make a picture of a Shaw play.

"Am crazy," she wired, "to play Saint Joan."

Shaw's reply was prompt and pitiless: "I QUITE AGREE."

Technical improvements in the film industry, he insists, "wrecked havoc on my ego. My early films belonged to that era when audiences sat through films with visual imperfections that the performers seemed to have worked in a constant heavy rainfall. When those happy days faded out and clarity improved, filmgoers could see me as myself, in sharp focus, and my career suffered irreparable harm."

On baldheaded men being more virile:

"It may be true, but it diminishes the opportunity for proving it."

ABOUT TELEVISION: "In these neurotic times, the only place where contentment may with utter certainty be sighted is in TV commercials. Life in them is always beautiful. But an ambitious TV production is frequently akin to a bad day at Cape Canaveral."

IT DOESN'T happen that way, of course, but as the actor who prefers not to be stuffy, that's the way he's always told the story.

On baldheaded men being more virile:

Hollywood's fate is bright, he says, but he laments: "Perhaps the movie's debility caused by the disappearing box office would not have been acute when TV struck if only the motion picture moguls had done more for the audiences than take in their money."

His greatest shock? Only a Sir Cedric would write it: "Seeing myself for the first time on the screen and discovering that I couldn't act."

POLICE DON'T WANT A HUNTED HOUND. IT'S BEEN SWIFT BY THE SPACE JIM RICHES!

THAT PRACTICAL JOKE ONE GUY WENT TO BLAME! AND EVE JUST LEARNED NOW HE DID IT COME! I'LL SHOW YOU ON CAPTAIN BAST!

JIM RICHES RESIGNED HIS SWORE ON HIS SWORE HE'D GET EVEN.

HE MOVED NEARBY AND RIGGED UP SOMETHING THAT WOULD GIVE HIM A LOT OF LAUGH—REST HIS COUNTRY SOUL. I FOUND IT AFTER HIS FUNERAL.

HEY! HE'S HALF DOZING IN HIS EMPTY HOUSE WHEN HORRIBLE SCREAMS UPLINE—JACK HIM TO HIS FEET!

HEY! WHAT TH' BLAZES!

HE'S GOT TO GO! HE CHEWS UP EVERYTHING IN SIGHT!

LOOK AT HIS GOOD SIDE! HE'S AS SMART AS ME!

SEE WHAT HE CAN DO!

OUT!

(SIGH!) THERE'S A DIME'S WORTH OF DOUBLE GUM WASTED!

ARE WE GO WILL-O- SO WE CAN BRUSH OFF TWO TON OF GOLD— BUT LIKE THAT!

NO, CHOR, BUT...

BUT NEITHER ARE WE SO HARD UP WE HAVE TO TURN A GANG LIKE THAT LOOSE ON AN UNSUSPECTING COMMUNITY.

WELL THEN, ARE WE JUST GOING TO LET HIM SET THERE INDIGNITELY WAITING FOR US TO PICK HIM UP?

UNLESS YOU CAN FIGURE SOME WAY TO SEPARATE HIM FROM HIS ARMY!

SORRY TO KNOCK YOU SALLY, BUT I'VE GOT TO FIND THOSE PAPERS BECAUSE YOU MY SHARE OF AN INHERITANCE!

ON YOUR FEET, SOLDIER!

GRAB YOURS BY!

HAVE A CHAIR FOR YOU, COULD YOU?

REGULAR ARMY VETERAN JIMMYE LITTLE.

FINE ONE, WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU COULD YOU?

WEEKS, YOU KNOW BLASTED WELL, WHY AM I HERE?

HEARD THE ARMY LOST A TEN-YON TANK? I KNOW IT'S EASY TO MISPLACE A LITTLE THING LIKE THAT—

ONLY LAST WEEK, A CASSETTE LIGHTER I HAD FOR YEARS SUDDENLY—

BLAST IT, WEEKS, LAY OFF! I'VE HEARD ENOUGH FROM THE GENERAL AS IT IS!

WEATHER: Cloudy and warm through Friday. High today, 80-85. Low tonight, 65-70.

VOL. 53 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1961 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 159

CHOSEN AS THE MOST OUTSTANDING for this six weeks at Sanford Grammar School are Patrol Boy Tommy Jones and Patrol Girl Laura Faye Watson, shown here being congratulated by Mrs. Lida Stine, of the Public Affairs Committee of the Sanford Pilot Club, who awarded them their merit certificates at the school today.

School Board Demands Racing Revenue Be Left For Educational Purpose

The County School Board today demanded that the County Commission withdraw its resolution requesting the transfer of race track revenue from the school system to the road revenue fund.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee, at a special meeting this morning, said that "the repeal of this act must result in either a decrease in teachers' salaries or an increase in school millage to make up for the loss of funds."

Milwee added that the $50,000 from the race tracks goes for teacher's salaries and "not one nickel goes elsewhere."

The school board also criticized the commission for voting to repeal the act without discussing it with members of the school board first.

Stenstrom, who was state senator when the act was passed in 1957, said "It was not presented to me at that time as an emergency measure."

"Over the years I have worked along with many others to obtain better roads in Florida and Seminole County, and I certainly sympathize with the commissioners in their search for monies with which to provide better roads. However, I do not feel it is proper to go into the pockets of the teachers for the money," Stenstrom said.

State Demands Peel's Death; Jury Gets Case

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — The trial of Joseph A. Peel Jr., went into the hands of a 12-man jury today, climaxed by the state's dramatic plea that Peel die in the electric chair for murdering the 1955 murders of Circuit Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth.

The jury of 12 retired persons and small-town businessmen filed out of the little St. Lucie County courtroom after listening to a 21-minute charge from Judge D. C. Smith.

Smith told the jurors they could find Peel guilty or innocent. He said if they found him guilty, a majority of the jury could recommend mercy and spare his life.

A first degree murder conviction with no recommendations of mercy carries a mandatory death sentence. Peel was charged with being an accessory before the fact in the murder of Chillingworth, whose body has never been found.

The trial capped one of Florida's most sensational mysteries, the disappearance of Chillingworth and his wife, Marjorie, from their beachfront home near Palm Beach in June 1955.

Peel showed little emotion as the jury left the room. He sat at a table with his attorneys and apparently planned to wait out the verdict in the courtroom next to the jail where he has been held.

"I feel pretty good. I don't know how it's going to come out but I'm glad the trial is all over," Peel said. "It's been a very tiring experience."

Board To Proceed With Hopper Plans

The County School Board today rejected a request to sell the Bay St. school property for commercial use and agreed to go ahead with the construction of a new Hopper Academy on that site.

Final plans for the school are in Tallahassee and expected to be returned in time for the April 13 regular board meeting. Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said.

Milwee said that the board will authorize Architect John Burton to get bids on the school, with the bid letting scheduled in late May.

Milwee said that he had been told that the Bay Ave. site could be used for commercial purposes and that there was a possibility it could be sold for from $40,000 to $60,000.

It was suggested that that money be used to purchase land around the present Hopper Academy on 11th St. and Pine to build the school there, he said.

However, the board agreed that would take too much time and cause condemnation proceedings. Last week the City Commission authorized the vacation of the 11th St. right of way bordering Bay Ave. to pave the way for the new school.

One reason given for the delay in Moscow was that the Russians did not want to appear to be reacting to pressure from the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's meeting in Bangkok this week.

The SEATO foreign ministers wound up their meeting with a compromise resolution that only implied the West would use force in Laos if a peace were not negotiated and did not set a time limit on the Russians.

Control Fight Delays Jobs Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A fight over control of the purse strings today held up final congressional passage of President Kennedy's $394 million program for creating jobs in economically depressed communities.

The House on a 250-167 roll call vote Wednesday approved the administration's area development program despite protests from some Republicans that it would become a "gigantic boondoggle." The Senate passed it 15 days ago, 63-27.

The only question still to be resolved was whether Congress would keep a tight grip on the purse strings. Under the House bill, no funds could be spent until appropriated by Congress in a subsequent money bill.

The Senate measure would permit outlays of $300 million without further congressional action. Senate liberals vowed they would "stand fast" on this issue, but all signs indicated the Senate ultimately would have to back down and accept the House-passed bill.

Democratic leaders deliberately omitted the Senate's financing provision from the House bill to help minimize opposition from conservatives and ease passage of the legislation.

The House approval was particularly sweet for the administration because it evened the score with the conservative coalition which defeated Kennedy's minimum wage bill by one vote last Friday.

The new program is aimed at re-vitalizing areas which for various reasons have been suffering from chronic unemployment at rates higher than the national average.

Under the bill, the area development program would be available to apply for federal help in developing new industry.

Excess Waters, Stormy Weather Still Stirring

By United Press International
Midwestern dikes turned spongy today under the fifth day of run-off river pressure but officials indicated only a rash of uncontrolled leaks could renew critical flood danger.

Iowa flood battlers moved downstream on the Cedar River to Cedar Rapids where the tired workers prepared for a record 21-foot crest Friday.

The Red Cross said it expects to remove another 1,500 families, bringing to 4,500 the number of persons made homeless since the Cedar, the Kickapoo in Wisconsin and scores of smaller waterways swelled under rain and melted snow, covering thousands of acres of rich midwestern farm and pasture land.

Warm air and generally fair to partly cloudy skies were in store for floodworkers in eastern Iowa, southwest Wisconsin and northern Illinois.

The Weather Bureau said most of the warmth was associated with winds drifting north from Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. A vigorous storm system battered Texas and Arkansas, a tornado was sighted near Holden, Okla., and gales up to 60 miles per hour raked Tallahassee, Fla. Wednesday night.

Bold Thief Takes $1 Million In Gems

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police and the FBI today sought the rush-hour Raffles who stole more than $1 million in diamonds from a midtown gem dealer in what was described as probably New York's biggest jewel robbery.

It was the second diamond district holdup in two days. Police said the general build of the gunman in each robbery was similar, but Wednesday's jewel thief wore a grotesque full-face Halloween mask, and they could not say whether it was the same man.

The well-dressed gunman tricked diamond dealer David Ansel, 37, into letting him into the locked, 10th floor office about 4:40 p.m. He forced Ansel to open the safe, grabbed four white envelopes containing cut and uncut diamonds, and ran.

Then the thief apparently shed his mask and mingled with home-bound office workers on 47th Street, between Fifth and Sixth Avenues.

A criminal operating even more like the fictional society thief Raffles entered singer Eastha Kitt's room at the Hotel Plaza and stole $20,000 worth of furs and jewels, police reported early today.

Ansel said the stolen gems were worth at least $900,000 wholesale. This would be well over $1 million retail.

The FBI entered the investigation on the possibility the stones had been taken across a state line. Police searched the 16-story building floor by floor.

City Hall has its own beautification program going. Park crews have planted two rows of phlox along the paths going into the building.

The county commissioners have just about given up the idea on microfilming all the records in the courthouse because of the excessive costs. They are now considering insuring all the records in the courthouse at a cost of $393 per year.

Sanford Citizens, meeting at the Sea Shell Restaurant at 7 p.m. today, will devote their meeting entirely to business with no special program planned this week.
