Class Day Songs
 To S. H. S—Air "Peggy"
 To the Class of 1920
 We sing to you,
 To Sanford High School,
 Our love is true,
 As we sing your praise
 We think of other days,
 Spent here while to us our life was new.
 Chorus
 Sanford High, our dear old Sanford High,
 To make your name shine bright we'll ever try.
 Yes, class-mates, we'll cheer for all our school-mates dear,
 And as we go away, we'll pledge them to be true
 Sanford High, we'll ever sing your praise, as we go our way.
 For we love you.
 ELEANOR HERRING.

Go Slow and Easy
 1. In Chapel every morning we sing our best,
 But Julia always gets there ahead of the rest.
 2. Mrs. Leonardi is surely fine,
 But watch out when she starts on that wickid line.
 3. Professor Ogilvie kids us along,
 But he sure is fond of that Harbor song.

Commencement Annual Recital
 Anticipated always with the greatest degree of interest, the annual piano recital which opens the Commencement week exercises was most delightful and rendered before a large and attentive audience, whose frequent applause testified to the pleasure enjoyed. Under the direction of Mrs. Fannie Stenbridge Munson, the recital is invariably a treat to the music lovers of Sanford and vicinity, for many come from all over the county and nearby towns to revel in the harmony of sound that characterizes the musical event of the year.

The quintette were good and especially beautiful the "Dreaming" in which the five voices blended in perfect harmony. The personnel are of Sanford's best known singers and include Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Mrs. Porter Pitts, Mrs. Ed Higgins, Mrs. Schelle Maines and Mrs. Geo. Fox.

The musical readings by Mrs. Richard Maxwell were received with most hearty and appreciative applause. Mrs. Maxwell possesses unusual grace and poise, a musical voice that blended perfectly with the splendid piano accompaniment played by Miss Virginia DeCoursey. The musical setting to the poem "Ode to the Passions" composed by Mrs. Munson.

Miss Bowler, soprano soloist, was in excellent voice and was ever a delight. She possess a beautiful and well trained voice. Her songs were splendidly rendered and greatly enjoyed. The old favorites included, "Loves Old Sweet Song" and "The Last Rose of Summer". Miss Bowler ever free from thought of self, has a manner naturally charming. Mrs. D. L. Thrasher was the clever accompanist whose playing added much to the beauty of the songs.

The piano numbers, except from the juvenile group, were High School pupils. Strongly marked was the calm manner, the graceful, easy technique of each performer. The most difficult passages were rendered in perfect freedom and finish. That such technical demonstrations as the evenings compositions included should be rendered by young students and without the least effort in clean and even tone was most creditable.

The little folk number were

IS SWEEPED BY DEADLY TYPHUS

Two Million Cases in Russia—Conditions in Poland Appalling.

U. S. RELIEF BOARD SWAMPED

Several of Its Officers and Men Have Died, Among Them One in Charge at Tarnopol—Shortage of Supplies.

Warsaw.—General Petlura's Ukrainian government, which, despite its amazing weakness, remains the nearest approach to organized authority that exists between the East Galician frontier and the Dnieper, has sent its minister of public works, Mr. Bezalko, to Warsaw to appeal for assistance in fighting the incredible typhus conditions in the Petlura country. He reports that 10,000 men, the remnants of Petlura's Ukrainian force, have been stricken with the disease and that the 80,000 men of the East Galician army, commanded by Pavlenko, who from time to time have co-operated with Petlura, are in an almost equally bad plight. About half the cases have proved fatal.

Hands Are Occupied.
It is virtually certain that the Poles will not be able to give assistance to the Ukrainians because their hands are more than occupied in combating the spread of the disease in Poland. There is some typhus in Warsaw—5,000 cases perhaps; Dvinsk, recently captured from the bolsheviks, is in an appalling condition; the epidemic has swept in virulent form as far west as Cracow, where the normal activities are half paralyzed; in most of the villages on the eastern frontiers more than half the inhabitants are sick and there is a disturbing amount of typhus in the army. Where 20 fumigating machines are needed, the Poles have one; where a gallon of carbolic acid is required they have a gill.

The American typhus commission, which, with 5,000 men and 750 officers, came here last summer to prepare to combat the disease this winter, has been overwhelmed; even the vast supplies the commission brought have proved insufficient. Several officers and men of the commission have died, including a colonel who was in charge of the work at Tarnopol. So there is small prospect that Petlura can find any help here.

Reliable reports indicate that soviet Russia is being devastated by the disease. In the recent exchange of prisoners between the Poles and the bolsheviks, there arrived here a Doctor Czechowicz, who over a year ago was impressed into the bolshevik service as a sanitary expert and assigned to the work of dealing with typhus. He says that in March of last year there were 1,340,000 known cases of typhus in bolshevik Russia and that conditions this year are worse than last year. He estimates that there are now at least 2,000,000 cases in Russia. The soviet government has almost no facilities for controlling the disease and comparatively few physicians are available to care for the sick. In consequence the percentage of deaths is now enormous, Czechowicz says.

Usually Follows War.
Such an epidemic as the present one almost inevitably follows a period of war in central Europe. It is to be attributed to insufficient food supplies, weakening the resistance of the people, and to lack of clothing, frequently making cleanliness difficult even for the moderately well-to-do and impossible for the poor.

A common assertion is that typhus is as great a menace to social quiet as bolshevism. But competent observers here do not believe this. The people of this part of the world, they argue, have come through centuries to accept the peril of typhus as an unescapable concomitant of life. Certainly from Poles one hears little outcry at present conditions; it is only those who have known Western civilization who are shocked by the spread and virulence of the disease.

The Polish cabinet has reached no decision on the proposal to quarantine the country and it is hoped that suspension of the railroad service for two weeks, because of the coal crisis, may have a favorable effect upon the typhus situation, which could never have attained the proportions it has if travel had been supervised and restricted a month ago.

CURE FOR PLANT DISEASES

Botanists at Cambridge University, England, Claim to Make Vegetation Immune.

Cambridge, England.—Cambridge university botanists claim that it is now possible to breed disease-proof plants.

A special body of investigators who have been devoting themselves to the practical testing of the Mendelian heredity law are engaged in immunizing wheat, oats, barley, potatoes and roots, the results of which will be shown in the summer to a distinguished assembly of medical men.

The "plant doctors," as they are called, have already succeeded in breeding a new wheat known as "yeoman" which has yielded 12 quarters (96 bushels) to the acre—three times an ordinary crop.

Precautions.
"If we take any summer boarders this year," remarked Furner Cornstossel, "I'm goin' to fix up a questionnaire that everybody'll have to answer."

"What for?" inquired his wife.
"So's they'll all have about the same political opinions. I'm tired of being kept awake half the night by people sittin' out on the front porch arguin'."

ELDERLY MAN GOOD WALKER

Brooklyn Citizen, Fond of Pedestrianism, Has a Record That Few Are Likely to Equal.

Garret Brower of this city walked 2,000 miles when he was ninety years old. He is now ninety-seven years old and for the past three years he has given up walking as a regular occupation. But for about 12 years before that he walked persistently, in bad weather and good, on week days and holidays. And this at a time when he had long passed beyond the three score and ten years supposed to be man's allotted span of life.

He used to walk with a pedometer at his belt as his only companion. From his former home on Willoughby avenue, he would walk out to the Williamsburg bridge and across to Manhattan. This not appearing long enough for a grownup man, he often would walk back to the Brooklyn end of the bridge and then cross and re-cross the bridge two or three times before starting home. In his diary he kept a record of the distances covered on these expeditions. They varied from month to month; but seven years ago, when he had reached the age of ninety, his walks still averaged six miles a day. Being now close to the century mark, he has discontinued walking out of doors. "A friend borrowed by pedometer," he explained with a laugh.—Brooklyn Eagle.

FIND NEW SOURCE OF SUGAR

Scientists Have Learned From Indians That It Can Be Produced From the Douglas Fir.

An Indian secret closely guarded for generations by the red man has been brought to light by John Davidson, botanist of the University of British Columbia, at Vancouver, and James Telt, who has spent most of his life in the interior of the Canadian province and has an intimate knowledge of the life and habits of the natives. The secret is that the Douglas fir—a famous tree of great size—produces sugar that is extremely sweet and is valued at $90 a pound.

The announcement is made by the American Forestry association, through an article written by Francis Dickie and published in the American Forestry Magazine. The area in which this sugar is found in abundance is between the fiftieth and fifty-first parallels and between 121 and 122 degrees of longitude. These areas take in the Thompson river valley, west of the mouth of Nicola river, the district near the junction of the Fraser and Thompson rivers at Lytton and a small part of the Fraser valley above Lillooet. In the Kamloops district, the Nicola and Similkameen valleys and the eastern part of the state of Washington the sugar is also reported to be found.

Some of the unorthodox "professions" which have developed in after-war England include the man who guarantees to be able to furnish an afternoon or evening's pleasant conversation at a moderate fee. Scots Spurn Sunday Work.
Lord Leverhulme has encountered the religious prejudices of the Scotsmen who live on the extensive property he has purchased in the Outer Hebrides and has suffered a rebuff. He had planned to make Stornoway, on the island of Lewis, the headquarters of a huge fishing fleet that would keep the seas for 500 miles around. The project involved Sunday labor, and the Islanders, who adhere to the strict and intense form of the Presbyterian faith, rejected it.

Commenting on the incident the London periodical, Common Sense, says: "Lord Leverhulme is a man of big ideas and new ideas, while the population over whom he has declared the rights of lordship are folk of old and intense ideas. Hence the inevitable collision."

"Cook Grabber" Meanest Criminal.
What is unofficially considered to be the meanest type of crime in England in the last five years is the "cook grabber." It is a crime from which men have held aloof. The crime consists of luring a cook away from one's neighbor. So great has been the shortage of cooks that desperate housewives have resorted to quietly engaging their neighbors' cooks in conversation at the kitchen doorway and promising higher wages and better hours. In any gathering of women the consensus of opinion is that a cook in the kitchen is worth a hundred anywhere else.

How He Saved Coal.
"I suppose you got your winter coal in before the great strike, didn't you?" was asked of Mr. Thompson.
"Well, I fixed it another way," was the reply.
"In what way?"
"Why, I got to thinking what 12 tons of coal would cost and we moved into a house where there were already two families. Three families of us in eight rooms, you see, and we each pay one-third of the cost of heating. There are six of us grown folks and eleven children, and so far the house has been so hot that we haven't had to burn half a dozen scuttles of coal. Try my plan once and you will take no other."

CARRANZA IS KILLED IN BATTLE

ALTHOUGH REPORTS SAY HE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

El Paso, May 25.—Gen. Francisco Villa, bidding defiance to the newest Mexican government, again has become an outlaw among his people. The bandit, with a small force of men was reported today between Parral and Jimenez, Chihuahua, the hunted quarry of the de facto troops with 1000 pesos ransom on his head.

Mexico City, May 25.—In accordance with his oft repeated request President Carranza, slain Thursday morning at Tlaxcalantongo, was hurried late yesterday afternoon in Dolores cemetery, where, in the shadow of Chapultepec, the poorest of Mexicans have for many years found their last resting places. As the funeral cortege left the home of the late chief executive the extraordinary session of congress was being called to order to choose a president ad interim to hold office until a new president can be elected Sept. 5.

Adolfo de la Huerta, governor of the state of Sonora, was named after the congress had been in session for an hour and a half.

The body of the slain president arrived in Mexico City at 5:20 o'clock yesterday evening and was taken to the family home, escorted by soldiers and a delegation from the diplomatic corps.

Later the body lay in state until the hour of the funeral, thousands passing before the casket to look upon the face of the man who was hurled from power by revolution and whose death occurred under circumstances that admit explanation.

Adolfo Herrero, leader of revolutionary forces, on whom has been placed responsibility for the death of Carranza, has telegraphed to army authorities here that the president committed suicide rather than to surrender. He declares he joined the forces of Gen. Manuel Palaez, after recognizing the "plan of Agua Prieta" under which the revolution was conducted and attempted to capture the fugitive president who had fled from the battlefield at San Andres, when he realized that his attempt to cut his way through to the coast had been defeated.

IT MAY have been.
JUST A coincidence.
IT MAY have been.
BUT I rather doubt it.
HE FINISHED the smoke.
AS I finished my talk.
AND HE said, "All right,
YOUR ARGUMENTS.

THEY SATISFY."

CHESTERFIELDS "satisfy."
And yet Chesterfields are mild.
With "body" enough to satisfy a mild enough to suit any cigarette

Chesterfields have so many friends

LEWIS HUDSON DROWNED

Bright Young Lad Loses Life Attempting to Swim Across Crystal Lake.

Lewis Hudson, a bright young lad of fifteen years of age who resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hudson on the west side was drowned Sunday afternoon at Crystal Lake about four o'clock. With several of his companions Lewis was bathing in the lake and with one of them started to swim across the lake. His companion had reached the farther bank in an exhausted condition with the long swim when he heard a cry of distress from Lewis and called to the people on the opposite bank to bring a boat to his rescue. There was no boat available and the rescuers had to walk around the shore of the lake to get near the drowning boy and before they could reach him he had gone down for the third time. They immediately dragged for his body and recovered it in a short time. As there was no pulmotor to be obtained he could not be resuscitated and the spark of life had fled. The funeral occurred from the residence on the west side Monday, Dr. Walker of the Methodist church officiating and the remains were taken to Dicot's Inlet for interment. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the grief stricken family in their hour of bereavement and the loss of this splendid son.

"DeLand was excited last night by a phone message from Daytona stating in effect that W. E. Stringfellow, nephew of Colonel James E. Alexander, had been killed, that a lady passenger had both arms broken, and that other occupants of the car had been badly injured, in an automobile accident near Daytona. Mr. Alexander and a large number of Mr. Stringfellow's DeLand friends immediately left for the scene of the accident. Before leaving DeLand, Mr. Alexander phoned his cousin, Mr. Stringfellow in Jacksonville, of Will's death.

"Upon arrival in Daytona it was learned that Mr. Stringfellow had miraculously escaped without a scratch. He and Tracy McCuller of Sanford were riding from Ormond toward Daytona with Mrs. Sallie Rogers and Miss Livingston of Daytona in the car, when, according to the best evidence obtainable, they were met by another car traveling at a great rate of speed. They were compelled to run their car into a telephone pole or to crash into the approaching car. They hit the pole.

"Mrs. Rogers was thrown through the windshield, one arm broken, and otherwise bruised; Miss Livingston was so badly injured that she was taken to the hospital in Daytona; Mr. McCuller was shaken up, and Mr. Stringfellow was not injured.

"The car turned over several times finally landing up against a cabbage palmetto tree, which is said to be the only thing that prevented its plunging into the Halifax river. The car was a Chevrolet and was so badly damaged that it will probably have to be carried to the repair shops in a truck.

"The accident occurred on the Ormond-Daytona road near Ormond.

Mrs. Margaret Wynne

Mrs. Margaret Wynne, wife of Robt. T. Wynne of Lake Monroe died Monday afternoon about three o'clock. Death followed many months of suffering borne with patience and Christian fortitude the fatal malady having overtaken Mrs. Wynne about one year ago.

The deceased was a most estimable woman. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church and was ever willing to lend a helping hand in all deeds of charity. During the late war she labored unceasingly in the Red Cross work, and numerous garments left this community after having been fashioned by her deft fingers. Her kindness and her generosity was extended to all, and her loss is greatly deplored by the whole community.

The funeral services were conducted from the residence Tuesday. Rev. Gorbett conducted the funeral assisted by Rev. George Hyman of the Sanford Baptist church. The music was also rendered by the Baptist Sanford choir.

After the services at the house, the body was interred at Silver Lake cemetery.

Beside the husband Robert T. Wynne, the following sons and daughter survive: John Wynne, Tampa; Jud Wynne, Selma, Ala.; Mrs. Alfred Purdon, Jacksonville; and Mrs. P. Hawkins Sanford.

Infant Died

Elizabeth Marion, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mathews, died Sunday at Lakeland, where Mrs. Mathews had taken the child in the hopes that a change would benefit her health. The little body was brought back Monday and buried in Silver Lake cemetery. Just two weeks ago, little Louise, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathews died. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the sorrowing family in their double bereavement.

LEGION MIMSTREL GREAT SUCCESS

GAVE TWO PERFORMANCES AND HAD CROWDED HOUSE BOTH NIGHTS.

The American Legion, Campbell-Lossing Post, gave a minstrel show at the Princess Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week and the performance was a most creditable one from every standpoint. The house was crowded each night and the boys made a nice sum of money that will be devoted to their fund for the building of a suitable home some time in the near future. The Legion Minstrels was different from the regular minstrel program being carried through from the rise of the curtain until the end without any tiresome, waits or intermissions.

The opening scene showed the following men sitting in the circle, Deane, Spencer, Rumph, Murphy, Dooley, Geiger, Smith and T. R. Bell with Felix Frank as interlocutor and Howard Lyman and Frank Lucy on one end and Bob Herndon, George McLaughlin and Carl Shultz on the other end as black face men, and the sweet singers, Tom Martin, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Lloyd, Mr. Rive, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Henderson and Mr. Morrow. The songs and hits and music were all to the good. The orchestra composed of Mrs. Bower at the piano, Mrs. Robert Herndon, Mr. Ellison, saxophone and Mrs. Burdick, drums, being a great assistance to the show. Miss Mabel Bower singing "Alabama Lullaby" with Maud Lake, Mildred Holly, Olive Newman and Margaret Cowan as the chorus and Howard Lyman in specialties, Robert Herndon as the old negro preacher in a specialty, Tom Martin in dancing, Mrs. Herndon in cornet solos, and several other specialties were well received and the performance from start to finish was well rendered and well received. The quartette composed of Messrs Phillips, Lloyd, Martin and Hoffman was especially good. The following program was carried out:

- Opening Chorus.....Entire Comp
  - Cornet Solo.....Mrs. Herndon
  - "Roses of Pearly".....Mr. Martin
  - "I'm Going to Jaz My Way Straight Through Paradise" Geo. McLaughlin
