Canadians Tired Of Image In U.S.

Author Edmund Wilson once said that his image of Canada was of "a kind of vast hunting preserve convenient to the United States.'

Some grumbling Canadians believe Americans still think that way, but in a corporate sense: American firms have found the vastness north of our border to be immensely attractive as a new market, inflation hedge, tax shelter and source of raw materials.

Calgary, which is the oil and natural gas center of Canada, has so many American oil company workers that the U. S. State Department found it necessary to open a consulate there.

Other Canadian cities suggest the diversity that is Canada. Toronto, once thought to be synonymous in spirit with the proper and sedate Glen Gray "Casa Loma" Orchestra, now throbs to the rhythms of a score of discotheques and is regarded by some jet setters as the swingers' capital of Nother America.

Vancouver, on the west coast, has lately seen a boom in investment money from Singapore, Hong Kong and Japan.

Ottawa is the picturesque capital. Montreal is a mature city that will have its day in the sun as host for the 1976 Olympics Halifax, on the east coast, has sections that seem like pages from a 1920 photograph album. If Canada is diversity as seen in its varying cities, it is also a nation of changing moods. It is striving for attention, it is restless and perhaps even impatient at being "little brother" to the United States; and it is tired of being "taken for granted" by Americans. These attitudes will form part of the backdrop for talks on Wednesday, Dec. 4, in Washington between President Gerald Ford and Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau of Canada.

Moods and attitudes comprise only part of the atmosphere for the meetings because there are some very real issues with which the leaders must grapple. For Trudeau, his conduct and the outcome of the conversations will have some bearing on his political fortunes back home.

Messrs. Ford and Trudeau, like the United States and Canada, have plenty in common but just enough differences to require extra efforts at mutual understanding.

The analogy might be used of the type of football played in the respective countries; in Canada they play a different game with different rules than the game played by Mr. Ford when he was an all-American center at the University of Canadian football allows 12 men on a team instead of 11 in the American game; the Canadian field is 110 yards long to the American version's 100. In Canadian there is no downfield blocking allowed and each team has only three downs to make a first down.

But it is differences in economic rules, not football, that Mr. Trudeau wants to bring to Mr. Ford's attention in their talks.

Even as the date for the meeting approaches, Canadian diplomats are bristling privately at what they say is another example of the United States "taking Canada for granted.

The Canadian Embassy in Washington has ignoring their philosophy. Conservative districts been notified that the prime minister must depart voted in an unusual number of liberal candidates Blair House—the official residence for state and liberal areas surprisingly favoring conguests-by noon in order to have the premises clear for the arrival on Thursday, Dec. 5, of Chancellor Now all this is an excellent demonstration of Helmut Schmidt of West Germany who is beginour innate independent spirit. Dear Voter:

If you are for continued HONEST, EFFICIENT, and CONSCIENTIOUS City Government, you will want to read this letter

I am asking for your vote on December 3, 1974, so that I may continue to represent you on the Sanford City Commission. The privilege of voting and living in a FREE country should not be taken lightly. Many of you have lost loved ones defending and preserving this privilege. Please VOTE on December 3rd, as this is DEMOCRACY at work and only YOU can make it effective. YOUR VOTE DOES COUNT..

As your City Commissioner I will continue to represent ALL of the Citizens of Sanford All of the time. Three years ago, I campaigned on the basis of devoting "FULL TIME" to city business, if necessary, to represent each and every citizen. This policy I have practised and have always been available to meet with any citizen at any time. I am as close as either my office or

I have a deep sense of fiscal responsibility and have fought to hold the tax line, as evidenced by my opposition to the recent 61/2 million dollar referendum you voted on in the November 5th General Election. During my three years in office the city tax rate has been reduced from 11 mills to 8.47 mills. I will continue to insist that your tax dollars get maximum mileage and with my BUSINESS BACKGROUND, AVAILABLE TIME, THE INITIATIVE, and THE ABILITY represent you, the TAXPAYER, at all times.

Actually they want assurances that it is now possible to turn difficult conditions into opportunities to forge ahead. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) To avoid arguments, don't act impulsively at home. Listen courteously to what others say. Give a small party tonight and please kin. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have worries on your mind, so drive with more care than usual now. Keep an eye on your wallet. Waste no time with strangers.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Study your budget well to reduce expenses. Before you commit yourself to anything imortant, talk it over with an expert. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Change your attitude early to a constructive one instead of looking for trouble. Gad about socially; don't be demanding. LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) In solitude figure out how best to solve some vexing problem. Then do what you can for others, VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Show loyalty and keep the peace.

Don't fall for one who teases, or you will regret it. Attend a social LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Know the expectations of bigwigs and follow through for progress. Pay bills that otherwise could cause you trouble in the future.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Look into a new interest and go to right sources for information, but don't take definite steps yet.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) The one you love may be quite demanding, but cooperation is your best mode of procedure

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Show that you want goodwill with associates and do not argue or you could get into rouble. Avoid one with flair for sarcasm.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Schedule work wisely and it is done in a relatively short time, so you gain benefits you desire. Shop early for good buys. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Have a fine time and relieve tensions at inexpensive recreations. Don't go to a trusted adviser now, who's busy or in wrong mood. IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of hose delightful, epoch-making young people who is highly

Ford Hopes Formula Found For U.S.- Soviet Peace Search

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Ford is hopeful that he and Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev may have found a formula for collaborating in the search for a Middle East peace, a U.S. official has indicated.

Although the drive for a new arms curb agreement summit, an American official who was there suggested Friday that a between-the-lines reading of the Ford-Brezhnev communique points clearly toward joint efforts to defuse the Middle East situation.

Curiously, the key section of the communique dealing with the Middle East was omitted from the text handed American reporters in Vladivostok when Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger held a news conference there to discuss the summit. Kissinger and the reporters focused nuclear weapons.

Nixon Testimony Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) - A report from court-appointed doctors on the health of Richard M. Nixon makes it unlikely the former president's testimony ever will be heard in the Watergate cover-up trial.

The doctors said Friday that if Nixon's health is not to be jeopardized, the earliest he could testify - even under severely limited conditions at his home in California -

U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, backed by a number of defense lawyers, has predicted the complicated conspiracy trial that began Oct. 1 will be over before presenting their cases, Sirica probably would have to suspend the trial for at least a week over the holiday period while Nixon continues his recovery from surgery for a chronic phlebitis condition.

The panel of three doctors chosen by Sirica said the for-Washington to testify. If he continues recovering "at the anticipated rate," the medical report said, the 61-year-old Nixon may be able to travel across the country by Feb. 16.

Farmton Provides Good Sport;

Local Fishing Setback With Cold

The Farmton Wildlife Management Area, although small in size compared to some of the other hunting areas in Florida, is producing good sport for Central Floridians.

A rundown of game checked out from opening day, November 9, through November 26 was provided by Bob Johnson, game warden for the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. The report shows 38 buck deer, two turkey gobblers, and one wild hog taken in this short period.

Over last weekend hunters also bagged two of the entrance gates (which cost 35 dollars each to replace) and one pregnant woods cow according to the warden.

Farmton is comprised of 67,000 acres owned by the Miami Land Company and leased to the state for a very nominal fee for public recreational use.

It is easily accessible to sportsmen from Seminole and Orange Counties, situated as it is between Osteen in Volusia County and Oakhill in Brevard County. Most of the hunters come from the

In talking with the warden, the subject of size of Florida deer in comparison with the huge bucks being killed in Georgia was mentioned. Johnson stated that the largest Florida deer he had ever heard of was taken in the Ocala National Forest some seven or eight years ago. The "on the hoof" weight was 247 pounds.

Biggest Deer

The biggest Florida deer to come to our attention this year was downed last week by an Oviedo man, Mr. B. Kiefer. The buck was a nine pointer which field dressed 150 pounds and the rack had a 22 inch spread. It was killed in the new Three Lakes Management area.

The head is being mounted by Dove's Taxidermy Shop in Sanford along with dozens of others which have come in from all parts of the Local fishing took a bit of a setback with the arrival of the wind and cold front Tuesday. Monday, however, small school bass were tearing up the river between S.R. 46 bridge and Osteen They were feeding on small black shore minnows and the only plugs that scored were the small "Gay Blade" and the "Toothpick." Don Smith of Seminole Sporting Goods Store told of a catch of six by him and his wife while the writer took a string of eight.

The "Gay Blade" proved to be a good lure for bream also. A Tuesday trip after the wind started, produced only one bass and six big copperheads. On the Wekiva River panfish continue to be the best bet. Ottis Faulk at Camp Seminole also reported a few bass showing up among the bream

Albert Robinson, a visitor to Wekiva River Haven Camp from Pascagoula, Mississippi, stuck with the bream fishing and took his limit every day

An eight pound bass fell for a black plastic worm for Tom Gordy as he tried his luck near the Osteen Bridge Camp last week while Reverend Griles, another "regular" pulled in three nice ones.

Not too many reports from the salt water anglers this week. However, one local party, Larry Harris and Terry Weise stopped by the Plaza Sports Shop to show off three beautiful channel bass weighing four pounds, 20 pounds, and 30 pounds. They were caught at the Inlet at New

We also heard of a string of 27 trout landed at the Coast Guard station in New Smyrna on a yellow "Beatle-Spin" lure but could not get the name of the lucky fisherman

Weather Windy

The weather was windy and cold at Main Street Pier in Daytona Thanksgiving day but some of the die hard anglers continued to try their luck. Plug casters were picking up a few bluefish and an occasional Spanish Mackerel while the bait fishermen were getting whiting, drum, and even two nice pompano were landed.

The "Snow White 2", party boat out of Inlet Harbor, is back in service after being out of action for an overhaul. The skipper reports plenty of Winter kingfish in the eight to 10 pound class hitting while free-lining live bait along with the usual run of snapper and black sea bass.

This cold snap should put the trout into the deep holes around the Turtle Mound area and "Mirrolure" plugs or "Trout-Touts" worked just off the bottom will do the trick. KEEP A TIGHT LINE!

I let him in, he made the call, and while waiting, I fixed coffee and we sat in my kitchen drinking coffee and getting acquainted. I really started to like this man.

He said he wasn't married and it would be nice to see me again. He gave me his name and phone number and I have him mine. A week passed and he didn't call, so I called him and asked (in a joking way) if he had lost my number.

He said no, he was just going to call me. I asked him if he wanted to come over for supper that night and he said yes. He, came, bringing a box of candy. I'm sorry to say that he didn't waste much time letting me know he expected to be entertained in the bedroom, I said I wasn't that kind of person.

He left rather early and acted disappointed. He told me to call him if I ever changed my mind. I really want to see him again, Abby, but I hate to call him. What do you suggest?

DEAR MISSING: If you call him, he'll assume that you've decided to entertain him in the bedroom. Have you?

DEAR ABBY: My husband was a good football player in college, but he never was a star. Now he seems determined that 1 package (8 ounces) our 16-year-old son, Jimmy, will be a star no matter what. Last year Jimmy broke his leg in the middle of the football season. This year, during the first game he tore the cartilage in

To my husband, Jimmy is merely "out for the season." He's already telling Jimmy, "Wait 'til next year, Tiger!" I know Jimmy doesn't really share his father's enthusiasm for football, but he hates to let his father down.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 52-year-old live-in housekeeper for a middle-aged widower and his teen-age son. My problem concerns a woman I've never met. She keeps calling my employer from 10 p.m. until she gets him. I usually go to bed at 10:30.

If Mr. M. isn't home, I offer to take her number and have him call her when he comes in, but that isn't good enough. She rings up every 15 minutes until she gets him. Sometimes he doesn't get home until 1 a.m., so you can imagine what this does to my sle When she finally gets him, she talks for as long as an hour. Last night he didn't get in until 1:15. After talking to her fo half an hour, I heard him say that he was exhausted and he'd call her from his office on Monday. Ten minutes later she called again. She's forgotten something!
What would you do with such a pest?

DEAR IRRITATED: All you can do is complain to your boss. If he calls are unwelcome, he could (a) get an unlisted number, or (b) ask her not to phone after 10. If he doesn't do "a" or "b", and your sleep is more important than your job, you could give him DeBary Players Perform

POLLY'S POINTERS

Smokers Upset Her Bingo Fun

DEAR POLLY - My Pet Peeve is with the smoke pollution my friends and I have to tolerate at Bingo games we enjoy attending. We old folks would rather play Bingo than eat and look forward to them each week. Polly, the thick smoke is almost unbearable, particularly late in the evening. The "No Smoking" signs are ignored and smoke is boldly blown into the faces of others as the smokers hold the cigarettes away from their own faces. My eyes water and others cough. We do not want to give up our fun so what can we do? Any suggestions, please. - LOUISE.

DEAR POLLY - Jo is doubtless spraying her perfume on the wrong places. Never spray directly on your clothes. I spray the mist around the area of my knees or make a T with it in the air and then walk through this mist. A spray mist seems to rise with one's body temperature. If you spray it at the neck level you are the only one who will benefit from the lovely scent. I do not know how Jo can remove the yellow marks left from her perfume but my suggestion will prevent future ones. - FAYE.

Home Exemptions Double For 65ers

By JULIAN STENSTROM

Florida that homeowners 65 or over are entitled to double homostead exemption. Let me ask this question? In December my husband will be 65 years of age. I am three years younger than he is. Will we be entitled to the $10,000 exemption on our home?

I'm happy to say that you and your husband will qualify for the $10,000 homestead exemption on the assessed evaluation of your home in 1975. Just be certain that either you or your husband or both of you visit the Tax Appraiser's Office in the County Courthouse or after Jan. 2, 1975, but on or before March 1, 1975. At that time you can claim your double homestead exemption.

We have recently moved to Florida from New York and were surprised to hear that Florida has no state income tax. We didn't realize this when we moved here but several people have told us this. Is this true? If it is, would you tell us if there is another substitute tax of some sort to raise funds for the state's general fund we don't know about? Dear Mrs. JWG:

What you've been told about there being no state income tax in Florida is correct. Besides, a state income tax is expressly forbidden in the state constitution. And, as far as we know and can find out there is no other tax which could be referred to as a 'substitute'' for the state income tax. We're glad you've been pleasantly surprised to learn this and we hope you will enjoy

You recently commented in answer to a letter about classified ads in The Herald carrying only the price tag of homes. You explained that if the advertiser mentioned the down payment payment or the annual percentage rate of interest or the length of the mortgage, he must mention all of these items. In the event the advertiser violates this regulation who would take action against him and what could the penalty be?

The first time it happens chances are that the violater would be reprimanded by an agency of the Federal government that enforces the "Truth-in-Lending" Act. However, those in the real estate profession have been warned that a second offense could result in the broker being fined up to $10,000 and or sentenced to prison. And, due to the fact that the annual percentage of interest can vary slightly due to closing date interest applications most real estate offices are very shy about advertising more than just the price for which the property is listed on the market.

Zoning Can Be Changed

I understand that if I own land adjacent to a municipality in Florida and it is annexed into the incorporated limits of that ommunity the zoning on the property cannot be changed for a period of two years. Is this correct?

Basically, you are correct. However, there is a method whereby the zoning on the property can be changed. If you can get the County Commission to go along with a zoning change the zoning can be amended during what would be the two-year waiting period. Let me also add that in the event an application was submitted prior to Oct. 1, 1974, for annexation, the property can be annexed and the zoning changed without the approval of

Two weeks ago we enjoyed your article about Mrs. W.B. Ellerbe asking the City of Sanford to clean up an alley easement in the rear of her home which she was told by the Sanford City Commission in 1950 would be opened for use and was never opened at all.

We understand, too, that the City is going to have a public hearing for the purpose of vacating the alley easement and onehalf of the property will revert to Mrs. Ellerbe, an abuting owner. Now, we have this question. What if Mrs. Ellerbe, who moved her plants and shrubs off the property back in 1950, doesn't want the property? What will the City do then?

We thought everybody would get a kick out of that story. And, to tell you the truth, at the public hearing to be held, I believe on Dec. 9, Mrs. Ellerbe is going to appear and tell the City that she does not want the property vacated. It should amount to a very interesting public hearing.

Yes, there is. Go to your County Commissioner and ask him if he can start the wheels rolling to establish a street lighting tax district in Sunland Estates. It can be done and it shouldn't be too expensive, I agree with you Sunland Estates should have street lights. I did not realize that the Homeowners Association out there was no longer providing the lighting at night.
