

Uneasy Rider A Hit

By MARY CAMPBELL AP Newsfeatures Writer

An unusual song to become a hit became one in September, getting to No. 10 on the best-selling chart. It's "Uneasy Rider," a talking blues about a long-haired young man driving to Southern California who has a flat tire in Mississippi, stops to have it fixed and meets some local folks in the Dew Drop Inn.

It's a long song, 5 minutes and 19 seconds, and it's got a lot of unusual words and phrases for a pop song lyric—redneck, Ku Klux Klan, peace signs, George C. Wallace, Brother John Birch, the Antioch Baptist Church and Mario Andreotti.

The writer and performer, Charlie Daniels, says, "I wrote it about close to two years ago. On the previous album, 'The John, Grease and Wolfram,' I had the song but I didn't record it. I didn't think it had any kind of universal appeal. I thought it was too Southern. There must be thousands of Dew Drop Inns in the South and thousands of Antioch Baptist Churches."

"I've tried real hard the last few months to remember what came into my mind to make me write it. But I can't remember at what point the song started. Probably I thought about a guy having a flat tire and what he could get into. It is definitely fantasy, 100 per cent fantasy."

and recording it and I still enjoy performing it. It's strictly in fun. The making fun of anybody or belittling anybody or any part of the country. It could as easily have happened in Helena or Duluth."

The song was put on Daniels' second LP for Kama Sutra, "Honey in the Hock," which came out about six months ago. Disc jockeys started playing "Uneasy Rider," so that — much to Daniels' surprise — it was put out as a single.

Disc jockeys got a 45 record with the song on one side at 5 minutes and 19 seconds and a 3 minute 53 second version on the other side. The 45 record that is for sale combines the long version with "Funky Junky."

Popularity of the single has spurred sales of the LP, which was No. 122 and climbing on the best-selling chart of Sept. 22.

Daniels is 36 and what a country person would call hayseed. He was born in Wilmington, N.C. "My father was in the timber business and we did quite a bit of moving in my grammar school days — in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. My high school graduating class had 22 in it. I couldn't function in a big town. I didn't even go to downtown Nashville unless I have to."

Daniels, his wife and 7-year-old son live in Mt. Juliet near Nashville. "It would take a stick of dynamite to blow me out of middle Tennessee. I've found my home. I'm going to stay there."

At a performance in Carnegie Hall, it is clear that, despite country beginnings and influences, Daniels is more in the stream of rock music. He plays guitar and on an album he played an electric fiddle, but hoodlum style.

"I'm not a straight country artist. I love country music and I can play it, but it's not what I do best. I wouldn't know how to be a country artist. I've even played on the Grand Ole Opry but as a sideman. There is a lot of dyed-in-the-wool country music fans that won't listen to anything else. What they call country and what I am is two entirely different things. They wouldn't consider me country."

When he was younger, Daniels had a band and traveled. He met record producer Bob Johnston, to whom "Honey in the Rock" is dedicated — in Dallas in 1967. As a result, Daniels went to Nashville and became a recording studio musician, working on albums by Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, Leonard Cohen, Ringo Starr and Flatt and Scruggs.

"I was perfectly content in the studio quite awhile. I don't know what made me decide to record on my own. I just wanted to do it. I didn't feel cheated, before."

"A guy talked to me about doing an album and I went ahead and did it." That album, "Charlie Daniels & His Country," didn't sell. "It might not have made it if it had been the best-made album in the world, but it certainly wasn't."

"I think an artist takes it a lot more seriously than anybody else when something doesn't make it. A lot of your life is involved in putting together an album."

Woman Dies After Six Boys Set Her Afire

BOSTON (AP) — Evelyn Wagler was a stranger in town. The 24-year-old white woman from Chicago arrived last weekend to look for a job. She moved into the city's Roxbury section, which is predominantly black, and took up housekeeping with friends, some black, some white. A few hours before she died Tuesday night, Evelyn Wagler, her body aflame, walked into a liquor store and calmly asked the clerk to call an ambulance. "Her face was black," said the clerk, Fred Courtney. "It was amazing she could even talk. Her clothes were smoldering. Her skin was peeling. She walked in and said, 'Will you please call an ambulance?' Then she turned around and walked out, just like nothing happened." Police say Evelyn Wagler had been set on fire by six black youths. They said the trouble started about a half hour before when Mrs. Wagler set off down Blue Hill Avenue in Roxbury to get gasoline for her stalled car. Before she could finish her 15-minute walk, police said, the six young blacks jumped her, dragged her behind an apartment building and forced her to drench herself with the gasoline she carried. Then they flicked a match and left her to burn.

whelmily black over the past dozen years. Only one white family remains. The only nearby service station was closed, so Evelyn Wagler walked 11 blocks in the opposite direction. Big white lamps lit the street, and it was quiet. But a few houses away, it merged with Blue Hill Avenue, a teeming, crime-ridden thoroughfare. The avenue was alive with misadventure. Knots of young men and boys moved in and out of the shadows of trees that line the sidewalk in front of apartment buildings. Drunks slurred offers to sell dope. Couples strolled. Sirens sounded up and down the avenue. She had to hurry past liquor stores, funeral parlors, soul food restaurants and beauty shops. Men loitered in doorways. People stood and talked at the corners. Her walk halfway completed, Mrs. Wagler bought a

Ambulance Idle Near Wreck Site

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer

Longwood officials said today Herndon Ambulance was called to a two-car accident at Grant and Church Streets Wednesday night because a police dispatcher couldn't get through to Physicians and Surgeons Ambulance by telephone. The accident occurred less than a block from a residence where two P and S units were parked. A P and S spokesman said owner Bob Turney walked to the accident scene and offered service but was told Herndon was called.

Polish Luau

GREAT SEAL OF POLAND

A POT pourri of food, a la Polack style, was carefully brewed in garbage cans (the great seal of Poland) at the Polish luau. Sampling the fantastic fare are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kwiatkowski (l), host and hostess, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hattaway. Attire for the affair was Polish formal dungarees. Hattaway arrived in the official Polish wedding suit, dungarees topped with a white jacket.

POLISH KAMIKAZE PILOT

HIGHLIGHT OF the Polish luau was the arrival of special guest, Stanley Karpinski, the famous Polish Kamikaze pilot who is safe and sound after 48 dangerous missions. Portraying the pilot is Tom Binford, "captured" by his wife, Betty.

Garden Club
DELTONA—The Deltona Garden Club board and open meeting will be held Oct. 12 at 10 a.m.
Guest speaker will be M.B. Jordan, director of Vocational Agriculture in the education department of the Union Correctional Institute, Raiford.

Prison is a part of this Institution.
Jordan works with the inmates there, helping them to grow vegetables and flowers. His program is so successful that some of the inmates, upon being released, have begun their own fruit and vegetable businesses, enabling them to start a new and productive life.
Jordan was honored at the state convention of the Florida Federation Garden Clubs at Disney World with a citation for his work in rehabilitating the inmates of this correctional institution.
Business will begin at 9:15 a.m., and the speaker is scheduled for 10 a.m.
The Florida Garden Clubs have donated sufficient funds for the maintenance of six green houses and for men to be able to grow orchids, bromeliads and other exotic plants, and to purchase books needed to learn how to grow these flowers and plants.

District VI Garden Clubs
DeBARY—Mrs. Arthur Peterson of DeBary, horticulture chairman of District VI of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs, will serve as moderator at the horticulture show of the district to be held on Oct. 11, at 9 a.m., in the Pilgrim Community Church, Orange City.
The program of the day is entitled, "Propagation and Culture of Hemerocallis—Day Lilies."
Mrs. William Blinn, president of Orange City Garden Club, will welcome the members and guests. Larry L. Loadholt, Extension Agent, Ornamentals Florida Extension Service, will speak on "growing of Day Lilies."
Edward Kirchoff of Day Lily World, Sanford, will explain "Hybridizing and Propagation of day lilies and the use of day lilies in landscaping" will be the subject of Mrs. Harold Bates, horticulture chairman of the Orange City Garden Club. A question and answer period will follow.

Card Party
DeBARY—The DeBary Women's Club will hold a card party on Oct. 13, at the Community Center. Dessert will be served at 1:00 p.m. There will be table prizes and door prizes. A donation is asked.

Pressure Sales Tactics Told By Sanford CoC

The Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce reports it has received many telephone calls complaining about solicitors seeking orders for light bulbs and claimers they are either handicapped or representing the handicapped.

In many instances, if the housewife asks questions regarding their "cut-throat" they become abusive and rudely cut off the connection by slamming the receiver down, a chamber spokesman said.

The City of Sanford does not have any record of this group registering or purchasing a permit or license. The company is listed as "Light-Line, Inc., 23 E. 6th St., New York, N.Y. 10021, he added.

The chamber does not endorse telephone soliciting or door-to-door high pressure selling.

In the event you receive a phone call from a solicitor — immediately request their identification, if they have a license or permit secure the number and the name or firm it is issued to, he said.

If you are in doubt call the Better Business Bureau of the chamber or city hall and inquire about the reliability of the firm.

Finally, he said, local established merchants can provide any service or merchandise offered by the solicitor.

Grand Jury Continues Probe

By MARK WEINZ Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Grand Jury probe into construction practices and allegations of conflicts of interest on the part of the county's Electrical Review Board is continuing today and may not be completed until next week.

The closed door jury heard testimony from building inspectors and the plumbing inspectors today.

Sources today said the grand jury probably will hear testimony from each of the five county commissioners in later stages of the probe.

The grand jury has heard testimony from more than a dozen witnesses and indications are that many more may still be left to testify.

Earlier in the probe, Assistant State Atty. William Staley said the grand jury will hear testimony from a few witnesses and then discontinue the probe or it can call for more witnesses and take the probe "the whole nine yards."

The probe into construction practices is reported to have begin when a disgruntled CROP (Committee to Resist Oppressive Politicians) member complained to the governor's office about zoning and possible bribes being taken by inspectors. So far the grand jury has gained no information that such bribes were taken.

County Commissioner Greg Drummond submitted a written proposal to the commission last week recommending the addition of at least two more members to the review board. Drummond asked that the new members be familiar with electrical operations but not connected to a business. He recommended a citizen and an electrical journeyman or an electrical engineer be added to the board to add "objectivity" to the board's findings.

Roosevelt Denies Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elliott Roosevelt has denied accusations he plotted a political assassination, but he faces new allegations. Patsy A. Legera, a convicted stock swindler, told a Senate subcommittee that Roosevelt was involved in three illegal securities transactions with him in 1969 and 1970. Earlier, the son of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt denied allegations that he had plotted the assassination of Bahamian Prime Minister Lynden O. Pindling.

Gas Hikes Are Coming

NEW YORK (AP) — John T. Dunlop, director of the Cost of Living Council, said retail gasoline price increases will be granted "in due course." Dunlop said hikes that reflect new wholesale-level increases will be approved. But he said he was opposed to demands of gasoline retailers that they be allowed to pass along automatically to the motorist their higher costs. Meanwhile, the Senate voted 94-1 in favor of a House passed amendment to an appropriation bill to prohibit the council from discriminating among petroleum dealers in setting ceiling prices.

Engineer Survives Collapse

ROWLEY, Iowa (AP) — "I thought it was the end of the world—or the end of me, anyway," said an engineer who survived the collapse of a 2,000-foot broadcasting tower. Five men were killed in the twisted wreckage. KCRG transmitter engineer Leo Halsech said he crawled beneath a console in the transmitter building as the tower buckled and collapsed.

Agnew's Lawyers Start Hunting For News Leaks

BALTIMORE (AP) — Spiro T. Agnew's lawyers held unprecedented subpoena power today to search for news leaks in the federal grand jury investigation of the vice president.

U.S. District Court Judge Walter E. Hoffman Wednesday granted the Agnew lawyers broad authority to question anyone in the United States "they deem appropriate and necessary" providing they give the Justice Department at least 48 hours' notice.

"Such depictions... shall be sealed and not be made part of any public file," Hoffman ruled. He also ordered the lawyers and the government to keep secret the names of those subpoenaed or those who testify.

Among those likely to be called for sworn statements are newsmen, lawyers, Justice Department officials and former and present friends of Agnew who may already have been questioned by the prosecutors.

At a news conference Wednesday President Nixon spoke out strongly for Agnew's right "not to be tried and convicted in the press and on television by leaks and innuendoes and the rest." Nixon said the charges "are serious and not frivolous."

Agnew has denounced the leaks, blaming them primarily on some Justice Department officials who were "severely stung" by inept handling of the Watergate prosecutions.

Nixon, however, defended Agnew's main target, Henry E. Petersen, chief of the department's criminal investigation division.

"If I did not support Mr. Petersen's handling of the investigation he would have been removed at this time," Nixon said.

The investigation of Agnew centers on allegations of bribery, extortion, conspiracy and tax violations while he was Baltimore County executive and governor of Maryland in the 1960s.

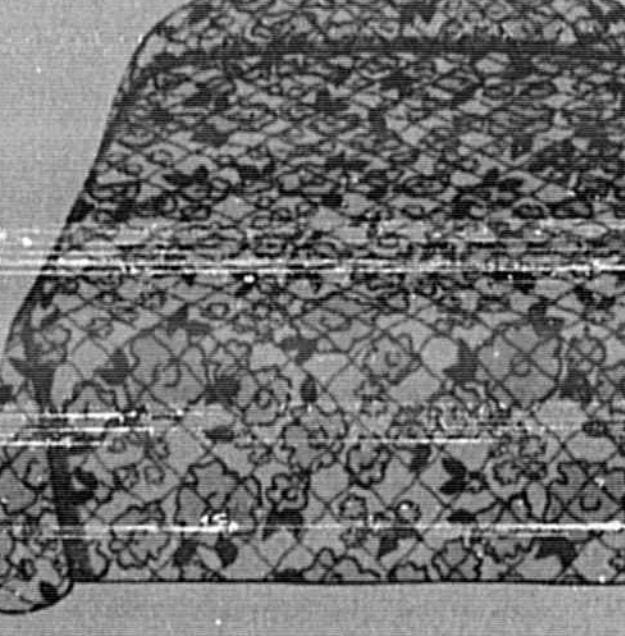

Published accusations allege Agnew accepted kickbacks from contractors who did business with the state. Agnew has denied the allegations.

The grand jury worked for nearly six hours Wednesday and was scheduled to hear more Agnew evidence today after Judge Hoffman warned it publicly to ignore news stories about the investigation because they "frequently are wholly or partially inaccurate."

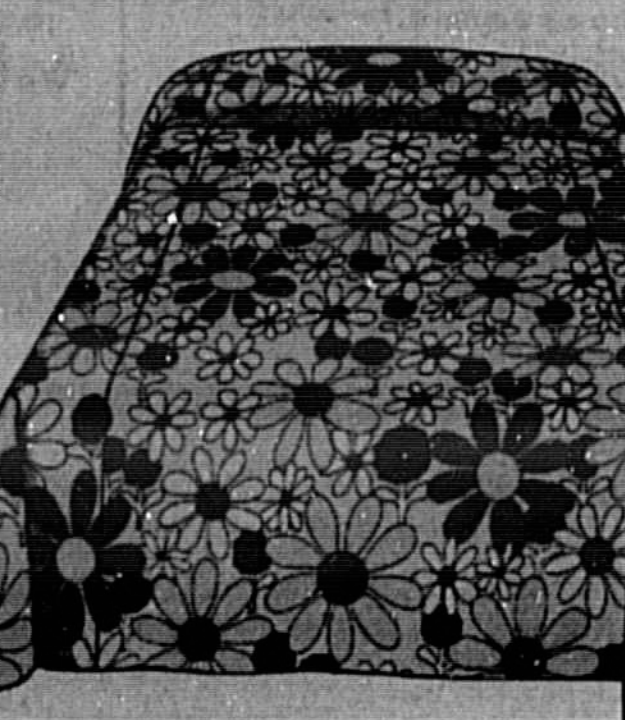

A hearing on this issue has been scheduled by Hoffman for Oct. 12. Meanwhile, the jury probe continues.

War Power Showdown Anticipated

WASHINGTON (AP) — House-Senate conferees were expected to disclose today a compromise bill to limit a president's war powers, setting the stage for a showdown on the issue between President Nixon and Congress.

The compromise reportedly would prohibit presidents from committing U.S. troops for more than 90 days without congressional approval, or 90 days for specified emergencies.

The 90-day limit for such special emergencies as protection of U.S. troops withdrawing from a combat commitment reportedly would be permitted only if a president notified Congress he needed the extra 30 days.

The compromise involves versions of two war powers bills passed by the House and Senate. Both houses now must consider the compromise.

President Nixon had said he would veto both the original House and Senate bills.

Such definitions were removed from the House bill in committee when it was argued that they could have the reverse effect of seeming to grant presidents' constitutional powers to make war.

Whether Congress could override a veto of the war powers bill is in doubt.

The House passed its original bill 404 to 170, or 38 votes short of the two-thirds needed to override a president's veto.

The Senate bill was approved on a 71-18 vote, 11 votes more than the necessary two-thirds.

Although the Senate seemed to have the votes to override, the bill would go first to the House, and if sustained there the bill would die since a presidential veto must be overridden by both houses.

Christmas Parade Is Dec. 6

The Downtown Business Association-Sanford Jaycee Christmas Parade will be held Dec. 6.

The parade will begin at 5 p.m. Participants will begin lining-up at 6:30 p.m.

Any group or individual wishing to take part in the parade is urged to call Jerry Munson, B.E. Parrell Co., 322-1494 for information.

The Parade Theme Contest has been launched and this year's winner will be awarded a $50 Savings Bond. Entries may be submitted at Garrett's Department Store, downtown Sanford. Mothers are requested to see that children's entries include their name, address, age and phone number. The contest closes Oct. 26 at 4:30 p.m.

Television Con Game Broken Up

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An alleged "pay now, see you later" television repair scheme here and in Florida has led to the arrest of two men and warrants for the arrest of two others.

New Orleans police and FBI agents are looking for the supposed leader of alleged ring, Joe Schneider, who is also wanted for television repair fraud in Daytona, Fla., and Miami. Arrested and booked with three counts each of repairing television sets without a state license were Barry Orrell, 24, of New Orleans, and Michael Schneider, 21, of address given.

Schneider is the son of Joe Schneider.

Police said a fourth person is believed connected with the racket.

Police also said they confiscated six television sets following the arrest of the two men.

The two men, believed to be part of a company calling itself Southeastern Electronics, were arrested after they answered a call at the home of Nicholas J. Lapara, administrator of the Louisiana State Radio and Television Technician's Board.

Lapara, who had been working with New Orleans and Jefferson Parish authorities, said he gave a bogus name in asking for the service call.

small can of gas and started back. She walked through Oak Hall, one of the many bustling business districts on the avenue.

A few seconds later, at 565 Blue Hill Ave., she was stopped. She was only steps from the state welfare office, where some of her roommates work, and she was within sight of the Episcopal church on the corner of Wayne Street.

It was here, police said, that the six young blacks jumped Mrs. Wagler. Police said Mrs. Wagler told them later in the hospital that the six dragged her into a litter-filled vacant lot behind a yellow brick apartment house. They told her to pour the gasoline on herself, and when she refused, they threatened her, investigators said. So she doused herself with gas, and they set her afire, police said.

Police said there was no known motive. Apparently her robbery or sexual assault was involved. No arrests have been made.

Mrs. Wagler rolled on the ground, throwing dirt on the flames. Then she got up. She was smoldering, and her long dark hair was burned to her blackened scalp.

When Mrs. Wagler got onto the sidewalk, she walked in a daze past two apartment buildings, a sandwich shop, a laundry and a record store. Then she crossed a street, passed the drunks who hang out in front of the liquor store and politely asked for help.

"Someone yelled, 'Get a blanket. Get a blanket to throw over her,'" the liquor store clerk said.

Nixon Will Delay Endorsement

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says he will not endorse anyone for the 1976 Republican presidential nomination "until they have been in the field of battle" in the primary elections that year.

Nixon told a news conference Wednesday that history teaches that some aspiring senators and governors "will hit the big league pitching," they'll face in a presidential campaign.

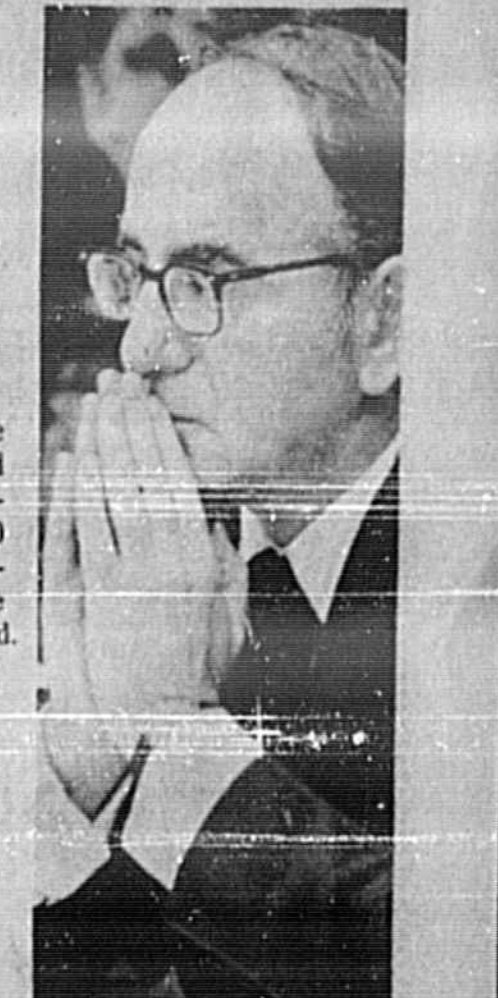

"I would like to see how these various potential candidates handle themselves in primaries before making any decision in regard to who should be candidate," he said.

The President gave his views after being asked if he stood behind his temporary opposition to Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois as a possible GOP standard bearer.

Acknowledging he once opposed Percy because of what he described as a misanderstanding, Nixon said the senator has a right to seek the presidency if he desires, as do "several governors or former governors who might be a candidate, as well as the mayor of Indianapolis (Richard Lugar) or a number of senators and one

Perez Strong in Win Kendall Out-Brawls Mike Quarry

By LEE GEIGER
Herald Correspondent

Andy Kendall defeated Mike Quarry in a savage "back-alley" brawl before a record breaking crowd of 2,311 Wednesday night at the Orlando Sports Stadium.

"The Scapoose Express," as Kendall likes to call himself, could not be deterred.

Sanford's Vic Perez scored his third straight victory, with an exciting win over Al Cook of Miami.

Although outweighed, 157 to 151 Perez appeared the stronger of the two throughout the eight round affair.

The stamina problem that Vic has been experiencing, was very conspicuous by its absence. Instead of growing weaker, Perez actually got stronger as he took the last two rounds in convincing manner to sew up the verdict on all three cards, 77-76, 78-76, and 78-76.

Quarry started off fast, when he came out boxing at the opening bell. He was able to elude most of Kendall's bull like rushes, until they came out of the claret streaming down Quarry's face. When Mike realized he had been butted, causing the cut over the right eye, he became enraged and started throwing low punches at Kendall.

Cornerman Frank Brazill, did a good job in stopping the flow of blood between rounds, but he was unable to "cool off" Quarry.

Instead of going back to his boxing style Mike came out winging at the start of the third. Kendall's manager, Mike Morton, knowing that this was playing into their hands, started beating on the canvas with his fists, urging his fighter to stay and slug it out.

"He (Kendall) hit me in the right side in the third or fourth round, and I had trouble breathing after that," Quarry said after the fight.

The fourth set the pattern for the rest of the bout. Quarry came out boxing. He was up on his toes, hands held high, moving and jabbing. When Kendall would tag him, Quarry would go flat footed and come after him.

Boxing, Quarry would hold a big edge, slugging, it was no contest, Kendall was much too strong for Jerry's younger brother.

Kendall suffered a cut over his right eye as the two of them continued to have savage exchanges, throughout round number five.

The traded rounds in the sixth and seventh, with Kendall taking the former, and Quarry the latter.

"Quarry made us wait three years, let's see how long we can make him wait. We want bigger and better things. Quarry is behind us, let him go out and get a reputation."

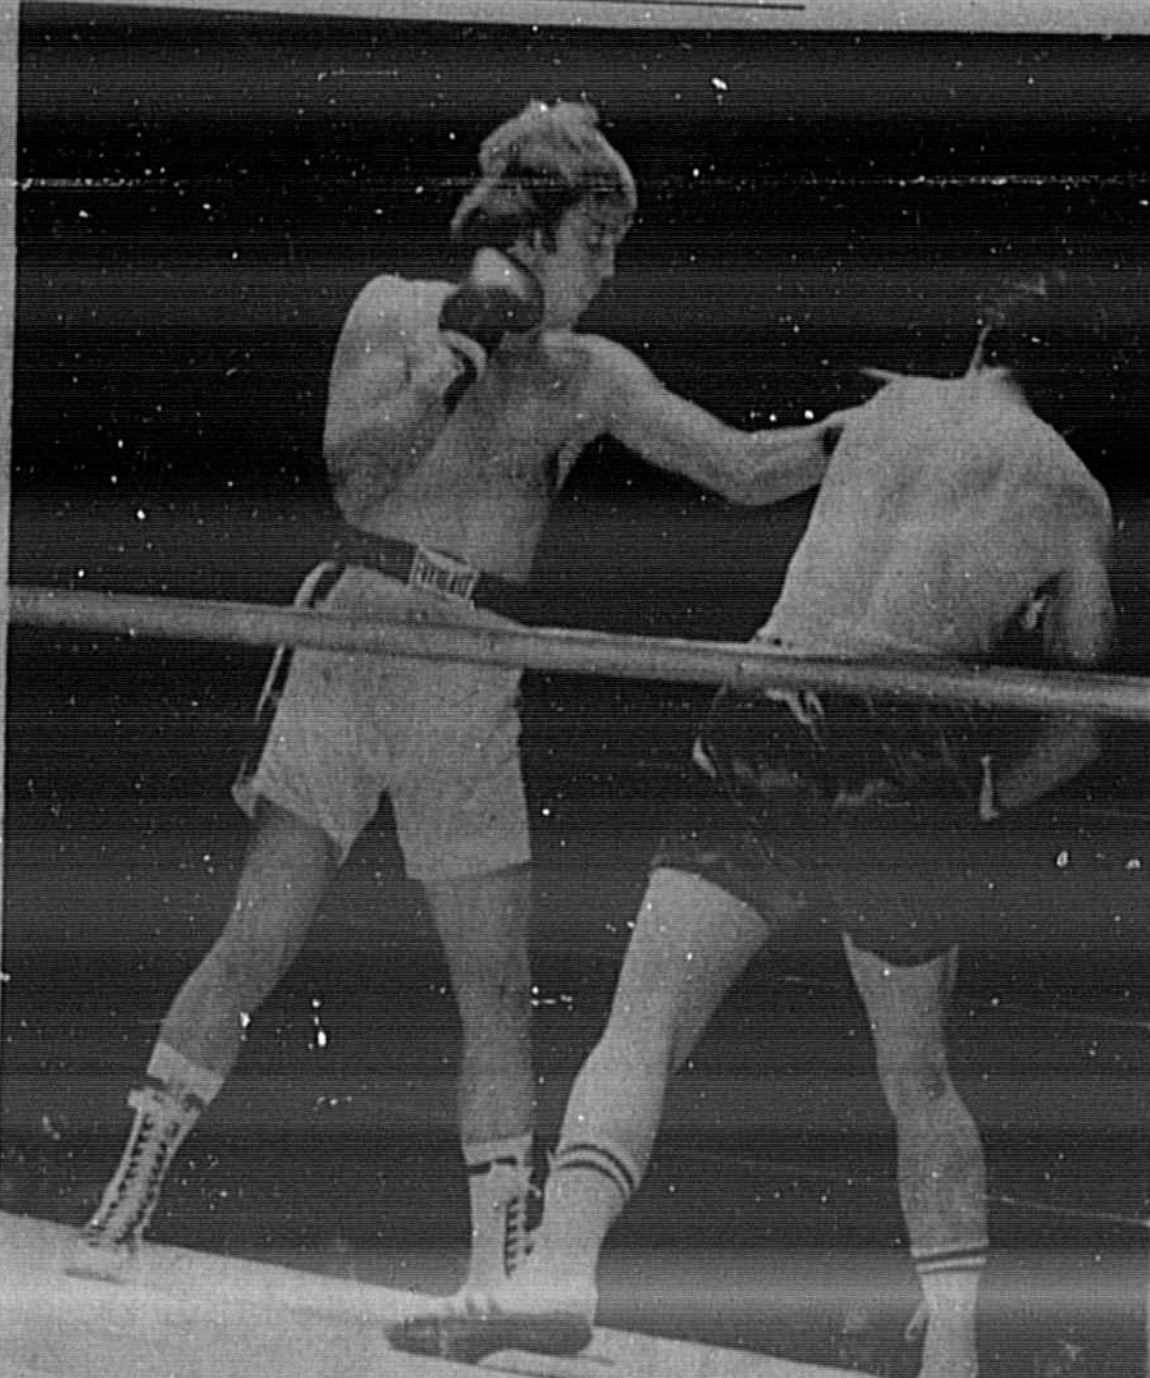

Morton is in the driver's seat and he knows it. "Maybe we will go to Philadelphia and fight Kates (Richie Kates who just stopped the number one light heavyweight contender.

The semi-final was billed as "a match that would be a wind-up anywhere in the U.S.," and it will be on the next Ashlock promotion.

Lorenzo "Boom Boom" Trujillo pounded out a well-deserved unanimous decision over a tough, game "Scooter" Mera. The decision was strangely brooded, when announced at the end of the eight rounds.

The opening pro fight was a stunning upset, when Cyril Clark stopped "Irish" Mike McKinney in 1:31 of the first round.

Clark dropped his man twice and cut his eye, before the ref stopped the slaughter.

Baltimore Platooning Grumbles

BALTIMORE (AP) — When a baseball manager employs a platoon system, the only certain result is grumbling.

The outfield platooning of the Baltimore Orioles is no exception. But the complaining has come from opposing teams, rather than the players being flipped out on the lineup card.

Don Baylor, Paul Blair and Merv Rettenmund were expected to play most of the way in the Baltimore outfield in 1973, but extended early slumps by Baylor and Rettenmund called for remedial action.

Almost immediately, they lived up to their impressive minor league hitting records, and captured the imagination of Baltimore fans with their dash on the bases.

New Links Planned In Seminole

By DAN GILMARTIN
Herald Staff Writer

Eastern border of the course will probably be on the Old Orlando highway, Seligman said.

Buddy Seligman, President of Golden T, Incorporated, said today that his company plans to build a new 18-hole golf course in Seminole County.

The 24 acre course will be located on U.S. Highway 17-92 a few hundred feet north and across the street from Art Grindell's Wheel Ranch. The purpose is to catch a few rounds in the evening.

Seligman, who also is a principal in Cross County Realty, said the construction will begin on the new course when the financing arrangements are completed.

He declined to name the other principals.

The building will be done by a local contractor who Seligman declined to name.

Seligman said he plans to encourage league play "just like the bowling leagues" but the course will also be open for other play day and night.

Lloydton of DeLand, who has worked on many area courses including Rio Plant and Cypress Creek will design the 18 hole executive course which is slightly smaller than the normal course.

The Golden T Inc. is a new company in the area and includes several members of Cross County Realty as principal investors.

Seligman also said, the land concerned in the project has been zoned and approved by Seminole County for the Golden T use.

Don't Think He Can Coach Chamberlain Poor Choice: Baylor

NEW YORK (AP) — Elgin Baylor thinks the San Diego Conquistadors of the American Basketball Association might have made a poor choice in hiring Will Chamberlain as coach.

"I don't think he can coach," Baylor said emphatically Wednesday. "What could he possibly be a player with?"

Baylor, a National Basketball Association star with the Minneapolis-Los Angeles Lakers for 14 seasons before retiring in 1971 because of injuries, played on the same team with Will during his last four years in the league.

"He doesn't have the temperament to be a coach," continued Baylor. "He never had any discipline.

"He hardly ever came to practice, and when he did, he didn't work hard, because he didn't think he had to practice. He didn't get it needed it. Last season, for example, he didn't go to practice very often in the last couple of months.

"I don't think he set a good example for young ballplayers," stressed Baylor.

The 7-foot-6-inch Chamberlain jumped the Lakers last week and signed a three-year contract estimated at $1.8 million to become player-coach of the Conquistadors, now preparing for their second season in the ABA.

Athletic Reform Back In Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a compromise move, the Senate has sent back to committee for further consideration a measure aimed at reforming U.S. amateur sports.

The full Senate will not get the bill back from the Commerce Committee before Nov. 8 under the instructions given in Wednesday's voice vote.

The compromise came after it became apparent that the lobbying against the controversial measure would be too strong to overcome. Some 18 amendments were due to be introduced which would have drastically changed the bill.

The omnibus bill, whose primary sponsor is Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., would establish an independent board to charter and oversee all particular sport.

The charters would expire every four years, after the Olympic Games.

facilities and promote health and safety in athletics.

The NCAA and the Amateur Athletic Union, the two main organizations in amateur athletics, are opposed to the Tunney bill and have lobbied strongly against it. Some athletes, most of whom have participated in the Olympic Games, are for the measure.

Tunney said the chief aim of the bills is to end "the internecine warfare" between the NCAA and AAU.

The Tunney legislation would create an independent, presidentially-appointed United States Sports Board of five full-time members, including one athlete, which would charter sports organizations as governing bodies of a particular sport.

The charters would expire every four years, after the Olympic Games.

Raines Gets 2 TDs, 207 Yards Crooms, Brantley In 12-12 Tie

By DAN GILMARTIN
Herald Staff Writer

Crooms backfield Tim Raines pulled the Panther's bacon out of the fire Wednesday night with two second half touchdown runs to gain a 12-12 tie with the Lake Brantley Patriots Junior Varsity at Seminole Memorial Stadium.

Raines wound up with 207 of his team's 242 ground yards and played an outstanding game at linebacker for the Cats, as the Panthers held the Patriots to minus five yards in the second half of play.

The two teams slugged out a scoreless first half that saw numerous mistakes and fumbles killing anything that might amount to a resemblance of an offensive drive.

Crooms was overpowered on defense in the first two periods but could not get anything going on offense. The Panthers pushed the Pats around quite a bit but fumbled six times prior to intermission.

Mistakes finally cost the Crooms squad some points in the third stanza when Clint Gilbert picked off a John Litten aerial at the Panther 18 and took it in for six. The PAT run attempt was squashed leaving the score at 6-0 with 7:10 left in the quarter.

Another miscue led directly to the second Brantley score as Greg Pringle dropped back to punt the center's snap sailed over his head. Pringle fell on the ball but the pigskin belonged to the Pats and first yard at the Croom's eight yard stripe.

Two plays later Jim Franklin swept the left side from the eight yard line. The run for extra points was again stopped and the score read 12-0 Lake Brantley.

Again the Panthers could not get anything going on offense and there was an exchange of punts. The Panthers set up after receiving a Patriot kick with a first and ten at their own 14.

It took Raines one play to traverse the next 86 yards to the Patriot end zone and close the gap to 12-0. On the PAT try Crooms faked a kick and Raines threw for two to Jeff Anderson in the end zone who subsequently dropped the ball. The two squads battled back and forth and lightning struck again in just about the same spot.

Raines took the ball at his own 38 and galloped 77 yards to even the count at 12-12. The kick for the go ahead point was wide and the score remained tied with 2:01 left in the game.

Other Crooms defenders who kept the Brantley offense from moving the ball were Kenneth Lee, Randy Pyle and Joseph Richardson.

Standouts for the Pat's on defense were Daryl McClain, John Wargo and John Payne, who looked like a fifth Panther back in the first half.

Hounds Test Eagles Metro Conference

By JOHN CHERWA
Herald Correspondent

This weekend in the Metro promises to be one of the most crucial of the season to date. The headline is Friday night in Orlando's Tangerine Bowl when number one in the state Edgewater plays host to an unbeaten Lyman team.

Across town in Winter Park's Shawler Field the undefeated Winter Park Wildcats host the best D-3 team in the state Bishop Moore.

In other games Boone is at Colonial, Oak Ridge plays Jones Saturday night at the T-Bowl, and Evans travels out of the conference to play with Titusville on the coast Friday night.

It could be that the losing team in the Eagle-Greyhound contest could be out of the running for the district crown and possibly the Metro title. This year district 3 Class 4-A is loaded with talent.

Currently there are four teams in definite contention: Edgewater, Winter Park, Lyman, and Gainesville. The first three teams play amongst each other once while Big Eight team Gainesville does not play any Metro teams. Already this year Gainesville was tied by Winter Haven in a scoreless deadlock 0-0.

Friday night is the first meeting this season between Lyman and Edgewater. The next confrontation will be on Oct. 19 when the Wildcats and Edgewater meet. The third and final confrontation is saved for the last game of the regular season. On Nov. 16 Winter Park visits Longwood to do battle with the Hounds. Friday is Round One.

Meanwhile the Wildcats were breezing along over Sanford helping to show the fans why they are ranked sixth in the state.

The Wildcats have a devastating rushing attack with Richard Denyer and David Kregel along with junior running back Mike Robertson. While the Hornets mix up their plays utilizing both the running and passing attack.

PREDICTION

I'm going out about as far on a limb as you can get and predict a stunning upset for the Hornets. Bishop Moore 23, Winter Park 21.

BOONE VS. COLONIAL

Boone is coming off an upset victory over DeLand and Colonial was thrashed at the hands of Oak Ridge Friday.

The Tommy Bolen wishbone has proven more successful than many believed it would be their strong point is their defense which is third behind Winter Park and Edgewater.

Colonial, on the other hand, has had trouble with their defense early this year. On the average their front four allow the opponents 250 yards on the ground.

PREDICTION

Since the wishbone is mostly a running attack and the Granadiers are having trouble stopping the run I'll go with the Braves in a squeaker. Boone 19, Colonial 18.

LYMAN VS. EDGEWATER

Hounds will have the honor to be the first team that the Eagles put their top ranking on the line against. The Eagles have been on top for two weeks but did not play this past week.

Possibly one of the reasons Edgewater is ranked that high is they have both the irretrievable force and the immovable object. In their two prior contests they have averaged a total of 43.5 points on offense and the defense has allowed only an average of 6.0 points.

That's not to say the Greyhounds don't have any weapons. They own the leading passer in the Metro, Bob Costantine, and three of the top four receivers, Tom Gooch, Al Cleveland, and Matt Leslie. They are the No. 1 offensive team in the conference but the defense rates sixth.

PREDICTION

No matter how powerful an offense it's still the defense that's key. That coupled with a top ranking forces me to pick Edgewater 34, Lyman 14.

BISHOP MOORE VS. WINTER PARK

Last week in Longwood the Hornets stalked a partisan Lyman crowd with three quarters of hard-nosed football but faltered in the final chapter giving the victory to the Hounds.

That's the highest number in one league American League teams combined to hit 27 home runs, high was 10, by the National League in 1901 and the Americans hit in 1972 by AL pitcher.

AL Boosters Sing Designated Song Of Hitting Strength

NEW YORK (AP) — Run production rose dramatically in 1973, and proponents of the designated hitter rule point to that innovation as the major reason for the increase.

And they've got the figures to back up their arguments: —The over-all batting average in the American League was .259, a sharp increase over the .239 mark of a year ago. The NL average, by comparison, was .254—making 1973 the first time in 10 years the AL has had a higher batting average than the NL, which does not have the designated hitter rule.

—An average of 8.6 runs were scored by both teams in a 1973 American League game. This is a marked rise over the AL averages of 7.7 and 8.9 runs per game for the past two years, is ahead of the NL 1973 mark of 8.3 and is only the second time in nine years the AL has topped the NL in run production.

—The DH rule allows a manager to designate one hitter prior to a game to bat in place of the pitcher each time the pitcher is due up. The rule, adopted by the American League following the 1972 season in an effort to perk up the game's offense, produced striking results in another area, one overlooked by most baseball experts when the rule first was proposed: there were 12 pitchers in the American League who won 20 games or more.

Let manager, not you, handle noisy patrons

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I took my wife out to dinner in the best restaurant in our town to celebrate our third anniversary—the first one we had ever spent together because I had been in Viet Nam.

At a nearby table sat a group of older people. They all obviously had had too much to drink because they became so loud and boisterous that we and other patrons couldn't carry on a conversation.

This went on all during dinner, so while we were waiting for our dessert, I went over to this noisy bunch and asked if they would kindly lower their voices.

My wife says I should have complained to the manager and let him handle the situation. I feel that the manager would have probably lost customers if he had done so, while I had nothing to lose. What is your opinion?

A QUIET KENTUCKIAN

DEAR QUIET: If you waited until the dessert to tell the noisy bunch to pipe down, you waited too long. As soon as it became apparent that they were preventing you from carrying on a conversation you should have talked to the manager. He might have preferred to risk losing a couple of customers to your losing a couple of teeth.

DEAR ABBY: Dick and I married after going together for about two years. He had gone with Helen (made-up name) for 3 1/2 years, breaking up with her to go with me. Dick and I just got a new home and now I learned that Helen, who recently married, bought the house directly across the street.

I trust my husband and know he wants nothing to do with Helen, but she has different ideas. She doesn't want Dick, but she doesn't want to be happy together, either. She has been bitter toward me ever since Dick left her to go with me.

How should I act? I don't like to be unfriendly to my neighbors but I'm afraid if I give her any encouragement, she'll be here seeing Dick when I'm away.

DEAR JEALOUS: You are doing a lot of second-guessing with regard to what Helen thinks. Don't pretend a phony neighborliness where none exists, just be civil. And if your jealousy can't be overcome with mature judgment, you can always change to the night shift.

CONFIDENTIAL TO OVERWORKED AND BEAT IN N. Y. C.: Don't go so hard at making a good living that you fall to make a good life.

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1973

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Although the early morning could be difficult, the afternoon and evening are fine for whatever has to do with romance and the lighter side of life. Today's influence brings the chance to have increased security in your life.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A friend comes along during the morning who can ease a situation between you and an associate. Then you can handle duties in an effective way. Strive for more harmony in the home.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Get busy in the morning and handle all your duties well so that later you are able to visit persons you like. Improve your appearance so that you feel more sure of yourself.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) The morning is not good for the recreation you want but fine for handling work in the day. Evening is ideal for fun.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 31) A family could be difficult in the morning but if you take things in stride you can attend to activities that are most important to you. Show more understanding of others.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Travel with care in the morning and carry through with whatever activities are scheduled. See that fundamental affairs are in fine order. Home should be more delightful for you.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Control your temper in the morning and be sure to pay a compliment to an associate and you get the backing you need. Use care in making out reports, whether of a personal or business nature.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Steer clear of an argument at home and get busy with monetary affairs. Try to cut down on expenses. Do some repairing that can make your home more charming and comfortable.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Improve your charm and get ahead faster in business and personal matters. Good charming new acquaintances. Sidelstep one who has an eye on your assets. Think along constructive lines.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) He who nags who finances are concerned, and try to save more money for the future. See what you can do about making your relationship with more mutual respect. Be logical.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try not to argue with higher-ups and be sure to obey rules and regulations that apply to you. Do something thoughtful for good friends. Evening can be very happy with family.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Organize properly all facts and figures in business and personal matters. Go after a secret sin that is important instead of fritting your time away. The involuntarily could prove costly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) A good friend now gives you the information you want that will help you gain a Christian aim. Meet with a good pal later for the type of recreation you enjoy. Take health treatments.

Viet Fighting Rates

SAIGON (AP)—The South Vietnamese army reports 23 North Vietnamese casualties and 123 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in the battle last Saturday and Sunday 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The government said 46 of its men were killed, 124 were wounded and 81 were missing. It also claimed that 80 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed Wednesday, and only one government soldier was wounded, in a clash 50 miles west of Saigon in the northern Mekong Delta.

Phnom Penh War Goes

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Fighting is reported in five areas 13 to 45 miles from Phnom Penh but none of the action is on a large scale. President Lon Nol announced a draft of men 18 to 25 for military service and said men over 25 would be drafted if enough younger men were not available.

Noxious Gas Dispersed

NEW NORWAY, Ala. (AP)—Winds dispersed a cloud of noxious gas that drove hundreds of persons from their homes south of Edmond, in central Alberta. The gas, which escaped from a Sun Oil Co. well, contained hydrogen sulphide, which can be lethal in heavy concentrations. Eleven persons were treated and released, but there were no reports that livestock was affected.

WORRY CLINIC

Eric wants some advice on the psychology of writing. Whether you wish to rate an "A" or an "F" in English themes is school or sell your copy to the various markets, he is sure to send for the booklet below. And read Robert Ruark's terse reply to his critics!

CASE Y-534: Eric M. aged 14, is a copy editor of "Horse Sense" among teen-agers. He attends a city school, but lives in the country.

There he tapped maple trees for the past two years, boiling down the sap and selling maple syrup. He also keeps bees and when only 12 years of age, was taking off the honey all by himself and selling it.

In the autumn, he asked if he could return an old cider press that had belonged to Mrs. Crane's father.

It was ready for the scrap heap, so I wondered how a 15-year-old would be able to get it back into working order.

But Eric did so, and squeezed out more than 100 gallons of apple cider in his first year, selling most of it to earn spending money.

"Dr. Crane," he recently asked as we dined together at a neighboring restaurant, "is it hard for you to write your daily column?"

"And I replied that it certainly is." "Eric," I said, "it might seem that after writing more than 12,000 of my daily newspaper articles, the task would be much easier."

"Alas, I don't find it so, for writing is always hard work!" "Robert Ruark thus was kidded about his snappy daily column a few years ago.

"His friends told him he could type his daily 500 words in probably 5 minutes, so they wanted to know what he did with all the rest of his time."

"And he replied tersely, 'A wife can also deliver a baby in 30 minutes, but it's the previous 9 months of anxiety, planning and final agony that make her teeth fall out!'"

Thus, I urged Eric to pick a title for his English theme; then think about it for a few days so he would subconsciously polarize his ideas around that title.

In my case, I use a straightforward formula, and you readers have noted when you scrapbook these columns and then index them.

American Officials Seize Cuban Freighter

MIAMI (AP)—A Cuban freighter has been seized by American officials in the Panama Canal Zone as the result of an order issued by the Chilean military junta, Havana radio said today.

The seizure was the second action involving a Cuban vessel in the Panama Canal in the past several days. Earlier, Cuba reported that another of its ships had escaped a detouring order and sailed into the Pacific Ocean enroute to Asia.

In both incidents, American authorities presented demands totaling some $5 million against the ship captains, according to Cuban broadcasts monitored in Miami.

Under armed guard in the canal zone was the vessel Trinidad and its crew. Crew members have protested their detention as "illegal, incorrect and arbitrary" and have decided not to pay "even one cent to those bandits," the Cuban news said.

Cuba protested Wednesday that American authorities had attempted to seize the ship Marble Island Monday, but that it had escaped and was now on its way to Asia.

The vessel was a sister ship to the Playa Larga, which was strafed by the Chilean Air Force after reportedly radioing reports of military movements to loyalist defenders during the September 11 Chilean revolution.

The Playa Larga also carried sugar donated by the Fidel Castro regime to the Allende government.

The rebellion against the government of Marxist President Salvador Allende broke out. It was ordered to turn back to Cuba and the seizure attempt reportedly came when it reached the Panama Canal.

With Playa Larga Detachment Open Today, Thurs., 9-4:30; Fri., 10-12:30; Sat., 10-12:30; Sun., 10-12:30. Call 324-1111, Casselberry Pl. 32444.

VIENNA (AP)—Austria probably won't close the Schoenau transit camp for emigrating Soviet Jews until other arrangements are made to move them through Austria, official Austrian sources report.

The camp, in a castle 70 miles south of Vienna, is continuing to process Jews bound for Israel despite Chancellor Bruno Kreisky's promise it would be closed by the end of the year.

The State Department said the U.S. ambassador to Austria, John P. Humes, was returning to the United States on private business and would come to Washington to discuss the situation.

Kreisky told the Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter that he acceded to the terrorists' demand to close Schoenau because Arab terrorists "planned a giant Munich massacre" there.

French officials give two explanations for their absence: French forces withdrew years ago from NATO's integrated commands, and there are no foreign troops on French soil.

But one diplomat—not a Frenchman—had another explanation: "The French are just not interested in spending any more money."

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—France is boycotting efforts in the North Atlantic Alliance to ease the cost to the U.S. taxpayer of keeping 250,000 troops in Europe.

A special committee on the subject was set up in August at the request of the United States. But officials at the Brussels headquarters of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization say French representatives are not attending the committee's meetings.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Arab delegates have thrown cold water on an Israeli proposal that the Jews and Arabs follow Western Europe's example and join in a new Middle East community.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban made the proposal Wednesday during the general debate in the U.N. General Assembly. He called for "a community of sovereign states in the Middle East as in... the European communities."

"Empty words," declared Japanese Ambassador Eduardo Gorra. Egyptian Ambassador Ahmed Esmat Abdel Meguid told a newsman the idea was "completely unacceptable."

What works in Europe would not work in the Middle East, said Saadallah Hassan of the Palestine Liberation Organization, because "we and the Israelis are not the same people."

SEEDCO Banquet Is Friday

The Seminole Employment Economic Development Corp. (SEEDCO), a non-profit organization, will host its second annual "Friends Dinner Banquet" Friday, at the Holiday Inn located on Wymore Road at SR 436, Altamonte Springs.

The $15 a plate event will help SEEDCO raise a portion of its obligatory non-federal share of grant funds and better acquaint "Friends" with SEEDCO's ever increasing scope of activities.

SEEDCO "Friends" elect a substantial representation of the corporation's board of directors and make a minimum $10 contribution annually.

Guest speaker for the dinner banquet will be Alice Hastings, a native of Altamonte Springs who has practiced law in Fort Lauderdale for the past eight years.

Hastings received her B.A. Degree from Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., a M.A. from Howard University, Washington, D.C., and a Law Degree from Florida A & M University in 1963.

In November, 1970, Hastings made a law for the Senate seat now held by Lawton Chiles.

Reservations for the dinner banquet can be made in advance by calling the SEEDCO office.

Modern Woodmen of America District Representative Lester L. Poppe, Orlando, has completed the classroom law in a two-part Intermediate Training School Sept. 10-14 in the Fraternal Life Insurance Society's Rock Island, Ill., Home Office.

He will begin the ten-week field training phase in the Sanford area under the administration of Florida Agency Manager Robert W. Willes, FIC, Ft. Lauderdale.

In the training school Poppe studied technical aspects of legal, financial management and medical information as these relate to problems in fraternal life and disability income insurance.

Winn-Dixie's 940 food stores in the local area and throughout the South reported a 22.70 per cent sales gain during the four weeks ended Aug. 25 compared with the same period last year.

The volume totaled $178,513,337 against $145,488,704, an increase of $33,024,633. An advance also was recorded for the eight weeks ended Aug. 25 when sales were $354,959,174, a jump of $65,872,737 or 22.79 per cent.

Professor Says Nixon Economic Aides Should Return To School

NEW YORK (AP)—Based on his performance in dealing with inflation, said Prof. Kenneth Galbraith, a just reward for Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz would be a quick return to the University of Chicago as an assistant professor.

"Let him begin all over again," said Galbraith, the irreverent Harvard economist, of Shultz, the former Chicago economist and business school dean who now heads economic policy for the Nixon administration.

"Anyone who makes a mess of economic policy should be relieved and marked down as a failure," said Galbraith, a Democrat. He also nominated for retirement the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, Herbert Stein.

The professor, who more than coincidentally is promoting his 17th book, "Economics & the Public Purpose," branded present economic policy as "the most inept since Herbert Hoover," and Shultz's impact as "zero."

"I think economists should be held responsible for their actions," he said, reminding a small group at an author's reception that when prices rose in World War II the public held the Office of Price Administration responsible.

Galbraith said current economic policy, which leans heavily on interest rates as a means of suppressing inflationary spending, involves a "triumph of the underclass."

"We do have controls," he conceded, "but they're administered by people who don't believe in them. It's like putting a prostitute in charge of the vice squad."

Taxation was considered politically unpopular, he said, partly because "increased taxes have to hit the higher spending brackets." And fiscal restraint as a means of controlling inflation, he said, is usually compromised by other considerations, such as defense.

"So this means they're conducting economic policy only on interest rates, running the economy on no controls other than those available to Herbert Hoover and saying that we have controls. This is where the fraud comes in." Higher interest rates, he said, are discriminatory because the poor are borrowers and the rich lenders, and are uncertain in their impact.

A fundamental defect in the Shultz and Stein approach, he said, is that they base policy on their own optimistic forecasts.

In directing policy, he maintained, you cannot act on the basis of what you hope or expect but instead you should deal with realities, changing policy when the realities change.

Although he never had the opportunity to administer economic policy, even though he has served in several government positions and was influential in the Kennedy administration, Galbraith said he knows precisely what he would do if he were in charge now. His basic program would consist of a tax increase on upper incomes, a stiff monetary policy and controls, with some form of aid to the jobless in the weakest areas of the economy.

SJC Offers Courses In Money Management

Continuing in its efforts to offer classes of special interest to the women of the community, Adult Ed - S.J.C. will be offering a series of three courses on money management especially designed for women.

The three courses in the series are: "MY LADY AND INVESTMENTS" - Oct. 4 through Nov. 1. "MONEY MANAGEMENT FOR LADIES WHO ARE ALONE" - Nov. 8 through Dec. 6. "MONEY MANAGEMENT FOR THE YOUNG MARRIED WOMAN" - Jan. 10 through Feb. 7. Each course consists of five-three hour presentations. Each class will meet from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings in Bldg. 15 on the Adult Education Campus of S.J.C.

"My Lady and Investments" is a five-week course, starting Oct. 4, that will examine various investment options of special interest to women. The course will examine the difference between highly speculative investments and long-term growth stocks. The mutual fund market and bond market will be investigated and the basic laws of the market will be examined as well. "My Lady and Investments" is an ideal course for a woman who is contemplating investments and needs some explanation of just what the investment market is all about.

Registration for "My Lady and Investments" is $7.50. Call 322-4117, Attention 303, to reserve space in this class.

Dear Consumer:

Nursing Homes: Care & Rights

By Virginia Knauer
Special Assistant to the President and Director
Office of Consumer Affairs

Are you considering a nursing home for a member of your family? Or is someone you know a nursing home patient? Then you are probably aware that nursing homes provide a variety of medical, social, and professional services including physical therapy, dental care and dietary consultation.

But in addition to medical care, nursing homes should provide the patient with other services that are not generally spelled out in brochures. I call these services "nursing home rights" which any patient should expect his nursing home to observe.

According to the American Nursing Home Association, there are three basic kinds of nursing homes: skilled nursing facilities, which provide continuous nursing services on a 24-hour basis for convalescent patients; intermediate care facilities, which provide medical, nursing and social services; and residential facilities, which provide room and board and some social services for persons not capable of fully independent living. From any of these facilities, a patient should expect the following:

- a nursing home license. All states require and issue licenses. In addition, all states except Arizona require that the nursing home administrator have a license.
- safe surroundings. All licensed nursing homes must comply with state fire safety codes. Nursing homes that serve Medicaid and Medicare patients must also comply with the federally approved Life Safety Code.
- medical treatment. Nursing homes should have some arrangement with a nearby hospital or with doctors, dentists, etc., so that patients get all the medical treatment they need.
- privacy and confidentiality. Nursing homes should respect the individual's right to privacy with visitors and phone calls, provide individual storage space for private use, and treat personal and medical information as confidential.
- activities. Each patient should have an activities schedule geared to his interests and abilities.
- respectful treatment. The administrator should be available to patients and family members who want to talk about special problems. Staff members should respond quickly to patients' calls for assistance.
- refunds and receipts of valuables. The patient should receive a refund of advance payments if he leaves the facility and a receipt of any cash and assets entrusted to the home for protection.
- a written agreement of the date of admission and the degree of care to be furnished.

In addition to these generally accepted rights, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) is developing a "nursing home patients' bill of rights" specifying the rights of Medicaid and Medicare patients in these facilities.

For more information about nursing homes, you may want to order HEW's booklet Nursing Home Care which is available for 40¢ through Consumer Product Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. You may also want to write the American Nursing Home Association, 1200 15th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005, for the pamphlet Thinking About a Nursing Home.

The Shrine Circus is produced by William Kay Productions of Sarasota and show times are Friday, 4- and 8 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. and 2 and 8 p.m.; Sunday 1 and 5 p.m. The Cristiani family is the largest and oldest boasting five generations of performers.

Health Care Costs Soar Five Times

NEW YORK (AP) — In 1973 national expenditures on health care, a conglomerate category that includes everything from curing simple headaches averaged $78.35 per person.

By 1972 that figure had quintupled to $394.16, as health care costs outpaced the cost of living and any of the components that make up the cost of living.

After such a leap many Americans believed the increase would slow, one of the reasons being that the pitifully inadequate wages paid to hospital service personnel in the 1950s were now considered more nearly adequate in the 1970s.

Moreover, the federal government was cracking down on the advertising claims of patent medicine makers and pressures were also being exerted to reduce the price of prescription pharmaceuticals.

In addition, Blue Cross and Blue Shield and other medical and hospital insurance plans were being encouraged to actively resist higher prices rather than merely paying out whatever bills were submitted.

Competition between hospitals was also being discouraged and ways to cooperate were being sought. Why should two hospitals in an area each have a $10,000 piece of equipment when one would suffice?

But if you have faith in the projections of the Conference Board, and many businessmen and educators rely upon them heavily, prices are going to rise a lot more — nearly doubling by 1980.

The board projects national outlays on research, construction and personal health care at $757.82 per capita in 1980, which means that in all likelihood good health will remain a luxury to many.

These high prices aren't all to be attributed to the medical profession and its ancillary occupations, trades and businesses, because huge increases in building and technology costs contribute heavily.

The major portion of the increase nevertheless remains a strictly medical phenomenon.

The cost of hospital care, the researchers determined, has risen at an average of 8.5 per cent a year for the past two decades, and since 1966 the rates has been nearly 14 per cent a year.

In explanation, the board noted that between 1957 and 1970 the number of full-time hospital personnel providing a day's care for a patient rose from 1.7 to 3.

It added that "the introduction of highly complex, potentially life-saving machinery, such as intensive care units and open-heart surgery equipment, has also caused hospital prices to increase."

DECOR Colors blend in 2 rooms

By BARBARA HARTUNG
Copley News Service

Q. We have an 18-by-24-foot family room right off our kitchen with beamed ceiling which we have stained Spanish oak. We also have paneled our room in Spanish oak. My problem is that color drapes should I get. The room has three windows plus a sliding glass door. Should they be floor length? Would black furniture look good in the room? What color rug should we get? Our kitchen is painted pebble beige and we have avocado appliances. Our floor is white with green specks in it. I want to paper above the top of our kitchen cabinets and around the entrance to the family room. What color paper should I use? — K. W.

A. If your family room and kitchen merge with each other I think it is most pleasing to treat them decoratively as one room using the same color scheme and general tone. Since you're committed to green and white in the kitchen, how about a green, white and yellow color throughout?

You could wallpaper your kitchen above the cabinets, entrance to the family room and one wall in the family room with a stripe or flower in green, yellow and white. How about woven blinds in your family room and kitchen repeating the green, yellow and white? Blinds are great for informal rooms and available in a variety of colors, styles and costs.

Paint the walls either a pale yellow or white. Use a large green and yellow rug, a black sofa if you like and perhaps a couple of wicker chairs either in green or yellow. Use some black wrought iron if you like repeating the black of the sofa.

Also if you'd rather keep to a green, yellow and black color scheme you could do that, too. Green rug, black furniture, beige walls, beige and green wallpaper and printed fabric would look well.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Books are being recorded on microfilm not only to save space but also to preserve them. Many books are deteriorating in American libraries because publishers after 1970 began using paper made from wood pulp instead of from rag. The World Almanac notes. The paper becomes brittle with age because the wood pulp is treated with an acid.

Corporate Takeovers Not Seen

NEW YORK (AP) — Many of the conditions that can lead to a rash of corporate takeovers are present in the economy, but an additional element makes them unlikely and maybe impossible.

Hundreds of companies are weak and appear easy candidates for being swallowed by larger corporate animals. But the extra ingredient is that those larger firms are too weak to do so.

A major accounting firm, Coopers & Lybrand, has issued a reminder to its clients that lists the major characteristics of being a potential target.

The first of these is a low price-earnings ratio, a common problem today. Hundreds of companies are complaining that the price of their shares is only nine or 10 times earnings, when in more normal times it might be 12 to 18.

In many instances, the total value of shares is less than book value, which means the acquiring company obtains a gift. A sampling of 81 target firms from 1956 to 1965 showed 54 per cent had inordinately low market prices.

Poor performance and declining earnings, another common complaint, also was listed as a danger signal, especially if it appears to result from poor management. An enterprising competitor might feel it can raise earnings quickly and make itself an easy bundle.

A moribund investment policy, characterized by surplus liquid assets, is another lethal sign. An acquisition-minded company looks upon such assets as a potential homebuyer would look upon a property that had an attic full of gold coins.

In some instances, the takeover of such properties is amazingly easy. The potential buyer simply makes a tempting offer to shareholders in the company and finances the purchase with the company's funds.

Such a takeover is made easier if the company's shares are concentrated in relatively few hands, as are the shares of many companies today.

Unused debt capacity is roughly equivalent to having surplus liquid assets, since debt can be used as effectively as cash by an acquiring company that has set its sights on even greater growth.

While many American companies with a reputation for takeovers are stymied temporarily by their own depressed price-earnings ratios, European companies are stepping up their activities in the United States.

Cash-rich because of the enormous outflow of dollars during the past 20 years, they are able to step in with relatively lush offers to shareholders.

Because of their vulnerable condition, many American companies have embarked on a program of arousing the enthusiasm of individual investors, who largely have been absent from the market during the past two or three years.

HOME AT LAST... Kenneth and LaWanda Sandon

Area Warmth Draws Navy Duo

Kenneth and LaWanda Sandon feel they are home at last.

Ever since their happy first visit to Sanford they knew this would be the place where they finally settled.

Sandon has been with the Navy 31 years, and in that time they have known a multitude of places. They must have some special reason for returning to Sanford.

"We identify our lives with Sanford," said Mrs. Sandon. "No other town ever reached out and brought us into their warm circle the way Sanford did. Naturally we wanted to return."

Sandon explained they first came to the city in 1942. He was with the Navy heavy attack organization. Upon arrival both he and his family were struck with the warm reception they received. "The Sanford people accepted us immediately. This was the most receptive of all the stations we visited," he said.

Sandon's last tour of duty in Sanford as commanding officer of RVAH-11 ended in 1966.

His service in the Navy ended Sept. 1 this year when he retired from the Joint Strategic Target Planning staff in Omaha, Neb.

Immediately he and his wife made tracks back to Sanford. They plan to build a home here, probably in the Lake Mary area, where Sandon will be starting a new business venture on the sales staff of local broker and realtor Johnny Walker.

Mrs. Sandon hopes to look up her old bridge friends, and to take up golf again.

"Somehow, the place your children grew up in always feels like home," said Mrs. Sandon. Her four children all attended schools in Sanford last time they lived here.

Jolynda is now married to James Pearson, son of G. R. Pearson of Sanford, and is living in Burlington, N.C. Sherri is teaching school in Nebraska City, Neb. Kenneth followed in his father's footsteps and is with the Navy in San Diego, and Lance is studying at Florida State University.

New Construction Hits $10.3 Billion Record

SANFORD Mayor Lee P. Moore officiated at the opening ceremonies of the new Scotty's Home Builders Supply, Inc. Tuesday. Assisting in the ribbon cutting were (l to r) Garnett White, assistant manager Dick Layburn, Scott Burns, Janice Springfield, Jack Bennett, Irene Brown, Bill Sanders and manager Lyndon Warren. Scotty's will host a formal grand opening of its 45,600 square foot facility Friday and Saturday. Products handled include lumber and building material, plumbing and electrical supplies, carpeting, kitchen cabinets, appliances, lawn and garden products and home decorating material. Customer shopping in the air-conditioned showroom will be self-service.

NEW YORK, N.Y., October 2, 1973 - August contracts for new construction reached an all-time high of $10.3 billion, 17 per cent more than the same month last year, it was reported today by the F.W. Dodge Division of McGraw-Hill Information Systems Company. The firm, an authority on the construction market, produces Dodge Reports on construction activity, and Sweet's Catalog Files of construction product information.

The latest month's seasonally-adjusted Dodge Index was 205, up sharply from July's 177. Since April the Index, which uses 1967 as its 100 base, had been hovering at close to 180.

"The construction market scored a double breakthrough in August. For the first time in any month, the value of contracts for new work surpassed $10 billion and the Dodge Index exceeded the 200 level," said George A. Christie, vice president and chief economist for Dodge. "What pushed August's contracting through these barriers was the start of work on several long-delayed power plant projects, which added nearly a billion dollars to an already heavy flow of construction of all kinds."

Butressed by three large electric utility projects and a $100 million bridge contract, nonbuilding construction in August was up 63 per cent from last year, to $2,828,364,000. According to the Dodge economist, until recently the heavy construction market - consisting mainly of utility and public works projects - was the industry's weakest area. "Prior to the August surge, which lifted the year's cumulative gain to 18 per cent, contract value for non-building work had been only marginally ahead of 1972's value," said Christie. Nonresidential building was also up sharply in August, as the month's $3,241,200,000 topped the comparable 1972 value by 33 per cent. "August's contracting strength was right where you would expect to find it - in commercial and industrial building projects. These business-related construction categories showed a combined gain of better than 40 per cent in the latest month," the Dodge economist said.

Cherokee On The Scene

The new entry into the field is called the Cherokee and is essentially a two-door version of the Wagoneer. With the new model, American Motors is hoping to cash in on two points. First, that the four-door Wagoneer gives off an image of something less rugged than a 4WD vehicle is supposed to be, and second and probably most important, that the Cherokee will sell for not just a few dollars less than its big brother, the Jeep van that is probably the best on the market.

four-barrel carburetor for power. The 4WD market is one of the fastest growing in the automobile industry as a big part of the recreation-travel market. More and more Americans are seeking escape from the urban areas during their leisure time and are buying up the vehicles to take them away - and house them while they are there - in record numbers.

Available are Quadra-Trac full-time 4 WD, Turbo Hydramatic transmission, variable ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, air conditioning, AM-FM radio, forged aluminum styled wheels, roof luggage rack, tilt steering column and a deluxe interior and trim group. Bull Market Seen By Stock Analyst

Copley News Service

The stock market in recent weeks has been putting all the pieces together for a long-term bull market, John J. McCarthy, portfolio manager for Affiliated Fund, said in an interview.

"We are at that point where values abound," the man who guides investments totaling $1.7 billion said. "Someday, the investment public is going to suddenly wake up and realize that this was the time to buy."

McCarthy, also one of the six partners in the investment securities firm of Lord, Abnett & Co., smilingly added that

"one thing we are absolutely sure of is that the stock market today is not at its high point."

In addition to citing numerous economic factors he sees turning favorable, McCarthy also noted that such signs as corporate purchases of their own shares and the purchases by foreign firms of U.S. companies at premium prices also added to the bullish aura.

McCarthy said the first flow of money probably would be into the best quality issues, a factor he noted already has been developing.

"We appear to be in a period of transition," McCarthy said. "Emphasis is on quality and blue chips are coming back. I expect that persons in the period ahead will be less likely to pay high premiums for growth stocks. There will be a clean out of the last vestiges of speculation before true values lead the way upward for the market over the longer term."

At the end of the year, McCarthy said, we will find that major New York banks have been net liquidators of major growth stocks such as Polaroid and Xerox.

"And you'll probably find that the smaller banks have been buying in," the fund official added.

Portable Electric Oven Made By Farberware

By OPAL CRANDALL, Copley News Service

A portable electric oven which bakes, roasts and broils is operated by a new Turbo-Cooking system. Cool air is heated in one chamber, then circulated through the cooking area at high velocities where it strikes all surfaces of the food simultaneously. The compact unit uses a minimum of kitchen space, although the interior cavity will easily accommodate a 16-pound turkey or a full oven meal. The oven, according to the manufacturer, cuts conventional oven roasting times by about one-third. No preheating is necessary. Among consumer-saving features are a removable glass door for full visibility and easy cleaning, catalytic coating with "stay-clean" action and a four-hour timer programmed to shut off the oven while signaling that the food is ready.

Since hot turbulent air surrounds all surfaces of meat, there is no need for turning or browning. (Turbo-Oven bym Farberware)

Four smooth-top electric ranges, the cooking units indicated by decorative pattern, have over and under ovens. The units have infinite heat control.

The ovens feature continuous cleaning finish that cleans at regular baking temperatures. Other features include an automatic clock to control oven cooking operations, broilers in both ovens, and see-through windows.

DANFORTH K. Richardson is featured guest speaker at the Florida Citrus Showcase Annual Membership meeting Oct. 9th. Richardson a former President of the Indian River Citrus League, is a member of the Florida Dept. of Citrus from Dist. 5 Richardson is a long time citrus grower and owner of Gracewood Packing Company. MARINE CORPS PRESENTATION TO CHAMBER EXECUTIVE secretary of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce John Krider, and his secretary Mrs. Virginia Longwell were surprised Tuesday with tokens of appreciation presented by Marine Corps Maj. David Chilcote (l) and Marine Corps recruiting officer Bill Jervis (r). Chilcote thanked Krider for allowing the Marine Corps to use the Chamber facilities in lieu of a recruiting center, and said he appreciated Mrs. Longwell's secretarial assistance.

ComBank Adds Number Eight

ComBank-Central Bank and Trust Company, the eighth member of ComBank's Corporation, has been approved by the Florida Commissioner of Banking, President E.G. Banks announced recently. Capitalized at $1.5 million, the new ComBank is to be located in downtown Winter Park at the corner of New York Avenue and Morse Boulevard. Construction will begin immediately after approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. An application for approval of the acquisition of the new bank by ComBank Corporation will be submitted to the Federal Reserve Board. The bank expects to be open for business shortly after January 1, 1974.

Thomas Jefferson wrote in 1814, "I am mortified to be told that in America a question about the sale of a book can be carried before the civil magistrate... Are we to have a censor whose imprimatur shall say what books may be sold and what we may buy? ... Shall a layman, simple as ourselves, set up his reason as the rule for what we are to read? It is an insult to our citizens to question whether they are rational beings or not."

Institutions Dominate Stock Market Trading

Much is heard these days about institutions taking over stock market domination from the public. And rightly so. From 35 per cent of trading on the New York Stock Exchange in 1963 and 47 per cent in 1966, the institutions' share of Big Board trading has climbed to 70 per cent, excluding NYSE members' transactions.

Just who are these institutional investors, or traders? Judging from their stance of recent years, the latter may be closest to the proper name.

The leading institutional investor is Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, all of whose stock is owned by J.P. Morgan & Co.

Morgan Guaranty's investment portfolio excluding real estate holdings amounts to $27.2 million, based on latest available figures.

Rounding out the top 10 NYSE investment portfolios, according to a report from Leon T. (Lee) Kendall, president, Securities Industry Association, are the following, in order: Bankers Trust Co., Prudential Insurance Co., First National City Bank of New York, U.S. Trust Co. of New York, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., Mellon National Bank & Trust Co., Investors Diversified Services, Inc., and Chase Manhattan Bank.

Whenever a farmer needed a new barn years ago he simply sent word around to all his friends that on such a day he was having a raising bee. And everyone knew what that meant. In spite of the fact that there were few telephones, news did manage to travel fast and Farmer Brown could be sure that everyone for miles around knew what was going on.

And sure enough, about seven o'clock on that certain morning the buggies and surreys and light wagons began arriving at the Brown farm, bringing not only all the men of the neighborhood, but all the women and children as well. For this was an all-day, all-family celebration.

Most of the farmers and their wives had probably been up since about 4 o'clock that morning to get their own work done before starting out, but a barn raising didn't happen every day and nobody would have missed it for anything.

When everyone had arrived, Farmer Brown, followed by all the men and boys, led the way to the barnyard where were stacked big piles of lumber. The men gathered around while Farmer Brown explained what he wanted done, and when he had finished they laid hold of the heavy beams and stood them in place while the small boys, wild with excitement, raced around shouting, "Hoory! She's going up!"

... she certainly was. In an almost unbelievably short time the framework was in place and the siding and roof were being nailed on. Many hands make light work, and anyway, nobody really considered this work. It was a case of helping your neighbor and having a good time all rolled into one.

So it was no wonder that the barn seemed to grow almost like magic in spite of the many small boys who were everywhere, under the impression that they were helping and that the work couldn't very well proceed without them.

In the meantime, the women and girls had been busy in the house. Long tables had been set up in the yard the day before, and by noon they were fairly loaded with good things to eat, such as boiled ham, roast beef, boiled potatoes, baked beans, cabbage salad, doughnuts, cookies, custard pie, apple pie, pumpkin pie, chocolate cake, pound cake, and election cake, and maybe even a Lady Baltimore cake, besides huge pots of coffee and pitchers of milk.

At noon somebody rang the dinner bell which hung in the back yard. At the sound, all the men dropped their tools and started toward the house, stopping on the way to wash their faces and hands at the pump.

And how those men ate! Nobody stopped to count calories in those days. They ate because they were hungry. It took a lot of energy to build a barn, and the day wasn't over yet.

Firemen's Field Day Scheduled

Seminole County Fire Fighters will meet in competition Sunday, Oct. 14, at noon in the K Mart shopping center on I-405 with Fern Park Fire Department as host.

The fire fighters will be climbing ladders, drafting, shooting their hose at targets for trophies. It is done in the spirit of good sportsmanship and pride in their own companies.

The events all require skill and speed, except for the "cleanest truck award." Many long hours will go in to preparation for this competition.

Water pressure will vary - 500 lbs. in the "Indian tank race" to high pressure "ariel basketball."

The final and best race is an old-fashioned bucket brigade. Traditionally a chief is thrown in the tank.

The Field Day is sponsored by the South Seminole Jaycees. The public is invited and welcome.

Developer Of Altamonte Shopping Mall Trying To Gain NFL Franchise In Tampa

By CHRIS NELSON
 Herald Staff Writer

The developer of the Altamonte Mall in Altamonte Springs has been revealed as a leader in efforts to "steal" the Florida State National Football League franchise — and its estimated $25 million annual area income — for Tampa.

Although Sun's godfather Rommie Loudd has been hinting of late he may build a stadium in Altamonte Springs, Mall developer Edward J. DeBartolo has been linked with Tampa interests.

According to reports in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, DeBartolo and Nick Mileti, owner of hockey, baseball and basketball teams in that Ohio city, have emerged as arch rivals to Loudd's efforts — and to each other.

The Cleveland paper says Mileti and DeBartolo have been laying separate plans to gain the franchise. DeBartolo, in addition to his Altamonte Springs investments, is a Youngstown, Ohio, developer and race track owner.

"I intend to make a formal application within 30 days," DeBartolo told the newspaper. "We've already had discussions with some NFL officials but not Commissioner Pete Rozelle."

The "defection" of DeBartolo marks the second major connection of a Central Florida figure with Tampa interests.

Earlier it was revealed that Dario Icardi, attorney for the Orange County group attempting to expand the Tangerine Bowl for a NFL franchise, is connected with sports facilities adjacent to Tampa stadium.

Icardi has denied any conflict of interest in his dual capacity.

Meanwhile, Loudd has given Orlando "notice" he will tolerate no more foot-dragging on Tangerine Bowl expansion, and set a Christmas deadline for finding a stadium site and financing construction.

$6.5 Million Bond Issue To Be Kicked Off Monday

By DONNA ESTES
 Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County commissioners, acting on mandates from the circuit court, the state and federal governments will make its first move Monday toward calling a $6.5 million bond election in January or early February.

The board will review qualifications of six architectural firms to select one which will conduct feasibility studies on the proposed $3.5 million sheriff's security complex at Five Points, a $1.5 million third floor addition to the courthouse judicial wing, a $1 million courthouse annex in South Seminole and a $500,000 modern agricultural center and auditorium.

Commission Chairman Sid Vihlen said the South Seminole annex is "closest to the board's heart," but the judicial wing and the security complex are top priority.

"We are faced with an emergency circumstance with the judicial wing addition," Vihlen said. "The judiciary came to the board of county commissioners as far back as a year ago and said 'in no uncertain terms we very firmly demand that you provide additional space for courtrooms and clerical operators for the judiciary or the judges will go to court against the board.'"

"Recently, I was assigned to work with the judiciary to immediately find space either in the courthouse or downtown Sanford. Two weeks ago we had to assign our chambers on Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays for courtroom use. This illustrates how overloaded the court facility is."

"The judges have said if the bond issue does not pass, and the board of county commissioners do not act to provide additional courtroom space, they will take us to court asking that the board be forced to build the $1.5 million addition out of ad valorem taxes," Vihlen said.

Vihlen said a millage raise of 2.25 would be necessary to fund the judiciary addition in one year. This is an impossibility, Vihlen said, since the county now at 7.93 mills cannot, under state law, tax above 10 mills, without approval from the voters.

"The need for the new security complex has been emphasized in recent weeks, Vihlen said, when occupancy at the Seminole County jail ran over 100 per cent, according to state and federal guidelines.

"The jail is completely out of (Cont'd On Pg. 2A Col. 1)

$89.5 Million Due School Building

Rep. Vince Fechtel (R-Leesburg) of the Seminole Legislative delegation has been named to the Florida House Select committee monitoring the spending of $89.5 million for new school classroom construction throughout the state.

Seminole County has been allotted $1.3 million toward construction of seven schools planned within the next two years, including Sabal Point Elementary, Tuska Hill Middle School, Winter Springs Elementary, and Lake Howell High School, School Supt. W. P. (Bud) Lyster said.

Fechtel said the committee will be looking at whether counties are using movable classrooms to take care of fast growth.

Lyster said the county currently has about 50 portables located at overcrowded schools.

Fechtel said his biggest problems have been getting fellow legislators to recognize Seminole's fast growth problems and the willingness the citizens here have shown to "tax themselves additional moneys for new schools."

Lyster praised the efforts of the local legislative delegation in recognizing the school system's plight with continuing rapid growth. He also noted the

Nixon's Popularity Declines

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The latest Gallup Poll shows another decline in public approval of President Nixon's performance in office.

Of 1,505 American adults who were asked, "Do you approve or disapprove of the way Nixon is handling his job as President?" 32 per cent said they approved. They were surveyed Sept. 21-24.

The President had the approval of 35 per cent in a similar survey Sept. 7-10 and 38 per cent in a late August poll.

Nixon's popularity reached its lowest point, 31 per cent approval, while the Watergate hearings were being televised in early August. His highest popularity, 68 per cent, followed the Vietnam peace settlement early this year.

In the latest poll, 59 per cent disapproved of Nixon's performance, while 9 per cent expressed no opinion.

YOM KIPPUR (DAY OF ATONEMENT)

By John A. Spolski

OCTOBER 6, 1973
 HEBREW DATE: TISHRI 10, 5734

Inside the old walled city of Jerusalem is the site of the ruins of an ancient temple. A wall of that temple left standing is called the "Wailing Wall". During Yom Kippur (which begins the evening of the final day of the ten days of penitence) Jewish worshippers gather at this site of religious pilgrimages which have endured through the centuries. This scripture from The Living Bible is the authority for observance of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

"This is a permanent law: You must do no work on the tenth day of the seventh month (of the Hebrew calendar), but must spend the day in self-examination and humility. This applies whether you are born in the land or are a foreigner living among the people of Israel; for this is the day commemorating the atonement, cleansing you in the Lord's eyes from all of your sins. It is a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall spend the day in quiet humility; this is a permanent law. This ceremony, in later generations, shall be performed by the anointed High Priest, consecrated in place of his ancestor Aaron; he shall be the one to put on the holy linen garments, and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, the Tabernacle, the altar, the priests, and the people. This shall be an everlasting law for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel once each year, because of their sins." (Leviticus 16:29-34)

"Nine days after the Festival of Trumpets, all the people are to come together before the Lord, saddened by their sin; and they shall offer sacrifices by fire to the Lord. Don't do any work that day, for it is a special day for making atonement before the Lord your God. (Leviticus 23:26-28)

Another speedy demonstration from our friends at the Postal System. We mailed a check to one of our former employees in Geneva on August 15.

It was finally returned to us on Oct. 4, marked "moved, left no address."

Ah, well, when the rate goes up soon, who knows how long it'll have the pleasure of resting in the "dead letters" department.

Can you imagine? Almost two months to get to Geneva and back?

HIGH SCORE IN FIRST QUARTER FOR UNITED FUND

UNITED FUND president George Foster and Mrs. Foster (Right) and vice-president Jack Horner and Mrs. Horner were among the 50 United Fund volunteers who attended Thursday night's dinner meeting at the Cavalier restaurant. Seminole's United Fund donations total $16,802 at the end of the first week in the four-week campaign. Southern Bell reported $5,525 collected so far. Montgomery Ward $2,676, and the employees at Sanford's Zayre's have collected $616 to date. With three weeks to go, the United Fund has a good start towards its October 25 goal of $100,000.

School Boy Trial Is Delayed Month

By CHRIS NELSON
 Herald Staff Writer

An "embarrassed" Chief Seminole Circuit Court Judge Dominick Salvi Thursday granted a continuance to Nov. 4 in the first degree murder trial of 14-year-old Samuel Geter, canceling the scheduled Monday trial date because of an administrative foul-up.

The postponement motion by Geter's attorney, T. David Burns of Bartow, noted the arraignment judge gave the defense 15 days for filing pretrial motions, but set the trial for 14 days from the arraignment.

"I'm embarrassed because of your first paragraph," Salvi told Burns.

Turning to prosecutor Newman Brock, Salvi added, "I feel like I'm bound to give them (the defense) a continuance because we (the courts) messed up."

With the immediate pressure removed, Burns said Salvi would delay his motion for a dismissal of all charges until next week, when he would also press for the 14-year-old youngster's release on bond from Seminole County jail.

"If necessary," Burns later commented, "I'll personally accept custody of the child."

Geter has been in jail since the Sept. 5 incident in which 12-year-old William Oglesby died after an alleged fight and robbery near Sanford Middle School.

During Thursday's hearing in his courthouse chambers, Salvi issued an order formally relieving the public defender's office of further responsibility for Geter's defense, but stopped short of naming Burns as special public defender for the case.

Salvi indicated such a move, designed to secure for the state the $750 maximum legal fees in indigency cases might come next week after Burns files affidavits on Geter's financial capability.

Geter was declared indigent at his initial appearance before juvenile authorities, and represented by the public defender, but the decision by State Atty. Abbott Herring to prosecute him as an adult in circuit court voided the juvenile court's indigency findings.

Law Loophole Allows Unqualified Inspectors

By MARK WEINTZ
 Herald Staff Writer

Although Seminole County now has a population of 134,000, and qualifies for a state law requiring plumbing inspectors to have at least 10 years practical experience, the out-of-date 1970 census provides a loophole that exempts the county from the state's safety requirements.

It was reported earlier that Seminole was in violation of state law requiring counties with more than 90,000 population to hire qualified inspectors because two of the county's four men have no experience at all.

However, county commission staff, hunting for a way out of the dilemma, discovered that the law requires the 1970 census be used to let Seminole relieve the public defender's office of further responsibility for Geter's defense, but stopped short of naming Burns as special public defender for the case.
