

STORM SWEEPS THROUGH NORTH CENTRAL STATES TAKING TOLL OF LIVES

And Property as it Goes Today—Passed Over State of Ohio Today

FIFTY LIVES TAKEN

ILLINOIS, INDIANA AND OHIO SWEEP BY MOST DISASTROUS TORNADO OF YEARS

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 18.—Sweeping northeastward through the middle western states the storm which originated in the Rocky Mountain region Sunday had passed over Ohio today leaving death and much destruction in its wake. The loss of nearly fifty lives is attributed to the storm, which developed considerable energy as it passed over Illinois and Indiana, taking in many places the form of tornadoes. Damage to property will mount into the millions. Twenty-one persons are among the known dead in Indiana, the greatest death list being in Central Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Electric and wind storms raged across Indiana yesterday, leaving ruined farms and isolated villages in their wake.

Communication difficulties and washouts have caused delayed or suspended service on many railroads. Tornadoes were reported as having visited six Indiana towns yesterday. Hedrick and Sloan suffered worst according to early reports. Summitville, Gaston, Matthews and Wheeling, northeast of here also reported storms.

The property damage at Wheeling and Gaston is reported heavy although no lives are believed lost.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 18.—Two women were killed and an unidentified man probably was injured in a tornado which struck Newton county late yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Heavy rainfall accompanied by high winds resembling winter gales and considerable lightning continued last night to make flood conditions in Indiana grave. Fair weather prevailed for a few hours in many parts of the state yesterday but with night fall the storms resumed.

Families living in the lowlands, amply warned, are safe in most Indiana river bottoms. Cloud burst yesterday killed stock and blighted orchards and spring crops. Indiana farmers have been able to accomplish little spring planting.

Indianapolis was declared beyond danger last night by the weather bureau officials.

Leaves in all parts of the state were reported holding.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Twelve persons are known to have been killed, more than a hundred injured and thousands made homeless by tornadoes and floods which swept over the central west yesterday.

Tornadoes were reported in a score of Illinois, Indiana and Arkansas towns. Homes were demolished, wire service crippled and livestock killed.

Throughout the area from Ohio on the east to Kansas and Nebraska on the west, heavy downpours swelled flood waters of streams already out of their banks, and inundated thousands of acres of rich farm land in addition to the east tracts already under water.

While snow and sleet covered Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa were pelted with heavy hail storms which smashed windows and caused much damage to crops. Several inches of snow were reported from Denver.

PARIS, April 18.—Premier Poincaré assembled his cabinet today to consider the attitude to be taken by France in case Russia and Germany propose to maintain separate arrangements regarding restoration of Russia.

NONE OF OFFERS FOR SHOALS FOUND TO BE ENTIRELY ALL RIGHT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 18.—Members of the house military committee concluded yesterday their first exchange of individual opinions on the four private proposals for developing the government's projects at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, and adjourned until Wednesday. At that time it was announced by chairman Kahn the committee will begin boiling down the testimony heard during the investigation of the offers to reach the outstanding features of each proposal to be considered as a part of the reports to be drafted for the house.

Sentiment among the committee-men, it was said, had not yet reached the stage where any of the existing proposals had received preferential consideration.

While hopeful that the final endeavor of the committee to report "a constructive program for development of Muscle Shoals to the house" would receive the full approval of the twenty-one members on the committee, Chairman Kahn said he was unable to predict what the final decision would be or which of the existing offers now under consideration would be recommended in whole or in part.

Members who attended the executive committee sessions while the exchange of the opinions was in progress said today the indications were that important modifications in the existing offers probably would be insisted upon by the committee before it submitted a report to the house. None of the proposals, it was explained, was entirely acceptable to the committee, if the opinions already voiced by the members could be accepted as reflecting the attitude of the twenty-one members.

A strong insistence prevailed among the committeemen that the proposal of Henry Ford should be modified so as to eliminate the steam plant at Gorgas from the properties he proposes to purchase and lease, it was said. Another point in that offer not altogether satisfactory according to some members, was the 100 years lease period. A reduction to 50 years was preferred by several members.

STAR THEATRE BUILDING WILL BE TORN DOWN FOR NEW AMUSEMENT HOUSE

Manager Herndon Will Occupy Princess Theatre During Interim

Sanford is destined to have a new Star Theatre where the old Star Theatre stood for so many years and where it has outlived its usefulness. Manager O. F. Herndon has decided that it would not be profitable to even attempt to rebuild the old theatre and make the necessary repairs that would be required by the building inspector and he has made all arrangements to move his material and machines to the Princess Theatre and will probably move Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

The old Star Theatre is one of the ancient landmarks of this city and will be torn down immediately, the lumber in the building being for sale now and it is thought that within the next sixty days Manager Herndon will have the old building out of the way and the new building can be started.

This will be good news to the theatre-going public and means that Sanford is getting in the big city class with new theatres and new business blocks and new hotels and everything needed to make up a first class city.

Mr. Herndon is moving his picture machines and will try and give the patrons a show in the old building up to the time he leaves for the Princess Theatre. He is arranging new fans and new seats and many other improvements for the convenience of his patrons and will make them comfortable in the Princess until such time as he can have the new Star ready for them. The plans for the new building have been drawn and approved and will be given in the Herald in the next few days and all who have seen them pronounce the plans as being as near perfect as a theatre along modern lines can be made.

Florida East Coast Has New Fast Freight Making Improvements

Will Soon Build Parallel Line Okeechobee City to Palm Beach

(By The Associated Press) KEY WEST, April 18.—The Florida East Coast Railway already is having its hands full moving potatoes from the Hastings district and other vegetables from the territory further south, but the beginning of a new fast freight movement which will further tax the capacity of the line is underway. The first shipment of pineapples from Cuba has been forwarded here and hundreds of carloads are expected to move north within the near future. The Cuban pineapple movement through Key West this season is expected to amount to 1,500,000 crates.

The railroad within the last few days announced that it has placed an order with the American Locomotive Company for three switch engines and seven Pacific type engines for passenger and fast freight service, to be built at the Richmond plant of the company. It is understood the road also in the near future will begin construction of the line between Okeechobee City and West Palm Beach, a distance of seventy miles. This would give the Fingler System two routes north between West Palm Beach and New Smyrna and would greatly relieve traffic congestion.

Nullifies Brest-Litovsk Treaty and Re-establishes Full Diplomatic Relations

FRANCE IS SORE

AND OTHER NATIONS WILL GET THAT WAY WHEN DETAILS OF TREATY ARE KNOWN

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, April 18.—A Havas dispatch from Genoa says the Allies are drafting a note to the Germans and Russians notifying them it will be impossible for the Germans and Russians to continue participation in sessions of Russian Affairs Commission of conference if they persist in maintaining the Russo-German treaty.

GENOA, April 18.—Consternation caused by the German-Russian coup in concluding the treaty of Rapallo supplanting the Brest-Litovsk pact showed no signs of abating as the economic conference continued its deliberations today. People who predicted at the outset of the conference the result in great good or disaster to Europe were inclined today to take the view the conference was headed toward disaster which only the coolness of Lloyd George and other conference leaders could prevent.

GENOA, April 18.—The signing of a treaty between Germany and Russia which nullifies the Brest-Litovsk treaty and re-establishes full diplomatic relations between these two countries on a basis of equality has caused profound astonishment and resentment among the allied delegations. The ministers of the powers which convened the conference decided at a meeting held last night to have a committee of experts examine this treaty this morning, to determine whether it conflicts with the Cannes resolutions or the Treaty of Versailles.

Subsequently the convening powers will meet with Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugoslavia to ascertain the view of the lesser powers and deal with the report of the experts.

The British and French delegates declared last night that they considered the signature of the treaty a disloyal act. Apparently, it may imperil the conference.

It is stated that the signing of the treaty, which took place at Rapallo Sunday, was unknown to the allied leaders, when Lloyd George, Barthou, Schanzer and Theunys met yesterday afternoon to consider the reply which the Russians might make to the conditions imposed on that country, but as soon as the delegates learned of the treaty, their program was changed and the situation, which is considered extremely grave, fully discussed.

M. Barthou, head of the French delegation, is seeking further instructions from his government at Paris and declared that he would not sit beside Russians in semi-official meetings.

The actions of the Russians and Germans on first announcement, had an almost stunning effect on the allies. Premier Lloyd George said he knew these countries had been negotiating for months, but was not aware they had signed a treaty until late yesterday afternoon.

The situation is so critical that the most prominent delegates are reserving their opinions until after the experts examine the new document.

The treaty provides for renunciation of war expenses, damages and expenditures incurred through war prisoners, renunciation, also of all claims of German individuals or the state itself against the soviet republic. Resumption of consular and diplomatic relations is to take place immediately; commercial relations are to be regulated on the most favored nations principle and the rights of the nationals of both countries in the territory of the other are to be conserved.

The two governments will assist each other in their economic difficulties, and the German government declares itself ready to facilitate economic contracts between private enterprises in the two countries.

catchy, the tune is most entrancing and it will not be long ere the boys and girls will be humming the new song all over Florida and in many other states. MAN WHO LOST BIG SUM AT TAMPA A SUICIDE

The body of Captain John E. Doherty, who, it is said, dropped $40,000 to wiretappers either here or in Orlando a year ago, was found in the bay at Ashland, Wis., on Monday, according to word received here on Saturday.

The hands were tied in front of the body by a cord; and this circumstance led to the impaneling of a coroner's jury to decide whether the death was a suicide or a murder.

The Ashland papers said that he had been brooding for some time over the loss of his money here. His home was in Ashland.

During the stay here Captain Doherty, according to a friend, A. Guinand, of Marion street, stayed at 110 East Ross avenue. Captain Doherty did not return to Florida this year, but went to Seattle, Wash., instead. He was a sailor.—Tampa Times.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Well, we are having some nice dew these early mornings—not mountain dew, but just plain dew, that is falling on our crops and helping us to live while we wait for that rain that seems destined to never come. However, we have hopes, the moon changes tomorrow if the banks will keep open for a few days without any holidays and we are due for a rain some time this week. And then the nights are cool and delightful and no real citizen of Florida can complain even at the following report: 5:40 A. M. APRIL 17, 1922 Maximum 91 Minimum 66 Range 67 Barometer 30.17 Calm and cloudy.

THERE'S A REASON

Why is it, D. L. Thrasher's business continues to grow, and sales, the first three months of this year are bigger than during the same length of time in 1921? There's a Reason. He sells for cash only. Everybody knows they can buy cheaper for cash and the buying public is spending its money with the store that sells for cash only. Good reasoning, you will agree. If you have not been trading with him, he invites you to his store.

Nothing so fine as a day in April. Any day, it makes no difference. April first for instance.

Floods, tornadoes, cyclones, snow storms, earthquakes, everywhere but in Florida. How thankful we should be.

Thousands of children rolled Easter eggs on the White House lawn this year. We suppose you would call that rolling your own.

Man was arrested in Orlando for driving a car while he was asleep. Such an ordinance would be fine for other cities but in Orlando a man should be jailed for life for going to sleep at all.

Secretary Pearman of the Chamber of Commerce has written a song of Florida, but since his residence at Sanford he has written many songs of Sanford that were not set to music. Secretary Pearman is one of the best publicity agents in the state.

Did you read what the Wauchula bankers and the Sanford bankers and all the other bankers have been saying about buying fake bonds and stocks and gold mines and oil wells, etc? You say you read it? Well, then we suppose you will go right ahead and buy some of them instead of keeping your money at home and putting it in real estate that will pay you the biggest dividends that you can realize on any stock in the world.

Now we shall see what we shall see. Germany and Russia make another alliance even stronger than the Brest-Litovsk treaty when they threw down the world and made the unholy alliance. This is where the gauntlet is thrown down for good and the United States will either come out as a commercialized power or attempt to keep up the "safe for Democracy" idea. And meantime we had better raise the navy rate again today and keep raising it for it will be needed.

Now we are having a scandal in the bureau of engraving at Washington. Well, this is to be expected. Every pension department at some time or other goes thru the throes of a scandal and the U. S. Printing office being one of the biggest pension departments in the country is bound to have an investigation now and then. How do you think they could print post cards and envelopes cheaper than we can buy the raw materials and get by with it? And the tax payer pays the deficiency.

The Sanford band deserves all the support you can give it. You should support it with your money and you should give it your moral support upon every occasion. There are some things we could do without here in Sanford but the band is not one of them. It is true we did without a band for several years but the city had no life or pep when it had no band and never will have any unless our present fine organization is kept up to the high standard it has attained. Money spent for a good band is just so much publicity, so much enjoyment, so much enthusiasm that you would not enjoy without good music. A good band is the life of any city and every city in Florida is spending many thousands of dollars every winter to have a good band while all we ask of the people of Sanford is a few dollars to have a good band every day in the year and a home institution at that. Give the band your support. Help it.

STOCKS NOT AN INVESTMENT SAYS BABSON

Discussing the investment situation Roger W. Babson makes the following statement, "Dividend cuts have become an every day occurrence and promise to continue at their present rate for at least another year. Last month's payments on American industrial stocks, common and preferred, were $8,100,000 less than in November 1919 and $5,300,000 less than in November last year. This represents a loss of 23.7 per cent or nearly one fourth compared with 1919 and 16.6 per cent or one sixth less than last year.

There is nothing particularly alarming about such a development as it is but one of the characteristics of the period of the depression in every business circle.

"The trouble lies in the fact that the general investing public does not seem to have been aware of this fact. As I go about the country I am appalled by lists shown me—not only by the widow and untrained youth but by the man who is keen in his own business. Their lists of "investments" are generally over-loaded with stocks which at times pay dividends. They have counted on these as income and are very seriously embarrassed as a result of the cut in dividends. Their unfortunate position is due to their disregard of a very fundamental point.

"Stocks have an essential place in our financial structure. Without the commitment of some funds to the risks of production, transportation and merchandising—buying goods with the hope of selling for profit—business could not be done. The purchaser of common and preferred stocks is furnishing money for those purposes. His stock certificate establishes no obligation in his favor but simply certifies that he has a proportionate interest in the business. He is a partner in the broader sense of the word, and subjects himself to the risks of proprietorship and takes the profits when there are any. One should not enter into this position without realizing that he is speculating.

"Investment on the other hand is placing your money for a definite income. The man who buys bonds or notes is a landlord in the broad sense of the term. He has loaned money to the concern and has a mortgage on a part of its real property. He must be paid his return whether the business makes a profit or not and can foreclose and sell its assets to reimburse himself for his original investment if it is necessary to take such steps. His money is loaned for a definite period. It must be paid back as money at a fixed date and the agreed rental must be returned at stated periods in the meantime. The market value of good bonds rises in proportion as its income will buy more food and clothes, not as a particular line of business becomes more or less profitable. A steady and assured income of a pre-determined amount therefore takes the place of the uncertain profit or profits, due the stockholder.

"Too many persons who want an investment—who believe they have an investment—are holding on to common and preferred stocks from which income has ceased and which for the present may not even be a good gamble.

"Some lines of industry have been thoroughly liquidated both internally and market wise. Their stocks today should be bought—but bought as a speculation by those who realize that they are speculating. For the near future and for years to come the conservatively financed, efficiently operated business will show a profit and will pay a profit to their stockholders. Their next door neighbors, however, may be headed for the sheriff's sale or scrap heap, and dividend cuts will continue to be present.

Decide whether you want to invest for income or speculate for profit. For investment buy sound bonds—for speculation buy a broad list of stocks. If you are not following this basic principle for placing your money, set your house in order at once. You will make more by re-arranging your securities now than waiting for a chance "to get out whole."

The Babson chart reflects a very satisfactory seasonal rise in general business. Last week's point—17 per cent below normal—has been bettered by 5 per cent. General business today is 14 per cent below normal.

COME ON NEW SMYRNA!

About a year ago the editor of the Herald at an open air meeting in New Smyrna told the people over there that the bridge at Osteen ferry would be built. We could not tell them at that time how it would be built but we promised to have it built and we also stated that the people of New Smyrna should meet us half way and build a wider road and a better road to correspond with the new bridge and get all the travel to and from the East Coast to interior points. This they promised to do and now that our bridge is almost ready to be built we would like to hear something about the plans for a better road from New Smyrna to Osteen ferry and then we will be all set to transport thousands to Coronado Beach this summer. It will not take much work on this road to make it wider and put asphalt on the surface making it one of the best roads in the state.

Yesterday the DeLand News called attention of the people of DeLand to the fact that the Osteen bridge would soon take all the people via New Smyrna and said the county should purchase the Monroe bridge and make it free. The people of New Smyrna can see where the finger of destiny points. We have told them of their advantages for many years but they seem to sleep on and on while other communities not half as well situated take away their trade and travel. Coronado Beach is the finest beach on the east coast, Coronado has the best fishing, New Smyrna has some of the greatest natural beauty in the world. All that section needs is a good road to the St. Johns river, a free bridge across the river to the beach, better hotel facilities at the beach and then some advertising and the people will be falling over themselves getting to Coronado beach.

Come on, New Smyrna, we are betting on you! We have done our part. It is up to you to do yours!

LOYALLY SUPPORT YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

There are many people paying taxes who have no children who might ask: "What do I get out of the schools?"

But who wants to live in a city where there are no schools?

There are many people who never go to church who might ask: "What do I get out of the church?"

But who wants to live in a city where there are no churches?

There are many people who can afford to be a member of a civic body who might ask: "What do I get out of the Chamber of Commerce?"

But who wants to live in a city where there is no commercial organization?

You can no more measure the value of a Chamber of Commerce by a yard stick than you can measure the mental growth of a child, or the influence of a church, or the development of art.

It is a safe assertion that a half hour in the office of your Chamber of Commerce will tell you its value to the community and make you proud of your citizenship of your city and county.—Palatka Herald.

SEMINOLE KEEPS IN LINE

By the adoption of another bond issue, this time for $100,000, Seminole county has declared its intention of keeping up with the procession as regards better highways. With the rapid development of the vast area of celery and lettuce fields in the Sanford section there has come an insistent demand for more paved roads. And there is still another phase to the situation in Seminole. While not absolutely sure about it, The Telegram is under the impression that some of the older brick roads in that county were built when Seminole was a part of Orange county. In any event those sections put down on a sand foundation without cement grouting, have become very rough and uneven, resembling somewhat the Dixie Highway through St. Johns and Flagler counties. It is the purpose of the Seminole county authorities to resurface these worn-out highways, build a berm for the nine-foot roads and extend the highway system to those sections of the county not now served. When Seminole completes the rebuilding of the trunk line from Orange county line northward through Sanford to the Monroe bridge across the St. Johns river, it will be up to Volusia county to resurface that abominable eleven miles of rutty, "fluted" road that is the bane of all motorists traveling through that section of Florida. Another use to be made of the Seminole county funds is the erection of a substantial bridge across the St. Johns, to replace the old Osteen ferry, the missing link on the highway between Sanford and New Smyrna. The completion of this bridge during the present year will greatly stimulate travel between Sanford and the East Coast by way of New Smyrna.—Lakeland Telegram.

REAPPORTIONMENT

It is well for Florida voters to keep in mind that in the general election in November, an opportunity will be offered for voting on an amendment to the Florida constitution of the state. It is a matter of great importance and every voter should register and cast his ballot for this amendment.

The last legislature provided for this amendment to be submitted to the voters, and if it carries, the legislature of 1923 will be compelled to reapportion the state; should the legislature in regular session fail to do this then the bill requires the governor to call the legislators together in special session and hold them in continual session until such reapportionment is made. So, if the voters adopt this amendment, reapportionment must follow.

Florida has had sufficient law on this subject but it seems to have been a dead letter for lack of enforcement. A bill passed in 1895 provided for a reapportionment in 1897 and every ten years thereafter. But that law seems to have been wholly ignored and is a dead letter. The amendment now before the voters of Florida makes reapportionment obligatory. It is a measure that should carry.

Our present representation in the state legislature is so ridiculous that even the foes to reapportionment can offer nothing in defense of it. When a county like Duval with a 100,000 population has but a bare chance with perhaps 80,000 only breaks even with counties of 8,000 or 9,000 population, and other equally glaring inequalities in representation, should move even the most hesitant to action.

Somebody has been asleep at the switch or this injustice, so ridiculous as to really be comical would have been corrected before now. It is up to the voters now. It can only be accomplished by casting a vote in the November election.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

PEDESTRIAN TRAFFIC RULES.

Why shouldn't there be traffic rules for the pedestrian as well as the automobile driver?

If automobilists drove as carelessly as pedestrians walk, and with as little regard for other persons' rights, the jails would be full of them.

Where is the moving mass of pedestrians that makes a proper stream of traffic along the sidewalk? Sense requires that they, like the vehicles in the street, should keep to the right. Yet there are always flocks of pedestrians walking on the wrong side of the walk, stopping to talk right in the middle of the walk, weaving in and out regardless of common sense, and otherwise obstructing foot-traffic.

In so doing, the pedestrians only interfere with each other. In crossing the street, this citizen insists, they interfere with vehicle traffic in a way that they would consider intolerable if automobile drivers performed the same pranks. They cut across anywhere in the block, instead of at the crossings provided. They disregard traffic signals in a way that a motorist seldom dares. They compel the motorist to look out for their lives, instead of doing their own share of looking out. They nearly scare drivers to death by darting ahead of cars unexpectedly, and often, by getting in the way when they have no business there, they deprive automobiles of their turn at a crossing and slow down the whole stream of vehicle traffic.

This is a side of the everlasting feud that is not often heard. There is undoubtedly something in it. Pedestrians will never succeed in winning adequate recognition to their own rights until they are more regardful of the other fellow's.—St. Petersburg Times.

TARPON FISHERMEN ARE GETTING READY FOR BIG SEASON

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.—Tarpon fishermen here are oiling their reels, buying new lines and hooks and patching the old hickory shirts and khaki trousers preparatory to the summer campaign against the Silver Kings, for the vanguard of the invading army of fish has appeared in the passes to the Gulf. Several schools were seen at Pass-a-Grille early in the week while one was hooked at Egmont Tuesday. Several strays have been seen at different places during the last few weeks but apparently the schools now are preparing to show up in full force within the next few days.

Nothing so fine as a day in April.

Any day, it makes no difference. April 18th is no instance.

Floods, tornadoes, cyclones, snow storms, earthquakes, everywhere but in Florida. How thankful we should be.

Thousands of children rolled Easter eggs on the White House lawn this year. We suppose you would call that rolling your own.

Man was arrested in Orlando for driving a car while he was asleep. Such an ordinance would be fine for other cities but in Orlando a man should be jailed for life for going to sleep at all.

Secretary Pearman of the Chamber of Commerce has written a song of Florida, but since his residence at Sanford he has written many songs of Sanford that were not set to music. Secretary Pearman is one of the best publicity agents in the state.

Did you read what the Wauchulla bankers and the Sanford bankers and all the other bankers have been saying about buying fake bonds and stocks and gold mines and oil wells, etc? You say you read it? Well, then we suppose you will go right ahead and buy some of them instead of keeping your money at home and putting it in real estate that will pay you the biggest dividends that you can realize on any stock in the world.

Now we shall see what we shall see. Germany and Russia make another alliance even stronger than the Brest-Litovsk treaty when they threw down the world and made the unholy alliance. This is where the gauntlet is thrown down for good and the United States will either come out as a commercialized power or attempt to keep up the "safe for Democracy" idea. And meantime we had better raise the navy rate again today and keep raising it for it will be needed.

Now we are having a scandal in the bureau of engraving at Washington. Well, this is to be expected. Every pension department at some time or other goes thru the throes of a scandal and the U. S. Printing office being one of the biggest pension departments in the country is bound to have an investigation now and then. How do you think they could print post cards and envelopes cheaper than we can buy the raw materials and get by with it? And the tax payer pays the deficiency.

The Sanford band deserves all the support you can give it. You should support it with your money and you should give it your moral support upon every occasion. There are some things we could do without here in Sanford but the band is not one of them. It is true we did without a band for several years but the city had no life or pep when it had no band and never will have any unless our present fine organization is kept up to the high standard it has attained. Money spent for a good band is just so much publicity, so much enjoyment, so much enthusiasm that you would not enjoy without good music. A good band is the life of any city and every city in Florida is spending many thousands of dollars every winter to have a good band while all we ask of the people of Sanford is a few dollars to have a good band every day in the year and a home institution at that. Give the band your support. Help it.

STOCKS NOT AN INVESTMENT SAYS BABSON

Discussing the investment situation Roger W. Babson makes the following statement, "Dividend cuts have become an every day occurrence and promise to continue at their present rate for at least another year.

"Last month's payments on American industrial stocks, common and preferred, were $8,100,000 less than in November 1919 and $5,300,000 less than in November last year. This represents a loss of 23.7 per cent or nearly one fourth compared with 1919 and 16.6 per cent or one sixth less than last year.

"There is nothing particularly alarming about such a development as it is but one of the characteristics of the period of the depression in every business circle.

"The trouble lies in the fact that the general investing public does not seem to have been aware of this fact. As I go about the country I am appalled by lists shown me—not only by the widow and untrained youth but by the man who is keen in his own business. Their lists of "investments" are generally over-loaded with stocks which at times pay dividends. They have counted on these as income and are very seriously embarrassed as a result of the cut in dividends. Their unfortunate position is due to their disregard of a very fundamental point.

"Stocks have an essential place in our financial structure. Without the commitment of some funds to the risks of production, transportation and merchandising—buying goods with the hope of selling for profit—business could not be done. The purchaser of common and preferred stocks is furnishing money for those purposes. His stock certificate establishes no obligation in his favor but simply certifies that he has a proportionate interest in the business. He is a partner in the broader sense of the word, and subjects himself to the risks of proprietorship and takes the profits when there are any. One should not enter into this position without realizing that he is speculating.

"Investment on the other hand is placing your money for a definite income. The man who buys bonds or notes is a landlord in the broad sense of the term. He has loaned money to the concern and has a mortgage on a part of its real property. He must be paid his return whether the business makes a profit or not and can foreclose and sell its assets to reimburse himself for his original investment if it is necessary to take such steps. His money is loaned for a definite period. It must be paid back as money at a fixed date and the agreed rental must be returned at stated periods in the meantime. The market value of good bonds rises in proportion as its income will buy more food and clothes, not as a particular line of business becomes more or less profitable. A steady and assured income of a pre-determined amount therefore takes the place of the uncertain profit or profits, due the stockholder.

"Too many persons who want an investment—are holding on to common and preferred stocks from which income has ceased and which for the present may not even be a good gamble.

"Some lines of industry have been thoroughly liquidated both internally and market wise. Their stocks today should be bought—but bought as a speculation by those who realize that they are speculating. For the near future and for years to come the conservatively financed, efficiently operated business will show a profit and will pay a profit to their stockholders. Their next door neighbors, however, may be headed for the sheriff's sale or scrap heap, and dividend cuts will continue to be present.

Decide whether you want to invest for income or speculate for profit. For investment buy sound bonds—for speculation buy a broad list of stocks. If you are not following this basic principal for placing your money, set your house in order at once. You will make more by re-arranging your securities now than waiting for a chance "to get out whole."

The Babson chart reflects a very satisfactory seasonal rise in general business. Last week's point—17 per cent below normal—has been bettered by 3 per cent. General business today is 14 per cent below normal.

COME ON NEW SMYRNA

About a year ago the editor of the Herald at an open air meeting in New Smyrna told the people over there that the bridge at Osteen ferry would be built. We could not tell them at that time how it would be built but we promised to have it built and we also stated that the people of New Smyrna should meet us half way and build a wider road and a better road to correspond with the new bridge and get all the travel to and from the East Coast to interior points. This they promised to do and now that our bridge is almost ready to be built we would like to hear something about the plans for a better road from New Smyrna to Osteen ferry and then we will be all set to transport thousands to Coronado Beach this summer. It will not take much work on this road to make it wider and put asphalt on the surface making it one of the best roads in the state.

Yesterday the DeLand News called attention of the people of DeLand to the fact that the Osteen bridge would soon take all the people via New Smyrna and said the county should purchase the Monroe bridge and make it free. The people of New Smyrna can see where the finger of destiny points. We have told them of their advantages for many years but they seem to sleep on and on while other communities not half as well situated take away their trade and travel. Coronado Beach is the finest beach on the east coast, Coronado has the best fishing, New Smyrna has some of the greatest natural beauty in the world. All that section needs is a good road to the St. Johns river, a free bridge across the river to the beach, better hotel facilities at the beach and then some advertising and the people will be falling over themselves getting to Coronado beach.

Come on, New Smyrna, we are betting on you! We have done our part. It is up to you to do yours!

LOYALLY SUPPORT YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

There are many people paying taxes who have no children who might ask: "What do I get out of the schools?"

But who wants to live in a city where there are no schools?

There are many people who never go to church who might ask: "What do I get out of the church?"

But who wants to live in a city where there are no churches?

There are many people who can afford to be a member of a civic body who might ask: "What do I get out of the Chamber of Commerce?"

But who wants to live in a city where there is no commercial organization?

You can no more measure the value of a Chamber of Commerce by a yard stick than you can measure the mental growth of a child, or the influence of a church, or the development of art.

It is a safe assertion that a half hour in the office of your Chamber of Commerce will tell you its value to the community and make you proud of your citizenship of your city and county.—Palatka Herald.

SEMINOLE KEEPS IN LINE

By the adoption of another bond issue, this time for $100,000, Seminole county has declared its intention of keeping up with the procession as regards better highways. With the rapid development of the vast area of celery and lettuce fields in the Sanford section there has come an insistent demand for more paved roads. And there is still another phase to the situation in Seminole. While not absolutely sure about it, The Telegram is under the impression that some of the older brick roads in that county were built when Seminole was a part of Orange county. In any event those sections put down on a sand foundation without cement grouting, have become very rough and uneven, resembling somewhat the Dixie Highway through St. Johns and Flagler counties. It is the purpose of the Seminole county authorities to resurface these worn-out highways, build a berm for the nine-foot roads and extend the highway system to those sections of the county not now served. When Seminole completes the rebuilding of the trunk line from Orange county line northward through Sanford to the Monroe bridge across the St. Johns river, it will be up to Volusia county to resurface that abominable eleven miles of rutty, "fluted" road that is the bane of all motorists traveling through that section of Florida. Another use to be made of the Seminole county funds is the erection of a substantial bridge across the St. Johns, to replace the old Osteen ferry, the missing link on the highway between Sanford and New Smyrna. The completion of this bridge during the present year will greatly stimulate travel between Sanford and the East Coast by way of New Smyrna.—Lakeland Telegram.

REAPPORTIONMENT

It is well for Florida voters to keep in mind that in the general election in November, an opportunity will be offered for voting on an amendment to the Florida constitution of the state. It is a matter of great importance and every voter should register and cast his ballot for this amendment.

The last legislature provided for this amendment to be submitted to the voters, and if it carries, the legislature of 1923 will be compelled to reapportion the state; should the legislature in regular session fail to do this, then the bill requires the governor to call the legislators together in special session and hold them in continual session until such reapportionment is made. So, if the voters adopt this amendment, reapportionment must follow.

Florida has had sufficient law on this subject but it seems to have been a dead letter for lack of enforcement. A bill passed in 1895 provided for a reapportionment in 1897 and every ten years thereafter. But that law seems to have been wholly ignored and is a dead letter. The amendment now before the voters of Florida makes reapportionment obligatory. It is a measure that should carry.

Our present representation in the state legislature is so ridiculous that even the foes to reapportionment can offer nothing in defense of it. When a county like Duval with a 100,000 population has but a bare chance with perhaps 80,000 only breaks even with counties of 8,000 or 9,000 population, and other equally glaring inequalities in representation, should move even the most hesitant to action.

Somebody has been asleep at the switch or this injustice, so ridiculous as to really be comical would have been corrected before now. It is up to the voters now. It can only be accomplished by casting a vote in the November election.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

PEDESTRIAN TRAFFIC RULES.

Why shouldn't there be traffic rules for the pedestrian as well as the automobile driver?

If automobilists drove as carelessly as pedestrians walk, and with as little regard for other persons' rights, the jails would be full of them.

Where is the moving mass of pedestrians that makes a proper stream of traffic along the sidewalk? Sense requires that they, like the vehicles in the street, should keep to the right. Yet there are always flocks of pedestrians walking on the wrong side of the walk, stopping to talk right in the middle of the walk, weaving in and out regardless of common sense, and otherwise obstructing foot-traffic.

In so doing, the pedestrians only interfere with each other. In crossing the street, this citizen insists, they interfere with vehicle traffic in a way that they would consider intolerable if automobile drivers performed the same pranks. They cut across anywhere in the block, instead of at the crossings provided. They disregard traffic signals in a way that a motorist seldom dares. They compel the motorist to look out for their lives, instead of doing their own share of looking out. They nearly scare drivers to death by darting ahead of cars unexpectedly, and often, by getting in the way when they have no business there, they deprive automobiles of their turn at a crossing and slow down the whole stream of vehicle traffic.

This is a side of the everlasting feud that is not often heard. There is undoubtedly something in it. Pedestrians will never succeed in winning adequate recognition to their own rights until they are more respectful of the other fellow's.—St. Petersburg Times.

TARPON FISHERMEN ARE GETTING READY FOR BIG SEASON

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.—Tarpon fishermen here are oiling their reels, buying new lines and hooks and patching the old hickory shirts and khaki trousers preparatory to the summer campaign against the Silver Kings, for the vanguard of the invading army of fish has appeared in the passes to the Gulf.

Several schools were seen at Pass-a-Grille early in the week while one was hooked at Egmont Tuesday. Several strays have been seen at different places during the last few weeks but apparently the schools now are preparing to show up in full force within the next few days.

(Special Correspondent's Report) LAKELAND, Fla., April 18.—Laying of the cornerstone for Southern College, buildings for which are now being erected, have been indefinitely postponed from April 25, the building committee of the college has announced, because of the inability of Bishop Calder and other prominent Methodist churchmen to be present at that time.

A date for the ceremony will be decided upon, it was stated, following the general conference of Methodist church at Hot Springs, Ark.

McLAUGHLIN TALKS ON ADVERTISING

Norfolk, Va., April 13, 1922. R. J. Holly, Editor, The Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Holly: I am taking the liberty to call your attention to an editorial, on page No. 12 of the Country Gentleman, April 8th, 1922, which is in memory of Mr. G. Harold Powell, who recently died in Pasadena, Cal. I did not know him personally but came in contact from time to time with quite a good deal of his work, and he is very well known by his accomplishments. What he has done is of great interest to me because most of my work is along similar lines, and particularly for the advancement of Florida.

All of Mr. Powell's work and this editorial on his death emphasizes the importance of selling rather than complaining, and it emphasizes particularly the importance of selling in volume, a practice common to all department stores.

It is very much better for us to sell all of our products at a reasonable profit, rather than try to sell a small portion of what we produce at a large profit, and let the other part of the crop remain unmarketed. If the volume is moved it will give employment to everybody familiar with any branch of industry—it not only helps the producer of some special commodity, but it helps all the individuals and business men in the state. The way to move the volume is by advertising, because that is the only way you can bring goods to the attention of the public. The producers of California advertise nearly everything that is produced in the state, whether they have considerable competition or whether they have none at all. Some people think I have no doubt, it would be foolish to advertise watermelons if they were advertised, who do not eat them now. Take celery and lettuce as an example—you do not see that advertised any place—it is put on the market and bought by people who happen to think about it. Celery certainly isn't a necessity, and anything that isn't actually necessary will find a wider market if properly placed before the people.

The California people, as far as I have been able to learn, disregarded sentiment entirely and looked at advertising as a plain business proposition. Recently I asked a Florida enterprise why the Curtis publications were not used last season, and the reply was that there were too many restrictions placed around the advertising contracts by the Philadelphia office. I have not been able to understand what restrictions could have been referred to, because the California people were using the Ladies' Home Journal, and I am reasonably sure the Curtis people would not make any special arrangements with any advertiser. I have no reason for mentioning the Curtis publications to you other than the interest I feel for my home state. Even though I do not spend any money for the advertising that goes out of Florida, there is no good reason why I should not be interested in it.

While I was in the southern part of the state in March, I mentioned this matter to a prominent business man south of Tampa, and he replied the Curtis publications are not fair. They may not be fair from some people's point of view, but it is good business to keep away from the greatest number of eating people because you don't like some fellow's paper or his disposition? Yours very truly, C. O. McLAUGHLIN.

EASTER BALL

The First Annual Ball given last evening at the Parish House by the members of the St. Agnes Guild was a splendid success from every standpoint.

The Parish House never looked lovelier than on this occasion with its decorations of Spanish moss, Japanese lanterns, bamboo, palm, vines and cut flowers, with soft shaded lights. From either end of the room was suspended green and white parasols, from which the favors were dropped late in the evening.

The dance opened with a grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Botts. During the intermissions several vaudeville stunts were introduced. The first number being an athletic dance by Janie Lou Brown, who received encore after encore. Janie Lou is a wonderful little dancer and as graceful as a little elf. Robert Herndon, Sanford's own comedian, was at his prime last evening, and took down the house, when he entered dressed as a "wop" with his hand organ and monkey. To say that he was great, is insufficient. Bob out did himself last night.

The music was exceptionally good, the Guild being fortunate in securing the Warren-Wright Orchestra of Orlando, these boys need no introduction, as they are one of the most popular orchestras in the state.

Punch was served throughout the evening by a number of the Guild girls, and at eleven o'clock, a salad course and coffee was served.

ORLANDO MAN SHOT FROM AMBUSH NEAR HAINES CITY

Clyde McKenney, a well known Orlando business man and member of the firm of Flower-McKinney, was shot in the head and shoulders Saturday night, by an unknown assailant. His injuries were painful but not serious.

Mr. McKenney, accompanied by his brother, E. R. McKenney, and Miss Thelma Hammond, was driving to Tampa to inspect his orange grove in Hillsborough county. It was just growing dark and the party were about four miles below Haines City when Mr. McKenney heard the report of a shot and felt a sharp pain in the back of his head. He was not armed and drove down the road nearly half a mile before stopping the automobile. Blood was flowing freely from the wound in his head and several of the shot had entered the flesh near the shoulders.

In spite of his injuries, Mr. McKenney insisted on driving into Lakeland where his wounds were dressed by a physician and he was able to continue the trip to Tampa.

The shooting is a mystery to Mr. McKenney, who said yesterday that he knew of no one in the vicinity of Haines City who would care to end his existence. He expressed the belief that the man had been waiting for somebody else whom he expected along the road and had mistaken the identity of his intended victim. Another theory advanced is that the assailant may have been intoxicated. Several of the shot penetrated the top of the automobile, others scratching the paint on the side of the machine. Neither Miss Hammond nor E. R. McKenney were struck.—Orlando Sentinel.
