Strokes Cause One Of Every 10 Deaths

Call it stroke, apoplexy or cerebrovascular accident. By any name, it causes one of every 10 deaths in the U.S., taking approximately 200,000 lives each year. Stroke is the third leading cause of death in the U.S., outranked only by heart attacks (500,000 deaths annually) and cancer (about 275,000). These facts are on the negative side of the ledger.

But there is also a positive side of the stroke ledger, one that grows brighter all the time. Florida Heart Association points out that from 1950 to 1960, the death rate from stroke declined by 22 per cent among men aged 45-64.

We have reason to be optimistic. As one scientist noted, in each year of the past decade, research has uncovered and developed major aids to the treatment and prevention of stroke.

There are several causes of stroke. As in heart attack, the underlying process which sets the stage for a stroke is atherosclerosis, the condition in which arteries are clogged or narrowed by fatty deposits. In heart attack, the clogging blocks the flow of blood to a part of the heart muscle. In stroke, the artery clogging impedes blood flow to the brain.

Although the brain is only about two per cent of the body weight, it receives 20 per cent of the heart's total output of blood. When a part of the brain is deprived of oxygen-laden blood, its nerve cells cannot function. Depending on which cells are knocked out, we may not be able to remember a telephone number or tie our shoes — because the brain calls the signals that make our minds and bodies work.

Like heart attacks, not all strokes are fatal. Proof: An estimated 2,000,000 Americans now living have survived a stroke — and many are back at work.

Strokes vary widely in pattern and severity. Some strokes are so mild, they literally go unnoticed. Others, more severe, and affecting extensive areas of the brain, can cause paralysis.

While prevention of stroke is the ideal goal, there is a good deal the doctor can do for the patient who has had a stroke. Soon — almost immediately — after the stroke, the doctor may suggest passive exercise and massage to prevent or minimize muscle wasting. In this, the patient's family can be extremely helpful; indeed, the family's wholehearted cooperation with the doctor plays a vital role in the patient's recovery. When rehabilitation is begun promptly and carried out faithfully, even severely paralyzed patients can make remarkable progress in regaining functions impaired by a stroke.

Physiology is the science which deals with the functions of living organisms.

Doctor and family may call on other resources in the community to help in the patient's rehabilitation. Your Florida Heart Association can be helpful in finding and suggesting resources for specific cases.

With recent research developments, stroke is no longer hopeless. And we can expect that continued research will uncover more ways to help even larger numbers of stroke patients, both present and future.

Gargantuan Ego Halts Contest

NEW YORK (UPI) — A tug-of-war scheduled tonight at the World's Fair between 10 men and a gorilla had to be postponed for two weeks because of the gargantuan ego of the New York male.

The press agent for John Ringling North's continental circus who dreamed up the test of strength between the 750-pound animal and 10 men didn't expect a wide response to his call for volunteers. But his aides are far from finished processing the more than 1,000 applications received from such egocentrics as the man who boasted, "I can lick anybody in Canarsie."

Goldwater Defoliates GOP, Scranton Charges

CHICAGO (UPI) — Gov. William W. Scranton said today Sen. Barry Goldwater has disqualified himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for president with a statement attributed to him that as of now he could not beat President Johnson.

Scranton, reading a prepared statement, quoted the question and answer published Tuesday in the Der Spiegel in an overseas newspaper. "It seems to me he has clearly now disqualified himself as a candidate for the president (a) nomination," Scranton said.

North Orlando Moves To End Water Contract

Legal steps to break the existing water franchise with the North Orlando Company were taken Tuesday night by the village council.

Considered by council to be an "improper franchise," the move to seek legal recourse was made by Councilman Arthur Ferrin and seconded by Arthur Rhodes.

The village receives no utility tax monies from the company and, Johnson said, there is a standing question as to "who owes whom" since the present agreement calls for the village to pay the company a fee of $40 per year for each of the 22 fire hydrants located within the municipal limits.

It was pointed out that when the first fully elected council took over in 1963 the village books were in the red some $10,000 while no operations are in the black with an approximate annual income of $8,600 with expenses of $2,732 per year.

Major Irene Van Epouel, speaking on the financial report by Ferrin, pointed out that although the village has more than received its share of land publicity, council has been progressive and there have been a number of accomplishments which can be publicly favored.

Cuba Opens Deal For 2 Tankers

LONDON (UPI)—Cuba has opened negotiations with the Yaroway Shipyards Ltd., in Glasgow for construction of two tankers to transport sulphuric acid, a company spokesman said Tuesday.

ed Tuesday in the Der Spiegel in an overseas newspaper. "It seems to me he has clearly now disqualified himself as a candidate for the president (a) nomination," Scranton said.

Scranton said polls have shown that Goldwater is without popular appeal even to Republicans. "And now we have the senator himself agreeing," Scranton said.

Then Scranton said: "We must ask ourselves what events the senator is looking forward to. Tragically there can be but one explanation — he or those close to him hope to gain by racial unrest."

Clearly the responsibility of all Republicans who want to work and win in November is to join with me in my all-out campaign for victory," Scranton said.

Permits For 6 Months Top $5.2 Million

Further evidence of the growth and development of Seminole and its six municipalities was indicated today when a countywide survey revealed that during the first six months of this year 950 building permits were issued totaling more than $5.2 million.

Seminole County itself set the pace by issuing 603 permits for $3,302,000, according to zoning director Robert Brown.

Among the municipalities, Sanford led the way with 297 permits for construction valued at $910,308. Next in line was Altamonte Springs. Town officials said that from Jan. 1 through June 30 60 permits totaled $510,000.

Longwood reported 20 building permits for $216,400 while Casselberry authorities said that 60 permits were issued for $297,000. Oviedo reported 13 permits totaling $62,125 while North Orlando had one permit for $2,000.

Brown said that as far as the county zoning office was concerned it was evident that "We are getting much costlier homes." He pointed out that a great number of permits had been issued during the first six months of this year for homes in the $25,000 to $30,000 class.

"Many of these," he declared, "are in the Sandalwood, Idylwild and Loch Arbor area, some in Greenbrier, and others near Paola on west SR 46."

The county zoning director said that most of these homes are four-bedroom structures and "very well" located. "All together," he added, "there is a definite resurgence of activity throughout the county."

He said that occupancy of FHA repossessed houses is increasing at an encouraging rate.

Brown indicated that he looked for a continued upsurge in the construction of new homes and commercial buildings, particularly when I-4 is completed to Orlando.

Committeeman Hopes To Give Scranton 12 Florida Votes

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI)—The outgoing Florida National Committeeman, Anthony Battaglia, was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco today and push for "at least 12" Florida votes for the nomination of Gov. William Scranton as GOP presidential candidate.

Battaglia said that while he was at the site of the National Republican Convention he would act as liaison between the southeastern states and the Scranton forces.

Only two of Florida's 31 delegates are committed, both to Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater. The others were elected as an unpledged slate but 16 of the delegates have said they plan to vote for Goldwater and several of the others indicated they "lean" toward his nomination.

But Battaglia, a strong supporter of former Vice President Richard Nixon, said "I feel confident we will have, when the vote is counted, a good representation. And by good representation I mean more than 10 to 12 votes."

"I anticipate a minimum of 12 votes," he said that if the South gives Scranton 20 or 30 votes "we will have accomplished our part of the job." Battaglia did not seek reelection as national committeeman and his post was won during the May election by U. S. Rep. William C. Cramer of St. Petersburg.

South Seminole Sets Second Talent Show

By Jane Casselberry
The Talent Show held last Friday at South Seminole Elementary School in Casselberry as part of the summer recreation program was such a success that another one is planned for this week to give more youngsters a chance to participate. A Hobby Show also will be held this Friday as another special event of the program.

Talent winners last week were Kathy Bradley who did a ballet dance and Ray Ayala who pantomimed to a record.

A variety of other entertainment was presented by boys and girls of all ages. Some of the acts included accordion solos, story reading, acrobatics, skits, the twist, and a telephone solo.

20 Arrested

LAKELAND (UPI)—Twenty more white youths were arrested here Monday night as racial tension mounted over heckling between roaming white and Negro gangs.

North Orlando Civic Group To Recess Until October

By Doris Dean
North Orlando Civic Association members, meeting Monday night in the Civic Building, voted to recess for the summer months with the first meeting for the next season to be held in October. Special meetings will be called if necessary.

It was agreed that the building's fire extinguisher be refilled after each use by authorized officials without the matter having to come before a vote of the membership each time and also that the extinguisher would be used at any time needed to aid lo-

North Orlando Elections Set Aside

Elections scheduled in North Orlando Monday on proposed changes in the village charter, as recommended by the five-member elected charter board, were "set aside" Tuesday night by the village council on grounds that legal "notice of election" was not published in the newspaper within time limits set by law and that proper public notice within the village was not posted as called for in the village election ordinance.

Orville Johnson, village attorney who also serves as advisory counsel for the charter board, okayed the move, reporting that "first publication of the notice in The Sanford Herald came on June 19 while state statutes require that an election notice be published once a week for four consecutive weeks with first publication coming not less than 25 days prior to the election. Monday, the election day, would be the 25th day. The attorney, receiving sharp criticism from the audience for "failure to provide the charter board with adequate legal advice" read from a copied form letter, which he stated also had been given to the board chairman, paragraph 4 containing step by step procedures for advertising and public posting of notices pertaining to the election.

Further action, if any, on changing the charter, according to Johnson, rests now upon 1965 legislative action which could come through petition of the Seminole County delegation presented upon recommendation of the village council or upon election and action of another charter board which could not take place until 1966.

Reports were given advising that a reverse cycle fan had been donated and would be installed in the building and that plumbing repairs had been completed and facilities are now in working order.

Plans were made to mail the Newsletter, community newsletter sponsored by the association, to residents of the Ranches Area and to distribute to all residents of the village an area directory of civic organizations, schools and churches, listing meeting places and dates, locations and other pertinent information. Copies of the directory will be kept available at the North Orlando Company offices and in Heimly's Realty Office for the convenience of newcomers. Mrs. Mary Rowell is in charge of this project.

Announcement was made that drapes, which have been donated, will be installed in time for the October meeting. Two new members, Mrs. Jeannette Salter and Mrs. Ann Panning, were welcomed. In closing the meeting, Chuck Rowell, president, urged all members to encourage neighbors and friends to exercise their voting privilege in the July 13 elections on proposed changes to the village charter.

'Juvenile Delinquency' Not In Dictionary For 4-H

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
 What was it like attending a 4-H Camp as an adult? First let me say that the words "Juvenile Delinquency" would not even be in the dictionary if everything could be done like this nationwide group is doing. It's an actual waste of time of putting letters together to even form the words. Why? I can certainly tell you:

On arriving at Camp McQuarrie Monday morning with 63 Seminole County 4-H boys and girls, five leaders and two county agents, we were joined by Volusia County 4-H boys and girls, their agents and leaders. After being assigned to our cabins and making our beds we were quickly making friends with our neighboring county group and the camp personnel.

By this time it was noon and we were ready for our lunch period. I was assigned to the dining room to help our Seminole County Assistant Agent Ernest Lundberg. At each meal members from one of the cabins were to assist me. It was their duty to help serve and clean up afterwards and this was done in a very excellent and polite manner by the campers. It was a pleasure to work with them. In this way I got to meet every one of the boys and girls and from them I could see that they have wonderful parents.

At our first camp council meeting, Susan Dunn of the Lake Monroe Handy Helpers Club was chosen council president. She presided at the council meetings and at assemblies which were held twice daily. Cindy Boyles of Longwood was chosen song leader to assist the camp recreation leader, Micky Summers. Cathy Cammack of Geneva was editor of the daily camp paper. She and her staff did a wonderful job. They called the paper "Camper Snoop". I was their advisor. So here was another group of wonderful future leaders.

The theme this year was "Civil Defense." There were three classes daily on "Survival," "Swimming" and "Wildlife." Each day these classes became just a little more interesting to attend. In survival class the campers made stoves out of tuna cans and gallon size cans. Each morning four cabins would rise at 5:30 and go on a two mile hike, taking their stoves with them and preparing their breakfast of bacon, eggs, bread, bananas and milk. Although some came back into camp staggering, tired and with a few blisters, they agreed it was a wonderful hike.

Every morning at 7 o'clock each cabin group lined up around the flagpole to watch the National Flag and 4-H Flags raised and at 7 p. m. they were there again to see them lowered.

During assembly, songs were sung and each county had charge of a program and devotional period. Each evening after supper we assembled again and had recreation consisting of singing and square dancing. To close our day we held a vesper service and then to bed.

The campers had a special time for swimming, boating and fishing. When they caught fish, they were brought to Mrs. Eby, Volusia HD Agent and she smoked them in a special stove.

The survival class was under the leadership of Miss Myrtle Wilson, Seminole County HD Agent. She was assisted by Mrs. Vallie Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Betha, Mrs. H. L. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. James Dingman, both Seminole County leaders.

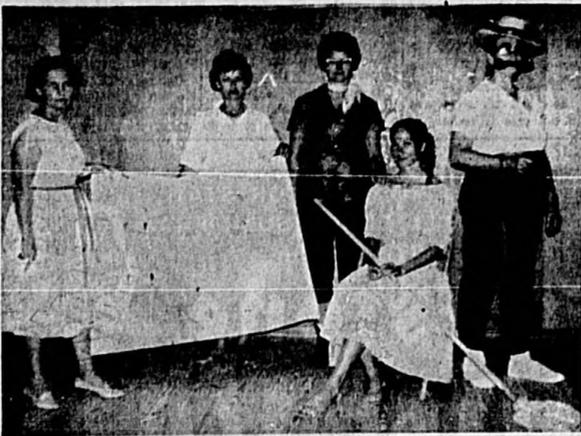

Wildlife was led by the Volusia Assistant County Agent Larry Ledsholtz. His helper was Mrs. Ruth Pettis, Volusia leader.

Swimming was under the supervision of Miss Joan Stewart, assistant HD agent of Volusia. She was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Betha, Seminole leader. Swimming was taught by the camp lifeguard, Allen Boyd.

All leaders assisted in activity classes.

Wednesday evening was skit night at assembly. Each cabin prepared its own skit and the imagination used was something to see. Even the leaders, Pettis, Betha, Wilson, Dingman and I got up courage to do a skit on the song "No, No, A Thousand Times No."

Thursday evening was the most solemn of all. This was time for the candlelight ceremony and Miss Wilson had prepared a wonderful program for the service. The ceremony started in the assembly hall

Parents Urged To Get Child's Records Now

JACKSONVILLE — The State Board of Health today urged parents who have children starting school this fall to obtain certified copies of the birth certificates immediately.

At the same time, Everett H. Williams, Jr., director of the board's Bureau of Vital Statistics, cautioned that hospital birth certificates are not accepted by schools. Official birth certificates are issued by the Bureau of Vital Statistics and some county health departments. Williams also advised against waiting too long to obtain a birth certificate. He said "Although we are processing about 600 birth certifications a day right now, we can give fast service. Later, during our last minute rush by parents, service will be slower. A child can miss an entire year of school unless a birth certificate is obtained in time."

Application forms may be obtained from a county health department but a letter will be adequate if it contains all the essential information. Application must include the full name of the child; the full name of the father; full maiden name of the mother; the day, month, year, city and county of birth; whether the child is male or female; and the child's race. The original birth certificate number should be included if possible.

If the child was born in another state, the certificate must be obtained from the state.

A full photocopy or a wallet-sized birth registration card encased in plastic may be obtained from the bureau. The type wanted should be specified. A fee of one dollar for each copy or card must accompany the application.

The board also suggested that before starting the first grade, the child have a physical examination and all the basic inoculations against whooping cough, polio, smallpox, typhoid, diphtheria and tetanus (lockjaw).

and then, led by the Junior Leader marching out singing "Follow the Glean," the group formed a four leaf clover around the flag pole, with each one carrying a lighted candle. After forming the 4-11, they marched down to the waters edge where the leaders were waiting and took each candle and placed it on a raft. As the raft, glowing from the lighted candle, drifted out, the group stood in silence and just as the raft sank, they softly sang "Taps," led by the Junior Leaders. How inspiring and so beautiful is this ritual service.

Friday morning after assembly saw the campers packing their bags, cleaning their cabins and preparing to return home. Seminole Campers winning awards this year were Cathy Cammack, outstanding Junior Leader and Cindy Boyles, best camper of the girls.

Seminole agents attending were Miss Wilson and Ernest Lundberg, assistant county agent. Leaders attending were Mrs. Vallie Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Betha, Mrs. H. L. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. James Dingman. Mr. Dingman assisted in seeing that the dining room was left clean.

Junior Leaders from Seminole were Cathy Cammack, Carmen Adriatico, Sandy Miller, Elinor Hein, Bill Hein, George Bradshaw, David Mohn and Steve Lucas.

Now, to sum it up. Being with these 152 4-H boys and girls for five days, I had the chance to see what working together, learning together and teaching together can do to the youth of America. These are certainly our adults of tomorrow. They have used their time to learn important cleaner and richer American way of living.

Now don't you agree that those words, "Juvenile delinquency," are not needed here, even to be printed, spoken or allowed to happen? The county agents and instructors are to be very highly commended for what they have accomplished in past and present times and most certainly, the future, towards making the BEST BETTER through the use of the 4-H's HEAD, HEART, HANDS and HEALTH.

About Sports Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Stenstrom
A tip of the hat to the Little National League all stars on their holiday victory over the Little American loop's all league selections.

Rain played havoc with the closing games on the Seminole Little League schedule. Sunland was named the winner actually before the state of games was completed. Undoubtedly there must have been some disappointment on the part of some of the boys on other teams but loop officials had no other choice. Sunland went on to the regional playoff but lost to Northgate of Orlando.

We'd still like to see a contest played between the Sanford Little League and the Seminole Little League all stars. It would be a good ball game and should generate considerable interest.

Roge Harris and his Seminole High Booster Club cohorts are getting down to business planning the organization's activities for the forthcoming school year. This outfit was so busy last year they hardly had a chance to enjoy the various sports activities they were supporting.

It's going to be the same way for some of the Boosters again this season — but mainly because that's the way they want it. You'd be surprised how many of these people go all out to back the youngsters at BHS. But in many areas of activity Roge's plans call for a lessening of duties.

There's one way all of us in the Sanford area can get behind the Seminoles in all of these sports. That's to support the Boosters with your one buck membership. Chances are that if you're a local sports fan you're going to be contacted and asked to become a member. And, friend, that's the least you can do — back the Boosters so they can support the Seminoles.

Quite a few people, as we've already said, are going all out to make this a successful year. It's going to be rough, in many respects, since it will mark the first year that Seminole High will be a member of the Metro Conference — seven Orlando schools and Seminole — in all sports. This fall the local riders will meet only three of the schools they played on last season's football schedule — Titusville, DeLand and Colonial. The other seven will be Metro schools plus Lyman of Longwood.

If Seminole can hold their own with the Metro schools and go into the Lyman contest with a respectable record — and there's no reason right now to believe they can't — it looks from here like the Seminole-Lyman affair will have to be played somewhere else besides Lyman. We don't believe the crowd — particularly if the Greyhounds come up with a winning eleven — can be accommodated at the Longwood park. But that's a bridge that BHS and LHS officials can cross when they get to it.

And how about that Johnny Callison! The Nationals weren't to be denied in Tuesday's major league all star contest. And, of course, that Willie Mays was right in the middle of it. There's no doubt but that the National is the loop on the go. Remember a few years back when the Americans whipped the Nationals year in and year out. Those days are gone but probably not forever. But next year's battle should be a dilly. Both leagues now have won 17 games apiece. The Nationals have won 18 of the last 19.

Phil's Callison Is National Loop's Man-Of-The-Hour

Homer In Ninth Spells Doom For American Nine

By Milton Richman
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK — Man-of-the-hour Johnny Callison feels this may be Philadelphia's year but regardless, the rest of the National League All-Stars were convinced today this is their year.

Down 13 games to four at one stage of the 31-year-old All-Star competition, the National League squared the series at 17 games apiece Tuesday by beating the American League 7-4 before 50,850 at Shea Stadium.

Coming up with two out, two men on and the score tied 4-4 in the ninth inning, Callison ripped into an inside fast ball served up by Boston's ace reliever, Dick Radatz, and deposited it high into the right field seats for the clincher.

Callison's climactic homer, coming little more than two weeks after Philadelphia's teammate Jim Bunning pitched the National League's first perfect game in modern history against the New York Mets, prompted one clubhouse visitor to suggest it would be the Phillies' year. "It just may be at that," grinned the elated Callison, as he accepted congratulations from Manager Walt Alston and the rest of his triumphant NL teammates.

Willie Mays, participating in his 12th All-Star game, was a major factor, too, even though he failed to hit safely in three official trips.

Willie ignited the National League's spectacular four-run rally in the ninth inning when he walked then slid safely into second base with his sixth stolen base in All-Star play.

Orlando Cepeda dumped a Texas League single into short right that turned out to be the pivotal play of the game.

In his haste to keep Mays from scoring, Yankee first baseman Joe Pepitone threw hurriedly toward home plate past catcher Elston Howard's outstretched reach.

Willie immediately took off for the plate and made it easily to tie the score.

Radatz got Ken Boyer on a pop-up, then purposely passed John Edwards.

Aaron struck out, but Callison connected on Radatz's first pitch to win not only the ball game but also the Arch Ward Trophy as "The Most Valuable Player" in the contest.

The late Ward, one-time sports editor for the Chicago Tribune, conceived the All-Star game back in 1933.

Juan Marichal, the National League's fifth pitcher, retired the side in order in the ninth and was credited with his second All-Star victory against no defeats. Radatz, who came on in the seventh, struck out five and didn't allow a hit until the ninth, suffered his first All-Star setback.

Braves Moving To Atlanta? Those Who Know Will Not Say

By Gene W. Hlutz
United Press International
MILWAUKEE (UPI) — More than 20,000 persons turned out at the airport to welcome home the Milwaukee Braves at the end of the 1963 season — after they had finished second.

It was the heyday of the Milwaukee miracle — the third year of attendance over 2 million. Things were going to get better. But they were also going to get worse.

Ahead were two pennants, a World Championship and a National League attendance record.

Ahead also was one of the biggest attendance slumps in the history of baseball.

By 1962 the number of people coming out to see the Braves had slipped to 766,927. In 1963, the "corner was turned" according to Board Chairman William Bartholomay, who headed a 12-man syndicate that purchased the team from Boston construction baron Lou Perini in the fall of 1962.

Attendance rose slightly to 773,018.

Wyatt Sets New Raceway Record

Col. Beecher Wyatt, piloting his new dragster, "The Rebel, Too," set a new track record at the Tampa Raceway Saturday when he clocked at 186 mph in the quarter mile which he covered in 11.4 seconds.

Wyatt, one of the drivers racing out of Ron-Sun Chrysler-Plymouth in Sanford, was driving the new Rebel which is a semi-head '64 Plymouth.

Then came the first rumblings. The rumor got its start in a St. Louis newspaper just after the 1963 All-Star game. It grew to such an extent that Braves President John McHale, during the last weeks of the season, issued a prepared statement saying the team would remain in Milwaukee "today, tomorrow, next year and as long as we are welcome."

Behrens Defeat Chicks To Hike Lead In League

Behrens Tractor Repair increased their lead in the Jet Bowlerettes League at Jet Lanes after taking four points from the Maryland Fried Chicken team.

They now have a record of 20 wins and four losses. In the number two spot is the 147 Buggers with a record of 16-8 followed by Karns Insurance and Cut 'N Curl who are tied at 14-10.

Hadcock Furniture is in fifth spot with a 11-13 log. In sixth, seventh and eighth places, respectively, are Maryland Fried Chicken, Mac's 'n' and Senkarik's Paint and Glass.

High game and series honors went to Alice Sexton who "bombed" a 190/511. Other high games were rolled by Jane Spolski with 184; Elaine Kostival a 169 game; Joan Magrin 168; Alice Best 164 and Sis Probst 163. Turkeys were rolled by Alice Best, Elaine Kostival and Alice Sexton.

Marie Levi converted the 2-7 and the 3-10 splits this week and Joan Magrin was equal to the 5-7 and the 8-10 splits. Sherry Cannon took care of the 3-10 in fine fashion and Jane Spolski made the very difficult 5-8-10.

Lee Throws No Hitter At CPO In JL Tourney

Danny Lee posted his second no-hit performance in the Junior Boys League Tuesday night when he hurled the CPO's to a 3 to 2 decision over the Kiwanians in a first round contest of the loop's annual tournament.

Lee struck out six and walked five in recording his victory over the Kiwanis and became the only Junior League hurler to rack up as many as two no-hitters this season.

Three other pitchers have registered no-hit performance this year. They are Steve Leach and Ron Dudley of the Shriners and J. D. Latherow, formerly of the Kiwanis nine.

Lee now has an overall hurling record of nine wins and three losses and has won six of his last seven games. Besides his two no-hitters, Lee also has a one-hitter and four two-hitters to his credit. He has allowed only 51 hits in the 39 innings he's pitched over a span of 13 games.

Last night Mike Stubbles for the only hit of the game off Steve Gordie who hurled very effectively. Gordie whiffed six and issued three passes. CPO had the only earned run of the game—that one coming in the fourth frame.

CPO will now meet the Elks at 4:30 Thursday afternoon at Sanford Memorial Stadium in the first contest of the semi-final round. The Shrine will tangle with the Civitans at 7:30 Thursday night in the other semi-final game.

The winners will clash at 7:30 Friday night, also at the stadium, for the tournament title.

Rex Increases Bowling Lead In Business Loop

Rex Liquors stretched their lead in the Businessmen's League at Jet Lanes as they won a three-point decision over Scott's Texaco who was holding down the second spot. Ray Robinson churned a fine 223/560 for Rex Liquors and Buddy Noel pounded out a 198/532 to pace the Texacomen.

Team Three moved into second place after sweeping all four points from Goldenrod Suprex. Ray Kaelo with a 192 game and Dale Alexander with 198/508 set the pace for team Three while George Mason chimed in with a 190-530 For Golden Rod Suprex.

A newcomer to the local bowling scene made his presence felt as he strung the strikes out for a fine 254 game. Young Eddy Eldridge joined the Late Four team and promptly showed how it was done. Eddy is only 16 years old and recently transferred into the area from California with his Navy family. Despite Eddy's fine bowling, the Late Four team was able to salvage only one game as the Glass Met team took three points.

Post 53 Will Host Eustis Here Tonight

Sanford's Post 53 Junior League baseball nine moves back into Sixth District action tonight when they host the Eustis club in a contest scheduled for Sanford's Memorial Stadium at 7:30.

Manager Frank Thomas this morning handed the hurling assignment to Donnie Smith, towering Longwood youngster who hurled this past spring for Lyman High School.

So far this season the locals have captured nine victories and lost five. Except for one of their two losses to Ocala, all of the Sanford losses have been in the "heart breaker" classification, similar to the 1 to 0 decision they lost to Orlando's Post 19 in the last outing.

Eustis has a record of eight wins and six losses. "But they can be a tough ball club to beat," said Thomas.

Thomas announced that Billy Higgins will do the catching tonight with Red Jansen at first, Billy Kuykendall at second, Rick Gollober at short, Rick Sires at third, Lawrence Pivec in left, Steve Harris in center and Rex Brook's in right.

Hard Luck Lopez Loses Fourth Try For Win

By Curt Block
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI) — No one asked American League manager Al Lopez if he'd like to have Johnny Callison back. No one had the nerve.

Lopez had just gone down to his fourth consecutive managerial defeat in All-Star competition and was talking about the young outfielder who had evened the midsummer series at 17-17 plus one tie with a resounding three-run homer with two away in the ninth inning Tuesday.

"He was always a good low ball hitter," Lopez said of the 25-year-old Callison who was dealt to the Phillies in December, 1959, and is exactly what he now needs to nourish his power-starved White Sox.

Dick Radatz was called upon by Lopez to perform his specialty and never had seen Callison before. As far as he's concerned the next time will be too soon.

"I pitched him low when he came up in the seventh," the big right-hander recalled, "and he got pretty good wood on that one, so I decided to get the ball higher the second time. I thought I'd try something different, but it didn't work too good."

Nothing went right for the junior leaguers once Willie Mays reached base in the ninth. Mays eventually came around to score the tying run on Orlando Cepeda's first All-Star base hit after 20 non-productive at-bats.

Forest City Group Opposes Zoning Change

By Maryann Miles
Members of the Forest City Community Association Monday night went on record as being unanimously opposed to a requested zoning change on SR 431 property in order that owners could establish and operate an "automobile graveyard" there.

It was agreed that as many members as possible would attend the July 8 Zoning Commission hearing in order to register protests.

The action, moved by Adolph Juhl and seconded by Murray Long, was taken at the association's regular monthly meeting which was held at the Forest Lake Academy cafeteria with president, John Bethea, in charge.

In other business, financial reports on pledges for the evening toward the fund to build the Community Club in Lake Harriet Estates, on property owned by the group, were given for a total of $350. This amount was contributed by various business and banking firms serving the area and did not include individual, personal donations which have been made.

Program for the evening was the Walt Disney film, "The Restless Sea."
Next meeting will be held Monday, Aug. 3, with location and program to be announced.

Sinatra Guards Fight Lensmen

PARIS (UPI) — Singer Frank Sinatra went out on the town Monday night and tossed firecrackers while his bodyguards scuffled with photographers.

Two policemen claimed they were roughed up. There were no arrests.

The running skirmish started when photographers mobbed Sinatra as he emerged from his Paris hotel with film agent Irving Lazar, friends, bodyguards and fashion models.

"Get the — out of my way!" Sinatra shouted. He pulled two baby firecrackers from his pocket, lit and tossed them.

Sinatra was engulfed by popping flashbulbs again when his car pulled up outside a Left Bank night club after midnight.

"Clear them out," he cried, and bodyguards went into action. Nearby residents flung open their windows and shouted for the police. The photographers left.
Less than 24 hours earlier Sinatra had been bedded down in a Stockholm hotel suffering from "overstrain."

Mrs. Sidney Ives Hostess To Bridal Reception Complimenting Miss Ivey

Brilliantly hued tropical blossoms in magnificent arrangement created an enchanting floorum in the reception area of the Sidney Ives Elliott

Avenue Mayfair home as the rooms were opened en suite for a lovely bridal tea reception in honor of Miss Kay Ivey, radiant bride-elect of

Ronald Lindsey. Assisting Mrs. Sidney Ives, 111 as co-hostess was Mrs. John Galloway, with Mrs. W. A. Adams greeting the

WALL SUPPLY STORE OPENS ... in brand new French Avenue quarters

J. C. PENNEY'S NEW STORE ... at shopping center on Highway 17-92

SUPER-X DRUGSTORE UNDER CONSTRUCTION ... at 25th Street and French Avenue

Feeling the pinch, but tenaciously staying in business in most instances are downtown Sanford store owners. Many have engaged in energetic expansion projects.

Typical among these are Carroll Furniture Store, McRoberts Tire Company, Wilson-Maier Furniture, Faust Drugstore, Roumillat & Anderson's Drugstore, Steinmyers, Wall Supply and many others.

Each has expended considerable money to improve their building and serve to the public.

Among those making energetic plans to move out of the downtown area is Penney's Department Store. The firm is building a spanking new store in the new shopping center on Highway 17-92.

The manager, Charles Robinson, said the work is progressing satisfactorily and tentative plans call for its opening late this year or early next.

But the problem still remains: Sanford's downtown situation faces an exodus to suburban centers. And Sanford is far from unique in facing the dilemma; virtually every city in the nation is facing this same change.

Many factors have brought it about, including the easier methods of transportation. Probably the main cause could be pinpointed to the lack of space.

Stores, generally, are expanding their facilities, their services. And the older structures now housing the businesses are not suitable to such expansions. Many buildings will not withstand additional floors without major overhaul of the basic structure.

Nor are they adaptable to installation of elevators or escalators.

Parking also poses a problem for the downtown merchant. Many cities, striving to lure merchants to stay "in town" have removed parking meters, have made more parking spaces available.

Many merchants prefer downtown stores but the physical aspects of today's living has forced them to withdraw to more convenient sites.

The person coming up with a solution to the move to suburbia could have it made. Many, many experts have spent countless hours and money to find a way out.

They always come back to the same critical point—lack of suitable space.

Bethune-Cookman Tour Completed

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
322-5754

Bethune-Cookman College's Alumni Nassau tour was a most pleasurable one. It was from June 15-19. Before boarding ship, the group was entertained by the Alumni Chapter of Miami. At 5 p. m., a welcome aboard party was given aboard ship.

WESLEY HAWKINS

The sea was calm and the weather was very pleasant throughout the trip. "The hospitality, courtesy and food aboard ship were superb," said W. L. Hamilton. The ship was their hotel while in Nassau.

A committee from the Mothers Club of the island met the throng at the dock; from there they attended a welcome to Nassau program at a local church where many of the island's dignitaries were on the agenda.

The pack was entertained by: Mothers Club, Taxicab Union, Rotary, and several other organizations during its stay. I was informed that the hospitality of the people far exceeded our famed southern hospitality.

Many places of interest were witnessed by the conclave, one of the sites was Anostr Garden where an exhibition was given by trained flamingoes—a surprising and beautiful performance.

Some of the persons who spearheaded the welcome and entertainment were Sen. Charles Rodgers, Mrs. N. M. Coakley, president of Bahama's Mothers Club; Hon. Spurgeon Bethel, member of the house of assembly; A. Banes, Mrs. Mortimer, and Wilbur Morese, president of the Taxi Cab Union.

Of the thirty-seven B. C. C. Alumni on the tour, Seminole County was represented by Mrs. Florieta B. Smith and niece Raye Francis Jones; Mrs. Leoni Pike and daughter, Francis; Eleanor Mobley, Mrs. Thelma Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hamilton and daughter, Wilantha, Mrs. L. B. Foster, local chapter president, and Mrs. Thelma Hall and son, Donthel.

During the return trip, the group organized to make such a tour an annual affair. It will be chartered by the National Alumni Association as the "B.C.C. Travelers." Mrs. L. B. Foster was elected president and W. L. Hamilton, vice president. The general consensus of opinion of the throng on returning was the trip afforded entertainment, rest, was informative and educational.

Mrs. Kathie Bracy Sandifer and daughter, Barbara Herline, motored to Neptune, New Jersey. En route they will visit relatives and friends in Sumpter, and Charleston, S. C.; Hampton, Virginia; Washington, D. C., and New York City. Mrs. Sandifer will continue studying for her Master's Degree.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Refoe and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Refoe Jr. and daughter, Anne Louise, motored to Western North Carolina on their vacation.

Sgt. Wesley Roy Hawkins, son of Mrs. Flora Hawkins of Rosland Park is doing a tour of duty in Berlin, Germany. Hawkins is a 1958 graduate of Crooms High School. He enters ed the United States Army in April of 1962 and received his basic training in Fort Gordon, Ga. He is squad leader of 20 men.

Edward Holton Sr. of Miami motored up to his uncle's funeral. Holton is a former resident of Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Holt and family are vacationing in Philadelphia, Pa.

Several of the residents of Academy Manor remained at home on July 4 and had picnics under their carports. Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones hosted a number of youngsters with a dance in their carport. In observing their dancing, my comment is: We have come a long way from the Apple Jack, Black Bottom, Suzy-Q and the Charleston.

Mrs. Katie Bracy and grand-daughter, Blondine left the city July 1 by train for New York City to visit her daughters, Mrs. Lydia B. Brooks and Mrs. Gladys Zeigler.

Mrs. Mildred Lewis of Newark, New Jersey, and A. B. Hicks of Washington, D. C. are visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Annie Hicks of Orlando is the mother of A. B. Hicks and the aunt of Mrs. Lewis. Frank Hicks of this city is their uncle.

Prayer meeting for revival will begin at 7 p. m. each night this week at New Salem Primitive Baptist Church. Preaching will commence Monday night. The Rev. J. H. Floyd of Auburndale will conduct the revival services.

Mrs. A. B. Frison will leave for Jacksonville today to attend the funeral of her cousin, the late John Jackson, which will be held on Thursday at 4 p. m. The Jacksonville address, 555 E. Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson and sons of Melbourne are visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Johnson is the former Edna Waldon. Both are graduates of Crooms High School. Johnson is employed in the missile department at Cape Kennedy. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Florida A and M University teaches at Stone High School in Melbourne.

Private First Class Tyrone Alexander is on leave for a few days. Alexander is an alumnus of Crooms High School. He is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

'Visitors' Seek Talk With Gov. Johnson

GULFPORT, Miss. (UPI)—A group of top integration leaders said today they will seek an audience with Gov. Paul B. Johnson who has criticized their tour through Mississippi as "creating high tension and feeling."

Members of the interracial group spoke Tuesday night to a crowd of 800 Negroes at Moss Point where a Negro girl was wounded Monday night when shots were fired into a voter registration rally.

They came to this Gulf Coast city in a motor caravan where they split into groups and integrated four leading hotels and motels, including the plush Edgewater Gulf Motel.

each group with courtesy, one noting he had held their rooms although they were running late.

At another, Robert Carter, a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP, got prompt service when he ordered two bottles of scotch whisky.

It was delivered to his room in a bag although Mississippi is legally dry.

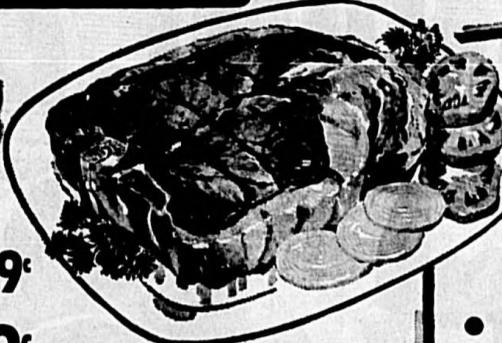

While the 12-man touring group, in Mississippi to investigate Negro conditions, have been met with courtesy and gained service at previously all-white facilities without incident during their tour of the state, Johnson gave little indication that he welcomed an audience with them.

Battleship In A Desert

One of the best nutshell summaries to be made on the situation in Southeast Asia is voiced by former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge:

"We're like somebody that has a great battleship which is all-powerful in the middle of the ocean and he's got a problem in the desert. We've got a lot of power. How are you going to apply it?"

The question is particularly apt in light of the new, tougher approach the administration is adopting toward the Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam and the repeated statements by President Johnson that the United States is prepared to risk war rather than allow Southeast Asia to be overrun.

There has been talk about using some of our vast power to carry the fighting home to the Communists—to bomb the supply routes feeding men and material from China through North Viet Nam into both South Viet Nam and Laos.

Unfortunately, the matter is not that simple, and the absence of a violent reaction by the Red Chinese may reflect not their military weakness (as some have believed) but their knowledge of just how difficult it would be for the United States to carry out his threat.

Most of the supplies come in over jungle trails on human backs or on elephants, and over canals and across the beaches of the South China Sea.

Says Lodge: "There are such tremendous long coastlines and tremendous long frontiers—tremendously rough country. There isn't a superhighway that you can blow up with bombs and stop the supplies."

Lodge does not rule out the possibility of victory in South Viet Nam through stepped-up military force, combined with non-military offensives—economic, social and political offensives—in all the 39 provinces of South Viet Nam.

"You have," says Lodge, "really 43 different wars."

The great need, according to him, is to develop a real political life in the country, especially on the local "precinct" level. That, he believes, we are now beginning to do.

He doesn't think Southeast Asia will be much of a campaign issue in this year's presidential election. But barring a sudden change for the better in that part of the world, it seems likely that the slow bleeding of American lives and resources in Viet Nam with no apparent gain will be an issue that millions of voters will want fully aired in the coming months.

For Critters Who Litter

This is the season the litterbug is in his glory. What gives with this character? What makes a person toss a popcorn box or a beer can or a pop bottle or a flutter of cleansing tissue from a moving car to clutter up the roadside?

How can anyone enjoy a picnic in a public park and then walk off without cleaning up the litter—or even extinguishing the fire?

How can people tear the wrappings off candy bars and calmly drop them to the sidewalk?

We don't know the answer. But people do it—by the thousands.

There are warnings and penalties against it. There are constant campaigns against it. There are fervent appeals to good citizenship, neatness and plain good manners. They are all ignored.

Do these people act like this in their own homes? You can't see how they could, but maybe they do. At least they advertise themselves as sloppy.

The outdoor season is on. We all want to enjoy it. It is more fun when things are neat and clean. Remember—every litter bit hurts.

Thought For Today

For we walk by faith, not by sight.—II Cor. 5:7.

When you think you can't do a thing, you are apt to be right. It's a confession that you don't trust God, don't have enough faith in Him. And so how can you have the faith that you can do it? — James A. Farley.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Toll To Continue High

Notes from the foreign news cables:

American Casualties: The toll of American lives is expected to continue mounting with the stepped-up pace of Viet Nam's guerrilla war. During 1962, the first year of the American build-up, some 35 Americans were killed. This number rose to 110 in 1963.

Official U. S. military statistics for the first six months of this year show that Americans now are dying at three times the rate of the first year. Some military officials attribute the rise to the increased tempo of government operations, while others point to a greater willingness on the part of the Communist-led guerrillas to stand and fight. Who won what?

Outside observers in Jakarta feel that Indonesia gained more from the visit of Soviet First Deputy Anastas Mikoyan than the Russians did.

Mikoyan promised more Soviet military aid—generally believed fulfillment of old contracts—and issued statements of support for Indonesia's crushing Malaysia policy. Both were important to Indonesia. On the other hand Mikoyan had to settle for only a vague declaration of Indonesian support against the Communist Chinese in the Afro-Asian conference and the general world situation. Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Eileen is desecrating "true love" by confusing it with mere sexual infatuation. And so do millions of other teenagers, which is why over 25 percent of marriages soon end in divorce. Scrapbook this case and always employ the yardstick for true love, as outlined below.

CASE T-415: Eileen G., aged 18, was one of my coed psychology students at Northwestern University.

"Oh, Dr. Crane," she moaned, "I am so upset I don't know what to do."

"For I am in love with a college freshman named Bill. And he says he is madly in love with me, too."

"Whenever I see him or even hear his voice on the phone, I get tingly all over and have butterflies in my stomach."

"I simply can't live without him. So I suggested that we elope and get married."

"But he says he must graduate before we marry. But if we both love each other with all our hearts, isn't that enough?"

"How can he love me if he refuses to get married?"

Love vs. Sexual Infatuation. Eileen is not involved in a case of "true love."

She is simply infatuated on the basis of personal magnetism and physical appeal.

Teenagers beware! For you must use your head more than your heart if you wish to tell the difference between "true love" vs. the phony variety which is sexual infatuation.

In both types, you grow tingly and breathless. You feel as if butterflies are fluttering in your stomach.

So you dare not rely on your physical reactions, for they can lead you astray. To distinguish between true love versus physical infatuation, use this simple yardstick:

In true love, the focal point is on what is best for the OTHER person; not yourself! But in sexual infatuation, the focal point is on one's own selfish desires, rather than the best interests of the other party.

By using this simple yardstick, you readers can easily see that Eileen does not truly love Bill.

For it is definitely NOT in his best interests that he drop out of college and thus checkmate his plan to render service to mankind by becoming a dental surgeon.

Eileen would figuratively be a millstone around his neck and very likely be embroiled in a divorce case within a year or two, after the novelty of sexual infatuation had dwindled.

Then, overwhelmed by debt and with Bill's inability to hold down a good job because of his lack of schooling, they'd be leading a cat and dog existence.

For a beautiful example of true love, just read Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities."

Therein Sidney Carton found that his sweetheart was really in love with Charles, who was to be guillotined.

So Sidney Carton visited Charles in prison and prevailed on him to change clothes, so Charles could slip out.

Sidney Carton then went to the guillotine in his place to give his sweetheart greater happiness. That's the unselfishness of real or TRUE love.

See tomorrow's follow-up. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Brink But No Bluff

WASHINGTON, D. C. — on these two historical points of references:

The Democrats in this century are the war party. Wilson, Roosevelt and Mr. Truman got us involved, not because they were bellicose adventurers, but because they were meddlers, first in the affairs of Europe and Asia, and later in those of the United Nations. Wilson did not foresee that our entrance into World War I would bring Fascism to Europe, nor did Mr. Roosevelt envision turning East Europe and Continental China over to Communism. Mr. Truman did not perceive how much unfinished business he would create by not winning the whole war in Korea. The aftermath, in each case, betrayed the Democratic Administrations.

So, we'd better hope that Mr. Johnson knows the perils of meddling and see the Southeast Asia war in its entirety. It is said that we cannot "afford" to let the Communists extend their way into the neutralist nations of old Indochina, Burma and India. It is said that such a Red conquest would end our position as a Pacific Ocean power and would endanger the Philippines and Hawaii and Alaska.

If this is true, then we must fight Red China as we failed to fight her in the Korean conflict. But if this argument is exaggerated geopolitical brainstorming, as it often is, we have to write for in-lieu of a while. We have to use indices, instead of information. For myself, I rely seems to me, then we should ask whether we can better "afford" to spread ourselves farther over the world's map or to consider that we cover enough territory in the Western Hemisphere and Atlantic Basin.

The other reference point is Mr. Johnson's character. He is playing the brinkman, but he is not a bluff. If convinced that a "Go North" policy is necessary in Asia, you can set your compass toward that direction of events. Ironically, it will be the same course which, when advocated by Goldwater, has caused him to be denounced as several kinds of madman and warmonger.

Very soon, however, President Johnson will have to let us in on what we're in for. The only thing he can do wrong at this point is to do nothing, letting a bad situation grow worse. And LBJ, whatever else, is not a do-nothing man.

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

Hanging onto what has served its usefulness to you is just not good. Make a point to show how very much you value and appreciate a chance now present to wind up whatever has been pending, since present eclipse can get it out of your way with far more ease than previously. Keep cheerful, too.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Getting rid of whatever has lost its usefulness is wise at this time, but be diplomatic if it concerns others. Clear out unnecessary knick-knacks at home. Be orderly.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Looking into commissions, legal papers, etc., can open up a new vista for the near future now. Don't let matters drag. Get busy early, or you start uptrend with regrets following, if you delay.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Getting rid of obligations and cutting down on expenditures is imperative. If you have property that does not give you an income, get rid of it. Get feet firmly on the ground.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you seriously want to attain your personal desire, it is imperative you set up more favorable conditions about you. Stop saving every little thing. Keep only the essentials.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) You are capable of carrying through with practical affairs as well as giving a hand to the needy. You can be very charming and this gives solace to others. Be generous.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22) You are well rid of one who gossips to your detriment, but hold no rancor. Be sure before severing connections, though. Forget the social and concentrate on work.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) The public or civic personnel are connected with many of your activities today. Be prepared. Show that you are loyal to the ideas of big-wigs and you get ahead fast.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) New personalities and better set of circumstances possible for you today. Rid yourself of the undesirable. Do something constructive about out-of-town matters.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Collecting is as important as making payments now, so sit down with accountants, experts, etc., diplomatically find out what loved one wants—surprise with gift or cash.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) You desire to have better understanding with associates and today you are given such an opportunity. Be generous with those who oppose you. They are amenable to kindness.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) Focus your attention on your work instead of giving in to temptation that could lead you astray. Plain your time well. See that wardrobe is nicely turned out.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) Do only that work that is necessary and give yourself a treat by enjoying hobbies, recreation you like. Invite friends to join you. Rest your mind—clear it of worry.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, you must supervise the rest here early since the body is apt to be quite frail and more sleep and richer food is required than most. However, this makes certain a robust body and much ability in adult years, and the field of art (painting is especially suited here), or the financial life, can be very rewarding, too.

Midweek prayer meetings will be directed by deacons of the church with C. W. Ergle, chairman, in charge of the schedule.

Both morning and evening service on Sunday, July 10, will be conducted by Rev. M. D. Jackson of Geneva. Rev. Jackson has been in the ministry for 41 years and is in his 22nd year as Recording Statistical Secretary for the Florida Baptist Convention.

Rev. Griffin will return to his pulpit July 26.

Business Seen Melting Down Iron Curtain

BOSTON (UPI) — Doing business with the Russians will be "old hat" for American firms within 10 years, a New England industrialist believes.

Thomas W. Chesterton, treasurer of the Chesterton Packing & Seal Co., thinks this will happen because "people on the wrong side of the Iron Curtain are demanding quality products." To meet these demands, the Soviet bloc will require American products, he feels.

Chesterton returned recently from a trip through Russia and the Iron Curtain countries looking for business.

"We can melt down the Iron Curtain and thaw the Cold War by increasing our trade with the Soviet bloc nations," he said. "They need our goods, and we need growing markets."

Two Senators Hit Floor In Tiff Over Collins

GOP Sweep In Fall Seen By Goldwater

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, supremely confident the Republicans will hand him their presidential nomination next week, today predicted a GOP election sweep next November— from court house to the White House.

Although he conceded that "we have a tough job ahead of us," the Arizona senator said the Republicans would heal their convention wounds and unite to win a resounding victory over President Johnson.

Goldwater, odds-on favorite to take the GOP nomination from Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, made the remarks in a statement issued by his headquarters here while he was flying to this convention city.

The senator planned to deliver it at San Francisco International Airport where his backers planned a colorful greeting calculated to outdo the welcome accorded to Scranton there Wednesday.

The statement, exuding confidence, said Goldwater was confident a unified Republican party would leave here late next week to "beat Lyndon Baines Johnson and win the presidency of the United States."

State Chairman To Meet Barry

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Florida GOP Chairman Tom Fairfield Brown plans to meet with Sen. Barry Goldwater today or tomorrow and may announce his support for the Arizona senator.

Florida Republican sources said such an announcement by Brown would probably swing seven or eight more delegates into the Goldwater camp.

Brown declined to speculate on what effect such an announcement would have on the state's unpledged slate. Florida has 34 delegates, the largest group in the south aside from Texas, and only two at-large delegates now are pledged to Goldwater.

North Orlando Reinstates Police Force

A volunteer police department for the Village of North Orlando was reinstated Wednesday on a temporary basis pending future council action on proposals for the creation of a permanent organization.

Proposals, submitted by Henry Ward at council request, have been taken under advisement.

Volunteers sworn in Wednesday were Ward, Bob Stephenson, Harvey Greeny and Donald Wilcox who immediately advised that there will be strict enforcement of all traffic laws within the village and that no "warning tickets will be issued."

Sharon Lucille River, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. River of 2400 Summerlin Ave., has received her associate in science degree from South Georgia College, Douglas, Ga.

Sentimentality Blamed For Burial Racket

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A leading theologian today deplored the "fearful sentimentality in the face of death" which leads some undertakers to prey upon the bereaved.

Canon Howard A. Johnson of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York labeled some funeral directors as "ghoulish grave-diggers, traffickers in death and exploiters of bereavement."

He added that these persons are in the minority and that most morticians perform their tasks honestly.

But he said he doesn't blame the erring undertakers so much as he does American religious institutions which "no longer teach our parishioners the art of dying."

"If Christians and Jews knew even the rudiments of biblical teaching, no funeral director could have a field day, as he now has," Canon Johnson said.

"Most of America seems to be involved in a vast conspiracy to hush up the fact of death.

This hush-hush campaign betrays a deep, neurotic sickness in the American character."

Canon Johnson gave his views in a Senate anti-trust subcommittee, which is looking into the practices of funeral directors for possible anti-trust violations and other conduct which might not be in the public interest.

Altamonte Requests 40-Foot Easement

Altamonte Springs' Town Council Wednesday night said it would approve a request to abandon Station Street provided a 40-foot easement, instead of a 20-foot one could be acquired for access to adjacent properties.

Home Builders Supply of Winter Haven wants to construct a $150,000 warehouse and retail store in Altamonte Springs provided the Council will agree to abandon the street so that the firm could have a railroad siding.

Representatives of the firm said they would ascertain whether the company would be willing to grant the water easement and notify the council.

Missile Base In Operation

WIESBADEN, Germany (UPI) — The United States today announced it has put its first underground European missile bases into operation.

U. S. Air Force European Headquarters here said medium range Mace B missiles installed in hardened concrete pens were combat ready at undisclosed points in West Germany.

The Air Force said the "hard-site" missiles, with a 1,200-mile range, would powerfully bolster the central European defenses of the North Atlantic Alliance because of their "enhanced survivability."

The Mace B missiles, equipped with nuclear or conventional warheads, and the similar but non-fixed Mace-A missiles are the only Air Force tactical rockets in Europe.

Executives For Barry, Business Advisers Say

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., could get 58 per cent of business executives' vote against President Johnson if he wins the GOP presidential nomination, according to a poll conducted by a private business advisory organization.

Results of the survey were reported by the Research Institute of American (RIA) Inc., based on a nationwide sample of 6,000 replies from a "representative" cross section of executives.

The poll said Johnson would get 31 per cent of the vote, with 11 per cent giving no reply. RIA said this would be one vote in every three, compared to President John F. Kennedy's showing of one vote in five in the business executive category in 1960.

Scranton Asks GOP Condemn Extremists

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton urged the Republican platform committee today to condemn the John Birch Society as a leading example of "weird" extremist groups in the United States.

Scranton, in a hard-hitting statement aimed directly at Sen. Barry Goldwater's bid for the GOP presidential nomination, declared that he cannot see why the 100-member policy making group would hesitate for one second to denounce the Birch group.

He also asked the committee to endorse the new civil rights law as "another step towards America's promise to the world, implicit in our Constitution, of equal rights and opportunities for all."

Scranton said that if the Republicans get the platform they deserve, it will contain views contrary to Goldwater's beliefs.

Without naming the Arizona senator, Scranton said: "In effect, your task is to decide what is the true conscience of a conservative."

Mass Transit Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson today signed into law a multi-million dollar federal program to help cities improve mass transportation systems.

Johnson called it "a milestone measure" and expressed hope it would be the forerunner of many other steps to solve the problems of the nation's rapidly expanding urban areas.

The new law provides $375 million for distribution on a matching basis to municipalities to improve their mass transit systems.

Beatles Pay Hotel Bill

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — The Beatles have paid a $2,800 bill from a local hotel where they vacationed last February.

When the English Rock 'n' Roll singers checked out of the Beauville hotel after an eight-day stay, they left $2,800 worth of signed tabs unpaid.

One of the items was a hair cut for Beatle drummer Ringo Starr.

Friendly Gesture Becomes Serious

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., and Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., wrestled each other to the floor today outside a Senate hearing room.

What began as a playful tugging match turned somewhat more serious as the two grappled to the marble floor of the new Senate office building.

Yarborough was playfully trying to pull Thurmond toward a Senate Commerce Committee hearing room where the committee was prepared to approve the nomination of Leroy Collins as head of the newly created Civil Rights Law Mediation Agency.

Thurmond had boycotted two previous sessions, thus postponing the approval of Collins for lack of a quorum, and resisted Yarborough.

Thurmond was standing outside the room when Yarborough, a committee member like Thurmond, stropped up. "Come on in, Strom," said Yarborough, and shook Thurmond's hand. At the same time, he playfully pulled Thurmond toward the hearing room.

Thurmond reacted by pulling Yarborough away from the door.

"I'll see an agreement with you Ralph," Thurmond said. "If I can keep you out, you won't go in, and if you can drag me in, I'll stay there."

The two men, with their jackets off, grappled for about 10 minutes. Finally, Commerce Committee Chairman Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., broke it up.

For most of the time, Thurmond had Yarborough pinned to the floor. The South Carolina senator appeared in better condition than his Texas counterpart. Both are 61.

Several spectators and Senate staff workers viewed the tussle. Word was passed into the committee room and Magnuson came out to break it up.

At first, after Thurmond challenged him to a match to see who could hold the other, Yarborough took the whole thing as a joke and shrugged off the challenge.

But Thurmond pressed the issue and Yarborough became more serious. They then took off their jackets.

Thurmond forced Yarborough to the floor and held him there several minutes. He let Yarborough up and the two scuffled some more, shoulder to shoulder. Thurmond then threw Yarborough to the floor again, the Texas senator's head narrowly missing the hard marble surface.

Yarborough remained pinned to the floor for five minutes, occasionally struggling to try to free himself. Thurmond said repeatedly, "Tell me to release you, Ralph, and I will."

Yarborough refused to answer grinned occasionally. An aide to Thurmond eventually tried to break up the encounter but Thurmond refused to respond to the aide's warnings that the affair would be publicized.

Sen. Frank Lausche, D-Ohio, was a late arrival at the session. He seemed amused at the goings on and earnestly told both men that they were risking heat attacks.

"I'll release him if he wants to be released," Thurmond said.

Yarborough said he was waiting for his "second wind." Magnuson then opened the door and came outside.

"Come on, let's break this up," he said sternly. "We're just good friends," Thurmond answered. "We have a mutual agreement." Thurmond then released Yarborough.

Thurmond subsequently went into the hearing room after seeing a quorum was present without him. After the session, Thurmond and Yarborough appeared together in the hall and appeared amiable.

Yarborough, who supports a relatively large paunch, weighs about 190 pounds. Thurmond seemed about 10 or 15 pounds lighter but in considerably trimmer shape and obviously proud of it.
