Arrests Smash Seminole Crime Ring

Five Suspects Held In Theft, Burglaries

A major crime wave of burglaries and thefts in Seminole County was solved over the holidays as law enforcement agencies completed a crime ring investigation resulting in the arrest of five suspects, revealed Seminole County Sheriff J. L. Hobby Tuesday night. The five alleged lawbreakers were charged with felonies ranging from breaking and entering to robbery in a six weeks investigation reaching a conclusion on Dec. 23. A considerable amount of stolen property has been recovered, said Sheriff Hobby.

Charged with breaking and entering on three counts in connection with recent looting of several St. Johns River Estates were: Seebert Sexton, 22, and John R. Johnson, 22, both of Orlando. Both men are being held in the Seminole County Jail on $2,000 bond pending court hearing.

Other suspects held are James Erwin Lyons, 38, on a $5,000 bond and Robert L. White, 25, on a $3,500 bond in connection with a store burglary in Chulona and cattle theft in Geneva. James Russell McKensie, 33, a third person charged with the cattle theft, was released on $5,000 bond.

Discovery of the theft ring which was believed operating in the Orange-Seminole County area for some time was the culmination of a long surveillance and investigation by the Orlando Police Dept. with cooperation of the Seminole and Orange County Sheriff Depts. and Constable Kelsey of Oviedo.

4 Persons Killed In Hwy. 50 Crash
GROVELAND (UPI) — A car, five tractor trailer trucks, and four pickup trucks piled up on Highway 50 here this morning, killing at least four persons and injuring several more.

"The car hit one of the pickup trucks and then the others piled up behind them on both sides," the Highway Patrol said. "Then it all caught fire."

The patrol said the victims were not identified immediately. "We can't identify them, that's how bad they're burned," the Orlando Patrol Station said. The patrol said it had not yet determined how many persons were hurt.

Six Highway Patrol cars, four Lake County sheriff's cars, and six volunteer fire department units from Clermont and Groveland sped to the wreck scene at the east city limits of Groveland.

Heavy fog was blamed for the accident, which happened about 5 a.m. The wreckage burned for more than an hour.

$169,020 For Seminole Schools

Seminole County has a tentative grant of $169,020 for the fiscal year of 1962 under the impacted area law, Cong. Srd Herlong announced today.

The tentative entitlement was approved by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and is based on increasing school needs because of the naval air station and the influx of military dependents, according to Supt. H. T. Milwee. He said that this figure is a little more than had been received in the past.

Of this amount $118,623 is being certified for immediate payment to the Seminole County School board.

"We did not know whether the law, which had expired, would be extended by the Congress, but we were counting on that money, which is to be used for current expenses, and had allowed for it in the budget. We have also applied for further funds, under another law to be used for building and adding rooms to our schools which are now on double session," he added.

fortunately, the extension was passed just before congress adjourned for the year," said Milwee.

Palm Beach Youth Stabbed To Death
WEST PALM BEACH (UPI) — Two young men from prominent families quarreled Tuesday night at a post-Christmas party here and one stabbed the other to death, deputies reported.

William Lee Puckett, 26, a student at Palm Beach Junior College and member of a Belle Glade farming family, was charged with second degree murder in the death of Albert Rosario Rosodivita, 18, of Manalapan.

Deputies said the two arrived about 11:20 p.m. in different cars at the home of Human Rudolf, a local clothier, in the Sunset Homes section of West Palm Beach, where about 14 young people were having a party.

They quarreled and began fighting about 10 minutes after they arrived, deputies said, and Puckett pulled a pocket knife and stabbed Rosodivita in the stomach.

The cause of the quarrel was not disclosed. Puckett fled after the slaying and was picked up later in his car. Police said he had signed a statement admitting the slaying.

Cat Burglar Believed Caught
Two Lake Mary men, one believed to be Sanford's notorious cat burglar, have been apprehended on charges of breaking and entering and robbery and are being held in the Seminole County Jail under bond of $5,000, Sheriff J. L. Hobby stated last night.

Eugene Greenleaf, 25, and Charles Robert Bridgeman, 22, both of Lake Mary, were arrested in Jacksonville by the Duval Sheriff's Department on routine investigation and were returned to Sanford on Dec. 18th on warrants issued by the Seminole County Sheriff's Department.

"Greenleaf had been under suspicion for quite some time as being a possible cat burglar suspect by the Sheriff's Dept.," said Sheriff Hobby, "and only a matter of time was involved until he was caught."

The two men were charged jointly with a gunpoint robbery of S. H. Buchanan of West First Street, several months ago and an alleged burglary attempt at the same residence recently. When apprehended, the men had in their possession two weapons, a .32 caliber revolver and a .32 caliber pistol.

Minister Beaten And Burned Alive
BROOKLYN, Mich. (UPI) — A retired Methodist minister was beaten unconscious, bound and then burned alive Tuesday in the bedroom of his rural home near here.

Firemen answering an alarm discovered the body of the Rev. Roy Decker, 72, Tecumseh, Mich. It was covered by a smoldering blanket and rubbish. The hands were tied behind the back and a ball pen hammer, believed to be the weapon used to beat the elderly minister, was on the floor near the body.

An autopsy showed Decker suffered a heart attack after he was beaten and then probably suffocated when the fire was started.

See New Kuwait Crisis Brewing
LONDON (UPI) — A new Kuwait crisis appeared to be brewing today following warnings by the British Defense Ministry of "increased tensions" in the Middle East and London newspaper reports of air and sea alerts for British servicemen.

One newspaper, the Daily Mail, said Iraqi troops were massing on the Kuwait border and reported that 7,000 British troops in the Middle East had been alerted for a possible crisis.

Fired Employee Kills His Boss
CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — A laundry worker fired this morning, went on a wild shooting spree today, killing his former boss and wounding two other persons before he was killed by police.

Police said that Spencer Payne walked onto the second floor of the Ohio Overall Cleaning Co. and began shooting. About 200 persons were on the floor when the shooting began, and 14 of them needed hospital treatment for shock.

Police said that Gerald Connolly, the plant safety director, was the first man Payne shot. His condition was reported as fair.

Police said Payne also wounded Arthur J. Ponds, assistant treasurer of the company, in the laundry warehouse before he left.

Payne fled from the laundry in a car. He was shot to death by a patrolman a short distance from the laundry after he forced two women to drive him away.

Detective Frank D'Imperio said that Payne shot and killed his former boss, Roy A. Hoge, 66, in an upstairs shirt finishing room.

Seminole High's Don Harvey was named to the 16th Annual Little All State Football Team sponsored by the Miami Herald. It was revealed Tuesday, Harvey was named to first string teams in both All State and Little All State to take another "first" for the 1961 Seminole gridder.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department reported that there were no holiday traffic accidents handled by the county over the Christmas weekend. City police reported three accidents. The Florida Highway Patrol reported six accidents with three persons injured occurring in Seminole County over the holiday weekend.

One of the most unusual gifts received for Christmas was the large new American 50 star flag given to the Michael Culos by Mrs. Gertrude Dingleider. The flag was accompanied by an original poem written by Mrs. Dingleider extolling patriotism, love of country and pride in our national emblem.

Davis compared appropriations of Daytona Beach and other cities in this area for attracting industry to balance the economic picture and said "the leadership of the community must contribute to the effort to get industry."

George Touby expressed the opinion that "progress attracts progress" and said that he considered money spent on luring business "an investment that brings money into circulation, puts taxes in our coffers and creates a climate of progress so others will come."

Three commissioners approved the grant of the added funds to the chamber for the purpose of encouraging industry to locate here, but Mayor Joe Baker and Commissioner J. H. Crapps opposed it.

Baker said he felt that such matters should not be handled with tax money, but through such an organization as the new Sanford-Seminole Development Committee on a strictly business basis.

"I felt that the organization of this committee was a great step for the community and believed that it would be just the thing to get industry in, and I think that it will be a stronger organization if the city stays out of the picture," Baker told a group representing the Chamber of Commerce and the Development Committee.

City Votes $1500 More For C. Of C.

City Commissioners all agreed Tuesday night that efforts to get industry for Sanford must be supported, but they were divided, 3 to 2, on one proposal of how to do it.

The commission met to discuss a request that the Chamber of Commerce advertising budget be increased $1,500 beginning with the 1963-64 budget. The request was made in an effort to strengthen the local area's bids for industries amid heavy competition from other locations.

Three commissioners approved the grant of the added funds to the chamber for the purpose of encouraging industry to locate here, but Mayor Joe Baker and Commissioner J. H. Crapps opposed it.

Baker said he felt that such matters should not be handled with tax money, but through such an organization as the new Sanford-Seminole Development Committee on a strictly business basis.

"I felt that the organization of this committee was a great step for the community and believed that it would be just the thing to get industry in, and I think that it will be a stronger organization if the city stays out of the picture," Baker told a group representing the Chamber of Commerce and the Development Committee.

"I feel that this is strictly a business proposition and should not involve tax money paid in by all our people," the mayor said.

Baker requested the city attorney to give him a ruling on the legality of such contributions by the city to the chamber.

Crapps dissented for a different reason, saying that he believed the city should not be asked in advance for funds before the actual need for them was at hand.

"You're asking for money before anything else happens," he said.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham, who finally made the motion to approve the increase in funds subject to the review of the commission, said "The Chamber of Commerce is just an organization of all us individuals and what it does benefits us all."

Higginbotham backed up his support of the $1,500 increase with a personal flourish.

Slapping $100 on the table, he said "either go ahead and concur with the chamber request or get 14 more to match that. . . we've got to support it."

Commissioner Tom MacDonald supported the fund increase with the view that the county needs to make a great effort to get industry to bolster the tax base.

"We need to get more commercial assessments on the tax roll and make a more stable tax base so we can provide more schools and other facilities," McDonald explained.

Commissioner Al Wilson said he thought the expenditure of funds to encourage industry "is a darned good investment if we can get them to come here. An industry located on land where we now have nothing is worth spending for," he said.

Chamber of Commerce manager John Krider presented the request for the additional funds in the upcoming budget and stressed that "everything we try to get is a difficult battle because all the other Florida cities are fighting for industry."

"The money spent in getting these industries comes back in the form of taxes, it's not giving anything away," Krider told the commission.

Clifford McKibbin, president of the development group, explained the current need for assisting industry and said "money brought in by these businesses is new money which more than replaces any we spend getting them here."

"The city has got to take a long view on this and help present a positive program to industrial people," he said.

S. J. Davis Jr. quoted from the comprehensive plan drawn up for the city by planner George Simons to point out that each new industry in a community brings a certain percentage of new jobs, new incomes, new bank deposits, new auto license purchases and other taxes.

Davis compared appropriations of Daytona Beach and other cities in this area for attracting industry to balance the economic picture and said "the leadership of the community must contribute to the effort to get industry."

George Touby expressed the opinion that "progress attracts progress" and said that he considered money spent on luring business "an investment that brings money into circulation, puts taxes in our coffers and creates a climate of progress so others will come."

Rink Attracts Adults And Young Skating Rink Dream Come True

A boyhood dream will come true tomorrow when Shealy Best opens the new Melodee Skating Rink on Onora Rd.

The new rink, which has already proved a boon to Sanford youngsters who have crowded the floor since the doors opened a few weeks ago, provides recreation for young and old.

The grand opening will feature a skating demonstration at 9 p.m. by expert skaters, both county four years with the Skate City roller rink at Longwood, where they were part owners. Best was formerly purchasing agent for A. Duda and Sons for 15 years.

Classes in all phases of skating will be held at the new rink, on schedules which will be published and are available at the rink. Instruction will be given by Best and by Mrs. Dottie Rockwell, a Navy wife who is a former member of the Skating Vanities, which youngsters and a professional group, who will perform figure and dance skating. There will be no admission charge for spectators and regular skating, at regular prices will prevail from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 11 p.m.

The entire Best family, Shealy and Emmeline Best, daughter Sheala, 16, a Junior at Seminole High, and 13-year-old Chuck, an eighth grader at St. Lukes School in Slavia, participate in the activities at the rink and are active in the skate business.

Young Chuck and Sheala have been skating almost every day for the past four years and are accomplished amateur skaters. The larger world of dance and figure skating, skate racing and roller hockey is a national sport, and there are professional skate teams which compare with ice skating as a dazzling display of talent and training.

The Bests are local people, the Best family being long time residents of Lake Mary. Mrs. Best was a Thurston before her marriage and both Mr. and Mrs. Best attended Sanford schools. They have been associated for the past is the roller skating version of the Icecapades.

Roller skating has recently been recommended by the American Medical Assn. as a healthy family sport for active participation of everyone from two years old to at least 65 and perhaps older, in accordance with President Kennedy's nationwide physical fitness program.

Classes will be held for pre-schoolers, housewives, freestyle, fundamentals and bronze bar, silver bar, and special classes for elementary school children and teenagers.

The rink is a qualified member of the Roller Skating Rink Operators Assn. of America and maintains testing and judging for the earning of the bronze, silver and gold bars and medals which are the mark of accomplished amateur skaters.

The rink area is 70 by 140 feet, with two rows of spectator seats down one side, snack bar, skate room, sales room and office. A complete line of skates and skating accessories are maintained at the Melodee Rink.

You Can't Open Your Mouth Now But Someone's There With A Gag

BY RICHARD STARNES

Oh, roll me over easy, lads, get out dat rubber-tired wagon and beat the drums slowly, 'cause this chile 's just about to cough and turn his pore head to the wall and breathe his last.

The tedious legions of professional bores had the right idea when he said the wowers were cheerless people who were eternally tormented by the nagging suspicion that somebody somewhere might be enjoying himself. It is even worse than it was in the rowdy era of the Sage of Baltimore. Whining self-seekers, whining special-pleaders, dimly certain cultists of every hue—all have learned the black arts of lobbying until now it's worth your life to break a lance on anything.

Suggest, for example, that all vegetarians should be fitted with snug camisoles and locked in quilted rooms, and even the eminent sanctity of your proposal won't save you. The next mail will bring shrill rebuttal from all manner of professional food fanatics. I couldn't care less what people want to eat, and for all I know, vegetarianism would give us all a lock on happy longevity. But I don't like professionals with vested interests in infinite numbers of nutty causes telling me what to say and how to say it.

A man in the business of public ophthalmoscopy soon learns to ignore the cries of the protest-for-hire crowd. Write a piece knocking the custom of eating turkeys, and you know you'll be buried in letters from turkey farmers accusing you of being a member of the IWW or some other subversive organization. Reason and logic are of no help; indeed, the economic-determinists who lay siege to you never have recourse to the stuff. Turkey meat tastes like the bark on a creosoted fence post, and I won't have any watery-eyed Shintsoit telling me I must eat it two times a year.

The fact is that a man who looks at this world with cheerful skepticism is helpless to avoid breaking somebody's icons. Do a holiday piece claiming eggnog is an insipid mess fit only for sick kids and gummy grannies, and you will certainly crush your postman under the weight of the laments from people who make a living selling eggnog ingredients.

Plan Creation Of Science Of Survival

DENVER (UP) — Individual members of the American Association for the Advancement of Science were scheduled to discuss informally Friday a committee recommendation that the scientific community create a "science of human survival" to keep mankind from killing itself off.

Dr. Harry Commomer of Washington University, chairman of the AAAS Committee on Science in the Promotion of Human Welfare, said such discussion was what the committee was trying to accomplish when it made the recommendation Tuesday to the AAAS' 128th meeting here.

The committee report was signed by Commomer, famed anthropologist Margaret Mead, T. C. Byerly of the U. S. Agriculture Department's Agricultural Research Service, Mass., H. J. Geiger of the Harvard University School of Public Health, and Frank W. Notestein of The Population Council, Inc.

Commer said it was a "position paper only" and was not intended to be the official statement of the association. But he said the committee hoped it would stimulate discussion.

"We call for the establishment of a new collaborative science, the science of human survival, which will apply the full strength and wisdom of all the sciences to the solution of the crisis created by the obsolescence of war," the report said.

The committee said war was obsolescent because it was created to preserve or extend a society, but had now become too destructive to do this. In fact, the scientists said, science had now achieved such control over human environment that from now on mankind could "commit suicide—even by non-nuclear means—any time it wanted to."

Mr. E. J. Marshall Dies In Osteen

Mr. Edward John Marshall, 82, died early Tuesday morning in Osteen where he had made his home for a number of years.

He came to Florida in 1933 from Great Falls, Mont.; was a member of the Lutheran Church and of the local Carpenter's Union.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Giblin of Osteen and Mrs. Frances McCormac of Silver Springs, Md.; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Cline of Lancaster, Calif., and one granddaughter.

Services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Thursday at Brison Funeral Home with Rev. Herbert W. Goerss of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer officiating. Burial will be at a later date.

New U. S. Convoy Travels Autobahn

BERLIN (UPI) — A U. S. military convoy left Berlin today on a "routine" trip through Communist territory along the 110-mile Autobahn to West Germany.

The new troop movement, coming as Berlin ended a quiet but tense Christmas, again underscored the Allied defiance of Communist protests against such "provocations."

Early this month, East Germany sent a note to the U. S. envoy in Prague, protesting the exchange of American soldiers garrisoned in the divided city.

The U. S. Army said the unit, Company D of the Sixth Infantry's Second Battle Group, was on its way to military exercises in West Germany. It called the convoy a "routine move."

Board To Meet

An important meeting of the Ebenezer Methodist Church official board has been called for 7:45 p. m. today immediately following the devotions of the Wednesday service.

Oviedo Meets Leesburg In Bowl Play Tonight

Second Round Of Elk Tournery Scheduled

Paul Mikler's Oviedo Lions break through the holiday basketball doldrums tonight as they travel to Leesburg to meet the Yellow Jackets at 8 p. m. in the second round of the annual Elk Bowl Basketball Tournament. The Lions are suffering from several mild flu cases.

The opening game will be a clash between Groveland and Wildwood and will begin at 7:30 p. m. Coach Mikler, despite the sickness which has kept his Lions from practice until Tuesday, hopes to "put on a good show." The coach expects Leesburg to play its usual zone defense and use its fast breaks in an attempt to control the court.

Leesburg is the favorite and the way things were going for the Lions Tuesday afternoon with the flu affecting many of its key players, Oviedo will have to pull a rabbit out of the hat to get anywhere in tonight's game.

Reports on the Yellow Jackets indicate a strong defense in Leesburg's Max Wettstein, Buddy Stone and Bill Arnold. Stan Glidons, Bill McBride and John Gray are other Jackets who might give the Lions a tussle.

Giants' Chances Against Packers Show Improvement

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Giants' chances of upsetting the Green Bay Packers in Sunday's National Football League championship game improved greatly today with the return to action of fullback Alex Webster and offensive end Joe Walton.

Both men took part in an hour workout at Yankee Stadium Tuesday and appeared recovered from recent injuries. Webster had been hobbled by a pulled groin muscle while Walton missed the Giants' final regular season game against Cleveland with a knee ailment.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—The condition of Green Bay Packers defensive safety Johnny Symank remained doubtful today for next Sunday's National Football League championship game against the New York Giants, but fullback Jim Taylor should be ready.

Both men went through light workouts Tuesday with the team, but coach Vince Lombardi expressed some concern over the condition of Symank's injured ribs.

If Symank is sidelined, there would have to be some shuffling in the Packers' defensive secondary, whose defense against passing this year ranked second in the league.

Celtics Answer Challenge From Lakers 129-117

By United Press International
 Toss a challenge at the Boston Celtics and it will bring out both the fans and the best in the National Basketball Association champs.

That's what happened Thursday night when the Western Division-leading Los Angeles Lakers tried to run their season winning streak against the Celtics to three straight games. A capacity crowd of 15,000 turned out at Boston Garden and the Celtics responded with a brilliant performance.

With Bob Cousy, Sam Jones, Tommy Heinsohn and Bill Russell each scoring more than 20 points, the Celtics surged to a 78-62 halftime lead and won breezily, 129-117. Elgin Baylor scored 30 points for the Lakers who led by four points at the end of the first period but were blitzed by a 43-27 Celtics effort in the second period.

The crowd was "warmed up" for the second game show by Wilt Chamberlain's 81-point performance that sparked the Philadelphia Warriors to a 118-111 win over the Syracuse Nationals. The Nationals suffered a severe blow when Dolph Schayes sustained a fractured cheek bone which will sideline him about two weeks.

Oscar Robertson scored 20 points and Arlen Beckhorn scored 28 as the Cincinnati Royals beat the St. Louis Hawks, 129-118, and Walt Bellamy tallied 30 points to lead the Chicago Packers to a 108-101 triumph over the Detroit Pistons in other games. Bob Pettit had 25 points for St. Louis and Gene Shue had 26 for Detroit.

Herald Bowlers Hold To Lead

 BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Red Sox have announced that outfielder Carl Yastrzemski is the first player to sign for the 1962 season. Yastrzemski, who batted .266 in his rookie year, actually had signed at the close of the 1961 season. Red Sox president Dick O'Connell revealed Tuesday,

Alabama QB Trammel Ailing With Cold

By United Press International
 Alabama's star quarterback, Pat Trammel, is suffering from a bad cold, two second stringers are ailing and the Crimson Tide wasn't overly impressive in its first workout at Biloxi, Miss., for their Sugar Bowl game — but coach Paul (Bear) Bryant isn't worrying.

The usually pessimistic Bryant, who led Alabama through an undefeated 1961 campaign, put the Crimson Tide through a light workout Tuesday for their New Year's Day game with Arkansas, rated a 13-point underdog.

Trammel, the leading passer in the Southeastern Conference, reported with a cold as did Bill Rice, a second team tackle. During the workout, Larry Wall, Alabama's No. 2 fullback, aggravated an old groin injury.

Bryant had praise for his linemen in the practice but said "I didn't think our backs moved too well," and indicated the team's overall shape did not seem bad.

Meanwhile, Texas, which takes on Mississippi in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, will engage in two workouts today—a short morning session and a full gear afternoon practice at Austin, Tex. The team physician for the Longhorns pronounced all members of the squad in "good shape" after the holiday layoff as Texas went through an impressively brisk workout Tuesday.

In Oxford, Miss., the Mississippi Rebels emphasized defense in Tuesday's afternoon workout. The morning was spent discussing strategy to use against the powerful Longhorns.

Coach Murray Warmath of Minnesota, whose Gophers lost to Washington in the 1961 Rose Bowl game, said defensive back Gary Belletier was their only doubtful start for the New Year's Day game with UCLA.

Coach Sonny Grandelius, whose Colorado team is a two-touchdown underdog, is hoping that hard work and little social activity will pay off.

LSU is in top physical shape for the game, according to coach Paul Dietzel.

Middle Tennessee State arrived here Tuesday, and Coach Charles Murphy put his 39 players through a two-hour workout, both on offensive and defensive drills.

"COME ON BABY, LET'S DO THE TWIST" is the wail of a popular rock and roll crooner and here are couples at the Christmas Ball doing it.

Mayfair Inn Crowded At First Christmas Ball Held By Chapter

The first Christmas Ball, sponsored by the Gamma Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, proved to be a great success Saturday, when several hundred couples filled the grand ballroom of the Mayfair Inn to dance to the music of Bill Adler's orchestra.

The ball which promises to be a seasonal event to be placed on the calendar permanently, was attended by socialite members of Sanford's younger set, including young Navy personnel, college students and careerists, as well as the younger businessmen-about-town and their wives.

The latest dances, which included the popular twist dance were much in evidence, as well as the group-danced hully gully and the slower dances, and the almost conventional rock and roll.

Short formal wear was the fashion-style of the evening with brocades, chiffons, satins and taffetas worn by the young debs.

The facilities of the ballroom were donated to the sorority by Mayfair manager, George Palmer, since all proceeds of the dance go toward assisting the Juvenile Council. The sorority maintains a shoe fund to help with needy and dependent children.

School Faculty Honored At Party

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Hayman entertained members of the Enterprise School faculty and the retired teachers of the school at their annual holiday party at their home on the afternoon of Dec. 15. The home was beautifully decorated in the seasonal theme which also was carried out through the refreshments.

Those invited to attend were Mrs. Minnie McCauley, elementary superintendent, Mrs. Daisy Lee Gunn, Mrs. Ruth Byon, Miss Louise Hall, Mrs. Carver, Mrs. Boazman, Mrs. C. Smith, Miss Dorothy Chambers, Mrs. Katherine Sellers, Mrs. Tymie Oviatt, Mrs. Rachel Alley, Mrs. Bertha Jardin, Harold Wooten, George Poor and Wayne Pringle.

Men's Club Visits Children's Home

The Men's Club of the First Methodist Church of Sanford began Christmas Week celebrations at the Enterprise Florida Methodist Children's Home last Wednesday when members of the club made their annual visit with holiday treats for all the children.

Each year the men have dinner at the Home followed by a Christmas program and a visit from Santa who gives each child a huge stocking filled with goodies and a gift of money.

This year Dr. Orville Barks and Boyd Coleman assisted Santa with distributing the gifts.

Christ Church Sets Card Party

A regularly scheduled monthly card and game party will be held at 8 p.m. today at the Parish House of Christ Church Episcopal in Longwood.

Working Model

When President Kennedy paid his brief visit to Puerto Rico, a U. S. commonwealth, he put the world spotlight on an island which could well serve as a small model of improvement for underdeveloped areas in Latin America and elsewhere.

In the 20 years from 1940 to 1960, income per person in Puerto Rico bounded upward from $121 to $622. Liberal wage policies and a graduated personal income tax helped to distribute these gains widely through the Puerto Rican population.

This minor miracle can be largely ascribed, of course, to the well known program which lured heavy amounts of United States capital—and brought 700 new industries—by offering investors a 10-year tax-free period.

While this effort was producing 50,000 new jobs, Puerto Rico's economy was further bolstered by the migration of nearly 500,000 islanders to the mainland in the 1950s.

With all these promising advances, the island is not, however, entirely out of the economic swamps. The great exodus notwithstanding, more than 12 per cent of Puerto Rico's work force is still unemployed. And its per capita income gains put it at a level only half that of the least prosperous U. S. state.

In these circumstances, Puerto Rico's Gov. Luis Munoz Marin, a long time battler for his island's progress and a promoter of closer U. S.-Latin ties generally, appears to be getting into somewhat contradictory positions.

He proposed Puerto Rican membership in the Organization of American States, though the island's commonwealth status leaves its foreign affairs in U. S. hands.

Only full independence would qualify Puerto Rico for such membership. At the last election, just 3 per cent of its population favored independence. Munoz' own party, and its major rival, seek lasting union with the United States.

Perhaps only the Puerto Rican politicians themselves can puzzle this one out. Further grist for the mill is the evidence of other, broader efforts by Munoz to read more independence into the "commonwealth" status than the U. S. Congress agreed to.

Puerto Rico unquestionably is a bright show window for the underdeveloped to look at. We must hope that the island's tangled politics will not cloud it over just when many lands need the encouragement of seeing proven, tangible results.

Little Satellite Supports Theory Giant Blast Created Universe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A little satellite launched last spring apparently supports the theory that a gigantic explosion spawned the earth billions of years ago.

At any rate, the satellite, a gamma ray astronomy telescope named Explorer XI, produced findings that seem to dispute the authorities who claim creation is continuous, has been going on forever and will never end.

This was reported this week by Dr. Robert Jastrow, head of the theoretical division at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Goddard space flight center.

Partisans of the explosion theory say that all matter was once concentrated in a single giant atom. They hold that around 10 billion years ago, this mass exploded.

The matter hurled outward by the blast condensed, eventually, into the starry galaxies and the vast gas and dust accumulations in interstellar space.

They claim that the primeval explosion is still being felt, causing the universe to expand even now, with its billions of galaxies flying away from each other at fantastic speeds.

The proponents of continuous creation agree that the universe is expanding, but they think the reason is heat generated at a steady rate by the creative process, not any great explosion.

The basis of that theory is that enough matter is being created constantly to form new galaxies that fill the voids left by outward-rushing older ones.

To keep the density of the universe constant despite its expansion, it would be necessary to make only one new particle of matter every 100 years in an area of space the size of the Pentagon, Jastrow said. The level of gamma radiation that Explorer XI measured "rules out one version of the steady state cosmology."

The basis of this deduction is a fundamental law of physics which says you cannot create a particle of matter without creating its "mirror image," a particle of antimatter.

"If this version were correct, and matter and antimatter were created at the rate required in the steady state theory, the intensity of gamma rays produced in outer space by their annihilation would be 1,000 times greater than the level measured," Jastrow said.

Ex-Dictator Juan Peron Weds Secretary

MADRID (UPI) — Former Argentine dictator Juan Peron, 65, has secretly married in Spanish exile his 28-year-old secretary, Isabella Martinez, persistent reports said today.

The overthrown president was "out of town" and could not be reached to confirm or deny the reports, an aide said.

But close friends said the couple sent out Christmas cards signed, "Juan Domingo Peron and Isabella Martinez de Peron. They said that at a Christmas Eve midnight Mass Peron introduced "Isabella" as "my wife."

A close friend of Peron said, "It is very possible" the couple has married. "But if so, the ceremony took place more than a year ago," he said.

Miss Martinez, who came to exile here with Peron almost 12 months ago, was said to have met him in Panama shortly after the 1955 revolt that toppled him from power. She has been his secretary ever since.

Peron's first wife, Eva, died in 1953, while he was still Argentine president. The women's section of the Peronist party, which still operates in Argentina, has opposed any suggestion that Peron remarry. Eva headed the women Peronistas.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Dr. Vaughan is a superlative teacher for he knows how to "dress up" his lectures and "package" his ideas. Good teachers are simply star salesmen. They keep the emphasis on terra firma instead of the stratosphere, so students don't snore in their classes.

CASE K-492: Dr. Wayland F. Vaughan is one of America's leading psychologists and author of several college textbooks.

He is also a very popular professor for he has the faculty of fitting education to the current needs of his students.

After he had adopted my own text at Harvard University, he thus wrote the publishers:

"Crane has a knack for selecting material that appeals to the interests of college students.

"Students like his textbook because they learn things worth knowing."

The reason Dr. Vaughan noted this aspect of my textbook was due to the fact he himself is such a superb detective of what students desire.

Many professors stay up in the clouds to such a point they don't even see the disinterest of their pupils.

So they often keep on delivering the same dry, sleepy lectures of 10 or 20 years earlier, because they don't focus on the "customer."

Student Polls

A man like Dr. Vaughan, however, keeps constantly on the alert to see what he can do to perk up the interest of his students.

For "interest" is basic to fast learning. It is the Siamese twin of "motivation."

Unless a teacher can "dress up" his lectures and "package" them in an attractive manner, is it any wonder students snore in class?

Teaching is simply a form of salesmanship. It involves selling intangibles instead of shoes or automobiles.

But the same laws of salesmanship apply to the professor as to the purveyor of retail merchandise.

Men like Dr. Vaughan maintain a continuous "consumer survey."

The don't submit printed questionnaires to each class, but they keep their eye on the student reactions and thus are sensitive to classroom attitudes.

A super duper educator like Dr. Vaughan would likewise become a star salesman in the commercial world, for he keeps the focus on the customer.

Skittish Teachers

One of our Midwestern universities took a vote of its faculty on the wisdom of having students analyze the teaching effectiveness of the professors.

The faculty voted it down!

Why? Oh, they used the alibi that students are not competent to rate their profs.

Actually, those profs were chicken! They were afraid to have the customers tell the truth.

For some colleges now charge $1,000 or more as tuition and brilliant students, many of whom are mature war veterans and married, know the lousy loafers vs. the profs with zeal and enthusiasm.

The average college student can rate his profs excellently and so accurately that most professors don't dare O. K. such an efficient innovation.

No good teacher objects to student ratings of the faculty. It is the dull, sleep-producing teachers who scream against it.

On our downtown Northwestern University campus, the mature students even demand their tuition back, if they get lazy profs. That should be true everywhere.

So send for my "Rating Scale for Good Teachers," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Use it at P-TA meetings, too, for it fits all types of educators, including Sunday School teachers.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his book-lets.)

Social Security Taxes Rise, Effective Jan. 1

Social Security taxes are scheduled to go up effective Jan. 1, 1962. Col. Byron H. Patton, Manager of the Orlando District Social Security Office, stated today. This increase applies to self-employed people as well as people working for wages, Col. Patton said.

Employees will have 1/2 of one per cent more deducted from their wages. Their employers will also pay 1/2 of one per cent more. This means that beginning January 1, 1962, employees and their employers will each pay 3 1/4 per cent of the employee's salary in Social Security taxes. Of course, only wages up to $4,800.00 are subject to Social Security taxes, Col. Patton added.

The tax for self-employed people will be increased 2/10 of one per cent. This means that if you are self-employed, you will pay social security taxes of 4.7 per cent of your earnings up to $4800 in 1962. This increase will not be reflected on your self-employment tax return until early in 1963 when you file a return for 1962.

Earnings above $4800 a year are not subject to Social Security taxes. These increases are being made to help pay for recent increases in Social Security payments, Col. Patton added. They will also make sure that the Social Security system is kept on a sound financial basis.

NEW LONDON, Conn. (UPI) — U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff, commenting on reports he may seek the Democratic nomination for senator from Connecticut: "I have never discussed it (running) with the President. Any decision would not be made until I had discussed it with him."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I must have an outside opinion. I am a 44-year-old unmarried woman. Ever since I was a child I had the worst looking teeth you ever saw. They were very large, protruding and naturally yellow. I remember how I used to try to keep from laughing so my ugly teeth wouldn't show. Fortunately, I was in an auto accident just before Thanksgiving and my front teeth were knocked out. The dentist made a truly beautiful partial plate for me. It has changed my appearance completely. I never knew six new teeth could make me so happy. My problem is my friends and relatives. They all say, "It looks nice—but it isn't YOU." I don't want to be ME any more, I like the change. Am I wrong or are they?

SMILING BUT IN DOUBT

DEAR SMILING: Keep smiling. You are the one who has to like it, and let there be no doubt about it.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a girl should go steady with a boy who lives in a different state? WANTS TO KNOW

DEAR ABBY: It is up to the girl and the boy. But call it by its right name. It is "staying home steady."

DEAR ABBY: I'll get right to the point. My mother drinks. I am 15 and the oldest of four children. We are not poor, but if Mamma spent more on food and less on whiskey we would eat better. Don't suggest Alcoholics Anonymous. She would never go. Daddy travels and when he is home she is pretty good, but as soon as he leaves town she starts drinking again. What are children supposed to do with a drinking parent who refuses to help herself.

NO FUTURE

DEAR NO: There IS no help for the alcoholic who refuses to help herself, but there IS help for her teenaged children. Write to ALATEEN, P. O. BOX 182, MADISON SQUARE STATION, NEW YORK 10, NEW YORK. This club is especially for the children of alcoholics. It is free, and has been a godsend to many with your problem.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Let's face it. Nowadays if you aren't learning something new all the time you might as well be dead—socially that is.

It used to be that Mr. and Mrs. America could get together with their friends and spend the evening bragging about their children, grumbling about crab grass or the football coach with the losing team (depending on the season of the year), telling each other about their do-it-yourself projects, and discussing the latest movie or current favorite TV personality dominating the home screen.

But no more. Now to get a word in edgewise a couple has to discuss what they're learning. To get the floor conversationally they have to talk about the course they are taking in French or Spanish or more impressive yet, Russian. Or they have to be able to discuss art or music at length and none of this "I don't know anything about it; I just know what I like" stuff, either. If they aren't studying painting or taking a course in music appreciation no one is going to listen to what they have to say.

They might be able to discuss a book—if it is long enough and technical enough—but not if it's a best seller that anybody might have read.

Best of all if they want to talk "books" is to begin with the statement "I've been making a study of such and such..." and then go on from there. Making a study isn't quite as hep as taking a course—but almost.

classrooms for Mr. and Mrs. America. It's not the social evenings that take the time these days—it's doing the home work in preparation for them.

Call any up-and-coming couple you know any evening but Saturday or Sunday and chances are the child who tunes down the TV to answer the telephone will report, "Mama and daddy have gone to art class, or French class, or some other kind of class."

In the adult world, going to class is getting downright classy! If you study nothing else, be sure to read "How to Have a Happy Husband." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 480, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 10, N. Y.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Lieutenant, now General, Gruenther analyzed this hand of the 1931 match as follows:

"Mrs. Culbertson's pre-emptive opening of four spades was fully justified by her holding. Mr. Culbertson, felt reasonably certain that his partner could make four spades, but saw no reason not to give a slam invitation with his strong hand. Thus encouraged, Mrs. Culbertson can hardly be blamed for bidding the slam. Mr. Culbertson's redouble was a venturesome one, probably intended to teach 'Oasis' a lesson.

"The slam was lost because of a losing finesse and Mr. Jacoby's choice of the ace of hearts lead. If Mr. Lenx had held the king of spades, or if any other card had opened, Mrs. Culbertson would have made the slam."

Looking at the hand 30 years later, I still think that the slam bid was a good one. At worst it depended on the spade finesse and even with the spade finesse wrong, any lead but a heart would have let Jo make the contract.

However, Ely's redouble was a bad bid. I could only be doubling on the ace of hearts and a trump trick, so once I doubled he should have known the hand would not make.

TV Time Previews

Leonard Hoffman and his staff of TV critics preview coming television shows by attending rehearsals, watching screenings and analyzing scripts in New York and Hollywood. This is their preview for today:

7:30-8:30 p.m. Wagon Train — "Clyde." Not much action in this episode as the title star, a buffalo, is kept from being butchered to alleviate a critical meat shortage by the stubborn dissent of the train's cook (Frank McGrath), who has become fond of the two-ton behemoth. McGrath makes the most of his largest role to date, but the plot is too heavy-handed to be amusing. In for good bits are Harry Von Zell as an outraged farmer protecting his cows from the buffalo, and Frank de Kova as an Indian chief who eyes the buffalo as steaks for his hungry tribe.

7:30-8:30 p.m. (ABC.) Steve Allen Show—"Campus USA." Steve takes his troupe to the University of California at Los Angeles campus. To demonstrate the University's program of theatrical activity, faculty member John Houseman, noted motion picture and theatrical producer teaching a course in Shakespeare, puts his players through their paces in scenes from "Measure for Measure."

8:30-9:30 p.m. (CBS.) Checkmate—"To the Best of My Recollection." A reliable crutch for TV writers these days is the "Amnesia" plot, but this one has a couple of neat surprise twists that keep it on a good suspense level, plus a fine performance by Laraine Day as the amnesia victim. It's checkmate's job to find out if the man (Charles Drake), who claims to be her husband, is telling the truth and, if so, why does she fear him? Corey (Anthony George) has his hands full when murder of a friend complicates the puzzle.

9:10 p.m. (NBC.) Perry Como Show — Color. Guests include entertainer Caterina Valente, accompanied by her brother, Silvia Francesco. Peter Gennaro, choreographer, will appear in a special dance number. Other guests include Kaye Ballard, Paul Lynde, Sandy Stewart and the Ray Charles Singers. They help Perry celebrate New Year's Eve.

9:30-10 p.m. (CBS.) Mrs. G. Goes to College—Mrs. G.'s Private Telephone. The community telephone in the hall of her campus board-inhouse proves too unavailable and not private enough for Mrs. G. (Gertrude Berg), who goes to the expense of having a private phone installed in her room. As you may guess, her room is no longer private with invasions for use of her phone by practically all the other boarders.

10-11 p.m. (CBS.) Steel Hour — "The Bitter Sex." The story of a scheming ex-wife, bitterly intent on destroying the happy marriage her husband has made since the divorce, Lily Forrester (Mona Freeman) goes to consult lawyer Jeremy Penlove (Barry Morse) attempting to secure maintenance from her former spouse, while, at the same time concocting a plot to create marital tension motivated by jealousy, malice and hatred.

10-30-11 p.m. (NBC.) Brinkley's Journal—Color. Tonight "Subways Are for Sleeping" opens on Broadway. At about the time the curtain falls, the "Journal" chronicles the history of the new musical comedy, including production meetings, early rehearsals in Philadelphia and the Boston try-out. Also seen is a show confab with Betty Comden and Adolph Green, who wrote the book and lyrics, Jule Styne, composer, and Michael Kidd, director and choreographer.

11:15-1 a.m. (NBC.) Jack Paar Show—Color. Guests include Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Jim Lucas.

New For Old

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Rabbi Julius J. Nodel of Temple Shaare Emeth here feels many people who have lost their religion "are seeking to regain it in their psychiatrist's office."

He said science has removed "some of our fears, but has produced new ones."

"Many people are living in the dark alleys of anxiety," he said. "Religion and psychiatry are not far apart. Both provide answers to the question, 'What is man? ... We should be willing to encourage any pursuit of knowledge.'"

First self-propelled fire engines, using an internal combustion motor, were built about 1903.

Two Slain In Jealousy Fight

Teen Brothers Gunned Down By Georgia Youth

CONYERS, Ga. (UPI) — Two teenage brothers were shot to death and another youth was badly wounded in a bizarre jealousy killing by a 20-year-old youth late Wednesday night, officers said.

Rockdale County Sheriff W. T. Wallace said the brothers were blasted from short range and their mangled bodies dumped down an abandoned well adjacent to a religious camp site a few miles from here.

Wallace said the two bodies were thrown in the well by the 20-year-old youth, his 15-year-old girlfriend and his 15-year-old brother.

The slain brother was identified as Thomas Henderson 15, and Donald Wayne Henderson, 16, both of near Covington.

The wounded youth, J. Michael Flanagan, 16, told officers he crawled to safety while Byrd, his brother and the girl dragged the bodies of his companions to the well.

Officers said Byrd fired three blasts, two of which killed the Henderson brothers. The third blast tore off Flanagan's ear and wounded him in the shoulder. He was treated at a local hospital and then transferred to one in Atlanta, about 28 miles from here. His condition was listed as fair.

Victim Of Persecution, Says Wiretap Indictee

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — State Sen. Wendell P. Harris, indicted with two other Baton Rouge men on wiretap charges, said today he was the victim of politically-motivated persecution.

A federal grand jury in New Orleans Wednesday charged Harris and businessman Leon M. Patterson and private investigator Lawrence W. Hall with involvement in tapping telephone conversations of Baton Rouge religious leaders who signed a pro-integration statement.

Harris denied any knowledge of the tapping of any telephone line "of any minister, pastor, rabbi, priest or religious organization." He said he was being persecuted "because of my sincere and legitimate efforts to protect the sovereignty of the state of Louisiana."

Harris is vice chairman of the State Sovereignty Commission, a watchdog agency for segregationist and states' rights causes. He is the father of Wendell Harris Jr., a star fullback on the LSU football team now training in Florida for the Orange Bowl game against Colorado.

Rezoning For Junk Yard Is Overruled

In a highly controversial public hearing held in the county commission chambers Wednesday, several citizens living in the vicinity of Cameron Ave. near the site of a proposed salvage yard, appeared to present petitions and protest against the "junk yard" and the commissioners granted their appeal by a four to one vote.

Permission to establish the salvage yard had already been granted to Buddy LeFils, but the history of the transaction is involved.

The zoning commission did not approve rezoning the area from A-1 (agricultural) to M-1 (industrial). However, the board of county commissioners overruled this decision and rezoned the area to industrial use.

Then the zoning board of adjustment granted permission to establish the salvage yard under the new rezoning regulations.

Irate property owners, exercising their right of appeal to the board of county commissioners as the higher authority, vigorously protested the proposed "junk yard" as they called it, claiming that the establishment of such a business would downgrade their property values and constitute an eyesore.

E. B. Stowe, painter and artist, appeared to be the spokesman for a group of 12 property owners. Also appearing were C. J. Meriwether and Mrs. Frances McDougall.

Chairman of the board J. C. Hutchison stated that personally, he would not like to live near a salvage yard and would not vote to put his neighbors in that position.

Mrs. McDougall called the attention of the commission to an article in a recent copy of the Saturday Evening Post, which stated that "Americans are the greatest nest-foulers in the world," and that "greed is spoiling Florida's natural resources." It was also called "reckless exploitation."

LeFils, appearing in his own interest, said that he had advertised his intentions in the Sanford Herald three times as legally required and that the area was zoned for industrial business. He reminded the commissioners that the establishment of the salvage yard had already been approved and he had gotten the O.K. from the necessary boards.

"Why are we back up here?" LeFils asked.

"This area is the dead end of the county," he said, "I wouldn't want to get into the middle of a residential section. I know all the regulations concerning the establishment of a salvage yard, the 50 ft. offset, the building of a fence, and intend to comply with these regulations."

Commissioner John Fitzpatrick, who said he resented remarks made by Stowe concerning Fitzpatrick's business connections and how he should vote, made a motion that the county commissioners sustain the action of the board of adjustment and permit the salvage yard to be established.

To Incorporate Or Not

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn offered some information to areas considering incorporation and urged the eligible property owners not on the voting rolls to register so they may have a voice in the decision on whether to incorporate or not.

Dunn listed the following points: "Whether to incorporate an area of Fern Park south of Casselberry and south and east of Altamonte Springs, is being discussed and preliminary plans are being made. Since a decision either for or against incorporating can be made by only a two-thirds majority of a resident freeholders registered to vote, it is presently possible for resident home owners of 231 homes of an approximate total of 700 homes in the area to control. Those not registered to vote are urged to do so at once. The registration office is open each Tuesday.

"The basic purposes for incorporating a town or city are: local self-government provided by a charter in accordance with Chapters 165 thru 171 Florida statutes; local control for the orderly, planned development of the community and provide improvements and services not provided by the County, for which certain sources of revenue are available to make the town or city self-sustaining.

"A municipality cannot properly function and provide the usual construction, improvement and death certificate was signed by the justice of the peace after study indicated no evidence of foul play in the death of a Negro woman. Two doctors had refused to sign the death certificate, but wouldn't sign a statement that they thought circumstances warranted an autopsy.

Furthermore, Avery said Hoseman told him that any action in such a matter is at the discretion of the state's attorney.

"What we really need is a county medical examiner on full salary," Avery said.

Chairman J.C. Hutchison suggested a meeting with the doctors on the examining board and Commissioner Fitzpatrick made a motion that they be asked to discuss the matter with the commission at the next meeting.

Commissioner Avery said that he had discussed the case with assistant state's attorney Tony Hoseman after the doctors wrote the commission a letter of protest and that Hoseman had told him that this was what happened: The handing requests by dredging companies for permits in the county.

Brown and a group of dredging firm operators appeared at Wednesday's meeting to discuss the problems of issuing permits, which sometimes takes as long as two weeks under the present system.

The board of county commissioners voted to deposit surplus funds of nearly $400,000 to the bidder paying the highest interest rates for six months.

South Seminole Bank in Fern Park bid three and a half percent per annum, which would give the county funds a profit of $7,000 for the six months period that the funds will lie idle.
