Shrine Band Will Entertain Monday Night At Game

The red feet are all over town! And the wearers are selling tickets to the Annual Shrine Club benefit baseball game to be staged Monday night 7:45 p. m. at the Sanford Memorial Baseball Stadium.

Everybody loves a baseball game—and everybody loves a brass band.

And that's the reason for the second annual Shrine Club benefit baseball game between the Phoenix Glants of the Pacific Coast League and the Corpus Christi Glants of the Texas League.

The game will be between the two top teams completing their spring training at the Glant Farm System Training Base. The Phoenix Glants is a AAA Club while the Corpus Christi Glants is a AA club.

One of the many features of Monday night's annual event will be a concert by the Bahia Temple Shrine band at 7 p. m. This 25-piece band is under the direction of "Doc" Hill, a band director of many years experience and former director of the Oasis Shrine Temple band in Charlotte, N. C., his former home.

The band will entertain with rousing Sousa marches, catchy fox trots, and perhaps a longhair number or two.

Col. E. G. Harriman is chairman of the event and members of the local Shrine Club are going all out to make Monday evening an enjoyable one for all who attend.

Another feature of the benefit baseball game will be the "Fun and Frolic Unit" of the Bahia Temple. These members, as clowns, will go through many antics to provide laughs for the young and old alike.

Shrine Club members will be selling popcorn, cold drinks, and peanuts in the stands throughout the game.

Mixed Tag Team Match Will Be Featured Tonite

A mixed tag team match—with a male and girl wrestler on each team—will be one of the features of the three-hour wrestling show at the National Guard Armory tonight. The first match will begin at 8:30 p. m.

The pairings for the mixed tag team match will be announced at ring time.

Of much interest tonight will be the return match between Great Tanaka, the Japanese wrestler, and Doran O'Hara.

O'Hara is itching for the chance at Tanaka. When they wrestled here last week Tanaka used a blackjack to knock out O'Hara. O'Hara demanded a return match but got it only by agreeing to wrestle under Japanese rules.

In the girl match fiery Juanita Velez, the Latin bombshell, will wrestle Mae Masten.

The National Guard sponsors and promotes the weekly wrestling matches here. Guard officials have been disappointed in the attendance so far but hope the crowds will pick up.

Cuban Rebels Call Off Hunger Strike

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (UP)—Thirty-five captured Cuban rebels called off their hunger strike in its eighth day Wednesday night on learning the United States has banned further arms shipments to the Cuban government of Fulgencio Batista.

The rebels, captured last Thursday as they attempted to sail in an arms laden ship to the aid of Cuban rebel leader Fidel Castro, had originally vowed to starve "to the death if necessary" to protest their imprisonment. They had not eaten for two days before their capture, doctors said.

Seventeen had been taken to Mercy Hospital where they were fed intravenously while continuing the strike by refusing to take food by mouth.

The rebels' leader, Arnaldo Barron, 34, of New York, and three other ringleaders were to appear in court today for hearing on a habeas corpus proceeding filed by their attorney.

Before breaking their fast the 18 jailed rebels sang their "victory song" and later said a prayer and sang again.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Grace Newton, Sanford; two daughters, Betty and Bonnie Newton, Sanford; one son, Richard Newton, Sanford; and his mother, Mrs. John Costello, St. Louis, Mo.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Brison Funeral Home with the Rev. Joe H. Courson and Dr. R. E. Rutland officiating.

Interment will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park.

Henriette Stephenson, bass soloist, will be heard with the choir singing "And, He, Bearing His Cross, Went Forth."

"N I Bear Not A Scar For Him" and be sung by Mrs. G. B. Drake, soprano soloist.

The choir sings "Now Upon The First Day Of The Week" followed by the double trio, Mrs. Christine Woodruff, Mrs. G. A. Tucker, Mrs. C. A. Anderson, Mrs. Ann Stephens, Miss Joyce Miam, and Mrs. W. P. Brooks, singing "Till The Glad Story."

Mrs. W. B. Pippin, alto soloist, will be heard with choir singing "Death Is Swallowed Up In Victory" followed by the tenors, Dr. C. W. Baker, W. Hugh Dunes, Kenneth Black, and Myron F. Smith, singing with the choir "The Song Of The Redeemed."

Mrs. L. F. Garner, soprano soloist, will sing "Behold, I Stand At The Door And Knock", F. E. McCoy, bass soloist, sings "We Shall See Jesus."

Climax of the cantata, "Redemption's Song" is the choir's singing of "Rejoice And Be Glad."

Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church, said that "the public is cordially invited to hear the cantata Sunday night."

President Introduces New Streamlined Reorganization Plan

By CHARLES W. CONDRY
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan seemed to many today to take America a long step toward a single military fighting force.

Under pressure of the air-atomic and missile age and with need for instant command decisions, Eisenhower's plan broke with service traditions as old as the Republic.

"Separate ground, sea and air war fare is gone forever," he told a none-too-receptive Congress in a special 7,000-word message Thursday.

He said he would strip the present Army, Navy and Air Force Departments of their combat forces and assign those fighting elements to "truly unified" commands.

Unified commanders would have "unquestioned authority" over the air, ground and sea units assigned them and would receive their orders directly from the President, Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The service secretaries and their departments would be cut out of the military chain of command completely. Their job from now on would be administration, supply, training and budgeting.

The combat elements would in effect become forces of the Defense Department responsible to McElroy and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

"We must recognize that Law our military organization reflects the traditional concept of separate forces for land, sea and air operations," the President said. "Clearly incompatible with unified commands whose missions and weapons systems go far beyond concepts and traditions of individual services."

U. S., Allies Near Split Over Disarmament Plan

Progress Report To Highlight CofC Directors Meeting

A progress report on industrial development in Seminole County will highlight the quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

The meeting will be held at 7 p. m. in the Ballroom Room of the Mayfair Inn and will be a dinner meeting, said Kridler.

Reservations are necessary. The Chamber of Commerce Manager said, and must be made by noon Monday at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Also on the agenda of the meeting will be a demonstration of the newest telephone equipment. Bob Shelden, Group Manager of Southern Bell Telephone Company will give the demonstration and explain the various types of equipment to be demonstrated.

"Something new has been added," Chamber Manager Kridler said in his letter as he explained that Mrs. Orela Higginbotham, president of the Sanford Women's Golf Association, will introduce a couple of the State Champions who will be attending the Women's State Golf Tournament here at that time.

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States and its allies are near a dangerous split over a possible shift in policy on disarmament and an East-West summit meeting.

Indications are that differences over these two important issues were argued by the allied powers recently and left unsettled. The differences are major ones, but the United States is confident they can be overcome.

In an effort to get on with work toward a possible summit meeting with the Russians, President Eisenhower has ordered a speed-up in his executive order for a "new look" disarmament policy designed to break the East-West arms deadlock.

The top-level policy review will include the possibility of halting nuclear tests, halting production of nuclear bomb materials, reducing nuclear bomb stockpiles, reducing dangers of surprise attack and cutting back armed forces and conventional armaments, and the President's proposals for an international agreement to use outer space for peaceful purposes.

NATO Meeting in May
The United States hopes that the basic disarmament review can be completed in general form by the end of this month and opened with U. S. allies. The council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization will meet in Paris May 5.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other allied leaders will attend.

In addition to the disarmament problem, it is known that the United States and its allies do not see eye to eye on how to proceed with summit negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Negotiators Not Determined
A crisis on this point was barely headed off last weekend when Eisenhower and Dulles held a series of emergency telephone conversations to discuss the problem of which allied nations would ne-golate with the Soviets at a summit conference. The decision was to table the issue temporarily.

Monday's Big Three note to Moscow made no mention of the composition of negotiating forces in the western side.

Italy, Turkey, West Germany and some other nations are understood to have questioned whether they should let the United States, Britain and France undertake diplomatic negotiations with the Russians on their behalf.

Merchants Association Requests CofC Group Take Over Functions

Out of a membership of over 300 only six members of the Sanford Merchants Association attended a meeting this morning in the City Commissioners Room of the City Hall to discuss two important problems.

President Francis Roumillat said that letters had been mailed to every member of the organization requesting attendance at the meeting to discuss a $400 debt to the Sanford-Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce for staging last year's Christmas Parade.

Also on the agenda was the problem of "very little interest" and a suggestion that the organization be disbanded.

200 Women Golfers Register For State Tournament Here

Sanford will host the Florida Women's State Golf Tournament next week. Some 200 women golfers have registered for the event. Play will be held at the Mayfair Country Club and the Sanlando Country Club.

After discussing the two problems, the group of six merchants stated that the $400 would be raised in order to pay the Jaycee debt for the 1957 Christmas Parade.

"We are surprised that there is such little interest in the Sanford Merchants Association," Members said as they discussed the problems confronting the organization.

Registration will begin on Monday, when ladies from all over the state will pour into Sanford. The pairings will be posted Saturday in the locker room. Each player is responsible for her mixing time.

The group recommended that the Jaycees appoint a "finance committee" from its associate membership which includes Sanford merchants to assist in the raising of funds for the annual Christmas Parade.

"The only alternative left for us is to request that the Chamber of Commerce Commercial Activities Committee take over the functions heretofore handled by this association," members said.

The special calendar includes dinner Monday night for the state board of directors and the advisory committee. Tuesday night at 8:30 p. m. "Forbidden Fruit and Fab Fashion" will be presented in the Mayfair ballroom.

The members attending approved a request to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce that its Commercial Activities Committee take over the functions of the Merchants Association, eliminating, however the financing of the Christmas Parade each year.

Wednesday night members will attend a business meeting at 5:00 p. m. in the ballroom. An informal barbeque Thursday at 7:30 p. m. will be held at the Mayfair Country Club. The press is invited.

The public is cordially invited to join in this service of exaltation and praise commemorating the resurrection of Christ.

Other social plans for the week call for a cocktail party Friday night; banquet Saturday night, and the presentation of prizes Sunday afternoon at the Mayfair Country Club.

The program will be as follows:
Prelude, Seminole High School Band
Call to Worship, Psalm 16:8-11, Joel D. Brown, Church of God
Invocation, Rev. C. D. Caldwell, Church of God
The Lord's Prayer, Congregation

Ministerial Assn. Adopts Objectives

The Seminole County Ministerial Association met at the First Presbyterian Church Thursday morning.

The program of sharing sermon outlines, topics and suggestions was presented in which all those present participated.

The Rev. Perry L. Stone, president, called the business session to order. Final preparations for the Good Friday service and the Easter Sunrise service were completed.

The Association was informed of the following announcements: (1) The Church Music Workshop offered by the General Extension Division of the State of Florida in Gainesville, April 21 and 22. Those interested should contact Mr. Stone. (2) The Seminole County Mental Health Association's film and forum program to be presented at the Pinecrest School Monday, April 28. At least two representatives from each church are requested to attend. (3) The president called attention to the Easter editorials being published by The Sanford Herald this week which were written by five of the ministers.

Copies of the Teen Guide which was recently adopted by the Seminole High School were distributed to the ministers.

Public Schools To Resume Classes

Incorrect information regarding the closing of Seminole County Schools on Monday, Apr. 7 has been circulated. R. T. Milwee, Superintendent of Public Instruction, said today.

"Public schools will be in regular session on Monday," said Milwee. "All students in all of the Seminole County public schools will report to their classes Monday morning at the regular time and buses will operate on regular schedule," he said.

The publicity chairman reported that the editor of The Sanford Herald had offered to publish editorials by the ministers. This offer was accepted and the decision was made to schedule editorials for the weeks of Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas with the expectation that this plan could be expanded to include more frequent editorials.

The next meeting will be a social affair to be held at the Pinecrest Baptist Church Friday, May 9. At that time the families of the ministers will join together for a steak dinner.

John H. Noyes

DuPont Official Rotary Club Guest Speaker Monday

John H. Noyes, Southern District Manager for the DuPont Company's Extension Division, will discuss the role of industrial research and business enterprise in strengthening our national economy and improving the American standard of living, in an address before the Sanford Rotary Club Monday.

His talk, entitled "Community of Progress," will be documented by display of a number of recent scientific developments, some new as to be still in the experimental stage. Noyes also will cite examples of the inter-dependence of all segments of the American business establishment in creating today's progress and seeking solutions to tomorrow's problems.

Noyes, who makes his headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., joined DuPont at Wilmington, Delaware, early in 1957 as a member of the Public Relations Department's Information Division. Later, he was transferred to the Extension Division, where he served as Manager of the Eastern District before being appointed Manager of the Southern District.

He was graduated by Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, in 1948. After three years with the Navy during World War II, he became a reporter for the Port Huron, Mich., Times-Herald. THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four essential reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FROM THE DIARY OF OUR DESTINY

God only waits in the morning for the rest... of the world...

Thus begins the most amazing account of human experience ever written. And so simply, with just a notation of time: the hour, the day, the very moment!

But like a church bell sounding his call to worship, that simple notation of time has become the clarion of a New Life.

So deeply has it penetrated our pre-occupation with the routine of every-day existence that millions gather at sunrise to greet the dawn of each Easter Day.

What has given such meaning to one moment in time?

Its PROMISE: Christ is risen. The One Who said, because I live, ye shall live also—He lives!

This tremendous moment, for all who worship Him in faith, became the first entry in the Diary of our Destiny.

This "Support The Church" Series, Published Each Week in The Sanford Herald with the approval of the Seminole County Ministerial Association, is made possible by the co-operation of these well-known business establishments:

Millions Of People Have That Question In Mind Today!

Just a few months ago, when Russia was in the throes of a revolution, it seemed fanciful to think of a tax reduction in that country. Many then thought, as a matter of fact, that there was a real likelihood of tax increases right up to a war-time level.

Now it is still in orbit, circling the globe, and is now accompanied by the U. S. Navy's battleships and the U. S. Navy's warships. Military spending is soaring. Yet, as Mr. Hoover writes (and most of the other editorial commentators are now saying), "the same thing" . . . a big tax cut . . . has been written down as a certain unless it is a sudden and totally unexpected "tax-cut-upturn." Leaders of both the political parties are now leaning that way, and each side, naturally enough, will try to exploit the greatest possible political advantage from whatever it does.

"Within the administration," Mr. Hoover writes, "there is no longer any resistance whatsoever to a big tax cut. If the economic conditions continue, the only debate is on timing and size of the cut." One administration spokesman, it is believed, is led by Vice President Nixon, who wants the cut to be no less than $5 billion, and would like more. It also wants to move quickly. The President and the Secretary of the Treasury, on the other hand, regard the $5 billion as a maximum figure, and are inclined to delay action until a clear picture of what the economy is going through emerges.

Just what form or forms the tax cut will take when it comes is a highly controversial matter now. Many proposals are in the wind. Some want to "forgive" all or part of withholding taxes for a period of time, on the ground that this would pump some money into the channels of consumption in the shortest length of time. Some want to increase the individual exemptions from the present $500 to $750 or $800 — a move that would give most of the benefit to bottom-bracket taxpayers. Some favor a across-the-board cut of, say 10 per cent. This naturally would give more of the cash to the middle and upper bracket taxpayers. Also there are other ideas, such as fixed tax credits for each member of the taxpayer's family, and an increase in the optional standard deduction, which is now 10 per cent, or, if deductible items are listed, a maximum of $1,000. Either of these plans would primarily benefit lower-bracket taxpayers.

If we have a tax cut along with greatly increased government spending, what is going to happen? One thing is sure — the government will again engage in deficit financing on a huge and perhaps unprecedented scale. That deficit, as Mr. Hoover sees it, could even be of a size . . . to make the eyes of the most daring New Deal pump-primer bug out" — that is, $10 billion or more. The actual size, of course, will be in large part determined by government revenues which in turn depend upon individual and business incomes. As of now, these revenues will be much below the earlier estimates. It is the hope of the advocates of big tax cuts that pump-priming will change that situation.

Finally, one little word should be mentioned here — inflation. Will these pending government policies and actions set off a new and major inflationary wave and cheapen the dollar some more?

Millions of people have that question in mind today.

Progress Begins As Mere Dream

Writing in Parade Magazine, Robert P. Goldman tells what American medicine is doing to prolong our lives. It's a story of tremendous achievement and potential.

This year, for instance, the girls who are born will live an average of 78 years and the boys 67 years — all time highs in the history of civilization. And that expectancy is due to steadily increase as time wears on.

Mr. Goldman lists a number of areas in which gains are being chalked up. As he puts it: "Medicine is closing in on our No. 1 killer, diseases of the heart and blood vessels, which cost the United States about 1,000,000 lives a year." The menace of blood pressure has been greatly alleviated, through new drugs and regulated diets. We are making headway against the most stubborn of all killers, cancer — present day therapy saves one in three cancer patients and high hopes are held for a new discovery which may be the key to prevention of some types of the disease. Notable strides are being made in surgery. According to Mr. Goldman, "Today surgeons operate with confidence on persons at any age," and postoperative death rates are extremely low, even among the old.

As recently as 80 years ago it was generally believed that the major chronic diseases such as heart trouble were hopeless. Now the picture has changed utterly.

Thus does medicine push back the frontiers, and give us longer, healthier, happier lives. Today there are 39,000 Americans aged 95 or older, and 6,000 who have passed the century mark. To quote Mr. Goldman once again: "It may be a dream to think that those numbers will increase significantly in the next generation or two. But experience has shown that medical progress often begins as a mere dream."

Income Tax Tips

The Florida Accountants Association — an affiliate of National Society of Public Accountants — has examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true, correct, and complete return.

The law prescribes and the courts may assess severe penalties for:

1. Willful making subscribing a false return up to $5,000 fine.
2. Willful attempt in any manner to evade or defeat tax: $10,000 fine or five years imprisonment, or both.
3. Willful failure to pay tax or file the proper returns: $10,000 fine or one year imprisonment, or both.

The Treasury has authority to assess for:

1. Unpaid tax or deficiency, 6% per year from the due date of any such tax or deficiency.
2. Negligence without any intent to defraud, 5% of the total deficiency.

3. Failure to file return on time 5% to 25% of the tax due.

4. Fraud with intent to evade tax, 50% of the total deficiency.

5. Attempt to depart from the United States without paying all taxes or to conceal property, 25% of the tax or deficiency plus 6% interest.

There is no reason for you to pay more taxes than the law prescribes or to be timid in taking every deduction permitted by law. Your tax return should contain a full and clear explanation of every item entered thereon; and you should retain in your possession for at least 6 years, all pertinent papers, bills, checks, receipts, etc., in connection with your return.

Uncle Sam has many sources of information concerning your income besides your tax return. In addition, your return is audited by a trained staff of expert accountants who probably have had experience with every conceivable method of avoiding or evading taxes. The Treasury has added a large number of employees to its staff and each return is due for a more thorough going over than in past years. These people are well trained and know their business, but they are not mind readers.

Be sure to fully explain every detail of your tax return on the return or on an attached statement so that Uncle Sam will understand exactly what you are doing.

THE CRUCIFIXION: Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. — John 19:25.

What Easter Means To Me

By the Rev. John W. Thomas

All a part of the Episcopal Church I hold the Catholic Faith regarding Easter and its meaning. It is our belief that on the Resurrection Day Jesus the Christ rose triumphant over death. The Apostle's Creed concisely puts it, "the third day He rose again from the dead."

This Resurrection of our Lord was the very first, the center of the message which the Apostles preached. They preached that Jesus was the Christ, the proof of which was that He had returned from the dead.

Personally, Easter means to me that death has been conquered by Christ, once and for all. Death, in its relation to the body, is the same for men as for other animals. But the death of a man differs from the death of a horse or a rabbit. The death of a man is the violent separation of the body from the immortal soul; the body remains a part of the earth, but the soul never ceases to exist. This is the reason we in the Church never consider death a light thing. We do not try to hide it or pretend it never happened by saying of a loved one who has died that they "went away" or that they "are asleep." I shall someday die. So shall you.

Our Faith teaches us that the body is not merely the temporary dwelling place of the soul. Only the soul is immortal. The body is a necessary part of every human person. As a person, we are not complete without a body. To be deprived of one's body is a mutilation. That mutilation is the punishment of sin — "the wages of sin is death," Romans 6:23. It is useless to guess what form death would have taken if man had never sinned. We are now dealing with man as he is, not with man as he might have been. For people like me and like you, death is a punishment.

When our Lord rose from the dead on Easter, never again to die, He overcame the power of

Foreign News Commentary

BY CHARLES M. McCANN

United Press Staff Correspondent

The latest Kremlin shake-up appears to indicate that a one-man dictatorship is essential in Soviet Russia.

Nikita S. Khrushchev's assumption of the post of Premier, in addition to that of First Secretary of the Communist Party, apparently marks the end of a five-year period of "collective leadership." Nikolai A. Bulganin, who has been demoted from Premier to president of the State Bank, was the last of five men who were in the first rank of leadership when Joseph Stalin died on March 5, 1953.

Khrushchev may not be another Stalin. For one thing, there is no sign that he possesses Stalin's insane lust for power. It may be that he will listen to, and be somewhat guided by, the views of his colleagues in the ruling Communist Party Presidium.

But it happened that one by one the top-ranking men who stood with Khrushchev beside Stalin's coffin have gone — Lavrenti P. Beria, Georgi M. Malenkov, Lazar M. Kaganovich, Vyacheslav M. Molotov and Bulganin. With them has gone Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, who rose to the first rank later.

Few Survivors

The only survivors of those who stood beside the coffin besides Khrushchev are Marshal Klement E. Voroshilov, the 77-year-old figurehead president of Russia, and Anastas I. Mikoyan, who had not then really attained first rank.

Now, whatever happens, the five-year collective leadership has gone. For even if Khrushchev sits with the council of his fellow members of the Presidium, he is the unchallenged leader.

Since Malenkov, Molotov and Kaganovich plotted to overthrow him last June, Khrushchev has packed the Presidium with younger men, on whose loyalty he feels he can depend, from the various Soviet republics.

He seems safe from intrigue against him for quite a while. The men who have gone were accused, probably justly, of trying to disrupt the collective leadership either because like Beria and Zhukov they coveted the leadership themselves or because like Malenkov, Molotov, Kaganovich and Bulganin they disagreed with Khrushchev's policies.

Intrigue seems to have developed almost from the first in the post-Stalin leadership. There was little apparent intrigue in Stalin's day. It was Stalin's practice to strike first when he suspected any disloyalty. He was no ratiocinator, who gave warning with his rattle, but a cobra.

Little Father, Big Brother

Now, it might be said, things are normal again in Russia — normal even as they were in the days before 1917 when czar was the "little father."

Under Communism the big brother, rather than the little father, is an essential man.

Nikolai Lenin was the big brother before his death in 1924. He was a much bigger man than either Stalin or Khrushchev and it is interesting to speculate what might have happened in Russia had he lived.

"After Lenin came the grim years of Stalin. Then Khrushchev denounced Stalin and the 'cult of personality.'" But for whatever reason, the collective leadership which followed did not work.

Whether Khrushchev all along aspired to one-man dictatorship or had it thrust upon him by circumstances does not matter. He is now the big brother, which Russian Communism seems to need.

EVERGLADES TRIP — Congress is still trying to settle the Everglades boundary dispute. Land that was once almost worthless and was slated to go to the park now looks valuable to many owners who want to keep it. Other land that was originally included in the plans for the park are not now needed. The wrangle over the final boundaries has gone on for several years. Senators Holland and Smithers have a bill that would settle the question. The same bill is now going through the House. During the Easter recess, some members of the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee will travel to the park to see for themselves what the argument is all about. Florida Congressman Jim Haley, a member of the committee, will be with the group; also Dante Fascell and Paul Rogers, sponsors of the bill. Other Congressmen scheduled for this Florida trip are: Mrs. Grace Pflanz, (D-Idaho), Al Ullman (D-Ore), Ed Edmondson (D-Okla), George Christopher (D-Me), William Dawson (R-Utah), John Rhodes (R-Aris), J. T. Rutherford (D-Texas), Stewart Udall (D-Aris).

MORE PRESSURE NEEDED? — Last week we told how Senator Holland had asked the State Department to file a high level protest with England over her failure to buy American grown fruit. Holland said that because of all the financial help we have given England, the least she should do would be to buy our products — especially when the price and the quality were better than she could get elsewhere. The State Department didn't do anything about it. This week, Holland called his own high level meeting. Present were Senators Knowland and Kuchel of California and Neuberger of Oregon. Also there was Douglas Dillon, Deputy Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs. The meeting became fairly heated. Result: State Department will lodge protest. Copy to be reviewed by the fruit producers before it is mailed. Time — light away.

HOW HIGH THE BRIDGE? — Some people like draw bridges. But the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers prefers high fixed span bridges. They are much cheaper to maintain. And highway traffic moves better when it isn't stopped for a draw to open. But, how high to make them? The Engineers say that 55 feet will take care of all necessary traffic where the bridges pass over inter coastal waterways. Some ship owners insist that all fixed span bridges be 80 feet high. Arguments on both sides will be heard in the Engineers' Office in Jacksonville, April 24. If you are worried about the height of bridges, be there. NO MORE LACHTHALL — This is the time of year when we are supposed to do our baseball story. But, there won't be one this year. The traditional baseball game between the Republicans and Democrats in Congress is no more. Byrd, Herlong, who managed the Democrats for more years than we can remember, may now vacillate during the Easter recess. Instead of entering them at Daytona Beach, certain there have been so many deaths in the Congress lately that the Capitol Hill doctors said it would be better to leave the strenuous exercise on the diamond to younger men — besides they know how to play baseball.

TWO YOUNG CONGRESSMEN — Scene: banquet at the Shoreham Hotel, staged by the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report. Honored guests: Florida Congressmen Danie Fascell and Paul Rogers. Reason: their part in passing the government reorganization bill sponsored by the Committee. (Rogers authored a Fascell "door manager" it.)

R. T. Milwee Speaks To Club On Value Of Women In Science

R. T. Milwee, Seminole County Superintendent of Schools, was the speaker Wednesday when the Sanford Woman's Club held a luncheon and general business meeting at the clubhouse on Oak St.

Mr. Milwee opened his talk with an inspirational Easter message, "I Carried His Cross". He then stated that women have become important annually in science, which is being stressed more and more in Seminole County and all over the country.

During the past five years an average of 100,000 women have graduated from universities and colleges. Only 671 of them have majored in physics. In other data, Mr. Milwee revealed that 5% of doctors are women, 10% are chemists, and 23% are biologists. The demand for women in the field of science is growing, and they will experience still more opportunity in the future.

Mr. Milwee discussed the pupil assignment plan in Florida, and went on to praise the Seminole County teaching staffs. Despite limited facilities, the teachers are doing an excellent job.

The club house was decorated with azaleas and greenery in tall baskets. Arrangements of pansies centered each table.

Greeting guests at the door were Mrs. B. T. Warren, Mrs. C. R. Dawson, and Mrs. J. E. Courier. During the business meeting members were urged to attend the program April 15, which will be sponsored by the American Home Department. The Seminole High School band will play at this time, under the direction of Ernest Cowley.

Other announcements included the luncheon April 21 of the Federated Garden Clubs. The luncheon will be held from 11:00 to 2:00 p. m. in Albemarle Springs. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund.

Delegates were chosen for the state convention attending will be Mrs. George Wells and Mrs. Earl Van Fleet. Alternates are Mrs. H. W. Buckner and Mrs. J. A. Young. Hostesses were Mrs. F. E. Holt, Mrs. W. D. Hoffman, Mrs. B. R. Beck and Mrs. D. C. Howard.

The luncheon was followed by a card party sponsored by the Social Department. Making arrangements were Mrs. J. E. Baker, Mrs. J. A. Young and Mrs. C. R. Dawson.

Two guests were welcomed, Mrs. Ralph Heilmuller of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. R. J. Jones of Clearwater. Mrs. Jones is a former member and Sanford resident.

In charge of the arrangements and hostesses are Mmes. Emme Thurston, Katherine Senkark and Edna Southward, who served in this capacity last year and who were so highly commended by the 500 people who patronized the "next year capacity" feed.

The menu, food for which will be prepared by the ladies of the church, includes assorted cold cuts, a variety of salads, relishes, bread, cup cakes and choice of drinks. Those who attended the affair last year were loud in their praise of the tasty quality of the food. Mrs. Maxine Ekern, publicity chairman, stated.

VISITING IN SANFORD, are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Turwilliger of Spartanburg, S. C., and children, Ann and Byron. The Turwilligers are shown before the General Sanford Memorial Library, which they have just toured. They are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Truick, and are former Sanford residents. Talent Night Set Monday At 8 p. m.

Plans for Talent Night, Monday evening, are complete, said Mrs. Peg Slayton, chairman, this morning.

The event, which is to get underway at the Episcopal Church Parish House at 8 p. m. is for the purpose of choosing the cast and individual acts for the three-act production, "For Better or Worse" sponsored by the E.S.A. Sorority and the Joyce Wives Club. The show will be given May 3 at the Civic Center.

"We want everyone interested, including men and women, to turn out," stated Mrs. Slayton. She stressed the fact that there will be only three nights required, two rehearsals and the night of production, for those taking part. Models, soloists, comedy acts and anyone else interested are invited to come. She also stressed that there will be no speaking party in the production, so it will not be necessary for anyone to learn any lines.

The Ambassadors of Jazz will furnish the music Monday night. Walter Kimball will play the organ for the production, May 3. The organ will be available through the compliments of Robinson's Music Store.

EPV Cookie Company and Borden's have donated cookies, coffee and cream for refreshments Monday.

The production will be directed by Molly Kay Enterprises and will include a fashion show and bridal fashion show.

A contest is being conducted to choose the bride for the bridal fashion show. Posters and ballot boxes have been set up in Hounshell and Anderson's and Touchton's Drug Stores and residents are urged to go in either drug store and vote.

Contestants are Mrs. Lou McDonald, Mrs. Peg Slayton, Miss Lois Barber and Miss Patty Walker.

Florida, Georgia Open Dual-Meet Season Tomorrow

GAINESVILLE — Track teams of Florida and Georgia Tech meet here Saturday at 8 p. m. to open the 1958 dual-meet season for both teams.

Percy Beard, the Georgia coach, reported his team will be hampered to a large extent by injuries and illness to several key performers.

Sprint star Ellis Goddard, who fell near the finish line during the semi-finals of the 100 yard dash in the Florida Relays, may have pulled muscles at the same time he suffered leg cramps. He is out of action for an indefinite period.

Miller Bobby O'Dare and middle-distance runner David Jones will both miss the Tech meet because of flu.

Ready to go are such top performers as high jumper George Fennington, who will face a strong opponent in Tech's Jim Brantly. These two tied for first place in the recent Coliseum indoor games at Ft. dn.

Windfield Willis, who heaved the shot 60 ft. 3 in. in the Florida Relays will be favored in that event.

Bumper Watson, sprint star of the 1955 and 1956 Florida teams, will be entering his first 100 and 200 yard dash events after a year's layoff. Watson, who won second place with a time of 8.8 seconds in the 100 at the 1955 NCAA meet in California is now considered ready to go.

Other performers who should do well for the Gators include Tommy Michaels in the high and low hurdles; Art Foster in the broad jump; Buddy Harrell in the 440; Larry White in the 800; and Mike Moran in the mile and two mile. A one-man gang from Tech is Harry Sugarman of Miami. Sugarman scores in several events during the Florida Relays, and is considered strong in the pole vault, javelin, and high jump.

The last meeting of the State Board before the Florida Women's Golf Association Tournament was held Tuesday, April 1st, at the Mayfair Inn Hotel. The members were guests at a dinner hosted by Mr. Frank Mebane. He felt a square meal was needed to sustain the girls for the week to come. The dinner was well served and tasted delicious. It was appreciated by all. Also attending was Mrs. Frank Mebane, Mrs. Denny Champagne, the Chairman of the Rules Committee from Orlando, and the host pro of the Mayfair Country Club, Mario Carfagna.

At the business meeting that followed all the committees reported that everything was under control. Mrs. William Foulik, Tournament Chairman, had all the pairings for the qualifying rounds, those being played Tuesday and Wednesday the 8th and 9th of April. She and Mr. Henry Bolesta, the official starter, worked them up on Monday. Mrs. John Ivey, Trophy chairman, said the prizes will be on display Monday, April 7th, in the lobby of the Mayfair Inn Hotel. They will remain there until presentation at the Mayfair Country Club, Sunday April 13th.

Miss Cecile Heard, Registration Chairman, gave a final figure of over 200 ladies registered. The Mayfair Country Club and Sanlando Springs Golf Club will be used during the tournament.

Mrs. Charles Mevka, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, gave us the final program arrangements. The meeting was adjourned on a note of great anticipation of seeing old friends and familiar faces during the coming week.

Indians Set In Outfield

By HAL WOOD

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Frank Lane has only started to shake up the Cleveland Indians and before he's finished, it's a safe bet he'll have them back in the first division of the American League.

Lane has a history of moving teams up wherever he goes. He did it with the White Sox and the Cardinals, and now he's busy doing it with the Indians, who finished sixth last year.

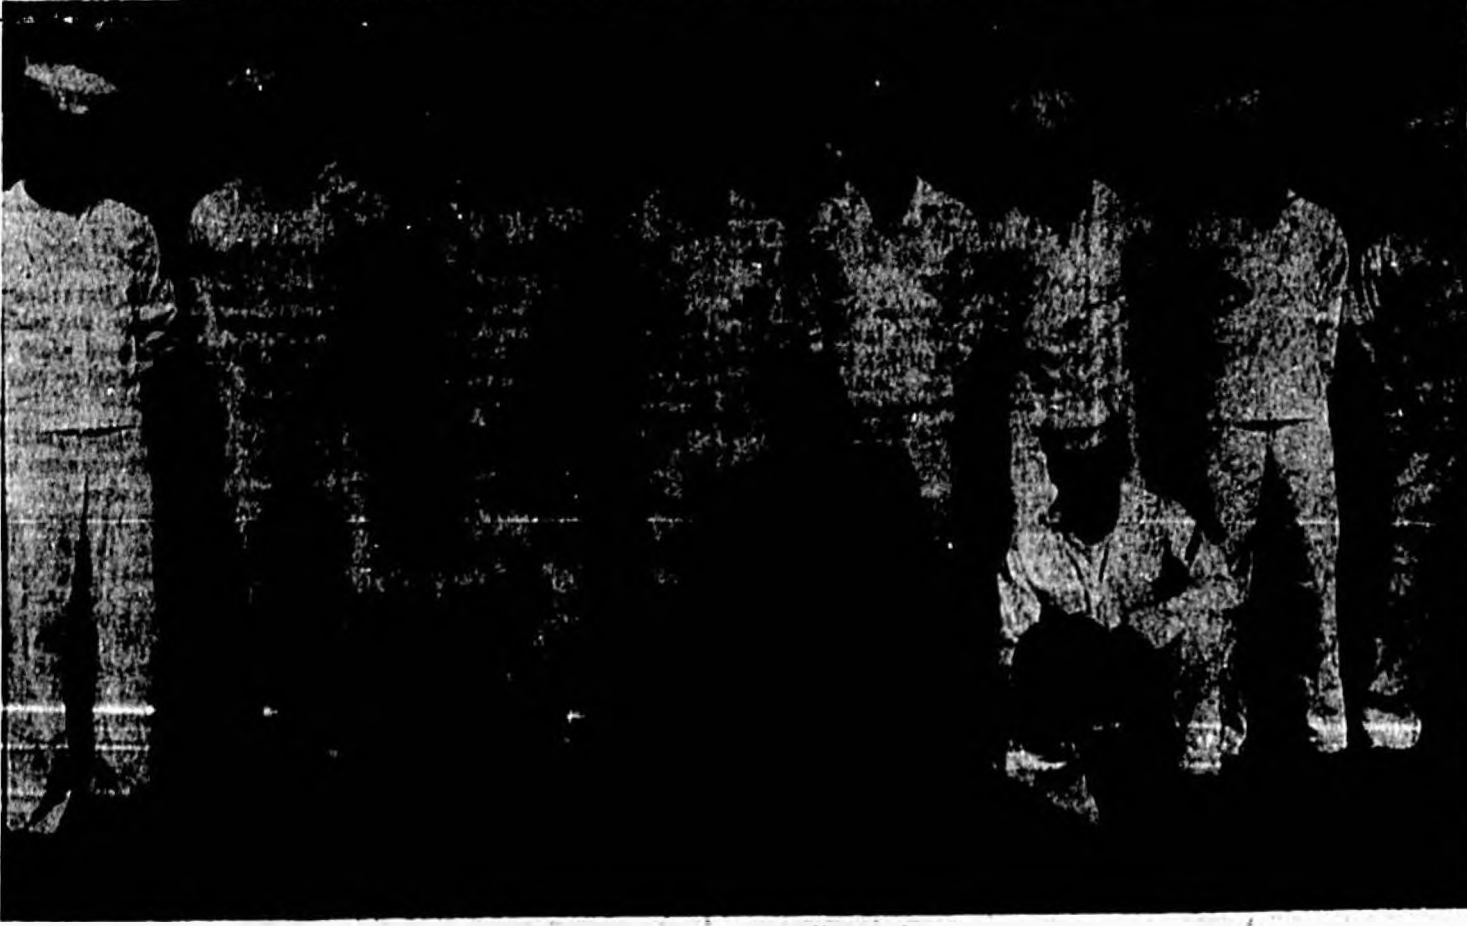

Lane's latest move was getting outfielder Larry Doby and Don Ferrarese, a left-handed, one-year baller, from Baltimore in exchange for Gene Woodling, Dick Williams and Bud Daley.

The Indians now are well set in the outfield with Minnie Mierson in left, Doby in center and either Roger Maris or Rocky Colavito in right.

In the long run, however, the Indians' pitching will decide how high they finish this year.

Heck Score, Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia will be three of Cleveland's starters. Ray Narveski and Don Mossi are a pair of excellent relievers but Manager Bobby Bragan may be forced to start either one or both from time to time unless Ferrarese or Jim (Mudcat) Grant, who was 18-7 with San Diego last year, prove capable of taking a starting turn.

That would still leave Cal McLish, who was 8-7 last year; Pete Wajdy, recently acquired from Detroit; Dick Tomneck and possibly Hal Woodeschick for relief.

Spring Training Ends

GAINESVILLE — Spring training for the Florida Gators' football team now completed, Coach Bob Woodruff took time to reflect on accomplishments this week.

"Naturally, our coaches are never completely satisfied with what we have achieved during the short span of 20 practice days, but we are encouraged by the progress made by some of our freshmen and reserves," Coach Woodruff noted.

"Our first objective in every spring drill is to find out who can play on the varsity next fall. Therefore, we start out by teaching basic fundamentals and move forward as rapidly as we feel we can," he said.

"Our overall job was to replace 16 lettermen who graduated. We were most concerned with the replacement of key personnel at other positions."

He pointed to the loss of All-Conference tackle Charlie Mitchell and tackle Ray Madden, guard Howie Hays, center Joel Wahl, All-Conference left halfback Jim Houtree, fullback Ed Sears and Ends Dan Pelham and Jim Yeats as major losses.

Woodruff said newcomers Chet Collins, Bartow, Ronnie Slack, West Palm Beach, Roger Seals and Ed Hicks, Tampa, made the most progress of the newcomers.

"It remains to be seen how they will fare in Southeastern Conference competition," he added.

Tackles Dick Brantley, St. Augustine; Pete Davidson, Auburndale; and Fred Schutz, Wheeling, W. Va.; all have seen limited action in varsity games and each showed improvement this spring.

In the backfield, Clyde Bultz, Lancaster, Pa., came to Florida last fall from junior college and was a reserve. He did well in the spring and may be called on for action this fall.

Up from the freshmen squad, halfbacks Scotty Dunlop, Daytona Beach; and Gene Page, Tallahassee, gave indication that they will battle to get a shot at a varsity position next year. Don Deal, Corpus Christi, returned from service to re-enroll this year, and the Texas speedster looks like a varsity halfback addition when the Gators open up their ten-game slate with Tulane next Sept. 20.

Woodruff also commended favorably on the showing of reserve Sunny Giles, Jacksonville, and freshman Jon MacBeth, Pensacola, and Bob Milby, Ocala, as varsity calibre for Sears at fullback.

Central Labor Pool Needed In Area

D. B. Hahn, Jr., Manager of the local Florida State Employment Service Office stated today that there is a need for a central labor pool in the area. "Our office has been deluged by applicants for this type of work," Hahn said.

"We find that when employers call us for workers in this category, their needs are urgent and require immediate action. Unless there happens to be an applicant in the office at the time, we would have to examine our files, and either phone or write to an applicant. This takes time and there is no assurance that the person will be reached," said Hahn. "In the meantime the employer is waiting for his help," the Manager added.

"If a central labor pool were established, it would serve as a place where workers could gather at a pre-designated time and day. Local employers could draw from this pool according to their daily needs. It would be a means of obtaining from one to fifty workers on the spur of the moment, with a minimum of effort," the local office manager said.

Employers interested in further information may call Manager Hahn at Fairfax 2-7322 or visit the office at 110 W. 2nd St. Such an arrangement would be of great value to both employers and workers, Hahn said.

Adenauer's Son Studies In U. S.

By JANET McLEAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—The Rev. Paul Adenauer, son of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, is studying American mail business policies at Georgetown University. He seeks information useful to the small businessman of Germany.

A 33 year old Roman Catholic priest, he pointed out that the rapid expansion of the post World War II economy in his homeland has favored large business and has hurt small business to some extent. Small business, he feels, is a foundation of democracy.

Adenauer is the oldest son of the Chancellor's second marriage. He was born Jan. 18, 1923, when his father was Lord Mayor of Cologne.

His theological studies at Bonn University, begun in 1941, were interrupted when he was drafted into the Nazi compulsory labor service and then into the army.

Returning to theology in 1945, he studied for four more years. He was ordained in 1951 and assigned as vicar of Puz, a small industrial town near Cologne, where he made further studies of social problems.

Gerbis, Lilly Tie For Top Honors At Gun Club Shoot

Good weather brought a large turnout at Wednesday's Seminole Gun Club Shoot, which saw Dan Gerbis and Ernest Lilly tie for top honors with scores of 98 out of a possible 100 each. Seven visitors were on hand, of which 3 were welcomed into the club as new members. The top scores reported were:

Dan Gerbis, 98; Ernest Lilly, 98; Dr. H. S. Fugwell, 95; J. T. Hardy, 91; J. F. Harrison, 91; W. A. Leffer Jr., 91; Howard Wheeler, 92; W. A. Adams, 91; J. Q. Galloway, 90; W. S. Kitchell, 90; Mark McTeer, 90; Henry Wright, 89; R. W. Teuch, 89; Ben Butler, 87; Phillip Metzler, 86; David Anderson, 78; Buddy Howard, 75.

By far the hottest score fired, though not the highest, was shot by Buddy Howard with his .44 Magnum, which is the most powerful hand gun in use today, and which stirred great interest at the shoot.

Officers studied new range plans, and discussed details of a spring barbecue to be held for the members in the near future.

President Henry Wright, and Vice-President Roy Williams welcomed Ernest Lilly, Al Lee, Mark McTeer, Dr. H. S. Fugwell, and W. S. Kitchell as new members into the club. The N.G.A. Affiliated club shoots every Wednesday afternoon at the Police Department Pistol Range in back of the Police Station.

THE CARD OF THANKS

Very often a Card of Thanks in The Sanford Herald meets a need which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not only is it a gracious expression of gratitude to those who have sent gifts, tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and assistance of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot well be sent.

Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct. Daily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.

There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.

THE "IN MEMORIUM" NOTICE

It is the custom of many families in this country to commemorate a bereavement by "in memoriam" notices in newspapers or magazines. They find a real source of comfort. Preparation or selection of a suitable verse brings both to the reader, pleasant recollections. As Eliza Cook, the English poet has so beautifully expressed it:

"How cruelly sweet are the echoes
That start
What memory plays an old tune
On the heart."

Most frequently an In Memoriam is inserted on the anniversary of death. However, other dates, which it is felt are appropriate or meaningful are also accepted. The birthday of the departed, the wedding anniversary, Memorial Day, even Christmas are among other significant occasions chosen.

If you are hesitant to express your tender thoughts in poetic form, you may avail yourself of the Herald's collection of original verses. These express in poetic beauty the emotions of the bereaved. Among them are verses appropriate to any circumstance.

THM RATE

Cards of Thanks and In Memoriam notices, due to the fact they may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column inch.

Mitchell Predicts Report Will Show March Employment Rise

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell predicts a government report to be issued Tuesday will show employment rose in March and unemployment didn't change much in February.

"This is the first time in a long time that unemployment in February totaled 5,175,000," Labor Department officials have forecast that Tuesday's report will show some increase over that figure but not more than another 200,000.

In a recorded radio interview with Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), Mitchell said he expected a downturn in unemployment this spring.

Two big non-government organizations meantime called for tax cuts as the fastest way to halt the recession.

The National Planning Assn. recommended tax slashes adding up to $7,300,000,000 in World War II excise taxes and $2,000,000,000 in individual income taxes.

"Wise" Cuts Stressed
The Council of State Chambers of Commerce urged "wise" tax cuts to encourage business investment. It said a massive federal spending program would lead to further inflation without raising public confidence in the economy.

The AFL-CIO and the Committee for Economic Development, also have come out for congressional action to lower taxes.

Mitchell did not rule out the possibility that a tax cut will be necessary. But he insisted any tax cut will depend on an "appraisal" of the economy during the current month.

"Certainly there is no indication right now that it is necessary," he said.

Other top administration officials and key congressional Democrats have predicted it will be at least mid-May before any tax cut decision is made.

Other economic developments:—The Tax Foundation, a private research group, said that states probably will raise their taxes again next year. It said state governments are spending nearly four times as much as in 1948 and have reached a "precarious" financial situation.

Urges Release of Funds
—Five House Democrats, headed by housing subcommittee chairman Albert Rains (D-Ala.), sent President Eisenhower a telegram urging him to release 150 million dollars for city slum clearance. They said the money already has been appropriated.

—Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla.) announced he would head a Senate drive to repeal the 2 per cent excise tax on freight and the 10 per cent passenger tax.

—Sen. Irving M. Iwan (R-N.Y.) said he thought the recession could be stopped without tax cuts. He said a proposed temporary cut in withholding taxes would merely "put more money into savings accounts," not into purchasing.

—Five House Democrats, headed by housing subcommittee chairman Albert Rains (D-Ala.), sent President Eisenhower a telegram urging him to release 150 million dollars for city slum clearance. They said the money already has been appropriated.

—Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla.) announced he would head a Senate drive to repeal the 2 per cent excise tax on freight and the 10 per cent passenger tax.

—Sen. Irving M. Iwan (R-N.Y.) said he thought the recession could be stopped without tax cuts. He said a proposed temporary cut in withholding taxes would merely "put more money into savings accounts," not into purchasing.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell predicts a government report to be issued Tuesday will show employment rose in March and unemployment didn't change much in February.

"This is the first time in a long time that unemployment in February totaled 5,175,000," Labor Department officials have forecast that Tuesday's report will show some increase over that figure but not more than another 200,000.

In a recorded radio interview with Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), Mitchell said he expected a downturn in unemployment this spring.

Two big non-government organizations meantime called for tax cuts as the fastest way to halt the recession.

The National Planning Assn. recommended tax slashes adding up to $7,300,000,000 in World War II excise taxes and $2,000,000,000 in individual income taxes.

"Wise" Cuts Stressed
The Council of State Chambers of Commerce urged "wise" tax cuts to encourage business investment. It said a massive federal spending program would lead to further inflation without raising public confidence in the economy.

The AFL-CIO and the Committee for Economic Development, also have come out for congressional action to lower taxes.

Mitchell did not rule out the possibility that a tax cut will be necessary. But he insisted any tax cut will depend on an "appraisal" of the economy during the current month.

"Certainly there is no indication right now that it is necessary," he said.

Other top administration officials and key congressional Democrats have predicted it will be at least mid-May before any tax cut decision is made.

Other economic developments:—The Tax Foundation, a private research group, said that states probably will raise their taxes again next year. It said state governments are spending nearly four times as much as in 1948 and have reached a "precarious" financial situation.

Urges Release of Funds

Collins Endorses Cross State Barge Canal

TALLAHASSEE (UP)—Governor LeRoy Collins today endorsed the cross state barge canal across north central Florida and said it is nearer to becoming a reality than most people recognize.

Collins said the canal would be a " tremendous boon for industrial development of the state" and would be important in the nation's defense planning.

In his monthly radio report to the people, the governor said basic planning for the canal has been completed, rights-of-way have been bought and the only thing remaining is for congress to appropriate funds for it.

The governor said committee hearings are underway in Washington on request for appropriations to begin immediate construction. Estimated cost of the project is more than $161 million.

"In my opinion the project has a great potential but it also may be the source of some antagonism," Collins said. Based on information he now has the governor added the project is worthwhile and deserves the active united support of the whole state.

The canal would extend from Jacksonville along the St. Johns River near Palatka to a point in the neighborhood of Yankeetown on the gulf coast, passing south in the intra-coastal waterway extending from New Jersey down the east coast of the United States and then along the gulf coast to Mexico.

Lots would be required and a depth of 12 feet and a minimum width of 150 feet would be provided.

In his radio talk Collins also disclosed that a statewide conference on slum clearance will be held in Florida May 9. Federal housing administrator Albert Cole will come to Florida for the conference which is designed to explore Florida's eligibility for more federal assistance in this type program.

Place for the conference has not been set but Collins indicated earlier he wanted it held in Orlando.

47 Killed As Airliner Crashes In Muddy Field

MIDLAND, Mich. (UP)—A four-engine Capital Airlines Viscount, landing on instruments at Tri-City Airport during a snowfall crashed in a muddy field short of the runway Sunday night, killing all 47 persons aboard.

The $2,200,000 British-made plane "burst into flames" the instant it touched the ground and firemen had to string hoses more than a thousand feet through a quagmire of mud to reach the scattered and burning wreckage.

The plane was carrying a capacity load of 44 passengers returning home from Easter holiday trips.

It was the first major commercial air disaster in Michigan.

By 3:45 a. m., 44 bodies had been carried to a temporary morgue set up in a private hangar. State police began trying to identify the bodies, under supervision of coroner William Shea and Harold Coderberg.

Crew Identified
The crew members were Capt. William Joseph (Joe) Hull, 46, Ridgewood Blvd., Westwood, N. J., a veteran Capital pilot; First Officer or co-pilot Earl M. Blackley, 37, 24 Moss Lane, Levittown, N. Y.; and hostess Ruth Senoche, 37, East Aurora, N. Y., a native of Jackson, Mich.

John Wolas, New York, vice president in charge of the advancement of education for the Ford Foundation, was aboard the plane. Names of some aboard were withheld until relatives were notified.

Capital said it was the airline's first crash causing a death since December, 1949. The airline had flown six billion passenger miles since that crash.

The plane was on a flight from New York City to Chicago, with stops at Detroit, Flint, Mich., and the Tri-City Airport.

Capital Airlines at Saginaw and Detroit declined to discuss the possible cause of the crash or to disclose flight communication between the pilot and Capital's Tri-City office on the instrument approach.

Instrument Approach
The plane was approaching the airport from the southwest on instruments when it apparently undershot the runway and plunged into a muddy corn field.

Private pilot Harry Shafer of Flint was sitting in another plane on the runway and saw the crash. "It hit the ground and blew up," he said. "There was a flash and then the flames."

The wreckage burned for more than two hours. Bodies were placed on stretchers and carried through mud and standing water on foot at first. Later they were loaded onto a four-wheel trailer which was pulled to the edge of the airport by a bulldozer.

5 Hurt In Head-On Collision Near Oviedo Last Night

Five Negroes were injured last night, shortly after 8 o'clock, when two cars met head-on and collided in Slavia, two miles south of Oviedo, on State Road 436. All were residents of Oviedo.

Both cars were demolished by the impact.

Alfred Ewers, 30, driver of a 1951 Pontiac, said that he and Nathaniel Rouse, 28, were on the front seat. James Golden, 18, riding in the back as they traveled south. "It happened just like that," he said as he explained that the other car, a 1955 Mercury driven by Robert Bonner, 37, pulled out from behind another car. Freddie Houston was a passenger in the car driven by Rouse.

All five Negroes were brought to the Seminole Memorial Hospital for treatment. Freddie Houston was taken later to an Orlando hospital and Nathaniel Rouse, attached to the U. S. Army, was taken to an Air Force hospital. They were believed to be in serious condition.

Officers investigating the crash were Florida Highway Patrolman Olin Garrett and Constable George Kelsey.

Board Asked To Take No Action On Airport Recommendations

In a surprise move Friday afternoon, the Seminole County Airport Zoning Commission requested the Seminole County Board of Commissioners "to take no action on recommendations submitted."

The request was made by letter to members of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners signed by Clifford McKibbin Jr., chairman of the group.

The letter stated "Your Seminole County Airport Zoning Commission, appointed by your body last summer has met numerous times, given extensive thought, study and time to the problem of safeguarding civilian lives and property and lives of Naval personnel and Government property.

"We have presented a set of regulations which we sincerely believe to be in the interest of public safety and welfare; these regulations are before you now for your consideration and possible enactment," the letter read.

McKibbin stated in the letter sent to all county commissioners "However since our recommendations have been made public, it appears that public opinion is very much opposed to airport zoning of the areas involved. We, therefore, at a meeting held this noon, voted to request that you take no action on our recommendation submitted to you."

John Krider, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, said this morning "I intend to attend the meeting called for tonight to protest the airport zoning—I have some statements I want to make."

The public hearing is called for 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the County Commissioners room of the court house. "This is the democratic way to hear all sides of a proposal such as our airport zoning," Commissioner Krider said.

Worker Stabbed, Killed In Family Brawl With Wife

A Negro farm worker was killed early yesterday morning by his wife in a family brawl near Oviedo.

According to Coroner W. Hugh Duncan, the Negro's wife, a 19-year-old girl, stabbed her husband with a paring knife that "went directly into the heart."

Arthur Lee Jordan, 38, ran from his house about 1 a. m. Sunday morning and fell dead in his front yard. Coroner Duncan said the man was stabbed during an argument in the home.

Josephine Jordan, the dead man's wife, claimed to the Coroner that "I was being whipped with a discarded fan belt and was only attempting to get the man away from me."

A coroner's jury was impaneled and a hearing will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Seminole County Court House.

Investigation into the death was made by Coroner Duncan, Constable George Kelsey, and Deputy Sheriff James Singleton.

Company Office Charred By Fire Early Sunday

Fire charred the office of Chapman Concrete Products Company early Sunday morning, destroying office furniture and fixtures and burning much of the company's records.

Fire Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. said the fire apparently started on top of the counter-desk in the center of the office.

Bert Chapman, owner of the concrete block plant at 106 North Elm Ave., said that the cash box was taken out of a drawer, in which it was normally left, and found on top of a desk. Silver and change amounting to four or five dollars was missing.

Firemen arriving at the scene said that the front door of the office was standing open about an inch. Flames had fully involved the front office of the plant by time firemen had reached the scene.

The Sanford Fire Department arrived at the scene of the fire in time to keep the flames from spreading to another half of the building separated by a partition and in which supplies were stored.

No estimate was made of the damage which was contained to the front office and a connecting office to the rear.

The fire occurred shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

Progress Must Be Created Says Speaker

Progress never "just happens"; it must be created. And developments created in research laboratories need the entire force of American business enterprise, large firms and small, to make them commercial realities. John H. Noyes, Southern District Manager for the DuPont Company's Extension Division, said in an address here today before the Sanford Rotary Club at its noon luncheon meeting.

Noyes, who makes his headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., called the American business system a "business community," pointing out the interdependence of concerns, of all sizes—large, medium and small.

He illustrated this relationship by telling how "Dacron" polyester fibre, one of the newest man-made fibres, becomes a useful item for consumers. DuPont makes the fiber, then firms of medium size spin it into yarn, and weave it into fabric, he explained.

Finally, as in the case of a man's suit, still another firm fabricates the garment, and a local haberdasher, usually a small business, sells it to the consumer.

"He said the DuPont Company risked $80,000,000 during many years of research and plant construction before "Dacron" was introduced as a commercial product. No small business could develop, or even make, "Dacron" yarn, he added.

"That is the function of the big concerns," he continued, "to do the big jobs, the jobs which require vast resources of money, or personnel, or know-how, or equipment—jobs which entail great risk and the jobs which constitute so much time that it is frequently years before you get any return on your investment. If indeed you ever get a return—the jobs which require huge plant facilities to mass-produce a product so that its price can be low enough for all to enjoy it."

"It is these concerns, the ones that are able and willing to make the big investment and take the big risk, that are going to discover and produce the new products of tomorrow. And everyone will benefit—all levels of business, all levels of consumer."
