Israel: Ready To Talk

About Land Compromise

JERUSALEM (UPI) - Israel today publicly softened its position on giving up the occupied West Bank of Jordan, saying it was ready to negotiate with Egypt about a territorial compromise in the region and Arab sovereignty there.

Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan made the offer during a foreign policy debate in the Knesset (parliament) that opened less than 24 hours after Prime Minister Menachem Begin said Egypt had flatly rejected any Israeli offer of territorial compromise

Egypt turned down an offer of a partial Israeli withdrawal from the West Bank — the concept of territorial compromise — during talks at Leeds Castle in England last week, Begin said Sunday.

So Dayan, in effect, was offering publicly what Egypt already has rejected privately.

Bolivia: Military Dictator?

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI) - Widespread opposition to the political power play that put Gen. Juan Pereda in office as president of Bolivia indicates he may have to rule as a military dictator or not at all.

Pereda, his top advisers and leading military and civilian political figures were to meet today at the presidential palace to choose a new Cabinet

Dollar Hits Lowest In Japan

TOKYO (UPI) - The dollar today plunged below the "psychological barrier" of 200 yen for the first time since World War II, reflecting fears that OPEC nations may abandon the dollar as the basis for oil prices. New York experts also attributed the drop to an overall decline in the dollar since last week's economic summit in Bonn, West Germany, and the widespread belief that Western leaders failed to advance solutions to the world's monetary problems.

Chile Fires Top Aide

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Chile's military government today fired Gen. Gustavo Leigh, the air force commander in chief, as a member of the ruling junta because of a series of critical statements by Leigh.

Talmadge Paying Debt.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A spokesman says Sen. Herman Talmadge, Ga., plans to pay promptly "whatever amount is required" to reimburse the Senate for expenses he may have claimed improperly.

Rapping 'Scavenger' Press

Talmadge's own auditors, called in to review his special office account, found he had been overpaid from 1971 to 1977 by approximately $35,000, sources said.

Meanwhile, Talmadge said in a letter to the editor of the Atlanta Journal and Constitution that the two newspapers have joined "a pack of scavenging hyenas" digging into his finances and personal affairs in a campaign to

Riot Blamed On 110 Heat

PONTIAC, Ill. (UPI) - Overcrowding, 110degree heat and an inadequate prison staff may have been the key factors inciting a riot at the State Correctional Center that left three guards dead and six others injured, penitentiary officials say.

The 2,000 inmates in the prison have been placed on indefinite lockup while investigators from the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement try to determine what caused Saturday's riot at the maximum security institution that originally was constructed as a boys reformatory in 1871.

3 Killed In Prison Violence

REIDSVILLE, Ga. (UPI) - Two white inmates and a guard were killed and another guard stabbed repeatedly Sunday in the fourth bloody outburst of racial violence at the Georgia State Prison since March.

The hour-long disturbance broke out about 1:10 p.m. Sunday when black inmates grabbed four guards as hostages and set fire to bedding materials in two dormitories where they had erected barricades. Three of the guards were

Turkey Embargo On Agenda

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Two sensitive foreign policy issues were expected to occupy the Senate's time and attention this week: the embargo on arms sales to Turkey and the economic boycott of Rhodesia.

Secretary of State Cyrus Vance predicted Sunday the Senate will vote to lift the Turkish embargo, but he said any move to link such action with an end to trade sanctions against Rhodesia would have "a very damaging ef-

3 Freight Cars Derail

GAINESVILLE (UPI) - Three cars of a southbound 105-car freight train derailed at Waldo, 11 miles north of Gainesville, early today, blocking both north and southbound traffic on the Seaboard Coastline Railroad, company employees said.

The derailed cars dug deep trenches into the railroad embankment for 350 yards along the tracks. They narrowly missed severing a 44,000-volt power line.

The Soviet Trials And SALT Talks

Echoes of the just-concluded trials of Soviet dissidents Anatoly Shcharansky and Alexander Ginsburg are still reverberating. Now we have Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev calling the West "hypocritical" in its defense of Messrs. Shcharansky and Ginsburg. Comrade Brezhnev claims that any critical statements from leaders of the United States are "motivated by desire to interfere in the internal affairs of other states and peoples."

President Carter — although not in direct response to the Soviet boss - assures that the United States "would like to have better relations with the Soviet Union," reiterating his "commitment to the enhancement of human rights. . . "around the world."

, And, he noted significantly, "I have not em-barked on a vendetta against the Soviet Union. We is cannot interfere in their internal affairs." But "interference" or no interference, the trials certainly served one key, useful purpose: it -reminded all of us in the Free World of the intolerable penalty of living in a police state.

We all should be reminded by this episode to cherish anew our personal freedoms.

At the same time the Soviet Union once again has proven it is afraid of its own citizens. Timing of the trials to coincide with the strategic arms conference between Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and Soviet Foreign Minister Andre Gromyko in Geneva was itself a calculated Soviet

The Soviets apparently read Mr. Carter pretty well: determining that he would not let the trials interrupt the ongoing SALT talks.

As we have noted before, we believe Mr. Carter is right in pursuing that overriding road to peace.

Although the administration's decision not to link the arms talks with the dissident trials was correct because such negotiations should not be controlled by Russian whim, Soviet sincerity and intentions are once again called into doubt.

heep stamps coming off the press when it wasn't certain whether the new first-class pustage would be 15 cents.

That's an excuse, but why didn't our postal people anticipate that such stamps would be rejected abroad? Why couldn't the stamps carry a designation that they are for domestic mail

The Postal Service is up to its mail slots in labor troubles right now, but we wonder why it is the employees who are threatening to strike and not the public.

Criminal Code

Delays in the Home Judiciary Committee on a hill to reform he U.S. Criminal Code have drawn fire from Sen. Edward Kennedy, who pushed the legislation to approval in the Senate. The Massachusetts Democrat is irled because the committee is considering a version excluding 135 previsions he believes constial. But invariably we just can't elect the perfect public official, and sometimes they will be the first to admit they can't think of every little item especially when it comes to a new law.

This was aptly demonstrated recently at a Sanford City Commission meeting with the new ordinance prohibiting bicycle riding in business and commercially soned areas. Even before the ordinance was finally approved, one resident asked about sidewalks along French Avenue which kids the city attorney determined that all bicycles were covered by the ordinance, including three-wheelers. It may be interesting to see in the future what other stipulations will be added. A public outcry could add amendments such as no skipping more than a mile an hour, more than two cartwheels per block and under no circumstances are there to be my hopskotch games played on the sidewalk. In 10 years that could be a pretty thick ordinance.
