Seminole County Agricultural Agent

(From time to time the county agent will highlight in this column some of the Seminole County farms and farmers which he has visited.)

If you would like to see a modern and efficient dairy, someday drop by Elbert Cammack's Fairglades Jersey Dairy on Highway 46, some three miles east of Geneva. There you will see an up to date, nearly all mechanical dairy. In fact, they can boast that their product "never comes in contact with air," because the milk is drawn by vacuum directly from the cow to a large vacuum stainless steel holding tank.

The cattle enter the "milking parlor" from a large holding pen. Here they have been fed grass silage automatically by a self unloader, and a conveyor belt from one of two Harvester upright silos. Each silo holds close to 225 tons and is arranged so that the conveyor belt to the trough can be connected with either silo. Any of the help from Mr. Cammack down to Owen, their twelve year old son, can feed some 160 head of cattle in less than thirty minutes by flicking the proper switches. This certainly beats the old "pitch fork" method of silage feeding.

The cows enter the parlor and go into individual stalls where they are fed a balanced concentrate feed. Some of the cows have found that they can get an extra portion of feed by merely sticking their head through the bars and nuzzling the feed control lever.

A strong stream of water is used to clean the feet and legs of the animal. The udder is thoroughly cleaned and a Surge automatic milker attached. On best days for the DIIIA records (Dairy Herd Improvement Association) a 4 gallon graduated jar and scales are arranged to weigh each cow's output. After weighing the milk is drawn into a stainless steel vacuum cooling tank where it is kept until it is picked up by tank truck for delivery in the processing plant. According to the record, Cammack's dairy herd has been among the top five herds in efficiency and production in the state DIIIA program. Last year the production average of the herd was over 400 pounds of butter fat and 8,652.7 pounds of 3 percent milk per cow.

Cammack figures that his pasture and silage facilities fill about 80 percent of the total feed needs of each cow. In fact, the use of silage alone cut down his feed cost from $3.00 per cwt. milk to $2.40 per cwt. milk. There are some 160 acres of Pangola grass which are grazed and from which silage is cut. This year he figures that they harvested close to 1,200 tons of silage from this area.

While I have been mentioning Elbert's name mostly, I wouldn't want to imply that is the only

Cammack working of the dairy. It is a family affair. Mrs. Cammack and Owen work side by side with Mr. Cammack in almost every phase of the dairy work. Of course, there are three other regular workers helping, too, because there are over 250 head of cattle, 125 of which are now in lactation. There are only eight stalls in the milking parlor and these 125 cows must be worked through the parlor twice a day and be milked.

All of the replacements for the herd are raised right there on the dairy. Owen's for the calves has been Owen's job. For the past five years they have raised an average of 40 to 50 calves a year. The only raw milk that the calves receive is the colostrum or "first milk" which has been taken from the cow and frozen in order not to waste any of it. After they have received the colostrum, the calves are placed on a calf starter supplemental feed until they are old enough to be placed on pasture.

Dairying is not new to the Cammacks. Mr. Cammack graduated from the University of Florida with high honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture in 1948. If my memory serves me right, I saw his name inscribed on a plaque at the University Dairy Laboratory as the outstanding graduate of that year. He continued his studies in dairying, and received a Master of Agriculture degree in 1949. He worked for three and a half years as the technician for the Orange County Artificial Breeding Association.

The Cammacks acquired the Lake Harney marsh land in 1950 and started improvements. They had their own dairy operation in Conway for four years before moving the all-Jersey herd to their Fairglades Jersey Dairy in June of 1955.

Temporary Injunction Denied By Circuit Judge

U. N. Assembly Calls For Immediate Cease-Fire In Egypt

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — An emergency U. N. Assembly early today called for an immediate cease-fire in Egypt. It also urged Britain, France and Israel to get out of Egypt and recommended prompt reopening of the Suez Canal.

The Assembly voted 64-3 for a resolution introduced by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The Soviet Union lined up with the United States for the resolution. The Russians demanded condemnation of British-French action against Israel but did not present a resolution.

Britain and France voted against the resolution. They were joined by Australia, Israel and New Zealand.

Those abstaining were Belgium, Canada, Laos, the Netherlands, Portugal and South Africa. Luxembourg was absent.

U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld said the operation was not aggression but a "temporary police action." He declared it aimed to separate Israel and Egyptian forces, restore peace in the Middle East and safeguard freedom of navigation in the Suez Canal.

Egypt nationalized the canal July 26. Dixon said navigation there was threatened by Israel's aggression.

The Assembly must acknowledge, he said, "that by our swift intervention the Israeli advance has already been halted and this threat to the canal has been averted."

He argued that Britain and France had had to act because of a breakdown of U. N. machinery—because of the Soviet veto threat had brought immediate danger of a general conflagration throughout the Middle East.

"Our purpose," he declared, "is peaceful, not warlike."

Dixon urged the Assembly to tackle the problem of a permanent settlement, and suggested the convening of a negotiating conference of nations concerned.

A restraining order preventing a referendum to determine whether or not a harness horse track operates at Seminole Raceway Park be allowed was denied the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club yesterday at a hearing before Judge Vassar Carlton in Circuit Court.

Judge Carlton, following the day-long hearing which started at 4:30, summarized his decision when he announced that the "temporary injunction is denied."

He said "It seems to me that the issues are simple in this case. A temporary injunction should be issued only when shown there is irreparable injury. I don't believe there has been shown that irreparable injury would result if the election is allowed. I therefore deny the temporary injunction."

Attorneys for Jerry Collins, operator of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club immediately announced that a hearing will be requested at 9 a. m. Monday morning in Tallahassee before the State Supreme Court petitioning a constitutional writ of injunction.

Representing the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club was the firm of Orlando attorneys, Steed and Steed.

Pleadings were made before Judge Carlton by W. J. Steed, assisted by attorney Hoffman.

Representing Seminole Raceway Park and Seminole Race and Fairgrounds, Inc., was the firm of Orlando and Winter Park attorneys, Turnbull and Senterfit. Both attorneys were heard.

Mack N. Cleveland Jr., Attorney for Seminole County represented the Board of Seminole County Commissioners. The entire Board headed by Chairman Brown W. Miller was present at the hearing.

Other commissioners named in the litigative petition for the restraining order in an attempt to halt the Tuesday referendum were: John Melich, B. C. Dodds, Fred Dyson and Otis Foraker.

Cleveland, in a brilliant defense of the Board of County Commissioners, took a near violent exception to charges by Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club's legal counsel that "They just didn't follow the law—the taxpayers had agreed to conduct the special referendum in conjunction with the general election, all with the full advice from the State's Attorney General."

"The full authority to order a special referendum according to the statutes, is in the hands of the Board of County Commissioners," said Cleveland at his point, "and the taxpayers had agreed to conduct the special referendum in conjunction with the general election, all with the full advice from the State's Attorney General."

Big Crowd Expected At Oviedo Church Homecoming Nov. 4

BY MARIAN JONES
OVIEDO—Get up early Sunday morning and plan on attending the Homecoming of the Oviedo Methodist Church. This is an event looked forward to each year by many former members, scattered all over the state, and local citizens.

The attendance each year has grown by leaps and bounds. This year is due to be a record-breaker. It will be the first chance many have had to view the new $150,000 church. It has always been held in the old church here.

While you are making your plans, include the Sunday School session and the 11 a. m. service. The Reverend E. T. Stanifer, former pastor of the local church and now at Ellenton, will be on hand to deliver you a special sermon. We know you will enjoy it.

We also promise you that the Honorable Mayor himself, Lee Gary, will be on hand to greet you and see you are well fed. He is a member of the board of Stewards of the church, also.

He has told us (not you) that we may not come and eat if we do not attend the church service. Our own Baptist Church folks tell us we have to attend our own church. We are badly in need of assistance from some source, so we will not be left entirely out.

Knowing the reputation these wonderful people of the Methodist Church have for fellowship, we assure you a warm and hearty welcome.

Many plans are being made by the local members to "put the big pot in the little pot" on this occasion.

Pack that basket with your favorite recipes and come on and join us in the gay festivities following the worshiping hour.

Mix with your old cronies. Catch up on the happenings of old friends. It will be lots of fun to know who is where, etc.

If you are fortunate enough to be able to sing after consuming so much good food, you may sing a few songs. If you are not, you should pay for it," the Kennel Club attorney charged.

However, Cleveland explained to Judge Carlton that the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole County, in their interest to prevent any undue expense and to lighten the taxpayers' load, agreed to conduct the special referendum in conjunction with the general election, all with the full advice from the State's Attorney General.

The full authority to order a special referendum according to the statutes, is in the hands of the Board of County Commissioners," said Cleveland at his point, "and the taxpayers had agreed to conduct the special referendum in conjunction with the general election, all with the full advice from the State's Attorney General."

Southside To Display Art Exhibit

The Colonial Art Exhibit, with more than 100 large reproductions of standard art masterpieces of the world's greatest paintings, will be on display at Southside School all next week in the school auditorium.

The exhibit, says Mrs. Velma Mitchell, is open to the public. However, she says, a small admission fee is being charged in order to defray the expenses of the exhibit.

All of the Southside School children will view the accurate reproductions made direct from the original paintings. So perfectly reproduced the brush strokes of the original paintings are plainly visible and the color values have been carefully retained.

Pictures in the exhibit, says Mrs. Mitchell, are in the full color of the original paintings and are mostly genuine, famous reproductions from the finest craftsmen of both America and Europe.

The exhibit occupies approximately 1,000 square feet and will be hung in the auditorium at Southside School with all pictures labeled with its name and the name of the artist.

The Colonial Art Exhibit comes to Southside School from Oklahoma City, Okla.

In the week immediately following the exhibit at Southside School the children of the school will portray "living pictures" as seen in the display of famous masterpieces.

"This is another way in which we are presenting art appreciation to the students of our school," Mrs. Mitchell said today.

Voters Will Name 3 To Fill City Commission Vacancies

4 True Bills Are Returned At Grand Jury Investigation

One of the most important local elections in the history of Sanford will be held Tuesday paralleling the general election.

To be decided by the voters of Sanford will be seats for three commissioners of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

Candidates who have qualified, and whose names will appear on the ballot, are A. L. Wilson, incumbent for the unexpired term; Earl Higginbotham, incumbent; Merle Warner, a candidate for the seat to be vacated by Commissioner John Krider; Paul Yates Jr., who is opposing Merle Warner; and M. L. Nichols, who is opposing Earl Higginbotham.

The election is to be held in the Sanford City Hall with booths set up in the commissioners room.

Officials at the polls are: Mrs. F. E. Roumlatt and Floyd A. Palmer, Inspectors; Mrs. Ralph Austin Smith, James B. Gut, B. L. Perkins Jr., N. J. Stenstrom, Cliff Ables, and W. Hugh Duncan, Clerks.

The polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. to coincide with the general election.

The City Election to name members to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners is separate and distinct from the general election.

Those not registered at the City Hall will not be qualified to vote in the local election. However, City Clerk H. N. Sayer said this morning that everyone who has registered since 1950 will be eligible to cast a ballot in this election.

There are approximately 3,500 qualified voters who are eligible to vote in the city election. City Clerk Sayer said today that there had been approximately 137 new voters registered this year.

Due to the importance of this year's election, local city leaders are urging voters to turn out in full force to name the leaders of the City for a complete year term.

Those who are in another instance, from the "status quota" of the nation, interest is created in the careful planning of the country. With city political organizations properly planned and placed in office, the continued expansion and growth begins.

Citizens are reminded that there will be two ballots to cast next Tuesday: one in the general election and one in the local City Election.

Big Crowd Attends Civic Club Tea

ALTA MONTE SPRINGS — A large group of residents, both new and old, attended a Tea last week at the Community House, given by the Altamonte Springs Civic Club.

The club house was decorated throughout with fall flowers except for the club's adopted flower, the hibiscus which is an ever-blooming flower.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and at one end stood candelabras with burning white tapers. Plumose ferns entwined the candelabras and formed a bed in the center with yellow chrysanthemums dotting the greenery. A table on the porch of the club and vegetables overflowing from a Presiding over the punch bowl was Mrs. Henry Hansen. Mrs. Helen Rasmussen and Mrs. C. H. Gilbert Jr., while soft piano music was rendered by the Misses co-chairmen.

Witches, Spooks Try Hand At Real Estate Business

BY MARIAN JONES
OVIEDO—If you are one of the Aspirants for the purchase of the Oviedo Drug Store at the advertised sale price, you may as well put your dreams in your pipe and smoke them, or just content yourself with the fact you've been day dreaming.

A large sign For Sale—$1,800.00 caught our eye as we came to work. What a bargain, we thought.

From experience, we know it just can't be done. We tried. Roy and Rosa (Roy Welsenberger, owner, and Rosa Noegel, manager) just were not interested—the idea such a price for such a modern place of business. They had not even seen the sign.

We came to the conclusion that our transactions would have to be made with the spooks, witches and gnomes. We fear such a transaction would not be legal? Oh, well, we had a nice inspiration anyway.

Christmas Mailing Deadlines Told

Surface Christmas mail destined for civilians in Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico should be mailed by postal patrons by very early December. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today.

This is necessary, he explained, because of available ship schedules from the port of dispatch, as well as possible delays due to bad weather frequently encountered at this time of year.

Mr. Summerfield urged postal patrons to send holiday surface mails for Alaska and Hawaii according to the following schedules: residents of the Eastern and Central time zones, not later than Dec. 1, 1956; Mountain time zone, not later than Dec. 3, 1956; Pacific time zone, not later than Dec. 4, 1956. Mail for Puerto Rico should be sent by Dec. 3, 1956.

These, of course, are deadline schedules. Mr. Summerfield pointed out. Postal patrons are being advised that even earlier mailings will be an aid to the postal service, as well as provide an additional measure of insurance of delivery by Christmas.

Betty Crocker Thanks Local Homemakers

BY MARY FOWLER
writing confidences, so I sent it in grandma's name. I won a $50 bond and a seal of Homemaking Merit; that special, air delivery letter was the high point of my culinary career. Then, again, I entered a Betty Crocker contest and won an electric deep fat fryer. You can imagine how devoted I was to Betty.

Years passed and I forgot my writing. But never Betty Crocker products. Then when the Sanford Herald on Sept. 14 endorsed the sale of Betty Crocker cake packages as sold in the local "Lover's" stores by the Seminole Hospital auxiliary, it rang a bell. So I sent Betty Crocker a copy of The Herald with a photo of Mrs. Gregory Kessenich and Mrs. Robery Feyl of the Dairy smiling at a prospective Sanford customer, Mrs. A. W. Skipper of Holly Ave., in front of counter stacked with luscious frostings and cake advertisements.

This morning came a letter from the present Betty Crocker, a long, genuine, friendly missive saying that The Herald story had been such an interesting way for them at General Mills to start their day and that The Herald had been passed to every member of their department; that they had enjoyed talking about the city of Sanford and fast growing Deland, with an appreciation of our homemakers in each town using their products. She enclosed some variations of the cake and cookie packages which her department has just evolved. They look awfully good. But of course we are pretty well sold on her Date Bar for it isn't too rich for us dieters and still glamorous enough for party fare. We will count Betty high among our lasting friendships.

Speaker To Talk On Experiences During Travels

ALTA MONTE SPRINGS — The Altamonte Springs Civic Club will meet for its first fall meeting at the Community House, Mrs. J. D. Morrison pres., will preside over the business meeting. The program will follow immediately with Mrs. R. F. Leedy of Winter Park in charge of the program.

Mrs. Leedy will talk on her experiences in her three trips aboard in all parts of the world. Because of her ability and knowledge in making such lectures she has been very much in demand and is always not generous in showing the many movies that she has made in her travels.

Mrs. Leedy was the organizer of the Wesleyan Class of the Methodist Church in Winter Park three years ago and has been the teacher of this class for all of the 33 years.

Hostesses for the Wednesday meeting are the Mrs. B. D. McIntosh Jr., Mrs. Webber B. Haines and Mrs. Donald Harris.

Amendments To Be Explained Monday At Rotary Meeting

In an attempt to clarify the amendments which will be voted on next Tuesday, Seminole County's Legislative Delegation will appear before the Sanford Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting Monday noon, at the Yacht Club, and cover point by point, the ramifications of each item.

Senator Douglas Stenstrom, accompanied by Representative Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Oregon Frederick, will address the club and, as a public service, their talks will be broadcast over WTRR at approximately 12:45 p. m.

It is hoped that their explanations of the amendments will give the public a better understanding of that which they are asked to consider at the polls.

FSU Students Begin Internship

TALLAHASSEE — Two hundred and fifty nine Florida State University students have begun a seven week internship in Florida public schools.

They will be given classes in tech under the supervision of experienced teachers and will return to campus after the Christmas holidays. Most of the 259 are seniors in the School of Education.

Among the interns are Autumn Yvonne Shannon, of Sanford, who is interned in business education at Lively Technical School in Tallahassee, and Martha Shannon, also of Sanford, interned in English at Leon High School, also in Tallahassee.

"DON'T CHANGE HORSES"

This Democratic answer to the Republican "Time for a change" slogan during the 1944 campaign, was borrowed from a speech of President Lincoln during the Civil War in which he said, "It is not best to swap horses while crossing the river."

Want Ads swap horses for you, sell farm equipment, do almost anything.

Moving Together Toward a Common Goal

With the fowl of the air it is instinct! God has provided many of His simplest creatures with an innate sense of harmony, and of purpose.

But with man it is an ideal . . . still far from realization! Nations and individuals have usually sought their own ends, and little less than attack by a common enemy has ever brought them to united action.

Today, the challenge for harmony and brotherhood is stronger than ever. We know now that the very existence of civilization depends upon a peaceful world.

Our greatest hope is the Church, which throughout the ages, has unceasingly taught the need for moving together toward a common goal. And only the Church has pointed the Way toward that goal.

Join forces with the multitudes in every land who seek the highest goals. Worship with them the only Prince of Peace. And, believing with all Christians in the might of Right, work toward our God-promised destiny.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship, strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Capital Improvement Program Is Valuable Asset To City's Growth

The significant development of Sanford can be attributed to only one thing in particular — and that is the coordinated efforts of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners to accomplish and put into effect a program of capital improvements necessary to attract industry, tourist, commerce, and new residents.

There are several factors involved in the "getting together" of a group of business people in an attempt to solve the "growth" problems of a community. First: that each man must be convinced that such a program as has been developed will bring to the community the full value of every dollar expended or even more in some instances. Second: there must be a coordination of thoughts, eliminating some suggestions, incorporating others, and then tying them all together into a budgetwise plan that can be brought to a successful climax.

Such a group of business people is the group we have had working for Sanford's economic growth and future development. The program that the Board of Sanford City Commissioners have adopted The Sanford Herald heartily endorses.

Sanford has been in need of a Sanford Civic Center for years. Each twelve months recorded into the annals of time during which we have had no such facilities means that the community has lost many conventions, business meetings, community enterprises, and other valuable get-togethers that would have — in the profit from normal habits of visitors in a community — paid for the center.

A new fire station to serve every area of the city has been badly needed, and now with the Capital Improvement Program under our belts so to speak, we are assured that such a facility will be provided along with the new equipment that is necessary to go along with it.

A swimming pool for our colored boys and girls will be another part of the immediate program that has been provided in the overall citywide improvements.

Now — the commissioners are looking into the feasibility of immediate construction of a sewage treatment plant. Health authorities, industrialists, newcomers, and those citizens who have long formed a part of the Sanford community, know of the immense value a treatment plant will mean to us.

The program that these far sighted businessmen have undertaken will include a street paving project — the Sanford-Titusville Canal — better pay for our city employees — a docks and terminal project — more parking space — additional buildings for the expansion of our retail trade and commerce — the possibility of adding a new water tank to the south end of the city to provide water to the mushrooming area of Sanford.

It is this that The Sanford Herald believes is the impetus to greater growth, an attraction to industry, and an incentive for visitors to stay with us and become a part of the community.

Sanford must continue its forward step — looking not behind to the cost but ahead to the results. Looking not to the interest being paid each year — but to the daily increase in revenues from the investments made in good, sound, valuable projects.

The program of the City of Sanford — including the city wide planning, zoning, locating, expanding, annexation and reevaluation — is a valuable asset.

Passive apathy toward Sanford's future growth will mean a stalemated city — strangled by its own thread of impotence.

Aggressive action — such as the rapid activity that has occurred within our Capital Improvement Program plans — is our only avenue through which we can march toward a bigger, finer, successful, and well financed city.

Great Story Of Mankind

For seventy years the hearts of immigrants to this country have been lifted at the sight of the torch held high above New York harbor by the Statue of Liberty. The vision of this great monument to freedom rising on the horizon of the new world has been a source of strength to all who have come here seeking a good life.

In their turn, those who have arrived on our shores as immigrants have contributed richly to America. Not one corner of the nation but has been invigorated by those who came here because they wanted to, because they looked upon the United States as truly the land of hope and freedom.

Now the American Museum of Immigration is to be established at the base of the Statue of Liberty so that generations to come may know the epic story. It is one of the great stories of mankind, and we are proud to support the telling of it.

No one can accept responsibility in the world unless he takes it first on his own doorstep. So for us in industry I can see only one sure course to follow. Call it common sense, call it policy, call it anything you like. To my mind we must tim for, exist for, and everlastingly operate for the good of the community. The community can't ride one track and business another. The two are inseparable, interactive and interdependent. Cleo F. Craig, (President) A. T. & T. Co.

SKIS IN THE SKY
WASHINGTON (AP)—A major aircraft company is equipping its giant patrol bombers for duty in the Antarctic with the largest skis ever ordered for a jet-powered aircraft. Measuring 8 feet wide and 18 feet long and made of composite aluminum alloy and steel, the skis will be attached to the two-wheel main landing gear.

Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industries Assn., says a smaller ski will be mounted on the plane's nose landing gear. And to play it safe, provisions are being made for the wheels to remain stationary while the skis can move up or down — thereby permitting landings on either skis or wheels.

Soil Conservation News
By Carl Lind, Assistant Conservationist, USDA

All things, be they human, plants, buildings, machines, or good old mother earth, must have protection from the everyday weathering elements.

We of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service are primarily interested in the conservation and protection of our remaining acres of good productive soil. A good cover crop helps keep our soils productive, and prevents the washing and blowing away of the most important layer of good top soil.

Many thousands of years ago our good earth had a splendid coat of trees, grasses, and various other plants to protect it from the ravaging rains and winds. As time went a lot of the fine protection was removed from the earth leaving the bare soil to the mercy of mother nature. In those early days there was plenty of land so as the land was worn out from faulty conservation practices and not returning anything to the soil or just blowing or washed away the people naturally moved on to the more productive new land. There came a time when this wanted green and lush of robbing the soil of its protection and productive capacity had to come to an end. Farmers began to realize that good land was getting scarce and that they had to develop, hold, and build up the soil they were now farming.

One of these measures in building up the soil is by means of a good cover of legumes such as hairy indigo, velvet beans, creataria, and sesabania. All these cover crops when plowed or disked into the soil return a much needed organic matter to the soil. Some of the cover crops, especially hairy indigo, put nitrogen into the soil. All of them produce a mulch to help hold the top soil, when they are disked into the surface of the soil. Another purpose of a cover crop is the protection it provides to the soil from the beating rain drops. The cover crops act as interference to the rain drops by softening the blow and letting the water trickle and soak down into the ground. Without a cover crop the rains would soon pack the soil and cause a runoff of water taking with it a lot of good precious top soil.

Let's all help mother nature protect our land as she intended it to be providing a good cover of trees, grasses, shrubs, etc.—be sides helping the land a cover on the land makes a much brighter picture of our country side.

Bobick Happiest Lawyer In Town
NEW YORK (AP)—Edward Bobick, a big man with a large capacity for scotch whisky, was the happiest lawyer in town Tuesday.

He drank two fifths of scotch and wobbled into court to prove a man could down that much and still navigate.

Bobick's clients, Robert D. Burns and William J. Cleary, are on trial in General Sessions Court on charges of kidnaping a young aviation engineer in Boston last June 19.

The two defendants had testified they guzzled 80 glasses of beer and a fifth of whisky between them in an 18-hour period before the alleged kidnaping.

But a prosecution witness, Dr. Meyer Texon, said anyone who drank that much in that time would be out like a light.

Not so, said lawyer Bobick, and he set about to prove it. He confronted his clients could have drunk as much as they said they did and "not know the nature of their act."

The 30-year-old lawyer, who weighs 200 and stands 6 feet 1 1/2, said he began drinking scotch with water in his office Monday afternoon with his partner and a private detective as witnesses. He drank until 1 a. m. and slept until 8 Tuesday morning.

Then he got up and washed down the second fifth in time to go to court.

Bobick's face flushed, marched into court with the two witnesses and the two empty bottles.

"Am I in a stupor or unconscious?" he asked the witness.

"No," they answered.

Bobick picked up the bottles and waved them before Judge John A. Mullen and the jury of nine men and three women.

Speaking in slow, measured tones, he said:

"I now offer these two exhibits as evidence on behalf of the defense."

"Mark them as being in evidence," Mullen ruled.

The defendants, both 21 and both from Waltham, Mass., are accused of kidnaping and robbing John T. Degnan, 27, of Plandome, N. Y. He escaped after being driven to New York.

Both sides rested their cases after Bobick's dramatic testimony.

Bobick's home telephone was answered by his partner Wednesday night.

"Mr. Bobick is in repose," he announced.

What You Do To Glorify Wife?
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—What are you doing to glorify your wife?
European men often say American men foolishly spoil their ladies, and that husbands here virtually practice wife worship.
This talk infuriates American wives. Not because it's true—they only wish it were—but because it isn't. They feel that if any husbands are practicing wife worship in this country it must be a secret vice. They see no public signs of it.
"The truth is the complaint the average wife makes most often about her husband is, 'He's too inattentive. He takes me for granted, just as he does the furniture. Nobody in America really appreciates what it means to be a housewife.'"
"The trouble with a husband is that he thinks the courtship ends with the honeymoon," a veteran wife lamented. "After that your day is supposed to be made if he recognizes you and calls you by your first name at breakfast."
"Romance? A husband's idea of being romantic is to send his wife a get-well card on Valentine's Day."
Well, ladies, that may have been true before. But now husbands are getting more thoughtful. They're not only praising their hausfraus in public. They're doing it in print—and paying for the privilege!
Last month in Miami, Harry Johnson surprised his wife on their anniversary with a 12-by-23-foot billboard poster. It showed him kneeling in humble adoration "To a wonderful wife who has borne with me for 20 years."
Recently Mrs. Carl W. Trantham of Springfield, Mo., while scanning the classified ads of her newspaper, was startled to find there a public announcement, paid for by her husband, telling what a great gal she was.
The ad, quoting the Biblical proverb, "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing," said:
"I am responsible for all debts and obligations of my wife, Mildred, both present and future, and am more than happy to be the provider for such a wife who married me 25 years ago today, who has borne me four happy children, all of whom are Christians, and she has manifested continuously such love, patience, understanding, helpfulness, that those have been the happiest years of my life."
In praising a wife, does it pay to advertise? Trantham, a railroad employe, found it sure paid off in his case.
Mrs. Trantham was more pleased by her husband's public proclamation than she was with the silver anniversary gifts he gave her—a silver bracelet and earrings, silver pen, and a chrome silver food mixer. Even strangers called up to congratulate her.
"I received many compliments myself," Trantham reported later. "Also a few bawling out from husbands whose wives had read the ad and asked why didn't they ever think of doing something like that."
As a matter of fact, other husbands across the country are putting similar ads in their newspapers. When I reported this trend to my wife, Frances, she said:
"Some women have all the luck."
"Don't worry, I've got even bigger plans for you," I told her. "On your golden anniversary I am going to rent an airplane and have it skycrime in letters a mile high over Manhattan: 'To Frances, a golden girl!'"
"If I live that long—and if you remember the date," said Frances, unimpressed.
"Silly," I told her. "That's one date I could never forget."
A little later Frances looked up from the sock she was darning and asked casually:
"Are we doing anything next Tuesday night?"
"Yeah, watching the election returns."
"But you don't have anything special planned?"
"No, why?"
"Oh, I sort of thought I'd like to celebrate," said Frances. "It happens to be my 19th wedding anniversary. When's yours?"
Even with two people in a room sometimes can get awfully quiet, can't it?

Emotional Difficulties May Cause Stuttering
By NICHOLAS M. BIANCONI, M.D.

EMOTIONAL difficulties may play an important part in causing stuttering.

In fact, a New York psychiatrist calls this affliction a personality defect rather than a speech defect. And treatment, he says, must be aimed at the underlying emotional trouble.

Functions of Speech
Dr. Stanley Bianconi of the American Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry lists three functions of speech: expressing emotions, expressing ideas and adjusting to other persons.

Stuttering, he says, is a blocking of a person's ability to adjust to other people. It arises from anxiety in meeting various social situations.

Stutterers usually can talk to themselves, to animals and frequently to persons with whom they are friendly. But get them in situations where their fear and anxiety are aroused, and they have trouble.

We know that there is some organic cause of stuttering. But we have no positive evidence that nervous or physical deformities cause it, except in occasional cases.

There are about 600 speech sounds in the world's various languages. A babbling baby uses several hundred of these. When he begins to speak, he has to exclude all these sounds except for some 36 which are used in the English language.

Stutterers, Dr. Bianconi observes, seem to fail to make this selection.

Build Up Confidence
As for treatment of a stutterer, he advises building up his confidence, giving him loving attention and teaching him to adjust to groups.

If the stutterer is a very young child, Dr. Bianconi says, there is need for a reorganization of the family life to enable the youngster to receive the right amount and kind of love and attention. This will help develop his sense of security.

For an adult who stutters, Dr. Bianconi says, he must be trained to understand himself and to learn to adjust to other persons without fear and without tension.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED
Q. T. I have coughed up blood for the last few days. Otherwise I feel fine. Do you think I might have tuberculosis?
A. Answer: Coughing up blood does not always indicate tuberculosis. Irritation of the throat, lung infections, lung tumors, polyps, as well as tuberculosis, may all cause the coughing up of blood.
It would be well for you to have a thorough examination by your physician.

Skits By Faculty Are Hit of Evening At Oviedo Carnival

By MARIAN JONES

OVIEDO—The Halloween Carnival and Parade are over, but the memories of one of the most successful Carnivals in the annals of the Oviedo P-TA History linger on. Mrs. F. M. Sparks, general chairman, and her entire staff are due for utmost congratulations.

The Judges, James Pearson, Mrs. F. M. Sparks and Mrs. Roy Weisenberger, chose Chuck Best, Gay Ulrey, Bobby Cameron, David Evans, Kathryn and Johathan Hill for the costume prizes.

As we passed the Oviedo Baptist Church en route home following our day of work, we saw so many cars and people lined up in front of the church—including the Oviedo High School Band—we could hardly pass.

Busily engrossed in gathering all our paraphanelia to gether to take to the school gymnasium, we were unable to witness the parade but could hear the band playing. We had risen, as many other mothers had, at 5:30 a.m. to cook fudge and cookies, get funny books together and wrap packages for Katie Duda's twelfth grade Post Office booth.

The hard work entailed was well worth all efforts, as we saw the crowd pour forth into the gymnasium following their turkey dinner consumption in the nearby lunch room, served by Mrs. Don Ulrey and her eighth grade mothers.

It was indeed gratifying to see how that the work involved was getting such marvelous results. It was the first time in twenty six years that we had not been involved in some particular job at the carnival—usually in a booth. This time we enjoyed mixing and mingling with the hooded figures, the witches, the streamers and the hobgoblins in our hearts content.

Our only task was to follow the photographer when he arrived and act as "his man Friday" for a short period of time, obtaining names, listening to his ideas, throwing in a few of our own occasionally.

To add to the enchantment of the occasion, although it was not deliberate, the lights went off on three different occasions—due to some defect in the switch box. What goes wrong with darkness than witches, ghosts and such?

The hot dog stand and sidewalk cafe, in conjunction, was a very popular place all evening. Managed by Mr. and Mrs. Young Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ben G. Walright at the hot dog stand, Mrs. Milton Gore, Milton Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moon, Mrs. Stewart Gatchel and other helpful first grade mothers, they were first busy all evening serving hot dogs, coffee, pies and cakes.

The cakes gave out and they had to seek more in the middle of the festivities.

Mrs. R. C. Miller was having a marvelous success of her cocktail food table. She was ably assisted by some of the mothers of her grade. Careful to make our choice early from among her delicious, which was a hard job to do, we picked the cake made by our old friend, Sallie Senece.

We have had samples of her cakes and pie many a time and knew we would have a good bet. Too, we knew we could joke with Sally about the cakes, which we have already done. She is a good sport.

The sixth grade booth, with Mrs. John Coe in charge, was the country store. She and her assistants in the booth were kept busy all evening.

The games are always popular with the "small fry". Mrs. Ida Mae Alexander had her small table rides. She just told us that they made $15.00 clear. Congratulations, Ida Mae and your helpers.

A new game was added this year, under the sponsorship of the tenth grade mothers, Mrs. Fred Robbins as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joe Mickler Jr.

It was a duck game. The children derived great sport from trying to ring the ducks neck and received funny books for their efforts.

Mrs. Joe Battle and Mrs. Roy Weisenberger also had a game the tiny tots all adore, the fish pond. It's always a huge success.

Mrs. F. W. McCall also had charge of another popular sport—the balloon bursting game. The booth was surrounded with players all evening.

You would not have recognized him I am certain. That man walking around dressed so funny and wearing a coat with large pockets, was none other than our former principal, Walter A. Teague. On his back he bore a sign—"Pick My Pockets". The third grade sponsored this feature.

Mrs. John Duda and Mrs. Ferd-

OH, OH, MAMMELLE! Another hot dog and cup of coffee please! This was at the French Sidewalk Cafe at Oviedo's Halloween Carnival. Heading the Sidewalk Cafe Committee and manning the booth were Mrs. Milton Gore, chairman, Milton Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moon, Mrs. Stewart Gatchel and other first grade parents. (Photo by Jameson) inand Duda, dressed like our postman, manned the U. S. Post Office booth. They had gobs of packages, but the booth was so popular they soon gave out.

Their prize packages, from the celebrities like Sen. Kefauver, Governor Collins, Arthur Godfrey, the White House, Vice-president Nixon, Will Rogers Jr., and Art Linkletter, were auctioned off between skits in the auditorium. Bidding was rather keen, people desiring to possess one of these, with Paul Campbell, who by now is a veteran P-TA auctioneer, acting as master of ceremonies.

We want to compliment the teen agers on their marvelous ingenuity in securing the aid of John Courier to act as their master of ceremonies for the dime-a-dance. This was one of the most popular places during the evening. John and the teen-agers did a marvelous job.

Millie (Mrs. Don) Ulrey said that the night started over 150 of those luscious turkey dinners last evening. Good work, Millie!

Last but not least to be sure was the highlights of the evening—one we were all eagerly anticipating—the surprise the faculty had in store for us—their frolics—or skits—on the stage in the school auditorium.

The auditorium seats 300. It was full and running over into the vestibule. There were gales of laughter emanating from its portals during the entire show.

As we told you before, anything Marguerite Parson, our P-TA president and fourth grade teacher, is in or is the instigator of it, always well worth the price of admission.

In fact the teachers were so good in their skits on the Mama, Papa and Baby Bear and Red Riding Hood we expect them to be carried away to Hollywood any moment by talent scouts.

They had speculated the same thing to the showing of their acts last night. We think Walter Teague spoke their dreams though by saying that if they had Hollywood aspirations, they would have to tuck the children under their supervision under their arms and carry them along to Hollywood to continue teaching them—due to the tremendous task of replacements.

We would not hazard a guess in addition to the huge crowd in the auditorium who did not stay for the finale. Roughly, we would say approximately five hundred.

We came to one conclusion—the gymnasium is just not large enough. We had already said this when the attendance at the basketball game had outgrown it. Now, with the swelling population in Oviedo and surrounding territory, we need a new gymnasium and need it bad.

Limelight On Lyman

By KITTY KIMBELL

Last Saturday night a big event took place at Lyman. It was the annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Lyman P-TA. This affair was a huge success, and everyone attending had a good time. Some of the costumes were really outstanding. In the Junior High division (7th, 8th, and 9th grades) the winners of the costume judging were Chi Chi Hollett and Diane Wharton, most original; Phyllis Lyons, prettiest; and Melinda Hollis, funniest. The Senior High winners were Dana Alexander, prettiest; Karen Dudley, funniest; and Kitty Kimbell, most original. All members of the Junior class.

After the carnival, a wonderful party was held at the home of Carolyn Wright. The guests were Carolyn Wright, Carol Pennington, Donna Jean Smith, Marilyn Mack, and Joann Gerard. Approximately one hundred Lyman High students attended.

On October 26, the Lyman Greyhounds were smeared by the Thawville Terriers. 299. Lyman played good ball, but they still couldn't whip the powerful Terriers. There were a number of injured players who were unable to compete in that game.

This is the last week the seniors are taking orders for the annuals. The football team and the cheerleaders have already had their pictures taken by the photographer.

To lay the second edition of the "Lyman Pup" came out. It was a bigger and better edition than the first one. It was printed on "real cool" pink and black paper, and the Shadow, our gossip columnist, divulged a lot of interesting news.

On November 9, the Juniors are sponsoring a dance after the Umatilla game at the American Legion Hall on Prairie Lake. Admission will be twenty-five cents and cold drinks will be sold.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new classrooms and cafeteria toward their completion. Classes now being held in the Methodist Church at Casselberry, hand room, and in the auditorium will be happy to move into their new rooms. The old lunchroom has been most inadequate and the new one will be truly appreciated.

Red Saunders of Casselberry Publications spoke Wednesday to the 11th grade on the annual magazine subscription drive. Prizes will be awarded to those who sell the most subscriptions, and the profits from the sales will go to the Junior-Senior Prom. The Juniors have a deadline date of November 12 for taking orders.

On Halloween the Senior girls attended a combination Halloween and slumber party given by Katy Lee (Fagel) of 25320 BLDG Eagan. They all went "trick or treating". Wonder how many tricks they pulled!

The attire at Lyman this year is not so informal as in past years, due to the new ruling "No shorts—Bermuda or otherwise."

The light begins to dim now as we draw to a close. Next week we'll be back again with more "Limelight on Lyman".

T. W. Lawton Club Of Seminole High Guests At Stetson

The group, accompanied by Mrs. Kent Bateman, a sponsor enjoyed the program presented by students of both DeLand High and Seminole High Schools.

J. D. Stone, Ellen Vihlen, and Marshall Campbell, students at StS, were members of the panel which discussed "Qualities I like in Teachers."

The purpose of the Future Teachers Clubs of America is to interest superior students in the teaching profession as the need for teachers in America is critical.

Mother Sells 'Free Tickets For Rides' Says Small Boy

By MARIAN JONES

Returning to work Tuesday we met up with a second grade youngster. He was smiling and showing us his mask he had made at school. He excitedly said, "My mama is helping with the carnival." he ventured to tell us.

"Not recognizing the small lad we inquired as to what his mother was to do."

"Oh, she is going to sell free tickets for the rides," he assured us.

All my attempts were to no avail—to get him to understand that the tickets would not be free. He went merrily on his way. We returned to work laughing as we walked down the street.

Conning The News

By VIRGINIA CONN

ATTENTION, Girl Scouts! Only those who are participating in the Juliette Love birthday celebration need attend the dress rehearsal Saturday morning! In other words, unless you have a special part, you need not come to the Pinecrest school until Sunday afternoon. Please spread the word in your troops, as there is no reason for 230 girls to show up when they know their songs—this is for the skit etc. And, since the auditorium is so roomy, there will be no baby sitting provided, but I'm sure all the babies will enjoy the beautiful program that Rita Bauer has so carefully planned. Remember the time—three to four Sunday afternoon, November 4 or the birthday celebration of Juliette Love.

There will be a number of parties this weekend, if the funds and babysitters permit. Six of the boys in VAH-5 are having a promotion party Friday night at seven thirty at Art and Lois Eider's. Art, of course, is one of them. The others are Frank Dancers, Bob Baker, Bill Martin, Dick Morro, and Mac MacAdams. There is big upheaval in Five, Cy Filson and Doc Linker rare going to the Staff, Bob Williams to Eastern St., Carl Tegefrid to HATTU to relieve Walt Ruhl who is getting out of the Navy; and Dottie Daurer tells me that Frank has orders to the Staff College in Norfolk, Virginia. He reports in the first of February, so it won't be long before they start packing.

HATTU will have as their guests this Saturday night VAI-17 and VAI-9, at the Army for outdoor dancing. Once again Harry Griffin will go forth with his inspiring call so all these light on their feet, get out and reel! If you have already been indoctrinated, remember you're welcome to come Saturday night.

Skip and Ernie Horrel will entertain VAI-2 in the park of their Elizabeth Court home, Friday evening. This is a bring your own steak party, and starts at six. Advance from one who knows (Skip)—dress warmly and bring the "six twelve."

Penny and Tommy Peterson of Hidden Lake will have a cocktail party for Diddle and Boyd Weber Saturday night at six. Boyd and Diddle will soon be moving off for Quonset Point, Rhode Island. This is the first of many parties for them—I could say I don't know why and probably be Diddle's friend for life, but I'll risk her wrath, and say this; she's a lot of fun, a good golfer, excellent bridge, and one of the smartest gals I know. The Webers have many friends in Sanford, all of them, active, attractive people who will be very sorry to see them leave. And Boyd's pretty nice too!

Have a pleasant weekend every one. The men at N.A.S. won't have to work this Saturday, I hope. I'm sure Robert Conn will be glad to babysit while Mother plays golf. What I mean is, if you should run into Bob on the golf course, please give him the latest news, so he may relay it to the chief cook and bottle washer.

Jack-O-Lanterns Lend Festive Air To Jr. GA's Party

By MARIAN JONES

Jack-o-lanterns burned brightly and other Halloween decorations lent a festive air to the Halloween party held for the Junior GA's Monday night in the church annex.

The youngsters enjoyed immensely the apple bob and other Halloween games arranged for them by their leader, Mrs. Arthur Metcalf and assistant leader, Miss Peggy Fleming.

Mrs. Theodore Aulin, Jr., Mrs. Joe I. Beasley and Mrs. Louis Day assisted Mrs. Metcalf and Miss Fleming with the party.

Delicious cup cakes and cookies were enjoyed by Marilyn and Suzanne Parlin, Carol and Jean Beasley, Brenda Day, Margaret, Lorene and Beverly Parker, Diane Aulin, Rose Marie Beasley, Gay Ulrey, Anne Slask, and Jerry Williams.

4 Oviedo Women Attend District Meet In Leesburg

By MARIAN JONES

OVIEDO—Mrs. Don (Millie) Ulrey, president of the Oviedo Woman's Club, Mrs. Joseph Leinhardt, immediate past president, Mrs. R. H. Terrell and Miss Ruth Davidson were among those attending the seventh district Women's Club meeting and luncheon Tuesday at Leesburg.

We want to know how Millie does it—going to Leesburg, takes in the meeting and luncheon, comes home and is chairman of that turkey supper at the carnival that night, at which time they served over 150.

With a package of brownie mix, a can of walnuts and a can of chocolate sauce on your pantry shelf, and some ice cream in your freezer, you can have a super-fest dinner for unexpecting company. The baked brownie squares are topped with the ice cream and chocolate sauce, of course.

THE OLD HOME TOWN Registered U. S. Patent Office By STANLEY

BATHING LORE
The ancient Mayas, who lived in the Yucatan area of Mexico, apparently were cleanliness-minded. According to an old Spanish colonial law, if a Maya housewife failed to have a hot bath ready for her working spouse when he came home in the evening, he had a right to beat her.
Times have changed, but what modern wife couldn't pamper her husband with a temperate bath when he comes home after a hard day on the job? And you can please your husband even further by providing him with marly thick towels, a bath brush, and a bath pillow. Such treatment is sure to cure a case of "grouch." Try it and see!

MODERN "HUG-ME-TIGHT" MADE OF WASHABLE NYLON
You can walk in a winter wonderland, and never notice the cold, thanks to a new chill-breaking undergarment. This modern version of the old "hug-me-tight" is washable, weighs only seven ounces, and isn't a bit bulky -- thanks to a layer of specially developed insulation quilted between two layers of nylon.
The garment slips over the head and hangs down to the hips, front and back, like a sandwich board. Then it can be fitted to any size by tying strings attached to the waistline. It's as easy to launder as any nylon, and as quick to dry.

SHOCKING BUT TRUE!
A lot of girls who think they have a "bad" complexion, actually have a complexion that's not clean. A casual quick splash of the face and throat just isn't enough to remove grime and make-up. Pores that become clogged and are allowed to stay that way help create a "bad" skin. It takes plenty of soap and warm water to produce a healthy glow.
Unless a foundation garment is kept really clean, its all-important elasticity gives way far too soon. And the only way to keep it really clean is regular, frequent washing.

Sales Tax Collections Increase

In spite of a statewide decrease in sales tax collected in October for September sales Seminole County's sales tax collections for the same month increased by approximately three per cent.

A total of $24,049.97 in sales tax collections was collected in Seminole County last month for September sales in comparison to $23,769.42 during the same month last year, an increase of $280.55, or just above three per cent.

However, according to Ray E. Green, State Comptroller in his Nov. 1 report.

Both sales tax and gasoline tax collections during the month of October, based on September sales, showed decreases from the amounts collected during the previous month this year in increases over the amount collected for the same month during the previous year. (September is always a low month in sales and gas tax collections, partially because September is between seasons an October is usually low as children return to school.)

Gas tax collections are hardest hit due to the drop in tourist during that month. However, both sales and gas tax collections for the same monthly period, indicative of the basic and solid growth of the state.

Sales tax collections during October (September sales) totaled $6,925,684, a decrease of $257,675 under the $7,183,359 collected the previous month and an increase of $976,638 over the $5,948,646 collected during the same month last year.

Gas tax collections during October (September sales) totaled $8,795,106, a decrease of $1,332,972 under the $10,128,078 collected the previous month, a 12 per cent decrease of $2,838,877 over the $6,411,283 collected during the same month last year.

Sales tax collections to date this fiscal year total $24,417,717, an increase of $4,569,000 over the $19,848,717 collected to date last fiscal year. This is an increase of 18.21 per cent.

Results To Be Heard At Herald Office

Results from all of the political races will be heard over a public address system at the Sanford Herald tomorrow evening beginning at 7 o'clock.

Local citizens may hear the results from their cars parked along the street and gathered in front of the building from the city election, the congressional race, the statewide races, the referendum issue, and from the presidential election both statewide and nationwide and from Seminole and Duval.

Polis throughout the county will open at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning and will close at 7 p. m. Results are expected to begin pouring into The Sanford Herald newsrooms immediately after the closing of the polls.

Voters throughout the county, in the general election, will cast their ballots on Shoup voting machines. All personnel of the polling places have been instructed on the use of the machines and will be in readiness to give such instruction as necessary for those not familiar with the machine's operation.

One exception in voting tomorrow will be in the city election. Ballots carrying the names of all candidates for the three seats on the Board of Sanford City Commissioners will be hand marked. Counting of the ballots will be by the tabulation method as has been employed in past elections. The polls for the city election will be located in the city hall and will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. to coincide with the general election.

Big Turn Out Is Predicted

More than 12,000 voters are registered in Seminole County, 1205 of them Republicans with the balance on the Democratic and "others" side, for the 1956 general election which will get underway tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

The Sanford Herald is all set to bring a complete tabulation of countrywide, statewide, and nationwide voting beginning at 7 p. m. tomorrow night over a public address system to be located at the Herald offices on West First St.

An early tabulation of results is expected from each of the 16 precincts in Seminole County since all will be using voting machines. It is expected and predicted that more voters will turn out for tomorrow's election than ever before in the history of the county.

Opposition in the Countywide Election comes within the campaign for the Board of Public Instruction when Elbert Cammack, a Seminole County dairyman announced his write-in candidacy for the Board, opposing incumbent C. F. Harrison of the Geneva School District.

Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong is being opposed by Republican Candidate Arnold Lund of Daytona Beach for the Fifth Congressional District's seat.

Florida came up to the eve today of a general election in which a tight presidential battle has overshadowed campaigning for governor, six congressional seats and 11 proposed constitutional amendments.

For one of the few times since the campaigning started, Gov. Collins and his Republican opponent, William A. Washburne Jr., of Nokomis, were out making direct appeals to the voters at the same time.

Both gubernatorial candidates made forecasts of victory as they began handshaking rounds at opposite ends of the state.

Collins, starting a swing up the populous Lower East Coast from Miami to West Palm Beach, forecast he would carry every county and that the people would give him an overwhelming vote of confidence.

Washburne, an ex-legislator and former public relations man, said he felt confident of victory. He said he had indications from many parts of the state that the voters would show they were "breaking away from their past loyalties to the Democratic Party in the governor's race as well as the presidential race."

Washburne worked from Nokomis toward Jacksonville where he plans to wind up his campaign with a television talk tonight.

Oviedo Negro In Unisclosed Jail For Protection

An Oviedo Negro was arrested Saturday afternoon and moved to an undisclosed jail for protection, according to Constable George Kelsey this morning.

Charles Frank Gavin, 43, said Kelsey, began giving trouble Saturday morning at several stores. In one of the establishments, Gavin is said to have grabbed the arm of a clerk which he refused to turn loose.

Immediately following this turn of events, Gavin accosted the wife of a railroad man who was sitting in her car where he attempted to open the car door to get in, saying "Can I give you a drink."

Constable Kelsey took Gavin into custody about 3:30 or 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Because of public sentiment, said Kelsey, the Negro was moved to the Seminole County Jail in Sanford and later to an undisclosed location for safekeeping.

Two other Negroes, also in the Oviedo jail, were moved to the Seminole County jail about 6:45 p. m. Saturday, just before a group of white men entered the Oviedo jail.

Kelsey said this morning, "I think whiskey was the cause of the Negro's actions."

The constable said that the Negro is charged with public intoxication and resisting arrest. "He will be brought before Seminole County Judge Ernest Housholder on the two charges," said Kelsey, "and possibly will be bound over to Circuit Court on one of the charges."

Sheriff Luther Hobby's deputies were called in to assist, said Kelsey, and "worked with me to keep down any disturbance and to help transfer the prisoners."

Kelsey reported that "Every thing is quiet in Oviedo this morning."

Over $650 Damage Seen As Convertible Fails To Make Curve

Property damage was estimated at more than $650 to a 1953 Ford convertible when it failed to negotiate a curve on the Country Club Road one mile south of the Mayfair Inn golf course shortly before noon Friday.

The automobile, traveling north, clipped a telephone and power pole on the west side of the highway tearing it from the ground, turned on its side and came to a stop in a maze of wires.

James L. Douglas, white male, attached to the Sanford Naval Air Station, driver of the car, was taken to the Seminole Memorial Hospital with apparent chest injuries.

Terry Wilson, 2505 Laurel Ave., Sanford, an employe of Morrison's Imperial House, accompanied Douglas but was uninjured.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Carl Williams investigated. He was assisted by Deputy Sheriff A. E. Evans.

The car shown astride a power pole which it had taken off at the bottom, swerved out of control on the Country Club Road last Friday shortly before noon. Damage was estimated to be more than $650. (Staff Photo)

Cease-Fire Declared Today In Port Said

LONDON (AP)—Waves of British and French paratroopers landed in the Port Said area at the north end of the Suez Canal today.

Within hours, the British announced, the Egyptian commander there began discussing surrender terms with the invaders. A cease-fire was declared.

The cease-fire was announced to cheers in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Eden.

The developments meant the situation of Egyptian President Nasser was becoming more precarious by the hour. Last week the Egyptians lost their vital Suez Canal.

The announced purpose of the British-French invasion is to safeguard the canal—now closed to shipping—and to separate the belligerents in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting. The British say they are willing to turn over control of the canal area to U. N. forces, once the situation is stabilized.

The parachute troops landed in the canal zone only 4 months and 22 days after the British surrendered to Egypt the military bases they long had occupied there. In the meantime, on July 26, Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal.

The invasion came shortly after the U. N. General Assembly, seeking to restore peace in both Hungary and the Middle East, ordered an international police command set up to establish and supervise a cease-fire in Egypt.

From Vienna word has been received that radio Budapest broadcast a demand today that remaining Hungarian rebel fighters give up their arms by 6 p. m.—12 noon EST.

It appeared probable the rebels, their ranks thinned by the lightning attacks of Russia tanks and infantry had already switched from organized battle lines to partisan warfare.

The Budapest station, again firmly under Russian control, sought to win over Hungarians with all sorts of promises of political and economic reforms.

Civilian Employees Get Awards

Cash awards were presented to two civilian employes of the Sanford Naval Air Station Friday morning in ceremonies held in the office of the station's Commanding Officer, Capt. Robert W. Jackson.

The awards were recommended by an Incentive Awards Committee headed by Comdr. M. H. Hawkins.

Present for the ceremony were Comdr. Hawkins, John C. Brown, Assistant civilian Personnel Officer, and William O. Stansel, Quartermaster.

Receiving the awards from Capt. Jackson were: T. D. Culberhouse, Engineman in the Steam Plant, who was presented a check for $66.10 for a suggestion which improved the firebox in a Kewler boiler and will save the Naval Air Station approximately $2001.78 per year. The idea will be forwarded to Washington, D. C. for Navy-wide distribution.

Miss F. Surasky, Personnel Assistant, received a check for $10. Her suggestion improves the efficiency of operations in the Industrial Relations Department.

County School Board Session Postponed

The regular meeting of the County Board of Public Instruction will be postponed, said Superintendent of Public Instruction R. T. Milwee, until Nov. 15.

"The meeting has been postponed," said Milwee, "due to the fact that a survey team from the State Department of Education will be working in the county this week."

The meeting was originally scheduled for Nov. 15.

This also means, said Milwee, that the Board of School Trustees' meeting, originally scheduled for Nov. 5, will be postponed until Nov. 12.

Hungarian Rebels Ordered To Give Up Arms

Issues in the special election in which Seminole County voters will ballot on the harness horses referendum tomorrow were placed squarely before the public Saturday at a public forum at the Yacht Club where for a full hour race way officials answered questions fired at will by more than a score of persons present and from the radio audience turned to WTRR.

Speaking for the raceway was William R. Kemp, president, who covered 22 specific questions, related the history of the 30-year-old harness training plant which is fighting for its life in the election tomorrow.

In answer to one question from the audience, "What happens if the referendum is turned down," Kemp put the facts clearly on the line.

"We just won't be able to carry out the plans for developing this plant into the showpiece of the south," he said. "We must count on getting the pari-mutuel privilege to raise sufficient funds to pay for the $750,000 improvements we plan out there. If that isn't made possible, through ratification of the referendum, then the track will be abandoned as it has. We'll probably have to fall back on such undesirable things as stock car and motorcycle races and other events which will have neither the appeal nor will bring the revenue and wealth to the county that will be attracted here if we get the green light for building this million dollar business that we intend to."

In answer to the question "Won't this just bring a lot of temporary workers to the area," Kemp forcefully explained that the exact opposite was the case.

"We will have a training plant out there that will have 600 horses working out daily for from five (Continued on Page 9)
