Shenandoah Going In Line Down Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The Navy dirigible Shenandoah is traveling easily down the California shore line on its voyage from Camp Lewis Washington to San Diego en route back to its Lakhurst, N. J. hangar.

It is expected to reach its mooring at North Island, San Diego, about 6 o'clock this afternoon, Pacific Coast time. It left Camp Lewis at noon Sunday.

The only deviation from a straight line flight were a circle over Seattle, a trip inland over the Columbia river part of the way to Portland and a slight over San Francisco Bay this morning.

The voyage Sunday and last night was ahead of the storm sweeping down from the north.

BUTLER CHARGES 3RD PARTY WITH RAISING BIG SUM

Republican Chairman Says LaFollette Leaders Are Raising $500,000 in Wisconsin; Welcomes Probe

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—William H. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, in a statement issued here Sunday night declared LaFollette leaders had decided to raise $500,000 in the state of Wisconsin for the independent ticket.

"Since the senatorial investigation committee has decided to continue its hearings into campaign funds," he said, "I want to say more than that the Republican national committee will cooperate in producing such information as is desired."

"We hope that the committee will go into the matter of the funds raised by our opponents as well. On Sept. 9, in Milwaukee, Wis., one hundred LaFollette leaders held a meeting and decided to raise $500,000 in that state. Among those present were Herman Ekern, attorney general, who presided, Governor John J. Blain and State Treasurer Sol Levinson."

"This $500,000 was to be apportioned to various congressional districts. Proportionately, that fund for Wisconsin was much larger than that proposed by certain Republicans in Pennsylvania. I can only hope that the third party members have been more successful in filling their quotas than we have."

"The Republican party has no objection to the raising of funds for the third party candidates by such gigantic organizations as the American Federation of Labor or the railroad brotherhoods. But such funds must of necessity become the subject of inquiry by some senatorial committee if it is to continue hearings at this time."

"We have gone into the committee and given the amount of our budget, the receipts to date and a survey of our expenditures. It must now be apparent to Republican men and women of America that we are conducting a presidential campaign on most economical lines. Moreover it is clear that we need more funds."

I appeal to those who believe in the principles for which we are fighting to contribute in order that we may wind up the campaign on Nov. 4 without a deficit.

"The election is just two weeks away. Already we have had smoke screens to divert attention from the main issues. During these next fourteen days there will be many more such smoke screens put up by our opponents. But we go into this last phase of the campaign confident that we shall win. We ask the citizens of the country to keep their minds fixed upon the fundamental issues instead of the charges and counter charges which some of our opponents, selecting the senatorial committee as the stage, will make."

"Our reports indicate, and points taken by newspapers and organizations throughout the land affirm, that Calvin Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes will be elected overwhelmingly president and vice president on Nov. 4."

Elks Meet Wednesday Night at Court House To Discuss Building

The first meeting of Sanford Elks since the fire which destroyed their home on the lakefront a week ago, will be held Wednesday night at the court house, according to an announcement made here today.

The meeting is expected to be most important because it has been called primarily for the purpose of discussing what action shall be taken in regard to the construction of a new home. It is expected that definite action as to where and when the new home will be erected. It is not known whether the lodge will rebuild on the site of the burned structure or whether property closer to the business section will be acquired for the new home, which it is said will be of a most modern and up-to-date design and including many new features.

LEAGUE IN NEED OF HELP FROM UNITED STATES

Experts Declare That Body Must At Least Have Beneficent Neutrality Of U. S. To Insure Its Success

Article 12 Becomes Subject of Discussion

U. S. Participation In Some Way Would Form Sanctions Against All Aggressors

GENEVA, Oct. 20.—In their preliminary study of the protocol for the Pacific settlement of international disputes, which recently was adopted here, the experts of the League of Nations gradually are reaching the conclusion that without at least the beneficent neutrality of the United States, it will be difficult and probably impossible to organize sanctions against any aggressor state.

Article 12 of the protocol asks the economical and financial organizations of the league to study and report on the steps which should be taken to give effect to the financial and economic sanctions stipulated in the covenant and clarified in the protocol. Already the financial, economic and financial sections are preparing plans for presentation at the meetings of the various technical commissions which are composed of the government representatives of the various states.

Huge Problem. The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that this preliminary study has demonstrated the terrific nature of the problem of arranging any effective system of sanctions with the United States not adhering to the protocol. Among the many examples which might be cited, two are brought forward. They are shown in the protocol to be those where the signatories to the protocol shall endeavor to bring pressure against an aggressor state by cutting off all loans and all supplies of war materials. It is pointed out that in such a contingency an aggressor state always could have the resort of applying to the United States for help.

Generally speaking, according to well informed quarters, a first examination of the protocol conditions shows clearly the urgent need of obtaining American collaboration in any universal scheme of arbitration and security founded on preventing sanctions if such a scheme could be applied progressively.

The first stage would be the cutting off of consular and diplomatic relations with a state which had been declared an aggressor.

With a crash that brought residents of lower Park Avenue rushing from their homes hatless and coatless, an Overland sedan piloted by Jesse Fox and Ford coupe piloted by Joe Gonzalez at the wheel collided at Park Avenue and Fourth Street Sunday afternoon with considerable damage to both, to say nothing of the injury done to a lamp post belonging to the city.

Early spectators found the two cars draped around the lamp post in an apparent affectionate embrace, and the two drivers engaged in a verbal battle in which affectionate terms were conspicuous by their absence.

It appears that Mr. Fox was moving east on Fourth Street when a Ford coupe piloted by Mr. Gonzalez going south on Park Avenue struck his sedan and knocked it upon the sidewalk against the lamp post.

After inflicting this full blow, the Detroit product pushed its advantage and followed the Overland on the sidewalk, where it struck its unlucky opponent once again before the motor coughed and quit.

Almost before the echoes had died away a large crowd of curious spectators had gathered on the scene, and Sheriff Hand had arrived to investigate this sudden disturbance of the Sabbath.

The right front wheel of Mr. Ford's invention was shattered, and the right fenders and running board damaged in addition to minor scratches and dents.

The Overland suffered a shattered left front wheel, a damaged running board and damaged fenders and a bent front axle with probable injuries to the chassis.

Conditions at Lake Monroe Bridge Becoming Worse; People Forced Out Houses

It was learned this afternoon from City Engineer Fred T. Williams that late reports from the Lake Monroe bridge on the Sanford-DeLand road state that the highway has been closed.

Mr. Williams stated that this information was given him by A. H. Beschvik, city traffic officer. High water, standing two feet over the road at the north end of the bridge for the past several days was given as the cause of closing the road.

Congested traffic at Lake Monroe resulted Sunday afternoon as scores of motorists from this city and the vicinity parked their cars near the bridge in an effort to secure first-hand information on the high water which has covered approximately one-fifth of a mile of the Sanford-DeLand road.

Several thousand people visited the bridge Sunday to view the disaster caused by the flood water in Lake Monroe and the St. Johns River system. With approximately 50 automobiles parked at each end of the water-covered spot and hundreds of people standing looking on motorists found it extremely difficult to cross over the bridge.

One or two convict gangs were pushing cars, which had unluckily

FRENCH CATERER TO SERVE LOCAL TRADE IN FUTURE

Arrangements Being Made at Local Country Club Where Special Service Will Be Given By Edw. Petit Benoit

The Sanford County Club will soon have a French caterer in the person of Edw. Petit Benoit who will give the people of this city and the surrounding community the best that can be had in foods and accessories for dinner parties, theatre parties, dinner dances and for all special occasions where choice foods and good service are desired.

This was learned today in an announcement by President Edward Higgins of the local Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Higgins said he is at present the local house is being remodelled and adequate preparations are being made to accommodate a permanent Petit Benoit. Final arrangements for this special service will be completed during the next few days, it was learned.

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce stated today that the caterer was for 16 years connected with Delmonico's in New York City and with several others well known over practically the entire country among which are the Brighton Long Island Country Club and the Downtown Business Club in New York. He has also been caterer to the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce.

It was stated that Mr. Petit Benoit intends to popularize the menu given at the club house by giving the same catering service here that is given by the best of country clubs and like organizations in the large northern cities.

It is this high class service it is thought by officials in charge of the local club and of the Chamber of Commerce that the golf club will soon become throughout the entire section of the state as a place where the highest class of foods may be had for various sorts of parties and festivities.

It was further learned that Mr. Petit Benoit was on his way to St. Petersburg for the winter but that while here he was given the opportunity to become caterer at the Sanford club house. Local officials in charge have persuaded him to locate here and work is being rushed for the installation of the special service.

It was said that it will probably be two weeks before the remodeling of the club house will be completed and the service inaugurated.

Series of Special Meetings At First Baptist Church Closed Sunday Night

The last of a series of special evangelistic services at the First Baptist Church embracing a period of two weeks was held last night, when the half dozen or so came forward to affiliate themselves with the church raised the total membership obtained during the past two years to more than 400, according to an announcement made yesterday by Rev. F. D. King, pastor.

In discussing the services that resulted in the conversion of many here, Dr. King paid glowing tribute to the work of Miss Blanche Snyder White, special mission worker, and to J. Fred Scholfield, the musical director who assisted materially in making the meetings successful.

ENGLAND WILL WITNESS HARD ELECTION FIGHT

MacDonald's Party Appears Certain To Be Ousted As Liberals And Conservatives Combine To Lead The Fight

1,420 Candidates Out For Parliament

Forty-One Women Seek Seats In Coming Election; Lull In Campaign Over Sunday

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The 1,420 candidates nominated for parliament Saturday comprise the following party classification: Conservatives 532, Constitutionists 7, Liberals 341, Laborites 501, Cooperatives 9, Communists 8, Independents 12, Republicans 7, Sinn Fein Nationalists and Prohibitionists one each.

Because of the large number of Liberal withdrawals there will be straight fights between Conservatives and Laborites in no fewer than 247 contests. Moreover, owing to last hour party activity in nominating extra candidates, chiefly by the Labor party, there will be more triangular fights than were expected—227, distributed as follows: London 23, English boroughs 71, English counties 104, with the remainder in Wales, Scotland and Ireland.

Thus, three-cornered fights are distributed over the whole kingdom and makes the outcome of the election difficult to predict.

Women Candidates. There are 41 women candidates, Labor supplying a majority of them 22, while the Conservatives have nominated 12, the Liberals 6, and the Independents 1, Lady Astor, the Duchess of Atholl, Lady Torrington, and all the women members of the last parliament are seeking re-election. The other women candidates include many well known in the women's movement.

There was a lull in the campaign over Sunday, affording an opportunity of reviewing the situation, which is noteworthy, first, for the growing confidence of the Conservative party in their coming back as the largest party in the house, even if not with an absolute majority, and second, for the frankness with which a new coalition government is canvassed in the press.

When parliament was dissolved the Conservative and Liberal leaders in the house were not given publicity by either the Liberal or Conservative press that such a move was contemplated.

Even now the attitude of the Conservative and Liberal leaders is that the arrangement made to withdraw candidates where triangular contests would give a chance for a Labor victory, were more in the form of local agreements, having no reference to any possible pact after the elections.

Reckless driving seemed to be the two predominant words in municipal court this morning when six of 17 cases tried before Judge J. G. Sharon were for that particular offense. Nine of the cases were for disorderly conduct but past records show that there is nearly always a large percentage of such cases. The case arraigned was for drunkenness and one for carrying concealed weapons, the latter being continued.

The cases arraigned were: J. H. Brinkley, reckless driving, $1 and costs or 10 days in jail; C. Lawson, reckless driving, $10 and costs or 10 days in jail; C. L. Patehant, reckless driving, dismissed; Verne Clute, reckless driving, $5 and costs or 10 days in jail; Geneva Lewis, disorderly conduct, $1 and costs or 10 days in jail; Elmano Lewis, disorderly conduct, $1 and costs or 10 days in jail; Mercedes Banks, disorderly conduct, dismissed; Joe Brown, drunkenness, $10 and costs or 10 days in jail; Jessie Fox, reckless driving, dismissed; Joe Gonzalez, reckless driving, $10 and costs or 10 days in jail; Earnest Dixon, carrying concealed weapons, continued to Wednesday, Oct. 29; Otis Crawford, disorderly conduct, continued to Wednesday; Delbie Haywood, disorderly conduct, continued to Wednesday; Willie Williams, disorderly conduct, dismissed; Annie Jones, disorderly conduct, dismissed.

Fines, costs and estrated bonds amounted to $60.

Opening of Altamonte Property is Postponed

End of Campaign But 5 Weeks Away

Less than five weeks remain in The Herald's big subscription contest.

On November 22, at 10 p. m. the prizes will be awarded to winners who have been successful in securing the greatest number of votes during the twelve week period.

As the race nears the end workers are renewing their efforts and are working harder than ever before to pile up such a lead over their competitors that they can sew the first prize up.

The last few weeks of the campaign will be busy ones and the young lady who makes the fourth period a busy period and is able to secure a lot of votes during this week will have things easier in the last days of the contest.

20,000 additional votes will be awarded to contestants turning in $100 or more in subscriptions before ten o'clock Saturday night. This is a special offer and in no wise conflicts with any other prizes offered.

Next standing of contestants will be published Wednesday.

M'ADOO APPEALS FOR SUPPORT OF DAVIS AND BRYAN

Declares Needed Reform Can Be Secured By Election Of Democratic Ticket; Issues Statement From Bed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—William G. McAdoo, in his first extended statement since the Democratic national convention, declared Sunday the only chance to "purify the government and to accomplish the reforms demanded by the people is to elect Davis and Bryan."

In a letter written from Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, where Mr. McAdoo recently underwent an operation, he informed Democratic national headquarters that he would be forced to abandon his plans for an extensive speech-making campaign, but through letter and telegram to friends in various states he was doing his "utmost to help the cause."

"It is a great pity," the letter said, "that the progressives led by LaFollette and Wheeler and the Democrats led by Davis and Bryan cannot present a united front against the common enemy."

Referring to the candidacy of Senators LaFollette and Wheeler, Mr. McAdoo declared that while he was not in accord with "much that Senator LaFollette is advocating (as for instance his proposed court amendment) to the constitutional amendment and respect for the courageous fight he has made against entrenched privilege and the invisible forces of government and for the fight he is now making to drive the corrupt and incompetent Republican administration out of power."

"But," he continued, "we are confronted with a practical question of how reaction can be unseated, adding that the success of the Democratic ticket offered the best means to that end."

Progress Can't Make Speeches. "I regret exceedingly," said Mr. McAdoo's letter, addressed to Senator Swanson, of Virginia, head of the Democratic speakers' bureau, "that I have been obliged to abandon my plans to make an extensive speaking trip in the national campaign. Not only have I been compelled to remain in the hospital longer than anticipated, but my physician, Dr. Hugh H. Young, emphatically advises against my undertaking the strenuous work involved in a speech-making campaign."

"If the forces of reaction represented by the Coolidge administration succeed in November it will be due solely to division in the ranks of the progressive and liberal forces in America. It is a great pity that the progressives led by LaFollette and the Democrats led by Davis and Bryan can not present a united front against the common enemy."

This, the third meeting of the association in Sanford, said the county agent, will be one of vital importance in the history of the organization and it is desired that all members be present so that a 100 per cent meeting can be had.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

STAY WITH THE LORD:—The Lord is with you, while ye are with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. II. Chron. 31: 2.

THE TOWN OF DON'T-YOU-WORRY.

There's a town called Don't-You-Worry On the banks of the River Smile. Where the Cheer-Up and Be-Happy Blossom sweetly all the while; Where the Never-Grumble flower Blooms beside the fragrant Fry, And the Ne'er-Give-Up and Patience Point their faces to the sky. In the Valley of Contentment, In the Province of I Will, You will find this lovely city, At the foot of No-Fret Hill.

There are thoroughfares delightful, In this very charming town; And on every hand are shade trees, Named the Very Seldom-Frown. Rustic benches, quite enticing, You'll find scattered here and there; And to each a vine is clinging, Called the Frequent-Earliest-Prayer. Everybody here is happy, And is singing all the while. In the town of Don't-You-Worry, On the banks of the River Smile, —Grit.

Good evening! Are you doing your best for Sanford? The height of ambition, we understand, is an elephant trying to be a human fly. Do your part for Democracy! Mail your contribution to The Herald.

It doesn't make any difference how many liquor laws they pass, they can't keep the water out. Young Al Smith is married in fact married twice to make sure of it—and "Papa" Al says he doesn't even care.

They used to say at school that a girl was "S. S. and G.", which usually meant "sweet, simple and dim-phoolish." The thrill that comes once in a lifetime. When the flapper walks in and asks the young barber to change her hair.

An exchange says that a Chicago boy, when asked how old he is, replies, "I'll be hanged if I'm over nineteen." The reason why some folks can't fine most of their conversations to gossip is because they don't know anything to talk about.

Oats going up, gasoline going down. The way to meet this situation is to omit the cereal course at breakfast and take the family out driving instead. Syracuse Herald.

Storm warnings are being displayed on both the east and west gales. Even in central Florida the woe cracker will get ready for a bit of heavy wind and some more rainfall.

The dates for the next Madison Square Garden Exhibit have been set, February 19-26. Are Seminole county growers getting ready to make this an even bigger and better exhibit than last year's?

This may sound funny but only one check for five dollars has been donated to the Democratic campaign fund. Fred T. Williams was the first man in Seminole county to prove himself a good Democrat. Is he the only one?

The New York Herald Tribune says the Democratic ticket is too Bryanque. We don't know exactly what it means by that, but if it means Democratic, it is partly right, but a ticket can't be TOO Democratic.

Coolidge is asked for a loan of twenty cents by evicted tenants in Washington. He replies that he doesn't know whether there is any authority whereby the War Department can loan supplies. Coolidge has to be very diplomatic these days, at least try to be.

According to the manager of the Protective department of the American Bankers' Association, crime in coasting the business of the United States four billion dollars each year. And every law violator encourages crime and a speaker, who says or anyone who buys or drinks bootleg whiskey is a law violator.

Hot Water And Soap At Your House?

Do the children at your home wash their hands many times a day, or do they have to be knocked down and dragged in to the wash basin? Are they afraid of soap and water, or do they like the feeling of being clean? Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, Commissioner of Health, Chicago, declares that the hands of the ordinary citizen are literally teeming with microbes. He says that probably the commonest way in which diseases are implanted within our bodies is by conveyance from hand to mouth.

And you have seen children go to the dinner table with their hands grimy with dirt gotten from contact with all sorts of germ-infested things!

"Especially are finger nails a prolific source of infection," Dr. Bundesen writes. "The physiologic function of the nails is to protect the tips of the fingers against pressure and give them firm support. This increases the delicacy of the tactile or touch sensations. There is on the other hand a tendency for dirt to accumulate under the surface of the nail between it and the finger. This accumulation is not only unsightly but is a source of actual danger, since it affords safe lodgment for the germs of disease."

When children are told to clean their finger nails, are they impressed with the "unsightliness" idea, or are they told of the hygienic importance of clean finger nails? Many a boy who has not reached the age to desire to look his toes has a scorn of "pretty" finger nails, but he can be shown the desirability of clean nails from a health standpoint.

Tell the children in your home of some of the experiments that have been tried by the Chicago Health Commissioner and other physicians and see how much of an improvement you notice in the way they take care of their hands. For instance, Dr. Bundesen tells about these laboratory tests:

Experiment 1: Hands washed thoroughly with soap and hot water. Cultures taken: No disease germs found. Subject shook hands with ten different persons. Cultures taken: Numerous pus germs found.

Experiment 2: Hands washed with hot water and soap. Cultures taken: No disease-producing germs found. Subject sneezed on hand at distance of about two feet. Cultures taken: Germs of pneumonia, influenza, colds and pus infections found.

Experiment 3: Hands washed with hot water and soap. Cultures taken: No disease germs found. Subject handles a quantity of paper money. Cultures taken: Many disease germs found.

Dr. Bundesen says very truly that in training children to be cleanly, the good example of their elders is better than the spoken word. How many times a day do you wash your hands with hot soap and water? One of the best proverbs ever written says that cleanliness is next to godliness.

But Mothers To Blame, Douglas

Poor, dear Mother, picking up all day long after the careless children! We have seen many a prose essay on this sad theme, but it took Douglas Malloch, in his "Lament of Life," to show us the first poem we have seen on the subject. Douglas, write a poem about the doting Mother whose lines each on the subject of "Picking Up." The first stanza devoted to the beautiful girl sitting before her mirror adorning herself in lovely clothes dresses with these fetching lines:

A skirt upon the floor, Upon a chair another, A wast upon a door— But what about your mother? I wish that I could dwell Awhile beneath your rafter, Are you a damsel? She has to pick up after?

To be absolutely impartial Douglas then indicts his second stanza to "Sonny," who perhaps is careless where he puts a book and where he hangs his sweater, "Sonny?" Lanza concludes with:

Who keeps your room in order? My boy, is this your home, Or are you just a boarder? In spite of all your fun, Your jokes, your joyous laughter, Are you the sort of son She has to pick up after?

Now to help Douglas out with this excellent missionary work, The Herald should call the attention of all boys and girls to the sin of letting Mother pick up after them; but, just to be a little contrary, The Herald wants to know why in the name of common-sense did Mother ever permit Daughter and Sonny to neglect to pick up after themselves? What sort of training did she give them? Were they taught in their very infancy, as they could have been, to have a place for everything, and everything in its place? Did she teach them to be orderly, or did she just find it easier to let them acquire careless habits which will hurt them always?

The selfishness that will allow a child to accept the waiting upon and the picking-up-after of a devoted Mother if pretend to love is deplorable but even this selfishness is a fault of the Mother's. She has failed to weed out the noxious weed. She has found it easier to take the path of least resistance, preferring to "slave" for her child, preferring to be cited as the unselfish, self-sacrificing Mother—and has done her child irreparable harm.

Douglas, write a poem about the doting Mother whose devotion is an outcrop of inefficiency, rather than a sign of intrinsic worth.

THE LEAGUE GOES ON ASHEVILLE CITIZEN

The league of nations is dead. The league, then, is the foremost agency in the world for doing away with the old practice among nations of making secret alliances for aggression or protection. The league is a schoolmaster to the nations; and, as the seeds of all true education will inevitably bring forth good fruit, so the sound principles taught through this world association are bringing the nations into closer bonds of fellowship and good will. Although it has in its membership most of the nations, it will take long for it to grow into that power as a world parliament which can be exercised for the virtual prevention of war and the constant blessing of all peoples. In that process of development, should it not have around it the encouragement and protection of the greatest disinterested nation of them all?

A 20 Point Rise. For Pinkston $2,561.35. Only a Name. Works Without Faith. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

ONE BIG "operator" in Wall Street sent around yesterday for an "opinion on the election." He and others, associated in profitable speculation, believe that certainty of a Coolidge victory would immediately start the beginning of a "twenty-point rise in the market."

IF, AS PRINTED in Cyrus H. K. Curtis's newspapers, Hiram Johnson really believes a Coolidge victory in California certain, then "Big Operators" might as well begin buying. Republican managers, scanning carefully, believe Coolidge now has 250 votes safe, in the Electoral College, without California. Those that know New York politics on the Democratic inside say New York is certain for Coolidge, and Davis will run third.

WILLIS PINKSTON, young American sailor, high up on the steel mast of the United States ship Richmond, using his keen eyesight faithfully, saw a little flare at sea and saved the life of the brave Italian liner Locatelli. Readers who contributed to a fund for Pinkston will be glad to know that the money contributed, $2,561.35, is now deposited to Pinkston's credit in the Bowery Savings Bank in New York at his request.

A picture of the young sailor's strong face, with details of the contributions, will be sent for publication if the editor chooses, to newspapers that helped raise the fund.

The money was deposited originally in the Bank of Commercial Italiana in New York.

ON THE GRAVE of Anatole France nothing is written except "Anatole France, 1844-1924." For untold and few are men whose names alone are sufficient epitaph. The Persian comment could order written on his tomb "I am Cyrus, Oh Man" with fewer than ten words about his worth, tracing history to supply detail.

Archimedes needed a name at all. On his tomb when he was found it in Sicily there was only the figure of a sphere inscribed in a cylinder. Mathematics would know the meaning of that. Archimedes cared little about others. The majority of the so-called "great" need full explanation. A few years, then "Anatole France, 1844-1924," will mean nothing to the Frenchman. A hundred or so other heads will meet a real epitaph in a thousand years.

THE PROTESTANT Episcopalians of New York are making an earnest drive to get $1,000,000 for a great cathedral. Mr. Welles, their much interested secretary, says: "The same methods must be employed as in the World's War." That was the FIFTH of the 30th century. The fact that it is really great architecture. It was the first of its kind. It was the first of its kind. It was the first of its kind. It was the first of its kind.

AN IN-FLIGHT sign was that great German air boat, shining like polished silver in the sun's light across the ocean in those early, yesterday, morning. The flight across the ocean in three days is a tribute to man's genius. A man capable of such achievement will learn eventually to cut war.

SOON European trips by air ships will be regular routes, at least as little attention as an automobile bus line.

Archibute have come to stay and will do all the long and short of it. They will do all the long and short of it. They will do all the long and short of it. They will do all the long and short of it.

What a crime against civilization and the genius of man! The German point that created that great flying machine should be approved by the Free Institute of the letter of the Ver alle. To it there should be some solution of "war danger" better than destruction of a great industry.

THE GERMAN bonds sold steadily. Everything went "boom" in theatrical fashion. Morgan and Company announce that they could have sold a billion of the bonds. Doubtless they will sell a billion, several billions perhaps.

GERMANY intends to pay, and will if other nations give her a chance. But her hostile movements toward the Ruhr by France, and the interest on the bonds were paid. The value would drop to their bonds, to marry MEANS to pay bonds that she sold here in war time. They are worth less than the excellent paper on which they are printed. To be safe, INVEST IN AMERICA.

A RACE horse called "Chilly-wee" has broken the world's galloping record, covering a mile and one-eighth in one minute 48.15 seconds. That would have been an important once, now it's a mere incident in a gamblers' sports. Paul Revere today would ride in a small automobile, blowing his horn as he went with the "cut out" wide open. Or he would fly close to the ground in his little monoplane, or would stay at home and wake the country side through the "loud speaker" in every house. The running speed of a horse is an important today. The flying speed of a falcon that, also was important once.

TECH'S DEFEAT OF PENN STATE AND TULANE'S UPSET OF VANDY FURNISH CHIEF TALK IN SOUTH

Georgians Won By Following Ball Closely; Nittany Lions Made Eleven First Downs to Tech's Lone Mark

"Green Wave" Has Best Team In Years

University of Georgia Star Gets Credit For Longest Run With One for 69 Yards

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 20.—Georgia Tech and Tulane were Southern conference members in the very center of the football stage Saturday, the Yellow Jackets bringing great glory to the South with a 15 to 13 defeat of a leading Eastern team in the person of Penn State, while the Green bowled over the Vanderbilt Commodores, rated as one of the strongest in the South, 21 to 13.

The day's play on Southern fields brought many exciting features. In defeating Penn State, Georgia Tech demonstrated that it is possible to win a football game without the vestige of an offensive, by taking careful and constant advantage of an opponent's mistakes. In this game Tech made but one first down from scrimmage and that the last play of the game while the Nittany Lions had eleven. Tech's line, however, gave an impressive demonstration of defensive play in the first three periods.

The Tulane victory over Vanderbilt was featured by a forty-yard forward pass from Lautenschlaeger to "Doc" Wilson.

The longest run of the day and one of the most extended of the season was credited to Kilpatrick in a game at Augusta in which Georgia defeated Furman 23 to 0. The Georgia back got away for a sprint of sixty-nine yards. In the same game Herlong of the losers dashed away for forty-three yards. Rutherford's Kicking Features. Some remarkable kicking featured the victory of V. P. I. over Maryland, 12 to 0. Rutherford hoisted the ball between the goal posts from the 50-yard line when he had previously kicked a goal from the thirty-nine yard line.

Dave Rosenfeld's sensational run of fifty-eight yards played a conspicuous part in Alabama's victory over Sewanee by a score of 14 to 0.

Florida in scoring a 34 to 0 victory over Wake Forest, scored in every period, this feat being duplicated by Fort Benning in defeating Birmingham Southern, 41 to 6.

Centenary showed Indiana that Louisiana eleven are bad medicine in invasions of the Hoosier state. "Bo" McMillan's team downing Butler, 9 to 7. Louisiana State followed its victory over the University of Indiana by going into Texas to win from Rice Institute, 10 to 0. This game developed a clash between two coaching rivals of long standing, Mike Donahue and John Heisman.

Virginia tasted sweet revenge by defeating V. M. I., 13 to 0, the Cavaliers having been soundly defeated by the Cadets last year. Washington and Lee, with a record of a tie with Kentucky State last season, won from the Blue Grass team, 10 to 7. Wilson contributing his bit with a run of forty yards to a touchdown.

The Mississippi Aggies were better than "Ole Miss," getting a 20 to 0 decision over the university.

'GATORS' DEPART TUESDAY TO PLAY TEXAS IN AUSTIN

University of Florida Faces Uncertain Quantity in The "Longhorns" Who Defeated Vanderbilt Team Last Year

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, Oct. 20.—Leaving Tuesday for Austin, Texas, where they face their next difficult grid assignment in the Longhorns of the University of Texas, the championship aspiring "Fighting Gators" from Florida university will embark with added confidence and prestige following their whirlwind 34 to 0 victory over the Deacons from Wake Forest.

Captain Van Fleet will have only Monday in which to limber up his brilliant squad of gridgers who vied on Saturday with Georgia Tech and Tulane in upsetting the Ellison Makes Long Run. Mercer, in opening its season at home with a win over Chattanooga, 33 to 0, gave Ellison a chance to run sixty yards for a touchdown.

Hampden-Sidney continued to reverse scores of last year, beating Elon, 27 to 7. Trinity went to Richmond to defeat the University of Richmond, 14 to 0, and Davidson won handily from Lenoir, 45 to 0. Randolph Macon was no match for William and Mary, losing 27 to 0. Concord was too much for Roanoke, getting the game by a margin of 6 to 3, and Gallaudet stopped Lynchburg 13 to 0. The third army corps outfit downed King, 14 to 0.

The Quantico marines won from Georgetown, 6 to 0, without the aid of a touchdown, two field goals representing the scoring for the day.

Louisiana college and Louisiana Normal battled to a 0-0 tie. Spring Hill defeated Alabama Normal, 23 to 7, and Maryville won from Milligan, 30 to 7. The Tennessee Doctors defeated Union, 33 to 0.

well-known bucket of "dope." Wake Forest came to Tampa not over-rated, their stinging defeat resulting from no other reason than the magnificent play of the "Fighting Gators" on their way toward the highest peak in Southern football.

Florida will face an uncertain quantity out in the Lone Star regions next Saturday. Vanderbilt, with her champion machine last fall, dropped a 16 to 0 contest to the Longhorns of Texas University, but conditions change with every season, and it may be the Texans are not as formidable as in '23. The "Fighting Gators" have certainly enhanced their play and will be dangerous not only to Texas, but to the Army and all other opponents who aspire to taste the calibrator of their stride.

With a most powerful offensive, that includes a fast and puzzling aerial game, trick plays that happen before anyone knows what has transpired, line bucks and an assortment of other features, the 'Gators are well fortified to lock horns with the Rangers from the Southwest.

Their defense checked Tech and Wake Forest, and must now hold Texas, and judging from their performances of the past two weeks, they are men enough to hold anything the country can show in a football way. And when the Orange and Blue combines a swift, effective offensive with a stubborn and impregnable defense, then look out for Florida. They're going!
