Visiting Tennesseans Trounce Local Nine 16 To 3 In Exhibition Fray At Municipal Park Saturday

Lookout, Poll and DeLo, in the lineup for the Lookouts, were the main reason for the victory. They combined for a total of 11 hits and the best of the team was a 7-3 score.

Chattanooga To Play Brewers In Exhibition Tilt

Game Will Be Played On Local Field Instead Of In Daytona

The Milwaukee Brewers will play the Chattanooga Lookouts at 8:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Municipal Athletic Field here instead of the previously scheduled exhibition with Baltimore at Daytona Beach, according to an announcement this morning by Manager Kiki Cuyler of the Lookouts.

At 1:00 o'clock this afternoon, the Chattanooga team and candidates for Sanford's entry in the Florida State League will clash in a third exhibition fray. The local boys will attempt to avenge two previous losses, handed them by the visiting Tennesseans.

Johnny Chambers, 25-year-old former Brooklyn Dodger, and Red Jones, former Red hurler are slated for mound duty against the visitors tomorrow.

Manager Cuyler stated that the visiting Lookout squad is shaping up nicely now with a minimum of conditioning troubles.

In the infield Hooks, Letch, Fifehook and Benjamin are probable regulars as things begin taking form, with Galvin and Camell sharing the receiving job.

The outfield, as indicated now, will include Eddie Rose in left, Manager Cuyler tilling the center garden, while Bill Nicholson is coming in for heavy consideration for the right field spot.

Coming here with the visiting American Association team will be Mickey Heath, in former years listed on the roster of the Chicago White Sox, along with Fred Schilling, former centerfielder with Washington a few years back who will be in left field when the Brewers play here tomorrow.

CONTENTED COWS
LAUREL, N.H. (P)—James Sutherland installed a radio in his dairy barn and he turns it on every day at milking time. The usually contented bovine don't look over the milk pails anymore, which more than pays for the expense of the radio, Sutherland says.

A baby that is underweight should be fed according to what he should weigh rather than what it actually does weigh.

Immigration Law Probe May Be Requested

Cox Accuses Labor Department Of Attempts To Defeat Statute's Purpose

Jax Airbase Site Gets Group's OK

President Authorizes Construction Of Two Battleships

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Representative Cox (D.-Ga.) accused the Labor Department today of trying to "defeat" the immigration law.

He made the statement at a hearing before the House Rules Committee, of which he is a member, on a resolution directing the immigration committee to study all immigration, naturalization and deportation laws and to investigate the smuggling of aliens into the United States.

The rules committee had endorsed the measure previously but reconsidered it after opposition developed in the House. Cox said there was talk that the Labor Department was responsible for the resolution.

The Senate Civil Liberties Committee introduced legislation to outlaw "oppressive labor practices" which it said were employed by the "powerful minority" in industry.

The White House announced that President Roosevelt had given the Navy authority to build two battleships of 40,000 tons each.

The Senate Labor Committee voted unanimously to start hearings Apr. 11 on proposed amendments to the Wagner Labor Act.

The House Naval Committee approved Jacksonville today as the site for a southeastern naval air base. The vote was 16 to 7.

Chairman Vinson (D.-Ia.) explained this vote would instruct the House conferees to accept the Jacksonville site in the event the Senate wrote it into the omnibus airbase bill.

Senate Passes Defense Measure Without Debate

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—(AP)—With scarcely a ripple of debate the Senate yesterday passed and sent back to the House a record peacetime War Department appropriation bill totaling $514,188,822 and containing funds for the purchase of 784 latest-type Army airplanes during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Approval of the measure, a major item in President Roosevelt's national defense plan, came shortly after the Chief Executive asked Congress for an additional $11,000,000 appropriation to speed aircraft purchases and the approval of regular Navy funds to speed delay in the vast shipbuilding program.

The War Department measure, $2,500,000 larger than the House version, went back to the chamber for amendments to the $100,000,000 Navy shipbuilding program.

Seminole Farmers Jubilant Over Heavy Rain Yesterday

MAKES RAIN?

Growers over Florida rejoiced when a million dollar rain filled the guarantee of Miss Lillie Stoute, the "Mississippi rainmaker", who is shown with her umbrella before the downpour.

Whether Miss Lillie Stoute, 67-year-old rainmaker from Oxford, Miss., was responsible for yesterday's rainfall in Seminole County or whether the self-styled "girl-friend" of Jube Pluvius just picked a most appropriate time to begin her sittings on the banks of Lake Reedy in Frostproof materialized not to growers in this section who were jubilant over the heavy rain which broke an extended drought which has cost them thousands of dollars.

G. P. Paxton, who is in charge of local weather instruments, said this morning that .98 inches of rain fell yesterday afternoon before the clouds dispersed and records show this to be the heaviest rain that has fallen in this section since last October.

The intermittent showers, which came unbidden by the Weather Bureau, brought temporary relief to vegetable and citrus crops in this section as well as to home owners who have been making almost futile attempts to save their gardens, flowers and lawns.

While the rain was heavier in some parts of the county than in others, reports indicated that the downpour had covered the entire area. However, yesterday's precipitation will not suffice for the deficiency which has existed for the last six months, resulting in untold damage to crops, and lowering of the water levels in surrounding lakes and streams, including Lake Monroe and the St. Johns River which are now down to sea level.

The pressure has become so low in many of the artesian wells in this section that farmers have been forced to use pumps while in many other wells the flow of water has been reduced to a trickle.

Rumania Declares She Will Defend Her Boundaries

BUCHAREST, Mar. 28.—(AP)—The supreme council of the Rumanian "front of national rebirth" heard distinguished national leaders yesterday declare that Rumania will defend her frontiers.

Inviolability of Rumanian borders was emphasized by Premier Calinescu, Foreign Minister Gafencu and former Premier Vaida-Voevod.

The council of the "re-birth front," composed of all political factions, performs some of the functions of parliament, which has not been organized since adoption of the new constitution more than a year ago.

The finance ministry reported plans to boost national expenditures, largely to care for defense, by 7,000,000,000 lei (about $49,000,000) annually.

The interior ministry, exercising emergency authority, today dissolved the Jewish school and charitable organization B'nai B'rith of Cernault. The action was taken, it was explained, because of the organization's "close associations with Free Masonry," which is outlawed in Rumania.

'Rainmaker' Resumes Vigil At Frostproof

FROSTPROOF, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Miss Lillie Stoute, 67-year-old Mississippi "rainmaker", resolutely resumed her vigil today at the Frostproof weather station, though she claims her visit was responsible for this section's first real rain in two months.

Her objection to returning to the bedside today apparently was based on a desire to escape news photographers.

John Macey, chairman of the State Citrus Commission and leader of a group of growers sponsoring her appearance here, went to her hotel and persuaded her to resume the vigil.

WPA Big Tree Park Projects Are Submitted

Ballard And Herndon Sign Applications For $23,000 Improvement For County

Approximately three years of effort by Chamber of Commerce officials and the Chamber's Women's Civic Committee for the proposed construction of a park surrounding the large cypress tree near Longwood and the completion of Pennsylvania Parkway, leading from the highway to the park, brought definite results yesterday when W. B. Ballard, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and O. P. Herndon, county clerk, signed applications for two WPA projects covering this work providing for a total expenditure of $23,114.

The park project calls for the laying out of a five acre parking lot and the construction of a "fixer" park which will include not only the world's largest cypress tree but also two smaller trees in the group.

Chamber of Commerce officials stated that the project, as now planned, will leave the tree in its natural setting with footpaths laid out from the parking lot to the tree.

The Pennsylvania Parkway project is planned to improve and complete the drive from the park to the Orlando highway.

The gate, fences and benches to be used in the projected park are all to be constructed from cypress according to the plans submitted.

The six acre plot surrounding the tree was donated to the county several years ago by F. M. Overstreet, former owner with the stipulation that the trees and land should be used by the County for a park only and no admission could ever be charged to visitors wishing to see the tree.

The park project will cost the County $2,450 of the $8,888 total and will last for three months while the sponsors' share of the fund work is $3,460 of the $14,228 total. It will employ 63 men for four months.

Parties Join To Order Probe Of WPA Activities

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Republicans and Democrats joined forces in the House yesterday to order by a huge majority a "thorough investigation of the Works Progress Administration, which for months has been the target of charges of misadministration and undue political activity.

It took this action while city dwellers among the membership continued—with many questioning the extent of their success—to agitate for a farmer-labor coalition to assure the approval of proposed appropriations for relief and farm benefit payments. Action on both items was scheduled for today.

At that time, the House is to resume consideration of the appropriation bill for the agriculture department which includes a highly disputed item of $200,000,000 for farm parity payments, or payments intended to increase the farmer's income to its 1909-14 average.

While this item is before the House itself, President Roosevelt's request for an additional $194,000,000 for WPA is expected to receive its first test of strength, a vote in an appropriations subcommittee.

The WPA investigation was approved through the adoption of a resolution by Representative Cox, of Georgia, directing the appropriations committee to conduct the inquiry. Both Representative Rayburn, of Texas, and Representative Martin, Republican, Massachusetts, the Republican leader, spoke in behalf of the measure. It was approved 212 to 21. All of the dissenters were Democrats except one—Representative Marston, New York.

Salvation Army Fund Total Has Reached $1,075

Workers Urged To Contact Prospects And Make Their Reports

The Salvation Army's drive for funds with which to carry on its activities during the coming year reached a total of $1,075 today as contributions to the fund continue to come in at campaign headquarters, Capt. R. E. Hines, commanding officer of the local chapter, said today.

Pointing out that some will make contributions annually to the fund, he urged that those who have not yet been called upon by workers, chairman George Hines asked that all who can leave their contributions at the campaign headquarters to do so because workers are often delayed in making calls on account of business duties.

Declaring that officials of the Salvation Army desire to conclude the drive as quickly as possible, Capt. Hines stated that the headquarters at 1111 Atlantic Avenue is open daily and any contributions will be gladly accepted.

Chairman Hines also asked the workers to contact their prospects as soon as possible and to make their reports.

Negro Woman Gets Heavy Bolita Fine

TAMPA, Mar. 28.—A Bradenton negro woman who came to Tampa to peddle bolita tickets because she didn't know Hillsborough officers would arrest her, was sentenced to pay a $300 fine or serve 75 days in jail by Criminal Court Judge Himes yesterday.

She said she had come in to check with the bolita house, but found she had been there only once before and could not remember where it was located or who operated it. She said she did not know who employed her attorney. "He just came to see me," she said.

The woman told the judge she had several children to support. She said "I live in Bradenton, and I knew I had to be careful there, but I didn't know I had to be here."

Fannie May was arrested June 20 by Constable Seiner and State Railway Commission Inspector Corson. An information was filed Oct. 1, but the woman's bond was forfeited when she failed to appear for trial. She was found a month ago in Bradenton, and when she appeared before the judge yesterday she said she didn't know the bond had been set for that day.

Baseball Officials Are Entertained With Picnic

Rain last night cut the attendance on the boat trip and fish fry at Lemon Bluff, held in honor of Joe Engel, owner of the Chattanooga Lookouts, Manager Kiki Cuyler and visiting Chattanooga newsmen, by the Chamber of Commerce and local baseball fans.

The group left from the Sanford Boat Works at 4:00 o'clock aboard two boats, one Capt. Ed Rice's charter boat "Chatham," and the other a private craft, the "Sky Lark," belonging to F. E. Roundhill.

Fred Scott and Willis Brown left Sanford early yesterday afternoon by car to build the fire and make preparations for the arrival of the party which was served 55 pounds of fried fish, the feature of the menu plus coffee, beans, hams and coldsaws.

The party made the return trip by boat arriving at the boat works at approximately 10:00 o'clock.

H. H. Coleman, chairman, Roy Holler, Maxwell Stewart and Fred Scott made up the committee which was in charge of the affair.

The men making the trip in addition to the honor guests included: Ed Higgins, C. E. Roundhill, F. S. Lamson, H. B. Coleman, A. A. Speer, R. A. Newman, Maxwell Stewart, Joe Muesch, Jr., Clyde Parker, Roy Holler, W. R. McCracken, H. Jas. Gut and Rex Packard.

Nationalists' Soldiers March Into Madrid In Triumph After Capitulation

Hungary, Slovakia Continue Fighting

New Border Clashes Disrupt Demarcation Negotiations

Madrid and the republican armies defending it surrendered today to Generalissimo Franco's victorious nationalists.

Capitulation of Spain's traditional capital virtually ended 32-months of warfare, a constant menace to Europe's general peace while Spain remained a battleground for soldiers of many nations.

Franco's legions streamed triumphantly into Madrid which they had been unable to capture in 24 1-2 months of siege. White surrender flags fluttered from Madrid buildings. No resistance was offered by Madrid's defenders and reports from other central battlefronts indicated the remaining republican one-fourth of Spain would follow Madrid in surrender.

Hungary and distraught by the long-drawn warfare, Madrid's populace joyfully greeted news which they hailed as an end of the conflict which cost lives of uncounted hundreds of thousands of their countrymen and left great areas of Spain in ruins.

Artillery Madrid's doom had been spelled by the nationalist capture of Barcelona Jan. 26 which drove the main republican armies into France and resulted in the downfall of Premier Juan Negrin's government.

Trouble flared anew in the central European cockpit when border fighting disrupted frontier demarcation negotiations between Hungary and Slovakia, Germany's protectorate.

The Slovak commission quit Budapest as artillery engagements started on the border between Slovakia and Carpatho-Ukraine, newly annexed by Hungary.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the British House of Commons the government was "actively continuing" negotiations with other governments to try halting any further aggression by Adolf Hitler.

A new outbreak between Hungarian and Slovak troops was reported as negotiations of their border dispute began. Conversations which some Slovaks feared would end in most of their country going to Hungary.

A Hungarian communiqué said a minor clash occurred in the Kiskulen region of the border between Slovakia and Carpatho-Ukraine, two pieces of former Czechoslovakia, but made no mention of any casualties.

The skirmish followed three engagements yesterday in which the Budapest government said eight Slovaks were killed, several wounded and an undisclosed number taken prisoners.

"In view of repeated Slovak frontier violations and attacks, the chief of staff issued orders that these are to be most energetically repulsed," the communiqué asserted.

Reliable reports said Hungary was bringing strongest pressure on the Slovak negotiators who arrived today and it was believed Budapest was endeavoring to obtain their quick consent to a plan to be offered for German approval.

Scientific Highway Devices

Demonstrated this week at the annual convention of the New York Safety Council are a number of devices for reducing the hazards of the highway and which, when they come into popular usage, will undoubtedly have a great effect in saving human lives.

One of these devices is known as the "trafficone" which enables a motorist approaching a hill to see what is on the other side. It consists of steel supports on both sides of the road holding a lens of prisms over the road. By glancing into the lens which is 13 feet long and four feet high, the motorist gains a perfect view of the other side of the hill for a minimum distance of about 2,000 feet.

Thus, if a car is approaching from the opposite direction, though the hill itself may obscure the view, the lens will show it coming. And if one car happens to be in the act of passing another, as so often unjustifiably happens, and the entire road is blocked, thus making an accident almost inevitable, all drivers coming from both directions can see the entire situation in the mirrors overhead, and immediately takes steps to avoid the accident before it is too late.

The other device is a radio robot which acts as a sort of traffic policeman at dangerous intersections where there is not sufficient traffic to justify a special officer. The robot broadcasts warnings as to cars approaching around curves, or other hazards, and can be picked up by motorists with their automobile radio sets.

Thus does science and invention continue the drive against highway accidents.

Baseball Helps

As sandlot baseball increases in a community, its juvenile crime rate decreases. Tris Speaker, former big-league player, points out in the current Rotarian Magazine.

The man regarded by many as baseball's greatest judge of how much of his time to spreading interest in the national pastime by teaching schoolboys the fundamentals. With Lew Fonseca, former White Sox star, and other players he has conducted baseball schools in Chicago, Boston, and other cities—and few of the fans ever cut classes.

"Nobody, of course, will ever be able to say just how much those boys learned from us about baseball," comments Speaker. "But this we do know: their interest was stimulated to a high degree, and the police told us that juvenile delinquency decreased as much as 35 percent in some of the neighborhoods where we conducted our schools."

For further evidence of preventing crime through vacant-lot ball games, Speaker cites his home city Cleveland, Ohio, where similar schools have been held. He reports that Eliot Ness, the city's safety director, once told him that if amateur baseball did not occupy such a large place in the thoughts and activities of Cleveland boys, the work of the police department would be tripled.

Sun-Bathing

Sun-bathing is all right in its place, but you can get too much of it. More than one usually attractive female has returned from the beach looking much more like a boiled onion, and feeling considerably worse, than the exotic creature she wants to be. A few common sense rules carefully applied before and after taking will help to avoid that half-baked feeling you often get at the seashore. Here are a few as suggested by Patricia Lindsey, the beauty specialist:

- 1—For at least one month before you sun bathe, condition the skin with frequent anointments of warm olive, mineral or a prepared body lotion.
- 2—Apply oil or ointment to your hair with steaming towels once a week and get in plenty of brushing and scalp massage. This reconditions neglected hair and the natural oils combat the sun's heat.
- 3—Begin to sun bathe in ten minute periods. Each day increase the time a minute or two but never let exposed longer than one-half hour to the sun. If you want more sun cover yourself with a white sheet or robe.
- 4—Unless your skin is naturally well lubricated, you must use an oily preparation on it. Mineral oil with a few drops of iodine is an inexpensive and efficacious combination. Cover all skin to be exposed.
- 5—While in the sun keep your hair covered with a porous turban, a light scarf or other covering. Sun streaks hair, fades it beyond correction, and makes it dry. Even the youngest of heads cannot take sun in strong doses.
- 6—While sun basking turn frequently, taking care that the inside of your arms and legs, the under part of your chin and the back of your neck get the same dose of sun as the rest of your body.
- 7—Always protect your eyes either with dark glasses or with eye pads—cotton soaked in a mild astringent such as witch hazel. Keep the pads dampened.
- 8—When the day is very hot, be sensible, and do not lie in the sun. Many girls have suffered for years from a sun fever which they invited through carelessness.
- 9—Do not bathe in warm or hot water for at least one hour after a sun bath. A cold shower should never be taken directly after a sun bath. If you have to bathe, wrap the slightest bit of wrapped in towels, wring out of chilled water for at least one-half hour.
- 10—If you wear no stockings you may keep your skin moist by rubbing with a body lotion before sun bathing. This will prevent the skin from becoming itchy and the hair from becoming brittle.

Seminole Farmers Are Jubilant Over Showers Yesterday

(Continued from Page One) ... The Seminole County principal crop has no doubt been harvested and for several weeks a large amount of the crop has been discarded after being cut because of disease and insects. The effect of the rain deficiency on the crop was reflected in a recent survey made by Chase and Company in which it was estimated that approximately 600 acres remain of the crop and that from this acreage the estimated harvest was only 100 cars. The normal yield is considerably higher than this estimate.

JUST DESERTS NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

The community, we think, should be well satisfied with the sentences which have followed the conviction of Hines. Hines himself is given from four to eight years in state's prison, which means, with good behavior, that he will probably serve three years. For a man of his age and antecedents the punishment seems adequate in the crime. One can be glad that Judge Nott, in the circumstances, resisted any temptation "to give a theatrical sentence." It is in order, too, to compliment Justice Peck on his leniency toward "Dixie" Davis and "Big Harry" Schoenhaus, who pleaded guilty and turned state's evidence. We still think that Justice Peck made a grave mistake in taking advantage of a technicality to declare a mistrial in the Hines case; also that he compounded the blunder by reserving to himself the sentencing of the co-defendants. The sentence of "Bo" Weinberg was a sufficient commentary on the fear he inspired in these informers by his ill-judged action. But though he might better have left to Judge Nott all question of punishment for the co-defendants as well as for Hines, one doubts whether the result would have been different. Schoenhaus gets a suspended sentence; Davis one of approximately four months in penitentiary (allowing for the time he has already served in the Tombs). Both, presumably, are saved from the vengeance of the underworld, which is the terror of the "squaler" who is sent to Sing Sing.

Let's tell our visitors about the pleasures of staying longer in the land of sunshine, away from the changeable weather of the Northland. Our visitors will enjoy it and we will enjoy having them. Florida is fast becoming a year around state and those who stay awhile now will carry the word home to others. So again, let's offer the invitation that we offered last year . . . and the year before . . . and say —

Moley Most Promising Rookie in New York Camp

Bill Terry Considered His Find Top Among Big Leaguers

By NORMAN WALKER
 BOSTON, Mar. 23.—(AP)—Some potatoes in Bill Terry's estimation is a rookie first baseman showing the big leaguers a few tricks at the new York Giants' spring training camp here.

He is Tom Moley, 24, a tall, well-organized fellow with a real punch at bat and plenty of class on the hot corner. These days Moley is being trained for the first base job at third.

Moley is a peculiar commodity with futures values usually high. He is being trained by Terry personally. Terry, who is personally coaching Moley, is a former major league player who is now in the minor leagues.

Moley was personally scouted by Terry in 1931. Terry, who is personally coaching Moley, is a former major league player who is now in the minor leagues.

Chattanooga And Brewers To Play Two Games Here

Lookouts, Milwaukee Teams Will Clash At 3:00 P. M. Today

Joe Engel last night announced that negotiations had been completed with the management of the Milwaukee Brewers, for the American Association team and his Chattanooga Lookouts to play a two-game series here today and tomorrow instead of the one appearance originally planned for this afternoon.

Both games are scheduled to be called at 3:00 o'clock at the Municipal Athletic field where the lookouts are now training and where the games will be played.

Slated for mound duty against the beermen this afternoon are Chambers and Red Lucas who tomorrow's mound duty will be handled by the same trio—Williams, Pritchett and Smith, which helped stop the Sanford Lookouts 16-4 last Saturday afternoon.

The Cuyler managed club, after getting off to a slow start with a first game loss to the Washington seconds, has won the last four games handily; their last win was a 7-3 trouncing handed the Brewers in Ocala Sunday.

Rolling up 589 points in three games, Paul Pezold took the No. 1 spot in the individual standings for the members of the Sanford Bowling Club in the current tournament with an average of 193.3 in 18 games.

Roy Holler came in second with a 184.7 average in 15 games rolled. John Weaver's 180-1 average collected in 9 games was good enough to top the number three spot while the 2,100 total garnered over a 12-game route by Eddie Bender placed him fourth with an even 178 average. Robert Cobb came in a close fifth with a 174-11 average for 18 games.

Dr. D. G. Scott's score of 217 hung up the second game he rolled Wednesday night, topping the one-game totals for last week. High team game for the week was the 746 point total checked in by the No. 6 team, including R. Cobb, W. Ludwig, J. Ludwig and C. Welch against the No. 3 team Wednesday night.

Lois Of Power

From the dugout at the Louisiana State university ball park, Terry was watching batting practice the other day.

"What that fellow Holey at the plate," he said. "His reality takes a cut at the ball."

Moley let out one into the bushes near the fence.

"Wey," said Terry, "that boy has lots of power."

Moley will have a time trying to get Moley at third, for the San Diego, Calif., specialist established quite a reputation with the Giants by stealing a 2000 of bases last fall, after his recall from Jersey City.

But Terry is bent on increasing the Giants' bat power this year and Moley may fit right into the picture. Memphis has shown every indication Holey can move third base if he can prove himself during the spring exhibition.

The rookie is a smooth stealer. Holey don't come too hot for him to handle. He wastes little time in tossing to first base.

Baseball runs in his family. Tom is a cousin of Chuck Holey, National league batting champion back in 1931 with the St. Louis Cardinals, and a brother of Red Holey, first outsider.

Not for a long time?

New York acquired baseball's sweetest Holey, from Asheville, last fall in a trade that took Glen Fisher and a considerable amount of cash to the Tennessee club.

During his five years in professional baseball, Tom had been arrested at various times with New Orleans, Zanesville, Minne-

Nazi Press Attacks Attitude Of Poland

BERLIN, Mar. 23.—(AP)—The German official news agency, DNB, yesterday published a dispatch from Bydgosc (Bromberg), Poland, saying women and children recently had been beaten in the streets there for speaking German.

The news agency further asserted German farms were attacked at night and most German houses and business places in the city were smeared with tar.

Bydgosc is in the Polish corridor, former German territory, which separates Germany from East Prussia.

Political circles here expressed astonishment that the Poles of Bydgosc on Sunday had passed what was described as a violent resolution against Germany demanding that the Polish army move into Danzig, free city port at the head of the Polish corridor, and Koensberg, East Prussia city.

They said they saw in this agitation of the West Federation of Poland, which arranged the demonstration and resolution, a deliberate attempt to sabotage the Polish government's policy of good neighborly relations with Germany.

apollis, Newark, Birmingham, Norfolk and Knoxville.

Even as lead-off man for Knoxville, he drove in more runs than the Southern association batting champion, Johnny Hill, finished second in smacking out two-baggers, and second in leading. His 24 home runs stamped him as the league slugger.

All of which proves his class. It's a good bet Holey's set for a career in the big time.

M.J. Lodge Holds Lucky Ducat In Daily Double

A 1935 daily double brought good fortune to two ticket holders last night at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. M. J. Lodge held one of the lucky ducats, the other did not reveal his identity.

The rich double was the 7-1 combination of Irish Cop and Blue Side Up. A secondary feature of the evening was Valentine's Heart's record equalling performance in the feature event. The Males dog ran the futurity distance in 29 seconds flat to best Big Lek at the wire by a length. Both dogs broke out of the turn on top and Big Lek managed to keep his nose in front until the final yards when he won by a neck.

A long-shot quinella rounded out the evening when Mary Grunna won the 11th event and paid $42.00 for a $2 straight ticket. Just Forgotten completed the quinella which paid $108.00.

Gerardo Machado Dies In Hospital At Miami Beach

Former President Of Cuba Succumbs During Operation For Removal Of Cancer

Revolt Of Army Overthrew Regime

Former Ruler Fled Homeland In Face Of '33 Revolution

MIAMI BEACH, Mar. 29. (AP)—General Gerardo Machado, whose dictatorial presidency of Cuba was overthrown in 1935, died on the operating table today as five physicians tried in vain to stave off his death from cancer.

The 67-year-old exile succumbed when his heart failed to withstand the effects of an anesthetic. Dr. Jose Navarro, who had been attending him here, said he and four physicians who came here from Havana, had sought to remove "a big tumor in the abdomen."

"We had been keeping quiet about it," he said, "but General Machado had been suffering from cancer. He had been in a serious condition for some time."

His widow, Mrs. Elvira Machado, who went to the hospital with her three daughters, was overcome.

Machado established a home in Miami Beach in the Spring of 1937. He was a native of Cuba and was born in Havana Aug. 12, 1870.

Machado fled from Havana Aug. 12, 1933, to Nassau in the face of a revolt by the army, and traveled to a number of countries before settling here. Swift transition from the presidency of Cuba to flight and exile, first in Canada, then in the United States, next in the Dominican Republic.

Meeting Is Held By Tourist Club

The Tourist Club held what was to have been the last meeting of the season last night at 7:30 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce building.

The members of the club voted to meet again next Monday night and decide definitely how long to continue the meetings since many of the members are remaining here for a time past the end of the regular season.

The group last night held a social dinner, with each member contributing a story. The evening was a most successful one and was enjoyed by all.

Local officials say that when the season is over, several years ago, the club was disbanded. The members of the club were disappointed to learn that the club was to be reorganized.

City Lowers Ordinance Is Water Rate For Beautification Passed Against Stock In City

Residences Given Advantage Of Reduced Rates Earlier Because Of Drought

As the city's contribution to the annual program for beautification of property in Sanford, members of the City Commission at their regular meeting last night voted to place in effect immediately a "beautification rate" on water used by residents similar to that in effect last year.

The new rates will become effective with the April meter reading.

The low rates, which apply only to residences, were put into effect about two months earlier this year because of the deficiency of rainfall which has necessitated the use of a large amount of water for preserving lawns and shrubs.

The "cost of production rates" do not become effective until 8,200 gallons of water have been used and for every 1,000 gallons over this amount the charge will be only 15 cents. The regular price for 8,200 gallons of water is $2.50.

The Commission granted the Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion $165 to help defray the cost of sending the local Sons of the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps to the State convention of Legionnaires in Fort Lauderdale, Apr. 13-15.

The action followed a plea for assistance by Commander George Weinstein who outlined the work of the Junior corps and stated: (Continued on Page Two)

Cuban Diplomat Dies At Home In Havana

HAVANA, Mar. 29.—Dr. Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, Cuban writer and diplomat who was president of the republic for 23 days in 1933, died early yesterday at his suburban home in Vedado. He was 67 years old and had been ill for some time.

Dr. Cespedes was a native of New York City, son of the Cuban patriot of the same name who in 1895 launched Cuba's 10-year war against Spain for independence and who was the first president of that revolutionary government.

Dr. Cespedes had had a distinguished diplomatic career as envoy to Italy, Argentina, the United States and France, when on August 13, 1933, after the fall of Gen. Gerardo Machado from the presidency, he assumed the provisional presidency.

To rise to the office by virtue of his brief tenure, the previous day, as secretary of state. He held the office in the so-called "Kaiser's Men's Uprising" of September 4, 1933, started while he was absent from the capital inspecting the damage at Caiman and Havana.

Commission Rules All Grazing Animals Must Be Kept 500 Feet From Homes

The City Commission adopted an amendment to a previous ordinance at the regular meeting in the City Hall last night providing that no grazing animal shall be kept within 500 feet of a residence in the City of Sanford and also enacted an ordinance regulating rummage sales and imposing a license fee for such sales.

Complaints of noise and residents against stock and unrightly pasture fences have been made frequently during the past few weeks and the Commission found itself powerless to act in most instances under the provisions of the ordinance enacted last December which provided no grazing animal shall be kept within 100 feet of a residence.

The amendment to the ordinance also prohibits any grazing animal from being kept, staked or stalled upon any street, sidewalk, park, way, alley, or other public place in the City of Sanford.

The penalty provided for violation of this ordinance is a fine not to exceed $200 or 90 days in jail.

The second ordinance provides that "no sale of goods, wares or merchandise commonly known as rummage sales shall be conducted before payment of a license fee of $5 per day for every day of the sale. It further provides that no rummage sales shall be conducted on the sidewalks, streets or avenues of the City of Sanford, but shall be conducted within a building or other structure."

The penalty provided for violation of this ordinance is a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than 30 days. Enforcement of this ordinance followed complaints from Sanford Avenue merchants, particularly who contended that these sales are in competition with their businesses, for which they pay a license to operate.

Last Rites For Mrs. Galloway Are Held Today

Clubwoman Was Trustee Chairman In National Federation

With a large attendance of friends and a profusion of flowers, funeral services for Mrs. E. M. Galloway, prominent Sanford club woman, were held in the Presbyterian Church this afternoon with the Rev. E. E. Elmore, pastor of the First Christian Church and Dr. E. D. Browder, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

During the service the hymns, "In the Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross" were sung by Mrs. Charles Wilkie, Mrs. A. C. Fort, J. Martin Stimpert, and Frank S. Lamson with Mrs. F. S. Verney at the organ.

Following the service the body was taken to DeLand and buried in the family plot and the procession was escorted out of the city by local police.

The pallbearers were James C. Pollard, D. A. Hall, and Francis P. Whitcomb, all of DeLand, and N. S. DeForest, Tom Sullivan and D. I. Thrasher, of this city.

Mrs. Galloway, who died suddenly at her home on Cameron Avenue yesterday morning, of an acute heart attack, came to Florida with her family in 1883, settling in DeLand. Several years later the family moved to Sanford and she was married to E. M. Galloway, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad dispatcher, on June 12, 1915.

Mrs. Galloway began her work early in the Sanford Women's Club of which she was a charter member. She served for two years as president of the organization during the World War and has been a member of the board of managers of the organization for 20 years. She was sponsor of the Junior Women's club at the time of her death.

In the General Federation of Women's Clubs she served as National Chairman of the board of trustees since her election to this post in 1934 and she is also a member of the executive committee of the general federation.

Mrs. Galloway served in many capacities with the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs and would have been elected its president had she not declined the post because of ill health. From 1921-23 she served as vice-president at large for the Florida Federation and at the time of her death she was member of the executive committee and chairman of the budget committee.

House Committee Cuts FDR's WPA Request

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—The House Appropriations Committee disregarded President Roosevelt's estimate of relief funds today, voting $100,000,000.

The House voted on July 1. The President had asked for $150,000,000.

Referring to the President's request, the committee said in a report criticizing some WPA operations that "it feels that its proposal is on the side of liberality."

Two Days Remain To File For Homestead Exemption

Several hundred home owners in Sanford and Seminole County will not get the exemption of lowest under the terms of the Homestead Exemption Amendment unless they file applications within the next two days at the office of County Tax Assessor Sanford Doudens, in the Court House, if a resident of the County, and both at the Court House and the City Hall if a resident of the city.

Mr. Doudens stated that three hundred and fifty who filed applications for exemption last year who have failed to file to date this year and at the City Hall, City Clerk H. N. Sayer also pointed out that there is an unusually large number who have not made the required annual application for exemption from the City taxes.

Declaring that home owners apparently do not realize the necessity for filing annually, Mr. Doudens stated that they would be absolutely no exemption granted to owners unless they filed their applications before the expiration of the deadline on April 1.

The homestead amendment provides for exemption from payment of general operating tax on unimproved property up to an assessed value of $5,000. The general operating tax is approximately half of the ad valorem levy against property.

Japan Causes U. S. To Build Huge Warships

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—President Roosevelt disclosed yesterday that his recommendation for construction of two 45,000-ton battleships in a bid for world naval leadership is a partial reply to Japan's refusal to reveal whether she is building warships larger than treaty limits.

His remark was made at a press conference a few hours after it was learned he had approved plans for the building of the super-dreadnaughts as part of the vast naval expansion program authorized last year. Funds for starting construction of the two vessels will be contained in the regular navy department budget being drafted by a house subcommittee.

In response to a question, the President said the Japanese government's refusal to verify or deny reports that two of their Japanese warships were being built in violation of the 1922 naval treaty, was one of several reasons for his action.

He declined, however, to state other reasons for supporting construction of the two vessels which would be the largest warships ever set afloat.

Certainty of the super-dreadnaught construction immediately revived reports that the ships might be mounted with 18-inch guns, probably the deadliest sea weapon ever devised. It was admitted privately that the matter was being given favorable consideration by naval experts.

The Japanese warships reportedly under construction are said to be in the vicinity of 40,000 tons and rumor has it that they will be equipped with the giant guns. Great Britain already has laid the keels of two 40,000-tonners and is believed also to be considering use of super guns.

According to tentative naval plans, the 45,000-ton American vessels could be equipped either with 15 of the currently used 16-inch guns or nine to 12 of the 18-inch models. Six 35,000-ton dreadnaughts are to be equipped with the 16-inch guns.

Franco's Role In European Events Sought

Forces Of Spanish General March Into Remaining Republican Territory

Poland Is Given German Warning

Britain Would Double Strength Of Army To Meet Nazi Threats

Associated Press authoritarian nationalist Spain, rapidly consolidating all Spaniards under Generalissimo Franco's banner, emerged today as a factor of new importance in the struggle for European power.

Franco's victorious troops—Spaniards, Moors and Italians—moved through the last republican fourth of Spain, entering Valencia only 24 hours after Madrid's capitulation.

In Europe's capitals the upmost question was concerning what role Franco would play in the swiftly changing European events. France and Britain, anxious over their Mediterranean communication lines, were keenly alert.

Poland was tense in the wake of a statement by a German Foreign Office mouthpiece warning Poland against the wiles of "foreign agents," which was believed a reference to French and British efforts to draw Poland into a "stop Hitler" alliance.

In London, the Foreign Office today announced that the government would announce a decision to increase the strength of the territorial army, which is now slightly over 200,000 men, in a move to meet the ever increasing German threat.

Ittany called more men to the colors and requisitioned automobiles and other supplies yesterday after Hungarian-Slovak boundary negotiations were broken off and fighting was resumed along the disputed frontier between Slovakia and Carpatho-Ukraine, acquired a fortnight ago by Hungary.

Slovak negotiators left Budapest without reaching an agreement. They took back to Bratislava, their capital, a Hungarian solution of the problem which, informed sources said, was presented to the Slovaks virtually as an ultimatum.

Diplomatic circles believed the Bratislava government would be given a few days to consider the proposal, but as reports of continued fighting reached this capital, an immediate push was considered possible.

Hungarian accounts said the fighting today consisted of Slovak attacks which were repulsed. Artillery engagements occurred in the Labor valley valley. At least two Hungarians were reported killed. The Hungarian command said its guns had silenced a Slovak battery near the village of Kiskoban.

Details of the Hungarian proposal were not disclosed, but diplomats conjectured that Hungarian territorial demands extended at least to the Eperjes-Barfu watershed, centering on the valley of the Tarcis river. (This would be about 51 miles west of the Carpatho-Ukraine border).

The House of Commons cheered yesterday government announcements that Britain was "actively continuing" negotiations for an anti-aggression front and that "political developments made further progress impossible" in trade talks with Germany.

British diplomats, meanwhile, were reported to be seeking definite military alliances designed to halt the expansion of Nazi Germany; the government planned loans and subsidies to fit the merchant marine for possible use in wartime; an increase in the (Continued on Page Three)
