SANFORD AND ORLANDO.

considerable rivalry between Sanford that two or three years ago we and Orlando. This rivalry might wouldn't have considered possible.—
have been engendered by the ball games or it might have been engend. It is certainly going some, Brother ered by the natural growth of two Hetherington. We bought some news vision and the greater part of it was spring after the ice goes out of the only in the mind's eye of a few people at any stage of the game. Down Hoboken. deep in the hearts of the majority of the people of Orlando is a good feel ing for Sanford and deep in the hearts of the people of Sanford is a pride and good feeling for the people of Orlando. We know that what helps one town will help the other and regardless of the small talk about a ealously between Sanford and Orlan second day's growth, and the tin din do we know that it is only on the surface and has resolved into small talk and light banter where the people of these places meet. Certain it is that the editor of the Herald, who formerly resided in Orlando has as many warm friends in Orlando as he has anywhere in the world and we would grant them a favor and have thing by you. He thinks you are the granted them favors upon innumer ah! occasions and they have returned the compliment. The newspaper boys wear smart clothes, smoke cigarettes down there are our best friends and and fail to bring home a cent. Ho is there has never been anything but partnership of the greatest woman on good natured chaffing betwen us. All earth-your mother. RUNNING A NEWSPAPER.

It has always been considered some ob to finance a newspaper, but it is nothing compared to the difficulty at present of "papering" one. There have been days in the past few months when we have made such close connections that we did not know posi-tively until two or three hours before issuing that we would have any paper at press time. We have bought or borrowed every sheet we could locate, at times paying exhorbitant prices for it. Scarcely a day passes that we do not turn good paying advertising down for the reason that we cannot get paper to print the extra pages to carry it.
