

Tiger Tales

By L. H. HIGGINBOTHAM
Independence steamed out of the fog, smoke and haze shrouded anchorage at Livorno, Italy, at 0815 this morning to begin the first leg of the long trip home to friends, sweethearts and families. The "Tigers," their eyes aglow with visions of sunny Sanford, were at parade on the flight deck as the ship got underway. One could almost hear an audible sigh of pleasure as we churned through the placid waters and steamed out of sight of land. The Heavy One-ers are on their way!

The sounds of Christmas Carols are beginning to be heard throughout the ship as All Hands are getting primed for their homecoming.

At 1000 today we commenced flight operations with our Douglas ASD "Skywarriors" which had been worked on extensively since so few of us were able or wanted to go ashore in Livorno due to poor boating conditions. Our aircraft are all aboard now and tied down for the night, but the never ending task of keeping them fit and ready for almost any contingency goes on in the black of night on the wind and rain swept flight deck. Our latest mail was only three days old, and the "Tigers" love it!!!

Drum, Bugle Corps To Play At Flag Ceremony

The December Bomber Stream Boomer Flag will be presented on Dec. 13 at 2 p. m.

The competitors for this month's Bomber Stream will be VAH-3, VAH-5 and VAH-11. They will compete in a loading drill, a short look Pop-up RBS run on Statesboro, Georgia, and an RBS run on Jacksonville.

The Boomer Flag will be presented to the winner by Captain Heavy Attack Wing One, with the ceremonies commencing at 2:00 P. M.

After the presentation of the Boomer Flag, the USAF Drum and Bugle Corps from Bolling Air Force Base, Washington 25, D. C.

will give a public demonstration of their precision maneuvers and fine music.

Organized in 1949 as a component of the USAF Band under the direction of Col. George S. Howard, the Corps has won international acclaim through its performances in almost every nation in the world.

In 1958, the Corps officially represented the United States at the World's Fair in Brussels, Belgium. The USAF Pipe Band, a part of the Drum and Bugle Corps, will also be present. Under Pipe Major Ross, the Pipe Band performs frequently as an independent unit in addition to its regular performances with the Corps. ## Legal Battle Looms In Sit-In Reversal

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court's reversal of 16 "sit-in" convictions in Baton Rouge, La., marks only the beginning of the court's problems in this controversial legal area.

There are seven more cases already on the docket to be accepted for review or rejected. And countless others are on their way up through lower courts.

Monday, in the first case of its kind, the high court found no evidence to support charges that 16 Negroes at Southern University had disturbed the peace by their lunch-counter demonstrations. But it was not the kind of decision desired by either the state or the students.

The state said the real question was whether a property owner may serve or not serve whom he pleases for any reason whatever.

The Negroes, on the other hand, wanted the court to rule that the conviction amounted to an unconstitutional enforcement of racial segregation by state power.

Only Justice William O. Douglas wanted to grapple with this constitutional issue.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, who wrote the opinion, called attention to the court's time-honored policy of not formulating constitutional law broader than is required by the case at hand.

He examined the Louisiana disorderly conduct statute to determine what conduct it forbade and the elements of guilt required to support a criminal conviction under it.

He found no such evidence had been produced. Convictions without evidence, he said, violate the constitutional right of the accused to "due process of law."

All the justices agreed that the convictions should be reversed. But Douglas and Justice John M. Harlan had ideas quite different from Warren's. Justice Felix Frankfurter, in a separate opinion, supported him.

Douglas said he could understand "how the mere presence of a Negro at a white lunch counter might inflame some people as fisticuffs would in other places." Therefore, he found difficulty in reversing for lack of evidence. But Douglas asserted that restaurants, though they may be private enterprises, "are public facilities in which the states may not enforce a policy of racial segregation."

Harlan found the convictions unconstitutional on the ground the Louisiana law is "vague and uncertain."

County Board Kills Franchise Directive

Solons Blamed For Loss Of Fund

An angry James P. Avery lashed out at Congressman Byrd Herlong and Sen. George Smathers Tuesday at the County Commission meeting saying that "we got no help in applying for federal funds for a countywide drainage survey and that "our legislators just don't know what's going on in the county."

Avery expressed his anger after the board was told that the House and Home Finance Agency turned down the county's bid for $100,000 drainage study.

"It's all politics," Avery said and "we were left high and dry."

Avery said that our legislators ought to spend a little more time at home instead of running around the state department and in foreign countries.

In other business, the board tabled action on subsidizing the

New Proposal By 'Qualified' Group Ordered

The County Commission killed the controversial franchise directive in a lengthy and heated session Tuesday afternoon and authorized Board Chairman J. C. Hutchison to appoint a committee of "qualified engineers and attorneys" to start fresh on a new directive, but using the canceled one as the base.

County Commissioner James P. Avery, who earlier in the year proposed the directive, asked the board to cancel it, because "it seems the people are in opposition to it."

Avery said that at a mass meeting held last week there "didn't seem to be anyone in favor of it."

The board discussed the possibility of hiring engineers for the study but Chairman Hutchison said he would try to get the feelings of some of the engineers in the county.

Col. Paul Bissel of Lake Mary, long an opponent of the directive, asked the board to form a citizens committee but most of the board members felt that qualified and expert help was needed.

Firm Accuses Board

BULLETIN
City Manager W. E. Knowles said this afternoon that the city plans to annex the Belmead property and have already authorized eight-inch sewer lines and six-inch water lines into the property.

parking because, according to Zoning Director Robert Brown, they were afraid it could be used for other purposes beside parking.

Charmers told members of the press after the meeting that work would start on a new A & P store but any further expansion could be killed by this move.

He said that his company is now negotiating leases for a department store, supermarket, drug store, cafeteria and variety store. He did not elaborate on what the stores were.

His attorney, S. J. Davis Jr., after the board turned down his appeal, said, "it could possibly kill off the center."

The total center would include 282,488 square feet with a building area of 95,340 square feet. The parking area would allow for 862 cars. Charmers said the county's action would cut construction by 12,000 feet and cut 110 parking spaces.

In regard to the shopping center the board also tabled action on amending the county zoning regulations to allow off-street parking authorized as a conditional use in any zoning district except R-1-A. Avery opposed the move calling it a dangerous precedent.

An executive of the Belmead Development Corp., of Daytona Beach charged the County Commission Tuesday with an attempt to "stop the county from expanding" and after the board turned down his appeal to allow rezoning of a 150 foot strip from R-1-A and C-2.

The developer, Thomas Charmers, wanted the rezoning for off-street parking for a $9 1/2 million shopping center bordering Hwy. 17-92, French Ave. and 27th St.

However, James P. Avery said that zoning is to protect the people and not "for big business."

He emphasized that these people want to put a parking lot next to a resident's home. Nobody wants that, he said.

The only commissioner who voted to approve the appeal was John Fitzpatrick.

The zoning board had also denied the extra area for off-street

The County Farm Bureau asked the County Commission Tuesday to consider construction of a $60,000 agricultural center on the county home property and a few hours later, Commissioner Ted Williams urged the board to start the ball rolling by taking out $20,000 out of the indigent fund and earmarking it to start the project.

However, the commission agreed to wait until a report is finished by a special committee studying the moving of the agricultural offices out of the courthouse.

"It's premature," said Commissioner Vernon Dunn. "Let's avoid undue haste," chimed in John Fitzpatrick.

Farm Center Asked

Earlier in the five-hour session, Spokesman for the Farm Bureau, John Evans of Oviedo, cited the need for an agricultural center calling for construction of a building at $34,000 and later an exhibition hall and auditorium for some $23,000 to take care of the needs of the many agricultural offices in the county.

Williams said the most logical location was the northeast corner of the county home property.

He and Fitzpatrick will make a study of the recommendations of the bureau and report back to the commission at a later date.

Evans said that the state would supply matching funds to help build the exhibition hall.

Williams Home Head

County Commission Ted Williams was elected custodian of the County Home for next year at the commission meeting Tuesday.

Present custodian James P. Avery made the motion and said "it (the post) should be rotated on an annual basis."

Avery wished Williams luck and said "I hope the press will be fairer to you."

Board Firm On Bars

The County Commission by a 2-2 vote Tuesday agreed to stand firm on keeping bars closed New Year's Eve this year despite protests from a delegation of tavern owners in the county.

Both John Fitzpatrick and James P. Avery opposed closing the bars saying that "these people are entitled to consideration as taxpayers and citizens."

However, Chairman J. C. Hutchison, Ted Williams and

Ask OK In Writing

The County Commission Tuesday voted not to take any chances on the word of the State Road Department and get a written commitment from the SRD that the county's secondary funds could be used to extend Lake Mary Blvd.

At the same time, the board delayed action on proceeding with eminent domain proceedings on

Bear Lake Rd. until "we see what happens on the Lake Mary Blvd. project."

Chairman J. C. Hutchison told the board that the SRD had assured them they could use secondary funds to extend the road.

However, John Fitzpatrick said, "I'd like to see that written on SRD stationery. It's good business," he added.

Death Asked For Eichmann

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Israel asked the death penalty for Adolf Eichmann today, but Eichmann told the court he was "disappointed" at the guilty verdict and said he did not recognize his guilt.

Presiding Judge Moshe Landau, who with two other German-born judges had convicted Eichmann on all 15 counts against him, announced that sentence would be pronounced at 9 a.m. (2 a.m. EST) Friday.

Israeli Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner demanded death for Eichmann for his part in the murder of six million Jews by the Nazis during and before World War II. He said Eichmann had sacrificed any hope for mercy because of the " enormity" of his misdeeds which had caused him to cross the barrier between man and beast.

But Eichmann, in a dramatic, eleventh-hour plea to save his life, told the court that "I do not recognize the guilt. My expectation for justice was disappointed."

Reading a prepared statement from his bullet-proof glass cage in the courtroom, Eichmann claimed he was only following orders and that "those who gave the orders justly deserve punishment."

"The mass murder was solely the guilt of the political leadership," he said. "The evidence given in this court shocked me considerably, but the misdeeds were committed against my will."

"I am the victim of a misconception. I must suffer for the acts of others. I must bear the burden imposed upon me by fate."

The special three-judge court reconvened Monday after a long recess to prepare its verdict. It pronounced him guilty immediately, and then spent two days reading his reasoned arguments for the verdict.

Gideon Hausner, a spokesman for the prosecution, said Israel law made it mandatory for Hausner to demand Eichmann's execution.

Defense counsel Robert Servatius of West Germany worked on a plea of mercy for his client.

Oops, my big chance and I stopped! The First Christian Church Men's Club asked me to speak last night and after racing out of County Commission at 6:15 to make an appearance at the church at 8:30, I took the wrong notes with me. Left the speech notes in the courthouse. . . took the county commission notes to the meeting. . .

Oops again: Started my speech with ladies and gentlemen and there wasn't a lady in the room. What a day!

Our city work crews are trained to meet any emergency! Tuesday while working in Grove Manor, Jake Fortiere was called to aid a lady in distress and ended up by babysitting while the lady went to the hospital. After awhile according to City Manager W. E. Knowles, Jake was relieved by another city worker Joe Koks. We hear they even fed the kids.

Anybody seen my notes . . . They started off "Ladies and Gentlemen. . .

Why, oh why can't the Post Office put a mailbox on the lake side of First Street, say at Park Avenue, so we don't have to walk way down yonder to the Post-Office Building to mail a letter? Yes, we know, there's one by the bank across the street.

Now that County Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchison was authorized Tuesday to get some well qualified engineers to work on a new franchise directive, may we suggest City Manager W. E. Knowles and Bill Leffer?

Rev. James Barnett of the First Christian Church needs some sheep for a Christmas movie the church is shooting. How about some help?

Now, I know I left those notes somewhere. They just couldn't disappear.

Good News: All the stores will stay open downtown until 9 p.m. starting Friday night and continuing through Dec. 23—That's the word from E. C. Harper, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce merchant's division.

The annual Nativity scene by City Hall was put up this morning. It sure could use a fresh coat of paint.

If Fern Park does incorporate its a pretty sure bet its charter will be drafted after the one prepared by Casselberry last year with the cooperation of Dr. Paul Douglas, head of Rollins College Political Science Dept.

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn said it on the line Tuesday when he said he would never vote to hire a part-time land-lease health director from Orange County. However, looks like the county will do it anyway. . . Part-time man to take care of 60,000 people?

By the way, any of you 60,000 seen my notes?

German Commies Wound Own Man
BERLIN (UPI)—Communist police in East Berlin today shot and apparently wounded one of their own men who was trying to escape across the border, according to witnesses.

West Berlin police said the witnesses reported the incident occurred at the barbed wire border on the French sector. The witnesses said the Communist policeman dashed toward the barbed wire dividing line but was shot down by another guard.

Police called to the scene saw an East German ambulance driving away presumably carrying the wounded man.

The incident occurred as Allied sources disclosed that U.S. Army 313 carbines will be issued to West Berlin police in order to bolster Western defenses on the border.

Police sources said some units already have started practice firing with the M2, which is a light full or semi-automatic rifle with a magazine capacity of 30 rounds.

U. S. Orders More Convoys To Berlin
BERLIN (UPI)—The U.S. Army ordered more "access rights" military convoys to travel to and from Berlin today despite the threat of new Communist harassment in the divided city.

The American troop movements were part of a switch between battle groups stationed in Berlin and West Germany. Each unit moving today was company size, numbering about 200 men.

Moscow Radio warned today that American troop movements in and out of West Berlin "are an outright military demonstration over territory belonging to Democratic Germany meant to aggravate the situation in Europe."

The broadcast, monitored in London, was beamed in English to North America and cited movements of units of the 10th Infantry Regiment.

Major UN Offensive Indicated

Troops Pour Into Katanga

ELISABETHVILLE (UPI)—U.S. Air Force Globemaster transports today flew troops and supplies to Katanga, indicating a major UN offensive may be imminent. Katanga appealed to Undersecretary Ralph Bunche to investigate "cruel and inhuman actions of the UN force."

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Britain led a movement here today to secure a cease-fire in Katanga. Her permanent representative, Sir Patrick Dean, planned to submit a formal appeal to Acting Secretary General Thant, asking him to halt the fighting.

The transports brought in 700 Ethiopian troops, 2 1/2 tons of ammunition and supplies, and 14 jeeps. Another 103 Ethiopians arrived from Kinshasa, and informed sources said 250 Swedish troops were brought in to double the size of the Swedish contingent.

The Katanga government asked that Bunche, the American UN undersecretary, come to Elisabethville from Leopoldville, where he is discussing the Katanga situation with UN and Congolese officials.

It said Bunche could "bring to the world proof of the cruel, inhuman actions of the UN armed forces on free Katanga soil." It offered him an armed escort and guaranteed free movement.

AFL-CIO Breaks Labor Deadlock
MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — The AFL-CIO high command broke a week-old deadlock early today and unanimously adopted a plan to settle inter-union feuds through a system that depends on binding arbitration.

Elated George Meany, president of the federation, announced the decision to newsmen at 4 a. m. EST, following a marathon, eight-hour session of the AFL-CIO executive council.

He said the 38-man council approved a "workable and forward looking procedure" to handle disputes over job rights, membership raiding and unfair organizing tactics.

The AFL-CIO leaders, looking haggard but happy at the pre-dawn breakup, voiced hope the peace formula would stop most of the battles that mar labor unity.

Drops Bomb Request
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Acting Secretary General Thant today withdrew the United Nations request for British bombs for use in the Congo.

seven civilians have been killed and 25 wounded in the UN mortar bombardment of the city Tuesday night and today. It said more than 200 shells were fired and 80 per cent of them hit "non-military objectives."

The mortar fire came from the direction of the Swedish UN camp and was directed against central Elisabethville. It started huge fires and forced evacuation of a center housing white refugees.

French efforts to arrange a cease-fire made little progress in Elisabethville.

Mile Posts Of State Roads May Be Reality
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A new project is under way that may help the Highway Patrol locate accidents accurately and assist the Road Department in singling out sections of highway with engineer problems.

Road Chairman John Phillips said "these mile posts will clearly indicate exact locations which have a history of excessive accidents. With this information, we can better determine any engineering or maintenance factors which may have contributed to the cause of the accident."

The Insurance Institute for Highway Safety is financing the physical cost of the mile posts, which cost about $5 each, and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads is aiding the Road Department by establishing the project as a research program.

Sub-Zero Cold Hits Third Of U. S.
By United Press International
Sub-zero cold struck a third of the nation today, touching off serious flu epidemics in Colorado and Missouri. Dixie had a flood threat and upper Michigan dug out from under 30 inches of snow.

The weather-blamed death toll since the start of the series of storms last Saturday reached 122 today.

Iowa had 16 deaths; Wisconsin, Ohio and Kansas each 11; Illinois and Missouri each 13; Colorado and Pennsylvania each 5; Indiana and the New England states 7 and Michigan 6.

Schools were closed at Potosi, Mo., and at Ignacio and Pagosa Springs, Colo., by influenza epidemics, afflicting nearly 2,000 children.

Cold wave conditions and below-zero temperatures prevailed from the Rockies and Pacific Northwest to the Ohio Valley. Cold wave warnings were widespread. Even California had colder than usual temperatures with readings in the 30s in northern counties.

The Cotton Belt was hit by heavy rains which sent rivers rising, threatening floods. Atlanta reported 8.75 inches of rain Tuesday and Birmingham measured 2.61 inches.

Paris (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk told America's European allies today the United States intends to continue diplomatic "probing" talks on Berlin with the Russians. About half a dozen NATO nations rallied swiftly in support of the idea.

West Germany, Belgium, Canada, Denmark and Norway all said they were in favor of some sort of talks with the Russians. France expressed continued opposition.

West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder told the NATO council there is a greater risk in not negotiating than in negotiating.

Belgium's Paul-Henri Spaak, a former NATO secretary general, declared "there have been enough soundings. Now is the time to negotiate."

441 Link Complete
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Completion of more than seven miles of four-laning on U. S. 441 around Mount Dora was announced by the Road Department Tuesday. The project cost $1,864,564.

New Airline Mergers Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The worst financial report in commercial aviation history and the second major merger of the year left the airline industry speculating today about further "marriages."

Continental and National Airlines surprised the aviation world Tuesday by announcing plans to merge, subject to approval by stockholders and the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB).

A few minutes after the merger was disclosed, president Stuart G. Tipton of the Air Transport Association (ATA) predicted the airlines would wind up 1961 with net losses of $30 million — the biggest red ink bath on record.

There was no connection between the two announcements, but they added up to fresh speculation that more carriers may seek the merger route as a way out of their financial swamp.

The $30 million deficit estimate was misleading in one respect. Only four major carriers — Eastern, Trans World, Northeast and National — actually are expected to end the year in the loss column. Delta, Northwest, United, American, Continental, Braniff and Western all figure to turn in modest profits.

But Tipton pointed out that even the carriers making money would fall far short of the 18.5 per cent investment return the CAB has set as a reasonable and fair standard.

The Continental-National merger was one of the year's best-kept secrets. It was learned that National's board of directors approved the merger last Sept. 8 and Continental's followed suit three days later.

Like the United-Capital merger earlier this year, the National-Continental agreement is more of an acquisition than a merger. The "letter of intent" filed with the CAB Tuesday specifically stated that National would be merged into Continental, leaving the latter as the surviving corporation.

If consummated, the merger would put "National-Continental" below only the "big four" of United, American, TWA and Eastern in such respects as total route miles, aircraft numbers and cities served. In such other factors as total employees and passengers carried Delta is expected to continue in fifth place.

U. S., West Nears Major Tariff Pact

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States and Western Europe are about to make a major tariffing agreement, according to informed sources.

The sources said the agreement would probably make a 20 per cent cut virtually across the board in the external tariff barriers that Europe's new Common Market is erecting on industrial products.

In exchange, they said, the United States would agree to much less extensive cuts. The U. S. concessions, one source said, would provide tariff reductions up to 20 per cent for foreign cars and a number of other products.

There were conflicting appraisals of how the anticipated pact would affect the coming congressional fight over President Kennedy's request for a liberal U. S. trade policy.

One view was that the agreement would cause even stiffer opposition from those who feel imports hurt the American economy and eliminate U. S. jobs.

But others felt that benefits of the Common Market's concessions might help liberal trade advocates' arguments that lower tariffs would increase U. S. exports and improve the economy.

Negroes Promise New 'Protests'

ALBANY, Ga. (UPI)—Negroes promised to stage another protest demonstration today outside the courtroom where 11 "freedom riders" are being tried for attempting to integrate the train station at this south Georgia city.

Negro leaders said they expected the gathering to be even larger than the more than 400 persons who marched around the town square at the opening of the trial Tuesday. Police arrested 267 Negroes on charges of disorderly conduct, blocking pedestrian traffic and failure to obey an officer.

Police Chief Laurie Pritchett said he expected his 60-man force to be able "to meet the demands of the future."

The "Albany Movement," formed last month from several integrationist organizations, sponsored a mass meeting Tuesday night and an estimated 400 Negroes shouted approval of a proposal to demonstrate again today.

Dr. W. G. Anderson, head of the Albany Movement, said the Negro group had approached the mayor of this industrial city of 55,000 last February to appoint a biracial committee to work out segregation problems. He said the mayor refused to consider the proposal.

'Hams' Send 'Hi' Around The World

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (UPI) — A 10-pound transmitter, hand built by a group of amateur radio enthusiasts, orbited the earth today broadcasting a coded "hi" around the world.

The box-like transmitter, known as Oscar (orbiting satellite carrying amateur radio), rode piggy back into orbit Tuesday on Discoverer XXXVI satellite from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Oscar's message to the world, four dots followed by two dots (H-I in Morse Code), climaxed the work of a small group of ham radio operators who call themselves the "Project Oscar Association."

Association chairman Mirabeau C. Towns Jr., a rocket engineer from Saratoga, Calif., witnessed the launching at Vandenberg. He said the satellite was designed and built by San Francisco Bay area radio amateurs, most of them associated with electronics firms.

"The idea was conceived a little more than a year ago," Towns said. "Getting government approval proved to be pretty simple."

A volunteer effort was needed to absorb the cost of the transmitter, estimated at about $18,000. Pieces of equipment were donated by amateur radio operators from throughout the country.

"It was built by amateurs in garages using their own time and equipment," Towns said, "so radio amateurs throughout the world can contribute to the knowledge of space-radio propagation."

As soon as the Discoverer was in orbit Tuesday, Oscar separated and began operating as a separate little satellite. The gold-plated transmitter began sending out its message 10 times a minute, using Mercury batteries for power expected to last three weeks.

Amateur radio operators throughout the world had been alerted in advance to listen for the signal on a two-meter band on a frequency of 145 megacycles.

It was first heard by station KC4VSB at the South Pole at 1:08 p. m. (PST) 4:08 p. m. (EST). One hour later the second contact was made by station KL7EBM in Kodiak, Alaska, nearly half-way around the world.

Towns said reports from hams throughout the world could help determine doppler recordings, signal strength, orbital determination and various receiver experiments.

"This is a group effort," he said. "Each amateur sending us a report makes it (the experiment) that much more worthwhile."

Incidentally, Discoverer XXXVI also carried the usual 300-pound instrument capsule, which Air Force scientists hope to recover over the Pacific Ocean.

Seminoles Grab Second Win Of Season, 53-37

SANFORD'S BARRY BROWN (44) and Oviedo's Thompson (51) struggle for possession of the rebound as Seminole Gustavson (40) and Lion Tesinsky (31) follow the action.

Locals Trip Oviedo; Riser Stars

By PETE LEVQUE
Herald Sports Editor

With Sanford's Butch Riser chipping in eight field goals to place number one in the scorer listings, the Seminole High Seminoles rallied to their second consecutive win Tuesday night by bludgeoning Paul Mikler's Oviedo Lions to a 53-37 defeat in a contest that saw the first home game for the Seminoles turn from chaos to confusion.

In the first period of the ball game that saw the Seminoles ahead one point at the end by a score of 10-9, the ball changed hands almost twice as many times as shooting attempts were made. Oviedo stayed closer to the Seminoles in scoring than in any of the remaining periods with Mike Tesinsky scoring six points for the Lions.

35 Schooling Races To End Tests Tonight

Thirty-five races will end up the pre-season schooling tests at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight and 229 greyhounds are scheduled to compete in these contests which start at 7 o'clock.

During the first quarter the Seminoles appeared sleep-ridden as any move to action seemed far off. Riser, Gustavson, and Woodruff dropped in the points for Sanford as the Seminoles averaged about one point per minute in the first period.

With the field for Saturday night's Inaugural Handicap still wide open tonight's races offer a golden opportunity for some of the Grade A runners to cop an Inaugural spot by putting on a stellar performance that will catch the eye of Racing Secretary R. C. "Pitzy" Williamson.

Riser, Brown, and Woodruff came through in the next period to land 19 points as the accuracy for the Seminoles began to pick up with Riser getting hot and hitting the backboard from all over the court, rounding out the half-way point with a score of 29-18.

Gators Upset 10th Ranked Wake Forest Cage Team

United Press International

It's an old story in college basketball that a team which hits the road can expect to bite the dust.

And that's exactly what happened to Wake Forest, the nation's 10th-ranked team, when it journeyed to Gainesville, Fla., Tuesday night to play the Florida Gators.

Wake Forest was "bustin' out all over" to get back on the winning trail after Saturday's loss to top-ranked Ohio State but the Gators took an early lead and maintained it through a frantic second half to score a 71-66 victory.

The loss was the second in four games for Wake Forest and at least temporarily wiped out the Deacons' pre-season hopes to achieve the No. 1 national ranking.

A crowd of 7,200 saw the Deacons battle back in the second half until a jump shot by Lou Merchant gave Florida a 54-53 lead with 5:37 to go. With a minute and 35 seconds to go, Florida had built the lead to 65-58 and Wake Forest's scrambling last-minute all-court press proved futile.

Appleby's Takes Over Lead Again In Mixed League

Appleby's Restaurant again climbed back into the lead of the Thursday Night Mixed League by taking three wins from Steinmeyer Roofing this past week. With 22 wins, Appleby's are only one game up on Wilson-Maier Furniture. Third spot is held by Powell's Office Supply and Team Seven, both with 31 wins.

A half point down is Stone's Allstate Insurance closely followed by Pryor's State Farm Insurance, Sline's Machine Shop, Team Two, Pierr's and Steinmeyers follow in that order.

Top bowler was Harold Appleby, with a 214-380 scratch score. Other games were bowled by Bill Foster with 213, Carl Von Herbulis with 214, Gary Folds with 208, and Dave Dearolph with 203.

The 3-10 split fell easily to Clyde Piercy, Appleby, Gerald Behrens, Von Herbulis, Dwight Blackwelder, Dot Powell, Joe Danyluk, Folds, and Helen Kaelin and Evelyn Fitzpatrick who made the split twice.

Wallace Woods made the 3-7; Pat Foster got the 4-3; Kathy Bunker made the 3-6-10, Jerry Farrell the 3-5-10, and Hal Gistrap the 5-10 and again Helen Kaelin got the mean 2-7-10, and Evelyn picked up the 5-8-10, and Evelyne the split circle for the week.

Something New For 'Bowlers

Something new has been planned for the women who bowl in the daytime leagues, who wish to continue bowling during the holiday lay-offs.

Each league will have its own tournament, with winners being from that league only, at a little over the cost of league bowling. This could mean extra money for Christmas shoppers for this week.

During the week before Christmas, a 3-6-9 tournament will be held in each league and this means that in the third, sixth and ninth frame of all three games a free strike is automatically given.

A Sissy Scotch Doubles will be on the agenda for the next week and those who have never entered a Scotch Doubles will find out how much fun it can be to get a split and know their partner will have to try to pick it up.

Leagues involved will be Bill Hemphill's Motorettes, Jet Bowlers, Hi-Nooters, Kingwood Builders-Sunland League, Foodmart-Country Club League, Holler Motor's Navy Wives League and the "T" League. League secretaries will be passing entry forms during league play this week.

STACKED HIGH

Folded and ready for use, the number of diapers processed by the diaper service industry in any one year would reach more than 59,000 miles up into space — if piled one atop the other. That's one-fourth the distance to the moon.

The Diaper Service Industry, figures also that if the diapers were placed side by side, they would form a belt 20-inches wide and more than 1.8 million miles in length. That's long enough to girdle the earth 80 times.

Garden Gate

By MERYL TRUITT
Rose Circle

During this busy time of preparation for the approaching holidays, please remember to prepare your garden for this same season of chilly or even cold weather. This could be a most important period in the life of your plants.

At this time of year new growth should not be encouraged, so feed your plants with a fertilizer which carries a low first number. This will nourish the plant but will not promote those tender new shoots. Remember that a well nourished plant will have a much better chance to survive cold weather. Don't forget to keep your garden well watered during the period of frost danger.

This is the month to make hardwood cuttings of leafless pencil-shoots of shrubs and trees. Transplant woody plants, too. Chilled tulip bulbs should be planted this month. Camellias and azaleas must be soaked during dry periods so that the foliage will be retained and blossom buds will not be shed. Rose bushes should be planted if they are not already in place. When deciduous plants are bare of leaves, spray for scale. Chinch bugs are with us all year, but you can have a white Christmas and get rid of the pests at the same time. Just sprinkle lots of dry, high-suds detergent on your lawn and water well. Incidentally, you will also have the cleanest lawn in town.

The friendly, nodding palm is Florida's Christmas tree. Do decorate a palm to honor the birth of the Christ Child, for Florida palms and Florida climate are much like that of the Holy Land. Decorate small ones inside the house, and the larger outdoor ones. Help your garden to have a happy holiday season, and to say "Happy Holidays" to those who pass by.

ORANGE BRAN MUFFINS
1 cup whole bran cereal
1/2 cup orange juice
1 egg
1/4 cup soft shortening
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 cup sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar

Combine whole bran cereal and orange juice; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Add egg, shortening and orange rind; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and sugar. Add to first mixture, stirring only until combined. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) about 25 minutes. Serve immediately.

CHILD BEHAVIOR
What is normal behavior in the everyday life of a child? Nail biting, breath holding, negativism, over activity, temper loss and many other problems of youngsters are not considered abnormal.

So says Dr. Leo Kanner, professor emeritus of Johns Hopkins University and honorary consultant in child psychiatry. He declares that there is no absolute criterion for the normality of any of the common forms of behavior problems in children.

According to Portuguese government statistics, more than 95 percent of the total arable land in Portuguese Angola is owned and operated by the native population.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I go to the same beauty shop once a week and I always tip my hairdresser. At Christmastime I notice some of her customers bringing her beautifully wrapped presents. I feel rather cheap because I don't give her a present at Christmas, thinking that a tip every week is enough to show my appreciation. I think, since I am a good steady customer, my hairdresser should give ME a free hair-do once a year at Christmas to show her appreciation. Am I wrong?

GOOD CUSTOMER

DEAR GOOD: The "tip" you give your hairdresser is HER bread and butter. The SHOP should express its appreciation for your steady patronage. Some do — but don't count on it.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. My boy friend doesn't trust me. He keeps saying that I would go out with his brother if he'd ask me. Well, his brother HAS asked me and I turned him down. Should I tell my boy friend about this or not?

G. A. P.

DEAR G. A. P.: No. Blood is thicker than water—and it boils faster.

DEAR ABBY: Why are all the girls trying to lose weight? I am 26, considered a fairly good-looking man, work steady, am not stupid and, frankly, I like a girl to be on the heavy side. In fact, I like them to be really BIG! Generally speaking, a fat girl has a better disposition, goes out of her way to please a fellow and, believe it or not, the fat girls are better dancers! Unfortunately, all the girls I know are on the thin side, but I am still looking. Any suggestions?

LIKES 'EM FAT

DEAR LIKES: Send me your name and address and I can arrange for you to be mobbed.

DEAR ABBY: About "PLAIN DISGUSTED"—the 50-year-old widow who had to walk home more than once because "all men are alike." I am also a widow in my 50's and I can tell her that any girl or woman who has to walk home is a very poor judge of character. Or else she doesn't know how to act around the opposite sex. Too many women want to play with fire, and are surprised when they get burned. I have found that most men are gentlemen if the woman acts like a lady.

NEVER WALKED HOME

Everybody's got a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, in care of this paper.

TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p. m. (ABC) Steve Allen Show. This entire show was pre-lapied at Pacific Ocean Park, a favorite Los Angeles amusement center, where Lawrence Welk first gained fame at the Aragon Ballroom. Heat spot: Steve trying to talk a terrified Jose Jimenez (Bill Dana) into making a high dive into a tiny pool. Louis Nye also adds fun in an outrageous impression of a sultan with full entourage of wives and guards. There's a surprise walk-on as Steve ignores a former second banana, Tom Poston, who wasn't hired for the show but just happened by real coincidence, to be at the Park for his own amusement.

7:30-8:30 p. m. (NBC) Wagon Train—"The Traitor." Scout Flint McCullough (Robert Horton) is found guilty of being a horse thief. He is sentenced to be whipped and banished from the Train by Wagonmaster Chris Hale (John McIntire). After being found guilty, McCullough seeks help from ruthless killer Sam Upton (Nick Adams).

8:00-9:00 p. m. (NBC) Joey Bishop Show—"Follow That Mink." Nobody gets into trouble for gifting mother with a fine mink stole; that is, nobody, but Joey. In this instance, Mrs. Barnes (Madge Blake) thinks it's a present from Joey for her birthday. Actually, his boss (John Griggs) had it delivered to Joey's home to hold as a surprise for Mrs. Willoughby (Eleanor Audley).

8:00-9:00 p. m. (ABC) Close-Up—"It's A Small World." Documentaries in the United Nations School in Jamaica, N. Y., showing the children studying and at play. Among the students is 8-year-old Jimmy Li, whose father is a Chinese interpreter. Jimmy narrates the film, and as a member of the third grade has some interpretations of his own to make regarding this UN for kiddies.

8:30-9:30 p. m. (CBS) Checkmate—"Nice Guys Finish Last." This is a familiar plot for both movies and TV, but it's made most exciting by the keen performance of James Whitmore, as a cop who takes out his resentment at being by-passed for promotion, on a fellow officer (Dennis Patrick), framing him for murder, no less. Diana Van Der Vlis impresses as the girl torn between her affection for Whitmore and sympathy for the innocent officer.

9:10 p. m. (NBC) The Bob Hope Show. Taped. Based on rehearsal, this promises to be one of Hope's best of the season. It's a lot of show to squeeze into an hour—three sketches involving Hope with guest stars Danny Thomas, Jimmy Garner and Nancy Kwan; introduction of the "Look" All-American football team; appearance by five queens who'll reign over six many post-season football games; and Hope's introduction of Hollywood's 18 best stars for 1961. Hope does a funny satire on "Ben Casey" with Danny Thomas, and an even funnier one on "The Hustler" with Jim Garner.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

This is the time of year when a woman is mighty thankful for a man's hobbies.

Because this is Christmas list-making time—and the man with a hobby or two is never a man who has "everything."

Whether a man's hobby is photography or hunting or fishing or cabinet making, he always needs something.

Every year when the gift catalogues come out there are dozens of new items listed for the man with a hobby or favorite sport.

So the man who "had everything" after he opened his Christmas packages just a year ago is sure to be missing something this year—for hobbies are big business and hobby equipment is as ever-changing and as quickly obsolete as any other kind of equipment.

There is always a newer and better power tool, a more fully automatic camera, a better spinning reel, a more luxurious camping equipment, or a new "must" for a man with a boat.

The women who have it tough this time of year are the women whose men are hobbyists. It's their own fault if year after year those men come up with shirts, ties, belts, wallets, and shaving equipment. What else can you give a man without a hobby?

So women may fuss and fume from time to time about the time and money a husband spends on his hobbies—but not when Christmas draws near.

Then she is thankful for every one of his hobbies. For the man with hobbies is as easy to find a gift for as a kid who still believes in Santa Claus. Neither ever reaches the stage of having "everything."

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Nail and Hathorn point out that safety plays are essential in rubber bridge, but in duplicate it pays to gamble for overtricks any time you are in a normal contract and your alternate play has a better than even chance of success.

On today's hand, any good rubber bridge player would make three no-trump. He would win the first heart, enter dummy with a club, and lead the jack of spades.

West would win the trick with the queen and lead anything he wished, but South would make three spades, four clubs and one trick in each red suit for a total of nine.

A good duplicate player might go down. He would make the same club play, but then he might come off dummy with a diamond with every intention of letting it ride.

TV Net Leaders Hit At Criticism

By United Press International
 The heads of the nation's two biggest television networks launched a major industry attack last week against criticism by the federal communications commission and threatened government supervision of TV programs.

Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and Robert W. Sarnoff, chairman of the National Broadcasting Co., struck out at TV's critics among federal officials, including FCC Chairman Newton Minow who called television a "vast wasteland."

Stanton and Sarnoff face an FCC hearing in January on network policy and practices.

The two broadcast chiefs defended current TV programming and warned that government attempts to dictate what should be put on the air would not solve any problems.

Charge Toy Makers Fleecing Shoppers

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thousands of Christmas shoppers are being exploited by toy manufacturers who set more like Scrooges than Santa Claus, the National Better Business Bureau said Monday.

BBB President Kenneth B. Wilson charged that many manufacturers have advertised their products at exaggerated "list" prices so that retail stores can offer them as phony "bargains."

He said many of the signs that read "advertised price $14.95—our price $8.95" do not represent bargains at all, because the toy is worth about $8.95.

Veteran HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —

Stuart Holmes, top villain of the silent screen, plays a jovial butler and egg man in a night club scene in "The George Raft Story."

Holmes, now 73, starred with Theda Bara and Pearl White and also is remembered for his performances in "The Scarlet Letter" and "The Prisoner of Zenda."

You'll Benefit Too

Sanford has an exciting new company that is leading the battle to bring industry into the area. The company, called the Sanford-Seminole Development Co., was formed in July of 1961 and it is a stock corporation, working directly with the Small Business Administration District office in Atlanta.

The company was the outgrowth of the Committee of 100 of the Chamber of Commerce.

The objective is to provide necessary capital for the construction of industrial buildings. The company will furnish a minimum of 20 percent and the SBA 80 percent, of any given project. As an example, the first project is the construction of a manufacturing plant for Del-Mar Industries. SBA's participation will be $141,000 of total construction cost of $170,000; the local development company's share is $29,000.

Stock is now being offered in the company to all citizens of the area at $10 per share. Dividends will be declared twice yearly on the invested capital on the basis of a minimum of six percent yield yearly.

We think this a good and bright idea because here is your opportunity to participate in the establishment of additional industries in this area.

Remember at the same time you are assured a very liberal return on your investment. Every businessman will benefit from expanded industrial jobs.

This company was organized by public spirited citizens who contributed their time and money toward development of the county. It's primary purpose is to promote, stimulate and encourage industry to locate in the county.

Why not help and give it your utmost support. We'll all benefit in the long run.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE K-415: Maurine T., aged 19, is a stenographer in a county court house.

"Dr. Crane, I must see you about a personal problem," she wrote from a distant city. "I am so unhappy, I don't know what to do. I can't write about my case because it is so very unusual. Unless I hear from you to the contrary, I'll be in your office on Saturday at 1 o'clock."

YOUTHFUL EGOTISM

What I usually reply to such people is that the newspaper offers them a consultation service by mail. They have access to it every day through this psychology column.

Your letters are forwarded to me unopened. You have perfect privacy, and it costs you simply the stamped, self-addressed envelope, plus 20 cents for typing costs. I'd much rather have you put your problem down on paper, for that helps you visualize your own case. Besides, I can then get the gist of it in five minutes, and thus save my time, which is very limited and consequently costs the private patient a high fee.

In Maurine's case, however, I was out of Chicago on an extensive speaking trip when her letter reached my office. I arrived home late Friday night. Next day I stayed at home to write these Case Records. But shortly after lunch my phone rang.

MAURINE'S UNUSUAL CASE

It was Maurine. She had come to Chicago for a personal appointment, although I had not yet acknowledged her request. Yet she foolishly came to Chicago to see me without even knowing if I'd be in the city when she arrived. Swamped with work, I didn't want to go downtown, which is 11 miles away from my home. Maurine protested, however, that she was so unhappy and couldn't tell me about it on the phone, for it was so very unusual and she had come all the way to Chicago to see me. Finally, I agreed to meet her at my office, because I decided I ought to show a little charity even though she had done a stupid thing. Besides, I thought maybe she was desperate and might commit suicide.

Well, do you know what her unusual problem was? A problem so unique she couldn't even place it upon paper?

Simply the fact that she had put on 10 pounds of extra weight! And that wasn't the worst of it. She had already consulted a good physician in her home town who had put her on a sensible diet.

"Didn't your diet work?" I inquired.

"Oh, yes," she replied, "but I haven't stuck to it, and now I am heavier than before. What can I do, Dr. Crane?"

AN EDUCATIONAL COLUMN

In my opinion this is distinctly an educational column. I try to present the latest scientific information in the field of psychology, and usually don't attempt to invade the province of your medical columnist unless the subject has a distinct psychological aspect.

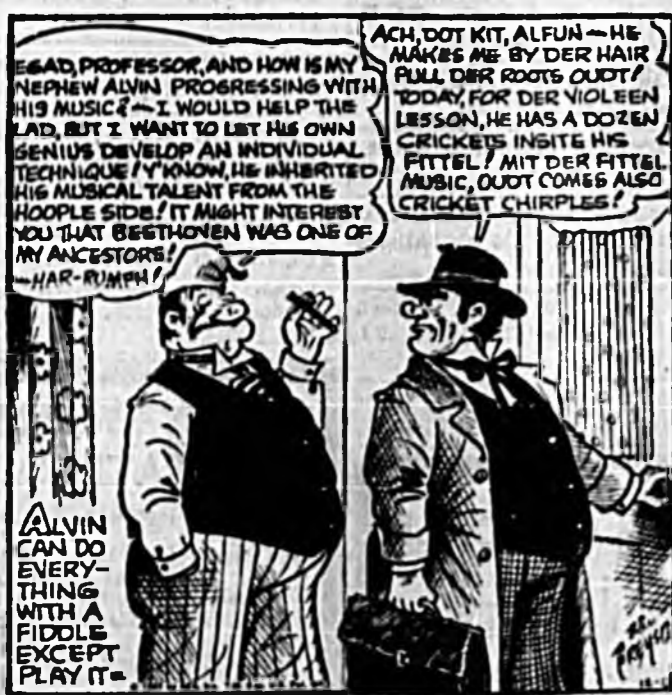

I present the same material here which I have used in my psychology courses at the university, so this is really an extension university course which your newspaper offers the community.

If you have problems, I am perfectly willing to try to help solve them. But I insist that you write your difficulties in a letter because that will force you to face the situation clearly and try to make sense out of a mess that you may have been trying to avoid for months.

If I write a little forcefully at times, it may be owing to an experience with another Maurine. For we all get irate occasionally, and I am no exception. In fact, I think I do my best writing when I am righteously indignant and pound this typewriter till it fairly smokes.

It is also well to make a scrapbook of these cases for they aren't printed in any other form than your newspaper, and I cannot furnish back copies.

A Mighty Oak Has Fallen

Henry McLemore

Floyd Patterson says professional prize fighting is a sport, and I am not going to disagree with him. After what he did to young Tom McNeely in Toronto a few nights ago I wouldn't question Floyd if he said the moon was made of chopped ripe olives, the earth was hollow, peacocks had bobbed tails, and Fidel Castro was a better golfer than Arnold Palmer. After all, I'd rather be wrong than dead. But I have managed to screw up my courage to the point where I am brave enough to ask Floyd a question. Here it is:

"Okay, professional prize fighting is a sport, but what sort of sport?"

Does it fall in the same category as tennis, rowing, archery, fencing, trap shooting, hurling, and pole vaulting?

Does prize fighting automatically fall into place alongside skiing, cross-country running, volleyball, and ice skating?

Patterson's remarks on prize fighting were made in his dressing room just after he had slugged McNeely stiff in the fourth round of a scheduled 15-round bout. They were prompted by a reporter asking Floyd why several times he bent over the prostrate McNeely as if to help him to his feet.

"He was hurt, wasn't he?" answered Floyd, and then went on to say that prize fighting was a sport not a business and should be conducted as such.

This prompts me to ask—without benefit of reporter, and at a safe distance of several hundred miles—just what kind of a sport is a sport that calls for a man continually to bend over a prostrate opponent? Doesn't sound like a normal, every-day, let's-have-some-fun sport to me.

Floyd's gesture was a tender one, of course, but how much more sporting to have caught his groggy foe before he fell, or to have withheld some of the steam behind his punches.

A bit braver now, I would like Floyd to explain just what there is sporting about beating another man about the head until he falls senseless to the floor. Where does the assault and battery leave off and the sport begin?

In it sporting to do one's level best to break an opponent's nose, bash his ear, and addle his brains? If such things are sporting, why not incorporate them into other games, and let football players swing at will on each other, and tennis players bash their opponents over the head with their racquets, and rivals at trap shooting turn the muzzles of their guns on one another?

Would the Vaasar Dalay Chain be more exciting and sporting if the girls were urged to pull hair, scratch, and bang one another with the heels of their slippers as they marched along?

If boxing is a sport, then it is a brutal sport, and deserves to be classified along with the blood sports. It is close kin to bear baiting, cock fighting, and pit bull fighting. No one is ever made better by blows on the head. Punching does not improve the eyes, lungs or heart.

I have seen and reported hundreds of fights and have yet to leave one feeling a better citizen. A sport indeed!

Patrick Henry A Nut? If He Came Back Today Some Might Think So

By RICHARD STARNES

The only real danger to be found among the lip-movers and the blowers of spit bubbles who infest the lunatic fringe right is that they will be used to discredit ordinary sane mortals who want to see this nation survive.

It was not very long ago that patriotism was not only tolerated in this land, but even admired and encouraged. It is easy, in this day of piecemeal surrender to blackmail, to see what a quaint conceit it has been to teach school kids that Patrick Henry was a pretty gung-ho chap. Historical perspective now shows us that he was nothing but a dangerous nut. The British had disciplined regular troops; it was clearly suicidal for the colonies, which had none, to think about contending against them.

Nathan Hale (if he ever uttered that immortal bromide, which is doubtful) was plainly a super-patriot, and a threat to all the reasonable people who wanted peaceful coexistence with old George III.

Disgraceful numbers of American men surrendered in Korea, and a shocking percentage of those who did defect, or died out of sheer lack of guts. Today, if dispatches from the nation's capital are to be credited, every mail is filled with the mewling of summer-soldier reservists who are plucking at the covert because they were called back to active duty.

The ordinary voters, the ones who have their own babies, are slow pay, and watch Paladins on the idiot lantern, incline toward seeing everything in black and white. They understand, or think they understand, fake issues such as the "missile gap" or Soviet industrial superiority. The campaign to use the chronic aberrations of the sick-minded right for political advantage will ultimately produce a bad reaction in these citizens. Let enough young Americans begin to believe that patriotism is from squareville, and the weaknesses revealed in Korea will be repeated a thousandfold.

And what about McAliff, whose valorous 10,000 were encircled for a week at Bastogne? "Old Crook," which is what his name called him, was up against four times as many Krauts, and knew it. Any sensible man would have thrown in his hand and saved a lot of bother. But McAliff rejected the German demand that he surrender with a classic one-word reply. (While we are spragging historical fables, it wasn't "Nuts," either. What it was is a far earthier term which has no place in a blast which has to buck postal regulations every day.)

This isn't to suggest that these old-time virtues should be equated with the naive futilities of some hardpan peacetime general who sees Social Security and related vices as a threat to the republic. But the truth of the matter is that genuine love of country (a rare enough product at best) is becoming unfashionable.

Peter Edson Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Old-fashioned government red tape—bane of the taxpayers for more than a century—is now being modernized. It is being replaced by the magnetic tape of electronic computers. This doesn't reduce the gobbledygook very much. It introduces a lot of new code words that add to the confusion.

In a fancy, new, two-color pamphlet and a much bigger technical manual introducing a new robot management plan just approved for his department by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman is a new alphabet soup lingo that includes MODE and PADA and ADAM and MOHR and FAME and GAME.

MODE stands for Management of the Department's Objectives through Dollars provided by Congress with Employees. PADA stands for Payroll Automation for the Department of Agriculture.

ADAM is Agriculture Department Automated Manpower. MOHR is Management of Human Resources. FAME is Financial Analysis of Management Effectiveness. GAME is Gaming Analysis of Management Effectiveness. There. That makes everything clear, doesn't it?

As explained by the book, this is a sweeping effort to streamline administrative efforts of the Department of Agriculture by cutting administrative costs $1.5 million in three years. In the future, decisions will be aided by mathematical applications in two areas — human relations and management effectiveness.

Critics of the Department of Agriculture may suggest it could save billions of dollars, not millions, a lot faster by cutting out some of the more expensive farm programs.

But it's MODE (see above) they're going to start with. As explained by John C. Cooper Jr., deputy director of the operation, all payroll, personnel, budget and procurement accounting will be taken out of Washington and local offices scattered all over the country.

wheat stored and how much of each grade there is, so as to compute how to make a blend that will satisfy some prospective purchaser's order.

Records of all Department of Agriculture employees will now be fed into this New Orleans machine on 18 or 20 magnetic tapes within a year. The data will include wage rates, overtime, vacations, sick leave, taxes withheld for federal and state governments, deductions for savings bond purchases, health insurance, pension payments and civil service.

By this operation, it is believed that the costs of keeping books on each employee will be cut from $46 to $31 a year. It will save 241 man-years of labor and eliminate 17,000 reports which the department now makes to other agencies.

Tapes will also be prepared for 50 or 60 other programs which will be used in two research projects on management analysis. This work will be done at Dallas, where the department now leases part-time a 7070 computer owned by an insurance company. This is where MOHR and FAME and GAME come in.

For the 140, 44,000 employees, selective data will be put on tape concerning education, capability, achievements, ambitions and what their supervisors think of them.

Then, if they want a veterinarian who speaks German and is available for immediate assignment overseas, "Through the use of Boolean algebra," says the book, "the computer will construct the logic required to locate the potential employe for satisfying the request."

Russia Accuses NATO Chairman

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union Tuesday formally charged West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger with "war crimes and crimes against peace and humanity" and demanded he be extradited from Washington where he is stationed as chairman of NATO's Permanent Military Committee.

In Washington, U. S. officials accused Russia of a "judicious" attempt to discredit Heusinger and thereby diminish the effectiveness of West Germany in the alliance.

The view at the State Department was that the effort would fail because Heusinger had been thoroughly investigated and his appointment approved by all pact countries.

West Drafts Berlin Emergency Plan

PARIS (UPI) — The Western Allies have drafted emergency plans to meet any possible flareup in the Berlin crisis early next year.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville also sought to work out the minimum terms for a settlement to the Berlin question if and when they meet with the Russians again at the conference table.

They hoped to reach agreement on the Western position on Berlin in time to present their decision to the three-day NATO council session which opens here Wednesday.

The Big Three foreign ministers discussed the Congo crisis Monday morning, but agreed only on a long-term policy that the Congo should be "united and peaceful."

Old Strongbox Found In River

OCALA (UPI) — The University of Florida archeology department has been asked to investigate an 18 by 24 inch box found in the mud of the Oklawaha River.

Thomas King, operator of King's Sportman Paradise, a fishing camp at Eureka, 20 miles from here, said Thursday he found a very old iron strongbox in the mud. He said it contained coins dating back to 1834, charred papers which could be currency, and other papers.

He said the papers indicated the box originally came from Palatka.

One Texan Named To Replace Another

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has named one Texan to succeed another as secretary of the Navy.

John B. Connally resigned Monday to run for the governorship of Texas. Kennedy promptly named former Assistant Army Secretary Fred Korth of Fort Worth to replace him, effective Dec. 20.

$700 Million CD Program For Nation Unveiled

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Kennedy administration today unveiled a $700 million civil defense program that includes funds for subsidizing construction of community fallout shelters in schools and hospitals.

Deputy Defense Secretary Russell L. Gilpatrick told a news conference the key feature of the new program was a plan to subsidize building of shelters aimed at protecting 20 million persons.

Federal funds would be available to public or private, non-profit institutions engaged in health, education and welfare activities — primarily schools and hospitals.

Gilpatrick said the federal grant would be something less than the actual cost of construction. Local agencies presumably would put up the rest.

Well-informed UN sources said such an attack was "unlikely in the immediate future." The sources said the Katanga government's belief that an attack was imminent "appeared to be based on the misconception that new United Nations reinforcements would be thrown into the battle immediately."

U. S. Grand Jury Indicts Tape Firm For Price Fixing

DANVILLE, Ill. (UPI) — Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. has been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of price fixing and conspiracy to monopolize trade.

The St. Paul, Minn., firm was charged here Wednesday with violating the Sherman anti-trust law in a conspiracy dating to 1931. It was accused of conspiring to monopolize trade in a number of products, including Scotch Tape.

The nine-count indictment alleged that Minnesota Mining fixed prices, conspired to restrain and monopolize the manufacture and sale of three categories of products — pressure-sensitive tape, magnetic recording tape and aluminum presensitized lithographic plates.

H. P. Bluetow, president of the company, said at Minneapolis it would not be possible to comment directly on the government's action until the company could study the charges. The statement was made to employees of the firm.

"Even then it may not be possible to discuss specific details of the case for this is a highly technical and complicated subject involving patents and patent licenses," Bluetow said.

The military conference, in which only foreign affairs, defense and finance ministers of the 15 NATO countries and one or two experts from each were participating, interrupted a still incomplete discussion of Western policy in Berlin. A resumption of this conference, involving the question of talks with the Soviet Union, was planned for later.

May Slice Guard By 10 Divisions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Guard reserve forces may be pared down by as much as 10 combat divisions even if appropriations and manpower strength levels remain the same, according to defense sources.

A plan being studied would increase the strength of the divisions and provide them with more expensive equipment, which would mean a cut in the number of paid civilian reservists at a time when more were needed.

"Something would have to give," the sources said.

There are 27 National Guard and 10 Army reserve combat divisions now, most of which have paper strengths of 15,000 men and actual strengths well below that. The plan calls for divisions averaging 15,000 men.

Last week Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr Jr. said there would be "no significant reductions" in the reserve ranks. But if Congress approved the plan and it was carried out, six to 10 divisions could be eliminated.

5000 Mile Ride On ICBM

Monkey To Ride Atlas Piggyback

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The Air Force, fresh from a successful wrap-up on the research and development of its Titan I missile, went ahead with plans today to shoot a monkey 5,000 miles aboard another intercontinental rocket.

The animal, a rhesus monkey weighing about six pounds, will be hurled more than 600 miles into space inside a "piggyback pod" attached to the side of a silver Atlas ICBM.

The monkey shot is expected shortly from Cape Canaveral. An Air Force crew fired a bullet-shaped Titan Wednesday night about 5,000 miles across the Atlantic in the final "R-and-D" flight for America's second ICBM system.

The Titan I, capable of hurling hydrogen warheads of more than five megatons more than one-third of the way around the globe, is expected to become officially combat-ready late this month or early in 1962.

An advanced-model Atlas will carry the monkey as a passenger on an ocean-spanning flight. The monkey will be heavily instrumented, with sensors attached to various parts of its body, and installed inside a pod attached to the metallic skin of the rocket.
