RELIEF WORKERS REPORTED THAT CAPTIVES ARE SAFE FROM BRIGANDS SO FAR

PRISONERS ARE IN GOOD HEALTH AND FEEL REASONABLY SAFE NOW

ITALIAN ILL

Only One Among the Prisoners — Lawyer of Shanghai Sick Several Days

(By The Associated Press) SHANGHAI, May 23.—Relief workers at Tsoochwang, the nearest point to the Buchow trail bandits, reported the arrival of messengers from the brigands' mountain retreat with information that the outlaws had not carried out their death threat against foreign captives. The prisoners, it is stated, are in good health except G. D. Museo, Italian lawyer, of Shanghai, who has been ill a number of days.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Washington government had been without advice from Minister Schurman in Peking for more than 24 hours today when the cabinet met in session to consider the plight of the foreigners including American citizens held as hostages by the Chinese bandits.

As a measure of precaution and to be able to advise his cabinet colleagues fully on all aspects of the situation, Secretary Hughes conferred briefly with Acting Secretary Davis of the war department just before the cabinet meeting. Later Mr. Davis said the war department had been assigned no task but was ready at any time to undertake any mission the government might delegate to it. No further inkling of the nature of the mission which the American military authorities here, in China or in the Philippines may have considered tentatively for use in case the situation develops so as to require forceful measures, was available from any source.

It is part of the routine duty of the war department to be ready to propose military measures in any situation requiring such action in the judgment of the president. For that reason, war department officials are kept fully advised of the nature of all communications received by the government in any such emergency as the present bandit crisis. It would be an error to say that no plans with relation to use of troops in China have been made, but it is also true that there is intimation from any quarter that the president or his cabinet advisers are yet giving attention to that possibility.

MONTREAT, N. C., May 23.—The Southern Presbyterian church general assembly "does not feel there is occasion for reopening the question of organic union" it advised the Northern Presbyterian church assembly today in response to overtures from that body now in session in Indianapolis.

Five Burned Many Injured in Mexicali City

SAID THAT SOME FIFTY CHINESE ARE LOST.

MEXICALI, Calif., May 23.—Five persons are known to have been burned to death, many more are believed to have perished, and property valued at more than $2,000,000 was destroyed by fire which started when a motion picture machine exploded in a theater yesterday afternoon.

CALEXICO, CALIF., May 23.—Between forty and fifty Chinese were believed to have been killed yesterday in a fire which caused damage estimated at $1,500,000 in Mexicali, Lower California, according to a statement of police of Calexico, last night. At 8 o'clock, Hardwick said, 14 bodies had been recovered, and the fire was still raging. At that time, Chief Hardwick said, two blocks in Chinatown had been destroyed and the others seemed doomed.

The fourteen bodies were recovered from one building; it was reported. The fire was believed to have started in Chinatown, but the cause was not determined. The victims were believed to have been where they had gone to escape the heat.

CHIEF JUSTICE TAYLOR RETIRES FROM THE BENCH

SENATE PASSES HOUSE BILL THAT WILL RETIRE HIM ON FULL PAY

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—Retirement of Chief Justice Taylor of the supreme court was made possible today by the passage by the senate of a house bill that would give him full pay upon retirement. Supporters of the bill beat off a fight to give only half pay and during the debate was frequently stated its enactment was sought to apply especially to Taylor who has served over thirty years and is now past eighty years of age. The supporters of the bill asserted he would not resign on half pay.

LORD CURZON WILL CONTINUE AS SECRETARY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN THE CABINET FORMED BY BALDWIN

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, May 23.—Lord Curzon will continue to act as secretary of foreign affairs in the cabinet of Prime Minister Baldwin according to unofficial predictions in government circles. One of Curzon's first acts in the new ministry expected to be when Leonid Krassin, Soviet representative here, will hand in today or tomorrow papers asking for recognition of Soviet Russia. No incoming prime minister could wish for better reception from the press than that accorded Baldwin. The morning newspapers say the appointment is in accordance with the popular wishes and is the best solution under the circumstances.

Pine Reinstated; Judge Johnson is Formally Ousted

TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—The senate yesterday sustained the governor in one of his removals from office and overrode him in another. J. R. Johnson was formally removed as county judge for St. Lucie county, after having been under executive suspension for several months, and Fred W. Pine was reinstated as county solicitor for Dade county, after hearings.

The upper body labored long on both cases in executive sessions, and they constituted virtually the day's work for that side of the legislature. John N. Johnson was suspended last year as the result of charges that he was not co-operating with local law enforcement officials in prohibition violations. Solicitor Pine was suspended as the result of charges brought by the Christian Council of Miami, charging malfeasance, non-feasance and misfeasance in office.

Mr. Pine charged that they were the result of a Republican political machine to try to get control of the county government.

Mr. Pine visited the executive office yesterday afternoon, after his reinstatement, but there was nothing forthcoming as to his conference with the governor. It is presumed that he plans to again take up his duties immediately.

EMERSON HOUGH LEAVES LITTLE FOR HIS HEIRS

WAUKEGAN, May 23.—Personal property left by Emerson Hough, noted novelist, does not exceed $20,000 and his real estate approximately $5,000, according to a petition filed Monday by his widow to have his will admitted to record. The widow, another, Thomas Hough of Waukegan, Minn., and a sister, Miss Eleanor V. Hough of Newton, Pa., were named as heirs.

CIRCUIT COURT OPENED YESTERDAY WITH LIGHT DOCKET BEFORE IT. JUDGE PERKINS IS LAUDED

Grand Jury Presentment One of Finest Economies Ever Given to a Judge

The spring term of Circuit court started yesterday without any big noise or eclat and hardly anyone knew that the "big court" was in session until they saw the grand jury and the petit jury on the street. Edward Higgins was made foreman of the grand jury and W. M. Haynes, clerk and they were grinding away all day yesterday. The docket is a very light one and it is estimated by the old timers who watch the proceedings very closely that unless something unforeseen happens that court will adjourn at the end of the week or possibly sooner.

The grand jury finished their labors this morning and their work is given space in another part of this issue. Their presentment is a work of art and is especially valuable giving as it does the well deserved compliment to the retiring judge, Hon. James W. Perkins, as follows: "The Grand Jury understands that the spring term for 1923 closes when this session of the court here at Sanford adjourns, and that the present presiding judge, the Hon. James W. Perkins, will then voluntarily and permanently retire from the bench. "When one has served so long and so well in such an important public office, we think it deserves some record.

"His ability to properly direct evidence; compare facts, distinguish truth from falsehood and discern and determine fairly that which is conformable to law and justice, is already a matter of record in the form of his constituents' repeated endorsements at the polls.

"It has been said that 'the bench is a place usually productive of sternness—even harshness.' That there is no good reason for deciding thence, is here witnessed by tempered decisions while sitting on the bench in judicial habiliments, and uniform consideration while sitting on the bench in the chancery of humanity. Nor does he cling unyieldingly to the strict letter of the law, but seeking to embrace its entire circumference, often essays to woe the technical to wed the conservative, when it would not involve discord, dishonest compliances or a suspension of progress in the pursuit of truth—the only bridegroom that is worthy of the queenly beauty and magnificent dowry of law.

"His retirement will be followed by our regrets and our regards.

"The grand jurors having concluded their work, now desire the court to discharge them.

"Respectfully submitted, (Signed) "EDWARD HIGGINS, Foreman: "W. M. HAYNES, Clerk."

New British Premier Succeeds Bonar Law, According Tradition

King Through His Secretary Offered Premiership to Baldwin

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, May 23.—Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of exchequer, is the British prime minister in succession to Andrew Bonar Law. Having followed the constitutional practice and ascertained the views of the conservative leaders through the medium of his secretary, Lord Stamford Ham, the King came to town yesterday, and without further delay offered the premiership to Mr. Baldwin, who accepted.

That a man, comparatively new to politics, thus comes to the first office of the nation's council passing over well-tried and experienced statesmen like Marquis Curzon, and the Earl of Balfour, indicates the change which has taken place on the political stage with the rise for the first time in the country's history of the labor party to the position of his majesty's opposition in parliament.

Of necessity, the labor party is not represented in the house of lords unless the presence of peers like Lord Haldane, who has great sympathy with the labor party, and is looked upon as one of the certain ministers should the labor party within the near future be in a position to form a government, might give labor a standing position in the house of lords.

This fact of non-representation of labor ruled Curzon out as a prime minister possibility, in the opinion of the majority of the conservative leaders. The present opposition in the house of commons is the most energetic and vigorous parliament has had in many years, and it was felt necessary that the first minister of state must be in the commons to meet the attacks of his opposition.

The new prime minister, like his predecessor, has graduated from trade and also like Mr. Bonar Law from the iron trade. Neither of these men was trained for politics, but adopted politics after a difficult career. This is also peculiar to some extent from the British traditions, the statesmen in the past being, to a very large extent, recruited from the ranks of the aristocracy or the legal profession. This fact inures for the next premier the support and confidence of the commercial and financial world, which will be a great asset for him. In accordance with custom, the members of the cabinet will formally tender their resignations and Mr. Baldwin will proceed to appoint a new ministry. The general belief is that for the most part the present ministers will be re-appointed, but this is by no means certain.

Among the surprises of the day was the announcement that Sir Robert Stevenson Horne had consented to become chancellor of the exchequer in the new cabinet, a post he held under Lloyd-George. As late as yesterday it was asserted that Sir Robert had no intention of re-entering politics.

When he left the coalition with Lloyd George, Austin Chamberlain, Birkenhead and others, he formed lucrative connections in the commercial world, and only a week ago was appointed a director of the Sun-Cable Company. Becoming a minister again he must resign these positions or profit.

The most engrossing question before the British public tonight are what will be the personnel of the new ministry and what will be the policy in the Ruhr, and as relates to Russia.

(By The Associated Press) DUESBELDORF, May 23.—Rioting is in progress in the Dortmund district. Several miners have been killed and others wounded in a conflict with the police. According to reports received at French headquarters here, thousands of striking miners held demonstrations in the squares in Dortmund. The police endeavoring to disperse the gathering fired into the crowd killing several and wounding many. The angered crowd attacked the police wounding several. A similar demonstration occurred at Scharnhorst mine nearby where several workmen were killed and others wounded by the police.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CLOSE

On account of the annual revival tomorrow night of Mrs. Munson's class it has been decided to close the meetings at the Presbyterian church tonight. It is hoped that a large crowd will be there tonight to hear Dr. Carr. The subject of the sermon tonight will be "Almost Persuaded." Dr. Carr spoke at the Kiwanis Club today and will be entertained by the deacons at the Valdez Hotel at a six o'clock dinner tonight. His stay in the city has been pleasant and his relations most cordial and his work here will be felt long after he has returned to his home in Savannah. Come out tonight and give this good man a rousing audience.

PRIMARY SCHOOL EDITION TODAY

The Daily Herald will have a special write-up of each new building, as soon as possible after its completion telling about the building and the people who made it and those who occupy it. Watch the Daily Herald every week for special building numbers. Today we give you the Primary School Edition.

FINAL PASSAGE GASOLINE TAX EFFECTED TODAY

WHEN HOUSE CONCURRED IN SENATE AMENDMENT ON THIRD CENT

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—Final passage of the three cent gasoline tax measure effected when the house concurred in the senate amendment providing should the supreme court hold unconstitutional third cent levied for counties that this levy should revert to general revenue fund. The measure now goes to the governor.

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—The house members who hitherto fought the three cent levy took advantage of the senate amendment to renew the fight and for a time appeared they were going to win a point at least in the way of delaying final passage by sending to conference. Vote to concur was forty-two to thirty-four.

FEDERAL REDISCOUNT RATE TO REMAIN

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Federal Reserve rediscount rates will be maintained at their uniform level of 4 1/2 per cent for the present because of satisfactory business conditions throughout the country, it was announced today at the conclusion of the meeting of the board's advisory council.

Our Primary School Edition Comes Out in the Daily Today

With Big Advertisements of All Those Who Had a Hand in the Erection of This Beautiful Building

This issue contains a description of the new primary school that was built so quickly and so quietly that few of our people know just how fine a building we have added to our extensive school system. With two old primary buildings and this elegant new brick primary school building and our grand grammar school building and the finest of high school buildings Sanford can well be classed with the best cities in the land in the matter of educational facilities.

The new primary school building was erected only a few months ago but the Herald was saving the write-up of the building until we could hear from the men who had such a large part in its building and we give them to you today on the inside pages and a description of the fine building that gave these enterprising firms a chance to show the public what they could do. The firms with advertisements in this issue are as follows:

The Alabama Clay Products Co., of Birmingham, Ala., furnished the brick for the primary school building.

The Hill Lumber Company of this city furnished all the roofing and the plaster and stucco. The Nuttle shingles are the thing.

The Hill Hardware Company, of this city, furnished the hardware for the school building and it speaks for itself.

The Selden Cypress Company, of Palatka, furnished all the doors, sash frames, trim, etc., for the new school.

W. T. Hadlow, of Jacksonville, was the contractor and to him is due the compliments and the thanks of the people for a most complete job at very reasonable figures. His home address is Jacksonville. Mr. Hadlow has had in the course of the big contracts in this state too numerous to mention and among them were the first two buildings erected at the Florida University at Gainesville. The name of Hadlow means something in the building world and his excellent work on our new primary school will always be a lasting monument to him and his firm.

Mahoney-Walker Company take a great pride in their plumbing work and the installation of the steam heating system of the new primary school. They are a local firm and have the goods.

The Carter Lumber Company, of this city, furnished the lumber for our

APPEARANCE OF GREEK VESSELS THAT ARE MENACE TO PEACE

MUCH UNEASINESS IS FELT NOT ONLY IN CONSTANTINOPLE BUT IN ALL EUROPE OVER AFFAIR

(By The Associated Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, May 23.—Greek fleet is cruising about the entrance to the Straits of Dardanelles and the Turkish government has formally called attention to vessels and rumors of various activities on the part of the Greeks causing much uneasiness in Constantinople.

LAUSANNE, May 23.—No compromise to the deadlock on the question of Turco-Greek reparations was found yesterday, at the Near East conference. M. Venizelos, head of the Greek delegation spent a feverish day consulting with various conference leaders, discussing ways and means in an endeavor to ameliorate the situation.

Yesterday afternoon, tired but smiling, Venizelos emerged from the hotel elevator. He was immediately surrounded by a group of newspaper men who desired to know the trend of affairs. A young Turkish correspondent asked the former premier if he was optimistic or pessimistic.

"The two knots in a handkerchief," he replied. "One represents Mr. Optimism, and the other Mr. Pessimism. Put the handkerchief back in your pocket and pull it out quickly and see which knot comes out first. That is the only answer, I can give you, for, alas, I know no answer to this conundrum. Perhaps the Greek Gods will decide."

Imet Pasha, chief delegate of the Turks, and the hero of many battles, added another touch to the comedy by sending down a message from his apartment, where he still remains in solitary confinement owing to the request of the Swiss police, who fear an attempt to assassinate him by mysterious Armenians, who are supposed to have reached Lausanne, incognito. Martial law reigns at Imet's hotel, viewed with the utmost suspicion.

"Tell my friends, tell the journalists," was the message Imet sent down, "that I am still a soldier. I am jelled against my will. Really, they are overdoing this."

Meantime the peace conference held no session today, chiefly because the delegates were fearful of taking up any great problems on the agenda pertaining to the leading question of a solution between the Turks and the Greeks.

Conference circles especially the Turkish and the Greek, however, last night received a distinct jolt by a report that the British Mediterranean Fleet had been ordered to concentrate in Near East waters. The Turks said it was a threat against the Greeks, while the Greeks declared it was a menace to Turkey. Others said it was intended as a warning to both the Turks and Greeks.

The new primary school building and they are proud of this fact for the appearance of the building shows the kind of lumber Carter sells.

Gillon & Fry were the efficient electricians on the job and the beautiful fixtures and the manner in which all the electrical fixtures are installed show what Gillon & Fry can do in this line.

And then last, but by no means least, is the architect of the building, Elton J. Moughton, a home boy of whom we are all justly proud. To him more than to anyone else is the success of this building due. And to him and him only the appearance, the workmanship, the substantial and enduring qualities of this building are due. The architect has a big job on his hands when he finishes such a building and our new primary school is a credit to the architect and the contractor and to all who had any part in its building.

There were others but the Herald could not get in touch with all of them on this opportunity of saying that to one and all we extend greetings and best wishes for future success.

The Carter Lumber Company, of this city, furnished the lumber for our

CONVICT REPORT... FORMALLY FILED

TALLAHASSEE, May 22.—The report of the joint legislative committee that investigated cruel treatment of convicts in this state, with the accompanying bulk of testimony which it developed was formally filed with the house yesterday, by Representative C. H. Kennerly, a member of the committee.

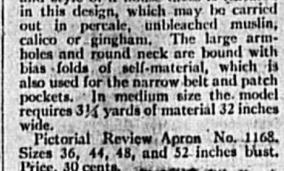

Mr. Kennerly moved that the report be spread upon the Journal and that the evidence be filed. This was agreed to. Later, it is understood, both houses will be asked to adopt a resolution addressed to the North Dakota legislature.

Daily Fashion Hint

FOR THE HOUSE
An apron with the neat simplicity and style of a house dress is featured in this design, which may be carried out in percale, unbleached muslin, calico or gingham. The large armholes and round neck are bound with bias folds of self-material, which is also used for the narrow belt and patch pockets. In medium size the model requires 3 1/4 yards of material 32 inches wide.

Pictorial Review Apron No. 1168. Sizes 36, 44, 48, and 52 inches bust. Price, 30 cents.

A FASHIONABLE TRIMMING
Lace is so much in vogue this season that the wardrobe should include at least one dress ornamented with this trimming. The Spanish and Russian laces, both in silk and cotton, are used and either would be appropriate for this frock of fallow wool crepe. The cotton fabrics may be used also, as there are many marvelous laces that are suited to their decoration. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material, with 4 yards narrow and 2 yards wide lace.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1508. Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

Diary of a Fashion Model
By GRACE THORNCLIFFE

She Describes a Charming Slate-Blue Street Frock.

MADAME was interviewing several stunning girls in the salon.

"Who are they?" I am asked with her usual curiosity.

"I wouldn't have a job at all if it weren't for mine," Gaby had declared to us yesterday. "I don't know of a single other thing I could do."

"We protested to her that she could surely learn some other trade, but she insisted that she owed everything to the fact that she was qualified to be a fashion model."

Just then Gaby came in with an interesting bit of news.

"The girl in the stunning slate-blue frock is going to work to retrieve the family fortunes," she said.

"How do you know?" I asked in a doubtful tone.

"Because Madame told me her history the other day," she informed us.

"Most of us are here to help our fortunes in some way," I remarked.

"Of course," agreed Gaby. "Though, of course, I do love to do the too."

"This girl's family had millions which they lost in some spectacular way overnight," she continued. "A season ago she was buying her clothes as the women who come here do, by watching us parade by in them. This season she is doing the parading."

"Telling from that stunning frock she is wealthy. It came from an exclusive place," I said.

"We peeped again at the slender girl in the slate-blue frock. It was of that type we decided."

"Those accordion-pleated insets are stunning," Gaby remarked.

"Four of them," I counted. "There is one at either side of the blouse, one at the front of the skirt, and one at the back."

"And the little bows of the material are bewitching," Gaby added.

"It is a finely bound with bias strips of the material around the bottom," I remarked further.

"Personally, I like the black horse-hair hat with its ribbon cockades," I said.

"Hibon cockades are among the smartest things in millinery," I quoted. "We decided that the young lady wore clothes exceptionally well—and that Madame could make a fortune by having her with us for the evening each."

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; probably local thundershowers.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT

There is so much time wasted at every session of the legislature over local bills that many of the counties and the cities are casting about for some better form of local self government that would settle local matters without waiting for the legislature to meet every two years and then take up the valuable time of that body wrangling over local bills that in the aggregate mean nothing to the legislative body.

"Any one who looks over the journals issued by the senate and house must be impressed by the amount of time that is taken up with purely local matters, that never ought to come within the purview of the legislature at all; matter that could be more efficiently and satisfactorily settled by the people of the various localities. If a school district in Okechobee county wishes to change its boundary lines it must wait until the legislature is in session, and then appeal to it for authority to act. If there happen to be a division of sentiment, there may be two contesting delegations hot-footing it up to Tallahassee at a large expense of time and money to impress the legislature with their peculiar views.

"The state should have a general incorporation law, under which all communities desiring a larger measure of self-government should be compelled to come. It should be carefully drawn to cover all possible points, and once incorporated under the law, the people should be left to govern themselves and not be compelled to run to the legislature every time they wanted to pave a street or open an alley. For a people professing to be ardent lovers of liberty, we delegate a large part of our local government to a legislature sitting many miles away. We have the shadow of liberty, but are somewhat neglectful of the substance."

Aiding the efforts of the Pure Food Inspectors of Orlando the dairymen of that city will install all sterilizing and sanitary equipments in their dairies and will have nothing but the very best sanitary conditions in and around their dairies all the time.

A National Farm Loan Association has been formed by the growers of the Kissimmee section and they are now preparing for a big crop of fruits and vegetables for next season. They are looking ahead for their loans that they will need when it comes planting time.

Our Circuit Court is in action again with Judge Perkins on the bench and States Attorney George A. DeCottos on the flying tips. The court will not last long as crime is not rampant in our fine Bleda county and there will be but little for the court to do. We hope to see Judge Perkins in his usual probability in his last appearance as the Judge of the Circuit.

Banker in Orlando last night broke into a house and took jewelry and bonds therein. Anyone with jewelry and bonds these days ought to have them in the bank vault with a guard over them day and night.

Judge Jefferson Brown is not a candidate for the judgeship of the new 11th judicial circuit. It is refreshing sometimes to find the men in high places refusing to take another position just because it happens to be open.

Old Muscull came in for part of the scourging that usually comes to such places and a fire in Chalmers yesterday took fifty lives and caused a loss of two million dollars. Most of the victims were caught in cellars and sub-basements in the various hiding places that are usually found in such dens where there is a foreign population.

Orlando will have another golf course according to the Orlando Sentinel and Carl Dann and Dave Rogers are the guiding spirits in the new deal. The new course will be at the old site of Fairville near the pottery plant and will be up to date in every particular. Golf courses are the great asset to a tourist town and to any town and will eventually bring the people.

GET RID OF MOSQUITOES

The Herald is glad to see our efficient Sanitary Inspector on the job looking after the places where the festive mosquito might hide and multiply. And when Inspector Moughton comes around he should be met with a smile instead of a frown for his work is difficult enough at the best and he needs your co-operation and help instead of any knocks. The whole state is taking up this work and Sanford must not be found wanting. The Fort Pierce News says:

"Freedom from mosquitoes for the past seven months, particularly the failure of mosquitoes to be found after the rains this month, has led many to the conclusion that there is less necessity for the determined fight against the pest this year. While it is true that there have been practically no mosquitoes in the city since last October, fewer this month than is generally true in May, yet the present condition cannot be expected to continue unless there is the same vigilance by the people that has been so marked for the past two months."

"As has been repeatedly pointed out, this section has the same work to do that has been done in a few other communities where the mosquito menace has in a large measure been abated. Sanitary measures designed to improve health conditions and at the same time destroy breeding and hiding places of mosquitoes have been most effective. The city is planning a definite campaign which includes improvement of the canal or ditch and to the credit of the citizens generally splendid co-operation is being given. "Certain it is that the chances are that there will be fewer mosquitoes in Fort Pierce this year than ever in its history. That is not sufficient, the campaign against the pest should be so thorough, so systematic that there will be less here than any other city in the state."

THE SPIRIT THAT BUILDS CITIES

Nearly two years ago about two dozen Titusville business men organized a luncheon club. Once each week they would meet at lunch and talk over their business and the welfare of Titusville. It was not very long before this luncheon club decided it would be advantageous to become a Rotary club. Accordingly they made application for a charter in Rotary International. Rotary officials investigated and turned them down flat. "Titusville," they said, "is too small to have a Rotary club."

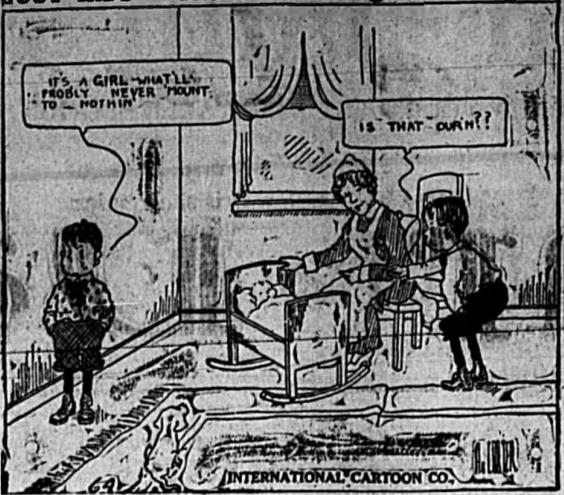

This was discouraging but the members of the Titusville luncheon club were not the kind of men who give up at the first obstacle they meet. They kept plugging away, holding their regular meetings and doing those things which Rotary clubs are supposed to do. They met with great success in their boys work and in other undertakings.

Last week this Titusville club was presented with a charter in Rotary International and the president of the Rotary club, W. B. Dobson, in one brief sentence told how they secured the charter: "They told us Titusville was too small for a Rotary Club," he said, "and we just went out and made Titusville big enough."

They had something to do and they did it. That's the spirit that builds cities wherever there are cities. Organization and co-operation will work wonders anywhere. Add to that determination to work and never give up until the object desired is accomplished and the combination is unbeatable. -Daytona Journal.

JUST KIDS—"The Little Stranger."

REPORT OF THE UTILITIES COMMISSION.

In Sunday's Sentinel was a full page statement of the Utilities Commission showing briefly what had been accomplished since August 25, 1922, when the city of Orlando took over the ownership and operation of the water and electric plants.

The Utilities Commission needs additional money and between the lines tells why it needs it. Those plants belong to the people of Orlando, and the people who serve us as public officials must, not exactly of choice but of necessity, believe in them, and the people, the taxpayers, for the same reason, must believe in them.

We are not greatly interested in the old accounts of something around $5,000.

But we are interested, and most vitally, in the number of individual accounts and the average monthly income. The Utilities Company has 3,458 electrical and 3,274 water accounts, or a total of 6,732, producing a monthly revenue of $35,000. If Orlando doubles her population by 1925 and the number of accounts increase proportionately the franchise and plants should be worth $3,000,000 to any individual or concern. There is no telling what the worth of the plants will be, or what the earning capacity will be by 1930.

First, the plants must have the equipment, second, the consumers, and third, official management. To get the equipment money is required. Consumers come with growth and service.

In ten months the Utilities has taken on 801 new water and light services, set 2,400 water meters and 200 electric meters, re-illuminated Orange avenue, cleaned the water mains thoroughly, increased the water pressure from 25 to 40 pounds, repaired 37 breaks in the water mains, constructed a new and independent electric circuit, laid 12 miles of small water mains, laid a new sixteen inch main, set 63 new transformers, set 500 new poles and 16 miles of electrical extension, but a new power house, and enlarged the filter beds.

These briefly are the accomplishments of the commission in less than a year. All this has required money. Have faith in your city and in what you own. Let the plants in the best possible condition so they will be in a position to earn money. What Jacksonville and other cities have done Orlando can do. The commission's report looks good and we extend congratulations. -Orlando Sentinel

Washington thinks that direct action is the only thing to do in the case of the Chinese bandits who took prisoners all the passengers on a train the other day. Direct action should be taken and if the bandits are not amenable to reason they should be spanked. Of course such high-handed proceedings of banditry could never happen in America unless it happened in New York or Chicago where the bandits flourish and where they kill policemen whenever they need a little practice. But for the heathen Chinese to pull such a stunt without the permission of Tammany Hall is nothing less than contempt and should be punished accordingly.

More and more as the thefts of automobiles come to light it is dawning on the mind of this community that either the theft of an auto should make a capital crime or the man should take the law into their own hands and hang every auto thief caught. This was the only way in which horse thievery could be stopped in the early days and it stopped it. A little of this real stuff on the auto thieves would stop auto stealing also. No man can afford to have his car stolen and perhaps broken all to pieces or left in the woods to decay or sold into some northern state never to be recovered. The laws are not strict enough on the matter of auto stealing.

TICK ERADICATION; NOT EVASION.

The Journal has been a consistent advocate of tick eradication that will eradicate ticks.

There is a bill pending in the house now that will tax the whole people of Florida one-eighth of the taxes they are required to pay, and which will not eradicate the tick.

The Journal is opposed to this bill. It is unable to see wherein the people of Florida should bear the whole expense of a measure which actually will defeat the very object it purports to accomplish.

The provision which limits the personnel of the board to administer the law to live stock men only is faulty. The people should be represented on this board. The provision that pays the cattle owner to collect his cattle and drive them to the vat and then pays him to drive them back again is questionable.

But the provision which is worse than any is that which permits a cattle owner in a zone about to be dipped to drive his stock into another zone to avoid dipping and requires the state to pay him for doing it. Under the bill a man who wanted to avoid dipping may drive his cattle into every one of the 16 zones, one after another, as the dipping starts and have the state bear the whole expense of his evasion of the "tick eradication" measure.

The cattlemen, as represented by McQueen Chaires, are reputed to have written this bill to defeat tick eradication.

To their surprise, it is reported, the Coachman interests accepted the bill as worthy of passage. These interests are backing the measure.

It provides that dipping shall start in that portion of Middle Florida where the Consolidated Land Company has large holdings and in a remote section of West Florida, with all the territory in between infested with tick which may roam at will into the dipping zones.

Advocates of real tick eradication should amend this bill so as to make it effective and so that the people will not have to bear the entire burden.

Florida needs tick eradication; not tick eradication evasion. Florida is entitled to a square deal. -Jacksonville Journal.

TICK TRICKERY?

It is now asserted that the tick eradication bill occupying the attention of the legislature originated with the cattlemen themselves, the idea being to frame a measure so unfair and objectionable that it would be doomed to defeat.

The Tribune does not know that this is true and has no means of proving or disproving the allegation. The Tribune does know, however, that if the bill is a scheme of the cattlemen, it is a good one from their standpoint, because a measure so unjust has little chance of adoption; and, on the other hand, in the event it should be passed, it would be altogether in favor of the cattlemen, because it would not only relieve them of all the expense of tick eradication but would even allow them to move their cattle out of the pathway of the eradicator, and dodge the eradication process, if they so desired. So, in either event, the intended cattlemen would be all right.

The bill is so thoroughly in the interest of the cattlemen that it even provides that, when a cattle owner desires to move his cattle out of the way of the eradicator, the state shall pay the expense of that removal. The cattlemen do not want tick eradication. They would prefer that no measure be passed. But, in the event one must be passed, they desire one which will relieve them of any expense and also enable them to keep their cattle out of reach. If it is true that the pending bill was framed by the cattlemen themselves, they must be given credit for being about the "smoothest" aggregation that ever operated in or about a state capital. In this connection, it would be pertinent to suggest that, if the legislature is to assess a one mill tax to remove the tick from privately-owned cattle, it should also assess a one mill tax to spray the orange trees and otherwise improve the private holdings of citrus growers. The latter tax would be productive of much more benefit to the state as a whole and would, besides, be far more just than the cattle-tick tax, as a glance at the comparative amount of taxes paid by the citrus industry and the cow industry would immediately disclose.

The pending bill is indefensible from any standpoint and the legislature is wasting time and doing itself no credit by giving it a moment's serious consideration. -Tampa Tribune.

SPEED LIMIT TOO SLOW IN CITY, COUNTY, STATE.

Contributing more largely to the safety of both pedestrians and drivers of automobiles would be a law that every owner of a car be forced to have the brakes of the auto examined and made perfect semi-monthly. Such a law could be enforced with little effort, while the speed law is difficult to control, and is frequently unfair. There can rarely be found a driver who does not violate the speed laws, which vary in every county in the state, and in the majority of cases is done unintentionally. The law was made to add safety to everyone handling a car; but it has worked to itself into a condition of unsafety.

Take the law as applied to Putnam county. There are runs where thirty-five miles an hour are much safer than seven miles in others; yet officers have no discriminating power. Through several blocks of Lemon street six miles, provided that the car can be throttled down to that speed, is actually more dangerous than twenty-five miles on River street. Again, there are several eminences in the city where, if the car is merely started by a slight push and the engine allowed to run idle, before the foot of the hill is reached the speed is double that allowed by ordinance, and there would be no danger in that speed. To keep within the legal speed in those cases it is necessary with most cars, to drag the brakes, which makes nearly as great expense as to appear before the court. The court knows and the arresting officers know that in the majority of cases before them that the fine is unjust, but there is no option in those cases.

Reckless driving does not mean exceeding the speed limit. At five miles a driver may be driving recklessly; but for that it is seldom an arrest is made, for the plea would be made that a slow pace was being made. Recklessness may include the driving up to a curb without signalling, or making a quarter turn in either direction without making the appropriate signal—of which there are but four which may be learned in one minute and carried out in one second. Many of the larger cities have no speed limit—except not to block traffic by failure to keep up close to the driver ahead, but the inability to stop in half the length of the car, or even less, is made punishable. The one great demand is the chauffeur must have the car under perfect control, and to do this the brakes must come frequently under inspection.

Contrary to general belief, there are fewer accidents throughout the country at night than during daylight hours. At that time the driver can see by the headlight the approach of a car about to emerge from a side street upon the main thoroughfare, and the driver coming upon the main street will also see the lights of the oncoming car. Another factor of safety for the night driver is the fact that greater care is used by all drivers.

The rules and regulations regarding handling of automobiles in Palatka need revision. Lemon street regulations cannot be improved upon, apparently, since the rulings have been enforced, but there are other streets and other points which are so radically wrong that many innocent people, strangers especially, who have been living in localities where a funeral pace is not insisted upon, that the city and the officials are frequently embarrassed. -Palatka News.

Carr Speaks at Kiwanis Luncheon

The Kiwanis luncheon at the Valley today was one of the best ever held, and was enjoyed by every one of the many members present. President Sharon, as usual, called on Dr. Moore to invoke Divine blessing on the dinner and members. Songster Sam Baupied presided in his customary style as leader of songs, while Dr. McCaslin did his best at the end.

After the preliminaries were over, including the soup, Mr. Lawton made brief talk on one of the Kiwanis magazine articles, and President Baupied then urged all of the members to read for themselves the article in order to find out just what Mr. Lawton had in mind and was attempting to tell the club.

Dr. Carr was then introduced by the president and spoke eloquently for fifteen minutes on the subject of education. He especially stressed the moral and religious phase of education and placed great emphasis on the excellent work being done by the denominational colleges of our country. He showed plainly and unmistakably that these church schools can do and are doing a work that cannot be done by state schools. That, whereas, the state schools may have far better equipment and are in position to establish and maintain many departments, especially in vocational and industrial education, that the church schools are unable to enjoy, yet, by law, these state schools are prohibited from offering the religious training and education essential to the development of the well rounded citizen of a Christian state. Dr. Carr impressed upon this audience the necessity of the three-fold type of education, physical, mental and spiritual, closing with the thought that of these three the last named, the spiritual, is of paramount importance and that this can best be developed in the church, or denominational, colleges.

The fortunate members expecting to attend the Atlanta Kiwanis convention spent most of their time studying schedules and programs, and it is hoped that they will get information and inspiration enough to divide generously with the club on their return. There were no ladies present at the meeting today, and Jonnie Jenkins was demurely "among those present," there being no bouquets either verbal or floral to deliver. Jonnie is never at his best except in the presence of ladies, and even Schellie behaved himself in a most exemplary manner. Jonnie and Schellie are distinctly "ladies' men."

Bill to Abolish Convict Leasing System in State

TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—A conference committee yesterday agreed upon a bill to abolish the convict lease system in this state, and will report to both houses today, following which it is expected that final legislative prohibition against the practice will be enacted. January 1, next, was the date agreed upon by the committee as the time when the law should become effective. This has been the only point in dispute. At that time, it would be unlawful for any new contracts to be made and should there be any existing with further time to run, they would automatically become void.

The committee which was composed of Senators Stokes, Russell and Anderson, Representatives Mayo, Lewis and Milam, drew up an entire new bill which covered all the ground in the bills passed by both houses, as relating to the housing of prisoners, and payment of money when they are discharged from prison. The measure provides that county and state prisoners be worked and housed separately, that is, if one county turns its convicts over to the state road department for work on the roads, the misdemeanor prisoners must be worked in one squad and the felons in another. The bill takes care of the smaller counties with insufficient prisoners to maintain a road force by permitting them to turn them over to another county or to the road department.

The lash bill which would ban corporal punishment of prisoners, state or county, reached the governor's office yesterday but did not get before the executive in time for his action on it.

SOCIALISTS MAY ASK IMPEACHMENT OF JUSTICE TAFT

NEW YORK, May 23.—A demand for the impeachment of William H. Taft, chief justice of the United States, for accepting an alleged annuity of $10,000 from the Carnegie corporation and an attack on the Lenin-Trotsky brand of Russian Communism by Alexander, editor of the Jewish Daily Forward, featured the opening of the National Convention of the Socialist party. Mr. Cahhan declared in an answer that Trotsky was a "big bombastic windbag" but the believed was sincere, and that Lenin's physical breakdown was due in great part to his moral incapacity.

The resolution aimed at Chief Justice Taft was adopted unanimously but none of the delegates expressed views on the subject.

The resolution read as follows: "Whereas, William Howard Taft, chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, has for many years been in receipt of an annuity of $10,000 from the Carnegie corporation, which was undoubtedly granted in recognition of services rendered, and

"Whereas, the acceptance of this annuity coming indirectly from the steel trust, the most powerful and predatory corporation in the United States, is not only unethical, but a menace to the integrity of our courts and detrimental to the best interests of the American people. Therefore, "Be it resolved, by the National Executive Committee of the Socialist party, that we voice our protest against the continuance of William Howard Taft in his office, and demand that Congress take steps to secure his resignation, or impeachment, and

"Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the press, to William Howard Taft, members of congress, our affiliated state and local organizations and to the labor unions of the country."

The committee on resolutions was instructed to obtain co-operation of trades unions and other bodies in making the demand for Mr. Taft's impeachment nation-wide in its scope.

ADVERTISING ESSENTIAL.

The retailer who tries to conduct his business without using space in the daily newspapers is working at a disadvantage and can not hope to build a permanent business organization. Joseph Schmidt, vice president of an advertising agency at Cincinnati, told members of a business class at the University of Cincinnati. "Retailers should advertise now more than ever before, because competition is becoming keener and only the fittest will survive," Mr. Schmidt said. "The advertising departments of the papers can render substantial assistance to merchants."

The visible supply of cotton on May 1 was 1,713,190 bales, compared with 3,211,922 bales at same date in 1922. It is feared that there will be a shortage before the new crop comes in. When cotton was plenty the women's skirts were short; now that the cotton supply is short, the dress-makers have decreed long skirts. The world obeys the fashion dictators.

You don't really expect that you are ever going to have a gasoline fire but if you ever do, DON'T throw water on it. This simply spreads the flames. Use sand, mud, dirt, even sawdust if it is free from chips. You have got to smother a gasoline fire; you can't drown it or beat it out. A blanket or a robe will often do the trick, and can very well be sacrificed for the car.

JURY PANEL SUMMONED BY JONES THROWN OUT

TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—Circuit Judge E. C. Love Monday refused, when the Leon county circuit court convened, to recognize a jury panel summoned by former Sheriff J. R. Jones, after he had been ordered removed from office by the senate. Jones, whose removal was taken on recommendation of the governor on charges growing out of Martin Tabert's death, continued to hold office for several days after the senate's action, staying of the job until his successor was appointed. Face Brick - Fire Brick Fire Brick--Face Brick

We are proud to have furnished the face brick for such an excellent school building.

And we congratulate the citizens of Sanford on the clean and economical methods employed in its erection.

As is generally known Impervious Textured face brick are now universally used for all exteriors, as well as fire places, mantels and panel effects.

The face brick in your school building are shipped into every Southern state and have met with unqualified approval. They come in beautiful ranges of color harmony, from extreme light shades through the mingled shades of buffs and tans and range into a rich brown flashed effect.

The new South Side School, located on Fourteenth between Magnolia and Palmetto, is located on the north an entire block lot.

The school is 222 ft. and long by 69 ft deep over the contains ten rooms, with a large office and a smaller one. It is built on the unit plan having been made for the future of nine rooms and another. When the school is complete nineteen rooms and auditorium will be two paved play courts inside of the building wings.

The building is designed to be the best accepted standard school planning. Wherever it is available at reasonable cost houses are being built but so high. This eliminates all disaster in case of fire and eliminates weary stair climbing. In any chance fire occur in the building the children could escape to the windows to the ground within but six feet below. However, they eliminate the chances for the boiler room has been placed the outside of the building, and is absolutely fire proof, the floor.

The building is heated by steam, which is the most satisfactory way to heat buildings in Florida providing maximum comfort for the pupils and the minimum of cost in operation.

The cost of the entire building complete is about $35,000, and per school room it is the cheapest in cost in Central or Southern Florida for the class of building, and has cost less per room than many other school buildings of inferior workmanship and material.

This building is the result of first the wide awake, progressive citizens of this community who voted for the building and second to the efforts of the local and county boards.

The plans and specifications were prepared by our local architect, Elton J. Moughton, who also supervised the construction of the work. It was built by W. T. Hadlow, of Jacksonville, who is due credit in the manner in which he handled the work and of the fine workmanship. A good share of the credit is also due George Jones, of Jacksonville, who was Mr. Hadlow's superintendent on the job.

NATION-WIDE CARPENTER STRIKE IS THREATENED

CHICAGO, May 23.—Unless Chicago contractors and carpenters accede to demands of workmen and establish a $1.25 hourly rate for carpenters after June 1, a nation-wide strike of the 400,000 union carpenters is likely, all say Jensen, president of the carpenters' district council here declared Monday.

Announcement had been made of advancement to $1.15 from the $1.00 hourly award of the Kennesaw M. Landis was made last night. Carpenters who are free to work or not under the Landis award will demand the $1.25 rate June 1, Jensen said, adding that Chicago sets the scale for the nation.

Eggs to Be Hatched Must Have Vitality

Chicks Need Nourishment in Shell—Old Eggs Do Not Give Enough

By SETH W. SHOEMAKER, Director, The School of Agriculture, International Correspondence Schools, Scranton, Pa.

Vitality is a prime essential in eggs for hatching. Unless the vitality is good the eggs may not produce chicks, or the chicks hatched may be weak and of little value.

It is not generally safe to use eggs of the vitality of eggs more than four weeks old, and yet eggs three months old have been known to produce chicks that have grown to maturity. Usually the eggs should be as fresh as possible when they are set.

If eggs have to be kept for some time before they are set, much of the success of the hatching will depend on the way they are taken care of. Eggs kept for hatching should be moved or turned about each day.

It is usually considered best to keep the small end of the egg pointed down. Cared for in this way, eggs have been very satisfactorily kept for fourteen days and sometimes longer.

When the eggs are turned about each day the yolk retains its natural position near the center of the egg, but if it is left unturned for any length of time the yolk settles to one side as shown in the accompanying illustration, and the chances are that such an egg will not hatch.

Eggs for hatching should be kept cool and at a uniform temperature. Fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit is usually considered the best temperature. Eggs exposed to a higher temperature are liable to start to develop prematurely and may spoil. Eggs that are exposed for any length of time to a temperature of forty degrees Fahrenheit usually have their vitality impaired. Eggs exposed to this temperature for any length of time during cold weather will seldom hatch.

All experienced poultrymen insist upon the greatest possible vitality in the eggs. Even though an egg may be fertile it is not necessary unhatched. To be capable of producing a chick an egg must not only contain the living germ but must have sufficient vitality to enable the chick to grow to maturity.

Unnatural environment is usually the cause of lack of vitality in eggs. The death of chicks in the shell may occur at any stage of incubation, either from natural cause or from unnatural causes. Lack of knowledge of how to control the processes of nature in this matter is responsible for most of the losses.

GOLF COURSE TO BE LAID OUT ON THE APOPKA ROAD

Building of an eighteen-hole golf course on the Apopka road near the plant of the Orlando Potteries is the plan of a $100,000 company now being formed by H. Carl Dann and David Rogers, it was announced yesterday. Part of the course will be inside the new city limits.

The company owns a tract of 200 acres which was recently purchased from Harold Bourne and Jas. L. Giles. The golf course will be surrounded by a sub-division which will be restricted to nice homes, according to the promoters. Woman suffrage will be unknown at the new golf course, plans have it.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Dann reported sale of considerable stock in the company and both declared they anticipate no difficulty in disposing of the remaining part to be sold. It was emphasized that the golf course will not be neglected to favor the subdivision, but that it will be cared for as carefully as the country club course, which ranks among the finest in the south.—Orlando Sentinel.

Benson Springs Inn At Enterprise Was Threatened by Fire

Benson Springs Inn, one of the oldest and most famous tourist hotels in Florida and first known as the Block house, at Enterprise, was threatened with total destruction by fire this morning.

The blaze started in a small building to the rear of the main hotel and was caused by an incubator stove exploding. Some children happened by there and noticed the smoke and the neighborhood was aroused, with the result that the fire was put out before it had much of an opportunity to do any damage. A good many fire extinguishers in the hotel were used to quench the flames.

A call was made for the city fire department here but Chief Campbell refused on the grounds of distance and because of the fact that there was no water there which the city fire apparatus could use.—DeLand News.

...MAGIC NAMES... The influence of advertising is apparent in every turn of my daily life. I find I cannot disregard it. It is always with me, guiding me in my pleasures and in my duties, telling me what I should eat, wear, and use and what I should buy for my family. I find that there is on the tip of my tongue a multitude of names the mention of which will bring from some shelf nearly everything that I can use in my daily life and in the daily life of my family. In every instance that name means a very definite promise and assurance of something substantial and which will make me feel completely satisfied about having exchanged my money for it. Let me say a few things which these names—these old friends of the newspaper and magazine pages—mean to me. They mean good taste. For certainly I desire to do the thing that I believe discriminating people have judged best. They mean convenience. It is not necessary to describe the thing I want. Even the most intimate articles may be purchased without embarrassment since the advertisers have given us handy names. They mean assurance in shopping. There is no indecision. Even before I enter the shop I know what I want to buy. And certainly they mean satisfaction. For the advertiser whose product is not good cannot continue to advertise. The fact that I have seen a name repeated over and over again assures me that it stands for a product of quality. In speaking that name to the clerk I know I am asking for the best. I am a more judicious shopper because I buy advertised goods. I patronize the shop that sells them. KIDNEY TROUBLE BECOMES SERIOUS

"Suffered with severe headache, backache and pains in my legs and under my shoulder blade. My kidneys and bladder were in bad condition. I was weak and nervous and felt tired and worn out. Walking made me short of breath. Every morning my face and hands were bloated. Medicine failed to help my condition and doctors advised an operation." writes Maggie Nelson, Mossdale, Fla. "Fortunately I read about Foley Kidney Pills, tried them and got relief." Sold everywhere.—Ad.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Money! Money! Money! Money! Money!! Money!!! That's the feature tonight at the Princess. And Katherine MacDonald has the leading role. The happy combination of a good story, beautiful star and capable direction makes this Katherine's greatest picture. Also a good comedy.

And tonight two families will be the invited guests, B. F. Whitner and family and G. P. Forster and family will see "Money! Money! Money!" without cost, the treat being on the house.

And tomorrow—Estelle Taylor, Wallace Beery, and Mae Busch in "Only a Shop Girl" with a two part Century comedy full of thrills and laughs.

And Friday and Saturday Mary Miles Minter holds the board in "Drums of Fate." Also International News as an added attraction.

CELERY SEED

First game tomorrow! And the Pepper League starts off in full force. DeMolay and Brotherhood play on the home diamond. In today's Herald a schedule is printed for the first half of the Pepper League. There will be a split season and if different teams win the two halves a championship series will be played off.

In tomorrow's Herald rosters of the four Pepper League teams will be published. All players on the rosters must be under twenty-one years of age to play.

Sanford's semi-pro baseball team is fast developing into one of Florida's fastest. Practice is held every afternoon at the Ninth Street Park.

The Seminole Athletic Club at Monroe will have another wrestling and boxing exhibition Friday night. Every one who went last Friday thoroughly enjoyed it and every one is invited Friday night.

Young London and Colbie Biggers will wrestle for the best two out of three Friday night at Monroe. All local fans are expecting to see Colbie throw London the best two.

The Herald for first class job work.

ORLANDO TAKES 11TH STRAIGHT

TAMPA, May 23.—Ernie Burke sent Fergus to the mound yesterday afternoon to try his fortunes against the Tampa Smokers and of course to give Orlando its eleventh consecutive win. Fergus did practically all that he was supposed to do, for the Burkesmen threw out the last Smoker in the ninth with the score standing, 8 to 1 against the Tampons. The score: Orlando 030 000 230—8 Tampa 000 010 000—1

LAKELAND, May 23.—Lakeland won the second game from Daytona yesterday, 5 to 4, by a rousing ninth inning rally. Kowalski, Ammons, Cal Stewart and Gaffney starred at bat. The score: Daytona 100 200 010—4 Lakeland 100 001 012—5

ST. PETERSBURG, May 23.—A ninth inning rally which netted four runs, gave Bradentown a 6-4 victory over St. Pete here yesterday. Arnold pinch hitting for Withem drove in the winning tally with a triple off Olinger. The score: Bradentown 010 001 004—6 St. Pete 030 010 000—4

BABE RUTH FINISHES A 15-INNING GAME

CHICAGO, May 23.—Babe Ruth broke up a great southpaw pitching duel yesterday between Herb Pennock and Mil Cventgros, with a home run smash over the right field wall in the 15th inning, giving New York a 3 to 1 victory over Chicago. Dugan was on base. It was Ruth's eighth circuit drive of the season an enabled the Yankees to close their first invasion of the west with the best record they ever made. They won 13 games and lost one. Yesterday's victory was the ninth consecutive for the league champions and the 13th consecutive game in which Pipp has hit safely. The score: N.
