America's Millions Celebrating Thanksgiving With Grateful Hearts

Formal Opening Of Mayfair Inn Set For Dec. 8

Ushering in the winter and Christmas social season will be the New York Giants' annual formal opening of the Mayfair Inn, Saturday night, Dec. 8 beginning at 7 p.m.

The announcement, made today by the Mayfair Inn's General Manager Frank Mebane Jr. will start the reservation list for the gala occasion that will take place in just a few days more than two weeks.

Reservations, said General Manager Mebane, may be made by phoning the hotel.

According to the program for opening night at the plush New York Giants' Mayfair Inn, Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m., dinner will begin at 8 o'clock, and dancing will get underway at 9:30.

Larry Fuller and His Orchestra will play for dancing on opening night and will then appear throughout the season at the Mayfair Inn. The popular three-piece orchestra comes to Sanford and the Mayfair Inn from New York City.

Dinner, this year, will be served in the newly decorated dining room which is again in charge of Mrs. Ida Mae King and her husband Herbert King. Mr. and Mrs. King will be remembered locally for their unusual personality and popularity among guests visiting the Mayfair Inn.

The huge dining room has been completely done over, Manager Mebane said today, and especially attractive are the brilliant new chrysalis chandeliers which adds a touch of elegance and formality.

It has been earlier reported that the coming season at Mayfair Inn will be the biggest in the history of the popular vacation spot here in Sanford.

Reservations have been received for weeks from hundreds of the former guests of the hotel and new guests who are looking forward to spending their winter vacation in Central Florida.

Following close on the heels of the gala annual opening night at the Mayfair Inn will be the Second Annual Mayfair Inn $15,000 PGA Open. The mid-December golfing event which drew thousands to Sanford last year will bring even larger crowds for Florida's biggest and most popular tournament.

Mebane said today that reservations may be made for opening night tables by calling the Mayfair Inn.

A MESSAGE FROM SANTA CLAUS was delivered at the local Western Union office to Garfield Willetts, chairman of the Santa Claus Committee for the Jaycees. Santa Claus said "I'll be in Sanford next Wednesday." (Staff Photo)

USO Building Is Being Redecorated

The Sanford USO Club is closed until Dec. 1 while the interior of the building gets a complete renovation.

City crews are busy sanding floors, repainting the interior, repairing furniture, and fixing up in general.

When reopened Dec. 1, said Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider late yesterday, the Navy men will have a completely new and redecorated USO to enjoy.

The building, after Dec. 1, said Krider, will be for the exclusive use of the USO and their activities.

Social Security representatives, and representatives of other governmental agencies who have been using the USO facilities will now interview their clients and groups in the recreational building located in Fort Mellon Park.

"Our Navy men must be happy and have a place for their USO activities," said Krider.

Santa Claus To Be Here For Parade

Members of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce are happy today. They've heard from Santa Claus!

For awhile, the Committee elected to meet Santa Claus, and appointed to see that the boys and girls of Sanford and Seminole County all had an opportunity to see Santa were pretty glum.

Garfield Willetts, chairman of the committee, today had a telegram from Santa Claus at his headquarters at the North Pole, which states that the Jolly Old Gentleman will arrive in Sanford in time for the gigantic Jaycee-Merchants Association Parade next Tuesday.

The telegram read as follows: Boys and Girls of Sanford: I will be in Sanford for the Christmas Parade, Nov. 28, 1956. Be good boys and girls for Mom and Dad. See you then. Love, Santa.

Willetts was elated over his telegram at the Western Union office late yesterday afternoon. He says, our plans to meet Santa and have him in the Parade on time will now be completed. "We are now sure that Santa Claus will be here to greet all of the boys and girls," said Garfield Willetts.

Tommy McDonald, Chairman of the Jaycee Christmas Parade Committee said this morning that the huge mile-and-a-half parade will get underway next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp.

"Details and complete plans for the parade are now beginning to be complete," said McDonald, "and we will soon be able to announce the parade routes, the names of all sponsors of floats, the parade marshalls, and all of the other gala entertainment in store for boys and girls of Sanford and Seminole County," said McDonald.

McDonald remarked that "We are expecting the largest crowd ever to attend a Christmas Parade here and every effort is being made to see that preparations are completed to give Santa Claus a whopping big time during his brief stay here."

Great big, colorful balloons will be on hand to sell during the parade, Mason Wharton chairman of the Balloon Committee and the Christmas Shopping Tour Committee, said. "Proceeds from the sale of the balloons will provide a gala shopping tour in Sanford for deserving boys and girls from a nearby orphanage. Children, and parents as well, are looking forward to seeing the ten colorful bands march and play in next Wednesday's parade. Prominent among the visiting bands will be the Stetson University Marching Band accompanied by a corps of majorettes and drum majors who will thrill their Christmas Parade audience. In addition, the Florida Military Academy marching unit and band will be on hand in Sanford for the first time. The Winter Park High School band will be here "with bells on" according to a "message from its director recently. The Boone High School Band in their colorful and unique regalia will also be here to take part.

Also prominent in hand positions will be the Seminole High School band, Crooms Academy Band, Oviedo-Lyman High School Band, Junior High-Pinecrest School Band.

Other out-of-town bands who will take part in next Wednesday's parade are those from Leesburg High School and DeLand High School.

Holiday Observed Nationwide

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
America's millions — with many, many things to be grateful for — celebrate Thanksgiving today with traditional church-going, feasting, family gatherings, football games and parades.

Many had one eye on the turkey and the other on events in Europe and the Middle East.

Prayers of thanks for past blessings mingle with prayers that there shall be no more war and that the downtrodden peoples of the world shall win their freedom.

Special church services — many of the nation is fair and cold.

For President and Mrs. Eisenhower there is attendance at the National Presbyterian church in Washington, to be followed by a turkey dinner at the home of their son, Maj. John Eisenhower, and his family at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Family reunions and gatherings of old friends around the festive board were abundant.

Railroads and airlines reported heavy travel.

Today was the first Thanksgiving Day for the initial group of Hungarian refugees from the current Communist terror. Sixty of them landed yesterday at an Air Force base in New Jersey and more are due tonight.

Holiday menus were prepared in hospitals, jails and other public institutions.

Servicemen and women at home and abroad also feasted, with turkey tops on the menu.

For many of the unfortunate, from New York's Bowery to skid rows far away, there is free turkey and trimmings at shelters. In Washington, diplomats from American republics are to be among worshippers at the 47th annual Pan-American Mass at St. Patrick's church.

Fifty residents of Plymouth, Mass., where the first Thanksgiving Day was observed, wear Pilgrim dress in with behind a drummer up Coles Hill to attend services at First church.

Department store parades are being held in New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Detroit and elsewhere.

Hungary Allocation Increased; Funds Urgently Needed

Local Red Cross officials of the Seminole County Chapter have received word from Ellsworth Bunker, president of the American Red Cross, that "The American National Red Cross has increased its allocations to Hungary to well over a quarter of a million dollars."

Bunker, in a message to the local chapter, reiterated "urgent need for funds" and said Red Cross chapters across the country would accept contributions to be allocated solely for Hungarian assistance.

It is estimated six months will be required to relocate Hungarian refugees now in Austria. Meanwhile, according to Bunker's message to the Seminole County Chapter, the International Red Cross will help care for these refugees by providing funds and supplies contributed by National Red Cross societies throughout the world.

There were 25,000 Hungarian refugees in Austria as of Nov. 16, said Bunker.

In the message it was said that United Nations relief to resettle Hungary will be distributed through International Red Cross, following an agreement with Philippe Deseynes, U. N. Under Secretary General.

First Aquatic Art Symposium Stated In Winter Park

A symposium to acquaint Central Florida with the activities of the International Academy of Aquatic Art will be held at the Langford Hotel in Winter Park on Dec. 21-23.

The first Annual Aquatic Art Symposium will be conducted by Beulah Gundling, Pan-American champion, 5 times U.S.—A.A.U. Champion, 1935-36 winner of the coveted solo 1st class honors at the International Festival of Aquatic Art, and her husband and coach, Henry I. Gundling, president of the International Academy of Aquatic Art and a member of the U.S. Olympic Games committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Gundling will be assisted by Miss Lynda Bridgers of Altamonte Springs and Seminole County who won international recognition last summer when she received third class honors in the Academy Festival held at McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

Lynda Bridgers was responsible for the appearance in Central Florida at the Symposium. The Gundlings coached Lynda to stardom.

Lynda, 15-year-old is a junior in the top five of her class at Winter Park High School, is an honorary member of the fabulous Icar-Nixon Troupe of Munich, Germany, and the Peterboro Oratorical Swimming Club, Peterborough, Ontario, Canada.

Sam Snyder, producer of the world famous Water Follies has already offered Miss Lynda Bridgers star billing at top prices anytime she wishes to turn professional but her formal education comes first.

Those attending the symposium will have an opportunity to see Lynda perform, demonstrating figures and variations not yet standardized or listed in the A.A.U. Swimming Hand books.

Those wishing to register for the Symposium and participate may do so by contacting Mrs. A. L. Bridges, chairman, Aquatic Art Symposium, Langford Hotel, Winter Park.

The proposed schedule on Dec. 21 is the first session to begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.; on Dec. 22 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon — 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. — and 8 to 10 p.m.; on Sunday Dec. 23 the Symposium ends with a session from 2 to 5 p.m.

However, a water ballet, "Christmas Around The World" will be staged Sunday night, Dec. 23 at 8 p.m. by Langford Marine Club. It will be directed by Miss Diane Nita, a former star of Sam Snyder's Water Follies.

Interstate Highway Survey Is Underway

A progress report on the Florida Interstate System, which includes plans for the Lake Monroe Causeway originally proposed to cross the lake at the foot of French Ave. and join 17-92 in Volusia County by way of a new route, was made late yesterday to Gov. LeRoy Collins by Road Board Chairman Wilbur E. Jones.

Road Chairman Jones said yesterday, in Tallahassee air and field surveys of 1,164 miles of the Florida Interstate Highway system are underway preparatory to submitting detailed route descriptions to federal highway authorities.

No mention was made in the report regarding the Lake Monroe Causeway which Fifth District Road Board Member William Dial said would be the first section of the proposed system to get underway.

However, Jones did say that the road department is holding off work on a detailed route description of the section between Lakeland and Daytona Beach by way of Orlando pending conferences with representatives of the Glenn L. Martin Co., which is planning to erect a large manufacturing plant south of Orlando.

In the first of regular monthly progress reports to Gov. Collins on the interstate system, Jones said detailed topographic and traffic studies are being made to meet the requirement that route descriptions be presented to the Bureau of Public Roads by Jan. 1.

He said the road department also is setting up procedures for making detailed cost estimates of the proposed Florida system. The estimates must be in the hands of the bureau by July 1.

Under the federal interstate highway law, the federal government will bear 90 per cent of the cost of building multiple lane, limited access highways connecting population centers over a 15 year period.

Florida has been allocated 19 million dollars in federal funds for the current fiscal year and 23 million dollars for the second year of the program. The state must commit the funds within a two-year period.

Jones advised the governor serial photographs of the area between Jacksonville and Pensacola already have been taken. Other sections will be photographed within the next few days.

Florida's interstate system, when completed, will link Jacksonville, Lake City, Tallahassee, Pensacola, Orlando, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Daytona Beach and Miami by free limited access highways.

Jones said there has been no action by federal authorities on Florida's application for inclusion of a Tampa-Miami highway, a Miami-Homestead link and a road from the Alabama line to Cantonada in the interstate system.

The only interstate highway project actually under way is a five-mile section at the Lakeland and the Lakeland-Tampa link. Another five-mile stretch between Plant City and the Polk County line will be put to contract as soon as rights of way acquisitions are completed.

A study of Tampa's metropolitan street system, including an expressway and interstate route through the city, will be completed shortly after the first of the year, Jones said.

Field surveys have been completed under U.S. 901 in Hillsborough County and Lakeland and contract plans are nearing completion on a third Tampa Bay bridge which will be required to carry an interstate highway into St. Petersburg.

We Have Much To Be Thankful For In This Land Of Freedom

This is Thanksgiving 1956!
A far cry from the first Thanksgiving that took place when the small band of Pilgrims knelt in fervent prayer out of gratitude for their remarkable deliverance when famine seemed to stare them in the face.
Nine years after that first Thanksgiving celebration (it was in 1630), the Pilgrims celebrated the event following each harvest.
Two hundred years later New York State established an annual Thanksgiving Day—with President Abraham Lincoln setting aside the day for worship in 1864. President Lincoln issued a proclamation calling upon the nation to thank God and made the fourth Thursday in November the date for Thanksgiving.
Perils were great when the little band of Pilgrims faced Indians armed with bows and arrows—larders were empty and no supply of food was available—winters were severe and no housing to ward off the cold—yet these brave souls, seeking freedom from oppression, knelt in prayer for bounteous gifts.

Today the perils are greater! Enemies are armed, not with bows and arrows, but with atomic power missiles so devastating that millions could be wiped out in one gigantic blow—the air is filled with cargo and passengers facing unknown and uncounted dangers of the elements—highways are massed with machines darting at uncontrolled speeds toward one another unmindful of what might be ahead—nations poised for war—races pitted one against the other taking away the guiding hand of Providence in a race for no one knows what.

And it is Thanksgiving!
"The eyes of all wait upon thee; and Thou givest them their meat in due season," said David in the Book of Psalms (145:15)
"Sing unto the Lord with Thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto Our God," he said. (147:7)

We have much to be thankful for:
In a land where hunger is seldom heard; where shelter is available for the mere asking. Harvests every day of the year as the seasons rotate and carrier systems whisk daily fresh foods into every market of the country. Clothing for warmth and comfort, and style; our military forces who guard every second the nations shore lines—by air, and sea and land.

We're thankful for the generosity of our neighbors, and there are millions who watch, one over the other, for fear that some marauding force might harm them.

Our Thanksgiving is resplendent with the happiness of our homes; the cheerful, gay, and tinkling voices of children, though deprived of their wide-lands for play, pleasure and recreation, are happy in their pursuit of gaiety amongst those of their age.
Thanksgiving, though, is not all devoted to the prayers of a grateful people for the multitude of gifts that have been heaped around us, for there are few today on bended knee to offer their supplication in unison with others—to sing praises to Him who bestowed upon us the plentiful and unending supplies of food, shelter, care, love, friends, neighbors, and all the other attributes to make life a joyous one.

Today there is cause for Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving for the freedoms we enjoy and with which our nation has been bestowed.

Thanksgiving for our leaders who unselfishly serve their citizens without fear of reprisal from those above them in power and office.

Thanksgiving for our government in cities, counties, states and nation which provides for us the protection from those who would inflict shame, injury, damage or mental burdens upon their neighbors and acquaintances.

Today we have much to be thankful for! Too much to pass up the opportunity to stop, even for a moment, to lift our hearts and words heavenward—voice our thanks for the place we have made for ourselves in this wondrous land of plenty.

Wide-Awake Drivers

A newspaper letter writer complains that automobile designers seem to lack new ideas, persisting year after year in making cars longer and lower. He suggests they might be made shorter and higher and thus provide both more parking space and more highway room.

Also, he believes it would contribute to easier maneuverability. At least the man has an idea, and it may even get a hearing if the situation gets much worse.

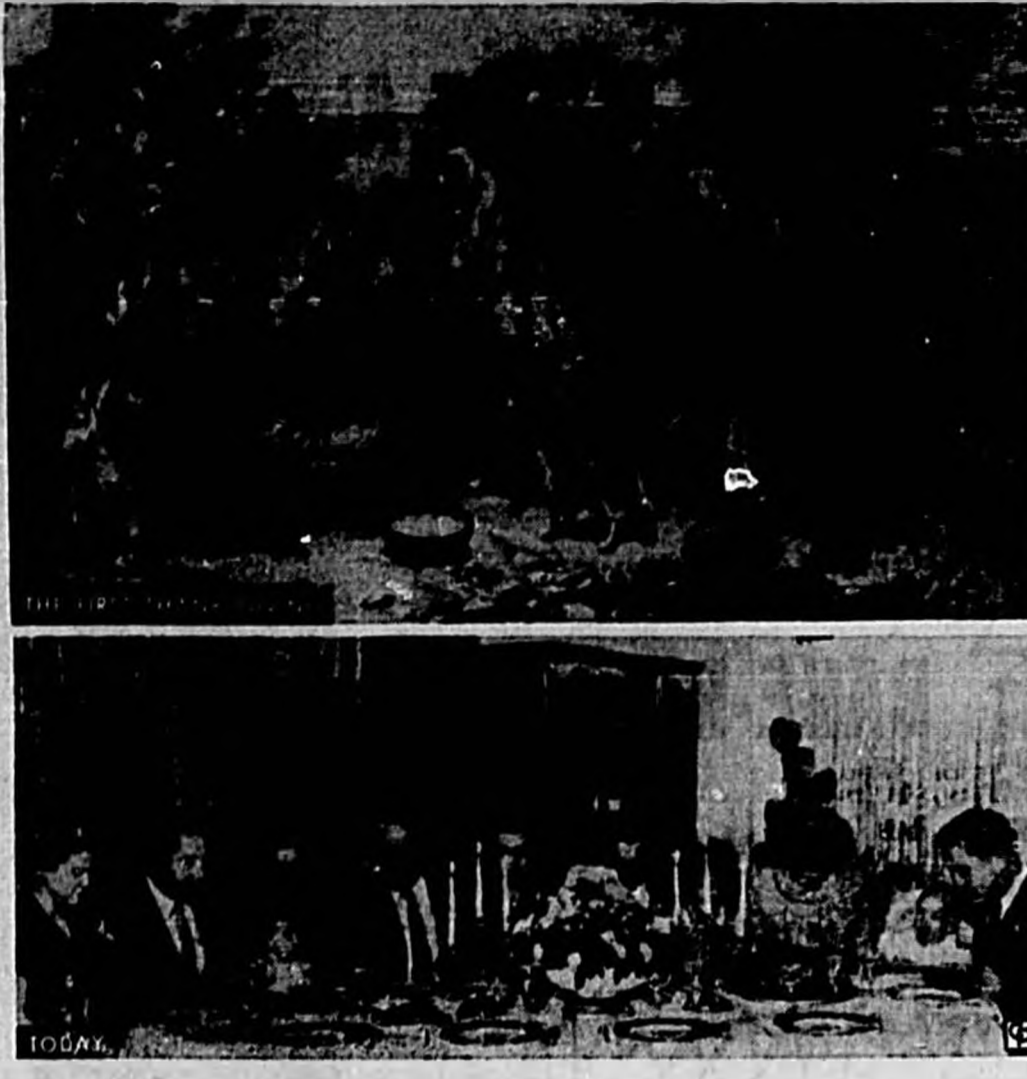

In the meantime, the important thing is to help drivers see where they're going and to have the speedometer clearly in view. Dream cars are being turned out these days, but none will ever eliminate the need for wide-awake drivers.

That's not a new idea. But it's a good one.

The 1956 Christmas Parade sponsored jointly by the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford Merchants Association will be over a mile and a half long. Fair warning! Don't miss the first visit to Sanford by Santa Claus—the one opportunity to see him in person—and maybe an opportunity to whisper those Christmastime secrets in his ear!

The biggest event in Sanford's social season takes place Saturday night December 8th when the Mayfair Inn celebrates its Annual Opening!

1621-1956—WE STILL GIVE THANKS

T. Morfit Doesn't Know What He Is

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas Garrison Morfit, who has 23 bowties and runs a 12½-million-dollar-a-year business, has a problem.
He knows what he does for a living—but he can't figure out what he is.

Behind a door marked "shop foreman", near a desk guarded by a stuffed imitation bulldog, Thomas Garrison Morfit sat and mused aloud over his predicament while a yellow parakeet—the gift of an admirer—flew about the office looking for a quiet place to park and take the load off his feathers.

"I sing a little, but I'm not a singer," said Thomas Garrison Morfit. "I dance a little, but nobody would call me a dancer. I also crack a few jokes, but I'm not really a comedian. I really don't know what I am."

But everyone in show business today knows what Thomas Garrison Morfit—known as "Garry Moore's" during business hours—has become. He's the housewives' delight, and a real kingpin in the wonderful world of television.

Garry and his six pals—Dorothy Kirby, Denise Lor and Ken Carson—brighten the lives of many homemakers with their antics on "The Garry Moore Show", a daytime program now in its seventh year.

"All of a sudden we find we are the oldest consecutively entertained show on TV—and that rather frightens us," said Garry. "We hesitate to whoop and holler about the fact we're the oldest. We don't want to call attention to our age."

But Moore is one of those lucky mortals time seems to pass by. Although he is 41, and has been in radio and TV for 21 years, his grassroots humor and wheat-crop haircut give him the air of an eternal college boy.

What explains the amazing success of this ex-actor announcer who became a performer by accident and doubts himself he has any particular talent?

A Broadway flesh peddler would say, "It's because every girl who sees him wants to mother him—whether she's 9 or 90."
But a better reason, perhaps, is that in an industry which sometimes tends to regard people as faceless symbols, Moore always remembers they are people. His humor is sometimes robust, but never cruel. He never reaches for a laugh at the expense of destroying anyone's essential human dignity.

Although Garry hits a bigger single audience as weekly master of ceremonies on "I've Got a Secret", his daily morning CBS network show takes most of his time. The program is a 12-million dollar a year operation now, and Garry has to supervise a staff of 85 people, including six writers.

"The trouble with an operation of this kind," he said, "is that as it grows you have to spend more and more time on administrative details, leaving you less time for the creative end."

Garry is sometimes called "the only guy in television without an enemy," but his easy going nature riles a bit when he is sometimes asked, "How do you like working before an audience of women?"

"Their tone implies they don't feel housewives have much intelligence," Garry said. "Yet women make up more than half the audience that watches the top intellectual or cultural evening programs."

"Do they suddenly get smarter after 6 o'clock? I don't think so. They're smart all day."

"Women are interested in as long as you don't get pedantic in your approach."

Garry appears so completely at ease on his show that it is hard to believe he still sometimes has to fight down actor's buck fever.

"Garry's like a duck swimming—he looks calm on the surface, but underneath he's mighty busy."

Fokes Will Return To Office Dec. 1

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. Collins has announced that W. Robert Fokes would return to his office as an administrative assistant Dec. 1.

At the same time, the governor announced that J. Edwin Gay would leave his administrative assistant post Jan. 1 to return to the private practice of law in Jacksonville.

Fokes, formerly a Miami attorney, left the governor's office last March to direct Collins' primary and general election campaigns. He also had directed Collins' 1954 campaign and went to office with Collins in January 1955.

Collins said that Gay, who joined his staff in October 1955, had remained on the staff longer than he had anticipated and at a personal sacrifice.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S COLUMN CECIL A. TUCKER, II
Are you considering planting a hedge?
An ornamental hedge can find a place in almost any landscape plan, whether city or country, and "During the cooler months is the best time to plant a hedge."
There are many varieties of plants for ornamental hedges that are suited to Florida conditions. The range of varieties includes evergreens, shrubs, vines, and still others with foliage of many hues. Some of the dwarf varieties can be trimmed to a foot or less, while others can be trimmed to almost any height you wish.
Before planting, give careful consideration to the location of the hedge and to the type of hedge to be grown, as well as to the variety of plant to be used. If you have a small lot, a low hedge can be used effectively; while on larger grounds, only or more hedges in combination with other plantings can be used to advantage.
In selecting plants for your hedge, consider the hardiness of the plant, the type of soil, and location and size of the hedge you want to grow.
It's a good idea to prepare your soil before you get your plants. One good way to prepare the soil for a hedge is to cultivate thoroughly a strip four or five feet wide and mix in a heavy application of well-rotted manure. Another method, and perhaps the better, is to dig a trench 18 to 24 inches deep and fill it with a mixture of top soil and manure. Don't use fresh manure, because it may heat. Organic matter may be mixed into the soil if you have a supply on hand.
Set the plants in a straight line, at the same depth they were in the nursery row, being careful to spread the roots. Pack the soil well about the roots and water thoroughly. In spacing, a good rule is six inches apart for a low, compact hedge. Average spacing for most hedges is about 12 inches. The higher you expect your hedge to be, the farther apart you should space the plants.
After planting you should complete the job with a mulch of leaf mold, peat, straw or rotted manure. To be sure you don't lose plants, and to stimulate early growth, water regularly. Fertilize and cultivate the hedge plants regularly. The amount and type of pruning will need to give the hedge you want, its rate of growth, and the way you plan to use it.
The Florida Agricultural Experiment Station at Gainesville conducted a series of experiments with hedge plants beginning about 35 years ago. As a result, and based on the research the Florida Agricultural Extension Service published a bulletin on Ornamental Hedges for Florida. This publication contains detailed instructions on planting, choosing varieties, climatic conditions, pruning and care of hedges. You can get a copy of this bulletin, No. 162, free at the County Agent's office.

Letters To The Editor

Sanford Herald
Sanford, Florida
Dear Sir:
I simply have to write you. Just came to Sanford to start my employment. Got to the motel to get my paper. Before you do anything else, please get today's paper and you will know that my complaint and concern are just. Look at your front page, please. C of C Membership Drive: out of county school problems, P. T. A. meetings, club meetings, church meetings. Don't misunderstand me. My Missus and I plan to be active ourselves when we get settled in church and P. T. A. and Masons. And the news is fine.
Dear Sir: We live in a big world today, far bigger than Sanford, Florida. Where are the world news in your paper? Not a single word about Hungary and the Middle East; not a word about the U. S. or even my new state. We came from Gary, Indiana today.
I am not a crank or a fusspot. I just want news, all of the news, every day. I read a lot and want to know what's going on. I have 3 children, two will go to school; they have the right to know news. We want a good newspaper. Excuse please that I wrote you. Also that I write with pencil; the motel is out of ink. I asked them. Best regards.
Sincerely
Mr. and Mrs. John M. Garrett and family.

Eds Note: We are certainly happy to have heard from you. To be sure, all of the news was not on the front page—but all of the news about Sanford and Seminole County was there. The Sanford Herald is proud of its coverage of local and county news and we hope you will enjoy reading about your new home.

Corporations Put On Profit Weight

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Some of the biggest boys are putting on more profit weight this year. And even when their corporate earnings are running behind a year ago, they aren't exactly wasting away.
Fifteen American nonfinancial corporations each have made more than 100 million dollars after taxes so far this year. That is one more than earned that much in the first nine months of 1955, five more than did in the same period of 1954. In 1953 only two of them made that much—the Bell Telephone System and General Motors.
Four of this year's 15 stayed above the 100 million mark although reporting earnings dropped below last year's.
When all of 1956's earnings after taxes are tallied, two more corporations may join the 15. Their nine months profits weren't too far below the mark.
The summer steel strike and the auto sales drop changed the standings of some of the top 15 money makers, and pushed another one out of the list.
Bethlehem Steel, which at this time last year had earned more than 100 million dollars, was just under that figure when the summer quarter ended.

Ford, which at this time last year ranked fourth among the giants of profit, is down to 11th place now after a 33 per cent tumble.
General Motors, despite a 30 per cent drop in earnings so far this year, still holds top rank, however, edging out New Jersey Standard Oil. The Detroit giant made 639½ million dollars, while the big oil company reports its nine months net at 603 million to retain second place. It was a 35 per cent rise for Jersey.
Bell holds onto third position with a gain of 14 per cent, reporting 550½ million dollars net income.
Du Pont has moved into Ford's old place at fourth, although the chemical firm's profits this year are 4 per cent lower than last year, when it was fifth.
U. S. Steel moved up from sixth to fifth, although earnings were off 9 per cent, while the Texas Co. moved from seventh to sixth with a 9 per cent increase in profits from its oil activities. Gulf Oil rose even faster, from eleventh to seventh place, on a 42 per cent jump.
Du Pont, big steel, Texas and Gulf were all in the 200 million to 300 million bracket.
Eighth, ninth and tenth positions didn't change, being held by California Standard Oil, Socony Mobil and General Electric, respectively—each better than 150 million dollars.
Kennebec Copper jumped from 16th to 12th this year—from 82 million dollars profit in the first nine months of 1955 to 116 million this time, a gain of 42 per cent.
Indiana Standard Oil retained 13th place despite gaining 12 per cent in earnings this year. Union Carbide & Carbon kept 14th place with a slight profit gain. Shell Oil is the fifteenth, a 17 per cent increase bringing it from 86 million to just above the 100 million mark.

Program On 'ABC's Of Good Gardening Given At Meeting

Mrs. David Gatchel acted as hostess to a recent meeting of the Camellia Garden Circle, with Mrs. Robert Orwig serving as co-hostess.

A package of seeds and instructions on how to plant them was also given to each member. When the plants are ready to be transplanted, they will be exchanged between members.

Mrs. Wade Reports On Mission At Meet Of Fidelis Class

The home of Mrs. H. W. Little, on French Ave., was the scene for the meeting of the Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church on Tuesday evening with Group No. Two, Mrs. W. R. Willis, chairman, as hostesses.

Mrs. R. A. Williams opened the meeting with a prayer and the devotionals were presented by Mrs. Ruby Groves who used as her theme, "Thanksgiving."

Mrs. M. D. Bumgarner presided over the business session at which time the class voted to give $100 to the Baptist Children's Home in Arcadia. Plans were made to give a similar amount to the annual Lottie Moon Christmas offering at the December meeting.

Mrs. Bumgarner invited the class to meet with her for the Christmas party which will be held on the evening of Dec. 18. Gifts will be exchanged among the members at that time.

Members were asked to bring gifts for a member, who is confined to the hospital, to the class on Sunday to be wrapped and forwarded to her.

An interesting enlightening account of the work that is being done at the Elder Springs Mission was given by Mrs. O. P. Wade, who is one of the teachers at the mission. She invited members to attend a revival which begins on Sunday, lasting a week.

Following the business session, refreshments of pumpkin pie, salted nuts and coffee were served by the hostess group.

Those present were Mrs. F. E. Gatchel, Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Bumgarner, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Little, Mrs. J. P. Whitaker, Mrs. R. A. Williams, Mrs. W. A. Kratzert, Mrs. Virgie Pratt, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. H. E. Turner, Mrs. N. L. Bishop, Mrs. S. P. Griffin, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. V. C. Messinger, Mrs. C. S. Sheppard, Mrs. Genevieve VanBuskirk and Miss Lorene Franklin.

Full Military Ceremony Unites Miss Singletary, Gerald Ryman

In a very impressive and beautiful military ceremony, Miss Alma Marianne Singletary, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Anderson, of this city, yesterday became the bride of Lt. J. G. Gerald Miller Ryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Ryman, Waynesboro, Va. The nuptials took place at 5 p. m. at the All Souls Catholic Church, with the Rev. Richard J. Lyons officiating.

Miss Madeline Mallem, acting as both soloist and organist, gave a beautiful rendition of "O Perfect Love" and also softly played appropriate bridal selections throughout the ceremony, which was performed against a background of mums, pompons and gladioli, in large baskets, and palms. On the altar were two lovely vases of Fuji mums and gladioli, highlighted by burning candles in candelabra, on either side.

The pews were marked with white wedding rings tied with white satin bows and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle Sandy Anderson, was radiantly beautiful in a traditional wedding gown of chantilly lace and bridal satin. The lace bodice featured a scalloped neckline and down the back a row of self-covered buttons extending to the pointed waistline. Self-covered buttons were used also at the wrist of the full length sleeves. Points of lace overlapped onto the full and graceful skirt of satin, which flowed into a full chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a half hat of shirred tulle, studded with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with four exquisite white orchids, with lilies-of-the-valley caught into love knots at the ends.

Ellen Betts, flower girl, wore a replica of the bride's gown, fashioned of white net over taffeta. The fitted bodice was sleeveless and featured a round neckline. She wore a sash of white taffeta and, her hairpiece was a tiny ruffle of net. Her ensemble was completed by a pearl necklace and white taffeta mitts. She carried a basket filled with pink and blue flowers.

Ringbearer was Wade Singletary, nephew of the bride.

In the traditional military manner, the newly married couple exited from the church through a tunnel of crossed swords.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the Woman's Club on Oak Ave., with Mrs. Joe Corley, Mrs. Harold Appleby, Mrs. Grady Herman, Mrs. W. G. Fleming, Miss Barbara Chapman, Miss Betty Billhimer, Miss Marguerite Douvan, and Mrs. Charles Armstrong, assisting. The Woman's Club was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, pom poms and fern. The couple cut the four-tiered cake. The bride's table was centered with a lovely arrangement of three white candles interspersed with pom poms and pink roses. After a wedding trip to the southern part of Florida, the couple will return to make their home in Lake Mary.

The bride is a native of Sanford and graduated in speech, English and music from the University of South Dakota.

The groom is a graduate of Tri-State College in Agri. Ind. and with VAH-5 at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

50 People Attend Annual Barbecue Of Bible Class

About 50 members and guests enjoyed the delicious meal served at the annual barbecue, at McKinley Hall, of the Ware Bible Class, which was held Tuesday night at 7 p. m. The meal was planned by a committee composed of Judge R. W. Ware, Robert Cole, Mrs. J. N. Aszarello, Mrs. W. W. Tyre, Mrs. Phil Wyatt and Mrs. John Carver. The barbecued pork was donated and prepared by Mr. Cole, who firmly established his reputation as a cook of the highest caliber.

Mrs. Gretchen Crowell, who took care of the table decorations, used Thanksgiving as her theme, using her artistic talent to the fullest extent. The result was magnificent.

At this gathering plans were made for various Christmas projects. It was decided that the class would send $20 to Hungary, through the Methodist Committee on Relief. Also that they would join other adult classes of the county in purchasing a television set for the Tuberculosis Hospital; send a donation to the superintendent of the Methodist Children's Home at Entarprise, to be used for Christmas; help some needy family enjoy Christmas; and send Christmas greetings to Methodist shut-ins.

Thankfulness
(An original poem by Gretchen Lewis Crowell)

The sands of time goes on
Like golden waterfalls through the years,
Softly falling with music of its own
Mingling notes of laughter and silent tears.
God cannot let all this be without a reason,
It is a time when prayers are whispered in our hearts,
While the harvest is gathered for the season,
And bright colored leaves fall in dramatic, graceful darts.
We take time to be thankful,
Golden words of kindness and love,
A hand reached out to grasp tangled throes,
To clear a path for the lost,
To show them the light from above,
So they can firmly hold, to keep on the road that goes
To the crossroads of the sands of time.
Along the wayside pebbles of gold shining bright
Uplifts a soul at the sound of a silvery and melodious chime
While God spreads an illuminated and guiding light
We take time to be thankful.

Garden Gate

If scales become a problem on plants during cold weather, do not spray with oil. The best material to use is malthion 50 per cent emulsion at the rate of three teaspoonsful per gallon of water. Transplanting may be done now as most trees and shrubs are dormant. In preparing new holes, dig them larger than the diameter of the plant roots. Add about a cup of fertilizer to top soil, add peat or leafmold; use good top soil for filling in, settle soil with water, leaving a saucer depression around plant; mulch with leaves or other material. Water transplanted materials regularly.

Young citrus trees should be banded with soil to well above the bud union. This procedure should be followed for two or three years until the tree is better able to withstand freezing temperatures.

It is a good time to start cutting of the Durants, Thryallis, and night or day blooming昙花, using tip cuttings only.

Among seeds that can be planted are: alyssum, baby's breath, blanket flower, blue-eyed African daisy, carnation, larkspur and verbena.

Last year I read of "Peggy" who sent lovely gifts of poinsettias to her Northern friends. The blossoms had been cut with a sharp knife, slant-wise, early in the morning and immediately immersed in water. After they had been well soaked, she placed the flowers in a wax-paper lined box in nests of Spanish moss, so that the flowers would not be bruised by contact with other packages. What a lovely way "to say it with flowers!"

Conning The News

Today is Thanksgiving. All over the United States people are giving thanks for the riches with which they have been endowed. Here in Sanford we of the Navy are particularly grateful. One reason is because we are associated with the finest branch of service in the world. Another is because we are living in one of the nicest communities in the world. As a Navy wife I think I can speak for the women who follow their husbands wherever they may be sent. It may appear to many that the life of a Navy wife is a glamorous one. From reading this column alone one could easily conclude that all we do is have parties and play bridge. But those who know us have seen that such is not always the case. There are months of loneliness and worry while the men are gone. There is much responsibility with no one to help with a decision that must be made. There are children who become ill and must be cared for without the comfort of a husband's strength. There are the moves, which come far too often, bringing back breaking work, a wrench from a well known community and the anxiety about settling in a new one. I think perhaps it is easy to see why we would want to enjoy those moments of pleasure which we can. However, Sanford has incorporated the Navy wife in a way few cities do. On every P-TA program their names appear, the churches count them among their best workers, they support wholeheartedly every civic project, even though they may be stationed here a short time. But theirs should not be all the credit, for the citizens of Sanford have made us feel that this is home, and therefore, our Thanksgiving: What dearer place is there to spend this family holiday than at home? We are thankful that we found a town that allows us to participate in civic activities, and welcomes our assistance in school and church, and considers us an asset instead of a liability. And when our husbands do have to leave us, they go knowing that we will be in good hands, for instead of having only Navy friends who may get orders in the interim, we have our Sanford citizens who will always be here to help if needed.

Therefore, we thank God that we have freedom and health, and while few of us have wealth, we are rich in many other things far more valuable. On this day when we stop to count our blessings, high on the list will the happiness which we have found in our wonderful town. For many of us, Sanford has become HOME.

R. Anthony Is Diversifying

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ray Anthony has taken a tip from big business, he's diversifying.

Diversification is a two-bit word for a practice many big companies have employed in recent years. Instead of putting all their eggs in one basket, the firms get into a variety of enterprises. For instance, we find the O'Neills of General Time buying up radio networks, TV stations and even RKO studios.

Handsome, able Anthony—he's a ringer for Gary Grant—decided two years ago he needed to do more than merely front a band.

"The band business has changed a great deal in recent years," he reasoned, "in the old days you could make a lot of money in 'locations'—lengthy stands in big city ballrooms.

"Nowadays there are no locations. You can still make money in the band business, but you've got to keep traveling 52 weeks of the year. The money has to be found in parties and one-night stands."

Such a life might be all right for a youngster of drafty buses and one-nighters. Home has more appeal for him these days. Small wonder, when it contains Mamie Van Doren and their new youngster.

"After I appeared in 'Daddy Long Legs,' I decided I'd better branch out," he explained. "So for two years I look acting lessons, singing lessons, some dancing and even a memory course. That helped me in remembering lines and lyrics; I could memorize music in one reading, but the words of songs escaped me."

His studies have paid off. He's now appearing in his own TV show Friday nights over ABC. He recently finished a role in "The Girl Can't Help It" with Jayne Mansfield, Tom Ewell and Edmund O'Brien. Now he's acting in "This Could Be the Night" with Jean Simmons and Paul Douglas.

Bulldogs Topple Seminoles 12-6 In Unimpressive Tilt

The Sanford Seminoles took undisputed top honors in the weak sister circuit last night as they topped 12-6 in an unimpressive and disappointing DeLand's Night outing in Memorial Stadium.

The Seminoles waged their most successful ground attack of the season last night, but persisted in launching an ineffective aerial attack completing only seven out of 21 attempts and losing the ball three times at crucial points in the game by interceptions.

Jim Hatcher realized a guard's dream as he gathered in a blocked Seminole punt on his own 35 yard line and raced 65 yards to push the DeLand Bulldogs out front to stay.

The scoring play, coming in the fading seconds of the first quarter, broke the Seminole attack that had amassed 102 yards on the ground against four yards for DeLand up until that time.

From then on, the Bulldogs shifted into the single-wing and moved almost at will through the middle of the Seminole line, and the sparkling performance of Hatcher and his companion guard David Owens turned the tide as the Bulldogs ignored the statistics and outclassed the Seminoles.

The Bulldogs came to Sanford sans their backfield ace Al Scott. During the past week a firecracker throwing party knocked Scott and six other members of the team off the roster.

Jim Warner, the Seminole speedster, averaged over eight yards per carry, but was only given the ball 11 times—half the number of passes.

In the third quarter quarterback Bob Johnson, rushed hard by Bulldog defenders, tossed a wobbly pass and DeLand center Jim Hutchinson intercepted to set up the second Bulldog tally.

Bugs Allen and Bob Sloan made the score from one yard out to put the game on ice for the visitors.

Took the unnerved Seminoles until mid-way in the final bracket to muster a scoring drive. The 60 yard drive saw Johnson finally complete an eight yard pass to Phil Byrd that carried the ball down to the DeLand 20.

From there Eddie Barbour and Terry Goemhel moved the ball to the DeLand 12. On a fourth down Johnson made the tally from inches out. Ronnie Giles' attempt-

Crooms 11 Win Hard Fought Defensive Tilt

Two practices on pass defense a day paid off last night for the Crooms Academy Panthers as their fired up defense completely chilled the passing attack of Bob Butler, DeLand Tiger passing ace, and paced the Panthers to a hard fought defensive victory 7-3 last night in DeLand.

After a rugged first quarter played around the mid-field stripe, the Panthers surged to the lead as quarterback Clarence Lancaster gathered in a punt on his own 45 yard line and raced through the middle of the field for 55 yards and the score. Fullback Eddie Lanier fired an aerial to Lonnie Hardy in the end zone for the extra point.

A round of punts and a fumble later the Tigers from DeLand found themselves on the Panther three yard line, but the keyed up Crooms defense reeled the attack and the Panthers regained possession at their own 10 yard line.

Two plays later Lancaster ripped through the middle to the Tiger 20, but a penalty nullified the play and the tight defensive maneuvering continued.

Unable to move the ball in the first part of the second half, the Panthers went into punt formation at their own 20, but a high center from Julius Johnson sent the pigskin toppling back into the end zone, where Lanier was tackled for a two point safety.

Joe King, Robert Black and Addys Lamb paced the hard defensive line, while Julius Johnson, Paul Knight and Lancaster battled down the Butler passes.

Helping Lancaster in the offensive department, Grady Robinson and Robert Mitchell ran consistently for the Panthers.

Jr. High Football Makes Debut At Last Night's Game

Junior high football made its debut last night in Memorial Stadium, prior to the DeLand-Sanford DeLand's Night grudge class.

It was a defensive battle, with sharp blocking, tackling, and play calling. The close game saw only one score tallied during the entire outing.

Hugh Carlton, president of Sanford Junior High, said that another close battle will be played next Tuesday night when the two top teams will vie for city championship.

The scrappy youngsters will divide into two teams, the reds and the whites, and all the regalia of football will be present—cheerleaders, majorettes, band, printed program, and play by play description over the public address system.

The teams combine the attributes of the single-wing and the split-T through the employ of the Tennessee wing-T. This formation gives the power of the single-wing and the deception and speed of the split-T.

Tickets are now on sale for this, the game that will show the future faces of Seminole High and a probable representative group of future faces of our college and universities.

Game time will be 8 p.m. next Tuesday night in Memorial Stadium. Admission is 50c for adults and 25c for children and student. Buy a ticket or two early and plan on attending.

Wildlife Group To Propose Snook Be Game Fish

ORLANDO — The Florida Wildlife Federation will propose to the 1957 Legislature that snook be declared a game fish and that a license be required for salt water and cane pole fishing.

The recommendations were approved at a directors' meeting here.

The group, representing about 7,000 members of sportsmen's clubs, called for a uniform fishing license to cover both fresh and salt water fishing. Only fresh water fishing now requires a license and there is an exemption for cane pole fishing.

S. H. du Bon of Miami, federation president, said the proposal would eliminate the cane pole exemption which provides that any resident of Florida may fish in his own county without a license if he uses no more than three cane poles.

Other recommendations include: Establishment of minimum state wide penalties for violating fish and game laws; regulation and licensing of airborne, small skiffs and boats under 16 feet; regulation of establishments which keep alligators and other wildlife in captivity.

Salvation Army's Christmas Kettles To Appear Dec. 1

Salvation Army Christmas Kettles will be appearing in Sanford along the downtown shopping area streets beginning Saturday Dec. 1, according to Lt. Marcella Reynolds, officer in charge of the local Salvation Army.

Again this year civic clubs will be the Christmas Kettle bells with the Sanford Pilot Club taking over the chimes of raising funds to furnish Christmas dinner and baskets as well as toys and gifts for deserving needy families.

Along with the kettles, a big "dime board" will be placed in the downtown section, with civic club members manning the board in attract contributions for the local Salvation Army efforts.

Lt. Virginia Kellner, said this morning that in spite of the excellent economic conditions existing in areas throughout the country, the "demand will be greater this year than ever before to furnish Christmas baskets and toys to the deserving needy families.

"We will begin taking applications for the Christmas baskets and assistance in making toys and gifts available for children on Dec. 1," Lt. Reynolds said this morning. "After the applications have been received we will investigate each application to determine the need existing," she said.

The women circles of the First Presbyterian Church have been dressing dolls for the Salvation Army. The dolls will go on display about Dec. 8 in the lobby of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, the Officer in Charge of the local Salvation Army said today. "We have already received about 13 of the dolls from 13 circles," she said. Dolls dressed and furnished by the circles will be distributed among needy families, it was reported.

Judge Householder To Address Club

"The Value of the Juvenile Court in Our Youth Program" will be the subject of a talk to be given by the Hon. Ernest F. Householder, Seminole County Judge, before the Sanford Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting next Monday noon at the Yacht Club.

Judge Householder, who, in addition to his duties as County Judge also serves as Juvenile Judge, is well known as a forceful, well informed speaker. He will be introduced by Andrew C. Stone, program chairman for the day.

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade Committee, headed by Tommy McDonald, suggested that people throughout Central Florida who are planning to see next Wednesday's Christmas Parade come to town early to get a parking place.

The Sanford Municipal Parking lot will be available for free parking, as well as many other areas throughout the city. However, there will be no parking on the streets along the route of the parade.

McDonald said this morning that there will be at least 47 units in the gigantic parade which is expected to be the biggest and best ever planned for Sanford.

Garfield Willetts, chairman of the Santa Claus Committee of the local Jaycee organization has assured the kiddies throughout the county and Central Florida that "Santa Claus will be on hand to greet them." In a message from Santa to the boys and girls of this area "St. Nick" will arrive in time to be in the parade which starts at 4 p. m. next Wednesday.

The route of the parade, said Chairman McDonald will be as follows: It will start at the intersection of First St. and Sanford Ave. The parade will move off at 4 o'clock to proceed west on First St. to Oak Ave. Then south on Oak Ave. to 4th St., east on 4th St. to Sanford Ave., north on Sanford Ave. to E. 2nd St. where the parade will disband.

M. L. Raborn, Jr. will be the parade marshal.

One of the highlights of the parade will be the four military units from the Sanford Naval Air Station. There will be a Naval Air Station float, a Color Guard, a Navy marching platoon, and a Marine platoon.

Floats will be divided into three divisions. Chairman McDonald said they will be the Junior Division and Senior Division from Seminole County Schools. The third division will be that of churches, organizations and businesses.

Float winners in the Junior and Senior Divisions will each receive a trophy. There will be cash prizes for the best church float, the best organization float, and the best business float.

Floats entered in the Junior Division will be from the following schools: Rosewood Elementary, Geneva, Wilson, Lake Mary, Lake Monroe, Sanford Junior High, Southside, Lyman Elementary, and Midway.

Those in the Senior Division will be from the following schools: Seminole High, Lyman High, St. Luke's Day School, Pinecrest, Oldsboro Elementary, Hopper Academy, Westside, Sanford Junior High, and Crooms Academy.

Entered in the third division are floats sponsored by: Evans Roofing and Heating, Odham and Tudor, The Abstract Corp., Sanford Elks Lodge, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts, Brownie Scouts, Womans Club, Upsala Presbyterian Church, Congregational Christian Sunday School, First Methodist Church, and Elder Springs Baptist Chapel.

The Parade, sponsored jointly by the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford Merchants Association is expected to draw the biggest crowd of the year.

Robert Barnett, Jacksonville, was named president. Paul Hutchins, Starke, vice president; Mrs. Betty Roper Cohen, Jacksonville, re-elected secretary; and Miss Ruth Goe, Miami, named treasurer.

Beginning the Thanksgiving Day festivities was a service held at Barnett Memorial Church where the Rev. Ben Montgomery, a former pastor and superintendent of the home, introduced alumni and delivered a brief sermon.

Barbecue beef and pork, prepared by Kermit Wiggins of the Home's staff, was served at the midday dinner. All of the most used was raised at the home.

Legal Tangles Topic Of Woman's Club Guest Speaker

A talk on legal tangles highlighted the Plantation Estates Woman's club luncheon meeting Wednesday at the mansion. Catherine Carter, attorney of DeLand was guest speaker and described her family's devotion to the law since 1882, when her grandfather, Judge Stewart, was instrumental in changing Volusia's county seat from Enterprise to DeLand. Mrs. Carter has been practicing since 1934.

"I have had two burning ambitions," she stated, "one being to raise our four children so that they will become responsible members of society, capable of thinking for themselves and two, helping my sex to acquire equitable legal rights when in need of same." After her talk an open forum was held on the subjects of will making and joint bank accounts. Mrs. Carter answered all queries, which are of special importance to DeBary women.

Mrs. David Runkel, president announced the date of the Christmas party and tea, to which according to custom, everyone all ways brings gifts. At the suggestion of Mrs. Charles Bertsch, chairman of this party, the gifts this year will be donated to the home in Daytona which receives juvenile delinquents and gives them a new start in life. The suggestion was so popular that a silver collection was immediately started; it grew to $21. Besides this, gifts will be brought for the Good Samaritan Home in Sanford.

Among the amusing and instructive committee reports were two fine resumes of the recent county meetings, one given by Dr. Lois Wells and one by Mrs. Runkel.

Nagy's Arrest Feared

BELGRADE (AP)—Yugoslavia protested to Hungary today that Imre Nagy and his associates who left the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest yesterday under guarantees of safety have not returned to their homes. The Yugoslav announcement said nothing about their fate but the protest indicates this country fears they are under arrest.

Nagy is the moderate "independent" Communist leader whose brief premiership during early stages of the Hungarian revolution was ended by Soviet guns. He and his associates took refuge in the Yugoslav Embassy in an effort to avoid arrest.

Dobricevic Vidic, Yugoslav undersecretary for foreign affairs, called in the Hungarian charge d'affaires this morning and told him the Nagy party, which left asylum in the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest voluntarily under an agreement that none of them would be persecuted, were not in their homes.

Vidic declared if they did not return this would be "a flagrant violation of the existing relations between Yugoslavia and Hungary and a violation of international laws."

Vidic said Nagy and his party left the embassy in a bus which was put at their disposition by the Hungarian government.

Among those departing was Julia Rajk, widow of Laszlo Rajk, the Hungarian foreign minister who was executed as a traitor in October 1949. In addition, Vidic said, there were 15 women and 17 children.

Vidic asked specifically why they had not returned to their homes and stressed that the Hungarian government had given guarantees not to persecute them.

The action taken by the Yugoslavs will no doubt complicate relations between the Tito regime and the present Hungarian government, informed sources said. But they added that Yugoslavia will make every effort to see that the Hungarian government abides by its promise.

Nagy had been in the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest for 18 days. His presence was a cause of concern for the Yugoslav government, which was sensitive to any charge that it might be interfering in internal political developments of its neighbor.

It was noted here that while the Yugoslavs had been promised by the Hungarians they would not act against Nagy, no similar pledge had been obtained from the Russians.

Weather
Fair continued cold through Saturday, high today 58-60; low Saturday morning 28-35 and frost; slightly higher temperatures Saturday afternoon.

Pilgrims' Progress Is Community Service Message

The Central Baptist Church was comfortably filled with grateful worshippers Thursday morning for the annual community Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Seminole County Ministerial Association.

Host pastor J. W. Farham presided. Mrs. R. D. Grieme was at the organ, while Dick Aiken sang "Lord, Let Me Live Today." The congregation sang a Thanksgiving and a patriotic hymn. Parts in the service were taken by the Rev. Fred Bowers of the Free Methodist Church, the Rev. David S. Carnell of the Missionary Alliance Church, and the Rev. R. H. Spear Jr., of the Church of the Nazarene. An offering for the work of the ministerial association was received. Programs were donated by the Celery City Printing Co.

The Rev. J. Bernard Root, who has been pastor of the Congregational Church for three decades, was the speaker of the day. Treating the subject "Pilgrims' Progress" with kindled imagination and facility of phrase he described life as a pilgrimage and pointed out the new steps in life's pilgrimage taught us by great pilgrims, including Enoch, Abraham, Moses and Jesus.

This course will be for beginners or for those having only a little background. The course will be on a conversational basis with minimum emphasis on formal grammar.

Advanced interest in the Spanish course indicates a good turnout Monday night. Classes will be held every Monday and Tuesday night from 8 p. m. to 9 p. m. Registration and class instruction will begin the same evening. There is a $1.00 registration fee. Further information can be had by calling 665 or contacting Fred C.
