Energy Commission to build the shelter near this North Florida town and were promised a $300 bonus if they did the job in 48 The Waldens, including five adults, six teen-agers, and a child completed the shelter early Sunday in 23 hours and 40 minutes. "The family excavated and piled 50 tons of dirt by shovel," said

Creeson Kearny, AEC engineer in charge of the project. "Some of the adults slept only one or two hours during the work." The Waldens built the aboveground shelter with slash pine, bed sheets and plastic covered by two feet of dirt, Kearny said. In addition to the dirt-covered shelter, the family was also required to construct a latrine and install a home-made pump to oring fresh air into the structure. Kearny said the Waldens were among an unspecified number of amilies in Colorado, Florida, Tennessee, and Alabama who were being paid to construct temporary fallout shelters as an AEC

The project has been funded by a $30,000 grant from the U.S. Defense Civil Preparedness Agency, Kearney said.

A spokesman for the federal agency in Washington said the project did not represent an effort to bring back the family fallout shelter craze of the early 1960s. He said it was an attempt to determine what kinds of shelters could be constructed within one or two days if people had to be moved from metropolitan areas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Mayor Joseph Alioto has drawn up a plan aimed at ending an 11-day strike by half the city's 5,000 public school teachers. The walkout has cut classroom attendance by 80 per cent. Alioto was to meet with school board negotiators today to unveil the proposal, details of which were not made public. Arabs Might Play 'Cat-Mouse' Game

One of the most remarkable statistics extant today is a poll which indicates that the anger over the energy crisis of one-fourth of the Americans is directed toward the U.S. government while only 3 per cent of the citizens blame the Arabs who precipitated the problem by imposing an oil embargo some five months ago.

Our eagerness to blame Washington for our problems tells us a lot about our current national state of mind, although we would not dispute with any conviction the argument that several generations of Washington policy helped to incubate our present predicament.

The hopefulness with which Americans view the Araboil summit, planned in Cairo today, also tells us a lot about our aversion to looking hard realities in the eye until they reach crisis

Without confusing the issue with too many statistics, it is accurate to say that Saudi Arabia with its 164 billion barrels of proven reserves is the only Arab nation that can do much to return us to the highway life style that we had come to enjoy until last October. Until the United States of America develops self-sufficiency we will need a very large amount of Arab oil to meet our

The incentives for Saudi Arabia to supply the United States with that much additional oil are not all that persuasive. King Faisal has more money than he needs and the oil will gain in value if it remains in the ground. Neither he nor the other Arab nations and Iran appear to be troubled by the international economic dislocations that the oil embargo is creating. Nor does the economic disaster created in the underdeveloped world by high oil prices jar the moral sensibility in Saudi Arabia.

On the other side of the coin, Arab nations need U.S. tools and technology. King Faisal has been a traditional friend of the United States and an inplacable enemy of communism. We also have the friendship of President Sadat of Egypt and the yeoman efforts of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger have gone a long way toward

The latter is raising the most hope that the embargo will be lifted. However, it is likely that if Mr. Kissinger's efforts to move the Arabs succeed, the producers may respond in degrees - a partial new supply of oil in return for a specific concession.

It is a cat and mouse game that would be entirely unacceptable. Needs larger than oil should establish our policies.

Whether the news from Cairo is encouraging or discouraging. Americans have no alternatives to settling down to meet the energy crisis on their own terms by reaching the state in which we need depend upon nobody else for our fuel.

Nixon Raids Justice

WASHINGTON - The White House is raiding the Justice Department for more lawyers to bail President Nixon out of his Watergate troubles.

Although platoons of attorneys are already working on the President's problems with taxes, impeachment, the Senate Watergate committee and the Special Prosecutor, our sources say the White House has asked for "at least a dozen" lawyers

These lawyers, of course, are being pulled off important cases at Justice to assist the President at the expense of the taxpayers. Some top Justice officials are giving the White House names of prospects, but there is also an undercurrent of resistance to the presidential dragooning. For example, Assistant Attorney General Henry Petersen, whose criminal division handled the early Watergate investigation, has been privately hinting to aides that they would be wise to turn down the White House. From bitter experience, Petersen knows that getting too close to President Nixon can mean political burns. At Nixon's request. effective, and as revolutionary, he postponed acting on crucial Watergate information, and took a public roasting for it. Petersen is also worried, say insiders, about possible conflicts of interest. Justice lawyers themselves have confided to us that they are lerry of taking the jobs at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue not just out of personal distate, but because of ethical conflicts. One young antitrust lawyer sent for a job interview with Nixon attorney James St. Clair had worked on the milk fund case while at

Other lawyers fear they will be doing "clerk and jerk" jobs at the White House, reviewing other lawyers' work and "jerking" files and books from law libraries.

The White House's difficulty in wooing young Justice lawyers was obliquely conceded by St. Clair in a telephone interview with my associate Bob Owens.

St. Clair said he is "in the process" of hiring two or three attorneys from Justice. But the talent search has been going on for weeks, ample time to snare more than two or three attorneys if career lawyers were volunteering. When Owens asked St. Clair who was going to pay the Justice attorneys, the shrewd Bostonian dodged. "I work at a disadvantage because I don't understand the bureaucracy," he said. The payroll, he added, was being left to "smater people." At Justice, a spokesman said when the loaned lawyers leave the department, they will also go off the department payroll. This would put them into the White House budget.

PLUMBERS' FRIEND: A Senate committee has charged that Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Caspar Weinberger has set up his own "plumbers unit" in flagrant violation of congressional orders. HEW insists it's all a $600,000 misunhired, mostly from OEO. Plans were made to take on eight others. None of the workers had the approval of Magnuson, who controls HEW's purse strings.

In October, the Magnuson subcommittee specifically deleted funds for all the added investigators, saying HEW's original 17man security staff was ail that was needed. Crimes at HEW could be handled by the FBI and other federal cops, as in the past, the Magnuson ordered HEW to get rid of the new squad except for eight sleuths which he said HEW could keep "to show . . . we are

At HEW, Nathan Dick, the veteran HEW security man who heads the investigators, told us emphatically his division "is in no way a plumbers unit." His mandate, he said, is not to snoop on HEW employes, but to weed out malefactors among HEW workers and contractors.

More Than One Way To Lose Weight

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have heard that every time a person has sexual relations he burns up 300 calories. I would like to lose 10 pounds, and my husband would like to lose 20 pounds. Do you recommend this method of losing weight? And how many calories would a person have to burn to lose one

DEAR NO: I'm advised that one must burn 3,500 calories to lose one pound of body fat. The number of calories burned per hour for several types of measured physical activity reads as follows:

Slow walking-115 to 200. Dancing-275 to 350.

Skating or swimming-300 to 600. Tennis-350 to 700. Gardening-250 to 300. Golfing [18 holes |- 150 to 225.

There can be no reliable figure on the number of calories burned during sexual relations because the amount of physical exertion varies with the individual. While losing weight, however, I think you'd be wise to supplement mattress acrobatics with more [or less?] strenuous physical exercise, using the above as a guide.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the seven-year-old Lutheran boy who wanted to turn Jewish because his 10-year-old sister, who was being raised Jewish, got seven presents [one for each day of Hanukkahl and he got only one present for Christmas:

His parents should give him seven presents for Christmas and let him decide later whether he wants to go the Protestant route or the Jewish route. He might even decide to be a Roman Catholic and go to

Notre Dame and beat U.C.L.A. again some day! BILL K. DEAR BILL: Judging from some of the names of those fellows on Notre Dame's teams, you don't have to be a Roman Catholic to play for Notre Dame.

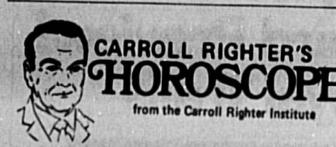

DEAR ABBY: Earl and I have four wonderful children and a good marriage. Or we DID have, until a few months ago. Then a young woman [I'll call Vera] joined his organization, and started confiding her marital problems to him. [He repeats them to me.] All Vera's problems seem to be about her sex life with her husband. Earl says it's good for ner to "unload" on someone.

Abby, it upsets me to have Earl tell me these things, and I am beginning to wonder why a woman should tell such intimate things to a man she hardly knows. Or do you think maybe they know each other better than Earl lets on? Should I tell Earl I don't care to hear any more about Vera's sex life? I don't want to drive him away from me. We've always had such an honest and open relationship.

DEAR TROUBLED: Vera should discuss her marital problems with a professional counselor, and Earl should tell her to. Unloading her problems may be good for Vera But when Vera unloads on Earl, it's bad for your marriage. CONFIDENTIAL TO O.B. IN ROME: I'm no investment counselor, but the advice from Herbert R. Mayes, publisher of The Overseas American, a new and brilliant tly newsletter for United States citizens abroad, is: "The old story about Swiss banks is still valid: If you see a wiss banker jumping from an office building, follow him out. There's 15 per cent to be made on the way down."

The next boxing show set for Central Florida will be held Wednesday, in Tampa's Fort Homer Hesterly Armory The main event will pit Walter "Snake" White against Bobby Lloyd for the third time, but in this go Walter's Florida Lightheavy Belt will be on the line.

In two previous encounters White scored a highly questionable knockout when the fight was stopped prematurely. The duo battled to a sensational draw last time out. The draw was on of the most action packed bouts seen in this area in years. Another bout like that one would be worth the price of admission by itself, and looking at the preliminaries it might have

John Pinney who currently stands at 20-0-2 will take on a fighter by the name of Jerry Hill who hails from Ft. Lauderdale. The story being handed out by the Tampa Boxing Office is that Hill will be the toughest test that Pinney has met so far They go on to say that Hill has a record of 10-2-1. Maybe, I don't know. I can't find anything on a fighter named Jerry Hill. He has not been fighting in the Miami area and is not listed in Ring Magazine's latest issue that rates over 5,000 fighters. I got a funny feeling that he belongs to Pat Curry, and I guess that means anything can be

Hector McBride who is in the middle of a comeback will meet Polonio Salinas. Here again claims are being made as to his record and ability that I find hard to

They are claiming his mark stands at 30-12 and has the experience to give McBride a thorough test. The only thing that I can find out about one Polonia Salinas is that during 1972 he began his pro career by getting himself stopped three times in three fights against three different fighters in Texas. His last bout that year was in July.

The other six-rounder will find "Irish" Mike McKinney against Victor Rodriguez. This bout will mark the first time that was taken out in less than one round by Junior Royster.

McKinney's father is the promoter for this card, and I am once again disappointed in the fact that they are not pointing out the good points of the card, but are making up things to gloss over the weak links.

Florida's former world's heavyweight champ, James Eliis is still looking for a recent win. His latest effort was a 10 round draw with Larry Middleton in Baltimore. On the same card Miami's John L. Johnson suffered his second loss when he dropped a eight round decision to Johnny Berry in another heavyweight go. Johnson's first loss was to the fantastic James Scott, a bout that found Scott getting off the canvas to take home the win.

I hope you caught the story last week about Scott in The Herald. It gave a good insight to the story about this former convict that might be in line for a shot at Bob Foster before he has 10 pro bouts under his belt.

Tampa's J.T. Dowe, the hard punching sensational wins, appears to be ready to retire. His manager, Eddie Pulido wants him to hang em up. His last two eiforts were sound thrashings at the hands of topnotchers Fausto Rodriguez and Alfonso

This would seem to be a sad story. Dowe could have been a real drawing card, but something, somewhere went wrong. I suppose one would have to be on the inside to get the real truth, but still it's a shame whatever the reason.

Another apparent retirement is Wild Bill Hardney after a 10 year career Hardney, a Mike McKinney-type fighter '("one of us has to go-and quick") once fought Bob Foster in Orlando and gave him a rough fight until he was dispatched in four

The light heavyweight division continues to be a hotbed of activity. Over in London John Conteh got off the canvas to stop Tom Boggs. This is the same Bogggs that holds a win over Mike Quarry early last year. There is a story that Quarry will go over to Denmark to meet Boggs once again. I feel that Quarry will get the next shot at

Speaking of that title shot, everybody and his brother is being mentioned as the next opponent for Foster. One source says that it is all set to have Foster meet Conteh. Another says that the three time conquerer of Jorge Ahumada, Victor Galindez, has the bout sewn up for New Mexico. Of course Ahumada and Foster are popular item up in New York and are even being mentioned by some of the other area news media. I am still holding out for

Down in Miami Beach Marcel Clay scored a decision over Angel Estevez in a 10 round shootout between two of the area's more popular fighters. Also on the card Guilermo Escalero stopped a rugged Gene Wells after just four rounds

I am going to go out on a limb and take Ken Norton over George Foreman when they meet for the heavyweight title. It's a long shot, but I want to be known as the man who picked the upset of the decade (which it wouldn't be, but it sounds nice.). Over in Tampa I will go along with the Viscusi fighters and pick White, Pinney, McBride and McKinney.

In Dallas tonight James Helwig is suppose to meet Terry Daniels. I doubt if the bout will come off as Daniels has a previous engagement four days earlier with a real tarter, Jose Luis Garcia. I have to take Helwig if they do fight as Daniels should be in no shape for a battler like him. I would like to see that one, it should be a Tuesday in a big heavyweight bout, Ron Lyle and Oscar Bonavena meet in Denver. I will string along with Lyle, but not before the two of them give the fans their money's worth, and then some.

Down in Miami, highly rated Jimmy Dupree is being brought in to test 18-yearold Vinny Curto. Most of the guessperts first defeat.
