APPRECIATES THE HERALD.

Editor Herald:

I want to express my great appreciation of the policy of the Herald in standing for the repeal of the "lash and lash" in our convict system. You have shown a humane spirit and evidenced a high type of editorial character in opposing the continuance of the brutes who have disgraced the State of Florida. Keep up the fight. Put a black mark opposite the name of every man who evades the real issue.

That bill licensing boxing is a dangerous one. It really means introducing prize fighting. That is what will finally result if the bill is passed. If the bill passes it should eliminate all charges and admittance fees to such matches. To have this state place its endorsement upon such things for a money consideration is going too far.

Do you remember the manly fight Governor Mitchell made to save the state from disgrace in the Mitchell-Sullivan fight. Well, let us guard well our borders so as not to be threatened by such a thing in the future. I believe in clean sport. But please excuse me from an endorsement of slugging matches under the guise of boxing contests.

Pour hot shot and shell into that Putnam Lumber company, and if it be possible, induce the authorities to revoke its charter.

TALLAHASSEE, May 7—A measure that would have repealed the Bryan primary law and established instead a double primary system, was voted down by the house 13 to 48. The measure was introduced by Williams of Leon and he was the only one who spoke in its favor.

Representative Davis of Leon today stated he would introduce a concurrent resolution in the house this afternoon looking to autopsy on the body of Jerry Poppell, star witness in the Tabert investigation who died suddenly at Quincy Saturday night.

permitted, the citizens who have brought about this change, must not be unduly impatient or expect immediate results. The experience of Palatka will not be different from that of thousands of other cities that have adopted the commission-manager plan.

One by one, Florida cities are getting rid of the antiquated forms of civic government which, may be said, is another way of stating that business is superseding politics in municipal affairs.

IF FLORIDA WILL BUT WASH CLEAN HER SLATE.

Florida is doing her best in many instances to advance in numerous ways; yet, like all states, the people "have left undone many things which" they should have left done.

There are thousands of opportunities in the various sections of the state. Some of these have been touched upon lightly; some not at all.

Each of capital is one of the obstacles that have held back the state. People have feared to make investments in some cases where good profits have been almost a surety.

At one time, just as the general public was gathering confidence in the state, one of Florida's noted congressmen made the assertion in Washington that "the Everglades instead of being sold by the acre should be handed over to the purchaser after using a quart measure to secure the required amount."

THE POWER OF THE PEN.

Is it right to train children that they should not report wrong-doing among their fellows? The rules of the school room. It seems to us that the children live. JOBS FOR VETERANS.

An appeal has been made to educational manufacturers to take into their employment war veterans who have completed training in vocational schools. It is an appeal which should be repeated and heeded wherever any of these men are ready for jobs.

DOING ONLY HALF DUTY.

Parts of two conversations were overheard by the writer a few days ago. A small girl, probably eight or nine years old, was riding on the street car with her mother. Evidently the little girl was coming home from school. She was telling her mother the things that had happened in school that day.

WHAT I AM GETTING FROM MY AGRICULTURE COURSE.

By Aecy Carraway, Sanford. This is the first year that agriculture has been in our school. We have one acre for our laboratory work and a large and well equipped room for our purposes.

We may, if we give any attention or time whatever, get great good from it, which will be a great help in our future farming or work. Our study includes plants, animals, and insects and diseases.

I think that all of the class members will agree with me when I say that agriculture is the most interesting study in school. Unlike Latin or mathematics, we may put our ideas derived from the books into practice where everyone can see the results.

The modern way of farming is better than any other way. We learn how and when to use our poisons and chemicals. If we do not follow farming, as a vocation it will do us good anyway.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The board of county commissioners in and for Seminole county, Florida, met in special session at 10:30 a. m. April 23rd. Present: Chairman John Meisch and Commissioners G. L. Bledsoe, C. W. Entzinger, B. F. Wheeler and E. Curlett, with Attorney Geo. A. DeCottes; V. E. Douglas, deputy clerk, and Sheriff C. M. Hand in attendance.

Honorable Forest Lake, representative of Seminole county, addressed the board in reference to special legislation for Seminole county and made some recommendation in reference to same.

Motion of Comr. G. L. Bledsoe and seconded by Comr. C. W. Entzinger and carried, this board recommends to Mr. Lake that he accept an amendment to the local cattle bill extending the time to July 1st, 1924.

Motion of Comr. B. F. Wheeler, 2nd by Comr. E. Curlett and carried, Attorney Geo. A. DeCottes, is hereby instructed to go to Tallahassee to assist in the preparation of local bills for Seminole county, as follows: a bill providing for the bulkheading of Lake Monroe; a local traffic law; and the local no-sealing law.

Motion of Comr. B. F. Wheeler and seconded by Comr. E. W. Entzinger and carried, that the local no-sealing law as drafted and passed by the House of Representatives being we consider a good law and to the best interests of Seminole county, we do hereby urge our representative, the Hon. Forest Lake to use his best efforts to have same passed by the senate, with an amendment thereto providing for a legal penalty for the violation of same.

The following resolution was offered by Comr. C. W. Entzinger, who moved its adoption, same being seconded by Comr. B. F. Wheeler and adopted:

WHEREAS, it has been brought to the attention of this Board that an effort is being made during this session of the legislature to enact further laws regarding tick eradication, and

WHEREAS, the experience of Seminole County in endeavoring in the past to carry out the provisions of existing law as to tick eradication have been disastrous, and

WHEREAS, the assessment roll of Seminole County, Florida, shows an assessed valuation of all cattle within said county to be the sum of $41,915.00, and

WHEREAS, in the past, under the provisions of law providing for tick eradication, this county has in a vain effort to eradicate the tick, expended the sum of $13,770.75.

WHEREAS, it is not feasible to eliminate and eradicate ticks from cattle as long as said cattle are allowed a free range, and

WHEREAS, we are of the opinion that no relief can be obtained in the attempted eradication of the tick until after the adoption of a state wide no-fence law, therefore,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in our opinion, the adoption of further legislation for the purpose of the elimination and eradication of the tick, carrying with it the expenditure of public funds merely adds an additional burden upon the tax payers of this state, as a result of which, no benefits will be derived, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Hon. M. O. Overstreet, Senator from this District, and Hon. Forest Lake, representative of Seminole County, Florida, be and they are respectfully requested and urged to actively oppose any and all legislation regarding tick eradication until after the adoption of a state wide no-fence law, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the clerk of this Board shall immediately transmit certified copies of this resolution to Hon. M. O. Overstreet, and Hon. Forest Lake, at Tallahassee, Florida.

Adopted this 23rd day of April, A. D. 1923.

Former Convict Cannot Testify at Florida Hearing

TALLAHASSEE, May 7.—Paul Revere White of Washington, D. C., will not appear before the joint legislative committee to testify against the prison camp of Senator T. J. Knabb, according to a telegram received by Representative C. H. Kernerly, secretary of the committee, from a relative in Taunton, Mass. White charged that he was brutally treated while a convict under lease to the Knabb farm, and John Rodenberry, convict guard, is under indictment on charges growing out of White's case, and he had been expected as the principal witness before the legislative investigation.

The committee, which last week concluded its inquiry into the death of Martin Tabert, planned to resume the second phase of its inquiry Tuesday morning. The telegram to the committee was sent by J. M. White, who had previously written and requested that a full investigation into Paul's case be made. There had been previous indications that White would not appear, so the committee telegraphed the Taunton man, assuring him that the committee desired to make the fullest possible investigation, and asking that Paul Revere White be sent here. The telegram from the Taunton man advised the committee that Paul's attorney had informed him that his client would not be able to come here. As a result of his alleged treatment on the Knabb farm, White's attorneys filed claim for damages for $50,000.

CORONADA BEACH IN THE SUMMER. Coronado Beach is one of the most popular winter resorts on the east coast and during the past season, all the cottages with a few exceptions, were occupied during the entire season. The occupants during the winter were people from the northern states and we dare say they never spent a pleasanter winter. Now that they have returned to their home these same cottages are being occupied by people from the interior of this state, and by the first of June they will all be occupied, so it will be seen that this is an all year resort. The winter visitor enjoys surf bathing every month during their stay, and now that the weather is warmer it is even more enjoyable. Besides a large number of nice cottages there is a good hotel with bath rooms attached, a good pavilion, with other conveniences for the public. Coronado Beach is a favorite weekend resort for automobile parties from DeLand, Sanford, Orlando, Kissimmee, Eustis, and other inland towns. This pretty little town by the sea has made a wonderful growth during the past year, and there is good prospect for a greater growth this year. There is need for another hotel on the beach and it is hoped that this improvement may be secured this year—New Smyrna Breeze.

COLLIER WILL BEGIN GREAT DEVELOPMENT

NEW YORK, May 8.—Receipt of news here today that the Florida legislature had created a new county named and named it after Iron Collier, special police commissioner of New York city in charge of safety, was followed by announcement that beginning immediately Collier will spend $10,000,000 within the next few years in Florida west coast improvements. The new county will comprise the fifty-seven southern townships of the present Lee county.

Collier now owns more than a million acres of west coast Florida land and is interested in various large Florida hotel properties. The largest is at Useppa Island, off Fort Myers. He has spent more than $2,000,000 in the last few years in the territory now named after him, extending railroads and giving the section better navigation facilities. One project which he has just completed is a deep waterway from Everglades, which probably will be the seat of Collier county, to the Gulf of Mexico Railroad extensions which will connect the lower west coast with main lines of travel are understood to be under consideration.

Collier county now comprises some of the wildest of the west coast country. It abounds in deer, bear, mountain lion and other wild game. The land is fertile, in great part, and heavily timbered. The new automobile trail from Tampa to Miami, runs through it.

A precedent for naming a Florida county after fathers of big developments was set several years ago following the death of Henry Flagler, who greatly improved the east coast. Collier, many times a millionaire, is a close friend of the Rockefellers and lives across the road from them near Tarrytown. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and Collier recently built a community church near their places at which most of the residents, including John D. Rockefeller worship.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The Federal Reserve Board listened today for several hours to proponents and opponents of application of the Boston Reserve Bank to establish an agency in Havana, Cuba. Lengthy arguments were presented by each side and the board finally decided to take the question under further advisement before acting on bank's application.

Tick Eradication Bill to Displace Livestock Board

TALLAHASSEE, May 8.—A compromise tick eradication measure bearing the authorship of Senator Wicker was introduced in the senate yesterday and referred to the live stock committee.

The bill would displace the present live stock sanitary board and set up a board composed of seven cattlemen. A one mill tax would be levied to carry out tick eradication in this state. The state would be divided into 14 zones and it would be discretionary with the board as to whether the ticks had been killed by pasture rotation or dipping. The zones are designated in the bill. The work would be started in zones two and thirteen, which are defined as follows: Zone two, St. Lucie, Okeechobee, Highlands, part of Glades, Osceola, part of Brevard and part of Polk county. Zone 13, part of Franklin county, Calhoun, Jackson and part of Holmes. The eradicationists would then move forward through adjoining zones until the entire state is freed of ticks. The measure provides that all expenses incurred in rounding up range cattle shall be paid by the board.

Members of the board would serve without pay except their expenses. Employment of a veterinarian at a salary of $1,000 annually would also be authorized, while the board would also have full authority to employ its necessary force of workers and county inspectors and the like.

FIFTY PASSENGERS ARE OVERCOME BY SMOKE IN SUBWAY

NEW YORK, May 8.—Fifty persons were overcome by smoke during last night's rush hour when a short circuit started a fire in the East Side subway of the Interborough Company at Sixty-eighth street and Lexington venue. Five of the number were made seriously ill and were taken to hospitals. The others were able to go home after emergency treatment.

Passengers of a ten-car train became excited when smoke from the short circuit filled the cars. Many of them smashed windows and fought their way to emergency exits, although the majority waited until the station at Sixty-eighth street was reached where thirty were removed by ambulance surgeons and police.

At Eightieth street, twenty more were found to be overcome by the smoke, and they too, were taken into the air.

Many passengers were trampled and bruised and the hundreds ran for safety when the train stalled. One woman suffered a broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed George of St. Cloud are here attending the encampment and are guests of the Montezuma.

MURDOCK

"The White Mahatma"

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Did you see the picture last night?

If you didn't you missed one of the best educational pictures that has ever been shown or probably ever will be shown here.

The scenes of the diamond mines in Africa alone were worth the price of admission.

It showed a charge by a wild rhino which demolished one of the movie camera before it was finally killed.

Also a charge and stampede of a herd of wild elephants.

Every school child in Seminole county should see this picture and Osborne is making a special reduced price so that they can see it.

And tonight the honor guests will be M. D. Gatchell and family and they will see "Hunting Big Game in Africa with Gun and Camera" without cost to them, so be there sure.

And tomorrow night Marie Prevost in "The Beautiful and Damned" a vivid, fascinating picture.

Thursday—Strongheart, the Wonder dog in "The Silent Call."

"It Pays to Swim With the Current"

This is about two spark plugs. At the moment they are lying on the sales manager's desk in the establishment of a large middle-western hardware jobber.

One spark plug bears a name known wherever automobiles are used, the other a name seldom heard.

Both, says the sales manager, are good plugs. On the score of quality they run neck and neck.

"But," he adds, "we are discontinuing this line"—and he holds up the plug of unfamiliar name. "Yes, and our discount on it is larger, too."

"What's wrong with it? Not a thing. It's a good plug—mighty good plug, but—no one knows about it. It isn't advertised—the other one is. The demand is for the advertised make. And we've learned it pays to swim with the current, not against it."

More and more jobbers in every line of business are learning every day that it pays to swim with the current of popular demand.

"Our job," said one jobber, "is to supply markets, not create them. Let the manufacturer make a market for his goods, and we will handle it."

Said another—"Our salesmen carry a catalog with thousands of items in it. They haven't the time to push unadvertised goods. Their work is principally taking orders."

If you go among these wholesalers today to introduce a new product in competition with merchandise nationally advertised, unless the article is exceptional, you will be met everywhere by the injunction: "First go out and get a reputation for your goods through advertising."

The wholesaler knows by actual contact with dealers how they value speed of turnover, goods which move with a minimum of effort, goods people know about and ask for.

Pay Roll Bandits Worked New York Today in Good Shape

KNABB PRISON INQUIRY WILL BEGIN TODAY
 TALLAHASSEE, May 8.—Florida today will again investigate reported convict brutalities in state, county and privately owned lease camps, when a joint legislative committee will begin an inquiry into conditions at camps owned and operated by state Senator T. J. Knabb. Witnesses began arriving yesterday and more than a score more are due before 9 o'clock, today, the time set for the hearing.

The committee has been in recess for one week, after concluding its investigation into the Martin Tabert case. The Tabert inquiry, which involved the death of a native of North Dakota, who was alleged to have been flogged to death, was in session for more than three weeks.

Senator Knabb appears anxious for the investigation into his convict camp. He has on hand a number of witnesses; which he claimed will bring him a 'clean bill of health' from the committee.

Official reports of J. B. Thomas, a prison supervisor, and W. A. McLae, commissioner of agriculture, will be the investigation basis. Thomas reported at one time to Commissioner McLae, that in his opinion, Senator Knabb was operating a human 'slaughter pen,' and it meant murder to allow convicts to remain there.

Paul Revere White, a youngster hailing from Washington, D. C., who was arrested, convicted and leased out to one of Knabb's camps has signed affidavits that he was brutally treated and following his appearance before a Baker county grand jury, John Roddenbury, a whipping boss, was indicted on the charge of cruelty to prisoners.

Four Hundred Million Offered by Treasury to Retire Victory Bonds
 WASHINGTON, May 8.—Bringing to an end the first phase of re-financing the government's great war time debt, the treasury announced a new offering of $400,000,000 in treasury notes to complete the refunding and retiring of the Victory notes which, when issued aggregated more than four billion dollars. The new issue will bear 4 3-4 per cent interest and will mature March 15, 1927.

Secretary Mellon at the same time, issued a statement on the government's fiscal situation in which he declared the treasury refunding operations had worked out to successfully that all of the short dated debt might be retired gradually from surplus revenues of the government prior to 1928 and without embarrassment to the heavy refunding necessary in connection with maturity that year of the third liberty loan.

Mr. Mellon predicted that the gross public debt of the nation would be reduced to about $22,400,000,000 by the end of the current fiscal year, June 30, a retirement of about 11,600,000,000 of federal securities since April 30, 1921. In this connection the secretary declared there would be a surplus in the treasury June 30 of $25,000,000 or $65,000,000 more than estimated by Director Lord of the budget who yesterday forecast that government receipts for the fiscal year would exceed expenditures by $60,000,000.

Announcement of the new vote offering with its rate of four and three quarters per cent interest is in line with the treasury policy noted throughout its post-war financing thus far exceeding the issue of thirty year bonds last fall, of refunding such of its maturities as necessary into short-term obligations. This program, inaugurated two years ago contemplated a gradual retirement ahead of the first big war time issue of such obligations as could be handled and a spreading over the interim between that and the maturity of the third loan of all debt that had to be financed.

BATTLE EXERCISES DECIDED.
 WASHINGTON, May 7.—The annual battle exercises of the United States Marines will be held this year in August and September, in the vicinity of Lexington, Va., it was announced at headquarters.
 The Herald for first class job work.

W. C. Johnson, vice president and manager of the Chattanooga News was a caller at the Herald office this morning and he was agreeably surprised at the well equipped office of the Herald Printing Co. Mr. Johnson is also acting as secretary of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association and is well known among southern journalists.

Henry Schroeter of the J. A. Schroeter & Company of Atlanta was in the city today calling on the local printers. Henry is one of the old birds in the printing business and has been coming to Sanford for the past twenty years—and he looks it. Henry is sore because he did not invest a bunch of money in Sanford about fifteen years ago when such an investment would have made him rich before he became an old man. In fact he is so mad about it that he intends to invest some here on his next trip. (Real Estate Men are requested not to crowd).

...MAGIC NAMES...

The influence of advertising is apparent in every turn of my daily life. I find I cannot disregard it. It is always with me, guiding me in my pleasures and in my duties, telling me what I should eat, wear, and use and what I should buy for my family.

I find that there is on the tip of my tongue a multitude of names the mention of which will bring from some shelf nearly everything that I can use in my daily life and in the daily life of my family.

In every instance that name means a very definite promise and assurance of something substantial and which will make me feel completely satisfied about having exchanged my money for it.

Let me say a few things which these names—these old friends of the newspaper and magazine pages—mean to me.

They mean good taste.
 For certainly I desire to do the thing that I believe discriminating people have judged best.

They mean convenience. It is not necessary to describe the thing I want. Even the most intimate articles may be purchased without embarrassment since the advertisers have given us handy names.

They mean assurance in shopping. There is no indecision. Even before I enter the shop I know what I want to buy.

And certainly they mean satisfaction. For the advertiser whose product is not good cannot continue to advertise. The fact that I have seen a name repeated over and over again assures me that it stands for a product of quality. In speaking that name to the clerk I know I am asking for the best.

I am a more judicious shopper because I buy advertised goods. I patronize the shop that sells them.
