GATTY POST NEAR END OF FLIGHT

World Fliers Alaska Town Asped For Alberta Despite Sleepiness

SEASONS, June 30.—Seven days of head-wind and high tension began to show today but they gritted their teeth and hopped off for Edmonton, Alberta, to approach the end of their 2500-mile dash around the world.

They left here at 8:24 A. M. on their hop to Edmonton with a propeller that was struck by the propeller as it was starting the motor at last night giving him a headache.

They were loaded with gasoline, the which received a bent propeller which it needed over on its attempted takeoff at Solovki, cleared a woodpile on the way and on the second attempt gained altitude and headed toward Edmonton.

The American aviators left from Khabarovsk, Siberia, at 4:15 P. M. (S. T.) Monday with a dangerous flight and an attempt to fly to Nome, by way of the North Pole.

They had covered about 9250 miles of land and water, with an elapsed time of six days and four minutes since they started away from Roosevelt Field, New York.

Although weather reports from the routes were varied, Post and Gatty concluded they were not favorable and made a sudden decision to be off. Both clear and heavy conditions were reported from the Kamchatka area.

LAW COMMISSION SEVERAL TRACKS REACHES EVE OF ITS DISSOLUTION TO STAGE RACES

Grime Wearing Group Has Made Extensive Survey Of Condition

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—A crime-wearing Wickersham Commission reached the eve of its dissolution last night with prospects that it would depart with none of the fanfare that heralded the entry of its members into the capital 25 months ago.

Last night only two members remained at their task and the commission usually immaculate offices were littered with mangled material. Tonight at midnight they must be bare and probably only Chairman Wickersham will remain in the capital. The commission's conduct of the most extensive survey of crime ever undertaken could be accounted for today as follows:

Ten major reports were either in President Hoover's hands or on the way to the government printer.

Four reports, one of them the commission's historic inquiry into the nation's prohibition problem, have been made public.

Approximately $20,000 of its $500,000 appropriation can be turned back to the treasury shortly.

The view was expressed at commission headquarters yesterday that although the commission's life technically ends on July 1, actually it will exist until a final accounting is made to President.

WIVES PRAISED AT TRADE BODY MEET MONDAY

Memory Of J. N. Whitner Is Honored By Members Attending Popular Luncheon

Laying aside all matters of business, members of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce met at the Valdez yesterday at noon, and paid tribute to their wives, who have aided them in membership drives and other trade body activities during the past year, by entertaining them as guests at a luncheon which was featured by short inspirational talks by Mayor Earl W. Brown, DeLand, and prominent Sanford civic leaders.

Nearly 50 persons, including 10 women, were in attendance at the luncheon, presided over by President Harry M. Papworth, whose first words were ones of praise and commendation in memory of J. N. Whitner, pioneer settler, whom Mr. Papworth declared "did more for Seminole County than any other man." Mr. Papworth's tribute to the man who is credited with having introduced celery culture to this section was climaxed when he presented a small bouquet of roses to Mrs. J. N. Whitner, as he asked that the members present stand and drink a silent toast to her.

Frank P. Forster, was next introduced to the group as "another man whose influence in this community for the past 50 years has been such as to inspire hundreds of residents." Mr. Forster spoke briefly upon Sanford and the early days, and expressed himself as in hearty accord with every activity of the trade body members who "could not have selected a more able, willing, and active leader than my old friend, Harry M. Papworth."

Mayor T. L. Dumas, called on to speak about the duties of citizenship, turned his remarks entirely upon the work of Sanford's pioneer.

Two More Attempts On World Flight Are Waiting For Weather

LEBOURGET, June 30.—(AP)—Joseph Lebrun and Martin Boret, French fliers, arrived here today from Tours in an airplane in which they will attempt a world flight as soon as the weather permits. They said they planned to make a non-stop flight to Tokyo then to San Francisco, New York, and Paris.

NEW YORK, June 30.—(AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon announced today that if the weather is favorable they will take off at dawn tomorrow on a world flight hoping to cut two days from the time Wiley Post and Harold Gatty said they may make. Only three stops will be made, one in Moscow, and the second in Siberia.

Other members of the board are R. N. Dosh, Ocala newspaper editor; R. L. Swager, Quincy newspaper publisher, and M. R. Harrison, Miami building contractor.

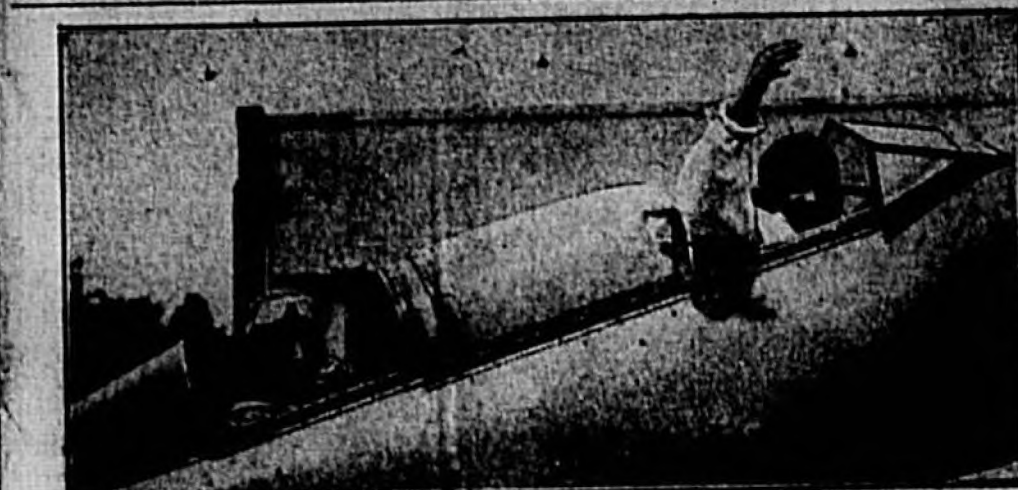

The new commissioners met in the governor's office here yesterday, made bond, received their commission, elected a chairman and a secretary, received applications for permits and then adjourned to meet again at the chairman's call to pass on applications after the July 1 filing deadline.

As the commission is charged with full supervision of horse and dog racing operations and wagering under the pari-mutuel system, the secretary was instructed to obtain a copy of all state laws and racing regulations from states in which racing and wagering are legalized. The commission must draw up a set of racing regulations to use at Florida tracks.

The application of the Miami Jockey Club, headed by Joseph E. Wadner of New York and Palm Beach, was presented by John T. G. Crawford of Jacksonville, as attorney for the club. His request that the commission act on the application as soon as possible, without waiting for the Aug. 15 time limit fixed by law, brought assurance from the commissioners that all permits would be issued in the near future.

MACDONALD SAYS BRITAIN HAS CUT FLEET TO LIMIT

Figures Show England As Far As Possible Has Reduced Navy

LONDON, June 30.—(AP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, laying the statistics of world armaments before the House of Commons yesterday, asked pledges of support from all political parties to a British policy of drastic reductions in naval, military and air forces at next February's disarmament conference.

His figures showed Great Britain to be the only world power which has reduced its naval and military expenditures in recent years while the United States, France, Italy and Japan all were increasing theirs.

But Great Britain has gone as far as she can go unless the other nations follow suit, he said, expressing confidence that next year's disarmament conference will bring just such a development.

Preacher Is Sought On Kidnaping Charge

COCHRAN, Ga., June 30.—(AP)—Police of Georgia, South Carolina, and Florida today sought Rev. Harry Long, 45-year-old Nazarene preacher on a second warrant charging him with kidnaping Miss Leavy Howard, 16-year-old high school girl.

Long is under a thousand-dollar bond on a charge of disappearing with the girl recently.

Shortly after the first warrant was sworn out by J. J. Howard, the girl's father, she was found in Macon. She said she and the minister spent the night on a school bus he was driving between here and Macon. The second warrant was sworn out by Howard after he reported he could find no trace either of his daughter or the minister.

John Thomas, colored, pleading guilty to a charge of drunkenness, was fined $5. Officer Williams made the arrest.

Ed. H. Milton and Floyd Morgan, colored boys, charged with being drunk, were transferred to the county court. Officers Williams, Wilcox and Shaffer made the arrests.

The cases of Archie Johnson, colored, charged with possessing liquor, and James Gethers, colored, charged with disorderly conduct were ordered continued until Friday, as was the case of Willie Patterson, colored, charged with violating the stop-street ordinance.

The Rev. B. P. Brown, above, of Dallas, Texas, part-time preacher, whose story of "lynching" attracted nationwide attention, has confessed that he had intended to kill himself "but just couldn't do it."

Local Boys Return From Meeting Of Farm Organization

Headed by Alex R. Johnson, vocational director at the Seminole High school here, members of the Future Farmers of America, Seminole Chapter, returned to Sanford Saturday afternoon reporting that the state-wide convention of the Future Farmers, held at Gainesville last week, was a complete success.

The boys enjoyed every part of the program, Mr. Johnson said, from the sports which had been arranged for their benefit, to the nationally known speakers upon farm subjects who had gathered at Gainesville as guests of the association.

William Harvey of the local chapter won second place in the poultry judging contest. Other local boys who were entered in the judging contests were John Senkarik, Donald and Bernard Landress and Clarence Henderson.

Mr. Henderson spoke over Station WRUF Wednesday evening, giving a resume of the work of the Seminole Chapter during the past year. He explained many of the details which eventually brought the local chapter its first place honors as the most active and progressive chapter in the state. Mr. Johnson was also a radio speaker on the same evening.

Mr. Henderson was elected to the state degree of Future Farmer Work and also elected on the State Executive Committee.

The boys were conducted through the University of Florida experiment station and museum by Mr. Johnson, and were in attendance at the closing banquet of the convention, where more than 250 boys and men were gathered in one of the most enthusiastic affairs ever held in the state.

The following boys were at the convention: John Senkarik, Clarence Henderson, William Harvey, Donald and Bernard Landress, Harry Gustavson, Ronald Muirhead, Clifford Bell, Also D. L. Landress, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dornier and Rex Packard.

HUNDREDS DIE AS HEAT WAVE RETAINS GRIP

Pacific Coast Enjoys Cool Weather But Rest Of Country In Sweltering In Heat

By Associated Press
While most of the Pacific coast states enjoyed moderate weather, the remainder of the country continued to swelter today under torrid skies that offered little hope for immediate relief.

Cooling ocean breezes were reported in many Florida cities while thundershowers brought at least temporary relief to Louisiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, and Georgia. The summer's offensive swirled into the heretofore moderate East, however, and the first heat deaths were reported in New York. Baltimore reported the mercury near the century mark and Washington had 86.

The Middle West continued to swelter while in Washington State overcasts were needed. The thermometer at Baker slid down to 84 and Kalispell, Mont., reported 88. The effects of Washington's coolness were felt in Colorado, Wyoming, and New Mexico by East Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas as were still fired by the sun's intensity.

The death toll to date attributable to the heat has exceeded 500 with more than 250 dying in the last 24 hours.

Mid-afternoon showers of brief duration yesterday stopped a steady climb of the mercury in the south after two deaths had been recorded, new heat records established and a golf tournament cancelled.

R. L. Hillborn, Carterville, Ga., switchman, died in a hospital after falling beneath a switch engine when he was overcome by the heat. W. R. Richardson died at Hotie, Ark., physicians said, but (Continued on Page Four)

McRory Explains Principal Changes In License Rates

At the request of many of the nearly 4000 automobile owners in this county who have become alarmed over a reported increase in the new rates on automobile license tags, Representative George W. McRory has prepared a short statement which briefly sets forth the principal changes in the license rate.

At the outset, Mr. McRory states that while the rates on various types of motor vehicles have been lowered, in the case of about 80 per cent of the owners, the rates have been increased only about 10 cents per 100 pounds. All the new rates become effective July 1.

Under the heading of reductions, Mr. McRory points out that pickup trucks, known as roadster trucks, have been reduced from 75 cents per 100 pounds, to 60 cents per hundred pounds. Dealers tags have also been reduced from $13.50 each, to $11 for a set of five, with additional tags to cost $5 each.

Under the heading of increases come the following: Motorcycles, from $5 to $7.50; Passenger cars weighing under 3,000 pounds, increased from 50 to 60 cents per hundred or about $3.50 more than in previous years on cars of that weight; Passenger cars weighing over 3,000 pounds increased from 50 to 75 cents per hundred; trucks over 4000 pounds, private use, from $1.50 to $2 per hundred; and trucks for hire under 4000 pounds, increased to $1 per hundred, over 4000 pounds, $2 per hundred.

Private trucks under 4000 pounds will be taxed the same as before, 75 cents per hundred. School bus rates are $1 per hundred, horses from $20 to $25, and wrecks operated by garage taxed a flat rate of $25.

Rates on buses of all sizes have been increased to a larger degree than on other types. For instance, the large 20 passenger buses have been raised from $1.50 per hundred to $2 per hundred, and from $1 per passenger to $2 per passenger.

Baseball Pitchers Well But Mates Fail To Get To Atkinson, Indian Ace

By PETER SCHAAL

The Feds and the Cocoa Indians engaged in another pitcher's duel yesterday afternoon in the East Coast city, and although the Feds showed up, improved baseball in most instances, they went down to a 7-10 defeat mainly because of Cocoa hits that were timely, and one or two that were questionable.

It seems that every time Buddy Lake, the sensational 17-year-old Fed pitcher gets on the hill against another chucker that the game immediately settles down into a battle of hurlers, for, as usual, the opposing team got less than 10 hits off the offerings of the youngster. They got seven, in fact, including two triples and two doubles.

In the meantime, the Feds were unable to get to Atkinson, the old man who not so long ago pitched for the Raiford pensioners, in any but one instance. The Feds got only five hits off Atkinson, who was in complete control of things all the way, but they bunched them for a run in the fifth inning.

Johnny Higgins had reached first safely on a beautiful single, when along came Roy Harrison, the youngster whose double and single played a big part in last Sunday's game with Winter Park. Harrison hit a chest high fast ball to the far reaches of the field, leaving Higgins, and reaching second before the ball was back to the infield. He did there however, and the Feds had scored their one and only marker.

Ray Britt again established himself as one of the greatest outfielders an amateur Sanford team ever had when he snagged a hard hit line drive that was labeled a triple at least, and cut off a rally. Roy, after hearing the crack of the bat, sensed that the ball was going places, so he targeted about, headed for the deep outfield but all the while keeping his eye on the ball, an caught the ball with a great reaching catch, although he had his back to the playing field. The youngster certainly snags sure-fire hits.

The Feds will spend the next three afternoons getting ready for their game with the Daytona League leaders in that city Thursday afternoon. Big Louie Tolofetti will get the call for mound duty, and by the time Manager Chapman gets through with the team, all the errors ought to be worked out of their systems.

The manager declared today that efforts to strengthen the team for the second half were progressing slowly, and that three or four new players would be on hand before next Thursday night. The new uniforms will be given an official christening here on Sunday July 18 when the second half of season opens, and there will be several new players in the line-

Holiday In Road Building Is Seen As Popular Idea

The administration leaders have been sending word and getting word sent that unless the Legislature puts through the kerosene and extra gas tax the people will have a sales tax. Well, we are not sure about that. By the time the second extra session meets on July 7 I am certain the administration leaders will find that this demand to cut out road building to help the man burdened with real estate has swept the state like wildfire. If the administration will accept the situation and agree to use a part of the road building money, the people will get practical relief without imposition of another penny of taxes.

Watson said reports from all parts of Florida, as relayed to him by Representative Mathews of Jacksonville, and others, indicated that sentiment was growing against road building in Florida.

"The people who go about the state know we have roads enough at the moment," Watson declared. "We see roads built through dead sections. You can go almost anywhere by a number of through routes. They have gone crazy with building, and they want to keep it up when the government of the United States, business people everywhere are cutting up."

Episcopal Church May Approve New Cannon On Divorce

NEW YORK, June 29.—(AP)—The joint commission on divorce of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church made public yesterday an amendment to its proposed Canon on divorce. It provides for the marriage of divorced persons in Episcopal churches, by clergy of the church, using the regular prayer book service, but gives to any clergyman the right to decline to officiate.

This amendment goes a step further than the proposal published Apr. 27, which authorized Episcopal clergy to remarry divorced persons under certain conditions, but forbade the use of the prayer-book service and the use of Episcopal churches for the ceremony.

In an amendment to the amendment, a minority bloc of the commission proposed that the marriage of a divorced person "may not be performed by a minister of this church, but if the parties are married by civil authority no impediment shall exist to their membership in the church, and a minister may, in his discretion, bless the union."

In an interview with a Herald reporter this afternoon, Frank L. Miller, who lives on Palmetto Avenue just beyond Franklin Street, outside the old City limits, declared that he intended to bring suit against the City Commissioners immediately, restraining them from selling his property for taxes.

The present City limits extend south to Ontra Street, west for about 1000 feet beyond Grapeville Avenue, east for about 1500 feet beyond Mellonville Avenue as far as a point near Fort Mellon, and east about a quarter of a mile beyond Fort Mellon.

The old City limits were bounded on the west by Grapeville Avenue, on the south by Hughey Street as far as French Avenue, south on French Avenue to Franklin Street, east on Franklin Street to a point about one quarter of a mile from Mellonville Avenue, and then north to the lake front, included within the City limits by the 1923 act were: Franklin Terrace, Pine Heights, Edgewood, Dreamwood, Seminole Heights, Oakhill and Woodruff subdivision.

Indications are for a smaller crop next season, he said, although financial returns are not up to expectations. Last season, he said, citrus growers fared better than farmers and most fruit growers.

Legality Of City Limits Questioned In Suit

When court convened this afternoon, George G. Herring, counsel for Mr. Spurling, asked Judge Wright to set aside the decision plea as raised at the morning session, but the request was denied.

After a short argument over the point as raised, Judge Wright declared that he would allow counsel for the plaintiff to amend the original declaration of plea so as to eliminate the words that "the accident occurred within the City limits of Sanford."

At a late hour this afternoon, counsel for the defense, who raised an objection to the amendment to the plea, which was denied, were conferring as to the advisability of taking a continuance of the case until the December term, a concession which Judge Wright granted them in sustaining Mr. Herring's amendment.

Varied Laws Demand To Force Morality

conclusion in the French Revolution and the things immediately following when blood flowed like water in the streets of Paris, and when the streets were filled with the bodies of the innocent.

As a matter of fact the Bible has settled the question for all time, so far as to the proper solution of it, when it says in Romans, "those of us live into himself and he man death to himself." There is contained in the simple declaration a moral and economic principle which cannot be violated without somebody suffering. Paul, the writer of this statement, was "a man with a flaming mind, and an intense individualist of bold initiative, who took upon himself to appreciate the early Christian Church, and when he met Christ on the Damascus Road and became a Christian himself he saw things in quite a different light and from then on earnestly advocated the rights of others as well as those of his own or the particular sect to which he belonged."

My rights cease where yours begin, and just so long as people dwell together in communities or states these must of necessity be laws regulating the rights and liberties of all for the common good. As Dr. Nelson has cleverly said, "possibly the only man who ever did what he wanted to do without anybody questioning him was Adam, and he had to quit doing it as soon as Eve came on the scene." The ideal state, he is sure, is when we love the Lord our God with all our heart and our neighbor as ourselves, but until that good time comes it will be necessary to regulate the rights and liberties of peoples by laws.

Whether we want to admit it or not the fact never-the-less remains that human nature is exceedingly corrupt, the root of evil is within us, and unless purged by some higher power it is most likely to bring forth most corrupt fruit; left to itself it is liable to descend to the most appalling depths of degradation. This being true it needs every restraint possible put around it, and if by the passing of certain laws certain temptations can be removed from it and the moral atmosphere of the community purified by them then surely we should welcome those laws.

Finally, underneath the whole thing runs a current of revolt against all authority, home, church, and state, which has its rise in the abnormal situation caused by the World War. It is a part, perhaps the biggest part, of the price we have to pay for war. And in our thinking and arguing on this matter of law and order and personal rights we should keep this in mind. We've been living for some several years now in a high fever, almost to the point of delirium, and when we come to ourselves and our brain is clear once more we are going to be heartily ashamed of many things we have said and done.

How The Hoover Plan Works

Just what will happen to the Hoover plan for a war debt suspension is rather confusing because so many nations and so many different kinds of receipts and payments are involved.

Germany will not collect $200,000,000 from Germany and will not pay the United States $100,000,000; Great Britain will not collect $200,000,000 from Germany and will not pay the United States $100,000,000; France will not collect $200,000,000 from Germany and will not pay the United States $100,000,000; Italy will not collect $200,000,000 from Germany and will not pay the United States $100,000,000; Czechoslovakia, which does not collect from Germany, will not pay the United States $5,000,000.

Tires And Safety

Perhaps one of the most potent causes of automobile accidents is the faulty tire. The General Tire and Rubber Company has recently undertaken a nation-wide campaign to increase safety among automobile drivers.

"Bad tires are bad in all seasons, but they are at their worst in hot weather. Tires passing at high speed over pavements with the sun streaming down on them are under an increased strain. If there is a weakplace in the carcass, it is likely to collapse. Numerous cases of overturned cars are due to front tire blowouts.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT

NEW YORK, June 23.—Broadway's "Carmen Corner" is about to pass. This is the showroom at 45th street, where for several years pretty girls have rolled cigarettes for the benefit of masculine passersby.

Since the Atlantic fleet has been passing in and out in a salutary and probably most economical manner, a new racket has sprung up among the professional panhandlers.

A trifle too late for much use are the latest knockoffs from Paris. They are garters, with hair and buttons embroidered on the ends, and the like, all on the order of "You Love Me."

BUILDING FLORIDA

No structure is better than its foundation. The foundation of the economic condition of the community and state depends upon how its money is used.

Many farmers lament that they cannot sell their products in their local community, when the most prominent piece of literature in their homes is a mail-order-house catalogue that causes many extra dollars to be sent out of the state.

and congratulate them on their courage. "But how do you like the act?" ask McCann and McMullen.

Long Beach, Coney and even Southampton on hot week-ends look like popcorn in the pan.

BY A GRASSHOPPER TO AN ANT

I'm saving for an emerald Of cold, November green. That color at the backs of clouds, Magnificently keen;

It must be one, defiant stone, Away from other gems, An emerald impossible To fit in diamonds.

Oh, I can see its wintry depths, Lonely, and hard, and bright, A splendid, solitary jewel Untouched by other light;

And when I'm old, and starving-poor, You'll snub me past endurance; I'll have my gorgeous emerald, And you'll have—your insurance!

Consider your Adam's Apple!!* Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Consider the Garden of Eden. When that old serpent put Eve up to the idea of handling Adam an apple, he may have been doing them both a good turn—for where would we be today, ladies and gentlemen, without our Adam's Apples? If we didn't have our Adam's Apples, we couldn't sing, we couldn't even speak. For your Adam's Apple is your larynx—your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. So—Consider your Adam's Apple. Be careful in your choice of cigarettes. Remember—the serpent is the smokers' Garden of Eden—harsh irritants are present in all raw tobaccos. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants. Reach for a LUCKY instead. Remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" Process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say, "Consider your Adam's Apple."

In Memphis, L. Glencoe, 70, was in a critical condition following the operation. There the temperature was 101 at mid-afternoon, but dropped to 99 within 25 minutes.

Birmingham went to the top of the list of principal southern cities with an official 106 reading, while Albany, Ga., reported 106 1/4, Clarkdale, Miss., 105, Waycross, Ga., 104, Macon, Ga., 103, Atlanta, 101 1/2, Memphis, 101, Little Rock, Ark., 100, and Nashville, Tenn., 100.

The Birmingham mark was a new June record. New marks also were recorded at Clarkdale, Atlanta and Memphis.

The Hill Crest women golf tournament at Birmingham was cancelled when three qualifying players were brought off the course in automobiles suffering from heat prostration.

Northern Florida experienced highest temperatures of the year. Jacksonville had 98 while St. Petersburg was only five degrees cooler. Miami and southeast Florida were fairly comfortable with a maximum recording of 87 degrees.

pleas, they were substantially the same as those offered against the original declaration. The new point raised by the defense was that the new cause of action which they said resulted from the amended declaration, was outside the two year statute of limitations.

George G. Herring, counsel for Mrs. Spurling, entered a demurrer to the nine pleas, declaring in effect that they were frivolous. Nearly an hour's argument ensued, when both counsel cited various court decisions sustaining their points. Judge Wright ruled in favor of Mr. Pope's attorney, however, whereupon Mr. Herring asked Mr. Whitehair that a directed verdict be ordered. Mr. Whitehair objected to a directed verdict at this time unless Mr. Herring would rest his case. Mr. Herring refused and the case was ordered presented to the jury.

At a late hour this afternoon, the following witnesses had been heard: Fred T. Williams, Chief of Police; Roy G. Williams, Carl E. Williams, C. H. Winn, and Mrs. Spurling. The jury is composed of the following: O. H. Flint, C. M. Stone, G. W. Spivey, H. B. Pinnell, R. P. Geiger, and H. A. Abell.

Mrs. Spurling is represented by George O. Herring, and Harry Akerman, of the Orlando firm of Akerman and Akerman. Mr. Pope is represented by the law firm of Hull, Landa, and Whitehair. DeLaud, with Mr. Whitehair as leading counsel, assisted by D. C. Hull, and Counts Johnson.

The automobile accident which resulted in the death of Mr. Spurling, occurred at the intersection of Oak and Geneva avenues, Jan. 2, 1929. Mr. Spurling was driving his automobile north on Oak Avenue, and Miss Rosalie Pope was driving east on Geneva Avenue at the time of the collision.

Catholic Priests In Mexico Called Burden On Public

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, June 20.—(AP)—Charging that Catholic priests in Mexico are representatives of a "foreign power" and are a burden on the public, Gov. Adalberto Tejeda yesterday asked the district court to uphold the recently enacted state law placing restrictions on the church.

In a counter-petition to an injunction against application of the law, which limits the number of priests allowed to officiate in the state to 11, the governor declared that because of "arrangements" between the Italian government and the Vatican the priests were in fact representatives of a foreign power.

He described them as "parasites who spend the people's money needlessly in building churches," and charged the church sends $14,000,000 annually to the Vatican from Mexico.

The court has granted a permanent injunction against application of the law to the priest in charge of the cathedral at Jalapa, the state capital, and several other actions for injunction are pending.

The baseball game shortly after 7 o'clock last night... The game was a close one, with the home team leading 3-2 in the seventh inning. The visiting team made a comeback in the eighth, but the home team held on to win 4-3.

The game was played at the Municipal Park stadium. The attendance was estimated to be around 10,000. The game was a sell-out for the night.

The home team's pitcher, John Smith, pitched a strong game, allowing only two runs in seven innings. The visiting team's pitcher, Bob Jones, pitched well but was outpitched by Smith.

The game was a classic example of a pitchers' duel. Both teams had strong lineups, but the pitching was the key to the outcome.

The most surprising and heartening thing about the club during its last few games, is the steady progress both in the field and at bat. The young stars seem to improve with age, and together with Roy Britt and Bud Lake, are really the most sensational players on the club, even excelling the old Red Martin, the mystery man. Higgins is holding his own, and his stick-work becomes more lively each day. There isn't a fan in the grand stand these days who wouldn't swear by the youth when it comes to nabbing the old apple, while all the businessmen which used to accompany a ball's being hit toward St. Louis in rapidly disappearing as the boy becomes more experienced.

Harrison has laid on to the ball with telling effect during the past few games. He double off Akkison at Coosa last Sunday being a ball-like affair which was a joy to behold. On Thursday Harrison tripped a triple and double off Rogers, getting the hits in the eighth.

Pat Miller, the right fielder, is an crusher and will be fast to the team for several days as the result of an ankle injury sustained at Coosa. Luckily, Earl Ammon, the veteran splendid batter, has just returned from a vacation in the bad lands of northern Minnesota, and he will be available as an outfielder on Thursday. Earl can sock that old apple like nobody's business, and fill the ninth when they get over two runs, and had a chance to tie the score. Barn grounded out to Stoney with two on and two out however, and the game was over.

In what will no doubt decide the National League pennant although the season is but half over, the Cubs won a 3 to 2 decision over the Giants in the first game of a crucial contest. Carl Hubbell has had pitched five shutouts for the Cubs for eight consecutive games. In the ninth inning, Carl got over three runs, he gave them the game. Collins drove in the winning run with a two-run homer, which was a homer for the Cubs. The Cubs' lead was 3 to 2 in the ninth.

HEADLINERS WHO FIGHT TOMORROW DECLARED READY

Peckham-Stewart Bout Scheduled to Draw Big Orlando Crowd

By PETER SCHAAL
Approximately 150 fight fans from Orlando are expected to be in the stands at Municipal Park tomorrow night when Promoter Bill Melton, of Orlando, will stage Sanford's first fight program in two years.

The attraction which brings that many persons to this city is said to be none other than the headline bout between Stanley "Kid" Peckham, popular Lake Mary battler now a leading member of the University of Florida boxing team, and Eddie Stewart, the Miami lightweight whose exhibitions over strong opponents has won him only the most favorable of comment.

According to advices from Orlando, where Stewart is in training, the youngster is fit and ready for the battle tomorrow night. He will weigh in at 135 pounds, matching Peckham's poundage to the last ounce. Stewart has just completed a training round which he said to have placed him in all-around perfect condition for the fight, and he maintains that he will put an end to Peckham's long string of victories.

From Lake Mary, comes the news that Stewart will need all the conditioning he is claiming. Peckham has sensationally averaged in three years three shutouts and will be the headliner on a card to be fought in the Westerville Armory where he has one of the hardest tests of his career.

Stout comment upon local fight fans reveals that the Peckham-Stewart battle will be worth going miles to see. Road boys from the promotion of making it the evening event, and the crowd affairs is estimated to be crowded with action all the way.

E. C. Keener, referee for the bout, will referee the Peckham-Stewart fight. The fight will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening.
