HISTORICAL FACT IN LINCOLN DEATH FOUND IN LETTER

Identity Of Two Men Who Pursued Wilkes Booth Across Stage After He Shot President Revealed By Alumnus

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 13.—(INS)—The identity of the two men who pursued Wilkes Booth across the stage after he shot President Lincoln appears to be definitely established with the publication today in the Princeton Alumni Weekly of a letter from a Princeton graduate who witnessed the crime.

The letter, dated Apr. 16, 1865, was written by James S. Knox, Princeton '60, to his father. It described the events of the tragic evening, sprang to the stage and made a futile effort to catch the assassin.

The President entered the theatre at 8:12 o'clock amid deafening cheers and the rising of all. Everything was cheerful and never was our magistrate more enthusiastically welcomed. Many presents were made to him in the play, while Mr. Lincoln laughed heartily and bowed frequently to the gratified people.

U.S. NAVAL TUG GROUNDS WITH LOSS OF LIVES

Boats And Seaplane Conduct Search For Three Missing Sailors Of Mohave Which Runs On Rocks During Night

Twenty-Three Men Saved From Wreck

Craft Goes Ashore While Returning From Charleston Navy Yard Under Clear Sky

BOSTON, Feb. 13.—(INS)—Naval craft and a seaplane combed Massachusetts Bay off Nantucket Beach today in an unsuccessful hunt for three sailors missing as the result of the grounding of the United States Naval Tug Mohave on the rocks of Hardings Ledge, east of Point Allerton, Hull.

Twenty-three other naval men were saved when the tug was wrecked and some of them were in a serious condition today. Meanwhile naval officials at Charleston Navy Yard were trying to determine why the Mohave was so far off her course at the time of the grounding.

The three men, believed dead, whose bodies have not been found on the sea or by patrol on the beach were: W. J. Enos, A. T. Liles, and C. H. Reed.

The Mohave went ashore on the ledge under a starlit sky with the sea smooth while returning to Boston Navy Yard from Charleston, the scene of salvage operations over the grave of the submarine S-4. The three missing men had put off from the wrecked tug in a small boat. Six others were hauled from the icy waters when their dinghy sprang a leak as they rowed shoreward. The men are: Charles Thompson, Clifford Alexander, Francis H. Slimes, Edgar Townsend, Richard Connelly and James Colbert.

Newton Baker's Candidacy Suggested As West's Hope To Defeat Governor Smith

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(INS)—Ex-Secretary of War Newton D. Baker was brought forward today as the hope of Democratic drys of the West to beat "Al" Smith for the Presidential nomination. The Baker boom was launched by ex-Secretary of Agriculture Edwin T. Meredith of Des Moines. Meredith is identified with the William Gibbs McAdoo wing of the party.

"Baker can have the Iowa delegation at the convention if he wants it," Meredith said. "There is much Baker sentiment in the West. He represents the thought of progressive Democrats of the Wilson type, who at the same time are dry."

Canzoneri Defeats Bass In Fifteen Round Battle Held In New York Arena

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Special Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—It might be well to maintain your wits in New Orleans if you do not chide your bootblack when he lands a left hook with the toe of his brush flash on the "bulb" of your corn. Instead, you might smile conciliatorily, tip him with a lavish dime, lift your hat in parting and maybe he will like you enough so that he won't really mind when a year or two later, you pay your way in to see him win the featherweight championship of the world.

It wasn't so many years ago that Pete Herman quit bootblacking in New Orleans because he realized that he was on his way to the featherweight championship and, today, Herman is a ring tragedist, a blind man virtually, but in purple robe of royalty is draped about the shoulders of Tony Canzoneri and thus the second generation of a ring lineage has been established. Tony, like Herman, has hot blood of Italy in his veins. He, too, is an ex-bootblack and the parallel is complete with the statement that he came from the stalls of New Orleans.

Canzoneri is the new featherweight champion today because he ran up such a lead on points over Benny Bass, the Philadelphia contender. In the first ten rounds that color five. The only man in the house who didn't think so was Bass and he closed such a rush that he all but caught the distressed Canzoneri at the wire, the latter just lasting to get a deserved decision.

That was the New York Commission score over the National Boxing Association, the latter having nominated Bass as its champion while New York declared for Tony. The N. B. A. also finished second with Jimmy Slattery in his more luscious recent light heavyweight title fight with Tommy L. Ughron, the New York candidate. Tony is the first legitimate featherweight champion since Kid Kaplan resigned fifteen months ago.

Bass fled up like a tobacco snuff for six rounds after Tony dropped him for a count of eight in the third round and while the Philadelphia man was doing his burk and wing, Canzoneri so completely took the play away from him that he never quite got it back.

With the exception of the twelfth, it was all Bass from the tenth round on. Tony slowing down to a snifter under Bass' heavy rights to the body. By this time Benjamin had discovered that Tony no longer could hurt him and so he let Tony slugged it out with more than an even break on the points. He had Canzoneri visibly absorbed in each of the last three rounds but a late start is often a vain one. It was this time, anyhow. At that, he might have taken Tony in another round or two, but since they pay off here at the end of the fifteenth I really don't see what can be done about it. Bass' rally merely served to make a fine fight out of what had been a good one.

DeLand Ready For County Fair Which Will Open Shortly

DE LAND, Feb. 10, 1928. With just a few days intervening before the opening of the Volusia County Fair the grounds present a busy appearance as decorators, workmen about the buildings, and sponsors of exhibits prepare for the forthcoming festivity.

Products for the exhibit buildings began arriving early in the week and will continue to increase in generous proportions as the time limit for their entrance approaches. The car containing the government exhibit is on the sidetracks in close proximity to the grounds and will be unloaded immediately. Just about all the livestock being shown at the Tampa Fair will be seen here, together with entries from local dairies.

The arranging of community and other booths is being taken care of early in order to avoid congestion, during the latter part of the week when the bulk of the exhibits will arrive. Laborers at work in the negro building are bringing their trucks to a close.

Richards, the official decorator, has his work well under way. Several of the buildings have already been given their outside dressing and a crew of decorators today began their program in the business section of the city. Gala attire is being provided for all public buildings in the city and the streets are being overhung with banners, pennants, streamers and other decorations.

ASTROLOGERS DIVINE GOOD BUSINESS FOR WORLD DURING YEAR

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The year 1928 will be a good year for business and professional men, poets and pickpockets, but a bad year for almost everybody else, according to the prophecies of European astrologers.

For 1928 stands under the sign of Mercury, god of trade, eloquence and thievery, and say the astrologers the gods take care of their own.

But Mercury years, they claim, are notoriously bad years for farmers, fishermen and wine bibblers. The weather will stay wet and cold and spoil the harvest. There will be many mice and snails, but few fish and these won't bite.

France, Italy, Rumania and Czechoslovakia are supposed to be facing a crisis till September; after that Switzerland, Turkey, Greece and Jerusalem are in for a bad time.

The rest of the astrological constellation, however, will bring luck to Germany, England and Denmark.

Iowa Runner Wins Race From Famous German Track Star

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—(INS)—The fame of Dr. Otto Peltzer, German middle-distance runner, was put in eclipse today by a lean lanky Iowa by the name of Ray Conger.

Conger, national A. A. U. champion outdoor runner and a former prominent track man at the University of Iowa, showed his heels to the highly-touted German runner in the 1,000 meter race at the riding club games here last night.

Conger, who used to run down rabbits on the prairies of his native state, beat the tape a full nine yards ahead of Peltzer. Ray's time for the distance was 2:37 2-5, not a record.

Running in the same event were Ray Dodge, another I. A. A. C. entrant who was calculated to give the German his keenest competition, and a lad named Leo Larrivee of the Chicago Athletic Association. They finished in that order, Conger, Peltzer, Dodge and Larrivee, before the race Conger was rated a rank outsider. His start, which was poor, didn't boost his prospects any. Peltzer took the lead on the first turn and Dodge fell in behind, with Conger running a free third. Larrivee brought up the rear.

Florida Will Play Harvard Football Team In '29 Season

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Feb. 11.—(INS)—The University of Florida may not call for its return game with the University of Tennessee until the season of 1929, it was intimated here this morning by disinterested parties.

The two great schools are expected to meet again in the fall of 1929, which is billed for Knoxville, Tenn., on Dec. 8 of this year with a return game tentatively scheduled for Jacksonville, Fla., in the fall of 1929.

Florida's acceptance of an offer yesterday from Harvard University of a game in Cambridge, Mass., on Nov. 2, 1929, is given as the reason why the "Gators and Varsity" may defer their second game a year.

PORT PROMOTERS MAKE PLANS FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Thousands of citizens from all Florida are expected to attend the celebration to be held at Port Bay Mable on February 22 when the stip of land connecting the bay with the Atlantic Ocean will be blasted out with two tons of dynamite. The opening will make it possible for vessels of 18-foot draft to enter the harbor.

The program for the celebration is being handled by a committee of prominent citizens of Broward County and the Port Authority of Broward County, which was created by the state legislature at the last session. Arrangements are being made to accommodate 100,000 persons at the harbor site during the day.

Port Bay Mable is being built under a tri-partite agreement with the cities of Hollywood, Fort Lauderdale and J. W. Young, founder of Hollywood, each party furnishing $2,000,000. Ultimate plans call for the dredging of the harbor to a depth of 30 feet, which will make Port Mable one of the deepest and largest ports on the Atlantic coast. The average depth of the inner harbor is now 20 feet. The 1,200 turning basin with a depth of 35 feet has been completed and work on slip No. 1 is nearing completion.

Invitations to attend the celebration are being sent to high federal and state officials. President Coolidge has been invited to press a button at Washington which will set off the double blast which will open the cut. Several prominent speakers have promised to attend the celebration. Assurance has been received that the Seaboard Air Line Railway and Florida East Coast Railway and bus transportation companies will operate special excursions that day.

Captains of visiting yachts along the Florida East Coast are being formally invited to attend and captains of passenger vessels in Miami and Palm Beach are being offered concessions at the harbor for the occasion.

JUDGE RENDER'S RULING

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 9.—(INS)—Landlords may own the premises rented to another person, but if the tenant is in arrears with his rent, this affords him no authority to act as his own court and officer, according to county Judge Cornelius.

J. E. Phillips was bound over to the Hillsborough county criminal court under $500 bond on a charge of trespass after he had evicted the small children of Mrs. Marguerite Cox and nailed up the door of the house for which she was behind in the rent.

Judge Cornelius ruled that a landlord must resort to civil courts in such problems and not "take the law into his own hands."

RACE BETTING LOSER

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 11.—(INS)—The proposal to establish racing in Virginia with a pari-mutuel system of betting was douled today. The Senate defeated the authorization bill by an overwhelming vote of 35 to 2, after the church and reform forces of the state had maintained unceasing agitation against it.

How To Be Happy

I have a friend out in the west who writes very good poetry. Occasionally he sends me a love message, as he calls it, in which I come in contact with some of his latest efforts. This came to me recently through the mail.

When I walked with God—God walked with me!
But which was God and which was I?
Ah! as we tread, Love lives in me!
And I live in God—God lives in me!

Am I as you happy?
Higher good, I think, don't you? Speaking of happiness, did you ever see any one afflicted with constipation or renal trouble that was happy? That being my specialty, I come in contact with lots of such people and they are usually the most miserable individuals you can find anywhere but after they get where they can have two or three natural evacuations a day and the renal trouble is corrected, they move up into the happy circle. Just yesterday, an old lady over eighty, a sufferer from bronchitis and constipation, who came from near Chicago for treatment, told me that she wouldn't breathe ten times the fee that she was now, just to be able to have two or three natural evacuations of the bowels a day, and sleep at night without having to get up around and get up four or five times a night. Such reports as that, and we get many of them, tend to make me happy, as well as the patient.

THE TREE OF LIFE—Wisdom is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.—Prov. 3:18.

PRAYER—Lord, we would know wisdom and instruction and walk uprightly.

THE LITTLE THINGS—It is the little things that count: The little words that slowly mount to the pure passion of a prayer; The little deeds that spring from care.

Interesting Figures

Some figures presented recently in the Miami Herald are interesting, especially if you are inclined to worry about the future welfare of Florida. These facts were compiled by the State Chamber of Commerce, covering several different lines of industry, and indicate to a gratifying degree the extent of the progress this state has made.

With the establishment of clearing houses in Lakeland and Winter Haven last year, there are now seven clearing houses in Florida where there were only five before. The total clearings in these cities amounted last year to $1,787,002,637.63; whereas, in 1924 the clearings were only $1,402,304,376.60. Every city showed some increase with the exception of St. Petersburg where a very small drop was noted.

The Miami paper speaks of electric current as follows: "During the first 11 months of 1927 the production of electric current by public utilities in Florida was greater than ever for the same months of the previous year. There was a general increase all over the country but the growth in Florida was larger for seven of the 11 months than it was for the whole country, and in one other month it was the same as the rest of the nation. For instance, in January last year the rate of increase for the entire country was 10 per cent while it was 33 per cent in this state. This proportion was maintained for three months and then Florida dropped back with the other states."

Construction of roads offers a good indication of the manner in which the whole state has developed. Over four hundred and eighty-two miles of hard surfaced roads were completed last year. Between January 1 and December 15 of last year over $13,000,000 in road contracts of one kind or another were let. The construction of bridges brought the amount expended for road purposes up to $20,292,951.73, while it is stated that over $17,000,000 are available for road work this year.

The Miami Herald concludes its interesting article as follows: "In commenting on these figures the State Chamber of Commerce says that more interest is being manifested in the North in Florida than ever before and that coupons are being received that were clipped from advertisements in magazines published two years ago. This interest in Florida indicates that many Northerners are considering coming down here to establish their homes and to engage in business. Local chambers of commerce should be in a position to welcome these strangers and to give them every possible help in finding the locations they want."

The Business of Football

We often hear of professionalism in college athletics. We often hear it denied or admitted. The charge that football players receive pay for their services is in the main, we believe, erroneous, but that football has assumed proportions in college of some gigantic industry cannot be denied.

We have heard of enormous fees paid head coaches by big universities. We have heard of their well founded "systems." We have heard of their "one coach to each player" plan where the qualities of each man are gone over as with a fine comb to determine the most suitable for each position. We have heard of the corps of trainers, and rubbers, and the "diet table."

Few know, however, of the enormous receipts realized from football games each year. Yale University alone received the nice sum of $1,015,705.31 last fall and that does not include one third of the gate receipts turned over to visiting teams. After liniment, railroad fare, telegrams, spiked shoes, pads, and coach salaries had been paid, there remained $415,541.08 in net profits.

Many a business would be glad to say as much.

Just "Idling" Along

While Lindbergh was flying over forests in Haiti, he wrote, "I'm idling along at seventy-five miles an hour." Lindbergh was not joking; he was serious. He was "idling." When he speeds up his little Spirit of St. Louis, he makes around one hundred and twenty miles an hour.

Most of us today regard seventy-five miles an hour as a pretty good speed. We are used to traveling around in automobiles, or on trains, which "idle" at about thirty-five. Older men who remember the last days of the last century recall that twenty-five miles an hour, with any horse and buggy, was a "right smart clip," while "idling" was no better than five or six.

So the world speeds up. An Englishman, who plans to break the world's record this month on Daytona Beach with his funny looking "speed marvel," tells that there is no limit to speed over the ground. Four hundred, five hundred miles an hour can be attained as easily as sixty, he says. All that is needed is material of sufficient strength to withstand the force of wind and friction at that speed.

Who knows? In another twenty years we may be "idling" at two hundred miles an hour!

Getting Information To The Grower

At the second day's conference of the citrus committee of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, interesting facts were brought out relative to the question of fruit production. Speakers stressed the point that one of the needs of the Florida industry is the greater and more systematic dissemination of scientific and other helpful information among the growers. This, let it be understood, is one of the primary considerations actuating the present campaign for an organization of citrus growers.

Mr. McLendon, Agricultural Agent of the Florida East Coast Railroad, told the committee that the poor fruit sent out from Florida is due mainly to the lack of the latest and most approved methods of pest control and fertilization. Groves have been established in soil not suited to citrus growing. Work of the railroad's agricultural bureau in encouraging growers to give more attention to these points, Mr. McLendon said, has already brought good results in improved crops.

Mr. McBride, Agricultural Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, reported the activities of his railroad in conferring with growers and transmitting to them information obtained by the State University and the Department of Agriculture on best practices in citrus culture. Improvement in production, said Mr. McBride, is largely a matter of education, and the growers information is being given them in the form of practical cooperation of the growers, which, among other needful and desirable things, will perfect a plan whereby all of this vast amount of important information can be made available to all growers through intelligent dissemination conducted through the agencies of the organization. Influenced by organization, Florida growers will use this information and the result will be better fruit, which means better marketing and better returns.

Health HINTS

By DR. J. C. HOWELL
How To Be Happy
I have a friend out in the far west who writes very good poetry. Occasionally he sends me a late message, as he calls it, in which he usually expresses some of his latest efforts. This came to me recently through the mail.

"When I walked with God—and walked with me! But which was God and which was me? Ah! as we tread, Love let me see! And I live in God—God lives in me. And so I'm happy." Further good, I think, than just speaking of happiness, did you ever see any one afflicted with constipation or renal trouble that was happy? That being my specialty, I came in contact with lots of such people and they are usually the most miserable individuals you can find anywhere but after they get where they can have two or three natural evacuations a day and the renal trouble is corrected, they come up into the happy circle. Just yesterday, an old lady over eighty, a sufferer from hemorrhoids and constipation, who came from near Chicago for treatment, told me that she wouldn't bragge ten times the fee that she gave me. She is now able to have two or three natural evacuations of the bowels a day, and sleep at night without having to toss around and get up four or five times a night such reports as that, and we get many of them, tend to make me happy, as well as the patient.

Takes the "static" out of buying.
There's a peculiar bug sweeping over the world today that has already sunk its teeth into millions. Its name is Radio.
No one is immune. If it hasn't bitten you yet, your time will come. For some months you will lie absolutely helpless in its power. You may later recover from its effects sufficiently to go about your daily tasks and attend to your social duties, but you will never fully recover.
The experience is indescribably delightful and the pleasure never-ending—if— There's quite an "if" in radio.
We repeat, the pleasure is never-ending, if you get a good radio receiver and good accessories.
And you overcome the "if" by careful reading of radio advertising. Like everything else, good radio sets and accessories are the advertised ones. It doesn't pay to advertise the worthless.
Advertising will help you in radio as it helps you in selecting intrinsic value in everything else. You can rest assured that anything which is continuously advertised, whether it be a radio set or a can of asparagus, has stood the test.
Radio works best in the dark—but there's no need to buy in the dark.
Let the light of advertising show you the right road to radio satisfaction. Read advertising regularly.
