The show Friday will feature music by instrumental and vocal groups and a variety of other acts.

Tornadoes Rip West States

By United Press International

Tornadoes ripped through Texas and Wyoming, deep snow drifts buried Montana and floodwaters covered northern Wisconsin and Michigan today as spring storms broke out across the nation.

A broad cold front sent temperatures plunging across the swirling Midwest and stirred a wide band of thunderstorms in its wake.

Trucker Kenneth Perrin, 35, of Sabree, Ky., suffered a possible broken back when a tornado whirled from Loveland, Colo., across the Wyoming border and flipped his auto-transport truck upside down on a highway near Cheyenne.

A discharging barrage of weather struck Texas. A tornado hit Terrell, east of Dallas, unroofing several homes and a downtown hotel, but causing no injuries.

Downpours mixed with hail battered north-central Texas Sunday.

France Would Go Along With Atom Ban, DeGaulle Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — French President Charles DeGaulle told Congress today that unless the United States, Britain and Russia agree to destroy their nuclear weapons, France will be compelled to stockpile them.

He told a joint session of the House and Senate that not only peace but life itself "will be in jeopardy if the temptation and the threat of war remain hanging over the world due to nuclear weapons."

DeGaulle, whose government orbited the first French atomic bomb in the Sahara desert earlier this year, said: "Falling the renunciation of atomic armaments by those states who are provided with them, the French republic obviously will be obliged to equip itself with such armaments."

DeGaulle spoke to the joint session after he and President Eisenhower concluded their pre-summit talks in general agreement on grand strategy for next month's Paris meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

They announced after a session Sunday at Camp David that they were in accord on "how we shall proceed at the summit."

At today's first session, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville were called in, told what had taken place, and helped their chiefs polish up a final communiqué.

The visiting French leader said in his address to Congress he "does not despair at all of seeing peace established in the world." But on the nuclear ban possibilities, he said: "We have reached the last moment when agreement appears possible."

DeGaulle pointed out that France advocates a start toward complete nuclear disarmament by cutting back on rockets and missiles which could deliver the atomic or hydrogen payloads.

Former Osteen Boy Dies In Crash

Malcolm W. Phillips Jr., 16, a former resident of Osteen was killed in an auto accident in Newark, N. J. Saturday morning.

Phillips was a passenger in a car with two other boys. He and another youth were killed instantly while the driver of the car is reported in critical condition in a New Jersey hospital.

Phillips was born in Osteen and attended schools in Osteen and Sanford before moving to Newark three years ago.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Thelma Phillips of Newark, and his father, Malcolm Phillips Sr., and grandmother, Mrs. Rose Phillips, both of Osteen.

Chuluota Club Plans Big Night

The Chuluota Women's Club issues a reminder to all residents that Tuesday is the big night at the Community Club House.

The CWC is presenting its April "Night for Fun."

Beginning at 7 p. m., the night is planned as a mixed social, and events are scheduled to provide amusement for the entire family. There is no admission charge and there will be only nominal charges at the concession and refreshment stands.

Nearly 800 persons, including the 825 residents of the Chippewa Indian village of Odahah, Wis., were forced from their homes by the swollen Bad and Montreal rivers near Ashland and Hurley, Wis., and Ironwood, Mich.

The Bad River was reported 30 feet deep in Odahah after more than eight inches of rain soaked the area during three days.

Weary workers said they expected the rivers to crest soon, but reported rescue operations hampered by freezing temperatures.

An hour-long cloudburst left four feet of water in some Minneapolis-St. Paul streets. Minneapolis police helped doctors enter Methodist Hospital, which was on an "island."

Three days of snow dumped up to 40 inches in the mountains south of Helena, Mont. Cui Bank reported the deepest official snow depth—10 inches—but an unofficial 18 inches of the Great Falls baseball diamond postponed the opening game of the Pioneer League's season there.

Tragic Holiday COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The Sunday holiday of a flying couple and a resort-bound family ended in death and tragedy when a light plane dived into busy U. S. 40 east of here and crashed into a car. Trapped and killed in their burning Taylorcraft plane were Delbert Charles Biles, 23, Columbus, and his wife, Monalee, 22.

Typhoon Rips Islands MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — A tropical typhoon named Karen curved toward Formosa today, leaving 30 persons missing and six dead in the Philippines. The typhoon ripped across the Philippines Sunday, felling trees and telegraph poles and flooding houses.

At least 7,000 persons were reported homeless. Damage to crops and other property was estimated at two million dollars.

Baby Found Safe CHICAGO (UPI) — A mystery woman kidnaped a 4-month-old boy Sunday night but the baby was found safe and unharmed early today in a cheap Skid Row rooming house. Police said the woman was known only as Ruth and reported to police by her first name. Deputy Chief Thomas Kelly said he would charge her with kidnaping. Fingerprints were taken to try to learn her identity.

Back To School JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Seven teenage boys, their Nazi club broken up by a juvenile court judge, returned to school today with orders not to associate with one another. The boys, ages 14 to 16, spent three nights in jail last week after one of its members told about the club to school authorities. The boy said he decided to tell because the group was turning "a bit pro-Soviet."

Trial Postponed WASHINGTON (UPI) — Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff today postponed until Oct. 4 the conspiracy trial of former Federal Communications Commissioner Charles A. Mack and attorney Thomson Whitlatch. The postponement, the third Holtzoff has granted since last fall, came after Whitlatch's attorney reported that the Miami attorney was having a "rough time" following surgery for removal of his gall bladder at Coral Gables Friday.

Dog Ordinance Discussion Set A North Orlando dog ordinance will be discussed at the village council meeting May 3, Mayor Roy Liddick said today.

Lynch Attempt Sparks Korean Demonstrations

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — Ten thousand angry Koreans pined through the night in defiance of Army troops and tanks in a wild new demonstration in which 500 students tried to lynch Lee Ki Poong, the controversial vice president.

Li Gen Song Yo Chan, martial law commander, said one demonstrator was killed by a policeman in front of the Lee home. He said he had ordered the arrest of the policeman who fired and to resign and give South Korea a real democracy without the graft and corruption the students said brought Lee to office last March.

With screaming violence the rioters rejected Rhee's proffered reforms and demanded that he quit outright.

Rhee's opponents today showed him with unprecedented verbal abuse and launched a move to oust him from office.

Even some of the 85-year-old president's staunchest supporters turned against him and there were indications Rhee's Liberal Party was beginning to crumble into factions.

A 600 word statement from Rhee Sunday, in which he divorced himself from party politics but gave no signs of giving up one bit of the autocratic power with which he has ruled Korea for more than 12 years, appeared to satisfy no one.

Lee escaped possible death when he and his family fled his mansion before the mobs arrived. The students tore down the gates leading to the western-style home, wrecked and ransacked the house and yanked with rage when they did not find Lee.

The mob had calmed down by 11 p. m. but around midnight it came to life again and began a new assault against Lee's home. They began chanting "kill Lee Ki Poong" and it was apparent the troops were getting edgy.

It was the election of Lee as vice president last March 15 which touched off last Thursday's riots in which 130 students were killed and 780 others wounded. His opponents cried fraud and corruption.

11 Are Wounded In Mississippi Beach Race Riot

BILOXI, Miss. (UPI) — White men armed with clubs, chains and other weapons attacked a group of Negroes who attempted to swim at an all-white beach Sunday and triggered several shooting incidents in which 11 persons were wounded.

Police reinforcements were called into this resort city of 30,000 to help quell the racial violence that erupted when approximately 100 Negroes tried to intrude the Gulf of Mexico beach.

Four Negroes were treated for injuries at a hospital here following the wild melee at the beach. The night was pierced by a series of shootings and outbursts of violence in which at least 11 persons were wounded. None of the shotgun victims was seriously injured.

Biloxi Mayor Laz Quave said, "It's all over for the night. I'd like to say it's all over, but I'm afraid it's just beginning."

Authorities ordered all establishments serving liquor closed and urged residents to stay off the streets.

Approximately 80 state troopers, county and city policemen patrolled the streets in an effort to halt the violence that gripped the city.

Police Chief Herbert McDonnell said, "It's just like a hornet's nest down here. I don't know what's going to happen next."

McDonnell said Dr. Gilbert Mason, a Negro physician, was responsible for the riot at the beach Sunday afternoon.

Mason, a resident of Biloxi who was educated at Howard University in Washington, D.C., has led a fight to win equal rights for Negroes along Mississippi's 20-mile man-made beach known as "American Riviera."

City Tax Report Scheduled Tonight

The Sanford City Commission will get a report tonight on its financial picture if the city's personal property tax were eliminated.

City finance director Henry Tamm will give the report on what would happen, if the personal property tax were removed and real property assessed either at 100 percent valuation, or at the present 62 percent.

Consideration of a proposed swimming pool code and a report from City Manager W. E. Knowles on city water supply are also on the agenda.

'Modern' Pirates Kill Boat Captain

NAASSAU, Bahamas (UPI) — A pirate's lady and five other Americans were questioned today by British and American officials about two heavily armed buccaners who boarded a cabin cruiser, murdered the captain and marooned the passengers on a barren island Sunday.

The pirates, believed to be American bad-check artists, outraced the U. S. Coast Guard into Cuban waters, and were thought to have landed in the general vicinity of Gardens, Cuba. British officials asked Cuban authorities to aid in their capture.

Left behind with the five castaways from the charter cruiser Murel III was red-haired Barbara Tables, 18, of San Antonio, Tex., who said she was the wife of one of the pirates.

She said she and the two men had been stranded on deserted Elbow Key about 130 miles south of Miami, since the cabin cruiser ran aground and broke up on the rocks Tuesday.

The seaborne fugitives were believed to be Alvin Tables Jr. and Billy Ray Sees, wanted in Texas, Louisiana and Alabama for passing bad checks. They had bought their cabin cruiser with a $3,000 bad check in Key West, April 17, according to Murel's wife.

By United Press International Six candidates for governor split three and three Sunday on whether bi-racial committees can help solve racial tensions in Florida.

Doyle Carlson Jr., Ted David and Harvey Beiser all said they think the committees will help. Fred O. Dickinson, Ferris Bryant and Bill Hendrix disagreed.

"These committees were set up to resolve a problem about which there is no area for compromise," said Bryant. He referred to anti-segregation demonstrations at department store lunch counters.

"I think there is an area of compromise," David shot back. "Separate but equal facilities in the department stores would help."

Dickinson said he doubted the committees could do much about sit-downs. Hendrix said the committees were composed of "moderates and integrationists and are only a speck on the NAACP."

Carlson said the committees "serve a very useful purpose. They keep the lines of communication open." Beiser called the committees "very helpful."

The candidates appeared on an hour-long television show in Tallahassee.

David twice exchanged heated words with his opponents. He and Dickinson clashed when Dickinson said he admired Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus for closing Little Rock schools.

He also tangled with Hendrix over remarks about Gov. LeRoy Collins.

into radiating the U. S. Coast Guard and asking for an amphibious plane to rescue them. Boatwright was dead when the plane reached them.

Rescued with Mrs. Tables were Kent Hochinson, of Islamorada, mate of the Murel III, and the four Pennsylvania men who had chartered the vessel, Chester L. Harrop, 37, of Wilkesburg, a retired oil man; F. J. Scholer, 38, of Monroeville, a real estate man; Edward McCready, 38, of Penn Hills, a road construction official, and Stanton C. Fogle, 58, of East McKeesport, an attorney.

All live near Pittsburgh.

Gubernatorial Candidates Split Over Bi-Racial Study

Collins, Hendrix said "anyone who gets Collins tied around his neck will lose this race."

David said Hendrix's remark was "disgusting."

At Miami State Sen. Tom Adams called for tax reforms today in pushing his candidacy for secretary of state.

"Equitable revision of Florida's hodge-podge tax structure is one of the most critical needs facing our state today," Adams told the Miami Sertoma Club.

He is chairman of an interim legislative committee set up to eliminate inequities and recommend tax reforms.

Spending in the gubernatorial campaign last week totaled $174,852 and contributions amounted to $176,063, reports to the secretary of state showed today.

Ferris Bryant led the pack both in spending and donations. He reported $49,555 spent, for a total to date of $346,787, and contributions of $50,497 for a total of $407,284.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — The morals charge trial of actor William Talman and six other persons arrested when officers said they were found frolicking in the nude, today was continued until June 12.

With screaming violence the rioters rejected Rhee's proffered reforms and demanded that he quit outright.

Rhee's opponents today showed him with unprecedented verbal abuse and launched a move to oust him from office.

Even some of the 85-year-old president's staunchest supporters turned against him and there were indications Rhee's Liberal Party was beginning to crumble into factions.

A 600 word statement from Rhee Sunday, in which he divorced himself from party politics but gave no signs of giving up one bit of the autocratic power with which he has ruled Korea for more than 12 years, appeared to satisfy no one.

Seminole Twirlers Take First In Meet

Seminole High's "A Corps" of majorettes twirled their way to first place in the Florida State United States Twirling Association contest Friday.

The 11 girls competed with majorettes from all over Florida at the contest in Orlando. They were in the large team competition which has 18 or more girls to a team.

The Seminole "B Corps" was third place in the competition for small teams of less than 12 girls. Ruth Carlson received fourth place in the 13-year-old solo twirling contest, and Delores Kirsch took third place in the 16-year-old group. Each member of the "B Corps" entered individual competition. There's a slight possibility that the girls will enter the national U.S.T.A. contest this summer. Bandmaster Ernest Cowley said today.

Twirling for the "A Corps" were Delores Hargreaves, Marty Stiemper, Carole Osterholm, Fay Garner, Barbara Bradley, Sandra Anderson, Ruth Carlson, Frankie Jones, Angie Stewart, Robbie Berry and Michael Pope. In the "B Corps" are Adelle Alling, Sandy Rowell, Delores Kirsch, Myra Williams, Myrae Alvord and Shyrine Lee.

Carlton Supporters Plan Motorcade

Ernest Southward, chairman of the Seminole County Carlton for Governor Committee, today invited all Seminole County citizens to a Central Florida Carlton Rally Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. at the American Legion Home in Orlando.

Southward said: "Citizens are invited from all over Central Florida to this meeting to meet and hear Senator Carlton. A motorcade will leave from the city parking lot behind the school administration office at 7 p. m. Carlton supporters from South Seminole County will join the motorcade at South Seminole County headquarters on Highway 17-82.

"The first primary campaign is coming to an end and we hope every voter will avail himself of the opportunity of meeting and hearing Senator Carlton," Southward said.

Campaign Fund Deadline Is Set

Wednesday is the final day for candidates to receive any special contributions to their candidacy. Circuit Court Clerk David Galchuk said today.

Under state law, Galchuk said, candidates who do not receive contributions can be received five days before the primary, which is May 2.

Missing Judge's Body Found Floating In Lake Michigan

CHICAGO (UPI)—Police started an investigation today into the death of Federal Judge W. Lynn Parkinson whose body was found floating in Lake Michigan near Navy Pier.

ACL Safety Group To Meet

A meeting of the Safety committee of the Atlantic Coast Line Tampa division which includes Sanford, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the passenger station.

The axis of the earth tilts at 23 1/2 degrees from the perpendicular.

to carry one and sometimes two expensive watches.

Coroner Walter E. McCarron said his office would perform an autopsy today on the body of the 57-year-old Indiana jurist in an effort to determine the cause of death. There was no superficial evidence of violence.

McCarron said an inquest probably would be held Tuesday.

A pedestrian strolling along the lakefront Sunday spotted the body floating in a filtration plant basin north of Navy Pier and less than a half mile from where the judge disappeared six months ago.

Charles Hansen, 54, vice president of an insurance company, told police the body was floating face down and the back of the clothing was sand-covered.

Hansen notified police who recovered the body with the help of a fire boat.

Police first tentatively identified Parkinson from various cards found in the wallet. However, it later was positively established by fingerprints.

The judge's wife, Mrs. Elsie Parkinson, was shocked when she received the news in her new home in Lafayette, Ind.

Hope Emerson, Famed Hollywood Star Dies Of Liver Ailment

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Actress Hope Emerson, who played the role of "Mother" in the Peter Gunn television series and "Sarge" on the Dennis O'Keefe TV show, died Sunday night of a liver ailment.

The movie and television performer succumbed to the ailment after being admitted to Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital Friday.

Miss Emerson, who stood 5 feet, 2 inches and weighed 180 pounds, was nominated for an Academy Award in 1949 for her role as matron of the women's prison in the Warner Brothers film "Caged."

Some of her other top films included "Cry of the City," "House of Strangers," "Adam's Rib," "Dancing in the Dark," "Copper Canyon," "Westward the Women," "Lady Wants Mink," "Champ For a Day," "Casanova's Big Night" and "Untamed."

Miss Emerson, a 30-year veteran of acting, was born in Hayward, Iowa, a town with a population of 2,300. She went from the hamlet to New York where she "starved successfully" for several seasons before she clicked on the stage and radio.

She made her Broadway stage debut in the Greek classic "Lysistrata." The critics expressed amazement at her ability to make her fellow players look like mid-gits.

21-Year-Old Car Makes 1,000 Mile Trip To Join Family

"Rosalie" after an absence of many years rejoined her family here last week.

"Rosalie" is a 1939 Ford owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, who have been residents of Lake Mary for more than 10 years. However, when the Ivers moved to Lake Mary they left their "faithful" car in Washington, D. C. with some friends.

"We got mighty lonesome for 'Rosalie' and decided it was about time she enjoyed some of this good southern living," Ivers said.

However, Ivers could not make the trip himself so his wife and two friends, Betty Robinson and Irma Waterman decided to drive the 1,000 miles from Washington to Sanford.

"We had no trouble whatsoever," Mrs. Ivers said, adding, "as a matter of fact everytime we stopped on the road, someone was always asking us if we wanted to sell the car."

Mrs. Ivers said she left Washington early last Monday and arrived in Sanford early Wednesday. "Rosalie was perfect," she said. When questioned if she plans to put Rosalie out to "pasture" now and rest, Mrs. Ivers said, "certainly not, she's as good as a car as any car on the road."

Rosalie probably wouldn't be happy sitting in the garage anyway.

Area RC Chapter Meets Quota First

The Orange City Red Cross Chapter, composed of Orange City, Enterprise, DeBary, Benson Junction and Osteen was the first in the state to meet their quota this year.

The quota for this chapter was $1,300 and the total amount raised was $2,331.

Dian Aiken Gets Stetson Honor

Dian Aiken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Aiken, has received notice that she has been designated a Stetson University Scholar for the academic year 1960-61.

William Hugh McEntary Jr. dean of the University, stated in a recent letter to Miss Aiken that only the outstanding members of the freshman class are awarded this distinction. The letter further stated that this award is considered by the University to be the highest honor an incoming Stetson student can be paid.

The title of University Scholar entitles the recipient to participate in a series of special courses for those students whose academic and leadership records indicate ability to handle difficult materials and to benefit from independent research and study.

Miss Aiken will be graduated from Seminole High School this spring and plans to further her education at Stetson.

A world museum of printing will be built in Mainz, Germany, birthplace of Johannes Gutenberg, inventor of movable type. The museum is expected to open in 1962.

Thomas S. Carter Dies At Longwood

Mr. Thomas Shade Carter, 64, died Sunday at his Longwood home. A native of Wrightsville, Ga., he had been a Longwood resident for a year and a half and formerly lived at Matland for 18 years, where he attended the Orthodox Presbyterian Church.

Savage Re-Elected By Culuota Club

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Television star Dick Clark has asked House payola investigators to make him the lead-off witness Tuesday when they open hearings on his outside record and music interests.

Lawyers for the ABC network disc jockey whose shows are favorites with teen-agers, requested the investigating subcommittee to let Clark tell his side of the story first.

The House group was expected to consider the request today. Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) called a closed-door session to chart the course of the hearings, which may last several days.

The subcommittee also may consider the reported bids of some of the other prospective witnesses that they be questioned in private rather than under the glare of publicity.

The hearings will windup the investigation of payola-under-the-table payments to get favored treatment for records broadcast over the air.

The Chuluota Retired Couples Club celebrated its first years anniversary at a Pot Luck Dinner.

Harvey Savage was re-elected as president and others elected to serve during the organization's second year were Burdette DeWick, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Knight, secretary; and George Haig, treasurer.

A standing program committee was elected and its members are Emil Zanke, Joseph Muska and George Boulden. On the refreshment committee for the year are Mrs. H. S. Savage, Mrs. B. DeWick and Mrs. M. Carroll. Charles E. McCune was elected publicity director.

Savage appointed the following members as a committee to formulate plans for a constitution and by-laws: Charles E. McCune, George Boulden, Mrs. R. Hammond and Mrs. R. Stop-lyra.

Kidney Disorders
(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

A great deal of mystery has existed in the popular mind as to kidney difficulties and to one unacquainted with the facts it might seem that the application of Chiropactic for the relief of such disorders is but another addition to the mystery.

The function of the kidney is that of elimination to filter out and excrete the excess water and waste products from the blood circulation. This function is made possible by the selective action of the cells of the kidney tubule. After the kidney cells remove the harmful substances from the blood, the unwanted materials are washed out of the tubules into the pelvis of the kidneys, down the ureters into the bladder, and then cast off by the act of urination.

It is easy to see that the function of the kidney is dependent upon the integrity and condition of the epithelial cells that line the little tubules with which each kidney is honeycombed. These in turn depend for their health upon normal nerve impulses. The nerves that supply the kidney controlling the distribution of blood to the kidney and the excretory function of the organ can be traced to the center of the spine where any spinal displacement or irritation will interfere with their harmonious action.

The Chiropactor is able to determine by modern diagnostic methods when kidney trouble does exist. He is thoroughly trained to remove any disturbance with the vital nerve supply to the kidneys restoring the normal health of the organ. Are you a Chiropactic Case?

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of Scientific Chiropactic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7448.

Down Payment Loans May Be Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government may cut the minimum down-payment on houses purchased under FHA loans as much as $325 on homes costing more than $13,500.

Federal Housing Commissioner Julian H. Zimmerman is waiting for his staff to put together some late statistics on mortgage money conditions before he commits himself.

Top Lousing sources say the final decision may be reached this week. Congress authorized the lower cash payments last year. Despite strong pressure from home builders and other sources, Zimmerman refused to exercise the authority last fall. He argued that with home loan money as hard to find as it was then, cutting down payments would not help either home buyers or builders.

Credit has eased generally in the last four months. Interest rates on home loans have not declined as a rule but home buyers are finding it easier to get financing at going rates.

The new schedule of down-payments still would require 3 per cent cash on the first $13,500 of purchase price. The middle bracket in the schedule would be lifted from the present $18,000 to $18,000 and the rate on it reduced from 15 to 10 per cent. A 30 per cent cash requirement would prevail on purchase price in excess of $18,000. It now applies above $16,000.

Cultivate Reading Interest In Children, Parents Told

MYRTLE C. WILSON
Home Demonstration Agent

"Reading has never interested me very much and besides I don't have time to read," a mother comments. "I want my little girl to enjoy books, but I'm afraid she won't unless I start reading, too."

It's true that children learn by example and will more likely become interested in books if parents read. However, it really isn't necessary for parents to feel they have to read when they don't want to do it.

The interest parents show in their child's reading is the important thing. This usually happens when the parents enjoy reading and want their children to find this great pleasure for themselves. When parents don't particularly like to read, they frequently don't encourage their youngsters because the parents don't feel it is pleasure.

Cultivating an interest in reading is one of the most lasting assets parents can provide for their child. The world of books is a never-ending one with delight and adventure all along the way. Much is lost when children are not encouraged to learn to appreciate reading.

Picture books and story telling lead off to a good start in cultivating interest in books. Read to the children and talk to them about the stories.

Don't hurry them or try to teach them to read, but when they are ready and do read, have books around the house.

Let them become acquainted with their library and the librarian who can help them select books that will interest them.

Miss Carol Creighton, H. J. Bisbee Jr. Married In Ceremony At Gainesville

The wedding of Miss Carol Ropes Creighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Abbott Creighton, 806 N. W. 22 St., Gainesville and Hamilton Joseph Bisbee Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Joseph Bisbee Sr., 1118 Magnolia Ave., Sanford, was solemnized April 22 at 4 p. m. in the Chapel of Saint Augustine, Gainesville.

The Rev. Michael Gannon officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of white spring flowers and family pews were marked with white ribbons.

Miss Beatrice Marie Bisbee, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Miss Creighton's two sisters, Miss Mary Cheever Creighton and Miss Judith Abbott Creighton, served as honorary bridesmaids. The groom's father was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, George Alexander Creighton and Michael David Wheelchel, a cousin of the groom, from Ft. Pierce.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of embroidered silk organdy. The bodice came to a deep point in front and featured a scalloped sweetheart neckline. The cap sleeves were finished with the same kind of scallops and she wore mits of similar material. The bouffant skirt was fashioned of ruffled tiers and her shoulder length veil fell from a crown of small silk roses, finished with a tiny satin bow in back. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley, centered with a white cactleya orchid.

The bridesmaid wore a Paris pink silk linen sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of pink spray orchids. The honorary bridesmaids wore similar gowns in harmonizing pastel colors.

The bride's mother chose a spring print dress in pastel shades with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a soft blue linen sheath dress with jacket and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. An all white color theme was used in decorations throughout the house. A three tiered wedding cake was served from a circular table, garlanded with smilax. Punch tables were set up in the Florida room and outdoor patio.

Mrs. Bisbee is a graduate of Dana Hall School, Wellesley, Mass. and Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. She made her debut at the 1956 Boston Cotillion. The groom received his degree in public relations and advertising from Florida State University where he played varsity football for four years and was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, social fraternity. After May 1, the couple will reside at 1419 Palm Lane, in Jacksonville, where Mr. Bisbee is associated with The Travelers Insurance Co.

Sanford residents attending the wedding included Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wheelchel, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Wheelchel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Symes, Miss Rebecca Symes, Mrs. Florence Symes, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wray, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perkins Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Fleischer, Miss Diana Fleischer and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bisbee.

MRS. JOHN McCARTY, wife of the Ft. Pierce candidate for governor of Florida, attended a reception held in her honor at Mrs. John Morgan's Summerlin Ave. home

Thursday. From the left are Mrs. Fred Ganas, Mrs. Dan McCarty, widow of the former governor of Florida; Mrs. John McCarty and Mrs. Morgan.

MR. HOWARD ANDERSON, third from left, is discussing the new Presbyterian College in St. Petersburg, with some church women at the annual birthday party. From left are, Mrs. Larry Woodruff, president of the women of the church, Mrs. D. S. Tally, Mr. Anderson and Mrs. Harry Weil.

Presbyterian Church Women Hold Annual Birthday Party

The women of the First Presbyterian Church held their annual birthday party in the educational building, with their husbands and families as invited guests. The meeting began with a covered dish supper served at 7 p. m.

Patrick, historian and Mrs. Bernard Wilke, treasurer.

Mr. Anderson told the group that it will be a Christ centered college, with a chapel in the center of the campus. The interim campus will be at the Maritime Base, until the permanent one is completed. About 250 students are expected to enroll this fall. The speaker displayed a model of the proposed permanent buildings.

A short business session preceded the program and new officers for the coming year were elected. They were Mrs. W. R. Anderson, president, Mrs. D. S. Tally, vice president, Mrs. Warren Adams, recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Packard, corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. A.

The offering taken at the meeting will be sent to Stillman College in Tuscaloosa, Ala., to help build extra classrooms. Mrs. Woodruff, president, presided at the meeting and Mrs. Tally introduced the speaker.

Girl Scout Diary

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 10 For the past several meetings, the girls in Scout Troop 10 have been working on a course of good grooming, charm and self improvement. They started with a visit to the Trimette Salon, where they received a demonstration of equipment and a talk by Miss Dorothy Coraley on the importance of exercise and body care for health, poise and beauty.

This was followed by a meeting, at which Mrs. Robert Parke, a beauty consultant, gave a skin care and a facial demonstration. At the next meeting, three high school seniors, Misses Faye Garner, Jeanne Southward and Sue Ann Toney, each gave brief talks, followed by a question and answer period. Their subjects were good grooming, personality and dating, with each girl choosing one of the subjects.

Naturally, the subject of dating received the lion's share of the questions, though all three topics were thoroughly discussed.

At the last meeting, the girls enjoyed a real highlight in the series, with a visit to the Eva Best Beauty Salon. Barbara Buckler and Norma Whittner drew the two lucky numbers and served as models. They received a shampoo and set as well as a hair cut, shaping and styling. While the models were being "groomed" the group was given tips on the care and grooming of hair and each girl was presented a bottle of shampoo, to try at home. Each one then received a few left whisks of the comb, an occasional snip with the scissors and a comb on or near their hair in a more becoming fashion.

Enterprise Couple Attends Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coulette of Enterprise have returned from an enjoyable trip. They drove Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hart to their home in South Bend, Ind. After a few days visit there, they went to Chicago on a sight seeing expedition.

On the way home, they climbed "Grandfather Mountain" in North Carolina and saw snow, for the first time, as they traveled through the Blue Ridge Mountains.

To climax the trip they arrived at the home of Ralph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Coulette, in time to join in a family reunion in celebration of Mr. Coulette's 75th birthday. Thirty-four members of the Coulette family attended the celebration.

Kendrick Baby Joins Family

Little Robert Roy Kendrick of Chuluota has finally been discharged from the nursery at Orange Memorial Hospital. The baby was born on Feb. 6, prematurely, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kendrick. He weighed only two pounds and eight ounces at birth and it was necessary to have him under constant medical care. The entire family, particularly Bobbie and Tom, his young sisters, are thrilled at having him home at last. Their new baby brother still looked mighty small to them when he met them for the first time on April 18. He now weighs all of five pounds.

Wives Club Assists With Cancer Drive

Members of the VAH-11 Enlisted Men's Wives Club have had a busy schedule the past few weeks. A picnic was held at the Elks playground the last of March and pictures were made to send to the husbands aboard ship. Palm Sunday the group got together for a pot luck supper at the home of Daphne Beauchamp. It turned out to be more pot luck on the weather than the food. It was too cool to eat outside as planned, so all 10 mothers and 24 children ended up inside. After a delicious supper and a lot of confusion, the films made at the picnic were shown. An Easter egg hunt was held,

Faster Sunday at Daphne's home. This time the weather co-operated and 43 children attended. Following the egg hunt, refreshments were served and games enjoyed by the children and some of the mothers. Members are assisting with the cancer drive and will be soliciting in their areas until the drive is completed. All wives of enlisted men in VAH-11 are invited to attend the club meetings, which are held the second Friday of each month at 1:30 p. m. at the E. M. Club. UDC Never Fails Civil War Vets

The United Daughters of the Confederacy here will join all the other chapters of their organization Tuesday in observing Confederate Memorial Day with a program honoring the veterans of the Southern armies who fought in the Civil War.

There will be a roll call of all the names of Seminole County men who fought in that losing battle and appropriate tributes will be paid to their efforts.

That war and those men are a long time gone, but the UDC faithfully remembers them each year and with a reverence that is touching. Their memorial services and graveside visits all over the South are an everlasting eulogy to the men who fought probably the most bitter of all wars.

The occasion of the UDC observance might be a good time for all the states, Southern and otherwise, to pause and consider the possibility of some future tribute to their passing also. With the continued sapping of the remaining states rights by the centralized monster in Washington, there may come a day when a memorial service to "the several states" and their rights and responsibilities as written in the U. S. Constitution will be held by a hardy few who hated to see them go.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Bobby's case should be a challenge to all of you mothers who have pre-school children, so scrapbook this column. Good parents should always show that they love their youngsters, but they also need specific strategy to solve the problems that arise. That's why I offer you the "case method" in this educational column.

CASE E-47: Bobby D., aged three, is getting new parents soon. "Dr. Crane," his prospective foster mother began, "I am so utterly happy about Bobby that I feel like singing all day long.

"I've been married eight years, but never could have any babies of my own. Now we have the chance to adopt Bobby.

"But I need some advice quickly. For example, Bobby stutters. And he wets the bed regularly.

"So please tell us how to cope with a boy of his age?"

Stuttering at the age of three is usually a normal reaction, for such a child can understand far more words than he can utter.

In his eagerness to tell about some dramatic event, his ideas thus run far ahead of his vocabulary, so he stutters.

Ignore this type of stuttering, for it corrects itself in a few years, unless neurotic parents "wet" the bad habit of stuttering by constantly yelling at the child and thus making him unduly self-conscious about his speech.

An enuresis (bed wetting) child's problem is also very common at Bobby's age. In fact, probably 20 percent or more of three-year-olds wet the bed fairly regularly.

"Weak kidneys" used to be the familiar diagnosis in such cases, but actually the kidneys generally have nothing to do with this problem.

Bobby is a first cousin to adults who likewise ignore the ringing of their alarm clock.

"Weak ears" could obviously be a silly explanation for their failure to get out of bed on schedule, wouldn't it?

So quit passing the buck to "weak kidneys" when your child wets the bed.

Both oversleeping and bed wetting are due to inattention. The victim has learned to ignore certain signals that most people respond to.

In the case of the full bladder, when its pain signals are sent to the brain, the child no longer heeds them as a cue to awaken.

Instead, he relaxes the muscles that shut off the outlet from the bladder and thus wets the bed, without waking.

The cure for bed wetting thus consists of making the child restrain himself so he again heeds the pain sensations from a full bladder.

Praise him for every success, so his confidence mounts.

Let him wear his pajamas and bedding whenever he has a relapse, but don't "bawl him out." The manual labor of washing his wet clothing will serve as the proper punishment.

Sometimes it is well to push fluids before bedtime, instead of curtailing them! This will accentuate the problem and often force him to a quicker battle with his difficulty.

Let the older children set an alarm clock, to go off about two hours before bedtime, for this is usually when the first accident occurs during the night.

Personalize the fight, too, so the child looks on his bladder as the "enemy." Instead of feeling that his pants are his foe, he doesn't lift the sleeping child out of bed and steer him to the bathroom in the middle of the night, for this just encourages him further in leaning on others to solve his problem.

Bed wetters MUST accept full responsibility and thus cure themselves!

Send for the N-Uroclast booklet, enclosing a stamped, return envelope plus 20c. It shows how to construct a simple shocking machine that is a surefire method.

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — For months I dwelled under the naive illusion that the name "Kennedy" was a household word. I thought that the monk of U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy identified him instantly across the breadth of our land—even among those not politically inclined.

This, I assumed, would be especially true in the very nerve center of politics, Washington, D. C., where the young presidential aspirant had taken over squatters' rights on the front page of the newspapers.

But now I have come to learn that the man I thought was famous is something less than a nonentity in the very nerve center of the very nerve center of Washington — the telephone office.

My faith in the fame of a name first began to disintegrate when George Cheely, CBS television newsman, said to me: "Strange thing happened to me the other day." He said he dialed "Information" for the Kennedy-for-President office number, which is not listed in the directory. The operator looked and looked and then informed him blandly: "We have no Kennedy-for-President."

This was the morning after Kennedy made big banner lines across the nation for his Wisconsin primary victory.

Cheely insisted that there must be a Kennedy-for-President. And she murmured: "Kennedy . . . is it spelled with two 'n's or one?"

The TV man finally did get the number, and when he tried for it a few days later he said he had to go through the same rigamarole.

"Impossible!" I said. So I tried it. This is the unexpurgated dialogue:

"May I have the number for the Kennedy-for-President office?"

"Just one moment, please . . ."

You could hear her thumbing through page after page. Several minutes later:

"Sorry, there is no such listing."

"But, madam, he is a candidate for United States president."

"Oh? Republican or Democrat?"

I told her I had a vague notion from somewhere that he might be a Democrat. More sounds of pages flipping.

"I'm sorry, but all we have listed there is the Democratic National Committee. I'll give you their number . . . perhaps they will know . . ."

"Operator, this office has been in existence since last September. It has a suite of 10 rooms on the fifth floor of the Esso Building at the foot of the Capitol. It employs 15 people and must get thousands of messages a week."

"That name again?"

"John F. Kennedy."

"That name again?"

"John F. Kennedy."

Silence. She was leaving through those pages again. I began to suspect at this point that all those operators had been hired by somebody like Hubert Humphrey.

Then she came again: "Oh, here it is, sir —" John F. Kennedy for President? The number is National 8-8306.

"It is listed," she said, "under . . ."

Collection Of Letters From Fathers To Their Offspring Is Informative

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There is a book on the market now entitled "The Father" which is a collection of letters from famous men to their offspring.

I have been glancing through some of the letters in hopes of picking up a few tips on how to communicate with my own progeny.

I mean there are some things children should know that I had rather not tell them in face-to-face conversations. It would be easier if I could go off some place and send them a letter.

However, the book wasn't much help to me in this regard, mostly because the authors of the quoted letters, being famous men, didn't have my kind of problem.

I wouldn't be so presumptuous as to suggest that some future anthologist might want to publish one of my letters. But if anyone is getting up a collection of under-type letters written by unfamous men, I just happen to have a specimen handy.

"Dear children,

"You are rapidly reaching the age when you will need to know some of the facts of life. I could take the easy way out and let you dig them out of comic books. But I do not want you to get a distorted view of something that is essentially fine and good and beautiful. So I will explain them to you myself.

"First of all, as you grow older you will come to realize that your father was not the supreme commander of all the Allied military forces in Europe in World War II. I gather that you were beginning to suspect this already. Otherwise you would not keep asking 'but who was Eisenhower?'

"Remember when you used to climb upon my knee and beg me to tell you about my experiences during the war? Well, old dad didn't think you were big enough then to understand technical terms, such as 'kitchen police.' So he took a few chapters of 'Crusades in Europe' and paraphrased them in the first person singular.

"If this gave you a slightly misleading impression of my role in the war, I'm sorry.

"Now about that old football in the attic. It does not necessarily mean that I was an All-American. When I used to tell you about it, you possibly didn't catch the phrase 'high school.' I guess the attic acoustics are not all they might be.

"Finally, it is natural for children to be curious about what their fathers do for a living. I have tried to explain the newspaper business to you in a wholesome way. But I apparently did not make it clear when I used the term 'editor' that I was speaking of my boss and not of myself.

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — If Napoleon or Lafayette or even the great sun king, Louis XIV, were to walk onto the contemporary stage they could hardly be endowed with more of the grandeur of history than Charles DeGaulle.

Yet, as DeGaulle proved just before his visit to America, he is still very much a figure in the march of events. He came here against the background of talks with Premier Khrushchev and Prime Minister Macmillan that are believed to have set the pattern for the summit conference.

It was DeGaulle, the realist, who talked with complete candor to the Soviet Premier about the German problem. First, he reaffirmed to Khrushchev his belief, expressed publicly before, that the Oder-Neisse line is the unalterable boundary between Poland and Germany. Second, he made it clear that he has no interest in the reunification of Germany.

In other words, he expressed his willingness to accept the status quo in Germany. He did this without disloyalty to his close ally, Chancellor Adenauer, since he pointed out to Khrushchev that he would gain nothing — and might lose everything — by trying to force the Western powers out of Berlin. It would be the height of folly to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany and thereby hope to squeeze out the West.

Of the DeGaulle frankness on the German problem there can be no doubt. According to a report which some knowledgeable diplomats accept, Khrushchev reciprocated by agreeing, in effect, to negotiate at the summit an interim settlement on Berlin. Proof of this is cited in the recent report in Pravda suggesting that such an interim agreement was possible, and even more significantly in the East German statement that there were other ways to settle the Berlin question besides forcing out the Western garrisons.

Those who credit this report and believe that Khrushchev left Paris willing to ratify the status quo foresee the following sequence of events:

1. Agreement in principle at the summit on an interim settlement for Berlin that would leave Western rights unimpaired.
2. The foreign ministers to meet at Geneva shortly after the summit to work out the terms under which, with some alterations, West Berlin would remain for a fixed period of years in the present relationship with West Germany.
3. Upon completion of the work of the foreign ministers, DeGaulle and Macmillan would join Eisenhower and Khrushchev in Moscow for what would, in effect, be a second and brief summit to put the final seal of approval on the settlement.

Before he left Paris, in an exceptionally happy frame of mind, Khrushchev hinted at an early second summit. It is now believed that this is what he contemplated. The climax would come, with the second gathering of the four, at the end of President Eisenhower's visit to the Soviet Union about June 15 or 16.

If events do fall out this way, and certainly it is the direction in which they seem to be moving, DeGaulle will be able to claim no little credit for what could be the beginning of a peace of the status quo that might endure for an indefinite number of years. His argument with Khrushchev was that since there is no real settlement of the outstanding problems in sight it is better to accept things as they are with complete candor.

It is DeGaulle's quality of lofty and unshakable confidence that is so impressive. That same quality is evident in his determination to create an independent nuclear deterrent for France.

He would no more dream of asking President Eisenhower for the kind of nuclear information furnished by the American government to Britain than he would think of asking to have the Washington Monument set up in the Place de la Concorde. He will not even remind the president of the fulfilled pledge of December, 1947, to assist France in building a nuclear submarine.

The French have on schedule 26 further atomic explosions which they show every intention of going through with. What astonishes Americans who have had a fairly close look at their nuclear development is that it has been done with an expenditure thus far of only $300 million.

If the same confidence and de-

Greyhounds Even Season's Record; Face Lakeland At Home Tonight

By JERRY COVINGTON

The Sanford Greyhounds evened their record at 3-3 here Sunday night on the strong left arm of Ron Banovic as they defeated St. Petersburg, 4-2.

On Friday night the locals traveled to Palatka where they pulled out a 10 inning game by a score of 7-5 and on Saturday night they lost to St. Pete by a score of 6-5.

In the game Saturday night righthander Ken Sanders had a no-hitter going through the sixth inning and in the seventh he gave up four hits and the Saints picked up seven runs. Sanders pitched beautifully throughout his stay on the mound and deserved a better fate. He could have been out of the inning with very little damage but two costly errors were made and then the roof fell in.

In the game Friday night first baseman Kea Harrison smashed

his second homerun in as many days. The big first sacker was out of the lineup Sunday due to a skin rash that has hospitalized him temporarily and he should be back with the club in a few days. In the victory over the Reds catcher Bob Perez delivered the game deciding blow when he doubled in the 10th inning to drive in two runs.

In the victory Sunday over the Saints, lefthander Banovic was superb on the mound. He scattered six hits and walked but one batter. He had a shutout going until the 7th inning but three infield errors resulted in the scoring of the only two runs. He gave up but one hit in the inning but throwing errors broke the shutout. He was also the only Sanford batter to pick up two base hits for the evening and in the fifth inning he sent a long single to left field driving across Bob Perez and Pat Sisk.

It was Banovic's first victory of the season against no defeats. In summing up the weekend of baseball there is one fact that is very evident. The Greyhound pitching is real solid. With the fine mound performances recorded thus far in the season we should be a contender for the flag all the way. All of the pitchers have displayed fine control and with improvement in the defensive department, the record could just as easily be 6-0 for the season.

Tonight manager Johnny Lippen, former Detroit shortstop, will bring the Lakeland Indians to Sanford for the first time since rejoining the league. The Cleveland farm has won three in a row and they seem to have a solid ball club.

Manager Robbie Robertson will probably go along with his same lineup for tonight's game and he has not named his starter. He could go with Forest Bailey, a lefthander with plenty of stuff.

Tigers, Pirates Off To Fast Start In AL, NL Pennant Races

United Press International

You can't blame Detroit and Pittsburgh fans for whooping it up—they've waited 20 years for the Tigers and Pirates to make jackrabbit starts.

The Tigers remained unbeaten atop the American League when they whipped the Chicago White Sox, 13-4, for their fifth straight victory Sunday while the Pirates took over first place in the National League when they beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-5, for their eighth triumph in 11 games.

The Tigers haven't made such a fast start since they won eight of their first nine games in 1937 and the Pirates are making their best early showing since they won their first seven games in 1938. In fact, over the years, the Tigers and Pirates have more often than not disappointed their followers with early-season slumps.

Casey Wise, the ex-Milwaukee infielder, and catcher Lou Berberet led the Tigers' explosive attack Sunday while Harvey Haddix, who hadn't beaten the Braves since 1937, was the Pirates' hero. Wise, filling in for second baseman Frank Bolling, drove in five runs with two homers, a triple and a single and Berberet hit a grand slam homer that highlighted a six-run first-inning assault on 22-game winner Early Wynn. Paul Foytack yielded nine hits to win his first game as the Tigers completed a three-game sweep of the American League champions.

Haddix gave way to Elroy Face after being tagged for 10 hits in 8 1/2 innings and the Pirates reliever ended a Braves rally. Smokey Burgess and Bob Skinner hit homers and Bill Mazeroski had a triple and two singles for the Pirates, who beat Bob Buhl his first defeat.

The Cleveland Indians finally won their first game when they defeated the Kansas City A's, 7-0, the New York Yankees scored eight runs with nobody out in the first inning and downed the Baltimore Orioles, 15-9, and the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox, 11-10, in other American League games.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs knocked the San Francisco Giants out of first place, 9-4, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-5, and the Cincinnati Reds won, 10-4, after losing the first game of their double-header with the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-5.

The Indians rocked Don Larsen for five runs in the first inning and went on to beat the A's behind Gary Bell's six-hit pitching. Woody Held hit two homers, including a three-run blast in the first inning, and Vic Power and Jim Piersall had three hits each for Cleveland. The Indians had lost their first four games of the season.

The Yankees tied an American League record with their first-inning attack and carried a 19-1 lead into the eighth inning behind the sturdy pitching of Jim Coates. Grand slam homers by Albie Pearson in the eighth and Billy Klau in the ninth brought the Indians close until Johnny James retired them in the ninth.

Navy, Yowell's Pace Little Loop

Perfection Dairy play Chase today in the opening game of the Sanford Little Major League's second week, with First Federal taking on Florida State Bank Tuesday.

Navy and Yowell wound up leading the league with two victories each after the first week. Perfection had a 30 mark, Standard Oil was 1-1, First Federal, Chase and Florida State Bank 0-1 and Foodmart had a 0-2 record in the standings.

Standard Oil defeated Foodmart, 6-5, with Harry the winning pitcher. Dean hurled the Yowell's team to a 11-0 shutout over Chase. Echols was the winner as Navy defeated Florida State Bank 11-2. Yowell's best Foodmart 4-0, with Harbour of the winning moundman. Navy ran up a 14-4 margin over Standard Oil, with Nopper on the mound and Perfection squeezed by First Federal, 8-9.

Following the Perfection-Chase game today and the First Federal-State Bank contest Tuesday, the league schedule this week includes Foodmart vs Navy, Wednesday; Perfection vs Yowell's, Thursday; First Federal vs Standard Oil at 4:30 p. m. Friday and State Bank vs Chase at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Three Tied For League Honors In Mixed Loop Bowling Play

DeBary Pharmacy, B. Edwards Builders Supplies and Team No. 8 were all tied for first place in the new Mixed Summer League which opened its season last week. All three teams have three points each.

In second spot is Steinmeyer Roofing, running true to form, with 2 1/2 wins. Sanford Manufacturing Co. is in third with 1 1/2 wins, while the other three teams are tied up in fourth. Dot Powell's Gift Shop, V. F. W. Post, and Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant all have one point each in this position.

Joe Cavathara, rolling for the manufacturers, racked up the highest series for the league as he turned in a big 574 scratch. Ed Callan had high scratch game of 216 to take over that spot. Ann Conkline rolled high series, 845, for the women, while Margie Woods turned in the highest single game, 210. Right behind was Ruth Phillips with a 208-820.

DeBary Pharmacy rolled the highest team scratch series as they piled up a 2438 scratch and Steinmeyer Roofing took over the handicap and with a 2829. The manufacturing team had an 840 for high scratch game, while the

Seminole High Golfers Finish 15th In State-Wide Tournament

The Seminole High boys' golf team finished 15th in a field of 23 teams in the state high school golf tournament held at Lakeland over the weekend.

High scorer for Sanford was Rickey Roth with scores of 77 and 85 for the two-day play.

The state tourney wraps up the golf season for the locals who compiled their best record in the school's history this year with an impressive 11-1 mark.

Record Field In Invitational New Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Dow Finsterwald looked like Citation with a 10-length lead as he ran away from the field to card a record 72-hole score of 270 Sunday in the $27,000 Greater New Orleans Open.

The 30-year-old Tequesta pro, always deadly with his short game, seemed to break par at will as he finished six strokes ahead of blond Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y.

Finsterwald turned in rounds of 69-69-69 for a 14-under-par performance and the $2,500 first place money. His 270 obliterated Henry Picard's 276 standard set in 1941.

The prize money boosted his winnings over $25,000 for 1939—good for second place behind 18-hole winner Arnold Palmer's $44,000.

Only three golfers had a chance to catch Finsterwald in the final 18—Doug Sanders of Miami, Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La., and Al Besselink. Sanders was four strokes back and the other two trailed by five.

Four players were bunched for third place behind Besselink. Pott, Sanders, Bob Rosburg of Overland, Kan., and Houston Laclair of Birmingham, Ala., all had 275's.

Finsterwald Wins 4 NAS Keglers Compete In Play

Four bowlers from the Sanford Naval Air Station, under the command of Capt. R. W. Slye, USN, competed in the Sixth Naval District Tourney held recently.

The tourney was held on a telegraphic basis with bowlers throughout the District bowling on their home alleys and sending daily verified scores to NAS Jacksonville, the tournament host.

Each tourney entrant bowled 18 games and the winner was determined by total pinfall.

Winning the tournament was N. Nicholson of VX-1, NAS Key West with a 3,778 for his 18 games.

Runner-up was J. I. Wagner, NAS Atlanta, Ga., with 3,621.

Sanford bowlers and their 18-game totals were: Don Stetler, 3,469; George Koen, 3,157; Bob Ashby, 3,127; and Bill Grimes, 3,078.

'Show Of The Month' Offers 'Heartwarming' Play

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — Years Ago, a play that is good for us, received a good run — through Thursday night.
The "Du Pont Show of the Month" production on CBS-TV catalogued heartwarming family relationships, personal values, setbacks and triumphs amid comfortable stage props of those halcyon days in 1912. It was, dear hearts, all heart.
The adaptation of Ruth Gordon's deservedly popular autobiographical play, written by Jacqueline Babbin and Audrey Gelber — the Lerner and Lowe of David Susskind's production staff — held fast to the charm inherent in the story of a 16-year-old girl's determined efforts to become an actress.

It was pleasant to see again the cat, "Funky," and Fred, Ruth Gordon's eager-beaver swain in the raccoon coat, the gold-darn telephone contraption, and hear the bathroom noises.
Because of the limitations of the TV set, some of the humor had to be cut or dried out by compression.
Robert Preston, as Ruth's dad, Clinton Jones, blustered and stormed about the house and dominated the show. While I felt he substituted loudness for affectionate feelings too often, the fact remains that he did create a living, breathing character out of the part before the final commercial. Even before that, when he said, in quiet tones, that his two sons "were awful people," I knew that they were. After all, he said so.

Sandra Church, as young Miss Gordon, made me aware that she was impersonating a teenager. She also brought a shade too much glamor to what should have been a scrubbed-look characterization.
Peggy Conklin as Mrs. Jones delivered most of her lines as if microphones were non-existent. She quieted down near the end, though.

NAS To Sponsor Swimming Classes

Capt. Robert Slye, commanding office of the Sanford Naval Air Station announced that swimming classes for both children and adults will be made available at the base swimming pool this month and next, for all NAS personnel.
In cooperation with the American Red Cross Water Safety Program, Navy Wives Club 211 is sponsoring the training with separate classes for both adults and children.
The classes are being taught by Mrs. R. E. Sutsman and Mrs. J. C. Horner, both licensed Red Cross instructors. Three levels are being taught, beginner, intermediate and advanced.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—This is the week when it is our pleasure to play host to the annual convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

I use the pronoun "our" in its collective, or city-wide, sense although I am obliged to add that the pleasure is not always unanimous.

It is not secret that the DAR ladies have a way of getting on the nerves of some of our government officials. Former President Truman, you'll recall, was one of those who was not exactly enchanted by the ladies and I do believe this feeling was reciprocated.

Back in those days, before the White House was renovated, it was found that the upstairs floor of the executive mansion was weak, particularly in the vicinity of the President's bathroom.

Truman used to entertain the idea that the floor might collapse one evening while a DAR reception was going on downstairs. He further envisioned that he would be in the bathtub when it plummeted into their midst.

To this day, I can conjure up a sharp mental picture of the undraped Chief Executive crashing-landing among the DAR ladies. Somehow I don't think they would have been surprised.

"Harry's at it again," they probably would have said, and then gone right on serving tea.

Liston Favored In Bout Tonight

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Sonny Liston remained a solid 3-1 favorite to make Texan Roy Harris his 22nd straight victim in tonight's "heavyweight elimination" bout here.

The bomb-throwing Liston was expected to weigh in at noon at about 212 pounds, while Harris was expected to tip the scales at an even 200.

Liston said he expects to knock out Harris, despite the fact that the Cuban-Shoot, Tex., school teacher has lost only one bout in 21 fights, that being a 12-round TKO at the hands of then-champion Floyd Patterson. Liston has won 28 of 29 fights, and has scored 19 knockouts as compared to Harris' eight.

4 Shows Booked Here Next Fall

The Sanford-DeBary Entertainment Association has booked four shows for its season to start next fall.

The National Opera Company will perform opera in English in November. Monologist Cornelia Stahler will put several one-woman skits in the December show.

"The Caledonians," a troop of 19 Scottish highland lads and lassies will sing and dance at the Civic Center Jan. 5, and Metropolitan Opera star Rise Stevens will hit the high notes here Feb. 20.

The performances will all be at the Civic Center. Tickets will be on sale starting the first part of September.

The Liberty Bell was cracked while tolling for the funeral of Chief Justice John Marshall in 1835.

Candidates Divided On Fund Use, Vote System

Thirteen candidates for County Commission posts were sharply divided on appropriating tax money to the Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees and electing commissioners on a countywide basis at a question and answer meeting sponsored by the County Farm Bureau Monday night.

Six favored giving money to the chamber, four were against it and three gave qualified answers.

The most emphatic "no" came from newly appointed District 2 Commissioner J. Van Hoy, who said that the chamber should be self-sustaining and should get its aid from voluntary contributions.

District 1 commission candidate Donald Bales offered a qualified yes if the money is used for publicity. His opponents, J. C. Hutchison and T. V. Brown, said they favored appropriations to the Chamber in bringing new industry here.

District 3 commission candidate Ed Zimmerman said he was against appropriating funds and said it is "illegal," while one of his opponents, A. R. Lormann would favor it if the commission had the proper control on where the money was going.

James Avery and Otis Fouracre, also in the District 3 race, agreed on the necessity of financial aid to the chamber in an effort to bring industry into the county.

District 5 candidates Homer Little and John Fitzpatrick favored such support, and George Bell, also in the District 5 race, said he was against it.

Ted Williams, seeking the District 2 post said he was against it while J. C. Cordell said aiding the chamber was important to the county.

When asked whether they favored electing commissioners by districts, Bales, Brown, Little, Lormann, Avery, Cordell, Williams, Fouracre and Fitzpatrick favored election on a countywide basis while Hutchison, Zimmerman, Van Hoy and Bell favored commission elections by districts.

The majority of the candidates did not favor a countywide drainage program paid for by county taxes and agreed that the best way to solve drainage problems was setting up special districts in areas where needed.

Most of the candidates also agreed that a pay-as-you-go basis was good for the county except in emergencies and on needed capital improvements.

None of the candidates was in favor of a new courthouse and Little emphasized that the commission never discussed any plans for a new courthouse.

The only commissioner not present at the meeting was District 3 Commissioner Lawrence Swafford who was ill.

Farm Bureau members also heard Larry Johnson speak in behalf of Doyle Conner, running for agriculture commissioner and Curtis Barnes, Mayor of Rockledge, who spoke on behalf of Bernard Parrish for Senator for the 37th district.

Planes Removing Injured From Heat Of Quake Area

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI)—Iranian aircraft today ferried injured survivors out of the blistering 100-degree heat of the earthquake-shattered city of Lar.

Officials of the Red Lion and Sun, Iran's equivalent of the Red Cross, said fresh reports from the stricken town 50 miles south of Tehran indicated the casualty toll was less than feared.

They said latest information placed the death toll at about 400, with about 450 injured, 50 of them seriously.

Officials attributed Monday's unofficial death toll reports, which ranged up to 1,500, to the confusion and excitement of persons at the scene and to the shaky communications with Lar.

Iranian troops, which moved into the shattered town Monday night, helped survivors set up tent villages on the surrounding desert today.

The troops had to move in by foot since only light planes can make landings at the town's small field.

Swim Pool Code Adopted By City

Sanford's City Commission adopted a swimming pool code Monday night.

The code explains safety features that a pool should have and is aimed at protecting city residents against careless pool builders. It was drawn up by Sanford building inspector M. A. Yalvington.

Parking Changed

Parking in front of the Sanford Woman's Club on Oak Ave. will be changed from diagonal to parallel, the City Commission decided on Monday night.

Mobs Force Rhee Offer To Quit

SEOUL (UPI) — One of history's greatest unarmed revolutions today swept President Syngman Rhee close to an end of his 12-year-old iron rule over South Korea. His resignation appeared imminent.

Hundreds of thousands of South Koreans, frustrated by years of steam roller tactics by Rhee's Liberal Party, rose up against the combined might of the ROK army and Rhee's police forces and won a conditional offer from Rhee to step down "if the people desire it."

The demonstrators demanded his immediate resignation.

Police opened up with rifles and machineguns but the demonstrators swelled until perhaps half a million were on the march throughout Korea. At least 150 persons died and more than 1,000 were injured in the seven days of sporadic uprising but the demonstrations only grew in volume.

Charges of corrupt elections and police brutality brought pressure from the United States itself for a swift reorganization of Rhee's one-man rule.

In Washington, Korean Ambassador Yoo Chan Yang submitted his resignation today shortly after Korean residents in the United States gave him a 24-hour ultimatum to quit or be ousted.

Yang acknowledged that he had received the threat. But he said he had decided independently to quit because he found that he had been wrong in charging that the wave of rioting was Communist instigated.

Police killed at least 23 more persons and wounded 150 others in the last 24 hours of rioting. Still, a student-led demonstrators pressed their demands for Rhee's unconditional resignation, taunted the police and used their own blood to write slogans of "liberty or death."

The demonstrators brought scenes reminiscent of the French Revolution in 1789 when an unarmed peasantry rose against the French kings. This time unarmed students began demonstrating until the entire country was aflame.

The students seized army tanks, marched on Rhee's residence, ignored machinegun fire and tear gas and roared their defiance of a government which they said had office through widespread election frauds.

Rhee capitulated at last and issued a statement in which he declared:

"I will resign from the presidency if the people desire."

His offer to call new presidential elections—and it was considered certain he again would be a candidate. Rhee is the only president South Korea has had in its 12 years.

City Okays Homes Area Proposals

Dr. Terry Bird got permission Monday night to rent land at French Ave. and Seminole Blvd. for displaying model homes.

The City Commission gave Bird permission to rent land from the city to put eight different types of "Homes Houses" at the intersection.

The commission also gave permission for the Prayer Homes development on Sanford Ave. near 20th St. to connect to the city water system, provided the home owners sign sanitation papers.

The commissioners advised building back Demetree that his plan for about 160 homes south of Celery Ave. is acceptable. The homes, which will be in the $10,000-$12,000 class, will be between Celery Ave. and the railroad and between Melonville and Locust Avenues.

Reapportionment, Joint Campaigning Proposals Made

By United Press International Florida's gubernatorial candidates, with only one week left before next Tuesday's primary, concentrated campaigning Monday in North and Central Florida.

Doyle Carlton Jr. stumped at Panama City, said "Florida needs a governor who is tall enough to stand at one end of the state and still see the needs at the other."

Carlton said he would guide an "attainable" reapportionment plan through the legislature by "replacing pride of authorship with pride of accomplishment."

Farris Bryant proposed today that the two opposing candidates in the second primary election campaign together to decrease expenses.

In a statement issued from his headquarters at Ocala, Bryant said "there seems to be no better way to give the voter a real opportunity to make a considered choice."

"It would be both interesting and informative if the two victors of the first primary would accept this plan," Bryant said.

The second primary will be held May 24.

One weekly newspaper at Monticello carried an advertisement urging voters for Fred Dickman because "he loves our Pork Chop Gang."

The ad was paid for by Dickman's local campaign treasurer, John McCarty avoided the North and Central Florida traffic jam by campaigning in West Palm Beach.

McCarty said Florida's traffic death toll is "the great silent issue" of the governor's campaign. "It's time to break that silence," he said, "and admit that Florida has one of the very worst highway traffic records of any state."

In the race for commissioner of agriculture, W. R. Hancock contended that one of his opponents, Doyle Conner, lacked "the business experience and technical knowledge" for the job.

Hancock challenged Conner to prove Conner's charge that Hancock had been a lobbyist. "I have heard nothing from my opponent about the challenge," Hancock said.

At Plant City, secretary of state candidate Tom Adams said he is campaigning 30 or more hours daily because "I want this job and I believe my record proves my ability to handle it well."

Adams told local supporters that the cabinet system in Florida provides a "powerful and valuable means of giving continuity in government, especially in the light of constitutional prohibitions to a governor succeeding himself."

No Action Taken By City On Tax Structure Change

The Sanford City Commission discussed today with the city's personal property tax and raising the assessed real property valuation to 100 percent, Monday, but took no action.

Commissioner Robert Brown said taking away this tax would just be putting a greater tax burden on small property owners.

If you take the personal tax off "you're whipping the little man to death and letting the big man crawl out from under," Mayor Earl Higginbotham said.

Brown said that raising the assessed valuation from 62 percent to 100 percent of its appraised value isn't unreasonable. This would make people who live in $6,000 to $8,000 homes pay something besides debt service, he said.

Assessing at 100 percent of valuation and lowering the millage to bring the same city income, would favor the big homeowner, Higginbotham said.

Sanford finance director Henry Tamm presented figures showing that if the personal property tax were dropped and the same 62 percent level of assessment continued, it would be necessary to raise the millage from 11 to 15.5 in the general operating budget in order to get in the $27,804 proposed general operating funds.

If the assessment level were raised to 100 percent, the millage could be dropped from 11 to 9.6 and the city could still take in $27,870.

The same rise or fall of millage would take place in the debt service budget if the personal property tax were dropped and the assessment level either left at 62 percent or raised to 100 percent.

Absentee Balloting To Close Thursday

Thursday is the final day for voting by absentee ballot, Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce pointed out today for those who will not be present to cast regular ballots in the May 3 primary.

The registration office in the Chamber of Commerce building will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. through Thursday to take absentee ballots, she said.

Talent

Sanford residents still can get tickets for the talent parade Friday night which will wind up the merchant-sponsored DeBary Days. They will be sold at the Sanford Furniture Co. through Wednesday morning.

The show in the Civic Center will end the two-day "welcome neighbor" event being staged by the merchants' division of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce which starts Thursday.

Mother Lifts Auto To Rescue Son Pinned Beneath It

TAMPA (UPI) — A 123-pound housewife reaffirmed from her hospital bed today that she lifted an end of a 3,600 pound station wagon to free her 16-year-old son who had been pinned under it.

Mrs. Maxwell C. Rogers, 38, broke two vertebrae Sunday when she took hold of the car's bumper and heaved mightily. Her son, Charles, was able to slip from under the vehicle. He was uninjured.

Officers said Charles had jacked up the station wagon to work under it. The jack slipped and the wagon pinned him to the soft, sandy turf.

Other children saw the accident and raced to the Rogers home.

Mrs. Rogers said she was near hysteria when she reached the station wagon. She said she grabbed the bumper and lifted as hard as she could.

"I felt the car rise up and Charles slipped out," she said. "Then I actually heard my back pop."

Mrs. Rogers collapsed after the incident. An ambulance took her to the hospital.

Capt. Ramage Gets Commendation

A commendation of Capt. James Ramage was adopted by the Sanford City Commission Monday night.

Ramage was commended for the recognition he had brought heavy attack Wing One and Sanford Capt. F. G. Edwards will relieve Ramage of command of the Naval Air Station Hawking June 1. Ramage will assume command of the USS Sablefish bound with the Pacific Fleet.

New Machine

The Sanford finance department got permission to buy a $4,500 accounting machine Monday night. The City Commission approved purchase of the machine.

Highway Traffic Light Requested

Work on installing a traffic light at the intersection of SR 436 and Hwy. 17-92 10 miles south of Sanford will start in about a month.

The County Commission today adopted a resolution asking that the State Road Department start installing the light "immediately to prevent needless accidents," such as some that have occurred in the area this year.

Commissioner Lawrence Swafford said that there have been two or three accidents per week at the intersection.

An official of the SRD, Willard Shelby, said the board that the light should be installed within a month after work begins.

Marine Officers Coffee Club Guests

The April meeting of the Coffee Club sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday in Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant in the Valdes Hotel.

Honored guests will be Major Ralph C. Wood, commanding officer of the Marine barracks at the Naval Air Station, Capt. Arthur L. Miller and Lt. William D. Nelson. Chester Raarick, accompanied by a group of citizens from DeBary, will be present in conjunction with the DeBary Days sponsored by the Merchants' Division of the chamber.

Found Innocent

Charles Ringstary, charged with auto theft, was found innocent in a Circuit Court trial here today.

Bower Is Honored At Florida State

Thomas P. Bower of Sanford has been named to the Florida State University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. Bower was one of 27 Phi students and recent graduates chosen to the honorary scholastic society.

ST. JOHN'S RIVER MARATHON trophies will be awarded to first, second and third place winners of the May 7 outboard contest. Boats making a round trip from Jacksonville will stop at the Sanford band shell for gas and for refreshments from a Sanford Boat and Outboard Club stand. Marathon publicity chairman Mrs. H. D. MacGillivray and Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider are shown here looking at the trophies which were donated by the chamber. The trophies will be in Bonham and Anderson's display window this week. (Herald Photo)
