

Navy Drive Kicks Off

Navy installations in the Sanford and Jacksonville areas leveled their sights at a $35,000 goal today as the annual Navy Relief Society fund campaign opened throughout the Naval establishment.

In the local area the drive is already aimed in the right direction. Officials of the Officers' Wives Club of NAS Sanford announced today their May Garden Party held Saturday in the NAS Ballroom had gathered nearly $600 for Navy Relief. Mrs. John (Pat) Drain, party chairman, emphasized this figure was subject to change as final accounting is done of party expenses.

In addition, a $500 donation by Sanford's VAHS further boosted the local drive. The figure represented participation by each of the squadron's 350 officers and men.

The May 4 - June 6 drive was just hours old when VAHS Commanding Officer Cdr. Lyle H. Sette presented his squadron's donations. One, drive chairman, accepted the donation on behalf of Commander Charles W. Meshier, Heavy Attack Wing Navy Relief.

SOME OF more than 300 officers, ladies and civilian guests attending Navy Relief benefit May Garden Party enjoy decorative buffet table Saturday at NAS Ballroom. The party was sponsored by the Officers' Wives Club of NAS Sanford, who decorated ballroom in authentic Oriental style.

Business Briefs

If you have seen flying termites around your home, or the transparent wings that they shed, chances are good that you have termites feeding on your property this very minute. This word of warning comes from Dr. E. C. Williams, consultant for the manufacturers of Arab U-Do-It, a termite control concentrate.

Don't shudder at the thought of an expensive treatment to rid your property of these destructive insects, Dr. Williams continues. Thanks to the development of a modern do-it-yourself product, homeowners can now treat their own homes in spare time at a minimum of cost.

The insecticide contained in this product is one which professional termite operators use, according to Williams. It forms a protective chemical soil barrier for the home which kills termites on contact because they must return to the soil for moisture at least every 72 hours, those termites within a structure are killed in a matter of days. In addition, the soil barrier prevents future termite infestation. For how long? USDA tests of Chlorane, the basic ingredient of U-Do-It, made in 1947 are still 100 percent effective against termite infestation. It is available at Hill Lumber and Hardware Co.

If you're like most Americans, you probably intend to use your Savings Bonds as a down payment on a house, to help send a child to college or otherwise upgrade your standard of living. You don't need to feel one whit less patriotic because of this. The fact that you and tens of millions of other Americans buy and hold U.S. Savings Bonds helps Uncle Sam manage his financial affairs better and puts him in a position to be a stronger voice and a stronger power in the free world.

And the fact that you and these other millions of Americans have accumulated the savings you have — 46 billions in E and H Savings Bonds alone — is one of the reasons why Americans are financially strong and reliant. And their individual strength is the strength of the nation. When the communists make one of their favorite statements — that they're going to "bury us" economically — your savings and your support of your country are mighty powerful answers. Keep building both with U.S. Savings Bonds.

TV Tube Explodes; Family Escapes Injury

The picture tube of an unused television set in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Maples, 1101 Santa Barbara

Drive, exploded Monday with the incident, said that the family was not home at the time, but that the two children had been playing in the Florida room all morning. "Thank goodness, we were out of the house, or someone could have been seriously injured," exclaimed Mrs. Maples. "The neighbors said that they heard the explosion and when I came in I found broken bits of glass scattered all over the room."

Mrs. Maples said that the set had been used in the bedroom a few weeks ago it was moved to the Florida room, but not plugged in. The picture tube was supposedly a reconditioned one, she said.

A check with television repairmen revealed that imperfections in the tube probably caused the tube to explode. This was the first case known in this area. Mrs. Maples said that the set was working OK the last time she turned it on, which was about a month ago.

Fire Damage

A garage fire which was presumed to have started from faulty wiring in the car, caused the loss Sunday of the building, car, boat, motor, trailer and tools, valued at $3,000 at the home of Mrs. Betty Widdis, 324 Church St., Longwood.

The Longwood Fire Department responded to a call received at 1:05 a. m. and found the building already in flames. Two explosions were heard, Mrs. Widdis reported. The first was presumed to have been the gas tank of the car and the second from a can of stored gasoline. The garage and contents were a total loss.

AROUND THE CLOCK
BY LARRY VERSHILL
A FEW RANDOM THOUGHTS ON A BLACK WEDNESDAY

During the first four months of this year there were 150 marriages in Seminole County. . . . O yes, for the same period . . . there were 102 divorces.

John Krider back from New York says things are looking good for that Castle Heights prep school locating here. . . . School officials say they want to open in September.

Sanford can well be proud of young Jack Caulo. . . . He just received a presidential appointment to Annapolis.

Two of our favorite people, Dot and Gordon Swain, became grandparents this week.

Man, this is beginning to sound like a society page column.

Pests and varmints bugged the North Orlando Village Council Tuesday evening. Literally thousands of insects resembling flying ants swarmed about the meeting place and somehow hundreds got in, making for a miserable evening. Then Council heard a complaint of a woman hating 19 cats in her home during the day but turning them out at night. And of packs of dogs roving the village, tearing up lawns and killing shrubbery and flowers. And a complaint from a man allergic to bee venom of a neighbor with five bee hives, including one in his utility room, with the bees having the freedom of the house. Council promised police action.

How do you re-define a junkyard? That's what County Attorney Harold Johnson has to determine. . . . Delegation not too happy over fencing of junkyard legislation and sent the bill back for more study, period and what have you.

The reorganized and unorganized of the scenic area celebration will be tomorrow at the Chamber meeting Thursday at noon at the Mayfair.

Chamber officials going to Dallas this week to talk with Hunt people over development of property. . . . other matters.

The legislative question of the Seminole County School Board appointing a school superintendent, rather than the people electing one, will not become effective until 1962, even if approved. The appointment question was approved Tuesday by the Senate and sent to the House. If it hurries the House and the Governor's approval, it will be voted on by the people in November 1961. However, School Supt. R. T. Milwre's present term runs through 1961. He probably will seek nomination in the May primary and election in November. So, we have this picture: Supposing the electors do approve the appointment measure in November 1961, at the same time electing Milwre to another four-year term. Question of appointment of a superintendent would not be put to the School Board until early 1960.

Cigaret Hike Clears Hurdle

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House got its first major tax bill from a committee Tuesday, and the Senate Finance and Taxation Committee voted to start writing a new tax program for Florida to support $1.1 billion in proposed spending.

School Millage Amendment Is Bid By Solons

A constitutional amendment which would permit Seminole and other county school boards to levy school millage up to 20 mills without a vote of the electorate, was proposed today in the Senate.

The School Board presently may levy up to 20 mills, but, Supt. E. T. Milwre explained, the voters must approve 10 mills of that figure. In other words, the board may levy the first 10 mills without a vote but must have the public approve an increase to 20 mills.

The constitutional amendment, which would be sponsored by Sen. W. C. Herrall, Miami Springs, and George Hollahan, Coral Gables, according to UPI.

Although the proposed amendment, if approved by the Legislature and the Governor, would be subject to local referendums.

A similar measure, without the local option feature, was killed once before in the Senate this session.

700 March On Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — About 700 singing and drumming Negro students marched on downtown Nashville today where they planned sit-in demonstrations in sympathy with the racial strife in Birmingham, Ala.

The students left in groups of about 100 each from the First Baptist Church near the state capitol. They had massed at the church earlier to sing "freedom songs" and kick off the demonstration.

Barge Line Here Gets OK

Thirteen Charged

Retarded Mistreated

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI) — Thirteen psychiatric technicians were charged Tuesday with more than 30 counts of mistreating mentally retarded children at Fairview State Hospital. One 19-year-old employee allegedly beat and blackened the eye of an infant.

Dave Bach, Orange County deputy district attorney, said the charges resulted from a five-week investigation of alleged mistreatment at the 2,000-bed hospital which opened four years ago.

State Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk said a report would be submitted to Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Bach said his office was working in conjunction with Mosk's office and local authorities. "We feel we may get more information now that these cases have been brought to light," he said.

The investigation began after three unidentified women visited the institution last March. They complained that conditions in two security wards were the "worst we have seen."

Other alleged offenses included:

- Beating a child's head against a shower wall.
- Tying a young girl's hands behind her back and beating her unconscious.
- Beating the head of two patients against a cement floor.
- Breaking the arm of a patient.
- Breaking a patient's jaw.

—Taking patients into store-rooms and beating them unconscious.

More than 200 patients, most of them under 13, were interviewed during the investigation, Bach said.

Bach said the suspects, most of whom were permitted bail of $500 each, were charged with misdemeanors rather than felonies in order to bring them to trial quickly to set an example.

Three of the suspects no longer are employed at the hospital.

Water traffic into the Port of Sanford received a stimulating "shot-in-the-arm" today when it was announced that the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington has granted authority to Merry Shipping Company, Inc., of Augusta, Ga., to operate a common carrier barge line between Charleston, S. C., and Sanford.

This is the second common carrier to receive an ICC certificate to operate into Sanford. C. G. Willis, Inc., of Jacksonville, Fla., and Norfolk, Va., has a permit to operate between Trenton, N. J., and Sanford.

Five other companies, including the new Sanford Pipeline Company, have permits to operate contract lines into the local port.

Announcement of the Merry certificate reads that it has authority "to operate as a common carrier barge line in interstate and foreign commerce between points and ports on the Savannah River on the one hand and, on the other, Charleston, S. C., and Miami and Sanford, Fla., and points and ports on the St. Johns River and Inland Waterway."

It was reliably reported here that the Merry firm is contemplating construction of port and warehouse facilities here. Presently it is building such facilities costing $200,000 at Jacksonville.

However, O. C. Lee, Merry Shipping general manager at Augusta, by telephone this morning told The Sanford Herald "it is too early to tell what we are going to do at Sanford. This caught us by surprise. We filed our application in July 1961 and we had heard nothing more of it until we received this same announcement here (in Augusta) this morning."

Merry Shipping has been operating barges between Augusta and Savannah, Ga., since 1939.

Lee also expressed optimism about the proposed St. Johns Indian River canal, adding it would permit his firm's barges to operate between Sanford and Port Canaveral.

U. S. Airliner Takes Out 68 Yanks From Haiti

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (UPI) — A commercial airliner took out 68 dependents of American Embassy personnel today in the first of a series of evacuation flights ordered by Washington.

The plane left Port au Prince for Miami at 10:50 a.m.

An estimated 198 other Americans, of whom 81 were dependents of military personnel, boarded a charter flight which arrived while the first plane was being loaded. This plane was expected to leave before noon.

The first plane was returning to Miami, via Montego Bay, Jamaica. The second plane, however, was scheduled to fly direct to Miami.

U. S. Embassy officials said they had expected about 200 American civilians of their dependents also to evacuate, but that the Washington recommendation they leave Haiti apparently had not been accepted.

Evacuation of some 220 U. S. government civilian personnel and dependents here is expected to be completed Thursday morning with the arrival of a second charter flight from Miami. There are also two regularly scheduled Pan American World Airways flights out of Port au Prince Thursday.

Most of today's evacuees were children dressed in their Sunday best for the occasion. Heaps of baggage were stacked around the airport.

North Orlando Names New Municipal Judge

Cheldon Lautenberg, Fern Park attorney, and William Hahn were named municipal judge and fire chief, respectively, by North Orlando Village Council Tuesday evening.

Lautenberg will serve on a fee basis and Hahn without pay.

Police Chief David Tibson submitted the names of Andrew Ferrin, Hahn, Robert Stephenson and Richard Rhodes as volunteer policemen without pay. Stephenson is a council member and would serve as police commissioner.

Council tabled action on naming the policemen and reorganizing the fire department until insurance matters can be settled.

John Sewell, Orlando attorney, previously requested to delete into possible sources of revenue over and above the present cigarette and gasoline tax rebates from the state, advised the village could collect on franchisees for electricity, water, sewerage and gas and an ad valorem tax on personal property owned by individuals and businesses.

Mayor W. W. Anderson reported Florida Power Corporation has expressed willingness to a two per cent tax on its revenue plus a personal property tax.

Sewell also advised Council to press the North Orlando Company for payment of five per cent on water and sewerage receipts from inception.

Mrs. Irene Vah Epeod pointed out the previous Council kept no records from July 14, 1962, until April 1, 1963, when the present Council took office.

In other action Tuesday evening Council:

- Approved a resolution requesting the North Orlando Company to dedicate the recreation area to the village.
- Approved a resolution naming May as the "Clean Up and Beautification" month and commending the Garden Club on its activities.
- Noted $75 to the Little League.
- Approved a resolution expressing appreciation to Police Chief Raymond E. Beary, of Maitland, for his assistance in organizing the North Orlando police department.
- Noted the new vacant Horizon Homes sales office will be used as a city hall at a $1 annual rental.
- Fixed July 1 - June 30 as the village's fiscal year.

Police Reinforce Birmingham As Crisis Worsens

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Additional police reinforcements were rushed in today to cope with this steel city's mounting racial crisis.

All of the state's more than 500 highway patrolmen were alerted—with 250 trained in riot duty already on the scene—and a group of deputies from Montgomery left early today to join the city and state officers in Birmingham.

Negro leaders promised new demonstrations worked to reach some sort of truce in the protests that have resulted in at least 2,300 arrests. City jails were overflowing.

In Nashville, Tenn., plans were announced for a downtown demonstration by 500 to 1,000 Negro students in support of the Birmingham demonstrations. Similar sympathy demonstrations were reported planned in other cities, Negro leaders here said.

Negroes were told at two mass meetings Tuesday night about $200,000 in donations from all over the nation had come to the Birmingham Movement sponsoring the protests.

County Board To Tour Roads

On-the-spot inspection of county-maintained roads was to be accomplished this afternoon by the County Commission, in company with County Engineer William Bush and Road Supt. J. C. Lavender.

Bush previously had pointed out the Commission failed to approve a county road program for the year because of the December freeze. He asked for an approved program for the five months remaining in this fiscal year "so we won't have to run to you on such projects."

Chairman J. C. Hutcheson said the Commission this afternoon will inspect the roads and give its decision at next Tuesday's regular session.

'Popular' Mayor Arrested For Extortion

STREATOR, Ill. (UPI) — Shocked residents of this small Illinois city expressed disbelief today at the arrest of their popular mayor for extortion.

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) agents snapped a trap on Ray Sopher, in a plush cocktail lounge in Chicago Tuesday shortly after he received about $3,000 in cash from a sewage system equipment firm.

Only hours earlier, Sopher told a festive crowd attending his swearing in ceremonies that during his second term he planned to resurface the alleys, build a golf course and buy a water plant.

"It's really been a shock here," one citizen said.

"Some persons questioned how much politics was involved in the arrest of the man who had won a near 2-to-1 victory in the majority election less than a month ago.

Others asked if he were as guilty as the circumstances indicated.

The FBI said Sopher was charged with "having affected commerce and movement of material being shipped from Kansas to Streator by extortion of a substantial amount of money."

Special agent in charge M. W. Johnson said the trap was set up after an official of the firm, Smith and Loveless, Inc., Lenexa, Kan., informed the FBI of the alleged extortion.

The FBI agent in charge declined to reveal the amount of money involved but said it was recovered. U. S. Dist. Atty. James P. O'Brien said about $3,000-10 per cent of a $30,000 sewage equipment transaction—was involved.

Sopher was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike Tuesday night and released on $1,000 bond. The hearing was continued with the date open.

The FBI said evidence in the case probably would be presented to a federal grand jury "in the near future."

Sopher returned to Streator.

Married, the father of one son and three daughters and the grandfather of one, 50-phers, 48, was elected to his first four-year term as mayor in 1959.

B. Alden Smith, managing director of Smith and Loveless, said "kickbacks" had been imposed more than two years ago, shortly after the firm began negotiations with officials of the city of 22,500 for the purchase and installation of factory-built sewage lift stations.

Casselberry Scouts Attend Convention

By Jane Casselberry
Troop 314 Green Bar Pack of Casselberry marched in the state Lions Club convention Parade held last Saturday morning in Clearwater, and the boys were accompanied on the trip by Scoutmaster Ted Daniel and Scoutmaster Casselberry who serves on the troop committee. The group left on Friday afternoon and returned on Sunday afternoon. While in Clearwater they stayed at a Clearwater County Boy Scout Camp located near St. Petersburg.

Here the scouts enjoyed swimming in the Gulf and participating in the area. They attended church at the First Presbyterian and Catholic Churches in Safety Harbor before starting for home on Sunday.
On the way home they stopped to explore the Lakeland phosphate mines and found many fossilized bones, shells and shark's teeth considered to date back to prehistoric times.
These making the trip, in addition to the leaders, were Dan Casselberry, Ricky Casselberry, Bill Danberry, Bill Thompson, Eddie Canfield, David Knott, and Scott Swannell won the job of Student Body President.

Casselberry MYF Honors Senior Member
The senior MYF of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church held a reception in Wesley Hall Sunday night for the young people in the church, who are graduating from high school this year.
Seniors honored were Jill Forsyth, MYF president and Barbara Fessell, Cheryl Kiddy, Katherine Moon, Bernice Casner, Lorne Haines, Bruce Haines, Charles Haines and Ronald Letcher.
Johnny Haines acted as master of ceremonies. A cake, decorated with cup and daisies surrounded by self-colored flowers released through the National Band of Five Industries. Titles of the films are "From We Must" and "The Science of Fire".

Bosox Off To Amazing Start

By United Press International
There are two words needed to explain why the Boston Red Sox are off to their best start in 10 years: Pesky and pitching.

Rookie Manager Johnny Pesky has instilled a new spirit and a strong young pitching staff completes the new look of a team that so often in the past has been all muscle at the plate and all thumbs in the field.

The combination has the Red Sox occupying first place in the American League today—a heady experience for the survivors of last season's eighth-place bumblers.

The Red Sox reached the top rung for the second time the season when they beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-1, Tuesday night to give them six victories in their last eight games. Earl Wilson, 12-8 including a no-hitter last year, fired a three-hitter and struck out seven to raise his 1963 mark to 3-2.

Lu Clinton homered, Frank Malone had three hits and Chuck Schilling, Carl Yastrzemski and Roman Mejias had two each to lead the Red Sox' 12-hit attack that dealt 1962 comeback of the year star Robin Roberts his fourth consecutive loss of 1963. Boog Powell doubled home the Orioles' run.

The Detroit Tigers beat the New York Yankees, 6-2, the Los Angeles Angels topped the Minnesota Twins, 2-0, the Cleveland Indians defeated the Washington Senators, 7-3, in 11 innings and the Chicago White Sox edged out the Kansas City Athletics, 3-1, in other AL games.

Bill Frechan, $100,000 bonus catcher, scored three runs and drove in two with a homer, triple and double to lead Detroit's nine-hit attack on Bill Stafford and two successors. Don Mossi, beating the Yankees for the second time this season, allowed seven hits, no walks and struck out four.

Ex-Yankee Bob Turley pitched a three-hitter to win his first game for the Angels, who purchased him conditionally from New York last October. Turley, a 21-game winner in 1958 who has had a variety of arm ailments for the last three years, struck out nine and didn't walk a batter. Leon Wagner continued his fine hitting for the Angels with two singles and a run batted in.

Pinch-hitter Johnny Romano's two-run double and Al Luplow's two-run single were the big blows of a four-run 11th-inning rally that carried the Indians to their fifth straight win. Bob Allen, the fourth Cleveland hurler, was the winning pitcher. Four Senators were ejected from the 3:23 struggle by Umpire Al Salerno.

Johnny Bushardt, aided by Hoyt Wilhelm's ninth-inning relief, won his second game for the White Sox, who knocked the Athletics out of first place. Bushardt singled home one White Sox run and Floyd Robinson had a run-scoring single and a double to extend his hitting streak to eight games.

'A' Paces Mets

By United Press International
Casey Stengel, master of the non sequitor, reserves one of his best for pitcher Al Jackson of the New York Mets.

"If he wasn't a left-hander," says Stengel, "you'd think he was a ball player."

What Stengel means is that the 27-year-old native of Waco, Tex., moves with such grace that he would be mistaken for a shortstop or a second-baseman — except, of course, for the fact he's left-handed. As it is, Jackson is a pitcher and he's turning out to be a mighty good one, too.

A 20-game loser for the former Mets of 1962, Jackson posted his third win against two defeats this year when he beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-1, Tuesday night. Jackson allowed 11 hits, including three doubles and a triple, and the Phillies had a runner in scoring position in five of the first eight innings but they didn't score until Bobby Wine homered in the ninth.

Charlie Neal hit an inside-the-park homer and Frank Thomas hit a two-run homer in the first inning to provide all three runs for the Mets, who have won four of their last seven games to achieve a respectability they never had in '62. Nobody is rating them a first-division threat in the strong NL but they're no longer the palsies that drove Stengel whacky last year.

Sandy Koufax and Bob Purkey, two pitchers who could be of key importance in the pennant race, provided encouraging news Tuesday night for the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds.

Koufax, sidelined since May 23, pitched a five-hitter for eight innings as the Dodgers clobbered the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-1, while Purkey, out since spring training with a lame arm, yielded four hits and one run in 5½ innings and left the game with the lead even though the Houston Colts rallied to top the Reds, 3-2.

The San Francisco Giants went back into first place with a 6-2 win over the Milwaukee Braves and the Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-4, in other NL games.

The Dodgers backed Koufax with a 13-hit attack that included three hits by Ron Fairly, a homer by Tommy Davis, a triple by Johnny Roseboro and three doubles. Ray Washburn, who had won five straight games, was routed in three innings and

Moore 'Dropped' From Ring Rating

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, 47 going on 50, was dropped completely out of the Ring Magazine's top 10 rankings today for the first time in memory of modern man.

Mustached and sometimes goateed Archie, who had come up through the light heavyweight rankings to the light heavy title and then had shifted into the heavy division,

Negro Seen For Davis Play

NEW YORK (UPI) — Arthur Ashe, a 19-year-old student at UCLA, may soon become the first Negro ever to represent the United States on a Davis Cup team.

The Richmond, Va., youth was one of 11 players designated as candidates for the squad Tuesday. The others include Chuck McKinley, Dennis Ralston, Frank Froehling, Alton Fox, Charles Pasarell, Martin Riesen, Cliff Buchholz, Tom Edleson, Gene Scott and Don Dell.

Umps Ignoring New Balk Rule?

NEW YORK (UPI) — National League umpires, despite a new interpretation of the balk rule, still are relying on their own judgment in dealing with the controversial pitch.

Two balks were called in four NL games Tuesday night — one against Bob Purkey of the Cincinnati Reds and the other against Ray Washburn of the St. Louis Cardinals. None were called in five American League night games.

Baseball's top brass agreed during a meeting here Tuesday that the confusing one-second stop requirement be eliminated from the balk rule.

However, Commissioner Ford Frick and league presidents Warren Giles and Joe Crumlin emphasized that the rule is an essential part of baseball and that the pitcher must come to a stop before delivering the ball to the batter with men on bases, although not for a full second.

Paul Pender Calls It Quits

BOSTON (UPI) — Paul Pender faded into boxing shadows today and the Massachusetts Boxing Commission prepared to join the rest of the world in recognizing Nicaragua's Dick Tiger as middleweight champion.

The former Brookline, Mass. fireman announced in New York Tuesday that he was calling it quits as a boxer for the second time in his career — only this time it was for keeps.

Pender, a slender, dark-haired man whose craggy nose gives the only hint of his profession, first retired from boxing some 12 years ago when brittle hands seemingly cut short his career almost before it had begun. But surgery corrected his hands and he went on to win 40 of 48 professional bouts, which included two draws.

The 32-year-old Pender said that the inability of promoters to secure television for the proposed June 1 Boston Garden bout with Joey Giardello and the apparent impossibility of luring Tiger into a match for the undisputed world title led him to quit.

Fish, Hunt Meetings Set

A series of three public meetings will be held in Central Florida this month to acquaint the sportsmen with problems in wildlife conservation and to discuss hunting and fishing rules and regulations for the 1963-64 season, according to J. W. Bickerstaff, central Florida region manager for the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

May 20 a meeting will be held in the County Courthouse, St. Augustine at 7:00 p.m.

May 21, the meeting will be held in the Community Building at Venetian Gardens in Leesburg at 7:30 p.m.

May 22, the meeting will be held in the convention Hall of the Cape Colony Inn on Cocoa Beach at 7:00 p.m.

Bickerstaff said that all interested persons and organizations are invited to attend and submit recommendations as to hunting and fishing rules and regulations at the meetings, or to submit their recommendations in writing to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission Office in Ocala.

Topics that might be discussed are everyday hunting in certain areas in Central Florida, possibilities of a spring gobbler season and a change in bag limits on fresh water fish.

Bickerstaff said the final rules and regulations will be adopted at the state-wide commission meeting in Tallahassee in July.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay suffered nothing worse than a "minor bruise" when he was struck by a falling guard rail while being loaded on a van Tuesday for a trip to Pimlico, where he will run in the Preakness, May 18.

Tips On Containers For Plants

Plants can be grown in many kinds of containers. However, the best are those which allow for good drainage and are large enough to accommodate the root system of the plant. Containers such as clay pots, are better than those made of copper, brass or glass.

Gravel and charcoal placed in the bottom of the planter will allow for drainage, keeping the roots from standing in excess water.

If plants are grown in non-porous containers, it is advisable to double-pot the plant—that is, place the plant in a clay pot, then place the clay pot inside the second container. The bottom of the outside container should be filled with gravel. The space between the sides of the containers should be filled with peat moss.

This is an excellent method of potting plants because it allows for a certain amount of drainage and air circulation, as well as minimizing watering chores.

In regard to planters which are built into the house as wall dividers, they present difficult problems and should be considered carefully before they are installed.

Hassle Hits Lawmakers On Judges

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A constitutional amendment to permit the Legislature to provide for an additional county judge in counties with a population in excess of 40,000 ran into a storm of controversy in the Senate Tuesday.

After nearly an hour's debate, the measure was taken off the calendar by a vote of 22-20 and sent back to the committee on amendments.

Before debate was halted, the measure was amended to provide that judges in counties of 20,000 population or more be attorneys, but another amendment excluded judges now in office.

It also was amended to require an approving vote of the people in the county involved before a new judgeship could be created.

Under present law, only counties with 125,000 population or more can have two county judges. Sen. Dempsey Barron, Panama City, tried unsuccessfully to put the floor for additional judges at 60,000 population.

Sen. V. J. Pope, St. Augustine, opposed the measure on the grounds that the legislature creating judgeships by "senatorial courtesy" under which such matters are handled as local legislation and left to the senator of the affected county.

FAG Plans Mapped Out At SHS

More than 100 Senior parents met at Seminole High School Monday to sign up for committees and map out plans for the big Fun After Graduation activities for this year's graduating class.

Robert Murrie, senior class president met with the parents and explained why the class should like to have a "Beatnik" party.

He said that the students felt that they would need no special costumes, as each one has some kind of appropriate clothing for the casual relaxed atmosphere of the Beatnik style, and would prefer to be comfortable after the hectic activities of the last weeks of school.

During the class meeting held a few days ago, Murrie said that out of 220 seniors, 150 voted for the Beatnik party. They would like to have a small band for dancing and singing to go along with the swimming. It was decided to hold the party at Sandaloo Springs.

The class helped raise money for the party with their sales of movie tickets bringing in a total of $572. The tab for the other expenses is being picked up by the Rotary Club as they have in past years.

Sonny Powell and Bill Lovelace, representing the Rotary Club are co-chairing the entire evening of events, which will begin right after graduation with a reception for grads and parents in the cafeteria, followed by a movie at the Ritz, then the Beatnik party at Sandaloo Springs.

Friday, before graduation the seniors will have a picnic at the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meeks are in charge of the beach party.

The reception chairman are Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Epps; Movie chairman, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Epstein; Beatnik Party, Mrs. Camilla Bruce Pizza, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Westgate; Hors d'oeuvres, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wright and Reception decorating, Mrs. Sarah Bantzen.

Principal A. H. Bracken told the parents that high schools all over the country have found that the all-night parent-controlled after-graduation parties are the solution to the tendency of students to let off steam in out-of-town places and unchaperoned activities.

"THOSE WONDERFUL YEARS," presented by DeBary's Volunteer Fire Assn. and its Auxiliary, will be sponsored in Sanford by the Sanford Pilot Club this Saturday night at the Civic Center. Appearing on the program, which played to enthusiastic audiences in DeBary on April 24 and 25, will be a 40 member cast, part of which is pictured above. Curtain will ring up at 8 p.m. (Herald Photo)

Gray Ladies Program Explained To Mothers

By Jane Casselberry

South Seminole Junior High School Clinic Mothers held a coffee last Wednesday morning in Weaver Hall of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church to hear Mrs. Gordon Frederick of Sanford speak on the Red Cross Gray Ladies Program for School Clinics.

She said that there now are more than 6,000 Gray Ladies serving in Florida schools. A total of 17 hours is required in the training including 10 hours of First Aid and seven hours of Red Cross and school orientation.

She recommended that the ladies wait until school starts in the fall to set up a training course.

Citizens Party Need Stressed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Michigan Gov. George Romney said today the nation desperately needs a "citizens" political party that will not be limited to the views of business, labor or any other single group.

By Louise Simunek

New officers of the Altamonte Springs Civic Club were installed at a luncheon held last Wednesday at the Hamilton House which was the last meeting of the group for the current year.

Juthe, president; Mrs. George Hearn, vice president; Mrs. Clifford Sands, corresponding secretary; Mrs. B. A. Wells, recording secretary; Mrs. R. T. Overly, treasurer and Mrs. M. G. Pate, historian.

Dr. Gertrude Forman, retiring president, was presented with a citation by Mrs. Frank Kollman, president of Old Glory American Legion Unit 183, for the donation given by the Civic Club to the Girls State Fund.

Committee chairman announced by Mrs. Juthe for her tenure of office included, Mrs. Frank O'Brien, beautification; Mrs. E. M. Sammons, membership; Dr. Forman, program; Mrs. T. L. Forham, hospitality; Mrs. E. W. Dallman, house; Mrs. E. B. Taylor, civic; Mrs. R. N. Nordgren, publicity and Mrs. A. M. Burkes, service.

Announcement was made by Mrs. S. H. Cady Jr. that the book purchased for the Altamonte Library in memory of Mrs. T. F. Wood is an excellent reference book on Florida entitled "Florida Handbook." The club voted to present another book to the library in memory of Mrs. Wesley Bassett who recently passed away. In view of Mrs. Bassett's avid interest in antiques, the book will be on that subject.

An interesting report was given by Mrs. Milton L. Tinsley on her trip to Palm Beach where she represented the club at the 68th Convention of the Florida State Women's Federation.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Seminole County Federation will be held at 10:30 a.m. on May 23 in Casselberry at which time Mrs. Tinsley will be installed as Federation president.

The Barge Canal

Senator Spessard Holland, who is leading the fight in Congress for the cross-Florida barge canal, has announced he will file an amendment to a supplementary appropriation bill for one million dollars to start construction on the canal. His action will come in the Senate Appropriations Committee of which he is a member.

In addition the senator will ask $250,000 to begin planning the Four Rivers Basin flood control and conservation project. Both of these projects were left out of the budget bureau requests for Florida public works.

It should be pointed out that the barge canal and the four rivers flood control project complement each other. With construction of the canal many benefits, such as flood control, conservation and recreation, would result in the area embraced in the four rivers basin. So it can be seen that it is proper to tie the two projects together in the supplementary appropriation bill the senator is sponsoring.

Probably never before has the merit of the barge canal been presented to the people of Florida in such a factual and informative manner as at the present.

Recently the Journal of the Florida Engineering Society, which has some 2,000 members, published three articles descriptive of the canal. These articles appeared in the December, January and February issues of the Journal.

One of the articles, the history of the barge canal, was prepared by the writer. A second article, in the December Journal, was prepared by Joe L. Koperski, chief of the U.S. Army Engineering, Jacksonville. It is titled "Facts and Figures."

A third article, titled "Pro Bono Publico" for the public good, was written by Col. Giles L. Evans Jr., who retired after serving 23 years with the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

Col. Evans, who is manager of the Canal Authority of Florida, deals with the economic and defense value of the canal in the most comprehensive and informative manner. Every question concerning the canal which has been raised by opponents of the project is answered in a factual and authoritative manner.

In addition Florida Trend devoted almost its entire January issue to a series of articles under the title "The Fight for Florida Waterways." The principal article was prepared by Charles Darragh, who has done a most thorough research job and presented some challenging statements. In a sub-heading, Darragh says:

"Though waterway development has been a controversial thing in the past, most of Florida's business and political leaders now support it. But this support is neither active enough nor strong enough to be felt in Washington where construction funds are allocated."

To strengthen this support, not only for the barge canal but all waterways projects for which appropriations are being asked in Congress, the Canal Authority of Florida purchased 100 copies of each of these magazines and they are being placed in the hands of editors of Florida newspapers, both daily and weekly, that they may be fully informed as to the merit of the unified waterway program which has been presented to Congress by our Florida delegation and Gov. Farris Bryant. Many favorable editorial comments are already appearing in the Florida press.

Florida's business leaders have been alerted to the economic value of water transportation as never before. Waterways, along with railroads and airways, are essential elements of our national transportation system. All media will need to expand drastically if we continue our present growth of around 3 1/2 percent per annum. Traffic must be moved at the lowest possible overall cost to the country. Waterways provide the lowest possible cost for slow-moving bulk commodities—an average of four mills per ton-mile against 1.5 cents per ton-mile for rail. And the consumer public is the ultimate benefactor of these savings.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Red Gets Belated Present

Italian voters gave Italian Communist boss Palmiro Togliatti a belated birthday present this year, but it seems too early for Moscow to do much celebrating.

The general elections which gave the Communists a record number of votes actually were a shakedown of Italian political sentiment and seem likely to have little effect on the "left-of-center" policy which Premier Amintore Fanfani launched in February 1962.

Any changes that do come about can be expected to be internal rather than external, having no effect either on Italy's NATO ties or on its membership in the European Common Market.

All this is based on the assumption that the political forces which made Italy's left-center government possible retain their ties and that the left-wing Socialists of Pietro Nenni do not heed Togliatti's siren call to join the Communists in a "new political course."

To do so would be to plunge Italy into the greatest political chaos since World War II.

Past action makes such an event unlikely.

When Fanfani began his left-center government a little more than a year ago, it was in search of a political stability unknown in Italy since the post-war governments of Alcide De Gasperi.

Fanfani's own Christian Democratic party remained the largest in Italy but it was a patchwork of elements ranging from the moderate left to the extreme right. Since the war, Italy had had 22 governments.

Conflicting interests within the smaller parties such as the neo-Fascists, the monarchists, the liberals and others made successful coalition impossible.

Meanwhile, the left-wing Socialists who had joined the Communists in a popular front in 1940 and split with them two years later, were drifting steadily farther away from their former allies under the leadership of Nenni.

In 1962, Fanfani obtained agreement from his own party for his left-center experiment. His new government was composed of his own Christian Democrats, the Republicans and the Social Democrats.

It had the outside support of the Nenni Socialists in return for promises to nationalize the electrical industry, to decentralize state administration by creating regional governments, to institute school reforms and development plans especially for the south.

It alienated both the extreme right and the extreme left and it was anticipated that some votes would flee both the Christian Democrats on the right and the Nenni Socialists on the left.

In the Sunday-Monday elections these predictions were borne out. But the present combination is practically the only one able to rule with any degree of stability.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There's an important new factor in United States labor relations.

It's Kaiser Steel's announcement of an $80 payment for March to 3,900 Fontana, Calif., plant workers who already receive an average of $540 a month.

This amounts to paying $6 cents an hour on top of a $3.14 hourly average wage for a 173-hour work month. The Kaiser Plan was negotiated with United Steelworkers Union beginning in 1959, but it was put in final form only last December and became effective March 1.

From here on, the company and the union will effect by negotiating every month for a new supplementary wage. It will be payable from savings on current production as compared to the cost of making a ton of steel in the 1959 year—1961.

As one industry spokesman comments, "This practically eliminates strikes at Kaiser on economic issues."

The company could still have strikes on working conditions or fringe benefits, but economic issues are the principal cause of all labor disputes.

The big question is: What effect will this have on all other American labor relations and negotiations? More specifically, what effect will it have on the Steelworkers' reopening their contract with price steel?

A key factor in the situation is David J. McDonald, Steelworkers' president. He has been suffering from a virus, complicated by what has been called "negotiating hypochondria." But he is expected to take part in coming "human relations" talks between labor and management that are intended to head off a strike.

Whether there will be a strike depends a great deal on McDonald's leadership. The contract can be reopened on questions of wage rates, pensions, job security questions such as subcontracting, overtime, and assignment of work to supervisory personnel outside the union. It also can be reopened on fringe issues like the 13 weeks paid vacation every five years for workers with 15 years or longer service.

This last provision was negotiated by the steelworkers with can manufacturers.

If applied to the whole steel industry, its cost has been estimated at the equivalent of 10 cents an hour average, or a 2.2 percent wage raise.

On the basis of steel industry productivity increases of 4.7 percent over the last two years, steelworkers might be entitled to demand a "noninflationary" wage increase. Over the past five years, productivity has increased only 2.2 percent. Over 15 years it has risen 3.4 percent. Also, the cost of living increase might justify demands for a five to six-cent-an-hour increase.

But the big question is what effect the steel companies selective price increases may have on collective bargaining. President Kennedy has given these increases tentative approval. The Joint Economic Committee under Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., is investigating this problem, but has come up with no conclusions.

The recent steel price increases have been calculated as the equivalent of only about 1 percent, spread across basic steel production. This in itself might not justify a wage increase.

But the record shows that ever since the bigger steel price increase was announced and then withdrawn under White House pressure last year, the industry has been building up a case that price increases have been justified to cover labor and materials costs.

The statements, speeches and articles of U.S. Steel Chairman Roger Blough in particular, and the Iron and Steel Institute's research reports in general, emphasize justification for last year's announced price rise after the labor contract was signed.

This contract provided for no wage increase the first year, ending next July 1.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Clara is a classical example of this "Death Wish." Scrapbook this case for it needs to be more fully understood in America. Thousands of women are unhappy and often require sanitarium care, just because they don't realize the facts described below.

CASE P-433: Clara B., aged 27, is a young mother.

"Dr. Crane," her husband began, "Clara was a beautiful girl who was working as a model when I first met her."

"She seemed a bit stage-struck and never could pass a mirror without preening herself in front of it."

"Or she'd twist and flounce her skirts to make sure she would show off to good advantage."

"This didn't disturb me unduly before marriage, for I figured she'd settle down afterwards."

"But I was infatuated so I couldn't really view her in a detached way or I probably would not have pressed my suit so hard."

"She was reluctant to get married but I high pressured her till she finally consented. She kept deferring having any children and grew enraged when she finally found she was pregnant."

"Then she insisted on a Caesarian section to avoid widening her hips in childbirth."

"We had a beautiful baby girl and I was crazy about her. But Clara seemed somewhat indifferent."

"She even began to grow moody and finally became so despondent that I had to take her to a psychiatrist. He sent her to a sanitarium for shock treatment."

"After six months, Clara came back home. Now she seems overly solicitous of our little girl."

"She insists on sleeping with her, while I have been pushed into the spare bedroom."

"And Clara wakes up in alarm during the night lest the baby might be developing pneumonia."

"She now shows excessive fear that something will happen to our little girl."

"Dr. Crane, what is wrong with my wife, for I don't think she is a normal mother, despite her excessive concern for the baby?"

To put it bluntly, Clara typifies the "Death Wish." Many young mothers, as well as fathers, succumb to this "Death Wish complex."

And so do older folks who may have the sole care of invalided parents.

Briefly, Clara was a Narcissus type in childhood, being a spoiled "only" child.

One reason why she relished being a model was the fact she could thus stand and admire herself in the mirror (Narcissus-like).

Until she was married, she could also circulate socially and win the attention of many men.

Marriage shut off some of this spotlighting. And she resented having a baby because she realized the baby would usurp the family spotlight.

Until the baby arrived, her parents and her husband always asked in solicitous tones, "Clara, how are you feeling?"

But the moment the baby was born, the question shifted to, "How is the baby feeling?"

Clara was thus figuratively demoted from a Prima Donna role to a secondary spot in the "chorus." Subconsciously, she resented this demotion.

"Oh, it was so much nicer before the baby came," she thought.

Then she became horrified at the implication of this idea! More tomorrow!

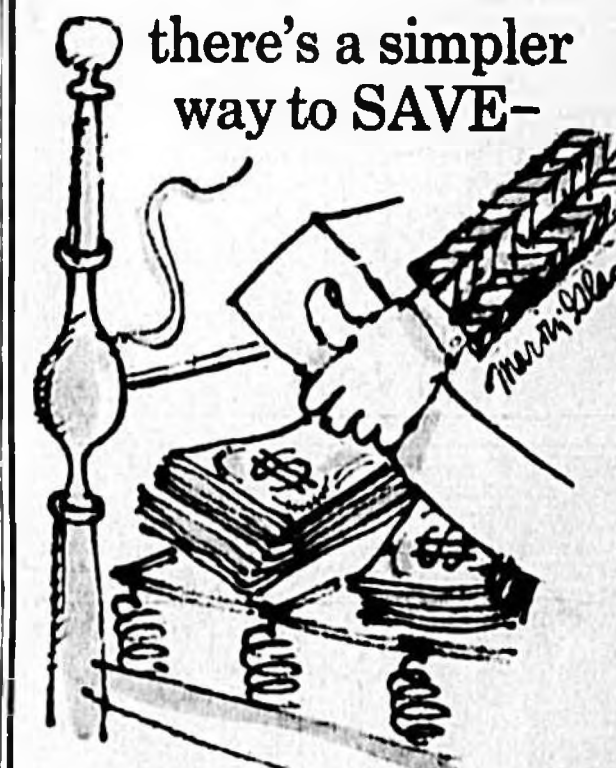

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

I would guess very safely we would not see an American woman in space until some time in the 1970s at the earliest.

—Astronaut Walter Schirra.

Nobody Wants Him; Youth 'Sits' In Jail

A 17-year-old boy man has been sitting in jail for the last 2½ months, having reached the crossroads leading toward his future. And the outlook is black.

He's a boy in years, having celebrated his 17th birthday last October. He's a man in the eyes of the law. His last birthday, according to law, advanced him from boyhood to manhood.

This young man (we'll call him "Bob," although that is not his name) has no one to whom to turn for help; he must rely on strangers. And he is in dire need of help. He faces another jail term. His IQ places him in the "brilliant" or "superior intelligent" class. Yet, apparently, he never has had anyone to teach him between right and wrong. It might be said, in a gentle manner, that Bob has "taken ways."

Bob was born in Boston. When he was five years old his parents were divorced and his mother took him to Miami. There she married a man 30 years her senior. Bob and his stepfather failed to hit it off; the boy continually ran away from his mother's home, later from foster homes established by the juvenile court.

Classed as an incorrigible, Bob was sent to Marianna for two years. He continued his schooling through the ninth grade and became profoundly interested in electronics. It was there he underwent an examination and it was discovered his IQ to be 147, which educators say is "brilliant" and "superior." Average is between 100 and 110.

When he was 16, Bob was released from Marianna and returned to Miami. He attended an adult education school for a while, furthering his studies in electronics. Then he hitchhiked to Boston to visit his father.

On his return, a motorist gave him a ride and informed him if he would return here last February he would give the boy a job at the horse racing track. Bob and two juveniles from Miami did return in February and worked one week, sleeping in the woods.

One evening they saw a parked car with the keys in the ignition. They took it and headed for Miami. At Avon Park they wrecked it.

The two juveniles long since have been released to the custody of their parents and were returned to Miami. Bob was sentenced to 23 days at Avon Park and then returned to Sanford for face auto theft charges. In all, he has been in jail this trip 2½ months, one month here awaiting pre-sentence investigation.

But authorities are faced with a problem: Where to place Bob even if the court will consider a probationary sentence? He will not be permitted to return to his mother's home. For confidential reasons he cannot go to his father's home. Some time in the last few years his half-brother legally adopted Bob and the youth accepted his brother's surname. But the brother now is divorced and serving with the Armed Forces in Germany. And Bob's present predicament precludes his enlisting in the Armed Forces for the time being.

The court appointed a Sanford attorney to represent Bob without pay. This lawyer has been supplying Bob with pocket money during his incarceration while he endeavors to help the boy.

Bob, while interested in electronics, is keenly desirous of entering the forestry service. He likes hunting, fishing and such outdoor sports and believes he could find his life work in the woods.

Of slight build, the young man is polite and courteous and seems extremely anxious to mend his ways and create a useful life for himself. He has expressed himself as willing to enter a foster home and "prove his worth."

But, as one official put it, it will take someone who is understanding, kind and above all patient. "And we must emphasize that word 'patient,'" this official pointed out. "It will have to be someone who will not throw up his hands at the first misstep on Bob's part and throw him back in the clink."

Bob already has pleaded guilty to auto theft but he has not yet been adjudicated guilty by the court. It is not known what the pre-sentence investigation will recommend nor is it known whether the court will give the boy another opportunity.

But Bob is at the crossroads of his life. Will it be the high road? Or will it be the low road? A foster home or a sponsor may help the court decide whether Bob will be given a second chance. So, it will take a sponsor and an understanding court.

(Ed. note: The Herald takes no sides in this boy's future. The thought here is merely to present his story. Any interested persons may contact The Herald news desk (FA 2-2612) and they will be referred to the proper authorities handling this case.)

Two Area Schools Win OK; Local Officials Gear Drive

With the State Senate having earmarked two institutions of higher learning for East Central Florida, local officials today were tightening their drive to have one or both schools pinpointed for Seminole County.

UPI reported that a bill authorizing future establishment of a state university for under-graduates in East Central Florida skimmed out of the Senate appropriations committee today and was speeded to the calendar of the full Senate.

The full Senate Wednesday passed and sent to the House another bill authorizing a branch of the University of Florida engineering college in the same East Central Florida area.

The bill for the undergraduate university sent to the full Senate today contains no funds to start the institution. Effect of the bill is to locate the next state university in this area if the state ever decides to build a new university.

Sen. J. A. Boyd, Leesburg, who sponsored the bill along with Sen. Bernard Parrish, Titusville, said that "we've been assured by the Board of Control that it probably won't do anything about establishing the institution for 10 years." However, Sen. L. K. Edwards, Irvine, predicted the East Central Florida legislative delegation would be back before the Legislature in 1965 asking $20 million to get the university under way.

The bill for the engineering branch carries a $311,000 appropriation to get it under way immediately.

Under terms of the legislation, the Board of Control and Cabinet would pick the exact location of both institutions.

Local officials were reluctant to talk today of their overall planning but advised "when the time is ready we will be happy to divulge the whole program." However, First Research Corporation at Miami, did inform The Herald by telephone that it has its feasibility study for locating these schools in Seminole County "about two-thirds to three-fourths completed" for presentation to the local committee and to the State Board of Control.

Haiti Tense; Yanks Leave

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (UPI)—The United States continued removal by air of governmental dependents from tense Haiti today under the watchful eyes of an American naval task force.

The last of 220 dependents of U. S. military and embassy personnel were expected to leave today aboard a chartered Pan American World Airways plane and two regular commercial flights.

A total of 195 Americans including some non-government residents, left Port Au Prince by air Wednesday.

The U. S. State Department ordered government dependents to leave and urged other Americans to do so as well due to the "deteriorating situation" under President Francois Duvalier and the tension between Haiti and neighboring Dominican Republic.

Reports from London and The Hague said Britain and the Netherlands also had advised their citizens to leave.

The United States notified Haiti Wednesday it was moving American warships within sight of Port Au Prince, but outside the six-mile territorial waters.

Close Call For DC-7

TAMPA (UPI)—A four-engine Eastern Airlines DC-7 with 33 persons aboard landed safely at Tampa International Airport this morning with one engine feathered.

An airlines spokesman said the plane encountered engine trouble on takeoff and the pilot feathered the engine and returned to the airport.

'Bama Race Truce Takes Shaky Turn

The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee said today that federal intervention will be necessary in Birmingham "if the situation again gets out of bounds."

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N. Y., said some government action would be needed to prevent the spread of a new disorder although he would be reluctant to see it come to that.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—A shaky truce threatened to break down today before all factions could reach agreement on a plan to end the racial violence which has resulted in the arrest of 2,200 Negroes in this Deep South steel city.

A 250-man force of highway patrolmen, augmented by approximately 400 plainclothesmen carrying sidearms, apparently was in control and able to enforce law and order.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth, two top Negro leaders in the desegregation campaign here, said they were hopeful a solution to five weeks of demonstrations could be found by this afternoon.

A bi-racial committee met again Wednesday night but made no announcement of results.

The big problem in a settlement appeared to be among the Negro leadership, sharply divided as to whether full scale demonstrations should be resumed today.

GEORGE TOUHY Honors...

Public Defender Bill Approved

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Senate passed and sent to the House today a bill creating a system of public defenders to represent needy persons accused of crime.

The bill, identical to one voted to the House calendar Wednesday provides for a public defender to be elected in each judicial circuit now numbering 16.

The first group of defenders would be appointed by the Governor but would have to run next year to hold the job.

The measure was required by a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision that every person charged with a felony is entitled to an attorney and the state must provide one if the accused cannot afford his own. The ruling resulted in the release of one Florida prisoner and a flood of petitions from others for new trials.

The bill contains no appropriation to foot the bill, but a separate measure not yet adopted provides a state appropriation of $280,000 for a public defender system.

Land Promoters Face Arrest

NEW YORK (UPI)—Attorney Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz announced today that warrants had been issued for the arrest of six Florida land promoters accused of violating New York State's Real Estate Law.

Dory Auerbach Associates, Inc. of Miami, six of its officers and six subsidiary land companies were charged with falling to file with the Department of State a detailed

Semi-Centennial Awards Given At C of C Fete

Accolades for "outstanding services" in promoting and staging Seminole County's Semi-Centennial celebration April 27 were presented to committee chairmen and others by the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon meeting at noon today at Mayfair Inn.

George Touhy, general chairman of the Centennial, was presented with a plaque by Francis E. Rounhill, Chamber president.

Touhy, in turn, presented certificates of award to:

Capt. R. M. Ware, commanding officer, Sanford Naval Air Station; Capt. J. M. Tully Jr., commanding officer, Heavy Attack Wing One, NAS; Robert Bessner, Gordon Bradley, Paul Lewis, Garnett White, E. C. Harper Jr., Police Chief Roy G. Williams, Glenn McCall, Charlie Kampf.

Jack Horner, Dorothy Austin and Larry Vershel, feature editor and managing editor, respectively, of The Sanford Herald; Clyde Long, City Manager W. E. Knowles, Cdr. H. B. Slively and Lt. Cdr. W. C. Feldmeyer Jr. The Sanford Herald, accepted by Publisher Walter A. Glendon; WDBO-TV and WFSH-TV.

Harper introduced Candice Conder, Miss Seminole County, and Caroline Bargerly, first runner-up in the beauty contest.

School Age Bill Dumped

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Senate General Legislation Committee today passed, reconsidered and then dumped in subcommittee the controversial bill to make children two months older when they enter the first grade.

The bill, already passed by the House, would raise the present first grade enrollment age from five years-nine months to five years-11 months by Oct. 1 of the year of enrollment. It would become effective in 1965.

The committee also passed favorably on the controversial Sunday closing law bill. Heavily amended by the committee, it passed by a 7-1 vote.

The Legislation Committee is the final hurdle for the school age measure. It has already been passed favorably by the Senate Public Education Committee. Passage today would have meant the bill would be placed on the calendar for final floor action.

The committee passed the bill by a 5-3 vote and went on to other business. However, Sen. E. William Gautier of New Smyrna Beach then called for reconsideration of the measure and his motion was passed by an identical 5-3 vote.

Gautier then moved to place the bill in subcommittee to be reported on when the committee meets again next week.

Gautier said he wanted to "clean up" a committee amendment which would permit children to take an examination by the State Education Department to determine if a child could be admitted at an earlier age. The amendment provides that a fee, set by the education department, must be paid by the parents for the examination.

Rare Revolt

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House, in a rare revolt against its own, has voted pay increases of up to $5,000 for some retired generals and admirals, and a special combat allowance for servicemen. The provisions were added to a $1.2 billion military pay increase bill Wednesday before the House passed the measure 293 to 10. The measure now goes to the Senate.

Solon Named To Tax Group

MACK CLEVELAND JR. 'Named'

Sen. Mack Cleveland Jr., of Seminole County, today was named a member of a special subcommittee of the powerful Senate finance and taxation committee to formulate higher taxes for Florida to meet $1.1 billion in proposed spending.

The subcommittee, which will start work on the money gathering plan during night sessions next week, also will look into Gov. Farris Bryant's proposed $125 million bond plan to finance university construction.

More than $200 million in new revenue will be needed by the state to fill the gap between spending and income for the coming two years if the record spending bill is passed.

Flaming Junk

LEXINGTON, Ga. (UPI)—A freight train struck an automobile at a grade crossing near here Wednesday and smashed it for 165 feet into flaming junk. Both occupants were killed.

Defends Version

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Frank W. Davis, president of General Dynamics Fort Worth division, defended his company's version of the TFX fighter plane today as faster, able to hit more targets and cheaper to build than its competitor.
