BIG DEVELOPMENT WORK IN BLACK HAMMOCK BY NORTHERN CAPITALISTS

COL. RICE, OF WASHINGTON,
AND FRED LYNCH, OF

DEVELOP FARMS In Small Tracts in Wonderful Subirrigated, Well Drained Seminole County Lands

Residents of the Oviedo section of Seminole county are having a forcible illustration of the old proverb that there is a tide in the affairs of men that taken at its flood leads to fortune. They have known for a long time that they had one of the potentially richest sections of the state which needed only capital and energy to develop it. The trouble has been that not enough other people knew it. Local citizens have been at work developing its agricultural and citrus possibilities in a limited way for some years. County Commissioner O. P. Swape has always been a firm believer in the great future of the section and has done as much for its development as any single individual could do.

A few years ago he associated with him in the acquisition of the larger portion of the famous Black Hammock lands, several well known local men in Seminole and Orange counties as E. W. Barr of Orlando, Roy Symmes of Winter Park, and F. E. Dutton of Sanford, all of them well posted in the possibilities of all the lands in this part of the state. Under the energetic management of Mr. Swape, all the lands have been drained, and quite an acreage actually brought into cultivation, fully tilled and irrigated in the same method that has given such excellent results in Sanford. Other local citizens have undertaken improvements on a limited scale also and there has been a gradual increase in the area farmed. A few outsiders have come in from time to time and taken up small parcels of land and are now working them, but the total has been nowhere equal to the possibilities.

The great opportunities of the district, however, have only just now attracted the attention of people with the necessary experience and capital to develop it on a large scale. This season the big doings have begun with a rush, and there is every indication that the aforesaid tide is now flooding Oviedo and will sweep it on to the highest water mark of development and success.

Last year Mr. Barr, of the Orlando firm of Cooper-Atha-Barr brought Mr. Maxwell A. Kilvert to look over these lands. Mr. Kilvert then had his headquarters in Jacksonville where he had been for some four or five years in charge of the interests of a syndicate of investors in Florida. Prior to that he had been for a number of years in Mexico and in other countries managing European and British development syndicates which had operated extensive plantations along with their development and construction work. He had also examined conditions, systematically over the whole state of Florida during his residence here. This gave him a wide basis for comparison of the character and possibilities of this district. After looking over the Oviedo country he bought several hundred acres of land and moved his office and residence to Oviedo where he could study the operations and methods of the farmers and grove men in the Sanford-Oviedo territory and watch results before taking any action. After a year of observation, he said it was good enough for anyone to recommend to his friends, and he went north to do so.

Within sixty days things began to move with a rush. Strong interests have already begun to work. Two men with an extensive knowledge and past experience in Florida came down in November and looked the situation over with Mr. Kilvert. Inside of a week they had closed a deal with Mr. Swape for nearly eight hundred acres of Black Hammock lands. Ten days ago they came back, made payment and took deeds. This week they have a gang of men already at work clearing roads, to be immediately followed by development of land for farms with flowing wells and tiling for the drainage and irrigation.

One of the principals in the deal is Col. D. L. Rice of Washington, D. C. He is an influential publisher with far reaching business connections. He is owner of the National Tribune with a circulation of several hundred thousand and publishes numerous other papers and bulletins. He is probably best known in Florida as the man who founded and developed the city of St. Cloud in Osceola county and did it single handed, putting it on its feet and making it a flourishing town inside of two years.

His associate in the Oviedo enterprise is Mr. Fred B. Lynch of St. Paul, Minnesota, and New York City. Mr. Lynch is nationally known in political and financial circles. For many years Democratic National committeeman from Minnesota, he was chairman of the National Executive committee in the Wilson campaign. He has been for years heavily interested in coal and timber lands in the United States and Canada. He was one of the leaders in the great development of the Capitanian Northwest by the settlement of American farmers some years ago. For the last few years he has devoted his time chiefly to his executive duties as president of one of the leading shipping concerns in New York, operating a large fleet of steamers in the foreign trade. He has recently retired from that position and has already arrived in Florida and taken a home for the winter, for the purpose of giving his personal supervision to the work of development of the project in which he has joined Col. Rice.

It is probable that he will hereafter maintain a permanent residence in Florida, dividing his time between this state and other places where his interests are located.

The general outline of the plan of development is understood to be to

FRADY VERY ILL AT MIAMI

(By The Associated Press) MIAMI, Dec. 23.—"Condition is unchanged, no better nor worse" was the statement issued at Riverside hospital on illness of Edgar C. Frady, Chicago automobile man charged with the murder of his wife.

First open up Black Hammock by the construction of several miles of roads through the very rich lands in the heart of the hammock which have been hitherto inaccessible. At the same time clearing operations will be begun to get land ready for farming operations. Their intention is to have at least some land ready this season, and at the rate their force is starting out it is safe to say they will. Their idea is to get land ready for farming with full equipment of wells, tiling, fencing and in shape for the plough, and then put actual settlers on it just as fast as practicable. The unit is ten acres which is a good size farm for the highly intensive work of this district. They plan to be able to supply a settler with anything from ten acres of raw land to a complete farm in full operation, with necessary buildings. The preference, however, is to provide tracts with three or four acres fully equipped for operation, which will furnish a living while the owner develops the rest of the land himself and expands gradually and economically. Terms are to be very easy to the settler.

There is another factor of the greatest influence in the impetus which development at Oviedo is now receiving. That is the construction of the extension of the Seaboard Air line from Lake Charm into the heart of the Hammock. Such an extension has been agitated for several years. The past summer executive officials of the Seaboard investigated the situation at Oviedo. They decided that the time had come for its immediate development. Right of way was secured and construction of a loop extension into

NO COLD WEATHER IN SIGHT TODAY

SAYS GOVERNMENT FORECASTER ABOUT CHRISTMAS WEATHER

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—"There is no cold weather in sight," thus the government weather forecaster this morning set at rest anxiety that may exist as to yule-tide weather prospects. #### BALL PLAYER NOT DEAD

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Officials of the New York American League baseball association yesterday abandoned their plans to raise a burial fund for Harry Hemphill, former big league baseball player.

The Charles Hemphill who died on Tuesday, never played baseball, it was said by a sister of the dead man, Mrs. W. A. McKnight, of Jersey City.

Wide publication of the death of the old player and contemplated fund resulted in an investigation which revealed the mistaken identity arising from the similarity of names.

A theory that the dead man might be Frank Hemphill, brother of Charles, and also a former ball player, was also dispelled by Mrs. McKnight who said that neither the deceased brother or another brother, Edward, had ever played professional baseball.

NO WHITE XMAS SOUTH OF MASON-DIXON LINE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Any hopes for a "white Christmas" south of the Mason and Dixon line apparently were dispelled by the weather bureau, which announced that generally fair weather will prevail Saturday and Sunday in the Atlantic and East Gulf states, Tennessee and Ohio valley, with no material change in temperature, although it will be some warmer in the Southeastern states on Saturday.

"There is no cold weather in sight," the bureau stated.

The disturbance that developed on Thursday night off the North Carolina coast has moved rapidly northeastward, and last night was central near Cape Cod, the bureau reported.

FROST THIS MORNING

Our weather reporter had frost on his whiskers when he reported this morning and said the thermometer had gone down to 30. The rain and cold weather following is fine for the lettuce and celery crops and the frost did no material damage anywhere here. The weather shark says warmer weather for Christmas and if it gets any better than it is now, the tourists will think they are in Paradise.

There are 14 islands in the Samoan group.

Two injured were brought to the hospital here. Others attended by physicians at Lucama. Officials after investigation advanced theory that the wreck was caused by a broken rail. The fact that none of the two hundred and fifty passengers were seriously hurt as fast traveling train left the track it struck an embankment and bounded back to the road bed said by officials to be "almost miraculous."

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Parish House, which is such an ideal place for children's parties, was the scene of one of the prettiest affairs of that nature yesterday afternoon when Master J. B. Coleman entertained about sixty-five of his little friends in celebration of his eighth birthday anniversary.

Games of all kinds were played, the children were assisted in these by Mrs. Paul Biggers and Mrs. Coleman, after the games the children were given slips with letters which they matched for refreshment partners. At one end of the Parish House, a big table had been arranged in which the Christmas colors prevailed. The tables were covered with red and green paper, and at the other end were lovely Christmas trees appropriately decorated. In the center was the three tier birthday cake, iced in green and topped with eight tiny green tapers in red rose holders. Placed at intervals on the long table were flame colored poinsettias. Refreshments consisting of red fruit gelatin, topped with pistachio ice cream, cakes and red candies were served. The girls were given stockings of popcorn while the boys were given popcorn balls.

And the shoppers are here in full force and the stores are crowded.

Look over the advertisements in today's issue. The Sanford merchants want your trade and they are making a bid for it.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The spirit of Christmas is the spirit of co-operation, the spirit of helpfulness. "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Man" cannot mean anything else but friendliness, aiding one another, working together. The go-it-alone policy will not get you anywhere in this day of mass formation. There might have been a time that one could paddle his own canoe but that day has passed.

The world is too big for any one person to get all there is in life by himself. Now and then we find a man who imagines that he can start a business and make it go without the help of anybody else. These men are getting scarce for bitter experience has shown that it cannot be done. He will struggle along, maybe for a few years, paying no attention to what his city and his neighbors are doing. He makes no effort to serve his community other than for profit. To take no part in public activities and does not seem to care whether the world moves or not. That man is doomed but for one thing—failure. He will wake up some day and find that the city has advanced so far that he is left entirely behind. That is the reward of no co-operation. His competitor across the street believes in cooperating with the other merchants of the city in an effort to make it a better town in which to live. His competitor across the street believes in cooperating with the other merchants of the city in an effort to live. His business will grow while the other fellow fails. That is the reward of cooperation. In the early days of civilization, men saw that cooperation was necessary in order to protect themselves from the wild animals and ravages of nature. The same thing was true two thousand years ago. Co-operation is necessary in order to preserve your business. Times and conditions change but the fundamental laws of nature stay with us forever.—St. Augustine Record.

KANSAS GOVERNOR TO URGE ENACTMENT OF HIS PLATFORM

(By The Associated Press)
TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 22.—In his message to the Kansas legislature which convenes January 9, Governor-elect Jonathan M. Davis will, he asserts, emphasize the main points of the party platform on which he was elected. Repeal of the O'Industrial court law is one of the planks. It was a democratic plank and the legislature is overwhelmingly Republican, the house 96 to 29, and the senate 38 to 2.

Other points are: Reduction of taxes; abolishment of "many useless boards and commissions and consolidation of many others;" abolition of the State Highway Commission; place control of highway construction with boards of county commissioners; restore "home rule" to cities in regulation of its public utilities (power, water, gas, etc.); and "passage of an act creating a board of conciliation and mediation with full power to investigate, advise and recommend and give all said facts, advice and recommendations to the public."

Announcement by the State Tax Commission that it favors a state income tax and will have a bill introduced in the legislature, has created much interest. Other important measures in sight are:

List of child welfare laws prepared by a commission appointed by the state; revised addition of the "Statutes of Kansas; establishment of state grain warehouses; establishment of farm marketing bureau; codification and revision of state school laws; the adoption of state highway system to be constructed by the state and financed by 60,000,000 bond issue defrayed by automobile license revenue; reclassification of property for taxation; revision downward of salaries of state officials. The legislature is obligated to the adoption of the soldier bonus amendment last election, to vote $25,000,000 bonds to pay this compensation—$1 a day for each day in service.

There will be no daily Herald Mondays since this is one of the two days in the year when the Herald force takes a vacation.

Everyone goes through periods of depression from time to time but there is no use giving up when the sun fails to shine. We can always bank on it shining more days in Florida than any other spot in the world.

Fatty Arbuckle, the fat comedian, wants to come back in the moving picture game and Will Hayes says he should have another chance to make good. Will says this is the time to forgive and Arbuckle has suffered enough. The great American public will be the arbiter of Fatty's fate.

Florida shows an increase in field crops and fruits over last year of over fourteen millions which shows that Florida is some farming state and not a place for tourists alone. The northern papers should get this information and publish it broadcast. It means more than all the highly colored literature that we could send out.

It has been a fairly good Christmas season in Sanford despite the fact that the early crops of lettuce brought no money to the growers. We have such bright prospects for a big spring season that no one should worry over the early winter season. This city has hit its stride and nothing will stop it from growing now. And the growers and the business men can look forward to a fine season.

Christmas day is approaching and ere another issue of the Daily Herald comes to you the big day will have come and gone. It brings joy to the majority of the people of the Christian world. It never brings sorrow but there may be many who cannot enjoy the day on account of their condition in life or of sorrow that hangs over their heads. But in the main we can all say Merry Christmas with a right good will and with the children enjoy the greatest day in the year. It should be and no doubt will be a "Merry Christmas" everywhere and one of the best in years.

Florida fruit growers look for cold weather every season since no one knows when there might be a freeze that would set the citrus industry back to several years. However, there has and there is no use looking for trouble. The growers of California seem more apprehensive as the following despatch from Los Angeles would indicate:

"Orange growers have appealed to Lloyd's for insurance for their crops against frost, according to officials of the California Fruit Growers Exchange. Whether the Lloyd company will assume such a risk has not been announced."

Our postmaster will keep the postoffice open at nine o'clock Sunday and Monday mornings to accommodate the people who have not been able to get their packages off or who have packages coming to them. This is fine on the part of the genial postmaster and his assistants who are trying to accommodate the public even though the postoffice facilities are inadequate. Our city has outgrown the present postoffice but it will never outgrow the courtesy of Postmaster Elder and those who are helping him serve the public. You may think you wait, you may believe that you should have better service but you have never been behind the scenes and discovered what the postmaster and his clerks are up against in the effort to keep the stream of letters and package flowing in and out.

POLITENESS IS THE THING

Col. Robert W. Davis, editor of the Gainesville Sun, who has passed the three score and ten mark and who personifies many of the dearer traditions of the Old South, editorializes on politeness in these words:
"Politeness is one of the most admirable things in this world. Raising your hat as you pass a lady acquaintance on the street; taking off your hat in the elevator if there is a lady in it, are time honored old customs and real gentlemen will be loth to give them up. They, like other pretty customs of politeness, come down to us from the fathers of the polished old days of chivalry and gentility. There is, in this present day, a disposition to ignore the old customs."

TAXES BECOMING ONEROUS

Those who are entrusted to make our laws must devise some means of coming to the relief of real estate for the amount it is carrying is growing to be a burden too great to be borne.
Mr. H. H. Windsor, in the Popular Monthly Magazine, says that like a prodigal son at the apex of his luxurious living, our legislators, city county, state and national, are appropriating billions of dollars yearly, some of it with apparent disregard as to the necessity of the appropriation, or at least its for absolute necessity at the present time.

It is easy for the army of reformers and advocates of the almost countless improvement—both moral and physical—to offer endless and convincing argument why this thing, and that is fundamentally good. Few of them, in their competition to get legislation favorable to their own pet idea, stop to consider where the money is coming from or how the already overburdened taxpayer is to provide the funds. Many of these objects are admittedly good in themselves, just as a favorite daughter may insist on fur coats and automobiles of a quality and quantity exceeding fathers' ability to afford. The coats and cars are good in themselves beyond question, but how about father?

That's the question.
In this case real estate is "father" and father is laboring under a load that is breaking his back and if relief is not given a collapse will follow.—Ocala Bahner.

LAKE COUNTY HIGHWAYS TO BE BEAUTIFIED

News items to the effect that Lake county proposes to beautify her highways have appeared in these columns on previous occasions. This fact has been vouchsafed by the commissioners of this county, and the work will probably begin on the completion of the present road building program. The widening of all roads now under construction in Lake county, and the new roads that are to be built will be 66-foot right of way, and the idea conceived to systematically beautify the highway from Astor, on the north to the southern border, is a commendable proposition that will meet with the approval of all our citizens. The beautification of this long stretch of roadway will provide one of the most scenic driveways in all Florida and should, and unquestionably will have, the cooperation of every property owner adjoining the highway to be ornamented. Other hard surfaced roads will also be beautified similarly, to the Astor-Clermont driveway, if present contemplated plans do not fall of materialization. In addition to the work contemplated by the county another force will be employed in the construction and beautification of the county parks. J. E. Mattocks is the chairman of the park commission of Lake county, and behind him is the powerful influence and financial support of the county Chamber of Commerce. This dynamic organization at its annual meeting in September voted unanimously to apply the membership fees to the park fund, consequently every member of the Lake County chamber of commerce is contributing one dollar toward the construction and beautification of these recreation spots. This fact alone should be sufficient to cause every man in Lake county to join this commercial body. Lake county now has one park and sites for several others have been donated, and all that is retarding the development of the wonderful spots that have been donated to the county for parks is a sufficient sum of money to complete these projects. If one thousand or fifteen hundred men would send in their applications for membership in the Lake county chamber of commerce, this fund would automatically revert to the park commission and make possible the immediate action along the line of beautifying the parks, several in number, in the

TROUBLED WITH WEAK KIDNEYS

"Have been troubled with weak kidneys since childhood," writes Mrs. G. Hyde, Benzonia, Michigan. "Now past forty and have had terrible backache and that tired out feeling, hardly able to do my work. By using Foley Kidney Pills accompanied with Foley Cathartic Tablets I soon felt like a new person." Backache, rheumatic pains, dizziness and blurred vision are symptoms of kidney trouble. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Nothing would be a better advertisement to the progressive spirit of Lake county than the cleaning up and beautifying of her highways, and this appeal should be sufficient to cause every citizen in the county to support the proposition unstintedly.—Eustis Lake Region.

CROOKS AND FAKERS FOLLOW THE CROWDS

It is the custom of crooks and fakers to travel with the largest streams of move. They find "good pickings" only among the crowds. It is rare that they annoy the honest people of the small towns and thinly settled districts. For, while the people of the rural districts may not be as difficult to lure as those of the cities, there is not as a rule as much wealth among them.

Each winter the visitors to Florida are annoyed and many of them are victimized by these Pariahs, and doubtless many of the victims get an impression that they have been swindled or imposed on by residents of the state. Through the operations of these crooks, consequently, great injustice is done to the people of Florida, and it is probable that the development of the state is retarded to some degree—necessarily a visitor who has been victimized becomes prejudiced against the city or the country which was the scene of his misfortune. He may be fair and intelligent enough to realize the truth and he may have ample evidence that the people and the officials are doing their utmost to circumvent the operations of these human birds of prey, and yet, possibly unconsciously, a prejudice is likely to be formed against the people and the country.

The Miami Herald thus presents the facts about the annual invasion of crooks, fakers and pests:
Flood time on a river always carries down upon the surface of a stream a mass of debris, driftwood, fallen trees and other things that have no value and that may prove detrimental. The winter season is the flood time in travel to such a city as Miami, and unfortunately there always drifts in with the stream much that is undesirable. There is no way by which this can be prevented, and all that can be done about it is to try to divert it as far as possible, and to warn the visitors that this is not part of the normal life of the city.

Persons coming from some quiet community in the north are often surprised at the number of fakers of various sorts who are found here. There are scores of people who come south because the climate is pleasant, and who expect to make an easy living off the credulous people who are found here as everywhere. The lines of activity run from plain handling to the more aristocratic method of fortune-telling or the medical or religious fakir.

Winter visitors should be informed that these people who are seeking in so many ways to get their money are not Miami people. They have come because they think there will be easy picking here, and because this is a pleasant place to live. In the summer time they are found in the northern resorts. They are migratory workers, and are not included among the attractions which the city has to offer its visitors. They are not indigenous to the soil, and if the people will let them alone they will soon fly to other and more prosperous pastures.
Nothing would please Miami more than to have them starved out.—Tampa Times.

CONSIDER THE NEWSBOYS

Newsboys are indispensable. They bring us the news from the world every day or twice a day as the case may be and they keep it coming in cold weather and hot weather, in clear weather and rain. Few people know the hearts that beat beneath the jackets of the "newsies" who have remained at the Herald office almost until midnight when the paper was late in order to get the news to the people. A prominent banker of the city who does not want his name mentioned, brought a nice new dollar bill to the Herald office this morning and wanted it given to his "newsboy." He said way back in Ohio when he was a boy the newsboys carried cards around at Christmas and everybody gave them something but our boys do not want to do this and therefore the gift came unexpectedly and will be appreciated. This gentleman has a big heart, he does these things unbeknown to the public. He is always helping somebody and thinking about the good that he can do and at this glad Christmas time we wish that he is the "kitten's cuffs" and we hereby hand him the silver mounted golf stick.

Citrus Growers

Insect Pests and Plant Diseases Attack Citrus

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 23.—(Special) Reports received by the State Plant Board and the Florida Agricultural Experiment station indicate a great stimulation of interest in the planting of Satsuma oranges throughout north and west Florida. The indications are that contemplated plantings have created a demand for Satsuma nursery stock in excess of the supply available in Florida nurseries. This has caused a rather acute situation, for on account of the danger of introducing into the state serious insect pests and plant diseases attacking citrus the State Plant Board has had in effect a nursery stock. A number of planters who have been inconvenienced by this rule have appealed to the Plant Board to repeal or amend its rule so that Satsuma trees may be secured in Alabama, Mississippi and elsewhere. In order that this situation may be thoroughly canvassed the Plant Board will hold a public hearing at its office in the State Capitol, Tallahassee, at 10 o'clock a. m. January 8, 1923. The formal call for the hearing is as follows:

Gainesville, Florida, Dec 11, 1922.
"Notice of public hearing to consider the advisability or necessity of imposing quarantine regulations prohibiting or restricting shipment of citrus trees or parts thereof into Florida from other states."
"The State Plant Board has information that there exist in other states certain serious insect pests and plant diseases (notably citrus canker and the Japanese camphor scale) attacking citrus and other trees and the entry of which into or the dissemination within the state should be prevented."
"Therefore notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at the office of the State Plant Board in the State Capitol at Tallahassee, Florida, at ten o'clock a. m., January 8, 1923, by the said State Plant Board for the purpose of considering the advisability of continuing, amending or rescinding Rule 25 of the Board, which rule now prohibits the shipment of citrus trees and parts thereof into the State of Florida. Any person interested may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney, and the board will take action in the premises."

STATE PLANT BOARD,
By P. K. Yonge, Chairman

Attest:
J. T. Diamond, Secretary.
