THE SANFORD HERALD Page 10, Fri., Sept. 14, 1956 | De Bary GOP Club President Outlines Group's Strategy By MARY FOWLER

DE BARY - President Ralph Witherell who heads the GOP club of De Bary outlined the group's policy at a meeting Wednesday morning. "We have no quarrel with the Democrat office holders and candidates," he proffered, "We consider them our friends and neighbors. But we do feel that the two party system is truly the American way of life and so visualized by our founding fathers. We are thoroughly convinced that competition for local public office makes for better government and more efficient officials."

The club mapped plans for two forthcoming railies, the first of which will be held on Oct. 10 in the community center at 10 a.m. Candidate for U.S. representative Arnold Lund will be featured speaker along with William A. Washburn Jr. of Nokomis, candidate for governor. Along with Ralph Clayton of DeLand will be other office seekers who will greet the group and give short talks.

This campaign committee will be headed by George M. Percy, Chairman; Arthur G. Power, vice chairman; Howard Sharp, secre-tary and Carl O. Lind, treasurer.

Dulles told reporters at the White House the United States is prepared to help finance, through the Export-Import Bank, increased exports of American oil to Western nations if transit through the canal is "impractical or greatly diminished."

Asked whether he was barring financial aid to other nations to help them transport oil around Africa and thus detour the canal, Dulles said he and Elsenhower have planned only as a contingency the financing of American oil exports.

"We have not gone beyond that in our planning and we do not believe we will have to," Dulles

J. Dyson Arrives For Duty In Korea Army Lt. Col. Jame?s H. Dyson, 39, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dyson, live at 1201 Magnolia Avc., recently arrived in Korea for duty with the UN Command Military Armistice Commission.

The nearly 80 children present seemed to enjoy Mr. Cassell's "The Little Elf", "The Three

Chestnuts" and "The Green Dragon" with the adult portion of the audience showing pleasure at his entire program. Following the formal presentation, many of the children gathered around the piano for some additional songs and plano selections to conclude an en-the affair.

Colonel Dyson, who was graduated from the Army's Command and Genera' Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., in June, is now chief of the operations branch of the commission.

He entered the Army in 1941 and has since been awarded the Silver Star, Bronze, Star Medal, Purple Heart and the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Ribbon with six campaign stars.

Dyson is a 1938 graduate of the University of Florida and a 1941 graduate of Stetson University's College of Law.

Parents Become Better Acquainted With School, Teachers In P-TA Work

Big things can be expected in Seminole | County schools during the coming year if . .

And therein some of the answers may be found to the problems that from year to year keep a school year from being the The Parent-Teacher A secondary schools. reatest in history for boys and girls in proving ground for these problems and the Treater cooperation between the parents, who interest themselves in the schoolwork of their children, through this organization.

The Parent-Teacher Associations provide an opportunity for the parents, both mother and father, to become acquainted with their child or children's teacher - to bring out between them the individual problems existing, either in the schoolroom or at home.

There is reason, and proven reasons too, to believe that the greater the membership of the Parent-Teachers Asociations, the easier a teacher's work becomes. And that is almply because, by knowing the child, through its parents, an avenue is opened to reach the heart of a youngster who is laboring under difficulties in the school room.

In reverse, with a complete understanding and coopcration between teacher and parent, junior and daughter will have greater opportunities at home to complete their work or extend their work to parallel the teacher's activities.

Then too, by Parent-Teachers Association membership, parents have a glorious opportualty to help provide schools with many of their needs which are outside the scope of Board of Education purchase or planning. Schools with large and well organized PTA groups enjoy alide projectors, libraries, record players, radios, television sets, athletic needs, recreation facilities, and safety pracautions.

It behooves the parents of today's children to become better acquainted with their schools, especially through the medium of Parent-Teachers Associations, Through this nationwide organization, planned programs hre available which encourage closer contacts by the parent with their schools. A parent, dissatisfied with son or daughter's school work, will find much of the dissatisfaction removed and eliminated through working with the school, through PTA membership, and its opportunities to learn more of a school's operation and services.

Working against a school and its personnel only makes a principal or teacher's responsibilities greater instead of lighter-it presents barriers between child and teacher instead of removing them, and in the end creates stumbling blocks for the child in its struggie for education,

Now is the time to become a member of the Parent-Teacher Asociation-not in name or dues alone-but an active and participating member.

Education isn't left entirely to a childthe adult must learn more about schools serving their children-education which opens the door to bigger, better and finer schools.

She listed these four reasons why she, or any parent, should at-tend the meetings of the P. T. A.; One, For the child's sake; Two For the teacher's sake; Three, For the parent's Sake; and Four, For the school's sake. She also brought out that for new mothers who have only recently moved to a town, attending P. T. A. meetings is a very good way to get ac-quainted with the townspeople. She said that in the years she had been attending P. T. A. it has been constantly improving itself and its program and that it continues to strive to improve its meetings and its type of program.

Mrs. D. M. Paul gave the derotional which was taken from the 13th chapter of First Corinthians. The regular business meeting was then held, with parents being welcomed by the president. Mrs. Croomes, first grade teacher, won room count, with 80% of the parents present.

A short talk was given by Cecil Tucker, who is attempting to start a 4-11 group at Pinecrest School, He asked for volunteers to help set up a club. Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, principal, announced that there would be a Girl Scout leaders' training course on Sept. 25 and asked for mothers to volunteer to be leaders. She also asked that all girls WASHINGTON (AP) - Prestdent Eisenhower told Republican campaigners today that they need only to tell the truth about his administration to win the election. Elsenhower spoke at a sendoff breakfast for Vice President Nizon and other Republican leaders setting out on campaign tours. "I see no reason for going to the public with anything but the truth," Eisenhower said, "Our record itself is sufficient. If it is made clear the public will support it.

"We do not need to indulge in the exaggerations of partisan politics. I do not elaim perfection for this administration but where we have failed it was not from lack of trying."

Sounding a peace theme, Eisen-hower said it is difficult to be as peaceful in the present day world as Americans would like to be. He said that while we may be as peaceful as possible, someone else may make an appressive move that would disturb that peace. "While it is not a secure peace that we have," he said, "there are many, many thousands of American mothers that are mighe ty thankful their sons are not involved in any shooting."

Eisenhower, wearing a beaming smile, walked into the dining room with GOP National Chainman Loonard W. Hall,
