Another Question About CARDUI

MOTHERS RECOMMEND IT
"Why do so many MOTHERS recommend Cardui to their daughters?"
"Isn't it natural that any good mother should tell her daughters about Cardui if she had been benefited by his medicine? It is impressive that so many women report having taken Cardui on the advice of their mothers. Cardui has been found to benefit women when weakened by malnutrition (poor nourishment) and it helps to relieve much discomfort at monthly periods. Thousands of women testify Cardui helped them. Of course, if it does not help you, consult a physician."

GM And Union Reach Final Strike Terms

Corporation Heads, UAW Leaders Are Ready To Patch Up Old Differences

Chrysler Firm Hearing Is Set

State Will Not Interfere, Governor Murphy Declares

DETROIT, Mar. 11.—(AP)—General Motors, just one month after the end of paralyzing strikes in its automotive plants, composed its remaining differences with the United Automobile Workers of America today and executives made ready to sign a final agreement.

As representatives of the Corporation and Union assembled for what was anticipated to be a final meeting, UAW strikers holding plants of another of the "big three" automobile producers—Chrysler Corporation—moved to consolidate their positions.

The Chrysler petition for an injunction to avert all-out strikes, estimated to total about $500,000, was set for hearing in Circuit Court Saturday.

Governor Frank Murphy, who sided in obtaining the agreement that ended the General Motors strikes Feb. 11, returned to Detroit from a Florida vacation today and announced the State would not intervene in the Chrysler situation "unless it lasts a long time or public interest is adversely affected in some serious manner."

Union members took command of an area surrounding the Chrysler Highland Park plant, some of previous conferences with Corporation executives.

End Of 'Long Dry Spell' In Alabama Seen

Wets Poll 88,305; Drys Get 82,909; State-Operated Stores Possible

BIRMINGHAM, Mar. 11.—(AP)—A tide of votes engulfed prohibition in Alabama today after 22 "long dry" years. Mounting returns from yesterday's liquor election put more than a score of counties in the repeal column, and made legal the possessing of liquor throughout the State.

Alabama became the 43 State to legalize liquor. Counties voting wet, and thus eligible for State-operated liquor stores, eyed business from three neighboring dry States—Georgia, Tennessee and Mississippi.

State stores are to begin operation within two weeks after Gov. Bibb Graves proclaims the election results. A State Alcohol Beverage Control Board, created to handle the sale of wine and liquor in wet counties, must select store sites and stock them before sale can begin.

Dry leaders promised an effort to return a dry statute in next year's general election.

Late returns showed more than 1,600 of 2,200 precincts gave for repeal 88,305 while against repeal were 82,909.

'SAVE CONSTITUTION FROM COURT'

"We must take action to save the Constitution from the Supreme Court and the Court from itself," declared President Roosevelt in the second of his "fireside chats" to the American people in a nationwide radio hook-up. Safety Campaign Set In Motion By Local Lions

Seek State Drivers' License Statute, Ask Others' Aid

A project to secure the passage of legislation requiring all motorists to obtain State drivers' license was launched last night by Sanford Lions in their periodic session in the Valdez Hotel.

The club also announced its sponsorship of an endeavor to seek laws that would ban auto from public highways.

In both movements, the support of all other Florida Lions Clubs will be sought.

Two proponents of both proposals—Representatives H. J. Lehman and Gordon Burnett—heard members of the civic unit discuss their plans.

Behind the movements, it was pointed out, is an earnest desire to start into motion a campaign that will make citizens of Florida safety conscious, a condition which, it is believed, will lead to sharp reduction in accidents.

Lions also announced their intentions of localizing their safety drive, disclosing that they plan to lay before the City Commissioners certain suggestions which the club will recommend that they be incorporated into an ordinance.

Capt. Fred Fern, commandant of the local Salvation Army unit, and Harry Butler, financial campaign manager, addressed the club briefly and sought its assistance in the forthcoming drive for 1937-38 budget funds.

For entertainment, a harmonica band under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Six presented several numbers, and Billy Epps was seen in a solo dance.

About 30 members were present. Next meeting was announced for Wednesday night in the Valdez Hotel.

A & P Stores To Give Employees Half Day Holiday Each Week

Local Atlantic and Pacific stores today announced the inauguration of a policy under which employees receive half a day holiday each week with pay.

The new feature, it was explained, is in addition to the regular vacation which the company grants each year.

Officials of the firm said the A & P has been endeavoring for years to put into effect a plan to shorten employees' hours, adding that while some progress has been made with the half holiday, officials still are unsatisfied.

Bulletins from the Florida headquarters of A & P said the new schedule will not affect the usual service to which patrons are accustomed.

Lehman Appeals For Support To Army Campaign

Shows Why Citizens Should Put Effort Into Fund Drive

H. J. Lehman, president of the Seminole County Salvation Army Advisory Board, today set forth a number of reasons why the Army's financial drive, opening Tuesday, should receive full public support.

His statement follows: "Some of us are keenly interested in the Salvation Army service in Sanford and vicinity. As president of the Seminole County Salvation Army Advisory Board, I am familiar with the useful activities of our Army."

"I admire the self-sacrificing, hard work of its officers—paid very meagerly and sometimes not at all; they are ready, day or night, to go to the aid of the sick, the destitute, the unfortunate girl—anyone in distress."

"In addition to doing splendid charity work, the Army workers bring religious cheer and hope to many a despondent and sometimes a desperate soul."

Some 100 Seminole County boys and girls from the poorer homes are receiving religious, moral, mental and physical training at our Salvation Army. This character building program is the more valuable because it is given to those that need it most, the overlooked, the under-privileged boy and girl.

"The Salvation Army has chosen for its field of work grounds that many would consider barren—the County Jail, the County Home, visited often. The betrayed girl or the runaway boy always finds a welcome at the Army."

"The funds of the Salvation Army are safe-guarded and expended under the supervision of the local Advisory Board, comprised of representative citizens."

"The $3,500 budget, necessary to finance the Salvation Army service in this County for the next 12 months, has been carefully considered."

By acclamation, Walter Hoy of Miami was returned for his sixth term as secretary-treasurer. The convention voted to increase his salary from $25 to $50 a month.

Dodd Instructed To Move Against Nazi Criticism

Refund Hearing Is On Schedule Here Tomorrow

Proceedings May Be Taken To Supreme Court Says Wilson

A Circuit Court hearing to validate Sanford's $5,000,000 bond refunding program is slated here tomorrow before Judge Millard H. Smith, presiding judge in the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida.

Fred R. Wilson will represent the City in the proceedings which are required by law before refunding a municipality's debt can become legal.

Mr. Wilson said there is a probability that the case will be carried on to the State Supreme Court, basing his estimate on past performances in other suits, the attorney said 10 to 60 days would be necessary to carry action through the higher tribunal.

The Supreme Court phase generally is the final one in the refund process, and after a decision from this bench the City is then authorized to print its new bonds which will be exchanged for the old ones.

At the last report of a special contract man employed by the City, there were less than 100 bonds unaccounted for, while holders—of about 5,000 certificates—have agreed to the refunding program.

In an agreement drawn by the Commission under former Mayor S. O. Shinkholder's administration, an interest rate of approximately two percent was established, and the maturity date of the nearly $1,000,000 debt advanced by 10 years.

The incumbent Commission, under Mayor Ed Higgins, has supported the agreement and is carrying it through to the end.

Mrs. T. C. Brown Is Claimed By Death After Year's Illness

Mrs. T. C. Brown, 39, nee Jessie Corneille Graves, died yesterday in an Orlando hospital after an extended illness of about one year.

She was born in Ocala and moved to Sanford when only a young girl, making her residence in this City for the greater part of her life.

Surviving are the widower, T. C. Brown, a son, T. C. Brown, Jr., one daughter, Janice Brown, all of Sanford; two sisters, Mrs. E. C. Cowan of Cleveland, Texas, and Mrs. Cecil Hales of Sanford; three brothers, Seymour Graves and F. Z. Graves, both of Sanford, and Nolan Graves of Baton Rouge, La.

Funeral services will be held in the Methodist Church, although no time has been announced.

The Jackson Funeral Home is in charge.

Jackson Says High Court Openly Shows Roosevelt Offense

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson asserted today the majority of the Supreme Court had demonstrated that the "great objective" of the Roosevelt administration "offend their deep convictions."

Appearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee on behalf of the President's court reorganization program, Jackson added: "This frank hostility of these justices has been openly counted on by interested groups to defeat much important legislation."

Calling attention to current delays in handing down decisions, the assistant attorney general said the Washington minimum Wage Act was argued some three months ago.

While I can only guess at the cause of delay, the difficulties apparent in this case lead to a suspicion that the Court is badly divided."

Secretary Hull Says 'Vigorous Representations' Must Be Made By Envoy

LaGuardia Blast Is Responsible Officially Say Action Not To Take Form Of Protest

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Secretary Hull today instructed Ambassador William E. Dodd at Berlin to make vigorous representations to the German Foreign Office concerning recent articles appearing in the German press about the United States.

The Secretary of State recently apologized formally to the German Embassy here for remarks made by Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia, New York, in which he referred to Chancellor Hitler as a "brown-shirted fanatic."

LaGuardia's statements evoked a deluge of criticism from the German press in which not only LaGuardia was attacked but American institutions and Jewish women also were flayed.

The press campaign was called to Secretary Hull's attention by Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, wife of the noted Jewish rabbi.

It was understood that recent articles, published by Der Angriff, leading Berlin journal, were particularly offensive to American officials.

In responsible quarters, it was explained that the Secretary's instructions to Dodd did not constitute a protest but comment which was calculated to have much the same effect.

Hull tendered the Germany Embassy this government's apologies for LaGuardia's remarks after Dr. Hans Thomsen, counselor of the Embassy, had protested that LaGuardia had gratuitously insulted Chancellor Hitler, in the apology, the Secretary said LaGuardia's remarks did not represent the views of the United States government.

Five white males and the same number of white females were born during the 28 days. Death figures for the month in the white column showed three males and one female.

There were eight female colored births and four female colored deaths, Mr. Haskins' report disclosed.

FACTORY MODELS
 Machine risk change; a clever trick life uses to get off obsolescence for as long as time permits flawed bodies no rust in complete cemeteries.

Changes are not interchangeable like factory parts; machines are superseded, metal goes sooner to the open hearth than men go to the grave.

Some men go like scrap, though standard models delivered on the same assembly line from surgery to board-room; duplicate minds dressed by the same tools.

Medical in movement, parallel speeds drive them through office, bank and club until change, overtaking them, replaces them as with improved machines. William Stephenson.

Chrysler Motor Company has cancelled its advertising for the duration of the strike. Ho hum! The good sufferer with the bad.

And just to think next month everyone will be worrying about what the State Legislature is going to do.

This may be the "land of the free and the home of the brave" but a good many people seem to be scared to death they won't be free very long.

A Canadian inventor has designed a car "a nitwit can drive." What the world needs is a car a nitwit can't drive. — St. Petersburg Independent. Or laws that won't allow a nitwit to drive.

President Roosevelt made it perfectly plain to the other night that he intends to save the Court situation from the Supreme Court. He has to tear that time-honored document limb from limb.

The people of Longwood were most generous and hospitable in their entertainment of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night. It is unfortunate that more Sanford members were unable to be present.

When the President of Chrysler Corporation drove up to the gates of one of his plants and asked to be let inside, sit-down strikers refused. Someone pushed a truck loaded with bolts and nuts against the gate. A complete victory for the nuts.

Pistol experts participating in the National Pistol Tournament insist that all women who travel alone by car should make it a point to carry pistols with them. "If all women would carry guns in their cars and learn how to use them," said one of them, "I believe there would be fewer holdups and kidnappings." Yes, and probably more accidental deaths.

The Plant City Courier commenting on Professor Fisher's fear of another boom and his proposal that the price of gold be lowered, says that this device would work a hardship on the average citizen "through higher prices." As a matter of fact it would be a God's blessing for the average citizen through lower prices. If raising the price of gold to $35 a ounce, raised prices and that's what the New Deal says, and certainly did then because the price to where it was three years ago, would raise prices, and avert the danger of a boom. However, a boom isn't so bad while it lasts.

Social Welfare in Florida

The State Legislature which is to convene next month will be confronted with the problem of finding adequate revenue for the purpose of providing public assistance to needy persons. For the first time in the history of this state, as a result of a constitutional amendment adopted last November, the Legislature has the authority to appropriate funds for relief purposes.

According to Conrad Van Rynning, State Welfare Commissioner, who discusses this subject at some length in the current issue of the Social Welfare Review, "The next session of the Legislature will make history in the field of social welfare. As a matter of fact, history is being made all over the country by the Legislature of the forty-seven states, as one after another they meet the regular demand for a state government to provide for the minimum necessities of life to its citizens."

On the money side of the question, Van Rynning says: "A seven and three-quarter million dollar program which will guarantee Social Security to 44,000 persons during the fiscal year 1937-38 will cost Florida less than one million dollars. The Federal contribution of $3,000,000 will make up the difference between the proposed total expenditure and the cost to the state."

This total cost of a public assistance program is broken down into the following parts by Mr. Van Rynning who says that:

"It will cost $3,720,000 to grant an average allowance of $15 a month to each of 21,000 needy persons over 65 years of age.

"It will cost $2,870,000 to grant an average of $10 a month to each of 23,700 dependent children in 1,200 different homes where mothers have no means of supporting them.

"It will cost $216,000 to grant an average of $18 a month each to 1,200 blind persons in need.

"It will cost $67,500 to finance a far-reaching child welfare program dealing with children living in institutions, or who are without a home.

"It will cost 11.57 percent of the total cost to administer the entire program."

Such a program in the terms of human values will have far-reaching effects, Mr. Van Rynning believes. "We are about to say that no child shall be denied a fair opportunity for health and education because of the inability of his parents to provide for him, or because of the death or disability of one of his parents; we are about to say that old age will no longer carry with it the traditional fears and uncertainties which it has always carried before; we are about to say that blindness is a handicap which cripples the sufferer to human consideration. These three decisions which intimately affect the lives of thousands of persons in Florida and throughout the nation are only part of the broad Social Security program which is now in its beginning."

Better Labor Relations

The promotion of a better understanding between management and workers as a means of avoiding labor difficulties is urged in a special report of the Committee on Employment Relations of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"Interruption in production due to labor difficulties," says the report, "are frequently caused by the lack of proper provisions in an organization by means of which a sufficient understanding of the problems of management and men can be mutually arrived at, causes of complaint removed, and misunderstandings avoided."

The committee expressed the opinion that there is no specific plan, formula or procedure in the field of employment relations which can satisfactorily meet the varying conditions and problems of different plants in different industries. "But," said the report, "we believe that satisfactory relations between management and employees will result from the application of the following fundamental principles:

1. A mutual respect and consideration by each for the problems and viewpoints of the other.
2. Promotion of the widest understanding that the greatest measure of well being for both employers and employees and maximum possibility of obtaining the full economic value of their services lie in the development of the common enterprises in which they are engaged.
3. Free interchange of ideas between management and employees in all matters and company policies of mutual interest, such as wages, hours and conditions of employment.
4. Opportunity should exist in each plant for the consideration and adjustment of all complaints, and for appeal to the highest executives.
5. Development by each company of a sound and well defined employment policy.

Change in Name Of Agriculture Unit Proposed By Council

ATLANTA, Ga., Mar. 11.—(AP)—The Southeastern Council, concluding a two-day meeting here yesterday, suggested that the title of the secretary of Agriculture be changed to "Secretary of Rural Life" in order that he might stress the human rather than the actual phases of agriculture. Charles F. Huhlela of Louisville, Ky., was elected president to succeed Hugh McElroy of Wilmington, N. C. Mrs. William P. Dunn continues as vice-president in charge of women's services. Other resolutions adopted: An appeal for early passage of the Jones-Bankhead bill setting up a national farm home corporation, with a proviso that bonded educational and credit facilities be written into the legislation; a proposal that Secretary of Agriculture call attention to the title of farm money in a series of weekly articles to be published in the

'ALL OF THIS IS FOR YOU, MR. PRESIDENT'

With a convincing picture, James A. Farley (left), chairman of the Democratic National Committee, today took it upon himself to tell the voters of his state that Roosevelt would grant them at the Victory Dinner in Washington $100 per state to help pull the party out of debt. In his speech that followed the banquet, the President warned that decisions by the present Supreme Court endanger democracy and render Congress' inaction to solve social and economic problems. 'TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY'
 By RUSSELL KAY

According to Roger Babson, Karl Lehmann and a few other recognized authorities, Florida is 'in' to have another boom, and they tell us the one on the way will make the little party we had back in 1925 look like a mere trifle.

It seems that everybody ain't on relief and a lot of folks all over the country have been making dough and saltin' it away in safety deposit boxes, banks and behind the mantle-piece.

Now makin' money is one thing and keepin' it is something else—to say nothin' of makin' it bring in a mess of interest, and while these folks don't seem to have any fret as far as makin' it is concerned they're gettin' gray hair and plenty of wrinkles tryin' to figure out a way to keep it.

That's where Florida comes in! A long time ago Mr. Thomas A. Edison smartly cracked that "There was only one Florida and 90,000 people were going to find it."

Well, since that statement was made, a good many millions have not only that, but they've been feelin' their friends about it and as a result tourist travel to Florida this season has been greater than at any time in our history.

Now you take a dose of sunshine and balmy air, mix in a few mockin' birds, a bit of white sand beach with wavin' palms in the background, add a ten-pound black bass and sprinkle with tree-ripened citrus—feed it to some guy who has spent forty or fifty years wadin' thru sleet and snow, dodgin' icicles and fightin' double pneumonia, and I mean he just naturally licks his lips and means for more.

If he's got enough "needful" he moves to Florida, buys or builds himself a home and prepares to settle down to a life of ease and comfort. Then he gets to worryin' about what to do with the rest of his jack; he starts lookin' for a safe investment that will bring him in some income.

Sooner or later he'll break out in business again. Maybe it is real estate and then again it may be somethin' he knows somethin' about. Anyhow, he gets tired of just sittin' around and he starts pickin' papayas or harvestin' saw-grass and first thing you know we got a brand new industry in the state and then we gotta build some houses to take care of employees and that brings on more schools and stores and a lot of other things. Now when just a few folks do that, it is what the statisticians call "natural growth," but when about half the United States gets the same idea at the same time, it becomes a "boom" and that's exactly what the prophets tell us is fixin' to happen.

'TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY'
 By RUSSELL KAY

Now personally, I'm a total loss as a statistician and I can't point with pride to my battin' average as a prophet—but just the same I do know that there are more folks interested in Florida right now than at any time since the last boom and more of 'em gettin' like that every day.

No state in the Union offers the homekeeper and investor a greater opportunity than does Florida today and that little secret is bein' noised around so far and so fast that it ain't even funny.

The real estate offices are already back on the ground floor and it won't be long before a lot of guys will be breakin' out with their knickers, and when that happens you might as well get to work and whittle out a nice stack of subdivision stakes and start lookin' on your maps to make sure just what the township, range and section is on that forty acres you been hangin' on to all this time feelin' certain that sooner or later somethin' would happen.

But this time don't be a sap. Remember the time to sell is when the other guy WANTS to BUY and if you want to be sure of your profit don't hold out for the last dime. The more folks who make a few dollars on top of you, the safer you'll be. It is the last sale that is easiest to make and the hardest to cash in on.

But on the other hand I'm probably wastin' my breath because the folks who went thru the last headache know that by heart and the others just won't believe it and will have to find out for themselves!

CORRECTION

In an account of the St. Agnes Guild meeting in last night's Herald the statement was made that Mrs. R. L. Dean read a paper on John Strauss and the waltz. We wish to correct that statement. She read an original article entitled "Christian Principals Embodied in the Boy Scout Code," and an article by William Ellis entitled "The Last Supper."

The world's supply of antimony is almost exclusively controlled by China which produces 70 per cent of the output. The yearly production is about 12,000 tons.

And I guess in a way you might call The Wilken Family Whiskey a long lost friend at that! For our family has sure been at it a long long time—making whiskey for three whole generations. But we never put up this personal Family's Recipe of ours for everybody to enjoy till only just lately.

And folks are taking to it like as if they'd never found a really mild and tasty whiskey in their whole life. And I guess the neighborly price being asked for our Family's whiskey is pleasing everybody pretty much too!

Noted Metropolitan Opera Star finds Luckies easy on her precious throat—

Marjorie Lawrence says:

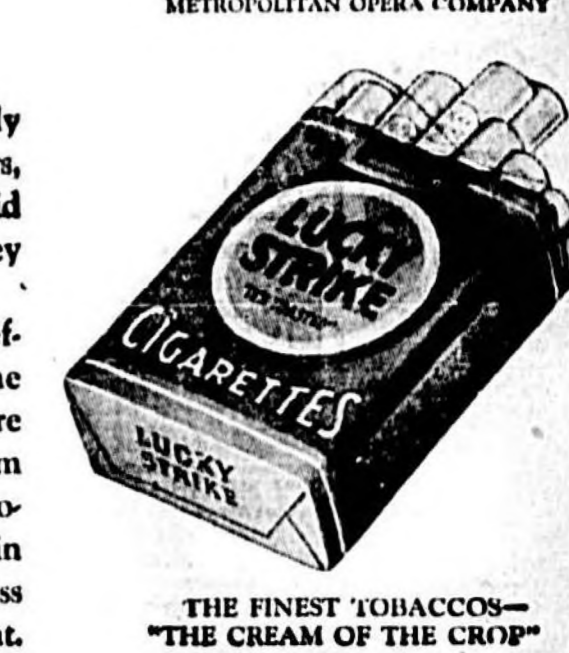

"You must have a big voice to sing Wagner. My favorite role of 'Brunnhilde' in Wagner's 'Götterdämmerung' is a very exacting one. Yet—when I am back in my dressing room after I have finished singing, there is nothing I enjoy more than lighting up a Lucky. It is a light smoke—so gentle—so smooth—that it does not irritate my throat in the least. I agree with the others at the Metropolitan that a light smoke is a wise choice."

BRILLIANT SOPRANO OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA COMPANY

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Lawrence verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. STEEL SPEEDS AHEAD—PAY INCREASES, PRICES RISE

White hot liquid destined to become steel for use in booming United States construction is directed down a huge melting pot into ingot moulds by workers in the South Chicago plant of Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, largest subsidiary of mammoth U. S. Steel. Averting a strike with a pay boost and shorter hours for employees, Carnegie-Illinois resumed capacity operation, ahead the price of its products $3 to $5 a ton, and caused a soaring of stock market shares in steel. Russian Paper Sees School Tablet Crisis

MOSCOW, Mar. 11.—(AP)—The story of how a vodka factory bought a carload of school tablets for substitute labels while the children were forced to write their lessons on margins of old newspapers is told by the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda as proof of a long existing tablet crisis.

The paper shortage has long been acute in Russia because most of the wood pulp is exported in a ready world market and domestic paper factories are not yet geared to home demands.

The newspaper attributes the crisis to "back passing" among four commissariats.

Japanese Conquer Gunny-Sack Problem

MUKDEN, Manchoukuo, Mar. 11.—(AP)—The humble gunny-sack is the latest problem to be tackled—and overcome—by the Japanese experts who are guiding this young state toward economic self-sufficiency.

At present the 20,000,000 bags used to sack the soy bean crop are made from Indian jute fiber, thereby aggravating an already adverse trade balance.

But Japanese experts have found that the Russian kenaf plant, a kind of hemp, will flourish here and make bags as good as the imported variety. A Japanese firm is preparing to manufacture them.

NATURE STUDIES

Courage that is big and best is equal to any test.

—Old Mother Nature

Little Joe Otter and his son, who was almost as big as his father, were far from the comfortable den where, with Mrs. Joe and a sister of the young Otter, they had been spending the winter. The young Otter had wandered farther than he had intended to, Little Joe had followed him, arriving just in time to save him from Old Man Coyote. Then the two had wandered farther and farther, playing in the snow, sliding, just having fun. Time meant nothing, nothing at all, to them. Day or night, it is all the same to Little Joe Otter and his relatives. They sleep when they feel sleepy, and they hunt when they are hungry, whether it be day or night.

They had found a wonderful slope down which to slide, and they were like a couple of children. Over and over and over again they climbed to the top of that slide, just for the fun of sliding down to the bottom. The more they did this the better the slide became. You see, they packed the snow down. At last they grew a bit tired.

"That was the best fun I have had this winter," said Little Joe. "Are you going back home now?" the young Otter asked. "Do you want to go back?" asked Little Joe.

"Not yet," replied the young Otter boldly. "Isn't there another brook or pond over this way?"

"Yes, but there may not be open water. Then what would we do?" replied Little Joe.

"Go back home," replied the young Otter. "Let's go on. I ought to learn something about this country, and I guess there won't be a better time. Anyway, there won't be a time when it is now fun to travel than it is now, when we can do a lot of sliding."

Little Joe chuckled. "All right," said he. "I guess the love of travel is in your blood. Otters are great travelers. They always have been, and I guess they always will be. It is just as well that you should know something about the country, but I warn you that we may run into danger. You never were in any real danger since you were born until today, when I came along just in time to save you from

An 'Idea' That Brought The World To Its Door

In 1922, an IDEA was ushered into being in the form of THE READER'S DIGEST. It was a "better" idea, and so the world has beaten a path to its door. From a small, local idea, it has become an international SERVICE.

THE READER'S DIGEST is a monthly magazine which brings to busy people the most interesting articles from all of the foremost present-day periodicals. The articles are skillfully condensed for quick reading and put together in handy pocket size, with no advertising to obstruct consecutive reading. The subject cover such a wide range that each issue of this indispensable little monthly is a veritable storehouse of fascinating facts—most of them facts that you would never have time to cover in your general, every-day reading.

Science, nature, politics, religion, international affairs, personal welfare, are but a few of the topics—and each is of LASTING INTEREST.

If you have not already done so, we urge you to get acquainted with The Reader's Digest. We know you will thank us for calling it to your attention. It is published at Pleasantville, New York, by The Reader's Digest Association.

G-MEN CHIEF SHOWS JIM HOW!

J. Edgar Hoover (left), chief of the United States Bureau of Investigation, who knows a thing or two about "getting your man," shows Champion Jim Broadbent how to handle Joe Louis in their fight at Chicago next June. But Jim laughs and seems to think it'll take a lot more steam than Hoover shows. The demonstration took place at Illinois where the champion is in training. (Associated Press Photo)

STRIKERS SAY IT WITH MUSIC

Laughing, 60 girls carry banners demanding a "living wage" after going on strike at the Tri-State Dress Manufacturing Company in Memphis, Tenn. They said they were members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union and were affiliated with John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization. The plant employs 150 girls. THE ACE TAKES A FLING AT BURRO 'BUSTING'

Along with trying for a job in the outfield with the Philadelphia Athletics, Ace Parker, former Duke university football star, finds time for the rather uncertain attempt to go some place aboard a burro at the training camp in Mexico City. Gene Hasson, first base candidate, does his best to furnish motive power but traveling prospects don't look very promising. (Associated Press Photo)

HE'S A PROUD FATHER AT 79!

Alfred O. Knapp, 79-year-old retired printer of Boston, Mass., is a mighty happy man these days—and for good reason. He has just become a father for the first time. He and his wife and their six and a half pound daughter are shown in Tampa, Fla., where the child was born. (Associated Press Photo)

STRIKE COMES HOME TO LEWIS

When John L. Lewis, generalissimo of strikes called by the Committee for Industrial Organization, arrived at the Willard hotel in Washington for the convention of labor's Non-Partisan League, he found these marshals and others picketing the hotel. Banners they carried proclaimed them as waiters, waitresses and cooks on strike. They are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor with which Lewis is at war. (Associated Press Photo)

Association Lends Influence To Proposed Statutes

No Protests Received On Sanford's Refinancing Action

The Seminole County Agricultural Association last night placed itself and its influence behind proposed legislation for a celery marketing control bill which may reach Tallahassee this year.

While no details of the movement were disclosed, Henry Nickel, chairman of the Marketing Committee, reported that a number of plans have been formulated over a period of one year, adding that the next step is to select which proposal is the most feasible.

A conference, in the near future, with Seminole County's legislators was announced to discuss the plans.

The Association passed a resolution commending Sanford celery shipping interests for their observance of the cutting holidays and recommended that they be continued each week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Instituted some weeks ago as a means of raising the market price of celery, considerable success has evolved from the holidays.

James Gut and R. A. Stubbs, engineers, reported on their findings in a survey of surface water problems and the causes of present conditions in the County's Agricultural Research Committee to conduct a study of the water problem and the work may be continued until July.

Stiff Fight Urged On Screw Worm In Spring Months

Seminole County cattlemen were urged today by Roy C. Tanner, assistant district supervisor of screw worm control, to arrange a spring campaign against the pest.

Tanner pointed out that breeding of flies from the screw worm in the spring is on the increase, and it is at this time that action should be taken to make some headway against the broods of the destructive insect.

The nuisance effect of the screw worm, according to the supervisor, is felt directly by the public, since the insect has a vital bearing on the market prices of meat because it is responsible for the death of many cattle.

Only concentrated efforts on the part of cattlemen can hold down the screw worm, Tanner declared.

Devaney Sees Action As 'Conservative' Move Toward Necessary Statutes

Sees Continuity Of Law Tradition

Roosevelt Arrives At Warm Springs On Vacation Trip

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Judge John P. Devaney, president of the newly-formed National Lawyers Guild, urged today the enactment of President Roosevelt's court bill "as the most conservative remedy available" to make possible "progressive legislation now imperatively needed."

Devaney, who resigned last month as chief justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court, appeared before the Senate Judiciary reorganization proposals.

He told the committee: "From every point of view, the President's proposal is by far the most conservative remedy available to meet the needs of the public at the present time with the least disturbance to the continuity of our legal traditions and the preservation of constitutional democracy. It keeps the Constitution intact. It keeps the legal profession administering law along lines it has known."

An attempt to amend the Constitution, Devaney argued, would become an issue of congressional or national election. (UPI-AP)

"However interesting that may be for those who wish to see the issue fought out to a bitter end, it would not be good for the courts."
