Brownie Troop 562 held its fly-up ceremony last week in the backyard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Biggs, 1206 19th Court, San Sem Knolls.

The 14 Brownies "flying up" into Girl Scout Troop 202 were:

Debra Albert, Susan De Wit, Aleta Jo Freeze, Sharon Gilbert, Debra Griner, Diane Kitzer, Vickie Nelson, Becky Patton, Teri Lynn Roland, Sylvia Smith, Danice Underwood, Apryl Ward, Cyndy Watt and Daree Willis.

Candlelighting ceremonies were conducted by Girl Scouts and one of their leaders, Mrs. Baxter Biggs of Troop 202.

As the Brownies crossed over a bridge, flight wings were pinned on by Mrs. Tom Albert, Brownie leader, who also "flew up" with the Brownie Troop. New pins and troop numerals were presented by Mrs. Clifford Lord, also a leader of Troop 202.

Mrs. Albert then gave each Brownie parent a financial and hostess report for the past two years. She also presented gifts of potted plants to Mrs. Russell Kitzer and Mrs. Wade Ward, retiring leaders.

Mrs. Kitzer then gave new red sashes to the Troop 202 color guard. Refreshments were then served by the hostess troop.

The Court of Awards followed the fly-up and the girls received their achievement badges. Among the recipients were:

Housekeeper, Judy Mansfield, Diana Meardon, Lynn Stanley, Pam Taylor, Jacque Thompson, Becky Webber, Bonnie Wieboldt, Cook, Becky Whigham; pets, Lynn Stanley, Jacque Thompson, Becky Webber; gypsy, Nancy Biggs, Anna Marie Hof, Cheryl Kitzer, Judy Mansfield, Diana Meardon, Lynn Stanley, Pam Taylor, Jacque Thompson, Becky Webber, Bonnie Wieboldt, Becky Whigham.

Prints, Nancy Biggs, Anna Marie Hof, Cheryl Kitzer, Judy Mansfield, Diana Meardon, Lynn Stanley, Pam Taylor, Jacque Thompson, Becky Webber, Bonnie Wieboldt, Becky Whigham.

My Troop, Nancy Biggs, Anna Marie Hof, Cheryl Kitzer, Diana Meardon, Bonnie Wieboldt, Becky Whigham; camera, Bonnie Wieboldt; home health safety, Cheryl Kitzer; active citizen, Audrey Pyle; skates, Lynn Stanley.

The Sign of the Arrow, earned through the year from various activities, services and the completion of three badges was received by Nancy Biggs, Anna Marie Hof, Cheryl Kitzer, Judy Mansfield, Lynn Stanley, Pam Taylor, Jacque Thompson, Becky Webber, Bonnie Wieboldt and Becky Whigham.

Amelia Earhart was the first woman to make a solo transatlantic flight, from Newfoundland to Ireland on May 20-21, 1932.

Ike's Brother Enters Politics

CHICAGO (UPI) — The youngest brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was out of a job today and ready to take his first plunge into politics.

Earl Eisenhower, 66, public relations director for a suburban newspaper group for the past 10 years, said Monday he had been "fired" from his post because of his decision to run for state representative.

"If you want to put it in softer language you could say I was forced to quit," he said.

Girl Scouts Sponsor Safety Inspection

By Jane Casselberry
Many Casselberry youngsters took advantage of the bicycle safety check Saturday morning sponsored by Girl Scout Troop 910 at South Seminole Elementary School. The troop has been working on the cycling badge.

Town Marshal Gus Sawyer and officer James Snyder briefed the cyclists on safety regulations and checked over their bikes. Those participating received identification tapes for their bikes from

C. M. Harp, principal of South Seminole Elementary. Mrs. Robert Marsh and Mrs. Charles Lockyer are co-leaders of the troop.

LEADING FIELD

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bob Farrington of Richwood, Ohio, leads the nation's harness racing drivers with 108 victories this year and Stanley Dancer of New Egypt, N. J., is the leading money winner with $239,524, the Harness Racing Institute said today.

The U. S. $10,000 bill bears the portrait of Salmon P. Chase.

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS

This year there are 571 of them in Seminole County's four high schools.

This is a record number. R. T. Milwee, superintendent of the county school system said this morning that the number represents an increase of 99 over 1963's total. There were 440 graduates in 1962.

Talking about years of service, we learned this morning that Principal H. L. Douglas of Croombs High has been with the school 34 years. After the late Professor Croombs retired in 1933, R. A. Allen became principal at Croombs. In 1939 Douglas was named principal of Goldsboro Elementary. He held the position only a couple of months for when Allen died during a Thanksgiving Day football game Douglas was recalled to Croombs and made principal. Except for those few weeks he's been there 34 years.

A meeting of the North Orlando Village Charter Board will be held at 7 p. m. Saturday in the Civic Building. At that meeting final recommendations for changes in the charter will be presented. Village attorney, Harold Johnson, and temporary clerk Mrs. Jane Pike, will be present for the meeting.

An Atlanta firm, identified as the Southern Classified Directory Co., is billing local merchants for advertising alleged to be placed in a "directory," according to John Kridler of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. He says it hints of identification with telephone book yellow pages and this is not so. The bill sent to local establishments says the firm "will publish a classified directory encompassing selected businesses throughout the southern states." They are asked to submit checks to the Atlanta firm. Kridler says the Chamber has "no knowledge of the publication."

Casselberry Mayor Owen Anstey has issued a warning that a commercial trot line set in Lake Triplett poses a potential situation to water skiers and swimmers. They're urged to take caution while using the lake. Someone we don't know recently strung a trot line across Lake Kalthryn but another fellow we do know took care of that in a hurry.

Speaking of lakes, swim classes for Navy children at the Sanford Naval Air Station will be held this summer. Registration is scheduled next Wednesday between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. Classes will get under way the following day and will be held from 8:30 until 11:30 a. m. Each class will last 30 minutes. There will be classes for beginners, advanced beginners and intermediates. To register a youngster must have completed the first grade.

Recently The Clock had an item about John M. Goerss graduating from Concordia Collegiate Institute. We now have word from the school that young Goerss is receiving two special awards. One is for excellence in New Testament, the other for excellence in Religion, History and Literature of the Old and New Testament. He's the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert W. Goerss, 215 Ridge Drive, Loch Arbor.

Graduation Editions Today

Again this year, The Sanford Herald is publishing special editions on graduation activities at Seminole High, Oviedo High and Lynnwood High schools. These picture-packed special sections are included in today's issue. Additional copies are available at The Herald office and may be obtained any time during business hours.

2 Killed, 2 Hurt In Mobley's Corner Crash

Tot May Not See First Birthday

Little Jeffrey Todd Lyons has a poor chance of seeing his first birthday.

He's almost 10 months old—will be on June 23—but medical experts foresee an early death.

Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Eugene Lyons of 122 Country Club Drive. And he's got heart trouble; bad heart trouble.

Not only is his heart located on the wrong side of his body, it has several defective parts, doctors tell the parents.

Tuesday the tot is to be taken to the University of Florida's Medical Center for possible surgery. Mrs. Lyons says the doctors hold no hope of correcting the condition; only a faint hope of letting Jeff reach his first birthday.

Last March, Jeff was taken to the naval hospital in Bethesda, Md., and doctors said the condition is so rare that no surgical experience has been had.

The boy's father is assigned to VAH 3 at the Sanford Naval Air Station and he will go along with Mrs. Lyons to Gainesville Tuesday. If the surgery is performed, Lyons will seek leave from his Navy duties so he can be with Mrs. Lyons during the ordeal.

Mrs. Lyons called The Herald Thursday, explaining the situation. "We had planned to have his picture in the paper when he had his first birthday," she said, "but doctors tell us he might not live until then."

She asked if his picture could be put in the paper, even though it wasn't his birthday. It could, she was told, and it is.

Resignation Of Layo Declined

By Donna Estes

Claude Layo submitted his written resignation as Longwood Fire Chief at the regular meeting of the Longwood City Council Thursday evening. Layo pointed out that his duties are police chief required 258 hours labor during the month of May, making it impossible to perform an adequate job as fire chief. Council declined to accept the resignation at this time.

The police department was authorized to hire an additional parttime patrolman to relieve Layo on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from midnight to 8 a. m. Salary of the additional employee was set at $75 per month.

Rapid Growth Seen Around Port Site

"The minute you buy property and put a port on it you will have contiguous property growth."

Members of the Port Authority Committee of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce were given this advice Thursday afternoon in a series of interviews with heads of four engineering firms.

They were checking on the cost of a feasibility report to determine the steps to be taken in establishing a port authority along the St. Johns River.

The "contiguous growth" remark was in answer to a question on how much property the authority should acquire if the feasibility report is favorable.

The representative advised the committee to acquire enough property for immediate use, for almost immediate growth and for long-range planning.

He said the surrounding property will become extremely valuable once the port site is selected. Industry, warehouses, and other factors will move into the area "almost at once" when the port is set up, he said.

The committee, headed by Francis E. Roumillat, conferred with representatives from Howard, Needles, Tammen & Bergendoff, Lockwood & Greene Engineers Inc., Rader & Associates, and Reynolds, Smith & Hills.

Some submitted cost estimates for the project while others asked for additional time to analyze the exact requirements of the committee. Their estimates will be given to the committee in a few days, according to Roumillat.

The Howard, Needles firm was represented by Pete Peterson of Orlando, the Lockwood firm by Tom Friday of Spartanburg, S. C., the Rader firm by General Robert G. Lovett of Miami, and the Reynolds firm by Norman Bryant of Orlando.

The representatives discussed all phases of the project and offered some tips not thought of by the committee. These included the use of the port facility to handle lumber now being mined in the Ocala area and which must be transported over land.

The cross state canal, one representative said, will slice right through the rich limestone area and thus could be hauled more cheaply by barges rather than other methods.

The completion of the St. Johns Indian River Canal will give immediate access to ocean-going vessels and make the Sanford area a true inland seaport.

Included in the data sought in the feasibility report will be seven items posed to the firms by the port committee. These are:

1. A description and discussion of the tributary area to the port in Seminole County, including statistics pertaining to economics and population.
2. An analysis of the potential commercial traffic which could be expected to pass through a port in Seminole County, projected reasonably into the future. Such analysis would include the review of previous reports for such a port and a discussion of the relation of other waterways to the port; for instance, the Cross Florida Barge Canal and the St. Johns Indian River Canal.
3. An analysis of industrial operations in the tributary area and a discussion of those expected to use the port.
4. An analysis of the most practical location for a port, in relation to the overall economic, commercial and industrial potential of the area under consideration.
5. A preliminary site plan for the most practical location for a port, in relation to availability of highway and railroad transportation facilities, water access, soil conditions, utilities, etc.
6. A study of the need for facilities to be extended to the port site, such as electricity, gas, highways and railroads.
7. The development of estimated costs for the preparation of plans and specifications and for construction of the facilities recommended and the length of time for each.
8. Schematic drawings of the port site, showing highway and railroad access, bulkheads, slips and storage sheds which may be recommended for the port.

TWO PERSONS were killed and two others injured when the car shown above was crushed by the tractor-trailer shown at right. The accident occurred at about midnight last night on Highway 17-92 and SR 434. The 1950 sedan was demolished and total property damage was given as $9,600 by Highway Patrol Trooper Dan Oaks. ## Hams To Help In SOS Operation

Local amateur radio operators (hams) are being asked to set up emergency communications at the 12 Sabin Oral Sunday (SOS) feeding stations this Sunday from noon to 5 p. m.

Clyde Long, president of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, sponsors of the clinics with the County Health Department, said the communication setup would prove of value to the project in case a shift in supplies is needed.

Al Case, local radio ham and emergency coordinator for Seminole County, reports he will have all areas covered with units and manned by licensed radio amateurs. Two operators will be women and they will be stationed at the Jai-Lai Fronton and Wind-Dixie on Highway 17-92 at Longwood, Case said.

According to the Federal Communication Commission's rules, Case said, the amateurs are the only ones authorized to provide this type of service to the public.

Local amateurs participating are Walt Long, Bill Henaley, Danmon Morrison, Horace Paul, James Long, Al Case, Jess Morfield, Gayle Morfield, Charles Leffer, Charles Scudder and Claudine Case.

The radio operations will be coordinated with the Orange County amateurs who will have a station at the Allen Drug Company in Orlando where the vaccine will be stored.

Only radio communications will be allowed to the drug company, under instructions of the Central Florida Civil Defense radio officer, Wes Gardner of Winter Park.

The Sabin Oral Sunday project is for persons who took the first dose in April. Those who visited the second, or makeup clinic at that time, must wait until the makeup Sunday next week, officials report.

Truck-Trailer Demolishes Speeding Car

Two lives were snuffed out at about midnight last night when the car in which the persons were riding collided with a tractor-trailer on Highway 17-92 and 434, known as Mobley's corner.

Two other persons were injured in the crash called by Highway Patrol Trooper Dan Oaks "one of the worst I've seen."

Dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital were Coy Seals, 22, of Plymouth, and Marie M. Vicks, 19, also of Plymouth. Being treated at the hospital are Elaine Joyce Parkhurst, 19, of Zellwood, and Romeo Estep Jr., 22, also of Zellwood.

The conditions and extent of injuries to the two could not be learned late this morning at the hospital.

Trooper Oaks credited the truck driver, Alvin Johns, 62, of Ft. Myers, with trigger-like action in trying to avoid the accident and with saving the lives of the two injured persons.

Oaks said Seals was driving west on 434 and attempting to make a left turn onto 17-92. He estimated the speed of the car at about 60 miles an hour.

The trooper said Johns was driving north on 17-92, saw the car in front of him and swerved sharply to the left in an effort to avoid the crash. Instead of striking the car in the middle, the heavy truck hit the front portion.

Seals was thrown out of the vehicle and crushed by the truck wheels, Oaks said. He added he was on patrol directly behind the truck and saw the accident.

When Johns swerved his truck to the left, it collided with a car stopped in the crossover. In that car, but not injured, were Marcelito Tony Caro, 21, of 702 Cherokee Circle, Sanford, and Thomas E. Coker, 25, of 127 Lakeside Drive, Sanford.

Sanford Signs To Be Discussed

Approval of several outdoor signs to tell of the Sanford area attractions will be discussed Wednesday at 10 a. m. by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce's Promotions Committee.

Clifford McKibbin Jr., committee chairman, says the meeting will be held at the Chamber's conference rooms.

Being considered is establishing of several large "bulletins" on main arteries leading to the Sanford area. These would attempt to attract visitors to the state to drive to this area.

Schedules Set For Graduation

Some 571 Seminole County seniors and more than twice that many parents, teachers, school officials and friends are preparing for Baccalaureate services and graduation exercises Sunday and Monday.

Seminole High's 257 seniors will convene for their Baccalaureate services in Fleming Gymnasium at 8 p. m. Sunday. The principal speaker will be the Rev. Herbert W. Goerss, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

The Rev. Leonard Jones, pastor of the Prairie Lake Baptist Church, will address the 165 Lynnwood High graduates at 8 p. m. Sunday in the school auditorium.

An Oviedo High, the Baccalaureate speaker will be the Rev. Jack T. Bryant, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oviedo. Twenty-eight seniors will participate in this service.

A Croombs High alumnus, the Rev. Z. L. Grady, will address the 121 members of Croomb's 1964 graduating class during Baccalaureate services to be held at 9 a. m. Sunday in the R. A. Allen Gymnasium. Rev. Grady is now the pastor of the Morris Brown AME Church of Charleston, S. C.

Commencement exercises are scheduled for 8 p. m. Monday in all four high schools. At Seminole High School the valedictorian will be Carol Oxford and Ronald Goerss will be the salutatorian. Diplomas will be awarded to the graduates by Principal Andrew Bracken in the gymnasium.

Principal Carlton Henley will award diplomas at Lynnwood High's commencement in the auditorium. No valedictorian or salutatorian were chosen this year.

How often we are reminded that good news is rather rare in our secular world. We find that honest reporting of news does uncover much that is not good. In the lives of people today we find much immorality, division, hatred, dishonesty, destruction and evil of other kinds too numerous to mention but we need not despair. There is good news, too. Even though the Bible is still a best seller many people agree that the evidence is overwhelming that it is not merely for the ages past but for ours and how needed it is.

The God who looked upon man centuries ago and saw his need is the One whose will is still upon us and who continues to offer the same good news of redemption. God was truly in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting sinners as guilty but reconciling us as valid in one century as another and is effective for one life as another. It is important to face life with the knowledge that God does not forget us and that even though we have a tendency to feel deserted it is not the case at all. He is always waiting for us to come home to Him though we may have wandered into a far country. The most helpful parable that our Lord gave seems to me to be the parable of the prodigal son which illustrates our point. If you have forgotten this parable turn to the fifteenth chapter of Luke and read it again and again. A quick review of this story tells us of a son of a rich father who decided that he wanted to leave home, but knew that

Two Methodist Changes Made

LAKELAND (UPI) — Bishop James W. Henley announced the appointment today of two new district superintendents within the Florida Methodist Conference and the transfer of two churches to the coming church year. The changes were announced at yesterday's session of the 122nd annual meeting of the Florida Conference here which also saw the conference approve a budget of $1,000,000 for the coming year. Bishop Henley said the Rev. Bruce P. Gannaway of the Orlando District will be transferred to Melbourne as head of the new district office following the conference. Newly appointed superintendents are the Rev. Dr. Scott Bosman of Tampa, and the Rev. T. Howard Norton of Lake Worth.

Club Plans Bake Sale

The Rev. Norman, pastor of Calvary Methodist Church in Lake Worth since 1959, will succeed the Rev. Gannaway in Orlando. Bishop Henley said all other superintendents were re-assigned to their posts for another year. Ministerial assignments will be made Sunday.

History Shows State Sponsored Churches Unpopular

Religion in America, by LOUIS CANLER, United Press International World America's children are more likely to grow up believing in God if the government officially encouraged religious faith through schools and other public institutions? Many people seem to think so. This has been one of the principal arguments advanced by proponents of constitutional amendments to authorize prayer and Bible reading in public schools. But one of the nation's leading church historians, Dr. Franklin H. Littell, says the lesson of history points in exactly the opposite direction. He says that whenever

Kindergarten To Be Held At Elder Springs

A Christian Kindergarten to follow public school calendar through the year has been announced by Elder Springs Baptist Church. Sessions will begin with opening of the 1964-65 term each day from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. until noon, Monday through Friday. Church officials have advised that purpose of the program will be to "prepare children for their first year in school in a thoroughly Christian atmosphere," adding that the faculty and curriculum have been selected with this purpose in mind. Information has been set for Monday, June 15, from 9 a. m. until noon at the church for their first year in school. The "friends" of the kindergarten are those who are, or will be, five years of age before Jan. 1, 1965, will be eligible. Information on fees of registration and monthly tuition may be obtained from the church office.

Lay Leaders To Conduct Services

The new conference year at First Methodist Church of Sanford will open Sunday with lay leaders in charge of the morning worship services. A major point of interest to all attending will be enactment of special legislation inaugurating a permanent World Fellowship of Free Methodist Churches. The son of Dr. and Mrs. John Perry was born in Guntur, India, while his father was serving there as a missionary.

By Jane Caselberry The Senior Reception given by the Senior MYF of the Caselberry Methodist Church Sunday night was attended by 20 members of the Lyman High School Graduating Class who attend the church. Each senior was presented with a leather bound New Testament from the WBCS by Mrs. Myrtle and Mrs. Edna Lyons, secretaries of student work, who also served refreshments of orange sherbet punch and cake decorated in the school colors of blue and gold. Dan Caselberry, MYF president, was master of ceremonies introducing Rev. Dolmas Copeland, minister, and Ken Miller, president of the other youth group, who each gave brief talks. Kipling's poem "If" was read by Ann Frueck and Valerie Silva sang a solo, "One God," accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Darwin Silva at the piano. Gifts were presented in behalf of the MYF to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker who have served as co-sponsors for the past two years and John Haynes, retiring president. Attending were Dick Halmer, Brenda Potts, Roger Deegan, Dana Hall, Jeanne Keck, Marcia Lyons.

JOHN HAYNES, outgoing president of the Caselberry Community Methodist Church Senior MYF, was presented with a gift of "Praying Hands" bookends by new president Dan Caselberry at a reception given by the group for 1964 graduates who attend the church. (Herald Photo)

Lake Mary Nazarene Church Announces VBS Schedule

A two-week Vacation Bible School will open Monday at the Lake Mary Church of the Nazarene with classes for children between the ages of three years and 18 years to be held from 9 a. m. until 11:30 a. m., Monday through Friday, each week. Commencement exercises have been scheduled for Sunday, June 21. Teachers will be Mrs. Lucille Morgan, nursery; Mrs. Florence Holcombe, kindergarten; Mrs. Julia Peters, primary and R. B. Ramabotom, juniors. Assistant workers will include Mrs. Joyce Stawson, Mrs. Jack Loudermilk, Patricia Dorton, Juanita Price, Margie Keisher, Mrs. James Gray and Patricia Ramabotom. Classrooms in the church's new Sunday School annex will be utilized for the Bible school which has as its theme, "Discovering God's Word Through His World, His Word, His Son." This theme will be carried out in seasons of music, handicraft and memorization. Refreshments will be in charge of Joe Ruslow and Mrs. Louise Furusho. Sunday School departments this week will begin the regular campaign. An attendance chart has been placed on the church bulletin board with last year's records charted in green. This year's June attendance records will be outlined in red and students and members of the church will be striving to keep the green line climbing over the mountain peak of last year's record mark. During May, the "Fill A Pew" month, Bill Fife filled his pew for three out of five Sundays. Bill Loudermilk, who filled a pew one Sunday, also took the closing award last week for having the most persons attending the service.

Tampa To Host Luther League Convention

Luther Leagues of Lutheran Churches in America will convene at the University of Tampa next week from Wednesday through Friday. Keynote speaker for the meeting will be Dr. Carver P. Mitchell of Charlotte, N. C., pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Chaplain will be Rev. Luther Anderson of Ft. Lauderdale and business sessions will be conducted by Miss Lucy Koid of Daytona Beach, president.

Chaplain Deal To Be Guest At Grace Methodist Church

Sunday morning worship service at Grace Methodist Church this week will be conducted by Chaplain Robert Deal of Sanford Naval Air Station in the absence of Rev. John H. Hires Jr. who is attending the annual Florida Methodist Conference in Lakeland. Judge C. Vernon Miles will preside over the service. Other Grace Church representatives at conference are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wall.

Good Shepherd To Welcome New Pastor

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Sanford announced today that Rev. J. Gordon Perry will assume duties this Sunday as new pastor of the church. The son of Dr. and Mrs. John Perry was born in Guntur, India, while his father was serving there as a missionary.

Free Methodists Set Conference

A strong international flavor will be provided by the presence of 25 members of the Lyman High School Graduating Class who attend the church. Each senior was presented with a leather bound New Testament from the WBCS by Mrs. Myrtle and Mrs. Edna Lyons, secretaries of student work, who also served refreshments of orange sherbet punch and cake decorated in the school colors of blue and gold. Attending were Dick Halmer, Brenda Potts, Roger Deegan, Dana Hall, Jeanne Keck, Marcia Lyons.

Adults To Have Commencement In Deltona

The first commencement for "scholars" of the Adult Education Program in Deltona will be held on Wednesday at the Community Center. All of the residents and guests of Deltona are invited to attend the program which promises to be one of the most outstanding events in the history of the community. Approximately 55 certificates of completion will be presented to those who have participated in the first regular school courses. Guest speaker for the occasion will be John Smiley, superintendent of the Board of Public Instruction in Volusia County. Other special guests who will participate in the program are Marcus Rankin, director of Adult Education of Volusia County Schools; Mrs. Edna Smiley, Coordinator of the Senior Citizens Program, Volusia County; Alan E. Ballew, principal of Deland High School; Gaston Bridges will greet the attendees and Chuck McCarty will assist in the presentation of the certificates. The Choral Group will sing special music and each of the classes is asked to present the accomplishments of the course. Refreshments will be available for all graduates and guests after the program. The Adult Education program under the direction of Zeral W. Mallard has been well received in Deltona and has made a significant contribution to the community. Those who have participated in the courses have presented the program highly and promise to be the first to enroll in the new course which will be announced at the June 10 graduation exercises. Miss Karen Kaufman, Hartley Circle, will receive special recognition as the first high school graduate from the Deltona Division of the Daytona Beach Adult Education High School. Miss Kaufman has met the requirements for her high school diploma through the efforts of Mr. Mallard and the Stickle Company who made that the program available at this time. Next September, a full high school program will be available to the residents of Deltona and should enroll a number of residents who have been unable to complete their high school diploma.

Gen. De Gaulle Chooses To Snub Observance

By Joseph W. Gries United Press International OMAHA BEACH, France (UPI)—American generals and GI vets of World War II today streamed back to the scene of the Allied D-Day landing for ceremonies which French President Charles de Gaulle has chosen to skip. By plane, train, bus and car an estimated 3,000 Americans and several thousands of their wartime British and Canadian comrades in arms converged on the Normandy beaches to mark the 20th anniversary of one of history's largest military operations—the invasion of June 6, 1944. Ceremonies began tonight on the British and Canadian landing beaches about 20 years ago by the code names of Gold, Juno and Omaha. They continue through Saturday at Omaha and Utah beaches and the village of Ste. Mere-Eglise, where Americans fought and died for the liberation of Europe from Nazi Germany. The service ends Sunday at the U. S. cemetery outside Paris. De Gaulle, who was left out of the invasion planning by his allies, did not plan to attend the ceremony. Triboulet, cooperation minister, and Jean Sainthey, war veterans minister, in his presence.

Pentecostal Groups Pledge Project Aid

The Ladies Auxiliary and the Brotherhood of the First Pentecostal Church of Longwood have pledged their aid and assistance in the current project the church which is to air condition the auditorium. Pledges were made at a joint meeting of the groups held Tuesday evening at the church. Plans were discussed for a rummage sale to be held in late August and a bake sale during the summer. Exact dates for both events will be announced. The ladies of the auxiliary pledged to attend a clothing and white elephant which they will conduct to collect throughout the summer. A continuing activity of the auxiliary is the sale of tricolor ballpoint pens and refills. Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams.

Milwee To Take Part In PTL Conference

R. T. Milwee, Seminole County school superintendent, will participate in a discussion group on Florida's school needs at the 28th annual Short Course in Parent-Teacher Leadership at the University of South Florida, June 9-12.

The conference is conducted by the Florida Institute for Continuing University Studies and is sponsored by the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers. It offers an opportunity for PTA members to develop ways of working together to insure quality instruction in Florida's schools.

Next Friday will be devoted to a joint meeting of the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers, Department of County Superintendents of the Florida Education Association, and the Florida School Board Association.

Dr. Donald E. Davis, professor of education at the University of Minnesota, will deliver the principal address of the course at an evening assembly on June 10.

Mrs. Myron Bise, Tallahassee, president of the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers, and Dr. C. Lee Egert, professor of education at the University of Florida, will be featured in the opening session of the short course with a conversation on "The Many Faces of PTA."

Most of the course will be devoted to small classes on a wide variety of topics including parent and family life, educational television, juvenile protection and mental health. Other sessions will be devoted to practical instruction in such organizational matters as budgets, by-laws, parliamentary procedure and PTA policies.

Churchwomen Set Meeting

By Donna Estes

The regular monthly meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Longwood's Christ Church will take place Thursday at 2 p. m. in the parish house on Church St.

Mrs. Peggy Kuhn, president, will conduct the meeting and report on the meeting of the president's council which Mrs. A. P. Bowersox, Mrs. Raymond Ball, Mrs. Charles Morrison and Mrs. Kuhn attended at Clermont this week.

Fish Experts War On Lake Jessup Algae

Fresh water fishing experts descended on Lake Jessup Thursday for an all-day fight to rid that huge body of water of fish-killing algae.

They used boats, airboats and seaplanes to spread 4,000 pounds of copper sulphate over the water to stop the kill which has reached tremendous proportions with thousands of rough fish already dead.

The dead fish and accompanying odor has attracted thousands of predatory birds which are circling the dead masses.

The kill became apparent about a week ago and members of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission took immediate steps to correct it.

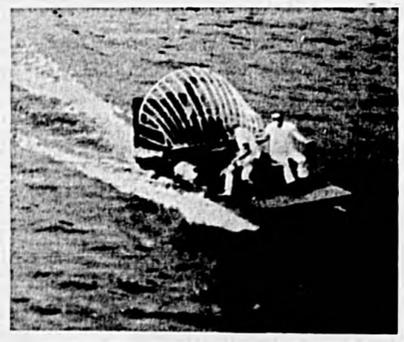

The algae population exploded and covered the water with a greenish hue, one fatal to most of the rough fish in the lake.

"We're expecting that the bluestone (copper sulphate) will take care of this algae," one official said. But, he admitted, "we'll have to come back in and treat the lake again to keep the algae down."

Biologist Harold Moody and Harold Vanness of the state commission say sport fishing will be better than ever once the present condition is corrected.

Experts estimate that about 90 per cent of the dead fish are gizzard shad, stingers, mud fish and other rough varieties.

Piloting the aircraft was George Lankford and coordinating the information on the drive was Jim Reed.

Voter Canvass Is Completed In DeBary

DeBary Republican Club President Glenn Smith reports that the voter canvass of all residents of DeBary has been completed under the direction of Vice President Earl D. Merrill.

Eight block block captains recruited a team of 62 members, who have visited or checked all homes and filled out data cards on voters and potential voters.

All who were not registered were advised on registration procedure. Names of those needing transportation or absentee ballots were listed. The DeBary voter cards, according to Merrill, showed a total of 1122 registered Republicans, 872 registered Democrats and 34 Independents.

Of those qualified to register before October 3, 103 said they would register as Republicans; 75 of these had registered Democrat but usually voted Republican and stated they planned to change their registration to Republican. Twenty-four voters, mostly invalids requested transportation, and 16 said they would need absentee ballots.

"This year's goal of the DeBary Republican Club, says President Smith, is to get every Republican registered, inform all voters on candidates and issues and get every voter to the polls. A recheck is planned this fall. The eight block captains who will follow up next fall are Mrs. Charles Bertch, Robert Henderson, Ivan Walker, Charles Noonan, Fred McLaren, Andrew Ashley, John Klaseil and Frank Hill.

Exile 'Phantom Raid' On Cuba Publicity Hoax, U. S. Finds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The defense department said today that a "phantom raid" allegedly conducted from Miami May 25 to drop supplies in Cuba was a publicity hoax.

The department's defense intelligence agency (DIA) made a thorough investigation of the implication that such a raid could be conducted without U.S. radar detection.

A department spokesman said the incident was a "complete and utter hoax" and that radar coverage in the Florida area is "very effective."

Deputy Defense Secretary Cyrus R. Vance simultaneously sent a letter to Rep. Carl Vinson, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, stating:

"One of the individuals involved in the alleged 'phantom raid' has indicated to our investigators that the raid did not take place. Mr. Frank Florin, president of the International Anti-Communist Brigade, which allegedly conducted the raid has signed the following statement:

"To the best of my knowledge a so-called 'operation phantom' raid on Cuba on May 25, 1964, did not take place. I declare that U.S. radar defenses were not violated while leaving or entering U.S. territory."

The spokesman said Florin, a U.S. citizen and free-lance pilot, participated in preparation of the publicity release. It was put out in collaboration with the Cuban 30th of November Revolutionary movement.

The purpose was to get publicity for the Cuban revolutionary movement, the spokesman said.

Tony Curtis At Cinema

Tony Curtis and Christine Kaufmann are appearing in the new Universal picture, "Wild and Wonderful" which introduces Monsieur Cognac, a man who leads a man's life. "Wild and Wonderful" opened Thursday at the Seminole Cinema and is scheduled to run through Wednesday.

Movie stars live in splendor in fancy studio dressing room bungalows while they're making movies—even if they happen to be a canine performer. Monsieur Cognac, the French poodle who shares honors with Curtis and Miss Kaufmann in the Harold Hecht color comedy, spent his between-scenes hours in a luxurious $2500 dog-house, complete with air-conditioning, indirect lighting and a poodle-sized freezer for preserving his hamburger.

The Cinema opens at 1:30 p.m. daily.

"WILD AND WONDERFUL," now showing at the Seminole Cinema in Casselberry, features Tony Curtis, Christina Kaufmann and film-lad's new wonder dog, Monsieur Cognac. The Universal release will run through Wednesday.

Floridian In Ritz Film

Florida's own Woody Woodbury from Ft. Lauderdale is appearing in the movie scheduled to start Sunday and run through Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre.

Woodbury appeared in many nightclubs in the state in past years then advanced to his own television show and now has progressed to the movie world.

Youth serves and is served in "For Those Who Think Young," a United Artists release.

The teen-filled, tune-filled comedy stars James Darren and Pamela Tiffin, and co-stars Paul Lynde, Tina Louise, Bob Denver, Robert

Highlights TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p.m. CBS. The Great Adventure. "The Death of Sittling Bull." Part 1. (Re-run) This first episode in a two-part on the demise of the American Indians is somewhat disappointing. It takes place 14 years after Sittling Bull's victory at Little Big Horn and depicts a pitiful picture of depressed and starving Indians hoping for a new uprising and new leader. Instead of depicting the death knell of the Sioux and their neighbors, the program concentrates on their tormentors with all the usual characters, including the cavalry officer accused of cowardice, the Indian-hating sergeant and the old Indian agent, Ricardo Montalban, Joseph Cotten, Lloyd Nolan and James Dunn star.

8:30-10 p.m. CBS. "D-Day Plus 20 Years: Eisenhower Returns to Normandy." This is a natural among documentaries. Commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Allied landing on the Normandy beaches, CBS Newsmen Walter Cronkite accompanied Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on a tour of the invasion scene plus other key World War II battle areas. The 90-minute special includes Eisenhower's tribute to his fallen comrades in arms, his reminiscences of World War II and a lot of interesting and exciting film, much of which has never been seen on television before. A fascinating and sobering news special.

8:30-9:30 p.m. ABC. Burke's Law "Who Killed Sweet Betsy?" (Re-run) This show is all Carolyn Jones (well, Gene Barry does help) as she plays four sisters—a mother victim, the chief suspects, Miss Jones proves she is versatile.

10-11 p.m. CBS. The Alfred Hitchcock Hour. "Isabel." You may suspect the outcome of this puzzling suspense playlet long before the climax, but it nevertheless sustains excitement and is well acted, particularly by Bradford Dillman in the role of a youth who returns from prison to the town where he was convicted — innocently, he insists of trying to attack a schoolteacher on a foggy street. What puzzles the town folk is that he seemingly has not only forgiven the accusing teacher (Barbara Barrie) but is actually wooing her. Most suspicious of all is a police lieutenant (Edmon Ryan).

10-11 p.m. NBC. The Jack Paar Show. (Color) This is the final show of the current season and it seems to have been made up of worthwhile remnants. Godfrey Cambridge, one of the best of the new Negro comedians, returns and gets a chance to talk about his career in show business. Much of the hour is taken up with Paar's standard home movie type of film. This time from his already documented recent trip to Africa and Jack, his wife and his daughter all participate in telling you about the various exotic places visited.

Easternmost town in the United States is Lubeck, Maine.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Stenstrom
The Legion baseball nine which will represent Sanford and Seminole County this summer will open its season Saturday night.

The chances are that the local outfit could go "all the way" this season. With all of the experience they have plus some of the top hurlers in this area, we should be able to see some top notch baseball.

One thing the boys will need is support. Local baseball fans should decide right now to turn out and watch the youngsters—particularly when they open the season Saturday night at Memorial Stadium where the local post meets Orlando's Post 242 club.

Officials say everything's set for the Inner Circle Horse Show which will be staged Saturday at the Ride-A-White Stables, intersection of 14 and SR 44. Proceeds of the event will be donated to the U. S. Olympic Equestrian team which will compete in Tokyo this summer. The show will get under way at 9 a. m. Over 200 horses are expected to vie for various trophies.

A new, streamlined program, earmarked for expediency and efficiency, is under way for the American Junior Bowling Congress, more widely known as the AJBC.

This was assured during the combined meeting and planning session of the Women's International Bowling Congress and the American Bowling Congress committees on junior bowling in Milwaukee.

The two adult membership organizations at their recent conventions in Minneapolis and Oakland, respectively, unanimously voted to assume—on a combined basis—the financial and administrative responsibilities of the junior organization of boys and girls.

By the end of the month the squad must be reduced to 10 men, and this is "going to cause us some more headaches," Thomas said.

The players as well as the coaches hope that "fans will fill the stands." And they deserve a big gallery.

Some 30 junior golfers from Seminole, Orange and Lake counties are expected to compete at the Orlando Country Club next Wednesday as qualifying rounds for the 18th annual National Pee Wee Golf Championships get underway.

A second qualifying event for the tri-county area will be held June 15 at the Rolling Hills Country Club in Altamonte Springs. The Pee Wee is slated June 23-24 at Rio Pinar.

Although this is the final day of school and local prep athletics programs are over, The Herald is already making plans for coverage of next year's football, basketball, baseball, track, bowling, swimming, golf and other schedules. We plan to provide Herald readers with the finest possible coverage of all these events. We'll have our staff of sports correspondents ready to keep you up to date on events at Seminole, Lyman, Orlando, Cromwell, Slavia, South Seminole Junior High, Orlando Junior High, Sanford Junior High and the Sanford Naval Academy.

Just about the time you begin to think that some of these old time pitchers are at the departure gate they come up with a sizzling performance. We're talking about the remarkable pitching jobs turned in Wednesday by Robin Roberts of the Orioles, Whitey Ford of the Yankees and Hoyt Wilhelm of the Chicago White Sox. Their respective ages total 113 years.

Which reminds us of the time when we heard the late Al Simmons remark that even though he had a lot of respect for the old timers he'd rather hit against a good control pitcher than try to combat the perils of facing a young, wild fireballer. Of course, he was referring to "Rapid" Robert Feller the second year the youngster was with the Cleveland Indians. That's been quite a while ago, hasn't it.

Sanford Hosts Orlando In Legion Contest Saturday

Open Season In Ocala Tonight With Twin Bill

Local baseball fans will get a chance to enjoy their favorite pastime this weekend when the American Legion club goes into action tomorrow night at Memorial stadium at 7:30 p.m. against the Orlando Post 242.

Manager Frank Thomas has settled on a starting lineup that will look like this: Ricky Golloher, ss; Morgan Sheffield, 2b; Dennis Griffin, cf; Larry Pivec, lf; Steve Harris, rf; Ed Fitzgerald, 1b; Red Jansen, 3b.

The battery will be made up of Jimmy Courier on the mound, but the call for the catcher is still unsettled. Both Billy Higgins and Rex Brooks have been doing some fine receiving, and either one of them may be wearing the big mitt when the game starts.

The nine will be returning from a doubleheader at Ocala that will be played tonight. The first game will find Don Smith, Lyman high school chunker, doing the pitching and Rex Brooks receiving. The nightcap battery will be Ricky Sires and Billy Higgins.

The long workouts in the afternoons have concentrated to a large extent on batting practice, but in spite of the heat the squad has put in many a minute on glove work, Thomas said. He, Glenn Price and E. B. Kuykendall have been having a major task in picking the lads that will represent the Campbell-Lossing Post 58, for an unusually good crop of prospects have shown up, they say.

Right now it is necessary that the managers cut down to 18 players. This eliminates some fine material, they know, and just what candidates will be dropped still is undecided.

By the end of the month the squad must be reduced to 10 men, and this is "going to cause us some more headaches," Thomas said.

The players as well as the coaches hope that "fans will fill the stands." And they deserve a big gallery.

Businessmen's Bowling Loop Has Banquet

The Businessmen's bowling league held its annual banquet at the Lake Monroe Inn and awarded the prize money and trophies won by the various members and teams.

The Faron Builders team was surprised when trophies were presented to them for being voted "best sports" in the league. Their captain and lead-off man, Al Faron, also was the recipient of the most improved bowler award, a belt buckle provided by A.B.C., the men's national sanctioning body.

First place in the league went to Rex Liquor comprised of Clarence Willis, Ray Robinson, Pete Duggan and Dick Zuckerman and they were presented trophies as well as a plaque for their sponsor, Bob D'Avera.

Individual awards went to Vergil Anderson who won league high average, Charlie Willis who took the high game trophy with a 245, and Joe Pickens who copped high handicap series with 673 while bowling on the last place team.

Clarence Willis won the total pins award, Dick Schaffer copped high scratch series trophy and Curtis Abney won high handicap game.

The league race was tight down to the wire because on the last night a four-point sweep by the third place team coupled with losses by the first two teams would have resulted in the league championship, but instead the team, Smith's Amoco Service, dropped three points and fell all the way to fifth place.

There was a span of only five and one-half games between first and sixth place teams.

Howdy again! It's good to breathe good, fresh air again after two trips to Lake Jessup. It's just about all a fellow can take, WOW! What an odor.

But don't fret. The Fresh Water Fish and Game Commission is right out there in the middle of all those dead fish, spraying and spreading copper sulphate to kill the poison algae that has formed in the lake.

We talked to Harold Moody Fisher, biologist for the state, and he tells me that the algae multiply because of the sun and the lack of rain. The copper sulphate being used will take effect after it is distributed throughout the lake, so we should know within the next few days how the stuff works.

There is some fishing being done in the lake but we wouldn't recommend eating any fish out of Lake Jessup until the algae clears up.

Some of the fish found dead in Lake Jessup are gizzard shad or stink shad, non-edible fish, a few gar, a lot of nice bass ranging from one to 15 pounds, specks, bream, catfish, mullet, sting ray, man-haden minnows, shell cracker and eels.

Got some good news from Wekiva River Haven. It looks like the fishing is pretty good up there. John Roberts caught himself a nice eight-pound 14-ounce catfish, while Jimmy Altman and Jim Johns caught 63 bream and 10 catfish. Also noticed that the bream were biting real good on the flats in the Wekiva out from Herbert Muse's fish camp. We had some real good luck there last year fishing with the may fly or the willow fly which is the same.

The Schlitz Fishing Derby in Central Florida's Zone 3 went past its half-way mark this week with sportsmen in the area pocketing $6,175 in cash awards for returning 243 tagged fish to state conservation agencies through Schlitz wholesalers.

Koufax Now Is Only One Notch From Milestone

By Joe Gargun
UPI Sports Writer
Sandy Koufax still was one pitch away from perfection today, but the dandy southpaw is steadily scoring in on that baseball milestone.

The 23-year-old Koufax twirled the third no-hitter of his career Thursday night in pitching the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 2-0 victory over the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies and missed a perfect game by inches when his 3-2 pitch to rookie Richie Allen sailed low and outside in the fourth inning.

In his first hitless performance, Sandy allowed the Mets five walks on June 30, 1963, and he limited the Giants to only two free passes on May 11 of last year.

"I have this to say," Koufax said after the game. "This was the best of the three."

The Brooklyn-born Koufax who will receive the Babe Ruth Award tonight at New York's Shea stadium as the outstanding player in the 1963 World Series, joins a select trio of Larry Corcoran (1906), Cy Young and Bob Feller who have pitched three no-hitters. No pitcher ever has pitched four no-hitters in a career.

Koufax pitched to the minimum of 27 batters and struck out 12 men, marking the 54th time in his career he had struck out 10 men or more.

That tied him with Feller and Rube Waddell for the major league record, which is unlikely to stand long with Koufax around.

Frank Howard provided Koufax with all the runs he needed in the seventh inning when he hit a three-run homer on the left-centerfield roof, his 14th of the year.

Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco, 4-2, Cincinnati stopped Milwaukee, 6-3, despite a triple play by the Braves, Chicago edged the Cardinals, 3-1, and Houston outlasted the Mets, 7-3, in other National League games.

Over in the American League, the Yankees overpowered Minnesota, 9-7, and the White Sox beat the Indians, 5-1. The only other scheduled game, Baltimore at Kansas City, was rained out.

Residents and visitors have found Schlitz tagged fish during the last two months offshore from Daytona Beach to Melbourne, at causeways in the same area, the St. Johns River and in lakes throughout the zone.

Florida archers will have four special hunts in which to test their skill and hunting ability during the 1964-65 hunting season, according to A. D. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The special archery seasons and the 1964-65 hunting regulations for wildlife management areas were established by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission at a meeting in Dade City, May 22.

The first of the special archery seasons opens on the Citrus Wildlife Management Area Oct. 17 with daily hunting through Nov. 1, to be followed by weekend hunting beginning Nov. 7 through Dec. 6, and on Nov. 26-27. The second special bow hunt on the Eglin Wildlife Management Area in Northwest Florida starts Oct. 26 with daily hunting through Nov. 6.

Dudley Nips Whigham In Hill Duel As Shrine Beats Rotary

In a hurler's duel between Ron Dudley and Frank Whigham, the Shriners edged the Rotary nine by a score of 2 to 1 in a City Recreation Department Junior League tilt Thursday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. Dudley was the victor as he posted his third triumph of the season by tossing a four hitter.

Whigham was nipped for only two hits.

The contest was one of the fastest and best played loop tilts of the season. The Shrine's Steve Leach and Mike Long got the team's only hits but that was all they needed as they hurried their two runs over the plate in the first frame and held on the rest of the way.

In another league contest, Kiwanis and Lake Mary knocked heads at 3-all until Lake Mary pushed over four markers in their half of the final frame only to have the Kiwanis burst loose with five in their portion to grab the affair, 8 to 7. Larry Rowland singled home the tying and winning runs. Tommy Austin and Edgar Jobs also paced the Kiwanis.

Robb's Construction whipped Wilson Malar 7 to 1 Thursday night in a Men's League tilt and moved into a tie with Kingswood for first place in the second half race. Earl Evans chunked five-hit ball for the Constructionmen and Mike Henry was cited for his fine field work at short for the winners. It was the fourth win in a row for Robb's.

In another Men's loop affair, the Florida State Bankers dealt USO another defeat. They came out on top 10 to 4. Buddy Burton blasted his third home run of the season and the Bankers' Champion "banked" three hits to his account to lead the platenmen.

George's evened their season's won and loss record at 9-9 by defeating Sanford Atlantic 11 to 6 in a Little American League contest. Steve Rawls picked up his fifth win of the season to go with one setback. Jimmy Sheffield and Andy Adcock each had two hits for Georges while Jimmy Bradley shipped in with his second homer of the year.

The Little National League encounter between Hunt's and the Locomotive Engineers—billed as the big one—didn't come off. The affair was postponed and will be replayed June 8, 4:30 p.m., at Bay Avenue Park.

Pierro, Zeuli Set Sandspur League Pace

Pierro Manufacturing and P. Zeuli and Sons both grabbed a three win and one loss decision against their respective opponents, Mary Brown's Beauty Shop and Jet Lanes, to pace action in the Sandspurs league.

Marion Farrell rolled a 423 series to lead Pierro's and Linda Post took high honors for the Jet Lanes team with a 459 series.

In other league play Johnson's Spar Service was led by Dot Johnson who shot a 481 series. Sue Jackson was the pacesetter for Rose and Wilk's as she came through with a 429 series. Betty Callan took all the honors for the night as she hit 191/503 in pacing Pierro in their three-game win.

Janetta Baird shot a 433 series to set the pace for Mary Brown's. Spits were picked up by Cammy Meyers with the 45, Marie Calderon with the 5-8-10 and Edith Zeuli made the 4-8-10.

Billy Graham's Newest Movie To Show At First Methodist

Evangelist Billy Graham's newest feature-length dramatic film, "Shadow Of The Boomerang," will have its premiere showing in the Sanford area Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the First Methodist Church. Starring vivacious Georgia Lee and television's Buffalo Bill Jr., Dick Jones, "Shadow Of The Boomerang" is an outdoor action picture with all the excitement and breath-taking scope of the land "Down Under." Setting for the screen drama is Australia's "Outback," the continent's vast interior region where some of the world's largest cattle stations are located. The two young Americans head an All-Australian supporting cast, playing brother and sister roles in a turbulent story of homestead life. Their arrival in Australia to manage newly acquired family holdings plunges the couple in all strange surroundings and situations with which they find it difficult to cope. The brother is immature and impetuous, slow to accept Australian ways. His sister is much more democratic, readily accepted by her new friends with whom she joins in an attempt to instill understanding and tolerance in her brother. Filmed against the backdrop of the Billy Graham Australian Crusades, the movie seeks to underline the Godly reaction to human crises and conflicts. Spokesman for the Christian position is Billy Graham, seen in dramatic Crusade footage photographed at the site of the Evangelist's record-breaking crowds in Melbourne and Sydney. An authentic landline relay meeting which shared the big city Crusades with the stockmen of the "Outback," is used as an effective dramatic device in the story climax, "Shadow Of The Boomerang."

Miss Grace Hulbert Honored At Tea

By Julia Bartos
Mrs. R. P. Hulbert was a recent hostess at her home on Lake Seminary Circle Drive to a graduation tea honoring her daughter, Miss Grace Hulbert, a member of the 1964 graduation class of Lyman High School.

MISS GRACE HULBERT was recently honored at a lovely tea in observance of her graduation from Lyman High School with the class of '64. The hostess, honoree and assistants are from the left, Lauree Deans, Mrs. R. P. Hulbert, hostess, Miss Hulbert, honoree, Ramona Cox, Kay Clark, Cheryl Werley and Carol Highsmith.

Assisting Mrs. Hulbert were the Misses Lauree Deans, Cheryl Werley, Ramona Cox, Carol Highsmith and Kay Clark. Special guests were Mrs. R. T. Milwee and Mrs. Robert Schmidt, the senior advisors. Also present were the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Hulbert and Miss Suzanne O'Connors and Miss Margaret DeMont from Winter Park High School.

The table, overlaid with a white sheer linen cloth, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of white and tinted blue chrysanthemums and glads, flanked on either side by candelabra containing blue candles. An attractive and delicious assortment of party fare and punch was served. Approximately 60 members of the graduating class called during the appointed tea hours.

Mrs. Henry Lamb Returns Via Jet From California

Mrs. Henry Lamb of Narcissus Avenue has recently returned from Los Angeles, where she was a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, the Charles Housemans of San Marino.

Mrs. Lamb's trip was highly eventful and she enjoyed visiting the points of interest in California. She attended a reception honoring her grandson, Robert Cross Houseman and his bride.

Mrs. Lamb also visited two of her sisters and their husbands, Col. and Mrs. William Woolgar and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Burdick, who reside in Sun City. She was guest of another sister, Mrs. E. W. Sloan of Glendale, and a brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. James Willis of Los Angeles.

South Florida's Aerojet-General Corp. has conducted first static rocket firings at the Dade County solid fuel plant where giant rockets will soon be produced for the Air Force.

As the gifts were opened, Miss Marcia Phillips created a clever pom pom bouquet from the package bows, and presented it to the honoree.

Refreshments of cake, lemon Bavarian, nuts, mints, coffee and Cokes were served to the Misses. Lessie Pauline, Hope Kendall, Peggy Russell, Mary Ferguson, Pat Clark, Coleen Hassler, Clarise Linton, Mary R. Douglas and Richard Deas.

Also Miss Vicki Westlund and Miss Anna M. Miller.

Miss Hern Shower Honoree

MISS MARCIA PHILLIPS, left, was hostess to a recent bridal shower at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Harriett Slawter. With Miss Phillips are Mrs. J. D. Hern, mother of the honoree, Miss JoAnn Hern, bride-elect and honoree, Mrs. Richard Deas, co-hostess and Mrs. Slawter.

Miss JoAnn Hern, bride-elect of Ralph Rogers, was honor guest of a recent bridal shower at the Park Avenue home of Mrs. Harriett Slawter with Miss Marcia Phillips, Mrs. Slawter's granddaughter, serving as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Richard Deas as co-hostess. The serving table, centered with a crystal compote containing yellow snapdragons and dahlias, was covered with a sheer lace cloth, with white candles glowing in crystal candlesticks.

A lovely arrangement of assorted yellow flowers formed the centerpiece for the coffee table. Each guest was given a card on which she wrote her version of "how to be a good wife," which the bride-elect read to the group. As the gifts were opened, Miss Marcia Phillips created a clever pom pom bouquet from the package bows, and presented it to the honoree.

Mrs. Thomas Cobb, Sr. Hosts Shower Honoring Miss Best

'Thank You' Shows Delight

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. He owns a tricycle but is too little to operate it. He is about 3 and lives, I think, in rooms at the rear of his father's laundry shop. He is Chinese. Always when I have seen him, it has been with the splendid unmailed tricycle beside him, the child, chin in hand, sitting on the step before his father's shop, lost in sad meditation on the fruitfulness of wishing his short legs were longer.

into his face. Clambering to his feet, he took my flowers, bent from the waist in a formal bow and said, "Thank you. Oh, thank you very much."

ment of joy and connected it to the words "thank you" so that when delight was felt again at the gift of my flowers the words rose to his lips as naturally as the feeling had been felt.

Yesterday I spoke to him for the first time. He was in his usual place as I approached and looked such a disconsolate morsel of childhood that I stopped. Talking two diffidulous and a pussy yellow spring from the bouquet I had just bought, I offered them to him, saying, "These flowers are for you."

I can't tell you what the delight was, of course. Maybe it was the first glimpse of his adored tricycle. I think that they seized on the moment of joy and connected it to the words "thank you" so that when delight was felt again at the gift of my flowers the words rose to his lips as naturally as the feeling had been felt.

Record Shop Italian Pops Into U.S. Picture

By Joan Crosby

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK—Rita Pavone, an 18-year-old Italian girl who looks like Huckleberry Finn, is perched on the launching pad about to be orbited into fame and fortune in the United States.

Rita stands one meter, 50 centimeters tall (that's about 4 feet 9) and she weighs 42 kilos with her boots on (that's a shade over 90 pounds). She has tanned, curly light brown hair, cut in sideburns; huge, dark brown eyes; a nose that tilts upward and a mouth that curves upward; freckles for a Boy Scout convention. When she appeared at the talent contest rehearsal, she was wearing pants, a shirt and suspenders. "I insisted that she wear that outfit to perform," Reno said. "Now it's her uniform."

Other Worthwhile Albums—"Hello Dolly, This Is Louis Armstrong" (Kapp); try listening to this without tapping your toes or grinning. It can't be done. "The Beatles Songbook With the Hollywood Strings" (Capitol); you may be surprised by some of the pretty melodies beneath the 'yah, yah, yahs' of The Beatles in this instrumental album.

Italy's most popular singing star, a rock 'n' roller who is even liked by parents, already has fame and fortune in her homeland, Germany and South America. She earns $21,000 a week. Her first album sold 150,000 in Italy, a country where the average album sale is 5,000 copies. She has sold over 2 million singles in Italy.

High Class—Wagnerian music lovers will be delighted with two fine recordings with Klempner conducting the Philharmonia Orchestra. Both are Angel releases. One consists of Wagner Overtures ("Rienzi," "Flying Dutchman," "Tannhauser" and "Die Meistersinger"), and the magnificent Prelude and Liebestod from "Tristan and Isolde."

When you hear that a woman has great charm, you can know some things about her for certain, even though you have never met her. These qualities you can be sure she has:

- 1. A smile that lights up her whole face, not a smile that lifts the corners of her mouth and leaves her eyes cold or watery.
- 2. A pleasant voice, not one that whines or is shrill or is flat and lifeless.
- 3. A sense of humor, at least enough of one to keep her from taking herself too seriously.
- 4. An open-hearted, friendly attitude toward others that shows in her honest delight in meeting new people and wanting to know them better.

South won the first trick with the queen of spades and went right after the diamond suit. When West showed out on the second diamond, South allowed East to win the trick. East knocked out dummy's ace of spades and the diamonds were run.

lead a heart and West set the contract with the ace of hearts and three spade tricks. Once more, South had not brought it on himself. South did not have to play diamonds right away. Instead, he should have led a heart to dummy's king-queen. If West ducked, South would be able to attack diamonds and make his contract with five diamond tricks only. If West took the ace, he would have lost the immediate entry for his spades.

Talking Scents To Some Men

By Jerry Sheehan

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK (NEA)—Paul Blackman has a theory that men should take fewer showers and use perfume. He is not talking about after-shave colognes, either.

BLACKMAN sniff for a masculine scent.

From the first days in the crib we become aware of odors, even though we tend to shortchange our sense of smell in later life. How many times have you smelled, say, a certain motor oil and immediately remembered a fishing trip 20 years ago?

Blackman, a direct, businesslike man with a fondness for jokes, at first does not seem like anyone who has made perfume his life's work. He heads a distinguished company (Parfums Cappelletti) which distributes two women's fragrances (Graffiti and Parce Quel). In about a year he plans to enter the men's market with a perfume for men (Forum).

Blackman concedes that a man may be understandably self-conscious about using perfume outright. A number of possibilities suggest themselves:

with Alleen

This machine age has some housewives kicking the message for not following directions and having to pay a service man $5 to $7 to push a button for them.

And speaking of the installation, sometimes the person who installs the unit can cost you money for a service call. An expert in the field reveals her firm gets many calls to take out a dishwasher that just doesn't work.

Unless you are looking for someone to chat with, save yourself money by reading and following manufacturers' instructions.

The Doctor Says: Baby Bottle Controversy

Wayne G. Brandstad, M.D.

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. To heat or not to heat the baby's bottle? This is the question confronting mothers today.

A few of our more daring baby doctors about four years ago tried not warming the bottles before feeding in a hospital nursery. They even tried it on the premature infants.

Mothers who were brave enough to give their babies cold formulas right out of the refrigerator—no doubt when grandma wasn't looking—were enthusiastic. It meant less work and there were no apparent disadvantages.

Grave Charges

Shock waves from that delayed action bombshell — the now-it-can-be-told interview given by Gen. Douglas MacArthur to Scripps-Howard reporter Jim Lucas in 1954 — are still echoing throughout the land.

The most serious charge in this latter-day "J'accuse" is the late general's allegation that all his plans regarding Korea were relayed from Washington, through the British, straight to the Red Chinese.

"The Chinese Communists decided to come into the Korean war," Lucas recorded, "after being assured by the British that MacArthur would be hamstringed and could not effectively oppose them."

All the rest pales into insignificance beside this, and the ghosts of 50,000 dead American soldiers in Korea demand an answer.

The standard explanation that MacArthur was relieved of command in Korea because his insistence on winning the war with the Chinese would have set off World War III rings phony in the face of MacArthur's statement that the Chinese would not have entered Korea at all but for this "Great Betrayal."

Unfortunately, there is an overshadowing aura of extremity in the MacArthur revelation. It is replete with words like "Anglo-Saxonophile," "welfarist press," "conspiracies," "perfidy," phrases like "those fools in Washington."

The MacArthur document is all black and white. He was right and nearly everyone else was wrong. That may well have been the case of course.

But why did he not speak out at the time? Why did the others he named who agreed with him, Gen. Mark Clark for instance, hold their tongues as well?

Is our democracy so delicately constituted that it would have collapsed under the stress of controversy? Or did more important considerations — the preservation of Western unity and harmony, perhaps — cause the general to keep his silence unto death?

MacArthur did not say, and we will never know.

"Of the dead speak nothing but good." But a dead general has reached back from the grave to accuse the living, who now cannot call him to account for his words.

Thought For Today

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It used to be that if a performer were chased off the stage, it meant his act was a flop.

Some were forced to take cover to avoid being pelted with over-ripe vegetables. Others were yanked into the wings by the stage manager who kept a grappling hook handy for that purpose.

Like everything else, this situation apparently has changed. As I understand it, being chased from the stage nowadays is the sign of a smash hit.

This new manifestation of show business success was explained to me by a young Englishman named Dave Clark, who is currently touring in this country as the leader of a group called the Dave Clark Five.

If you have neither seen nor heard the Dave Clark Five, it would be useless for me to try to describe them.

Suffice it to say that if they are not following in the foot steps of the Beatles, then the Beatles are following in the footsteps of the Dave Clark Five.

I had a brief chat with Clark before the five's concert here and, being unable to think of anything else to ask him, inquired as to how the tour had been going.

"Marvelous," Clark said. "Just marvelous. We haven't finished a show yet."

"How's that again?"

"I said we haven't finished a show yet. We've had to stop it every night."

"Nothing was wrong?"

Clark said. "The audience liked us so much we had to stop the show."

I was aware the English boys with trick haircuts tend to send young American girls into frenzied screaming fits, so I assumed he was referring to that.

"You mean they made so much noise you couldn't continue?" I said.

"Oh, no," Clark replied. "I'm not talking about the noise. They rushed the stage."

"Rushed the stage? You're pulling my leg?"

"Not a bit. They got out of their seats and rushed down the aisles. They were trying to get at us."

"What do you do when they rush the stage?" I asked.

"We run," Clark said. "It's the easiest way out."

Since Clark seemed to regard being chased off the stage as the ultimate compliment, I didn't deem it polite to suggest that there may have been a few outraged music lovers in the posse.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Johnson is getting pretty deep into the thicket of problems that go with filling important federal judgeships. No Chief Executive escapes this involvement for long.

His really thankless assignment is choosing a replacement for Judge Ben Cameron, of Mississippi, Cameron, who died several weeks ago, was one of the nine judges serving on the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit covering Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida and the Canal Zone.

Cameron's one-man rulings frequently slowed or blocked court desegregation orders issued by other judges in school cases. He was a key figure in delays which preceded entry of Negro James Meredith into the University of Mississippi in late 1962.

Though recommendations have been quietly filtering in from senators representing some of the affected states, as well as from outside sources, no action on the Fifth Circuit vacancy has been taken or seems likely in the early future.

The choice will not be easy. Civil rights groups are saying plainly they do not want another Cameron. Militant segregationists will resist a moderate choice. If talent scouts should consult both camps in the search for some sort of compromise, the result could be merely to fan their mutual suspicions and make any selection unpalatable to both.

The problem over the Cameron appeals court vacancy is further aggravated by a current move to split the Fifth Circuit into two smaller circuits. The present circuit is the second largest geographically, and has the largest work load of any appellate region in the United States.

The Judicial Conference of the United States, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, recommended a split many months ago. This official body of top judges suggested the Fifth be divided so as to include Texas, Louisiana and the Canal Zone in one circuit, with Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and Florida in the other.

A draft bill embodying these proposals is due for Senate committee study. But, once again, civil rights and segregationists force a each suspicious they will somehow suffer if this or perhaps any division is decided upon.

One Justice department lawyer comments that, even without the controversy over a possible division, choosing a new judge in a difficult area like the Fifth Circuit can be tougher for the President than naming a new Supreme Court justice.

Not all Johnson's dealings with the judiciary are this troublesome. Thus far in 1964 he has nominated, and had confirmed by the Senate, seven federal judges. He has named another seven on which action is pending.

There are ten spots to be filled on the federal bench at the district court level, and five in various appeals courts from coast to coast.

Four of the vacancies are the oldest on the list, dating from the creation of 73 new federal judgeships in late May of 1961. These posts, in other words, never have been filled. In two of these cases, work loads are not great enough in the area to create heavy pressure for presidential action.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Peggy has an odd sexual complex, so study her case very carefully. Most wives crave a certain amount of physical dominance in order to obtain their maximum erotic thrills. For women are basically somewhat masochistic. Nagging wives are thus trying to prod henpecked Henrys into more forceful wooing!

CASE S-483; Peggy P., aged 29, is a problem wife.

"Dr. Crane," her worried husband began, "I don't understand my wife at all."

"She seems frigid and disinterested in marital relations unless I inflict some mild cruelty upon her."

"During our honeymoon, for example, she coaxed me to use a hairbrush on her."

"Thinking it was some freakish whim, I did so, and then she melted in my arms."

"But without my padding her with a hairbrush, she is disinterested and uncooperative."

"Yet I feel like a monster to paddle my wife like that. What's wrong with Peggy?"

Peggy's Complex

In a later lengthy interview, I found out Peggy's secret. During her childhood, she had been addicted to auto erotic practices.

Her mother didn't know what to do, so Peggy's father was called in to use a hairbrush on her.

And this paddling thus became entwined with her erotic excitement.

Even after marriage Peggy thus craved punishment as a prelude to marital affairs, for she is a good example of a masochist.

And because she was "conditioned" in childhood to paddling in connection with erotic thrill, she coaxed her bridegroom to use a hairbrush on her rear pass.

In such a situation, I simply urged Peggy's husband to go along with her whim and be grateful.

Millions of husbands would be glad to find such a simple means of changing a diffident or frigid wife into such a cooperative mate!

Many modern wives also obtain a greater erotic thrill from a mild amount of fierce wooing. That's why they talk about "cave man wooing."

A henpecked Henry type of husband thus fails to produce the psychological excitement engendered by a more masculine mate.

In Shakespeare's famous "Taming of the Shrew," you may recall that it wasn't till her suitor finally browbeat her into submission that the heroine subsided into delighted submission.

A nagging wife is thus a first cousin to the heroine of the famous play by Shakespeare.

For when a woman subconsciously senses that her mate is not as virile and sadistic as she'd prefer, such a woman will then nag him.

Vaguely, she thus hopes to incite him into more physical dominance. She isn't even averse to a violent laying on of hands, for she cannot contain her maximum erotic excitement from a meek, mousy male.

In almost all species, the mating male is thus a vigorous, forceful creature, not opposed to fighting if need be to win his female partner.

And a craving for vigorous physical dominance is typical of the normal female, for females are endowed with a somewhat masochistic nature.

In fact, we psychiatrists find that many wives who may actually receive a black eye occasionally, seldom think of a divorce, if they are erotically satisfied.

Yet the nagging wife seeks divorce on grounds of merely "mental cruelty."

So send for my booklet "Sex Differences Between Men and Women," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Free as a Bird

No worries, no responsibilities! A lot of us would gladly trade places with Wendy, just to share that wonderful "joy of living" that children feel so often, and adults experience so rarely.

"But what is there to be happy about?" you may be thinking. "Maybe Wendy has no worries, but I certainly have!"

Perhaps we forget that this world is in God's hands . . . and that, with God, nothing is impossible. We wear ourselves out seeking human solutions to our problems, when Divine help is always available if we will only ask.

Try it. Try bringing your worries and doubts to God this Sunday in your neighborhood Church. Hear God's promise of guidance and comfort for all who will give their lives to him in childlike trust. And let the Holy Spirit fill your troubled heart with lasting joy.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FOURTH ANNUAL

GRADUATION EDITION

Changes Reported In School's Role

ANDREW BRACKEN
... Principal

Graduates of Seminole High School can look back to a number of events which have occurred during the past year—some of them new, some of them a continuation of previous years and some of which have been merely routine in getting an education.

Principal Andrew J. Bracken paused at his desk the other day and recalled some of the highlights of the past year.

The school had its evaluation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools last fall.

The school has expanded its technology course and emphasized a fast-growing course in drafting. This was started during the previous school year but, since it is a two-year course, the seniors this year will be the first to receive full benefit from it.

Nevertheless, Bracken says, many of the one-year students have acquired positions with area firms after having completed the initial period of the course.

Other, more fortunate students who have completed two years of drafting study have a far more formidable chance to acquire quick employment.

The Student Body issued a "handbook" during the start of the school year. In it were listed names and addresses of all students; the officers and activities of the various school organizations and generally an orientation of the school and its facilities.

The Student Council operated a bookstore with marked success, Bracken recalls.

Members of the Key Club had a walkway built to the library and many other improvements were made by a variety of groups in the school.

Bracken, looking to the future, says the school will function on a different daily schedule next year. There will be five classes daily of 70 minutes duration each.

This season the school had six classes daily of 55 minutes duration each.

The change, it was pointed out, will give far more concentration on individual courses and allow the instructors and students to have additional time together in following the education pattern of each student.

Their Bright Future...

School Graduate Total Tops That Of Last Year

Seminole High School's graduation weekend will see 257 students don the graduation garb and receive their diplomas.

This compares with 213 for the previous ceremony last year.

The actual graduation rites will be held Monday night at 8 in the school's gymnasium. The valedictorian and salutatorian — still to be announced at this writing — will be the principal speakers.

The weekend of activities got under way this afternoon with special Class Day events. Actual classes were to halt at noon.

A series of Class Day events are planned to keep students busy for the balance of the day.

Saturday they prepare for the two major functions—the baccalaureate service and graduation.

Baccalaureate services will be held at the gymnasium Sunday night at 8. The principal speaker will be the Rev. Herbert W. Goerss, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

After the solemn ceremony the students will be guests of several local groups for the annual FAG Night program which will include a variety of events ranging from a movie to special activities at Sanlando Springs.

A host of local residents have volunteered to accompany the students in the night long round of activities.

Triple Award Given Top Oviedo Student

The SAC Award, given annually at Oviedo High School to the graduating senior who has maintained greatest achievement in scholastics, athletics and club activities, will be presented this year to Barbara Saucer, salutatorian of the class and one of its top five graduates.

The presentation will be made during Commencement Exercises Monday night. Others to receive special recognition and take part in the program will be Virginia Stanko, valedictorian, and Alice Fox, Sheila Partin and Lydia Tuhy.

Special recognition will be given Joe Warden and Ellison Fuller for outstanding work in a rigid academic program and Diane Gaydick will receive the DAR Good Citizenship Award.

Sponsor for the outstanding 28-member graduating class this year has been Mrs. Rebecca Webb, math teacher and sponsor also for the Student Council and Beta Club. In appreciation for her great interest and assistance, the 1964 Oviedian, school year book, was dedicated to her in special ceremonies held recently at assembly.

Baccalaureate services will take place Sunday evening with Rev. Jack T. Bryant, minister of the First Baptist Church of Oviedo, delivering the address.

The Invocation will be given by Joe Warden and the Scripture by Ellison Fuller. Both students have received recognition for outstanding school work in a rigid academic program.

Benediction will be given by Rev. Bryant.

School Applauds Record Session

The 1963-64 term at Oviedo High School has been one of the most outstanding in the school's history with records set in academics, athletics and club activities.

Clyde Holder, principal, points with great pride to improvements in the academic field, listing additions of courses in higher math, speed reading, driver education, shorthand and industrial arts, some of which are in the second year. During the year, also, a completely refurbished, air conditioned library has been completed and opened to students.

Oviedo seniors topped the county in 12th grade test levels with three of the 28-member class breaking previous records for highest scores in the school.

This year's fast growing athletic department achieved top honors in basketball with a 16-5 record against some of Central Florida's best teams and in baseball, the Class B Championship was lost only by a score of 1-0 while the team's overall record was 16-3 for the season.

Other athletic activities included football, track and bowling for both junior and senior groups. The school is extremely proud of the fact that more than half of its athletes are "B" average or better students. Five boys on the basketball team are members of the Beta Club.

Outlook for sports at Oviedo next year are even better since graduation will take only one member of the football squad and two each from basketball and baseball.

The Band, now in its second year, has performed admirably during the season and next year, in addition to being fielded for athletic events, will be entered in regional competitions.

School organizations and clubs have included Senior and Junior Student Councils, Beta Club, Annual Staff, Tri Hi Science Club, Los Picaros Club, Senior and Junior Library Councils, Drama Club, Future Homemakers, Chorus and Band and staff for the school's newspaper, "The Lion's Tale."

Their Bright Future...

Lyman Shows Fast Growth In Well Equipped Plant

Carlton Henley, new principal of Lyman High School, has taken charge of a fast growing and rapidly expanding school plant.

"Lyman High which is graduating 165 seniors this year, is fast building up one of the best-equipped and staffed vocational-educational high schools in Central Florida," said Henley.

"In addition to maintaining high academic standards and producing students who rank well in National Merit Scholarship tests, our students are winning their share of college scholarships, grants and loans," he added.

Next year, the vocational education department of Lyman High will be expanded to include courses in Cooperative Business Education, which will include office training, clerical, secretarial and stenographic procedures under the guidance of a new teaching unit.

This is in addition to the present classes in air-conditioning and refrigeration, electronics, small motors, drawing and woodworking and the Distributive Education classes.

Two new science suites were added, two new shops opened and the home economics suite was remodeled and enlarged this year. The band and choral suites were also completed.

Because of entering the Orange Belt Conference, Lyman's athletic teams did not fare as well as in past years, but they participated in organized track for the first time and sent three boys to the state track meet. In basketball the Greyhounds won third place in the OBC standings. Speaker for the recent Sports Banquet was Bill Wade all pro quarterback of the Chicago Bears.

One of Lyman's students is a member of the advanced studies program at Rollins College. Roger Schmidt, a National Merit finalist also attended the advanced studies summer program at Stetson University.

Student body president for the 1963-64 school year has been Pete Carlson. He also served as president of the student council and vice president of the Senior Class.

Senior Class president was Phil Sechrest.

Graduation Exercise Offers New Format

Lyman High School graduation exercises this year will follow a somewhat different format than has been used in the past, honoring, during baccalaureate and commencement services, the 10 top students of the school.

The five leading students, all girls, will jointly give the commencement address, using as their central theme, the memorable words from the late President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address:

"Ask not what your country can do for you, but rather, what can you do for your country."

Led by Miss Paula Riddle, the five girls will each explore a facet of what today's graduating seniors can do for their country. Expounding on the theme will be Miss Margot Mitchell, Miss Loianne Wagner, Miss Sylvia Chambers and Miss Marcia Lyons.

Five other top students have been asked to serve in the following official duties:

Miss Gloria Greene will give the commencement invocation and Miss Donna McCoy will give the benediction at that service, which will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the cafetorium of the school.

At the Baccalaureate exercises on Sunday at 8 p.m. in the cafetorium, Miss Susan BonEss will give the invocation, Joe Pavelchek will read the scripture and Miss Mary Mack will close with the benediction.

The Rev. Leonard Jones will give the baccalaureate address.

2 Bodies Found In Jet Trainer

CHARLESTON, S. C. (UPI) — A Navy training plane missing on a flight from Florida to Rhode Island with three men aboard was found today wrecked on a South Carolina beach. Two bodies were found in the wreckage.

Money Stolen From School

Theft of money from the Hopper Elementary School was reported to police this morning by school officials. A soft drink machine was broken open and $9 taken, city police said.

20th Anniversary Activities

The 20th anniversary activities of the D-Day landings brought back many memories to a lot of Sanford men, too, who were there that day or who went over in later echelons. What an operation that was! You had to see it to believe it. By the time of the capture of Saint Lo, the Allies had Omaha and Utah covered with mountains of military supplies. We recall our first conversation with a German POW. He remarked, "If the Fuehrer could only see this the war would be over tomorrow." He didn't and the war went on.

Fleet Reserve Association

The Fleet Reserve Association meets at 8 tonight at the Hut on Seminole Boulevard to elect officers for the forthcoming year. All hands have been urged to attend.

AT1 Mike Thomas

AT1 Mike Thomas, 304 Holly Avenue in Sanford, has 30 more days in the Navy. On July 9 he'll retire after 20 years of active duty.

North Orlando teenagers

North Orlando teenagers, 13 years and older, who are not participating in graduation exercises, are asked to attend an 8 p. m. meeting today in the Civic Building to discuss plans for the summer recreation program for this age group. Parents also are asked to attend as are any other adult residents who are interested in assisting with this program.

SABIN ORAL SUNDAY was observed in the county yesterday as Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and the County Health Department cooperated in the project. Checking details after the 12 feeding stations were closed are, from left, Mike Richardson, Clyde Long, Jaycee President Jim Smith and Jim Rowe. More than 10,000 persons took part in the program and received their vaccine against polio. (Herald Photo)

571 Seniors To Get Diplomas Tonight

Following Sunday's baccalaureate services for a record 571 graduates of Seminole County's four public high schools, plans were made today for the presentation of diplomas at four commencement exercises tonight.

Johnson Hits 'Phantom Fears'

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (UPI) — President Johnson spoke out today against "phantom fears . . . that the federal government has become a major menace to individual liberty."

Principal Carlton Henley

Principal Carlton Henley will award diplomas in Lyman High School's auditorium to 163 graduates.

At Crooms Academy

Principal H. L. Douglas will award diplomas to 121 members of the graduating class. All four exercises will begin at 8 p. m. None of the graduating classes will hear a commencement speaker.

It was explained today

that one of the reasons for not having commencement speakers is that graduating classes have become so large there is not enough time to devote to a speaker.

'Sick Or Drunk'

A house owned by Clarence Winn at 2606 Grandview Ave. was ransacked over the weekend with the vandals spilling sugar and cleaning powder over the floors. All of the rooms were ransacked by the person said by city police to either be "sick or drunk."

Smoke Tax

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida's cigarette tax collections totalled $1,899,966 in April, according to the beverage department.

DeGanahl Takes Command Of RVAH-9

Sanford's Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 9, destined to become the first unit to operate the new RASC Vigilante with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean, conducted a colorful change of command Friday at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

At 10 a. m. Cdr. James L. Shipman turned over his command to Cdr. James A. DeGanahl, who has served as the squadron's executive officer for the past year. Cdr. Shipman will report to the Army War College at Carlisle, Pa., to prepare for higher command.

The full dress ceremony featured an inspection of VAH-9's 280 officers and men and an address by Captain James O. Mayor, commander of Heavy Attack Wing One.

Captain Mayo cited the squadron's record of excellence in all of its missions and praised Cdr. Shipman's leadership which led to RVAH-9's winning the 1963 Douglas Bomber Trophy and the Wing Commander's Trophies.

Cdr. DeGanahl's extensive background with Sanford's Heavy Attack Squadrons well qualifies him for the demanding tasks ahead as he leads Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 9 in its assignment to deploy as the first unit in the Sixth Fleet equipped with the RASC Vigilante.

Cdr. DeGanahl was graduated from the U. S. Navy Academy with the class of 1947 and following a tour of duty in destroyers was designated a naval aviator in 1950. Cdr. DeGanahl is a stranger to Sanford. He began his tour in Heavy Attack Wing One at the Army War College at Carlisle, Pa. (Herald Photo)

Stations May Be Cut To 5 Next Sunday

An estimated 10,000 persons received their second and final doses of Sabin vaccine Sunday at 12 "feeding stations" throughout the county.

Known as Sabin Oral Sunday, the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees spearheaded the drive in cooperation with the County Health Department.

The 12 stations were manned from noon to 5 p. m. and this time the one at the A & P Grocery Store drew the largest number of persons, Jaycee officials said.

Last April when the first of the two-part project was held, the station drawing the greatest number was Florida State Bank. The total taking the vaccine Sunday compares favorably with the total on the first Sunday, Jaycee leaders report.

Jaycee President Jim Smith said his group is considering reducing the number of stations for the makeup Sunday to about five. He said the five may be able to handle the persons based on experiences gained during the first makeup Sunday.

Everyone except those who received the vaccine yesterday may take part in the makeup Sunday next week, officials say. They are urging all persons to take the vaccine even if they missed the April feeding.

After a suitable waiting period the persons taking the vaccine for the first time next Sunday then can get the second dose from private physicians, it was reported.

Jaycees are seeking a donation of 50 cents for the dosage but emphasize this is not compulsory. The 50 cents will help defray the cost of the vaccine, they explained.

Amateur radio operators were on hand for Sunday's project and kept the communication setup working in fine style, Jaycees say.

Picket Lines Up Again At Cape

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Picket lines were thrown up at every entrance to the nation's space port today, threatening the third work stoppage this year on building for America's probe to the moon and the program to orbit a manned space laboratory.

At least some of the 1,000 construction workers building a giant, $110 million vertical assembly building for the moon launch and a $40 million complex for the Titan-3 program honored the picket lines, but the exact number was not immediately determined.

The pickets were members of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees renewing a protest by unions over the use of a government-owned spur onto the Merritt Island space complex by the strikebound Florida East Coast Railway.

Bids On SR-427 Asked June 25

Bids will be opened by the State Road Department on June 25 for work on a number of highway projects in the state, including work on Interstate Routes 95 and 4.

In Seminole County bids will be sought for work on State Road SR-427 between Highway 436 in Altamonte Springs and Molnar Avenue in Longwood.

The bid opening will be conducted in Tallahassee.

Lady Attlee Dies

AMERSHAM, England (UPI) — Lady Attlee, the wife of Britain's post-World War II prime minister, died in a hospital here Sunday.

Williams Denies New Trial For Lowdermilk

Circuit Judge Volie A. Williams has denied a new trial to C. R. Lowdermilk of Altamonte Springs who was convicted last December on five counts in an alleged citrus swindle at the Hi-Aeres concentration plant.

The case involved a Florida Department of Agriculture employee, Alta Tyndall Hall of Orlando, who turned state's evidence and testified against the defendant.

Lowdermilk's two attorneys, Ed Kirkland and Martin Segal, both of Orlando, filed an extensive 17-count brief specifying grounds in support of the motion for a new trial. All were denied by Judge Williams.

In conclusions presented with the decision against granting a new trial, Judge Williams listed 12 different objections.

During the trial Hall confessed that he and Lowdermilk had an arrangement in which Hall juggled pounds of solids reports on Lowdermilk fruit going into the Hi-Aeres plant to reflect a higher amount of solids price than the fruit was worth.

Neither Hall nor Lowdermilk have appeared for sentencing. Following his guilty plea, Hall has been free until pre-sentence investigation and Lowdermilk pending the outcome of the new trial motion.

Bible Proposal Seen As Threat To Guarantees

WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than 200 constitutional lawyers charged today that proposals to overrule the Supreme Court decisions against Bible-reading and prayers in public schools could set a precedent endangering all the liberties guaranteed in the Constitution.

The lawyers, including dozens of 55 law schools, filed a statement with the House Judiciary Committee urging Congress to reject any proposals for a constitutional amendment to reverse the court's rulings.

"A grave responsibility rests upon Congress in taking this first experiment on our liberties," the statement said. "Whatever disagreements some may have with the Bible prayer decisions, we believe strongly that they do not justify this experiment."

The committee has ended public hearings on a variety of proposals to permit prayer in the schools. It has not yet given any indication on when it might take further action on the proposals.

Accord Averts Actors Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — An actor's strike which threatened a prolonged Broadway blackout was tentatively settled today.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner succeeded in getting an agreement in pre-dawn talks with both sides at his home.

Cities Bombed

BOGOTA, Colombia (UPI) — A rash of terrorist bomb explosions in four Colombian cities last night left one dead and four injured, police said today. Four persons were arrested.

21 Midshipmen Given Diplomas At Academy

Twenty-one midshipmen of the Sanford Naval Academy received diplomas Friday afternoon in impressive ceremonies which were highlighted by a talk by Capt. James O. Mayo, commanding officer of Heavy Attack Wing One.

Midshipman Lt. (jg) Jerry Boyle of Cape Canaveral delivered the valedictory address as the commencement marked the end of the first year of operation of the academy.

Col. H. J. Furman, academy superintendent, presented graduation certificates to the 21 members of the eighth grade and listed the year-end athletic and academic honors.

Midshipmen honored for academic standings included Judson Hobby of Sanford, sixth grade; Walter Porzig of Staten Island, N. Y., seventh grade; Jerry Boyle and Lloyd Law, Sanford, eighth grade; Chris Wilson, Sanford, ninth grade.

Athletic awards went to DeCature Company for basketball and baseball, Truxton Company for boating and Perry Company for soccer.

Individual athletic awards were made to Wilson for winning the tennis singles competition, Michael D. Anderson of Sea Island, Ga., and M. A. Joiner for tennis doubles and Jeff Sargent for swimming.

Each member of the brigade was officially designated a "plank owner" of the institution, likening them in Navy tradition to original members of the ship's crew. A bronze plaque signifying this was donated to the academy by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richter of Sanford and was unveiled at that time.

In memorial tribute to the late Rear Admiral Paul Johnson, a staunch supporter of the academy, the midshipman who displayed through the year those officer-like qualities of Admiral Johnson was awarded a trophy bearing that title. The midshipman receiving it was Lt. Jerry Sargent of Chuluota.

In a morning program preceding the commencement, Capt. Robert M. Ware, commanding officer of Sanford Naval Air Station, inspected the brigade.

Jaycees To Hold Installation

An installation banquet is set for Saturday at 8 p. m. at the Civic Center for officers of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees.

The new officers will be installed by Frank Foster, new state Jaycee president from West Palm Beach. A social hour will follow the ceremonies in the Fleet Reserve Building. Reservations should be made by Wednesday at 5 p. m. by calling the Jaycee Building.
