Cemetery Is Proposed For Aborted Children

By BEVERLY PETERSON
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — Robert Pearson, who led the fight against Hawaii's new liberal abortion law, says he is setting up a national cemetery for aborted children.
"It will be similar to the cemetery for unknown soldiers, only it will be for unknown souls," Pearson said Wednesday.
"I think it is about time we regard them the same as any other human being who dies. They shouldn't end up in incinerators or disposals."
Pearson, a Maui contractor, said he is working with an attorney and others to set up the cemetery but hasn't decided yet whether it will be in Hawaii.
"There have been 387 abortions performed in Honolulu hospitals since Hawaii's new abortion law passed March 10. It requires only that a patient be a state resident for at least 90 days and that the abortion be performed by a licensed physician in an accredited hospital."
Pearson said he spent $7,000 fighting the bill's passage and another $3,000 since trying to convince pregnant women not to have the operation.
Pearson has offered to pay all expenses for pregnant women contemplating abortion to come to Maui and "think things over." He said if they decide against an abortion, he would pay all medical bills for the baby's delivery.
Only seven women have taken him up on the offer, he said. "Many probably thought it was a hoax because no strings were attached," he said.

Likened Unto Senior Law Firm Partner Nixon Has Isolated Self From Cabinet Members

By FRANK CORNER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon runs the presidency as if he were senior partner of a large Manhattan law firm — which may help explain the recent cries that he is isolated. Complaints that Nixon is cut off, not only from public opinion but from the thinking of ranking members of his own administration as well, have mushroomed following disclosure last week of a letter to the President from Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel, who wrote:
"Finally, Mr. President, permit me to suggest that you consider meeting, on an individual and conversational basis, with members of your Cabinet. Perhaps through such conversations, we can gain greater insight into the problems confronting us all, and most important, into the solutions of these problems."
A close Nixon associate, who did not want to be quoted by name, cited the senior law partner analogy in an effort to explain why some Cabinet members apparently feel cut off from their chief.
It is very difficult, the source said, to convince clients that their cases will be handled effectively by juniors in a law firm — especially when the clients rarely see the senior partner, yet are called upon to pay senior partner fees.
Some Cabinet officers, he suggested, may find it difficult to adjust to a Nixon White House in which the decision-making process closely parallels that of a major law firm — with senior aides standing in the way of direct access to the President.
The isolation controversy has been fueled by public evidence that Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird had little advance knowledge of Nixon's plan to withdraw 130,000 U.S. troops from South Vietnam during the coming year.
Also, Secretary of State William P. Rogers, appearing before a House committee, voiced strenuous arguments against involvement of American troops in Cambodia just a week before Nixon ordered combat forces into that country.
Almost simultaneously, Nixon had to face Hickel's complaint that the administration "finds itself embracing a philosophy which appears to lack appropriate concern for the attitude of a great mass of Americans — our young people."

Hunt For Rapist On In 2 Counties

By TOM ALEXANDER
"We are following up all sorts of leads," Duane Harrell, chief deputy of the sheriff's department, replied when questioned on the rape of a 19-year-old Orlando pregnant housewife Wednesday near Sanford. Harrell told The Herald, "We have had a tremendous response from the area following publication of composite drawings in local newspapers of the alleged attacker. Now we are just trying to run down all the responses."
The woman, according to sheriff's reports, was driven from her Orlando home following inquiries by a man in his mid-30s about buying a car from the young expectant mother.
The alleged attack occurred just west of Sanford in a wooded area adjacent to Longwood-Markham Road. Following the attack, the rapist bound the woman to a tree and gagged her.
Robert Strick, a former sheriff's deputy, found the woman around 4 p.m. Wednesday, an estimated one hour after the attack, tied to the tree.
Harrell told The Herald Thursday, "It's just speculation that this is the man suspected in several other rapes recently in the Sanford-Orlando area. Some of the descriptions match up but there are some differences."
Seminole and Orange County authorities are continuing their investigation.

Group Testifies Before Solons Pollution Hurts Shad - Charge

By BILL SCOTT
TALLAHASSEE — Commercial fishing interests agree with representatives of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce that shad fishing in the St. Johns River is well below normal but they say pollution, not their seines, is responsible.
The slow demise of the fish that has made Sanford and Seminole County a center for sportsmen's interests down through the years was the object of concern yesterday at the conservation committee meeting of the Florida House of Representatives. Although a quorum was not present to the committee official action, both Putnam County interests and Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce representatives were allowed to give evidence before the partial group chaired by Rep. A. H. Craft, of St. Augustine.
Chamber fishing interests, aided by Rep. William L. Gibson and Rep. William H. Daehn, led the attack against the Palatka commercial fishing interests that most persons believe is responsible for the 75 per cent loss of shad since 1964-65. Krider said many complaints from fishermen about the lack of shad had been received.
He pleaded with the committee to save this vanishing species. Two House bills have been introduced designed to help. Gibson, in his HB-4840, wants to make and a game fish and limit the number to four days per week. An act is already on the books, restricting commercial activities to a five-day week but, according to LeRoy Rand, of the O. H. Morris Cray Company, a Palatka corner of shad run, the present act is not being enforced.

Immediate Appointment Urged Medical Examiner Need Listed

By MARION BETHA
Although the present county welfare physician, Dr. Orville Barks, has indicated that he is not interested in the position, several areas are being explored. In pursuing the medical examiner post, all parties are, and will be, consulted, and there is a possibility that the present sheriff's physician and the post will be consolidated but not necessarily with the present personnel.
Drummond has stated under several areas which may be pursued, one option as having four possibilities in scope; one would encompass gun shot wounds and aggravated assault, which can be substantiated; another accidental deaths and other deaths unattended by a physician. Currently a coroner, who is a justice of the peace, serves in this capacity. However, a medical examiner is a salaried position. The third area would encompass rape cases, for which, in Drummond's opinion, a gynecologist would be appropriate. The fourth would be a pathologist, germane to the issue, since a chain of prima facie evidence, which can be substantiated, is needed to prosecute such cases in court.
The first two areas in this option could be handled, according to Drummond, by the welfare physician.
The second option is a medical examiner, also a gynecologist, and would handle the first

Judge Hall Testifies At Milliot Trial

By CHARNER LEONE
County and Duval County Judge for Seminole County, Wallace Hall today testified that at a hearing in his office a week before the self-inflicted death of her son, 14-year-old Robert Wayne Hollenback, Mrs. Lee Prescott, Goldenrod, declined to accept the responsibility for her son.
She indicated, by her expression and a shake of the head, which the boy could not see that her son should not be allowed to go home, testified the judge. The boy had asked to be released from the custody of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office so that he could celebrate his 14th birthday the coming week at home.
On the eve of that birthday the youngster made good his earlier threat and hanged himself with a bedsheet on November 18, 1968.
Judge Hall also gave testimony that he and his past record with the juvenile court and read a list of charges over the two years preceding the death. These charges included breaking and entering, larceny, consumption of alcoholic beverages, running away, destruction of private and public property, and other offenses.
The five-man one woman jury is hearing the case before Judge Tom Waddell. Mrs. Prescott is suing for damages from Peter Milliot, sheriff for Seminole County at the time, and the Shelby Mutual Insurance Company, which funded Milliot. Deputy Sheriff J. Q. (Slim) Galloway, who was chief deputy

Kirk Agrees On Roads

TALLAHASSEE — Governor Claude Kirk told ten representatives of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce at a Thursday 2 p.m. meeting held in the governor's capitol chambers, that he had a good time recently at Sanford's Marina and wanted to come back.
Kirk said he liked the Marina and felt it was an asset to the city and would become even more important when Disney World opens. He told the group, headed by John Krider, Chamber manager, that the horse recently given to him by Seminole Republicans was a very good horse, but he needed another one.
Discussing the county road situation, one of the situations that brought the Chamber group to the state capital, Kirk suggested Ed Mueller, new Department of Transportation head, could be of immense help. He asked Orange-Seminole Representative E. Puffer Bassett to arrange the interview about meeting Mueller and Bassett said the DOT official had already visited Sanford to see first hand the county's road needs.
The Governor seemed to be more concerned with students' protests Thursday and confided he was visiting Stetson University at DeLand today, and would go on to Miami University from there.
Kirk said he had not abandoned Manatee as the newspaper reported in its headlines.
He said it was alright for students to protest if it was done without violence and within the system. The governor said he was operating within the system in Manatee County. "When I become director, all editorial will be signed," Kirk said, but he admitted that the editorial page was that part of a newspaper confined to opinions.

Trends Alarming

By RICHARD L. MARSHALL
Staff Christian Church

We cannot help but be alarmed at many of the obvious trends of our day. The increasing unrest, the rampant lawlessness, the disrespect for proper authority; these things concern us deeply.

It is worthy of note that there is a corresponding decrease in devotion given to the Bible, and to the church. Not only has the percentage of people who attend church declined sharply in recent years, but last year there was a drop of several million in the number of Bibles sold, as compared with the previous year. This disregard for, and attention to, spiritual things is a source which has made the following remarks so applicable:

"Max Jones lived in the state of New York. He did not believe in Christian training. He married a girl of like character. From this union there were 1,026 descendants. Three-fourths of them were profligate. Out of this family have come three hundred prostitutes, sixty-five college professors, thirteen university presidents, sixty authors of good books, three U. S. Congressmen, one vice President of the United States, and except for Aaron Burr, a grandson of the president. This disregard for, and attention to, spiritual things is a source which has made the following remarks so applicable: 'If my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.'"

Impressions Gathered At Asbury

By MELENDA CASSELLIERKY

The "long-lain" dressed in sandals entered the room of anxiously awaiting students and adults as 12 midnight in Asbury Seminary cafeteria. No this was not a "hippie" who had come to harass the religious people. This was Arthur Bessitt, the speaker, a fully ordained minister in his 20's, who is in the process of carrying a 40-page cross from California to Washington, D.C.

Before you cross Christians get to Washington, D.C. As they went through the little town of Birds Eye, a gang of tough motorcycle riders at a gas station shouted obscenities and threatened the group with fire and gas, steering, "You're gonna burn man." Bessitt walked right up to them and said, "Have a sticker," as he amicably handed him one of the bright orange little round stickers with the peace sign and inscription of "Turn on to Jesus."

While passing through Oklahoma, he led every person in the coffee house and he held them and fasted for 26 days seeking God's guidance. He laid up for blocks waiting to see and talk to him and as a result many came to know Christ.

Man Overestimates His Own Importance

By LOUIS CASSELL
UPI Religion Writer

Nature has felt free to ravage man because he has arrogantly overestimated his own importance in relation to the sub-human world.

That is the view of a leading American theologian, Dr. John B. Cobb Jr. of the Claremont (Calif.) School of Theology.

Cobb believes the present ecological crisis is the practical result of a profound philosophical error that has infected Western thought since the time of Descartes.

In rightly proclaiming the absolute value of every human individual, he says, Western thought has wrongly tended to look upon the rest of nature as having no intrinsic value. Plants, animals, stones and streams have been regarded as valuable only insofar as they are useful to human beings.

"From the first chapter of Genesis onwards, the Bible declares again and again that God loves and values all of His creation, not merely the human portion of it. Even before the first man appeared on the scene, Genesis affirms, God looked upon the earth 'and saw that it was good.'"

Other parts of the Bible assert that nature has intrinsic worth and dignity because it shares with man the status of

Schools Performed Important Service

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The board of one of the nation's most troubled campuses says colleges and universities have performed "an important service" to the country by absorbing the initial brunt of social unrest and discontent.

Roger W. Heys, chancellor of the University of California at Berkeley, told the American Society of Newspaper Editors Thursday that "had the unrest and discontent initially been targeted at other institutions, the impact on society might have been much worse."

Despite the uproar and violence on the nation's campuses, he said, "universities have strengthened our students' faith in our basic freedoms and democratic ideals."

"Hostility on the part of the public complicated our task not a little," he added.

What has been learned by the establishment because of campus turmoil has helped the other institutions of society, he said.

In a question-and-answer session following his speech, he was asked his reaction to Gov. Ronald Reagan's statement that there is something conspiratorial behind campus turmoil. "I don't believe it," Heys said.

In a panel discussion, Sam Brown, a leader of the defunct Vietnam Moratorium, told the editors they had failed to establish communications with persons under 35.

W. W. Wierman, Jr., editor of the Columbia, S.C. State Record, responded, "We can't find anyone who speaks for black people."

Workman said newspapers, particularly in the South, have restrained many people from attacking demonstrators and "those who destroy universities." Without such restraint, Workman said, dissenters "would be stomped into the ground."

COCHIN, India (AP) - Scientists at the Central Marine Fish Research Institute here have bred a deep spiny lobster in the laboratory for the first time. Institute scientists found the lobsters in the deep waters of the Indian Ocean off the coast of southwest India. Paint Gloomy Picture Of Economic Slowdown

By JOHN M. PEARCE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - The latest government statistics paint a picture of gloom, a full-fledged economic slowdown not at the crisis stage but still troublesome.

Despite the uncontradicted negative figures indicating lower profits and higher prices, the Nixon administration remains publicly convinced its policies are working and business will start upward sometime between June and December.

"We're traveling a narrow path between recession and inflation," Arthur F. Burns, the Federal Reserve Board chairman, told Congress Thursday. "Although not an official member of the administration, Burns was President Nixon's chief economic adviser until January 1970 and now is as responsible as any other individual for the health of the money and credit system."

At the same time, actual production dropped 3 per cent, the largest since the 1960 recession, instead of the 1 1/2 per cent listed in preliminary figures.

Output of the nation's factories dropped almost one-half of one per cent during April to 17.4 per cent, the lowest in more than seven years.

The stock market dropped 9.85 points, bringing the bellwether Dow Jones industrial average to 614 1/2, the lowest in more than seven years.

Fong said the Senate postal package should clear the committee next week, adding the chambers' leadership is expected to give it priority for a Senate vote that could come before the week is over.

The House committee has already passed its version but Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., chairman of the House Rules Committee, said it will wait until week after next to meet on clearing it for floor action.

Congressmen Warn Against Mail Strike

By JIM ADAMS

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress, which appeared ready to halt action on a postal pay boost when New York mailmen threatened to strike Thursday night, is now on timetable that could bring final approval in three weeks.

Fong said the Senate postal package should clear the committee next week, adding the chambers' leadership is expected to give it priority for a Senate vote that could come before the week is over.

The House committee has already passed its version but Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., chairman of the House Rules Committee, said it will wait until week after next to meet on clearing it for floor action.

Three Aspects Of Education In Spotlight

Campus unrest, student demonstrations and the tragic death of the Nixon decision to send the war into Cambodia has focused a very bright and somewhat alarming light on the entire field of education.

There are three aspects of this development that invite separate but basically united consideration. These are: 1. Economic; 2. The entire field of learning; 3. The comparatively new but growingly important matter of effective political action.

When the second aspect is viewed, that of the process which now is expanding to impart learning and understanding from the primary to the secondary and higher institutions, a new evaluation is in order.

This had already started before the tumult of recent days had swept campus and had disorganized well-conceived educational reforms.

Help Wanted!

If you're always wanted to be a college president, and if you can qualify for the job, now's your chance. The chief item on the agenda at the annual meeting in San Francisco of the Asst. of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges was "the recruitment and retention of presidents."

Dopes And Dope

By whatever name narcotics go, including affectionate nicknames like "pot," they are a form of dope. In past years dope was a dirty word — a four-letter word as the saying goes — when applied to narcotics. A dope fiend was a pitiable object. Few people ever had occasion to know one.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Before the wedding I called on her unexpected. To my surprise, she refused to see me, and told me to come back in half an hour. I had time to put her make-up on.

We plan to get married soon. Abby, I love her with all my heart. Why won't she let me see her like she really is?

ROMA, ITALY

DEAR ROMA: Before the wedding, you must get "make-up" and kiss. After the honeymoon she kiss and make-up. Don't stop. You'll see how she really is soon.

DEAR ABBY: My husband had a birthday last week and the children and I spent the afternoon baking and decorating a birthday cake for him.

When he came home that evening he told as he had already had a birthday "party" at the office. The children looked so hurt, and I was mad!

It seems the "girls" in his office took it upon themselves to give him a birthday party with cake and ice cream and all the trimmings.

If they want their boss to know they "remembered" him on his birthday, why don't they just buy him a nice card and have everybody sign it?

I told my husband I was going to call his office and tell the "girls" how I felt about this, but he wouldn't let me. However, he didn't say I couldn't write to you because I didn't ask him.

Do you think I will be some way to stop this asinine practice?

HURT WIFE

DEAR HURT: Yes, I think you are making "too much" of it, and there is NO way to stop this practice. It wouldn't call be "asinine." Your husband's "crime" wasn't eating his cake and having it, too. It was his lack of judgment. Knowing that you're the kind of woman who might become upset over something like this, he should have kept his mouth shut and stayed out of the affair.

DEAR KANT SLEEP: It is not too late to profit by your mistake in not being more thoughtful to your mother while she still lived. She does not need you now, but there are women filled with old folks who would thrill to be paid a little regular attention. Drop in with a few flowers from your garden, or throw away

30 Allergies

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP)—Antony van Bensenburg, 7, may not have all the 30 known ones. Doctors say he must avoid eggs, milk grass, wheat, flowers, berries, most cereals, cat, rabbits, dogs and an assortment of high protein foods. He can have fruit and candy, however, but his parents are hopeful that he is growing out of at least a few of his allergies.

We The Women: By Betty Canary

Remember being eight years old and going to the Saturday movie? You always knew the ending, but you waited breathlessly through the second show thinking that maybe this time at the last moment, the rustler might get away. That's how I feel about one of the shampoos WAVE gives a easy laugh and says, charmingly, "What? No more time when any woman's favorite charity is herself!"

There are times when any woman's favorite charity is herself! (Dorothy Parker knew what she was talking about when she wrote a poem asking why men thought one perfect woman was the most romantic gift. How about, she wondered, one perfect Cadillac?)

But women are sensible and sentimental creatures. Any woman would be delighted if a man brought her a bracelet or a pair of earrings. For everyday wear, most would prefer a compelling one how well they manage the grocery budget.

DEAR POLLY - I hope someone will tell me a way to get rid of ants all over the house before I go completely crazy. I have a 15-month-old toddler so I must have a SAFE remedy for these pests. Please - MRS. B. H.

DEAR POLLY - When traveling with our small grandchildren, we often have to make stops at rather primitive "open" rest stations. After often waiting we had better prepare for the lack of what seem necessities. I prepared an emergency kit using my small overnight case as the container. In it I put toilet tissue, toilet seat covers, I cut from the toilet paper cups, packets of those premoistened towelettes, plastic bags, facial tissues, soap (I use small plastic bottles of water with good light tissue, combs, flashlight, toothbrushes and paste and other needed personal items. This case is put on the front seat and carried into any such place we go. I always refill when I have a chance and always add to it when I get home. If I find there was something that would have added to our comfort. We do a lot of camping and we have found my case to be a blessing many times. Mine has a mirror inside the lid. By lifting the lid I can see all the contents at a glance, without pawing through as would be required by a deeper container. - ELSIE

DEAR POLLY - Mrs. J. E. asked for help in removing a scratch on her car windshield made by the wipers. Barn an ordinary cigar and use the wipers for rubbing away the scratch. - HELEN

DEAR POLLY - Mrs. J. E. wrote about removing a scratch on her windshield made by the wipers. My dad is service adviser for an automobile dealer and he says the scratch could be removed if it is not too deep but must be done professionally.

DEAR HELEN and others - Both's answers are right to a point. The cigar ash is better for rubbing away the scratch. - HELEN

A professional can tell if deeper scratches can be removed or if the glass should be replaced. One company that installs car windshields says that if a scratch can be felt by your fingernail it will not be easily removed and one runs the chance of a distortion in the glass.

South was tempted to trump two-trump. He had no-trump distribution and maybe his good five-card suit would compensate for only holding 13 high-card points. If south had advanced no-trumps he surely would have done this but he also was hungry for money and he did have a hundred hours left in his career. Hence the episode opening and the four-episode after partner's no-trump response.

West opened the king of clubs. South yet on dummy's side was about to draw trumps, and was a trick to the queen of clubs and score game, rubber and the hundred hours when his career was nearly interrupted. East trumped that first club.

South stopped as he if the point-ace. There he collected his

Miss USA 1969: Is 'Big Business'

By TAD BARTIUS
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI BEACH (AP) — The reigning queen watched the 31st annual coronation ball in her stately apartment, and she and her entourage of friends and family members were seen in the limousine that took them to the ball. The 20-year-old Miss USA, who was crowned last year, was seen in the limousine that took her to the ball. She was seen in the limousine that took her to the ball. She was seen in the limousine that took her to the ball.

She says she's glad to be over. "I was not the best Miss USA, but I was the most honest," she said. "Before I won, beauty contests were a myth to me. I look at it today and see that it's all wrapped up in selling—sell me, sell a swimsuit—all the revenues around money. It's big business."

As the talker, the golden-tanned young woman gestured with four fingers on which four gold rings spelled LOVE. Come to the ball, she said, and you'll see a conscious giggle of a young girl. She talked rapidly, yet she spoke out words as if in a hurry to get them said and see that it was for the rest of my life. I am fortunate because I can choose my direction," she said. "Yes, I was the most honest."

Veto Of Riot Measure May Face Challenge

By JIM PURKS
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk's veto of a bill giving local officials more authority in case of riots and strikes may be challenged in the 1970 Florida Legislature. If so, it would be the first attempt this session against a gubernatorial veto. So far there have been only two vetoes. "I think it's worth a try," said Rep. Quillian Yancy, D-Lakeland, who plans to lead an effort to get up enough support to override the veto. Earlier, this week, the Governor vetoed a bill which gives local officials authority to declare a state of emergency, or follow specific emergency procedures in case of riots and strikes. The bill provides for the establishment of a curfew during ca-

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The issue of 18-year-old voting comes up today for what is expected to be the final test of the 1970 Legislature, with supporters determined to go it before citizens for them to decide. "There's some hope that we will be able to get the measure on the ballot for November," said Sen. Jerry Thomas, D-Jupiter, leader of the floor fight that loomed before the Florida Senate.

Key West Military Favors Nixon

By FRANK CORMIER
KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — It was 1968 all over again—but on a miniature scale. President Nixon, arriving in Florida Thursday night for a working holiday, was greeted by a campaign-type crowd, rather than the usual military and political dignitaries. The long-debated "REA bill," the bill, expected to consume considerable time in debate, would put rural electric cooperatives and municipal electric systems under the jurisdiction of the Florida Public Service Commission. Municipalities oppose the bill. The House was scheduled to go into session today to try and clear a calendar jammed with bills, many of them noncontroversial.

Constitution Gives Authority To War, To Which Agency?

Editor's note: In the debate over Vietnam, much will be said about who has the constitutional authority to wage war. The following article poses the question in historical perspective. If the certainty they would be provoking a constitutional crisis does not deter the House and Senate from acting, the possibility that they might be depriving American soldiers under fire of anything they need, probably will.

Israel Tells Aerial Fight

By United Press International
Israel pilots reporting shooting down three Egyptian warplanes over the Suez Canal today in their second dogfight in as many days. Tel Aviv said its air force escaped unscathed attacks. Cairo's version said its planes scored "direct hits" on Israeli positions along the canal and returned home safely. It carried no mention of losses or deaths. The aerial battle described by Israel came as both sides launched strikes against the other positions for the third successive day. Spokesmen for the Israeli command said two Egyptian MIGs were downed when they tried to cross their line. Later a MIG21 was reported shot down trying to chase Israeli raiders hitting the Egyptian front. The announcement from Tel Aviv said no Israeli planes were lost in chalking up their sixth, and seventh, and eighth "kills" of Arab MIGs in the past four days. Three Syrian MIGs were reported downed Tuesday and two Egyptian MIGs Thursday. Tel Aviv said its planes already had carried out one hour-long raid against Egypt's canal positions when their pilots caught the MIGs after they had made one pass. Israeli troops on the canal's east bank. The MIG21 was down on a boat launch. This brought to 48 the number of Egyptian jets Israel has claimed to have shot down since the 1967 Middle East War. Tel Aviv has reported the losses of 20 of its planes, one of them in the dogfights this week, the first in more than a month.

Drummond Urges Appointment Now

Drummond will recommend to the commission that the post be incorporated in the budget immediately, and be drawn from contingency funds. Drummond plans to meet with spokesmen for the local physicians and with Dr. William Keenan, president of the Seminole County Medical Society, for their recommendations. Drummond said that although the position of a medical examiner will contribute to a millage increase for next year, it is necessary for proper law enforcement. Drummond continued that although it would appear that physicians at the local hospital are indifferent to community needs for enforcement for felony cases, that this could not be further from the truth. Considering the fact that the community has provided the doctors with a hospital, it could be anticipated that they would wish to reciprocate. It is not fair, according to Drummond, to attribute to the doctors the monetary motivation of one pathologist, inasmuch as the doctors as a whole have demonstrated in the past that they are very much a part of the aims and aspirations for the welfare of Seminole County, and wish to be an integral part as such. Drummond went on record as stating that the medical examiner's post is an integral part of efficient law enforcement, and should be endorsed by the citizens and taxpayers "if we are to reduce the awesome amount of Seminole County felonies."

Red Supplies In Laos Bombarded By B52s

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52s struck today at North Vietnamese supply trails and depots in eastern Laos jammed with war materials that the allied forces have kept out of Cambodia, informed sources said. The sources said the supplies were backed up in Laos because allied operations on a dozen fronts inside Cambodia have deprived the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong of many base camps at the end of the Ho Chi Minh trail. "All those supplies are moving from North Vietnam and there's no where to put them," said one source. The sources said the raids extended from south of the Mu Gia pass in North Vietnam across more than 200 miles of the Laotian frontier. They were the heaviest in the Laos peninsula in two weeks. Scores of smaller Navy tactical fighter-bombers flying off three 7th Fleet carriers in the Gulf of Tonkin also raided supply routes and depots in Laos. The allied commands began pulling additional forces out of Cambodia and switching others around to explore previously untouched zones. The U.S. Command announced that elements of a brigade task force of the U.S. 23rd Infantry Division maneuvered from the western front of War Zone C northwest of Saigon 49 miles northwest toward the Cambodian town of Mimot on Highway 7. The 1,500 American troops joined another task force exploring an area about eight miles long and four miles wide. South Vietnamese headquarters announced that thousands of infantrymen had been withdrawn from another front in

Indians Are Desperate For Fan Support

By ROBERT WISCHMEYER
CLEVELAND (NEA) — Out in the middle of April someone that warmed a small section of the right field stands to Cleveland's mammoth Municipal Stadium, two old fans took in one of the season's first Indian games, a rousing loss to the Baltimore Orioles.

As a high drive from Boog Powell's hat dropped over the mound's fence and into the grass behind the permanent right field wall, we turned to the other.

"That wouldn't have been a home run last year."

Moving in the fence is an example of the somewhat desperate and often unromantic desperation the Indians have taken in recent years to prop up an interest and produce a winning team.

This year, the club figured out "Haystack" Harrelson, Tom Horner and Vada Pinson would give the team more home run power than it has had since Rocky Colavito slugged 42 homers in 1959 — the last year Cleveland exceeded a million attendance. So in came the fences.

You Caught Them... Now You Clean Them

One of the most troublesome parts of fishing is having to return what you catch to the water. But, if you enjoy eating fish, this is no solution.

There are three basic methods of cleaning and preparing fish for eating or storage, according to the Mercury outdoor fishing experts, and they vary according to the kind of fish caught.

A method favored for walleye, white bass and northern pike is to remove the head and internal organs, split the body along the backbone, and then fillet the fish by running a sharp, slender knife between flesh and skin. The remaining meat is ready to cook and nearly bone-free.

A second cleaning method is to remove only the outer scales, leaving the skin attached. This is commonly done with sun fish, bass, crappie and other game fish which have few bones — at least large ones — to be a problem. It's easier to clean these fish if the head is left attached and the body cavity is unbroken until the scales have been removed.

Catfish dictate a third method of cleaning. Here, the skin must be removed before preparing. Cut the skin completely around the fish behind the gills. Using pliers, pull the skin toward the tail, being careful not to tear flesh as it comes loose. After this is done, remove the head and viscera. Then cut catfish in "steaks" or rounds, making each cut between the large bones of the rib cage. These chunks of meat should be three-quarters of an inch thick.

The fishing gang at Mercury comments that cleaned fish be eaten immediately, or stored in a freezer. When freezing, place fish in a container and fill it with water. This prevents drying out, and retains the fresh flavor so necessary to good fish eating.

Panel Baffled

What did she do for a living, this slim, trim blonde from Winter Haven, Fla.?

Panelists on the "What's My Life" TV show were stumped.

As ABC cameras ground away in the Ed Sullivan Theater on Manhattan's 53rd Street, the panelists pondered... and pondered... and finally gave up.

So Lucy Chambliss showed them.

Panel moderator Wally Bruner pulled aside a curtain to reveal a bullet trap on stage.

Then he handed two pistols to the firearms instructor of the Winter Haven Police Department. Miss Chambliss in turn borrowed a wristwatch from TV comic Soupy Sales and hung it against a screen in front of the bullet trap.

She put a bullet through the screen at 9 o'clock, and another at 3 o'clock.

Announcing that she would "try" for a shot at 6 o'clock, she blew the watch apart — not Soupy's but one she had deftly substituted — while the studio audience roared its approval.

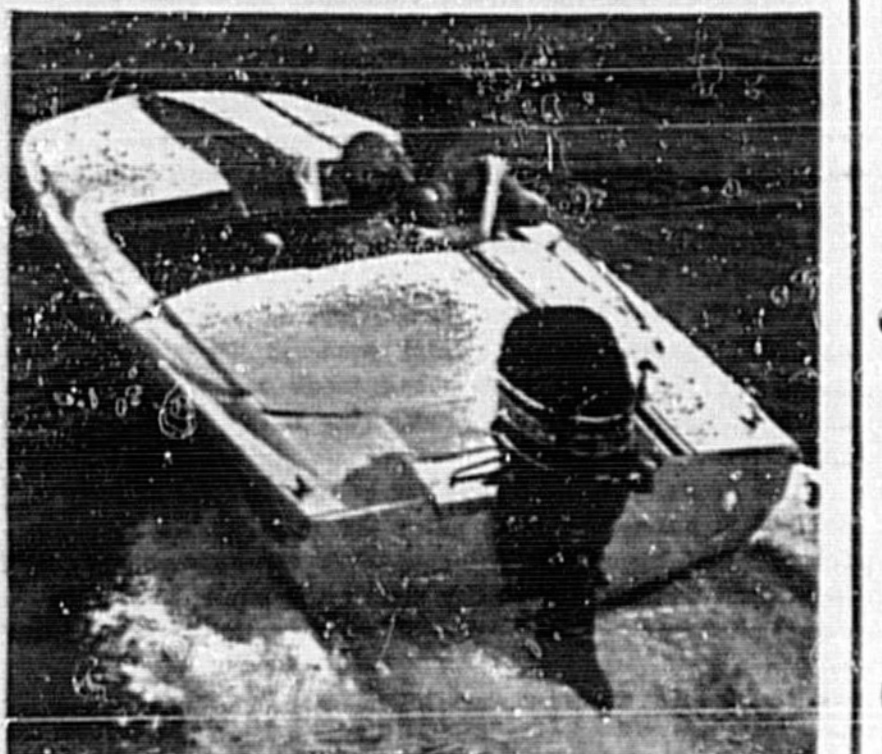

Miss Chambliss had to get a temporary permit, good for one week, to get her guns into New York.

For Dearborn, Judy Harriet was two for three, Pat Waters and Cathy Grossa two for five. Each had a double. Inna Copper was the losing pitcher.

Next Monday night's action will be Luma's Restaurant meet Motor Parts at 7:30 p.m., and BATTING — Willie Stargel, Pirates, walked two homers and drove in three runs in a 11-7 loss to St. Louis.

PITCHING — Tom Hall, Twins, hurled five innings of one-hit relief and struck out seven as Minnesota downed Kansas City 5-2.

Pompano Blanked

Right-hander Don Schneider is making a habit of winning Florida State League baseball games with ease.

The Fort Lauderdale hurler tossed a one-hitter at Pompano Beach Thursday night as the Yankees beat the Mets 6-0. He pitched his fourth straight victory without a defeat, and his second shutout.

Mc pitcher Mitch Olson pitched Schneider's no-hit bid Thursday night with a single in the top of the sixth.

"In other games Orlando went 13 innings before downing Winter Haven 4-2. Miami cut out Coca-Cola 3-0. Deland defeated Tampa 3-1. West Palm Beach dropped Daytona Beach 4-2, and Ft. Pierce rode to a 6-2 victory over Lakeland.

"The extra-inning affair in Winter Haven came to an end in the 13th when Orlando's Bob Garcia and Keith Sonnichsen connected for doubles to bring in a pair of runs.

"At Miami, centerfielder Bill Hay's three-run triple provided the punch as the Marlins made the best of only two hits off a pair of Astro pitchers.

"Deland bunched all of its runs in a big eighth inning to come from behind and edge by Tampa.

"At Daytona Beach, the Braves scored three runs in the eighth to give pitcher Allen Hoops the decision in his first start on the mound this season. Hoops threw a five-hitter at the Dodgers.

Criminal Trials Lagging For Prosecution Lack

By TOM ALEXANDER
According to Thomas Speer, assistant state attorney, "due to the shortage of manpower, because of our preparation for the Kirkland-Blackburn trial, the court excused veniremen" today in courtroom A until tomorrow. Speer was referring to the morals trials of Edward Kirkland, Orlando attorney, slated to start Wednesday in courtroom A, and Harlan Blackburn, slated to start next Monday in the same courtroom.

Fred Leone, assistant state attorney, was busy in Courtroom B in the selection of a jury in the breaking and entering case of Joe Jones (alias Joe John).

Speer explained the "shortage of manpower" statement by saying that there are only four attorneys in the state attorney's office for the 18th judicial district (Brevard and Seminole Counties).

Judge William Abrigge will preside over the Jones trial and Judge Tom Waddell over the Kirkland-Blackburn trials.

Other trials slated for courtroom B this week include: David Garcia, forgery; John Williams, breaking and entering a vehicle with intent to commit a crime; Eddie Hollis, attempted auto theft; Robert Parrish, possession of a central nervous system stimulant; Charles Tuten, breaking and entering with intent to commit a crime; Robert Smith, breaking and entering with intent to commit a misdemeanor; Anthony Wright, robbery; Melvin Hankins, possession of narcotics; Jerald Byrd, possession of narcotics; Kenneth Hayes, non-suspect; Charles Browne, robbery; Viola Pittman, aggravated assault; Ward Stewart, robbery; Margaret Smith, mayhem; James Hillard, four counts manslaughter; Zayne Clark, sale narcotics; Gary Caraway, possession of narcotics; Maria McCadden, possession of narcotics; Robert Burnett, possession of narcotics; Ronald Matlock, possession of narcotics; Julius Byrd, possession of narcotics; Georges Froulx, possession of narcotics and Steven Gilman, larceny of an automobile.

Two Unpaid Claims Cited As Cause City Loses Liability Insurance

By BILL SCOTT
City of Sanford is having its liability insurance cancelled, effective July 17, and already the effect is being felt.

At a special meeting this morning, called to discuss the request by county groups to open the city swimming pools, City Manager W. E. Knowles disclosed that Insurance Company of North America had decided to cancel liability due to two special cases.

Knowles said he assumed the cases referred to were two claims, one in a fatal accident in which a youth ran behind a refuse truck and was crushed, and the other the burning of a $11,000 bulldozer. They have never been paid by the insurance company.

Knowles said the city might have to sue the insurance company as a result of the claims.

This insurance discussion just about clamped a tight lid on the opening of city pools this year by the Seminole County American Red Cross and a retarded children's group.

Commission indicated after a 1200 discussion that it might be willing to ask the writer asking for a clarification.

Commission today indicated it might be willing to ask the pools ready and turn them over to a special group to operate, or lease outright the "costs" to a responsible group that wishes to fund insurance and hire personnel to serve as lifeguards.

Commissioner Thomas Mc-

Donald estimated he would be willing to fill up the pool with water at $2,000 to a group for leasing $25,000.

City 4500 have to hire lifeguards at $1.50 an hour and at least three or more would be needed at the five city pools operating in the amount of $20,000. The local American Red Cross has offered to fund the program partially and intended to use the facility a part of each day for its water safety program.

'Trip Successful'

By BILL SCOTT
Results of the two-day sojourn to Tallahassee by Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce members have been described by the participants as "good" since it helped open a line of communication between Sanford and its elected representatives.

John Kider, chamber executive manager, perhaps chose just the right words to sum up the situation when he declared the unanimous opinion of the chamber group was Mission Accomplished.

Taking part in the Thursday and Friday trip that resulted in a half-hour audience with Gov. Claude Kirk, an appearance before a conservation committee connected with Saving Our Shad (SOS) a talk with officials of the State Depart-

Adm. Smith Retires As Academy 'Super'

ADMIRAL SMITH
Rear Adm. Harry Smith, USN (Ret.), superintendent of the Sanford Naval Academy since 1966, will retire from that position as of Aug. 27.

Admiral Smith will be replaced by Lawrence O. Turner, presently dean of the Sidwell Friends School, Washington, D. C., one of the largest "private" schools in the country. Turner has been a member of the board of directors of the Bernard Macfadden Foundation since 1967. He has been active with academic and administrative study committees of the Foundation, which sponsors both the Sanford Naval Academy and Castle Heights Military Academy, Lebanon, Tenn.

Turner attended Station Military Academy and Culver Military Academy. He is an alumnus of the University of Virginia where he obtained bachelor and master degrees and served in the U. S. Army on completion of his college program. In addition to faculty and administrative experience at Sidwell Friends School, Turner has taught at Randolph-Macon Academy and at Sewanee Military Academy. He is center supervisor for education testing service (college boards) in Washington, D. C. and school representative for school community action research in communication skills. His extra curricular interest has been as track coach at several schools.

After a 29-year career of active service in the U. S. Navy, Admiral Smith retired from active duty in 1964. He was graduated from the U. S. Academy in 1938 and served in World War II and the Korean War. His post-war service included an assignment as the Navy's director of recruiting and with the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Admiral Smith also served with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

LAWRENCE TURNER

WILLIAM Parker, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Parker, 301 East 23rd Street, will report for duty as a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., on July 1, under appointment by U. S. Sen. Ed Gruney. A 1970 graduate of Seminole High School, Parker was secretary of the Key Club and president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was a member of the basketball and swimming squads. He also was accepted for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, Ohio University and the University of Florida.

'We Are On The Move In Seminole'

By MARION BETHEA
"We are on the move in Seminole County," according to Merle Warner, president of the Seminole County Board of Realtors. For the first quarter, ending March 31, 1969, total value of deeds recorded in the county was $18,179,672. Total for the same quarter this year is $19,152,890.

Total value of deeds recorded in the year ending Dec. 31, 1968, was $58,864,693. Total for the year ending Dec. 31, 1967, was $63,494,325. These figures reflect a 28.4 per cent increase.

The prolific building rate is further reflected in the amount of permits issued at the office of Robert Brown, county building inspector. According to records, total permits issued for single family dwellings January-April 1970 were 279 at a cost of $4,902,178. Total permits issued for the year through April 1970 were 279 at a cost of $4,902,178. Total permits issued for the year through April are 632, with a total monetary value of $7,888,270.

A break down of various areas of the building boom shows that permits were issued for six churches at a total of $13,775; seven industrial buildings at a total of $58,600; one public works building at a total of $60; other non-residential buildings numbered 32 at a total of $80,119; structures other than buildings 97, at a cost of $282,933; two schools costing $1,336,090, and 10 stores at a cost of $260,720.

Further indications of the spiraling building is the total in permits issued 10 years ago. In 1960 the total for the entire year was 1,112, whereas in the first four months of this year totals have already reached 632.

"The Growth of Sanford," which relates to future plans, and the effect upon the whole of Seminole County, will be elucidated tonight by City Manager W. E. Knowles at a meeting of the Seminole County Board of Realtors. The meeting will be held at the Longwood Hotel and will begin at 6:30 p. m.
