Post After Confering With Coolidge Two Times—Gives An His Reason That He is Naturally Not Inclined Toward the Duties of the Office and Believes That He Would not be Able to Serve as Efficiently as Someone Who Would be Interested in Work.

(By The Associated Press) San Francisco, Mar. 14.—Chief Justice Curtis D. Wilbur, of the California Supreme court, prepared Friday to lay aside the ermine to take up the duties of secretary of navy. He accepted late Thursday night after a wire from Coolidge, he being drafted to succeed Denby.

Justice Wilbur will not resign until appointment is confirmed.

The nomination of Curtis Wilbur as secretary of the navy was sent to the senate Friday by President Coolidge.

Government Will Not Release The Orduña Until $1,000,000 Bond Is Furnished By Steamship Company

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—Secretary Mellon's name was brought into the Daugherty investigation by Gaston B. Means, former Department of Justice agent and first witness Friday.

He said he investigated for Harding certain permits relating to violations of the Volstead act issued by the Treasury Department.

"Jess Smith wanted us to catch Secretary Mellon and we caught him," President Harding wanted the information, he said.

He said also he investigated Senators Caraway and LaFollette at Harding's request after LaFollette had agitated Teapot Dome probe and Caraway attacked Harding and Daugherty.

Means is under two federal indictments but waived immunity to testify.

NAME OF MELLON IS MENTIONED IN THE OIL SCANDAL

Numerous sensations featured the testimony of Gaston B. Means, former Department of Justice agent, before the Daugherty investigating committee Friday.

His leading charges was a statement that he received $100,000 from Japanese representative of Mitsui and Company, which he paid over to Jess Smith and said it was for the purpose of stopping government action against Standard Aircraft Company.

Means also said he received large sums for guaranteeing no prosecution of the transportation and showing of Dempsey-Carpenter prize fight films and turned money over to Smith.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—Whiskey deals, deals for pardons for a federal convict, deals to permit illegal showing of prize fight films, stock deals and various other illegal deals of a highly sensational nature featured Thursday's testimony at the senate's investigation of Attorney General Daugherty.

In a two-hour session, teplete with charges, Miss Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of Jess W. Smith, bumper and friend of the attorney general testified Smith had told her that he and Mr. Daugherty stood to make $180,000 through showing of the Carpenter-Dempsey prize fight pictures, which the attorney general would not prevent.

Whiskey Withdrawn

Whiskey, she said, she knew had been withdrawn from government warehouses on permit soon after Mr. Daugherty took office as attorney general, but they soon stopped that, the witness said, because "they got afraid of it."

At a dramatic moment in her testimony, the witness called to the attorney general's brother, M. S. Daugherty, sitting as a spectator in the hearing room, reminding him that she had told him she had determined to "tell all."

Plenty of Whiskey

Pressed harder, Miss Stinson said she had heard "but generally" of whiskey deals and that "they had plenty of whiskey at their disposal."

Attorney General Daugherty had been with Smith, she said, when the latter arrived at Washington Court House, Ohio, with suit cases containing whiskey. Smith had given some to the attorney general, herself and other friends, she said.

ROADPROGRAM

Complete And Gives Aid to District According to Assessment of Property Value. In Several Districts Will be Decided Upon by Residents. Those Places Fred Will Aids in Preparing Estimates Cost.

Tentative plans for the extension of the general good road act of Seminole county as drawn up by the Good Roads Committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, call for the floating of a bond issue of $1,090,000, according to the report of the body met Friday at the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce at Valdes Hotel.

Members of the committee, who have been busy for the past two weeks on the project, are: Fred H. Akers, chairman, John M. Fred T. Williams and G. L. Blakeslee.

While the plans are only tentative and subject to change, they serve as a good foundation upon which to model the general road construction program. It will necessarily be changed to conform with the desires of the citizens of the several communities effected out for the most part, it is believed that it will be acceptable to the voters of the entire county.

Location of roads in districts three, four and five are to be left to their respective localities. For some time the proposed bond issue has been the subject of much talk but very little was done toward bringing it about until a short time ago when the Chamber of Commerce, believing that the time had come when it should be pushed, requested that the Good Roads Committee draw up its plan and submit a report.

Plans submitted at Friday's luncheon call for the construction of 17 miles of through roads with widening and improving of 23 additional miles. They also include 10 1-4 miles of new roads in the several county commissioner's districts and the widening of one mile of old road.

Funds for the issue as apportioned among the several districts are: district one and two, $250,000; district three, Longwood, $250,000; district four, Oviedo, $250,000; district five, Geneva-Chuluota, $250,000. For through roads the sum of $733,000 has been provided and for the retirement of a bond issue in district number two, $300,000 has been included. Distribution of funds other than for through roads, is according to assessed valuation of the several county commissioner's districts.

The complete program including new roads and improvement of old ones together with their respective widths, as announced, is as follows:

Through Roads.
Late Mary road from DeForest road south through municipal golf course to Orlando road near Robinson Springs 4.2 miles 18 foot wide, $109,000.

Florida Bar Will Hear An Address On Unique Subject

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 13.—"As others see us," will be one of the principal addresses heard by members of the Florida State Bar Association when they assemble here for their annual meeting on Mar. 21-22. W. I. Evans of Tampa has selected the foregoing title for a talk he will make before his colleagues and he has been assigned second place on the program, that immediately following the annual address of E. P. Axtell, of Jacksonville, president of the association, and the reports of officers and committees.

The afternoon session of the opening day will be featured by an address by R. E. L. Saner, president of the American Bar Association, on "The Vision of Our Fathers and Present Day Visionaries," after which delegates to the convention will be taken on a motor trip through Tampa and environs. Those attending the meeting will be guests of the Tampa lawyers at the annual banquet at 8 p. m. of the first day.

"Mechanics of Law-Making in the Bahamas," an address by Malcolm Harcourt, of Nassau, Bahama Islands, will open the program for the second day, with T. B. Adams of Jacksonville scheduled to follow with a discussion of "Federal Practice and Procedure Regarding Equitable Defenses in Actions at Law."

"The Development of the Constitution Under John Marshall," an address by former United States Senator of Jacksonville scheduled for Wednesday, will be the principal feature of the afternoon meeting. This will be followed by a dance at the Temple Terrace Club at 4:30 p. m. and a smoker at 8:30 p. m.

The meeting will close with the election of officers. A number of those attending the convention probably will go from Tampa to Cuba for a stay of a few days.

DAUGHERTY

annunciation going on. Senator Wheeler had a row with Paul Howland, Mr. Daugherty's chief counsel. Sparks flew from both sides of the table, and Senator Wheeler launched into a machine gun fusillade of questioning in which the questions and the answers flew so fast and covered so wide a ground that a roomful of newspaper correspondents hardened to the rattle and fire of congressional investigation, simply couldn't keep up with the proceedings.

Smith told her, Miss Stinson said, of many transactions in which Mr. Daugherty was joined although, she said, Mr. Daugherty's name was not mentioned specifically. She professed inability to state from whom or for what service such stock was received, but promised tomorrow, upon arrival of papers from Ohio, to support her testimony with documentary evidence. The committee also subpoenaed Columbus stock brokers' records and telegrams to and from Smith.

"Wouldn't Be Bulldozed."
 When Mr. Howland sought to intervene in Miss Stinson's examination, Senator Wheeler rushed to the limits of the committee table declaring he would not be "bulldozed." There was another stormy scene over presentation of a prepared statement by the attorney general. It finally was received but only after the committee twice, by a vote of three to two and with Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, insurrectionist, voting with the Democratic members, had turned down requests of defense attorneys.

Miss Stinson said Smith and she had secret trading accounts, known respectively as William R. A. Hayes, Nos. 2 and 3, with Samuel Ungerleider and Company, a Columbus brokerage firm, whose records were today subpoenaed. The White Motor stock, 25 shares, was sold under orders from Smith, she said, to "put it on the market quickly and quietly."

In telling her of his plans for a concession to display the prize fight pictures, Miss Stinson said Smith told her that "we had a big thing." Asked whom "we" referred to, she answered: "We never discussed anybody else but Mr. Daugherty."

Mayo Says Florida Should Be Dairying and Livestock State

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Mar. 13.—If Florida is to be a livestock and dairying state, the foundation must be laid in pastures and forage, according to the opinion of Nathan Mayo, commissioner of agriculture, as expressed in an article that will appear in a dairyman's handbook to be issued by his department sometime within the next 90 days. The opinion coincides with the views of an official of the State Sanitary Live Stock Board, expressed recently in connection with the systematic campaign being conducted to rid cattle in the state of the fever tick.

Wild ranges will never make this state noted for beef cattle or dairy cattle, continues Commissioner Mayo, who says that cultivated pastures have not been featured on any large scale in the state as a whole. Siles, he says, are not a common thing to see as one journeys over the 63 counties of Florida.

"Beef cannot be produced in competition with the beef of the north Mississippi valley if the feed we use is shipped from that section," he adds, "and dairying cannot be made to pay if the feed comes from north of the Ohio or west of the Mississippi."

Taking up the possibilities of producing pasturage and forage, Mr. Mayo continues: "Florida will grow grass. Grass is one of nature's cornucopias—a constant benediction. One of the best grasses for Florida is carpet grass. It is a perennial pale green, spreading by creeping stems which root at every point. The seed stems are very slender, two or three jointed, and 12 to 24 inches high. Very often two flowering branches rise from the sheath of each stem leaf. Each stem bears two or three, rarely four or five, slender spikes of flowers. The seed are very small.

It's a Barracks Now
 This old Mexican church at Cordoba is serving as a barracks. Troops of Obregon's army are quartered here. Snipers are posted behind the cornices. Another sits right over the main entrance. If the rebels put in their appearance, they'll be pretty much up against it.

PREPARATIONS ARE BEING MADE FOR ST. AUGUSTINE, Mar. 13.—Many winter visitors are taking part in making preparations for the Ponce de Leon celebration here April 6-10, declaring they have found an excellent substitute for that which the famous explorer was in search when he landed here—the fountain of youth. The occasion will be made one of gorgeous and picturesque pageants that will attract thousands of persons wintering in Florida. The program for the three days will be designed to recall by costume and scenic story that occasion in 1821 when the stars and stripes supplanted the Spanish flag in Florida.

Better Homes Movement Gains Impetus As Nation-Wide Educational Drive Begins Under Hoover's Leadership

Better Homes in America, the national movement for raising the standards of American home-building and home-making, enters upon its third year reorganized and strengthened. An active educational campaign, entirely free from any commercial interest and financed by public gifts, is under way. The problem of the small home will receive major consideration. How the man with a small salary can establish a home embodying the maximum of comfort, convenience, healthfulness and cultural facilities will be the theme of demonstrations on a nationwide scale.

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, is president of the organization. Dr. James Ford, a housing specialist of note, has been granted a year's leave from Harvard University to undertake the executive direction of the 1924 campaign. Dr. John M. Gries, Chief of the Division of Building and Housing of the Department of Commerce, is a member of the board of directors, and an active leader in the work.

Headquarters of the Better Homes movement have been moved to Washington from New York. The demonstrations of Better Homes throughout the country this year will be during the week of May 11 to 15. In the first year of the movement five hundred communities demonstrated Better Homes, and last year about double that number. The outlook for Better Homes Week this year is that many hundreds of additional communities will take part. Particular efforts are being directed this year to interesting rural communities in the movement. The special aim of the movement will be to demonstrate homes which families of moderate incomes can afford. While no strings are tied to local committees demonstrating Better Homes, national headquarters is urging that attention be focussed upon houses within the reach of persons in moderate circumstances.

Already assurances are pouring in from cities and towns scattered throughout the nation that they will take part in the movement this year. One far western city has written in that it will demonstrate seven new houses, completely furnished, and intends undertaking the renovation of a dilapidated old house to show what can be done in that direction.

LAWNS

The lawn is the carpet for your outdoor living room. Is it threadbare, faded, showing holes here and there, the nap gone in spots? Then the question is: Do you want to get a new carpet or repair the old one?

A cheap lawn, like a cheap carpet, won't last. The best is the cheapest investment in the long run and the expense in this outdoor carpet is preparing the flooring of soil on which it is to be laid.

Does it hold enough moisture all season to keep grass alive? Have you facilities for supplying any deficiencies in moisture?

Does excess moisture drain off properly in unusually wet spells? Is there enough humus or organic matter in the soil to act as a sponge and hold moisture?

Is it well drained? Is the soil sweet or acid? Is the surface even or is it bumpy, undulating and rough?

If it does not hold moisture, manure or decaying vegetable matter such as half-rotted leaves should be spaded or plowed in.

If the grass is thin and of poor quality it should be plowed under to furnish some of this needed humus or decayed vegetable matter.

If the soil is of good quality but the surface uneven, carefully cut the sod in even strips, remove it, stack it in convenient sections, grass surface to grass surface, and root surface to root surface.

If there is a big fill to be taken care of let the basis be any rubbish about the premises, provided it is buried deep enough. It will help to give drainage.

A little clay is an excellent addition if the soil is of very light sandy texture. The clay does not make up for the lack of decaying vegetable matter or humus. Both should be added. A soil of compact character is better lawn soil than a light sandy one.

A cynic thinks the song of love is a swan song.

Homes of Nation Must Be First, Leaders Urge as Communities Mobilize for Better Homes Drive

MISS GRACE ABBOTT MRS. THOMAS G. WINTER

That the homes of a nation are and must continue to be a thing of greatest importance to the women of that nation is maintained by some of the best-known women of the United States, who are devoting their time and energies to home improvement, under the auspices of Better Homes in America.

Among the national leaders on the board of directors of this organization is Miss Grace Abbott, Chief of the United States Children's Bureau. Miss Abbott points out the urgency of better homes in America from the standpoint of the children of the country.

The Better Homes in America movement grew out of a speech of the late President Harding at Akron, Ohio in 1921, who declared that "the soundness of our social system and stability of our country are greatly enhanced by the development of love for a home, and the creation of a home that can be loved."

GARDENS THAT PRODUCE RESULTS

Kind and Quantity of Seed to Buy and Plant.
BY SETH W. SHOEMAKER

Director, School of Agriculture, International Correspondence School, Scranton, Pa.

The average amateur gardener of little experience is always perplexed as to what seed to buy and as to how much to buy for his garden. How much will the housewife need during the coming months? Failure to estimate this fairly accurately will make him lose caste as a gardener at the family council. No excuse can be accepted for running out of lettuce, or radishes, or onions, or string beans at the height of the season.

By Seth W. Shoemaker, Director, School of Agriculture, International Correspondence School, Scranton, Pa.

Gardening is a favorite pastime to many city dwellers and a source of considerable income to people in all walks of life.

Is your garden producing an income and better health for you? Have you ever thought of the possibility of making an attractive as well as a profitable garden in your backyard?

Many backyards will yield as much as $100 worth of vegetables in a season. Few gardens will yield less than $10 to $20 worth.

Perhaps one of the most important things to be dug out of the soil. The digging will produce an appetite and the results of intelligent digging will supply the means to satisfy the appetite.

There is nothing mysterious about this process and nothing especially difficult (except the inclination or ability to put a little time and effort into the work).

Many gardeners are discouraged by the condition of their soil, but many conditions that are considered unfavorable are really as good as they seem, and it is more a question of adapting the soil to the vegetables or of planting the kinds of vegetables that will do well on the soil you have than it is to be discouraged by the soil.

In planting any garden, unquestionably the first thing to do is to start with a paper and pencil. Much time, some backache, and many heartaches will be avoided by simply making out a plan that may be practically followed.

Many gardens are spoiled by yielding to the temptation to rush along and buy all the groceries or from some alluring catalogue without having any definite idea of just what is required.

The beginner at least will be wise to confine his garden to paper for the first few days.

Gardening on paper merely consists in making a diagram of the garden to be, including those vegetables which you would like to have and which you perhaps will be able to grow with the best success. The space required for each kind of vegetables should be considered.

LUNCHEON SUGGESTIONS

BY HELEN HARRINGTON DOWNING
Director Home Economics, Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago, Ill.

More importance should be attached to variety in the breakfast menu; the wholesomeness of the foods chosen, as well as the manner of serving it. Too often breakfast is the most neglected of all meals. And because it is so easily and quickly prepared, many housewives get into the habit of serving toast and coffee every morning.

A good breakfast means a good start for the day. The tempting sight and pleasing taste of the food stimulate the flow of the digestive juices, creating a healthy appetite, and a more perfect digestion.

The two weeks' breakfast menus given here are well balanced, furnish variety, and the dishes suggested are wholesome.

Because of the popularity of Waffles and Griddle Cakes, this newspaper suggests that you write to the Home Economics Department of the Calumet Baking Powder Company, Chicago, Illinois, and receive their new booklet—A Lesson on Waffles and Griddle Cakes.

JANE GRANT, journalist and magazine writer, member of the Lucy Stone League which believes that women should keep their own names after marriage, proves that a capable woman outside of the home is a capable woman inside the home. She was caught by the photographer cooking a very complicated dish for her husband's dinner—Southern Fruit Cake, which he admits is his favorite dish. Here is the recipe: Cream crisco and sugar thoroughly together, then add molasses, cream, flour, soda, eggs well beaten, malt, spices, and fruit. Mix well and turn into criscoed and papered cake tin and bake in slow oven one and a half hours. Sufficient for one large cake. 1 cupful sugar, 1 cupful crisco, 1 cupful molasses, 1/2 cupful sour cream, 3 cupfuls flour, 1 teaspoonful malt, 1/2 teaspoonful baking soda, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoonful powdered cinnamon, 1 cupful seeded raisins, 1/2 cupful currants, 1/2 teaspoonful grated nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoonful powdered cloves, 1/2 teaspoonful powdered allspice.

He was also a member of the Union League, Chicago Golf, Exmoor Country and Chicago Press clubs.

A Little Question Mark: There's a symbol that I know of, just a little curly-queue.

Keep it ever close before you in the business of the day; though you think you've reached perfection.

You can always do things better, you can always use more care, you can find room for improvement.

Many Florida cities are realizing the importance of golfing facilities and are either constructing courses or enlarging those already at hand.

Florida of hotels will be built in Florida this coming summer but despite this fact there will not be too many accommodations for the large crowds coming to the state next winter.

Candidates for the several county offices will have an opportunity to display their oratorical abilities on March 23 when they are invited to speak to the Seminole county club women at Wekiva Park.

Sanford residents should get better acquainted with Seminole county. There are wonderful places and prosperous sections.

128 vessels mobilized from Cuba, England, Scandinavia and Caribbean ports and engaged in smuggling liquor into this country are now being seized in New York.

The pastor of the Baptist Temple at Rochester, N. Y., has had his life insured for $100,000.

Those politicians who are sticking posters containing their pictures on the trees and fences throughout the state are inviting defeat in the coming elections.

A "Prosperity Dinner" is being planned by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce for next Tuesday night when Harry T. Bodwell will be the honor guest and chief speaker.

The height of indifference is typified in the case of seventeen-year-old Lester Gerstenberg, who although he faces death by electrocution within six weeks, is enthusiastically engaged in the study of algebra as he awaits his fate in the Sing Sing death house.

"Personal liberty" of some people will be interfered with in the campaign General Butler, director of Public Safety, proposes to put on to stop drinking in Philadelphia hotels.

Headlines and Prosperity.

Newspaper headlines are indicative of the true condition of the community in which the newspaper is published.

If there is a resident of Sanford or Seminole county who is still in doubt as to prospects for a great growth here, he should read the following headlines, picked at random from The Herald:

- "New Hotel on lake front to cost $600,000." "Golf links to be enlarged to 18 holes at cost of $40,000." "Athletic field to be built costing $35,000."

In summing up the situation it is safe to state that improvements being made or contemplated in Sanford will aggregate close to two millions of dollars.

Public Business Should Be Made Public.

The lack of publicity given to transactions carried on by prominent officials at Washington has been the cause of all the oil scandal.

There is entirely too much secrecy connected with the actions of public officials. Government should be as wide open book in which the people know and can easily find out at any time just what is happening and what the men in office are doing with public affairs.

In Congress business is transacted in the open. The people back home know what their representatives are doing.

Senator James Couzens of Michigan is about to introduce in Congress a bill which would require cabinet members to be present in Congress at stated intervals to answer questions put to them concerning the activities and conduct of their departments.

By advocating publicity to all governmental affairs Senator Couzens is doing the country a lasting service.

OBEDIENCE TO LAW

A man who does not respect and obey the law cannot truthfully claim that he is a good citizen. That can be written down as an axiom.

Respect for law and authority is the real test of good citizenship. Can you meet it? If not you should change your way of living, for it is surely wrong.

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT, NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—The "Social Bloc" is busy again. This time it is not after an "outsider," whom it can be dazzled with a view of the riches that can be enjoyed in Washington by one who is "in right."

Clinton W. Gilbert, who wrote "The Mirrors of Washington," has been appearing in all the looking glasses about the capital recently to see if he could catch a glimpse of an ideal candidate for president in 1924.

Apparently the candidates in the field are an unaccountable bunch, who don't use mirrors in making up for the public, or else they are afraid to face themselves and Gilbert in the glass, for he sums up the result of his quest thus tersely:

"I could count up the ideal candidates for president this year on the fingers of a man who had both arms shot away in the late war."

Attractive Boxing Card To Offered Tonight

SANFORD FANS TO SEE FAST BOUTS AT NEW ARMORY

Program Is Arranged by Matchmaker Billy Dawson and Given Under Auspices of Florida National Guard.

Indications are That There Will be Large Attendance—Exhibitions May Be Offered Here Two Times A Month.

Everything is in readiness for the staging of the boxing bouts at the new armory in the Kent Building tonight at 8:30 o'clock, according to announcement made this morning by Matchmaker Billy Dawson, who has been here for the past few days completing arrangements for the affair. Advance sale of tickets indicate that the hall will be packed with the fans eager to witness the first card to be offered in Sanford under the auspices of the Florida National Guard.

Mr. Dawson announced that all of the participants in the matches have arrived here and are in excellent condition. Local boys, who will appear in the preliminaries, announce that they are also ready for their respective matches. Staging of the bouts tonight means that Sanford is taking its place alongside of Jacksonville, Tampa, St. Petersburg and Miami as a boxing center, said Mr. Dawson, who stated that if the support is sufficient and the attendance large enough, that regular cards will be offered here twice a month. Officers of the local companies as well as heads of the state organization are said to be heartily in accord with the plan.

The headliner on tonight's bill will be a ten-round bout between Otis Hurst, of St. Petersburg, and Young Ketchell, recently of Philadelphia, but now residing in Jacksonville. Both men are known to be clever mitt artists and upon their arrival in this city today, stated that they were in fine physical trim for the bout tonight.

Serving as a fast semi-final will be an eight-round affair between Joe Mate and Irish Hickey. Both are said to be sluggers and fans are promised a fast battle when these two boys enter the ring for their fracas.

Two four-round preliminaries will be held in which Sanford boys will be the participants. In the first one Sanford's "Battling Six" will be seen in action against Glenn Whitley. In the second bout Murt Lewis will test his skill against Johnnie Gordon.

Gibbons' Manager Protests Bitterly Against J. Kearns

ST. PAUL, Minn., Mar. 11.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight boxing champion, is not anxious to meet Tom Gibbons, of St. Paul, in a return match, because he does "not want to take a chance of losing his title," declared Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, in a statement Thursday.

Gibbons has not been given "a fair break" for the championship honors, according to Kane, who charged that Dempsey was avoiding American fighters in favor of foreign "set-ups."

"The fact that Dempsey has refused to box Tommy has convinced me beyond all question that he has done so because he did not want to take a chance of losing his title in a decision match in New York."

"I was told by Tex Rickard, when last in New York, that the Dempsey end was all set and that we would have no further trouble with him. Dempsey has repeatedly stated that he wanted to box Gibbons again. The fact that he has decided to take up some picture work will not satisfy fight fans or other good sports."

"Since Dempsey won the championship, American fighters have received $10,000 to box him—$15,000 for Billy Mitchell and $25,000 for Bill Brennan. Compare these figures with what two set-ups got—Championer $200,000 for four rounds and begging that I come back around and 57 seconds."

"That's the kind of fighters Kearns and Dempsey want."

WILL APPEAR IN MATCH TONIGHT

Young Ketchell of Jacksonville, formerly of Philadelphia, who will swap punches with Otis Hurst of St. Petersburg tonight in a ten round bout which will be the feature of the boxing card to be offered at the new armory. Ketchell has gained a enviable reputation as a boxer in Jacksonville and Tampa where he has met some of the best in his class.

Tribute Is Paid To Charlie Moran Ex-Centre Coach

CHICAGO, Mar. 11.—Paying tribute to "Uncle Charlie" Moran, former coach of the Centre College football team, as "the best coach I ever knew and a past master at driving men" Robert L. Myers, who introduced football at Centre, and then obtained Moran's services, Wednesday announced he had taken up the job again, temporarily, until another suitable coach is found to take Moran's place.

"Thirty-three members of the football squad," Mr. Myers said, "wrote me pledging their support, and that I come back."

"Although we are handicapped at Centre by the freshmen rule, which forbids 10 per cent of our 275 students from playing, our prospects are reasonably good. Among the 33 men who signed the letter sent me, are some mighty good players. They will make up in fight and drive what they lack in weight and age."

The Praying Colonels will open the next football season, Coach Myers announced, with Valparaiso University at Danville, Ky. The schedule, insofar as it is certain, follows:

October 4—Valparaiso University at Danville.

October 11—Carson-Newman College at Danville.

October 18—Transylvania at Danville.

October 25—West Virginia at New York (Polo Grounds).

November 1—University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky.

November 8—University of Tennessee at Knoxville, Tenn.

November 15—University of Alabama at Birmingham.

November 29—University of Georgia at Danville.

The schedule of the 'Gator window smashers' as outlined by Manager "Weary" Blake yesterday, follows: Mercer University, Mar. 17 and 18, at Dawson, Ga.; Mercer, Mar. 19 and 20, here; Howard College, April 14 and 15, here; Birmingham, April 21 and 22, here; Auburn, April 18, in Tallahassee; Auburn, April 19, in Bainbridge, Ga.; Mercer, April 28 and 29, Valdosta, Ga.; Trinity College, April 30, here; Toledo Mud Hens, (tentative) March 28 and 29, April 1 and 2.

GATOR BASEBALL TEAM WILL MEET MERCER MAR. 17

University Ball Tossers Have Even Practicing Hard for Stroncus Schedule Which Opens with Georgia Team.

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 11.—The first inter-collegiate ball contest of the season with Mercer in the offing, finds the 'Gators' waiting with undignified delight and anticipation. Rex Farrior, coach, has welded together a great little combination and when the end of the season rolls around and the hat-boy has carted the last bat to its final resting place it is believed that the 1924 Orange and Blue ball machine will have a gratifying total of games marked up on the winning side of the ledger. The way has been long and hard, but the 'Gators' have borne it all with fortitude and a loyal spirit and down to the last sub they feel like the new uniforms issued to them by Manager "Weary" Blake yesterday afternoon was a turning point in the affairs of the club.

At the outset of the season vacancies from last year, left by graduation, loomed up as weak spots on the aggregation, but time and hard work has smoothed away many of the wrinkles and left the Florida team with nine capable ball tossers filled with fight and a desire to win. They have worlds of confidence in their pitchers, their coach and their own individual abilities. And all that goes for a long way on the rocky road to success.

As matters now stand it finds, Katz, Ned Porter, DeHon, Smith, Graves, Johnson, Wells and Emmert coming up as a powerful hurling staff from which it will not be hard to select the needed number to carry on the burden of the heavy assignments. Every one of the men named have stood their ground under fire and it is going to be a mighty difficult question to decide which man will be left behind.

Tommy Johnson, T. J. Edwards, and Frank Wright are fighting it out for the initial sack. Edwards showed up good against the Giants but the others can not be counted out as candidates. Jimmy Johnson and "Geese" Laird are starting a pretty scrap for the key stone sack. "Mac" McLendon reigns supreme at short while Captain "Babe" Bracken is all that one could ask at the hot corner.

The schedule of the 'Gator window smashers' as outlined by Manager "Weary" Blake yesterday, follows: Mercer University, Mar. 17 and 18, at Dawson, Ga.; Mercer, Mar. 19 and 20, here; Howard College, April 14 and 15, here; Birmingham, April 21 and 22, here; Auburn, April 18, in Tallahassee; Auburn, April 19, in Bainbridge, Ga.; Mercer, April 28 and 29, Valdosta, Ga.; Trinity College, April 30, here; Toledo Mud Hens, (tentative) March 28 and 29, April 1 and 2.

Man-Made Quakes Test Building's Stability

Tests to determine the type of building best adapted to withstand earthquakes are made on a machine which reproduces, with realistic intensity, the horizontal and vertical vibrations caused by a genuine tremor. The device is the invention of two Japanese professors, and consists of a platform on which a model house is constructed on a reduced scale. The base is then made to sway and shake as the surface of the earth does in a seismic disturbance, by means of levers.

Laughter-Proof Tribe Found in Wilds of Ceylon

For more than 2,000 years, it is said, laughter has been unknown to the Veddas, a tribe of aboriginal inhabitants of Ceylon, who have maintained a secluded existence in caves and jungles of the region. Cut off from other people and subsisting on bats, owls, and crows that they shoot with arrows, these strange people are said to have lost entirely the sensation of laughter. They are thin and flabby, and a fat man is unknown to them. Efforts of a scientist, who recently visited them, to produce smiles by tickling them on the soles of their bare feet or in the ribs, met with no success. Their stony countenances did not even winkle.

Women Play Part in Building of Modern Skyscrapers

That the needs of women must be given as much attention as is accorded the sinning of the foundations of a modern skyscraper, is disclosed in the report of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers. This consideration is reflected chiefly in planning or adequate and attractive rest rooms which it is declared, can no longer be classed as luxuries. Also, luncheon facilities must be taken into consideration, including the habits of messenger boys pending corridors and jumping down the stairs. The pencil habit has given rise to the term "pencil line" for the height of marble wainscoting, which is raised to such a level that marks may be easily cleaned from the walls. Awning fires are being prevented through dipping of the fabric in a fire-proofing substance.

"Automatic" Car Jack

When working on the rear end of an automobile, or under it, it is usually necessary to jack up one end of the car to provide more space to work. The illustration shows a pair of simple homemade jacks for this purpose. They are made of 2 by 6-in. unplanned lumber, and constructed as shown in the upper figure, each consisting of a 2 by 6-in. base, two support blocks, and a top board of the same material. The top board is pivoted on one of the support blocks by means of a piece of 1/2-in. iron pipe, loosely held in place by large staples; it must be about twice as long as the base and beveled at one end as shown, this end being slightly heavier than the other so that the board will fall to the position indicated in the upper figure. The jacks are placed close to the wheels at the front or rear, and the car driven on. A hook is provided on one support block to keep the top board down, and a short length of iron pipe or rod, fitting loosely in holes drilled through the sides of the top, prevents the wheels from running off the jack while the work is being done, thus making the work perfectly safe.

American Music Goes Back To Voodoo Chants

Valeska Bary, Well Known Traveler, Recognizes Primitive Strains on Broadway

Valeska H. Bary, adventurer into strange places, brings back from Haiti a weird tale of the origin of jazz. "I got on the trail of primitive jazz when by accident I heard the tom toms beat at a voodoo ceremony and I don't think I have ever experienced anything so intoxicating," Miss Bary relates. "The rhythm began very slowly and I could actually feel its tempo raising my blood beats to a point of genuine intoxication. When finally limp and spent I got back to the everyday world, I realized that our so-called jazz is a modified form of this Caribbean music. Even in its present variety almost anybody will admit that it is somewhat intoxicating. "Recently I heard Paul Whiteman playing 'Mamma Loves Papa' at the 'Ziegfeld Follies.' It reminded me a great deal of the tom tom melodies. It had all the uncivilized appeal of native music for indeed I could close my eyes and picture myself on a lonely Haitian road hearing the native chant to the tom toms. "As dance music I should think it would be most exhilarating and as a peptant, equal to any of pre-Volstead days."

PARIS FAVORS THIS MODEL

The floating panel, with its unusual arrangement of plaits and irregular edge, makes this frock of dark blue and skirt separate, the blouse lined at the left side. The two-piece gathered skirt is laid in plaits on the side of the back. If desired, one of the newly made so much in vogue—a quaint touch of elevation. Medium size requires 1 1/2 yards 40 inch satin and 1 1/2 yard of lace inorgette banding for the collar.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1709
Size, 34 to 42 inches bust. Price 25 cents.

EASY SETTLEMENT

The problem of filling needs is easily settled on the principle of reciprocity, for what one has to sell the other wants to buy.

This is the great principle underlying Herald Want Ads and it has worked for years with such great success that this form of advertising has come to be very popular.

The needs of one are supplied by the needs of another.

This process simply is the getting of the buyer and seller together and Herald Want Ads do that to perfection. Try them and see.

To reach all the people effectively—leave your Want Ad at The Herald office. Phone us to send for it or phone it to the Want Ad Department.
