True Value Property Tax Need Stressed

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins said today inadequate local property taxes have caused a failure in many communities to provide adequate sanitation, education and street improvements.

Collins, who opened a two-day school for county tax assessors called by the comptroller's office, said a preview of a study ordered by him two months ago indicated there had been a failure to meet these needs.

He said the Arthur D. Little Co., which made the survey, said the failure was not caused by lack of state assistance.

"In fact, they point up that our state now renders more aid to local government than a great majority of the states, and at a rate much higher than the national average," Collins said.

"The imbalance is due, they stress, in the area of inadequate local property tax support."

Full results of the study will not be made known for six weeks or more, the governor said.

Collins, who has led the fight for full cash value property assessments, said that unless local governments are able to provide more schools, sewage systems, paved streets, and sidewalks, libraries, more development and protection of natural resources, "progress can come to a dead end."

The governor said property owners more than anyone else have profited from Florida's growth, but he said they should expect fairness in taxation.

"I cannot sympathize with the man who owns property which over a span of a few years increases in sound value five times but who nevertheless screams in anguish when the value of it for tax purposes is increased two times," Collins said.

Probes Continue In 2 Costly Fires

Investigators today continued to sift the charred ruins of two buildings destroyed by fire within 26 hours late last week.

Fire raged the Lake Churn Packing House early Friday morning where the Altamonte Springs Negro school.

The school fire occurred early Thursday and damaged was estimated at $45,000.

Cause of both fires was undetermined.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milnes said today the school board will offer the charred bricks salvagable materials of the building for sale soon.

Approximately 200 people who attended the school are continuing studies in the school annex and a neighboring church building.

The packing house fire was discovered at 12:30 a. m. Friday, and flames from Oviedo, Longwood, Casselberry and Goldenrod fought the blaze for more than 30 hours.

The fire engulfed 14 refrigerators and damaged cartons of celery and many boxes of oranges. About 80 workers were left without jobs.

Neo-Nazis Linked To Ku Klux Klan

VIENNA (UPI)—Austrian police today intensified an investigation into a neo-Nazi organization said to have connections with the European branch of the Ku Klux Klan.

A search of homes of members of the organization, known as "National Youth," uncovered anti-Semitic pamphlets entitled "White Brotherhood" allegedly distributed by the Klan in England and Germany, police reported.

Police said there were unconfirmed reports that officials last year in Klagenfurt contacted leaders of the Austrian "National Youth" which has been banned.

Free Puerto Rico Issue Greeted Ike

JAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI) — President Eisenhower arrived today at heavily guarded San Juan airport where rival groups attempted to demonstrate for and against Puerto Rico's commonwealth ties with the U.S.

The president's plane landed here on the first leg of his 15,300-mile journey of personal diplomacy that will take Eisenhower to Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay in the next 10 days.

The more than 5,000 persons on hand to meet the president were kept under tight control by a strong police guard.

Rival political factions displayed banners of greeting and placards urging immediate independence for this island which has voluntary commonwealth ties with the U.S.

About 10 minutes before the president landed, representatives of opposing political factions shouted at each other across the road leading to the airport—where they had been kept at a safe distance.

Each group darted across the road occasionally and threw pamphlets at the opposing faction—one of which wanted to continue Puerto Rico's commonwealth status and the other which wanted immediate freedom. Prompt police action separated the groups each time.

Eisenhower, smiling and relaxed, appeared to be unaware of the demonstrations as he told the crowd in his arrival remarks that he brought Puerto Rico "greetings from your fellow citizens of the 50 states of the republic."

Before departing on his Latin American tour, Eisenhower told the U.S. Sunday that the U.S. has "indestructible, incalculable" military power ample for the present and tailored to meet the needs of the future.

The president replied to Democratic critics of his defense program in a nationwide radio-TV speech Sunday night.

Reaction to the address was divided. A leading Democratic critic, Sen. Henry M. Jackson (Wash.), said the president had failed to come to grips with the real defense policy issues. He said Eisenhower failed to mention Soviet progress on missiles.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson said he agreed the U.S. has a powerful defense force. But he said he would press Senate missile investigations because the real issue is "whether our plans are adequate for our needs in the foreseeable future."

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La.) of the House Space Committee said he was disappointed the president did not mention U.S. defense against intercontinental ballistic missiles or compare U.S. Soviet missile strength.

Eisenhower got Republican support. Senate GOP Leader M. Dirksen (Ill.) said the executive had "stated the case in a nutshell." He said the speech went far to "dispel confusion" over the defense program.

The president did not refer to any of his defense critics by name, but he said that unbiased observers recognized and respected this country's missile deterrent strength.

"We have forged a trustworthy shield of peace — an indestructible force in incalculable power, ample for today and constantly developing to meet the needs of tomorrow," he said.

"Today, in the presence of continuous threats, all of us can stand resolute and unafraid, confident in America's might as an anchor of free world security."

JAMES E. CONNER, Brooksville, sent the recommendations to Mayo following a stormy hearing in Tampa Feb. 10. It voted to ask Mayo to impose more stringent inspection regulations on eggs shipped into Florida from other states, principally Georgia.

Poultrymen admitted their purpose was to cut down imports of eggs produced more cheaply than those produced on Florida chicken farms.

The committee asked Mayo to require out-of-state eggs to be shipped to designated points in Florida where they would be available for inspection before distribution to dealers.

Mayo said he is "completely at a loss as to what" the committee is trying to accomplish.

Hundreds Stranded In New York Storm

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — Snow was falling again on the New York State thruway today, but the snow-like event of the weekend was just memories to motorists who were home or heading home.

Hundreds of persons were marooned in upstate New York towns and highway stops by a storm which dropped more than two feet of snow on some parts of the East.

It was similar to the old theater plot of strangers snowed in together under one roof for a night. But it had its serious aspects too. At least 17 persons were known to have been killed during the storm.

47 Known Dead In Algiers Area Hit By Earthquake

ALGERIA (UPI) — At least 47 persons were known dead today in the earthquake which shook the rugged mountains of eastern Algeria early Sunday.

The violent earthquake, which was preceded by several minor tremors, toppled hundreds of huts and buried scores of victims in the debris. At least 85 persons were injured.

Arab villagers said they "heard the mountains roar and saw a blinding flash of light" when the quake started. The terrifying sound of the trembling mountains was the "roar" they heard, but French officials believed the "blinding light" may have been the effects of fear.

The disaster area, centered in the region of Melouza, 100 miles southeast of Algiers, is part of the Mediterranean earthquake belt, where about 300 persons were killed 12 years ago.

The quake shook the desolate area where the Hodna and Bibana mountain ranges meet, continuing several minutes. Most of the victims were women and children who were indoors at the time. The menfolk were outdoors at work.

Queen's Joy Over Son Tempered By Grief At Relative's Death

Shopping 'Spree' Highlights Birthday Of First President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Speech-makers and bargain hunters and their annual George Washington's birthday fling today with 90-cent autos and a speech the first president ever delivered heading the list.

Patriotic organizations laid wreaths at Washington's tomb at nearby Mt. Vernon, Va. The Senate and House followed their annual custom of listening to readings of Washington's 7,000-word Farewell Address, which he issued for publication but never delivered publicly.

The bargain hunters faced an obstacle this year. A snow blanket of up to two inches fell on the capital Sunday night and threatened to snarl the usually heavy traffic brought out by the holiday sales.

Customers began lining up for the many money-saving orgy as early as Thursday. Hundreds turned out in the early hours today well ahead of store openings.

One enterprising merchant didn't take any chances on his customers being frozen out. He hired a large bus and parked it in front of his store to provide shelter for the waiting buyers.

A used car dealer offered a 1953 Detroit-made auto for 99 cents and claimed "it runs good." Other dealers tagged cars for half price, and teased the public with liked discounts and one-cent auto accessories.

TV sets and typewriters were advertised at 99 cents apiece, refrigerators for $2, fur coats for $8, white fox collars at $4, and even a few mink stoles for as low as $20. Prices were slashed on new refrigerators, freezers, air conditioners, stoves, washers and dryers, television sets, radios, beds, mattresses and box springs, and every conceivable kind of wearing apparel.

Final Arguments To Spark Finch Trial Tuesday

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The final phase of the sensational murder trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his young mistress Carole Tregoff opens Tuesday with attorneys presenting summations of nearly two months of often-conflicting testimony.

The handsome tennis-playing surgeon and his red-haired former receptionist might learn by the end of the week the decision of the jury of seven women and five men. Testimony ended last Thursday and the trial was recessed through today for the Washington birthday holiday.

Prosecutor Fred N. Whichello said he will ask for the death penalty for both Finch, 42, and Miss Tregoff, 23. They are accused of murder and conspiracy to murder Finch's estranged wife, Barbara, Jean, 33, last July 18. The state in the trial which began Dec. 8 has attempted to prove that the physician and Miss Tregoff plotted to murder Barbara so they could be married without sharing $750,000 in community property with his wife. Mrs. Finch in her divorce suit sought all of the community property.

The others were those of Mrs. Mary Malone, who is Mrs. Isom's sister. Firemen said the mothers were watching television in the front room when the blaze broke out. The mothers were taken to Allen Memorial Hospital here, where they were treated for shock. The dead Isom children were Sheila, 8; Linda, 5; Dennis, 3; Marselle, 18 months, and William, 6 months.

The dead Malone children were Diane, 3 and Martin Jr., 2. Besides the mothers and their grandmother, Mrs. Sylvia Malone, two four-year-old boys, one from each family, escaped unharmed. Mrs. Isom's husband, an Oberlin village employe, was in jail since November for traffic manslaughter.

Pointing to the success of the automotive industry in trade-in business, he said that within a short time homeowners will be trading in their old houses for new ones in much the same manner as they now trade in cars.

Health Center Is Sign Of Progress

What has been described as a $100,000 dream for the county in the form of a health center is about to be built. And, fortunately, it will be built for a few dollars less than the $100,000 anticipated expenditure.

Possibly the most significant we can get from the fact that the health center project will be in actual construction shortly is that it is the first major physical evidence of the expansion of the county's facilities to cope with our growth.

There has been a long talking period about what the county should do and should not do in the way of a building program. Previously, most of the talk remained and the construction continued absent.

The health unit has been needed for some time and other public facilities are needed now—more will be needed during the next few years. The modern center probably will serve its purpose so well that it may soften the attitudes of some who say they oppose what they refer to as "too much spending."

Mr. Warren Knowles has outlined a capital improvement program for the City of Sanford, the county commissioners are discussing plans for other new buildings, the Committee of 100 and the Chamber of Commerce are trying to lure industries here and people are talking about progress and politics all over the place.

That's the kind of talk we like.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

CASE D — 000: Howard H., aged 30, has a wife and two teen-age children.

"Dr. Crane," his wife fruitfully laments, "Howard is a slave to our house and lawn."

"Why, from the moment he gets home till bedtime, he is painting or washing windows, or is summer he mows the lawn and trims the hedge and plants shrubs, etc. He never gives me or the children an hour of his time from one month to another."

"Johnny begs him to come to the P-TA on Father's Night and visit his home room, but Howard is too tired after putting around the house."

"He hasn't taken any of us to a movie or on an outing in five years."

"I suppose it may be better to have such a hobby than to get drunk all the time, but is it too for a person to become a slave to a house and lawn?"

"Perhaps you recall the story about the faithful laundress who picked up the soiled clothes of her customers in a child's express wagon and then delivered them, spotlessly clean, a day or so later."

"She was an excellent wash woman and very faithful in attendance at church."

"After her death, St. Peter ordered her down the golden stairs of Heaven to her new home."

"She looked amazingly at new designs and lovely bungalows with attractive patios. But St. Peter kept walking right past them. Finally he stopped in front of a palatial estate with a beautiful big home."

"Is this palace for a banker or the president?" wonderingly asked the laundress.

"No, indeed," replied St. Peter. "This is your new home. You served it on earth by your kindly deeds and usefulness."

BUNDLE FOR BRITAIN

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — At Lewis Straus began his fierce and futile struggle a year ago to be confirmed as secretary of commerce he pointed with pride to his action in turning down a Soviet Russian request to buy steel pipe for an oil pipe line. Straus had won out in a difference with Under Secretary of State Douglas Dillon over U. S. trade policy with the Soviets and he counted his triumph a high mark in his favor.

The action Straus took then is pointed up by reports of a deal just concluded between powerful Italian interests and the Soviets. While it is difficult to get official confirmation anywhere, that deal is reported to call for furnishing Russia with 100 million of steel pipe and equipment to be paid for with crude oil from the Soviet Union.

It was negotiated in Moscow late last year by Enrico Mattei, the hard-driving business genius who since the end of the war has built up a vast industrial empire. With government backing of many billions of lira he directs enterprises that extend not only throughout Italy but in recent years into the Middle East and in most countries of Western Europe. Where public control and ownership end and the private sector begins in this great conglomerate almost no one can say.

Without defining the provisions of the deal the Italian minister for foreign trade, Dino Delbo, has defended it. He said in a statement replying to critics that if Italy had not entered into the agreement, which he said was for $100 million for "equipment," other countries would have done so.

Delbo may well have been referring to the fact that more than a year ago three West German industrialists entered into a contract with Moscow for $18 million for steel pipe. This was known at the time that the Department of Commerce refused an American exporter a license to sell $2,000,000 of similar pipe to Russia. The issue was hot when Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan came here in January, 1949, to propagandize for expanded trade with the Soviet Union.

The Mattei deal is said to provide the Russians with a considerable share of the steel pipe for a projected 12,000-mile pipe line. The line would run from oil cen-

Happiness Through Health (By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Interference With Nerve Control May Cause Anemia!

One of the abstracts appearing in LaPresse Medicale is that of an article of Prof. Ferdinand Hoff. It is stated that Hoff has proved experimentally that the composition of blood is under the control of the central nervous system. There follows a description of experiments performed in the laboratory and clinics where it was found that cases suffering from tumor and disease in certain parts of the brain have consequent rapid and important changes in composition of the blood.

It follows of course, that any interference to the nerve pathways between brain and the organs which regulate the composition of the blood, as might be caused by spinal subluxations, can readily lead to abnormal blood composition. Thus it can be understood how certain cases of anemia respond to Chiropractic.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 261 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — Across the snow-blown Soviet countryside, small children munched through foot-deep snow to get to their school classes on time. They may have trudged a mile, or two, or three.

On the same day, in the capital of a nation as galling to keep intellectual pace with the Soviets, public schools were closed down. The doors were shut to the children because two days before there was a four-inch snow-fall.

Some of these children live only two blocks — others even less — from their school buildings. And many of those who live farther away are in the habit of boarding a school bus or insisting that their mothers drive them to class in the family auto.

It's not the fault of our children that they were deprived of a day's schooling. The big people made the decision.

In our neighborhood in suburban Maryland, where the snow was deeper than in the city itself, our eight-year-old screaming meemie joined a drove of other happy rascals sledding down the hills most of the schoolless day.

LETTERS to the Editor

Editor: Seminole County will face a crisis this election which can affect everyone residing in it. It is only human nature to rebel against increase in taxes and refuse to see the reason for it, after not paying any for years.

Think back to the school bond issue and—why did you vote for it? Was it because you never realized that some day you too would have to share the load. The other fellow has paid for years and now you have children that need good schools and more teachers. These things cost money and it's everyone's responsibility to pay their way.

We have had elected officials in the past; had they planned for the future this could have been done in easy stages, but due to neglect it took men of courage, foresight and unselfish desires to step in and do what should have been done a long time ago. Some individuals cry "injustice"—where were they when the records showed neglect of duty, and resigned to sit back and rock along as others did in the past.

We, no doubt, will have some new and old candidates this election promising the "golden apple" so to speak; but what improvement can be made on the plans for Seminole County other than what the present progressive commissioners have already done.

As long as we have the homestead exemption, any assessment has to be above that figure in order to secure an income to operate and meet the demands of the county and what candidate for assessors would dare to suggest eliminating this homestead exemption—ask them at the rallies—so even some will escape from paying their $1. or $2. a year taxes to support a county's program for better schools, roads, etc.

No doubt there have been some discrepancies in the new tax roll, but every effort will be made to correct them by your tax assessor. How many of you dare to protest on the present taxes, when you might open the door to the past?

We will hear from all sides—what can be done to correct our taxes? Where were these people before? Did you hear their voices crying for true assessment?

A firm believer in Seminole County

Seminoles Win OBC Tourney

By JERRY COVINGTON
The fabulous Sanford Seminoles brought home the first tournament victory in 23 years Saturday night when they rolled past a bigger Winter Park ball club by an impressive 79-71 score.

A wild and wonderful crowd of Sanford rooters cheered the Seminoles all the way and from the sound of things this was the greatest thing that has happened around here in many years. Although the Wildcats boast some of the finest players in the entire area the Seminoles were proved far superior in every department. fiery Ray Lundquist continued his great style of lightning fast play dropping in 28 points. He literally broke the back of the Wildcats with his ball stealing and driving layups and was the most colorful player on the court during the tournament. Jim Gracey displayed his velvet touch Friday when the Seminoles dropped Lakeview in the semifinals by a score of 66-50. He netted 23 points in this game and then Saturday night he came up with 24 points in the big one. His jump shot from the side refused to miss the target and the Wildcats could not find any way possible to stop him. His great shooting seemed so effortless that the ball barely made a sound when dropping through the nets.

While Gracey and Lundquist were great in their efforts, Terry Christensen was right there with them. It was Terry on Friday night in the Lakeview game that got the Seminoles back on their feet after trailing 33-31 at the half. He came out with his usual great defensive work and stole the ball time and time again. In the big one on Saturday, he put the Seminoles out in front with his deadly foul shooting in the first and second periods. He made nine charity tosses without a miss and made 12 for 15 for the evening. He ended the evening with 18 points and his great passing set up many of the baskets made by Gracey and Lundquist.

George Perides is also due a great deal of credit. The speedy little junior was a great play maker and passer and his defensive work was outstanding throughout the tournament. George started many fast breaks for the Seminoles and he also added nine points to the cause. It was hard to figure out who would ever replace Lundquist in the lineup next year, but in Perides the Seminoles have a well seasoned veteran.

The biggest concern going into the championship game against the Wildcats was the rebounding. Big Mike Mosher had literally defeated the Seminoles in the two previous games with his job on the boards and it was doubtful that any Seminoles could out rebound him. But two fellows answered the call with great efforts. Big Mike Tammy, who is a junior, and Charles Oravetz, cleaned the boards all the way and this was the difference in the ball game. Tammy finally proved himself as a starter Friday when he out-rebounded the big Lakeview squad and put the Seminoles out front. Neither lad had a hand in the actual scoring but their work on the boards more than made up for their lack of points.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
The scene was set on Friday night. The Seminoles found themselves trailing Lakeview at the half by a score of 33-31. However, they got their heads together and came out with the strongest burst of fire and energy they had displayed all season and began to pour it on. At the end of the contest the final score read 66-50. In the second game, a big and socky Winter Park club strolled onto the court to face the Apopka Darters. However, after three quarters of trailing a fired up Darter team, they realized that they would have to dig for a shot at the championship. In the final minute they managed to hit four free throws and squeeze out a 51-49 victory.

This was the Seminoles final chance for revenge on the Wildcats, who had defeated them twice—their only two losses of the season—and also bring home the first tournament championship since 1937. The Seminoles, who had played greatly all season, had displayed a little case of stage fright when they had faced the Wildcats before, but Saturday all of this changed. They were as cool as any team ever has been and even Coach Bud Laver, who usually goes into his famous towel act when things get exciting, sat there like a judge on the bench.

When the smoke had cleared amid the wild, excited crowd in the gym, it was hard to realize that the dream finally had come true. This victory probably ended the longest dry spell in prep basketball, for this was the first tournament championship to be brought home in 23 years.

In my three years of following the Seminoles in all sports, this was my greatest thrill. There have been many great ones but I am sure that hundreds of Seminoles supporters will go along with me.

What makes the Seminoles so great? Here is one of the answers. In the game against Lakeview Friday, Ray Lundquist drove in for a layup and ran into the concrete wall and hit the floor. Coach Laver charged on to the court and checked to see if he still had his senses. He asked, "What's your name?" and Ray answered "Lundquist." Laver said "What's your first name?" Ray said, "Some of the fellows call me 'Cat,'" and he took off down the court. With spirit like this how could they miss?

Oviedo Cagers Come From Behind To Edge Pierson

Oviedo High cagers edged out Pierson's Taylor High team 52-40 at Pierson Friday night. Taylor High jumped to a quick lead and maintained it throughout the first quarter. At one time the Pierson team led Oviedo, 18-4. The score at the end of the first quarter was 19-10 in favor of Pierson.

Mike Duda of Oviedo tied the score with a field goal in the second quarter to make it 23-23. Two free shots by Jerry Arndt, a field goal by Johnny Tesinsky and another by Duda put Oviedo ahead, 29-23. Three field goals and a free shot by Taylor High made the score 30-29. However, a quick field goal by Mike Duda put Oviedo in front 31-30 at the half time.

The Pierson team went ahead in the third quarter, retaining the lead throughout that period. Taylor High led Oviedo, 40-33 at the end of the third quarter.

Kenneth Starks put Oviedo ahead with a field goal in the fourth quarter, giving the Seminole County team a lead of 50-49. The score was tied up again at 54-54 when Pierson made a free shot. Roy Walwright's field goal put Oviedo ahead 56-54. Jerry Arndt increased the lead 58-54. A field goal by Pierson made it 58-58. Tesinsky then sank a long shot to put Oviedo ahead 60-56.

Pierson sank another making it 58-60. Roy Walwright then sank a basket from way out to sew up the contest for Oviedo. Pierson sank a field goal just as the buzzer sounded but it wasn't enough to keep Oviedo from winning by two points.

Johnny Tesinsky was high scorer for Oviedo with 18 points. Mike Duda had 14; Roy Walwright 13 and Kenneth Sparks, nine. The Oviedo girls won the preliminary game, 60-23 over the Pierson team. Oviedo ran away with the game, leading 37-15 at the half. High scorer for Oviedo was Eleanor Duda with 30 points. Marian Fabry had 15 points and Susan Parlin had nine. Oviedo will play Cocoa Tuesday night at Cocoa. Oviedo's final non-tournament game of the season will be against Lyman High Friday night.

Pinecrest Tops Mixed Loop Leaders

B. Edwards Builders Supplies, in dropping two games to Pinecrest, lost a little more of their lead in the Thursday Night Mixed League last week.

This gives the supply team a total of 4 1/2 games in first, and Pinecrest 3 1/2 wins, to put them in fourth spot.

Bill Foster, rolling for B. Edwards, turned in the high scratch series of this pair of lanes, with John Burton picking up the 5-4-10, and Tom Kelly, the 5-7 splits for Pinecrest.

their winning streak, making it 11 straight wins in a row, by taking all three from Furniture Center. Ken Stone led the Sunland team, while Howard Harrison led the opposition. Frank Huha topped the 5-10 split, and Jess Carathere picked up the 4-7 for the furniture team.

Steinmeyer Roofing, staying a half game ahead of Sunland in second, showed some of their old speed as they took all three from the bankers. This throws Florida State Bank into a tie for bottom spot with the furniture team.

Snow Blankets Plains

By United Press International
A blizzard battered the Plains states with 40 mile an hour winds and foot-deep snow today.

It was the latest of a long line of vicious winter storms that paraded across the country this month.

The heavy snow, combined with near-gale winds and very cold air, made travel extremely dangerous, the weather bureau said. Work crews fought mounting drifts to keep main highways open.

Up to 12 inches of snow fell in Kansas Monday night. The weather bureau issued heavy snow warnings for parts of Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri with winds expected to reach 50 miles an hour in some sections.

The storm was expected to reach the Great Lakes area tonight.

A cold wave chased the storm across the country. The mercury dropped to 10 degrees at Amarillo, Tex., and 8 at Dalt, in the Texas Panhandle. Readings near zero were common in New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming.

Children in Colorado were given a school holiday Monday when the storm reduced visibility to "yardstick length."

The storm provided high drama when two Great Falls, Mont., couples were rescued after spending more than 24 hours in an isolated valley where their plane made an emergency landing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. McCabe Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flynn suffered only cuts, bruises and minor frostbite during their long ordeal. A helicopter evacuated them from the Montana mountains.

  - 2—Osten bridge and connecting link to SR 46.
  - 3—Four-lane Geneva Ave. from Mellonville to French Ave.
  - 4—Realign and resurface SR 426 from the Orange County line to SR 46.
  - 5—Complete W. First St. from French Ave to the interstate road.
- Secondary road improvement projects include:
- 1—SR 427 from SR 436 to the Orange County line.
  - 2—SR 427 from Longwood to Altamonte Springs.
  - 3—Bear Lake Rd. from SR 426 to the Orange County line.
  - 4—SR 46A from Banana Lake Rd. to SR 46.
  - 5—Mular Ave. from SR 427 to SR 419.
  - 6—Concrete bridges on Red Bug Lake Rd.

The program also calls for a survey for Lake Jessup Causeway to Oviedo and purchase right-of-way for realignment of SR 426 from the Orange County line to SR 46.

The board also agreed to submit its application for an additional half million dollars from secondary gas tax fund money. The funds would be used for:

- 1—Rebuild Sanford Ave. from SR 46 to the Orange County line.
- 2—Purchase right-of-way for First St. from French Ave. to the interstate road.
- 3—Widen and rebuild SR 427 from SR 436 to the Orange County line.

Animal Shelter Lease Approved
Seminole County should get its animal shelter in the near future.

The County Commission today agreed to lease a two-acre tract near Cassady Ave. and U.S. 17-82 to be used as an animal shelter by the Sanford Humane Society, Inc., a nonprofit organization.

The society's president, Harriet Cowley, said she would lease the land on a year-to-year basis.

However, the commissioners said final approval must come after a public hearing is held "in case there are any persons who don't wish the shelter near their homes or property."

Mrs. Cowley said the society will discuss plans for the shelter at its meeting Thursday at 8 p. m. in the American Legion Hall.

"We hope to start work on the project as soon as we sign the lease agreement if there is no opposition at the public hearing," Mrs. Cowley said.

"With the support we have been promised, we believe that we can have an animal shelter by the summer months," she added and asked that all interested persons attend the Thursday meeting.

Castro Completes $40 Million Grab

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro's revolutionary government took over the newspaper El Mundo and the Telemundo TV station Monday night, completing its seizure of Italian businessman Amadeo Barletta's Cuban properties valued at $40 million.

Top executives of the newspaper and the station resigned at once, and government men were installed in their places.

El Mundo and Telemundo were taken over by the Ministry for the Recovery of Social Property, which seized Sunday night other Cuban properties owned by Barletta and his American-Italian son, Amadeo Jr.

Barletta has denied the government's charge that he "profited unjustifiably" from his relationship with ousted ex-President Fulgencio Batista and leaders of his administration.

El Mundo is the second newspaper the Castro regime has taken over this year. The minister seized the once-independent Advance last month, after its owner and publisher Jorge Laya, fled to the U.S.

Castro's "revolutionary press" now numbers seven newspapers, plus the Communist publication Key, which always lines up with the government.

Six Havana newspapers are still independently published, but their pages are customarily dotted with footnotes inserted by their workers branding stories they disapprove as "false" or "sneakish."

Independence Move Growing In Puerto Rico
SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI) — A new group in the "Movimiento Independencia" composed mainly of young people, intellectuals, students and workers between the ages of 20 and 30, Communists in its membership form only a small percentage.

The group is being led by Maria Bras, a brilliant young lawyer in his early 30s, who was expelled from the University of Puerto Rico six or seven years ago when Chancellor Jaime Benitez launched what was then called a "brain-washing" of students favoring independence.

Bras led the opposition to the "brain-washing," the object of which was to urge students to accept the U. S. commonwealth role for Puerto Rico as backed by Gov. Luis Munoz Marin. He was expelled from the United States to complete his education and returned to Puerto Rico.

The movement is reported growing throughout the island and now has 2,000 to 3,000 members. The language they use is more radical than that used by the old Independence Party, but no one limits their opposition to words.

The group publishes a monthly newspaper called "Claridad" which takes a strong verbal stand for independence.

It was this group which demonstrated Monday at the airport when President Eisenhower arrived for an overnight stay. There was no violence—just shouts and slogans which Eisenhower did not hear or see.

Foremost Gets Hearing Delayed
JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Foremost Dairies, Inc., was granted another 30 days Monday to prepare arguments against revocation or suspension of its license by the State Milk Commission.

Circuit Judge William A. Staley issued a temporary injunction preventing the commission from holding a hearing in the case last Wednesday. He gave each side 30 days to prepare briefs.

The commission has accused Foremost of buying milk from farmers in St. Petersburg and Gainesville, both areas under commission control, and selling it in Tallahassee, which is not under commission control. It had ordered the dairy to show cause Wednesday why its license should not be suspended or revoked.

Foremost, in filing suit Friday asking for an injunction, contended the commission's action violated federal regulations concerning free commerce.

President Pledges Latin America Aid
BRASILIA, Brazil (UPI) — President Eisenhower came to Brazil's great unfinished capital of Brasilia today, with a pledge of aid to under-developed Latin American nations and a solemn front against encroaching communism.

Eisenhower's jet airliner landed at Brasilia's airport for the first major stop on the four-nation 15,000-mile South American tour. He was met by President Juscelino Kubitschek of Brazil.

The two presidents already were agreed on a second "Declaration of Brasilia" stating their determination to defend "the democratic freedoms and fundamental rights of man" while pressing toward American solidarity and economic growth.

The declaration stressed two main points:

- General support of Operation Pan America, the inter-hemispheric economic development program launched by Kubitschek last year.
- Hemispheric defense and security of the continent generally and peaceful relations among all the American peoples.

"Acknowledge that joint efforts of the American nations have already achieved much, but firm in the conviction that action still must be taken," the declaration said. "The two presidents are confident that the hemispheric crusade for economic development will lead toward greater prosperity and harmony for all."

Eisenhower in his speech paid tribute to Brazil's great effort in creating its new capital out of jungle wilderness and turning it into one of the world's most up-to-date cities.

"May your toil be fruitful in advancing Brazil's development and well being," he said. "May your hands be firmly grasped with those of the workers of the United States and the entire free world in the building of a richer life, in freedom, for yourselves, your children, and all generations to follow."

The Journal Do Brasil in Rio bannered a report that Kubitschek would tell Eisenhower that the hemispheres must progress at any price and that Brazil does not want its economic development left to theory, but wants to give an example to the entire world.

The board's action followed a petition from approximately 70 land owners in the Florida Haven area in the southern end of the county.

The petition asked that the board "take immediate action to alleviate the impossible conditions resulting from the extreme high level of Lake Seminole."

The petition said the level of the lake has risen approximately three feet in the past six months "and has shown no sign of receding."

"Properly owners stressed in the petition that the condition is causing pollution of the lake "which is a menace to life and health of all residents in the area."
