Tom McDonald, incoming president of the local Jaycees said, following the completion of the report "All of us know of the report before we read it and we are deeply indebted for the wonderful work and effort that has been expended for our most successful year."

Raborn listed 25 major projects: Shrine Removal, Fishing Bog, Fire Prevention Week, Get Out The Vote, Good Government Award, Christmas Parade, Orphan's

Shopping Tour, PGA Tournament, Christmas Lighting Project, Christmas Tree Sale, Voice of Democracy Contest, Jaycee Wives Club, Courtesy Week, Jaycee Week, Longwood Area Jaycee Club, New Tourist Information Building, Parliamentary Procedure Course, Spread Our Sunshine, Membership Drive, Orientation and Leadership Training Program, Teacher of the Year Award, Leadership Awards, Boys State Delegation, and Florida Front Bumper Tags, as the major projects undertaken by the local Jaycees organization.

'Pigeon Mystery' Is Solved

Mystery, at first, surrounded the appearance in Sanford of a pigeon wearing bands on both of its legs. However, word has been received that the pigeon was released by the United States Department of Agriculture, in Washington, D. C.

The pigeon, Monday morning, walked into a Sanford Ave. dime store, looked about, and allowed itself to be taken and put into a cage.

Homestead Analysis Presented To Board

The first concrete steps in an appraisal analysis of the present Seminole County situation relative to assessment and millage was presented last night when the 11-man Advisory Board to the Board of Seminole County Commissioners met to study further the problems of the county.

Vernon W. Dunn, a member of the Advisory Commission, presented an analysis of a study made on 12 homesteads in Seminole County, 10 of them in one concentrated area.

The analysis pointed up the "1957 Conservative Market Value" of the homesteads selected at random, the "Assessed Market Value" "Assessed for Tax", and the tax paid by each homestead owner.

The mimeographed analysis further pointed up taxes "If Assessed at the Conservative Market Value" and listed amounts on each homestead under 40 per cent of the amount at 3.5 mills, under 20 per cent of value at 15 mills, and under 20 per cent of value at 18 mills.

Dunn pointed out to members of the advisory commission that

Socialists Seek Preview Of De Gaulle's Plans

THIS CAR WENT OUT OF CONTROL last night as the driver came out of an Orlando Boulevard ice cream drive-in. Damage was estimated at $700. Capt. Arnold Williams of the Sanford Police Department said the driver was Lt. (jg) James F. Morrissey Jr. (Staff Photo)

PARIS (UPI) — The powerful French Socialist Party, last remaining stumbling block to Gen. Charles de Gaulle's immediate rise to power as head of a "government of public safety," asked today for a preview of his plans if and when he takes office.

It was a further indication of the Socialists' steady retreat from a previous stand of unyielding opposition to the former Free French leader whom President Rene Coty has described as the only man who can save France from civil war.

Officials To Be Targets For Circus

By Virginia Owen
City and County Commissioners will get their due Saturday afternoon during the Cub Scout Circus.

The power to tip the scales one way or the other lay with the Socialists.

Memorial In The Heart

The civilized world is studied with memorials to those who died—years, decades, generations, even centuries past—in the cause of civilization. Some of these memorials are no more than bits of stone with a name and date scratched upon them, lost now in the tangled green of some remote jungle; others are little crosses in neat rows; others still are great sculptured masses of granite, marble, bronze, that program a nation's pride and sorrow.

Driver Loses Control Of Car, Crashes Into Pole

The driver of an automobile lost control of his vehicle last night as he pulled out of a highway ice cream drive-in and crashed into a whiteway pole.

Stolen Automobile Found Early Today In Enterprise

An automobile, stolen in Sanford sometime during last night, was found this morning in Enterprise at the end of DeBarry Drive, the old Enterprise-Osteen road.

A vision of these myriad tributes to the dead haunts the thoughtful mind on Memorial Day. Yet it is not such visible monuments that are the most fitting memorial to the fallen.

Damage to the car was estimated at $700, Captain Arnold Williams, of the Sanford Police Department reported.

The wrecked automobile was found by Howard Wilborn and reported to Constable Oscar Papineau about 7:45 a. m.

The multitudes who gave their lives, whether in a blaze of heroism or in dogged endurance of a job that had to be done, seem always to speak to us once more on this day. And what they say is: Remember. Remember that we, too, prized life. Do not forget that we once felt the joys and pains of sentient being. Above all, remember that the prized institutions of free men—government by consent of the governed, the rule of justice, the accepted right of each individual to seek the good life—are built upon our devotion.

Driver of the car was Lt. (jg) James F. Morrissey Jr. of 500 Park Ave.

Kirehoffs told police officers that the automobile was put in the garage about 10 o'clock last night and some noises were heard during the night.

The truest memorial to those we honor on this day is fashioned, not of stone or bronze, but of remembrance and re-dedication to the cause of human freedom. Men and women have fought and died for that cause. We can do no less than remember, with humble gratitude, the sacrifice they made.

Damage to the metal whiteway standard and its concrete base was not estimated last night. Skid Richard, superintendent for the City of Sanford, was called to the scene but withheld an estimate of the damage because of the broken concrete base.

However, when he went out to get his car this morning it was gone.

Business Trend Up In Seminole County

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce pointed to the "Upward" business trends in its latest issue of "Sem-O-Gram" mailed to members.

Kirehoffs reported the stolen car and immediately after, it was found in Enterprise.

It was reported that fingerprints have been found on the automobile that might lead to the arrest of the person taking the car.

Bank deposits in Seminole County, points out the organization's monthly bulletin, are up 6.3 per cent, while bank resources are up 7.3 per cent.

Building permits in Sanford increased 16.1 per cent during the first three months of 1958 while an astounding record has been set by Seminole County with over $5 million in home construction during the first 4 1/2 months.

Constable Papineau said the automobile had turned end-over-end and came to a stop on its side across the road. Damage was estimated at approximately $800.

Building permits in Sanford increased 16.1 per cent during the first three months of 1958 while an astounding record has been set by Seminole County with over $5 million in home construction during the first 4 1/2 months.

Postal receipts have increased 7.7 per cent, it was noted, while the increase in electric meters increased 8.3 per cent and water meters increased 5.3 per cent.

"KNOWN BUT TO GOD"

Thousands flock every year from all corners of our nation to stand in hushed reverence before the tomb of the soldier "known but to God."

To all others, he is labeled "Unknown." And in this fact alone, there is tremendous significance. No man knows who this boy really was—but God knows!

God knows you, too, as he knows every man, every woman, every child in the world. That means that no matter who you are, no matter what you do, you can never be really "unknown."

You might ask yourself, "Do I know Him?" If the answer is negative, remember that your first step in finding Him is the step that takes you through the door of His house on earth.

Start going to church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of the Church itself; (4) For the sake of the community and nation. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CHAPTER 16
WHEN PRICE REGAN was in town Sunday morning, he made it a practice to call at the Mauden house at 10:45 to take Laura to church. Usually her father went with them. As Price rang the bell this morning, he nervously noted Barry Mauden was going anywhere but to church. His hopes were immediately dashed. For Mauden dressed in his Sunday best, opened the door.

"Come in, Price," Mauden said. "I think Laura is almost ready." They waited in the hall, but Mauden's face very grave. Price glanced at him and turned his gaze away, wondering as he had a good many times how far the rascal would go in backing Cole Weston. Apparently they had gone down the line together so far, but last night Weston had made his intentions clear. The ruffled brutality which characterized Weston the rancher did not seem to be in Mauden the banker. If they could be separated...

His thoughts were broken into by Laura, who came down the stairs, wearing a sailor hat and a prim blue dress which gave her a girlish subtlety. Mauden it was for Sunday morning only. Price thought, an appearance which she would shed when she returned home as easily as she would take off the dress. "Good morning, darling," Laura said, and paused halfway down the stairs for him to admire her. The spot where she stopped was carefully chosen. The sunlight pouring through the stained glass of an east window, touched her with the colors of the rainbow. Price smiled, thinking this but of sadly was quite unbecoming from the dour Sunday-morning manner she assumed.

"You're beautiful," he said. "As beautiful as an angel with the glory of the Lord upon her." "A very pretty compliment, she said, and came on down the stairs. "I thank you for it." Mauden smiled, sure that Price would hear her talk to his breakfast. You know she was right.

"You deserved it," she said. "Anyhow, Price wouldn't want to marry an angel?" "I'm surprised she even looks like one," Mauden said, with his hand on his hip. "I guess anybody would be glad to bring home like that." "It was seeing him," Jean said. "I took just one look, and that was that. I'll tell you about him the rest of my life."

A few words are spoken, and the story ends. Tomorrow.

NEW COPTER MAKES DEBUT—Flown publicly for the first time at Stratford, Conn., is this new S-62 Sikorsky helicopter. The 10-12 passenger, turbine-powered craft is the first amphibious whirlybird ever built with a flying boat type hull that will permit landings on and takeoff from land, water, ice, snow or swamps. The top photo shows the unique design of the craft which features pontoons, which also serve as a housing for the wheels which enable the helicopter to fly into the heart of large cities. At bottom, the copter takes to water like a duck.

To Avoid Ivy Poisoning Remember This Slogan

By HERMAN N. BUNDSEN, M. D.

"LEAFLETS three, let it be." You might do well to remember this very old and simple little rhyme this summer. For poison ivy can spoil many a happy outing and even entire vacations.

Avoid Plant
The only sure way to prevent an attack of poison ivy is to avoid the villainous plant, if that is at all possible. That's where this little rhyme comes in.

The most significant feature about the poison ivy plant is that its leaves grow in clusters of three. These leaves are green in the summer, but generally turn brown, yellow or red in the autumn or fall. The leaves are slightly notched and from one to four inches long.

White Fruit
Another distinguishing feature is that the berry-like fruit is white, whereas the berries of the harmless ivy plants are bluish purple.

Poison ivy is an attractive plant, you might even say it is beautiful. And because of this it is more likely to attract than to repel. But remember:

"Leaflets three, let it be." Most cases of poison ivy result from direct contact with the plant, although you can contract it by handling clothing, pets and garden implements contaminated by the oily sap. It is this non-volatile oil...

Science Today

NEW YORK (UPI)—Three scientists used the demands of federal tax laws to prove that emotional stress which exists when people feel a sense of urgency and know the heat is on them, not only increases the cholesterol level of their blood but also shortens the time it takes for their blood to coagulate.

Science only lately has come upon clues which indicated a definite mental influence upon blood chemistry. This new work is the definite proof of that.

People whose blood coagulates very quickly are set up partially for blood clots in the coronary arteries—in short, for "heart attacks." It has been a common observation for centuries that extreme stress will keep over a few of the people who feel it. Now it has been shown how such "accidents" happen.

Mrs. Meyer Friedman and Ray H. Himmelfarb and Vernice Carroll of the Harold Brunn Institute, San Francisco, took 50 accountants and kept them under clear chemical observation for five months, beginning in January.

Facing 164 High School Grads Tonight Will Be Harder Work

There will be 164 young men and women facing new worlds tonight at 8 o'clock when 121 centers at Seminole High School, 11 at Orlando High School, and 30 at Lyman High School, are handed their certificates for successfully completing their high school careers.

They are part of the thousands of high school seniors in Florida standing on the brink of their newest and greatest adventure.

After graduating tonight—receiving their diplomas from Principals Andrew J. Bracken, W. H. DeShazo and E. S. Douglass—they will be facing innumerable situations that have never confronted them before.

Whatever the situations, they will be new, no matter where they go—to college in the fall, to work at summer jobs, or in permanent positions in various types of commerce and industry.

For those who have jobs and will go to work, hundreds will get testing, counseling and job-finding help from the Florida State Employment Service. They will join the thousands of job applicants who use that agency.

And whatever their chances will be in the labor market of 1958, the graduating students look like good bets for local and Florida employers, according to state officials who are constantly studying the needs of industry.

Students graduating from Seminole County high schools this year have won many honors. They have crashed barriers other graduating high school seniors, in previous years, did not reach.

James T. Vocelle, State Industrial Commission chairman, said "During the past few weeks we have looked over this year's crop of high school students who are coming into the job market, and they look good to us."

Then there is William U. Norwood Jr., director of the State Employment Service, who describes this year's graduates as "alert, eager, and ambitious."

Principal Andrew J. Bracken described the 1957-58 graduating class as the "most active, the most ambitious graduating class I have ever seen."

This year, a larger percentage of graduates will attend colleges in Florida and elsewhere, demonstrating that out of the new group of young men and young women who are stepping into new roles and new lives, may have ambitions to reach higher levels of learning and accomplishment.

With modern living becoming more and more complex, this year's high school seniors embarking on new careers and into new channels of endeavor, greater obstacles will be dumped into paths of success. However, with the training and discipline through which they have gone, there is no doubt these obstacles will be brushed aside by ambition and perseverance.

With each young lady and each young man receiving his or her diploma tonight will go the good wishes and congratulations of a community!

To each one goes the reward of success—the harder the work the greater the reward.

Recreation Program Under Way

The Youth Wing of the Sanford Civic Center will be initially put to use tonight as a year-round recreation program for children, from pre-school age on up, gets under way.

Recreation Director Ronald W. Perry takes the reins of formulating a diversified program to fit all age groups and to direct the leadership of volunteers who will head up various phases of the recreation program.

It is the City of Sanford's first try at supervised recreation with the adage "As a twig is bent so shall it grow" the foremost problem.

Starting youngsters at an early age in a character building program is the most formidable way of reaching the goal that has been set by City Commissioners in providing leadership for recreational activities.

At a time when juvenile delinquency is on the increase and vandalism, drag racing, petty larceny, and other crimes are being credited to the teenager, it is refreshing and invigorating to see a program and news

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of interest from former servicemen and their families:

Q. I'm a Korean veteran, and it will be three years this fall since my discharge. If I go to school under the GI Bill, must I be in training within three years from discharge, or is it enough just to get my application in to the Veterans Administration?

A. You must actually be in training within three years from the date of your discharge. It is not enough merely to apply.

Q. I receive a VA compensation check and I am moving to another town. What do I do about my change of address?

A. Give your old and new addresses to your local Post office, using a change-of-address form.

Q. Who can get a grant from the VA for a "wheelchair" home? A. Veterans of all wars, as well as those with peacetime service, may qualify for "wheelchair" housing, so long as they meet the requirements set forth in the law.

Q. My wife and I are both veterans. The house we live in was bought with my GI loan, and we need a bigger one now. Can my wife use her GI loan benefit for another house?

A. Yes, your wife may still use her loan benefit even though you have used yours.

Inside Washington

By Henry Calbert
Central Press Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—Because of the unexpectedly rapid development of critical situations abroad, President Eisenhower's talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in Washington next month are to be broadened in scope.

The President and the prime minister originally had intended to talk principally about a joint Anglo-American approach to a possible summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The agenda is being broadened, however, according to administration sources, to cover the French crisis in Algeria, and untoward events in other areas where both Britain and the United States have a stake.

The important matters awaiting discussion are, in fact, so numerous that some diplomats expect Macmillan to prolong his Washington stay by at least a day or two.

Summerfield Leaving?—There is some speculation in Washington that Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield may be the next member of President Eisenhower's Cabinet to resign.

Any decision, according to informants, will be delayed until after Congress enacts the postal increase bill which Summerfield has fought for ever since he took office in 1955.

However, once the postal legislation is passed, Summerfield may feel that he has done enough to put postal operations on a businesslike basis and retire to private life.

If Summerfield quits, it will leave the Eisenhower Cabinet with only three of its original members—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Agricultural Secretary Ezra T. Benson and Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks.

Recession Cuts?—Government economists are privately fearful that current reports of an economic pick-up may halt the country and Congress into a false belief that nothing concrete may be required to end the recession.

This attitude, in turn, they believe, may cause a slowdown in the rate of recovery this autumn and winter.

Noting recent indices reflecting a slight improvement in recent weeks, the economists say that such upturns are seasonal and the increased activity does not show a basic shift in the direction of the economy.

Three economists contend that Congress and the government must take some positive steps, such as increased federal spending, continued easing of credit or reductions in taxes, to stimulate consumer spending.

H-Power Race?—There is an ominous note for the United States in the award to two Russian scientists of Lenin prizes for work that "paves the way to controlling thermonuclear (H-bomb) reactions."

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES H. MCCANN
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Soviet Russia has laid the basis for an intensified "peace offensive."

The basis was laid at a meeting in Moscow of the eight Communist-ruled members of the so-called Warsaw Alliance, which Russia organized in answer to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

A communique and a declaration issued at the end of the meeting formally announced conditions for a "summit" conference of heads of governments on world issues and offered the Western Allies a 25-year treaty of non-aggression.

They also restated Russia's sponsorship of the Rapacki Plan, announced by Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki, to ban nuclear weapons bases in Poland, Czechoslovakia and West and East Germany.

In addition, the documents announced reductions in strength of the armed forces of Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Romania.

As is customary in such Communist pronouncements, the documents were blatant in their propaganda.

The Western allies, and especially the United States, were denounced as aggravating world tension while Russia and its satellites were struggling for peaceful co-existence.

There was nothing startling, or really even new, in the Communist documents. But they laid down a broad program for cooperation in the name of the eight Warsaw Treaty countries.

Wants Prestige
The documents indicated that one big reason why Russia called the meeting was to try to build up the prestige of its east European satellites, to make them appear to be the equals of the members of NATO, in preparation for a summit conference.

The declaration said that the Warsaw Treaty members "regard a heads-of-government conference as a major means to protect mankind from war disaster."

It said that the United States had brought pressure on its allies to reject a Russian proposal for a summit conference with "broad representation."

In view of the allied opposition to "broad representation," the Communist document proposed that three or four countries on each side take part in the conference.

Conning The News

All the wives of WAR-9 men held a box lunch Wednesday at Lake Golden. Dottie Fitzgerald was the most skillful, walking a straight line with binoculars—and the luckiest, since her number came up—entitling her to a free lunch. The rolling pin throw, guaranteed to put any one's husband back on the straight and narrow, was won by Val Kelsey.

The games were judged by letter women. Gene Reedy and Betty Hazlett. The girls paired off for lunch and visited with each other for the rest of the afternoon. Thanks were due Toni Waters and Elizabeth White for this successful party. Enthusiasm was so great, that another is planned in September.

Don't forget the Cub Scout Circus tomorrow afternoon at the Sanford Farmer's Auction. The kids will love this one, especially since the boys are doing it themselves. While an adult will supervise in each booth, the scouts will make the change and take in the nickels. Starts at 12:30 p. m.

On June 5, Nancy Cushing will take this desk at The Sanford Herald. Meanwhile, news editor, Patty Walker, will take your calls and put in the scoop.

During this period in clubs when new publicity heads are being chosen, it might be helpful for them to know that:

Copy should be double spaced, with a fairly wide margin and TYPED, if at all possible. Don't forget the where, when, why and how of each story. Try to make the article as brief as possible; report the facts.

Use Mrs. in front of each married gal's name, not Mesdames, when speaking of a group. Consider your material. Put the most important event during the meeting first. Promptness is most important. If your copy arrives at the office typed, spaced, re-read and the day it happened you may be sure to see it in the next day's paper.

Follow these directions (although I know every one does not have a typewriter) and it will make Nancy's job this summer much easier. See you in the fall, when my little brood and I return to Sanford.

Meanwhile, the column will come in spasmodically from Maine. The pot shots from there could be pretty good, I'll be so far away. Have a nice summer!

Visitation Plans Made By Class

A visitation program for young married people was planned recently when the Joy Ruth Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. A. J. Peterson. Prospects will be invited to join the church.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Alfred Chiles. Mrs. William Carrigan gave the devotional.

Games were played during the social hour. Prizes went to Mrs. Carrigan, Mrs. Miller Osborne, and Mrs. Richmond Gruber. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Others attending were Mrs. Carroll Bergerson and the Misses Ceri and Jerri Wheatland.

Miss Stinecpher To Graduate June 1 From Stetson U.

Grace Marie Stinecpher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stinecpher, will graduate from Stetson University June 1 with an AB degree in Elementary Education.

Celebration exercises will be held in the Forest of Ardun on the university campus at 7:00 P. M. The address will be given by Dr. Charles W. Campbell, vice-president of Prudential Insurance Company of America.

Grace Marie spent her first two college years at Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee. While at Maryville, she was a member of the National Society of Future Teachers of America, and the Highlanders Band. She was society editor of The Highland Echo, campus newspaper, and was on the dean's list.

At Stetson she served on the Freshman Advisory Council, and was a member of the Future Educators of America, Alpha Xi Omega, Baptist Student Union and the Hutter Band. This spring she went with the band on tour which took it into five states and as far north as Norfolk, Virginia. They played fourteen concerts in ten days.

Grace Marie will also be remembered as the writer of the column, "College Echoes" in The Sanford Herald. This spring she interned in a sixth grade class at Killarney Elementary School in Winter Park. Next year she will begin her career as a teacher in a fourth grade class at Lakemont Elementary School, also in Winter Park.

BASEBALL INTO THE 'DUSTER' TRAP—Giant Manager Bill Rigney (top, right) puts restraining arms on First Manager Danny Harbo in a baseball ruckus at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh. Harbo had just turned on pitcher Ruben Gomez (left), who, while at bat for San Francisco, had been the target of suspected "duster" from Pittsburgh pitcher Vernon Law. At bottom, Willie Mays (24), downed teammate Orlando Cepeda, who was ready to help Gomez, also accused of pitching at "crow" heads. Harbo was ejected from the game and the Giants swept both halves of the twin bill. (UPI Telephotos)

No Change Expected In Rules On Pitchers

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—There's a new method of picking the starting lineups for this year's big league All-Star game on July 6, but indications are that there won't be any changes in the rules about the pitchers.

Casey Stengel, New York Yankee manager who annually pilots the American League team as an old "Yankee custom," wants a rule to prohibit managers from using all-star pitchers on the Sunday before the Tuesday big game. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick was quizzed Wednesday about Casey's proposal while he was announcing arrangements for this year's carnival of the stars at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. "That is strictly at the discretion of the two leagues," said Frick.

And league heads Warren Giles of the National and Will Harridge of the American, followed by declining to endorse the Stengel idea. Harridge refused to comment at all. But Giles said:

"I personally would be against suggesting anything to a manager. That might hurt his chance of winning a championship game." The big change, this year, of course, is that the starting lineup for both leagues will be made up of "ballplayers' ballplayers." This is the first time that the lineups will be picked by balloting of the major-league players, managers, and coaches.

Frick took the vote away from the fans because of "ballot box stuffing" in Cincinnati. The Red Sox fans voted so early and often that last year they picked an entire starting lineup of Cincinnati players for the National League, excepting Stan Musial.

Frick announced yesterday that the players' voting will start on June 22. Players are allowed to vote only for players in their league and not for players on their team. The ballot results will be announced June 26.

Beecham, Webb Meet In 10-Round Bout Tonight

By FRANK RIDGE JR., United Press International
MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Knock-out puncher Spider Webb of Chicago goes against Jimmy Beecham of Miami, one of the unranked "spillers" of the middleweight division, in a 10-round bout tonight before some 2,500 fans and a national television audience.

Webb, called Ellsworth by his mother, is expected to enter the ring as a 2-1 favorite with a five-pound weight advantage over his opponent. Beecham is expected to weigh in at 154 pounds compared to 159 for the six-ranked middleweight.

A leading amateur champion while a student at the University of Idaho in 1941-42, Webb will be looking for the 27th win of his professional career. To date he has lost only three of 20 pro bouts, the most recent being a decision to Holly Sims earlier this year.

Webb previously beat Mims and also numbers among his victims, Willie Vaughn, Sandy Sandy, Bobby Boyd and Jimmy Martinez, twice by knockouts.

A stalker in the ring much as was former heavyweight champion Joe Louis, Webb has chalked up 14 knockouts but never had been stopped himself. Louis' former bodyguard, Carl Nelson, is the Chicago youth's trainer and said the Spider has the same quick reflexes to spot an opening and move in for the kill.

Well aware of Webb's strategy, handlers have kept after Beecham in workouts all week to keep his head moving.

"If he can do that," one of the handlers said, "Jimmy can win this one on points. He has to keep from getting tagged with Webb's right."

Beecham Strategy
The Miamiite is noted as a "buzzy" fighter who keeps throwing punches for points. The style he carried him to 23 victories in 29 fights, seven of them by knockouts. Beecham has been stopped once in the five bouts he has lost and has fought to one draw. He knocked Vaughn out of the middleweight rankings in the second of their three meetings. The other two ended in a decision for Vaughn and a draw in the most recent rubber match. Beecham's other victories included Mims, Luther Rawlings, Hector Constance and George Johnson.

The fight will be carried over NBC television beginning at 10 p. m. EDT.

COACH NAMED

The Isle of Man, in the Irish sea, has an area of 221 square miles.

LIONS SIGN THREE
DETROIT (UPI)—The Detroit Lions of the National Football League have signed Gil Mains, a defensive end, and Gary Lowe, a defensive halfback, to 1958 contracts. Last year's NFL champions also signed rookie end Harold Route of San Jose State, their 12th draft choice.

FIGHT SCHEDULED
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Featherweight Paul Jorgensen of Houston, Tex., and Ricardo Valente Moreno of Mexico have signed for a 10-round bout here Aug. 7. Jorgensen is the nation's third-ranked featherweight. Moreno was knocked out in a previous Los Angeles appearance by featherweight King Hogan Kid Bassey.

Powell To Coach At Florida

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Jim Powell, former All-American end at Tennessee, will coach the University of Florida freshman football team next fall.

Athletic Director and Head Coach Bob Woodruff announced Wednesday that Powell will report to the "Gator campus" next month.

At present, Powell is head coach at Miami Edison High School, where he starred as a student in football, basketball, baseball and track. During his two years as head coach, Edison turned out its first undefeated team in school history, capturing the city, Big Ten and state championships.

Powell, who is married and has a 13-year-old daughter, led the nation in pass receiving in 1946, his final year at Tennessee. He was also team captain, and still holds the record (10) for the number of individual pass receptions in one game.

A veteran of World War II, Powell played on the varsity team at Tennessee as a freshman in 1942 before entering service. From 1943 to 1946 he was a B23 pilot in the Air Force, then returned to college in 1946.

His first coaching job was in 1946 at Sullivan High School in Kingsport, Tenn. He joined the Edison staff as end coach in 1950, serving under his former high school coach, Ed Parnell.

Edison Principal Bill Duncan said he would recommend Heywood Fowle, presently an assistant coach on the high school staff, as Powell's successor. Fowle is a former star tackle at North Carolina.

OSNIE BLUEGE
By United Press International
Ossie Bluege was the third baseman on all three of Washington's pennant winning teams — in 1924, 1925 and 1933. For 18 seasons, Bluege rated as one of the greatest "glue men" in baseball for his excellent work afield but he was no slouch as a clutch hitter, either. Over his active span as a player, he compiled an average of .272. As manager of the Senators from 1943-47, he was the last to steer the club in first division finishes with seasons in 1943 and 1945 and fourth in 1946. He was farm system director for the Senators from 1948-56.

Whatever happened to Ossie Bluege? A graduate accountant before he turned to baseball, Bluege, now 56, has a front office job as a controller of the Washington ball club.

Brilliant Cast Appears Sunday At Ritz In 'Long, Hot Summer'

Jerry Wald's production of William Faulkner's "The Long, Hot Summer," a Twentieth Century-Fox Cinemascope, De Luxe Color presentation which premieres Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, examines human problems and passions with a probing eye and that special sort of insight which has become a Wald trademark.

PAUL NEWMAN, as "Ben Quick," and Joanne Woodward, as "Clarix," appear in a key scene from the Jerry Wald production of William Faulkner's "The Long, Hot Summer," the story of the effect upon an entire community and one family in particular of a ruthless, strong man.

The picture comes through in many parts: it is a story full of lusty action, yet, there is both spiritual and earthy love in it too. All of the many parts of "The Long, Hot Summer" have been handled in the rapidly becoming famous Wald-Ritt manner—frank and forthright, yet with controlled good taste.

Fun TV Schedule Looks No Joke

By WILLIAM SWALD
Came from the...
NEW YORK (UPI)—The...
schedules of the three networks...
and I find they contain the social...
fare — Westerns, situation comedies, quizzes.

Frankly, the situation disturbs me. But I don't think the season has to fall into the same old rut — a few new program ideas would fix things up fine. In the interests of better programming, therefore, I have compiled the following possible formats for TV shows next semester:

"The Places Show" — I see this as a one-man assisted by one Atlas type show. The idea is for him to call out places—Minneapolis; Detroit; Tiffin, Ohio; Chavez Ravine; Kanda Kanda, Belgian Congo—and then let the studio audience applaud. That's all.

"The Awards Show"—an entry that would take care of all the trophies, plaques, medals, statues, certificates, ribbons, decorations, garlands, crowns, citations, honors, titles, cups, sashes and gold records ordinarily bestowed upon performers each week on their own programs.

"The Coming Attractions Theatre"—This one would be a drama show made up of all those scenes played at the end of "Playhouse 90," "Climax" and "Studio One" that encapsules what's coming up the following week. They'll usually be a part of the upcoming script anyhow.

"The Vaughn Monroe Show"—one half-hour of Monroe dropping radios.

"The Plug Show"—in which stars would parade on stage to puff their latest movies, books, plays and to make jokes about commercial products that aren't their sponsors. I see Bob Hope as emcee.

"The Sound Track Show"—made up of the greatest canned laughs from filmed situation comedies.

"The Egghead Show"—Italian and Spanish movies.

"The Super-Egghead Show"—

Creation Of Three Transcontinental Skyways Ordered

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board has ordered creation of three transcontinental super skyways in which all aircraft will be constantly under safety control from the ground.

The sky corridors will link Los Angeles and San Francisco to New York and Washington. Each will be 60 miles wide and extend from an altitude of 17,000 feet to 22,000 feet. They go into effect June 15.

A CAB announcement said the board intends to expand the number, length, and height of these super skyways as quickly as ground control capacity will allow.

It is hoped creation of such skyways under jurisdiction of a single safety system will help to prevent aerial collisions like those which took place in April and May.

Each flight the board said, "will be a cocoon of its own air space protected by ground monitoring with a separation from other aircraft of at least 1,000 feet vertically and 10 minutes' flying time horizontally."

Both the commercial airlines and the Defense Department have endorsed the skyway plan, the board said. The Defense Department endorsement came this morning.

The board said that the new safety system will put Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) ground control facilities to a "severe test."

Scheduled airlines had already moved to put all their flights above 10,000 feet under control from the ground, starting July 1. This is a nationwide move.

Each flight the board said, "will be a cocoon of its own air space protected by ground monitoring with a separation from other aircraft of at least 1,000 feet vertically and 10 minutes' flying time horizontally."

Both the commercial airlines and the Defense Department have endorsed the skyway plan, the board said. The Defense Department endorsement came this morning.

On 'Glamor Kick'

By BOB CURTIS
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — You're looking at a new Joan Collins. I'm on a "glamor kick"—and it's paying off personally and professionally.
I don't feel like the same person as a few years ago, driving a latest or the H-bomb model and he just stands there kind of bleary-eyed. You ask him does he think the reception is winning, losing or drawing. He just spreads his arms.
"I tell you the average guy around this town has been hit with the news so many inter- national crises that he's lost his capacity to get excited. My grandpa used to tell me that look in the gay nineties, when things were slower and men had time to form an opinion, you couldn't even say the words 'tree-'"
Looks Appreciated
The apartment was especially decorated and furnished to look like a movie star's apartment. You should see the bedroom. It's very "retro"—plush pink and plenty of mirrors.
And not long afterwards, I was named one of Hollywood's best-dressed actresses. My pictures began appearing in fashion magazines. Professors at South Century, where I am under long-term contract, suddenly started asking me to star in their films.
I just completed, "The Bravado," opposite Gregory Peck. And the other day I was assigned a co-starring role with Jeanne Woodward and Paul Newman in "Bal by Round the Flag, Boys!" I'll wear 20 different changes of costume in the next one.

Average Person Over-Crisis'd

By BOB CURTIS
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — "The way I got it figured," says Wilbur, our office gossip, "is that the average guy has faced so many crises in the last few months that he's over-crisis'd. He's numb. Not in a state of shock—I wouldn't say that. Just numb."
What makes you feel that way, old man?
"Because he just doesn't react," said Wilbur. "You ask him how he feels about the Sputnik threat or the H-bomb menace and he just stands there kind of bleary-eyed. You ask him does he think the reception is winning, losing or drawing. He just spreads his arms."

$300,000 Fire Hits Tampa Meat Packing Plant

TAMPA (UPI)—Fire gutted the center block section of a large meat packing plant here early today, with damage estimated running as high as $300,000.
The plant, which is owned by the H. H. Overstreet Co., is located on the corner of 10th and Myrtle streets. The fire broke out about 10:30 p. m. Sunday night.
The fire was estimated to have reached half a million dollars if the flames had spread to a nearby warehouse. The origin of the blaze was undetermined.
Night Supt. Angel Ferrara said a night shift worker, Mildred Ruka, turned in the first alarm when the lights in her washer-sterilizer department went out. The fire was spotted moments later when a man was sent to check for fuses.
Low water pressure hampered early efforts of firemen to combat the blaze, and two huge tanks of gas ammonia threatened for a time to explode. However, no injuries were reported and the blaze apparently was largely under control shortly after midnight.
Company employees and volunteer workers helped remove part of the stock from the warehouse.
Louisiana is the only state in the United States whose laws are not based on English common law.
