Marfa, the heroine of "Sold for Marriage," a forthcoming Triangle-Fine Arts release is very much different from the ordinary Russian peasant girl, because she has spirit and is not complacent about the drudgeries to which she is subjected by her uncle, Ivan, and her aunt, Anna. Perhaps it is because of her spirit more than her beauty that she is the belle of the village, a circumstance viewed by Ivan with some pleasure, because he sees in a way of getting some money for himself and getting Marfa off his hands. Accordingly Ivan welcomes the attention of the most eligible bachelor, though ugly and declining in years.

It so happens that the preceding winter Marfa has made the acquaintance of a handsome young Russian, named Jan, but Ivan has frowned upon growing attachment because Jan is poor. Nevertheless, Marfa fosters the friendship of Jan, and they fall in love in earnest. But a time comes when Jan receives a letter from his uncle in San Francisco, bidding him come there; and he goes, promising to send for Marfa as soon as he can make good.

Again the most eligible bachelor presses his attention upon Marfa, but she slaps his face and beats him with a bottle. And, grievously offended, he returns to his first love and marries her out of spite.

Marfa has not merely attracted attention of the young and old men of her own station in life, but also of the commandment of the Cossacks stationed nearby. This Col. Grigioff is not so readily dismissed as the most eligible bachelor, but is disposed to use force when Marfa pushes him away. Therefore Marfa hits him over the head with the club which she has been using to pound clothes at the brookside, and knocks him unconscious.

This little piece of business is seen by Ivan, and, knowing the consequence of her act will be Siberia for the family he takes Marfa and her aunt and flees on board a ship bound for America.

They barely have gotten out of the place when Gregioff is brought to. When sufficiently recovered he goes to the little house of Marfa and demands, admission. Marfa's grandfather, the only person within, admits him at the point of a revolver. But he throws the old man aside, only to be killed by a bolt of lightning at the threshold.

Aboard ship, Marfa is delighted to find Jan, also bound for America, and much to the annoyance of Ivan, who has other plans for Marfa their love increases.

Arriving in America, they are met by Ivan's brother Dimitri, who has made arrangements to sell Marfa in marriage to the highest bidder in the Los Angeles Russian colony. This plan is about to go through, with Marfa going at the price of one thousand dollars, when Jan learns of the situation. He had found that in America the police are not all tyrants, in Russia, oppressors of the poor, so to them he goes for aid. The outcome is thrilling and brings Marfa happiness at last.

Big Modern Note in "Stepping Stone"

Many Awakened to Women Place in the World the Theme of Triangle's New Play at Lyric Friday

The modern note in "The Stepping Stone," a new Triangle release, is its theme, the place of women in the world. The play is a study in the lives of a group of women who are struggling to make their way in a world that is still largely dominated by men.

The play is a study in the lives of a group of women who are struggling to make their way in a world that is still largely dominated by men. It is a story of the triumph of the spirit over the material.

of his mightiest themes is that of "The Stepping Stone," a new Triangle play starring Frank Keenan and Mary Boland.

It takes the biggest step so far in the amazing social revolt of the modern woman. The old idea of woman as a stepping stone for the male, has for some time been challenged by woman herself; but, despite the constantly swelling army of suffragists, her representatives have been isolated members of her sex.

Sullivan takes the attitude that the thinking man may prove instrumental in bringing that woman who has not heeded the call of her sisters to her rightful place. In his story, a man who has won his way to the top, finds the type of woman he has been seeking all his life the wife of a man who never can appreciate her; and he then and there determines to secure her for his own. The manner of his doing this constitutes a thrilling action; and hammers home the moral with real punch.

"The Stepping Stone" should prove one of the most forceful contributions to the propaganda of the modern woman.

At Lyric Friday.

Triangle Fine Arts Star becoming literary expert through "Sold for Marriage"

Lillian Gish, the Triangle-Fine Arts star who is featured in "Sold for Marriage," a new Triangle release has been reading so many books in order to present a correct idea of the Russian heroine, that it confidently is expected she soon will be qualified for a Master of Arts degree.

To fully acquaint herself with the characteristics and customs of the accepted type of Russian peasant girl, the part she is to portray she has been securing the works of such celebrated Russian authors as Gorky, Turgenieff and Tolstoy. She feels that the novels give her a far truer conception of life and atmosphere of the people, because the cold statistics of an encyclopedia are wholly lacking in spirit and color.

The opening scenes of "Sold for Marriage" will be a study in the lives of a group of women who are struggling to make their way in a world that is still largely dominated by men.

"Stepping Stone" May Some Day Have Dialogue

At Lyric Friday.
 Offers made to Producer Ince for Dramatic rights of Sullivan play.

Theatre goers may next season see "The Stepping Stone," the Triangle-Ince feature in which Frank Keenan and Mary Boland are co-starred, presented on the speaking stage. Producer Thomas H. Ince, who owns the dramatic rights has received offers from an Eastern theatrical syndicate for the work.

The play is based on an original story from the pen of C. Gardner Sullivan of the Ince staff of photoplaywrights. It is said to be unique in that the plot, which concerns the eternal triangle, is so skillfully handled that the interest always is at a high pitch. The story is based upon the efforts of a millionaire stock manipulator to win the love of the beautiful wife of a worthless young clerk who aspires to power and wealth by the "easy money" route.

The drama is said to be one which would readily lend itself to dialogue, but so ably is it acted in the film production that nothing is lost. Another unusual feature of the work is that there are but two exterior scenes in the production and these are only incidental to the story, a fact, which, it is claimed will make the silent drama the more easily adaptable to the speaking stage.

SLACKENING ALL ALONG MAIN BATTLE FRONTS

London, Aug. 4.—The armies in the three great centers of recent activity—the Somme region of France, Russia and Galicia—evidently have let up considerably in the violent fighting in which they have been engaged and are indulging in a breathing spell preparatory to further attacks and counter attacks.

Attacking in echelon on a three-mile line, from the Meuse River to Fleury, north of Verdun, the French have captured several German trenches, and organized ports of support. In the engagement 600 Germans were made prisoner and ten machine guns were captured.

On the Russian front Petrograd reports merely artillery duels and infantry attacks on the Stokhod and Turak river fronts and of local Russian offensives on the Dnieper River in Galicia, all of which were held.

At Vienna, the Austrians against the Italians are various points in the Alpine region. Monte S. Angelo has been taken by the Italians, resulting in the capture of 1,000 Austrians.

At the front in the Balkans, the Bulgarians have captured a number of Serbian positions on the eastern front. An official report issued says:

"A number of airships crossed the border of the eastern front after midnight. Their objectives are not yet ascertained. The first was shot down."

The government, under the Premier, is in consultation with labor representatives with a view to the formulation of an after-war policy in social and industrial matters intended to secure a fairer distribution among all classes of the results of modern industry.

Mr. Wallace V. Wheeler died at his home at Elder Springs on the Sanford Orlando road Wednesday afternoon, August 1, 1916. His remains were taken by his son, Wallace V. Wheeler, Jr., and his brother, C. C. Wheeler, to Louisville, Kentucky, his former home for interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

The deceased was born in Jefferson county, Kentucky, near Jefferson town, September 11, 1861. He was married on October 30, 1893, to Miss Cora Blakemore, of Franklin county, Ky. One child, a son, Wallace V. Jr., was born of this marriage and now survives him. His wife died a number of years ago. Two brothers survive him, C. C. Wheeler and W. C. Wheeler of Louisville, Ky. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Blakemore and his son made their home with him here.

Mr. Wheeler had been a successful business man. His home had been in Louisville, his family there being prominent in business and social life, but ill health caused him to come to Florida a few years ago and to remain here until his death.

He was a man of the highest integrity. His life was singularly pure, and in every relation of life he measured up to the highest ideals of duty and Christian citizenship. His every acquaintance was a friend. Many in this state and in Kentucky will mourn his loss. In strictest truth it may be said that the world is better because of his having lived in it.

M. H. LaHatte representing the American Type Foundry was in the city today calling on the local trade.

DENTSCHLAND SLIPS OUT OF BALTIMORE

NOW TAKING CHANCES OF CAPTURE ON THE HIGH SEAS

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 4.—The German merchant ship, the Dentschland, last night slipped out of the Virginia capes and is now taking chances of capture on the high seas.

It is reported that the ship was sighted by a British patrol vessel in the North Atlantic. The ship is believed to be carrying a large quantity of war material.

2ND CHOICE IS ATTACKED IN COURT

CATTS ATTORNEYS SAY SECOND COUNT IS UNFAIR

Tallahassee, Fla., Aug. 3.—Arguments of counsel for W. V. Knott and Sidney J. Catts on the question of recounting certain precincts in Duval and Putnam counties where the inspectors have refused to make the recount on the ground that they are not compelled by the law to do what they call this extra work were heard in supreme court this week.

Two new points were raised in counsel for Catts, one of them being an attack on the primary law and the other an attack on Knott's eligibility as a candidate for governor while still holding the office of comptroller.

It was urged that the second choice feature of the law does not give all voters equal standing at the polls. It was claimed that a man who voted first choice for Knott and second choice for Catts would be counted for Knott.

CASEMENT SUFFERED PENALTY

BRITISH GOVERNMENT DETERMINED TO KILL HIM

London, Aug. 4.—Sir Roger CaseMENT was executed in the Pentonville prison at 9 o'clock yesterday morning for high treason. Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of War Trade made known to the Associated Press that it was the British Government's determination not to reprieve Sir Roger.

Beyond the statement of Sir Robert, which was in defense of the Government's determination, no formal announcement to the effect that the execution was carried has been made public. Officials intimated to the Associated Press, however, that the usual procedure as a sentence on a convict carries with it the natural supposition of execution, the only case for an official announcement being the granting of a reprieve or a commutation of sentence.

While the Government maintains silence as to the final efforts made on behalf of Sir Roger, it is known that petitions for clemency have been received from the State Department at Washington requesting a reprieve.

The whole subject surrounding Sir Roger has been a matter of public interest. The British Government's determination to execute him has been a subject of much discussion.

TRAINMEN WILL STRIKE IS OPINION

RAILROADS WILL BE ASKED ONCE MORE TO DECIDE

New York, Aug. 4.—A committee of fifty men today continued the counting of the strike vote cast by 400,000 employes on 225 railroad systems in the United States. Timothy Shea, who is in charge of the counting, said he believed the vote will be almost unanimous to quit work if the railway officials persisted in their refusal to grant the demands of the men for an eight hour day and a time and a half for overtime.

The counters have finished the counting of the vote in the eastern territory. They will then take up the western vote. When the final result is known a mass meeting will be held to explain the controversy to the 600 chairmen of the adjustment committee of the four brotherhoods of railway workers, who have brought the ballot here to be counted.

A meeting of the national conference committee of the railways will be held here next Tuesday to make another attempt to settle the differences between the railways and the men.

When the complete vote has been counted, probably tomorrow or Monday, the railway men will be asked to make another attempt to settle the differences between the railways and the men.

Dog days are here and worthless curs are still allowed to roam undisturbed on Sanford's streets. How long will it be ere they are killed or muzzled or taxed?

The Osula Banner in an advertisement says "Patronize your home paper, it boosts you." Wonder how many business men ever think of a newspaper in that light.

The work of remodeling the building recently purchased by the Seminole Bank is worthy of commendation. Several ancient buildings in this city need the touches of modern architecture to scrape the moss of antiquity from their faces.

Here's hoping the Deutschland gets through all right. That captain and crew deserve a better fate than death by drowning and then we need those extra stiffs to bring down the price of paper. Her trip across chided by the English ships will read like a romance if the trip is completed.

Hughes has accepted the nomination in a speech at a public rally drawing attention to Wilson's watchful waiting. Well, Taft had the same chance at the Mexican imbroglio. Why do not he do something for the Republicans who are interested in ammunition? Let us and embalm him!

A bunch of wastrel people were noted in a neighboring city on a shopping trip the other day. Would it not be a good thing to have the same kind of people here? They are always begging for a handout. Why not have them here and let them beg for a handout from the neighboring city? They are carrying a half page in the newspapers all during the summer.

John P. Fisher, the Florida boy who got the prize for the state of Florida in the contest for the most beautiful spot in the world, is reported to be planning to visit Sanford. He will be here for a few days.

The Sanford Board of Trade meets tonight to plan the new year book. It is expected to be a most interesting and valuable one. The board will also discuss the question of a new board of trade.

Questions arising from the business men of Sanford, relative to public health, etc., are to be a part of the great work of the new Board of Trade. They will go to work with the idea that the greatest good for the greatest number and that number the people who are already here rather than to make strenuous efforts to advertise on a large scale this season for new people.

The Sanford Herald says: "One by one the old landmarks of this city are passing away." Reading between the lines I am forced to believe that the trial seven years in the head of Holly, has in appearance and now he's wearing a wig. Possibly, in terms of a trouper, that being the fashionable title in this locality.

Wig nothing. The last time we saw Holly he had eight hats. Since then he lost five. Still has three left, one over each ear and one on top. Column next pure thinking matter. Wig nothing. Winter Haven Chief. Well, that hair might have been the key line—but don't you think the thing had run over time and was merely being used as a "filler" because of the lack of other matter?—Palm Beach Post.

The long haired members of the Florida Press are jealous of our shapely dome and good looks. Wouldn't Thorndyke, for instance, be a freak if his pin head was bald?

At the head of this column appears the seal of the Florida Press Association. This seal was donated by the Wrigley Engraving Co., of Jacksonville to all members of the Association and The Herald will wear it with pride. It is an honor to be a member of the Florida Press Association and the seal means that the newspaper carrying it at the masthead is a member in good standing and is a real newspaper in every sense of the word.

adoption of a rider to an agricultural appropriation bill for the appointment by the president of a commission to visit Europe in cooperation with the Southern Commercial Congress Commission.

President Wilson, shortly after his inauguration, named Mr. Fletcher as chairman of this commission, and the Floridian also was chairman of the so-called American commission.

It seldom happens that consideration of an issue of so much importance is obscured for such a length of time as was rural credits, but it is true that no constructive work of such magnitude has gained such speedy recognition by congress once it was launched.

While people in the cities of the north sweated, blistered and froze during the winter but prevent extremes of heat in the summer.

The native Floridian knows nothing of the horror of northern people who are tortured out of their rest by sweltering heat as the weary hours of the night drag on.

It is strange but true that most northern people entertain the unfounded opinion that it is extremely hot in Florida during summer months.

Florida is not in the south or north but in between. It is a land of moderation. It is a land of opportunity.

own only brother, he was her attorney. "The trouble with Jane, Tom, is simply this: She is very pretty. Not just rather pretty, but dangerously, absurdly pretty, and a girl in an institution of that sort really has no right to be pretty."

Tom paused for a moment and thought. Here's my remedy, he resumed. "Call off this board meeting this afternoon. Then give the girl a real taste of happiness. If she is well behaved invite her to your own home, treat her as you would a guest, provide her with a few pretty clothes, and take her about with you. Let her see the normal side of life. Let her realize that a woman can be pretty and intelligent without being a prima donna."

Tom drew his chair closer to that of his sister and this time showed evident interest in the case of the little orphan girl.

Suppose I could tell you where the girl was yesterday. Suppose I could prove to you that she left the house on an expedition to find the one to whom she felt indebted for her little fling in the world of normal pleasure and happiness.

You know your idea was a good one, perhaps even better than mine," he told his sister. "You know you said you would feel your task complete when you had seen her married to some honest, hard working person. I am sure that I am hard working and, in spite of my profession, I make certain claims to honesty."

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith are expected home this week from a delightful six weeks' itinerary, which included New York, Niagara Falls, Chicago, St. Louis, Yellowstone Park and Colorado Springs.

North Georgia is quite a popular resort for Sanford folks this summer. Many who had planned to spend the summer vacation in North Carolina have gone to Georgia, owing to the unhappy conditions prevailing in the Carolinas. Word comes from Mrs. D. L. Thrasher that she and her daughter, Miss May Thrasher will leave Montreat, N. C., and go into the mountains of Georgia. Quite a colony of Sanford people are enjoying the climate and good "baths" at Clayton. Among them are Mrs. W. H. Peters and little son Paul, Mrs. M. Minaris, Mrs. Wm. Gray and baby and Mrs. Andrew Mason and children.

Friends of Mr. J. Rowland Wildman will be pleased to hear of his steady improvement after an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Wildman will leave for Virginia next week, accompanied by Mr. Mahlon Wright.

ELKS AND EAGLES HELP This bunch of All stars Will Make the Regular Teams Sting Themselves to Death

Phonograph on the top of the all star bunch of the regular lodges

You Never Can Tell "Thorn" in the Palm Beach Post says:

I've noticed that most of the fair sex throughout the entire south are much like automobiles—you never can tell from a rear sight whether they are ancient or modern vintage.

From a disappearing view you merely get a glimpse of the running gear—but if you approach them head on you notice the diff at once and immediately.

As a usual thing I've learned that the higher the "clearance" the more apt the vehicle, although there are occasional objections placed by nature which preclude a more extended display.

Still, you never can tell.

Looking for Heirs? Washington, D. C., Aug. 1. The United States government is planning to aid in the task of finding missing heirs to the millions of dollars of unclaimed accounts which are lying dormant in national banks throughout the country. Consideration is being given to the problem of discovering the rightful owners of unclaimed money by the treasury department it was announced today, and as a result of the work hundreds of poor people may be enriched in a manner which will give material to fiction writers.

Important Themes At the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening Rev. Steinhilber of the Methodist church will preach. The subject to be presented will be of interest to all who come.

The members of the Presbyterian church and congregation are hereby cordially invited to worship with us in the absence of their pastor, Dr. Brownlee.

The Sunday schools of these churches will meet in their accustomed places of worship.

Resolutions of Respect Whereas, The Great Ruler of the Universe has seen fit to take from our midst our beloved brother, W. J. Hill, who departed this life on the evening of Thursday, July 20th and his death has left an aching void in the hearts of his family, his friends and his brothers in Sanford lodge of Elks, therefore be it Resolved, That the wisdom and goodness of the Great Creator of the universe be humbly acknowledged as the edict from the chair of the Exalted Ruler on high, yet we mourn the death of our brother as of one whom we shall nevermore meet in our earthly lodge and we deplore his loss to the fraternity, to his family and friends and to the community in which he lived so many years. Brother W. J. Hill departed this life full of years, ripened with age and experience, worthy in every way and will be properly venerated for in the heavens above the lodge to which he has been carried by the grim reaper.

Resolved, That in the death of W. J. Hill, Sanford lodge of Elks, in secret and fraternal order of Elks has lost a valued member, one who as a charter member of the lodge was ready and willing at all times to fulfill every obligation and generous in trust to which he was sworn. He was a brother in every sense of the word exemplifying the precepts of the order in charity and faith.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the family of our departed brother and a copy to the Sanford Herald for publication.

Signed, R. J. Holly, T. A. Neal, L. E. Thrasher.

LETTER FROM WEBBER I, New York Great State of Ohio W. M. Healy, signed it.

Dear Sir: I have left Cincinnati, Ohio, I made a pretty thorough canvass of the city. I have a hundred names to send you if you like. I have personally seen each one of them. I saw a lot of them in the city. I saw a lot of them in the city.

John Milton Stock who has won the regular third base job on the Phillies from several aspirants, like his team mate, Haneroff, was born in Chicago, July 11, 1893, and with Haneroff, he established his first record with some Clark and Fannie Reid, and is situated at Midway, but is as much a Canaan school as it is for Midway.

The people of that section have not had a school for some time, having to send the children to Sanford, but the school board upon the solicitation of the people and land owners at the place have agreed to furnish a summer school there every summer, and to show their appreciation the people have responded with something like 150 attendance.

The program Sunday afternoon was in the nature of a rally to raise money for the erection of a new school building on the school site, midway between Midway and Canaan. The program was conducted by the principal and consisted of many dialogues, speeches, songs and solos, those being most worthy of mention were the welcome address by Hortense Ashley, a seventh grade pupil and a dialect monologue by Sadie Morgan.

Supt. D. L. Thrasher was to have been present and was to have made an address on Education, but for some unforeseen hindrance Mr. Thrasher was unable to be present, and the principal after making some brief excuses for Mr. Thrasher introduced Mr. Schelle Maines, who made an address pointing out the work of the school board, the superintendent and the local trustees.

After Mr. Maines, the principal introduced Mr. J. O. Packard, who in his calm and direct manner spoke for some minutes. Following these two gentlemen the principal made some remarks on the purpose of the day and introduced some of his people, among whom was Rev. I. E. Flemming who closed the exercises with remarks of appreciation.

At the close of the exercises the principal announced that the school had arranged a little surprise for Mr. Thrasher and had prepared a small gift, and after asking Mr. Maines to represent Mr. Thrasher in the receipt of the gift, some remarks were presented by Mr. Thrasher with a souk umbrella and two detachable handles, and on one handle was engraved "From Mr. School to D. L. T." With a short speech of appreciation Mr. Maines promised to safely deliver it to Mr. Thrasher.

A good many white people were present at the rally and were provided with separate seats.

CAREER OF J. MILTON STOCK Phillies' Star Third Sacker Got His First Start in the Wisconsin- Illinois League

John Milton Stock who has won the regular third base job on the Phillies from several aspirants, like his team mate, Haneroff, was born in Chicago, July 11, 1893, and with Haneroff, he established his first record with some professional clubs in the Windy city also got his first professional start in the Wisconsin Illinois league.

His work attracted the Giants, which club drafted him in 1911. He went to the spring workouts with the Giants that year, but was farmed out to Buffalo. The next year he was farmed to Mobile, being with that club in 1913.

Last year he was the regular third baseman for the Giants, being traded to the Phillies in the Lobert deal.

FRED TENNEY ACTS QUICKLY Decision of Former Giant to Get Into Newark International Club Was Sudden One.

Fred Tenney's decision to buy into the Newark ball club was a sudden one, according to a New York story. Fred had gone to New York to attend the anniversary reunion. He dropped into the Waldorf and met old friends.

"Well, what's doing?" he inquired of one of them, "and how are all the old boys?"

"Well," someone remarked, "the International league is being reorganized. The Newark club looks like a good buy. I understand Jim Price is trying to get it."

"Price?" said Tenney, reflectively.

"Do I know him?" said he a sporting editor or writer when I was here with the Giants?" "Yes," came the answer, "he was." "Show him to me," said Tenney. "I'd like to see him."

Jim Price was sitting down at one end of Peacock Alley and Fred went down to talk to him. A day later came the announcement that the two had joined forces and bought the Newark franchise.

Gulf Stream Curvature As soon as anything out of the usual occurs there are those who begin industriously to seek for the cause and theories galore, sane and insane flood the papers. The unusually prolonged heated term throughout the northern section of the country has brought forth the following which is copied from the Detroit Free Press.

"Now comes one of the wise and veracious race of sea captains with an explanation of the shark invasion of the Atlantic Coast. According to this gentleman, Captain William Jensen by name, the warm Gulf stream has curved toward the coast and may be expected to bring with it schools not only of sharks but of many other varieties of fish which haunt the warm waters of the Gulf stream and the coasts affected by it.

"It is difficult to account for this alleged curvature of the Gulf stream except on the theory that it is due to atmospheric disturbances, some of which have been attributed to the European war. How everything goes wrong in these days seems to lead one to the trenches, to be sure!

"If the Gulf stream really has been deflected, we can blame the hot spell for it, and we can expect a revolution in climate. If the Gulf stream persists in its alleged curvature Michigan may come to have the climate of Florida or California. The possibilities of such a condition will be at once perceived by any resort hotel keeper of ordinary business acumen, of course. It may be a little early, however, to suggest a state of preparedness for making a semi-tropical Michigan into a national winter resort and playground. We can tell better what to do after a period of watchful waiting lasting say until next spring. That sea captain may be using weasel words."

Cuba is Prosperous Washington, Aug. 4.—Cuba's foreign trade figures compiled today, by the Department of Commerce show, increased last year by more than one hundred million dollars over 1914. The United States claimed 80 per cent of the island's exports and 70 per cent of its imports. Exports were valued at $254,000,000, of which the United States took $206,000,000. Imports were put at $155,500,000 of which the United States share was $104,500,000. The United Kingdom ranks second among Cuba's customers and Spain is third.

The island is declared to be in the most prosperous condition of its history.

Rust Mite and White Fly are Busy Spray Now to Insure Bright Fruit

Rust mite is working havoc and white fly is again active in citrus fruit groves. These pests will create much damage if not checked or eliminated immediately.

Florida's fruit crop is only about 90 per cent of normal. It is stated by experts that less than 10 per cent of the fruit will be bright unless it is sprayed very soon.

If your trouble is rust mite begin spraying at once with NIAGARA SOLUBLE SULPHUR COMPOUND and follow with another spraying every four to six weeks.

If white fly is the pest you must spray with the old reliable SCHNARR'S INSECTICIDE, and keep it up at regular intervals until the grove is clear.

Designed for the Coming Summer

A plain little everyday dress of corded madras, designed for wear in the coming summer, presents little novelty as to cut but reflects a feature or two of the styles for spring. These are seen in the tightening and lifting of the belt, in the suggestion of a square opening at the neck and in the introduction of a bit of hemstitching.

The dress as pictured here for the girl of five is perfectly plain except for a shaped band of white, let in at the neck with hemstitching. The belt is provided at each end with a button hole which slips over a flat pearl button at each side of the front.

Pastime Suits of Heavy Cotton Stuffs

When the time came to write the final chapter in the story of summer frocks, up sprang a genius who introduced a new and happy ending. And now no one wants to lay the tale aside, for the "morning frock" or "pastime suit" or "breakfast dress," as it is variously called, has added an unexpected interest to summer appareling.

The heavier cotton weaves in white and colors are used in making this new order of summer clothing. Cotton poplin, gaberdine, basket weaves, crash, and twills or any cotton stuff with body and durability, that will stand wear and tubbing will answer.

In the illustration a suit is shown in which the plain white skirt is finished at the bottom with a cuff of the

DIAMOND NOTES

Bill Clymer's team is sure living up to Bill's name.

"Mike" Mowrey has become a big favorite with Dodger fans.

"Hank" Gowdy will play better ball than ever this year, it is thought.

Miller Huggins says he has given up hope of making his pitchers good bunters.

In the National League the Pirates threaten to give the Giants a tussle for last position.

It looks like Larry Lajoie will have the "just one more great year" he wants before he quits.

Bresnahan's Toledo team is called the Iron Men. This, however, has no reference to what grows about the neck of Rajah's gallant athletes.

Mathewson rates Robertson as a second Ty Cobb, and says he is about the nearest approach to the great Detroit star as there ever will be.

The Boston Braves must feel pretty sure of their pitching staff since they let go Knetzer, former star of the Dodgers and Feds.

For a veteran of thirty one summers George McQuillan is quite a pitcher. He is starting out this year as if it would be his banner season.

Heino Groh is leading all the third basemen in the big leagues in long-distance hits. The little Red is playing the best game of his career.

Max Flack, the Cub outfielder who last year played with the Chicks, continues to play a splendid game and has become a big favorite with Chicago fans.

Enthusiastic Oakland fans at a banquet given players of Rowdy Elliott's team promised to raise a purse of $4,000 to be presented to the player if they win the league pennant.

New Conception of Wall Street—In "The Stepping Stone," the new Triangle-Ince photoplay starring Frank Keenan and Mary Boland, there is a new conception of Wall Street, the popular field for scenario-writers. The action makes it the direct instrument of a "captain of industry" in securing the woman of his choice, who happens to be the wife of another man.

Marie Doro Monday at Star—Marie Doro, one of the most celebrated dramatic artists of stage or screen, and formerly a Frohman star will be seen at the Star on Monday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Common Ground," a thrilling drama of social conditions written especially for the Paramount Program by Marian Fairfax, and produced under the personal direction of William C. DeMolle.

"Common Ground" shows the mental and spiritual awakening through love, of a child of the slums, employed in an artificial flower factory.

How she meets, falls in love with, and eventually saves it from ruin, at the hands of political grafters, a young judge, is the basis of this most unusual play. The methods of the army of parasites connected with the city institution, and their dealings with the underworld, are vividly exposed.

Marie Doro in "Common Ground" at the Star Monday.

How these grafters, to further their own ends, manufacture false conditions to harm their enemies, is brought out through a series of most unusual scenes.

The Lasky Company has surrounded Miss Doro with a cast of unusual artists of such distinguished artists as Thomas Meighan, as the young judge, Theodore Roberts, Mary Mersch, Horace B. Carpenter and Vera McEvers, and a number of other members of the Lasky all-star organization.

The picture has the usual Lasky thoroughness of detail and splendid photoplay.

Rita Jolivet, the star in the Moser-Paramount photoplay "An International Marriage," at Star Theatre tonight was a passenger on the Lusitania when it made its fatal voyage, and the memory of having stood beside the courageous presence of Charles Frohman during the catastrophe is probably one of the factors of Miss Jolivet's great ability to express strong emotion.

At the Star Tonight—"An International Marriage" is an almost everyday newspaper headline. The prominence given the event and the participants shows that it is a subject of much interest to the public.

What their after marriage life is like is usually a point of ignorance with most people. The supposition is that they live happily ever after.

The best possible insight into the true conditions, so different from American home life as on the Moser-Paramount photoplay, "An International Marriage" starring Rita Jolivet.

Miss Jolivet's extraordinary beauty and her ability to convey an Italian character by her acting.

The quality of photoplay under the Paramount banner is the highest in the world.

Shipping story—The picture "The Shipping Story" starring Marie Doro, at the Lyric Theatre, is a story of a woman who is forced to leave her home and her loved ones to go to sea.

chief characters of the play, and although giving the spectators an occasional view of the substantial properties that make up a millionaire's home, has allowed only a suggestion of the environment in which they appear.

In the scene, that of a dining room in a pretentious home, Keenan, Miss Boland and Robert McKim, who play the part of the egotistical and worthless husband are shown seated at dinner. A great dining-room lamp throws its rays of light directly down, illuminating the table and the three persons seated about it, while the butler stands faintly outlined against the obscurity of the background.

In another scene a tragedy has occurred. Instead of showing the gruesome details, a body is dimly discernible lying on the floor of a room that is obscured in darkness just as it would be in real life, if a door were opened and the light from a brilliantly lighted room cast into a dark apartment.

A very beautiful star displaying her charms and graces in the perfection of Parisian gowns is one of the attractive features of the strong photodrama "An International Marriage," at the Star tonight.

Rita Jolivet (Countess Cippico) portrays the part of the American daughter of a multi-millionaire with compelling power and great attractiveness.

from the time she wakes up in the morning until she leaves the Charity Bazaar that night. Twelve beautiful girls will be shown in thirty of the latest creations ranging from bouffant caps and night gowns to the latest style in evening dresses and a feature of the release is a scene at the Englewood Golf Club.

The picture presents in advance what the most fashionable women will wear in September, October and November. It will show thousands of dollars worth of furs, shags, hats and gowns. The following list of newspapers merely marks a beginning: Chicago Daily News, St. Paul News, Minneapolis News, Omaha News, Louisville Times, Pittsburg Dispatch, Buffalo Enquirer, Baltimore American, Boston Traveller, Syracuse Post-Standard, Utica Observer and Cleveland News.

The first release will present some of New York's latest Fall fashions. A pretty story will be woven into each reel to increase the interest of the audience.

"The Masked Rider" Brimful of Thrills

Lockwood, Allison Picture next offering on the Metro Program.

"The Masked Rider," a sensational five part Metro Quality production with Harold Lockwood and May Allison in the stellar roles, will be the next feature attraction at the Star Theatre on Tuesday.

This wonderplay is brimful of thrills, especially in the big scenes staged in the mountains of North Carolina. There are many exciting moments in this part of the story, which deals with the moonshiners of that section. The outlaws are brought to justice through the daring exploits of "The Masked Rider," played by Mr. Lockwood, who poses as a mountain parson until he gathers his evidence against them. Before they are corralled the fighting parson is obliged to display his prowess in one of the most remarkable encounters ever shown upon the screen.

The central characters in this play are Mr. Lockwood and Lester Cannon, who plays the villain in the role of "Squad Archer," the leader of the moonshiners. Miss Allison is seen in the delightful role of a beautiful mountain girl whom the fighting parson rescues.

Mr. Lockwood, with May Allison, who is surrounded by an exceptional group of artists, Mr. Cannon, Harry Benner, Harry McHugh, H. W. Willis, Harry Endick and a chorus of stars. "The Masked Rider" was produced for the Metro program under the direction of Fred F. Zippel.

NEW YORK CENTER OF ALL POLITICIANS

Both Parties Establish Headquarters in Metropolis.

EMPIRE STATE TO DECIDE.

Not Since 1868 Has a President Been Chosen Without the Vote of New York—Same Old Methods Will Prevail This Year, and Various Bureaus Are Busy.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
New York, Aug. 1.—[Special].—This is the place where they make presidents. No doubt there are 15,000,000 men and women between the Atlantic and the Rio Grande who think that they make the president and are looking forward to the performance of that duty next November.

Of course all those voting people are very useful in this quadrennial performance, and everything possible is going to be done for them. They are going to be shown how to elect the next president, but the operators of the scheme will be in New York. In other words, New York is to be the political center from now until the polls close on the 7th of November.

The first thing after the national conventions is the establishment of political headquarters in New York. In one or two campaigns Chicago has been made the political headquarters, but only nominally. New York is the political center of the country in a presidential year.

New York Will Decide.

New York the state will decide who shall be the next president. I know that clever political mathematicians can sit down with a pencil and a sheet of note paper and figure out how one party or the other can elect a president without New York. But let me suggest what practice in the political campaign seasons I can see success either for Mr. Wilson or Mr. Hughes in electing New York.

Not since 1868 has a president been chosen without the support of New York. It is the only state that has done so. It is the only state that has done so. It is the only state that has done so.

Same Great Game

The same great game is being played and is to be continued by the operators. There is a number of new faces, of course, but the machinery is run by old hands. If the people are to elect the next president this year they are going to be shown how to do it.

Four Year Plants

When I first began looking after national campaigns the headquarters of the committee were down about Twenty-third street. This year the Democrats are on Forty-second street near Fifth avenue, and the Republicans are on Forty-third street near Fifth avenue. The location of the political headquarters is an indication of the general uptown movement.

Movement Uptown

Both of the chairmen are now in the national political game. Neither Mr. Wilcox nor Mr. McCormick has ever been associated with the management of national campaigns, and their faces are not familiar to the politicians. But they will be known before the election since it is not to meet a great many people. He not only sees the real men of his own party, but a vast army of workers, many trying to work him.

Wilson's Legislative Program

The fact that President Wilson has gone ahead with his legislative program is regarded by Democrats as of great importance. His determination to put through the child labor bill in spite of opposition of southern men, they say, will help him. The fact that he runs over the southern senators, who for local reasons oppose the child labor bill, rather helps Wilson.
