Industry Waits For Deeds

Uninterested In 'Planning,' Engineers Say

By Harry I. Johnson

Industrial leaders are seldom interested in what a community "plans" to do; but all are interested in what a community has done.

This is the gist of a survey made of such industrial figures who would be interested in a barge terminal near Sanford.

The report was made by Lockwood Greene Engineers, Inc. of Spartanburg, S. C., and filed with the Port Authority Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

"While in the course of the study for this report," the engineers said, "many industries in the United States have been contacted in regard to their using the facilities in Sanford when such facilities are constructed."

"Few have indicated a real interest at this time. There are reasons for this:

"One is that so many areas approach them for the same information. Many of these areas they found are not really serious about plans for such facilities and it would cost them many dollars to evaluate traffic patterns, rates and the like at this time when they would have to do the same thing when the facility was constructed."

"All said, however, they would certainly like to know when such a facility actually existed and at such time could probably re-evaluate their transportation policies. This is a common attitude in industry in general today."

"Almost all industries are not so much interested in what a community is going to do for them or what utilities or other facilities they intend to construct for them, but they are interested in what the community has done and what has been constructed and what utilities are in place for them."

"We feel certain," the engineers concluded in this phase of the report, "that at such time as the facility is constructed, industries, barge operators, shipping companies and anyone interested in traffic on the inland waterways will be more receptive to talking with the operations people from the port facility."

As the local situation stands now, the committee headed by Francis Roumillat is reviewing the exhaustive engineering and feasibility report and is putting the finishing touches on legislation which would permit a port authority to come into existence.

A rough draft of the legislative act has been approved and, when completed, will be presented to the State Legislature in April.

The port site is declared one of the most advantageous in the state since it is near existing railroads, the Interstate highway and other transportation facilities.

The engineers gave local backers of the port a solid boost when they summarized: "We conclude that an excellent opportunity exists to develop the St. Johns River and recommend that a one-barge terminal facility be constructed at the site."

State Official Visits Sanford

J. Willard Peables, of Wildwood, newly appointed Fifth District member of the State Road Board, was in the Sanford area Thursday afternoon on an informal get-acquainted tour of this county.

He conferred with local officials on road problems. Today he is in Orlando as he continues his tour. He will attend an SRD-County conference March 6 at DeLand.

We knew it! We knew it! That "Clock" mention of Sanford, Fla., Sanford, N. C., and Sanford, Ariz., brought this note:

The Post Office directory does not list Sanford, Ariz., but it is a suburb of Phoenix. However, it does list Sanford, thence:

Alabama, a station in Los Angeles, Colorado, Florida, Maine, Michigan, a station in Seminary, Miss., North Carolina, Texas and Virginia.

But, R. E. Porter opines: There may be 11 Sanfords all told but there is only ONE Sanford.

Postmaster Cecile Heard announced today that post office services will be on a holiday schedule Monday, in celebration of Washington's Birthday.

There will be no regular mail delivery and the post office will be closed. However, there will be delivery of special mail and perishables and regular box pickups.

All other governmental offices, including state, county and city offices, business firms and schools will be on regular schedules.

A play, "Stars and Stripes," the story of the making of the first American flag, was presented at Southside School by students of Mrs. Nancy Brock's fourth grade. Starring as Betty Ross was Kim Hart and as Gen. George Washington was Steve Wheelhel.

Jim Hunt, president of the Retarded Children's Association, says 30 of the grocery carts given to the school for resale are ready to be picked up. Recently a supermarket donated 100 of the carts to the school. They have been worked over and painted and will make fine laundry, household or garden cars. We can't quote the price, but it is very, very low. Call Jim and order one — you'll benefit and so will the Little Red Schoolhouse.

Nine Sanford Junior High students made the all "A" honor roll during the last six weeks grading period. They were ninth graders Brenda Carter, Pam Pigott and Brent Armstrong; eighth graders Linda Bradbury, Analise Moore and Van Robbans; and seventh graders Katherine Bishop, Judy Tanner and Judy Youngblade.

Miss Jo Ann Zeigler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Zeigler of 2312 Palmetto-Avenue, was named to the Dean's List at the University of Florida for the fall trimester, with an average of 3.8. Miss Zeigler, a graduate of Seminole High School, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Dr. J. Wayne Rottz, president of the University of Florida, will be in Sanford Feb. 25 to speak at a meeting of the Seminole County University of Florida Alumni Club at the Capitol. At that time the club will present its first CLASP scholarship to a local student who will be entering the U of F. They will also recognize the top 11th grade students in Seminole County and elect new officers.

At the sixth annual Art Show Sunday at the Civic Center from noon to 6 p.m., the public will be allowed to vote for the painting they like best on exhibit. Be sure to get a ballot and check your favorite. The Art Association also will serve a "high tea" to all visitors.

Members of the Methodist Youth department will assist Sanford area Heart Sunday workers in their bell-ringing campaign Sunday.

To the motorist who telephoned about getting an over-time parking ticket on Wednesday afternoon: Police say there is two-hour free parking between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. and on Sundays and legal holidays. However, between 8 and 6 on the six weekdays you are liable for a ticket if you park more than two hours in one spot.

World Peace Through Law Is Only Way

NEW YORK (UPI)—Chief Justice Earl Warren told a blue-ribbon international conference of intellectuals today that lasting peace can only be achieved through a rule of law.

Governments and religions should make accomplishment of this goal their preoccupation, Warren said. The chief justice spoke at the privately sponsored peace conference of nearly 2,000 intellectuals from 14 countries.

ACCEPT ON FAITH

Another American, former U. S. Ambassador George F. Kennan, issued a plea to both East and West that they accept on faith the ultimate humanity of the other.

Kennan, formerly ambassador to Russia and Yugoslavia and now a professor at the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton, N. J., said there is no hope at all in present Western assumptions that Soviet leaders are totally inhuman.

He also urged a basic revision in Western assumption of Soviet military intentions.

Warren said domestic law has made great progress since ancient times but the same cannot be said of international law.

PEACE ON EARTH

"If we really want peace on earth, if we believe that order is achieved through law, then we should make world peace through law our preoccupation," Warren said.

"First we must agree upon the principles that are essential to peace in our 20th Century civilization.

"Then we must advocate and promulgate laws that will make those principles the guiding force in the lives of nations and people everywhere. Lastly we must have forums for their interpretation and enforcement."

"This is not merely the job of governments. It is the job of the religions of the world and of every moral force that can be brought to bear in order that the will for peace may abide in the hearts of men everywhere on this globe."

Ranger Heads For Moon

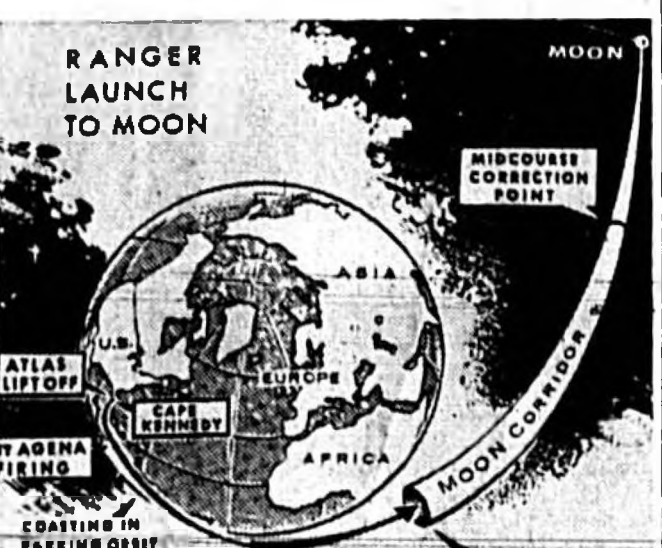

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The Ranger 8 U. S. spacecraft was heading on dead aim today to collide with the moon and send back to earth television pictures of the lunar surface.

The 808-pound space vehicle was launched from Cape Kennedy Wednesday and all subsequent operations were carried out smoothly.

There was a possibility a terminal maneuver would be required to position the spacecraft's television cameras for proper picture-taking.

But this would not be decided until late this afternoon after study of telemetry data by scientists at Caltech's Jet Propulsion Laboratory (JPL).

After a 12-hour study Thursday of telemetry data relayed to earth tracking stations by Ranger 8, project manager Harris M. Schurmeier said everything appeared normal.

FLYING CAMERA — If successful, the Ranger-8 will follow this maneuvering plan in its flight to the moon for pictures of the Sea of Tranquility to be flashed back to earth at about 11 a.m. Saturday. (NEA Telephoto)

Lawmakers Converge On Sanford Base

The state's lawmakers converged on Sanford Naval Air Station this afternoon where they heard briefings by top Naval officers in the state and witnessed a demonstration of the Navy's air power.

The Navy presentation was one of several defense briefings being conducted in Sanford and Orlando today and Saturday for members of the State Legislature, a state Chamber of Commerce military affairs committee and special guests.

Addressing the distinguished group of about 150 were Vice Adm. A. S. Heyward Jr., chief of Naval Air Training, Pensacola; Rear Adm. Robert Goldswaite, commander of Fleet Air, Jacksonville, and Rear Adm. T. A. Christopher, commander of Key West Forces.

The admirals explained the missions of their respective commands and what their economic impacts are in the state. Some suggestions were made as to how the state can make Florida a better place for the Navy to carry out its mission.

After the briefings the group witnessed one of the largest air demonstrations seen at the station in some time.

For many of the visitors it was their first close look at the modern RA-6C Vigilante reconnaissance bomber.

Sanford, home of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, is the global headquarters for the twin-engine jet aircraft.

The demonstration consisted of a simulated carrier landing practice and a overhead flyover.

In addition to Sanford Vigilantes, Skywarriors and Cougars were fighter aircraft from Cecil Field near Jacksonville. They included F4 Crusaders, A4 Skyhawks and F4 Phantoms.

The overhead air display was made up of a fly-by of all aircraft types, a bomb delivery demonstration without weapons, and refueling demonstrations.

While driving through the base, the lawmakers caught a brief look at the station building program. The air station, built during World War II, has completed four new structures within the past year or so and is now conducting a $2 million construction program.

Congress now is considering a request for $6.7 million for further expansion at the base during fiscal year 1966.

From Sanford the group went to Orlando where further briefings will be conducted tonight at Orlando Country Club and tomorrow at Orlando Air Force Base. They visited McCoy Air Force Base earlier today.

Gov. Haydon Burns is scheduled to address the lawmakers at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow at Orlando Air Force Base. The "Florida and Our National Defense" presentation is being sponsored by the state Chamber's Military Affairs Committee.

$1.085 Billion State Budget Provides Employe Pay Hike

Bulletin

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Budget Commission approved a proposed appropriation today that would permit new state universities at Pensacola and Orlando to open on schedule.

The recommendation, meeting Gov. Haydon Burns' request for sufficient funds for the new universities, included $12 million for construction at the sites.

As approved by the budget commission for submission to the Legislature in April, the recommendation backs $12 million out of the total $37.8 million university building program for the new institutions — $7 million for the East-Central Florida in Orlando and $5 million for the University of West Florida in Pensacola.

The new East-Central Florida university will be located in Orange County on SR 520 three miles south of Oviedo at the Seminole County line.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Budget director Wallace Henderson recommended a 1965-67 state budget totaling $1,085, 655,761 today, which provided continuation of existing services plus eight per cent pay raises for employes.

Formal approval of the program, which will go to the 1965 Legislature, was given by Gov. Haydon Burns said the Cabinet meeting in private with its staff, had worked out a program cutting $446,018,931 out of the $1,531,074,692 sought by the hundreds of agencies of the State.

The asking budgets were heard during January at a week-long public session, which was attended by members of the legislative appropriations committee.

In addition to the recommended funds, said Burns, $13,744,239 in unallocated money was put into the budget which could be used by the Legislature to provide new or expanded services.

The 886 pages of budget recommendations provided $142 million in excess of current spending of $918 million Burns said the increase was 15.6 per cent, and it gave every agency more money than was available in present budgets.

He said provisions were made for population increases in agencies such as mental Belief Matter?

How many times we have heard someone make the remark that, "It does not matter what one believes but only what we do that counts."

Of course, such an attitude is extremely illogical since what we do is based on our ideas. Whether or not we serve our fellow man depends on what we believe concerning him.

In many areas of the world people do not think it necessary to serve their fellow man at all. If he gets in the way of one's own selfish quest then it is only smart to eliminate him as Stalin eliminated his opponents during the reign in Russia.

The unbeliever can find some seemingly expeditious means of accomplishing his purposes if he cares nothing for his fellow men. The gangster "rubs him out" and the shrewd manipulator may misuse laws to serve his purpose, but the end result is basically the same.

However, if one believes that every human being is made in the image of God his attitude must change and change drastically. The unbeliever may look at a man and see him as not more than a common animal. His philosophy tells him that the person in his view will someday be no more than dust and therefore could not be important for more than a few years at best.

unless someone beyond ourselves saves us. The wonderful thing about it is that a loving Heavenly Father knows how weak we are. He knows that we cannot stay afloat by ourselves and has offered us a Saviour, even His own Son who was willing to die that we could accept Him and be saved. Belief is important because through this belief we accept the Saviour. Just as the drowning man in the lake sees the life preserver and grasps it in belief that it will save him, so the man who wants eternal life grasps Christ that we might have eternal salvation.

If we took this illustration farther we might say that the person rescued in the water would not want to simply hang on to the preserver for the remainder of his life. He would want to be pulled in and be able to throw out the life line to others who are in as desperate need as he found himself one time. If you have accepted the Saviour for eternal life you too will want to serve Him that others might stand on the Rock that never fails.

MYF Member Reports On Trip To United Nations-Seminar

By Jane Casselberry
Ann Trawick, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Trawick of Altamonte Springs, recently reported on her trip north to attend the United Nations - Washington Seminar to the Science MYF of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church, which sponsored her.

She began her trip, which she described as "the most wonderful experience of my life," from Jacksonville on Saturday, Jan. 31, traveling by jet to New York with her 28 companions from the Florida Conference of the Methodist Church.

Having left Florida's balmy winter weather, she found it rather a shock a few hours later to be sightseeing in New York in 15 degrees above zero temperatures. On Sunday morning the group attended services at the Riverside Church where Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick formerly was minister.

Dean To Assist Revision Study Of University

Dr. John M. Bevan, dean of Florida Presbyterian College, is assisting in study of possible revision of the academic program at St. Louis University, famous old Jesuit school in St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis University reportedly is planning to think boldly and experimentally in terms of core curriculum, independent study and advanced placement, areas in which Florida Presbyterian College, despite its youth, already has given national leadership in the field of higher education.

Dr. Bevan not only is a doctor of philosophy and a psychologist but also holds a Bachelor of Divinity degree. He holds memberships in both Phi Beta Kappa, the liberal arts society, and Sigma Xi, the science honor society. He previously has served in an advisory capacity for Notre Dame and Boston College, both Jesuit institutions.

St. Louis University has a student body of 9,000 and a faculty of 1,400 headed by the Very Rev. Paul C. Reinert, president. The school was founded in 1818.

CONCORDIA SENIOR COLLEGE Choir of Ft. Wayne, Ind., will present a concert in the auditorium of Seminole High School at 8 p.m., Sunday, March 7. Singing with the 45-voice group is John Goerres (third from right, back row), who was the 1962 Seminole High valedictorian and is the son of Rev. Herbert W. Goerres, pastor of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, one of three Lutheran churches in the county sponsoring the concert.

Rev. Mr. Timms Welcomed Back By Geneva Group

By JoAnn Hays
The WSCS of Geneva Methodist Church held its regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Rook Murley, president, opened the meeting with scriptures from the Bible after which those present sang, "Bless Be the One that Binds."

Following the singing, the Lord's Prayer was repeated. Mrs. Murley introduced special guests for the meeting, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Timms and Donald Atwood. The Society took this opportunity to welcome back Rev. and Mrs. Timms. Rev. Timms is pastor of the church and recently returned following several months of confinement to his home in Sanford.

During the business meeting the Society voted to postpone the bake-sale which was planned for the first part of February to a later date. It also was voted that the Society would sponsor a church supper which will be held in Fellowship Hall in the latter part of March.

Mrs. Augusta Bihrey, secretary, read a "thank you" note from the parents of Judy Kinnaird expressing their appreciation to the Society for its kindness to Judy following an accident.

Following the close of the business meeting, Rev. Timms reviewed the first 11 chapters of Genesis which the Society recently studied. The meeting was closed with prayer after which everyone went to Fellowship Hall where Rev. and Mrs. Timms were guest at a luncheon.

Vestry Names Committees

Vestry Committees of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Sanford, have been announced by Rev. LeRoy D. Soper, rector. Those serving, and their committees, are George Dangleman and Chandler Swanson, building and grounds; Phil Roche, Peter Bukur and Henry Tamm, stewardship; Randall Chase and Leigh Ebbert, church expansion; Sal Manfre, Jack Horner and Dangleman, youth; Mo Parry and Kenneth Wing, visitation and evangelism.

HONORED GUESTS at a meeting and luncheon of the Geneva Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service were Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Timms, who have returned to their duties at the church following his recent illness. With them is Mrs. Rook Murley (right), WSCS president.

Rev. Callaway Leads Service In Oviedo

By Evelyn Lundy
Guest minister last Sunday at First Methodist Church of Oviedo was Rev. C. B. Callaway, executive director of Goodwill Industries of Orlando, who gave an interesting and inspiring talk on work accomplished by this service.

Church To Open Class Series

Rev. Delmas Copeland of the Casselberry Methodist Church will conduct a series of membership classes for adults beginning at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Classes for children more than nine years old will start at 9:45 a.m. next Saturday.

Those attending the classes will be received into the church on Palm Sunday.

Korean Life Related By Missionary's Wife

By Maryann Miles
Special guest at the family night pot luck supper sponsored by Bear Lake's St. Andrews Presbyterian Women of the Church was Mrs. Hugh Linton, who recently returned from Seonchun, Korea, where she and her husband, a missionary, have lived for the past 10 years.

Program speaker for the evening, Mrs. Linton appeared in a beautiful blue kimono, native dress for women in Korea. She also displayed garments worn by little boys and girls in the country which are quite different from those of American children.

Illustrating her talk with color slides, she pointed out that leprosy is a serious problem in Korea and that the missionaries and teachers are working hard to teach the people sanitation habits in the home as a means of bringing the dreaded disease under control.

World Service.
There is much Spirit Worship and Buddhism practiced and in the foothills of mountains there will be found between 2,000 and 4,000 people, not one of them a Christian, she said.

She closed the program by stating that there are three ways to help the poor people of Korea—pray, give generously through mission work, and encourage young people to go out and work in the country.

Rev. and Mrs. Linton and their six children, presently home on leave, are making their home in Northcrest.

Passion Play To Open Season: February 28

Beginning Sunday, Feb. 28, and continuing through Easter Sunday, April 18, the spectacular Black Hills Passion Play, an annual community project of Lake Wales, will be presented in Lake Wales' beautiful, artistically landscaped natural amphitheater.

As in past seasons, the Passion Play will feature the renowned Christus Portrayer, Josef Meier, and his cast of 30 professional Biblical dramatists, supported by more than 100 local persons, most of whom have participated in the production since 1953.

The Play is presented on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m., and on Sundays there is a twilight performance at 6 p.m. Two innovations of the 1965 season, and by popular request will be a matinee performance at 3 p.m. every Wednesday during March, and performances at 7:30 every night of Holy Week. The Easter Sunday performance will be at 6 p.m.

The Lake Wales Amphitheater is operated by a non-profit association of local business and civic leaders who give their time and efforts to the presentation of this oldest of dramas—3 living portrayals of the last seven days in the life of Jesus Christ on earth. The greatest story ever told.

Esther Circle

The Esther Circle of Casselberry Community Methodist Church WSCS will meet at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Casselberry Woman's Club on Overbrook Drive. Hostesses will be Mrs. Darlus Pringle, Mrs. Kenneth Green and Mrs. George Fitch.

Missionaries Tell African Experiences

By Jane Casselberry
Dr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Kellersberger, retired medical missionaries to the Belgian Congo now living in Melbourne Beach, were guests at a covered dish luncheon given by the WSCS of Casselberry Community Methodist Church.

Mrs. Kellersberger gave an interesting talk on their experiences in Africa and later in their work with American Leprosy Missions which took them around the world. She drew a contrast between the present day and in 1918 when Dr. Kellersberger first went to the Congo. In those early days he operated under a tree and friends of the patient stood by with spears on the ready just in case the "white witch doctor" should lose a patient under the knife. During his first term in Africa he walked 3,000 miles and some times treated as many as 800 patients a day.

The persecution and martyrdom which Christians are undergoing in the Congo today are bringing about the more rapid spread of the gospel, she said.

Following the program, Mrs. Phillip Casber, WSCS president, conducted the business meeting. The group voted to purchase 10 plastic top metal folding tables for Weaver Hall with five to be paid for from the general fund and five by the circles.

In other action it was noted to give $100 to the church scholarship fund. Members will attend a "Day Apart" on Friday, Feb. 26, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at Goss Memorial Methodist Church, Orlando.

World Day of Prayer will be observed by the Casselberry WSCS on Friday, March 5, at 10 a.m. at the church with Mrs. Frank Messick, spiritual life chairman, in charge of the program.

Annual district meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 9, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Broadway Methodist Church, Orlando. Mrs. William Hughlett, Congo missionary will be principal speaker. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. C. K. Fisher, Mrs. John Weir, Mrs. Emily Van Deusen and Mrs. Nell Innis.

Funeral services for Mrs. Gordie Bell Dixon, 59, of 3002 Friendly Avenue, Orlando, who died Wednesday in an Orlando hospital, will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday at Fairville Baptist Church with Rev. William Albert officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn Memorial Park.

A native of Cordele, Ga., and a charter member of Fairville Baptist Church, Mrs. Dixon had lived in Orlando since 1930.

Survivors are her husband, Willie Dixon, of Orlando, daughters, Mrs. Willard Lott Jr., Mrs. Clyde Gaskins, Mrs. William H. Gamble, Mrs. James Mosebach Jr. and Mrs. Elwood Harris, all of Orlando; her mother, Mrs. Anna Byrd Walls, Orlando; brothers, Carmage Walls, Gadsden, Ala., Johnny Lee Walls and Oland Walls, of Lakeland, Clyde Walls, of The Sanford Herald staff, and Clarence Walls, both of Orlando; sisters, Mrs. Henry Godbold, of Orlando, and Mrs. Mark Dobbs, of Sarasota; 18 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Church Women Hold Meeting

The Church Women of Messiah Lutheran Church, Casselberry, met Monday at the home of Mrs. Hollis Tucker, 1209 E. Notre Dame Drive, Altamonte Springs, with nine members in attendance.

The program was led by Mrs. Tucker. Mrs. Carl Unley is president of the group.

Area Methodists Continue Study

By Maryann Milose
The second in the 7:30 p.m. Sunday series course at Bear Lake Methodist Church for churchwide mission study on the book, "Spanish Doorways," was conducted by Juan Collazo, counselor for refugee action. Devotions were led by Mrs. Glenn Whipple.

Altar flowers for last Sunday's morning worship service were placed by the Whipples to commemorate three anniversaries in their family—the birthday, the wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Kelly, and the birthday of their granddaughter, Kerstin Ann Olson of Juarez, Mex.

Lyman PTA Hears Program By Chorus

By Jane Casselberry
The Lyman High School Chorus, under direction of John Blair, presented a program of songs at a meeting of the Lyman Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday evening in the school auditorium.

Rev. Delmas Copeland, minister of Casselberry Community Methodist Church, gave the devotion.

James Bowers, school guidance counselor, spoke on the problem of college admission and the importance of senior placement tests. "Increased pressure has been felt this year more than ever before from college admissions offices with many of the Lyman seniors having to accept their second choice," he stated.

He advised parents to apply to a junior college if their son or daughter has been turned down at the university level.

A nominating committee was elected consisting of Mrs. Merle Kent, chairman, and Mrs. Edgar Lyons, Mrs. J. R. Legg, Mrs. Edward Lunn and Mrs. Carlyle Swofford. They will present a slate of officers at the May meeting.

The next PTA meeting on Tues. March 16, will be only for parents of seniors and graduation plans and other end of year activities will be discussed.

Following this week's meeting, refreshments were served in the cafeteria by 12th grade mothers.

Circle To Meet

The Shirley Smith Circle of Pinecreek Baptist Church will meet at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday in Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Harold Sherwood, circle chairman, will preside with Mrs. Fred Gray serving as hostess.

Presbyterian Offering To Aid Korean College And Hospital

Objectives of the 1965 Birthday Offering of Presbyterian Churches were revealed here Wednesday when Presbyterian Women of the Church of district 5 met at First Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Abraham Lincoln of DeBary, district chairman, presiding.

Mrs. H. C. Harris of Winter Park, Presbyterian chairman on Ecumenical Missions and Relations, advised that the first $100,000 of the offering will be used for scholarships to the Presbyterian College in Taejon, Korea, the only Christian college outside of Seoul that offers major courses in the sciences.

Balance of the money will be used for the Presbyterian Medical Center in Chonju, Korea, which is the only hospital in an area of 3 million people that provides complete medical care.

A report on the Synodical Training School and its changes, given by Mrs. Thomas Peacock of Orlando in the absence of Mrs. R. L. Tilghman, Synodical president, due to illness, outlined seven classes to be taught in the school with the new one, "Adult Literacy," counting for two credits.

A brief review of the "Think Pink Book," minute book of the 10th annual meeting of the women of St. Johns Presbytery, was given by Mrs. W. A. Baer of Orlando, Presbyterial president. The meeting, held in the church sanctuary, was opened with worship and prayer by Rev. Grover Sewell, pastor of the host church. Welcome was extended by Mrs. Carl R. Schilke, president of the local women.

Now Frank Beard Remembers: It Was A Very Close Call

By Murray Olderman
NEA Sports Editor

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (NEA) — When Frank Beard woke up, it was Easter Sunday morning and he remembers his mother saying, "You've been a real sick boy. You're lucky."

She stood over his hospital bed at St. Anthony's in Louisville, Ky., and Frank didn't know how he got there.

"They had needles stuck in me," he recalls, "and I always had a fear of needles. My back hurt like hell, and I found out later they had made two or three spinal taps."

Frank didn't even know he had been comatose since Thursday and that a priest had administered the last rites of the Church.

"I wasn't aware," says Frank, "because I felt perfect."

other than weak and tired and hungry. And these people in the room—the doctors and nurses and my mother—all looked so happy and relieved."

It had started two weeks earlier at the St. Petersburg Open where Frank, playing his second year on the tour, got cold and couldn't shake the fever and took it with him to Doral in Miami. It ran 102 degrees, and when he wasn't playing golf he slept 18 hours a day. But he finished ninth at Doral and won $1,500.

He was rooming with Rich Casobella and Chuck Courtney, a couple of other young guys on the tour. Instead of going with them, to Greenboro, he decided to drive home to Louisville for a rest. He got home on Tuesday before Easter, and the family doctor told him he had an infection. "Looking back," recalls Frank, "there were five-second lapses when I couldn't remember where I was."

On Thursday morning he was sitting in a chair in the kitchen, and his father, an erstwhile golf pro who had retired to go into the hardware business, just happened to be home. Suddenly Frank felt flush and toppled over on the floor and went into a convulsion. That was his last conscious moment for four days.

Encephalitis was what the doctors said he had, a brain infection sometimes known as sleeping sickness, and until he came out of the coma they wouldn't know what the damage would be.

"You can go anywhere from death," says Frank in retrospect, "to a vegetable to complete recovery."

Maurice Stokes, the great basketball player, has a form of it resulting from a blow on the head, and $200,000 has been spent so far in his rehabilitation.

Well, on May 1 of last year, five weeks after he woke up, Frank Beard played in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas and finished 12th with a representative total of 284. Now Frank is a healthy young cluster of 29, tanned and robust and still on the PGA National tour. In the recent Bob Hope Classic at Palm Desert he was the first round leader with a brilliant 66. He's a consistent threat to finish in the top money money anywhere.

Having a successful athlete in family is old stuff to the Beards of Louisville. The older boy, Ralph, was an All-American basketball player at Kentucky and a brilliant pro until he got caught up in the shaving scandals of 1951. Ralph has become a golf buff, too, and only laments that he wasted 25 years playing basketball.

Frank is only thankful to be playing golf.

Guokas Remembers Playground Primer

SOARING HAWK—St. Joseph's College has been in the nation's top ten all season and much of the credit goes to sophomore Matt Guokas Jr., (24) pictured in inset, who is considered one of the finest all-around players in Philadelphia's Big Five.

By Sandy Padwe
PHILADELPHIA — (NEA) — In Philadelphia, it starts in the playgrounds where most kids are shooting jump shots five minutes after they pick up a basketball for the first time.

The exceptions are few, but Matt Guokas Jr. was one of them.

"When I was younger," the 6-5 St. Joseph's College sophomore said, "I used to play with the older guys at the playground."

"Bruce Drysdale (ex-Temple guard), Pickles Kennedy (Temple All-American) and Fred Schmidt (Duke) used to play there."

"When I played, I just didn't shoot that much. I would watch Drysdale and Kennedy, and I saw how unselfish they were. It made an impression."

And now, Guokas, in his first year of varsity competition, is the main reason St. Joseph's has stayed in the nation's top 10 all season.

He's the key," said Dr. Jack Ramsey, St. Joseph's coach. "Everything revolves around him. He's a tremendous playmaker. He's strong on defense and his play on the fast break is really great. Mechanically, there are very few things he doesn't do well."

There are all types of honors one can receive for playing basketball, but as far as Guokas a forward guard is concerned, Ramsey's praise was the ultimate.

"For him to say that, well... I was pretty proud," he said in his mild, soft manner. "Now I'm almost afraid to talk to him after a compliment like that. I feel there's no one anywhere who knows the game like him."

This feeling about Ramsey can be found in any St. Joseph's player, but with Guokas it may be a little stronger.

His father, Matt Sr., was captain of St. Joseph's famed Mighty Mites back in the 1930s and later played with the Philadelphia Warriors in the early NBA days before his career was ended by an automobile accident.

The elder Guokas is a sportscaster for a Philadelphia radio and television station which carries the St. Joseph's broadcasts, and it is a tricky situation because his son has been so outstanding.

"Guokas is the best all-around player I've seen in my time as a Big Five coach (10 years)," said Penn's Jack McCloskey.

Dolph Schayes is another Guokas fan. "I have never seen a college player who can pass with such precision," the coach of the professional Philadelphia 76ers said. "He could play for me right now."

Guokas' scoring average is only 13.3, mainly because he averages just 12 shots a game. His field goal percentage has been near 50.

Assists and steals are his favorite statistics, though. He leads the team in both, and set a Quaker City Tournament record last Christmas with 10 assists in one game against Holy Cross.

He had 59 clean steals in his first 20 games, which gives you an idea of the aggressive defense St. Joseph's plays.

All that in his first varsity season.

Just think what he'll be like when he's a senior.

Methodists Top Presbyterians

First game played Thursday night in the Church League saw First Methodist down First Presbyterian by a score of 18 to 27.

The game was fairly close through the first three periods with First Methodist holding a 35 to 29 edge at the third quarter. However, First Presbyterian was held scoreless in the fourth quarter while First Methodist was scoring 13 points.

John Angel took the honors each. The Methodist's hit 18 per cent of their shots from the field.

The second game saw Grace Methodist better Free Methodist 64 to 37. Grace held a 20 to nine first quarter edge and steadily increased it through out the game.

Paul Markov and Earl Moore paced the Grace team with 20 and 19 points, respectively, followed by Bobby Alexander with 11 falls. The Grace team hit 61 per cent of their shots from the field points while Matt Johnson and Top Ley followed with nine hit 37 per cent.

'Goodbye Charlie' Hit At Ritz

The reincarnation of a male into a beautiful young woman is the subject of the new 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color comedy, "Goodbye Charlie," which opens Sunday at the Ritz Theatre.

Tony Curtis, Debbie Reynolds and Pat Boone are starred with Walter Matthau, Joanna Barnes and Laura Devon.

Set and filmed in Hollywood, "Goodbye Charlie" is the story of a dashing young scriptwriter who is shot by a jealous husband and reincarnated as a young woman, played by Debbie Reynolds.

"WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE?" asks Tony Curtis of Debbie Reynolds in this scene from the 20th Century-Fox comedy in CinemaScope and De Luxe Color, "Goodbye Charlie" which opens Sunday at the Ritz Theatre.

Tony Curtis, who plays the closest friend of the late scriptwriter, is the first to find out that Charlie has become a woman, and a ravishing one at that. The plot recounts Charlie's adventures as a woman, and the plight of Tony Curtis, who finds himself falling in love with her.

Tony Curtis, who is looking more and more like the Cary Grant type of comedy performer, comes to "Goodbye Charlie" after receiving accolades for his performance in "Captain Newman, M.D." Right now, Curtis is interested in developing his talents as a comedian, and his next five pictures are all scheduled and are all comedies. His first big comedy role was in "Some Like It Hot," which he enjoyed making and which won him considerable critical acclaim. Now the celebrated Curtis flair for comedy is offered an ideal showcase in "Goodbye Charlie."

Lovely Debbie Reynolds completely changed her "Tammy" image with her outstanding performance in "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," and now follows up that tour de force with her role as a sophisticated but naughty young woman in "Goodbye Charlie."

Wednesday the Drive-In will show "Stranger in My Arms," starring June Allyson and Jeff Chandler, and "Never Steal Anything Small." This stars James Cagney.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will bring a triple feature to the screen. Mary Ann Mobley appears in "Get Yourself a College Girl," Elvis Presley appears in "Fun in Acapulco," and Gary Cooper is featured in "Dallas."

Liz At Drive-In

The motion picture that has been more talked about and written about than any other in the history of the industry, "Cleopatra" will open at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre Sunday for a three-day run.

The mammoth 20th Century-Fox romantic spectacle, starring Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton and Rex Harrison, has been shown in the capitals of the Free World and in major cities throughout the country on a road show basis and with acety reserved.

The Movieland management reports this is the same version as shown across the nation at advanced admission prices but will be shown uncut at regular prices.

The $42 million feature will be presented at 7:55 each night. A featurette, "2 on a Pass," will precede the main showing.

Wednesday the Drive-In will show "Stranger in My Arms," starring June Allyson and Jeff Chandler, and "Never Steal Anything Small." This stars James Cagney.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will bring a triple feature to the screen. Mary Ann Mobley appears in "Get Yourself a College Girl," Elvis Presley appears in "Fun in Acapulco," and Gary Cooper is featured in "Dallas."

ELIZABETH TAYLOR is seen as Cleopatra, Richard Burton as Mark Anthony, and Rex Harrison as Julius Caesar in the $42 million spectacular starting a three-day engagement at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre Sunday night.

Stay Young - Step Out And Swing For Fun

By Dottie Austin

IT'S A CELEBRATION! Hank and Louise Pyle are celebrating their first anniversary as owners of the LAKE MONROE INN and everyone is invited to the party, tonight. There'll be dancing to the music of the Kingsmen, led by Jack Rossman—no cover or minimum and your choice of many fine things to eat. Two of their specialties are real old-fashioned pit barbecue and their famous charcoal-broiled sirloin steak for two.

LADIES HOURS at the Caribe Lounge are from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. when drinks only cost one cent per year of age—a bargain that just can't be beat. Serving is "Dawn" the charming Australian girl with the cute accent who knows how to mix 'em just right for ladies, or gentlemen. CARIBE, in the Valdez Hotel is open until 2 a. m., nightly except Sunday and don't forget there is dancing "on the house" every Friday night.

STEAK, STEAK, STEAK . . . all sizes, shapes and prices so that you can have exactly the one you want, done just the way you want it at the MAR-LOU RESTAURANT and Cocktail Lounge on South Hiway 17-92, just across the way from the Sanford Shopping Plaza. Dancing starts at 9:30 p. m. Thursday through Saturday . . . and there is always a good dance band to keep your feet a-tapping.

THERE'S ALWAYS good eating at the TRADE WINDS CAFETERIA in the Seminole Plaza, but two nights a week customers have special treats awaiting them. Thursday night is family night and everyone in the family gets one of the TRADE WINDS delicious desserts—free. Just the thing to top off a delightful dinner. On Saturday nights it's "steak night," a nice big T-Bone, cooked to your order at their special low price. Luncheon every day, of course from 11 a. m. to 2:15 p. m.

ARE YOU A HEALTHY EATER? Do the words, "all you can eat" sound good to you? Then tonight's the night you put your feet under a table at the PINCREST INN for their special fish fry for all you can eat. Of delicious fried fish, cole slaw, French fried, baked beans, grits, hush puppies, relishes and coffee or tea. Then top it all off with one of their delicate pastries, homemade and just bursting with delicious flavor. Open 24 hours a day for your convenience.

DON'T YOU JUST LOVE having a party? So does the CAPRI RESTAURANT and Cocktail Lounge and they are prepared to let you have all the fun and none of the fuss about having a tea, a coffee, luncheon, brunch or a real swingin' gala. They do all the work and let them make all the arrangements for you. Choice steaks and seafood, specially prepared spaghetti and meatballs and your favorite beverages at modest prices—never any cover or minimum, you know. Swingin' dance music with Peggy and the Keynotes starting at 8 p. m.

COCKTAIL HOUR at the JET INN is from 7 to 8 p. m. when all mixed drinks are served at reduced prices. Your host is Elliott Fenwick from 6 p. m. to 2 a. m., with Manager Chuck Potent serving you from 8:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. Package goods, too at popular prices.

Gay, Authentic "Smorgasbord" Set Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Saturday, Feb. 20, is a day designed to get milady out of the kitchen and let the Ethel Root Circle members of the Congregational Christian Church, 24th at Park Avenue, serve as your hostesses for a most sumptuous Swedish Smorgasbord.

From all reports the 45 food varieties being offered are "out of this world" and the proof is in the favorable comments from everyone who has ever attended any of the Circle's annual feasts.

The dining area will be enhanced with authentic Swedish decor or carry-out service is available, with the patrons selecting the foods of their choice.

For further information call Mrs. Ralph Lossing, 322-5280 or Mrs. Ethel Corbett, 322-6569.

Cook green vegetables quickly for best quality.

Bridal Parties Fete Recent Bride

By Maryann Miles

The South Seminole Welcome Wagon Board members recently served as hostesses to a surprise linen shower honoring Mrs. Bernard Willoughby, bride of February 5.

The shower was at the home of Mrs. Genie Fritter in Briarwood, who used some of her own wedding decorations to adorn the party area.

Highlight of the evening was a mock wedding which was delightful to the guests with Gilda Pettinati portraying the groom, Maryann Miles, the minister and Clare Paulsen was the blushing bride.

Others attending were the Meses. Frances Dickinson, Melanie Stewart, Nora Norris, Sandy Laloma, Maude Crawford, Minna Crum, Bea Daggett, Juanita Moore and Frances Coler.

Also the Meses. Mae Osborne, Sue Dice, Claire Sabatini, Lucille Crowell, Mae Jones and Wanetta Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Willoughby, Forest City newlyweds, were recently surprised when a group of their friends dropped in laden with gifts, cake and ice cream.

Following the opening of the lovely gifts and refreshments, the group all enjoyed an old fashioned singing session.

Attending were Mrs. Dan Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. Rex James, Mrs. Edwina Melster, Luther Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Turner, Mr. and Mrs. David Hatley, Harvey Shotters, Juanita Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Miles.

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD WILLOUGHBY, newly weds of Forest City, are shown with a group of their friends who surprised them with gifts and refreshments at a recent "drop-in."

A MOCK WEDDING was presented at a shower feting Mrs. Bernard Willoughby with Clare Paulsen, left, as the blushing bride; Maryann Miles, center, the marryin' minister; and Gilda Pettinati as the doomed groom.

Art And Music Combine Color, Culture At Concert

An art exhibit combined with The Florida Symphony Orchestra will magnify an enchanted evening, March 2, at the Civic Center as members of the Sanford Mutual Concert Association admire the works of local artists and listen to the moving musical medleys of Henry Mazer and the Symphony, a combination designed for the most discriminating.

Since many members of the association are talented artists, as an added attraction, they have graciously consented to exhibiting some of their works in an exclusive showing to highlight the magic of the exciting evening.

LIB SHINHOLSER, right, and Georgia Ball, both members of the Mutual Concert Association, proudly display two of Lib's paintings which will be featured at the Civic Center with many of the other members works in conjunction with the appearance of the Florida Symphony Orchestra on March 2.

A recent visit with Lib Shinholser at her perfectly gorgeous Mayfair home revealed that she and Georgia Ball are two of the local and talented artists, also Mutual Concert Association members, who will exhibit some of their works.

There are many other artist members planning to exhibit their prized paintings and some have been dreaming up new thoughts to express their sentiments on canvas especially for this occasion.

Understand that the concert has caused considerable comment around town as many of the members have discussed the bonus feature at Kaffeeklatsches, luncheons, bridge parties and the like. It is apparent that all members plan to take full advantage of their membership and attend this gala fete in store.

Milady is already scanning her wardrobe and making new purchases for the evening of grandeur and small dinner parties and post-concert gatherings are in the forming. So from all reports the concert members are really planning to go "all out" for this magnificent performance, and the full red carpet treatment will be afforded the famed maestro and his musicians.

Fidelis Class Assists In Making Cancer Bandages

Mrs. J. P. Cullen was hostess recently at her 20th Street home to the regular meeting of the Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. C. Humphrey served as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Willodeine Chanlot.

Stella Pryor gave the devotional program from "Guidedpost" and used giving from the heart as her theme, with sentence prayers following.

In the absence of Loretta Thomas, class secretary, Margaret Routh gave the secretary's report, followed by the treasurer's report.

The various group captains reported on their activities. It was announced that the class would participate in making cancer bandages on the third and fourth Tuesdays of each month at the home of Grace Hobbs.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served delicious refreshments of apple sauce, cake, candy, nuts, coffee and tea to the Meses Inez Spears, Sam Brown, S. J. Brooks, Willodeine Chanlot, Grace Hobbs and Ivie Rucker.

Also the Meses Audrey Yeackle, Margaret Routh, Olive Booth, Caroline Holtzclaw, Irving Pryor and H. E. Long.

G. Elliot Hoelt of Sunny-side Lane has his son-in-law, Robert Nelson of Little Neck, Long Island, N. Y., visiting him for a few days.

C. R. Dawson of Sunset Dr. entertained old friends from Virginia, Friday, en route to the Gulf Coast.

Personals

Mrs. Otto C. Stroth and two granddaughters from Dover, N. H., have arrived to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. John D. Callahan, 835 E. 20th Street. Mrs. Callahan has recently returned home from Breward Hospital, Melbourne, where she underwent surgery.

Medical News

Contrary to popular belief, the more often a woman becomes pregnant the more important it is for her to have close medical supervision. Dr. Leslie Quinlivan, of the Pittsburgh School of Medicine, drew this conclusion after studying more than 47,000 women who had a varying number of pregnancies. He comments, "The woman who has been pregnant several times is not an easy obstetric case. The hazards do not decrease with every delivery."

Dr. Quinlivan found the maternal death rate four times higher in a group of women who had had six or more babies than in other groups. They suffered from acute high blood pressure, diseases of the placenta (the organ within the uterus to which the developing baby is attached and from which it receives nourishment from the mother), ruptured uterus and other disorders more frequently than women who had had fewer pregnancies.

Dr. Quinlivan's report highlights the importance of prompt and continuous medical care throughout pregnancy for all women.

'Friendship' To Be Theme Of Scout Meet

Members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 562 are making plans for a "Thinking Day" program with each patrol taking part in a selected program on friendship as they welcome new Scouts.

The troop also is working on several badges, including a health badge. Arrangements have been made through Mrs. Hulda Kibbee, county health nurse, to tour the Seminole County Health Center.

Leaders of the troop, Mrs. Tom Albert and Mrs. Russell Kitzner, attended a workshop conducted by Mrs. Fred Gans showing them how to instruct Scouts in the art of flower arrangement so they may take part in the annual flower show at the Civic Center March 5-8.

Mrs. V. L. Smith met with the troop and showed them how to use flowers and foliage and explained color and form and their combination.

Scouts of Troop 562 are fourth and fifth graders at West Side Grammar School and meet each week in the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

First Southern Methodist Has Conference

Fifth Southern Methodist Church of Sanford held its second quarterly conference following last week's evening worship service at the Sanford Woman's Club.

Reports were heard from each official of the church. In his pastoral report, Rev. Durward H. Knight Jr., commended the group for its organizational efficiency and progress. Mrs. H. B. McCall represented the Woman's Missionary Society and J. L. Sauls, the Board of Trustees and the Stewards of the Church.

Other reports were given by H. B. McCall, treasurer; Mrs. R. D. Priest, secretary; and R. D. Priest, superintendent of the Sunday School and Epworth League sponsor.

The conference was closed with prayer led by J. T. Talmadge.

Preceding the service, a sandwich supper was enjoyed with coffee and fruit punch and a variety of homemade cakes.

Rev. Knight has chosen as his sermon subject for this week's 7:30 p.m. service, "Patriotism." Special invitation has been extended members of the Daughters of the American Revolution to attend as a delegation. The public also will be welcomed.

First Baptist Sets Study

The First Baptist Church Brotherhood and Women's Missionary Society of Sanford will hold a joint mission study Monday evening. The study has been arranged by Mrs. H. W. Rucker, mission study chairman of the WMS; E. H. Wood, Brotherhood president and Mrs. Leo Watson, president of the WMS. The book to be studied will be "Winds of Change," a publication of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Teachers for the Monday evening study will be Mrs. Fred B. Chance, M. D. Walker and Mrs. E. W. Rogers. The study will be completed on Wednesday evening at the Prayer Service hour with Julian Stenstrom speaking about the mission fields in the west. Supper will be served in Fellowship Hall at 6:45 p.m. The study will begin immediately following the meal.

First Methodist To Show Film

The world service film, "And On the Eighth Day," which deals with the story of the Creation and the unfinished tasks God has left in the hands of man, will be shown at the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday at First Methodist Church, Sanford.

Will Harris, 818 West 13th Street, is 80 years old today. He was born in Mikesville, Columbia County. This little town is located approximately 16 miles from Lake City.

On Feb. 18, 1930, he came to Sanford from Bradenton. "I was unemployed until the latter part of 1931—then I went to work for Chief of Police Roy G. Williams," he said. Harris, who retired a year ago, said "Chief Williams had something like 10 houses at that time."

This man, who is a crack carpenter, was asked how he received his training. "I only went to the 11th grade but I bought books and studied carpentry and other related fields. My practical experience came from working with some of the largest contractors in Florida," he said. To become more versatile in his work, he learned brick masonry and welding.

He has advised many young men to learn carpentry. "They said it was too much work."

Revival Held In Pinecrest

Pinecrest Assembly of God Church, corner of 27th Street and Elm Avenue, is conducting revival services each night at 7:30, with the exception of Saturday, through Feb. 28, with Dr. William H. Kautz, noted evangelist, as guest minister.

Graduated from Bible School some 20 years ago, Dr. Kautz has spent most of his time since in travels throughout America and Canada ministering to large audiences.

Rev. H. M. Wilder, local minister of Pinecrest Assembly, states that "a real concern for lost souls and for the sick and suffering is shared by Dr. Kautz and people of the church." Rev. Wilder invites the public to share in the revival series.

Two-Week Revival To Begin Sunday At Elder Springs

A two-week revival at Elder Springs Baptist Church will begin Sunday with Rev. Thomas M. Hodgins, pastor of Northside Baptist Church, DeLand, as the evangelist.

Services will be conducted twice daily, at 9 a.m. and at 7:45 p.m. each weekday, Monday through Friday. Sunday services will be continued on regular schedule: Sunday School, 9:45 a.m.; Morning Worship, 11 a.m.; Training Union, 6:30 p.m. and Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m.

Rev. Hodgins was born in Canon City, Colo., and became a Christian in Hollywood Calif. After spending four-and-one-half years in the Air Force during World War II, he received his college training at Oklahoma Baptist University and attended Seminary at Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City. He has served churches in Oklahoma, Missouri and Nebraska and has been in demand as a revival preacher in the mid-west and in Florida.

He also served as a pastoral missionary under the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board in Nebraska and was instrumental in beginning Southern Baptist work there.

At present, in addition to his duties as pastor of Northside, he is superintendent of the Seminole Baptist Association Sunday School, is a member of the Associational Missions Committee and a member of the District Missions Committee of the Florida Baptist Convention.

Rev. B. Hamilton Griffin, pastor of Elder Springs, has issued a most welcome invitation to the public to attend services of the revival.

History Month Is Proclaimed

Daughters of the American Revolution have asked that the month of February be observed as American History month and have drawn up a proclamation which has been signed by Mayor J. H. Crapps. "It is time for the general public all over America to refresh themselves on American history and we feel that it is the duty of Americans to help preserve the history of our country and to remember that America came up from a struggle," the proclamation reads.

It urges that "all citizens, both adults and children in the local schools, either individually or collectively, acquaint themselves with our American history."

Day Apart

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Orlando District will have a Day Apart at Goss Memorial Church in Orlando. The service is scheduled from 9:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. and all WBCS members in the district are invited to attend and bring a sandwich.

W. B. Brinson Succumbs Today

W. B. Brinson, 60, of 1422 Park Avenue, a retired ACL conductor, died at 9:15 a.m. this morning at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

A native of Georgia, he had resided in Sanford for 40 years. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edna Mae Brinson, a son Maj. W. B. Brinson Jr., who arrived only this morning from his Army assignment at Heidelberg, Germany, and four grandchildren.

Five Attend MYF Retreat

By Jane Casselberry
Young People from the Senior MYF of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church attended the Senior High Retreat held last weekend at the Methodist Youth Camp near Leesburg.

Those attending were Carla Blease, Alice Harris, Judy Beauchamp, Jeff MacLeod, and Rick Casselberry.

Mrs. Marion Velch of the Casselberry Church served as camp nurse for the weekend.

'Phone Prefix Will Become Thing Of Past

Midway and Terrace will be a thing of the past this fall when the Winter Park Telephone Company converts all its telephone numbers to "All Number Calling" (ANC).

"No telephone numbers actually will be changed," explained company executive vice president Russ Hulbert. "The prefixes 644 and 647 will be substituted for Midway 4 and Midway 7 and 838 will replace Terrace 8. A check of your telephone dial will confirm that we are just using numbers to replace the letters."

All listings in the Winter Park Telephone directory will be converted to All Number Calling effective with the November 1965 issue. At the same time Southern Bell subscribers in Orlando will find their listings converted to ANC.

"More than half our subscribers have been converted to ANC," said Hulbert. "Each time we visit a customer's home or business between now and November we will change the dial plate on their sets to all numbers. For the few subscribers we miss we will mail the all-number plates for their telephones."

Hulbert cited a number of reasons for the need to convert to all numbers: more useable central office prefixes are available to handle the rapid growth of the area; ANC eliminates dialing errors caused by confusing the letter "o" with the "zero" and the letter "i" with the numeral "1"; ANC will permit the use of smaller telephone with smaller dials or pushbuttons, and the numbers can be printed larger on the dial since space will not be needed for letters.

"We urge all business subscribers to make a note of this change," said Hulbert. "This change should be anticipated when ordering stationery and business cards. Subscribers can easily convert their number by referring to the telephone dial and using the number equivalent for the present letters."

Heart Sunday Drive Slated

"The fight against heart and blood vessel disease, No. 1 killer of Americans, will be carried to every home in Seminole County, DeBary and Deltona this weekend, when hundreds of volunteers will each call on between 15 to 20 of their neighbors in observance of Heart Sunday," Dr. Luis Perez, president of the Seminole-DeBary Heart Association, told members of the Civitan Club, Thursday. The local doctor demon-

Forestry Service Careers Outlined To Ninth Graders

By Jane Casselberry
As part of the unit of study on choosing a vocation, ninth grade civics classes at South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry were told opportunities for careers with the Florida Forest Service for both men and women by Al Harris, county ranger.

A color film, "Signal One," was presented showing fire fighters in action. Harris told the duties of the Forest Service and listed requirements for the many different types of jobs available.

In addition to the positions for professionals with college degrees in forestry at the state and district levels, he told of jobs available to those with high school diplomas and specialized training. Some of these include pilots, mechanics, heavy equipment operators, radio operators and tower men.

He told the girls that there are office jobs available for women and that they are particularly well suited for working in the fire control towers.

Assisting Harris was Ranger Willard Medler who is stationed at the Oviedo tower.

Attend Course
A Christian Workers School, conducted at First Methodist Church in Winter Park each evening this week, is being attended by a group from Casselberry Community Methodist Church.

Those attending the course are Rev. Delmas Copeland, Mrs. Frank Messick, Mrs. Don MacLeod, Mrs. Phillip Caesher and Leonard Casselberry.

Price For Glory

France intends to spend more than $31 billion over the next six years to make herself into a thermonuclear power — and a more futile waste can hardly be imagined.

According to Science, the official organ of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in each of the next six years—if President De Gaulle is still around to have his way—France will invest $2 billion in equipping strategic and tactical nuclear forces, another $700 million in other defense needs, another $2.5 billion in salaries, supplies and miscellaneous.

With a population only one-fourth that of the United States and a gross national product half as large, this is equivalent to $40 billion annually, or close to what this country spends on defense.

By the end of 1970, De Gaulle hopes to have nuclear warheads with a total explosive power of 40 megatons (or less than the single monster set off by Russia), the first of 16 Polaris-type submarines and miniaturized tactical weapons for three army divisions. Franco, not a signer of the nuclear test-ban treaty, will eventually explode hydrogen bombs in the atmosphere in the South Pacific.

The irony is that all of this Lilliputian force must be developed from scratch and that whatever its deterrent effect will amount to already exists many times over in the hands of the United States.

What price glory? When De Gaulle's expensive "force de frappe" is complete, neither France nor the world will be one whit more secure than before.

Tip For U.S. Reds

"Unofficial Soviet sources," say the wire services, have expressed "gratification" at President Johnson's hope that Soviet leaders will visit the United States. There was no comment on his suggestion that they swap live television appearances with American leaders.

There is no reason why this idea must wait upon the slow processes of protocol, however. Why not do as the networks do and schedule appropriate reruns in the interim? There must be, for instance, thousands of feet of tape of the now-defunct Ev and Charlie Show lying around waiting for a sponsor.

The Russians could match that with, perhaps, "Fade In, Fade Out"—nostalgic travelogues produced by that one-time world traveler and raconteur Nikita Khrushchev.

Nikita's retirement is reportedly costing the Russians $330 a month in pension and a spacious country house. The residuals alone (fees paid for program reruns) could save them this and give them a healthy balance of trade in the bargain.

Thought For Today

As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower of the field; for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.—Psalms 103:15-16.

'Tower Of Babel'

UPI Foreign News Analyst India's 1961 census disclosed that in the huge subcontinent there are 849 different languages and major dialects.

Of this polyglot, Hindi and its dialects are used by something less than half of the population, mainly in the north. Among them all, the single unifying factor has been the English language, an inheritance of years of British colonial rule. Particularly this applied to the civil service.

The great diversity of language made hopeless the task of unifying state and national administrations without a common denominator.

And so it was that the constitution of 1950 directed that English should be the official language for the first 15 years and on Jan. 26, 1965, should be replaced by Hindi.

In 1963 Parliament passed a law saying that non-Hindi speaking states could, if they wished, retain English as an "associate language" for another 10 years. But it failed to appease the fears of millions of Indians who feared loss of their jobs to Hindi speakers or the resentment of those states proud of their own native tongue.

Rule by riot not being uncommon among the explosive Indian population, it was not too surprising that on Jan. 26, in the state of Madras in the south, mobs began taking to the streets.

Madras is a Tamil-speaking state, a language by about 34 million.

The rioters attacked trains, burned stations and cut telephone lines in an attempt to halt communication.

The mobs seized two policemen and burned them alive.

Seven persons burned themselves to death in protest suicides.

The riots then spread to Mysore and Kerala states where students attacked trains and post offices and stoned Hindi teachers.

In Calcutta where Bengali is the principal tongue, student demonstrators smashed windows of bookstalls and burned Hindi books.

For mild-mannered Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri the language riots were just one of many burdens but they threatened to have widespread repercussions.

Neither the Indian president nor some members of Shastri's cabinet approved of his handling of the situation.

The rioting put new strains on the ruling Congress party, already bursting at the seams as a result of the loss of former Prime Minister Nehru.

In Kerala state elections are scheduled for next month, and the Communists who made political profit out of the food riots of last November seem likely to make further gains out of the language riots.

Kerala is the only Indian state where the Communists ever have held power. They were in office from 1957 to 1959.

It is a tragedy of India that Nehru left it with a heritage of 17 years of democracy but failed to solve any of its other major problems.

The greatest of these is a faltering economy unable to feed India's exploding population. Hand in hand are inflation and mounting unemployment.

With all of these facing him, Shastri seemed ready to compromise on the language issue.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One of the most unusual art works found in the U. S. Capitol — or anywhere else for that matter—is a piece of sculpture titled "Monument to Pioneer Suffrage Leaders."

Relatively few people, however, use that title. It is more generally known as "The Three Old Ladies in the Bath."

The sculpture depicts the stern-visaged likenesses of Susan B. Anthony, Lueria Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Or at least their upper portions.

I recall interviewing the party's national chairman in 1960 and she assured me that the outlook was rosy. Well, here it is 1965 and things have not changed very much.

On Monday of this week, officials of the party and about 20 other women's organizations gathered before the monument to commemorate the 145th anniversary of Susan B. Anthony's birth.

Once again, they raised the plea for adoption of the equal rights amendment. And once again the outlook was rosy.

Not only rosy, but several other floral hues as well. They had so many wreaths on the monument, it appeared that the three ladies in the tub were taking a flower bath.

I certainly want to wish them well, but somehow I have a feeling that they are using the wrong approach.

A lot of members of Congress pass by the monument every day. It is entirely possible that they have started unconsciously to associate it with the proposed amendment.

The statue looks unfinished, ergo, the amendment remains in the category of unfinished business.

If I were running the National Women's Party, I would immediately hire a sculptor to carve up the rest of that marble block so that Susan B. and her sister Suffragettes would appear in full figure.

Unless, of course, they really were bathing together.

the rallying point for what must be one of the most persistent lobbying campaigns in American history.

Every year since 1923, the National Women's Party has presented Congress with a demand for a constitutional amendment establishing equality between the sexes.

And every year since 1923, Congress has been out to lunch.

I recall interviewing the party's national chairman in 1960 and she assured me that the outlook was rosy. Well, here it is 1965 and things have not changed very much.

On Monday of this week, officials of the party and about 20 other women's organizations gathered before the monument to commemorate the 145th anniversary of Susan B. Anthony's birth.

Once again, they raised the plea for adoption of the equal rights amendment. And once again the outlook was rosy.

'Center Of Gravity'

LAWRENCE, Kan (UPI) — The center of gravity in newspapers has shifted from editorial dominance to news dominance, Earl J. Johnson, editor and vice president of United Press International, said in the William Allen White memorial lecture at the University of Kansas.

Johnson was given the 1965 National Citation for Journalism Merit by the trustees of the White Foundation.

"One of the most important developments in my time," he said, "has been the emergence of two highly responsible and intensely competitive worldwide news services, the Associated Press and the United Press International."

"It is my conviction that their toe-to-toe competition and the balance of power that exists now in this area of news communicating have become the public's best guarantee of being accurately and promptly informed about world and national events."

Johnson recalled that William Allen White's Emporia Gazette was famous for its editor's provocative opinions and brilliant style.

"Mr. White was bigger than his newspaper," he said. "Today the best newspapers and the most successful ones are those which tell their readers the most about what is going on in the nation and the world and provide the most lucid explanations of what these events mean. In most cases the newspaper is now bigger than its owner."

"The center of gravity in newspapers has shifted from editorial dominance to news dominance, and this has marked a decline in the highly personalized kind of newspapering that we knew in the heyday of William Allen White."

"Journalism practiced mainly to persuade, and to mold opinion, has become the role of the professional editorial writer and the syndicated columnist."

Johnson described the growth of the two basic news services since World War I.

"Thus, the two primary news services are the main reliance of the printed and electronic news media," he said. "No other two organizations have as large an audience for news."

"The public's understanding of events in Washington, Moscow, the UN and Cape Kennedy, and the public's opinions about these events, are largely conditioned by what it reads and hears about them under the logotypes of UPI and AP."

Competition between the two services on world news fronts, Johnson said, is "the public's safeguard against lethargy or complacency in an

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Coral brings out an axiom of educational psychology of great value to all parents. For fears and worries are usually due to ignorance. And the more you feed a child's mind with facts (or vocabulary), the more ideas he will pick up as he journeys through life. Words are thus like fishhooks. The more you have, the more you will catch.

CASE V-417: Coral F., aged 19, is a college coed.

"Dr. Crane," she asked, "why is it that when I bump into a new word and look it up in the dictionary, I then encounter it several times within the next week or two?"

"Why, I have had this happen to me many times.

"I'll see a strange word that I am positive I have never met before.

"Yet when I learn its meaning, I may see that word again on several occasions within the next few days. How do you explain it?"

Actually, Coral had probably encountered those strange words many times but had never been forced to take note of them or look up their meanings in the dictionary.

But after she had thus been made aware of the word, then she saw it on many other occasions.

For we tend to see only what we have been trained to look for!

"To him that hath, shall be given," states the Bible, and this aptly applies to knowledge.

The more you know, the greater your scientific curiosity becomes whetted and thus the more things you will observe.

Sherlock Holmes was no smarter than you or me, but if he were to view the scene of a murder, he would see dozens of clues that you and I would not notice at all.

Yet our eyes and our IQ might equal those of any good modern Sherlock Holmes.

Similarly, we physicians see many things that you laymen overlook, despite the fact you have 20/20 vision.

For we usually see what we are taught to look for!

Which should stimulate all parents to widen the range of interests of their children.

For example, how many native birds can you identify when you view them?

Although I had been surrounded by birds all my life, I couldn't have named more than a few, such as robins, sparrows, wrens, crows, etc., until an ornithologist friend of mine recently woke me up to this fascinating field of science.

How many types of grass or species of trees can you name correctly?

Many children are also allowed to reach adulthood with phobias of spider or snakes and various insects, when such fears are groundless and could easily have been dispelled by a little study of your family dictionary and encyclopedia.

The Black Widow spider, for example, thus produced panics in America 36 years ago, yet it causes no more harm than a honeybee!

And most snakes are great mouse catchers and eaters of harmful garden insects, yet how many children can identify even three species of snakes in their area?

Thanks to the Scouts and Camp Fire Organizations, modern youth are now growing more informed and thus less apprehensive.

"For the truth shall make you free," stated Jesus, and that is doubly relevant in the realm of psychiatry.

This column should thus help free you from unnecessary worries and fears, so send for my booklet "How to Stay Sane and Happy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)
 Take some time during this holiday to study your bank account, other statements of importance. Be sure they are accurate. Doing your civic duty can also bring fine benefits.

Taurus (Apr. 21 to May 20)
 Getting together with those with whom you have important dealings should come first. Therefore, thinking of recreation don't argue with others. Separate government can't be.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
 Making very sure to do your rightful duty, work will lessen the load later and keep you in good grace of others. Laboring alone may be best. Give some thought to improving your health.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)
 It is best to be economical today and concentrate on getting skills to work more efficiently. Don't argue with loved one or close friend. They may have pressures of their own.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23)
 How you have come in a new understanding, with you that is at home see that you do not antagonize another living under your roof. Don't let your investments could result.

Virgo (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
 Think before you speak and you would not get important news. Don't let your investments along with associates. Have fun that relieves that personal.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
 Don't give in to that temptation to spend too much in order to get success from work. Attention to more economical investment. Has above any trouble and settle it objectively.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)
 You want to dash off in your four directions, but your feet let it be consistent in one and be pleasant with others. Give more attention to your health. Then all goes fine with you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23)
 Getting and finding doesn't help at all since you see just as fast-paced as you get. Hold of yourself really to make this a fine day. Follow the spirit of this great day.

Capricorn (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20)
 Forget that angry, critical mood and be courteous and kind with those about you. A family gathering would be preferable. Study very hard. Make sure you want to be back in order to gain the back.

Water signs
 You have to change your plans if you want to make the success you desire and this is a good day for study. Interacting now, meet with friends in a better day for promoting friendship.

Capricorn (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
 You have to change your plans if you want to make the success you desire and this is a good day for study. Interacting now, meet with friends in a better day for promoting friendship.

FORGOTTEN ANYTHING

The Church for all
 All for the Church

No, not a single thing! Mom always shops carefully for her family. She watches their health. She makes sure they have a clean, comfortable home. She sees that they get practically anything they want. What more can she do?

Well, how about their spiritual well-being? A family needs a religious framework in which to develop moral responsibility and steadfast faith. If Mom and Dad set a fine example of Christian love and regular church attendance, the family cannot help but be influenced. Today's young people, strengthened and inspired by Church teachings, are the leaders that our country will need tomorrow.

Remember, Mom . . . "Man's life consists not in the abundance of things which he possesses." Don't deprive your family or yourself of the many precious values the Church can give.

LBJ Promises Young Americans Danger, Destiny

Must Share Sacrifices

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson today called on young Americans to advance the cause of freedom by sharing fully "in the responsibilities, the dangers and the passions of your time."

The President outlined the sacrifices and rewards of the Great Society in a speech at ceremonies marking the 100th anniversary of the University of Kentucky at Lexington.

The Great Society cannot be built by government alone, he declared. "It needs your sacrifice and effort."

Johnson told his audience at the university convocation that "we cannot and will not withdraw from this world. We are too rich, too powerful and too important. And we are too concerned."

The President emphasized that he was not speaking of foreign policy, although our relations abroad presented "grave and immediate issues."

He said he was speaking of the challenges to Americans today in domestic and foreign fields.

"We care that men are hungry—not only in Appalachia, but in Asia and Africa," he asserted.

"We care that men are oppressed—not only in this country but wherever a man is unjust to man."

"We care that men should govern themselves and shape their own destinies—not only in Kentucky but in every corner of every continent."

"We care for peace—not only for ourselves, but for every country torn by conflict."

Johnson warned young Americans they would inherit a world with the greatest danger, but also with "the most promising destiny in history."

"If you wish a sheltered and uneventful life, you are living in the wrong generation," he said.

"For only those who dare to fail greatly, can achieve much."

He added that American youth "will find meaning only by sharing in the responsibilities, the dangers and the passions of your time."

The Chief Executive and Mrs. Johnson attended services Sunday at historic Christ Church (Episcopal) across the Potomac in Alexandria, (Va.) where Washington worshipped.

Johnson sat in the same pew the first president occupied when he attended services.

The Rev. William Sydney Jr., rector of the 192-year-old church, said it was traditional to invite the President to the Sunday service nearest Washington's birthday.

EDWIN HUNT was appointed today by Gov. Haydon Burns to the Board of School Trustees of Seminole County. He succeeds Donald Bales, resigned when he was appointed by the Governor to the Seminole Board of Public Instruction.

Police Ready For 'War'

Black Muslims Blamed For Assassination

NEW YORK (UPI)—Heavy police reinforcements here and in Chicago moved in today to prevent war between Black Muslims and the followers of Malcolm X, the renegade Negro Nationalist leader assassinated Sunday.

Malcolm, ousted his apartment to Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad, was cut down by a hail of bullets as he spoke to his faithful at a rally. Police blamed the Black Muslim movement for the execution and said they feared violent reprisals by Malcolm's associates—especially in Chicago where Muhammad lives.

Extra police by the hundreds stood guard this morning in Harlem to stem inter-racial strife among the splintered Black Nationalists.

A special command post was set up in a park department building in Mt. Morris Park with equipment for instant phone and radio communication with every policeman in the racially seething section of Manhattan.

Not since rioters roared through Harlem's streets last summer had such emergency police measures been taken. Two tow trucks, emergency trucks, communications trucks and trucks loaded with wooden street barricades stood in readiness outside the Mt. Morris nerve center.

In Chicago, heavy patrols were stationed near Muhammad's home and other security measures were put in effect as a result of reports that six of Malcolm's associates, bent on revenge, left New York in separate automobiles heading in different directions.

At least two were believed en route to Chicago.

Early today, detectives booked on homicide charges a 22-year-old Negro who, they said, fired a sawed-off shotgun at Malcolm X Sunday as he arose in a Harlem auditorium to address 500 of his followers.

Malcolm, a Muslim defector and bitter foe of Muhammad, died in a hail of shotgun and pistol shots before the terrified audience, which included his hysterically screaming wife and at least one of their four daughters.

The police source said the two Chicago-bound allies of Malcolm were young mustachioed Negroes wearing turbans. One was described as the godfather to one of Malcolm's children.

The destinations of the other four followers of Malcolm, who reportedly left New York after his slaying, were not known.

Chicago police officials considered the report of the movement of the anti-Muslim nationalists as "speculative" but ordered heavy patrols near Muhammad's home and other security measures.

Federal agents also were reportedly investigating the interstate movements of the Malcolm aides.

Sen. Dirksen Hospitalized

U. S. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, Republican of Illinois, is a patient at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

His physicians declined to comment on his condition or the nature of his ailment. It is recalled, however, that Senator Dirksen was recently confined to his DeBarry home with a back injury.

He returned to Washington when Congress convened and had taken an active role in governmental affairs prior to his latest hospitalization.

Mercury Hits Sub-Zero In Mid-West

United Press International
Temperatures plunged below zero in much of the Mid-west today, ending a weekend touch of spring. Snow hit the Rockies with up to six inches expected in Montana.

Cold covered most of the nation's eastern two-thirds, dropping temperatures to 24 below zero at Thief River Falls, Minn., and near freezing along the Gulf Coast. The cold spread across northern Florida.

Windblown snow hit the Great Lakes and Northeast states with as much as three inches in some areas.

Lincoln Downs horse race track at Lincoln, R. I., called off today's and Tuesday's racing cold because of snow and an expected cold wave.

Zero or below readings were recorded in Minnesota, North Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

It was 22 below at Duluth, Minn.; 12 below at Minneapolis, Minn., and 11 below at Bismarck, N. D.

Temperatures dropped near zero in northeast Ohio where six inches of snow was expected.

Below zero readings were forecast tonight.

Carpenter Found Alive In Snow

STEWART, B. C. (UPI)—A Finnish-born carpenter found alive by rescuers Sunday after being entombed for 76 hours under tons of an avalanche's rock and snow today faced possible loss of his hands and feet.

A doctor said the carpenter, Einar Myllyla, about 32, was suffering from shock, lacerations and frost-bitten hands and feet.

Myllyla spent his ordeal in the ruins of the avalanche-decimated Granduc copper mining camp on British Columbia's remote Pacific Coast.

Freedom Award Goes To HHH

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Vice President Hubert Humphrey received the Human Freedom award at a special banquet here Sunday night, kicking off the 1963 Israel bond drive, aimed at raising $100 million.

The beautiful medal, mounted on stone from the ancient fortress of Masada—the last Jewish stronghold to fall to the Romans—honored the vice president for his devotion to the rights of man and "to human freedom."

Road Program On Calendar

The county's road program for this year will be discussed at a meeting Tuesday noon of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce long range planning committee.

The committee will convene at the Mayfair Inn for a luncheon and has invited members of the County Commission, the county's legislative delegation and city and county leaders.

The invitation to the meeting was made by C. Vernon Mike and Byron Kimball, co-chairmen of the long range planning committee.

WINTER PARK (UPI)—Increased funds for institutions of higher education in Florida, both private and public, are a must if the state is to fulfill its obligation to its youth, Gov. Haydon Burns said here today.

Burns was here to give a special convocation address commemorating the 80th anniversary of Rollins College, the state's oldest institution of higher education.

The Governor also was presented an honorary doctor of letters degree. He was one of five persons receiving honorary degrees at the special program.

Here in Florida, financial support from all available sources, public and private, must be greatly increased," Burns said. "Our objectives can be achieved only through vigorous, sustained and united effort based upon a deeper general understanding of the purposes and aspirations of American higher education."

Burns said all Floridians should give strong support to the role of private institutions of higher education in the total educational program of the state.

"A great and unique strength of American higher education stems from the historic co-existence of strong private institutions and strong public institutions," Burns said.

The Governor said there have been encouraging signs of increased co-operation and co-ordination in recent months between public and private institutions in the state.

"There needs to be more," he said. Burns said that enrollment in high education facilities in Florida last fall totalled 116,000 students and said that this will be almost doubled by 1970.

"Never before has Florida, nor has any other state throughout this nation, faced such pressures for funds to support higher education," Burns said.

SHS Senior Wins Uoff Scholarship

Joe Farless, Seminole High School senior, has received a scholarship from the local Alumni Association of the University of Florida.

The scholarship is awarded to the outstanding senior each year who is selected for leadership, all-around ability and scholastic achievement. Farless is president of the Seminole High School Key Club.

The award will be presented Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at a Capri Restaurant banquet.

Students from Seminole, Oviedo and Lyman High Schools will be recognized at the meeting.

Dr. J. Wayne Reitz, University of Florida president, will be the principal speaker.

JOE FARLESS

Sanford Biddy basketball All-Stars will stage an exhibition game with DeLand at 7 p. m. tonight at Seminole High gym.

Military Draft To Be Continued

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The once high hopes of ending the military draft appeared to be fading fast.

Precise proposals that will result from a year-long Defense Department study of military manpower are still largely speculative.

But the Pentagon apparently will have to recommend to President Johnson soon that the draft must be continued to maintain adequate armed forces.

Exposure Death Ruled Homicide

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—The death of a woman by exposure was ruled a homicide today by the commonwealth attorney's office.

Detectives said Mrs. Bernice White, 55, of Richmond, was pulled into a field by her heels and left to die Saturday.

Two men were seen dragging the woman for nearly a block, part of the way by her arms and the rest of the way into the field by her feet.

The state medical examiner said Mrs. White died of exposure but the prosecutor's office ruled the case a homicide.
