Mosquito Trap Program Gets Commission Okay

By MAX ERKILETIAN Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission has taken an initial step in establishing county-wide mosquito control by approving a trapping program and authorizing Director of Human Services Troy Todd to negotiate a spraying contract with an area elicopter firm.

The trapping program, which will begin im-mediately, is a method of determining where and to what extent cules mosquitoes exist in Seminole County. The culex mosquito carries encephalitis. This spring state health officials warned of a possible outbreak of encephalitis. The disease appeared in Florida last year for the first time since 1962, according to the Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services Office of Entomology Three cases were reported in Seminole County during 1977, according to Todd.

The trapping program will cost $3,012. The spraying program is estimated to cost $3,734 per week. The program was designed to be carried out over a 13-week period, according to Todd, amounting to a total cost of $51,424 for trapping and

The spraying cost would include a $300 fee for each aircraft flight and $37.50 per gallon of spray at an estimated cost of $741 for spray per flight. Last April, Todd estimated a county-wide ground spraying program would cost the county about $150,000. That would have been ground spraying on a daily basis. The program currently under consideration

WASHINGTON (UPI) - In referring to a Senate vote lifting the arms embargo on Turkey as long as progress is made toward a solution of the Cyprus dispute, White House press secretary Jody Powell said late Tuesday, "The president is gratified. This is a constructive and statesmanlike action that will strengthen the security of the United States and the solidarity of the NATO alliance."

The action still faces a tough fight in the House of Representatives. The embargo was imposed by Congress after Turkey violated strict stipulations in the foreign military aid law to use American-supplied arms to invade Cyprus in 1974.

When Communist forces marched into Saigon a ittle more than three years ago, the dominoes -South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia - began to fall just as many Americans feared they would.

But the end of the prolonged struggle between mmunists and non-Communists to decide the future of Southeast Asia did not bring peace to the tornered Indochinese — not even the peace to the conquerer, which the departure of U.S. troops was supposed to help assure.

Vietnam, which was once a part of imperial China, has turned to the Soviet Union for help out of fear of Chinese domination.

As the Russians have moved in with substantial naterial and military assistance for Vietnam, the Chinese have committed increasing support to Cambodia.

Consequently, the border fighting between Vietnam and Cambodia has become a proxy war between the two competing Communist super-Dowers. Obviously, this is a hazardous situation.

China has good reason to fear the encirclement that an entrenched Soviet presence along its southern borders would pose.

And the Russians have been busy indeed. For example: Moscow inducted Vietnam into COMECON, the Soviet-dominated Communist trade group; this makes the Hanoi government a participating member of the Soviet bloc along with Laps, which Hanoi dragged along as a vassal state.

Russians, East Germans, Poles, Cubans and Soviet satellite advisers are increasingly active throughout Vietnam and in Laos, installing missile sites, radar networks and military communications systems.

Meanwhile, China's worsening relationship with Vietnam has been approvated by the harsh mistreatment of 1.2 million ethnic Chinese living in South Vietnam, who were engaged mainly in small

They have been displaced by the North Viet-namese conquerors and their personal wealth confiscated; more than 140,000 ethnic Chinese "capitalists" have crossed the border from Vietnam into China and thousands more are said to be awaiting sealift from the land of their ancestors. But expediency has dictated silence from China over the cruel fate of 500,000 ethnic Chinese driven out of Cambodia's leading cities after the Comminist takeover in April 1975. They were part of a much larger tragedy -a bloodbath without parallel in modern times, with perhaps a million deaths from mass executions, deliberate starvation and forcible evacuations.

The West would be well advised to steer entirely clear of this struggle. A case in point is the recently announced $28 million loan to Vietnam by the International Monetary Fund, of which the U.S. government is a large contributor. Such assistance is a slap at China just at the time when Washington is strengthening relations with Peking to offset Soviet aggrandizement around the world.

The ongoing disorder in Southeast Asia, in the figal analysis, is a dangerous extension of Sino-Soviet rivalry; the Chinese advantage of proximity is offset by the greater and more sophisticated resources of the Russians.

The winner, who will then dominate the entire region, cannot be known at this uncertain stage but we do know who the real losers will be - the longaffering Indochinese.

On Shevin's Candidacy

Can we, the citizens of Florida, afford Attorney General Robert Shevin as Governor?

Considering the rising tide of the battle to retain our homes in the increasing flood of taxes being levied against them, and Mr. Shevin's statement before the Audubon Society: "The irrefutable rights of an individual to do with his land and water as he pleases is as outdated as the Biblical admonition to be fruitful and multiply." If Shevin is Governor, will we be allowed to use our land as we see fit, with due regard for our neighbor, or will we be told you cannot use the land for this purpose, but we will not reduce your taxes due to this fact, resulting in the final confiscation of your land and home by the state? Is this what Gov. Askew had in mind when he said: "Bussing is just a temporary expedient until we can change the housing pattern."

When you lose your individual home, you will be forced to live in one of those "rabbit warrens" called a condominium, which gives the minimum of individuality for you.

Then we have the question: Was Attorney General Shevin guilty of nonfeasance in office, when he did not notify the prosecuting attorney of Leon County that there was just cause to call for a grand jury investigation into the matter of the "Damaged Piling" in the new Capitol building?

operates as fraud." The investigation by the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement showed that the damaged piling was concealed and would have been used if a certain Mr. Blatt had not "blown the whistle" on them. The results of this investigation were referred to Attorney General Shevin for further action and the matter died right there. Who was the Attorney General protecting from a grand jury investigation?

Thoelstrup, of the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement, in a letter to me, said: "We would point out that we did not state that there was no collusion between parties in the coverup of defective piling; we merely etermined that regardless of whether or not there was complicity, there was no crime committed under present laws of the State of Florida."

If someone got paid for ignoring the damaged piling, then it seems to me that fraud was attempted. How could this be determined without a grand jury investigation? Why did the Attorney General not notify the Leon County prosecuting attorney? Can we afford. for Governor, the man who held his finger in the dike to prevent the flood of revelation that would have come had there been a grand jury investigation? What would he cover up if he were

RONALD REAGAN Israeli Kfirs And Taiwan

There was both more and less than met the eye in the Carter administration's announcement that it would permit Israel to sell its Kfir fighter plane to the Republic of China on Taiwan. Because the Kfir uses U.S.-made jet engines, our government must approve any sales to third parties. The U.S. seal of approval, announced by the State Department, came against a ackground of growing talk by academic liberals and some in the foreign policy establishment that we must give Taiwan the means to defend the Kfir may carry a "Made in Washington" label, for a successful Kfir sale would get the Carter administration off the hook regarding the 60 F-4 Phantoms which the Republic of China has had on request for five years.

At the same time it would be a sop to the Israelis at a time when they are nervous about U.S. intentions in the Middle East. The deal authorized by Washington would have been worth more than $600 million. Despite the ritualistic words that pro-

"normalization" advocates utter about Taiwan's security when they bring up the subject of recognizing Peking, Taiwan appears to believe that the administration's handling of the Kfir er speaks louder than words. It makes the wonder about the sincerity of those who utter the words.

The F-4 which Taipei wants outclasser anything the Chinese Communists have (which are copies of Korean War-vintage MIGs), though it is not as advanced as the F-15. Taiwan reasons that the administration, by pushing the Kfir, which has a shorter range and one-eighth the payload of the F-4, was acting out of deference to Peking (which presumably would be nervous about the F-4's ability to both mainland targets in the event of hostilities).

Yet, Taiwan also reasons that if the U.S. government is seriously interested in Taiwan's uture security, it would recognize that the F-4 in Taiwan's hands would serve as a deterrent against possible attack by the communists. Having declined to buy the Kfir's the Republic of China has lobbed the ball back into the White ouse court.

It's Been A Bad Week For Sanford Truck Firm

By DENNIS FEOLA Herald Staff Writer

Frank Cull, vice president of the Transport Brukerage Co. In Sanford concedes it has been a bad week for the trucking firm. Saturday, Cull reported stolen a trailer and cab valued at $75,000 loaded with $25,000 in tropical plants. Cull reports no progress in locating the truck and its driver, an employee of the firm.

Tuesday evening, thieves broke windows on two trucks, setting fire to one of them.

The incident occurred at 10:15 p.m. at the parking lot of the firm at $12 W. 13th St. A broken piece of cement was used to smash windows on two trucks in a successful attempt, according to Cull, to steal the citizen band radios inside the trucks.

A wool comforter inside one of the trucks was set afire, but Cull said he extinguished the fire before serious damage could be done to the truck.

Mrs. W.W. (Frieda) Tyre of Sanford, likes to cook and prefers baking. "However, I don't especially like planning meals," she said. Frieda and her husband are the last of the large Sanford area farmers that raised celery on their land. Sanford, formerty known as Celery City, now has no celery grown. "We find it hard to get the celery plants. Now we raise cabbage and the pickle-type cucumbers and peas in the summer," she said. Smilling. she added, "We are planning a sumpkin patch this fall." Cooking from scratch is rieda's preference. "I just don't like mixes. They have a taste I don't care about," she explained. Even though she has two slow cookers, she seldom uses them.

She also admits to adding a bit of this and that to spiff up a recipe. "I don't go strictly by the recipe. It might taste better if you fix it up as it needs it," she said.

Frieda has several suggestions for area cooks, saying, "When making pound cake, or most any other cake delicious Lemon Meringue Pie except chocolate, add a except chocolate, add a structure of the first ingue fire teaspoon of lemon flavor when rapidly." Though Stewart commented, "I've never had so many conflicting feelings about a decision before in my life," he conceded he will "almost definitely" take the Broward County post. Part of the reason is a salary offer of $45,000.

Stewart earns $32,000 a year as Seminole County Attorney. "The job offers some new opportunities and there is the size of the staff and the money," Stewart said, in citing his reasons for considering the Broward County offer.

Stewart plans to send a letter to Broward County Commission Chairman Hugh Anderson late this week or early next week outlining the terms under which he would take the job. However, those are expected to be realized approved. In addition, Guttman, handed in his resignation effective Aug. 9. Guttman has been with the county since May 15. applicants for the job. The applicants were narrowed to five. Those five were referred to the commission for oral interviews. Stewart was notified of the Broward County Commission's fecision Tuesday in a telephone conversation with Anderson. County Administrator Roger Neiswender was notified the following day. Stewart served as Broward County Assistant General Counsel before coming to Seminole County.

Joe Mount, Stewart's predecessor, resigned Aug. 5, 1977 after serving six months. He was retained by the county to work two days a week at the same rate he had been paid as full-time attorney, to serve until his replacement was found. Stewart will continue to represent the county from Broward

County until his replacement is found if needed, he said. The only commissioner who could be reached today for comment was Harry Kwiathowski. He said he was unaware Stewart was considering the move and commented, "all I can say at this point is, I wish Mr. Slewart well, whatever he does."
