Jones Raises Total Point Domination To 232 With Game Production Of 14

ST. CLOUD — (Special) — Seminole County's high flying Oviedo Lions extended its winning streak to 10 straight here last night by slapping a 46-31 defeat on the local St. Cloud high team on the outdoor Osceola court.

Despite the severe effects of a heavy cold, Johnny Jones was able to play most of the game and led the Lions with 11 points to raise his Seminole County scoring domination to 232 points in 13 games.

Meanwhile, rebound star Walter Duda was out completely with his bad attack of the flu and Harvey Joe Blayton ably replaced the No. 2 scorer by dumping 10 points on the markers. Mac McCall, former star Seminole Johnny Jones High School center, was also tied with Slavation for second high point scoring honors with 10.

The Oviedo girls fell to St. Cloud in the opening preliminary clash, 46-42.

Couch Paul Miller's Oviedoans now have a 11-2 season's record with a brilliant 10-game winning streak on the floor. The Lions boast of a sterling unblemished 10-0 record in Central Florida conference play.

Friday night the Lions will play an important clash with Umatilla in the Oviedo Community Gym. This will be the last game until the Lions play in the CFC tourney on Feb. 18.

Betsy Rawls And Betty McKinnon Will Play Here Tomorrow

Dot Powell And Mrs. C. L. Austin To Stage Exhibition With Gamed Pros

By KENT CHETLAIN
Betsy Rawls, last year's top money winner in the women's professional golf ranks, and Betty McKinnon, another outstanding women's pro, will be the guests of the Women's Golf Association of the Mayfair Inn Seminole Country Club tomorrow afternoon at the regular weekly Ladies' Day event at the local course.

Both Rawls and McKinnon will present a brief golfing clinic for the local women's association and then will play Dot Powell and Mrs. C. L. Austin in an 18-hole exhibition match.

Besides being the top money winner last year, Miss Rawls is one of the most noted women golfers in the country having won the Eastern and Western Opens, the Houston Weather Vane, National Open and many other lesser tournaments.

Miss McKinnon, a rising young

pro, played with Sam Snead in the World two-day at Inwood, C. C. in Orlando last year and was medalist for the tourney.

Opposing these two pros will be two of the best women golfers at the local Seminole course, Miss Dot Powell founder of the Powell handicap tournament and former club champion Mrs. C. L. Austin, two-time winner of the Texas Open and twice winner of the women's Texas golf championship.

Mrs. Austin, who sends her winters in Sanford, is a native of Texas and one of the best local women golfers.

Mrs. John Levy, president of the Women's Golf Association, stated it was a distinct honor in having Rawls and McKinnon visit the club.

"We will have the honor of watching two of the best women golfers in the country," she said.

Orange Bowl Head Eyes New Year's Pro Title Match

MIAMI, Fla. — The Orange Bowl committee's new president, W. Bruce Macintosh, plans to explore the possibility of dropping the college football game New Year's Day and substituting the professional football league championship playoff.

Macintosh said upon his election Monday to succeed Sam H. McCormick that the group would explore the proposal to switch to the pro game on the basis of how it might benefit Miami.

"Newspaper stories do not give us the whole picture," Macintosh said. "The amount of money necessary to get the pro game might make it impossible."

"We want to know what the game would cost, what it would do in producing national publicity, and what it would do about bringing people here. The proposal will be studied in a cold-blooded business way and without sentiment entering into the decision."

"We have not been officially approached by the pros, but I will instruct my schedule committee to contact them and get all the facts. This group will then report back to the entire committee."

McCormick, upon retiring as president, urged that a committee study the pro football playoff possibilities.

There has been considerable talk of substituting the professional playoffs for the annual college game since Alabama whipped Syracuse 61-0, last New Year's Day.

The restoration of colonial Williamsburg, Va., began in 1920.

Lake Mary Cagers Win 4th Straight Game From Slavia

By JACK HARR
CHICAGO — Cuban Kid Gavilan, a confident 125 favorite, is looking past tomorrow's writer little defense against Chuck Davey to an excursion into the middle weight ranks.

In the camp of unbeaten Davey, the Michigan State graduate with the near-perfect record of 37 wins and two draws in 30 pro fights, things are tense. Nerves are growing more taut. Handsome Chuck is on edge.

This sprawling metropolis built with light fever. Cab drivers sign Davey's praise. Professional bettors respect Gavilan's proven class. An advance sale of $210,000 is reported by the International Boxing Club's Truman Gibson, keeper of the Chicago Stadium treasury. TV salesmen offer a $250,000 for free at 10:00 p.m. EST, on the CBS network.

The gym work is finished. Gavilan belted over spar mate Al Niams with a left to the body yesterday in his final workout at the Midwest A. C. Davey, already under the 147-pound class limit, took a hike through Lincoln Park.

"I think I will win in 15," said Davey. "I wouldn't go into a fight if I didn't think I was going to win. I was little apprehensive about the Graziano fight. He could win anytime with one punch. Gavilan doesn't punch so hard. I feel different facing him."

Chicago White Sox Head For AL Flag In Stephens Deal

BOSTON — The era of the Boston Red Sox' famous "friendly left field fence" faded into baseball history today with the departure of slugger Vern Stephens.

The chunky infielder was traded to the Chicago White Sox yesterday in exchange for pitchers Marty Grissom (54½) and Bill Kennedy. No cash was involved.

Only Don DiMaggio remains of the longball hitting Red Sox lineup that carried the name of "the sockers." He alone is left from the 1916 American League pennant winners. Here comes Vern Stephens.

Boston general manager Joe Cronin said of the deal:

"The White Sox are shooting for a pennant. Having traded Ed Hahn to the Athletics, they need a long ball hitter in their lineup."

"They've been angling for Stephens for some time by only yesterday did they offer what we considered sufficient talent for him in the way of pitching."

Cronin said the Red Sox needed batters "with major league experience."

"Having lost Len Kievy and Dick Brodowski to the armed services and Dixie Trout to the radio, we had to get some pitchers for Lou Bourdeau."

The deal, Cronin concluded, "should help both clubs."

Grissom, a right-hander, had a 12-10 record in 1952. Kennedy, a southpaw, had a 2-2 mark in relief and right-hander Brown was 2-3.

Florida And LSU In Championship Encounter Of SEC

By MERFER BAILEY

Florida and Louisiana State tangled tonight in a game which may determine the Southeastern Conference basketball championship.

The Bayou Bengals, SEC leaders, haven't been stopped in conference action all season, and if they can get by second-place Florida they will have a clear road to the crown.

Barring a complete collapse by LSU, Florida is the only team with a good chance to head off the Tigers. But an LSU victory Monday to succeed Sam H. McCormick would give each of the leaders one conference defeat and set the stage for conference co-champions: Florida and LSU.

LSU's regulars, led by 6-foot center Bob Pettit, an All-America hopeful, have an slight edge on height, and the Tigers are a higher scoring team than the Gators. LSU has averaged 70.7 points in winning 15 games and losing one. Florida has averaged 68.1 in 10 victories and two defeats.

And the Gators don't have a man in the scoring class with Pettit, who is averaging 24.2 points a game. Forward Curt Cunkle is pacing Florida with a 14.6 average. Tonight's only other game is non-conference affair—Georgia at South Carolina. Georgia has a 0-0 SEC record and a 4-15 overall mark.

In games last night Tennessee whipped Davidson 83-73 in a non-conference tilt, and Mississippi State topped Georgia Tech 66-62. State's victory pulled the Maroons from ninth place to a three-way tie for fifth, swapping positions with the Engineers.

MASTERS TO START

ST. AUGUSTINE — The first annual Masters' Tennis tournament will be held on the Hotel Ponce de Leon courts here March 2-8. Joe Whalen, tourney director, said today.

He said Art Larsen, San Leandro, Calif., 1950 U. S. singles champion, was the first entrant in the tournament of champions and that he expected other national top-rankers to be here also.

F-I-L Consider Flamingo Transfer

MIAMI — When Florida International Baseball League directors hold their special meeting at West Palm Beach Wednesday they'll be asked to approve transfer of the Miami Marlins to Flamingos to Ft. Lauderdale.

Paul Rust Jr., owner of the Flamingos, said the Ft. Lauderdale City Council has done everything it could to help us. "We had to confer with City Manager Milton Link today to work out details of the shift."

Rust said 1,000 Ft. Lauderdale fans signed a petition asking him to move the club there and when the move is completed, they will be asked to decide whether to continue the name "Flamingos" or choose another.

Pepper Martin, former St. Louis Cardinals star, will return as manager of the team which finished second last season and lost to Miami in the playoffs.

Ft. Lauderdale had been a member of the league for several years until June when the team was transferred to Key West where it finished out the season.

SKATER WINS

DAVOS, Switzerland — Hayes Alan Jenkins of Akron, O., a 19-year-old sophomore at Colorado College, skated away with the men's world figure skating championship today in a brilliant free style display which gave him a narrow margin over Jimmy Grogan of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK — The jury's still out as to whether television is a boon or a menace to baseball and college football, but there no longer can be much doubt that the new sports medium is the greatest thing to happen to news paper circulation since the invention of colored comics.

We are moved to this profound reflection as the eyes slowly recover from a hard week end of fight experting over the coaxial cable and prepare for another tough session beginning tomorrow night, when Kid Gavilan and Chuck Davey will come at us on the silver screen from Chicago.

If our own experience is any criterion, millions of persons who ordinarily do with two daily papers, one morning and one afternoon, will buy one off every other day this Thursday to find out what really happened to their hero, Davey.

We hasten to insist this is no swipe at television. The only trouble is that people continue to try to score boxing matches from their rumpus rooms and then become disgruntled when they discover they must not have been watching the same bouts as the referees and official judges were.

For our part, we discovered a good while ago that the fight we saw on TV often bore but passing resemblance to the one witnessed by members of the trade who were sitting in row 1 ringside.

The example we are coming to was, of course, Bobo Olson's one-sided win over young Norman Hayes Saturday night in Boston. Unless we are badly rattled, not many of those who witnessed the lively scrap in their homes were at all prepared for the unanimous decision which indicated that Hayes had caught a real shellacking.

We thought it had been pretty close and would not have been surprised if Hayes had lost by no worse than a split decision in his home town. Yet we read next day that the only judge who did give Hayes a few rounds and made it fairly close was booed by the crowd. Just goes to show.

We learn from ringsiders that, actually, Hayes fought only in brief spurts while Olson swarmed over him continually and gave him a cruel beating in the last five rounds. Why this did not register on the screen we do not pretend to know, unless it is for the obvious reason that the TV camera is, by necessity, situated a good piece from the ring.

As there appears to be no way of remedying this, the only solution we can think of is for the commentator to be given more authority than he seems to have at present in telling the great unseen audience what is going on in there. Perhaps the man with the mellow voice could be given an assistant, an oldtime fighter or second, who would at intervals assess the battle up to that point and offer an opinion or two. And the commentator should be moved from

Threat Made To Seal Off West Berlin

Menace Seen To Bonn Government If It Ratifies European Defense Agreement

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's communists boldly threatened today to seal off West Berlin if the Bonn republic ratifies the European defense pact.

In a proclamation heavy with portent, the Socialist Unity Party of Germany declared that "further isolation" is in store for the Red-surrounded city. It called for negotiations between the West and the Soviets to accomplish:

1. Withdrawal of all military garrisons from Berlin.
2. Abolition of the sector borders dividing the city.
3. Hanning of "terror organizations" which the East says include the American radio RIAS, the anti-Communist "Lightning Group Against Inhumanity," and the Free Jurists' League.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has said he will call on the defense treaty for a ratification vote in the West German Parliament between March 10 and 15.

The new Red threat, issued by the party organ, is a reflection of the Soviet sector of the near-terred city, bore the stamp of Russian approval. The Red army organ, "Pravda," published the proclamation.

The statement amounted to an outright threat of blockade (Communist crews have built a "death zone" on the 70-mile perimeter between West Berlin and the Soviet zone. The border between the West sectors and East Berlin still is in force, but open to traffic in respect for the four-power nature of the city.

Tests Are Started On County Cattle For Tuberculosis

Tests were being made today on cattle in Seminole County by Dr. James W. Blake, state health officer, in order to detect tuberculosis in order to have the county accredited.

Ten percent of the cattle in county must be tested, C. H. Dawson, County Agricultural Agent, said, in order to meet the standard set by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, testing is carried on such tests in the accredited procedure.

Until this year, Mr. Dawson said, Seminole County was always a "clean" county by testing dairy cattle, which were easily accessible and made up the necessary 10 percent of the cattle population.

However, he explained, the cattle population has increased through new beef herds and more people settling in the county, and was discovered the number to be tested.

The cattle population according to the last census was 12,016, he said.

The county was put in an unenviable position as a result, he said, of the possibility of getting the sufficient number of cattle tested looked vague. However, the proposition was placed before a meeting of the Seminole County Cattlemen's Association last week, he said, and the members got together the cattle necessary to fill the quota, about 5000.

This testing was being carried on today, the last chance before the deadline on Feb. 28, Mr. Dawson explained. Actually, he revealed, the testing of the accredited cattle was completed on Feb. 10, but the county was granted an extension of 90 days.

If the effort had failed, Mr. Dawson explained, the county would be taken off the accredited list and placed on the quarantine list. This change would mean that every head of cattle that would be moved from the county would have to be tested for tuberculosis, creating a very undesirable condition, he said.

Shorthand Classes Given Postponement

The new shorthand classes which were to have started this week at the Vocational School have been postponed until next week because of the illness of Mrs. J. P. Hall instructor. It was announced today by Vocational School Director, Mrs. E. C. Maxwell.

Those interested in taking the course are asked to be at the school Monday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

There will also be a business shorthand class in the evening. This group meets only Monday and Thursday, 7:00 p. m. Mrs. William Watt is the teacher of this group.

Anyone wishing to take a refresher course in shorthand or advance dictation may join one of the shorthand classes already in progress either day or night.

NEW FLOODS THREATEN

LONDON (AP) — Gale threatened new floods around North Sea coastal areas today while heavy snows rained on other sections of Britain and northern Europe.

Ships were locked in harbors by heavy winds that started yesterday. The big American liner United States sailed for New York from the French port of Le Havre today after being kept there yesterday by violent winds in the English Channel.

Six-foot snow drifts blocked roads and marooned isolated villages in northern England and southern Wales. Denmark dug itself out of heavy snows that blanketed the country yesterday.

Seminole County Exhibit Approved By C Of C Group

Cowan Gives Report On Progress Of Sanford Industries

A permanent collapsible exhibit advertising Sanford and Seminole County, on the exhibition stand of northern states during the Florida State Fair, was approved by the C of C group of Sanford last night.

The exhibit, costing $2,000, was recommended by the C of C advisory committee which has previously studied the project as presented to it by U. S. District Judge Paul Dink representing Exhibitor Ralph Cowan, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is president, and H. E. (Fredi) Grantham, formerly of Sanford is production manager.

The motion approving the project was made by H. H. Simpson and seconded by H. E. Coleman after it was explained that it was to be financed by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce in time for the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando, it was further explained.

Ralph Cowan, chairman of the committee, presented a report on the activities of his group and brought the Chamber of Commerce up to date on their activities. He reported that he has recently been contacted by a number of industries desiring sites in Central Florida and expressed satisfaction with the progress that is being made. He also expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce.

John Brimley, vice president, presided in the absence of H. H. Simpson, president. Mr. Brimley, Forest Breckenridge, manager, announced that a meeting will be held tonight at 8:00 p. m. at the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, in the presence of the Seminole County Cattlemen's Association, St. Louis Cardinals minor league manager, for operating the Seminole Blues this summer.

The Chamber of Commerce requested the support of the Chamber of Commerce in obtaining favorable publicity for the entire county and objected to "unfavorable publicity" which had recently been given their community.

Howard Harris, town clerk, said that Cassberry is a rapidly growing community and is having "growing pains," but that he wants to continue to grow and would appreciate the help of Sanford to this end. Mr. Simpson pointed out that Cassberry is a fine location for new industries.

Walters Announces Details Of Local Budget

The annual fund drive, entitled the "Human Touch," of the Salvation Army will be started next Wednesday, Captain Walter Walters, commanding officer of the local station, announced today.

It is hoped the drive will be completed in 10 days, Walters said, and that the campaign goal will be reached. Last year, the local station raised a total of $10,000.

During 1952, the commanding officer revealed, the Salvation Army gave 332 grocery orders, 800 apartments and 45 pairs of shoes to needy people.

Kiwians Honor Scout Movement On Anniversary

Lake Mary Minister And Den Mother Are Principal Speakers

A Lake Mary minister who has served 20 years in the Scout movement and a Scoutmaster who has served 10 years in the Scout movement were the principal speakers at a Kiwanis Club program commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America at the Lake Mary Methodist Church, Wednesday night.

Mr. Glen Stewart, den mother of Pack 10, Den Six of the First Methodist Church, addressed the mothers and fathers who were with him at the time of the anniversary. He said that the Scout movement is a noble one and that it is one of the best things that has ever happened to our country.

The den mother, Mrs. L. E. Stewart, is a member of the Kiwanis Club and has served 10 years in the Scout movement. She said that she has seen the Scout movement grow from a small group of boys to a large organization that is now one of the largest in the world.

Increased Trade Is Seen Hope Of Dixie's Farmers

Latin America Countries Pointed Out As Medium For Aid

NEW ORLEANS — Increased trade with Latin American countries as one medium of helping agriculture in the South was emphasized today during the annual meeting of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers.

W. H. Baugh, associate professor of business administration of Louisiana State University, said that the South's agricultural production and marketing, National Cotton Council in Memphis, said the increase would provide an outlet for surplus farm products.

The South's agricultural production and marketing, National Cotton Council in Memphis, said the increase would provide an outlet for surplus farm products.

Baugh said the increased trade would create new markets for the South's raw material and cotton products.

He suggested that such raw materials that are not produced in the U. S. be imported from Latin America.

W. H. Baugh said the desirability and necessity for increasing foreign trade is self-evident but we are to look for a continued increasing trend.

However, Ben Latham Jr., agricultural economist at Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, said that the U. S. has a comparative advantage in agricultural products and that the South should concentrate on these products to increase their "import" substitution.

They said increased industrialization of South American countries may enable them to produce many of the goods that the South needs to decrease their "import" substitution.

Continued industrialization could mean a Latin American market on world markets. Latham said increased export to South America, he added, is protecting those countries during the industrialization process.

Officers of the association will be elected tomorrow.

Group Studies Proposal Of New York Garment Maker And Rejects It

Twelve representative citizens at the call of Ralph Cowan, chairman of the Sanford Industrial Board, met in the directors room of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank yesterday afternoon and considered the proposal of a New York garment manufacturer for locating a plant here. George H. Williams Jr., secretary of the Sanford Industrial Board reported today.

The benefits to Sanford of locating such an industry here with an annual payroll of $420,000 and a total volume of sales amounting to $1,700,000 and with many indirect benefits, were dramatized for the group by Mr. Cowan who said that the advantages to Sanford of this one industry alone would be tremendous.

However, according to Mr. Williams who reported the meeting to the Herald today, the proposal from the garment manufacturer was impractical. It was similar at the time and hoping to hit the moon," he said.

But the entire matter pointed up the necessity for such an organization as Sanford Industries, Inc., Mr. Williams stated. This meeting clearly demonstrated

NEW YORK (AP)—The cost of living's slip is showing. So far, the easing in the pressure on the pocketbook has been only slight, and only in some services that are not necessities will go up a little. No big drop in prices of goods that consumers buy is expected. And families may find the cost of some of the things they now consider necessities will go up a little. But food costs are now 3 to 5 per cent lower than this time last year, the government estimates. The price drops in recent months in the commodity markets are finally showing up in the retail stores. Housewives are pleasantly surprised when they price meat in the butcher shops. They find the price tags on most clothing items lower than a year ago. It costs a little less to furnish a house. Many wholesale commodity prices are back to their pre-Korean War level.

The rub, of course, comes when you compare the new-and-alightly-lower prices in the stores now with the prices before World War II.

The cost of living index still rises high above its pre-war level. Retail price averages are about twice as high as they were 13 years ago. And they average more than 10 per cent higher than June, 1950, when the Korean War started. But in many significant items they have slipped from their peaks.

One thing that keeps the cost of living high for most families is their changing living standards. Families now regard as necessities items and services they may not even have heard of before World War II. Most of these are aimed at cutting time and labor. The sale of frozen foods, for instance, is seven times greater now than before Pearl Harbor. Automatic washing machines, driers, dishwashers, new and better refrigerators and stoves—are now classed as necessities in many homes. The air conditioning industry claims that its cooling devices will be considered standard equipment not so long from now. Television has edged into the "necessity" class. And families with the older, smaller screens are beginning to consider themselves under-privileged. To help meet this higher standard of living, weekly paychecks have mercifully gone up for most folk. They may never seem to go up enough. But the government says the average factory worker is now getting 22 per cent more pay than before the Korean War started. To fill the new demands, industry has set its sights high. In the last 13 years the population of the United States has increased about 18 per cent. In those same years the government says that total production in this country has risen 50 per cent (figured in units, rather than in dollar prices). People are spending fairly freely. The nation's food stores, for instance, sold just under 40 billion dollars worth last year.

Hal Boyle's Column

NEW YORK—George Washington, now known as the Father of His Country, once was a teenage boy himself.

And like the teenager of today, he found himself beset by many problems of conduct. It was as tough to bridge the gap between boyhood and manhood then as it is now—perhaps even more so.

What did young George do about it? He decided to improve himself by drawing up his own code of behavior.

At the age of 16 he had left his widowed mother to live with his half-brother at Mt. Vernon. The young boy felt ill-at-ease in the sparkling Virginia society.

So he took a goose quill pen and wrote in his copybook his now famous 110 "Rules of Civility and Decent Behavior in Company and Conversation." Written in shaky grammar and spelling, some rules were copied from an English etiquette book. Some the young Washington made up himself.

But by following them the earnest youth became one of the most courtly men of his time. His copybook maxims have recently been reprinted in a small beautiful volume by Lewis Glaser of New Haven, Conn.

Some are quaint and old-fashioned now. Others will always remain cornerstones in civilized society.

Here are a few of the youthful George's teenage tips to himself.

"Every action done in company ought to be with some sign of respect to those that are present."

"In the presence of others sing not to yourself with a humming noise, nor drum with your fingers or feet."

"Sleep not when others speak. Sit not when others stand. Speak not when you should hold your peace. Walk not when others stop."

"Put not off your clothes in the presence of others, nor go out your chamber half-dressed." Parents of teenagers today would like to have this one carved in brass!

"Spit not in the fire. Nor set your feet upon the fire especially if there be meat before it."

"When you sit down, keep your feet firm and even, without putting one on the other or crossing them."

"Shut not yourself in the sight of others nor gnaw your nails. Kill no vermin as fleas, lice, ticks, etc. in the sight of others."

"Read no letters, books or papers in company. Also look not nigh when another is writing a letter."

"Heurach none for the infirmities (George couldn't spell that word) of nature. Show not yourself glad at the misfortune of another though he were your enemy."

"If any one come to speak to you while you are sitting, stand up though he be your inferior."

"Let your discourse with men of business be short and comprehensive."

"Strive not with your superiors in argument, but always submit your judgement to theirs with modesty."

"In your apparel be modest and endeavor to accommodate nature, rather than to procure admiration."

"Play not the peacock. Being set at meat, scratch not, neither spit, cough nor blow your nose—except there's a necessity for it."

"If you soak bread in the sauce let it be no more than what you put in your mouth at a time."

"Put not another bill into your mouth until the former be swallowed. Let not your morsels be too big for your gowls (jaws)."

"When you speak of God or his attributes, let it be seriously and with reverence. Honor and obey your natural parents, altho' they be poor. (Can Daddy help it, kids if he can't afford to buy you a television set?)"

"Labour to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience."

"This was the last maxim young Washington put down. And it guided him to greatness."

higher quality than ever. In view of such progress and the fact that Florida production still does not meet the needs of its people, the prospects are good for poultry farmers who strive for maximum efficiency, high production.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE IN STATE POULTRY FARMING; PROSPECT IS FAVORABLE

Florida's poultry industry has come a long way in recent years, and poultry farmers, scientists, and others connected with it have good reason to be proud of the significant advances that have been made.

Although margins of profit will continue to be narrow and feed and labor costs will continue to be high, Florida poultry farmers who strive for efficiency, high production of high quality products, and maximum utilization of feed and labor are justified in being optimistic about the chances for success this year and the years to come. The market for poultry products in Florida is good, but Florida producers must get high production and quality at minimum cost to compete successfully with those of other states. With better birds, more labor-saving equipment, and more efficient production methods than ever before, poultry farmers — if they take advantage of these things — should succeed in competing with producers of other states on the Florida market.

A man who has been working with Florida poultry farmers for a long time — Norman R. Mehrhoff of the University of Florida Agricultural Extension Service — cites some of the advances of the Florida poultry industry and emphasizes that future progress may be expected.

For example, the average production per bird of Florida's 2,150,000 laying birds in 1929 was 90 eggs, while the average production of the 3,000,000 birds on Florida farms in 1952 was 120 eggs. As for broilers, Florida produced 11,000,000 in 1952, or eight times its 1934 production. Florida turkey production also is increasing — from 110,000 in 1946 to 163,000 in 1952, and farmers are planning to raise 170,000 this year.

Great strides have been made in chick production. Florida hatchery capacity in 1952 was 4,174,000 eggs and production was 21,000,000 chicks, or more than twice the hatchery capacity and four times the chick production in 1938. As a result of the National Poultry Improvement Plan fostered by the Extension Service, State Live-Stock Sanitary Board, and poultry farmers, Florida's chicks are of

Floods In Europe

Rain, high winds and high tides on the North Sea have resulted in the worst European disasters since the end of World War II. Along the coasts of Britain, Belgium and Holland, floods have laid waste millions of dollars worth of property and have claimed hundreds of lives. Authorities are speeding repair work on the dikes and other defenses against the sea but it is feared that the work cannot be completed in time to ensure protection against storms and high tides which are expected again later this month.

Aside from the human misery they caused the floods will have a serious effect on Europe's economy and on the contributions the three countries will be able to make to European defense. Holland recently announced that it had achieved a degree of economic stability. Now most of its gains have been swept away by rampaging seas.

For centuries the people of the three countries along the coast of the North Sea have waged a constant war against the waters. They have built periods to keep out the sea and from time to time, in unusual periods, they seem to have won the fight. Then the unpredictable sea rises up to smash the dikes and flood the land and drive the people from their homes. Always when the water recedes the people go back, repair their sea-walls and begin again.

People all over the world extend their sympathy to the victims. It is never easy to feel sorrow, loss of home or the terrible task of cleaning up after a disaster. But human beings are resilient and the Dutch, the Belgians and the British have demonstrated their ability to meet misfortune and overcome it. They will do so again.

Old Plan, New Voice

So far the only Red answer to President Eisenhower's decision to free Formosa from blockade by the Seventh Fleet has come from Premier Chou En-lai, number two man in the Chinese Communist regime. He has demanded that the United Nations accept the cease fire terms in Korea which were offered by the Reds at the time negotiations broke off. It does not seem likely that President Eisenhower will be any more willing to agree to armistice terms which include forcible repatriation of prisoners than was his predecessor.

This fact must be known to the Communists. But developments in recent weeks seem to have taken the propaganda initiative away from them, temporarily at least. Since propaganda is one of their most valued weapons the demand by the Red Chinese Premier was an obvious attempt to get back into command of the situation.

The war in Korea is costly to the Chinese Communists. It has made necessary full mobilization of manpower and expenditure of millions of dollars. Both these factors seriously hamper the efforts of the Reds to better conditions among China's poor. It may well be that the leaders of Red China would like to bring the fighting to a halt but are not permitted to do so by their Russian masters. The possibility of Nationalist Chinese attacks on the mainland will not make their lot any easier.

There will be peace in Asia only when the Kremlin decides there is nothing further to be gained by fighting. It is our job to convince them that the time is here.

Bookish Administrator

A Western senator fears that President James B. Conant of Harvard may be too bookish to be a good High Commissioner to Germany, a post to which President Eisenhower has appointed him. In this remark there seems to be the old distrust of the professor as an impractical individual who is so wrapped up in his thoughts that he is apt to forget his own name. This notion survives only in rage over the air and has no relation to reality.

Doubtless the senator would think it an excellent selection if President Conant had charge of a $200,000,000 business. As a matter of fact, that is precisely the case. The Harvard endowment approximates that amount. In addition he has under his care over 12,000 students and 2,500 teachers—a fatigued business to look out for.

Criticism without previous investigation is apt to meet pitfalls.

INDEPENDENCE, A MIGHTY NICE PLACE TO BE

Warning Is Issued By FHA Director On "Fly By Nights"

A blunt warning to home owners against "fly-by-night" operators selling new products, security improvement loans, has been issued by Russell V. Timney, Director of the Jacksonville FHA Office.

Mr. Timney also appealed to financial institutions that handle Title I property improvement loans to cooperate in "eliminating the unethical activities of some lead-contractors."

"The practices of these individuals who change their locations on a seasonal basis have become a matter of increasing concern to the FHA," Timney said. "They are not only deceiving home owners but are also engaged in illegal activities."

"Their pattern of operation is to become associated with some local dealer or establish their own winter operation. Such operations usually consist of a high-pressure sales organization which has no permanency and moves about with the seasons."

The FHA head said his office has been receiving an increasing number of complaints about these itinerant dealers and salesmen. He declined to identify by name any local business firms which Baker quoted Mrs. Bartlett as saying he had been using a "game gun" to scare birds away from the house, using the bathroom as a vantage point.

He had been in ill health some time, Mrs. Bartlett said.

"I can't see the FHA's responsibility to screen dealers or products for property owners applying for Title I improvement loans," Mr. Timney said. He added that he has issued this warning because so many cases had come to the attention of the FHA that the public needed to be put on notice.

"All we can do," he said "is warn home owners to be diligent to exercise care before signing any papers in connection with an FHA property improvement loan."

"People listen to these alluring sales talks, accept the idea that they're getting a rare bargain, then are disillusioned and angry when, in time, they find out they've been taken by some high-pressure sales artist."

The FHA Director said a bit of perfection should convince the average property owner that any worth-while product can usually be procured through an established local merchant who will be around to make good on the warranty. If something should go wrong with it.

He also cautioned prospective borrowers against signing forms in blank, or the "Completion Certificate" prior to completion of the work or until satisfied that the dealer has carried out his contractual obligation.

THE WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — This rosy glow along the Potomac can't last forever. If they don't start acting up soon, the Democrats will begin to get self-conscious.

After all, they have an election coming up in 1954. They have to make hay while they can.

So far they have been unusually quiet except for a few questions about American foreign policy, in the nature of "where are we going?"

This may be because they still suffer from astonishment at finding the Republicans running the government for the first time in 20 years and themselves in a minority in Congress.

But the fact is Congress, which returned on Jan. 3, has been in pretty much of a vacuum ever since, waiting for the new Eisenhower administration to get its feet on the ground and lining up legislation to work on.

Because Congress hasn't provided distraction, most eyes have been focused on the White House, wondering about the President's intentions.

But this is a situation which seems well on its way to be remedied. This week a Senate committee began investigating charges of communism in colleges and a House committee began to look for ways of changing the Taft-Hartley law.

Pretty soon Washington ought to be alive with investigations, despite a GOP effort in the House to hold them down. This will take some of the attention away from Eisenhower who, because of lack of compelling interest, has been living like a man in a goldfish bowl.

Except for his inaugural address and his State of the Union message Eisenhower has pretty much followed the buttoned-up policy he adopted after the November elections.

The message was generously applauded on both sides of the Capitol aisle. Eisenhower had handed the message carefully. It was a friendly document, calculated not to antagonize.

It would have all become the Democrats to back away at Eisenhower's first message to the lawmakers, although they might very well have done so if he had left them many openings.

But since the message was rather an outline than a blueprint, it provided a minimum of material for conversation or controversy, except on its most sensational point: the decision to denaturalize Formosa.

It was probably deliberate on Eisenhower's part that the passage on Formosa raised more questions than it answered. He certainly wanted it to have that effect on the Reds, to keep them guessing.

But it also, whether he intended it or not, raised questions in the minds of people in this country, particularly among Democrats in Congress. They began to ask: Where does this lead and what comes next?

If nothing comes next, the Democrats are sure to take out after him. And if he does produce a next step, and a next, they'll probably get back to normal fast and throw their weight around.

But they're bound to get heated when his administration begins spelling out ABC the kind of legislation it expects to pass in Congress.

Anyway, whatever it is that's happened to the Democrats, it's not their fault. They're not tongue-tied even if they look that way right now.

Moral Re-Birth Is Need Of Florida, States Governor

TAMPA (AP) — If Florida is to prevent the blamings of the underworld from overruling all that is good there must be a re-birth of moral honesty and Christian living.

That is the message Gov. Dan McCarty delivered to more than 400 business civic and political leaders at the Florida State Fair's annual Governor's Day luncheon here Tuesday.

"We have to return to moral honesty if we are to build the future of Florida," the governor said.

"We have to establish an attitude and feeling among our citizens that will be recognized. We have to let it be known through the nation that we have Christians living in Florida."

McCarty said he had asked for and received promises of full cooperation in law enforcement from Florida sheriffs, Attorney General Richard E. Little, the State Highway Department, and the Hotel and Racing Commissions.

"This is going to bear fruit during the next four years," he said.

He did not refer directly to his most recent notice last Sunday to nearby Sunshine Park horse track to clean house or get out of business.

He likened Florida to a garden where the blamable bush sprout over everything when the olive and the fig refused to sacrifice their fruit.

"There is the challenge," he continued. "If we are going to take a massive attitude, the blamings are going to run this state."

"Turning to the state's economy McCarty said he is convinced of agriculture, business and industry are paying all the taxes they can bear.

He said the answer is to spend as much as can be saved for projects "that will return dividends to the state."

He said these would include expansion of research to get the most from Florida products, increased advertising funds to meet tourist competition from other states and better use of the brain-power of Florida's top businessmen.

He said he is convinced the cost of government has risen out of all proportion to the extension of the state.

"I think we can guarantee our government will be run on a business basis and that you will get 100 cents on the dollar of your tax money," he said.

Because most of Florida's income comes from consumer taxes and varies as the citizens are prosperous or not, McCarty said he intends to set up a reserve fund of about 25 million dollars as a backlog in case of economic depression.

Pranksters "Choose" Adlai As New Prexy

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (AP) — Pranksters talked their way into the printing plant of the Swarthmore College newspaper, the Phoenix, and put out a faked edition last night announcing that Adlai Stevenson had accepted the presidency of the school, authorities reported today.

Swarthmore President John W. Nason, who has resigned, and for whom the college's board of managers is seeking a successor, said the story was "a complete hoax."

Nason said the student editors had put the weekly edition of the Phoenix together Monday night at the Haverdown Printing Co. After the regular staff left, other students arrived and inserted the Stevenson story.

The printers allowed the change, Nason explained, because the Phoenix had just undergone a complete staff change at the start of the new school semester and not all the editors were known.

Nason said Stevenson, who lost the presidency to Dwight D. Eisenhower, was not under consideration for the Swarthmore post.

Staid University Is Stirred By "Bathing"

CAMBRIDGE, Eng. (AP) — This quiet university town, long used to pranks from male students, was agog today over a report that six girl students have been bathing in college bathrooms reserved for men.

In each of the two forbidden bathrooms the feminine prankster are said to have used this far, they reportedly left their insignia — a single silk stocking.

The story is that the girls vowed to strip and scrub in each of the men's colleges of Cambridge University. In the student newspaper "Varsity," the girls described visits to "lovely big baths" at Emmanuel and Clare Colleges. They said they were undetected despite "the feminine fragrance of our bath salts."

Varsity's editor, Don May, said he knew the story was true. He also said he knew the prankster but refused to disclose her name.

Tugboats Scurry In New York Port To Clear Backlog

NEW YORK (AP) — Tugboats scurried around the world's largest harbor today to clear up a backlog of work that piled up during 10 days of a strike by AFL crewmen.

Settlement of the strike was announced yesterday afternoon, and the tugs resumed operations in the evening.

They worked through the night helping berth freighters and liners which had anchored in New York's outer harbor while waiting for a tow. Other tugs started moving fuel, food and other supplies across the Hudson River from New Jersey to New York City.

A spokesman for the tugboat companies — grouped by the New York Marine Towing and Transportation Employers Association — said last night it would take two or three days to move all the accumulated shipping.

Yesterday's settlement covered the last remaining point in dispute — a demand by the union, the AFL International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), that no tug be manned by less than three men.

The employers had insisted that the contract not stipulate crew sizes.

Both sides agreed to submit this point to arbitration. They also decided to form a special three-man panel, to be appointed by Federal Mediation Chief David L. Cole, decide how many men will man a boat in the interim until the arbitration decision is made.

All other issues in the dispute had been settled before or during the week end. These earlier agreements included a 17-cent-an-hour wage increase. Wages had ranged from $1.30 to $2.35 an hour.

Old Woman Uses Trolley Car For Night's Sleeping

CHICAGO (AP) — There's no place like home—if it's a Chicago streetcar—for a 73-year-old woman who says she's been using trolleys as sleeping quarters for seven years.

Mrs. Anna Cox said she solved her housing problem and saved money—by taking her night's lodging in street cars.

"There's no law against it," Mrs. Cox explained. "And besides I always paid my fare."

Mrs. Cox, who had been making a living as a door-to-door sales woman selling hair nets and other articles, said she keeps a change of clothes in a warehouse and freshens up in public washrooms. She said she was able to save regularly and produced a bank book showing deposits totaling $8,326.

"I came from a very frugal family," she told reporters.

Subsequently he was declared sane at a hospital here Nov. 19, 1946, and was released to a hotel.

The slaying of the attractive 31-year-old woman caused a sensation here. Police were assigned to the house by Mrs. Williams' daughter by a previous marriage. They found Mrs. Williams on the kitchen floor dead from stab wounds in her chest.

Williams was found in the house suffering from a self-inflicted stab wound in the chest. He was kept under 24-hour guard in the hospital before he was declared insane.

Jones Increases County Scoring Lead To 232 Points

Driskill Is Second With 121 And Shaw Is Third With 106; Metts Is Fourth

By KENT CHETLAIN
Larroping Johnny Jones, Ovid's 16-year-old boy wonder of the basketball courts, despite the fact that he is a severe cold, has forged ahead undisturbed as Seminole County's leading high school scorer with a 13-game total of 232, which is more than double his nearest opponent, this week's official records show.

Jones leads Seminole basketball in almost every scoring and playing category having the most baskets, 90; points, 232; games, 13; and average points per game, 17.8. Only in free throws is Jones' record surpassed. Sanford's Junior Bobby Driskill, who has 102 points, is second with 106 points, and Metts is fourth with 106 points.

However, Jones is second with 30. Lyman's Bobby Brockitt, also a sophomore, is the second top county point producer with a 121 total in 11 contests for the second high average of 11 points a game. Driskill's teammate, Jimmy Metts, senior forward, leads third in the scoring parade with 101 points.

Metts is fourth at 102 and Sanford's Gordon Clark is next coming in at 100. The top five county prep scorers are as follows: Jones, 232; Driskill, 102; Metts, 106; Brockitt, 121; Clark, 100.

In the average points per game classification, Jones and Driskill are one and two, but Metts moves up from fourth to third with Clark slipping up to fourth from fifth and Shaw dropping to the 10th slot from third.

It is interesting to note that the top five county prep scorers are the only players to reach an average of 10 points a game. The next nearest players to the county figure are Jimmy Koster of Sanford, 79; Harvey Joe Clayton of Ovid, 78; and Walter Duda of Ovid, 75.

Ovid's Walt Duda Is Sent To Hospital

Walt Duda, star Ovid forward, was hospitalized yesterday when he collapsed from a recent bout with the flu and an allergic reaction to drugs.

Duda, who earlier this year was plagued with a strained ankle that kept him out of a number of games, was sent to the Orange Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando yesterday. The sturdy center was unable to walk and was unable to walk in the Ovid game with Sanford last Monday night because of the flu.

The good-natured Duda was second high point producer on the team before being sidelined with the flu and a 7.5 average per game. Coach Paul Mikler is banking his class O bid for the state championship on his starting five in which Duda plays a vital rebounding role with Max McCall.

Tampa Defeats FSC As Monts Scores 25

TAMPA — The Tampa Spartans won a 77-41 basketball victory over Florida Southern Conference (FSC) last night when they defeated the team from Gainesville 77-41.

Coach Bill Lynch, who sparked the Spartans to a 10-0 record, was the star of the night. Lynch scored 25 points and led the team to victory.

Tampa was ahead 18-16 at the end of the first quarter and 48-38 at the end of the second quarter. Lynch's shooting was the key to Tampa's victory.

Bob Pettit And LSU Dash U-F Title Bid

GAINESVILLE — Louisiana State virtually eliminated Florida from the Southeastern Conference basketball race Tuesday night, 68-56, but the Bayou Bengals had to do some fast moving.

Florida was ahead 31-11 three minutes before halftime, and at the moment it looked like the nation's eighth ranked team was on the way to upset.

Then the Bengals turned on the juice, scoring 37 quick points which sent them to their midtime rest ahead, 68-25. They never were behind again.

Six foot, Bob Pettit, who had been averaging 24.3 points a game, led LSU with 28 points.

Champion Kid Gavilan To Defend Title Tonight With Chuck Davey

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO — The Champion Kid Gavilan, defending his world welterweight title against television's "Underdog Kid" challenger, Chuck Davey, tonight at the Chicago Stadium.

They were scheduled for a 1 p.m., EST, weigh-in. Gavilan, 27-year-old Cuban with meager education, is a veteran of 103 fights, knocked down only once, and unbeaten in 28 straight fights since a 10-round loss to Gene Harrison Oct. 30, 1930.

Davey, 26-year-old Irish lad from Detroit, who holds a master's degree from Michigan State College, has bobbed behind a stingling, tantalizing southpaw attack to 37 victories and two draws in a four-year career, last in 1949.

The bout may pay Gavilan as much as $100,000 if he wins, but he will receive $25,000 if he loses. The TV sponsor guaranteed the matchmaking International Boxing Club a $200,000 net gate.

In that case, the TV sponsor will kick in $80,000 for Gavilan and Davey to nibble at their 49.20 per cent share.

On the eve of the fight, Gavilan ranks a 13 to 5 favorite, with the betting on Davey's main neighbor, Billy Graham, based on his previous TV success.

Gavilan has fought 23 rounds with former welter and middleweight champion, Ed Johnson, losing a 10-round decision in 1948 and a 15-round title affair a year later.

In his 10-year pro career, Gavilan has won 99 of his 103 bouts and knocked out or stopped 26 foes. He has stepped into the back yard of the local favorite—Billy Graham of New York, Bobby Dukes in Miami, Fla., and Gil Turner in Philadelphia, to achieve brilliant victory.

It will be the Kid's sixth fight over the 15-round route. Davey never has gone 15 rounds and presumably must slow his usual blistering pace to stay close to the challenger.

Davey's most punishing punch is a left to the body. It was this blow which twice crumpled Chico Verjan, once as bright a TV hero as Davey himself. In several bouts, particularly in a second match with a journeyman scrap-fer, Carmel Danilin, Davey has been severely cut about the eyes.

If he starts bleeding against Gavilan, the experts expect it won't take the champion long to move in for the kill.

FSU Beats Nets; Westhafer Nets 29

TALLAHASSEE — Florida State took the lead at the start and was in front all the way Tuesday night to whip Stetson, 76-68, and end a six-game winning streak for the latter.

Jerry Westhafer paced the Florida State basketball team with 29 points while Ham Wernke looped in 21 to run his total to 224 for 18 games.

Ed Hessel was high man for Stetson with 14 points. At one point Florida State was 30 points ahead but Stetson tied the lead in the game to whittle the lead.

Florida State now has a 6-9 record while Stetson won 11 and lost 15.

Twenty-one of those favoring Gavilan thought the kid would win, but he was knocked out technical knockout.

Jones Increases County Scoring Lead To 232 Points

Driskill Is Second With 121 And Shaw Is Third With 106; Metts Is Fourth

By KENT CHETLAIN
Larroping Johnny Jones, Ovid's 16-year-old boy wonder of the basketball courts, despite the fact that he is a severe cold, has forged ahead undisturbed as Seminole County's leading high school scorer with a 13-game total of 232, which is more than double his nearest opponent, this week's official records show.

Jones leads Seminoles' basketball in almost every scoring and playing category having the most baskets, 90; points, 232; games, 13; and average points per game, 17.8. Only in free throws is Jones' record surpassed. Sanford's Junior Bobby Driskill, who has 102 points in 10 games, is the county lead in charity tosses with 48.

However, Jones is second with 30, Lyman's Bobby Brockitt, also a sophomore, is the second top county point producer with a 121 total in 11 contests for the second high average of 11 points a game. Driskill's teammate, Jimmy Metts, senior forward, leads third in the scoring parade with 106.

Charles Shaw, junior forward, is fourth at 102 and Sanford's Gordon Clark is next coming in at the Top Five with an even 100 tallies.

METTS, SAN, 10 27 18 102 54
CLARK, SAN, 10 38 24 100 54
In the average points per game classification, Jones and Driskill are one and two, but Metts moves up from fourth to third with Clark slipping up to fourth from fifth and Shaw dropping to the 60th slot from third.

It is interesting to note that the top five county prep scorers are the only players to reach an average of 10 points a game. The next nearest players to the coast-to-coast circle figure are Jimmy Koster of Sanford, 79; Harvey Joe Clayton of Ovid, 78; and Walter Duda of Ovid, 75.

Major College Quintets Must Choose NIT Or NCAA Tourneys

By BEN PIREGAR
NEW YORK — The hour of decision is approaching for the nation's tournament-minded basketball teams.

New York's National Invitation Tournament (NIT) is readying itself for its 12th contest. And this year for the first time colleges with postseason ambitions are forced to choose between the NIT and the rival NCAA championships.

New NCAA rules, which affect almost all of the leading colleges, hit the NIT from three directions. The NCAA enlarged its tournament field to 23 teams, selected conflicting dates and told colleges they no longer could play in both.

One of the 23 NCAA berths was filled last week when Idaho State clinched the Rocky Mountain Conference championship. This conference is one of 11 which automatically qualify their champions for the NIT.

In past years many teams have made a double run for tournament glory. City College of New York won both in 1959. Duquesne, St. John's of Brooklyn, St. Louis and Dayton all tried both last year.

La Salle of Philadelphia will be well come back but unbeaten Seton Hall is the prize the NIT wants most.

Seton Hall may prefer the NCAA. The school has tried the NIT three times in its history. Its last foray was in last year's NIT to La Salle.

The tournament has to have several New York teams to ensure its financial success. These probably will be Manhattan College and other New York University of St. John's of Brooklyn.

Sponsors of the NIT say they are studying carefully the records of every possible team. So far, no team has been named.

Good bets for invitations would seem to be Holy Cross, Seattle University, Louisville, Western Kentucky, Dayton and Duquesne from last year's field plus Niagara, Tulsa and Oklahoma City University. These would be in addition to Seton Hall, La Salle and the New York schools.

Sen. Ed Johnson's Blast Slows Down Baseball TV Plans

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — As a result of Sen. Ed Johnson's bitter denunciation of the proposed major league baseball television plan, the television industry is slowing up its plans for national telecasts of baseball games.

Sen. Johnson's speech, which was broadcast on radio and television, was a scathing attack on the proposed plan. He accused the baseball writers and owners of being greedy and of wanting to exploit the sport for their own financial gain.

European Sports Autos Will Make Record Attempt

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — European and American sports cars zoomed on the beach here today, but they will have to go some to match the record holding of American stock autos.

Eleven drivers drove late model strictly stock cars over the run and all hit the record old record of 28 miles an hour.

Bob Bruner, 28-year-old old 100 1/2 inch Chevrolet led the rush with an average of 113.28 mph in a 1953 Oldsmobile.

Joe Littlejohn, who set the old mark in 1950, driving a 1950 Olds, bettered it by almost six m.p.h. in a 1953 Cadillac.

Hal Gruber Turns Down Managerial Offer From Braves

Hal Gruber, Sanford Giant manager in 1948-19 and currently named as 1953 Seminole Blue managerial choice, flatly refused Blue President John B. Callahan's offer yesterday of the Sanford post for this season. Gruber told Callahan he was deeply "grateful" for what he was even offered, but that he could not take the job since he has been out of baseball too long and he is established with a trucking concern now. Blue directors will meet tonight at the WTHR studio to consider the recent St. Louis Cardinal working agreement offer and a managerial choice for the coming season.

In the ancient world it is usually assumed that women could not take part in politics except when they became reigning queens.
