PREMIER AGAIN ASKS CHAMBER TO OKEY PACT

Harmful Results Of Repudiation Are Cited By Poincare During Impassioned Speech

PARIS, July 12.—(INS)—Premier Raymond Poincaré's two-day plea in the Chamber of Deputies for ratification of the Mellon-Berenger (U.S.-American) debt agreement without reservations, offensive to the United States was interrupted late this afternoon when the Chamber adjourned until Friday. When the Chamber reconvenes at 9:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning it is expected the Premier will conclude his elaboration.

PARIS, July 12.—(INS)—A renewed attempt to induce the French Chamber of Deputies to ratify the Mellon-Berenger debt agreement between the United States and France by Aug. 1 was launched by Premier Raymond Poincaré in the Chamber today.

In a long and impassioned address, the Premier alluded to harmful results which might follow repudiation of the agreement, and urged that the deputies decide with the least possible loss of time to ratify the treaty.

M. Poincaré said that the House had made efforts to obtain modification of the terms laid down in the agreement, but they had proved abortive.

"When Secretary Mellon came to France last year," he said, "I did my best to talk with him about a better condition. But the Secretary of the United States Treasury absolutely refused to discuss the question."

"You have two courses open. One is to pay $100,000,000 in cash on the first of August in liquidation of old debts contracted with America for war materials. The other is to modify the Mellon-Berenger agreement and pay this sum out of profits of the years."

Under the terms of the agreement, this would automatically be included in the other French debts.

"If we ratify the Mellon-Berenger agreement and refuse to pay by Aug. 1, America has a right to the treasury funds into the financial market. I have not tested the attack upon French credit in 1925 and 1926, and it may easily be repeated if we do not care."

"Four hundred million dollars at the present time will be a cruel blow to the treasury, and even if we must pay lump sum, we members think Americans and British worlds still remain."

While discussion on the war debts was proceeding in the chamber, it was reported that President Coolidge might solve the vexed issue by at once signing a bill to understand decategorizing the debt agreements with the United States andrat. Belmont, apd that foreign ministers Brandt and Simon will immediately sign their signatures.

Watson Denies Rift With MHoover On Questi Of Tariff

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—Senator Bon. of Indiana, Republican, of the Senate, today held that the President and he had entire agreement on tariff legislation.

He detracts of discord which took place in the wake of a conference yesterday between the Presidents, and Senator Reed (D.) Pennsylvania, which led the House to deny statements stated to Watson that the President had taken down "an American's basis" in tariff measure.

Watson predicted that the bitter fight over the tariff would iron out and that the bill would present virtually unit front.

"The Plain and I are in entire agreement," said Watson. "There is discord between us all."

Referring to conversation with former note after the White House Watson said, "I told the plain that we are all together, nothing an ad quare, enable us."

WILSONS APPOINTED

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—President Hoover today announced the appointment of Charles Wilson, of Hall, New York to the Federal Farm Board.

CANADA PLANS TO BAN LIQUOR EXPORTS TO U. S.

King Will Introduce Legislation In January In An Effort To Aid American Fight

OTTAWA, Ont., July 12.—(INS)—The Canadian government has decided to ban liquor exports from Canada to the United States, it was indicated in cabinet circles here today.

Impressively by the seriousness of the dry blockade established on the Detroit River from by the U. S. enforcement agencies, the McKenzie King administration plans the introduction of legislation into the House of Commons to prevent Canadians from shipping liquor into the United States. No steps will be taken, however, until next January.

Canadian citizens objecting to the government's liquor export policy have delayed the McKenzie King administration with protests against the shipment of liquor to the states.

William P. Elder, minister of national resources, concluded his tour of confirmation of the new policy of the government when he told the House of Commons yesterday that the government had done much to assist the United States in keeping out liquor but did not feel disposed to go further until next year.

The students of the Lord's Day School, who were disturbed by the introduction of the Lord's Day School, were asked to attend the White House and make half a dozen speeches to the executive explaining why Congress should be encouraged to pass a bill similar to Rep. Hoover Is Central Figure In Effort To Enforce Blue Laws In National Capital

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—The national capital looked on with avid interest the day proponents and opponents of the Sunday blue laws jockeyed about seeking a statement of position from President Hoover.

To the question, "Is there a clear-cut answer to the question?" seen with Bishop Cannon, Canon Chase, the Lord's Day Alliance, the National Association and the National Association Opposed to Blue Laws, Prof. Henry Fury, of that organization, announced from New Jersey his intention of coming here at once to lead a digression of opposition.

The press were hardly dry with news of the movement to ban liquor imports into the United States. Mr. Hoover does not appear disposed to give voice to that utterance.

CARLTON BLAMES $6,000,000 SPENT MARTIN'S REGIME IN DEVELOPMENT FOR HIGHER LEVY OF JACKSONVILLE

Responsibility For New Millage Of 14½ Disclaimed By Governor

Real Estate Dealers Take Stock Of New Business Conditions

TALLAHASSEE, July 12.—(INS)—Carlton Carlton issued a statement here last night in which he disclaimed responsibility for this year's state tax millage, which he said yesterday at 14 1/4 mills, possibly the highest in the state history.

Speaking before a group of business leaders, Carlton said he was responsible for the increase in the state tax millage, which he said yesterday at 14 1/4 mills, possibly the highest in the state history.

That, however, is what Alfred C. Lamer, a prominent real estate broker of the Real Estate Board of the city, yesterday told the 14½ leaders in the Taxing Code Club, "I am not responsible for the increase in the state tax millage, which he said yesterday at 14 1/4 mills, possibly the highest in the state history."

"I wonder if they have stopped to realize that in these things, like business, you can't have a bad record prior to 1926 that business would have been good," he said.

CHINESE-RUSSIAN BREAK EXPECTED IN RAIL SEIZURE

Manchurian Situation Is Serious Following Wholesale Arrests

LONDON, July 12.—(INS)—Diplomatic rupture between China and the Soviet government is expected as a result of seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railway by Chinese authorities, dispatched

Hack Wilson Is Defended For His Attack Upon Kolp And Cincinnati Manager

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor

NEW YORK. July 11.—Lewis "Hack" Wilson, the notorious youth who brought the back breaking fight to baseball, if only for a day, when he tried to punch his way through the Cincinnati players, has not been able to justify it in his own behalf in the ensuing investigation. He is just another Luigi Gallo, whose public life has just made a tragedy by the jaded taste of fans and fellow players. This was the version of Wilson-Kolp-Douglas incident, summed up by Joe McCarthy, Chicago manager, a version that, though certain specifications will be given before President John A. O'Leary at the final hearing of the case tomorrow.

It probably will save Wilson for the Chicago lineup without further penalty, since it will furnish the second of the customary two sides that are supposed to make up every story. The understanding here is that Wilson will be told to go forth and speak no more.

Before it is completely told, Mr. McCarthy and the other Chicago witnesses plan a series of counter-charges, one of which is that Ray Kolp, Mr. Wilson's original opponent, applied incentive that could only result in the incrimination of Ray. Another is that the Steinhorn-Critz "spit-in" believed to have been the origin of the interclub feud, was no spitting at all. A third will claim that it was the Cincinnati players, and not Wilson, who were looking for trouble.

"Wilson never looks for trouble," said McCarthy, "but it is his misfortune that he gets it. His peculiar look and the intensity of manner has made him a target for all the stamp-wine-making and the slobbering and personality don't see how he has stood it as long as he has. He is a very sensitive fellow and it would take the bite of an elephant to knock the song he has abandoned. As for Kolp, he didn't get what he deserved, after the name he called him. No well-known team would have taken it and I understand that Hack didn't. He was definitely the aligned party in that incident, at least."

So no surprise, of course, that Wilson is being tried on the moment, and for the sacking of Mr. Kolp, for which he is blamed. He has been condemned but for the subsequent sacking of Mr. Douglas. However, the Chicago management will attempt to prove that Mr. Douglas would have done an unbroken indefinitely, if not for a time, had there been no Wilson-Kolp vendetta of the half-shell easier in the dugout. The Douglas sacking, they say, was just an outgrowth of the Kolp sacking and, therefore, subjective to an extent for which Wilson already has paid his penalty, justly or unjustly, as the case may be.

Thus runs Chicago, story of the foul and, since it is equally acceptable with that presented by Cincinnati and there were no neutral witnesses present, John McCarthy quite possibly ill-disposed; there is nothing in particular to be done about it, except to shoo them concerned. Thing of course, won't do a whole lot for Mr. Douglas's claim, neither will it obtain satisfaction for Charlie Johnson, who has been charged with having helped upon Mr. Douglas's premature begin in the Chicago half-shell dugout and helped and helped and helped—of something. According to McCarthy's belief, both Mr. Douglas and Johnson may consider themselves aggrieved. The latter may be forced to have come in leaving.

Mr. Douglas, however, had intended to offer sound advice when he suggested, in reply to Mr. Wilson's inquiry as to the conduct of the Cincinnati case, that the latter might get hurt. It simply was Mr. Douglas's misfortune that this was written down for a challenge.

According to McCarthy, other mistakes were made or there would have been no trouble in the first place.

Feminist Leader Is Anxious For Women To Win Place In Sun

MACKINAC ISLANDS, Mich., July 10.—(ESS)—Assuming that men are in a company from whom women gain no advantage in business and the professions, feminist leaders, here at the tenth annual convention of the national federation of business and professional women's clubs, being enlivened their visitors in a "war of words" as was for women a "place in the sun."

"We must break down the barriers by standing legally together as a sex," Miss Lena Madeline Phillips, New York attorney and president of the organization declared last night in sounding the legend of her convention in her city "women for women." "I advocate suffrage for women by women as a reciprocity program for the federation."

Pointed were expressed by Miss Phillips regarding the loyalty of women to one another. She urged them as a group to rise above envy, jealousies and fears of honest competition.

ATHLETICS MISS CATCHING SKILL OF 1ST STRINGER

Mackmen Have Dropped, Won Two Since Cochrane's Absence

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 11.—(INS)—Wanted: One rib. Nutrie in sound condition and in no danger of cracking. For immediate delivery.

Don't be surprised if you run across this singular notice in a few of our leading dailies, for Cornelius is likely to get that desperate in his desire to get catcher Mickey Cochrane back in the Athletics' lineup. Since the Terry catcher took to the bench with an injured thumb, Mr. Mack's hopefuls have taken two and dropped four, which is certainly no way to win a flag.

Yesterday they managed to break even in a double bill with the pesky Browns, thanks to the fancy fusing of Howard Ehmke in the first game who allowed but two hits. Then picked up a half-game on the Yanks who staggered all afternoon before the fast shots of Alphonse Thomas, White Sox hurler. Going container in his hitting snap, but Babe Ruth cracked a couple of doubles and was frisky no end on the bases.

Mac's McMains, second baseman, for the second time within a week, saved the Tiger's tail from being twisted by skipping a bunter with the bases loaded. The Red Sox were the victims this time.

In another of those crucial affairs the Giants couldn't "pay" Bush and the Cubs couldn't fortify their second place position by whipping McGraw's boys in the first of a five-game series. Bush allowed but seven hits. "One round" Hack Wilson, after being run around eight times for eight runs, answered his nemesis with a homer in the ninth.

Pittsburgh showed no signs of quitting their tremulous hitting, in swamping the Phils, 16 to 5. The Bucs slammed out five home runs, two being from Grandham's bat, while the Phils clapped up four. The Cubs came within one home run of the Major League record for both clubs in a game.

Incidentally, there were 12 home runs cracked in the National yesterday with six being cracked out on the American.

The over-murky Cards took another slide toward fifth place when they blew one to the Bohemians. Fredie, the Bohemian young fly closer reported his twelfth circuit of the year while Chet Hickey pulled up alongside Jim Bottomley with his twenty-second.

McGraw, the skipper, was not pleased.
