This remarkable photo of Floyd Collins shows him exactly as he was trapped in Sand Cave first by a boulder and then by a cave-in. It was taken by flashlight at another cave just before Collins entered Sand Cave, eight miles from Cave City, Ky.

PARKING SPACE IS BEING PROVIDED AT RAIL STATION

Railroad Committee of Chamber of Commerce Reports Action Being Taken Now; Report On Radio Is Made

Active work towards providing adequate parking facilities at the Atlantic Coast Line passenger station in Sanford which, with the establishment of an up-town ticket office, including of Sanford in the advertising of the railroad and the elimination of danger from railway crossings in the city, has been one of the major objectives of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, is now going forward according to a letter from T. L. Dumas, superintendent of the Sanford division, at the chamber meeting Friday afternoon. Business done in Sanford, the superintendent wrote, did not warrant the establishment of the up-town ticket office.

A letter from the division passenger agent relative to Sanford advertising was read to the chamber. The superintendent, W. D. Stark, referred to several instances where Sanford is included in folders and booklets. He pledged the railroad to co-operate with the chamber in every way possible and asked for suggestions on advertising matters. The city is featured prominently in the railroad's "Purple Folder" and "Tropical Trips," according to the agents letter. Various members, told of being in New York, Chicago and other larger cities and experiencing difficulties in purchasing tickets to Sanford. Another declared that the name of the city was not called in announcing trains in the Jacksonville station. This matter and that of railroad crossings are still to receive definite action by rail officials.

Radio Station Cost Given. A report from the Chamber of Commerce radio committee, composed of C. J. Marshall, S. O. Chase and H. R. Stevens, placed the cost of installing a 500 watt radio broadcasting station in Sanford at $20,000 following a conference with a representative of the Western Electric Company. To this sum was added the cost of $2,000 to $3,000 a year for operation.

Though the report was discussed at length, definite action was deferred until the next meeting of the chamber. The general trend of the discussion was that Sanford could not afford to invest a sum of money as large as this in a radio station at the present time. Later, the opinion was expressed such action may be found advisable.

A special committee to take up tax equalization, composed of W. B. Carter, D. L. Thrasher and H. C. DuBois, with the legislative committee. The appointment followed an address by Mr. Carter declaring that tax equalization so that the lands in the county would bear their just share of assessments is a matter of necessity. Mr. Carter proposed a special act of the legislature to allow the appointment of a committee to make the equalization. After discussion this was declared impracticable due to the fact that a similar act already had been passed and proved ineffective. It was declared to be the duty of the tax assessors, Alex. Vaughn to effect an equalization. Definite action in the matter is to be taken following their report of the committee.

Borchart Is Speaker. Otto Borchart, president of the Milwaukee American Association Baseball club was present and introduced to the chamber. Mr. Borchart declared that he was highly pleased with the attractions offered by Sanford, and that he was confident of a highly satisfactory training period here.

Alleged Visit To Savannah To Practice of Party Organized By Father Hayden Who Told of Trip on Stand Last Week

Hayden Target For Attacks of Defense

Government Rests Case While Defense Presents First Of Its Witnesses This Morning

ATLANTA, Feb. 13.—After listening since Monday to testimony relating to the alleged sale of "soft jobs" at the Atlanta Federal penitentiary, attorneys for A. E. Sartain and L. J. Fletcher, formerly warden and deputy, respectively, of the penitentiary and Laurence Riehl, Columbus, O., charged with conspiracy and bribery today called the first of their witnesses.

District Attorney Clint W. Hager late Thursday rested for the government. His announcement followed the second appearance on the stand of Father Thomas P. Hayden, former prison chaplain, who has admitted his participation in an alleged conspiracy to accept $10,500 for special privileges at the institution from seven men convicted in the Savannah "rum ring" in 1923.

Hayden changed portions of his previous testimony regarding a visit which he said he and Riehl made to Savannah early in 1924 where there to collect the $10,500, from Willie Haar, one of the convicted men. In his first testimony Hayden declared he had been met at the station by Ernest Haar, brother of Willie, who took him to breakfast. Today he said the meeting did not occur.

Ernest Haar earlier in the day had been on the stand and had contradicted the statement, but the former chaplain declared this had no relation to his decision to correct his previous testimony.

Defense Attorney William Schley Howard, in cross-examining Hayden asked if he still was certain that Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKenzie, a Savannah couple, had called at the Haar home on the night that Father Hayden and Riehl were there to collect the $10,500. He applied in the affirmative, Willie Haar, in his testimony, said the couple did not call.

Hayden Target of Defense. Sartain, Fletcher, Riehl and Hayden shared in the bribe money collected on this occasion, according to the latter's testimony. The defense already has stated it proposes to prove that Hayden accepted all the bribe money and that the defendants received none. No announcement of an indictment against Hayden has been made.

Immediately after the State rested, the defense introduced a letter to the files a letter from the records on the pay roll of Graham Baughn, Savannah attorney, who was fined approximately $20,000 and sentenced to a year in the Atlanta penitentiary. The letter was from Assistant Attorney General Donovan and was addressed on Dec. 27, 1924, to District Attorney Hager, after the former had returned to Washington from Atlanta, where he participated in the prison investigation.

The letter stated that just after the Assistant Attorney General returned to Washington he obtained the parole papers of Graham Baughn and "put them through." (Continued on page 2)

Hot Debate Caused In Commons About Wales' Trip Abroad

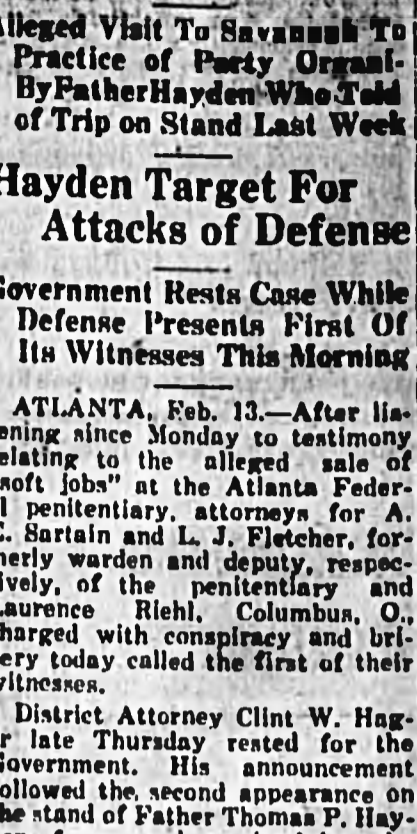

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The House of Commons Thursday evening by a vote of 295 against 87 passed a supplementary budget estimate to cover the expenses of the forthcoming trip of the Prince of Wales to South Africa and South America.

The vote was taken after the chamber had rejected a motion by David Kirkwood, labor member, to reduce the 15,000 pounds which it has been estimated will be required for the trip.

During the debate the Government sprung a surprise by announcing that Uruguay and Chile also had invited the Prince of Wales to visit these countries. The Government spokesman, Walter Edward Guinness, said it was hoped these invitations would be accepted.

Mr. Kirkwood protested against spending the nation's resources on the trip of the Prince of Wales when there was so much poverty at home. It was noteworthy that neither in his fiery attack nor in the speeches of the other members supporting him was any word of personal animus spoken against the Prince.

'Human Fly' In N. Y.

Here is Harry Gardiner, the original "Human Fly" climbing the tower of the Metropolitan building in New York City. Gardiner will scale the First National Bank building in this city tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the performance being staged under the auspices of the Sanford Shrine Club.

"HUMAN FLY" TO GIVE 500 CIRCUS PASSES TO CROWD

Climb of Bank Building Will Begin Saturday At 3:30 O'clock on First Street Side; To Climb Down After Ascend

Five hundred tickets to the Sanford Shrine Circus, which opens Monday, Feb. 16, will be given away Saturday afternoon by Harry Gardiner, the original "human fly" following his daring climb of the First National Bank building. Gardiner will begin his ascent of the First Street side of the building at 3:30 o'clock, upon attaining the top will climb down again.

Gardiner has climbed thousands of buildings during his career as a thrill maker. In almost every climb Gardiner was working for some charitable or philanthropic cause. He has made many climbs in connection with the American Legion for the benefit of disabled soldiers and has appeared as the chief attraction at many benefits for the unfortunate.

Following his descent, Gardiner will make a short address to the crowds telling them some of his spectacular exploits. He has engaged in almost every kind of extraordinary climbing and came by his name, "the Human Fly" after Collins shortly before the "squeeze" and that Collins had asked for doctors to "come in and put me to sleep and cut my legs off." This was impossible, he said, because of the narrow passageway.

Milton Jones, a minor, said Collins was fed for the last time Tuesday afternoon, in no fact as he knew. He talked to Collins with the view of determining whether he was delirious and came to the conclusion that he was not. (Continued on page 2)

Tunnel Discovered Which May Lead To Prison Of Explorer

RESUE FACTIONS WERE SWAYED BY RIVALRY FEELING

Cave County People Feared Amateurs Might Be Hurt; Probe Indicates Hoax Report Was Not Malicious

CAVE CITY, Ky., Feb. 13.—The feeling between factions in the early rescue parties at Sand Cave was rivalry and not jealousy, witnesses testified Thursday before the state military board of inquiry.

Homer Collins, brother of Floyd Collins, said that no one ever was advised to stay out of the cave, except for motives of safety. The Cave county people, Homer said, felt that inexperienced outsiders might cause cave-ins from lack of knowledge of the sandstone formation of the caverns, but no one was ever prevented from going down until the state troops came.

Homer said he was asked by several persons if Floyd was really in the cave. "Of course he is," he replied, "I was down there to see him several times. Such a question unnerved me."

B. L. Abernathy, Louisville correspondent for the Associated Press, testified that the rumors mentioned in an Associated Press story Sunday night were common knowledge in Cave City, but the two sentences in the story referring to the rumors were closely followed by a third sentence, which declared that those who had actually been in the cave knew they were untrue.

Other newspaper men, he said, wrote the same thing in their stories. The Associated Press dispatch was assailed by Governor Fields.

The military board agreed that there was no malicious intent in the dispatch. Dr. H. P. Honaker, of Horse Cave, a nearby town, said in his testimony Thursday that he had heard the same rumors but as he had been to the cave he knew they were unfounded.

R. B. Anderson, geologist of the Louisville Gas and Electric Company, testified the limestone formation of the caves was perfectly safe and the fact that Collins was trapped in a sandstone cave-in was no proof that other caves were unsafe.

Very little additional light was thrown on the situation by the witnesses Thursday, much of the testimony being that of individuals who entered the cave before the natural passage closed up and shut off outside communication with Collins.

John I. Gerard, of Bowling Green, who testified he was an engineer and assisted in planning the location of the rescue shaft, said he entered the cave and talked to Collins shortly before the "squeeze" and that Collins had asked for doctors to "come in and put me to sleep and cut my legs off." This was impossible, he said, because of the narrow passageway.

Milton Jones, a minor, said Collins was fed for the last time Tuesday afternoon, in no fact as he knew. He talked to Collins with the view of determining whether he was delirious and came to the conclusion that he was not.

City Takes Action To Stop Removal Of Street Refuse Cans

A writ of replevin to recover eight garbage cans alleged to have been unlawfully taken from the streets of Sanford and carried to Tampa, was taken Wednesday by city manager W. F. Williams. The cans in question were contracted for by the city for a period of two years which will not end until July 1.

Under the writ, the right to the cans will have to be proved before three days have elapsed or the cans will revert to the city. The cans were contracted for with the Martiner Service Advertising Company, of Columbus, Ga., a company said to have been declared bankrupt some time ago. The cans were being shipped to the company bearing the same name as the company from whom the cans were secured. A man whose name was given as G. L. Platt is declared to have been listed as the shipper. Efforts to locate him have proved unsuccessful.

Sheriff C. M. Hand served the writ and took possession of the cans. He is holding them pending the outcome of the action. The cans, when originally placed on the city streets, bore advertising signs which were to be maintained by the company. This the company failed to do, it is said, and the cans were kept pointed by the city manager.

Out of 26 pre-Columbian Indian mummies examined at the American Museum of Natural History, 16 had head lice or bits of some kind.

Chicago Surgeon Prepares to Enter Cave As Soon as Explorer Is Found by Workers

Expect To Rescue Collins Any Minute

Work on Shaft Speeds Up As Soft Earth Reached By Sappers

CAVE CITY, Feb. 13.—Carmichael came out of the shaft at 1:00 o'clock this afternoon and announced hope of rescuing Collins though the tunnel discovered in the shaft 50 feet down, has been abandoned as a tunnel exploration failed to disclose the passage way.

CAVE CITY, Feb. 13.—A tunnel which rescuers hope may lead to the cave-in behind Floyd Collins, was discovered on the left of Sand Cave rescue shaft early today.

Timbering was rushed to the fifteenth section and preparation made to drive piling into a side wall around and above the tunnel hole so the rescue party could enter with safety.

H. T. Carmichael and two miners at 10 o'clock this morning began exploration of the tunnel. Dr. William Haslett Chicago, in charge of medical preparations for attending Collins if he is found, had completed every possible preparation. He will be sent into the tunnel as soon as Collins is located to determine whether he is dead or alive before any attempt is made to remove him. Red cross representatives were instructed to be ready for any emergency.

Early this morning the diamond-core drill had been pushed down the sand cave rescue shaft to a depth of 60 feet and H. T. Carmichael in charge of the shaft operations expressed great disappointment that no bottom yet had been found to the limestone "roof." Apparently the officials were seeking to drive through the "soft" spot just below the 60 foot mark, to locate a larger tunnel or cavern below.

About seven feet of limestone had been probed beyond the 51-foot stratum of dirt, with no indication of a cavern, and at 12:13 A. M. the drill still was boring downward. It would take several days to excavate through the 10 feet between the present depth of the shaft and the sixty foot mark if seven feet of limestone was to be removed and the officials greatly disappointed.

"We are now surely in the cavernous area," said an official bulletin late Thursday night by M. E. S. Posey, secretary of the state highway commission and engineering representative of Gov. Fields. "We are removing dirt four times as fast as we did. The shaft is 48 feet deep on the lower side and 53 feet on the higher side and the core drill penetrated limestone into a cavern at 50 feet, a little over two feet below the bottom of the shaft."

Samples of the limestone in the core drill were examined by Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, the geologist of the rescue staff. H. T. Carmichael in charge of the engineering work, and Mr. Posey and they agreed that the cavern area was near at hand. While the tunnel below the limestone roof might be filled with sand or silt they indicated they were sure it could be cleared out to lead to some opening through which Collins might be reached.

As soon as the 15 sections of the shaft bracing is placed, on which work was started just before midnight, the diggers expected to start work on the solid rock, with the likelihood they might break through within a very few hours. The shaft was aimed to strike just behind him, but only the penetration of a tunnel large enough to explore, will disclose how nearly the survivors will come to their target.

Plans for the exploration of the first tunnel encountered and the program to be followed when Collins is located has been agreed upon by physicians and engineers. Members of the medical staff will descend as soon as Collins is found to make a thorough examination of the situation and Collins' condition before any effort is made to remove him. From the rock in which he has been gripped for two weeks. If there is the slightest spark of life, orders for the emergency measures of the medical staff will be passed up the shaft for preparation of the treatment needed. It is likely it will be some time after he is located until it is fully determined whether he is alive or dead, and he is removed from his prison.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Farm legislation continued to occupy the Senate and House Agricultural Committee. An investigation of gasoline price raises was asked by Senator Trammell of Florida.

Brig. Gen. Mitchell denied before the House aircraft committee that he disobeyed orders in bombing tests. A request for $25,000 for a Commerce Department survey of the oyster industry was sent to Congress by the budget bureau.

Enactment of a corrupt practice act was urged in the report of the Senate campaign expenditures investigating committee. The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee postponed action on the nomination of William E. Humphrey for the Federal Trade Commission.

Administration leaders decided to seek to prevent action at this session on the nomination of Charles B. Warren to be Attorney General. Senator Howell, of Nebraska, offered a resolution for an investigation of the Nickel Plate railroad merger by the Van Swearingen interests.

RAILROADS FREE OF GOVERNMENT AFTER PROGRESS

Study Of German Railroads Being Made With View Of Thoroughly Modernizing System; Want More Speed

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—Railroads, now freed of government control and politics, are considering innovations and improvements. Under the general superintendency of Rudolph Oeser, formerly minister of transportation, careful study is being made of the needs and comforts of passengers, the increase of speed, the maintenance of safety and a proper margin of profit.

When the tourist season opens next May, overseas passengers will be able to take a through train from the docks at Bremerhaven and Cuxhaven for Berlin. There will be a pre-war service resumed. Wireless telephones have been installed on the trains between Berlin and Hamburg, Frankfurt and Munich.

The average speed of German trains before the war was 51.5 miles an hour, and Germany always has enjoyed the reputation of having fewer accidents than any other country in the world. In 1924 the speed average was 34.7, for Director Oeser is confident this will be increased in 1925. To this end there will be extensive improvements to tracks. Engines and rolling stock already are satisfactory, the director asserts.

The German railroad system employs about 800,000 men. There are 11,250 railroad stations, 33,000 miles of track, 106 construction camps and 3,227 administration offices.

One of the director's chief tasks is to make the lines profitable enough to take care of their share of the reparations burden, and he is confident this can be done. He has a free hand to run the system on strictly business principles. He has dismissed 300,000 men whom he considered superfluous; railway officials no longer hold their jobs for life. He is catering to the business of the countries surrounding Germany which need the German lines for transshipment purposes.

Negro Singers Will Appear In Concert at Milane Theater Soon

The Dixie Jubilee Singers to appear in concert at the Milane Theater on the night of Tuesday, Feb. 17, are said to be among the best negro entertainers of the country. They are recognized in a class by themselves which is attested by all who have had the pleasure of hearing them.

The organization is made up of some of the best educated negro talent of the country and have made a study of the old time southern plantation melodies and by this means are saving them to the people who appreciate real old negro harmony in music. In addition to the chorus the organization carries a male quartette, female sextette, readers and soloists. The program so arranged will give a wide variety to the ment of all who attend.

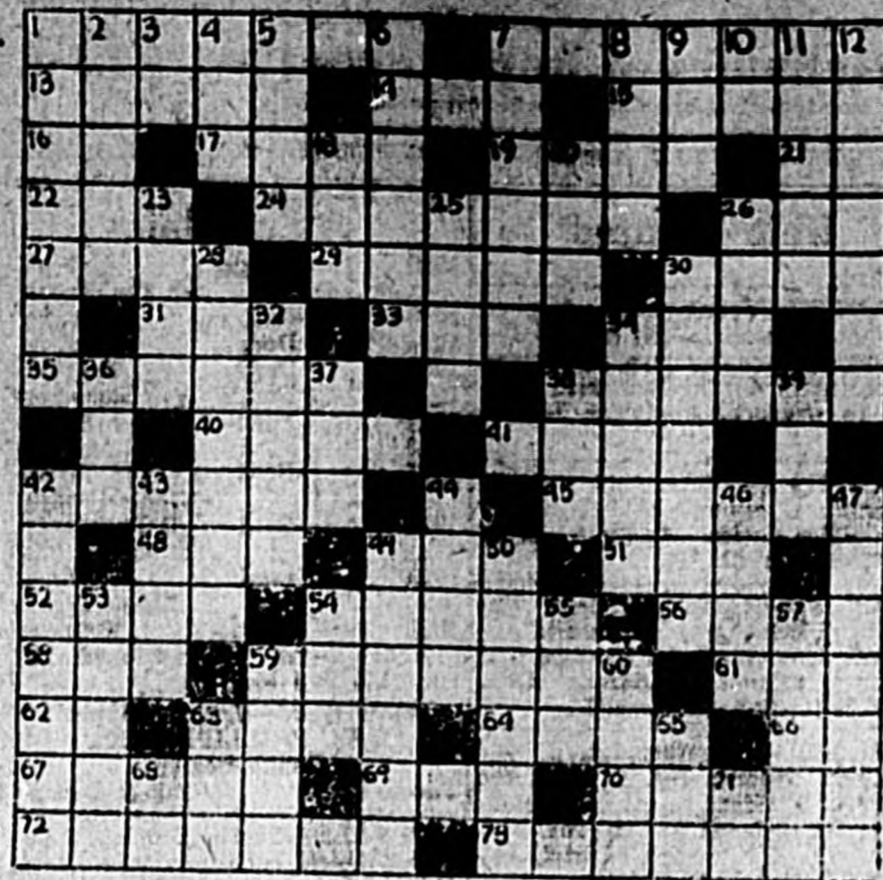

A. G. King, the leader of singers is a graduate of Fiske University at Nashville, Tenn., and traveled for a number of years with the Fiske University quartette. He has made a number of phonograph records including "Swing Low Sweet Chariot." Other noted singers will also be with the organization here.

The subscription price of the Russian Pravda is 30 pence, or more than a thousand pounds of 1916, per annum. A farmer would pay practically one-fifth of his farm income for his daily paper.

Sight of Lincoln's Statue in London Fills "Kaintuck" With Resolutions

(By Milton Dresser)
LONDON, Feb. 12.—His name is Smith. I don't know his Christian name. He came from Kentucky, where he was brought up in the fields, ploughin' and weedin'. And, in between times, he read geography. It planted the seed of crave for travel.

Smith's opportunity finally came. Stoker's jobs were advertised. A chance to travel abroad—just for shoveling coal in ship furnaces. Sounded good to Smith, and he went to New York and joined a crew.

Named "Kaintuck," 'Twas hard work—harder than he expected. But Snfith didn't care. Ten days in the stoke-hole and then Southampton! With money in his pocket and adventure in his heart he set forth, with his stoker mates.

These mates had nicknamed him "Kaintuck." And "Kaintuck," who had been reared in a bonny country, visited liquor emporiums and, for the first time in his life, tasted beer and "this here Scotch."

Sure, it had its effect and it's no wonder that a short time later he was on a train with his mates, bound for London.

More visit to liquor places, and then "Kaintuck" lost his friends in a fog.

The wee hours found "Kaintuck" leaning up against a fence. Inside the fence stood a statue. "Kaintuck" glanced up at it. Then stared—and blinked.

"Ole Abe Lincoln" "Kaintuck's" thought went in to a whirl. A trip across the Atlantic? In London town? May-be a dream. A London Bobbie came along. "What's that building?" asked "Kaintuck."

"That's where Parliament meets" came the reply. "And what city is this?" "London."

"Mind if I look at that statute some more?" "Help yourself, Yank." Yank! That cop didn't know all "Kaintuck's" folks had been Confederates.

"Think o' findin' you in London, "Kaintuck" said, musingly to the sculptured figure. "Good maw'nin'. My folks fit against you, but we all know you wuz on the square. You kep' the country together, Abe. An' I ain't ashamed to talk to you, kinder man to man."

"You was common folks yourself. Did your turn at spittin' wood and holdin' the plough—jes like me. "But, why do you look at me so sad-like? Oh, I know. The booze! Don't blame ya! You had plenty of troubles on your shoulders, but I ain't ever heard you turned to booze to forget 'em. No. You kep' sober and right on the job."

"Well, what's good enough for you is good enough for me. "Well, so long, Abe. And thank ya. Did me no end of good gassin' with ya in this strange burg. "I'm headin' back to your Kentucky and mine and start ploughin' again."

And "Kaintuck" did!

PAXTON APPOINTED MEN JURORS INCOMPETANT

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 12.—Governor Martin has appointed L. R. Paxton of Titusville to be county surveyor of Brevard county, and E. H. M. Poe, of Audubon, as justice of the peace for district No. 19 of Brevard. Both appointees were elected at the polls last November 4, but failed to qualify, making the appointment necessary.

Hydraulic cement was first made by Canvass White of Rochester, New York, in 1818. This liquid rock was used to hold together the huge under-water blocks of stone set in place by the builders of the aqueducts and locks of the Erie Canal. This claim is made against that for Joseph Aspdin, a stonemason of Leeds, England, who was raised to him as the first cement maker.

All Save Dancers Russian At Ball

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Vodka grog and Vodka egg nog were featured at a "bolshie ball" given in Hammermith, London, recently in aid of the West London Hospital. There were a grant many Russian costumes on hand among the dancers, but no Russians.

A bomb was exploded on the dance floor at midnight but its contents did no damage as they were nothing more than numerous Russian novelties which were distributed to the women guests.

The William Penn Charter of Liberty was exhibited under strom guard at Independence Hall, beginning the first of the year, until it could be transferred to the state archives at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Sunday Golf

We have heard so much talk lately about the right and wrong of playing golf on Sunday, about caddies, starters, club makers and attendants working on Sunday, about holding tournaments on Sunday, in short about golf and everything connected with it on Sunday, that we were especially interested in the recent action of the Lord's Day Alliance of New York.

That body has presented a bill to the New York legislature in which all commercialized forms of amusements are banned on Sunday—that is, all commercialized forms of amusements with the single exception of golf. That body like The Sanford Herald can see enough good coming from the outdoor exercise to offset any harm done those who have to work to permit Sunday golf.

Commenting on this attitude of the Lord's Day Alliance, the Dearborn Independent says:

"Another triumph for golf. The Lord's Day Alliance, in a bill offered to the New York legislature to ban various commercialized forms of Sunday amusements, have made an exception in favor of golf. Thus is the royal and ancient game lifted above the common rut of box-office sports and pleasures."

"In that land of 'brown heath and shaggy wood,' which is the ancestral home of golf, certain ministers and elders of the kirk strengthen their lungs and clear the cobwebs from their brains by a round or two of the links, even on the Sabbath, and are regarded by most people as the better for it; and this apparently is the view taken by the Lord's Day Alliance of New York.

"There is as yet no word that the inventor of golf has been canonized. Probably this is because he lived in such a remote antiquity that he antedated the Christian Era; but if some day his bones are miraculously discovered beneath some sod-covered mound when a new hazard is being dug, there is no doubt that a strong effort would be made to have the word 'blessed' put before his name at last.

"After all those apocryphal tales about golf as a begetter of profanity on such occasions as the 'foozling' of a ball or the missing of a short putt, it is refreshing to find that the game has retained reputation enough to be given a Sunday bill of health, as it were, by such an influential body. It should serve to make clear to the public that the agitation to preserve the American Sunday is not the labor of 'kill sports.'" Infringement of freedom of the people in the open is not in any contemplated plan. But the rank prostitution of the day to alien commercial interests is sought to be curbed—which is eminently proper."

Merely A Matter Of Self-Respect

"Good Posture Week" did not seem to create any great furor. Indeed it passed with some people utterly unaware it was being celebrated. Whole towns, it is said, neglected to arrange programs in honor of the occasion.

When you stop to think about it, "Good Posture Week" might be regarded as important a "Week" as any other in the year's calendar. It is one of the "Weeks," in truth, that should be continued throughout the twelve months of the year, with missionaries at work among all ranks and classes, preaching the gospel of "chin in, chest out, stomach in, toes pointing straight ahead, lungs full of air, back-bone vertical."

In a teachers' college in a western state, the physical director during "Good Posture Week" declared that only about five or ten per cent of the girls in the state could qualify in a physical examination for an A-rank, and this was because of their bad postures. They slumped, or in their attempt to stand erect, they thrust their heads forward in grotesque fashion. They "sat on their back bones," and they walked either toeing-out or toeing-in. And their carriage generally had nothing of the grace and beauty that comes from proper posture.

By keeping the frame of the body in its proper shape, it stands to reason that the organs inside the frame will have a chance to function more normally. In walking properly, the muscles are exercised properly.

But everybody who is not mentally deficient knows all this. It is curious, after all, that intelligent people should need a "Week" to teach them how to avoid being round-shouldered, hollow-chested, sloppy-built. Good posture is really a matter of self-respect.

HEART THROBS

MIAMI HERALD

The American people are often accused of being cold-blooded and hard-hearted. As a matter of fact they are mushily sentimental, as they demonstrate every little while.

The two items of news which have attracted the most attention in the past few days had to do with the efforts to bring anti-toxin to the far north city of Nome where a diphtheria epidemic was under way, and the efforts to release from the cave where he was imprisoned, a man who had been caught by a falling rock. From the standpoint of world events, neither of these incidents was of sufficient importance to justify more than a few lines of space.

In spite of this fact, the stories caught the attention of the people and brought to the surface oceans of sentiment. The sob-writers did their best, or worst, and the public responded nobly. The whole nation was stirred up as it would not have been by any very important piece of commercial or political news.

COMMANDMENTS FOR WIVES

TAMPA TRIBUNE

John Korchendorfer is a magistrate in the city of New York. Thousands of domestic ships pass through his court headed for the rocks. Often he puts the skipper on the right course.

He writes an article for this week's Collier's which he calls "The Commandments For Young Wives." Inasmuch as the ten are just a little different from the usual advice to married couples, we reproduce them:

- First. Don't commit indiscretions that lay you open to suspicion of gray things.
Second. Don't treat your husband as if he were omnipotent and then complain later because he believes it himself.
Third. Don't sing the praises of other woman's husbands, suggesting how much more generous they are than your husband.

As Brisbane Sees It

Wall Street Gave and Took. The Prophet Cheers Up. The Place for Big Dogs. Russia Is So Uncourtly. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

"TOM" LAWSON, author of "Frenzied Finance," and an active figure in much frenzied finance of his own, was buried close to the magnificent estate that he once owned. Wall Street took it away from him.

WHEN HE was sixteen he made $40,000 in Wall Street. In twenty years of Wall Street life, he made forty millions of dollars and Wall Street took it back.

The old croupier at Monte Carlo's gambling house said to this writer long ago: "We don't have to worry about profits. While they have money the strangers stay and gamble or spend it in our hotels. When they haven't any more money they go. The money stays with us."

THE UNFORTUNATE prophet of doom is feeling better, although the world did not end when he said it would.

He has several excuses. Flashlights of photographers interfered with the Divine powers. That seems strange when you consider the number of flashing lights existing in this universe.

Also the moon's eclipse on Wednesday and the very heavy Long Island fog proved that the world very nearly ended.

BEST OF all, Reidt, who sold his potatoes, his Ford car and little hut, thinking he wouldn't need them any more, need shed no tears. The notoriety the newspapers have given him will enable him to buy a bigger house, a bigger car and fill his cellar with potatoes. There is nothing like advertising.

IT IS DENIED that Balto, magnificent Siberian wolfhound, leader in the dog team that carried the anti-toxin to Nome, is dead. Some of the dogs had their lungs frozen. All the blood in their bodies could not sufficiently heat the air that entered their lungs.

BUT THE heroism of that particular dog is no excuse for the stupidity that keeps wolfhounds, dangerous sometimes to their owners, and nearly always dangerous to others, in crowded cities.

YOU NOTICE that some of our biggest and most prosperous "best minds" have always been bitter toward the government of Russia.

OUR "LEADING minds" are intelligent. They know what is good for them and what isn't. Yesterday's news from Russia, told of seven men who had been sentenced to death, merely for grafting, on an extensive scale at the expense of the public and treacherously selling out their government.

A NATION doing that sort of thing, of course, doesn't please certain "leading minds" in America. For instance, those who engineered the matter of the naval oil supplies. And it does not please those that would deprive the United States of adequate air defense, because some steel men and the oil men want the profits from big battleships.

SECRETARY WEEKS seems to discover in the demand for an adequate air defense some reflection on General Pershing, or other able generals. That is imaginary. To say that a family needs an automobile is not to reflect upon the old family coachman. He was a good coachman, all honor to him. But the coachman is out of date. What you want now is a good chauffeur. And to hire one is no insult to the good old coachman.

BATTLESHIPS, and regiments of soldiers, crawling like ants over the ground are out of date. What the nation wants is fighting air machines.

PETER GARRETSON, of Paterson, celebrates his ninetieth birthday on Sunday. Sixty years ago the life insurance people didn't want to insure him. He was "a poor risk." And the insurance people told him so.

Thereupon Mr. Garretson did more thinking and less eating, gave up the insurance idea and lived to ninety.

As Senator Copeland, who is also a doctor, says: "Half of what you eat keeps you alive, the other half keeps the doctors alive." The figures might be changed thusly: Forty per cent of what you eat keeps you alive, 50 per cent keeps the doctor alive and ten per cent keeps the undertaker going.

FASHION CAN do what other things can't do. For instance, the fashion in short skirts has made fashionable restaurants and night dancing resorts in London cut down the heights of tables and chairs. It is impossible for women with skirts up to their knees to sit gracefully, not to say modestly, at the regulation high table. So the legs are cut off.

"NO LUCK"

DAN DOBBS

They say snuff may be useful in society again. Last, an end to petting politics.

The arguments over laws show we do more industries than we do do.

In Berlin, a doctor moving a double chin. He's paid. Two chins are more than one.

Don't strain your eyes late at night. Take care. Skirts will be shorter than one.

Skirts will have to be lighter. They couldn't be lighter out walking on crutches.

A skirt is a garment. Ways show to be too short, too tight or too wide.

Perhaps this liberation of snuff is a protection. It's a great little chap.

Huge packing plant in London, Ind., burned. As a result, it smelled like a brides cooking.

Australopithecus Africa name a London scientist what he calls the missing member it, please.

MASSES AND INTELLIGENCE

PROVIDENCE NEWS

"What is Civilization Doing to Mankind?" was the subject of an address by Albert Edward Wiggan, New York biologist, before the National Civic Federation in session at Boston. We have great respect for Mr. Wiggan, a very able man, but it seems to us that he has fallen into some serious errors.

He finds that American college graduates are not rearing large families and because of this he expresses a fear that in six generations Americans holding college degrees will have virtually died out and that this great country of ours will be without competent leaders.

Mr. Wiggan went on to assert that American intelligence is on the decline. The fallacy of such a statement is apparent when one passes to consider the marvelous network of schools in this country.

"It is only the unsuccessful that have success," added Mr. Wiggan. "The successful are committing race suicide." As a matter of fact, there is a host of successful men in every walk of life who have reared and are rearing large families.

SELLING CHURCH SEATS

ST. PETERSBURG INDEPENDENT

How to handle the crowds attending the church services in St. Petersburg has long been a problem that local pastors and church officers have been trying to solve, and various ways have been suggested, the latest being to sell reserved seats in the main body of the church.

Many people are certain to disapprove of the plan, but there appears to be no really good reason why it should not be put into effect. It is not anything new. Pews have been sold in many churches in many cities during all time, and here in St. Petersburg reserved seats have been sold for special occasions in churches.

Dr. Campbell Morgan delivered Bible lectures here in previous years reserved seats were sold so that busy people who desired to hear the fine addresses would be able to do so without having to go to the church an hour before the lecture began.

St. Petersburg churches have a peculiar problem. There are many people here who have nothing in particular to do and to whom time means little. They can go to church at 10 o'clock in the morning just as well as at 10:45. They do go at 10 o'clock and get the best seats in the auditorium.

LOVELY VALENTINE BRIDGE PARTY GIVEN THURSDAY BY MRS. POTTER

Lovely in every detail was the Valentine bridge party, given by Mrs. W. W. Potter Thursday afternoon at her home on Main Street. As a courtesy to her sister, Miss Helen O'Meara and Miss Bernice Dalton of Jackson, Mich.

The Valentine suggestions were attractively carried out by the use of red radiance roses, hearts and red sweet peas which were artistically arranged throughout the flower floor. The tables were valentines in unusual designs. Candelabra hearts were served at each table.

Mrs. J. D. Woodruff met the guests at the door. Mrs. B. D. Caswell passed the tallies and the guests were escorted to their places by Mrs. E. W. Potter.

A silver tray was won by Mrs. R. S. Holly for high score. Mrs. Samuel Puleston for second high score was awarded a black lustre vase and Mrs. Richard Brown won the cut prize, tea napkins. The honorees were each presented silk lingerie.

The following program has been planned for the musical tea which is to be given Saturday by the service unit of the Woman's Guild of the Holy Cross Church at the home of Mrs. B. F. Whitner.

RECOGNITION OF WAR BRAVERY IS LATE FOR MEANS

Colorado Senator Has Just Been Cited For Gallantry In Spanish-American War; Made Good Record In A. E. F.

By HARRY B. HUNT
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Senator Rice W. Means of Denver, Colo., is a gallant gentleman.

His gallantry was proved back in the Spanish-American War, in 1898. After 27 years, the War Department is issuing the official citation recognizing his gallant conduct.

Simultaneously, a citation for gallantry by Maj. Gen. Franklin Bell is awarded.

Bell, like Means, won his award by bravery in action during the war with Spain. But he died before the 27 years needed to decide on the citation had expired. The silver star, material token of the award, goes to his widow.

One cannot help but wonder whether, had Means not won election to the United States Senate, his citation would have come during his lifetime.

Did his election to the Senate, we wonder, single him out for special attention and thus speed up recognition of his act?

As a civilian soldier Means has no mean record. In the Philippine campaign of 1898, in connection with which he now is cited for gallantry, he won two recommendations for the Congressional Medal of Honor, was three times "mentioned in orders" and was promoted from the ranks to a commission.

As a member of the Colorado National Guard he twice won the state trophy for being the best drilled soldier in that organization.

In the World War he was lieutenant colonel and commandant of the Fortieth Division School of Arms, and later commanded the Fourth Infantry in the Meuse-Arnonne offensive.

Magnus Johnson's charges that he was beaten for re-election by the bootlegger of Minnesota has not created much of a stir here.

Conceding the fact that bootleggers are in better standing with many members of the Senate than is the pugnacious Farm-Labor senator, it is still true that the charges brought by Johnson against Representative Thomas D. Schall, senator-elect, are hardly convincing.

Certainly, on their face, they set up no such formidable case as was brought against Senator Earl B. Mayfield, of Texas, whose election has just been confirmed after a long and tedious inquiry.

Briefly, Johnson charges that with "Schall's knowledge and courage are in better standing with coerced into contributing heavily to the congressman's senatorial campaign fund.

The levity with which many senators discuss the charges is indicated by the observation of one that he'd bet Schall never saw a bootlegger in his life. He wouldn't know one if he saw one."

Teacher's Meeting Is Called March 11 By State Supervisor

S. Cawthon of all county superintendents of public instruction and members of county school boards. The first session will begin at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 11.

The program will consist of reports of committees and of informal increased State School Support: A. B. Johnson, Orlando; F. S. Hartfield, Tallahassee; C. H. Quincy; R. S. Blanton, Clearwater; Charles M. Fisher, Miami.

State Salary Schedule for Teachers: T. W. Yarbrough, Sarasota; T. C. Simms, Madison; J. A. Youngblood, West Palm Beach; H. G. Shealey, Ocala; D. H. Moore, Tallahassee.

The Selection of County Superintendents: Wm. Tyler, Hainesport; G. E. Wilbur, Jacksonville; W. R. Torrell, Oklawaha; E. R. Simmons, Gainesville; E. B. O'Brien, Dade City.

The Certification of Teachers: George W. Marks, DeLand; J. W. Burns, Lake City; W. M. Scroggs, Monticello; Mrs. Alice Shelburne, Titusville; L. D. Hathaway, Brooksville.

"It is earnestly hoped," says Superintendent Lowthum, "that every county superintendent in the state will attend this meeting and that every county school board will be represented."

Editorials Should Be Signed Says W. J. Bryan

MIAMI, Feb. 13.—Newspaper editorials should be signed by the writers, declares William Jennings Bryan. In speaking before the local chapter of the League of American Pen Women, H. Mr. Bryan expressed the opinion that writers should have the courage to affix their names to their work and not hide behind blank spaces. If signed editorials had been published, he said adding that he had "no faith in the so-called independent newspapers." Such papers are usually a fraud, consciously or unconsciously, Mr. Bryan said.

NEW RULE FOR PRISON CAMP NOW IN FORCE

Commissioner Of Agriculture To Handle Escapes And Recaptures; Other Changes

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 13.—Several new regulations have been adopted by the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions governing the handling of state prisoners, and authorization given for full time employment of a detainer to look after detainer work among prisoners at state road camps, at a salary of $2,000 a year. The changes, made at the suggestion of Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo, provide for better care of property turned in by prisoners arriving at the state farm, and simplify the handling of escapes and recaptures.

The commissioner pointed out to the board that when a prisoner is transferred from the state farm to the state road camp all his property goes with him; that in a great majority of cases the clothes which he had when he came to prison, together with his other property, including money, are gone when he is discharged and all he has is the $10 which the state pays him as a discharge fee; that there is no place at a road camp for taking care of either money or other property.

Under the new rules all property of a prisoner will remain at the state farm, under supervision of a specified custodian, whose duty it will be to take charge of the property and see that it is carefully preserved and that when prisoners are discharged their belongings will be mailed to them in care of the road camp.

Hereafter all escapes and recaptures will be handled by the office of the commissioner of agriculture and the board of state institutions, which will pay all rewards and other expenses incident to returning escapes when recaptured and billing the road department for its part of the expense, thereby reimbursing the state prison fund for monies paid out for escapes from the road camps.

Commissioner Mayo, in recommending adoption of this method, told the board members that the method used heretofore of returning escapes to the road camps had proven very unsatisfactory and that the state prison fund for the past three and one-half years had paid for all advertising of escapes from road camps, amounting to approximately $5,000, which, in his opinion, should be paid by the road department.

The amount of reward also was changed for the capture of escapes, the figure being reduced from the present $100 to $25. "It has been the custom in the past, it is understood, to advertise the $100 reward, according to statute, but out of this the captors must bear the expense of getting the captive back to the camp from which he esaped. The new plan, it is said, contemplates paying a flat reward of $25 and the state will send after the man, bearing the expenses. This is considered a more effective plan than the method used in the past, and will, it is believed, result in bringing back a greater number of escapes.

Mackay, a mountain town of Idaho, has two water supplies—a cold spring for summer use and a piping-hot volcanic hot-water stream for winter.

Will Begin Taking Census In Florida Counties Next Week

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 13.—The commissioner of agriculture is placing stress in instructions going out to census enumerators on a definition of "inhabitant" in an effort to have an accurate count made of the people of the state in the census-taking that begins next week. The census law requires him to make an enumeration of "all inhabitants of the several counties," the commissioner points out, and then goes into details as to whom shall be included under this heading.

"An inhabitant is not necessarily a legal resident or voter, but at the same time every person who happens to be in the state at the time of the census is not regarded as an inhabitant. For the purpose of the census an inhabitant is defined as a person who dwells or resides permanently in a place, regardless of citizenship, and who is continuously in the place for a certain period of time. A resident who spends at least one month here, or has more than the intention of person changes more than twice a year is entitled to be included in the regular occupational

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Elizabeth was in a pouty mood.

And when Henry inquired the cause of her peevishness, she said, "Here I have run around with you for a year, and we have been good friends, indeed; don't you think it is time to think of getting me a diamond?" He had thought of it, but had postponed the event.

Then, a bright smile spread over his face, and he let his gaze rest on her frail, fair figure. She held her breath waiting his words, which she knew would bring comfort and joy.

"Lizzie," he said (and he had not used that endearing term before), "it was perfectly proper for you to remind me of that. I will do as you ask, and even more." And his finely chiseled hand lifted the receiver from the desk telephone, and he spoke into the transmitting department of the same.

"Hello," he said eagerly, "is this Wight Bros. Co.? Well, I want a Diamond Tire for Lizzie. But say—make it four, one on each wheel, and bring them up in your service car. You know the size. Yes Diamonds."

And after that Henry and Lizzie traveled on air as the poet would deftly state in the case.

RETURN MATCH IS WELCOMED BY (BIG) MUNN

Huge Nebraska Grappler Is For First Time Getting "Real" Money in Bout

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 13.—About $5,000 proceed of his first match as titleholder with Stanislaus Zhyzko last night, will be very welcome to Wayne (Big) Munn, champion heavyweight wrestler, his manager, Gabriel Kaufman said today.

Munn, he said, had been able to realize little from his skill as a wrestler, until he recently defeated Ed "Strangler" Lewis for the title. He had, his manager explained, eked out "a hand to mouth" existence for nine months in Kansas City, awaiting an opportunity and hoping that wrestling would some time pay him in proportion to the merit he believed he possessed.

Munn, Kaufman said, would receive about 25 per cent of the $20,000 gate receipts of last night's match. He and six other wrestlers who appeared in preliminary matches, will obtain 60 per cent, the manager stated. Munn obtained but a small part of the "gate" in the Lewis match.

Offers had begun to come in for other matches today and the former Nebraska football player has announced that he will meet all challengers as "fast as I can get to them."

He is scheduled to meet Mike Romano Feb. 18 in Chicago and to wrestle the winner of a tournament which will begin in Cleveland about that time, his manager said.

Golf Tournament Gets Early Start On English Course

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The 1925 tournament season in British golf began almost with the start of the new year, the Oxford and Cambridge Golfing Society inaugurating it at Rye with their annual competition for the president's putter. This was won by H. D. Gillies, middle-aged native of New Zealand, who bowled over both Cyril Tolley and Sir Ernest Holderness on the last day of the competition. Holderness, the amateur champion, had won the putter on four previous occasions.

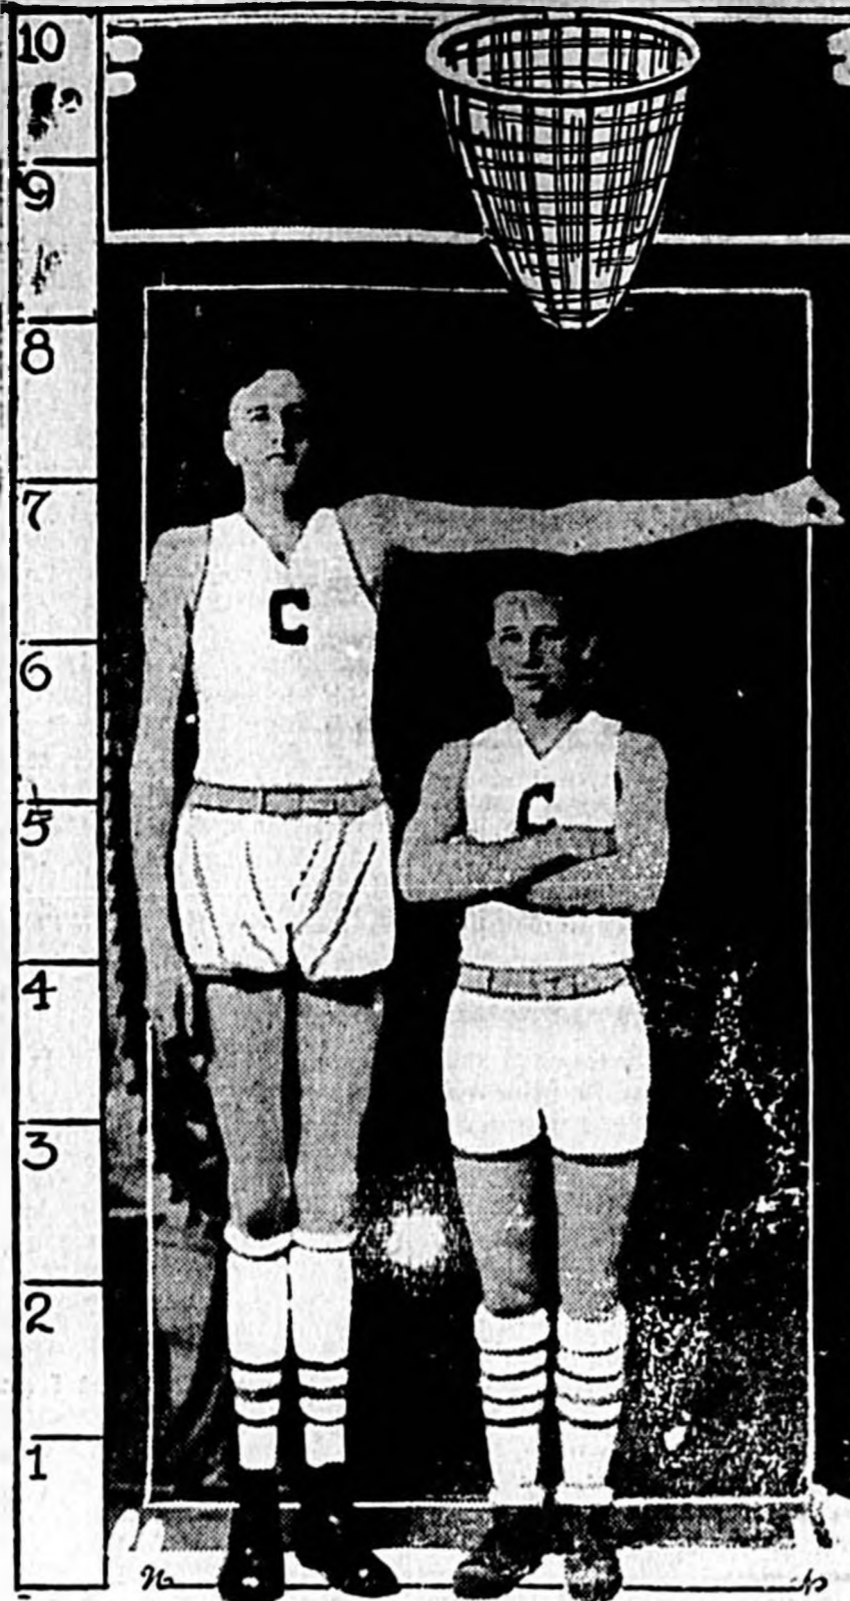

The Oxford and Cambridge Society embraces only ex-students of the two ancient universities, but most of the amateurs who have attained greatness in Britain are members. This indicates "how much golf has remained a 'gentleman's game' in England, no matter how safe it has been made for democracy. Indeed, every amateur champion since 1919 has been an Oxford man. Storey, runner up in last year's championship, is a Cambridge student.

Thousands of persons who are not "gentlemen" in the restricted sense of that term as used in English sport play golf, of course. But few of them, apparently, have the leisure to become brilliant experts.

Divorces are more numerous in the western states where women are scarce, than in the eastern states where women outnumber the men.

A new gooseberry as large as a plum has been discovered in the woods of Northern Florida, a region where gooseberries have never before been known to grow.

Here's Basketball Giant

Presenting George Kennedy, claimed to be the tallest basketball center in the game. George stands 7 feet 10 inches, and is a member of the Chillumet (Mo.) Business College quintet. Appearing with Kennedy is Captain Howard, a six-footer, who stacks up as a midjet beside the giant pivot man.

ETHEL LACKIE MAKES RECORD IN 100 YARDS

Becomes New Woman Champion in National Swimming Contest At St. Augustine

ST AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 13.—The third day's racing of the National swimming championships produced a new national women's champion at the one hundred yards event.

Ethel Lackie, of Chicago, who won the 100-metres event at last summer's Olympics at Paris, is the new titleholder at the century distance. Out to retrieve herself after losing two gruelling races this week for championship honors at the 50 and 255 yards distances, the Illinois Club girl swam a race against some of those who have proven themselves to be leaders in the championships.

The four hundred yards relay was won by the first team of the woman swimming association of New York in four minutes and 34 seconds. The winning team comprised Gertrude Ederle, Aileen Riggin, Adelaide Lambert and Helen Wainwright. The W. S. A. second team won the second place in the relay in the Detroit Yacht club of Detroit, the third and Tampa Athletic club team of Tampa fourth.

In a 120 yards free style event Adelaide Lambert of New York established a new national record of one minute and 25 seconds flat for the distance. Margaret Ravior of Philadelphia, finished second and Frances Clark of Philadelphia third.

Religion Fails To Keep Men Out Of Penal Institutions

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12.—Surveys among prisoners in the Los Angeles county jail indicate that there is something wrong with present educational and religious methods in the opinion of Raymond J. Turner, director of the Los Angeles Crime Commission. He expressed this view at a recent meeting of the Southern California Academy of Criminology.

Seven per cent of the inmates of the county jail, Mr. Turner said, were college graduates, as against 6 1/2 per cent in ordinary civil life; 12 1/2 per cent of the prisoners had college training; 45 per cent were high school graduates, compared with 25 per cent outside the walls.

All the prisoners agreed, added Mr. Turner, that there had been a lack of moral training and a defect of character-building training in the schools, and that the same thing was true of the religions, a majority of which were represented.

Mr. Turner declared that most of the prisoners concurred in the belief that habitual criminals should not be allowed to bring children into the world. All believed in punishment, he continued, but favored institutions where prisoners could be employed in producing some commodity.

You never tasted such rich mellowness as Wellman's method puts in this tobacco

An almost forgotten old tobacco secret, "Wellman's Method," dating from about 1870 and now ours exclusively, is responsible for the delightful taste of Granger Rough Cut—its mildness and its appetizing fragrance. And notice also the coarser "Rough Cut"—slower-burning, and therefore cooler. Here truly is a pipe tobacco that IS pipe tobacco!

If she only knew that she could put on at least 5 pounds of good healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face, hollow cheeks and neck and run down looks. She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before. Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing vitamins that make flesh, creates appetite, restores vigor, builds up the power to resist disease and chases away nervousness. But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it for doctor's are prescribing and the people are fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which Bower's Pharmacy, Dean's Pharmacy and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for. It is a wonderful upbuilding medicine for skinny, backward children, especially after sickness and 60 tablets only cost 60 cents. One woman gained 10 pounds in 32 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 day your druggist will gladly return the purchase price. But be sure and get McCoy's original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablet. Adv.
