We've read about it, now we've seen it happen. An impatient driver had stopped behind another car waiting for a red light to change. It did. The lead car still sat there momentarily. The driver of the second car bore down on the horn. Slowly, the lead car motorist got out of his car, walked back to the second and asked him if he wanted to speak with him. The burn turned to a grin and both cars left the intersection of Park and First.

Note to our readers: The name of this new bank is United State (not States) Bank of Seminole. The interest in this new institution has been tremendous. Everybody wanted to get a piece of it and there just aren't enough shares to go around.

You can put your name in the pot though, and if any of the original subscribers doesn't come up with the cash on the barrelhead when the money is called in, you still might be able to pick up a few shares.

It's so sad to see so many of the plants along First Street and Park Avenue dying. Without nature's help in the form of rain they just don't survive long. A few buckets of water sure would help.

FULL HOUSE at the Ritz Theater this morning when the first of 10 weekly shows was held for youngsters in the area. Six bottle caps of a Nehi soft drink, or 35 cents, entitled the child to admission to the theater. The theater management said an estimated 800 youngsters were on hand this morning to see the Three Stooges in "Around the World in a Daze."

School Board Approves New SHS Shop Building

Members of the Seminole County Board of Instruction approved the recently completed shop building at Seminole High School during the group's monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon. Board members inspected the new structure and voted to accept it.

The board heard C. W. Matten, a television engineer from Orlando, recommend that central antenna systems be used to convert TV sets throughout the county school system for reception of UHF programming over the educational television station now being constructed.

The board could call for the use of strip tuners on each VHF set but there is some question as to quality of UHF reception in certain areas and even in certain sections of a school plant.

Matten estimated that the cost of individual set tuning strips would be about $25 to $30 each for the 120 VHF only sets now utilized in the Seminole system. On the other hand, he said the cost of the central antenna system, one for each school, would be an estimated $50,000.

Central systems, said Matten, would guarantee adequate UHF reception by each set, regardless of where the school was located or in what section of the school plant a set would be situated.

Also, the board authorized the installation of direct telephone line to South Seminole which would allow toll free communication between the school system's offices and schools, plus residents in that area.

The cost of the line was estimated at $60 to $70 per month. But this amount, Supt. R. T. Milwee said, would be less than the cost of present toll charges on long distance calls between the Sanford offices and schools located in the southern area of the county.

SSDC Raises Dividend To 60 Cents A Share

Sanford Seminole Development Company directors today voted a dividend of 60 cents per share to their stockholders.

The dividend, which reflects a six per cent return on capital investments in the corporation, will be distributed July 1, President Clifford McKibbin said.

This year's dividend is nearly double that declared last year, which paid stockholders 35 cents per share.

Since the formation of the company in July, 1961, two industrial plants have been financed and built, and several other plants have been assisted in securing capital from commercial sources, McKibbin noted.

At the present time there are no industrial plants available and the company is in a position to provide buildings for industry in the county.

Officers are now negotiating with several prospects, the report to the stockholders stated.

New Area Signs Are Described

The huge billboards which will advertise "Sanford and Seminole County on the St. Johns River, Nile of America," approved recently by the promotions committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, will be in light lettering on a dark background as a result of the committee's action in a meeting this morning.

The word "Sanford" plus some other information on the signs will be in bright, white "Scottish" lettering — the most highly reflective type of lettering now available — and will make the signs just as effective at night as they will be during the day.

The signs, 12 feet high by 40 feet in length are to be placed at seven strategic locations throughout Florida. The contract to be negotiated with the Harbour Outdoor Advertising Company of Orlando will be on a three-year basis. The contract will actually call for 10 signs. However, highways on which the other three billboards are to be placed are not yet constructed. When they are the signs will be erected. They will cost $50 per month.

Water Request Deadline Set

Deadline for applications for water from the new Midway-Canaan Water Association, Inc., will be next Monday, Earl E. Williams, association president, announced today. Later applications will carry a penalty.

Government loan for construction of a water system and plant in the area has been approved through cooperation of Farmer's Home Administration in the amount of $93,655, Williams advised.

Applications may be made at the Dixon Building on Sipes Avenue from 4 until 7 p.m. weekdays and from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. on Saturday. Cost has been set at $20 per application, $12 for water connection and $8 for meter deposit.

Youth Held

OCALA (UPI)—Keith Elvis Ward, 20, of Leesburg, was in Marion county jail here today in lieu of $1,500 bond on a federal charge of embezzling money from the Citizens National Bank of Leesburg. Ward is a bookkeeper at the bank.

Rover Will Rove As Proud As Punch

Get Him A City Dog Tag Thursday

Thursday is tag day for all Sanford dogs which do not yet have their city licenses. Veterinarian Dr. Raymond Bass will set up headquarters behind City Hall for the purpose of giving rabies inoculations and issuing licenses. Inoculations cost $3 and tags, $1. "After Thursday, all dogs within the city limits, not having tags will be picked up and impounded," said City Manager W. E. Knowles.

Impounded animals are kept ten days and if not claimed are then destroyed. Dog owners can avoid both the loss of their pets and the dangers of rabies by taking advantage of the opportunity to have their animals properly inoculated and tagged.

Rabid animals are a great danger to humans, to themselves and to other animals, as rabies is fatal if untreated. Domestic pets can pick up the disease from wild animals who are often carriers and transmitters of the disease, Knowles said.

Animals suspected of being rabid should not be killed, but should be penned up and watched for 10 days to determine if they are indeed rabid. Persons bitten by a rabid animal must of necessity undergo prolonged and serious treatment with anti-rabies serum.

REVVING UP for takeoff from the Sanford Naval Air Station was this pilot of the Vigilante, the sleek aircraft assigned to Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5. The squadron is being deployed for duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Pacific Theater and will operate from the attack carrier, USS Ranger.

First RVAH-5 Vigilantes Off For Pacific

Four sleek new RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bombers took off today from the Sanford Naval Air Station, bound for the Pacific Fleet and a history-making deployment aboard the attack carrier USS Ranger.

The remainder, two more RA-5Cs, will follow tomorrow as Reconnaissance Attack Squadron Five (RVAH-5) becomes the first unit to deploy at sea with the famed "J" aircraft and the first East Coast unit in recent times to deploy aboard an aircraft carrier in the Pacific Fleet.

Today's four-plane flight was scheduled to arrive at the Alameda (Calif.) Naval Air Station in the early afternoon for loading aboard the 1,100-foot Ranger. A large assembly of Navy officials and civic leaders, many seeing the needle-nosed Vigilante for the first time, was expected to greet the airmen.

Meanwhile, transports are flying to squadron's 270 support personnel to Alameda to join the ship.

RVAH-5's final destination, after preliminary at-sea operations, will be the Far East, where the Ranger will operate with the U. S. Seventh Fleet for about nine months.

RVAH-5 is commanded by Commander Paul F. Werner, a 20-year veteran of Naval aviation and test and development work. He is scheduled to fly one of the two planes leaving Thursday.

This is the first time in modern Naval history that combat air units have "traded" fleets. Last month Heavy Attack Squadron Six, based at Whidbey Island, Wash., boarded the carrier Forrestal in Norfolk, Va., for operations in the Atlantic and deployment with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Prior to joining the Forrestal, Heavy Six often operated from the Ranger. By the same token, RVAH-5 served with the Forrestal air group before transitioning to the Vigilante.

For the first time the Fleet will have an aircraft which can perform complex reconnaissance missions and deliver weapons in any weather, at supersonic speeds. Both missions can be performed on the same sortie.

To avoid duplication of RA-5C support facilities, all training and staging for the Vigilante is being conducted at the Sanford Station.

From Sanford, RA-5C squadrons will join carriers of both fleets and operate on both sides of the world simultaneously.

Red Guerrillas Beaten Back Near Capital

DUC HOA, Viet Nam (UPI)—Government troops inflicted the biggest defeat of the year on Communist Viet Cong guerrillas today in fighting so close to the capital city of Saigon that residents there were awakened by the sound of gunfire.

A handful of government defenders beat back the guerrilla attack only 12 miles from the outskirts of Saigon in bitter house to house fighting.

The sounds of battle could be heard in the capital as government artillerymen fired hundreds of rounds at the guerrillas who had captured all but one small portion of their district headquarters in their biggest attack in months.

Vietnamese military authorities estimate that nearly 900 Communist troops were thrown into the attack on this town defended by a scattered force of 140 government soldiers.

Considering the government defenses and the size of the attacking force, American military advisors said the guerrillas had been assured of an almost certain victory.

But, as one American officer said, "somebody threw something into the balance the Viet Cong had not expected—guns."

Estimates of Communist guerrilla casualties exceeded 50, and the bullet-riddled corpses of 13 guerrillas remained as testimony that the Viet Cong could not carry away all their dead.

The Viet Cong generally make almost superhuman efforts to carry off the bodies of fallen comrades.

Government losses in the action were placed at 15 dead and 34 wounded.

GOODYBY FOR NOW says Cdr. W. R. Russell, executive officer of Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5 as he prepared to board his Vigilante for deployment to the Pacific Fleet. He's holding his son, Jimmy, 4, as he chats with Mrs. Russell who will remain home at 204 Ridge Rd. (Herald Photo)

SNAS Busy Place As Vigilantes Depart

By Harry F. Johnson

The bulletin board declared portions of Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5 would be deployed at 0800 today for duty in the Pacific Theater.

Long before the appointed hour, crews were scurrying around the aircraft, sleek, new RA-5C Vigilantes, readying them for the flight to Alameda, Calif.

Ground crews checked out all phases of the ships. The VAH-5 ready-room was occupied by the flight crews, dressed in bright orange uniforms.

Most drank coffee, discussed the flight in detail with their commanding officer, Cdr. Paul F. Werner. They checked the flight map posted on a wall, noted the in-air refueling rendezvous areas (there were two of them, Cdr. Werner said, because the aircraft was loaded with extra gear, supplies and fuel).

The men knew they were leaving the home base of Sanford Naval Air Station in a historic first from here; the first squadron to be joined with the Pacific Fleet.

They were dead serious. Kidding was reserved for those not going. The coffee cups were kept full by briefing room aides.

The bulletin board said flight time was 0800. That's when they left.

And the Navy didn't forget its public relations program. Radio, television and newspaper persons were on hand for the occasion. They chatted with the men, walked around the planes, returned to the ready room and joined in the coffee break.

Television pictures, planned to appear on tonight's newscasts, were shot from all angles. Newspaper photographers

MIAMI (UPI)—The parents of a nine-week-old boy were arrested last night after a doctor said it looked as if someone had tried to cut the arms off the child.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Walker of Miami, were charged with aggravated assault against the child.

Crew To Stay Under Water Three Weeks

NEW LONDON, Conn. — (UPI) — A pioneer project in which four men will live and work under water for three weeks will be placed in operation July 8, according to the Navy.

Officials said that a small task force of specialists has already arrived on the small island of Bermuda where the experiment will take place under the direction of Capt. George F. Bond.

The four men will live aboard Sea Lab, a 40-foot cigar-shaped underwater laboratory, at a depth of 200 feet, the Navy said. The operation will be supported on the surface by a specially equipped barge.

The Sea Lab's controlled atmosphere will eliminate the need to surface for decompression purposes, the spokesman said.

Capt. Bond said that if the experiment is a success the way will be open for man to harvest the natural storehouse of the ocean and to gather data of military and commercial significance.

The four men who will go down in the laboratory are Chief Quartermaster Robert A. Barth of Apalachicola; Chief Hospitalman Sanders Manning of Atlanta, Ga.; Gunner's Mate 1st Lester Anderson of New London and Dr. Robert L. Thompson of Los Angeles.

Floridan Tells Of $115,000 Teamster Loan Fee Demand

CHICAGO (UPI) — A defendant in the multi-million dollar teamster pension fund fraud trial demanded a $115,000 fee before he helped arrange a $1.5 million loan from the fund, a Florida investor testified yesterday.

Irving Kipnis, a Miami Beach investor, said while his loan application was pending S. George Burris, New York accountant, first asked for a $150,000.

Kipnis said Burris then tried to persuade him to make a snap investment in a then financially troubled Florida land venture, in which the government claims teamster boss James Hoffa was involved.

Hoffa and seven associates are charged with fraudulently obtaining $25 million in loans from the union's pension fund and diverting $1.7 million of the amount to their own uses.

Another witness, Carl Langford, an Orlando, building contractor, testified he found the Sun Valley Inc., Florida, land project had $600,000 in liabilities. He had been named in May, 1959, as a trustee to reorganize the venture.

Langford testified he told Samuel Hyman, Miami Beach, one of the defendants, it would take about $500,000 to haul out the Sun Valley project.

Another defendant, Benjamin Drano, Minneapolis, Minn., told Langford he was interested in rehabilitating the project or selling it for a profit, Langford testified.

2 Appeals By Peel Denied

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Former West Palm Beach judge Joseph Peel Jr. convicted in 1961 of masterminding the double murder of Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth, was denied appeals on two life sentences by the Supreme Court Monday. The high court refused to review the District Court of Appeals decision which upheld Peel's sentences. No opinions were written. Peel was once a city judge with aspirations to become governor. He pleaded no contest in his trial for the double slaying, and was sentenced to life imprisonment on both counts. Two hired killers, Floyd "Lucky" Holzapfel and George "Bobby" Lincoln were implicated. Holzapfel pleaded guilty and was sentenced to die in the electric chair. His appeal for clemency is pending. Lincoln, granted immunity for confessing and cracking the case, is now free.

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Stenstrom

Training sessions are getting underway this week for the various clubs in the Florida Rookie League...

There will be seven teams. The Minnesota Twins, New York Mets and the Houston Colt's will have rookie teams based at Chicago while the New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago White Sox and a joint Detroit-Milwaukee team will be located at Sarasota.

The season is to open July 1 and will close September 1. A 60-game schedule will be played. There will be at least one game played each day in Cocoa and also in Sarasota.

Dave Philley, former major leaguer who has been piloting Houston's farm club at Statesville, N. C. in the Western Carolina League, will manage the Colt rookie club at Cocoa. Rudy York, another former, but well known major leaguer, will take over the reins at Statesville.

Due to a time factor we're weren't able to report Monday night's results in the South Seminole Little and Senior Leagues. But here they are: In the Little League, Lake Mary downed Altamonte's Senators 5 to 4. In the Senior circuit, Bear Lake romped over Longwood, 9 to 5.

Usually, the Little League games are played at 6 p. m. at Cooper Field in Casselberry Recreation Park and the Senior League tilt stars at 8 p. m.

Due to complaints by Little Leaguers that they do not get to play under the lights and their games are frequently cut short by the clock, local officials have revised the schedules so that some Senior League games will now start at 6 p. m. and be followed by Little League tilts at 8 p. m.

Good! We're glad to see it work that way. Turnstiles are spinning as the National League goes about its business of establishing new attendance records. However, the happy situation is due mainly to the New York Mets and the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Mets and Phillies are among six NL clubs which show gains in attendance from 1963. The other four clubs are running only slightly behind last season's figures.

Through June 14, a total of 4,282,287 fans had paid their way into National League parks. This means that the senior circuit can break the all-time attendance record established last season when 11,322,227 fans passed through the gates.

The Mets have already drawn better than 437,000 fans. The Phils are nearing the 478,000 mark. The Dodgers, however, are leading the loop. They've drawn over 956,000 in 30 home dates—and that's an increase of better than 108,000 over last season at this time.

A half-million dollar auto and motorcycle racing complex, to be known as Palm Beach International Raceway, has been approved by the Palm Beach County Zoning Commission. It will be located about 25 minutes from downtown West Palm Beach on SR 710. The new layout will be opened and operated by Joe Bucheck Jr. and his brother Edward.

Lee, Senkarik Hurl No-Hitters In Same LL Contest

Hunt Wins 3-0 Decision From Engineer Nine

It was bound to happen sooner or later! David Lee, ace chucker for the Locomotive Engineers, hurled his third consecutive no-hitter.

But for the second straight time Lee lost. Why? Lee ran into another top-notch moundman, Skipper Senkarik who also tossed a no-hitter and Hunt's Comets downed the Engineers 3 to 0 to move a bit closer to capturing the City Recreation Department's Little National League crown.

This was Senkarik's second no-hit performance. He's allowed only 11 hits in 10 games. It was also his fifth shutout. Only two other whitewash jobs have been posted this season—one by Lee and the other by Richard Frank of Chase.

It must have been frustrating for the Engineers. Six times they have run into the Comets and five times the Automen have registered wins. Yet the Engineers have always battled back to stay in contention. An idea of how keen the competition has been between these two clubs can be evidenced by some of the scores, 2-0, 3-1, 1-0, 3-0, etc.

Another oddity in Tuesday night's tilt was the fact that not a single ball was hit out of the infield. Senkarik struck out 15 in posting his ninth win without a loss. The unlucky Lee had whiffed 13. Senkarik fanned the last five batters he faced on just the minimum of 16 pitches. He walked none and missed a perfect game because of an error—the only batter to reach the initial sack for the Engineers.

In the Little American League, attempting to hold down second place in the loop, toppled Sanford Atlantic's Hankers 16 to 4. Randy Brister received credit for the win—his first pitching decision.

Mike Parrish backed up Brister with three hits in three trips. Andy Adcock and Gordon Bradley both had two hits each, and each had a round-tripper.

Dodgers Defeat Braves; Orioles Down White Sox

By Fred Down UPI Sports Writer Everybody knows how valuable Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale are to the Los Angeles Dodgers. But don't forget the unsung hero in the iron mask.

Johnny Roseboro has been handling the great Dodger pitchers flawlessly for the last three years. A confirmed 240-hitter, the 31-year-old catcher is the Dodgers' only .300-hitting regular at .305 and for the last 15 games has been hammering away at a .447 clip.

Roseboro swung a big stick for the Dodgers Tuesday when his two doubles played a key role in Drysdale's 5-1 victory over the Milwaukee Braves and former nemesis Warren Spahn.

Cincinnati drubbed San Francisco 9-4, Philadelphia beat Chicago 4-2, St. Louis routed Houston 7-1, and Pittsburgh nipped the Mets, 2-1, in other National League games.

In the American, Baltimore defeated Chicago, 3-1, after an 8-0 loss, New York beat Boston, 7-5, after bowing, 6-5, Cleveland topped Minnesota, 5-3, Los Angeles downed Washington, 7-5, and Kansas swept Detroit, 7-4 and 6-0.

McRaney's And Longwood Grab Softball Wins

McRaney's Painters and the Longwood nine of the Men's Slo-Pitch Softball League registered victories Tuesday night.

The Painters rapped Robb Construction by a score of 10 to 2 with Frank Williams getting credit for his seventh straight win on the mound. This gives Williams a pitching record of 13 wins and six losses for the current campaign.

L. C. Smith again was McRaney's top man at the plate with three hits, including his seventh homer of the year. Sumner also hit for the distance for the Painters.

Mike Hendry hit his sixth round tripper for Robb's and also had a double and a triple to round out his night's work at the dish.

Longwood, in winning from Wilson-Maler, 23 to 20, combined 20 hits and eight furniture errors for their runs. All together, the game produced 43 runs on 44 hits. Roy Lisk had four hits, including a home run.

John Courler and Bill Simpkins each had three hits for the winners. Art Natalini had four hits, including a home run, for Wilson-Maler. Dempsey Ayers, Tom DeFord and Doug Cooper all had three hits each. Otto Thomas got credit for the win—his ninth against a pair of losses.

Kegler League Tightens Up

Jet Lanes Keglers League is tightening up after four weeks of bowling with Wall Plumbing holding a narrow margin in first place and a three-way tie for second place is shared by the Moose Sullivan's Camera Shop and the Pick-Ups. Succeeding spots are held by Sanford Atlantic National Bank and Glass-Met.

In last week's play the Pick-Ups took the measure of Wall Plumbing by a three-to-one count as Pete Duggan blasted 293/567. The Moose took a three point decision from Glass-Met as George Tullis bombed a 858 series.

Tommy Kipp rolled 223/560 to pace the Sanford Atlantic National Bank in their match with Sullivan's Camera Service Center.

Post 53 Meets Orlando Nine Here Tonight

Post 53's Junior Legion baseball nine goes back into action tonight when they host Orlando's Post 242 in a contest slated for 7:30 at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

Skipper Frank Thomas announced this morning that ace Donnie Smith will get the mound assignment and that in all probability Rex Brooks will be behind the plate.

Billy Higgins, said Thomas, will start at first base. This will be the second time these two clubs have met this season. In the first encounter Sanford racked up a 6 to 0 decision. Thomas' nine has a record of six wins in eight games.

Shrine Wins Junior Loop 2nd Half Title

The Shrine nine of the Junior Boys League captured the second half championship Tuesday night when they romped to an 11 to 2 victory over the CPO's at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

The win gave the Shrine the right to tangle with the Elks for the City Junior Baseball title in a playoff to get underway when the regular season closes.

Steve Leach, the league's top hurler, notched his seventh win to keep his pitching slate perfect. Leach, in winning his seventh decision without a setback, limited CPO to five hits which all came in the first three frames. Bill Gracey posted three to lead the Shrine. Ron Dudley, Lefty Oxford and Leach each had two safeties to account for all of the Shrine blows.

The Junior League protest board upheld a CPO protest registered in a June 11 contest with the Kiwanians. The game will be replayed from the point of protest at a later date.

The Shrine win Tuesday night was their 10th consecutive victory during the second half of play. They have not been whipped in this half. Meanwhile, first half champs, the Elks, have been able to play only 800 baseball, winning four and losing four.

Miss Sheala Best And Alan Albers Exchange Vows In Impressive Rites

Miss Sheala Emmeline Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shealy Best of Sanford, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Albers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wilbur Yarborough of Sanford, on Sunday, June 7, 1964 at 3 p.m. at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Blavia, Oviedo.

Ronald Russel served the groom as best man and ushers were Charles Best, brother of the bride; Charlie Yarborough, brother of the groom, Roy Bradley and Tom Raynor.

The bride's mother was attired in a stunning pink chantilly lace sheath over pink taffeta with contrasting pink accessories. Her Cattleys orchid was sprayed a pink-pearl with white lace and deep pink ribbon.

The groom's mother chose an elegant gown of blue lace over taffeta with contrasting blue accessories, and her corsage was a Cattleys orchid sprayed blue with white lace and a deep aqua bow.

Following the wedding, an elaborate reception was held at St. Luke's Christian Day School. The bride's table was overlaid with an exquisite sheer lace cloth and adorned with arrangements of glads and mums.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Linda Ivey, Miss Donna Markos, Miss Bettina Vale, Miss Sheri White, Mrs. Lex Abel, Mrs. George Jakubek, Jr. and Mrs. John L. Judd, Jr.

Following the reception, the bride and groom departed for a wedding trip to the west coast with the bride attired in a smart two piece ensemble of lilac wedgewood with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Albers will reside at 601 1/2 W. Arcelliff Street in Sanford.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thurston and Brian Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Best, Jr. and Jim Best, Mr. and Mrs. Emil George, Mrs. Jay Penley and Grace Penley, Mrs. Fay Reynolds and Mrs. Mack Yarborough.

Pastor Stephen M. Tuhy of St. Luke's Lutheran Church performed the impressive candlelight double ring ceremony before an altar embanked with two altar vases and baskets containing white mums and glads.

Pastor Herbert W. Goerss of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Sanford, delivered the sermonette.

Mrs. Betty Kohany, organist, furnished the traditional nuptial hymns in the prelude and recessional, with the St. Luke's Lutheran choir presenting "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh Perfect Love."

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a formal gown of chantilly lace, featuring a scalloped neckline highlighted by iridescent sequins and pearls and traditional tapered, pointed sleeves. The voluminous skirt was accented by a matching lace chapel train. Her imported illusion veil was attached to a princess crown of pearls and lilies of the valley. The magnificent bridal bouquet was of white roses and carnations with lace and satin leaves and white orchids flowing into a cascade centered with a double orchid corsage of pale lavender.

Miss Janice Westmark served the bride as Maid of Honor. She was attired in white stockied nylon featuring a lavender taffeta cummerbund with lavender panels accenting the gown back with scalloped necklines and sleeves. Her veil was attached to a princess crown of white satin. She carried a lavish bouquet of lavender carnations, from which descended crescents of flowing carnations with lace and lavender satin leaves complemented with a shower of pale lavender satin ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Jane Miller, Janice Westmark, Ann Slavik and Nyleene Albers, with Linda Duda as junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical to the Maid of Honor, and their nosegays were similar in design.

Little Miss Honnie Moon of Oviedo, was her Cousin's flower girl attired in a similar gown to the bride's and carrying a basket of pastel petals.

MRS. DEWAYNE ALAN ALBERS

His And Her Garden Club Of Chuluota Ends Season

"All of Florida is south of all of California," Dr. Philip J. Westgate, horticulturist, Central Florida Experiment Station, Sanford, told the members of the His and Her Garden Club recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe C. Morrison in Chuluota.

"Florida is not in the temperate zone," he said, "but on the borderline between the temperate and the tropical. We do have occasional frosts and tropicals such as mangoes are hurt. For that reason it is necessary to cross plants from north of Florida with those from south of Florida and from other countries, to produce a variety which does well here."

Dr. Westgate illustrated his talk with slides showing dewberries, blackberries, peaches, grapes, nectarines, the Seminole cantaloupe, several varieties of endive and lettuce, rhubarb, the new FloraLoo tomato, a cross between a Florida tomato and one from Louisiana, and the Nugget sweet potato, all of which have been developed at the experiment station and which do well here.

At the business meeting, the club welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Webb as new members. Mrs. Roy Hughes who moved into the community recently, was a guest.

Following this meeting the club will recess for the months of July, August and September. Members wished "bon voyage" to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Broeker and to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Zimmer, who are leaving next week for extended vacations.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please explain this one. My father is 62, a college graduate and has been in business for 27 years. We live in a $55,000 home in the suburbs. Since President Johnson started turning off the lights in the White House, my father has gone on an economic kick with our lights at home. When we leave the house all the lights are turned out, and when we come back it is so dark we can hardly see our way into the driveway. If one of us leaves a room for even five minutes, if we don't turn off the light we hear about it. We are allowed to burn a light only in the room where we are, and we have to go feeling our way around the house. I believe in being conservative—but this is ridiculous. What to do?

of which in the bird kingdom is the more beautiful, the male or the female? In southwestern Canada you will find the PHALAROPE. The male is dull and rather colorless, but the female has beautiful, brilliant feathers and a white rump. The female does the courting, lays the eggs and then departs to find herself another mate while the abandoned male is left sitting on the eggs. C. R. M.

him up to take me home. I have begged, pleaded, threatened to leave him and cried, but nothing works. I've tried to get him to see a doctor, but he says he likes himself the way he is, and wouldn't take anything to keep him awake if he were offered it. It is like living with a dead man. Oh, what's the use? I should have left him years ago. RIP VAN WINKLE'S WIFE

DEAR C. R. M.: I am familiar with the bird. We have a lot of them out here in Southern California.

DEAR ABBY: If you still have the name and address of that young girl who complained because her boyfriend fell asleep every chance he had, for heaven's sake, please tell her to drop him and forget him! I have been married for 33 years to a man who falls asleep the minute he sits down. He is not ashamed to fall asleep in church, at the theatre or even while we are entertaining guests in our home. Every time I look at him he is asleep. We have been places where the liveliest party is going on, and I always have to wake

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

South won the first trick with dummy's ace of spades. After a pause to study the play, South cashed two of dummy's high diamonds in order to discard his second ace. Then he cashed the ace of hearts and ruffed a second heart with dummy's three of trumps.

This gave him five tricks in and left him with a perfect cross-ruff situation for the east eight because all trumps in each hand were now high. He showed his hand and claimed. North and South felt that they should have reached seven. North contended that when he went out of his way to rebid diamonds before showing his strong club support, South could have afforded to bid seven clubs instead of only five. I was drawn into the discussion and felt that there were a lot of ways to reach seven, but that neither partner had brought up the one bid of the hand.

I am probably getting old-fashioned, but it seems to me that there was no reason for North to rebid one spade on a three card suit when he had a natural two club rebid. Had North made that logical rebid, South would probably have jumped to four clubs. North then could have bid four spades. This could be read as a cue bid showing the ace. Then South might well have gone right to the grand slam.

Incidentally, if West had opened a trump, South would still have made seven, even though the play would not have been quite as simple.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Does the corner saloon draw your husband the way honey draws flies? That's one woman's problem, and it's not unique.

She writes: "Lately, instead of coming straight home, my husband stops off for a beer or two, and I've no way of knowing whether he'll arrive for dinner at 6 o'clock or 8:30. I've complained about it, which hasn't done any good at all. What do I do now?"

Well, you could make your complaints even louder. Or you could decide to "fix" your husband by some kind of retaliation. That's the way a lot of wives would meet the situation.

But if you're wise you'll look beyond your irritation at your husband's coming home late night after night. Acknowledge the fact that there must be some reason why he is reluctant to come home when his day's work is done, and try to find out what it is.

return to that is, do you do all you can to make your home comfortable, attractive and inviting?

—In the past, when he came home on time, were you always there waiting for him with dinner ready, and with a smiling welcome for him?

—If he has troubles on his mind, can he count on you to listen sympathetically and to try to help him reach decisions?

If there are children, do you take care of disciplinary measures as they arise during the day? Or do you tell the children, "Just wait until your dad gets home. He is going to hear about this."

There are many different reasons why a husband might put off his evening homecomings as long as possible. So ask yourself, and be honest in your answer, "Am I doing everything I can to make him really want to come home?"

Boat Owners Slow To Register

Registration of pleasure boats which began June 1, has been going at a slow pace, John L. Galloway County Tax Collector said today.

Galloway urged boat owners to go to the Tag Office in the Court house and register their craft as soon as possible and thus avoid a last-minute rush prior the July 1 deadline.

Boat owners who have not been registered by July 1 are liable to a fine for operating craft without a current registration.

The tag office is open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Registration is required only for pleasure boats with more than 10-horsepower motors, regardless of length. Galloway emphasized that a boat owner should bring his old registration certificate with him to avoid delay.

The county tax collector acts as agent for the State Conservation Board in sale of boat registrations.

Artist Welcomed At Reception

By Mrs. Adam Muller

A reception was held Sunday afternoon at DeBary Mansion House to welcome Elliot McMurrugh who will be artist in residence through June 28 for the summer art school and workshop.

Charles Holder, chairman, introduced McMurrugh and gave a brief resume of his background. The artist has studied in New England art schools, including the Cape Cod School of Art and under Henry Hensche. At present he teaches at his own school, the Elliot McMurrugh School of Art in Indian River and at Loch Haven Art Center in Orlando. He also has taught at Hartman School and Gallery in Sarasota and at the Ringling School of Art in Sarasota. His one-man show will be on exhibit during his stay at the Mansion.

For Sunday's reception, the buffet table was overlaid with a pale pink linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of summer flowers. A crystal punch bowl and trays of sandwiches, cookies and minis completed the table. Presiding was Mrs. William Hoffman who was assisted by Mrs. R. Schenck and a number of summer students. Also present was Oline Hilton, chairman of ways and means.

Shrugging It Off

It used to be easy to write a post-holiday traffic toll editorial.

You simply deplored the tragic number of holiday highway deaths, pointed out that any such toll was unnecessary and urged better behavior in the future.

Unfortunately, such editorials have failed to achieve their purpose.

The toll goes right on growing—not only on holidays, but every day in the year. Year after year.

It should not be surprising that the Memorial Day traffic death toll set a new record. We have grown accustomed to this.

What are we going to do about it? Are we going to fall back on the "people-will-be-people" refrain and write off the highway slaughter as inevitable?

Are we going to point to the population explosion, increased cars and travel, the pace of space age living and similar factors as insurmountable reasons for a steadily growing toll of dead and crippled?

Or are we going to face up to the fact that somehow, some way, the traffic accident problem has to be met and met now—and that we must take and accept whatever steps may be necessary to meet it?

Are we really throwing a Sunday punch at accidents? Or are we waging a Viet Nam type of warfare against a social problem that drains off more than 43,000 lives a year?

Safety leaders insist we already have the know-how and the potential to pull down this toll.

Required driver education, stricter traffic laws, tougher driver licensing exams, removal of incompetent and unsafe drivers from the road, better off-the-job safety programs—these are needed to do the job.

Isn't it about time we really went to work to do it—even if it takes more effort, more co-operation and more money?

Thought For Today

I prayed to the Lord my God and made confession, saying, O Lord, the great and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love with Him and keep His commandments. —Daniel 9:4.

God warms his hands at man's heart when he prays.—John Masefield.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Real Rights Test Ahead

United Press International Guest conductor of this column will be a solid citizen, Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., who argues persuasively that what we witnessed in the U. S. Senate was NOT filibuster at all but more accurately was merely useful, extended debate.

Hruska voted for cloture to end debate. He is neither a bigot nor a racist. Along with many others, Hruska believed the civil rights bill passed by the House was bad legislation, ill-considered and urgently needing improvement.

Sen. Hruska: "When the bill first came to the Senate floor," Hruska said in a Senate speech, "it was accompanied by a hue and cry that the House bill be approved intact and unaltered. Since that time, we have witnessed two things.

"One has been extended debate almost exclusively by the opponents of the bill. The other development has been a slowly developing awareness by nearly all senators that the bill which came to the Senate contains many defects which need correcting.

"As a result, we have seen the evolution of an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the entire bill. These developments are interrelated, one the cause and the other the effect. The causative agent, the extended debate, has often been called a filibuster. In my own mind, a filibuster can be most simply defined as an extended debate which has for its end, obstruction, and finds its means in pure dilatory tactics.

"This extended debate has resulted in the substitute Dirksen amendments bill now before us. I personally ascribe its existence and pendency to the extended debate that has been occurring in the Senate. By definition, such extended debate is not a filibuster. It bore results.

"It produced a bill which has been amended in some very substantial ways, and in some ways which, in my judgment, have improved it a good deal, though measures which loosen the cinch where it would chafe while at the same time tightening the reins where they were slack. I feel that I belong to that middle-of-the-road group to which the senator Norris Cotton, R. from New Hampshire has referred."

Cotton has identified himself to the Senate as a middle-of-the-road man. He also voted for cloture. In a Senate speech Cotton matched Gov.

George C. Wallace of Alabama in some of his references to the civil rights bill.

Cotton was referring to the Fair Employment Practices section of the bill when he called for correction "in the proposed legislation of certain provisions which some of us at least believed to be extremely vicious, dangerous and subversive of the fundamental principles of the republic."

"When we go into the situation of the little business which employs 25 or more employees," Cotton told the Senate, "and give the FEPC power to force an employer to employ someone he does not wish to employ, or justify himself by expensive litigation in federal court, there is no more real freedom left in this nation."

Cotton asked the Senate to consider a famous statement by Woodrow Wilson: "The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of governmental power, not the increase of it."

"The real test of civil rights legislation will be in the degree of its acceptance by middle-of-the-roads in the senate and coast to coast.

The News Isn't All Bad

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Dave Babbitt offers an interesting case to show how the word "quack" is now used to avoid logical thinking. All high schools should teach pupils the common fallacies in logic, for most college graduates have never had even a single course in debate or logic.

CASE S-493: Dave Babbitt is the versatile producer of a popular radio program on KYW at Cleveland. It is called "Contact" and runs for 90 minutes.

The first half hour is devoted to discussion, followed by 60 minutes in which listeners telephone their questions, to be answered immediately over the air.

"Dr. Crane," Dave Babbitt phoned me "we'd like to have you handle our program on Friday night."

"And please discuss this new anti-cancer substance called Krebiozen."

"We'll try to get somebody from the Food and Drug Administration to debate with you, if that is agreeable."

So I gladly assented, for this Krebiozen feud has been brewing for 13 years.

But Dave called back later to say nobly from the FDA would debate me.

Nor could he get anybody from the American Medical Association.

"I tried our local Cleveland Medical Group, too," Dave added, "but nobody would accept the challenge."

"And when I told them you were to be the opponent, one

Cleveland doctor warned me against using you because he said you were just a newspaper 'quack doctor,' anyway.

"But they all seemed afraid to argue with you in a debate."

One of the most frequent fallacies in logic is named "ad hominem."

It covers whispering campaigns and the use of the word "quack" to divert attention from the basic issue at stake.

When your opponent can't answer your logic, he may thus try to "wave the flag" or accuse you of "picking on a minority race" or employ emotional slogans such as "economic royalists" or "extreme rightist," etc.

Krebiozen, for example, is an extract of horse serum that has been used on over 5,000 American patients by 3,000 physicians.

Many of these patients, who had previously been regarded as hopeless and been given maybe only six weeks to live, are still alive some 5 to 10 years later, with nothing but Krebiozen to explain these miracles.

Krebiozen is somewhat comparable to insulin, since both are regarded as hormones to bring the body's own reduced supply back up to normal.

Dr. Stevan Durovic, a Yugoslavian medical professor, discovered Krebiozen and brought a batch of the powder into the United States.

Then Dr. Andrew C. Ivy defended Dr. Durovic and urged a fair clinical test of Krebiozen.

Yet many American media react to "ad hominem" fallacies and call Dr. Ivy a quack (behind his back).

Yet Dr. Ivy was selected as our outstanding American medical scientist to go to Nuremberg, Germany, to represent us at the trial of those German physicians accused of using human beings as guinea pigs during Hitler's regime.

The FDA has been in a frenzy to try to discredit Dr. Ivy and Krebiozen, so it even falsified data to blacken his reputation, as astute Senator Paul H. Douglas ably pointed out last winter.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA)

—An inquiry is under way into persistent charges of police brutality advanced by Negroes and some civil rights groups. The probe could help clear the air of corroding elements which undermine respect for law and order in today's tense society.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police is conducting the study and should have a report later this year.

Protesting groups may argue that the association is an interested party and thus not qualified to undertake a fair investigation in its own house. There is ample sign from a variety of policy statements, however, that the association maintains a responsible attitude toward the problem and is capable of reasonable self-criticism if it is warranted.

An official association comment uttered not too long ago:

"It is realized that in the emotion-charged atmosphere of some demonstrations the parties on both sides of the police lines have been guilty of unnecessary force and tactics which tend to spark violence.

"But 'smoke-screen' charges of police brutality to cover excesses and illegal conduct on the part of others are inexcusable.

"Law enforcement agencies and responsible demonstrating groups in virtually every instance want no violence . . . reasonable men faced with these situations realize this and have acted accordingly."

What concerns many conscientious law enforcement authorities in the indication, turning up in many places, that Negro leaders have begun to make "police brutality" an almost automatic charge against a community without regard to fair consideration of the evidence.

The demand to "end police brutality" appears on nearly every list of Negro demands for redress of grievances.

Most disturbing is the leveling of such charges in instances where demonstrators, both white and Negro, have deliberately acted either to thwart the law or to interrupt the normal processes of community life.

When police have responded to uphold the law and end the interference to traffic or whatever, charges of brutality have almost invariably followed.

It is ironic that they should be flung with such frequency and seeming abandon at a time when brutality against the police is being practiced on an ever-increasing scale. Most of these assaults are made by persons facing arrest or being pursued for a variety of offenses. But some are committed by civil rights demonstrators.

One Maryland state trooper who has seen frequent duty at troubled Cambridge, Md., has been injured four times. He has been struck by a bottle and burned by acid. Neither of these seem proper equipment for a "peaceful" demonstrator.

In 1962, the last year for which complete figures are available, 78 law enforcement officers were killed by criminal action. The 1960-62 total was 113. Injurious assaults number in the thousands.

Police trying to make arrests for minor traffic offenses often find themselves surrounded by menacing crowds. Sometimes these situations suddenly take on racial overtones. A documented case: An intoxicated Negro woman driver strikes another car.

Stepping out, she tries to pretend she was not driving. When ordered to get into a police vehicle, she shouts: "My civil rights are being violated." A gathering crowd of 50 curious Negroes rumbles angrily, steps just short of attacking the police.

By their present inquiry, by their conduct of civil rights work shops and other reviews of the problem, responsible police leaders indicate they are trying to assess fairly their performance and their proper role in dealing with racial tensions. There is not yet much heartening evidence of similar concern from all civil rights leaders who press their demands in the public streets.

WHERE SHOPPING IS A PLEASURE

9 A. M. TO 9 P. M.
SEMINOLE PLAZA
HWY. 17-92 & SR 436
CASSELBERRY, FLA.

Lt. "Sam" Dow of Heavy Attack Wing One's Public Information Office got an unexpected tribute Wednesday morning from the commanding officer of Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5. Seated in the ready room prior to take-off for Pacific Fleet duty, Cdr. Paul F. Werner turned to Dow, commenting: "You know, Sam, you're the finest PIO officer I've ever had the privilege to work with."

Then the commander added with a grin: "There's just two things the matter with you. You're getting out of the Navy, I hear, and you're getting married." Dow acknowledged both were right.

Speaking of the Sanford Naval Air Station, we've found few military installations of its kind offering such cooperative attitude to the public. Other bases in the area do a fine job, to be sure, but we'll vote for Captains James O. Mayo and Robert D. Ware and their staffs.

A postal vacancy survey conducted by carriers in several Seminole communities shows 5.6 per cent of all dwelling units are vacant. The survey was held in cooperation with the Federal Housing Administration.

That voter registration problem at Casselberry brought out one interesting piece of information. Seems that some Casselberry residents have boxes at the Fern Park Post Office. Does sound a bit odd.

At Gainesville, Desta Lee Horner, 419 Lakeview Drive, and Lawrence Pivec Jr., 428 Summerlin Drive, were named to Dean's list at the University of Florida during the winter trimester.

Longwood and traffic fatalities seem to be wedded this year. The county now has had six persons die in traffic accidents. Four of the fatally injured have been from Longwood. The accident taking the lives of the latest two victims occurred in Longwood.

Just recently the County Commission authorized traffic signals for the intersection of U. S. 17-92 and Six 431 where three of the six persons have been killed. Let's exercise extreme care in driving anywhere, especially in Seminole and particularly at that intersection.

Here's an appeal to folks who reside in Sunland from other folks who reside in Sunland. They want the citizenry out there, especially the youngsters, to help keep Sunland Park Creek free of debris. The creek has just been cleaned out for the second time this year. If the creek becomes congested it poses a severe problem.

The pump that burned out at the County Home recently was the third one to go in the last three and a half years. By the way, a replacement was made immediately to provide fire protection.

David M. Brown doesn't let a little distance bother him when it comes to voting. His mother, Mrs. Buford Brown, reports David voted in both primaries—even though he's stationed in Korea with the U. S. Army. Probably the longest long-distance ballots to be cast locally.

A chicken barbecue is planned for Friday from 3 to 7 p.m. at the local Elks Club grounds with proceeds being used to defray expenses of 70 to 80 boys of Scout troop 244 who will be leaving soon for a 10-day stay at an Indian reservation in the Smoky Mountains. The barbecue and trip will be sponsored by local Elks.

Reinstated
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U. S. Court of Appeals today ordered the army to reinstate Maj. Arch E. Roberts, who was ousted two years ago for making a speech without clearing it with the Pentagon.

CDR. PAUL F. WERNER, commanding officer of RVAH-5, waves to his superior officer this morning as he prepared for a flight from Sanford Naval Air Station to Alameda, Calif., where his squadron will join the Pacific Fleet. Wishing him a safe flight is Capt. James Mayo, commanding officer of Heavy Attack Wing One at the local station. (Herald Photo)

Last 2 Planes Leave Sanford For Pacific
Friends and Navy personnel were on hand this morning for the final phase of the historic transfer of 250 men and equipment from Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5 to the Pacific Theater. Transports carried the men to Alameda, Calif., and the attack carrier USS Ranger.

Also leaving were two more RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bombers which are being deployed at sea for the first time.

The squadron's four others flew to Alameda yesterday. Today's flights completed the move of Squadron 5 to the Pacific Coast for subsequent deployment to the Far East. RVAH-5 is the first Atlantic Coast unit in recent times to deploy West.

Squadron spaces today were a scene of bustling activity and emotions as crews loaded transports for the 2,300-mile trip.

Their destination, and home for many months to come, will be the USS Ranger, an 1,100-foot supercarrier of the Forrestal class.

The two RA-5Cs taxied from the flight line and roared down the runway into the cloudless day. One of the needle-nosed planes was piloted by Commander Paul F. Werner, commanding officer, the man who will lead the Sanford airman through each of their varied commitments as they operate as an integral part of our U. S. Seventh Fleet.

Aid Asked To Halt Cuban Arms
THE HAGUE (UPI)—Surinam has urged requested Dutch naval assistance to prevent the smuggling of Cuban arms into neighboring British Guiana, informed sources said today.

Surinam is an autonomous Dutch-owned state on the northeast coast of South America. British Guiana, the scene of recent racial-political violence, flanks it to the north.

The premier of British Guiana, Cheddi Jagan, is an avowed Marxist and admirer of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro. Qualified sources said arms and ammunition from Castro's government have been smuggled across Surinam into British Guiana via the Corantyne River which forms part of the border between the two territories.

Fires Controlled
NIGATA, Japan (UPI)—Oil refinery fires in this earthquake-stricken city appeared today to have been brought under control and Japanese army troops turned to the monumental task of rebuilding.

Aid Bill Split
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A House appropriations subcommittee was reported sharply split today over its chairman's proposal to chop 500 million from President Johnson's $3.5 billion foreign aid bill.

25 Ships To Cuba
MIAMI (UPI)—Cuban refugees said today 25 ships flying the flags of America's European allies delivered cargo to Communist Cuba in May. The Mar refugee organization said Britain led the way with 11 vessels delivering oil and general cargo to Cuban ports. Greece was next with four ships, followed by Norway with two and Italy with one, the refugees said.

Eager Exiles
MIAMI (UPI)—Two little-known exile groups—seeking the exile esteem that goes with a successful anti-Castro attack—have both claimed credit for sinking the same Castro patrol boat, but on different days.

The most definite word about the sinking has come from the Castro government, which confirmed the loss of a vessel, but said it was only a fishing boat.

Board To Hear Appeal Against Trailer Park

Seminole County's Board of Commissioners Tuesday morning will hear an appeal against a decision by the Board of Adjustment to permit Hal Washburn of Maitland to install a trailer court on a parcel of land consisting of slightly less than four and a half acres with a 260-foot frontage on U. S. 17-92 in the Lake Ada area.

Washburn, owner of the property, plans to install and operate the business under the name of Takamashi Trailer Court with a Japanese decor. The court will consist of 47 spaces, some as large as 50 by 70 feet and the smallest ones 40 by 65. A Maitland realtor, Washburn's plans also call for a six-foot cypress Japanese style fence to border the frontage of the land, the development of a beach on the rear of the property which borders Lake Ada, buildings to house laundry, offices, bath houses, rest rooms, all in Japanese style architecture.

Sixteen-foot wide asphalt streets will be built along with a playground 250 by 30 feet between the fencing along 17-92 and the eastern boundary.

Washburn contends that the park will be one of the most attractive trailer courts in the section of Florida.

County zoning regulations provide that the only areas in Seminole where trailer courts can be installed are C-2 (commercial), M-1 (industry) and A-1 (agriculture) zones. Conditional use and special exception permits must be obtained and courts may be installed after public hearing and approval by the Board of Adjustment.

Since Washburn's property is zoned M-1 he applied for the additional use and special exception permit. His request was granted subject to the City of Sanford agreeing to provide sewerage and the 20-day appeal period. The City of Sanford has agreed to provide the service.

The decision of the Board of Adjustment has been appealed by A. B. Peterson Jr., representing clients Herman Goodman and Robert Silverstein, and by Allen Orlando Inc., represented by L. L. Havre.

The public hearing on the appeals is scheduled for 10 a. m.

Woman Hurt In Two-Car Crash
A New Smyrna Beach woman, Ida H. Padgett, suffered multiple injuries Wednesday shortly after 4 p. m. in a two-car crash at 25th Street and Mellonville Avenue.

Police reported she suffered a concussion, cuts, a shoulder fracture and possible rib fractures when the car in which she was riding collided with one operated by Benny Ray Hardy of Tavares. Details of the crash were not immediately available.

Savannah Docks On Maiden Trip
BREMERHAVEN, Germany (UPI)—The NS Savannah, world's first atomic powered merchant vessel, completed her transatlantic maiden voyage today.

Capt. David H. McMichael, skipper of the U. S. government-owned $53 million Savannah, said he never once had to fall back on conventional power in the 10-day crossing.

The Savannah carried a 150-man crew, 200 tons of automobiles, drugs and mail and 13 passengers on her historic crossing.

Childish Sound To Rock 'N Roll
HOUMA, La. (UPI)—Police got a call Tuesday saying someone was beating a child in the Houma fire station.

They rushed to the station and searched it but found only a fireman's radio playing rock 'n roll music.

CDR. D. F. MUNDAY today took over as officer-in-charge of Detachment 8 of Heavy Attack Squadron 11 this morning in colorful change of command ceremonies at Sanford Naval Air Station. Cdr. Munday is shown reading the orders of the change as Cdr. Frederick Carment Jr., the retiring officer, listens. (Herald Photo)

Enrichment Of Life CRD Aim, Jernigan Says

The major function of city recreation facilities is to serve as large a percentage of people as possible and to provide democratic and inclusive activities, Jim Jernigan, City Recreation Director told Kiwanians Wednesday.

"We are not a social welfare organization. Our aim is to enrich the life of our citizens, by providing places and activities for them to enjoy in their leisure time," he said.

In defining the meaning of "recreation" Jernigan said that there is no yardstick to measure the success of any activity, since the benefits are abstract.

"Sometimes work can be recreation, and some people make work out of recreation," the director noted.

Some of the phases of recreation include youth activities and competition, cooperative activities, physical fitness, family camping and picnicking, athletic programs, for adults and Junior Olympic programs.

"Sanford doesn't have to take a back seat to any other town of equal size in the functional scope of our recreational activities," he said.

Kiwanians held an "educational breakfast" at Touchton's drug store at 7:30 a. m. today, to improve the understanding and participation of new Kiwanis members.

Next week's program is to be a father and son day, with members bringing their own sons or members of the Kiwanis Junior League baseball team.

Wallace Woos Louisiana's 10
BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—Gov. George Wallace of Alabama returned to his home state today to begin planning strategy he will use in an attempt to capture Louisiana's 10 presidential electoral votes.

Wallace spent the day in the Louisiana capital Wednesday, addressing a joint session of the legislature and a fund-raising dinner.

He was tapped by conservative Democrats to head a slate of unpledged electors in the November general election.

Detachment Gets New Officer-In-Charge

Cdr. Donald F. Munday today took over as officer-in-charge of Heavy Attack Squadron 11, Detachment 8, in charge of command ceremonies at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

He succeeds Cdr. Frederick Carment Jr. and the ceremony was viewed by Capt. James Mayo, commander of Heavy Attack Wing One.

Munday's assumption of command of the detachment places him as the third officer-in-charge since the detachment's organization in 1962.

In addition to being deployed aboard attack carriers of the Second Fleet for seven out of the last 12 months, the detachment has managed to garner many important awards, such as the 1963 Heavy Attack Wing One Bombing Derby Championship, co-holder of the Atlantic Fleet "E" and various monthly awards based on bombing skill.

Munday takes command of an organization that has answered many varied commitments since its inception.

Housewife Just 'Chopped Off Snake's Head'
TUJUNGA, Calif. (UPI)—"I should have been petrified, but I wasn't. I just grabbed up a hatchet and chopped that snake's head off."

This was the calm story a 21-year-old housewife told authorities Wednesday after she killed an 18-inch-long rattlesnake that invaded her kitchen in this Los Angeles suburb.

Mrs. Sandra Morelli said she was feeding her son, Dennis, 10 months, when the rattler crawled from behind a chair. Her husband, Dennis Sr., was on active duty with his naval reserve unit in nearby Long Beach.

After killing the reptile, Mrs. Morelli telephoned the Humane Society, which advised her to put the fanged head in a bag and bury it.

Governor Now Undecided On Extra Session

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant said Thursday there wasn't any doubt Florida's legislature would have to be reapportioned under a U. S. Supreme Court decision but he hadn't made up his mind whether to call a special legislative session to do the job.

Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. of Sanford said this morning he feels a special call of the Legislature would not be productive since no concrete program has been prepared. Instead, he said, the Legislature should wait to take action at the next regular session early in 1965.

Bryant told his morning news conference that under the court ruling, handed down three days ago, the state's legislature had been unconstitutionally apportioned since the end of the War Between the States. He said for 100 years Florida had been electing illegal state legislatures.

The governor said there was still serious question in his mind about the need for an immediate special session to meet on reapportionment because the high court didn't rule directly on the Florida case.

He said the question was left hanging whether the court just didn't get around to ruling in the Florida case or whether it had special plans for the state. He said he'd wait until next Monday, the last day when a ruling could be handed down, to see.

The governor said he was up several hours last night reading the U. S. Supreme Court opinion in the Landmark case.

He said he was convinced that the proposed constitutional amendment for a 43-senator, 112-representative legislative make-up did not meet requirements of the court decision.

But he said he didn't know the mechanics for removing it from the ballot. He said he might ask the state Supreme Court to tell him what should be done.

Bryant said apparently the court had decided that the present form of government in the United States was not consistent with present day needs and "the court has set out to make over our government in what they consider a more ideal form."

He said if he decided to call a special session, he would probably ask the lawmakers to revise the Constitution while they were in the capitol.

Miami attorney Richard H. Max Swann, who put the state's apportionment problems in the courts two years ago, said he plans to ask U. S. District court to remove the amendment from the November ballot.
