Senate Group Urges Atlantic Pact Approval

Bill To Cut Spending $3 Billions Will Be Given Senate Soon, McClellan Declares

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today called for ratification of the North Atlantic Pact as the best way to avoid World War Three.

In a formal report to the Senate, the committee declared that failure to ratify the pact "would have disastrous consequences abroad."

The committee strongly believes, the report said, "that it would be in the best interests of the United States and indeed, the entire world, to sustain and encourage the momentum of confidence that has been building up in Europe, by ratifying the treaty at an early date."

The treaty was signed here April 4 by the United States, Canada and 10 European nations. It will not become binding on this country until ratified (approved by a two-third vote) by the Senate.

Frankly poised as a warning to Russian aggression, the treaty pledges the members to consult and give each other aid in event of aggression against any one of them.

Senator Connally (D-Tex.) indicated he will ask for early Senate debate on the pact, approved unanimously yesterday by the House.

Congress Receives Bill Advocating World Federation

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—Concurrent resolutions aimed at favoring the strengthening and development of the United Nations into a world federation were introduced in the House of Representatives today by 84 Members of Congress.

Among those introducing the identical resolutions were 61 Democrats and 23 Republicans. A majority of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on Foreign Affairs joined in sponsoring the resolution.

The resolution stated: "It is the sense of the Congress that it should be the policy of the United States to support and strengthen the United Nations and to seek its development into a world federation of all nations with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and prevent aggression through the enactment, interpretation and enforcement of world law."

The 84 Congressmen sponsoring the resolution are:

FEWER HIGHWAY DEATHS

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—(AP)—There were more accidents, but fewer persons were killed on Florida highways during the first three months of this year than during the same period in 1948.

Director H. N. Korman of the State Highway Patrol said 150 persons were killed in 438 accidents during the three months. Last year, during the same period 218 persons were killed in 529 accidents.

Florida's death rate is far below the national average, Korman said. Based on vehicle miles traveled, the state average is 8.9 persons per 100 million, compared with 12.2 for the national average.

George Washington Steals Fish From Stonewall Jackson

George Washington, local negro, was fined $25 and costs yesterday for stealing a four pound bass from another negro, Stonewall Jackson, Police Captain Roy Tillis reported.

Washington protested his innocence and told Judge J. G. Sharon that he only "borrowed" the fish, but the judge was adamant and gave the sentence.

It started when Stonewall Jackson, on his way home on his bicycle from a successful fishing trip, stopped to chat with a friend at Fourth Street and Cypress Avenue. He had six fish in his bag which were greatly admired by George Washington.

Negro Chauffeur Gets White Wife's Estate

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—(AP)—A negro chauffeur is entitled to all his 90-year-old white wife's $50,000 estate, his attorney says, even though she disinherited him in her will.

Thomas L. Griffith, the attorney, said yesterday that Allen L. G. Woods, 28, the negro, plans to contest the document, if and codicil were drafted before the marriage. Griffith pointed out.

And since Mrs. Woods, known as a traveler, lecturer and clubwoman, has no other relatives, the attorney added, her husband is entitled to the property under the California law of succession.

Mrs. Woods, whose estate is estimated at more than $50,000, died May 28, some five months after her marriage to her chauffeur.

Unemployment Jumps To New Post War Peak

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—Unemployment jumped 271,000 in May to a new post war peak of 3,289,000.

The Census Bureau, reporting this today, commented that "today's unemployment drops below last year's level, but the increase this year was, therefore, contrary to seasonal expectations."

The new high in unemployment is 68,000 above the previous top reached last February. Unemployment had declined slightly in March and April.

The Bureau said that despite the increase in unemployment more people had jobs in May than in May of last year. There was a rise in employment from April to May.

It said one reason the number of job seekers outside of farming rose faster than the number of job opportunities was because a school age youth turned out for summer or post-graduate work. Because of the seasonal upswing.

Chambers Admits He Lied 7 Times Before Jury Which Indicted Hiss

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—Whittaker Chambers admitted today that he had lied seven times before the federal grand jury which indicted Alger Hiss on two perjury counts.

Chambers, one-time courier for a pro-war Soviet spy ring and star government witness in the trial of the former high State Department official made the admission on his fourth day on the witness stand.

A few minutes previously Federal Judge Samuel H. Kaufman said he found his trial testimony inconsistent with his grand jury testimony. He granted Hiss, attorney, Lloyd Paul Stryker, permission to read the grand jury minutes.

Stryker, cross-examining Chambers, read seven portions of grand jury dialogues. Each time he asked Chambers if the testimony he gave was true or false.

Each time Chambers replied that it was false. He admitted he had committed perjury on each of the seven occasions.

Chambers answered Stryker's questions slyly, now staring at him, now raising his eyes to the courtroom ceiling. He avoided looking at Hiss and his wife who sat tensely watching him from the gallery.

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—Two guards of the Wells Fargo Express Co. were robbed of $19,000 in payroll funds by two armed men today on the Columbia University campus.

As the guards approached the main entrance of university hall, police said, the gunmen leaped out of the doorway and approached them from the rear.

"This is a stickup," one said. "Sneak the money, they can't see an auto parked on a campus driveway. They leaped in an open area toward Broadway."

There were few students about Columbia's commencement which held last week.

A woman employee who is on the payroll immediately telephoned the police.

Lane, Kiwanis program chairman.

Mr. Holtzclaw is here to visit his step-sister, C. M. Mathews at 215 Elm Avenue, and will leave soon for a short stay in Miami where his daughter, Cynthia Jeanette Holtzclaw, will graduate from Union High School. He then will return, he said, for about a month's vacation to enjoy fishing with his brother, "Slim" and Mr. Mathews.

A graduate of Seminole High School, he attended Louisiana State University 1936-39, majored in music and studied French, German and Italian which are necessary in order to sing the many operatic roles in those languages. His first operatic role at a school performance was as Melchior in Faust.

Following graduation from the university, he joined the San Carlo Opera Company until 1942.

Wall Street Gets Dose Of Bad News As Slumps In Business Increase

By SAM LAWSON

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—Wall Street has another dose of bad news to swallow today. The business slump has reached the point where such bad medicine may be expected at frequent intervals.

Today's capsule contains bitter little pills from the steel, copper, home appliance, retail trade and building industries and the vast melange lumped together as foreign trade.

And unemployment jumped in May to a postwar high of more than 3,250,000.

There are a couple of sweet items to sugar-coat the general picture. And, of course, there are some pronouncements from on high regarding the bright long-term outlook.

But, altogether, the news may well explain why stock prices are bumping near their postwar lows, and why optimists are scarce these days in Wall Street.

Steel operations this week are at the lowest point since a year ago April, except for Christmas week. They are also at the lowest level since 1940 for any "normal" week—that is, any week free of holidays or labor stoppages.

Two reasons are given for this week's drop, the eighth in a row. One, of course, is the general slowing down of the industrial pace and the consequent lessening demand for steel. The second is

Coordinator Of Higher Education Given 2 Weeks Termination Pay by Warren

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—(AP)—The Cabinet today abolished the position of Coordinator of Higher Education it created six months ago and gave to John English.

The Legislature, which adjourned last Friday, declined to provide funds to make the office and English's employment permanent.

On the motion of Governor Warren, English was given the usual two-week termination pay for persons leaving the State under honorable circumstances.

English could not be reached immediately for comment. He is currently on leave for the summer, but is expected to return to his job in the State Department in August.

The Cabinet recommended that the Executive Department be authorized to pay English $8,000, his secretary $3,000 and office expenses for the two years beginning July 1, but the Legislature declined.

A proposed item in the appropriation bill also would have authorized the Governor from paying salary to the outgoing coordinator but an administrative leader got that item out after stating he would not be paid from the fund.

English and Dan McCarthy in the 1948 campaign, Warren's advertising featured a copy of a letter English wrote to friends in Florida that Caldwell administration support had switched from him to McCarthy.

Soon after Warren was inaugurated, he recommended that the position of Coordinator of Higher Education be created to help prevent duplication of services at the colleges. He also suggested English for the job.

Warren told the Cabinet today the position of Coordinator of Higher Education was necessary, but the Legislature did not agree to it.

Warren's Advisors Seek Loop-Hole In Slot Machine Law

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—(AP)—Governor Warren's legal advisors have been instructed to look closely at a bill introduced at the Legislature today which would amend a law prohibiting the operation of slot machines in public places.

The Senate Bill 22, passed on the last day of the legislative session, would amend the law on coin-operated slot machines and one-half machine tables. It is estimated to produce about $1,000,000 a year in extra State revenue.

At present, laws on slot machines are "loophole" laws. They are generally framed and passed in a general way, leaving nothing unoperated and unregulated, and the Supreme Court has said they are legal as long as they aren't used for gambling.

They may not deprive any prize or award. Although they generally are permitted to give

Improvement Seen In Condition Of Injured Gunman

His mother arrived yesterday from New Jersey to be at his bedside. Care of Saly has been transferred from Dr. Roberts to Dr. C. E. Park, county surgeon.

According to Sheriff Mero there is a possibility that Saly will recover from his wounds. He is

State Tightens Hold On Near Empty Purse; English's Job Killed

Tax Education Need Is Cited By Sen. Boyle

Commenting on the need of educating the people of Florida that they cannot have the advantages of government without paying for them, State Senator L. F. Boyle suggested that possibly it may be best for Governor Warren not to call a special session until the people become more "tax conscious."

"My reaction has been that the people desire larger appropriations for the schools, institutions of higher learning, welfare and health," he declared. "These four groups represent 194 million dollars of the 240 million dollars appropriated."

"On the other hand, he stated, 'the people requested that no new taxes be levied and an actual need to show a surplus may be best for the Governor not to call an extra session of the Legislature to consider the tax question until the people become tax-conscious and realize that they cannot have all of these advantages of government without paying for them.'

"When they find out that the money is not available from present tax sources," he said, "and that one of these years will be seriously crippled for lack of funds, I believe that the people will then demand that the Legislature meet and adopt an adequate and sound tax program."

"Regardless of general opinion," Senator Boyle asserted, "the Legislature did accomplish a lot during the final days of the session."

Asked if he thought a special session of the Legislature will be called to consider tax matters, Senator Boyle replied, "It is up to the Governor to decide if a special session is necessary. I recommend no special session."

Cabinet Turns Down All Except Most Necessary Fund Requests By Agencies

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—(AP)—The Cabinet today rejected its hold on a almost empty purse today, turning down all except the most necessary fund requests from State agencies.

"It is not my fault if the board's fund has no money," Governor Warren commented. "It is anybody's fault, it is the fault of the group which failed to provide it."

The Legislature adjourned Friday without providing taxes to meet the $400,000,000 deficit in its general appropriation bill.

The financial discussion was touched off by an unsuccessful plea from the State Soil Conservation Board for $100,000 for machinery and equipment.

"The board is requesting $1,000,000 for machinery and equipment," said Warren. "It would be hazardous under the conditions we are under now."

The Soil Conservation Board's request was one of the many requests for funds that the Cabinet turned down today.

Warren's mother, who died last year, was a home demonstration agent, working with rural housekeepers.

Attorney General Richard Egan suggested the Governor include in his bill for a special session a provision that funds be made available for the Soil Conservation Board.

However, he withdrew the proposal after Warren and it might

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Moscow at long last apparently is getting set to take a major hand in development of a China that rapidly is coming under control of the Chinese Communist armies.

Heretofore Russia has played a very cautious game. She brought Manchuria within her sphere of influence, and then seemed to be most punctilious in her relations with Mao Tse-Tung, the hard-boiled and efficient leader of the Chinese Communists.

Moscow's caution may have been due largely to the fact that Mao is a powerful leader and has exhibited nationalist tendencies which don't fit in with Russia's edict that the sovereignty of Communist nations must rest with her.

Whether this does indeed represent Mao's attitude remains to be seen. He is a good deal of an enigma. He got his start as a revolutionist back in 1911 in the rebellion which overthrew the Manchu dynasty.

However—and here is the puzzle—when critics say his party is out for agrarian reform only (as I myself have been told in China) he explodes.

In any event, it will take a Midotov to iron out the wrinkles. Naturally one would expect the Soviet to proceed with studied diplomacy in dealing with a tough leader like Mao.

So far as Mao is concerned, he has stated that once the Chinese Communists are in power they will assist equally with the Soviet and the western democracies.

The meeting, I should say, is that Moscow intends to switch strong-arm methods for the present and try to bring Mao, whole heartedly into the Soviet fold.

Should the Russians be successful, it naturally would mean that they would have much to say about China's relations—political and economic—with the Western Powers.

Plane Crash

Twenty-eight survivors had been found by 6:00 A. M. (EST)—at most six hours after the crash. Most of the 75 passengers—57 adults and 18 infants—were Puerto Ricans bound for the United States.

The plane developed engine trouble and crashed into the sea ten minutes after it left San Juan airport. The plane sank within six minutes and the pilot, Captain Lee Wakefield, said he believed one-half or more of the passengers and five crewmen went down with it.

Capt. D. H. Dexter, in charge of the Coast Guard base here, said he did not believe more than the 28 known survivors would be found alive. Search by air and craft was pressed.

Twenty-six of the survivors swam to small islands and reefs, and crews of rescue craft braved death in the churning and treacherous seas to pick them off and carry them to the mainland. Two were plucked from the water.

The known survivors included both adults and children. The plane, enroute to Newark, N. J., via Miami, was operated by Strato Freight, Inc., a charter service with headquarters at Bradley Field, near Windsor Locks, Conn.

Capt. Dexter said the plane was unable to return to San Juan airport when the engine trouble developed, and it crash-landed 150 yards off Point Salinas. The 150 is four miles west of here, on the north coast of Puerto Rico.

All available U. S. Coast Guard, Air Force, Army and Navy planes and ships in the vicinity were called into the search for possible survivors, bodies and the exact location of the sunken plane.

Two or three bodies had been found shortly after dawn, Capt. Dexter said. Three Coast Guard ships and two Navy ships were in the immediate vicinity at that time.

Several of the survivors were reported injured seriously. Attached to the airport said it was raining hard when the plane, a C-46, took off. They said that two minutes after the takeoff the plane rolled back asking permission to land, but nothing more was heard from it.

Surviving passengers told an engine spluttering, and then general dead. The Navy said the rain hampered rescue operations at the start. It also said that several were wearing life jackets aboard. Crew members said some passengers were reluctant to go out into the water from the sinking plane.

Twin-Engined Jet Fighter Is Tested By Lockheed Men

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—The U. S. Air Force's new jet fighter, the Lockheed P-80, has tried her sweet-back wings—and they work "beautifully."

The Air Force blasted yesterday that Lockheed test pilot Tony LeVer, used in describing the way the big 13-ton fighter handled during her first sky tests.

The P-80, one of the biggest fighters ever built, will undergo 25 more hours of test flying by Lockheed pilots and crew, will be turned over to the Air Force for further testing. The craft is expected to go into production in 1950.

Packing a vicious wallop, she is designed to range behind enemy lines and attack sizeable targets.

The Republic of Korea is the American-occupied southern portion of Korea. It is headed by a provisional government. Secretary of Defense Johnson said the military establishment does not want control of atomic energy developments.

He added in a letter to Chairman McMahon, D-C, of the Senate-House Atomic Committee. "I intend to see to it that this attitude is maintained by the military establishment."

McMahon, whose committee is conducting an inquiry into charges by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) of "incredible mismanagement" against AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal, had written Johnson observing he had heard reports that the Armed Forces are "how involved" in that investigation.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Senator McMahon (D-Ariz.) today proposed to cut government spending next year by as much as $3,000,000,000 will be added to the Senate soon. McMahon said the measure will be aimed at "balancing the budget." It will be offered by the Senate expenditures committee which he heads.

their seats within the court well. In general Chambers' answers to the grand jury denied specific knowledge of government employees engaged in espionage activities.

Reading from the grand jury minutes, Stryker said Chambers was asked if he could name any person guilty of espionage against the U. S. government. The answer Chambers gave, as read by Stryker, was:

"Let me think a moment. I don't think so, but I'd like to have an opportunity to answer you tomorrow after more deliberation. Let me think on it overnight."

Stryker then asked him if his answer were true or false. "False," answered Chambers. Reading another question and answer of similar nature, Stryker again obtained Chambers' admission that the answer was false.

Chambers—"Yes." Stryker—"Did you perjure yourself on that occasion?" Chambers—"That's right." The other answers which Chambers admitted as perjurious involved:

Testimony that he knew of "contracts" but had no specific knowledge of government employees furnishing information. Denial that it was his function to obtain secret government information.

Denial that he knew of the transfer of information to J. Peters, identified as a Communist underground leader who left this country voluntarily last month. Testimony that he did not know the name of any person turning over secret or confidential documents or information.

Denial that he knew at that time or ever did know the names of government employees who turned over secret government information.

Banquet And Prom Held By Seniors

With the theme of "Gold for the 40's" being carried out in true western style, members of the senior and junior classes of Seminole High School held their annual banquet and prom on Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the Seminole Country Club.

Decorating the walls of the club house were covered wagons, western scenery and an old prospector. Gold letters spelled out the words "Gold for the 40's". Place cards pictured small gold covered wagons and attached to the cards were tiny sacks of gold dust.

The dinner was served buffet style from a long table on the club grounds. Decorating the table were miniature covered wagons and prospectors. Guests were seated at small tables on the lawn. Included on the menu were creamed chicken, fried noodles, green beans, baked corn, iced tea, hot rolls, tossed salad, pickles, olives, celery, beef relish and orange layer cake.

Following the dinner a floor show and program were presented in the club house with Coach Fred Ganas acting as master of ceremonies. The president of the junior class gave the welcome with the response made by Arnold Harrington, senior class president. The singing was asked by Miss Betty Ann Cagle, chaplain of the junior class.

Mrs. Hamilton Blibee, Mrs. Stewart Gatchel and Coach Ganas, were presented with gifts by Miss Mary Ellen Loeving, junior class secretary. The floor show included dances by Miss Gretchen Kirchhoff and Miss Jackie Dowd.

Master readings were presented by Miss Ellen Driggers and Miss Cherry Singletary, accompanied by Miss Beebe Blibee and piano selections were rendered by Roger Roberts, instructor at the high school. Coach Ganas presented "The Shooting of Dan McGraw" which drew much applause from the audience.

Dancing was enjoyed until 12:00 o'clock to the music of Paul Coble and his orchestra. About 215 students, faculty members, school trustees and school supervisors were present. Arrangements for the event were under the direction of Mrs. Gatchel, Mrs. Blibee and Coach Ganas.

Christian Science Board Of Directors Holds Annual Meet

BOSTON, Mass., June 7.—Special.—Breaking through the crust of ancient beliefs in material power, the postwar world is reaching out in an unprecedented effort for something better upon which to found a union of nations. The Christian Science Board of Directors declared today.

Addressing several thousand Christian attending the annual meeting of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., the directors viewed with satisfaction the worldwide stir human consciousness to discard the material for the spiritual.

Physicians, they said, are giving more importance to thought in relation to disease. Natural scientists, they added, are gaining in their recognition of the insubstantiality of matter.

Religious leaders everywhere, they pointed out, have developed a widespread sense of the need and reasonableness of greater and more direct evidence of spiritual power.

In various other directions, the Directors continued, there is a strong urge to look beyond mere human means for the establishment of stable government.

The Directors' statement and the election of Miss Emma C. Shipman to the Presidency of The Mother Church for the ensuing year sparked an annual meeting filled with reports of marked progress in the Christian Science movement throughout the globe.

If Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, were here today, according to the new president, "she would see the signs of the growth she most desired—signs that stem from what Miss Shipman described as "a more steadfast consciousness of the all-power and all-presence of God."

This consciousness was seen by the directors of the church as rapidly spreading throughout the postwar accepted as being questioned and discarded as never before.

"Not only the general stir in human consciousness but definite, basic changes of concept in the major fields of science, theology, and medicine" were said by the directors to have contributed to a growing respect for Christian Science and the spiritual healing for which it stands.

English's Job

(Continued From Page One) Chancellor as they phased it. "My studies indicated such a position would be in the interest of efficiency, economy and better education. Accordingly, when I became a member of this board, I recommended the need to establish the position of coordinator.

"One of the ablest educators this state has produced was selected. "It is my feeling that during the several months he has served, he has fully justified the confidence of this board in him and also has justified the belief that such a position is desirable in the best interest of education and the state."

He recalled that the understanding was for a temporary position, subject to legislative action making it permanent.

"The Legislature has declined to provide for the position of coordinator of the institutions of higher learning," the Governor said. "I feel it proper and right that this board should observe the spirit of that action of the Legislature and not continue further this position, no matter how useful and desirable it may be."

U. S. Unemployment

Farm employment alone increased 1,184,000 in May. Jobs in non-agricultural pursuits dropped $78,000 to a total of 49,720,000. This left the total increase of 875,000 in employment.

The bureau found an optimistic note in this fact: There was an increase in the number of full-time jobs, meaning those good for 35 hours work or more weekly.

"Approximately 2,000,000 more persons in May than in April were working full time," it said.

However, the number of full-time workers was down considerably in comparison with a year ago.

"About 1,500,000 persons with full-time jobs were working short hours—generally three or four days—during the week ending May 14 because of slack work, material shortages, job turnover, and similar factors," the Bureau said.

The Bureau has been devoting more attention to the number of hours worked since recent criticisms, largely from labor unions that its total figures on employment gave an artificially good impression because they concealed much involuntary part-time unemployment.

The Bureau counts as employed all persons working one hour or more weekly for pay, profit or family benefit.

The total of employed also includes persons who have regular jobs but are not actually working because of strikes, illness, vacation, or temporary layoffs of more than 30 days.

State Funds

"We finally might have them to do everything they didn't do in the regular session," the Governor told Ervin.

There is general agreement there must be a special session of the Legislature to raise money to meet the $240,000,000 general appropriations bill the lawmakers passed.

The Cabinet instructed State Budget Director Homer Graham to sell departments and agencies to "make a normal presentation of their budgets."

The fiscal year ends June 30 and budgets for the next two years must be approved by them. Graham said he was getting many inquiries on how the budgets should be prepared.

Cabinet members agreed the budgets should be turned in just as if the State had funds to meet them.

"Then we've got to sit down and analyze them item by item," Controller C. M. Gay said. "The Cabinet did not specify whether the budgets were to be drawn on the basis of present appropriations or the ones provided in the new appropriations act passed by the Legislature."

The Cabinet members also rejected a request from the State Beverage Department to purchase 12 automobiles and one from the State Welfare Board for $75,000 to spend on furniture and mechanical equipment.

Gay said he thought the Welfare Board could "very well do without" new furniture for the present and the Beverage Department could wait for its automobiles.

Approval was given a State Board of Conservation request for $27,000 to buy new boats for use in its enforcement work after Governor Warren said he considered the need urgent.

The Board's companion request for $10,000 for office equipment and supplies was rejected.

How does the new law differ? "Free games; not gambling—it is hereby proclaimed to be the intent of the Legislature that the awarding of additional "free" games by any coin operated game, continuance or facility operated by the movement of one or more balls, sometimes referred to as "pin ball machine" or "marble table" shall not be considered as gambling within the meaning of this State's anti-gambling laws.

Provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to authorize the use of such game or device for any gambling purposes or the giving of anything of value in exchange for any such additional or free game."

The last 10 words of the final paragraph, about trading free games for things of value, were tacked on by House amendment at the last minute.

Violence Flares Among Pickets At New York Harbor

Rival Demonstrators Attacked By Hudson River Dock Workers

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—Violence broke out today when rival picket lines demonstrated at entrances of the AFI International Longshoremen's Association.

Nearly 2,000 longshoremen from Hudson River piers joined their fellows in one picket line and charged a group of rival demonstrators.

Mounted police and foot patrolmen pushed into the battling groups, chasing them east and west on 14th Street and north on Eighth Avenue.

Passively caught in the melee were knocked down as mounted police rode onto the sidewalks. Many longshoremen were felled and several policemen were struck by fists and sticks.

Within a few minutes two police emergency squads reinforced policemen already at the scene and the battling longshoremen were dispersed.

The demonstrations interrupted loading and unloading operations on 19 ships at New York piers.

The first group of pickets took up positions early in protest against what they termed discrimination in hiring practices on Brooklyn piers. The demonstration followed a sitdown of 38 negroes in the ILA offices yesterday.

Within a short time a rival group of pickets appeared in a demonstration termed by ILA officials as "an answer by loyal members to acts Communist-inspired picket line."

Police kept the groups apart until the 2,000 longshoremen made their charge.

The sitdown yesterday, planned for 48 hours, ended after five hours when longshoremen ejected the demonstrators without violence or injury. The 38 claimed they were longshoremen and that their demonstration was spontaneous. However, their move was accompanied by mass picketing chanting protests against "Jim Crowism" on the waterfront.

Meanwhile, two of three Minnesota gunmen sought for killing a policeman, kidnaping and robbing, were captured by a party of farmers south of here in Kansas this morning. The third man gave himself up yesterday.

Sheriff Dwight Young of Fairbury said capture occurred after the gunmen wrecked their car. He said they have been identified as Carl Bristol, 27, and Allen G. Hartman, 20.

The pair have been sought since Saturday in the killing of a Minneapolis suburban police officer and the kidnaping of a Mandan, N. D. police officer who sought to question them. Subsequently they kidnaped five other persons but released them too.

Young said Sheriff Smith told him the gunmen wrecked their car when they ran into a bridge washout and the least seriously injured one went to a farmhouse for help.

Young reported the farmer recognized them and on the pretext of returning to his home for a chain, had his wife summon four neighbors. They came with shotgun and guarded the men until Sheriff Smith and his deputies arrived.

Smith said two of the three men were seriously injured and one might not live.

Rep. M. B. Smith is confined to his bed by a cold which he attributes to the air conditioning system at the Capitol and could not be reached for comment today.

ARE YOU AFRAID TO GET A CHEST X-RAY?

A GREAT many people hesitate to have a chest X-ray because they are afraid of what it may show.

Anybody can understand this fear and sympathize with it.

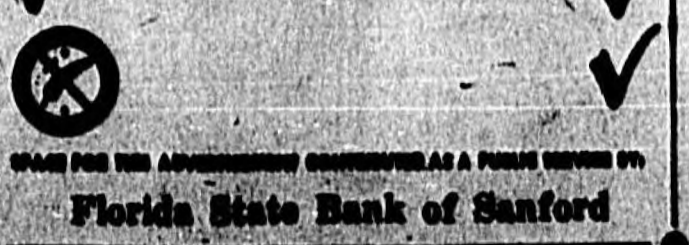

But look at the whole thing from the right angle, think of all the facts.

If the X-ray shows that you have tuberculosis in its early stages, it can be cured—with the least loss of time from your work.

On the other hand, if you should happen to have early TB now and not find it out, what will happen? You will go on living in a fool's paradise for a few months, maybe for a year or two. Then the disease may be so far advanced that it will take a long, long time to cure—and it may even be that there can be no cure. About 80,000 people in the United States die of TB every year.

Which is better? To know the truth now and, if it is unwelcome, to cure the trouble in the least possible time, with the least possible hardship on the family—or to close your eyes now and possibly the difficulty and hardship may, many times a week later? Think it over.
