 Justice should be blind, but God

President Truman says that U.S. defenses are in the best shape they have ever been in during peace time. Well, we hope they are in as good shape as they were the night before Pearl Harbor.

Wonder why Dick Cooper is signed as chairman of the speakers' bureau of the State Democratic Committee? Could it have been because Chairman Lauderdale is trying to use the committee as a special vehicle for Senator Popper to ride in?

Dr. Klaus Fuchs, British scientist who stole American atom bomb secrets and gave them to Russia, has been sentenced to 14 years in prison. They should keep him in London so that when the Russians drop their atom bombs there he will be sorry.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has approved a hundred thousand dollar appropriation for an investigation of organized gambling, loan-sharking, prostitution in this country. I might add that in particular the State Department

People who are looking for investigations might well look to Florida. Farmers income through out the country dropped last year for the first time since the war.
 In only five states was farm income up, while these five Florida led all the rest, up 19 percent from $35,000,000 to $39,000,- 000. No wonder Florida is the one bright spot in the whole universe!

People, art and science are softening this country up for Communism, says Evangelist Billy Grahams at Columbia, S. C. "Everything in America depends on us," he says, "you can't even advertise an automobile line without dragging in sex. Moral concussions in this country have plunged to a low never before experienced in a nation of the western world.
 There is no hope at all for America unless we have a revival.
 Something to think about."

It's all a lot of hooey, says Judge Ketch. Old John L. never told the miners to stay off the job at all. He really tried to get them to go back to work with all his might and main, just as the court had ordered him to do, but they just wouldn't do it. They're just funny that way. They do their own thinking and won't let nobody tell them what to do. At least that's what Judge Ketch seems to think. But the Supreme Court rendered a decision not so many years ago that said that a judge is supposed to be as intelligent as everyone else and that what is common knowledge, it may safely be presumed the judge knows.

There are no known Communists in the State Department says Secretary Acheson. How about unknown Communists? How about other people who have no business being there? Undersecretary of State Peurifoy testifies that 200 employees have been removed from the State Department during the past two years because they were under security investigation. Ninety one of these, he says, were homosexuals. The rest may have been Communists, drunks and dopey. We don't know. But what were they doing there in the first place? They can't take a security investigation to show whether someone is going to be here. We are not scientific enough to know what they should be doing there. It is a scientific house-

Organized Soil Saving

The organization of farmers by districts for the conservation of their precious soil is spreading steadily through the nation, on the whole without much commotion. At the fourth annual convention of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, in Atlanta, a membership of about four million farm people was reported. This indicates it is a healthy organization.

The conservation district idea took root in the depression years, when it was looked upon chiefly as a scheme to find work-for-idle hands. Its growth has been held back by many farmers' reluctance to have their individual farming methods and habits molded to the requirements of a district conservation project. There have been many instances in which farmers were greatly disappointed in the immediate effects of the conservation planning, and aghast at its cost.

Despite the adversities in growing numbers farm people have become enthusiastic about the plan. The enthusiasts have concluded that the cost and effort put into it now will be repaid in later years on farms which are more productive, easier to work and able to withstand many of the tricks of weather. People of a future era, both farmers and their customers, may be very grateful for constructive projects undertaken now to keep soil and water, and the wealth that is in them, where they can be used.

Voting System Change

Political dopesters have not been optimistic about the prospect for House approval of the proposed Constitutional amendment to revise the Electoral College system of electing presidents. It would automatically divide the electoral vote of each state among presidential candidates according to the popular vote in the state. Under present custom, each state's votes are cast in a block for the candidate receiving the highest vote. With this change the electoral vote, which actually determines the election of a president, would follow the popular vote state by state and the system would more nearly approach the election of presidents by popular vote.

An unfortunate feature in the consideration of the proposal is that argument seems to center on the question of how the change might affect the immediate political fortunes of one party or the other. Naturally this tends to obscure the questions of whether the proposal would be in the interest of the whole people, and of whether the change might be made still better by throwing out the electoral vote system altogether and electing presidents by direct popular ballot.

If the matter is debated solely on the basis of the nation at good, it is hard to see how any defensible stand can be taken for keeping the present system. The question to be decided then is not whether or not to make a change, but what kind of change should be made.

Still At War

A sometimes overlooked fact is that the United States is still at war. No peace treaties have been signed with Germany and Japan, and the prospect for doing so is not good. Great Britain and France are in the same situation.

All these countries have laws on the statute books which would expire automatically with the coming of official peace. A law forbidding trading with the enemy is an example, and it comes in to advantage in controlling the German and Japanese economy. On this account Washington recently discouraged British suggestions that the three Western nations get on with a peace treaty.

How little mere words mean! We are still officially at war with Germany and Japan, from whom just now we have nothing to fear, and an ally of Russia, from whom we have much to fear.

Attlee Regime

Peace Conference

(Continued From Page One) United Kingdom, and its 400,000 members, J. B. McGuire, NUR general secretary, demanded in a leading article that there be no compromise on iron and steel.

He said that this move, and additional nationalization, was what Labor asked the electorate to endorse on the national election on Feb. 23.

Other storm signals were flying in the face of the Labor government. They included:

1. Lord Beaverbrook's anti-Labour newspaper demanded the removal of leftwinger John Strachey from his new post as war minister. The newspapers said he was an avowed Communist. The Labor government strongly denied the charge.

2. A nation-wide strike was ordered among 3,000,000 members of the confederation of shipbuilding and engineering unions. They will decide whether to strike or arbitrate demands rejected by the government for a 2.280 weekly pay hike.

3. The economic committee of the Trades Union Congress called a meeting for next Wednesday to review its attitude toward the (Continued From Page One) ville's handwriting. It reads: "They are now making 20,000 rupees (about $1,000) and 45 pounds of gold. I know you have been sent to me today Monday. That will be all right."

"We intended our efforts towards Miss Maxwell's release without ransom," Donnell said. "The kidnappers ultimately agreed. She was to have been released Tuesday but the villagers jumped the gun."

Donnell said 18 villagers from Kamawet surprised the bandits in a dawn raid on their hideout.

One of them later reported to the nurse: "Eight to ten, all killed."

The rescue party fired a volley and the kidnappers fled. The rescuers ran into the hut and found Mrs. Maxwell on the floor bound with chains.

They freed her, placed her in a bullock cart and prepared to return to Moulmein. They were only two miles from town when they were ambushed.

Donnell quoted a villager who escaped wounded as saying the gang, party-headed, had their rifles and machine guns. They were the ones who had been holding up the town, with their rifles.

Donnell said only two of the wounded were returned to Moulmein.

Police later found buried beneath the ground the bodies of two men who had been killed by the bandits.

Garden Gate

By MRS. L. E. SPENCER

Be sure all Garden Club members and friends are looking forward to the Flower Show next Wednesday and Thursday. I thought I would write something about flower arrangements which I read recently.

Every flower arranger is a unique every bit as much as painter is an artist who paints a picture with pigment. The flower arranger is more than a painter; he is an esthetician, a sculptor and more times as she works with flowers she writes poetry, music and drama. Many arrangements have a strong narrative quality, tell a story, create atmosphere, mood, etc.

Flower arrangement is all the more interesting when the natural colors, form and texture are used. The question will be asked, what are the materials used?

Many get feathers out of their drawer, cannot find a suitable scheme for the arrangement and then use feathers, which they have collected, in the arrangement.

Fed Cagers Lose To Orlando In Regional Tilt

Clarence Clause Hits Hoop For 17 Points, But Feds Lose, 62-43

The Seminole High School basketball outfit playing their final game of the year at the Orlando high school last night dropped a 62-43 Regional tournament decision to a much more experienced Orlando five.

The Celery Feds, on the tail-end of an 18-3 first period score, managed to draw back into the contest in the closing minutes, when their star forward, Clarence Clause, caught fire and availed 10 points through the book.

Clause's efforts pulled the home team to within nine points of the Tigers.

The Orlando coach, sensing a supreme last minute effort on the part of the Celery Feds, pulled three of his second stringers from the floor and replaced them with trio of varsity starters.

Clause, who made all 11 of the teams 13 free throws, led the local five with 17 points.

Clause, who made all 11 of the year his squad would fare better in their next contests. Orlando, the pointed out, will have all but two or three of their first string starters, while Sanford will have eight lettermen back for action in 1952.

In addition to Clause, Gaines indicated that he expects two, and possibly three other players to break consecutively into the double scoring column next season.

"We have high hopes for sophomore Wise, Gardin and junior Garnett White," he said. "With their efforts, combined with the aggressiveness of Clause," Gaines said, "should prove to be the deciding factors in many a court tilt next year."

Mackey McDonald Tops Miami Cagers In Points Scored

CORAL GABLES, Mar. 3.—(UPI)—Final statistics on the 1949-50 University of Miami basketball season show Mackey McDonald to be the team's top scorer with 316 points. A year ago as a sophomore center, he tallied 366 points, but finished second to Capt. Bob Campbell who scored 347.

Campbell, who played football through Christmas and suffered severe injuries in his foot and fingers never did get back his 1948-49 form and dropped to third place in scoring with 247 points. "By Christmas, sophomore center moved into the second slot with 240 points.

Four scorers fell during the term. Abe Friedman, who graduated in mid-year, established an iron man record by scoring 100 in every one of the 88 games played while he was eligible. Campbell hung up a new all

Southworth Sees Sain As Top Hurler On Brave Roster

BRADENTON, Mar. 3. (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth says he has all the confidence in the world that Johnny Sain will have a fine year on the mound for the Boston Braves, and to make it unanimous, Sain shares the contract.

Tough breaks had a lot to do with Sain's indifferent 10-17 record last year after an 18-14 performance in 1948, Southworth insists.

"He just had a lot of bad luck," says the sturdy little pilot who is making something of a comeback himself. "Balls were falling for cheap hits, and sometimes the support wasn't too good. He never complained of a sore arm, I guess my arm got tired some times."

Southworth, in going overboard for Sain, is studying another ducking when he steadily maintains his current outfield is the best he has had since coming to the Boston club in 1949.

"Even if Sam Jethroe (the Negro speedway obtained from the Dodgers via Montreal) doesn't make it, I still say it is the best," Billy insists. "We have Sid Gordon, Willard Marshall and Longie Olson, and Tommy Holmes and others."

He won't be pinned down into saying this is his best all-around team in Boston, but he will admit he "likes my squad." It would seem he would be rather hard to please if he didn't.

He has an experienced man at every spot if he cares to use him, although he has only half a year's experience behind the plate. Bill Crimble, 28-year-old first-string catcher, joined the club last June 6. The other two receivers are fresh from the bushes, but Southworth is going all out for the husky Crimble.

It's quite probable rookie Roy Hartfield, from Milwaukee, will win the second base spot, and there is the chance Jethroe will split himself into the center field position.

Otherwise, not much will get the call. Earl Tamm, fully recovered from the shoulder injury which delayed him most of last season, will be on first; Buddy Kerr, the ex-Giant at short; the sturdy Bob Elliot on third; and possibly Gordon and Marshall, also ex-Giants, in left and right field respectively.

As a nucleus for a starting pitching staff, Southworth has Sain, his southpaw ace, Warren Spahn, and Verne Hickford. There is a strong possibility of rookie Nellie Höfner from Milwaukee might earn a starter's job, but time alone will tell.

All in all, the Braves at the moment look quite solid, and if Southworth gets any kind of hitting he has a contender on his hands...

Time scoring total when he boosted his four year total as a Hurricane to 107 points while McDonald broke up single game scoring records with 100 points. His performance against Tampa, An 80 point scoring outburst against Stetson was a new single game team record.

Bradley University Given Okay To Shoot for Berth in N. C. A. A.

By WILL CRIMBLE

NEW YORK, Mar. 8. (AP)—Bradley University, the nation's No. 1 college basketball team, may yet gun for an unprecedented tournament berth this month.

Already in the national elimination event, the bouncing Braves of Peoria, Ill., had the green light today to try for a berth in the NCAA. Earlier the NCAA district selection committee had slammed the door on them.

But, stirred to action by protests, the committee met last night in Kansas City and reversed itself.

Bradley's Missouri Valley championship, the committee had attempted to earn the district 8 berth by meeting the Big seven at Kansas City Mar. 20.

This has been the procedure in recent years but Bruce Drake of the University of Oklahoma, the committee chairman, announced early this week the spot would go to the big seven, seven

Nebraska, Kansas State or

Kansas—without a playoff.

The action provoked a demonstration from Bradley students and a strong protest from Jim coach, joining the club last June

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

A "Get Acquainted with your neighbor" drive will be inaugurated here Saturday Mar. 4, by members of the Sanford Seventh-day Adventist Church. This is a crusade to bring the world-wide endeavor by the denomination to visit two million homes today to bring spiritual help to the people of America.

Lay members of the church will visit the homes in teams of two. Pastor J. E. Williams explained they will stress an "every-day religion" based upon greater church attendance and family Bible study and prayer and distribute a leaflet especially prepared as a "cure for worry."

Young people of the church will also participate in the drive, he said. The only way to reach America's unchurched millions is for the lay members to work with their pastors in visiting their neighbors, Pastor Williams declared. This present crusade is not only to bring spiritual help to them but also to locate needy persons whom our Deaf and Dumb Society may aid.

The program of visitation is the largest Adventist missionary activity for 1950. It is being carried on in Europe, South America, Africa, Japan, the Philippines and the United States and Canada.

Officials of the Adventist world headquarters, Washington, D. C., are planning for ten million home visits by lay members during the year. Special emphasis will be given the program again June 3 and Oct. 7, when, according to present plans, two million homes each will be visited. A special leaflet has been made available in nine foreign languages for use in areas heavily populated by foreign speaking people.

"You might just as pertinently inquire "Why do I eat?" or "Why do I sleep?" because I find one just as necessary as the other; I could eat well and sleep well, and yet be a miserable man without the spiritual uplift that only comes from an attendance upon the Divine ordinances."

Then again, it is a great privilege to touch shoulders with the earnest Christian men who are also interested in promoting Christ's Kingdom upon earth. For example, while Portion for the soul, during the Harrison administration, I traveled nearly 100,000 miles in order to be present just as necessary as the other; I could eat well and sleep well, and yet be a miserable man without the spiritual uplift that only comes from an attendance upon the Divine ordinances.

Again, during the Roosevelt administration, I traveled nearly 100,000 miles in order to be present just as necessary as the other; I could eat well and sleep well, and yet be a miserable man without the spiritual uplift that only comes from an attendance upon the Divine ordinances.

Pioneer Night Is Held At Lake Mary For 25th Occasion

Contributions Of Elder Citizens To Young Americans Told By Speakers

The progress of Seminole County and the opportunities now enjoyed by youth here through the efforts of pioneers was pointed out to more than 207 pioneers by Judge Douglas Stenstrom, Jack Ratigan, Fred Wilson and Vol Williams, Jr., at the Pioneer Night celebration Friday night at the Lake Mary Community House.

Frank Evans, himself a Lake Mary pioneer resident, conducted the program for the 25th time, and was congratulated by Fred Wilson for the outstanding enjoyment which he has brought to the pioneers of Seminole County.

The Community House, the gift of Mr. Evans to Lake Mary, was packed to capacity, and the elderly persons applauded the outstanding program of entertainment, including the music of the Seminole High School, the wit and humor of the four speakers, an amusing one act skit played by Miss Elizabeth Speers and Miss Clara Speers, and the showing of Florida scenes in color by George Swartz.

Top honors for age were accorded to Dr. J. G. Gibbs, retired physician, and Sam L. Johnson, who is 94 years old. He declined to accept a cane from Mr. Evans, having received one last year, which was carved by the late H. B. Mees of Geneva.

Those receiving canes were Andrew Toney, 89; W. E. Hathaway, 82; Charles B. Davis, 82; Frank N. Pollock, 80; R. E. Snider, 81; and A. J. Loosig, 79. Those present, in addition to Dr. Gibbs, who had formerly received canes were W. E. Randall, 87; Joe Kimball, 85; J. C. Johnson, 83; and Fred Wilson, 82.

Guest ladies present included Mrs. Ogleby, Mrs. Josephine Collins, 83; Mrs. Beatrice Robb, 82; Mrs. M. B. Beasler, 82 and Mrs. G. H. Ford, 82; Mrs. Charlotte Boyer, 79; Mrs. Anna MacLellan, 78. Each received a silver brooch. All persons 60 or over received red handkerchiefs.

Seven foreign countries were represented by their embassies: Canada, Sweden, Germany and England, two each and Scotland, Holland and Finland, one each.

Florida, with 20 present, was closely contested by Ohio with 10.

MacNeill And Ray To Direct Census In Seminole County

Malcolm G. MacNeill and Ralph W. Ray, both of Sanford, have been appointed as crew leaders for Seminole County to direct the efforts in the forthcoming 17th decennial census. The announcement was made today by Mrs. Sarah G. Hughes, district supervisor.

Mr. MacNeill has been assigned the west side and Mr. Ray will handle the east side.

Those who wish to apply for positions as enumerators must be citizens of the United States, have a high school education or furnish evidence of comparable experience, be in good physical health and of excellent character, and between the ages of 21 to 65. Preference, however, will be given to those between the ages of 30 to 45, Mrs. Hughes said.

Applicants must have sufficient financial resources to support themselves for approximately four weeks from the time of appointment until the arrival of their first salary check, she added.

Applicants with veteran preference, who meet these requirements, will be given priority over non-veteran applicants. Applicants for enumerators jobs in rural areas must possess an automobile in good operating condition. One car operating vehicle on a regular basis is required for non-business work to be eligible.

Applications may be obtained from the office of Mrs. Hughes, Room 205, City Hall, Sanford, Fla., or online, 1877 Main Street.

Doctor Sander Denies Intent In Mercy Killing

Claims He Believed Woman Was Dead Before Injection

MANCHESTER, N. H., Mar. 6.—(UPI)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander testified today Mrs. Abbie Borroto was "dead" when he injected her with a syringe, "something snapped," leading him to inject air into her veins.

Under cross-examination, Attorney General William L. Phinney asked:

"You don't know why you put air into the veins?"
"That's right," replied the doctor in an even tone.

Q. You don't know for what purpose?
A. I don't know why I acted this way.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Mar. 6.—(UPI)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander testified in his murder trial today that "there was no indication of life, no reaction," when he injected air into the veins of Mrs. Abbie Borroto.

He also said "I never had an intention of killing Mrs. Borroto."

The 41 year old country doctor on trial for murder in the death of the cancer-ridden woman said he called for a syringe the morning of last Dec. 4 after he looked at his patient and thought she was dead.

"It was my opinion then that she was dead," Dr. Sander testified in a calm voice. "I can't explain exactly what action I took then. Something snapped. Why I did it I can't tell. It doesn't make sense."

"Did you have any intention of killing Mrs. Borroto?" asked defense counsel Ralph E. Landell.

A. I never had any intention of killing Mrs. Borroto?

Q. Did you ever agree to kill Mrs. Borroto?

A. I never agreed to kill her.

Q. Did you know what you intended to do with the syringe?

A. I do not know what I intended to do. I remember trying to get it into her vein.

Q. Was there blood on her arm?

A. There was never any blood anywhere. I tried to get into the vein, I did not use a tourniquet to bring up the vein. Her veins collapsed.

Dr. Sander said he had a 10 cubic centimeter syringe, and expected:

"I withdrew the plunger to make injection but nothing came out, there was no blood." Dr. Sander testified Mrs. Abbie Borroto "looked like a dead person" during the last week of her illness.

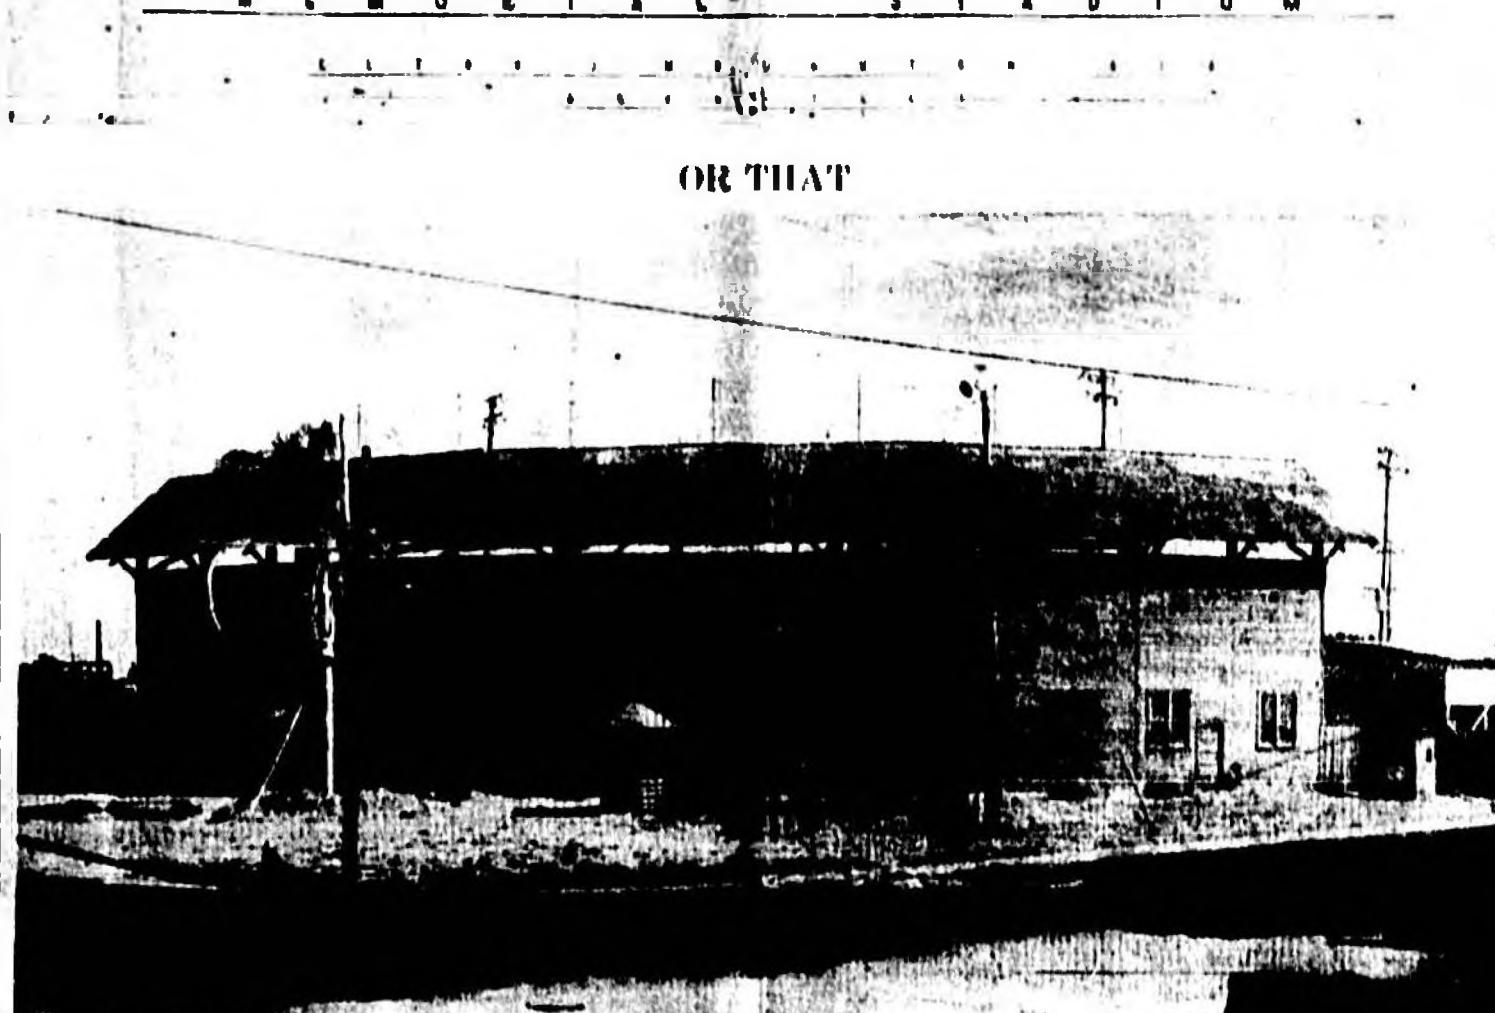

Q. Was there blood on her arm?

A. There was never any blood anywhere. I tried to get into the vein, I did not use a tourniquet to bring up the vein. Her veins collapsed.
