The action follows a poll of 615 registered voters conducted Saturday, Sunday and Monday by the Florida Education Association-United, and released late Tuesday. The poll showed Floridians were more lavorable to the tax in light of new information.

Of those polled, 18 percent favored retaining the tax, with 23 percent favoring revision and 48 percent favoring repeal and replacement with an alternative levy. Six percent had no opinion or litted none of the options.

Given a choice between the services tax and a penny sales tax like. 30 percent opted for the services tax and 52 percent opted for the penny increuse, with the remainder saving they were unsure or had no opinion. When presented with figures showing they would pay more under an extra penny than under the services tax, the breakdown was about 50-50.

These are dramatic changes from the polls showing 70 to 80 percent against the services tax.
"I'm not surprised," said Senate President
John Vogt, D-Cocoa Heach. "That's the advantage of taking some time in this process and not

Sanford Mayor, Policeman Sued

Ex-Candidate Asks $500,000 Damages

Maryean Cross

A Sanford resident who unsuccessfully ran for a seat on the Sanford City Commission has filed a $500,000 lawsuit against a Sanford police officer and the mayor claiming false arrest.

Earl G. Jesse, 57, of 96 Exeter Court, filed the suit Friday in federal court in Orlando. Jesse received 18 votes in the six-candidate race in December that prompted a runoff and finally saw Whitey Echstein emerge the victor.

Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith said today she did not know enough details of the suit to comment But she did say it was going to be turned over to the city's insurance company for them to handle.

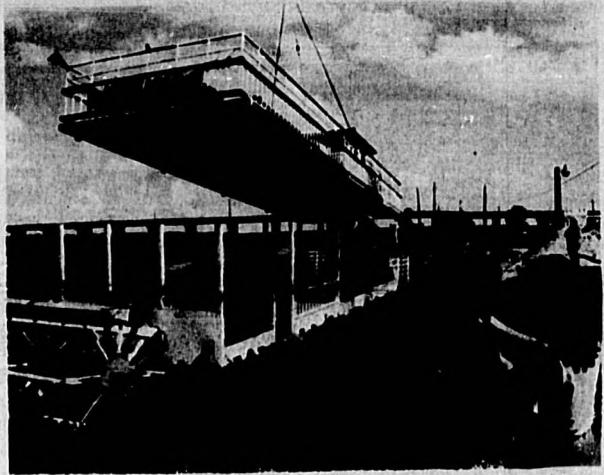

In the suit, Jesse states that on Nov. 23, 1985, Sanford police officers arrested him without probable cause and imprisoned him in the Seminole County Jall. Jesse was arrested for allegedly violating a judge's order that he not go near his then estranged wife. Jesse claims he never knew about the order

According to court records, various events on the morning of Nov. 20, 1985, prompted Pauline J. Jesec to seek an emergency injunction for protection. Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr. held a hearing and issued the order that day, but since Jense had not been notified of that hearing, it was ordered he appear in court Dec. 9, 1985, before Davis to address the issue.

Records show that Jesse did not receive a copy of that injunction prior to Nov. 23, 1985, when police arrested him for allegedly being near 96 Exeter Court where he and his wife had lived and where she was living at the time. Jesse says he never was near the house.

Longwood Panel Splits 3-2; Plea To Get Rehearing

Accusations Pepper Rezoning Request

Merald Staff Writer

A rejected rezoning request that would have made way for a new Mazda car dealership on Highway 17-92 at Orange Avenue in Longwood, will get another chance when it gets a rehearing on Oct. 19.

Amid cries of pressure tacties by representatives of the developer, conflict of Interest and Illegal voting, the city commission voted 3-2 Monday night on a motion by Commissioner Dave Gunter to rehear the proposed amendments to the Comprehensive Plan Land Use Element and Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance with proper publication.

The ordinances call for assigning the Future Land Use as Commercial, General and changing the zoning from Residential Single Family-Duplex to C-3 Commercial. General on the back half of Lot 7 on Orange Avenue of the DeLucian property.

Stephen Cold, an architect with the firm of HDS Consultants of Longwood which represents Leroy Strickland, who is buying the property, said Tuesday that ironically, In the 60s the property was all zoned commercial in the county and after annexation into Longwood by the city. In 1981 when the city was working on the Comprehensive Land Plan the lot was split with the front portion zoned C-3 and the back 282 feet R-2. He said the property is located across Orange Avenue from a bank, a day care center and a Handyway store.

At the first public hearing on Sept. 14, the city commission voted 4-1 to deny the zoning change from R-2 Single Family-Duplex Residential to C-3 General Commercial after several members of the audience objected on the grounds it would cause a safety hazard to school children attending Longwood Elementary School. Commissioner Lynette Dennis voted against denying the zoning change because ti had been approved by the Land Planning Agency, city planner and staff before getting to the commission.

Mayor Ed Myers said Monday night, "I think we were misled last week when we turned down the ordinance. On going over the site I find there is a gate on Orange Avenue that will be kept closed except at night when cars will be unloaded. The last 392 feet is residential and not to be rezoned

However, Cold said Tuesday, there will be no access onto Orange Avenue and the only entrance will be from Highway 17-92.

Golden Age Games To Honor National Medalists

By Jene Casselberry Kerald Staff Writer

Medal winners at the National Senior Olympics held in St. Louis, who qualified in the Golden Age Games in Sanford last November, will be honored at this year's Sanford Games as honorary co-chairmen. The 13th annual Games will be held Nov. 6-14 starting 2 p.m. Sunday with sailing competition on Lake Monroe.

Dave Farr, executive director of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce co-sponsor of the event, told members of the Golden Age Games Executive Committee Tuesday that as many of the 34 national medal winners who are able to attend will be recognized at the opening ceremonies to be held at 9 a.m. Nov. 9 at Sanford City Hall. They will be presented a special patch that will identify them as they attend the various

Farr said. "This year we made the decision rather than go outside to get a nationally recognized honorary chairman, this year we would do something special. All the medalwinners for the Senior Olympics will be honorary co-chairmen. They will attend the events and encourage the participants."

He said he hopes to have at least 20 of the medal winners participating.

Last year's honorary chairman Betty Robinson Schwartz and her husband, Dick, who now own a home in Sanford, have volunteered to assist with this year's Games. A member of the U.S. Olymple running team, she won gold medals in track and field in both the 1928 and 1936 Olympics and is the subject of a television portrait filmed by a CBS crew here in Sanford. Golden Age Games Chairman Jim Jeruwan reported on the first National Senior Olympics which he termed a success. There is now an official organization with a national office in St. Louis. Jernigan is the southern regional director on the 13-member board.

A man who allegedly sold 16 ounce of cocaine to an undercover City County Investigative Bureau agent for $220 at about 11 p.m. Monday in Sanford, was arrested immediately after the drug was picked up from at 2006 Marquette Avenue.

The agent reported meeting the suspect at 2547 S. Myrtle Avenue and they drove to the pickup location. where the agent waited in the car for the suspect to return

After the reported sale, Danny Raye Weitnauer, 27, of 2547 S. Myrtle Ave., was charged with sale and delivery of cocaine and possession of cocaine. He was being held

Deputy Witnesses Car Burglary

A man who allegedly took a briefcase, a carton of cigarettes and a roll of paper towels from a driverless vehicle has been arrested on a burglary charge.

The pickup truck had rolled into the side of Seminole Glass Co., County Road 427, Altamonte Springs. While a sheriff's deputy was on the scene investigating the apparent accident, the man allegedly stole the items. He reportedly admitted to the sheriff's deputy that the items taken from the truck were not his.

The owner of the truck, called to the scene, told deputies the man didn't have permission to take the items and asked that charges be filed.

David Howard Smallwood. 24, of 715 Benedict Way. Casselberry, was arrested at 2:17 a.m. Sunday. He has been charged with burglary and was being held in lieu of $1,000 bond.

Rip-Off Of Police Badge Tried

The woman, who lives with her mother, was outside when sheriff's deputies were called to the scene at about 11:50 a.m. Sunday. The suspect reportedly was yelling and cursing and began struggling with a sheriff's deputy. She allegedly tried to rip his badge off and said. "You're illegally wearing that uniform. You're going to state prison." according to a sheriff's report.

Barbara Bolt, age not listed, of 1090 Mango Drive, has been charged with battery on a policeman, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest with violence.

Car Said To Have Harmed Home

A Longwood woman reported that someone damaged a wall of her home by driving a vehicle into it.

Anne McNamara, 31, of 615 Long Meadow Circle. reported that on Tuesday between 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. someone hit her wall next to her garage with a vehicle.

The deputy reported the wall was cracked and there were bits of chrome and rubber at the impact point.

Driving Under Influence Arrests

The following persons have been arrested in Seminole Countrion a charge of driving under the influence:

-Cheryl Lynn Whitaker, 18, of Orlando, was arrested at 11:42 p.m. Monday after she was seen driving erratically on State Road 436, Altamonte Springs. She also was charged with driving with a suspended license

-Dean Oakley Jr., 57, of 224 Hancock Court, Casselberry, at 11:04 a.m. Sept. 25 after his car ran a red light at Lake Howell Road, Casselberry. He also was charged with driving with a suspended license.

Pot In Auto Leads To Arrest

A Seminole County sheriff's deputy, on the lookout for a car driven by a man said to have been in a fight at the 7-Eleven, U.S. Highway 17-92, Longwood, reported finding the man's car as he was parking at the Seminole County jail. Sanford, at about 4:35 a.m. Tuesday.

Inside the ashtray of the car, in plain view, the deputy reported seeing a partially smoked marijuana cigarette. That led to a search of the car and the reported finding of a container of cocaine inside a case in the car. Drug paraphernalia also was reportedly found.

Edward P. Phillips, 30, of 238 Mosswood Circle, Winter Springs, has been charged with possession of cocaine. He was being held in lieu of $1,000 bond.

Burglaries And Thefts Reported

Linda M. Palading. 42. of 310 Rudenaugh Drive. Longwood, reported to sheriff's deputies that the person she named in the theft of her $200 from her bank, using a stolen teller card, also is suspected of having stolen her 1978 Mustang valued at $2,000. The thefts occurred Sept. 18 or 19, and the loss was reported Thursday.

Clarence L. Lacost, 33, of 3302 Ferndell Drive, Winter Park, reported to sheriff's deputies a $225 knife and $125 were stolen from his home Thursday.

Lomelo Enters Halfway House

DANIA (UPI) - Former Sunrise Mayor John Lomelo, wearing a six-inch pigtail he grew at a federal prison, has transferred to a Dania halfway house where he will serve the next four months of his sentence for mail fraud and extortion.

Lomelo, who served two years of his seven-year sentence in the federal prison at Eglin Air Force Base, left the Florida Panhandle facility Tuesday morning.

At midafternoon, Lomelo, 59, arrived at Dismas House, the halfway house, looking tanned and trim.

Lomelo ignored a flurry of questions from a dozen reporters who had waited for him as his wife, Virginia, and daughter, Martha, trailed behind him.

"He'll stay here for the next week under total house restric-tion." said Dennis Des Jardin. director of Diaman House.

For that time, he can leave only to arrange his personal affairs, look for work and get meals at restaurants.

"After that, he gets a greater measure of freedom." Des Jardin said. "He can visit his family till 10 o'clock in the evening."

In March 1985, a jury convicted Lomelo of forcing a nursing home developer to pay his friend. Spike Leibowitz. a $30,000 lobbying fee in exchange for his support for the

Until he is paroled on Jan. 24. Lomelo is considered to be a federal prisoner and cannot go anywhere without first informing staff members at Dismas House, where he pays 86 a day in rent.

Eventually, he will be allowed to go to work, but he must report back to Dismas House after his shift. No one has speculated about what type of work Lomelo is interested in, but Dismas House will help him find work.

He will be allowed to visit friends and relatives, eat meals at his Sunrise home, attend movies, go bowling, almost anything he wants as long as it is approved by Dismas House staff members.

Dismas House is a private. non-profit operation and the only halfway house in Broward County that houses federal inmates before they are released on parole.

Five-Day Forecast

For Central Florida

Heavens Play 'Misty' Today

Four decades ago Erroll Garner composed a beautiful blues number named for the type morning we had early today - Misty. That was what it was, but just enough to qualify as a "trace." And, just enough to mess up the windshields.

What happened is easy to explain. If you understand pedantic weathertalk. The winds shifted . from the northeast to the southwest. Makes a difference. So much so that we'll keep having the mist to light rain for the next couple of day. Off and on, now so drive carefully.

Temperatues will remain about the same - high 80s to low 90s during the day, and down to the high 60s to low 70s at night. Elsewhere around the nation they are not enjoying Seminole Countytype weather: Balmy, that is.

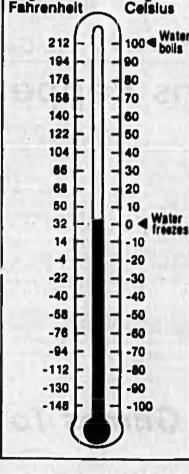

Rainshowers and thunderstorms will be scattered today from the eastern Great Lakes and New England south through the Atlantic Coast states into Florida, the National Weather Service said. Showers and thunderstorms will be most numerous from the northern and central Appalachians into the Carolinas and across much of Florida. Rain will be likely over much of New England, but the rest of the nation will have mostly sunny or partly cloudy skies.

A cold front stretching from Ohio to the Gulf of Mexico brought thunderstorms and high winds Tuesday that in New York state blew down branches and damaged boats moored on a lake.

"There's still going to be showers and thunderstorms from the front today," Hugh Crowther from the National

State Gas Costs Fall; Local Prices Same

Steady gains in average Florida gasoline prices halted in September with a 1.4-cent-per-gallon drop at self-service pumps, but prices in Seminole County have remained fairly constant.

Increases at full-service stations pushed statewide costs higher, a private survey showed. but Seminole County service stations reported that prices for both self-service and full-service gasoline, with few exceptions. were about where they were a month ago.

The AAA Clubs of Florida, which maintains a monthly watch on prices, said the drop in average self-service prices extended to a majority of the 25 cities surveyed, while a few towns posted small gains.

Most Seminole County station

managers reported prices have and full-service prices widened remained steady for the past three weeks at least. One manager said he received a wholesale price increase about a month ago, then a decrease a couple of weeks later to, bring the price back to where it was. One dealer reported a two-cent drop early in the month and another reported his price had increased two cents.

"It's obvious all the oil companies aren't changing their gasoline prices at the same time," a station owner com-

The average price for all grades of gasoline rose two-tenths of a cent per gallon statewide, to $1.12, with gains at full-service pumps offsetting the declines for self-service customers. The gap between self-service to 31.9 cents per gallon from an August difference of 28.6 cents. AAA said.

Gasoline prices have climbed 15.1 cents per gallon this year. although an AAA forecast of a six-cent rise in late summer failed to materialize and prices rose 2.4 cents from July through August.

The city-by-city breakdown showed average unleaded gas prices at self-service stations fell in 16 cities, rose in five and was unchanged in four cities, while average regular gas prices dropped in 15 cities, climbed in seven cities and remained unchanged in three.

Fort Pierce, Lakeland, Ocala and Port Charlotte bucked the statewide trend and had higher self-service prices, the monthly survey showed.

At self-service stations, regular gasoline declined to an average 93.9 cents per gallon statewide from 95 cents in August, and unleaded at full-service stations fell to 98.2 cents from $1 a month earlier.

In Seminole County. selfservice prices for unleaded gasoline ranged from 94.9 cents to $1.06 per gallon for regular. Full-service prices ranged from 97.9 cents to $1.26, for unleaded gasoline to $1.26 for premium.

Prices for all grades of gasoline have increased steadily from spring through August, the group said in its monthly report.

Full-service stations sold regular gas for an average $1.25 per gallon, compared with $1.23 a month earlier, and unleaded for $1.31 per gallon, up from $1.29 per gallon in August.

Bids Upcoming On Paving, Drainage Projects

By Brad Church Herald Staff Writer

Contracts are scheduled to be let next month for four paving and drainage projects being completed by Seminole County through federal Community Development Block Grant funds. The county received $1.6 million in CBDG funds last year and is approved for $1.64 million for the pext federal fiscal year. which begins Thursday.

The county is completing eight paving and drainage projects under the program. Ready for bids are the projects in Winwood, Roseland Park.

Bookertown and Oviedo. Bids for the Winwood project. which involves the paving of Central, Dunbar and Depugh streets, and related drainage improvements, will be opened

Oct. 13. A contract is expected to be let for construction beginning in late October.

The paving of First Drive, which provides the only means of access to Roseland Park residents, is expected to begin in mid-November. A bid opening is expected to be scheduled for late October.

The county also has received approval to use $195,000 of the 1987-88 CBDG grant for the paving of Borrows Lane in the Roseland Park area and related drainage improvements.

A contract is expected to be let on Oct. 30 for the paving of Dunbar Avenue and Richard Allen Street in Bookertown. along with accompanying drainage improvements.

Another $200,000 of CBDG money will be spent in the 1987-88 year to pave Halsey Avenue in the Bookertown area.

Bids are to be accepted this week for paving and drainage improvements to First, Second. Third and Fourth streets in Oviedo. Construction is expected to begin late next month.

A $75,000 grant has been used to complete design of the first phase of drainage improvements in Midway, mainly along Washington Street. The project also was approved for funding in the coming fiscal year, and construction is expected to begin in December.

Bids for the Johnson Hill area. also approved for funding in the 1987-88 grant, will be let this winter after a final design is complete for a paving and drainage project.

Funding in the next grant period likewise has been approved for the paving of Alexander. McCarthy and Hawkins between 18th and 20th streets in the Lockhart subúlvision. A contract is expected to be let in December. with construction beginning in January.

The county also has plans for paving and drainage improvements in the Jamestown area. but no funds were approved for the project for the coming year. Money was received last year for planning the project, which will include paving East Street and the unpaved portion of James Street in order to provide paved access to residents of the Walker Road area. Money for the paving is expected to be included in the 1988-89 block grant.

Park Survey To Guide In Improvements

By Brad Church Herald Staff Writer

A consultant group is completing a user survey of Seminole County parks, the results of which will be used to plan future park improvements. de din Hibie county

The survey, conducted both by telephone and by personal interviews of park users, began Sept. 21 and will continue through today. sulting firm is con ducting 500 telephone surveys. Names of people to be called were selected at random from both city residents and those living in unincorporated areas based on the population of different areas of the county.

Face-to-face surveys are being conducted in Lake Mills Park. Red Bug Lake Park. Sylvan Lake Park and Sanlando Park

The surveys are intended to determine residents' attitudes about parks and recreation available within the county.

The telephone surveys ask people how often members of their family participate in various sports; picnic; water ski; boat; camp: fish; attend sporting events, festivals, fairs and nature centers; and where they go for each of these activities. The surveys also asked whether respondents use county parks and if not, why not: and what additional park and recreational facilities they think the county should have.

Residents were asked if they would be willing to pay additional taxes for park land acquisition and development. whether the county should acquire park land now though it may be several years before it is developed, and whether the county should continue to charge user fees to help pay for operating park facilities and programs.

A final section of the telephone survey asked the ages of members of the participants' families, how long they have lived in the county, whether they own or rent their home, and what their gross income is.

Federalism Is Alive And Well

A bipartisan group commissioned a Gallup Poll recently on public attitudes toward local. state and federal government, and the answers were clear-cut. Voters trust their local government the most and Washington the least, with the state government in between. Though, the respondents probably didn't think of it that way, they were confirming that federalism is alive and well.

The nation's founders took great care to preserve competing political entities within the United States. They granted certain powers to the federal government and reserved all other powers to the states or people. The states were expected to act as a check and balance on the central government laboratories for political economic and social experimentation. If their experiments were ill-advised, as they often are, at least the damage would be limited. If they worked well, other states . and the federal govenment . could learn from them.

States, in turn, grant certain powers to their political subdivisions, such as townships, cities and counties. This is mostly for administrative convenience, but it also encourages competition within the states themselves on taxes, schools and other matters.

The "Federalist Papers," written to argue the case for adoption of the new Constitution. whose bicentennial we are now observing. reasoned that state and local politicians would be more trusted because they are closer to the people. The Gallup Poll. commissioned by the U.S. Advisory Commission on intergovernmental Relations. found exactly that.

Of the 1.044 Americans polled, 37 percent said they have the most trust in local government, 22 percent in state government and 19 percent in the federal government.

Their view of taxes is consistent with that. Asked whether federal, state or local taxes were the least, 30 percent chose the federal income tax, 12 percent the state taxes and 24 percent the local property tax. Interestingly, unhappiness with the federal income tax actually declined 7 percentage points since 1978, possibly a reflection of t reforms that have taken place during the Americans like their government close to home, where they can keep an eye on it. though voters understand that government isn't to be greatly trusted in any case.

When considering the checks and balances built into our constitutional system, we tend to think of the separation of powers within the federal government. We should also remember the crucial checks and balances built into the federal system as a whole. It's a work of art and the public knows it.

Why SATs B-a-d For American Education

The release of the latest national SAT acores sent me back to Johnny Mercer and the Titanic. And if that exercise in mnemonic confusion soess't pique your interest. I'll support Robert

On one of my Mercer records, the words of my beloved composer sound: "As the governor of Carolina south told the governor of Carolina

... That in 1987, the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) scores rank North and South Carolina as the nation's two dumbest states, because they have the lowest SAT scores of all 50 states. (Of a total of 1,600 points for the verbal and math sections of the SAT, South Carolina's statewide average was 832, and North Carolina's was

Of course, any conclusion about SATs measuring the "educational health" of the nation is an undocumentable fantasy. These standardized college-admissions tests, in fact, are phony, inadequate and unnecessary. The latest SAT test scores also recall a bad news-good news dichotomy about the Titanic: Bad news — The ship has just hit an iceberg. Good news - We won't run out of ice cubes.

Headlines rhapsodised about one area of progress in the SATs. The good news was that blacks increased their SAT scores by six points over a two-year period, while all other students marked time. But the headlines ignored the bad news. Blacks still acore 208 points below whites on the combined math and verbal portions of the SATs. That's 178 points below the national average, and it is the lowest performance of any ethnic group in America.

You call that progress? It's progress for New Hampshire and Oregon. because the SAT scores rank those states respectively No. 1 and 2. I exalt in my New England heritage, but not the idiocy that sumes New Hampshire has the smartest students because it bosots the highest SAT

The only thing that a standardized or norm-referenced test tells you is how well you perform in relation to somebody else. Contrary to popular belief, these tests have no way of measuring how intelligent you are or how much progress you might make if you were placed in an optimal learning situation.

A number of variables do have a high correlation with test scores. On the average. whites score higher than blacks: upper-income students score higher than low-income students: Northeastern students score higher than Southern students; and males score higher than That last comparison demonstrates that SATs are the ultimate educational fraud. All over America, women graduate from high school with higher grade-point averages than males. Yet, they score lower on the SATs.

Compounding this psychometric rip-off, both the College Board and the Educational Testing Service concede in their literature, that, one on one, grade-point averages are more accurate than the SAT in predicting academic performance. That's another reason why SATs are b-a-d for American education.

Cocaine's Profit Squeeze

WASHINGTON (NEA) - Cocaine trafficking is a billion dollar industry. But according to U.S. narcotics enforcement experts, the South American drug cartels controlling production of most cocaine sold worldwide are caught in a price-supply squeeze. It has sharply cut profits and forced them to expand their markets.

The State Department's Bureau on International Narcotics Matters reports that Colombia, Bolivia and Peru continue as principal sources of cocaine worldwide and virtually the sole sources of U.S. cocaine.

A commodity like any other. cocaine is subject to the same supply-and-demand pressures as coffee or bananas. Over the last year, according to experts, oversupply and rising costs have made cocaine profits plummet.

The biggest problem is over-production. When cocaine prices akyrocketed several years ago, huge crops of coca leaf - the raw material for cocaine - were planted in drug-producing countries. These plants have now reached maturity and their leaves are being harvested for the first time. Record crops have been the result.

Growers have been hit hard. This year's crop was worth only about 20 percent of what they would have been worth only a year ago. Some U.S. experts hoped this might force growers to find other crops to plant. but it appears that most will continue to plant coca and wait for the market to rebound.

According to Drug Enforcement Administration estimates, about 150 metric tona of cocaine entered the United States last year roughly twice the 1985 level. While U.S. demand remains high, it has not kept pace with the rapidly growing supply. As a result, prices have been dropping while purity levels have been steadily climbing. This means less profit.

In 1983-84, according to the DEA. a gram of 35 percent pure cocaine - the street standard of purity cost between $100 and $125. In 1965, the price dropped slightly to $100, but street-standard purity rose to between 50 and 60 percent.

Last year, a gram of cocaine could be bought in most U.S. cities for about $80, with purity up to 65 percent. Recently, prices on the streets of Miami (considered something of a U.S. standard), have dropped to $50, with purity running as high as 75 percent.

ROBERT WALTERS

The AIDS Confusion

WASHINGTON (NEA) - Here's a brief quiz about acquired immune deficiency syndrome that illustrates how little is known about AIDS six years after it first appeared in this country:

1) The average medical costs incurred by a single AIDS victim from the onset of the disease until death are: a) less than $30,000; b) almost $150,000.

2) The average incubation period for AIDS is: a) five years; b) 10 years: c) 20 years.

3) By 1991, the cumulative total of known AIDS cases in this country will be: a) 135,000; b) 270,000.

Regardless of which answers you picked, you've, achieved a perfect score on the test. That's because all of the alternatives listed above have been offered to the public by reputable medical researchers as reliable estimates.

For members of high-risk groups. notably homosexual and bisexual men and intravenous drug users. the uncertainty of AIDS is whether they will contract the disease that invariably is fatal.

For those presumably not as susceptible to the virus, there is another uncertainty - how society will handle the epidemic, especially its mounting financial costs. Securing the necessary funds will present an awesome challenge, but simply ascertaining how much money will be required is proving to be difficult, if not impossible. There is no consensus on the cost of providing medical treatment to a typical AIDS patient, while estimates of how many people will be afflicted by the disease vary even more widely.

The federal Centers for Disease Control, the organization that has most closely monitored the epidemic, examined the costs of providing hospital care to the first 10,000 AIDS patients in this country, then reported in 1985 that the expenses averaged #147,000 per person.

But a subsequent scientific study of the costs of treating AIDS victims in San Francisco hospitals produced an estimate of just under $27,600 per person.

The number of cases reported to CDC now exceeds 42,000. One-half of those who have contracted AIDS have died within one year of the initial diagnosis. Almost threefourths have perished within two years. Seven-eighths have died within four years.

There is no agreement, however. on what the future holds. "For every case of reported AIDS in the United States, there are about 100 or more carriers," a respected Harvard University researcher told a Senate committee last year.

"Once infected, (they are) infected for life." he added. "We see a wave a devastating disease coming."

Others diamiss those views as unnecessarily hysterical, if not outrageously apocalyptic. One scientific projection places the cumulative total at 135,000 cases by 1991. CDC, however, believes the figure will reach 270,000 by 1991.

How Farmers Feel

Though the farm crisis no longer is featured on the front pages of the nation's newspapers, it continues to be a reality in a number of states. And urban American can't afford to neglect the concerns of the people who live in rural areas or in the towns that serve farming communi-

For the moment, world agricultural markets are glutted. American's tremendous capacity to produce food isn't appreciated as it was in the 1970s. That situation could change, however, and the productive capacity of American farms would be appreciated anew. By that time, however, much American agriculture may have disappeared or changed beyond recognition.

The concern in the farm states is that the traditional family farm is disappearing and will be replaced by a corporate system of land ownership. Some analysts argue that the family farm is going the way of the corner grocery store.

The loss of the family farm system, however, is much more serious. The family farm is a bedrock institution in American society. Family ownership of farmland is a key part of the free enterprise system in the United States, Farmers who own their land have a stake in their communities that transcends anything that might be characteristic of a corporate

Moreover, farm families are identifled with the best American values. They have been the elements in contemporary American society least affect by the alienation and radicalization that has come into American life: that may change as farmers become disaffected.

Loss of the family farm system would represent a major impairment of the free enterprise system that has been responsible for so much good in our country. Imagine how shocking it would be if small business generally were to disappear and be replaced by a limited number of glant companies ... perhaps multi-nationals.

There aren't any easy solutions to the problem of the disappearing family farm. But Americans who live in cities should endeavor to understand the concerns of family farmers. An article by A.C.Copetas in Regardies, the Washington business magazine, discusses the feeling of many family farmers that they have been handed a bad deal by the giant money center banks.

Memos Describe Bush Link To Contras

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta WASHINGTON — Recently released memos and depositions by the staff of Vice President George Bush raise more questions than they answer about his role in the Iran/contra scandal. And there is still more evidence that hasn't been released yet by the Senate-House committees that investigated the

As we reported previously, there was more to Bush's role than the public hearings brought out. On June 8 we wrote that a "still-secret internal memo implicates (Bush's national security adviser Donald Gregg) - and by extrapolation Bush - to a much greater degree in the secret contra ald program." On June 21 we described the document as "a revealing memo that was placed in Bush's briefing book before a crucial meeting on his schedule."

Now the memo has been released. confirming our reports. The memo. dated April 30, 1986, was released by the Iran/contra committees along with an April 16 "Schedule Proposal." Both describe the purpose of a Bush appointment with CIA agent Felix Rodriguez as being to brief the vice president "on the status of the war in El Salvador and resupply of the contras."

Rodriguez and Gregg have been buddies since they both worked in the CIA. At the time he was meeting with Bush. Gregg and other aides. Rodriguez was making frequent visits to El Salvador as a "counterinsurgency expert." He was also working with National Security Council aide Oliver North on the clandestine White House effort to resupply the Nicaraguan contras.

Bush has steadfastly maintained that, in three different meetings, he and Rodriguez never discussed the contra supply efforts. As for Bush's aides, they have had to amend their recollections of meetings with Rodriguez as more information has come to light that supplying the contras was discussed far earlier than any of them acknowledged when the scandal first broke.

In an 83-page deposition Gregg made last May, he admitted knowing by August 1986 that Rodriguez was working with North on the secret contra aid operation. Gregg also says he knew that North and Rodriguez had fallen out over North's use of former associates of Edwin Wilson, the renegade CIA agent now in prison for arms smuggling. Gregg's handwritten notes of one conversation with Rodriguez state that the CIA agent told him North was "using Ed Wilson group for supplies."

Gregg said he had no idea that money for the contras had come from arms sales to Iran. He said he thought it came from North's "informal private network."

Gregg also swore that he had never discussed any of that with Bush. "I spend a great deal of my time trying to send things to the vice president that I think are really vice presidential." he explained in his deposition. "I try to keep him focused, help him keep focused on arms control or Mideast peace or things of that nature. We had never discussed the contras. We had no responsibility for it. We had no

Gregg further swore he had no idea how the reference to Rodriguez discussing "resupply of the contras" got into Bush's briefing book. and said that the subject did not come up at the meeting on May 1.

In two depositions, Gregg's secretary. Phyllis Byrne, said that she remembered typing the phrase onto both the briefling memo and the schedule proposal from information given to her by Bush aide Col. Samuel Watson. But Watson swore that he gave her no such information, though he acknowledged that she is an efficient secretary who types only what is provided by

This led Watson's interrogator. Senate counsel Mark Belnick, to observe sarcastically: "If you didn't provide it and if Mr. Gregg didn't provide it, and if she didn't come up with it on her own, and if Felix Rodriguez didn't provide it, then this was ghost-written literally. because there's nobody who provided it."

Reegan Signs Budget Bill, Ready To Spar For No Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Reagan, saying he had no choice but to sign a budget-balancing bill he does not like, is ready to confront the "big spenders in Congress" over his hope of cutting the deficit without raising taxes.

Reagan aigned the measure, aimed at wiping out the deficit in aix years. In a Rose Garden ceremony Tuesday afternoon. But in a brief speech before attaching his alguature to the document, he vowed to fight any congressional move to accomplish the budget-cutting goals by ordering higher taxes or lower military spending.

I will not allow the American people to be blackmailed into higher taxes." Reagan said.

His remarks drew prompt protests from congressional Democrats, including Chairman William Gray, D-Pa., of the House Budget Committee, who said Reagan's words were a "signal of confrontation and not one of cooperation."

Sonate Irons Out Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Senate, voting to ban Iranian imports as it wrapped up most work on the 1988 defense bill, turned toward an agreement on contentious Persian Gulf and SALT 2 amendments that would clear the way for approval.

Working from early Tuesday morning until late at night, the Senate dispensed with all but the toughest points in the $303-billion spending legislation for the flocal year that begins Thursday. Approval would send the measure to a conference with the House, which already has passed a 6289-billion version.

A Senate Democratic leadership aide said late Tuesday that a proposal was being circulated to split the Persian Gulf amendment away from the underlying bill, leaving the SALT 2 question attached, for resolution today or

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A government official who told Congress he was offered $12,000 on behalf of the scandal-ridden Wedtech Corp., maintains he did not report it to superiors because he did not believe it was a bribe.

H. The hearings, called into their second session today, also included testimony Tuesday from two military contract officers who painted a sordid picture of how Wedtech managed to get and retain a $134-million Navy contract to build pontoons despite their strenuous objections.

Report: Soviet Disinformation Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) - A State Department report finds the dark side to the Soviet Union's new policy of openness is an increase in the number of manufactured documents that spread lies about the United States.

The report on such disinformation issued Tuesday said the number of forged anti-American documents has increased since Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev Instituted his policy of glasnost, or openness, in 1986.

According to the report, the disinformation - approved by a department of the Soviet Communist Party Central Committee headed by Anatoly Dobrynin, former ambassador to the United States - has included false reports that the U.S. government had manufactured and disseminated the virus that causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome as part of a germ warfare project.

Arms Sales To Saudis Reduced

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Despite the opposition of 64 senators and the report of a U.S. Saudi assassination partnership, the administration is pushing ahead with an arms package for Saudi Arabia that is merely scaled back.

State Department spokeswoman Phyllis Oakley said no decisions had been made on the timing of the formal notification to Congress, but congressional staffers termed it "imminent."

Oakley called it "unfortunate that the effort (to stop the sale) comes at a time when the Saudis are offering crucial help in ways which meet our needs in the Persian Gulf, which had been urged by members of Congress."

Democratic Leader Says Bork Beaten

WASHINGTON (UPI) -Assistant Senate Democratic leader Alan Cranston, issuing a vote count showing decreased support for Supreme Court nominee Robert Bork, says the judge is "licked" with the crucial Southern vote moving against Cranaton, of California, re-leased his latest head count Tuesday showing 49 senators likely to vote against Bork. 40 likely to vote for the conservative judge and 11 "undetermined and unpredictable."

A majority of 51 would decide the controversial nomination, and Cranston told reporters he sees movement against Bork among conservative Southern Democrata, who are believed to hold the key to the fate of President Reagan's choice:

Since Sept. 15, when the Senate Judiciary Committee opened its confirmation hearings for Bork, he has lost five potential votes by Cranston's count of the 100 senators. The senator said Tuesday, "I think he's licked."

The hearings were called into their 12th round this morning, a day after two former Waterga prosecutors challenged Bork's versions of events following his firing of special prosecutor Archibald Cox in the October 1973 "Saturday Night Mason cre." Bork was President Nixon's adlicitor general at the time.

"Opinion polls of the American public show the undecideds moving to the anti-Bork col-umn." Cranston said. "The same thing is happening in the Senale.

At the White House. spokeswoman Lesiye Araht responded to the Democratic head count by saying, "We believe there are still a good bulk of undecided senators and we still believe we are going to win."

Reagan, meanwhile, is said to be stepping up his personal lobbying efforts in response to the type of pleas heard Tuesday from a pair of his conservative allies on the Judiciary Commit-

Jesse was released on his own recognizance and agreed not to violate Davis' order which he was, after the arrest, made aware of.

On Dec. 9 of that year, Jesse told Davis that he was unaware of the order and Davis threw out the injunction and ordered a mutual restraining order stating that the Jesses were not to see or bother each other during the process of their divorce.

The next day, Dec. 10, the State Attorney's office decided not to prosecute Jesse on charges of aggravated assault and battery Jesse stemming from an alleged incident the morning of Nov. 20.

Jesse, who represented himself in the divorce proceedings and is doing so in the lawsuit, then asserted that Davis' injunction was issued on the basis of perjured testimony. He also iterated that he had not been served with the notice prior to the arrest, that he was not within one-half mile of his wife's residence during the time in question, and among other points, asserted that his civil rights under the Constitution had been violated.

In the federal suit, Jesse again states that his arrest was "in direct violation of (the) Fourth Amendment of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States." In the suit, Jesse names a Sanford police officer, Rick L. Cummins, and Smith.

In the suit Jease states the arrest has caused him to suffer a reccurence of angina attacks, to lose his employment with the city of Longwood, and caused him to incur attorney fees, costs and other expenses. He also states in the suit that the arrest was made on mistaken identity and that he was "very plainly the wrong person."

Jesse states in the suit that he is agreeable to arbitration and if that is not agreeable to the defendants, then he wants a jury

According to the suit, Jesse states that after his release from the county jail Sanford police harassed him on several occusions, harasament which he suid stopped after he threatened to file a federal law suit.

Jesse has also asked the federal courts to determine if the Florida statute that allows a person to seek a petition for order to restrain abusive spouse..." is constitutional.

Ousted PTL Minister To Launch Network To Help These In Crisis

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — Ousted PTL minister Richard Dorich said Tuesday that he and his wife, Mildred, will launch a new organization to help people in crists.

Dorich, who left PTL five months ago following reports linking him to hush money payments for Jessics Hahn, told a news conference he has begun incorporating the crisis network under the name Life Challenge Inc.

He said there were probably one or two times in people's lives when they faced a massive crisis, and he hoped the crisis counselors at Life Challenge would be able to help them.

The organization will be based in Pinellas County and Dortch will be its president, although an 11-member board of directors will oversee the interdenominational Life Challenge, he said.

House To Slate Hastings Vote

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House will decide as soon as next week whether to release a confidential report on alleged wrongdoing by U.S. District Judge Alcee Hastings of Miami, who faces possible impeachment.

A House Judiciary Committee recommended its release on a voice vote Tuesday. The report was prepared by a judicial investigating committee. Under a 1980 law, the confidential report can be released only by vote of the full

The committee also passed another resolution allowing it to use its discretion in deciding what other confidential information gathered during the Hastings investigation could be released.

Hastings, a native of Altamonte Springs who was acquitted of bribery charges in 1983, is being investigated by the House for possible impeachment based on a Judicial Conference investigation that found Hastings had lied at his trial and presented fabricated evidence, his Miami lawyer Terry Anderson said.

Supplement Offered To Aid Cats

PENSACOLA (UPI) - In the wake of a study showing heart disease in cats linked to an amino acid deficiency, two Florida firms are offering a cat food supplement designed to counter a condition once considered irreversible.

Theveterinary pharmaceutical marketing firm PRN Pharmacal and Pegasus Laboratories of Pensacola are offering veterinarians a taurine-fortified additive called "Feline Spectrum."

Taurine is a sulfur amino acid that researchers consider an "absolute dietary requirement" for cats. They say cats have only limited ability to synthesize taurine from other sulfur amino

The importance became clear from research by Dr. Paul Pion of the University of California at Davis. He found that cats with an eye condition known to be caused by low taurine also suffered from a heart condition called feline dilated cardiomyopathy.

Although the heart condition was previously thought to be fatal. Pion found that most of the cats treated with taurine recovered with heart muscles returning to normal. His findings were published in August in Science magazine and this month in DVM, a veterinery industry trade publication.

Owners, Player Focus Attention On Fan Loyalty owners and striking players are focusing their attention on winning Sunday's battle over fan loyalty, instead of sitting at a bargaining table.

Management is moving aggressively to carry out its plan of playing Sunday without the striking players, while the union is determined to keep fans away from the games.

The second players' strike in five years enters its ninth day with no talks scheduled between the sides. The last bargaining session was Friday.

Striking NFL players missed their first paychecks Tuesday a combined loss of $13.4 million - and threatened to disrupt non-union games. Gene Upshaw, executive director of the NFL Players Association, held meethuddled in New York to plan their weekend strategy.

Their agenda is playing the scab games and that's what they have to focus on." Upshaw said of the owners.

"We're going to continue the games regardless of the results," said Dallas Cowboys President Tex Schramm, a member of Management Council's executive committee.

Upshaw said: "We don't advocate violence. But we do intend doing everything we can to shut off the games."

Tampa Bay owner Hugh Culverhouse, chairman of the Management Council's executive committee, said security for the non-union games will be increased.

Ferocious, Atrocious Oviedo Trips Howell

Lady Lions were both ferocious and atrocious Tuesday night.

Fortunately for their Seminole Athletic Conference title hopes, though, the Lady Lions were more ferocious as they downed slumping Lake Howell, 15-5, 0-15, 15-6 in a wacky SAC match before 221 fans at Lake Howell High.

Oviedo, 6-1 overall, improved to 4-1 in the SAC and trails league-leading DeLand by one game. The Lady Lions have a match at Kissimmee Osceola tonight and will host DeLand in a key SAC match Thursday night.

tonight and it was just a matter of who played better in the third game," Lake Howell coach Jo-Luciano said. "I was really disappointed with the way we played in the end. I don't like being on the short end of those kinds of matches."

Oviedo had its offensive attack cranked in the opening game as. after a quick equipment adjustment, Jill Knutson returned to the lineup and made some nice sets that Suzanne Hughes turned into kills.

With Oviedo holding a 3-1 lead. Jodie Switzer took center stage for Oviedo as she served nine points in a row, four of which were not returned. Switzer also set up kills by Knutson and Hughes during the rally as Oviedo built a 12-1 lead. Sugar Mayyen's spike Sandiy ended the rally but Lake Howell could only get as close as 14-5 before Anna Hollis served out the game with the final point

Oviedo had the serve one more time but again couldn't score and Lake Howell completed the shutout as Hayden served the 15th point.

"I could hardly beleive what I was seeing in that second game." Carlson said. "I guesa after Lake Howell got the early lead, the girls got shook and weren't holding together. Overall, it was kind of a weird match.'

Switzer had another big serving string in game three as she staked Ovtedo to a 6-0 lead, but Lake Howell battled back behind Hayden's hitting to pull within

The remainder of the match was dominated by Oviedo though as Hughes, who was 8 for 11 in kill opportunities for the match, had some big spikes and Hollis had a solid serving string that gave the Lady Lions a 13-6 lead. With the score 14-6, Lady Lions overcame an 0-15 second-set loss to tip the Lady Hawks in SAC play Tuesday.

Farrier, Whitaker Propel 'Hounds With Star-Reaching Performances

By Bam Cook Morald Sports Selter Lyman's Victor Parrier reaches for the stars while learnmate Mike Whitaker makes opposing ball carriers and receivers see stars.

Together they have helped Lyman's Greyhounds get off to one of their quickest starta in school history. Lyman. 2-0, is eagerly awaiting its first Seminole Athletic Conference encounter Friday night at Lake

"Those two guys have done a great job all year." Lyman coach Bill Scott said following last week's comeback victory over Orlando Edgewater. The Hounds bounced Edgewater. 27-16. Two weeks earlier, they took care of Orlando Boone.

Farrier ran for 153 yards and three touchdowns. The elusive and powerful running back has five six-pointers for the year, tying him with Lake Mary's John Curry for the county lead Only a sensational performance (218 yards, three TDs) by Curry Friday against Seminole denied Farrier the Burger King Of-fensive Player of the Week

There was no denying Whitaker the Burger King Defensive Player of the Week award, though, "We all came out fired up in the second half and took it to them (Edgewater)." Whitaker said.

He definitely lead by example. The 6-foot-2, 200-pound linebacker was a one-man gang. recovering two fumbles, intercepting two passes while collecting eight solo and 11 applicafor 19 tackles. Whitaker had another interception neglated by a penalty.

Whitaker's impressive outing jumped him to third in the county in tackles with 13.0 per game. He is tied for first in recoveries and interceptions with two each.

A down lineman most of the time as a junior. Whitaker's metamorphosis to linebacker even caught Bloomingdale by surprise. "When Whitaker left for the summer he weighed about 210 pounds," Bloomingdale said. "He thought he would go up to 220 or 230. which would have made us keep him on the line.

"But he came back in great shape at 200 pounds. He even lost that little belly he had and has been working like a dog ever since. He's definitely been the key to our defense," he added.

Farrier, meanwhile, will never be stamped an underschiever.

Take the 1987 football season. for example. Most runners set their sights on a 1,000-yard rushing season. One hundred yards a game is pretty fair real estate in any league.

Not Farrier, though, he wants to run in the fast lane a la O.J. Simpson and Emmitt Smith. His goal for '87: 2.000 yards.

'Reach for the stars," Farrier said Tuesday night. "If you reach for the roof, you may never get off the ground."

Farrier picked up those words of advice in a speech class year. "I read it and it stuck with me." he said.

Defenders weren't sticking with Farrier Friday night. His 153 yards doubled his first week's total of 75. If he can keep doubling up, that 2,000 figure may seem closer to the roof than the stars. If not, it won't be for a lack of effort.

"This is something I've waited for a long time," the 17-year-old said. "I want to play college football and this year will determine where I play.

Farrier has played varsity for three years, but has shared the Whitaker was all over the rushing load in the past. Scott field." Lyman defensive and offensive coach Mick Andrews usually spread the ball said. "He's got such good carrying among four or five backs to keep everyone fresh.

This year, however, Lyman Kendrick on the line. He was in lost two running backs to poor the right place at the right time grades and another was dismissed some the squad. It left Farrier with role as meal-ticket running back.

Although hi Although his ambition is lofty. the achiever is down to earth. He sidesteps questions about himself as easily as would-be tachlers. "If the line doesn't generate, I can't generate," he said. "This year, both sides of the line are getting the job done. That's how much confidence I have in them. I know I can get yardage on either side.

Center Shawn Martinson has been the anchor offensively while veterans John Spoiski and Dan McNeal join newcomers Matt Anderson and Doug Terry. Matt Lamb completes the unit as the tight end.

The line has been one of the reasons Lyman has 54 points in just two games for a 27-point average. It is a far spread from their paltry output of a year ago. In 10 games in '86. the Greyhounds rang up just 64

"The offense is in Victor's hands." Bloomingdale said. 'He's our offensive weapon. He's got to stay healthy and play with a couple bumps or bruises. If he gets his yardage we'll win ballgames. He has a good instinct as to where to run the ball."

LEADERS - Farrier and Whitaker were not the only Greyhounds on the go Friday night. Punter Scott Radcliff took over first place when he averaged 42.5 yards per boot. Radcliff has six kicks for 246 yards, a 41.0 average. Lake Mary's Stacy Leddon is a close second at 40.9.

Defensively, there are logiams at the top of several categories. Seminole's Leonard Lucas.

Lake Mary's Sheldon Richards. Whitaker, Oviedo's Chad Duncan and Lake Brantley Duane Rackard each have two interceptions.

Seminole's Ardine Danlels and Ralph Hardy, Lake Brantley's Craig Besew and Whitaker have two fumble recoveries apiece. Lake Mary's Dan Ferris picked up another sack against Seminole to run his total to four. Oviedo's Emery Sneed is second

Lyman's Mike Davis leads in blocked kicks with two and Lake Howell's David Erdman has one.

Offensively, Curry put some real distance between himself the rest of the runners. Curry has 437 yards in three games for an average of 145.7 per game. Farrier has 228 yards in two games: 114.0 per outing. Seminole's Jerod Jones, who picked up 104 Friday against Lake Mary, has 237 yards in three games: 79.0 per outing.

Curry and Farrier each have five touchdowns for 30 points. Seminole's J.J. Partlow in the top kick scorer with two field goals and six PATs for 12 points.

Seminole's Jeff Blake continues to lead the county passers. Despite an off night Friday (8 of 28 for 94 yards). Blake increased his yardage total to 417. He has six scoring tosses.

Lake Brantley's Jeff Bynum. a running back, threw the ball na well as anyone last week. Using the halfback pass to perfection. Bynum completed 2 of 3 for 33 yards and two touchdowns. A wide-open Derrick Sims nabbed both scoring tosses in a 28-12 victory over Orlando Boone.

Haney Runs Frosh Rams By Error-Prone Oviedo

Chris Pister Merald Sports Writer

Opportunistic Lake Mary turned three early Oviedo turnovers into touchdowns Tuesday night en route to a 30 freshman football action at Lake Mary High.

The Rams improved to 2-1 and take on Lyman next Tuesday while Oviedo slipped to 2-1 and next hosts Osceola.

Chris Haney, who run for 146 yards and three TDs, scored two of the Rams' three touchdowns in the first half, the first from 35 yards out and the second from 20 yards.

'He's real strong for a freshman." Lake Mary coach Jim Hughes said of Haney who played a little more than a half. "He is also very quick and has real good football instincts. He's not far behind where John Curry was as a freshman."

Thomas Lawson later ran for a five-yard TD for the Rams and Allen Ebaugh was successful on all three conversions for a 21-0 Lake Mary lead.

Oviedo did manage to get on the board in the first half as Bubba Fore tackled a Lake Mary runner in the end zone for a safety to Football make the halftime score 21-2.

Haney added a 37-yard touchdown run in the second half while Anthony Merthic 120 yards) and Carlos Davis (eight yards) also run for scores. Oviedo's ione touchdown came on an eight-yard run by Todd Jefferson and the Lions added the conversion when Chad Stutts passed to Chris Tabacott.

Defensively for Lake Mary. John Brown and Jason Oliver each had eight tackles. Merthle recorded seven tackles and Jason Belknap had six tackles. Stutts led Oviedo's offense with 43 yard rushing on 11 carries and he was also 4 for 6 for 42 yards passing. Backup quarterback Frank Scucci was 5 for 10 for 74 yards and Tabacott had five catches for 37 yards. Stutts also led Oviedo's defense with eight tackies and two blocked extra points while Fore added neven solo tackies. LAKE HOWELL STOPS LYMAN

Bill Ennis ran for 170 yards and two touchdowns Tuesday night as Lake Howell upended Lyman. 15-8, in freshman football action at Lyman High. The Silver Hawks improved to 2-1 while Lyman also now

Lake Howell's defense came up with a big goal line stand on Lyman's first possession and the Hawks came back to take a 7-0 lead when Ennis ran for an 11-yard TD.

Lyman again moved the ball inside the Lake Howell 10 on its next possession, but fumbled it away. Ennis then put the Hawks in scoring position with a 65-yard run and he later scored from seven yards out. Ryan Thomas added the two-point conversion for a 15-0 Lake Howell lead.

Lyman got on the board in the third quarter on Toby Durham's touchdown but Lake Howell's defense held tough the rest of the way.

The Silver Hawks' defensive leaders included Ken Spearman (13 tackles, one sack). Joe Smith (nine tackles, fumble recovery), Scott Golden (10 tackles, one sack). Michael Morin (7 tackles) and Andrew Rodriguez (interception).

At Whitt's End: Blue Jays Lose Game, Catcher

United Press International Toronto played one game and suffered two losses Tuesday night, and both hurt the Blue Jays' chances of winning the American League East.

B.J. Surhoff and Mike Felder collected three hits apiece to help the Milwaukee Brewern down Toronto 5-3 and reduce the Blue Jays' lead in the American League East to 1 1-2 games. Toronto also lost catcher Ernie Whiti, who left the game with broken ribs and could miss the rest of the season.

Chris Bosio, 11-7, surrendered three runs on seven hits in his second complete game of the

The Blue Jays lost their second straight to the Brewers and third overall and dropped a game in the standings as the second-place Detroit Tigera routed the Baltimore Oriolea

In the sixth, Whitt was hurt while sliding into second baseman Paul Molitor to break up a double play. He was taken to the hospital and was diagnosed as having two broken ribe.

"I'd be very doubtful about his coming back," Toronto trainer Tommy Craig said. "Anything happening to the rib area - any crack, any muscle pull - can be very painful. It hurts you every time you twist, every time you try to swing."

Last week, the Blue Jays lost All-Star shortstop Tony Fernandez, who fractured his right elbow after being upended by Detroit's Bill Madlock during a double-play attempt.

Whitt. 35, is one of three players remaining on the Blue Jays from the 1976 expansion draft. He was enjoying his best season with 19 homers and 75 RBI, including eight homers and 20 RBI in September.

"I tried to jump out of his way and just caught him in the rib cage (with a knee)," said Molitor. 'He came in there very hard trying to break up the double play. He had a clean slide, but there was a lot of contact."

Kelly, Shrewd Trades Get Inconsistent Twins To Top

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) - The Minnesota Twins, led by baseball's youngest manager and bolstered by shrewd trades. overcame inconsistency to win their first division title since Despite dramatic differences between home and road records.

the Twins found a steadiness that perhaps reflected the philosophy of rookie Manager Tonf Kelly. "I decided in the offseason that we needed something to hold onto after all the troubles we've had around here in recent years." Kelly said.

The Twins finished sixth (71-91) in 1986. Kelly, 37, kept the Twins in first place most of this season. After sweeping Oakland Aug. 6-9. Minnesota never lost its lead and pulled away in September to win the mediocre American League West. Its home record of 56-25, tops in the majors, offset troubles on the Pitchers Frank Viola and Bert Blyleven paced the starting pitchers. Rookie Les Straker was added to a rotation that also Included veteran Mike Smithson.

Blyleven and Viola grew stronger during the season, with Viola's 17-9 record and 2.89 ERA making him a Cy Young candidate. His 5-0 record in July helped the Twins through their most difficult month.

The lineup was essentially the same as the one in 1986. First baseman Kent Hrbek, third baseman Gary Gaetti and outfielders Kirky Puckett and Tom Brunansky, each with the Twins during the lean years, had fine seasons. Off-season acquisitions made a difference, notably reliever Jeff Reardon, who came from Montreal in a trade for Neal Heaton. After a rugged May in which his ERA swelled to double figures. Reardon compiled 31 saves, most by a Twins reliever since Ron Perranoski's 34 in 1970.

"I think Reardon has been the difference," said Ralph Houk, a Twins consultant and former manager. "He's kept them from losing those games in the eighth and ninth that really hurt."

"It's been a real relief to get-some relief," added Gaetti, who watched the team squander leads after the seventh inning 27 times the previous season.

Double Shutouts Ease Cardinals By Fading Expos

United Press International The St. Louis Cardinals nipped

rather than struck to move within two victories of their second National League East title in three years.

The Cardinals smothered the Montreal Expos for a 1-0, 3-0 double-header sweep Tuesday night that, combined with Philadelphia's 3-0 triumph over the New York Mets, brought St. Louis to the brink of its third division crown of the 1980s.

The Meta fell 3 1-2 games back while the Expos are five back. Both teams can be eliminated Wednesday if St. Louis begis Montreal and Philadelphia beats New York.

Three sacrifice flies and an infield out accounted for the Cardinals' runs.

"Sometimes that's what you have to do." said Tommy Herr. who drove in the only run of the opener. "Our pitching and our defense were oustanding and we pushed across just enough runs to win."

Rookie Joe Magrane hurled a three-hit shutout in the first game and Greg Mathews and Todd Worrell combined on a four-hitter in the nightcap.

'A lot of good things needed to happen tonight and they did." St. Louis Manager Whitey Herzog said. "Up to now, it's the best night of the year."

In other games. Cincinnati edged Atlanta 5-4, Los Angeles routed Houston 6-1. San Francisco best San Diego 5-3, and Chicago at Pittaburgh was postponed because of rain.

In the American League, it was: New York 6, Boston 0: Detroit 10, Baltimore 1: Milwaukee 5. Toronto 3: Chicago 1. California O: Kansas City 6. Seattle 3: Texas 7. Minnesota 5: and Oakland 5, Cleveland 4.

Moto No doubt. Herzog meant some of those good things happened in Philadelphia, where Phillies pitcher Don Carman allowed the Meta one hit - a fourth-inning infield single by Mookie Wilson.

"That's the best ballgame that's been pitched against us in a long time." New York Manager Davey Johnson said.

Carman, 13-11, retired nine in a row before Wilson bounced a grounder over the mound and beat shortstop Steve Jeltz's throw from behind second base.

The left-hander set down the next 18 in a row to give Philadelphia only its fourth triumph in 17 games against New York this season.

IN BRIEF

No. 1 Lendi To Play Tonight; Seeds 2, 3, 4 Already Ousted

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) - Top seed Ivan Lendi plays his first match of the $293,000 Transamerica tennis tournsment tonight with the second, third and fourth seeds already eliminated from the competition.

Tim Wilkison outlasted third seed Brad Gilbert in a grinding 7-5, 6-7 (7-5), 7-6 (7-3) match Tuesday night, producing the third upset of a top seed.

Gilbert joined No. 2 seed Tim Mayotte and fourth-seeded Henri Leconte of France, who were both ousted Monday. "I had a lot of opportunities," Gilbert, ranked 14th in the world, said of the 2-hour and 50-minute match. "It was just one of those days I didn't cash in.

"In the third set tiebreaker, I played four sloppy points. I had a lot of passing shot opportunities and lot of service break points during the match, but he scraped by."

Wilkison, the world's 77th-ranked player, said. "I know I can beat anybody, but I also know I can lose out here." Lendi plays Mel Purcell tonight. The only other top seed still in action is No. 5 David Pate, who disposed of Derrick Rostagno, 6-4, 6-4.

ASU Linebacker Faces Jail Term

PHOENIX (UPI) - Greg Clark, a starting inside linebacker No. 13 Arizona State, is facing a jail sentence that will keep him out of post-season action.

Maricopa County Superior Court Judge Barry Silverman Tuesday sentenced Clark to 30 days in jail for aggravated assault, but delayed the sentence until Dec. 18 so Clark can finish the current semester.

As a result, Clark will not miss any regular season games but would miss a bowl game if the Sun Devils are invited to Clark, the Sun Devils' most valuable defensive player last season when ASU went to the Rose Bowl, pleaded guilty to one count of aggravated assault. Three other charges were dismissed under a plea agreement.

Clark was arrested after a May 9 altercation at a Tempe nightclub. Clark broke one man's nose, hit a woman and struck a police officer in the face, breaking his glasses. Silverman told Clark that a jail term was necessary to punish him and to deter others.

Tubbs: TKO Over Gonzalez

ANAHEIM. Calif. (UPI) - Heavyweight challenger Tony Tubbs stopped Eddie Gonzalez Tuesday as Gonzalez failed to leave his corner for the fourth round because of an injured jaw.

A California State Athletic Commission doctor present at the fight determined that Gonzalez's jaw was either broken or fractured. The seriousness of the injury was not immediately known.

Tubbs, ranked third in the world by the World Boxing Association, was winning the fight. Gonzalez, whose face was swollen, complained of pain after the third round.

Lee Smith, a publicist for Tubbs, said the fighter will next face either heavyweight champion Mike Tyson or Michael Spinks.

Michaels, Madden Get Awards

NEW YORK (UPI) - Al Michaels of ABC and John Madden of CBS received awards Tuesday in the Sports Emmys awarded by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Michaels won the award for outstanding host and Madden was honored as best analyst

The Daytona 500 won the award for Outstanding Live Sports Special, and NBA on CBS was the winner in the live sports series category

In all. ABC and NBC won five Emmys apiece, TBS four, CBS three and PBS one. Syndicated programs earned two.

Heat: Inman Personnel Director

MIAMI (UPI) - Stu Inman, who has spent 18 seasons in NBA front offices and helped build the Portland Trail Blazers. Tuesday was named player personnel director of the Miami Heat expansion team.

Pelletiers: 1 Last Swing On European Pro Circuit

Bayhead is in the process of hiring a new pro. Steve and Simone Pelletier decided to go to Europe for a winter of professional tournaments and to give their playing careers one more chance.

Both are excellent players and should do well on the circuit. So now the long, slow task of finding replacements for them is going on. Don and Bettye Reagan are managing the club until a new pro can be found. They are doing a great job and the club is in the best shape that it has been in in some time.

Activity is humming at Bayhead now that the fall leagues have started. The Women's B1 Team is undefeated and looks like a real serious threat to win its division. The Men's Gold Team is also very strong and could go all the way.

Out Seminole Community College way, tennis is really on the move again. A new program called Professional Tennis Management and Inspection has started this fall and to say the least, it has been a great success. Twenty-five students are now enrolled in the program. The course is designed to train aspiring tennis-teaching pros and/or tennis club managers. It is also very valuable for high school coaches or any advanced player who wants to learn more about the game. Upon the completion of two courses in the program, a student will be certified in professional instruction and tennis management. We are very proud of this program at SCC and are very optomistic about its future. The Fall Intramural Singles Tournament will start next week with a draw of 32 players. Each Wednesday during activity period. SCC runs a tennis program for any student who wishes to participate. There are six Tennis I classes; two Tennis II classes and one Tennis III class being offered for credit this term. Add to that, two Leisure Time classes being offered on Saturday mornings, giving SCC a total of twelve classes in tennis. All in all, there are around 250 students taking tennis classes this

We have had some great reports on Mike Renaud. Mike recently enrolled for his freshman year at North Alabama University and from early reports, is playing great tennis and has earned a spot in the starting lineup. Mike really improved a lot this past summer, so it is no real surprise to this writer that he is doing so well. He won his debut singles match after overcoming some first-set nervousness.

Jim Edmonds, Seminole High tennis coach, is doing some part time teaching at SCC. Jim is teaching two tennis classes. Long one of the top players in the area. Jim is also a fine tennis teacher and is quite an asset to the Seminole Community College program.

Majors, Dickey Deny Cover-Up In Comp Tickets

KNOXVILLE. Tenn. (UPI) -University of Tennessee officials Tuesday denied Sport magazine's charge that football coach Johnny Majors and Athletic Director Doug Dickey plotted to cover up improper sales of complimentary game tickets.

Any insinuation that we were hiding anything or trying to cover anything is entirely un-true." Dickey said at a news conference.

An article in Sport's November issue quotes former Tennessee athletes who said they regularly sold complimentary game passes with the assistance of boosters and some school coaches.

The article says the school's six-month internal investigation last year of alleged wrongdoing in the athletic department was "itself improper and many of its conclusions false.

The magazine says more than a dozen former Tennessee players admitted receiving "as much as $2,000 annually through a system of ticket

"To the extent the article suggests I knowingly participated in or had knowledge of violations, or attempted to cover up such violations, is untrue." Majors said.

Tennessee President Edward Boling and Chancellor Jack Reese also denied the charges. Said Neil Cohen, editor and associate publisher of Sport: "It's our contention that the story speaks for itself. We stand behind what we printed and that's pretty much it."

After examining the panel's findings, the NCAA placed the school on one-year probation Oct. 9, 1986.

The NCAA found that former quarterback Tony Robinson used cars and a credit card that belonged to a booster: Robinson temporarily lived in the booster's home: former basketball player Willie Burton used a truck also owned by the booster: Majors failed to report Robinson's use of the vehicles on two occasions: players received free or discounted rooms at a Gatlinburg motel managed by another booster: and two Vols allowed unauthorized people to use complimentary game posses.

Dollar, Gold Turn Down; Trading Light

the company of the same of the property of the same of Dy United Press International The dollar opened mostly lower in light trading on major world money markets today.

Gold was lower. Earlier in the Far East, spurred by rising interest rates in the United States, the dollar continued to strengthen against the Japanese yen closing at 146.35 yen, up 0.30 from Tuesday's close of 146.05 yen.

Traders in Japan said the dollar's strength was attributable to rising interest rates in the U.S., which prompted insurance and trading firms to sell the yen to purchase the dollar.

In Europe, the dollar opened in Frankfurt at 1.838 German marks, down from Tuesday's close of 1.8417.

The dollar started the day in Brussels at 38.32 Belgian francs. down from 38.355 and in in early New York trading, the dollar was slightly lower against key foreign currencies in light trading following the government's report showing the na-tion's composite index of leading indicators, which foreshedows economic growth, grew a seasonally adjusted 0.6 percent in August.

Indicators Up 0.6 Percent

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The composite index of leading indicators, which foreshadows economic growth, grew a seasonally adjusted 0.6 percent In August, the Commerce Department said today.

Four of the nine indicators that were used in the August index contributed to the gain. Stock prices was the strongest factor, followed by claims for unemployment insurance, building permits and money supply.

For the first eight months of 1967, the index has grown an annual rate of 4.9 percent, down from 5.5 percent during the same period of 1986, according to the department's Bureau of Economic Analysis.

The index grew 7.2 percent from December 1985 to De-

The August increase in the index followed a revised 0.3 percent gain in July and a 1 percent jump in June.

The July increase previously was reported to be 0.5 percent. but was downgraded due to a change in the indicator for credit outstanding.

Four of the nine indicators in August were negative factors. They were, in order of impact. plant and equipment contracts and orders, vendor performance. changes in prices of sensitive materials, and manufacturers' orders for consumer goods and materials.

The indicator for the average work week was unchanged.

the services tax and replace it with a 6 percent sales tax on goods. The current sales tax rate is 5 percent.

The Senate plan would create a blue-ribbon commission to study the tax system and propuse reforms at a later date. The bill is virtually identical to a measure the full Senate approved last week but yanked back into committee for more study to buy time.

The House Pinance and Tax Committee voted 13-11 to revise the services tax and the Appropriations Committee voted 23-9 along similar lines. Only services targeted primarily at businesses instead of individual consumers would be subject to the levy, such as engineering and architectual services. Grindle said. Legal services would still be taxed but to a lesser degree via exemptions such as no tax on divorces or social security cases, Grindle said.

Construction, real estate and advertising sales would be exempt, although services provided by ad agencies would still be taxed. The bill would raise the tax on real estate transactions from the current 55 cents to 81 per 8100 property value to offset the loss.

The tax committee voted to double the intangible, or "wealth" tax on the value of stocks and bonds to help offset revenue losses. The approach confused members of the Appropriations Committee, who voted instead to increase the tax rate on the sale of goods and services to 5 14 percent by January 1989.

Both approaches were still alive, and the full House will have to decide.

The House tax panel defeated an amendment by Rep. Art Simon. D-Miami, to give voters a choice between the services tax and a higher sales tax on goods in a March 8 binding referendum. The Appropriations Committee accepted a proposed non-binding referendum. Again, the full House will have to decide.

House Finance and Tax Chairman Bud

Gardner, D-Titusville, anid the referendum might be the key to a House-Senate compromise.

The taxes package emerging from both chambers repeals the local option, I percent sales tax now available only through referendum. But county commissions could adopt local sales tax increases of one-half percent by an extraordinary - or four-fifths - majority vote.

"If you put these two (the House and Senate plans) together and tie them together with a referendum, you've got a little bit in there for everybody, plus you've got the governor's position." Gardner said.

Martinez called the special season to press his demand for the repeal of the services tax plus budget reforms. But he once proposed a referendum on the issue, and says his new position was intended to accommodate widespress public opposition to the levy.

Another have not yet resolved to the advertising portion of the services tax. Many learnabers strongly object to exemptions for the advertisers. saying the industry's television anti-tax cam-paign fostered misinformation. But House and Senate leaders say exempting advertising would quiet the industry barrage.

In other action Tuesday: -The Senate Finance and Tax Committee approved a bill extending liability insurance to state foster parents, who have demanded the coverage. The full Senate was expected to approve the measure, with the House following

-The House Finance and Tax Committee considered Gov. Bob Martines' bill to repeal the services tax without replacing the last revenue. But with only three of seven GOP committee members there to defend it, the plan was defeated

-Martinez' budget reform bill emerged from two Senate committees with none of the broad new powers to shape state spending sought by the governor, Martinea Budget Director Glenn Robertson called it a "baby step." House Republicans claimed they have the votes to kill any tax revision or replacement unless the governor's stronger bill is approved.

in keeping with a 50-year tradition of gathering around a table filled with Vivian's cooking, a buffet dinner was prepared by her with the help of family and friends. The meal ended with the serving of her famous red velvet cake, the expected treat for all special events of family and friends throughout the years. The large tiered cake. made and decorated by Vivian, was beautifully embossed in white with gold and yellow flowers.

Guests were intrigued by the pictorial record of Herb and Vivian's courtship, wedding, and first year of marriage displayed in one of the three memory books. Over 200 families responded to the invitation to share in putting together the collection of cards, vintage and recent pictures, and letters of heartwarming, happy, and loving memories of the honorees. A fourth memory book will be needed soon as memorabilia continues to arrive daily from all over the United States.

Out-of-state guests in-cluded Margaret Watson, Vivian's sister-in-law, from Keyport, Wash., and a niece. Margery Hoenig, of Paulsbo, Wash. Surprise guests were Herb's sisters, Mildred Cites from Lakeside, Calif., and Rose and Howard McFadden

Sidewalks Of New York Now A Memory For Family Who Chose Southern Living

'East side, went side. was a long time ago. The sidewalks are still there, but Gloria Orioles is down South enjoying the slower pace of southern living and Florida sunshine with her husband,

Born in The Bronx, it wasn't long before Mrs. Orioles' family moved to Astoria. Queens and then to Floral Park, Long Island. "As a teenager in Queens," she says, "we played stick ball in the streets, roller skated in the streets, played handball, and things that you don't even think about anymore. I couldn't get home from school fast enough to go roller skating." Surrounded by aunts, uncless cousins and grandparents right in her neighborhood, Mrs. Orioles was never at a loss for playmates and things to do.

At about this time, she and her sister. Ruth, began learning some basic cooking techniques. "I really started to learn how to cook when my mother went to work," she says. "We lived next door to my grandmother and grandfather and my uncle, who was a bacheior, taught me basic cooking. I'll always remember he taught me how to make gravy. stew, pot roast. He would always come in when I was at the tail end of cooking nomething and he'd say, 'Hey, Gloria, you do it this way.' Little things like that. Of course, I knew how to cook vegetables and that kind of thing from watching."

It was at a roller skating rink. naturally, where Mrs. Ortoles met her hauband-to-be who was a handsome sailor then. "He'd call me when his ship came in. and we'd go out on a date," she says. After they were married in Orioles' husband was a heavy 1942. Mrs. Orioles recalls that every time his ship came into line." she says, "he was active port, she'd quit herjob to join as an officer in the Northport him wherever the ship was stationed for repairs. When it was time for him to ship, she'd return to her old job again. The post-war years found the Orioles' living in the state of Washington for several years where their son, James C., was born. Their daughter, Gloria, came along 10 years later back "home" in Northport. Little League and Cub Scouta kept Mrs. Ortoles busy with her young son, and later, with her daughter, she once again became involved with Brownies and Girl Scout activities. "And living right on the water," she says, "we went swimming and did lots and lots of fishing and clamming." Forty-five years later, Gloria and Jim Orioles are still a devoted Volunteer Fire Department for 27 years, ultimately winding up as chief and then fire commissioner with 110 men under his supervision." Proud reminders of Jim Orioles' years as a fire fighter are displayed on a handsome wall plaque which is laden with medals and budges for his years of service. And during those years Mrs. Orioles was active in the womens' auxlliary of the fire department, also serving as president.

After her children were grown. Mrs. Orioles enjoyed working in a delicatemen and then in a pizza parlor gaining experience in the fast food world, but admits that her husband prefers to have her at home. "Now, I'm not a gournet cook," she continues. "And I'm not a collector of recipes as such. I've gone through phases in my life where I'm cooking this all the time and then I go off that tack, and then I go on another tack and I have some recipes that I remember as family favorites. I've moved from the North to the South, and that changes our way of eating." Mrs. Orioles also adds that most of her married life was opent in Northport, N.Y., "on the beach and on the water. So naturally being married to an Italian man. incidentally, I cooked a lot of seafood, Italian style. Not too much lobster, but shrimp and clams. I have a spaghetti sauce recipe that everybody in Northport has," she laughs. She goes on to explain that the recipe for Marinara souce was listed in a Progresso ad about two years ago as a prize-winning recipe, many years after she had given it out to all her friends, and often wonders if it was entered in the control by someone in her hometown area. It is a light tomato sauce which is the perfect accompaniment to seafood. "It appeals to prople who are not Italian." she says. "and that's what I used for shrimp, squid and musecls. Of course, when I use meats like spare ribs, stew meat and mentballs. I make a heavier nauce and cook it longer."

Three years ago, Gloria and Jim Orioles decided to retire to Lake Mary, building a home right near their son who had already lived there for several years. Some grandchildren and great-grandchildren have been added to the family circle, and Mrs. Orioles enjoys their visits and keeping in touch. The Or- | ioles' daughter, Gloria, and her husband. Apple Pie Makes History As Culinary Triumph Of The USA cultnary triumph of the United States. What other dish could stand up to it as the quintessential American treat? The very thought of a freshly-baked apple ple can cause the mouth to water and the nose to twitch. In fact, this enticing, cinnamon-y treat is considered such a temptation that the act of stealing a windowsill-perched apple pie has been given its own place in American folklore, by familiar characters from Huckleberry Finn to Buge Bunny.

And apple pie has history. It a was r staple in New England homes in colonial days, when apples were cored, peeled, and dried during harvest time for winter and spring storage. The dried apples were used to make apple pie, which was eaten for breakfast - a practice which even persists today in some rural

New England towns. One of the best things about apple pie is that, although it is made from the same basic ingredients, everyone's apple pie recipe is unique. Recipes vary in the types and amounts of spices used, types of apples used, crust ingredients and shape, and even how the finished pie is served. Some people prefer vanilla ice cream with a sprinkling of nutmeg atop their warm apple ple, while others are fond of melted cheddar cheese.

How do you make your apple ple the pick of the bunch? All it takes is a little imagination and the right ingredients. Here are some innovative ways to serve America's favorite dessert:

 Cheese-inside apple pie: Try adding grated cheddar cheese or cheese spread on top of the apple filling, under the top crust. Bake as usual; the melted cheese will add richness and flavor to the whole pie.

Ocheese crust pie: Roll grated cheddar cheese and a few dots of butter into unbaked pie crust pastry; substitute for the ple crust in your usual apple ple

Apple ple is considered America's favorite dessert.

• Apple Alaska pie: Prepare your favorite one crust apple pie. When completely cool, cover the entire top with butter pecan ice cream, then with stiffly beaten meringue (egg white and sugar). Bake in a 500° oven for 2 minutes and serve immediately.

 Savory crumb top pie: Bake deep-dish apple pie: cover with crumb mixture made of buttered crumbs, grated cheese and walnuts; broil until bubbly.

High-fiber, low-fat ple: Treat your tastebuds without sacrificing good nutrition! Prepare a crust with 11/2 cups all-bran cereal, 14 cup flour, 2 tablespoons melted butter, and 1/2 cup apple juice; bake at 375° for 12 minutes. In a saucepan, simmer apples, sugar, lemon juice, 2 tablespoons flour, and spices to taste, until apples are tender. Pour filling into cooled crust and sprinkle with confectioner's augar, if desired. TIPS FOR THE PERFECT PIE

• The best apples for baking are those that mature late in the season (after September). They tend to hold their shape better throughout the cooking process. Some of the best choices are: Cortland, Golden Delicious. Jonathan, Northern Spy. Rome Beauty, R.I. Greening and Winesap.

• Basic rule of thumb: A 9-inch apple pie needs about 4 cups of fresh apple slices or 3 cups of cooked apple slices.

• To avoid smoke and smell, should any juice spill over onto the oven when baking the pie, sprinkle the spill with salt.

• Store apples in the refrigerator - apples ripen about 10 times faster at 70° F. than at 32° F. The tastlest ples are made with crisp, fresh apples: overripe • To accent the flavor of apples tend to mush when have a lot of 'goodles' on hand." says Mrs. Orioles, "but they're grown up now. Most of the time now when they visit, I do pot roast or ham or something italian. They love chicken permesen."

Mrs. Orioles laughs when she describes a latchhook project which took her seven and onehalf years to complete. Finally finished, the beautifully crafted rug now lays at the foot of a comfortable chair in her living room. She is now working on a lovely Christmas tree design which will occupy a corner spot in her dining room at holiday time, and a bright and colorful tree skirt is also in progress. She has had a try at ceramics, but enjoys doing mostly "crafty" things. She is also a member of the Lake Mary Woman's Club.

"I do some gardening." says Mrs. Orioles, "but Jim has kind of taken over the garden as his own project since he retired. That really is his hobby and he has a nice vegetable garden. He still has problems with garden-ing in Florida because it's so different from gardening in the north. The bugs - you don't know where they come from. Never saw or heard of such bugs!" she laughs. But with buga removed, she manages to can some fresh vegetables from their backyard harvest.

Retirement doesn't mean sitting still and together Gloria and Jim have embarked on a parttime career of sorts as clients of Kelly Services, a temporary placement service. "It's a lot of fun." she says. "I'll do any assignment they send me out on gthat I think I can do. Mostly it's fshort jobs for two or three weeks at a time." Once, they worked together at the same job, a pilot program for the Coca Cola Company. "It was the only time in my life that I had ever worked with Jim. We went to work together, came home together and it was fun." She enjoys the experience and it fills in her apare time, says our cook.

Mrs. Orioles unashamedly admits that she is "a terrible bowler. I am so erratic," she lays. "You know, when you bowl a couple of good games and then you drop down to about a 10, you just lose it. Then, no hatter what I did, I couldn't get hack up there. I go bowling with Ulmmy sometimes, and I bowl at east 110 or 115, and that I don't mind. If I could do that on a eague. I wouldn't mind, but the minute they say to me, 'We need the points." - forget it!" Ahead on her agenda, possibly, is a date with a canoe. "I'm always doing nomething," she says, "and I was dying to take up canoeing. I was never in a canoe in my life and we rented a canoe on the Wekiva one day. Well, I was all tung-ho. I was going to start anoeing the next day, but Jimmy kind of held me back. But that was fun."

Our cook loves to entertain by naving folks in for dinner. "I like o have a few cocktails, hors i'ouerves, and then dinner," she lays. "In Northport we never got around to just evening entertaining, but I do think that we will here, in time, because almost everybody we know would rather entertain just for descert and coffee instead of dinner."

Colorful, Flavorful Rice Recipes Sure To Please

Rice is a dry grain that needs time to absorb water during the micro-cooking and soften. Microwaving time is shorter than the traditional methods of cooking, and constant attention to the rice is not necessary. Set the cooking powers and times and let the microwave oven do the cooking. Proportions of water and rice are important to obtain a fluffy product. The rice doesn't stick to the container so the clean-up is easy, too. He sure to use a container large enough to allow for bubble up.

I follow this recipe for easy cooked rice.

1 cup long grain rice 2 cups water 1 tempoon butter % teaspoon salt

Measure rice, salt and a fat (butter) into a 3-quart casserole. Stir in hot water. Cover and microwave on 100% power for 5 minutes, reduce power to 50% and microwave for 10-12 minutes; fluff with fork. Allow to stand 10 minutes (covered) and it is ready to serve, or to be used in any recipe that calls for MICROWAVE HINT: Use a large enough container to allow for the "bubble up" that occurs when cooking rice.

4-6 servings

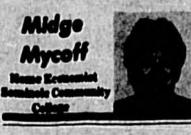

Rice combines well with so many foods and is a mainstay of the diets for the majority of people of the world. This easy main dish is colorful and Chicken and rice is a southern favorite. You may already have a tried and true recipe: if not, try this extra special one.

CHICKEN AND RICE STEW

1 14-116 pounds chicken parts 1 medium onion, chopped 1 14 cups diced carrots

I cup aliced celery I cup cubed ham % cup white rice

41/2 cups water 2 tablespoons snipped paraley 1 teaspoon instant chicken

bouillon 1 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt Ve teaspoon pepper

1 cup milk 4 teaspoon curry powder 16 cup Half and Half

2 tablespoons white wine (optional)

Combine chicken, onion, carrot, celery, ham, rice, water, parsley, bouillon, salt, garlic salt, curry powder and pepper in a 3-quart casserole. Cover with lid. Microwave at 100% power (HIGH) 40-50 minutes, or until all is tender. Remove chicken pieces to a platter to cool. Stir milk. half-and-half cream, and white wine into rice mixture. Cut chicken from the bone. Add to the rice mixture. Cover. Microwave on 100% power 3-5 minutes, or until heated through.

Because of the blandness of rice it mixes well with vegetables, meat, fish or poultry.

Abused Women, Abusive Men Could Be Anyone You Know

DEAR READERS: Every day more than 2 million women in this country are abused physically and emotionally in their homes by someone they live with. Domestic abuse is the most common violent crime in this country.

Every 18 seconds a woman is battered.

Any woman can be a victim of abuse: any age, race, culture. sexual preference or class. It can be your mother, sister, daughter or friend. It can be you.

Abuse takes many forms. It ranges from insults, put-downs and threats, to slaps, punches, choking, rape, stabbing and, all too often, a death.

Why does a woman stay in an abusive situation? Because of ... FEAR: If she leaves he will find her and kill her.

GUILT: Somehow the abuse was her fault; she asked for it or deserved it.

SHAME, EMBARRASSMENT: She doesn't want friends or family to know, can't admit that the marriage/relationship isn't

LOW SELF-ESTEEM, HELP-LESSNESS: She feels she can't make it on her own, can't support her children, will never find someone else to "love" her.

She may have no money, no place to go, no help or support from friends or family. She may be physically ill. She might still be hoping he will change and wishing for a "happily ever after" that doesn't exist.

Any or all of these factors make it difficult for a battered woman to escape the violence that rules her life.

Men who abuse come from every class, race, culture, age and occupation. They can be poor and unemployed c. rich and powerful. Many were abused as children or witness abuse. Their anger, insecurity and low self-esteem are expressed through violence and abuse.

Domestic violence exists in every culture and society all over the world. It is a shameful part of our history hidden and ignored until the 1970s. It exists because of centuries of sexist attitudes and beliefs that condone and excuse the abuse of women by husbands, lovers, fathers, all

SOME FACTS

- Over 50 percent of sexual assaults take place in a residence of some kind. - 50 to 60 percent are "acquaintance rapes" - the assailants know or are "friends" or relatives of the victims. - 71 percent of all types of sexual assaults are planned. - The FBI estimates that only one out of 10 sexual assaults are reported. - In 93 percent of sexual assaults, the victim and assailant are of the same race and socioeconomic class. - Victims range in age from infancy to their 90s, and every race, class and culture. Any time a woman is coerced or forced into sexual relations against her will and without complete and voluntary consent.

she has been sexually assaulted. No woman asks to be raped. No woman deserves to be sexually assaulted.

What to do if you are sexually assaulted: - Call the police. They will take you for medical treatment if you need or want it. They will ask for a description of the assailant and the attack. (You do not have to report the assault or press charges, but I recommend

Get medical treatment immediately at an emergency room, clinic or from your personal physician. You may have received internal injuries or been exposed to venereal disease, and there is the possibility of pregnancy.

Remember: Do not bathe or shower. Valuable evidence will be destroyed.

DEAR ABBY: I just received a mimeographed letter in the mail telling me not to buy products made by Proctor & Gamble Co. It was signed "A Good Christian." It said that Proctor & Gamble Co. supports a religious cult de-dicated to witchcraft and the devil. As proof, they sent a picture of the P&G trademark insignia - a man's face in half-moon with 13 stars, a symbol of Satan.

The letter stated that the owner of Proctor & Gamble appeared on "The Mery Griffin Show" and also on "Donahue." saying he owed his success to Satan!

Abby, can you find out if Proctor & Gamble Co. has any connection with Satan and witchcraft, because if it has, I am not buying any more of its products.

CONCERNED IN DRY FORK. VA. DEAR CONCERNED: Letters such as the one you received have been circulating through the United States for many years, and there is not a shred of truth in the rumor that P&G is connected with Satan, witchcraft or the devil! (I've said this in my column.)

Furthermore, neither Merv Griffin nor Phil Donahue have had anyone from Proctor & Gamble on his show, but this rumor has been so widespread that both Griffin and Donahue have had to send out form letters to deny this false accusation.

Some of the nation's most respected Christian religious leaders have issued public statements in an effort to put an end to this vicious campaign. They include the Rev. Jimmy Draper, president of the Southern Baptist Convention: the Rev. Donald E. Wildmon. Methodist minister and executive of the National Federation for Decency; Bishop Emerson Colaw. United Methodist Church: and the Rev. William C. Black, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

All "good Christians" who have specific information about anyone distributing this vicous propaganda should write to: Proctor & Gamble, P.O. Box 599, Department D.A., Cincinnati. Ohio 45201. Please include your name, address and telephone as in the study of "St. Scrapion" from the Wadsworth Atheneum. Harford, Conn. These abstractions combined with realistic painting of many details give Zurbaran's work a fascinating illusionistic style that has echoes in the work of latter day Spanish master, Salvador

Dali. Zurbaran himself was influenced by Velasquez, evidenced by a portrait of Don Alonso Verdugo, and by Bartolome Estaban Murillo, a generation younger.

However, Zurbaran's early work from 1625 to 1640 was marked by originality and infused with vigor and cogency. illustrated by the astonishingly oblique composition of the Prado's "St. Peter Nolasco's Vision of the Crucified St. Peter." It was in this period that he painted his eloquent "Christ on the Cross," seemingly sculpted in luminous paint on a black background, on loan from the Art Institute of Chicago. The ecclesiatical commissions Zurbaran received after 1640 imposed on him the ascette requirements of his Counter-Reformation patrons, robbing his canvases of some of their pictorial vitality and dictating a stern spirituality that the artist achieved with telling effect in portraits of St. Peter and St. Paul painted for the church in Seville. The least interesting paintings are those Zurbaran turned out for new clients in Central and South America when monastic funds for art in Spain dwindled. At the same time, the artistic tenets of the Counter-Reformation gave way to a new aesthetic that demanded sweet. ecstastic expression and a lighter, warmer palette. Zurbaran tried to paint in this mild new manner exemplified by Murillo but was never completely successful. One of the notable aspects of the exhibiton is the bringing together of elements from multi-paneled Spanish alterpieces painted by Zurburan which were dispersed by the looting generals of Napoleon and the secularization of church properties in 1835. The most impressive is the reunion of five of the six main panels from the 1638 altar of the Carthusian monastery at Jerez de la Frontera - the centerplece a battle scene between the Spanish and the Moors.

Rockers Learn Acting To Make Better Videos

Singer-actor Sy Richardson. who took easily to the synthesis of music and film, has carved a unique niche. He teaches singers how to utilize acting skills to make better rock videos.

It all started when Richardson.

who appeared in the 1984 movie, coached some of the punk extras in the film "Repo Man," a cult classic. Today he teaches a regular acting workshop for rock singers in Pasadena, Calif. Some of his students are even attempting straight acting roles. "Any singer who expects to grow in this industry has to study acting and has to understand more about the visual media." says Richardson. "it's become a necessity." Richardson's students include members of Debarge, Shalamar and The Pogues, as well as Animals' front-man Eric Burden. The films of New Wave Richardson will also appear in the upcoming "Walker," and in such non-Cox productions as the video musical "Tapeheads," and the police drama "Colors" (which has a certain rock connection in its star Sean Pegn).

According to Richardson. there's a big difference between performing onstage and performing for a videotape or movie camera. 'Singers - especially rock singers - put all their energy out to the audience, and they get it back from them." Richardson notes. "As an actor, you're not 'A lot of rock singers really don't know who they are. They become the image of their audience - their dress, their style - and once they find something the people enjoy, they keep it. "When they decide to act, they have to go back and re-group, find out who they are within themselves so that they can share it." Richardson says. "Without the audience, they have to be very specific about who they are and where they're going."

What singer has succeeded best in this transliteration, according to Richardson? Probably David Bowie. Unfortunately, he's not one of Richardson's own success stories, but he's a performer that this teacher feels can do no wrong. Others rockers, however, could use some brushing up.
"I would like to work with him," explains Richardson. Everything is precise, right on - but his eyes never let us inside. His speaking voice is a monotone: it never changes. That could all be worked on. "I'd also like to work with Weird Al Yankovic, because he
