CHALKING 'EM UP

Coach Leonard L. McLucas signed off the current grid season with dismal prospects. He had very little material to choose from and what little he did have was inexperienced. However, he put the squad through stiff paces from the week prior to Labor Day, and although the members played good ball, in spells it was quite a long distance between spells. But that was to be expected. As the season advanced and the boys picked up some knowledge of the game they began to show more consistency and by the time they reached the Deland fray, Coach McLucas had imparted enough grid lore to enable the Feds to win their first game of the season. Then they lost to Osceola, which wasn't at all surprising as Osceola has an extremely fast team. Losing to Osceola certainly wasn't a disgrace. Then the Feds met the big Orlando team and played one of their best games of the season as usual against the neighboring city's team. They showed definite signs of improvement in that game and then came the fray with St. Augustine. With three regulars and one substitute out of the game, it appeared that Lady Luck had decided to frown against the Feds, but evidently that capricious lady's countenance must have been weathered in smiles in favor of Seminole's team, for the Feds got their feet under them and they are capable of exciting. But they shouldn't stop there. They can play even better than they proved last Friday night. And Thursday they'll get a chance to show just what they can do. If they can win from Russell McCracken's outfit, then the times they've faltered and dropped by the wayside will be forgotten. And the Feds will have a fairly successful season, which will be a great deal considering their inexperience. We want to see those boys get out there and knock and tackle for keeps. If any of the boys have ever seen a scrimmage team play, then they'll know what we mean by blocking and tackling for keeps.

In the backfield we can look to fleet-footed Jimmy Page, to passers Dub Eggs and Bob Wilkinson, to fighting Danny Altman and to the hard-charging John Angel, and to Beckwith and all the rest of the boys to throw all they've got against the New Smyrna. In the line everything will depend on those pass-anothera, Charlie Lovitt and L. M. Tolford. If they play their best, if they get down field on those punts, if they charge those backfield men on defense, they may well be a decisive factor in a Colery Fed victory. The guards, Bob Stansland and Donald Jones, or whoever plays guard, will have their work cut out. If they know what downfield blocking is, then we're likely to see some great playing from this pair. Tackles Abby Jones and Jimmy Renaud will have a hard time ahead of them. Much of the offense will be directed through the line at their posts and it will mean they've got to get the jump on the opposition in order to stop it. On the defense they can count themselves to be stone walls. Center Jim Riser has one of the toughest jobs on the team. He must pass the ball with accuracy at all times, and then carry out his blocking assignment. On the defense he must be a ball hawk and must diagnose plays and get there to stop his man. Jim proved he's all of this and more in the St. Augustine game, but this is the week that counts... The Feds can win this game—if they want to.

A very effective bait for combating mole-crickets consists of ordinary canned dog food and kerosene. Mix one ounce of kerosene with one can of dog food for 10 or 15 minutes. Put this bait out in small piles where dogs and cats cannot get to it. A good way of putting it out is to scratch down into the runways of the mole-crickets and put the bait down into them, covering the tops of the holes with boards to prevent dogs and cats from eating the poisonous material.

Mangrove May Be Aid Against Mosquitoes

WEST PALM BEACH, Nov. 21—(P)—The octopus-like mangrove tree, whose roots mark the breeding grounds for salt marsh mosquitoes, may be an ironic twist help to eradicate them.

Paul Witham of Stuart suggested to the East Coast Anti-Mosquito Association that revenues from the mangrove bark be used for expenses in fighting the stingers.

Witham declared mangrove bark is an excellent source of tannic acid and that the extract has commercial value. The wood itself, he added, makes wood fuel.

The association decided to look into the matter.

Allies, Nazis Embittered By Sea Warfare

Six German Planes Bomb Shetlands But Raiders Fail To Hit Objectives

Italian Steamer Struck By Mine British Warship Sinks Enemy Vessel Off Coast Of Iceland

Two Nazi bomb attacks on the Shetland Islands today resulted with German charges that two British agents were linked directly in the Nov. 8 bomb attempt on Hitler's life. Six planes raided the Shetlands, but the British said they failed to score hits. The second attack set fire to a Royal Airforce seaplane, but there were no casualties. British and French warships were shooting down seven Nazi reconnaissance planes in France and destroying an eighth. France lost two planes, England none in the battle.

Mounting maritime losses and recriminations over the fabled Munich plot on Hitler's life today further embittered warfare between Germany and Britain.

Six German planes bombed the Shetland Islands and the north of Scotland, but British sources said the raiders failed to hit any objectives.

The Italian steamer Flaminio struck a mine off the English coast where more than ten ships, including five neutrals, have gone down in the past few days. The German freighter, the Flaminio, was sunk off the coast of Iceland. These new casualties were added to the list of 15 which mines and submarines have destroyed since last Thursday, causing a quick increase in shipping which spurred Britain to retaliatory measures against Germany.

Prime Minister Chamberlain announced a blockade of all German exports designed to choke the Reich's trade. Berlin declared the measure was certain to bring counter-retaliation from Germany.

Unsubstantiated light was thrown on the counter-plot between secret agents by a German announcement of the seizure of two British secret operatives, and the arrest of a Munich man for the Nov. 8 bomb attempt on Hitler's life. The announcement said George Eiler had confessed to setting the explosives that killed eight men after Hitler's capture. The British said Eiler was linked specifically in the assassination plot, and was accused of organizing attempts to overthrow the Nazi regime.

The war remained quiet on the Western Front. Repercussions on the British blockade measure began early. Belgium had a "serious view" pointing out the stopping of neutral ships would raise Belgium's shipping rates and living costs. The Netherlands ship owners, on the advice of their government, recalled all sailings from Dutch ports.

Counterfeit Notes Being Circulated Despite Warnings

Another warning to citizens of this district to be on the alert for counterfeit $10 and $5 dollar bills has been issued by Postmaster R. J. Holly, who said today that at least six of the notes had been passed in Sanford. District residents were warned at least three weeks ago that the counterfeit notes were being circulated in this area. James H. Holly, District Director, said in a letter that he had received a report from a citizen that a counterfeit $10 bill had been passed in Sanford. Holly said he had received a report from a citizen that a counterfeit $5 bill had been passed in Sanford. Mayor Addresses Members Of Local Junior Chamber

Higgins Urges Jaycees To Push Drive For Trading At Home

Mayor Edward Higgins spoke to members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night at the Mayfair Hotel on the "Trade-At-Home" campaign in which he urged the city's business community to support local concerns.

Pointing out that one reason Sanford had failed to progress as had other cities in Central Florida was because of the failure of local people to trade with local concerns, Mayor Higgins urged members of the Junior Chamber to do all in their power to encourage local people to do their buying in Sanford.

He added that upwards of $500,000 is spent by local people in other nearby cities each year. If this money could be kept at home, he declared, Sanford would benefit immensely.

Following Mayor Higgins' speech, the Junior Chamber passed a resolution commending the "Trade-At-Home" campaign.

The dance committee under the chairmanship of Richard Deas reported that the sixth annual dance would be held at the Mayfair Hotel on Dec. 14 with music to be provided by Eddie King and his orchestra.

Harold Powers reported on the St. Augustine conference of the state organization which was held on Nov. 11-12.

It was reported that the Hollywood carnival and Air Circus will appear at the local airport on Sunday, Dec. 3 under the sponsorship of the local Jaycees organization.

Glass Calls For Repeal Of Law On Neutrality

Senator Declares Act Is Disgrace To Government Of U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Senator Carter Glass said yesterday that the new neutrality law is a disgrace to the government and should be repealed.

The Virginia Democrat, granting an interview at his Washington apartment, declared that no neutrality legislation was necessary because, in the absence of a statute, the executive branch would direct foreign policy within the framework of international law.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Congress repeals the act," Glass declared, "I certainly ought to be. The United States is saying, 'Please Mr. Hitler, where do you want our ships to go and where shouldn't they go?'"

The 81-year-old senator, here for a visit to his dentist, said he believed the people and the Congress would be convinced of the impracticability of the act after they had observed its operation fully.

Glass declared he saw no chance of American participation in the European war "unless Germany sinks out ships in contravention of international law."

The recently-proposed transfer of American ships to Panamanian registry "would have been a disgraceful evasion of the neutrality act," Glass asserted.

Discussing other issues, he said in response to questions that expenses of the army "are high enough now" but that "we ought to have a navy that can't be licked."

Handbill Law Is Ruled On By High Court

Tribunal Holds Unconstitutional Ordinances Stopping Street Distribution

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The Supreme Court today held that a municipal ordinance requiring "censorship through license" which makes impossible the free and unhindered distribution of pamphlets strikes at the very heart of the Constitutional guarantees.

The assertion was made by Justice Roberts in an opinion holding unconstitutional three municipal ordinances prohibiting the distribution of handbills on streets and a fourth ordinance prohibiting the canvassing of homes for the sale of booklets without a permit from the chief of police.

The canvassing ordinance was applied by Irvington, N. J., others by Milwaukee, Los Angeles and Worcester, Mass.

The Post Office will not send out mail on either city or rural routes but special delivery and perishable matter will be delivered as usual. All windows will be closed the entire day. Collection from designated street letter boxes will be made between the hours of 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock and mail will be dispatched from the office the same day.

At 8:00 o'clock, refreshments will be served at the meeting. Arrangements are now being made for the collection and repaying of eggs for the Elk's Christmas Tree which has been an annual activity of the lodge for the past 18 years.

Officials pointed out that the NVA under the direction of Ralph Goodspeed will again cooperate this year in the work of repairing the tye. All old tye will be accepted for this purpose and may be deposited at the Elk's Club or at 800 Oak Avenue or they will be collected upon a telephone call to any officer of the lodge.

Plans are also well under way for the annual County fair and celery display sponsored by the local lodge Feb. 12-17.

Export Plan May Prevent Nazi Imports

British Would Examine Cargoes To See If They Were "Unobjectionable"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Britain's plan to expedite American exports to neutral countries may aid her in checking the flow of American goods to Germany.

An arrangement announced yesterday by the British Embassy provides for the issuance of certificates to exporters showing that their goods are "unobjectionable" to the British.

The certificates, called "navicerts," will be issued by the British consulates beginning Dec. 1.

The system amounts to pre-examination of cargo and is designed to prevent delays when British contraband patrol search vessels.

One authority predicted the British authority will keep up-to-minute compilation of goods covered by the navicerts. If American shipments to neutrals increase substantially above the normal, the British might assume that the neutrals were permitting trans-shipment to Germany, and might decline to certify further shipments.

Although the program is voluntary, exporters generally were expected to accept it as a sort of insurance against stoppage by the neutrals.

Shippers previously complained that neutrals were detaining vessels for unreasonable long periods.

"Trade-At-Home" Drive Develops

NEW MINE FIELDS PREY ON SHIPPING

This is the newly mined area east of Britain in the North Sea where the latest blows in the war at sea have been struck.

The Kiwanis Club had a varied program today at their regular weekly luncheon at the Valley Hotel which included talks by Mayor Edward Higgins, Prof. R. E. Kipp, and Prof. Frank A. Petric of Orlando.

Mayor Higgins told members of the club that Sanford needed their cooperation in pushing the "Trade-At-Home" campaign.

He pointed out that many thousands of dollars are spent in Sanford every year that should be spent at home.

One of the most important things in getting local people to trade at home, he said, was for merchants here to stock most of the goods which people might buy in other cities.

Professor Petric spoke on "Democracy and Education" and pointed out that the only way democracy can be successful is through the education of the people.

He said no government can be great by giving opportunities and privileges to only a few.

Commission Adopts Resolution That City Supplies Be Bought At Home

Campaign Receives Jaycee Approval

Mayor Hopes To See Tangible Results In Next Few Days

Support for the "Trade At Home" campaign inaugurated yesterday by Mayor Edward Higgins developed rapidly during the past 24 hours with the adoption of a resolution by the entire City Commission providing for the purchase of all city supplies from local business houses, and with the "whole-hearted endorsement" of the campaign by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in regular meeting last night.

In a statement to the press this morning, the Mayor stated that he hoped to see tangible results in the improvement of local trade within a few days.

Last night he addressed the Jaycees on the various points in his program and today he talked to the Kiwanis Club.

Local employees will be asked to include slips in pay envelopes advocating the trade at home campaign, the Mayor stated.

The resolution as adopted by the City Commission is as follows: "WHEREAS the City Commission of the City of Sanford, Florida, realizes the importance of keeping retail buying by its citizens in Sanford, Florida, and pledges its cooperation in the campaign of the Mayor to 'Keep Sanford Dollars in Sanford.'"

Resolved, that the City Commission of the City of Sanford, Florida, that in as far as it is possible, it will purchase all supplies necessary incident to the operation of the City business from or through Sanford Merchants, and it will also use its influence with City employees to spend their wages in Sanford with the Sanford Merchants, thus keeping Sanford Dollars in Sanford.

Resolved, that this Resolution shall become effective immediately upon its passage and adoption.

The Jaycees also expressed their support of the campaign in the following resolution: "WHEREAS, the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce realizes that a disproportionate amount of Sanford trade is being thrust upon out-of-town merchants, and WHEREAS, this buying away from Sanford is so detrimental to the growth and well being of Sanford as to stifle its very breath of existence,

Resolved, that the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce wholeheartedly does and diligently supports the BUY AT HOME program being sponsored by the citizens of Sanford, Florida, and

Resolved, that they devote the entire force of their organization to influence all others with whom they come in contact to BUY AT HOME.

The liquid eyes of moony gold
The crescent beak, the supple hand
The sleek talons strong to hold Are stricken now; the hawk lies dead
Tonight under the glowering sky
Furnished and cold, the hawk-lings die
Now he is dead, the heart inquires:
Is song enough, or gentleness?
His lived in air, knew fierce desires
And soared in sunlight, fetterless
The heart that looks on death Grows kind;
Earth's dual temper is madd-ing plain,
Else how would pity come to mind,
The slayer grieve above the slain?

PEACE AGAINST THE DARKNESS

(From Spirit)
Standing on the rim of the world
We beat hollow drums in our breasts,
We shout into caverns a challenge of God.
Nimble are we in the centuries
To utter our skin, our tongue
And our shining, but never
The bloody oblation as Abraham's also remembered.
Peace, peace, we cry, till our voice is shrilled to paean, but may men wrangle by moon light and river.
Knowledge we gather as a conquering host, and pile the loot of the years in bins of silk and marble, but wisdom we cannot beguile.

Trade At Home

It is nothing new to local business men that one of the biggest deterrents to Sanford's progress has been the practice of trading out of town which has long been indulged in to a greater or less degree by practically all of our citizens. It is impossible to build a city if every citizen is going to spend the money he makes at home somewhere else.

For this reason every merchant and every other citizen who has Sanford's welfare at heart will welcome the drive which has just been inaugurated by Mayor Higgins to encourage our people to trade at home and to show them the harmful economic effects upon themselves, their friends and neighbors, of continually trading out of town.

It should be said in the beginning, we suppose, that this is entirely an appeal to reason and civic loyalty. No laws will be passed to compel people to trade here. No force will be used. No boycotts will be set up against those who don't. But every possible effort will be made to convince the people that it is to their own interest to trade at local stores and to appeal to their civic pride in helping to boost their home town.

The story was told in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post of how the people of Fort Worth, Tex. met a similar problem when they sought to induce their citizens to stop trading in nearby Dallas. The mayor recounted that every time he had to go to Dallas on business, he took a couple of ham sandwiches with him so that, he wouldn't have to buy anything.

Now when the people of Sanford reach the point where, when they have to go to Orlando, or Jacksonville, or other Florida cities, on business, or for any other reason, they take their own lunch with them, we will be getting somewhere, and you may be sure that this sort of civic loyalty will be reflected in the greater growth of our city and a higher degree of prosperity for all.

Nor is the tendency to trade in neighboring cities the only "trading out of town" evil with which our local merchants are confronted. The mail order catalogs, which in some houses are more conspicuous than the Bible, are just as bad and perhaps, with certain classes of people, especially among those who cannot afford automobiles, the cumulative effect is worse.

After conferring with the local banks, merchants and other business men, the Mayor has estimated that at least $500,000 a year is spent out of town. This is enough, he adds, to support five additional department stores. Or putting it another way, it is enough to enable the department stores which we already have to improve the quality and variety of their stocks, to make other improvements to their stores, to pay higher wages to their employees, and thus to benefit everyone.

The Herald pledges its wholehearted co-operation to the Mayor's campaign and hopes every citizen in Sanford will do the same.

Truck Drivers

Commenting on the rather billous statement of our Secretary of the Interior, Harold Ickes, that he would like to drive an armored tank down the middle of the highway and run every truck he could find off the road, the Bradenton Herald sees the truck nuisance as more of a problem for the various state legislatures than of any individual drivers.

"Take our own state law," the Bradenton paper says.
"An act of the Legislature allows trucks and buses an extreme width of eight feet. Yet there are miles of our trunk line highways paved only fifteen feet wide, and many more miles paved sixteen feet. Some bridges—so-called two-way—are of sixteen-foot width as to roadway. The legislators blantly pass acts and governors sign them, without consulting with the road authorities, who could guide them right."

"Just imagine what would happen with a truck and a bus each eight feet wide, meeting on a fifteen-foot pavement and neither driver willing to get partly off the pavement. Yet that is a situation which vehicle drivers face many times a day on certain main-line highways in this and other states."

Celery Feds Are Primed To Tackle New Smyrna Team

Russell McCracken Brings Big Squad To City Tomorrow

The Celery Feds of Seminole High School went through their last practice this afternoon for their game tomorrow with New Smyrna. The game starts at the usual time of 8:00 P. M.

The squad has appeared to have more spirit this week than any time since the season began, the victory over St. Augustine apparently having done a great deal toward reviving the lagging spirit of the team.

One factor that will work against the Seminole gridder is the loss of three regulars from practice this week due to their having been called to National Guard camp last Sunday. The three are Robert Stansland, Jimmy Renaud, and Charlie Leavitt.

Captain Leonard L. McCracken said he would have to send to Key Stone Heights tomorrow afternoon to get the boys and then would have to send them back after the game or early Friday morning.

Out of the game with St. Augustine last Friday were Danny Altman and Dub Epps and Jimmy Renaud. All three will be ready to go tomorrow, McCracken said.

The Seminole coach refused to predict victory over the New Smyrna eleven of Russell McCracken, former assistant to McCracken for two years, but said he thought to put up one of the best games of the year.

Live Oak Team To Meet Big Ten Foe In Gainesville

For the second week in succession, the powerful Swannose High Bulldogs, the only undefeated and untied team in the Northeast Conference, will face a non-loop foe Friday night at Live Oak, meeting the Mallets Thanksgiving Day at Live Oak.

The only other conference foe left on the schedule of Coach C. L. Duncan's high-geared Swannose eleven is Klerinus High of St. Augustine. The Bulldogs will play the Mallets Thanksgiving Day at Live Oak.

Swannose will be a top-heavy favorite to defeat the Ancient City boys and cap their first Northeast Conference crown with a record of six wins and no defeats.

The Swannose-St. Paul's tilt, postponed October 27 and tentatively set for Tuesday night, December 5, has been cancelled.

Three intra-conference games are slated for Friday night, New Smyrna Beach invading Sanford, Leon of Tallahassee visiting Daytona Beach, and Deland journeying to Leesburg.

The New Smyrna Beach eleven unbeaten in three conference tilts but tied by Leesburg, is being coached this season by Mac McCracken, who was an assistant mentor last year at Sanford.

Other games this week involving conference teams pit Ocala against Andrew Jackson at Micanopy, Klerinus against the Stars D. and B. School in an all-St. Augustine struggle, Palatka against Starke at Palatka, and Lake City against Cross City at Lake City.

St. Paul's and Esquia have open dates, the game scheduled between St. Paul's and St. Joseph's Academy of St. Augustine having been postponed indefinitely.

Standings of teams in conference competition with total points for and against for all games:

Team	W	L	PP	PA
Live Oak	6	0	100	0
New Smyrna	6	0	95	0
Ocala	5	0	85	0
Esquia	4	0	75	0

Vegetable Laxative Has Happy Friends

Thousands swear by this way to get relief when they're lousy inside and it has them headachy, bilious, irritable, upset: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight, a drink of water—there you are! Then this all-vegetable laxative usually allows plenty of time for sleep, acts thoroughly and gently, and relieves constipation's headaches, biliousness, irritability, and breath. BLACK-DRAUGHT's main ingredient is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" which helps tone the intestinal muscles. Millions of packages used prove its merit. Economical—25 to 40 doses, 25c.

Maybe Dale Alexander will wish he had stayed in Sanford this winter to do his hunting instead of tramping around the hills of Tennessee in search for game. At least he might wish he had when he hears of the good luck of Mayo Langston. Monday the hard hitting rightfielder of the Lookouts went hunting for deer—and came back with a 10-point buck. Mayo said it was the first time he had ever hunted deer much less shot at one. He was walking through the woods in western Seminole County with a companion when he saw the deer just in sight behind a clump of palmetto. About the same time the big buck, which Mayo said weighed about 160 pounds, saw him and made a leap into the air. At the same instant Langston threw his new shotgun to his shoulder and fired. The buck leaped high into the air and turned a somersault and caught a second blast from the gun. "That got him," Mayo said. "We looked at him and then I saw where the first shot had hit him. It was high in the back and had got him in the backbones. That crippled him or paralyzed him on the first shot that's why he didn't do much running."

"What did it feel like to shoot your first buck?" we asked him. "Well," he said, "there we were walking through the woods and all of a sudden there this big buck was standing not more than two hundred feet from us. I wouldn't have felt any different if I'd seen a lion. I'd never seen anything that large out in the woods before."

Well, it must be fun to get a deer any time but it must be far more exciting to get your first buck and a 10-point at that. (Mayo, don't forget those venison steaks.)

Buy-At-Home Policy Gets Further Okey

Chamber Of Commerce, Lions Club Give Full Endorsement To Buying Campaign

Campbell Urges Local Support

Move Is Accorded Enthusiastic Reception By Citizens

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club have gone on record as favoring the "buy-at-home" campaign as outlined in Mayor Edward Higgins' proclamation Monday which pointed out that thousands of dollars are spent outside of Sanford every year that should be spent with local merchants.

The Chamber of Commerce wholeheartedly endorsed the move and explained that it was rendering every assistance in carrying out this important project. Mayor Edward Higgins addressed members of the Lions Club last night and requested that the club give the greatest possible co-operation in making the campaign a success.

The club adopted a resolution commending Mayor Higgins, endorsing the campaign, and pledging its co-operation. F. T. Campbell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in commenting on the importance of patronizing local business houses, declared this morning: "A rolling dollar will never roll out of town. It is started out of town, it is made up far away on its journey to some other city where it will be anchored. Spending a town requires money to be spent in that town. When merchandise is purchased from out of town dealers, we all know that these merchants will not help pave our streets or contribute toward making the town a better place in which to live.

Their profits create more employment and benefit for themselves—they are not interested in our welfare. When money is spent here, we are investing it, and the investment will make Sanford and Seminole County a better place in which to live. Mayor Higgins pointed out to the Lions Club that nearly $500,000 worth of business is taken from Sanford each year because of the tendency of local people to go to other cities to purchase things they might get here if they tried.

In urging the local people to support the move, Mayor Higgins told local merchants they should look up on most of the things people might go to other cities for and that the goods should be retailed at approximately the same price as in other cities. Practically every civic club and organization as well as other groups have endorsed the Mayor's plan for aiding business conditions in Sanford in an effort to increase the prosperity and stimulate the growth of this city.

Sanford Works As President Observes Early Thanksgiving

Turkeys had little to fear in Sanford and the rest of the state today as Florida and 26 other states decided to observe Thanksgiving on the traditional last Thursday in November which is next week.

Main indication that Thanksgiving is being observed today by part of the country was flying American flags along the streets of the city, closed doors of the Post Office, and both of Sanford's two banks. Otherwise there was little to indicate that this was "Turkey Day."

In the nation-wide division over the Thanksgiving question, there are three neutrals, Colorado, Mississippi and Texas. Their holiday schedule constitutes a double threat to the descendants of the wild turkeys which escaped the hands of the "Pilgrims" fathers. They will have Thanksgiving on both dates.

British Admiralty Announces That "Wild" Mine Sunk Destroyer Gipsy

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Admiralty announced last night that a "wild" mine had sunk the British Destroyer Gipsy, seventh of the British fleet, on the coast of the English east coast with possible loss of about 40 lives.

The 1,235-ton Gipsy went down about 9:30 P. M. Tuesday in the North Sea region that has become a graveyard for British and neutral shipping because of Germany's alleged indiscriminate sowing of mines in violation of international law.

The Admiralty's announcement said the Gipsy struck a mine "and subsequently was beached" but eye-witness accounts said that immediately after the explosion the vessel settled on the shallow sea-bottom within plain view of the shore.

Half Nation Eats Turkey For Dinner

Roosevelt, Expresses Hope World Will Soon Be At Peace; Is At Warm Springs

Thanksgiving families in 25 states sat down today at the "first table" of the nation's dual Thanksgiving, joining in President Roosevelt's expressed hope that the world soon will be at peace.

The "second table" will not be served until next Thursday in states whose governors declined to follow the President's decision to advance the holiday a week.

Despite confusion over the date, there was unanimity in pulpit and in household but most in Mr. Roosevelt's proclamation: "Let us give thanks to the Ruler of the universe x x x for the hope that lives within us of the coming of a day when peace and the productive activities of peace shall rule on every continent."

President and Mrs. Roosevelt led the celebrants. Mr. Roosevelt will carve a big turkey tonight at the Warm Springs, Ga., infantile paralysis foundation.

Residents of Plymouth, Mass., where the first Thanksgiving was held, will celebrate next week along with the whole of New England. Closed banks and post-offices were the chief evidence of Florida's observance of the President's Thanksgiving date, in some counties and cities all public offices were closed but most will wait until next Thursday, the day proclaimed by Governor Cone.

Fritz Kuhn Admits Lying To Shield Florence Camp

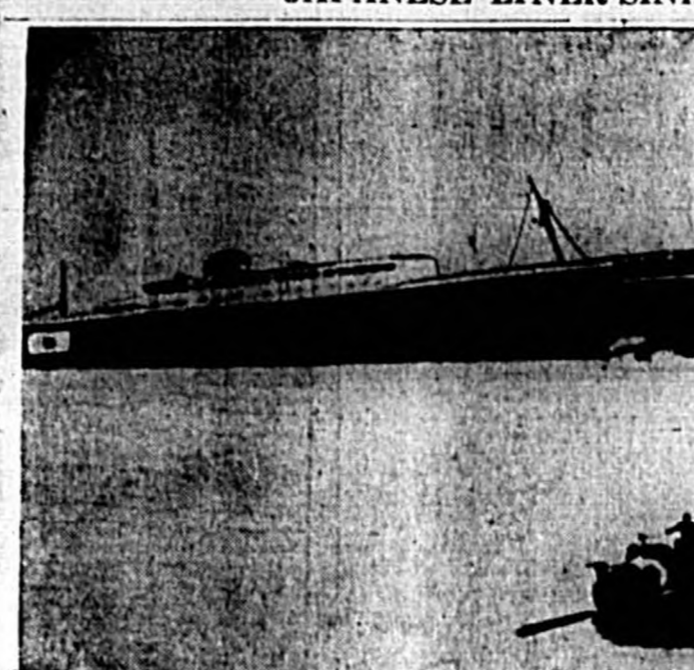

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Fritz Kuhn admitted yesterday he had lied to shield a woman he once called his "Golden Angel" and then said a gruffly clear that his affection for her had changed quickly under the day-long embarrassment of hearing his awkwardly indited love letters read out to a grinning courtroom.

For he realized, as well as the next man, that those letters obviously had come into the prosecution's hands from the "Angel" herself—Mrs. Florence Camp, a divorcee.

For hours the stout bandaged fugitive who is on trial on grand larceny charges in the alleged theft of money from his German-American luncheon restaurant in 1934, the witness stand while his most private expressions to Mrs. Camp—those of a married man—were being made public, angrily protesting that his relationship with her was "very, very friendly" and nothing more. Kuhn's shy little wife was not in the courtroom.

At last, near the end of the day, he made a double reiteration. In 1934, he said, Judge Wallace, "did you tell Mrs. Camp that you had divorced your wife in 1931?" "Yes," said the unhappy husband. "Were you lying this morning when you said that you never divorced your wife?" "Yes," said Kuhn. "That's right."

Local Delegates To Canal Hearing Leave Saturday

Bagwell And Williams To Present Case In Favor Of Project

Ralph Bagwell and Fred T. Williams will leave Saturday for Washington where a hearing before the board of army engineers on behalf of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal is scheduled for Monday.

Included in the party will be John W. Campbell of Palatka, George Giles, Arthur N. Keller, Howard Helms, George T. Blume, and Col. Gilbert A. Youngberg of Jacksonville.

The hearing is scheduled for 9:00 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Bagwell said advice reaching Sanford indicated that Senators Claude Pepper and Charles O. Andrews and Congressman Joe Hendricks will be present.

The proposed canal will connect the upper St. Johns basin with the Indian River near Titusville. Supporters of the canal have pointed out that it will serve for flood control, navigation, connecting the St. Johns River with the East Coast Canal and will aid in mosquito control of that section of the state.

The project for the canal was submitted to the district board of engineers and passed but was turned down by the division board of army engineers. The hearing before the board of army engineers results from an appeal for a re-study of the proposed canal.

The government is now conducting a survey for the construction of a large harbor at Canaveral which will cost approximately $7,000,000. The harbor at Canaveral is near where the proposed canal connecting the St. Johns River and the Indian River would be located.

Mr. Bagwell, who is going to Washington as secretary of the St. Johns River Improvement Association, said that members of the organization felt confident of favorable action on the part of the army engineering board.

Locke Is Indicted For Stealing Tree At Big Tree Park

Denmark Montgomery Charged With Fatal Shooting Of Woman

Elly Locke was indicted yesterday by the Seminole County Grand Jury for the alleged theft of a large cypress tree from the Big Tree Park at Longwood. The indictment charged him with "stealing from the land of another" and taking and carrying away of the same.

A grand jury indictment was returned against Sheriff C. M. Bond arrested Locke several weeks ago when it was discovered that the cypress had been removed.

The Big Tree Park is already one of Seminole County's greatest attractions and is expected to be more so when a $30,000 WPA improvement project is completed. The project includes a fine new road to the Big Tree.

An indictment charging murder was brought against Denmark Montgomery for the fatal shooting of Hattie Whitaker. An indictment was also brought against Jesse Freeman for the alleged fatal stabbing of Elijah Seymour. A grand jury indictment against William Tyson and J. W. McAlhally, an action for damages as a result of an automobile accident, awarded the plaintiff $724.75.

Pepper Predicts Neutrality Law Will Save U. S.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Senator Claude Pepper predicted last night that neutrality legislation enacted by the last session of Congress definitely will keep the United States out of the European war, which he believed would be a long one.

Pepper, who returned to his home here for the Thanksgiving holidays, described the European war as a "conflict for mastery of Europe and for mastery of billions of people."

"Two groups are in deadly conflict that won't be terminated until one side wins," he said. "I think that we had a new policy for the nation through the cash and carry legislation," he pointed out, "but I believe it will be a lasting one, in spite of the fact that we have probably alienated, voluntarily although temporarily, the rights that we've always insisted upon—the rights of our ships to sail the high seas at any time and to any place."

Pepper predicted that the next session of Congress would consider primarily promotion of national defense plans. Secondary but concentrated attention, he said, would be given socialized medicine and unemployment problems.

Florida, due to restricted foreign travel, will have a banner tourist season this winter, he believed.

Losses At Sea Off East Coast Of Britain Mount With Further Sinkings

Air Raiders Are Unusually Active

Germans Taunt English Over Deception In Radio Trick

Great Britain learned today from the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir John Simon, that the war is costing her $23,580,000 a day while maritime losses, particularly off the mine-strewn east coast continue to mount.

Newest naval casualty was the British destroyer Gipsy which struck a mine and was beached. Forty men were listed as missing. A Greek freighter was also added to the toll of more than 18 ships which have gone down near Britain in the past week as a result of mines or submarine torpedoes.

Sir John Simon mentioned "magnetic mines," which he attributed to Germany, as the cause of the sudden heavy maritime losses to the Allies and neutrals in Germany's past week at the British intelligence service declaring German secret police in radio contact with British agents had fooled them into believing they were anti-Nazi revolutionaries.

Adolf Hitler conferred with his war chiefs at the annual reception for the Reich's air, sea and land fighting services. A German communique declared four German planes were downed on the Western Front where land fighting remained at a minimum. A French communique reported six German planes were shot down in fighting yesterday. A seventh was shot down today near Fimenechte after a lone raider had been driven off from Paris early this morning.

Repression of war was the reservation of the Rumanian government headed by Premier Constantine Argentoanu after a cabinet split over trade negotiations with Germany. A German Rumanian negotiations broke down when the Bucharest government held out against German pressure for more foodstuffs and oil from Rumania at lower prices.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Victories in sea in which two German submarines were sent to the bottom by one French torpedo boat with in three days were announced last night by the French. The same communique declared that the day on the Western Front is marked by both French and German activity.

Naval aircraft, said the French version of the victories against undersea craft, located one of the enemy submarines and then the torpedo boat attacked it successfully and sank it. No details were given of the second sinking, except that it was within three days and by the same torpedo boat.

While the French increased their war activities at sea and in the air, Premier Daladier made it known that an inner cabinet had been formed to press war on the economic front against Germany in cooperation with Great Britain. The inner cabinet, including the Ministers of Finance, Merchant Marine and Blackboards, comprise the task of getting foreign exchange in order to make purchases abroad and at the same time disconcert similar German efforts. The terse morning communique of the French high command said nothing important occurred on the front during the night. (AT Berlin a dispatch by DNB, official German news agency, said German artillery had thrown back enemy infantry advancing on the Western Front north of Gindorf and six miles south of Metz.)

Merchants Assure President Early Thanksgiving Aids

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(AP)—If an early Thanksgiving doesn't boost Christmas buying, some people here will be red as their credit cards jelly.

Retail merchants, assured President Roosevelt that it would be a good idea to have Thanksgiving moved to the first Thursday of the month, said they would be employed for an extra week, and he changed the date. Now, both government and business are watching the outcome anxiously. A 10 percent gain is hoped for.

The fact that 23 states are celebrating the new Thanksgiving and 23 the old, while three are observing both, will give a boost for competing the longer shopping season with the shorter.

Other bases of comparison may be nebulous. The new Thanksgiving, after all, is only a day earlier than last year's date, and a department of commerce statistician said yesterday the average difference of three days in the date previously had caused little change in trade.

On the other hand, Dr. David R. Craig, president of the American Retail Federation, said, "We have noticed that Christmas business was better when Thanksgiving came earlier."

However, he acknowledged that the new holiday comes at a time when the market is rising anyway, and that it might be difficult to distinguish the normal business rise from any Christmas asper.

With that in mind, the National Retail Dry Goods association is planning to allow for such factors in its calculations of the effect of an earlier Thanksgiving, which was proposed by its general manager, Lew Hahn, in August, before the rise started.

The current building program of the United States navy includes eight battleships.
